Great crowd at Massey Hall Cheer Whitney's Assurance That Polling Will Be Clean

Ontario's Premier Severely Arraigns Hostile Criticism of Attorney-General's Action in Regard to Northern Ontario.

Sir James Whitney had no rival in his oratory at Massey Hall last night, and the packed building enjoyed to the full his glib and cranks, his keen satire, his biting wit and his extraordinary power of phrasing.

He did not tell you of course that this is an absolute, pre-meditated lie," he said, speaking of the Globe's editorial statement that Hon. Mr. Foy was sending partisan officers to Algoma to intimidate voters.

The preliminary speeches were remarkably bright and admirably brief. In this respect all future political meetings should take pattern.

The band of the 48th Highlanders played before the meeting and rendered some charming vocal numbers. The audience had a large proportion of ladies, who carried small flags, and the balconies were several times.

"The awakening has come," "conserve our domain," "Bristol for Centre Toronto," "A. C. Macdonell for South Toronto."

The platform was crowded with prominent Conservatives, including besides the speakers, W. R. McNaught, M.L.A.; Hon. Dr. Fyde, Hon. Thomas Crawford, Col. Taylor, Mr. J. Foy, and Hon. A. J. Matheson.

"For this magnificent gathering as a tribute to the leaders and candidates we are deeply grateful," declared E. W. J. Owens, the chairman. In opening the meeting, "The Conservative party seems to be at its best in Massey Hall. This magnificent gathering seems to be a guarantee of five solid seats from Toronto."

A. Claude Macdonell was the first speaker, and he took the meeting as an augury of the defeat of the government in the election. The question before the country was "Shall the people rule?"

In the victory over mis-government, while Conservatives might be content to be modest about his exploits, he respects that was ever built. The fixed annual charges will be as great as Sir Wilfrid promised would be the total cost of the road, or $13,000,000 a year.

On the Firing Line. Edmund Bristol was introduced as the "fighting member" because he had to fight for his life. His reception indicated that his life was a good risk. He replied to Mr. Robinson's statement that Mr. Bristol had made no speeches in Parliament.

"See the company he's in," was a lighter-moving remark from the audience, which greeted Mr. Bristol's comment on Mr. Robinson's carelessness about facts. Mr. Bristol, while desiring to be modest about his exploits in Parliament, recalled his speech in the document debate. Mr. Bristol had met the prime minister afterwards in the lobby and Sir Wilfrid remarked that it was time the debate was ended.

"Yes, sir," replied Mr. Bristol, "you should produce the documents and end it." (Cheers). Shortly after this the documents were brought down. The Hamilton Radial Bill, the incorporation of Dominion Power Co., the legal argument against which he presented in committee, securing the rejection of the objectionable measures, and other occasions were mentioned, by Mr. Bristol, on which he spoke and was reported in Hansard. He also spoke briefly on a number of instances in which the responsibility of government election agents and administrative officers was apparent.

What about Ross? He is in the senate. What about Gresham? He was a pull-bearer for the Ross administration, and he is going to be a pull-bearer for the Laurier government. The Great Difference. E. B. Osler differed straightly and honestly with the Liberal government. It was the difference between honesty and dishonesty. "A country can recover from the most reckless extravagance and none the worse of it, but no country can be ruled dishonestly and not have a stain left upon it," declared the big financier. "What about Gresham?" Sir Wilfrid Laurier had his face so turned to heaven that he could see

CLEAN ELECTIONS. "Wherever electoral scoundrelism is found it is going to be punished, and Mr. Foy is not going to be frightened off his duty by any plug ugly editorials in The Globe." —PREMIER WHITNEY.

40 Arrests For Illegal Registering

A Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., despatch, via Detroit, Mich., says: The arrest of forty men in Blind River has caused a political sensation in Northern Ontario. It is alleged they registered themselves to vote in the coming elections.

It is claimed that hundreds of Woodmen not entitled to vote are being for clean and honest government, which he guaranteed under Hon. Mr. Borden, made a deep impression. The people of Canada desired good government; they had not got it; they believed they could get it; and they were determined to have it, he said.

NIGHT RIDER BAND KILL TWO ATTORNEYS

Tennessee Vendettas Unending— Army Officers Are the Latest Victims.

UNION CITY, Tenn., Oct. 20.—Col. R. Z. Taylor, aged 60 years, and Capt. Quinten Rankin, both prominent attorneys of Union City, were taken from Ward's Hotel, at Walnut, Tenn., fifteen miles from here, last night by masked night riders, and murdered.

"The night riders came over the same matter occurred about a year ago. Ever since then Colonel Taylor and Capt. Rankin have been in constant receipt of threatening letters, to which they paid little heed.

Mr. Ward, the manager of the Ward Hotel at Walnut, telephoned Sid Wadell, a stockholder in the West Tennessee Night Riders, that about 25 masked night riders came to his hotel at midnight last night.

The night riders then quietly took up their march from the hotel, turning down the road toward Reelfoot Lake.

Capt. Rankin was strung up from a limb on the bank of the lake, for the fishing privileges to which he had contended with the night riders. The masked men then stepped back and opened fire on the swinging body, riddling it with bullets.

Mr. Taylor was evidently alive at this time and witnessed the murder of his law partner.

According to this report, the night riders lined up outside of the hotel, and called Col. Taylor and Capt. Rankin. The two men did not suspect trouble and came out immediately, as the night riders passed into the front yard of the hotel the night riders covered them with their revolvers.

Mr. Taylor had an opportunity to retreat but he was surrounded and seized. They were put on horses behind night riders and carefully guarded.

Sometimes Firms Have Been Obstreperous— Letters Reveal System of Price-Control.

Chief Justice Falconbridge continued the hearing of the charge of conspiracy against the Dominion Wholesale Grocers' Guild in Judge Winchester's chambers yesterday because so many courts were sitting at the city hall that no other court room was available.

The features of the evidence produced yesterday were the obdurate efforts of certain wholesalers and manufacturers to balk the "octopus" to the wonder and sorrow of that august body.

When the hearing opened in the morning Mr. Blackstock started in to read the letter-book of the late W. H. Gillard for 1888, when he was president of the Ontario Wholesale Grocers' Guild.

John Garvey of London had persisted in selling tobacco at a reduced price, and he had the receipt of a red-hot letter from Mr. Gillard, informing him that he was not at liberty to do that, or on any of the other articles to which the price committee had fixed prices.

James Lumbers of Toronto was another recalcitrant. He wanted to sell sugar at a lower rate than the Guild, and refused to be converted, so H. C. Beckett, in the absence of Mr. Gillard, wrote to Mr. Lumbers, telling him that the only way Lumbers could be trusted to sell sugar to the grocers was by refusing to contribute to defraying the expenses of the new sugar arrangements had cost the Guild thousands of dollars.

Gaining confidence, no doubt, from the success of Col. Taylor, the completely written palaver with Sir Wm. Macdonald of Montreal, he of tobacco fame, Sir William instructed the Ontario Wholesale Grocers' Guild to establish uniform prices for tobacco.

Mr. Ward, the manager of the Ward Hotel at Walnut, telephoned Sid Wadell, a stockholder in the West Tennessee Night Riders, that about 25 masked night riders came to his hotel at midnight last night.

Weeks of arduous work had been put in by the Liberal party organizers, and entered my car, dragged me out, and I was instructed by the police to get into the car.

FATHER AND SON JUST ON THE PELTY

Crozier Go Down for 9 and 2 1/2 Years for Counterfeiting While Crowd in Court Shed Tears.

MILTON, Oct. 20.—(Special.)—With everyone in the crowded courtroom deeply affected, many shedding tears, Magistrate Shields this afternoon sentenced Thomas Crozier to nine years in Kingston Penitentiary and his 18-year-old son, Milton, to 2 years in the Central Prison, for the crime of counterfeiting.

"May God bless you and bring you out a better man" were the magistrate's concluding words to the young fellow. Crozier, during the address of counsel, sobbed bitterly, and when sentence was passed he exclaimed in his agony, "Good God!"

Both had pleaded guilty, the father to making and disposing of the counterfeit bank notes, the son to the making of the illegal currency. In addition Crozier prepared a confession.

Crozier, sr., was arrested at Oakville, having been detected in passing a bogus bill at the theatre on the night of the recent fall fair. Search of his home on Gerrard-street, Toronto, revealed evidences of wholesale operations, and Inspector Parkinson of the Dominion police, continuing his investigations, was able to dig up on a farm owned by Crozier, near Buffalo, Ont., plates and stencils for making money, and later, on the Crozier farm, near Milton, more plates and $7000 additional in counterfeit bills.

Well-known through Milton County, the Croziers were generally respected until the elder man's arrest on Oct. 2. And to-day, the penalized by the court, they seemingly were not disgraced in the sight of friends and acquaintances, for after sentence was passed there was a veritable crush to bid the two good-bye. It was as if a farewell to friends leaving on a long journey.

The court room was crowded to the doors, and it was not until 11 o'clock of the town were deserted during the trial, while many had driven in from the surrounding country.

Crozier, sr., read completely when sentence was delivered, but the son bore himself bravely with an air of bravado, his eyes were wet and he chewed and smoked his pipe, and he has had with him at every appearance in court.

The court was opened at 2.30. The charges were read to each prisoner, and the elder man was first asked to plead. "I'm guilty, sir," he said bravely, and then collapsed. He was given a chair to rest on, and while the charge was read to his boy, who carelessly replied "guilty."

"I address you on behalf of the elder prisoner," said D. O. Cameron, his counsel. "Four words is well aware we have given all possible credit to the boy of the crown and of the American secret service men. We have told the whole story of the affair from the start in the early morning of the present time. We have given up plates, tools, bills and everything.

"If it had not been for the elder man, the boy having received credit of where the stuff was hid, the United States officers and the crown authorities would have been utterly unable to recover the hidden bills and other materials. He would have told before had he not got an idea that the fewer bills the less sentence he would be likely to receive."

"Only a small number of bills were circulated, the many were made. The prisoner is willing to make restitution to all who have received the bills."

"I would add that the elder man has been sick. A long term would break his spirit and so break his health as to perhaps render him a burden on the state. Here Crozier burst into tears. "Considering his wife and young son," went on Mr. Cameron, "I hope that your worship will be merciful as well as just and may see fit to give him a light sentence."

THE REASON why W. F. Maclean got an acclamation in South York is that he had a platform that no one cared to tackle.

WHEN OUR SHIPS COME HOME.

All mortals up to date across the trackless foam. And wait with weary watching To see our ships come home.

We need not count the perils Of sharp and hidden rocks. Nor will our longed for treasures Be rent by tempest shocks.

For high above the waters All hopes and fears and longings On airships now will freight. —McLanburgh Wilson, in N. Y. Sun.

THE ENGLISH SUFFRAGETTES.

Mrs. Philip Snowden, of England, wife of the Labor member of parliament for Blackburn, addressed an open session of the National American Woman Suffrage Association at Buffalo.

"The woman's movement in Great Britain is the biggest thing in the political life of our country to-day," said Mrs. Snowden in opening her address. "I am understanding the facts when I tell you that more than six million people have, thru their organizations, come out in favor of suffrage and more than a million are working for equal political rights, working as they never worked before."

"Our methods may have seemed strange to you, for perhaps you do not fully understand. We are not demanding something new. English women had the parliamentary franchise until 1832. The country up to then was governed by a mere handful of people, less than 700,000. Few of them were women. It is true, for it is only within the last 40 years that a woman did not relinquish her property rights upon marriage; but up to 1832, women who were land owners had the franchise."

Mrs. Snowden went on to describe the reasons why, in the old days, women did not vote, travel was more difficult, women stayed more at home, the household cares were more, their acquaintances with political questions not as great, their interest in the general subject of equal rights for all not as thoroughly aroused.

"We have the municipal vote, and we have used it for many years," she continued, much to the evident surprise of many in the audience. "Today any English woman may vote for everybody except parliament; they may, moreover, sit in every political body, except parliament. We are after that last right. The English politicians want it, the members of parliament want it. We have 420 members of parliament out of 670 pledged to this reform. Every reputable paper in England is with us. When the full suffrage bill went to its second reading, the votes stood three to one in its favor. We want that vote put thru. But it is the British cabinet we must get at to finally approve the act when once it has passed the two houses. It is parliament we are trying to annoy."

"Our government," continued Mrs. Snowden, "taking the audience into her confidence, 'never moves in any radical way until it is kicked. Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, when prime minister, advised this woman to harass the government until they got what they wanted, and that is just what we are doing to-day."

"The American newspapers have told you that we kick policemen, that we spit at them, that we go about the streets in slovenly dress, and with our hair hanging down our backs. If it were not so monstrous, it would make you laugh, but it is unjust. These women are not the sloppy creatures you have been taught to think. They are refined, well-bred, cultured women who shrink with dread from becoming conspicuous in any way. At first they all shrank. They are good women who believe in a great and lofty principle of equal rights, and will not let their personal sense of dignity stand in the way of the thing they believe to be right and just."

Mrs. Snowden said the treatment accorded to English women at some political meetings, had it occurred in America, would have resulted in a lynching.

It was announced that the international council of women will meet in Canada, probably in Montreal next year, and will go to Seattle from that place by the Canadian Pacific Railway and take part in the convention of the Suffrage Association.

How I Took My Wrinkles Out

After Facial Massage, Creams and Beauty Doctors Had Failed. BY HARRIETT META.

Trouble, worry and ill-health brought me deep lines and wrinkles. I realized that they not only greatly marred my appearance and made me look much older, but that they would greatly interfere with my success, because a woman's success, either socially or financially, depends very largely on her appearance. The homely woman, with deep lines and furrows on her face, must fight an unequal battle with her younger and better looking sister.

I therefore bought various brands of cold cream and skin foods and massaged my face with most constant regularity, hoping to regain my former appearance. But the wrinkles simply would not go. On the contrary, they seemed to get deeper. Next I went for a beauty specialist, who told me she could easily rid me of my wrinkles. I paid my money and took the treatment. Sometimes I thought they got less, but after spending all the money I could afford for such treatment, I found I still had my wrinkles. So I gave up in despair and concluded I must carry them to my grave. One day a friend of mine who was versed in chemistry made a suggestion, and this gave me a new idea. I immediately went to work making experiments and studying everything I could get hold of on this subject. After several long months of almost numberless trials and discouragements, I finally discovered a process which produced most astounding results on my wrinkles in a single night. I was delighted beyond expression. I tried my treatment again, and lo and behold! my wrinkles were practically gone. A third treatment—three nights in all—and I had no wrinkles and my face was as smooth as ever. I next offered my treatment to some of my immediate friends, who used it with surprising results, and I have now decided to offer it to the public. Miss Gladys Desmond of Pittsburg, Penn., writes that it made her wrinkles disappear in one night. Mrs. Jas. Harris of Central City, S. D., writes as follows: "My face has become fuller, the flesh firmer and my eyes brighter; all of which is due to your marvelous treatment. The change is so great that it seems to be more a work of magic." I will send further particulars to anyone who is interested, absolutely free of charge. I use no cream, facial massage, face-steamers or so-called skin foods; there is nothing to inject and nothing to injure the skin. It is an entirely new discovery of my own and so simple that you can use it without the knowledge of your most intimate friends. You apply the treatment at night and to bed. In the morning, lo! the wonderful transformation. People often write me, "It sounds too good to be true." Well, the test will tell. If interested in my discovery, please address Harriett Meta, Suite 1250E, Syracuse, N. Y., and I will send full particulars.

HOW I MADE MY HAIR GROW

Woman With Marvelously Beautiful Hair Gives Simple Home Prescription Upon Which She Trained With Most Remarkable Results.

I was greatly troubled with dandruff and falling hair. I tried many advertised hair preparations and various prescriptions, but they all signally failed; many of them made my hair greasy, so that it was impossible to comb it or to do it up properly. I thought that many of the things I tried were positively injurious, and from my own experience I cannot too strongly caution you against using preparations containing wood alcohol and other poisonous substances. I believe they injure the roots of the hair. After my long list of failures I finally found a simple prescription, which I used with most remarkable results, and I can unhesitatingly state that it is beyond doubt the most wonderful thing for the hair I have ever seen. Many of my friends have also used it and obtained wonderful effects therefrom. It not only is a powerful stimulant to the growth of the hair, and for restoring grey hair to its natural color, but it is equally good for removing dandruff, giving the hair life and brilliancy, etc., and for the purpose of keeping the scalp in first-class condition. It also makes the hair much easier to comb and arrange in nice form. I have a friend who used it two months and during that time it not only stopped the falling of his hair and wonderfully increased its growth, but it practically restored all of his grey hair to its natural color. You can obtain this preparation for making this wonderful preparation from almost any druggist. The preparation is as follows: Ray gum, 6 oz.; menthol crystals, 1-2 drachm; lavone de composee, 2 oz.; To-Kalon perfume, 1 to 2 teaspoonfuls.

Apply night and morning; rub thoroughly into the scalp.

Go to your druggist and ask for the eight ounce bottle containing six ounces of bay rum, also one-half drachm of menthol crystals, and for a two-ounce bottle of lavone de composee. Mix the ingredients yourself at your own home. Add the menthol crystals to the bay rum and then pour in the lavone de composee and add the To-Kalon perfume. Let it stand for one-half hour and it is ready to use.

The prospect of hearing the election returns with speed and comfort is appealing to a large number of people who will gather in Massey Hall next Monday evening. Public Amusements

There is an unusual charm to be found in "The Gay Parisienne," the musical comedy attraction at the Royal Alexandra this week. The patrons of this theatre have been trained by the Imperial Opera Company this season to look forward to productions marked with beauty and perfection of their staging, but in this instance the most sanguine expectations have been overshadowed. "The Gay Parisienne" is very humorous, very bright and dashing and well worth the while. The piece in itself is very good, but the greatest charm to the offering at the Royal Alexandra lies in the excellent interpretation and work of the Imperial's cast of principals. Miss Agnes Cain Brown, the prima donna, in the role of Mile Julie Bon Bon presents a picture seldom seen. Her hedonist and delicate conception of this role, which has but too often been spoiled by crudity, deserves unqualified praise. In the studied portrayal of the eccentric character, Ruth, Miss Carrie Reynolds is adding many new friends to her already large list of admirers. One and all the large cast deserves all possible praise, for step by step thru the entire piece the concerted work of capable artists is noticeable. Nor is this confined to the principals; the chorus, splendid in strength and drill, is one of the most prominent features in "The Gay Parisienne."

The program which Emil Sauer, the great solo pianist, will present at Massey Hall to-morrow (Thursday) evening, is of a very notable character. It includes Beethoven's Sonata Pathetique and Bach's concerto in D minor. The numbers are as follows: 1 Concerto D minor, Friedemann-Bach Arranged by August St. Saens. Molto maestoso a pesante. Grave. Fuga, Largo, Final. 2 Sonata Pathetique, op. 13, Beethoven Grave-Allegro molto ed. con bri. Adagio cantabile. Rondo. 3 (a) Intermezzo, op. 117, No. 1. Pitcher Grane, who started the season with Cleveland, will not get his name recorded in the official guides, but his record is unique. It consists of one base on balls, no hits, no runs, no errors, no times at bat and no fielding record.

Next to Walsh in the matter of strikeouts, the pitcher of the season, comes Waddell of St. Louis, with 223. Hughes of Washington is third with 153, the only Cy Young runner-up.

There were five no-hit games pitched during the season, divided among the pitchers as follows: American League—Young of Boston, Joss and Rhoades of Cleveland and Smith of Chicago. CHICAGO SHAMROCKS WIN LACROSSE CHAMPIONSHIP

The Shamrocks defeated the Illinois Athletic Club in the final game of the lacrosse championship series, and copped the title at the South Side Ball Park. The score was 6 to 4.

The game was one of the cleanest and best that the local stick-holders have pulled off here this season. While roughness was apparent often, the strict discipline imposed by Referee Waghone of Toronto kept it down.

The Shamrocks were victorious in every department, and victory went the way it should have. A good crowd witnessed the battle, and from a spectacular standpoint it was the best of the year.

Home Playing is Good. The homes on both sides did nicely, but the superior defence work of the Shamrocks spoiled many a chance for the visitors.

McDonough and Wright played a good game for the Shamrocks, and Masteron of the Illinois Athletic Club was the team worker in the championship.

Dan McEwen and The Eel Home

Many Offers Were Received From Parties Wishing to Buy The Eel—Won $17,000.

LONDON, Oct. 20.—Dan McEwen, driver of The Eel, the racing station, and the man largely responsible for the wonderful performance of that horse this season, arrived in the city Monday night, looking strong and well after his somewhat hard season. The Eel did not come along with Mr. McEwen, but arrived later in the night with some of the other horses which Mr. McEwen had in his string all summer.

Mr. McEwen is well satisfied with the season's work, and is enthusiastic over The Eel, which, he thinks, is the finest pair of days. Mr. Geers, one of the best judges of harness horses of the day, has commented on the wonderful form of The Eel, which he thinks surprising, considering the heavy work the horse has done. He agrees with Mr. Geers in thinking that the horse is in the best of his life.

Mr. McEwen expressed the belief that it was the best of his life, and that this, although this year it won $17,500, more than any other year in one season before. Of this sum, $14,700 was made in Grand Circuit races.

There seems little doubt that Mr. McEwen will handle the horse again next year, for although he has received many offers for the horse this year, some of them for large figures, Mr. Geers, his owner, has refused to sell. He will race the horse in any of the ice races this year, as he did last, but will sell the animal for the Grand Circuit again next year.

About his part in preparing the horse for the season's racing, Mr. McEwen is reticent, but as to the accounts of his own horse itself he is pleased to talk, and he says that he has to tell. There are few who know his horse better than he does. He has not only raised this pacer, but has established several records, and has forced all on the circuit to concede him to be the greatest pacer of the year.

FREE TO MEN UNTIL CURED.

All men, with very few exceptions, were made strong, and should be so through life. Many have, through grand privilege and through dissipation, become weaklings, puny, lack confidence, can't face the slightest difficulty, have drains, losses, impotence, etc., and are mere playthings in the hands of their associates.

SECURITY OF RAILWAY TRAVEL.
In returning thanks on Monday for his unanimous re-election to the house of commons, Mr. W. F. Maclean told the electors of South York present in North Toronto Town Hall that he proposed to bring up several questions in parliament. Among these he mentioned the security of railway travel, a subject of great and urgent importance to the general public and to the numerous railroad employes residing in that riding of York County. Scarcely a week passes, he observed, without the funeral of a railroad man killed in some wreck on the lines. The number of accidents in Canada, many, probably most of them, attributable to causes that are preventable by the adoption of safety devices of proven efficiency, is indeed a standing reproach to the companies that have undertaken to conduct the transportation services of the country, and it is time for them to be called to account and required to introduce precautions that will eliminate, so far as is humanly possible, the undue risk encountered in the running of Canadian trains.

It has been stated that after the terrible wreck at French River, in May last, Canadian railroad officials took the elimination of accidents into their deliberate consideration. That consideration has, to all appearances, been done or indicated. Meantime the long roster of deaths and injuries is receiving additions with painful frequency. As has been pointed out, "the evil is appalling. On Canadian railways during five years, no fewer than 2125 persons were killed and 10,665 were injured thru accidents." In the year 1906 upwards of 1,200,000 passengers (exclusive of season or commutation ticket-holders) traveled over British railroads, and in all only 58 passengers were killed and 631 injured from accidents to trains, rolling stock, permanent way, etc. Comparing these records, it is evident that there is something seriously amiss in the handling of Canadian transportation.

The claim is made that the heavy toll in death and injury exacted by Canadian railroads is due almost entirely to preventable causes. Most of the traffic is conducted on single lines, and this necessarily increases the risk of accident and correspondingly the responsibility of those who control the roads. Yet out of the total mileage of 27,000, practically no part is safeguarded by the use of the safety devices common on British lines to which and to the excellence of their permanent ways and rolling stock, their comparative immunity from serious accident is unquestionably due. Legislation can alone compel the adoption of automatic and interlocking systems by Canadian companies and parliament must be asked to pass an act for the purpose, and it will do this if the public demand is sufficiently strong and insistent. Canada cannot afford to ignore the alarming waste of human life and efficiency that is the direct result of the indifference of the railroad companies to their primary duty of carrying their passengers with the greatest possible measure of safety.

Which is the fairer plan of the two? Which gives greater freedom to the elector? If he wants to elect John Smith, and cares for no other candidate, why should he be only able to give half his vote for John Smith? For that is what it really amounts to. Each elector can really have only one vote, and if you give him two votes you simply compel him to split his one vote in two fractions—in two halves—often when he doesn't want to. That he often does not want to split his vote is shown at every municipal election by the number of "plumbers."

DIVORCE MAY COST HER LEGACY.
Judgment was reserved in the non-jury court yesterday on the disputed will action brought by William John Smith and Edward Smith, executors of the estate of the late John Smith, who died in 1896 leaving property valued at $612,000.

WHO ARE THIS MAN'S RELATIVES?
J. Carr, a middle-aged man employed in the Toronto Railway car shops, was removed from his room, 223 1-2 East Kings-street, late Monday night, to the St. Michael's Hospital, suffering from what seemed to be apoplexy. Last night he was still unconscious and his recovery was problematical. He came here from Peterboro.

Sky Pilots Afloat.
There are mariners and mariners; and experience in one kind of pilotage is not necessarily a qualification for success in a different field. For example: Two gentlemen prominent as revivalists in this city, essayed a trip on the troubled waters of Kew Beach a day or two ago. But their knowledge of the charts required in a celestial voyage was not adequate substitute for the proper guidance of a boat under sail; and the soon discovered by folks ashore to be acting in a most extraordinary and freaky manner.

Model of White Star Line R.M.S. "Adriatic."
The handsome model of the Adriatic, which is now on view in the rotunda of the King Edward Hotel, will only be here a few days longer, and persons who have not already seen this wonderful reproduction of the mammoth liner should avail themselves of this last opportunity. The Adriatic is the largest of the White Star Line fleet, being 25,000 tons, 726 feet long and 76 feet beam, and the model is an exact fac-simile of the famous steamer.

SAULT STE. MARIE, Ont., Oct. 20.—A lightning bolt about 1000 tons of coal the steamer Osler was released from Gravel Island. Her bottom forward is badly damaged, and compartments are full of water. There is no dry-dock in Canada large enough to accommodate the Osler and she will have to be repaired at a United States port. There will be no duty on her repairs, however, as a saving clause covers just such a case as this.

Louis XV. Pianos.
The Louis XV. design in a piano is probably to-day the most fashionable style of piano made. The art series of pianos of Heintzman & Co., Limited, 113-117 King-street west, Toronto, contain some very attractive Louis XV. designs. A recent exhibit of these in their King-street window has attracted large attention.

Empty Crates Point to Tragedy.
BOSTON, Oct. 20.—The discovery of a 35-foot auxiliary gasoline boat almost submerged, off Rockport, Mass., to-day, disclosed the probable loss of Charles W. Johnson and Henry Lee of Beachmont, who left Beachmont last night, bound for Portland, Me.

The ferry boat "Adriatic" went aground near Hanlan's Point yesterday during a heavy gale and for a time threatened to leave the occupants of the island marooned in their quarters. She was released, however, and made her regular trips.

EATON'S FOR MEN'S HATS

The Seven New Styles pictured and briefly described here are representative of a very thorough and above-the-ordinary preparation made for Fall and Winter Hat selling.
It is a many-sided showing, catering to the needs of All men; considering their every probable want; presenting many new "fancies."
Its styles are all new and authoritative; quality emphatically dependable.
It does not pretend to sell as good a hat for $2 as it sells for, say, $3 or $4; BUT IT DOES SELL THE BEST HAT POSSIBLE TO SELL FOR $2, $3 or $4.

To Better Show the Hats we have in some measure rearranged the section in a way that will give us better opportunity to so display them that men can "see the styles"—learn what's what—and use more of their own judgment in the choosing.
The new season's display looks very inviting indeed in these new surroundings, and men will find hat buying here most pleasant and satisfactory.
And now, we're prepared to show you hats by the hundreds, representing the best makers in the world—and at everybody's prices.

Political Notes.

The News publishes a forecast of the results in Ontario. The summary: Sure Conservative 52, Probable Conservative 9, Sure Liberal 61, Probable Liberal 3, Doubtful 12.

United Canada, a Catholic paper, printed in Ottawa, says: "Hon. Edward Blake has been indirectly approached but would not countenance the present Liberal party. A certificate of character from the great constitutionalist, jurist, and parliamentarian, would be worth thousands of votes to the Liberals if it could at this crisis be secured."

"Liberalism had not been degraded, he (Blake) would be delighted to serve the party he founded. It was he who defeated the Sandfield Macdonald government in Ontario in 1870. It was he who called Ontario in 1870. It was he who made him leader of the Ontario Liberal Government. It was he (Blake) who brought the Liberals of the Dominion to within sight of the promised land, and then called Laurier (now Sir Wilfrid) to lead the party. Surely Mr. Blake's vote would command the respectful attention of not only the electors of Canada, but of the whole empire."

"Sir Wilfrid, in almost all his Ontario campaign speeches, referred to the late Alexander Mackenzie, but he knows that dead men tell no tales. Hon. Edward Blake is alive, and he will rank in history with Gladstone as one of the most illustrious British citizens of the century."

G. H. Ferguson, M.L.A., elect, will address meetings at Oshawa on Friday night and at Lakeside on Saturday.

It is claimed that the government is using improper means to secure the election of D. A. Gordon in East Kent. Some of the government purchased a piece of the government for the purpose of erecting a new post-office. Nothing has been heard of the matter since, until last week, on the eve of an election a man was sent from the department at Ottawa for the purpose of looking into the matter of a new postoffice for Dresden.

Commenting on Mr. Borden's manifesto, "The Montreal Star" says: "Borden closes his manifesto with an admirable statement. He promises to power, a cabinet worthy of their highest ideals and truly representative of the great country which I shall serve." If this means that he will go outside of his present following to the commons to find his cabinet, it is excellent news for the country. He might have been more definite in his announcement if that be the meaning. Sir Wilfrid Laurier makes a side of his parliamentary following and it is a boast which every party leader might well copy. The country parliament in good material, but it does not relish being punished so severely for its neglect."

Kelly Evans of Toronto spoke at Port Colborne on behalf of the Conservative party Monday evening, addressing a very large and enthusiastic audience, governing in the most eloquent speech an arraignment of the late administration of the Liberal government at Ottawa, and demonstrated to the audience that the country is nearing the precipice of the ruin of its assets, both upon our lakes, rivers, and streams, and in our great forests, and particularly emphasized that the various efforts of the government policy at Ottawa have told and will tell in the more disastrous way than the laboring and agricultural classes. His remarks were explained and illustrated by maps, and were heartily cheered and thanked at the conclusion of his address.

Mr. Evans was specially invited to speak at Port Colborne and will, on the eve of the week, concluding his campaign at Stratford next Saturday night, where he will be joined on this most important occasion, it being the last of the campaign, by other distinguished speakers.

COBALT---Chambers-Ferland Bought on Discovery of New Vein---COBALT

The Electrical Ore Finding Co., Limited
is negotiating for the purchase of the mining rights on 40 square miles of territory.

Buoyancy and Activity Characterize Operations

Cobalt Central Object of Raid to Cover Up Short Interest---Chambers-Ferland Strong.

World Office, Tuesday Evening, Oct. 20.

With the swing at the close of the Cobalt Exchanges last night, it was not to be wondered at this morning that large orders were in the hands of brokers, and that the active buoyant market which started the week was continued in today's operations.

With the cancellation of the lease on the Silver Leaf a much better demand developed for these shares, and the prices responded to the new demand. This company will now undertake the management of its own property with two competent engineers, and splendid results are expected to follow this change.

Large buying orders came into the market for Chambers-Ferland before the opening, and it was difficult to get supplies of the stock before brokers got in touch with their clients, when transactions were effected at profits anticipated. The principal demand for Chambers-Ferland came from Cobalt over the two special wires which are now operating from Toronto.

A determined raid was made in the sub market by a group of traders on the stock of the Cobalt Central Mines Co. The result was not so disastrous as perhaps the manipulators anticipated, the stock taking only a slight dip of about three cents in New York and Toronto.

The object of the raid was to cover up a big short interest and upwards of 140,000 shares were traded in during the first two hours.

The raid was added by the circulation of a number of rumors that were intended to harm the property. Among these was one to the effect that the big concentrating plant had been destroyed by fire, and shipments of silver had ceased altogether.

Crown Reserve opened at 203 asked with 199 bid, but the selling figure was not maintained and by noon the bid of 199 was asked while 197-1/2 was bid. The stock held its feet and closed with 500 shares being sold at 1.99 1/2. Little Nipissing was dealt in widely at 32, while Temiskaming was firm at 1.01 and 1.02.

ROADS TO MINES.

Will Facilitate Progress in the Montreal River District.

The future of a mining district depends to a great extent on the building of winter roads to the various isolated camps. A short time ago the mining population of the Upper Montreal River asked for roads and it looks now as if a lot of needed construction work along this line will be accomplished in the next few months. At any rate by the coming spring a change will be noticed, all thru that portion of the country.

The news comes from Elk City that a contract has been let for the building of a road from Elk-Lake City westerly for twenty-five miles.

This road will run thru a comparatively even country, and the completing of it so that it will be ready for actual usage by the time the winter months set in is assured.

By this piece of construction the mining sections around Miller Lake, Lost Lake and Gowdanga Lake, will be opened up.

A contract has been let to W. H. Stewart of Elk Lake for the building of a bridge over Bear River. This bridge will continue the road from Charlton station on the T. & N. O. Railway directly west for a distance of 60 miles.

Three more contracts for sections of the Sudbury-Soo road have also been awarded.

CHAMBERS-FERLAND DEMAND.

Large Buying From Cobalt on Account of New Discovery.

Chambers-Ferland was perhaps the feature of the whole Cobalt Market yesterday, transactions running into much larger volume than at any time since the stock has been listed on the exchange. The reason for the demand was not quite apparent until a broker received a wire from the camp which said that another vein had been discovered leading out of the La Rose into the Chambers-Ferland, and on which excellent values are shown, even on the surface.

Most of yesterday's orders came from Cobalt, and from people who know the ultimate value of the property. Being located as this claim is, surrounding all the best shipping mines, the veins of which in many instances have been traced across the Chambers-Ferland, it is not to be wondered at that this confidence is reposed in the stock.

The company have 124 acres surrounding the La Rose, O'Brien, and adjacent to the Right-of-Way Nipissing, Temiskaming & Hudson, Coniagas and Tretwey, and although work on the property has only been carried on for about four months, the development has surpassed the high ideals held of the property when it was first offered to the public.

OMAHA, Neb., Oct. 20.

The $600,000 suit for damages which Governor Haskell of Oklahoma filed here last week against W. R. Hearst is regarded as invalid by prominent attorneys who have examined the petition. They point out that the Nebraska laws allow no punitive damages in a libel suit and $300,000 of the amount asked in the present case is punitive. The petition is not accompanied by an affidavit as required by the laws of this state.

THE NEW ROUTE TO WESTERN CANADA.

An attractive and pleasant trip to the west is via the Grand Trunk, the only double track route to Chicago, connecting for Winnipeg via St. Paul, Minneapolis and Duluth. Same rates apply via this route to Winnipeg via a northern route. Fast express trains leave daily at 8 a.m. and 4:40 p.m. Secure tickets and make reservations at Grand Trunk ticket offices.

ENGINE DITCHED.

Ditching of an engine in a muskeg on the T. and N. O. Railway has delayed the opening of the line to Cochrane for a few days. No one was injured and the locomotive will be raised. No date has been set yet for the auction of the towstake lots.

GENERAL STATEMENT.

THE GIFFORD MINE is situated in lot 1, concession 3, Township of Coleman, and is more particularly described as the north half of the northeast quarter of the north half of said lot, on development, containing in all 20 acres.

The same geological conditions exist on this lot as on the Shamrock, Beaver, Temiskaming, Cochrane, La Rose Consolidated and other well-known shipping properties which surround this claim, and from surface indications there is every reason to believe that the Gifford lot will, on development, prove to be equally rich.

The principals interested in the formation of this company and mining of this claim are more than sanguine of success, and sincerely believe that within the next few months development will prove it to be one of the richest claims in the township.

Its location warrants this belief, and it is the consensus of opinion of Cobalt mining men that this property will earn many times its capitalization in the near future.

With unbounded faith in the possibilities of the Gifford Mine the capitalization has been placed at the low figure of $150,000, which besides leaving two-thirds of the stock in the treasury, will give the company sufficient funds to begin extensive work on the property and a sure chance for the investor to get a reasonable return without having to pay dividends on promotion stock, which has proven in some cases in Cobalt situations the curse of the camp.

The directors certainly expect, in a reasonable length of time, to have shipping ore on this property, and wish to call attention to this fact, that with the first ore reserve in sight, the stock now offered at 25c, would be worth signing on the basis of the capitalization of the

ASK TAXATION REFORM.

Surety Underwriters Favor Federal Control of Insurance.

NEW YORK, Oct. 20.—The Board of Casualty and Surety Underwriters of the United States had its annual meeting in the Hotel Astor to-day. Reform in state taxation against insurance companies was the chief topic of discussion. Wm. B. Smith, counsel for the Travelers Insurance Company, Hartford, Conn., said the insurance companies paid over $12,000,000 annually in taxes, of which over $10,000,000 was simply for privilege taxes, levied for the right to operate in a state. He claimed that this was exorbitant.

S. C. Dunham of Hartford, president of the board, advocated federal control and uniform legislation in all insurance companies, including insurance companies. He cited John D. Rockefeller as another advocate of this policy.

FREAK OF GALE KILLS SIX.

Wind Hurls Laborers Car From Rails Into 30-Foot Pit.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., Oct. 20.—As the result of an unprecedented accident on the Union Pacific at Lone Creek, 30 miles west of Cheyenne, last night, six laborers are known to be dead and several others probably met death, while 25 or 30 others were injured, many seriously. A terrific gale picked up the caboose of a work train, tore it away from its coupling and carried it over the edge of a fill. It dropped thirty feet with its forty occupants.

TO BRIDGE RED RIVER.

Winnipeg and St. Boniface Will Benefit by Government Undertaking.

WINNIPEG, Oct. 20.—(Special).—Following the announcement made today by the government organ, the Dominion Government, thru the Transcontinental Railway Commission, offers to construct a fine traffic bridge over the Red River under the same terms as the railway bridge is to be built over the same river for the Grand Trunk Pacific.

The cities will not pay any interest on the capital invested for the first seven years, and hence, during that period, will have free use of the bridge.

A short traffic road and car route will thus be established between the centres of Winnipeg and St. Boniface without an expenditure of $200,000 or $300,000, which would be necessary if the citizens built the bridge on their own initiative.

The citizens can lease running rights on the bridge to the street railway company, thus providing for a good share of interest to be paid on the investment after seven years have passed.

Work will begin on the traffic bridge just as soon as the proposition of the government is accepted by the city and employment will thus be given to a large number of men.

WADED TO MAINLAND.

Harrowing Experience of Mother, Father and Child.

CHATHAM, Oct. 20.—Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Still, with their four-year-old son, Roscoe, whose motorboat was found beached on Lake St. Clair, a high sea, after they had left Chatham for Detroit, have returned home safe, but after a harrowing experience.

Returning the heavy smoke from the northern forest fires settled about them like a pall. Then the gasoline engine and the craft drifted helplessly on Lake St. Clair. A high sea was running. After a while the craft grounded. The land was welcome, but it was found that the waves threatened to wash over the island.

After a while the craft grounded. The land was welcome, but it was found that the waves threatened to wash over the island. A passing trolley car on the mainland in the distance gave the first inkling of their whereabouts.

Mrs. Still, lashing her way to the bank of the river with her wrap, then accompanied the husband on a hazardous wade toward the mainland, which they reached in safety.

TWO PERISH IN FIRE.

House at Jackson Hill Consumed—Father and Child Dead.

UXBRIDGE, Ont., Oct. 20.—Last night the house of Charles Jackson of "Jackson Hill," about a mile and a half south of the town, was discovered to be on fire.

Mr. and Mrs. Jackson, who are very old, were alone except for the presence of two little granddaughters, both about three and a half years old. Mrs. Jackson got the children out, but one of them went back into the house again.

She again took it out and called to her husband, who was sick in bed, to get up, as the house was on fire. He arose, but the fire seemed to have cut off his escape, for despite the best of his wife, both he and one of the two little granddaughters perished in the flames.

Just Breaker Gets Added Sentence.

BELLEVILLE, Oct. 20.—(Special).—William Brightcliffe, the young Englishman who a few days ago escaped from the county jail here and was recaptured, was today brought up before Judge Frazer and pleaded guilty to three charges, namely, house-breaking, breaking and entering, and receiving stolen goods.

For the former offence he was sentenced to two years in the penitentiary and three months for escaping. This with his former conviction makes his general term three years and three months in the penitentiary.

SENTIMENT SWAYED BY WALL STREET.

World Office, Tuesday Evening, Oct. 20.

The Toronto Stock Exchange developed no new snap in any department of the listed securities to-day. Transactions left little opening for speculative turns and any buying was swayed by the appearance of New York stocks rather than by news incidental to any of the stocks.

In conformity with the demand for the mining issues Nipissing was more active, the price being decidedly firm at the advance. A fair amount of bank shares changed hands with the purchases chiefly confined to Dominion and Commerce.

All Round Rally in Prices on Wall Street--Toronto Market Inactive But Steady.

World Office, Tuesday Evening, Oct. 20. The September statement of the Canadian chartered banks indicated a further contraction in commercial business, and an increase in deposits. From both it is inferred that money will continue in plentiful supply and may therefore act as an offset to business reaction. There was nothing new on the Canadian exchanges to-day. Sentiment was generally favorable to values, but this was mainly due to the buoyant attitude of the New York exchange. Transactions were quiet.

Transactions in Municipal Bonds. The Dominion Securities Corporation. We have just completed the purchase of the following municipal bonds: $20,000 Town of Markham, P.E.I. 5 per cent. debentures, due July 1, 1938, issued for a waterworks and sewer system; $15,000 Town of Medicine Hat, Alberta, 5 per cent. debentures, due in twenty equal annual instalments of principal and interest, issued for waterworks purposes; $25,000 Town of Toronto, Ont., 5 per cent. debentures. These bonds are issued for local improvements, waterworks for general purposes, $30,000 Town of Hawkesbury, Ont., 5 per cent. debentures.

On Wall Street. Charles Head & Co., to R. R. Bongard; London prices were inclined to sag this morning and our market opened quiet, with a few scattered orders. The only stock that was at all noticeable for strength, Third-avenue suffered a further slump to 27 1/2, making about 20 points since last 10 per cent. The general feeling was bearish and all agreed that a reaction was in order, but under the lead of Northern Pacific, Union Pacific and Reading, which stocks monopolized the market, the trading, the market advanced.

Outlook for structural steel favorable with some cutting by independents reported. October business of Union and Southern Pacific better than last month, but not up to 1907.

No confirmation of rumored assessment on Third-avenue. Regular quarterly dividend on P. O. Gas.

Sub-treasury lost $639,000 to the banks, and since Friday it has lost $1,541,000 to the banks.

St. Joseph says: Presently there will be comparatively big movements in the stock market. The market is very active and the price of stocks is high. The market is very active and the price of stocks is high.

Latest reports give evidence of preparation for special bullish operations in the stock market. More signs of approaching activity in high-priced issues are making their appearance. We suggest the purchase of Union Pacific and Southern Pacific on all reactions.

Some related appreciation is shown Atlantic Coast Line to-day, this stock advancing two points on a very moderate demand for it. The stock is very closely held, and it would be simple matter for a bull pool to lift it to par. It is in our opinion, one of the cheapest stocks in the list and investors cannot go wrong in buying it.

Ennis & Stoppard wired to J. L. Mitchell. The market both in stocks and bonds displayed fresh activity and a substantial increase in volume. For some time past it has been predicted that about the 20th of the present month the street would witness its apathy and enter upon discounting of election results, and the movement started promptly on time.

The tide is turning toward higher levels for good bonds and stocks. J. R. Heintz & Co. wired R. H. Boland. We believe the safest plan is to take profits on the strong places and wait for good reactions to buy again.

Money Markets. Bank of England discount rate, 2 1/2 per cent. Short and three months' activity to 2 per cent. New York call money, highest 1 1/2 per cent, lowest 1 per cent. Last loan, 1 per cent. Call money at Toronto, 5 to 6 per cent.

Foreign Exchange. Glazebrook & Cronyn, James Building (Oct. 20), daily report exchange rates as follows: Between Banks. N. Y. funds, 100 dis. 84 dis. 1/4 to 1/2. Montreal sight, 100 dis. 50 dis. 1/4 to 1/2. Demand, stg., 100 91-32-96, 93-7-16. Cable trans., 9-1/2 to 9-15-32-96, 97.

Price of Silver. Sterling demand, 486. Sterling, 60 days, 486. Bar silver in London, 25 1/2 per oz. Bar silver in New York, 51 1/2 per oz. Mexican dollars, 45c.

FATHER AND SON

but when disaster came he sought to shield him.

"I thought that he had told the whole story when he told Inspector Parkinson of the hide at Gowanda, New York. Then it appeared that he had not disclosed the hide of materials in the boys' farm, as he feared the results of the discovery of the unfinished plates. There was the notebook found in Toronto, it is true, which spoke of this hide. But his disclosure showed all.

"Again his desire to shield his son crept in. For this was not blameworthy. It was natural, noble and perhaps the most commendable thing in this man's unfortunate, erring career.

"With regard to this act, when he led into this act at 16 years, when he could not, I take it, have any proper knowledge of what he was doing—punish him you must, but I would ask you to temper justice with mercy. I would ask you to defer sentence that he may have the chance to rejoin the ranks of respectable society rather than to be forced to associate with criminals and sink, as he then must, still deeper in his degradation.

"This I urge. I feel it my duty to my client. I feel a higher duty to humanity and I might say to Christianity. He has been in jail. He now knows what it means. I must leave the matter with your wisdom, turning upon you to exert your clemency."

"Passing of Sentence." "Thomas Crozier, stand up," said the magistrate. "I am pleased to say that you have made a full, free and open confession. If it had not been for that the full sentence of life imprisonment would have been imposed. Under the circumstances you are certainly entitled to consideration. Your sentence is that you be confined in Kingston Penitentiary for a term of nine years, with the option of a further term of labor, and I trust that you will come out a better man and a wiser man."

"Good God!" murmured Crozier, shaken with sobbing. "This is one of the hardest things that I have ever been called upon to do in the history of my life," said the magistrate to the boy. "You have shown intellect and brilliant ability. You might have filled important offices of church and state. You might have become a pillar in society. Your present position is that you be confined in the Central Prison. The prayer of my heart is, bring you out a better man."

"At the close of the proceedings many crowded about both prisoners to clasp their hands. Speaking to U. S. Secret Service Officer Gammon, he had explained that all the plates were made from zinc etchings. To him the father said, "I will never come out alive."

"Early in 1906 we started to make the plates," says Crozier, in his confession. "We made the Quebec and Imperial following winter. They were the Farmers' $10 and Standard $10. The Farmers' $5 and American $5 were made the next winter. The United Empire $5 next winter. They were never finished. I was disgusted with the trouble I had in passing any of them. My son faulted. I drew him into the field. He made them in the house upstairs. The garnet during the day time, when the other boys were away. The other members of the family knew nothing of what we were doing.

Magistrate Ellis Held Long Court—Accident in North Toronto—Suburban News.

WEST TORONTO, Oct. 20.—With a scalp wound four inches long and a slight concussion of the brain, together with severe bruises about the chest, James Bond, carpenter, now lies in a serious condition at his home, 54 Clendenan-avenue, as a result of falling a distance of 18 feet from a scaffold at the new Elizabeth-street school, where he was working, this afternoon. He alighted on his head and was unconscious for some time after the accident occurred. Dr. Perfect is in attendance, and thinks Mr. Bond has good chances for a complete recovery.

Mrs. Scruton, wife of Louis B. Scruton, undertaker, Dundas-street, was seized with a paralytic stroke at 1 o'clock this morning and has been in an unconscious condition ever since. Slight hopes are held out for her recovery. Dr. Perfect is in attendance.

By a strange coincidence fire broke out in two adjoining houses, Maria-street, early this morning. The first was at No. 238, a grocery store occupied by Morris Sworth, where damage to the extent of $75 covered by insurance, was done to the store contents and fixtures. The second fire broke out about 20 minutes later in a bedroom at No. 236, the house next door. The damage to furniture and clothing amounted to about $75, fully covered by insurance. While the fire department was at the scene, the fire in the morning, Chief Robinson lost his white helmet off the wagon. The finder will kindly return it to No. 1 fire hall, Keele-street.

Grocer's Sudden Death. Arthur W. McCaulay, a well known resident of West Toronto, and proprietor of a grocery store at 56 West Dundas-street, died suddenly of pneumonia at 11 o'clock to-day. He was attending to business in his store this morning, when he became suddenly ill, and from the first very little hope was held out for his recovery. He had been in the store for some time, and was the employer of the C.P.R., and was a member of several local societies. He leaves a widow and little son. Arrangements for the funeral have not yet been made.

Very impressive indeed was the funeral service at the Salvation Army City Hall, held at 11 o'clock to-day. Mrs. Pym, 502 Krankin-avenue, whose remains were afterwards removed to the last resting place in Prospect cemetery. Sincere tributes to his respect and esteem in which Mrs. Pym was held not only by her co-workers in the store, but by all who knew him, were freely expressed, and beautiful selections of old hymn tunes were rendered by the Salvation Army Silver Band, December 25, 1907, age 46 and leaves a husband and several children.

Took All Day. The cases against the local hotel-keepers, accused of breaking the local option by-law, were again brought up before the court this morning, and occupied Magistrate Ellis' attention all day, with the exception of a recess at noon. All the cases were adjourned to the afternoon session, which was conducted by City Solicitor Anderson.

It was shown that this allegation was false and the Telegram had promptly and handsomely apologized, but Dingle, who sued for $10,000, said he could not atone for.

VETERANS SEEKING LAND.

British South African Soldiers Feel They Are Entitled to Canadian Grants

About one hundred British South African veterans, now citizens of Canada, met last evening and perfected an association which has for its purpose the gaining of Dominion land grants equivalent to those allotted the Canadian soldiers who served in the Transvaal for British veterans now residents here.

The organization is called the Imperial South African Veterans' Association. These men participated in the war as British soldiers and subsequently removed to Canada. They now seek to have the parliament amend the Dominion Land-Bounty Act so as to include those soldiers who had become Canadian citizens subsequent to the war.

A deputation was appointed to interview local candidates to ascertain at Ottawa whether the government is willing to extend the scope of grant to include these men.

A meeting will be held Saturday night to receive the report of the deputation.

Bartholomew Dingle Gets Verdict Against The Telegram. At 8 o'clock last evening a jury in the assize court returned a verdict awarding Bartholomew Dingle of Berlin $250 against the Toronto Telegram, because the latter published a despatch from St. Catharines which intimated that Dingle had been involved in a swindle. It was shown that this allegation was false and the Telegram had promptly and handsomely apologized, but Dingle, who sued for $10,000, said he could not atone for.

Several other Ontario papers had already settled with Dingle at about the same amount.
