GERMAN DRIVE ON WEST FRONT IS SCHEDULED FOR MARCH

RUSSIA TO GIVE POSITIVE GAINS

Refusal to Sign Peace Treaty Puts Germany in Dilemma.

LITTLE FOOD IN EAST Prisoners of War Released Will Be Unfit for Military Service.

Washington, Feb. 12.—With the opening of the great campaign in 1918 on the western front, apparently within sight, military men here examined today with profound interest the situation created by the signing of a peace pact between the central powers and the new Ukrainian republic and the decision of the Bolshevik Russian Government to stop fighting and demobilize the army.

Food Resources Doubtful. There is doubt here also as to the extent which the food resources of the Ukraine or Russia can be brought to the aid of the German people in the near future.

Must Keep Men in East. Demobilization of the Russian army will mean that on the frontiers German-Bulgarian forces on the frontiers can be wholly withdrawn. There will be a constant threat of renewed hostilities, and the Teutonic power will have an ample force is always at hand.

Should Germany and Austria resolve to refuse to recognize the Bolshevik decree as terminating the war, without the confirmation of that action by a treaty in the usual form, their armies would be in the position of killing an unresisting and unarmed people, a proceeding regarded here as certain to cause trouble for the Teutonic governments with their people at home.

THOUSAND FORD TRACTORS BOUGHT BY GOVERNMENT

Option Secured on Another Thousand, Which Will Be Sold to Canadian Farmers for Cash at Cost Plus the Freight.

Ottawa, Feb. 12.—The government has purchased a thousand Ford tractors for the British Government at cost. They will be sold to Canadian farmers also at cost plus freight. Details of freight costs have not yet been worked out, but it is estimated that the average cost to the farmer, including freight, will be about eight hundred dollars.

ADVERTISING CHANGES DEFICIT TO SURPLUS

Speaking at the eighteenth annual convention of the Ontario Association of Fairs and Exhibitions held yesterday in Foresters Hall, W. J. Bushell, managing director of the Kingston Fair, said that before that fair started advertising there was an annual deficit. Four or five years ago they had started advertising, and in 1917 their appropriation for this purpose amounted to $360.

SIMPLY TO TAKE OVER RAYNOR ROAD THAN DEMONSTRATION

But Radial Union Refuses to Ask for C.P.R. Purchase.

HYDRO KNIGHT SPEAKS Promises Further Reduction in Power Rates to Large Consumers.

Nationalization of the Grand Trunk Railway was the theme of the chief resolution passed at the annual meeting of the Ontario Hydro Radial Union, held in the city last night.

The Grand Trunk Railway will be compelled to carry out its agreement with the government, and that the government will not take over the Grand Trunk Railway.

Mayor Burgoyne, second of the resolution, added that he had no reason to object to the amendment.

The labor organizations proposed taking over the C.P.R. twenty-five years ago, and they were regarded as anarchists," said R. J. Stephenson.

Finally on the advice of Sir Adam Beck the contentious clause was withdrawn again, many delegates objected.

Sir Adam in his address advised against the nationalization of the C.P.R. unless the owners of that line would consent to sell out at a fair price.

He also stated that a process of deriving energy by using the hydro power will be able to supply all electrical energy required.

Sir Adam Beck and Nationalizing the Canadian Pacific

Sir Adam Beck came before the meeting yesterday of the municipalities interested in the Hydro-Electric and Hydro-Radial Commissions and spoke on the question of the nationalization of the railways of Canada by the Canadian Parliament. If The World can judge, the great majority of the delegates were for the nationalization of the Canadian Pacific as well as the Grand Trunk and the Canadian Northern. But in defence of his speech at London last Friday night on this question and to the executive apparently wanting to go the same way, any reference to the Canadian Pacific was left out of the resolutions. The clause that was in the first resolution as passed at London, dealing with the Canadian Pacific, proposed that if that road be taken over its organization, in some way, be kept intact. Sir Adam declared yesterday that if they wanted to take over the C. P. R. they might amend the resolution. But as far as the general tenor of his speech was, it is not to declare as to that road at present. And yet the meeting would have voted almost unanimously to include the C. P. R. for the very reasons that the Hydro-Electric champions have given for their faith in season and out of season. Sir Adam declared that public ownership should be monopolies; but for the time being in the case of the C. P. R., well, don't tackle too much at once.

The Fuel Problem.

It is said that the last of the headless days in the United States is over. The public will rejoice to hear it; the patient, long-suffering and obliging public that permits all sorts of mistaken policies to be adopted and carried out and then submits to all kinds of remedies to repair the evil. There never was any need of a coal famine. There never is any need for any of the blunders that mar our social system. They are the boasted triumphs of private ownership, control and operation of affairs that ought to be public utilities. There is nothing that should more rightly be in the hands of the people than the supply of fuel in an icebelt. It has been in private hands, however, for generations. The glory and credit of private ownership is continually being enlarged upon. Let the private owners take the glory and credit of the coal situation and make much of it. If any public enterprise had ever fallen down as the private ownership of railways and coal has fallen down in supplying fuel, public ownership would be damned forever.

We are told in excuse that the roads have carried more coal than ever this year, but that it was not properly distributed, and some people got too much while others got none; as if one fault could excuse another.

Now, in spite of the experience of two winters, we are warned that next season will be worse than this. Prudent people are moving to the banana belt, and devout people are praying for a change in the isothermal lines.

The King's Speech.

In the immediate reassembling of the British Parliament there is the best evidence of the importance attached by the government and people of the country to impending events. The recent statements of the Kaiser and of Count Czernin and Count von Hertling prove that they are still full of the militaristic and grasping ambitions which led them to start the war four years ago. Until this gall of inquiry is purged out of them there can be no peace, and it will be the business of the nations who oppose their autocratic aims to press the war to a democratic success. This is the view taken by President Wilson in his speech of Monday, and this is the view taken of the situation in the King's speech yesterday.

The German Government has, however, ignored our just demands that it should make restitution for the wrongs it has committed, and furnish guarantees against their unprovoked repetition. Until a recognition is offered of the only principles on which an honorable peace can be concluded it is our duty to prosecute the war with all the vigor we possess.

It might almost be supposed that President Wilson had an advance perusal of the speech, so closely do his own utterances harmonize with the speech from the throne. At any rate the entente allies and the United States, with the sole exception of Russia, are at one in the great cause in which they are leagued together.

The Safety League.

About a quarter of a million separate pieces of literature distributed in the province represent one of the tangible activities of the Ontario Safety League for the past year as summed up in the fourth annual report. A large proportion of these are permanent notices, each of which appeals to thousands of people. Much of the work is done through school children, and last June 100,000 letters to parents were issued with excellent results. The safety patrol is an excellent plan, which some of the schools have adopted; and it is hoped that all the schools in Toronto, Hamilton, London, Ottawa and smaller places will take it up. According to the size of the school from four to twelve of the older pupils are enrolled in the patrol, of whom one is chosen captain. The work is done both by precept and example in helping smaller children to cross the street and in other ways.

What weakens the resolutions as passed is that they declare for the Dominion taking over the Grand Trunk and then giving its branches back to the Ontario Hydro as a gift, we suppose, or as a dead horse; and when called on to declare on the case of the Canadian Pacific that point is sidestepped for the moment. The people of Ontario will not. The World ventures to think, appreciating being put in the position of asking for the nationalization of the Grand Trunk and a part of it be given to them; and then made to appear that they refuse to ask that the Canadian Pacific be taken over for the relief and service that an act would bring to the people of the western provinces.

The meeting yesterday, in a way, forgot that it was dealing with a great federal question, as Sir Adam said, the greatest next the war, and yet they made a provincial deliverance solely from an Ontario point of view—that the Grand Trunk in part be turned over to them. But the people of Ontario want the Canadian Pacific; so do the people of the west; but they want it for all Canada and not for a part.

Nor do we quite see that Mayor Churchill was justified in telling the meeting that the Dominion Government, thru Sir Thomas White, had declared that they were not going to take over the Canadian Pacific. The government has yet to announce its policy, and our belief is it will be to take over the Canadian Pacific. At all events, the people of Canada will wait to hear from the Prime Minister of the Dominion, rather than from the Mayor of Toronto, as to the government's policy. There was altogether too much bluff, and forward yesterday to make it look as if the Canadian Pacific was the favored child of the Canadian Parliament.

Is this item from yesterday's London Free Press the explanation of Sir Adam Beck's attitude toward the nationalization of the Canadian Pacific?

From London Free Press, Feb. 11. C. P. May Electrify Ontario System. Considerable interest has been aroused in the city by Sir Adam Beck's statement to the board of trade Friday night that within the past year the Canadian Pacific Railway Co. had applied to the Hydro-Electric Power Commission for information concerning electrification of its lines, for data as to the costs of construction and operation and for a statement as to the possibilities of obtaining electrical power from the provincial system.

GERMANS BELIEVE VICTORY HOPELESS

London, Feb. 1.—(Correspondence.)—Germany's declining faith in victory is described by "a well-to-do neutral medical man who lately left Germany after living in Augsburg during the war period." Writing from Berne to The Daily Mail, he declared that the still believing that Germany could not be beaten, the German people had long since become war-weary and had given up hopes of the so-called German peace.

"The masses," he continued, "are in an hysterical state, on minute praying for peace at any price and the next under the influence of some piece of news, some well-organized patriotic concert or cinematograph exhibition got up by the Fatherland (annexationist) party, at which they will be shouting wild applause and singing 'Deutschland, Deutschland über Alles.' The Fatherland party is justly regarded by many people as the chief obstacle to peace. In Bavaria its propaganda is increasing and is advancing unlimited funds and good business men to spend the money judiciously in cultivating the German 'will to power.' On the other hand, this junta of government officials, country squires, ironmasters, admirals and big manufacturers exercises an odious tyranny on all the people dependent on it. Woe betide the village constable, the congrege, the factory hand or agricultural laborer, or any who dares refuse his monthly gift to the Fatherland party's funds."

"As for all the fuss about democratization, I think it is mostly moonshine, manufactured for the benefit of the romantically inclined English Radicals. There is no discount simulating up and down the country, but to quiet a pound of butter a week would go further than any promise of political reform. The riots that take place in the towns from time to time are the work of women whose husbands have long been away in the field and who have got out of hand. Mobes of half-grown lads run wild and obtained by the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Radial since it had been electrified. One of the many important achievements had been the release for other purposes of one-third of all the company's rolling stock and motive power, which previously had been occupied in hauling the company's own coal.

After presenting figures to show what a saving of fuel and railway haulage would be effected in this province by the electrification of the Grand Trunk, Sir Adam declared this alone should be a determining factor, in view of Canada's dependence upon a foreign nation for a coal supply.

We believe more than ever, for the very reason that the state must supply the electricity to drive the railways, that the state, too, should own the railways. Or are we to have the hydro-electric organization take a new departure and devote its resources and its methods to extending the lives of privately-owned monopolies, especially railways, to compete with public ownership? And is the principle of co-ordination and consolidation to be set aside for a new era of competition, duplication, and a waste of resources that are limited in amount?

The World believes that when this question comes to be handled by the Union government and by parliament, it will take the side of absolute public ownership. And just to show what the western view is we reproduce the following:

Calgary, Alberta, February 8: The logic of events will force the people of Canada to nationalize all the country's railways. The addition of the Canadian Northern and Grand Trunk Pacific to the government system will not prove a satisfactory or abiding solution of the railway problem. In effect, the owners of Canadian railways are asking the government to take over almost all the unprofitable stretch of road in the Dominion, and leave them the profitable lines, together with such sections as that of the Canadian Pacific along the north shore of Lake Superior, which connects the profitable lines of the east and the west.

A settlement which places the burden of the unprofitable lines upon the shoulders of the taxpayers and leaves to private ownership the profits earned in the thickly-settled areas of the country, cannot endure. Its manifest injustice will strike deeply into the minds of the electors, and in the end force the government to settle the problem along the lines of equity. The thing that troubles the men at Ottawa who are pondering over the question of partial nationalization is the financial side. It would take a billion dollars to buy the assets of the C. P. R., say some of the objectors, and where is Canada going to find the money for a transaction so stupendous? There is no doubt that the assets of the Canadian Pacific Company, its great landed estate was bestowed upon the people of Canada for the specific purpose of aiding it over the lean years following construction. It was clearly provided in the bargain made with the Canadian Pacific Railway that the land and money grants, and the rest of the portion of the C. P. R. made upon the express condition that the capitalists who put their money into the road and pooled their resources with those of the people of Canada should be content with a return of 10 per cent upon "the capital actually expended in the construction of the railway," instead of not less than 15 per cent per annum profit, which at that time was the maximum rate permitted under the General Railway Act.

Sir Adam Beck almost led his hearers to believe yesterday that we might be confiscating the Canadian Pacific if we took it over. The western people do not think so. They are ready to pay a fair price. In the meantime the west has to be further heard from.

get into mischief, and worse than mischief.

"In Bavaria the emperor and Berlin, never popular, are now less popular than ever. Bavarians are unmoved by Wilhelm's choice of Von Hertling as chief adviser. If Von Hertling had been a Bavarian born, these things might have been some thing in it, but he is not. In Bavaria, as elsewhere, the emperor has been completely overshadowed by Hindenburg, who to the average German is the war incarnate, and what ever there is great and glorious about him is putting the emperor and the royal princes entirely in the shade. On the other hand, Hindenburg came with the war and will go with the war. In Bavaria and elsewhere the dynastic sentiment is so strong that nothing can root it out.

"I consider that, however the war ends, whether the German Empire continues to hold together officially or not afterwards, the result will be an enormous intensification of separatist feelings in the various constituent states.

"As regards the food position, I should say that it is only acute for people of small means. They are the only ones who suffer the pangs of real hunger, especially the small officials, the police, the schoolmasters, the ministers of religion, and people living on small salaries or annuities or savings.

"It is generally recognized in Germany that German prisoners of war in British hands have been well treated, and the impression is now beginning to get abroad that the treatment of British prisoners has not always been what it might."

The Woman Who Changed

BY JANE PHELPS.

What She Remembers.

CHAPTER III.

If a man forgets everything he wants to forget, a woman remembers everything. Each little word and action, every slight, as well as every caress. The sound of an old song or an old waltz tune will carry her back to the night when she first danced with the man she afterward learned to love. I like all foolish, young things to forget. I like the day he asked her to marry him, when she wore the flowers he had brought her—those flowers.

Men let old things go, even sweet old memories. Women hang on to every little happening with a tenacity as foolish as it is strong.

So I, like other women, compared the now with the time past, and in the comparison, the old seemed to be wrapped in the cloak of memory eternally to be clad in discontent. The past is gone and we have only the present. I like all foolish, young things to forget. I like the day he asked her to marry him, when she wore the flowers he had brought her—those flowers.

beginning to be a little frightened at my future—what it would bring. Then too, I was lonely. A few of my husband's bachelor friends had called; one or two women friends. But they were so much older than I was—not in years, perhaps (altogether even in that they were five or six years ahead of me), but in their knowledge of the world, of men and things of which they unobtrusively talked.

I had a lovely home, beautifully furnished. Naturally I was very proud of it. So one day when Mrs. Loring called a handsome woman, the old looking—and she expressed her admiration, I took her all over the house, showing her my linens, even the kitchen, with all the delight of a child showing a doll's house to her playmates. She must have criticized me for doing it, for a day or two afterward George said: "Was Madge Loring here the other day?" "A Mrs. Loring called, why?" "Do? Why, nothing? Just talked" it replied, then "You mean—Oh, I took her all over the house—showed her everything. She thought it was lovely."

"Well she may have thought it was lovely," but she didn't say it. I wish you would try to be a little more dignified. It isn't quite the thing to take strangers into your private sleeping rooms and into your kitchen. Please don't do it again.

"But I am so proud of our lovely home, I love to—"

"Please remember my request. Try and be more dignified."

"I'll do anything in the world to please you, George! The trouble is, I never know what is going to please you, or what will offend. Perhaps I will learn if you will be patient and love me."

"Perhaps!" he said in a doubtful tone.

Peat.

Editor World: The announcement that the great resources of Ontario is welcome news, but why go to Lake Abitibi, 350 to 450 miles from the more populous and fuel consuming parts of Ontario, adding $2 to $4 per ton to its cost, to make the initial trial, while the southern part of the province is fairly sprinkled with extensive peat bogs averaging less than 50 miles apart, whence the fuel could be largely delivered by motor truck? It looks like "taking coals to Newcastle," or advising farmers to try corduroy in Kenora, and reserve their "wood lots" for posterity. What is really required at this time is the greatest number of thermal units delivered at the homes of Ontario for the least money. When posterity arrives, we will be storing heat in thermos bottles.

BATTERY TEAM IS READY FOR FINAL

Defeat Oshawa Team in Semi-Finals of the Military League.

The 69th Battery are ready for the Military League finals. The local battery put the Oshawa battalion out of the running yesterday at the arena in the semi-finals. The final score was 7 to 0, and just about indicates the margin between the two teams.

Oshawa had no opponents during the season and yesterday's fixture was their first game. They showed lack of condition, and with more practice could be molded into a fair outfit. Cheney, Hill and Thompson are working well together and they went right in to the Oshawa net almost at will. Thompson and Hill worked some good combinations and this was responsible for most of the goals. Cheney checked well and packed a good shot. Collett, in the battery net, is a high-class net guardian. He stopped many dangerous shots yesterday.

Jock was the best for the losers. While not fast he had system to his play, and with some help would have scored a few goals. The battery lead 2 to 0 at the end of the first period, scored three goals in the second round and gathered two in the last twenty minutes of play. The 69th Battery will meet the 2nd Batt. 1st C.O.R., in the final, and the winner will enter the second round of the intermediate O.H.A. series.

Crecentis and St. Patrick's stage their last meeting of the season at the arena tonight. It will be the Irishmen's last chance to turn in a victory this season. The half-moons cannot take any chances and must win this fixture. A win for the Saints would give them the Dentalists group. The Crescent will present their strongest line-up.

University Schools and St. Michaels played twenty minutes overtime on Monday afternoon without a result. The O.H.A. have ordered this game replayed on Thursday night, and it should provide one of the sturdiest arguments of the season. St. Michaels make their last stand here, and if they can turn in a win it will mean a three-cornered tie in the prep. college group. A win for the Varsity School will give them the group honors.

Jack Adams and Rusty Crawford, the new members of the Ontario's blue-shirts had a good workout yesterday morning. They showed good form and will be used against the Senators in Ottawa tonight. A win in the capital tonight would go a long way towards winning the second series for the local club.

Lieut. H. G. Young, 130 Ulster street is among the officers who are home on furlough. He went over with the 74th Battalion in March, 1916, and was transferred to the 6th C.M.B. He was wounded on Thanksgiving Day, 1916, and passed in April, 1917. He went back again, and has now come home on two months' furlough. Lieut. Young arrived home unexpectedly. His relatives had no advice that he was returning. Lieut. Young is a well-known member of the Argonaut Hockey Club several seasons ago, and played at right wing.

OSHAWA JUNIORS DEFEATED. Oshawa, Feb. 12.—Peterboro O.H.A. juniors defeated Oshawa O.H.A. juniors here tonight by a score of 3 to 1. The game was full of excitement from start to finish, but the Oshawa boys could not catch up on the two-goal lead of the first period. The ice was very soft, but a fair crowd was in attendance. The line-up: Peterboro (8)—Goal, Murray; right defence, Girard; left defence, Hagerman; centre, Cherritt; right wing, Park; left wing, Bartley; sub, Williams. Oshawa (6)—Goal, Smith; right defence, Osborne; left defence, Williams; centre, Bowen; right wing, Vinini; left wing, Southwell; sub, Swinyard. Referee—Laflamme.

NO GAME AT PORT COLBORNE. Port Colborne, Ont., Feb. 12.—The O. H. A. game here tonight between Galt and Port Colborne has been postponed indefinitely.

FLYING CORPS MEN BOX SEMI-FINALS

Clever Milling and Some Slugging at Ex. Camp Tournament.

The semi-finals of the Royal Flying Corps boxing tournament were pulled off last night at the transportation building gymnasium, Exhibition Camp, and a good night's boxing was provided for the Flying Corps and C. E. F. men who were on hand to see the milling. The heavy rain, however, held the attendance down to about 400. The bouts were well contested, and one or two good men were discovered.

One of these is Second Air Mechanic Palmer, of the 44th Wing, Leaside, who is in the 115-lb. class. He had a bye in his class last night, but fought two exhibitions, one with Second Air Mechanic Newman of the same unit. He is a sturdy boy, is clever and can take punishment. He meets Second Air Mechanic Harling in the finals and will give him a battle. He also met Second Air Mechanic A. M. Smith of the 44th Wing, and these two mixed it up.

In the 125-lb. class Second Air Mechanic McGillivray won over Cadet Walker of No. 4 School of M. A. in the first round, sending him down for the count with a terrific right to the jaw. McGillivray is a fighter, while his opponent appeared to be more of a boxer. The 125-lb. bout between Cadet Mienheimer and Cadet Ross of No. 4 School provided more entertainment than any other bout, and honors were so even at the end of the third round that the referee, Capt. Lou Scholes, ordered another round, in which Ross triumphed.

The 155-lb. class produced some heavy-hitting battles, and the first bout between Cadet Le Blanc of No. 4 School and Second Air Mechanic DeRose of the 44th Wing was a slugging match. Le Blanc was forced to quit in the second round on account of a wrenched shoulder. Honors were even until this time. The bout was awarded to DeRose. Second Air Mechanic Morrison of the 44th Wing was too good for Cadet Fields of No. 4 School, and the bout was stopped in the second round to save Fields from further punishment. Fields is a new-comer and lacks experience, but should make a good man.

The heavy-weight bout was a slugging one, with Second Air Mechanic Bradley of the 44th Wing and Cadet Attwater of No. 4 School trying to land a K.O. They hammered away at each other, but Bradley was the more aggressive, and had the heaviest wallop, and was awarded the bout.

To wind up a good night's boxing Pta. A. Jones, the Flying Corps crack, and 44th Wing, Second Air Mechanic Newman of the 44th Wing, staged a three-round bout. Newman is a clever boy, and provided a great bout. Capt. Collis of the R. F. C. was time-keeper and Lieut. Hare, R. F. C., and Corp. A.H. Palmer were the judges. Capt. Lou Scholes officiated as referee.

CYCLONE TAYLOR STILL SPEED MARVEL

Vancouver, B.C., Feb. 12.—The verdict of the fans who saw last night's game at the arena in which the Millionaires came back at the Buds, doubled the score and won by six to three, is that Fred Taylor is a good hockey team. The hair-raiser wonder scored four of the Vancouver goals and assisted in another, and thanks to him, the Millionaires are now within a half game of the Mete again and have another chance at the league leadership. Wednesday night at Seattle, Taylor ended a game that threatened to spill and worked the assembled multitude up to quick success.

GOOD ENTRY LIKELY FOR KING'S PLATE

One Race Only Next Victoria Day and No Betting Unless the War is Over.

The King's Plate, that has been run continuously since Don Juan won it in 1850, will not have an off-year in 1918, regardless of the bill declaring for no more racing during the war.

The Ontario Jockey Club has decided to hold the fixture as usual at Woodbine Park on Friday, May 24, in conjunction with the Hunt Club Red Cross horse show on that Friday and Saturday. Eliminate the gamblers and the event should not be lacking in interest as the usual entry is assured, as according to the new rule eligibles will not be disqualified for leaving the country under certain conditions. It will be the first race with this condition and two of "Red" Walker's now at New Orleans are expected to be in the list. There are about 25 eligible colts and fillies just of the older brigade. Messrs. Seagram, Dymally and Beardmore may be counted upon to be well represented.

Then again, the war may be over, and you may be permitted to bet as usual next Victoria Day at Woodbine Park.

HOW TO PREVENT TUBERCULOSIS

Deep breathing was the subject of an address by Max Chase Keeler of West End Y.M.C.A., given before the Toronto Physical Education Society at Central Y. Tuesday morning. Mr. Keeler made the statement that one hundred deep breaths per day would ward off tuberculosis. Tuberculosis is primarily a house disease, while houses enable us to live in all climates, yet lack of ventilation in most houses and buildings is the cause of many diseases. Mr. Keeler also advised stopping out into fresh air and taking in long deep breaths, timed at about three to the minute.

The physical training period was unusually strenuous, four leaders in turn, making the class, Messrs. Keeler, Chapman, Ellis and Winterbourne. The subjects being respectively mat drill, floor exercises, free-hand drill and folk dances. The members are looking forward with interest to the next meeting, when Mr. George Goulding will address them on "Walking as a Sport."

SOCCER LEAGUES GETTING TOGETHER

The Provincial Football League met last night and selected the committee that is to confer with the T. and D. next Saturday, at 3 p.m., with a view to an amicable arrangement of the soccer fixtures next summer.

HORSE SHOW AT WOODBINE AND KING'S PLATE IN MAY

The directors of the Ontario Jockey Club have granted the use of Woodbine Park, Toronto, to the Toronto Hunt Club upon May 24 and 25, for the purpose of holding an open-air horse show, the entire proceeds arising therefrom to be devoted to the Red Cross Fund. They have further decided to permit the running of the King's Plate on May 24, according to the old custom in order that some slight encouragement may be given to breeders of thoroughbred horses in the Province of Ontario, and also that the continuity of the oldest racing fixture on the Continent of North America may not be broken. The purse, amounting to $3000, in addition to the 25 guineas donated by His Majesty, will be given by the Ontario Jockey Club that will make the disbursement without any return whatever to the club. No other horse show in question, nor will betting be in any way sanctioned or permitted upon the premises.

WINTER FODDER FOR THE FANS

McGraw has turned down another little pitcher. Even the leader of the Giants cast aside little Dick Rudolph, who finally made good with the Braves, he refused to consider a pitcher who is not big and husky enough to stand the grind. That's why the Cincinnati Reds will have Snipe Conley, a little fellow, from the Texas League, next year. Snipe is a whale, if we are to believe everything that's said of him. Last summer he pitched a no-hit-no-run game. This is nothing, but he followed up this performance by winning 21 straight games. He did all this for the Dallas Club, and yet McGraw let him slip by. Charles Mathewson is going to get him, and Big Six will be tickled blue if Snipe is able to win one straight consistently in the National League.

Bad Weiser, rookie outfielder of the Phils, is of the opinion that President Baker has not heard of the boost in the price of fancy thirst-quenchers. "That guy thinks he's going to get Bud Weiser cheaper than he did last year," chirps the rookie. Which means that his contract has been chipped and now he wants to be traded to the Browns. Talk about punishment—it looks as though Weiser will be the cake of soap.

Branch Rickey of the St. Louis Cardinals, always strong for college ball players, will take snipe with him this year. A youngster by name of Benton, who will be carefully watched. Benton used to catch George Stiller when the college marvel was pitching for the University of Michigan.

Frank Allen, Boston Braves' southpaw, is going to quit baseball to stick to the farm next year. Last year Allen won three and lost eleven games. It ought to be easy to find somebody to lose the eleven.

Alexander is willing to show Weighman how to spend part of that $250,000 bank roll. Alex wants $25,000 for wearing a Cub uniform next season.

Fred Mitchell, manager of the Chicago Cubs, is going to take a youngster who stands 6 feet 2 inches to the coast on the training trip. His name is Bill Sullivan, and he's a left-hander. Sullivan is 19 and he'll have to do in to beat out Jim Vaughn or George Tyler for a place on the staff.

TIME LIMIT SET.

Montreal, Feb. 12.—The Montreal Amateur Hockey League has given Lyalls till tonight to drop three Ottawa players. Braithwaite, O'Connor and McCulloch, who have been suspended for two weeks, refuse to play without the Ottawa men. Their franchise in the league will be transferred to another club.

K.O. BROWN NOT FIT.

Kearney, N.J., Feb. 12.—Valentine Braun, known in pugilistic circles as "Knockout Brown," has been rejected by the national army physical examiners. He was learned today, because of a defective eye. The optic was injured during a bout, Braun said.

'GOAT-GETTING' IS NOW A LOST SPORT

National League to Put Damper on Coaches Schedule is Adopted.

New York, Feb. 12.—When the club-owners of the National League ended their first session of the regular annual two-day schedule meeting here today, very little of the proceedings announced by Secretary J. A. Heydler was of more than passing interest to the followers of baseball.

The board of directors ratified President Tener's appointments of umpires, previously in the Texas League.

The directors refused to allow the Chicago Club's claim of $2500 paid as salary to injured pitcher, Victor Salter.

The schedule for 1918, the possibility of Sunday baseball being legalized in New York was not taken into consideration.

Saunters Thru The City Shops

BY MARY SLIPPER

Not so very long ago a man went to the trouble to show that women are the purchasers of the nation. By facts and figures, he proved conclusively that women buy for themselves, the children, the home, but the majority select the wearing apparel of their husbands as well.

There are some novelties for the men's ties, too, and you can depend on it these days from the United States. The design seems to be very popular, and the colors are very bright.

ADVICE TO GIRLS

By Rosalind

Rosalind gives advice to girls in both The Daily and Sunday World. Both papers therefore should be watched for her answers. Writers sometimes ask that answers be given either in the daily or Sunday paper; but so many letters are received that it is impossible to separate them.

DEAR ROSALIND: I am a girl of seventeen. I have blue eyes and brown hair, and am five feet three inches tall. I have been going with a young man some time, and I know he thinks a great deal of me, and I do of him, but lately I am finding it difficult to keep my temper, and I should stop going with him, as I am too young to keep company with one so young as he is.

There seems to be a common impression that the only proper time for planting and setting out is in the fall. In point of fact, the work may be done just as successfully in the spring.

Spring-set plants should go into the ground just as early as possible. On plants in the garden may be left until they bloom and then be divided.

There is a carrot pudding which is finer than any plum pudding. Who will send the Toronto World a recipe for this vegetable?

PRETTY HOMEMADE HANDKERCHIEF HINTS

The art, or industry, of handkerchief making long ago passed out of the home. Generally speaking, and took up its abode in the factory.

Now, however, with the popular liking for small affairs and the fancy for tiny hemmed, not hemstitched, edges, the work is much simplified, and the clever needle-woman wishes to make a friend a gift of half a dozen or so of handkerchiefs of her own manufacture.

Probably the simplest form of adornment is one single initial. To make it a trifle more elaborate a monogram would be better.

Colored decoration is popular today, and the handkerchief might have some tiny sprays of flowers, in natural colors, scattered around just above the hem.

As for the hem itself, it may be plain, or it may be fancy, for example, roll the hem just as fine as possible and go over it with cross-stitch, either in white or in colors.

When the Wings Droop.

Each spring there are more or less complaints that the wing feathers of chicks of the Mediterranean class grow so fast that the wings droop and the chick loses vitality.

But, after all, is it the rapid growth of the wing feathers which causes the chick to droop? Is it not more reasonable to believe that the body fails to develop as it should? There certainly must be something wrong in the management that produces such forlorn specimens of chickenhood.

As far as the board of education is concerned, apparently, the case of Miss Frieda Held, the Carlton School teacher who resigned Jan. 4, as the result of allegations as to her loyalty made by two of her fellow teachers, and at the time of her resignation, under investigation by a committee of the board, has been finally decided.

Much secrecy is being maintained by the board over the whole matter. They will talk about it, but for not re-opening the case, the matter was not discussed.

Under the baton of Frank S. Weisman the Toronto Symphony Orchestra, assisted by Mischa Levitzki, the Russian pianist, gave an exceptionally brilliant program at Massey Hall last night, adding to their already splendid reputation, and providing the audience with one of the most pleasing performances of the season.

The concerto in G minor by Saint-Saens for the piano and orchestra was the most exciting offering on the program, and will be remembered as having introduced to Toronto one of the most perfect artists that the city has been privileged to hear.

When Mischa Levitzki appears in Toronto again there should be no vacant seat in Massey Hall, because to miss hearing him is to miss hearing one of the most gifted of Russia's gifted musicians.

The concluding number was in keeping with Mardi Gras being the ever musical "overture" of the "Carnaval," by Dvorak, the joyous moods representing youth and its merriment, the quieter middle section of the composition and the brilliant ending making a grand and satisfying close to a well-selected and most entertaining program.

DROPS DEAD IN HOTEL.

James Hyke, 76 Wolsley street, 69 years of age, dropped dead from heart failure in the lavatory of the Royal Canadian Hotel, East Front street, yesterday afternoon.

Hyke, who was on a fruitless search for coal, took ill on the street and ran into the hotel and entered the lavatory. His body was heard to drop on the floor by an employee, who immediately called in Dr. Marling, 193 Carlton street, who pronounced the man dead. The man had been sent out by his wife to try to purchase some coal. The body was removed to the morgue, but an inquest is not likely.

Your Table and Patriotism

The country calls for its citizens who are left at home to manifest their patriotism in a real and practical way. Your table is criterion of your patriotism. Does it reflect economy? The use of more milk and hence less meats and other foodstuffs that must be sent to the boys is your patriotic duty.
