It also was asserted that the American ambulances now in Russia will be transferred to the Rumanian front and that the 40 or more ambulances now ready for shipment from the United States to Russia will be sent to Italy or France.

The allies, thru a French message to General Scherbatcheff, the commander of the Russian forces in Rumania, have got before the Russian people their decision not to recognize the Bolsheviki soviet at Petrograd as the Russian government. This is a hard blow to the the soviet has misled them. They are Russians, will now be able to make their voices heard. * WAR SUMMARY * THE DAY'S EVENTS REVIEWED

THE struggle in Belgium at the present time, mainly consists of a tremendous arthrery duel about the ridge of assochendaele. The Germans are striving to make the summit untenable; the British are using this position for the complete domination of Houthulst Wood ng to make the summit untenable; the to the northeast. They have gained the power of making this wood untenable by their fire. When the Germans lose Houthulst Wood, and the weather becomes hard, the British can gain control of the road to Thourout. When they gain this control, they will turn the German positions on the Belgian coast and be in positions on the Belgian coast and be in position to expel the enemy from Belgiam. The plan of Field Marshal Haig is no secret. He is working to cut off the German armies south of the Lys, so as to break thru the German centre. This was the favorite battle plan of Napoleon. The defensive has vastly improved since Napoleon's day, but the principle is still the same. It will give the same results. to the northeast. They have gained the the same. It will give the same results.

Napoleon's day, but the principle is still the same. It will give the same results. The German report that the British are bombarding Cambrai is probably a fiction designed to give a pretext to the German for the destruction of the town. The British are probably only shelling the junction at Cambrai. The enemy, as at Lens and St. Quentin, is probably going to demolish buildings to serve him as underground fortresses in order to tie up a certain number of British troops in besigning Cambrai. The British generals are waiting for the ground to freeze in order to wage more aggressive warfare. They are also probably waiting on the Paris conference to see whether the allies will make any changes in the poilty of the campaign. It is commonly supposed that the driving of the Germans, sut of Beigium will end the war. This is fallacy. The liberation of Beigium will not give France back Alsace-Lorraine, nor liberate Serbia; neither will it; give the ashies the security which they require against the outbreak of future wars. In order to win the war, they must clear the enemy from all the territory at present considerable section of German territory in the bargain.

The allies, thru a French message to General Scherbatchess, the commander of the Russian forces in Rumania, have the solvent he soviet he soviet he sevent the bossevit he solvent he southern should be a considerable section of German territory in the bargain.

the Book Department.

Toronto, Ont.,
November 12, 1917.
Dear Austin,—I am sending you an invitation as well as a letter. I want you to ask your mother to let you come down to Toronto some time in the Christmas holidars as you will be able to ide days, so you will be able to visit Eaton's Big Store with me.

Eaton's Big Store with me.

I would like you to see the Book Department. It is like a Public Library, but is more complete, especially for boys like you and me, who are fond of reading books written by interesting authors. The Book Department is nicely laid out. If you want any particular book it is so easy to find, because they are all arranged in groups, from little tots' bedtime stories to scientific books for professional people. Among the most interesting books in fiction for boys are "The Boy Scouts," a series by Scoutmaster Robert Shaler and Lieut. Howard Payson; "The Boy Allies in the Navy," by Drake. Also that most interesting collection of stories by Jules Verne that make you think he must have lived at the present time to imagine what he did before airships or submarines were invented. Then we have an aero-plane series by Horace Porter, some "Pirate Stories" by Henty and the adventures of the "Scarlet Scouts" by D. H. Parry. Stories by Sir Walter Scott are good and instructive. You know our old friend Horatio Alger, jun. All his books are there, and a great many other authors too numerous to mention who write good boys'

many other authors too numerous to mention who write good boys

But come down yourself and see the arrangement and see how even a little boy is treated nicely by salesladies, who are anxious to show you are booking for. They have a catalogue, and know what books are in stock without looking for them. You do not see anything like that in Guelph, do you?

I wish you to see the moving stairway they have in the store. You step on at the bottom and it carries you to the next floor. They have them up to the third floor, and are called Escalators.

Well, Austin, I think I have said enough for this time. If I wanted to describe more fully Eaton's wonderful store, especially the Book Department. I could write a book. Hoping you will be able to accept my invitation, I remain, your loving cousin.

Should We Let the Whole Brunt of the War Fall on Our Soldiers?

ANCY the shame of it, were we less ready to invest our money than those men in Flanders were to enlist themselves, in the fight against the Hun!

Our country's appeal to us to lend of our means is a "call to arms" to every man, woman and child within whose power it lies to put fifty dollars or more in the great Victory War Loan. If we fail to respond, shall we not prove pitifully unworthy of the soldiers who have made for Canada such a glorious name?

J. M. Skelton made an excellent address, commending the attitude of Premier Borden in securing a Unionist government, and said that he believed the people of Canada would stand by the Unionist government and carry it to victory on election day.

He could not believe that at this time in the war's history, Canada would duplicate what Russla had done.

He endorsed the candidature of W F. Maclean, who, he said, both in parliament and thru the columns of his paper, supported the soldier and his dependents in every way. Foreigners still continue to appear before the various tribunals of the city claiming exemption from military service, asthey are not of British birth. Most of them have seen something ofthe way the compulsory service is carried on in their own country, and have an idea that Canadian justice is just as bad. This is shown by the suspicious attitude they take towards the tribunals. ### The Spirit of the Times.

It is questioned among those who are not accustomed to think of any phase of thought but their own, nor of any class but that which they belong to, nor of any political movement but one with which they are familiar, whether it is justifiable to suspend action on what has so long occupied them for the sake of a new issue. It is due to the lack of understanding, of which we have already spoken, and also to a want of knowledge of and reliance upon what Mr. Samuer Gompers described as the spirit of the times.

The most advanced thinkers are only a part of the great mass who form the wave of progressive modern humanity, still largely strangers to each other. but learning to know each other better in the tremendous experiences of war, whose furnace fires are welding the nations into new and truer unity. The suspicions of theorists and reformers for those who are unaccustomed comrades, and their fears for the fate of their pet projects and schemes of government and reform, are not worthy of a time when men march out shoulder to shoulder, trusting their lives to the good faith and loyalty of those with whom they march and those they leave behind.

It is the bitterest thought that the lover of democracy has today that when our bravest and best go out to the front to face the foe, relying on their comrades, relying on the men who keep the communications, relying on the sailor men who hold the channels of communication, relying on the toilers of one kind and another who manufacture or design, who plow and sow, that at the end of it all the chain should be broken, and the people for whom all the fighting is done and all the tofl is spent should fail them and desert them and break the faith.

The Russian army was loyal at the front, but those behind deserted the cause and the infection spread. The army itself contracted the taint and its strength turned to weakness. An attempt is being made in Canada to break up the support of the people and get them to desert the men at the front. It is veiled and disguised, of course, and pretends an interest it has never yet shown to be real in action. And most subtle of all it tells the people who are striving for better things that there is no guarantee that when the war is won the better things will come to pass.

This is what we need to learn about the spirit of the times. There is nothing in governments, in parties, in politics, or in any other form of opinion, organized or unorganized, that can turn aside at this stage of the world's history the mighty spirit that tions may freely divide the people and give employ- all bor ment to the politicians so long as all stand behind the president while he is directing the American army in the sun in eclipse. The war itself is but the penumbra, and by and by the sun of free humanity will shine out in all its glory. It is this inner conviction would have us think. It is the very essence of our life and of the future of our children. When this object is gained we may be satisfied that the other things that we need to have settled, the problems of labor and capital, the social reconstruction, education, health, and a thousand other matters, will be settled in the same spirit as we must settle the central problem of all. We must beware about straining at gnats It seems so little for those behind and swallowing the camel of German infamy. When we have won the war the spirit of the times will give us other victories at home.

There is No Old Government.

A statement sometimes heard when politics are being debated is to the effect that the old government should not be supported. This point of view is an incorrect one. There is no longer an old government. It ceased to be; its sins and its virtues, whatever they were, are the heritage of no one. When parliament dissolved the old government the old parties, the old policies and the old methods passed out of existence.

There are still a great many people who cannot believe or understand this, which is the cardinal fact of the election. The government, whatever it is, is not to be judged by the acts of its predecessor, but by its own policy and its own pronounced declaration of principles. In spite of themselves the old parties have passed away. Those who seek to resurrect them fail to see the new day and the new life around them. What all the voters of Canada have to do now is to return to parliament those men who are pledged to stand by the great and single policy of the new government, the winning of the war, the support of our boys at the front, the devotion of all our resources to that single aim. Not a vote should go to those who would delay on any pretext the strengthening of our army. Not a vote should be given to any who want to find some easy way out of the war, but who would only lead us into the morasses and wildernesses of a pro-German situation where we may have to fight for our lives and our families here in Canada, instead of on the already blood-drenched battlefields of Europe.

The old political parties have passed away. They are replaced by the new party that has but one thought, to make the world safe for democracy by winning the war against autocracy. The whole world ought to be at peace, as Canada and the United States have been at peace for a century. Dr. Judson said a splendid thing at the Empire Club yesterday when he spoke of that long friendship. "We have no forts along our boundaries. The only forts we need are the universities on each side of the line." as she is led by the bloody-minded Hohenzollern auto-Germany will not endure a peace like that as long son said, has no existence between nations, and treaties are regarded as subterfuges behind which they can prepare to overcome an unsuspecting people.

It is obvious that the cause of peace is therefore the cause of truth, and until truth and justice are established among the nations there can be no peace.

There is therefore but one cause and one party to which thinking, earnest men and women can join themselves. It is the party of those who are pledged to think of nothing else till the war is won.

Attacking the President.

There are signs of unrest in the United States.
This unrest may be attributed to the war, but we think it exists in spite of the war. In 1912 so acute an observer as Judge Gary, president of the United States Steel Corporation, declared that every condition existed at that time in the United States which in France preceded the great revolution. For it must be remembered that the French revolution was not a sudden eruption, but that men of vision inside and outside of France saw it coming for years. Lord Chesterfield as early as 1759 predicted the French revolution.

The election of Mr. Wilson in 1912 and the progressive legislation which he hurried thru congress in 1913 stemmed the tide, but by 1914 our neighbors were on the verge of financial panic and an industrial revolution. Then the European war brought a hectic prosperity which quieted the unrest. Now with the United States in the war, we find encount in the publicity committee, under the respective teams in, each division staken Toronto to its very boods, and shaken Toronto to its very boods, and shaken it so badly that the canvastication is shaken Toronto to its very boods, and shaken it so badly that the canvast victory bonds at 28 on Saturday between Ontario's For would have to the deaf if he could row the canvast victory bonds at 28 on Saturday between Ontario's For the central revolution was not a flow. Over $11,000,000 was added to the loan in Ontario yesterday, of which the province outside Toronto contri-buted nearly $8,000,000, bringing the total for Canada, so far as reported, to over $271,000,000.

The rural districts thruout Ontario again surprised the provincial officials with the generosity of their response. York, Lambton and Leeds and Grenville crossed the $2,000,000 mark, while Durham, Halton and Renfrew entered the million class. One worker in Leeds and Grenville has secured over $110,000 from the farming element, while two others in Hastings have over $160,000 to the farmers' credit.
Great expectations are still held out regarding the prospects in the indus-trial centres. Tho many of the factories have been canvassed several times the field is not yet exhausted. The workers are now going after the bonds, and one case is reported from St. Catharines where 20 men in factories already covered applied at headquarters yesterday for a share in the loan. At Trenton 160 subscriptions were reported yesterday for $16,700, an average of over $100. The Deloro

Manager Frank Feeney and his Kew Beach H.C. senior team refuse to be counted out of the running in the senior series of the Beaches Hockey League, despite the fact that practically all of last year's team are now overseas playing the bigger game. A meeting will be held at 194 kenilworth avenue on Tuesday evening next, when plans for the coming season will be discussed. Any new players desiring to turn out with this club will be welcomed at this meeting.

Both St. Marys and St. Simons, who have won several championships in the Beaches League at different times, will likely be back this year to add fresh laurels to their already long list.

All nominations for office, and additions and amendments to the constitution of the Beaches Hockey League should be in the hands of Secretary Smith not later than Monday, Dec. 3.

The Beaches Hockey League is still open for a nomination for a secretary-treasurer, as F. D. Smith, the present secretary, is going to resign this year, as, owing to pressure of business, he will not have the necessary time to continue in that position.

The Beaches League will likely be divided into five series again this winter, which are as follows; Senior and intermediate, with no age limit; junior, undep-the age of 20 on Jan 1, 1918; juvenile, under the age of 18 on Jan. 1, 1918, and midget, under the age of 16 on the same date.

There is one man in Toronto who believes that the house-to-house canvass is a means of education for women. This man was doing a little canvassing himself the other day in Park-dale, in the interests of the Unionist government candidate, and at one house he found a woman who did not know there was an election on, had never heard of Sir Robert Borden, and did not know anything about conscription. By a Staff Reporter.
Milton, Nov. 29. — Citizens of Halton County contributed their support to the Union government and its winto the Union government and its winthe-war policy, at Milton, this afternoon, when it extended a royal welcome to Premier Sir Robert Borden.
They met the prime minister at the station and greeted him with ringing cheers when he stepped on the platform and vigorously applauded Sir Robert's statement that he was determined to stand to the last by Canada's brave volunteers in the trenches. Two meetings were found necessary women held last night at $10 Yongs street. He stated that the Unioh government, according to the promase of Sir Robert Borden, would be on the basis of fifty-fifty. Another labor representative would be ejected, and it would be Quebecs own fault if the had not a larger share.

The speaker told of a returned soldier who went to a committee room and said he would vote for Laurier because "Borden had cut off his beer." When told that this had not been a Dominion affair, he replied that had not been the information given him.

The one main issue, said Mr. Van. Koughnet, is: "Whether shall we follow the government or follow the opposition and desert and betray our splendid soldiers? When the boys come home it will not be what did we do to win the election?"

A banner, "Unionist Win-the-war" Indeed to an address by Major H. M. Mowat, the promise and undivided attention that they paid to an address by Major H. M. Mowat, they paid to hear they poid to hear they understand the town hall and the Princess Theatre were taxed to capacity, great numbers of women being present. Sir Robert was supported by Dr. R. K. Anderson, the Union candidate for Halton County, and paid a warm tribute to the workers for their magnificent subscription of the magnificent subscription of th home more intent on piling up money, and in being made comfortable and warm—and even amused—than on the existence of their country.

Dr. Anderson declared his allegiance to Sir Robert Borden and appealed for support for the Union government.

Mayor Earle, who presided at the town hall, declared that the man who would not listen to the policy of the Union government should be disfran-

Union government was not necessary for Canada at this critical period. The present government was formed to give representation to all elements which were willing to throw all the country's best efforts into winning the country's best efforts and who announced his convictions to the country's best efforts and who announced his convictions to the country the country's best efforts into winning the country's best efforts and who announced his convictions to the country that the country the country that the country the country that the country that the country the country that t which were willing to throw all the country's best efforts into winning the war. Party ties were strictly drawn in Canada. The attempt to form a Union government was attended by very severe difficulties and he had been told that it was impossible. But now that it had been formed, he believed it was the best government that Canada could possibly have.

The relations with the men who sat around the council board of Canada were never more cordial and harmonious than at the present time.

Sir Robert pointed out that leading Liberals of all the provinces had entered the Union government, willing to give their best services to the country. He appealed to the people of Canada not for a personal reason, not for the advancement of any party or body of men, but on behalf of the Union government and the purpose

"It was a stern duty for me to call for military service," he said, "but what would you have me do? Was I to say those men couldn't have reinforce-ments? And more than that, I couldn't and you couldn't stand up to those men when they come home if I had adopted such a course."

A Word to the Women. He wanted also to tell the women of Canada, who had shown splendid courage, magnificent sacrifice and strong fortitude, that there might soon come a time when they would be sked to undergo still greater sacrifice. There was only one issue in the ampaign and it was whether the people of Canada were going to stand by those brave men who had gone overseas under the voluntary system to fight for the liberties which they now enjoyed, or were they going to lesert them to Canada's everlasting

Forget Party.
Mr. McKay said he wished that the men and women would be able to forget that they ever attached any political label to themselves. For himself, he wished to say that he had inherited Liberal principles with a Pres-byterian religion. Anyone who wished could attach any kind of label to him, but it could not be said that he was not a Canadan. He painted a word picture of devastated Belgium, France and Serbia, and declared that Canada would yet suffer Prussian brutality and barbarism if it did not do its part to defeat the enemy.

Mr. McKay presented arguments to show that the great democracies of the world down thru the ages had depended on compulsory military serice for their existence. Why should there not be compulsory military ser-vice in Canada? he asked. Were they roing to say that the red blood of Canada had ran out with the 400,000 men who had gone overseas and allow a crowd of slackers to remain at home intent upon piling up money and keeping themselves warm and comfortable—and even amused—than upon their existence as a nation? OF NO ACCOUNT

Many people, he said, had criticized Many people, he said, had criticized the formation of the Union government, but none of those he had met had been able to offer anything better. Special to The Toronto World. Paris, Ont., Nov. 29.—An earnest appeal to candidates to abandon partyism and to unite to preserve the partyism and to unite to preserve the honor of Canada was given tonight by W. F. They pointed out that in union there was strength, and that never in the Conservative, having been endorsed Cockshutt, M.P., on the same ground, the former a Liberal and the latter a Conservative, having been endorsed by the Union government, Addresses were given by ex-Mayor J. M. Patterson and Mayor C. B. Robinson of Paris, both Conservatives, and both strong supporters of Union government, and of John Harold, Union government candidate; Scott Davidson, M.L.A., who declared that he thought Col. Harry Cockshutt was a traitor to the cause, be-cause of his action in remaining a candidate, and by Hon. N. W. Row-ell and W. F. Maclean.

The president of the privy council made the declaration that he feared that even the the men of the first draft were called at once, trained at once, and rushed to the trenches even the trained at once, and rushed to the trenches even distinguish. before they were fittingly trained, before that time the Canadian reserves would be depleted. Mr. E. T. Malone Tells Why He is for the Government.

Very touchingly and tellingly does Mr. E. T. Malone give his reasons for supporting the Union Government. They are reasons which will strike a responsive echo in thousands of Canadian

Those boys of mine are one of the principal reasons why I sup-port Sir Robert Borden and the Union Government. The younger is buried on the battlefield of Flanders. If my daily prayer that the other of them will be permitted to return to me is to be answered, an assurance of some-thing more satisfactory than a referendum must be offered. # BUY VICTORY BONDS

From Your Future Earnings

The lack of ready cash no longer keeps you from becoming a Victory Bond Subscriber.

Victory Bonds can be bought on an easy payment plan.

$5.00 down and one dollar a week for 45 weeks makes you the owner of a Victory Loan Bond drawing 5½ per cent. interest.

$10.00 down and two dollars a week buys a $100.00 Bond in the same number of weeks and so on up to the larger denominations. Easy payment plans have been arranged for all.

See what a convenience this is--you buy Victory Bonds as you would keep a savings account, paying in whatever portion of your weekly income you can best afford.

You who are now saving on a systematic basis (and everyone ought to be doing this) should arrange to have at least a part of your savings from now on applied to the purchase of Victory Bonds.

Every boy and girl who has formed the saving habit should work from now on with the ownership of a Victory Bond as the goal--and any boy or girl who has never learned to save should make this the time of getting a start.

Parents should encourage their children to buy Victory Bonds on the easy payment basis—any child who earns a little money after school running errands or doing little odd jobs, or who receives an allowance, can afford to make payments on a Victory Bond of some denomination.

Every Loyal Canadian owes it to his country---to the Empire---to buy Victory Bonds ---every Canadian owes it to himself to systematically save a part of his future earnings. Perform these two obligations at one and the same time by the purchase of a Victory Bond today on the easy payment plan.

You can buy from the Victory Loan Headquarters in your community---or from the Victory Loan representative who will call on you.

Buy Victory Bonds--and Help Bring the Boys Home

BUY YOUR VICTORY BONDS BUY AS MANY AS YOU CAN

If you were planning to buy one Victory Bond outright, and find that you can buy two if you arrange to buy them from your future earnings—by all means buy the two—it will be better for you and better for Canada.

Live Stock Market

The outlook from an that can be gathered from the leading commission houses and the general trend of their market letters is for a continuance of the present strong market for some time to come.

Millers Pald Farmers in Excess of Mont-real Basis to Secure Supplies.

Winnipeg, Nov. 29.—The regulations re Ontario winter wheat prices just issued by the board of grain supervisors were necessitated by the misunderstanding and evasions of order No. 16 of the board, and evasions of order No. 16 of the board, said C. I: Watts, secretary of the Dominion Millers' Association of Toronto, today. Millens have been paying farmers as much as three cents over basis Montreal, and dealers' and brokers have been charging millers two or three cents commission, because millers had flour sold to the allies and could not get the winter wheat to fill their contracts.

The board has asked millers to report any case where a dealer asks more than any case where a dealer asks more than the prices fixed to either dealer or farmer, rendering both buyer and seller subject to a fine of from $1000 to $5000, or one to five years' imprisonment, or both.

Company Upon Whose Property Dumps Were Deposited Held to Be Owner of Valuable Tailings---Decision Will Affect Number of Companies.

Bank clearings in Toronto in the week etded yesterday amounted to $53,841,647. It is felt that the judgment will be regarded as a test one, establishing the principle that ownership of tallings is rested in the company upon whose property they have been dumped. It is pointed out that, to a large extent, the Beaver tallings are on Gifford property, Timiskaming on the Adanac and Prince croperties, McKinley-Darragh on Cobalt Lake/Hudson Bay on Chambers-Ferland, and the Conlagas tallings on the Tretheway.

Bank clearings in Toronto in the week etded yesterday amounted to $53,841,647 as compared with $56,634,147 in the same week of a year ago, a falling off of $2,792,498. Progress of Litigation.

The litigation began last June when the present directors of the Peterson Lake, 2255; May 22.54. Old contracts: January, 22.55; May 22.54. The official report of the judgment is as follows:
