MERCHANTS SAY A GOOD WORD FOR PROHIBITION

P. E. Island Business Men Are Strong In Its Favor.

They Tell the N. B. Commissioners That the Island Prohibitory Law Has Been a Success in Every Way-- Typhoid in Charlottetown.

CHARLOTTETOWN, P. E. I., Nov. 6 (Special)—The death occurred in the general hospital at Pasadena, Cal., of Sgt. Lionel H. F. Stewart, brother of Mrs. (Rev.) R. G. Straime, of Summerside, and son of the late Robert Stewart, of Wilnot, N. S. Sgt. Stewart was an expert telegrapher in the signal service corps of the United States army, serving in Cuba, Alaska and the Philippines. On his return to America he was attached to the wireless department of the army transport Sherman, and took ill at Honolulu from lead poisoning contracted by sleeping in a newly painted bedroom.

Thirty-five cases of typhoid fever in Charlottetown are giving the health authorities some concern. The epidemic is due to the water, which is the best in the world. Suspicion has fallen upon milk, but no connection between the disease has yet been established. Other sanitary officers have been assigned to make a thorough inspection of the city.

The prohibition commission have examined the stipendiary magistrate, the city marshal, Premier Peters, Mayor Paton and others. Evidence given so far has been strongly in favor of the act, which the witnesses declare has lessened drunkenness and heightened the moral tone of the city. Merchants expressed surprise since the advent of prohibition and that many families formerly in poverty, owing to drink, are now in much better circumstances.

HON. MR. EMMERSON SHOWED HIM AROUND

New Minister of Railways Inspected I. C. R. Shops at Moncton This Morning.

MONCTON, Nov. 6 (Special)—On his first official visit to the Intercolonial Railway Hon. George P. Graham, minister of railways and canals accompanied by a party, arrived in Moncton last evening on special train. The minister's first visit to the railway was a last run on a special train from Campbellton to Moncton, the distance being done in less than four hours. Accompanying him, Mr. Graham was Mrs. Graham and son and Secy. Robinson and Mrs. Robinson, M. J. and a number of Intercolonial officials completed the party. This morning Mr. Graham accompanied by Hon. H. R. Emerson and chief officials of the Intercolonial took a motor car and went to the I. C. R. new shops, briefly inspecting them and the minister expressed surprise at the great extent of the work. Afterward the old I. C. R. shops were visited and the party left by special train at 11 o'clock for Sydney, Halifax and other Nova Scotia points.

TROUBLESOME BOYS

Residents of the west end complain of a number of boys who have been causing a good deal of annoyance in the vicinity of Queen Square. Their latest prank has been to attack a street car and pull the pole from the trolley wire, thus depriving the convenience of its motive power. The names of all the youngsters are known, and should they perpetrate any further offense a number of citizens have declared their intention to prosecute them to the fullest extent of the law.

KILLED IN BOILER EXPLOSION

KIEL, Nov. 6.—The boilers of the German school ship Blücher exploded this morning, while the vessel was near Kiel. It is reported that eight men were killed and twenty-two injured.

SITUATION IN REGARD TO TRUST COMPANIES RELIEVED

Trust Company of America and Lincoln Trust Resumed Today--Gold Importation.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The situation in regard to the trust companies which have been under pressure was materially relieved this morning. The Trust Company of America opened at 10 a. m. with an augmented force of paying tellers, and the Lincoln Trust Company also opened for business as usual. This was mainly the result of the conferences held in the library of J. P. Morgan through the night, which resulted in the issuance of the following statement at an early hour this morning: "The committee of the Trust Companies of New York City has had the assets of the Trust Company of America and the Lincoln Trust Company examined by experts, who report that in their judgment on the present basis of values, the assets of each company are sufficient to pay its depositors in full. "It has been arranged that a majority of the stock of each company shall be placed under the control of a committee, who will act in an advisory capacity, and the necessary financial arrangement has been made to enable both companies to proceed with their business. "The Bank of Montreal today announced an additional engagement of $500,000 gold for importation, bringing the total of the present movement to $86,150,000. "SOUTHAMPTON, Nov. 6.—The White Star Line steamer Oceanic, which sailed from here today for New York, took over $1,500,000 in gold.

TWO YEARS FOR THEFT

Joseph Carr Sent to the Penitentiary by Judge Forbes.

In the county court this morning Joseph Carr, charged with stealing a coat and a pair of pants from Mrs. Rose McDonald's store on Brussels street, was tried by Judge Forbes under the Speedy Trials Act and sentenced to two years in Dorchester penitentiary. In the course of proceedings relative to the naturalization of foreigners, his honor took occasion to remark that he thought the manner in which the naturalization law was carried out in many instances very loose and unsatisfactory, as there was no evidence to show the standing of applicants in their own countries, whether they were Nihilists or Socialists and nothing to give any idea as to their intelligence—to show whether or not they could read or write. His honor stated further that in future, he would sign no naturalization papers, until he had sufficient evidence as to the standing and character of applicants in their own countries and their intelligence to justify him in doing so. His honor adds that although he has not looked into the law very carefully as yet, that some changes along the lines already referred to would be advisable in order to prevent the country being flooded with Russians, Chinese, Japs, etc., whose characters would render them undesirable as citizens.

The case of the Gould, Shaply & Muir Co. vs. M. De Rosier was on application of C. S. Sanford postponed to a week pending settlement. Judgment was taken in the case of J. A. Blow et al. vs. R. J. Wilkins to recover the sum $200 the amount of a promissory note.

CHASED WIFE 1,500 MILES

And Finally He Caught Her in Ann Arbor With Man Who Induced Her to Elope.

ANN ARBOR, Mich., Nov. 6 (Special)—After a 1500 mile chase, during which he was at all times just a few miles behind his wife and the man with whom she had eloped, Charles Wixman Hermit, a justice of the peace in Raymond, Alberta, had the fleeing pair arrested here. The man who is held under the name of John Cooper, land agent. Hermit was enabled to catch the capture because his wife carried too long over a visit to relatives.

A WEST SIDE COMPLAINT

A resident of the west side complains bitterly of what he terms a "beak of judgment" on the part of the N. B. Southern Railway. He complains that the passengers frequently lose the wharf at 2.45 o'clock P. M. The party referred to explains that many people lose sight of the ferry time-table on the part of the hour at which the train leaves, the result being failure to get the boat leaving the east side at 2.20 o'clock, and thus losing the train which, as a rule, leaves the depot just as the tardy passengers are coming up the stairs; whereas a delay of two or three minutes on the part of the railway officials would accommodate such passengers. There is very seldom a day, he adds, that someone is not left behind. On Saturday a gentleman, who was too late, jumped into a cab and was whirled to the head of the wharf, thus being able to catch the train, which was running at a slow rate of speed. A lady, who was detained at the depot, was not so fortunate, having nearly missed the head of the ferry boats just as the train was moving out of the depot.

A MYSTERIOUS SHOOTING

BUFFALO, N. Y., Nov. 6.—Alexander Young, a saloon keeper of Eleventh street, shot early today, and probably fatally injured while standing at a window of his dance hall conversing with two friends. This is the third attempt within 11 months to kill him. Neither the police nor Young's family have any explanation for the repeated assaults.

In the probate court this morning letters testamentary in the estate of the late Sarah Harris were granted to John Johnston, the executor named in the will. The estate values at $2,500 personal property. E. S. Ritchie proctor.

Ambassador Bryce Presents Sun Dial.

DEDICATION OF THE MATHER SUN DIAL AT PRINCETON

P. Mr. Bryce was escorted from Nassau Hall by President Wilson and the faculty to the base of the sun dial on the campus, where the ambassador made a short address. Mr. Mather was not present, and the ambassador, in presenting the dial, brought a message of affection from him, and spoke of the close relationship of Oxford University and Princeton. President Wilson responded, thanking Mr. Mather and Ambassador Bryce. The following cable dispatches were read: To President Wilson:—Hearty greetings to assembly. May the sun dial record day by day through centuries of only unbroken attachment between America and Great Britain. My grateful thanks to Ambassador Bryce. (Signed) WM. MATHER.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT WILL NOT GO TO COUNTRY NOW

Premier Robinson Said This Morning That There Will Be Another Session--Dates of the By-Elections Not Yet Considered.

FRIDERICHTON, N. B., Nov. 6 (Special)—The following cases were argued in the supreme court this morning. The expenses of the local Board of Health for Victoria, T. J. Carter supports an application for an order to enforce the payment of bills incurred in connection with an outbreak of smallpox. The bills were presented by the board of health and cut down by the council. The court considers. Ledwin vs. Meahan, Byrne moves for judgment as in the case of a non-suit, ruling absolute. King vs. Forbes ex parte Harrington, J. B. M. Baxter shows cause against a rule nisi to quash an order of Judge Forbes for a review from the police court. Daniel Mullin, K. C. contra. The case is still before the court. The government held another meeting this morning with all the members present. Some applications for letters patent were dealt with, but there was no business of importance. The board of education is to meet this afternoon and the government goes to St. John tomorrow morning. In answer to a question the premier stated that the dates of the by-elections had not been considered. He thought it very probable there would be another session.

30,000 MAY STRIP FORESTS OF MAINE

Great Army to Work This Season--Costs Million a Month to Pay and Feed Them.

PORTLAND, Me., Nov. 5.—An army of 30,000 men will soon be toiling in the forests of Maine, where during the next few months they will cut and ship over 700,000,000 feet of spruce logs. A fortune is required to pay and feed this great number of men. The average wage this season is $22 a month and board. This is an increase of $10 a month, as compared with six years ago, the advance being due to the scarcity of men. On this basis the great lumber firms will pay out about $800,000 a month in wages, while it will cost at least $400,000 a month to feed them. This brings the total cost of operations in the woods alone up to a sum well over a million. In addition to this the logs have to be sorted and driven to the mill. The expense of this work is not far from $300,000 a month.

LOCAL OPTION FIGHT

Methodists Want Three-fifths Majority Law Repealed.

The Temperance committee of the Toronto conference of the Methodist church met yesterday. It passed a motion expressing gratification at the deep interest taken in the movement for the suppression of the bar-room, as shown by the many local option contests that are now under way, and also its gratification at the efforts of the government to secure a thorough enforcement of the liquor laws generally. They earnestly hoped that the government and legislature would repeal at the next session the present law on the subject of local option. They claim that it is delaying local option in several communities where there is a strong temperance sentiment. Alfred Porter, of Wm. Thomson & Co. came in on today's Boston train. Mr. and Mrs. Brooks C. Peters, of Moncton, passed through the city at noon.

DOMINION PARK BURNED TODAY

Montreal's Greatest Amusement Resort Destroyed By Fire--Loss Is $200,000.

MONTREAL, Nov. 6 (Special)—Dominion Park, a prominent pleasure resort, was destroyed by fire today, loss $200,000. Dominion Park was Montreal's Congo Island. It was opened in 1905 in the north east quarter of the city, and was replete with the chutes, Ferris wheel, scenic railway, vaudeville theatres, and other similar attractions. It was the largest amusement enterprise of its kind in Canada. The first year it showed a profit on capital investment of $80,000.

ANOTHER EXCUSE FOR DELAY

The time when the ferry steamer Ludlow is to go on the route seems still far distant. The boat is now reported to be ready, but it is said some old timbers which have been loosened from the island wharf where the decking is going on have drifted over across the ferry entrance and sunk in the region of the Navy Island bar which was dredged out not long ago. The old timbers it is said have been causing havoc with the paddle wheels of the old ferry boats and it is feared the proprietors of the Ludlow would be very quick to put out of business if she were to strike some of them.

THAT YACHT RACE

At the meeting of the R. K. Y. club last evening there was a general discussion of the award of the sailing committee in the disputed race between the Mona and Canada. The former was disqualified for a "technical foul" because it was alleged she would have fouled the stake boat had it not been pulled in. It was pointed out that there is no such thing as a technical foul, and that had the committee carefully read the rules their decision would have been different. The general view seemed to be that the committee acted in good faith, but that they were in error. Citizens passing along Carmarthen street complain that a number of planks have been allowed to rot on the sidewalk for some months past. They think they should be removed as they do not add to the appearance of the street.

SHE PREFERRED DEATH TO ATTENDANCE AT SCHOOL

TELEGRAPHERS STRIKE IS OFF

Commercial Operators Will Abandon Strike Against the Western Union.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—Local members of the Commercial Telegraphers' Union probably will vote today to abandon their strike against the Western and Postal Telegraph Companies. Official action on the suspension of the strike will be taken this afternoon at a meeting at Clinton Hall, but to all intents and purposes the struggle is already over. At the offices of the companies yesterday more than a hundred strikers applied for their old places. All except those most actively interested as leaders of the strike were re-employed. An even greater break in the ranks of the strikers is expected today. It is said that practically every one of the local strike leaders is in favor of giving up the struggle.

COUNCIL MEETING AGAIN POSTPONED

City Council's Monthly Session Will Not Be Held Until Monday Next.

The regular monthly meeting of the common council, which was to have been held on Monday and was postponed owing to the development in the chamberlain's office, has now been set down for Monday afternoon next at 3 o'clock. It was at first suggested that the meeting should be held this afternoon, but as Mr. MacIntyre, the auditor who is examining the books, could not finish the work in time, it was decided that Monday would be the most suitable date. The session of the council is expected to be a very interesting one, as in addition to the treasury board's recommendations for a number of changes in the method of doing business in the chamberlain's office, Union street double tracking mix-up is likely to be aired.

JAPAN IS IMPORTING

CATTLE FROM CANADA

OTTAWA, Nov. 6 (Special)—Mr. McLean, Canada's trade commissioner in Japan reports today to the department the arrival of 40 head of fine registered pedigree cows from Canada. The cattle were imported by the Japanese government. This firm says that the business could be done in live cattle, because of the tariff, but there ought to be a good trade in slaughtering and shipping in cold storage. Australia was doing good business in that line.

Eleven-year Old Girl Made Attempt at Suicide.

Little Rebecca Scott of 182 Erin Street Drank Carbolic Acid When It Was Found She Had Been Playing Truant--She Will Recover.

Because she didn't want to go to school and crying "I will end it all" eleven-year old Rebecca Scott, of 182 Erin street, drank carbolic acid from a bottle yesterday afternoon and for a time lingered between life and death. Since the death of her mother about a year ago her step sister has been filling the mother's place. It had been found that Rebecca was playing truant and her step sister called upon the girl's teacher, arranging that she should return to school yesterday afternoon. She evidently dreaded the ordeal, fearing that she would be whipped by the teacher and said that she would not go back. Upon being urged she became desperate and rushed to a shelf on which was a bottle of carbolic acid and with a cry that she would end it all succeeded in swallowing a quantity of the contents before it was realized what she was doing. The girl was in great agony immediately and Dr. James Christie was hurriedly summoned. Finding her in a serious condition he took her in his carriage to the General Public Hospital. There for a time she lingered between life and death. It is believed now, however, that she is out of danger though terribly burned inside the mouth and throat.

ARRESTED FOR THEFT

MONCTON, N. B., Nov. 6 (Special)—Charged with the theft of about twenty-five dollars, C. Merritt, I. C. R. night operator at Windsor Junction, has been arrested. The money was abstracted from the railway returns, which were to be forwarded to Moncton.

RABBI AMDUR ARRIVES

Rev. Bernard Amdur, recently chosen Rabbi of the Hebrew synagogue to succeed Rabbi Rabinowitz, who resigned to accept a call to New York, arrived on today's Montreal train. The new Rabbi comes here from Hamilton, Ontario, where he was in charge of a large synagogue. He is well and favorably known in Buffalo, and through New York State as an eloquent preacher and man of fine intellect. He has a pleasing personality and has an excellent command of the English language. Rabbi Amdur was met at the station by a delegation from the Hebrew synagogue.

THE MOTOR CAR OFF AGAIN

Suburbanites along the line of the I. C. R. claim that the present suburban train system is anything but satisfactory. About a week ago the new Austrian motor car, which was making the trip to Hampton at 6.15, broke down at Lakeside and had to be towed back to the city. Last evening the car was again placed on the route, after being repaired, but it got only as far as Goldbrook when something went wrong and the passengers had to wait at the station until the old-fashioned train came along and took them to their destinations. So far the motor cars have not proved the success that was predicted.

THE RESULTS OF YESTERDAY'S ELECTIONS IN UNITED STATES

Governor Guild's Plurality in Massachusetts Is Increased to 105,000--Results in Other States.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—Additional returns received through the night and this morning confirm the general results and clear up some of the doubts in closely contested elections. The main results are now estimated as follows:—Governor Guild of Massachusetts, has increased his plurality to about 105,000 as against a plurality of 30,000 in 1906. The entire state ticket and both branches of the legislature are Republican. Of the two democratic candidates, Henry M. Whitney strongly outvoted Charles W. Bartlett, the latter falling far below Thomas L. Higgin, candidate of the Independence League. Maryland has elected the Democratic candidate for governor, Judge A. L. Crother and the entire Democratic state ticket by about 7,000 plurality. The legislature is apparently Democratic. Ex-Governor Smith carried the primaries for the long term in the United States senate, and Senator William Pinckney Whyte is assured of the short term.

The result in New Jersey has become so close that it may require the official returns to decide between Katzenbach, the Democratic candidate for governor and Judge Franklin Fort for Republican nominee. The early report of Katzenbach's lead of 150,000 has been followed by detailed returns showing that only a few hundred votes separate the contestants. At Newark, Fort's election is claimed by a plurality of about 175. In 1894 Governor Stokes had a Republican majority of 31,000 in New Jersey. Rhode Island has re-elected Governor James H. Higgins, Democratic candidate for governor, his plurality now reaching 2,367, a gain of 1,000 since 1904. The general assembly is Republican in both branches, insuring the return of George Peabody Wetmore of Newport to the United States senate. Kentucky has elected the entire Republican state ticket, headed by Augustus E. Willson for governor, by majorities ranging from 5,000 to 10,000. The Kentucky legislature will have a Democratic majority on joint ballot, and will probably elect Governor Brockman to the U. S. senate. The New York results, city and state, remain as determined last night. Justice Edward T. Herlihy and William Bartlett, joint Democratic and Republican nominees, being elected, as justices of the court of appeals, and the Tammany ticket having a plurality over the Independence League Republican Fusion candidates.

THE TIMES NEW REPORTER

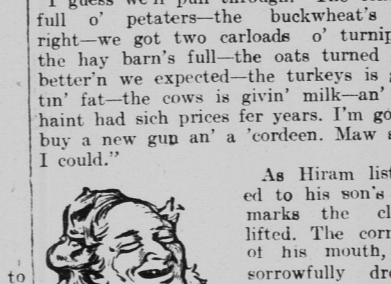

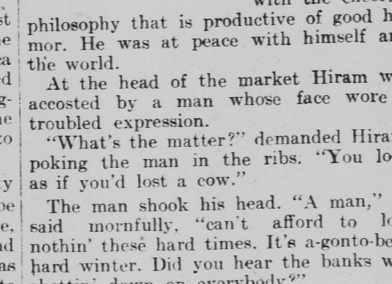

HIRAM AND THE PANIC.

Mr. Hiram Hornbeam passed through several stages of mental agitation yesterday. When he arrived at the market he was in his normal frame of mind, which prompts him to look out upon men and affairs with the cheerful philosophy that is productive of good humor. He was at peace with himself and the world. At the head of the market Hiram was accosted by a man whose face wore a troubled expression. "What's the matter?" demanded Hiram, poking the man in the ribs. "You look as if you'd lost a cow."

HIRAM AND THE PANIC.

It was at this stage that Hiram's son, who had just come in from the settlement, strolled up and saluted Hiram, who sadly at the young man, and sighed. "What's the matter, dad?" cheerily asked the son. "I guess we better go home," said Hiram, "and see if we kin make out till spring without applyin' to the parish."

Now this was a sad transformation to be brought about in half an hour, in the length of the market. When Hiram got out on the German street sidewalk he expected to see auction flags at the doors of the stores on the other side of the street. That such was not the case could only be explained by the fact that the merchants had got another day's grace.

return here." She was a little breathless, and spoke in a stammer.
He had promised to write, but he had not written. What was he to say? That he still loved her, although she was rich? Perhaps he dreamed that she would write to him. But no; silence was the steady scheme of things—and work, fourteen hours a day work as the solution, until his bronzed face began to take on the student's cast, and he wondered, at times, if he had ever caught and saddled a bronco, or slept under the stars. Or was it all a dream?
Wanting some bread, and being alone, the charwoman having believed his statement that he would be away until next morning, he went into the kitchen. It was now high summer; hot, with the stable-like heat of London, and the kitchen window was wide open. Some impulse prompted him to look out and examine the serene lift by way of which Van Hupfeldt had twice quitted the flat, once when driven by mad fear of being held guilty of Gwendoline's death, and again to save his life from David's revolver.
Given a steady brain and some little athletic skill, the feat was easy enough. All that was needed was to cling to two greasy iron uprights and slide from one floor to the next, where cross-bars marking the different stories and provided halting places for the life. It was typical of Van Hupfeldt's nerve, had the nerve to essay this means of escape.
David was looking into the well of the building a hundred feet below, when an electric bell jarred over his head. Some one was at the front door, was a porter. "You are wanted down-stairs, sir," he said. "Yes, sir, there's a hansom waiting, sir." "Oh," said David, wondering what he had left in his cab.
He went down, hatless, and not a word said Jim, though he watched David out of the corner of his eye, and smiled broadly when he saw David's sudden recognition of Violet through the side-window of the hansom.
She, too, smiled delightedly when David appeared. "I want you to come with me for a little drive," she said; "but not without a hat. That would be odd."
David, casting off three months' cobwebs in a second, was equal to the emergency. Somehow, the dmask of Violet's flushed cheeks banished the dull tints in his.
"Jim," he said, "Here's my key. Bring me a hat—any old hat—first you can grab."
Then he climbed into the vacant seat by her side. "Do you know," he said, "I was nearly going to Rigwot's today?"
"I only know," she replied, "that you were to write to me, and I have had no letter."
"Don't put me on my self-defense, or I shan't cut tuppence if you are worth ten thousand or ten millions a year," he said.
Violet leaned over the door. "That man is a long time going for your hat," she said. "By the way, can you spare the time to drive with me to Kensal Green? And then I am to take you to Porchester Gardens, where mother expects you to dine with us, en famille, so you need not

BOX COSTUME FOR EVENING WEAR.

Evening costumes for Home Show wear in light colors, white and all the pastel shades being equally fashionable. Blondine, one of the very fashionable new shades is the tone of this chiffon satin semi-princess gown which will be worn for the first time by a New York society woman whose name is listed in the catalogue as a box patron of the New York Home Show. This style of dress is particularly adapted to many figures, for it has a tendency with its long extra back and front panel to give long and graceful lines. This panel is of flit net with an all-over design in soutache. The princess line is broken on each side of the panel under the arms with a folded grille of the satin, and the material above and below this grille is pleated and stitched flat so that the dress fits perfectly at his point. Mandarin armholes are simulated with bands of the braided flit net over the satin.

WAS A TOTAL WRECK FROM HEART FAILURE.

Heart disease is characterized by its stealthy approach and its variety of forms, yet in all its forms nature gives unmistakable signals which warn us of its presence. One of the first danger signals announcing something wrong with the heart is the irregular beat or violent throb. Often there is only a fluttering sensation, or an "all gone" sinking feeling, or again there may be the most violent heaving, with flushings of the skin and visible pulsations of the arteries. You may experience a smothering sensation, gasp for breath and feel as though about to die. In such cases the action of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills in quieting the heart, restoring its normal beat, and imparting tone to the nerve centres, is, beyond all question, marvellous. They give such prompt relief, and such speedy restoration to health that no one need suffer.

Mr. Darius Carr, Geary, N. B., writes: "It is with the greatest pleasure I write you a few lines to let you know the great blessing your Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills have been to me. I was a total wreck from heart failure, my wife advised me to take your pills, and, after using two boxes I was restored to perfect health. I am now as well as I did at twenty."

CHAMBERLAIN GIVES IN SECURITIES OF $10,467

Cash, Life Insurance and Mortgage to be Held Against Apparent Shortage. At a private session of the treasury board last evening it was decided to take over the securities amounting to about $10,467 which were offered by the chamberlain against the apparent deficit in the books and to hold them in trust until the audit is completed. Charles A. McDonald, the general agent of the London Guarantee & Accident Company, Ltd., which issued the guarantee bonds, was present and concurred in the arrangement. It was also decided to place David Willet and D. G. Lingley, of the chamberlain's department, under bond as jointly responsible for the cash on hand. It is probable that a teller and a permanent auditor will be appointed within a few weeks.

THE SUSSEX ORANGEMEN OBSERVE GUY FAWKES' DAY

Sussex, N. B., Nov. 5.—(Special)—The first celebration of Guy Fawkes' day by the Sussex Orangemen, No. 124, was held here tonight, when members and their friends sat down to a tempting dinner served by the ladies of Chalmers Presbyterian church. The hall was tastefully decorated with mottoes, flags and other emblems. Many prominent Orangemen were in attendance and there were a number of invited guests. A feature of the dinner was the large attendance of ladies. The toast list was brief. The honored memory of King William was responded to by F. M. Spruell, of Hampton, and Rev. George Orman. Grand officers past and present brought forth eloquent speeches from Geo. W. Fowler, M. P., past grand master for New Brunswick, and James A. Moore, past S. D. grand master; primary and county judges were honored by Ald. Perry and W. R. J. Smith, and Rev. Frank Baird replied for the clergy. Judge McIntyre made a splendid chairman. During the evening the Sussex orchestra rendered a good programme and vocal numbers were supplied by Messrs. Hoag, McKenna and the Sussex quartette. CHIEF OF POLICE TO TACKLE TASK

Moncton Council Decides to Allow the Chief of Police to Enforce the Scott Act.

Moncton, N. B., Nov. 5.—The Scott act was the absorbing topic at tonight's meeting of the city council. Ministers of the Evangelical Alliance waited on the council and through their spokesman, Rev. J. E. Brown, Rev. H. E. Thomas and Rev. Mr. Wiggins, protested against the laxity being displayed by the council in enforcing the Scott act and urging them to take immediate action to close up the bars in the city. Rev. Mr. Thomas presented a written protest against the council misappropriating fines from Scott act convictions for any other purpose than the enforcement of the act. Later the council unanimously adopted a resolution to the effect that the Scott act fines must not be applied to any other purpose than the enforcement of the law. Instead of continuing as in the past, the council decided to enforce the Scott act in the future. The resolution was passed by a vote of 12 to 2. The council also decided to appoint a committee to investigate the enforcement of the Scott act in the future. The committee will consist of Messrs. J. E. Brown, H. E. Thomas, and W. J. Wiggins. The council also decided to appoint a committee to investigate the enforcement of the Scott act in the future. The committee will consist of Messrs. J. E. Brown, H. E. Thomas, and W. J. Wiggins.

MONTREAL HEBREWS ARE UNABLE TO VOTE

Civic Election Day Falls on Saturday and Their Creed Forbids Work on Their Sabbath.

Montreal, Nov. 5.—Owing to their strong attachment to the faith of their fathers it has been discovered that thousands of Hebrew voters will be unable to vote at the next municipal elections. By a Jewish regulation no work can be done on Saturday of any kind, and as the city charter prescribes the day of election, which next February happens to fall on the Jewish Sabbath, one law conflicts with the other. Prominent Jews of Montreal, when seen yesterday, had little hesitation in saying that their people would respect their own and would have to forego voting, unless some change were made in the date. In St. Lawrence and St. Louis wards so large is the Jewish population that they will soon be able to elect their own candidates. It is into these districts that thousands of refugees from Europe and principally Russians have recently come. Prominent Hebrews seemed astonished yesterday when shown that the election of mayor and aldermen would be held on Saturday and they declared the Jewish vote would be absent in that event. It appears that the only way to change the date would be by a charter amendment.

ment, which would have to be secured from the legislature, but as the city has decided not to ask for any amendments this year it would look as if the date would hold good, unless some private member got through a special law authorizing the city to defer the election till the following Monday. A very large number of people attended an entertainment given in the Water street U. B. church last night under auspices of the Sunday school. A number of graphophone selections were very much enjoyed. Among those who contributed to the programme were Misses Sprague and Akerley, and Messrs. Woods and Sutherland. Miss Dunfield, superintendent of the Sunday school, presided. British schooner Beaver, before reported sinking at Vineyard Haven, has repaired and sailed for destination.

BUSINESS CONDITIONS

The question, to what extent the financial stringency may affect Canada, is receiving some attention from business men and the press. The Times pointed out a few days ago the strong position occupied by the maritime provinces and their freedom from conditions likely to cause hard times. It is interesting to note what is being said in other parts of Canada. The Toronto Globe says: "The immunity from disastrous results arising out of the demoralization in American securities, which this country has to the present enjoyed, affords an argument in support of the opinion that we will escape widespread contagion from any commercial reaction which is to occur in the United States. Two or three events in our financial history which occurred recently enough to make reference here unnecessary caused the purging of our financial situation when the banks on the other side were keeping pace with the undiminished commercial expansion. Our banks untidily, although not conceivably, began to strengthen themselves over a year ago, their action being hastened, if it was not precipitated, by the collapse of one institution. Without entirely foreseeing the present crisis, the banks have been increasing their reserves and are now strongly entrenched against any adverse contingency."

The Globe does not anticipate any slackening of commercial progress unless a feeling of uncertainty should arise to weaken public confidence. Among its "reasons to cheer up," the Toronto News says: "Canadian Pacific and Grand Trunk Railway earnings continue to show good weekly increases over the returns for the corresponding weeks in previous years. Bank clearings at Toronto for the past nine months exhibit an expansion of $22,000,000, when compared with the figures for the like period of 1906. Canadian exports of agriculture and other products during the month of September greatly exceeded those for the same month a year back. The foresight of the Canadian banks in preparing months ago to meet the present crisis is bearing excellent fruit in steadying the local situation, and the good effect of the sale of the western crop at high figures is only beginning to be felt."

Along with these pleasing assurances it is worth while to consider also the possible effect of an indulgence in gloomy predictions, which is the habit of some people whenever the slightest check to industrial or commercial progress is anywhere apparent. In this connection a recent issue of Success contains an article that is worthy of universal attention. We quote: "Good times depend not only upon the great laws of supply and demand, but upon the maintenance of public confidence. Fear and distrust are fatal enemies of confidence. The moment business men get scared and people begin to talk hard times, distrust spreads like wildfire. Level-headed men say they see no real cause for alarm, but at the same time the perpetual suggestion which is being passed along influences them, and they grow more cautious. Bankers see no breakers ahead, yet they think that they should be conservative, and they begin to call in their loans, which are not quite so glibly repaid as before. They are also more careful about accommodating their borrowing customers, so that they may be a little better prepared in case anything adverse should happen. These precautions spread. Distrust, fear, anxiety, a feeling of uncertainty, like the rising tide of gossip, sweeps like wildfire all over the country. Soon everybody is talking hard times: all are influenced by the contagion of the perpetual fear of suggestion. Cautious men think perhaps they have been spreading out a little too much, and they begin to retrench, discharge help, and cut down salaries and expenses generally. Mercantile houses, manufacturers, railroads, and other concerns stop extensions and improvements, and take in sail until all danger is past. As a consequence public confidence is shaken, and there is a general strangulation of business all over the country. Important contracts, the erection of large buildings, and extension negotiations are called off. There is a marked decline in business transactions of all kinds. Nobody has confidence to branch out; everybody is hedging. Such a condition of things began with the recent investigation and prosecution of certain great combinations of capital. After the investigation these great concerns began to retrench, and when the whole country caught the spirit of caution stocks began to drop, business houses began to fail, and the first we knew there was a sort of a mental business panic, a condition wholly uncalculated for, unwarranted. Crop prospects were most promising and the country at large was in superb condition. The panic was mainly mental, caused by fear and anxiety resulting from lack of confidence, general distrust of the future. The Times commends this article to the thoughtful attention of its readers. There is in Canada at the present time no cause for fear or distrust. Industrial and commercial conditions are healthy. The one difficulty is the temporary money stringency, which will be overcome by a continuance of the sane and careful business methods of the past six months.

A gentleman who went with his children to one of the cheap shows, of which there are now so many in the city, is very outspoken in his opinion that a public censor of these shows should be appointed, to prevent the exhibition of pictures or vaudeville features which would be likely to produce an undesirable effect on the minds of children. This gentleman states that the entertainment he witnessed, while some portions were unobjectionable, was on the whole such as he would not desire his children to see again, and yet the vast majority of those present were children. The Times has no desire to interfere with any legitimate business, but if complaints against some of the features of picture shows in this city are well-founded, the proprietors owe it to themselves to consider the probable effect of a popular crusade against them.

The Charlottetown Guardian (Independent) thus comments on Mr. Borden's political tour: "Mr. Borden's is a pleasing personality. He has good abilities; he is amiable, honest, patriotic, and clean. Thousands desired to see him and their wish has been gratified. Among the number it is safe to say many will be attracted, and few if any repelled. His tour has tended in a quiet way to increase the solidarity of the party, to strengthen its hope and confidence, and to improve its organization. It has done something also to remove any remaining question as to his fitness to lead. More than ever before the Conservative party in Canada is now convinced that if not in all respects an ideal leader, Robert L. Borden is the best man now in sight for that position."

The Whitney boom collapsed in Massachusetts yesterday when Governor Curtis Guild was elected by a great majority. The redoubtable John B. Moran was rejected district attorney, in spite of strong opposition. The candidate of the Hearst Independence League for governor was beaten, Guild getting more votes than Whitney, Higgen and Bartlett combined. In New York city Tammany triumphed over the fusion ticket of the Republicans and Hearst party and in the state the Republican and Democratic joint candidates for supreme court judges defeated the Hearst league. The re-election of Mayor Tom L. Johnson in Cleveland is interesting because President Roosevelt openly advocated his defeat. In Toledo Brad Whitlock, the reform mayor, and his whole ticket were victorious.

THE JOURNEY'S END

These fair lands our feet have trod— The journey that was never done— The dreams that followed us golden— All mad adventure 'neath the sun— Ships in the trough of a waste sea spun— The treasures of outlawed Kings— And the white walls of Babylon— Ah! woe is me for all these things! Your staff and scrip are laid aside And all my golden mistrely: We'll go no more afield, for the tide In a captured vessel out to sea. Oh! fallen and sick and tired are we! Sleek cloth about us winds and clings, And where is the sword that should set us free? Ah! woe is me for all these things! The street lamps in a dreary line Gaze through the dusk with venomous eyes. We stir the fire and pour the wine, For we have done with enterprises. The anxious town about us lies: Another song the shrill whistles sing, Then that which startled the morning skies— Ah! woe is me for all these things!

SHARING THE SWAG. (Memoirs of late Lord Brampton) I was in court one day at Guilford, he writes, when a respectable dressed man in a velvet suit of a yellow-green color came to me and grinned with intense satisfaction. "Can I get you anything, Mr. Orkney?" he said. "No, thank you," I replied. "What do you mean?" "Don't you recollect, sir, you defended me Kingston?" "Yes, Mr. Orkney, and got me off, Mr. Orkney, with flying colors."

"Very well," I said. "I hope you will never want defending again."

"Na, never," he said. "That's right."

"A respect?" "Yes, sir, or a few silver spoons—anything you like."

I begged him to leave the court. "You're getting me off that job, and if a piece of plate will be any good, I'll guarantee it's old family silver, and if you don't mind me saying so, it's worth a lot of money some day."

He said: "Sir, will a sack of faters be of any service to you?"

TREASURY BOARD TO CHANGE DATE OF ASSESSMENT YEAR

Important Recommendation Made at Board Meeting Last Night.

At the monthly meeting of the treasury board last evening several recommendations by a sub-committee were adopted. These included a recommendation to change the assessment year from May to January, an order that all civic officials should deposit their cash with the chamberlain daily, and a recommendation that water assessment bills should be issued in July with the tax bill. The first of these was passed. Ald. Frink drew attention to the deplorable condition of the sanitary arrangements in the chamberlain's office and proposed that a permanent undertaker would be necessary instead of a permanent auditor if no change was made.

Ald. Bullock occupied the chair and Ald. Lantulum, Vanwart, Frink, McGoldrick and McEwan were present with the common clerk.

After sitting in private for an hour the board took up the regular business. A communication from the Longshoremen's Union requesting immediate consideration of the assessment law with the amendments as presented by the commission and the board of trade and the re-drafting of the act was received.

The chairman said a sub-committee was looking into the question of taxation on small incomes and would be ready to report at the next meeting.

Ald. Frink, who was not in the council last year, remarked that if his memory served him the new assessment act received very scant consideration.

Ald. Lantulum—"No, sir." The chairman—"We had meeting after meeting." Ald. Frink—"I know, but did you arrive at any profitable conclusion?"

The common clerk—"The council passed the bill and then rescinded it." Ald. Frink—"Exactly. There was no profitable conclusion."

The chairman explained that the citizens were asked to attend and give their views, but only Messrs. Purdy, Maxwell, Hatheway and the chairman of the commission responded. He was surprised at the lack of interest, and went as far as it could but had not finished when the act was sent to the council. It was then left for the legislature to deal with.

The chairman pointed out that they were not there to consider the whole question but only the communication. At his suggestion the matter was held over pending the sub-committee's report.

The report of a sub-committee consisting of the chairman and Ald. Frink, appointed to report on certain suggestions by the chamberlain, was taken up section by section as follows:

Re bills for water assessment. The committee recommended that the attention of the legislature be called to the fact that the bills for water assessment are not issued from the city and in future be instructed to increase his staff of clerks with a view to the completion of the work by the end of the year.

Ald. McGoldrick said he failed to see the object of the bills. He would like to be persuaded first to attend and give their views, but only Messrs. Purdy, Maxwell, Hatheway and the chairman of the commission responded. He was surprised at the lack of interest, and went as far as it could but had not finished when the act was sent to the council. It was then left for the legislature to deal with.

SWEDEN'S NEW LIQUOR LAW

Change to Be Made in Method of Allocating Profits From Gothenburg System.

LONDON, Nov. 5.—An important change has gone into effect in the law regulating the liquor traffic in Sweden. It has been found necessary to alter the Gothenburg system of licensing, which resorts to disinterested ownership as a cure for excessive drinking.

It is now recognized that critics of its most essential feature were justified. The original aim was to apply all the profits after paying 5 per cent. interest to the holders of the capital to beneficent purposes, municipal and national.

This must have worked out less nobly than it sounds, for it is in the allocation of the profits that the new law has had to make a change. Municipal cupidity had reached the pitch of practically obscuring the moral purpose of the system.

The owning company, known as a "Bolag," is the unit in which the Gothenburg system works itself out. It does not concern itself with beer, in which there is practically free trade, but controls the production and distribution of spirits, especially the popular native spirit known as brandy.

There was an agitation to bring beer under the system of the new act, but public opinion was too strong and it was defeated.

Rural districts are now under the system, which at first applied only to the towns. Among the leading provisions of the new act are the following: Not less than one litre of spirits may in future be sold for consumption off the premises; the board of directors of a Bolag shall consist of five members, three appointed by the shareholders, one by the county council, and one by the local agricultural society.

A new element in supervision is that a representative of the local government shall sit on the board of directors. Many of the first advocates in Sweden have admitted throughout that it was not simply the desire of promoting temperance that animated them. They furthered its adoption by pointing to the opportunity of reducing local taxation by annexing the profits of the trade.

Under the act of 1888 in Sweden 70 per cent. of the surplus profits of the Bolags went to the municipal authorities; 10 per cent. went to the local agricultural society, and 20 per cent. to the public treasury for division among the rural districts according to population. The net profits of the Gothenburg company alone have increased from $14,000 in 1888 to $385,000 in 1906.

The law now recognizes the danger of leaving 70 per cent. of the sum in the hands of local authorities, which in future will get a very much smaller proportion. The passage in the new act which deals with surplus profits is as follows: "In the towns 25 per cent., together with an additional percentage, decreasing from 10 per cent. in 1908 to 1 per cent. in 1920, shall go to the municipal authorities, and the balance will be paid into the public treasury."

Out of the amounts thus received by the treasury the latter is directed to set aside an amount equivalent to one-hundredth part of all the taxes and profits throughout the country councils and towns independent of Guy Fawkes day. The sum equivalent to one-fifth of the total spirit trade receipts, and among the local agricultural societies, and the remainder to one-eighth of the total spirit trade receipts. The remaining funds are to be distributed by the treasury among the country districts according to population. The intention of these new provisions is to lessen the opportunities of local cupidity.

ABOUT THE NICKEL SHOWS

In speaking of the great number of nickel moving picture shows that have proved to be so popular in St. John and elsewhere, let me make a suggestion.

There are so many amusements which merely amuse, there being nothing whereby the people may be lifted up (especially the young) that it seems a suggestion ought to be provided by which the people might be instructed as well as amused.

JOE HOWE ANNIVERSARY

The proposal to observe the anniversary of the birth of Joseph Howe, at a proper way, and the most appropriate is to tell something about the man and his work for the Empire, as timely, and we hope it will not be the only occasion on which the effort will be made in Victoria to teach the public something of the work done by Canadians in past years.

ST. JOHN DEANERY

The St. John Deanery met in quarterly session in St. George's church school room yesterday.

1,000 HUNTERS AFTER DEER

THE ALCIDES HAS ARRIVED

Overdue Donaldson Liner Come Up to Her Berth This Morning.

Donaldson line steamer Alcides, in command of Captain Rennie, came to her berth at the new city wharf this morning at 10:30 o'clock, and commenced at once to discharge her cargo from Glasgow.

The Alcides was boarded by Dr. J. H. Scammell, acting port physician. Because of the appearance of a case of bubonic plague on a steamer in the St. Lawrence from Glasgow, the authorities at Ottawa ordered a strict inspection of vessels arriving from Glasgow, and to this the Alcides was subjected by Dr. Scammell, even though the bubonic had appeared after the steamer had sailed for St. John.

FOUR DROWNED AT DALHOUSIE

Terrible Drowning Accident Yesterday Resulted in Loss of Four Lives.

A despatch from Dalhousie last night says a gloom was cast over the town today when it was learned that a terrible drowning accident occurred last night in the river here. Andrew Carr, Jack Neilson of Dalhousie and William Wafer and James Dickie of Florence Point, Que., started for Florence Point last night in an eight-foot boat.

WEDDINGS

Annand-Reads

FREDERICTON, Nov. 6.—[Special]—The Brunswick Street Baptist Church was the scene of a quiet but impressive ceremony at nine o'clock this morning, when Rev. Edward E. Annand of Windsor, N. S., was united in marriage to Miss Mina A. Reads, daughter of Captain Joseph A. Reads of Hopewell Cape, Albert County, N. B.

The bride, who is a very talented and accomplished young lady, is a graduate of the Emerson College of Oratory, Boston, Mass. She was for some time a teacher in Acadia College and Seminary, Wolfville, N. S., and subsequently taught elocution and literature at the Nova Scotia Normal School, Truro.
