Germans Nearing End, With Prospect
Of Blow In New Direction After Lull

BRITISH LABOR POSITION

Arthur Henderson Cerebrates Statement
That He Thinks Might Mislead
Americans

London, June 5.—(Via Reuters' Ltd.)—"We are willing to converse, but not to negotiate with German labor," says Arthur Henderson, labor leader in the House of Commons, in a statement referring to an announcement made by Chester M. Wright, a member of the American Labor Mission, which visited London, which implied that the policy of Mr. Henderson and his party had been radically modified, especially regarding the question of a conference between the Allied and German workers.

—Issuing of Bonds To Cover
Patriotic Fund Contribution Responsible For Cutting Down of Rate—A Comparison With Halifax

In spite of heavily increased estimates for the public schools and the ferry service, and in spite of the increased cost of labor, materials and practically everything for which the city has to spend money, the tax rate this year will be 21¢ as compared with 24¢ in 1917.

This is the result of issuing bonds to cover the city's contribution to the patriotic fund, instead of levying for the full amount last year.

The assessment, signed by E. Murray Olive, chairman, and the other members of the board of assessors, was filed at three o'clock this afternoon with the common clerk. This is one document which is always awaited with great interest by the taxpayers.

Under the terms of the agreement which the city has to pay this year for school purposes under legislation secured by the board of school trustees, the levy for general purposes is greater and the tax rate higher than the 1917 figure, exclusive of the patriotic fund tax.

This year only the interest and sinking fund on bonds issued for this purpose are included in the levy and the total is thus reduced greatly.

The total levy this year is $1,041,000, as against $1,098,710.75, including the $150,000 for patriotic purposes last year. This makes the total $890,848.44 less than last year, but $80,000 more than the amount levied for general purposes exclusive of the patriotic tax in 1917.

There is a decrease of 87¢ in the number of rate payers, the figure for this year being 15,976 as compared with 15,999 last year.

The total valuation for 1918 is $43,915,900; last year it was $41,228,500, thus showing an increase of $2,687,400. A comparison of the various divisions of the valuation is as follows:—

Real estate, $21,028,000; last year, $21,735,800; increase, $707,800.

Personal, $18,779,900; last year, $19,720,000; increase, $940,100.

Income, $8,187,100; last year, $6,778,000; increase, $1,409,100.

Must Have Men "The Women Will Save Us"

Sir Auckland Geddes Says More to be Taken
From Farms and Mines and Factories

London, June 5.—(Via Reuters' Limited)—There is now a more urgent call for more men for the fighting forces than ever before, said Sir Auckland Geddes, minister of national service, in an address today at Whitechurch.

The government is now calling men from agriculture, from mines and from munitions factories, and also from all the other vital essential industries which bring up the rear of the front line to conserve and develop. The decision to do that was considered very gravely before it was arrived at.

"In the next few weeks everything depends upon our maintaining the army and, heavy as is the call now being made upon agriculture, I cannot say it will be the end of the call to be made on that industry, however vital, unless steps are taken to secure victory in the field, because victory we must have. People speak of impossibilities, but we have done impossible things before and we can do them again."

"This reminder that the war has been going on for a long time, that these men are being drawn from civil life, the women will save us, as they have done before."

NEW YORK DARKENED IN FEAR OF A POSSIBLE HUN AIR RAID

Huge German Submarines Off Coast May Carry Hydro-Airplanes—Precautions Taken

New York, June 5.—With huge German submarines lurking off the coast, the possibility that they may carry hydro-airplanes from which bombs can be dropped on New York, was given grim meaning by Police Commissioner Enright late to-night when he made formal announcement of the signals which will be sounded in case of enemy air raids.

"This reminder that the war has been going on for a long time, that these men are being drawn from civil life, the women will save us, as they have done before."

Not only must display lights be dimmed, but it is ordered that "in office buildings and dwelling houses where lights are used, shades should be drawn whenever possible."

Upon the results of photographic observations obtained by army aviators who flew over darkened New York last night, will be determined the question of further darkening the city as a precaution against possible air raids.

The main object of the airplane observations, it was said, was to show how far the lights permitted an aviator familiar with the map to find strategic spots or places where bombs would do the greatest damage.

RUSSIANS DEFEAT GERMANS AND TURKS IN TRANS-Caucasia

London, June 5.—A big battle was fought in the Kars district of Trans-Caucasia on May 24, resulting in favor of the Russians, writes the Exchange Telegraph correspondent at Moscow. The dispatch declares that huge Turkish and German armies are retreating along the Araks road and the population is being massacred.

SAYS GERMANS FEAR
NO SECOND GIVING WAY AT THE MARNE

Amsterdam, June 5.—Heavy sacrifices are noted by the German government here that a decisive blow will be made against the Allies, declared Dr. N. S. Praesche, vice-president, in the opening Reichstag meeting today. He said the Reichstag is in the opinion of the government, in the opinion of the people, in the opinion of the world, in the opinion of the Allies, in the opinion of the Marne, where at the beginning of the war they were in a defensive position, not conquered by the power of the enemy, but forced by circumstances. We no longer need to fear such a retreat. The Marne will not again form a turning point now that we have a free hand in the east.

"Heavy sacrifices certainly are necessary but the nation knows that we are not to blame for the bloodshed, but our need to hand of peace. We hope that a decisive blow will soon fall and that an honorable peace will be attained."

Submarine Activity Off Atlantic Coast
Continues—Experiences On Carolina —Destroyer Reported In Touch With Enemy Craft

New York, June 5.—"Don't use your wireless and we won't shoot," is the newest "maddening" German war slogan under which the Kaiser's submarine commanders are carrying their campaign of frightening into American Atlantic waters, according to persons among the 250 survivors of the steamer Carolina, who were brought here on a coastwise schooner early today. The Carolina was destroyed by U-boat gunfire fifty miles off the Delaware Capes on Sunday evening.

Stories told by some on board indicated that Edwin W. Vogel of New York City, the ship's 19-year-old chief wireless operator, played a spectacular part in the dramatic raiding of the Carolina. When the submarine messenger, "Use no wireless—we won't shoot," Vogel defiantly repeated his S. O. S. signals, which he had already begun flashing and was on the verge of ceasing, the submarine commander ordered him to quit his key and see whether the Germans would keep their pledge.

Captain Barbour said he decided to accept the proposition laid down by the U-boat skipper because he believed distress would have meant forfeiture of the lives of the women and children aboard the vessel.

Arrival of the 250 survivors here today, 156 of whom were passengers and ninety-four members of the crew, leaves an apparent discrepancy of twenty-nine persons to be accounted for. This calculation is based on advices that sixteen are known to have been taken from a lifeboat which reached Lewes, Del. yesterday with only nineteen of its original complement of thirty-five persons, and that twenty-eight were landed yesterday at the Delaware Capes.

Veteran mariners who superintended the allotting of lifeboats to those on the Carolina declared the coolness and expedition with which this task was accomplished were remarkable.

The Atlantic coast schooner picked up the survivors off Barnegat, N. J., about noon yesterday. Among those brought here were ten United States army officers, graduates of the second officers' training camp at San Juan, Porto Rico, and Captain Robert M. Wright, of the 8th Air Corps, whose home is at Cambridge, Pa.

The survivors were unable to understand why the commander of the submarine chose to leave these men so unprotected. It was manifestly impossible for them to escape the notice of the Hun captain, it was said, but he evinced no more interest in them, seemingly, than in any other captives.

The survivors were met at the dock by a detachment of Red Cross workers and were driven in ambulances and automobiles to hotels and boarding houses.

All but ten of the 218 passengers aboard the Carolina have been accounted for. Officials of the line so announced this forenoon.

Washington, June 5.—Submarine danger to the coast has been increased by advances in government marine insurance rates, so the treasury announced today. The rate for life insurance for officers and crews of merchant vessels engaged in traffic through the war zone has been raised from twenty-five cents to fifteen cents per $100, as recommended before the submarine attacks off the Atlantic coast.

The Sinking of the Haskell.

Boston, June 5.—The crew of the German submarine which sank the schooner Jacob M. Haskell were under orders to sink every American ship they could find, but to spare all lives possible, according to members of the Haskell's crew who were landed yesterday.

The crew of the Haskell, who were rescued today at sea, were taken to the shore by the coastwise steamship Grecian, which rescued them at sea.

The Haskell's commander on the Haskell said the submarine commander spoke perfect English and was so polite that he got on "our nerves."

After he had posted his men about the schooner they stood there grinning while he asked for the ship's papers, then he ordered the American flag hauled down and wrapped it up in the papers.

When the cook remarked: "You'd better take the food we have aboard before you sink the boat," the captain snapped back: "We don't want your food. We don't want your lives either. We want your ships. Now get away from here. You have three minutes before the ship goes down."

More Firing Heard.

Cape May, N. J., June 5.—Firing was heard off here yesterday afternoon and again about 8 o'clock last night. Small boats containing women and children were reported to have been seen in the afternoon, several miles off shore by an aviator. The report could not be confirmed. Airplanes last night were flying low over the mouth of Delaware Bay.

Another Schooner.

New York, June 5.—The American auxiliary schooner, Samuel C. Mengel, is another victim. She was sunk on Sunday afternoon 115 miles off New York. Eleven men of her crew were brought here today by a Danish steamship.

Rush of Records.

New York, June 5.—Since the raid of German submarines off the North Atlantic coast, all the naval recruiting stations in New York have been swamped by thousands of applicants for enlistment in the navy reserves. There were more than 3,000 applicants yesterday at one station.

The Mengel, according to her crew, was on her way to New York with cargo from the West African coast. The vessel was sunk by bombs after the men had taken to the boats at the command of the submarine commander. The Samuel C. Mengel was a vessel of 315 gross tons, and was built in 1916 at Bath, Maine. Her owners are the Axim Transportation Company.

A New York despatch to J. M. Robinson & Sons says:—"U. S. destroyer route U-boat off Maryland after attempted attack on French ship."

GIRL CLINGING TO THE BODIES OF TWO DROWNED MEN

Dramatic Incident in Connection
With U-Boat Work on Atlantic
—Carolina Survivors' Boat Capsized, 16 Drown

Lewes, Del., June 4.—Survivors of the Carolina tell of a tremendous struggle all night with their boat which overturned in a thunderstorm. Sixteen lost their lives. In the morning an object was seen in the water. There was no way to reach it as the launch had lost her gasoline and oil. The launch, however, drifted close and the survivors were started to discover a girl alive clinging to the bodies of two drowned men. The bodies were lashed in life-belts, but the girl wore none. She appeared to be a good swimmer, and with her own efforts and clinging to the bodies for support, she managed to remain afloat. The launch got near enough to her to effect her rescue and she proved to be Elsie Donato Viola of Porto Rico. She is one of the two women landed. She was one of those in the launch and became separated from it when it capsized.

RE-ACTION AFTER EARLY ADVANCE

New York, June 5.—Advances of one to three points were scored in the active sector of today's stock market.

All sections of the list participated in the rise, which was accelerated by further encouraging foreign news. Specialties and similar issues, notably those controlled by pools, displayed greater strength. Industrials, shipping and rails were in demand, with signs of hurried short covering, especially in United States Steel and Reading. Liberty bonds were steady.

Noon Report.

Profit-taking offset the further buying power of the first hour and prices retreated quite generally. Speculative issues like Baldwin Locomotive, Sunray Tobacco products, also Marine Preferred and Atlantic Gulf fell back one to two points. United States Steel and copper lost the greater part of their gains and falls became irregular on heaviness of New Haven, which was freely offered at two point concession. International war issues were active to strong, especially Paris 4% and Anglo French 5%.

Amended Act Gives Nine Years in Which to Make Start in Developing Hydro-Electric Power

That by the act passed by the New Brunswick legislature in 1912, it was provided that the New Brunswick Hydro-Electric Company expend within three years of the date the sum of $100,000 in plant and improvements; that when the act was amended in 1913 the company was given an additional six years in which to make this expenditure of $100,000, making nine years in all, was the statement made by W. F. Hatheway at the monthly meeting of the board of trade last night.

Mr. Hatheway said that when the additional six years was granted the company in which to make the required expenditure that the city council and the board of trade evidently knew nothing about it. On suggestion of Mr. Hatheway it was decided to hold a general meeting just prior to the meeting

How to Ascertain if You Have Catarrh

Look For Symptoms of This Treacherous Disease in The Following List

- "Is your breath bad?"
- "Is your throat sore?"
- "Do you cough at night?"
- "Is your nose itchy?"
- "Does your nose stop up?"
- "Have you nasal discharge?"
- "Do you spit up phlegm?"
- "Has your nose an itchy feeling?"
- "Have you pain across the eyes?"
- "Is your throat irritable, weak?"
- "Do you sleep with mouth open?"
- "Are you subject to sneezing fits?"
- "Do your ears roar and buzz?"
- "Are you hard of hearing?"

If you have any of these indications of Catarrh, cure the trouble now—stop it before it gets into the lungs or bronchial tubes—then it may be too late. The remedy is Catarrhose, a direct, breathable cure that places antiseptic balms and healing medication on every spot that's tainted by catarrhal germs.

"No one can know better than I the enormous benefit one gets from the very first day's use of Catarrhose," writes T. T. Hopkins, of Westvale, F. Q. "I had for years a stubborn case of bronchial catarrh, ear noises, headache, sore eyes, stopped-up nose and throat. It affected my appetite and made my breath rank. Catarrhose cured quickly."

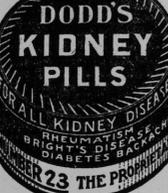

The dollar outfit lasts two months, and is guaranteed smaller size, 50c, sample price, 25c, at all storekeepers and druggists or The Catarrhose Co., Buffalo, N. Y., and Kingston, Canada.

of the commission appointed to inquire into the affairs of the New Brunswick Power Company. He also suggested that the traffic committee of the board take up with the C. G. R. officials the reason there was no morning train on the holiday from St. John to Hampton. He also referred to the decision of the street railway not to run cars to Seaside Park and pointed out the inconvenience to those who built houses in the vicinity of the park. With reference to railway matters, he pointed out that merchants in the city are called upon to pay demurrage on cars not cleared within forty-eight hours after their arrival, but when cars are delayed for ten and fifteen days merchants have no recourse. He felt that this matter should be inquired into by a special committee.

It had been arranged by the board that Messrs. Wignone and Elkin, representing this company at Ottawa, speak to those present relative to matters that are now before the federal authorities bearing on the city and port of St. John. It was decided, however, to postpone this feature of the meeting in anticipation of the visit to St. John in the near future of Hon. D. J. Reid, minister of railways, and Hon. P. B. Carvell, minister of public works.

C., council requesting that the St. John council use its influence in discouraging the training and performing of animals for amusement purposes. The local council passed a resolution expressing its entire sympathy.

THE WAR NEWS

The war correspondents appear to be agreed that the present German drive has about reached its limit, but that an immediate attack in great force may be expected at some other point, as the weight of numbers is still on the German side. We can better appreciate the latter fact in connection with Premier Clemenceau's statement yesterday that the collapse of Russia had released 300 German divisions for service elsewhere, and that in the recent fighting the French were outnumbered five to one.

The most encouraging news of the day is the declaration of the supreme war council of the Allies that it is confident of the ultimate defeat of the enemy. It says:

"Thanks to the prompt and cordial cooperation of the president of the United States, the arrangements which were set on foot more than two months ago for the transportation and brigading of American troops will make it impossible for the enemy to gain victory by wearing out the Allied reserves before he has exhausted his own."

In view of this utterance we may await with greater confidence the next blow to be delivered by the enemy, although it is freely admitted that there are many critical days to come before the Allies, in the matter of numbers, can hope to meet the enemy on even terms. We are told that the Kaiser and Von Hindenburg have visited the German front, and we may be certain that the German people will receive glowing accounts of the success attained by their armies.

Along with Premier Clemenceau's declaration—"We are staking the game on the help of the Americans," comes word that "American troops have already made their presence felt at several points in the Marne battle," not only in defence but as costly to the enemy but in counter attacks which were very effective.

All of the German reserves on that front have not been thrown into the battle, and it is assumed they are held for another stroke, perhaps at another portion of the Allied line. The confidence of the French people in their leaders was shown last night when the Clemenceau government was sustained by a vote of 377 to 110, the minority being chiefly made up of Socialists.

The coming of the submarines to the American coast has brought to New York something of the feeling London has experienced for more than three years. The fear that the submarines may have brought hydroplanes to bomb coast cities has brought an order for the dimming of lights in New York, and the formal announcement of signals to be sounded in case of air raids. There may be no present need of these precautions, but it is not wise to take too much for granted when such an enemy is so close at hand. Thus far the submarines have sunk eleven or more vessels on the American coast. The stories told by survivors will stir the nation to its depths, and these submarines are doing more to solidify American sentiment in favor of war to a finish than anything else Germany could do.

An item of today's news of special interest to Canada is that which warns that this country and the United States must continue to supply Britain and her Allies with the bulk of their wheat rations which are essential to victory. National kitchens are to be established in England to conserve food, labor and fuel, and the people are now on the ration. We should give very serious thought to this announcement and govern ourselves accordingly. By so doing we will be doing only a small part of our duty in helping to win the war.

It is explained that the reason the Allied line where the last German drive was made was so thin was because it was more important to make sure the safety of the Channel ports, and therefore the bulk of the Allied forces were held in readiness to repel the enemy in that quarter. In the region of the Marne it was possible to give more ground and still have an ample area in which to manoeuvre armies. The great object of the Allies is to prevent the enemy from getting a decision, for to prevent it would be equivalent to an Allied victory, since Allied losses in the fighting would be made up in due time by the United States, while the enemy has no such source of reinforcements. The German advance thus far finds them still confronted by Allied armies of great strength, ready to dispute each new advance, and to inflict heavy losses that cannot be made good.

An exchange says: "John Ross Robertson held a unique distinction in Canada—that of refusing in the same day the proffered honor of a knighthood at the hands of the King and also a seat in the Senate of Canada. His newspaper, the Telegram, had frequently criticized the giving of titles to Canadians, and also the Senate. There were some who made sly hints about what would happen if Mr. Robertson were offered either a title or a Senatorship. Both were offered—both were refused."

IT IS UP TO ST. JOHN.

What will St. John do to aid in making the new school law relating to vocational training effective in this city? What has the Board of Trade to say about it? The Manufacturers' Association is strongly in its favor, and so are the representatives of labor. Why not have the matter taken up in real earnest?

There are other matters relating to education in this city which demand attention. What steps will be taken, following the school census, to see that every child of school age goes to school at the beginning of next term? What is to be done in regard to medical inspection, for which an appropriation is available?

The new Education Act in England provides for full time training of children up to sixteen, or full time to fourteen and part time from that to eighteen years of age. We are still content to make the limit fourteen years, but if we make proper provision for vocational training a very large number of children will remain voluntarily in school for a longer period. St. John is in great need of vocational training to be begun before the pupil is fourteen years of age and to be followed up by a course in a vocational high school by all who desire it. The boys and girls who take the present course and leave school at fourteen or younger are greatly handicapped, and yet they are the great majority. We have had it proved to us by the actual figures that this is true in New Brunswick, and the Toronto Star gives some illuminating figures to like effect relating to Ontario. It says:

"Education is now compulsory up to fourteen years of age, and the limit of compulsion is for the great bulk of the children of Ontario the limit of school attendance. At fourteen years of age most children leave the primary schools, either to enter the collegiate institutes, or to terminate their school education. All but a small percentage take the latter course. The number of pupils enrolled in the public schools in the last recorded year was 508,975. The number enrolled in the high schools and collegiate institutes was 28,888, and in continuation schools 5,682. Only 61.2 per cent. of the public school pupils receive any further education, so far as education is provided by the state. Only about the same percentage remain at school after fourteen years of age. Because of truancy, irregular attendance, and our somewhat lax factory laws many do not receive the full benefit of education even up to fourteen years of age."

"No one believes that at the age of fourteen the mind of a child is formed. The succeeding years, up to say eighteen years of age, are a most critical formative period. At fourteen the child is abandoned by the state. There are still, or the influences of home, and we thoroughly agree with those who say that these are highly important, and that the parent is not released from his duty of educating his children. But as a matter of fact this duty is frequently neglected, and those who neglect it before their children are fourteen are not likely to perform it after that age, when the child has a larger measure of liberty and is left more to his own devices."

The Toronto Star would have the age limit raised to fifteen years, with increased facilities for transfer from primary to secondary schools. Still more effective than the latter, however, would be the introduction of vocational training for that great majority who are not destined to go on to the university. The question is one of vital importance to the future of our boys and girls. St. John should set a worthy example in this matter, and waste no time in doing it.

Montreal Gazette: "The supply of younger men in Great Britain qualified for military service having been pretty well exhausted, the Government has warned the men of 47 and 48 years to be ready to report for medical examination. The fact is an indication of the extent to which the nation is pledged to continue the war to a satisfactory conclusion."

The vice-president of the German Reichstag has learned his lesson well. Hear him:—"The nation knows that we are not to blame for the bloodshed, but our enemies, who again and again have refused the hand of peace." Even the Kaiser is not a more unblinking liar.

Mr. W. Frank Hatheway directs attention to the fact that the gentlemen who compose the New Brunswick Power Company had very warm friends in the legislature in 1915, and had no difficulty in getting what they wanted. Mr. Hatheway has directed the attention of the board of trade to several matters of interest which the board will doubtless deal with at an early date.

A despatch from Moose Jaw says that a mill employee had more than the quantity of flour allowed for his family's needs, and was sentenced to ten days' hard labor in default of paying a fine. The west takes the war seriously and backs up the Food Board.

NEWS OF SOLDIERS

Because of Great Suffering Accompanying Digestion—Hospital Doctors Said Operation Necessary—Perfectly Cured by Home Treatment.

New Aberdeen, N. S., June 5.—Once again the doctors erred in claiming that an operation was necessary. Fortunately Mrs. Watkins had a different opinion, and by using Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills obtained a perfect cure. That was in 1914, so there seems to be no doubt that the cure was both thorough and lasting.

It is well worth your while to read this letter, for if you never have a similar experience you may be able to help others to escape the unnecessary risk and expense of a surgical operation.

Mrs. Annie Watkins, New Aberdeen, N. S., writes: "I think it is time for me to give my experience with your wonderful Kidney-Liver Pills. For seven months I suffered with what the doctor called indigestion; but, whatever it was, I suffered terribly. The pain would start my side until it reached the pit of my stomach. It just seemed as if the flesh were being torn from the bone. At times I used to go without food from one morning until the next. I had no energy left for work at all. At last our doctor sent me to the hospital for a month. For four days and nights I never broke a sweat. At last I read about Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, and started to take them. At first I did not notice much difference, but I kept on using them, and by the time four boxes were used I was perfectly well again. That was in 1914, so you see I can safely say that I was cured. I shall always be grateful to Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, as they did more for me than four doctors."

Dangerous Antiseptics and Germicides Are Unnecessary

A dependable antiseptic has come to be considered a necessity in most homes. Especially is this true since Absorbine, Jr., has had such a wide introduction because this liniment is not only a powerful antiseptic and germicide but it is absolutely safe to use and to have around the house. It is not poisonous and it cannot do harm even if the children do get hold of it. That is a big point to consider.

Absorbine, Jr., is concentrated and is therefore economical. It retains its germicidal properties even diluted one part Absorbine, Jr., to 100 parts water—and its antiseptic properties, one part Absorbine, Jr., to 200 parts of water.

The antiseptic and germicidal properties have been repeatedly tested and proven in many prominent chemical laboratories. Detailed laboratory reports mailed upon request.

Absorbine, Jr., combines safety with efficiency. $1.25 a bottle at most drug-stores or postpaid.

Send 10c. for liberal trial bottle. W. F. Young, P. D. F., 817 Lyman St., Montreal, Can.

Registration a Stupendous Task

One Day - SATURDAY - June 22nd

The task undertaken by Canada to register every male and female, British or alien, of 16 years and over, residing in the Dominion, is of stupendous proportions. The machinery that has been created is most comprehensive in its scope, and the information procured through this registration will be in such form as to make it possible for Canada to mobilize every available unit of human energy, either in the "First line of defence" or at home in support of her Allies.

Five million people will have to be registered in one day. It is estimated that one hundred and fifty thousand workers will be required, to take this registration, or an army five times the size of the first Canadian contingent.

It will require at least six minutes to register one person. A Deputy working continuously can take only ten registrations per hour, or eighty for an eight hour day. On Registration Day the booths will be open fifteen hours; the Deputies therefore will have to work in two, possibly three shifts. In order to make registration convenient and easy, 25,000 places of registration will be established, throughout Canada, with from one to twelve booths at each place. The location of these booths will be advertised by Proclamation and through the local press.

Canada will be divided into 230 districts, each in charge of a Registrar, who is instructed to surround himself with a competent staff of deputies and assistant deputies in whatever numbers the work may require.

Volunteer Workers Urgently Needed

To carry out this vast programme efficiently and completely, intelligent voluntary helpers are essential. Individuals, women's societies, clubs, fraternal societies, church organizations and municipal organizations are asked to help. The Board appeals with confidence to the patriotism of every Canadian man and woman and to the pride which every locality must take in doing its own work well, to furnish the necessary number of volunteer deputies and assistants.

Interpreters of all languages will be required. Those qualified should apply to the Registrar of their district at once.

MORNING NEWS OVER THE WIRES

Arrangements are being made to have a regular Dominion chaplain service each denomination. Col. G. H. Williams is in Ottawa making final arrangements. The report of the Royal Commission appointed to enquire into the dispute between the Dominion Iron and Steel Company and its employees at Sydney, N. S., has been received by Hon. T. W. Crothers. The commission recommends increases in the wages of the low-paid men and that the company be requested to make provision for meeting committees of its employees to discuss any grievance.

LEMONS BEAUTIFY!

Strain Lemon Juice Well Before Mixing and Massage Face, Neck, Arms, Hands.

Here is told how to prepare an inexpensive lemon lotion which can be used to bring back to any skin the sweet freshness of which it has been robbed by trying atmospheric conditions. Wind-chafe, roughness, tan and redness are ward off and those tell-tale lines of care or of age are softened away.

The juice of two fresh lemons strained into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white makes a whole quart of the most remarkable lemon skin beautifier at about the cost one must pay for a small jar of the ordinary cold cream. Care should be taken to strain the lemon juice through a fine cloth so no lemon pulp gets in, then this lotion will keep fresh for months. Every woman knows that lemon juice is used to bleach and remove such blemishes as freckles, sallowness and tan, and is the ideal skin softener, smoothener and beautifier.

Just try it! Get three ounces of orchard white at any pharmacy and two lemons from the grocer and make up a quart of this sweetly fragrant lemon lotion and massage it daily into the face, neck, arms and hands, and see for yourself.

War Garden Bulletin

PRACTICAL DAILY GUIDE FOR VACANT LOT AND BACK-YARD GARDENERS ENLISTED IN GREAT-BRITAIN PRODUCTION CAMPAIGN

Issued by the Canada Food Board in Collaboration With Experts on the Staff of the Dominion Experimental Farm

GET READY FOR CANNING Although it is still early in the season, be forehanded in your preparations to take care of your fruit and vegetable crop. Don't wait until the vegetables become overgrown, old, tough or stringy before you can them.

Make this a record canning and drying year. That is one of the objects of your war garden. And start early. Pickle your beets right now.

Conservative estimates show that 4,000,000 gardeners can produce the equivalent of enough food to sustain 1,000,000 soldiers for 288 days, or almost eight months. Each individual home gardener this year should make it a point to study the comparative food value of the different vegetables and to concentrate on those which add most to the country's food supply. Cabbages, for instance, is ninety-eight per cent. water and requires at least 100 days to become fit for food. On the other hand, beans represent food in highly concentrated form, mature readily and the dry product is easy to keep.

Don't forget about the second planting of beans and corn some day this week.

COMMON COUNCIL

St. John is to have free hand concerts as usual this summer, according to a decision of the common council in session yesterday afternoon. The commissioners felt that under existing conditions these concerts should be continued and that if anything their frequency increased for the benefit of the citizens who were unable to go to the country over the week-ends and the holidays.

The much advertised strike for coal in response to the city's requests for tenders was opened. If the number of replies to the call for tenders was disappointing the contents of the single tender were equally so for it was in reply to a request for tenders for ten tons of blacksmith coal for the water and sewerage department. The C. P. R. requested the council to permit them four years after the conclusion of the war in which to move their tracks in Germain street, West St. John; this was not looked upon favorably by the commissioners but will be finally dealt with on Thursday next.

The recommendation for a pier for Quinn's wharf was laid over until Thursday for the purpose of inquiring into the best price available for birch timbers.

Authority was given to call for tenders and to issue bonds up to $7,000 for repairs to the west side ferry wharf.

The E. S. S. Company lease of the Rogers' wharf was renewed at the same rental.

A communication from the Toronto city council asking support for a petition for the abolition of the Canadian senate was referred to the committee of the whole.

The by-law fixing a rental of ten cents per square foot for space under sidewalks was read for the first and second time and a rebate on rentals paid or billed at the rate of fifteen cents was ordered.

The by-law increasing the license fee on pool and billiard rooms was read the first and second times, passed and ordained.

The solitary coal tender was opened and was found to be from J. S. Gibbon & Co. for ten tons of blacksmith coal at $10.50 per ton. It was referred to the commissioner of water and sewerage.

The Commissioner Bullock reported that it was impossible to secure birch timbers for wharf construction but that hemlock is available at $80 per thousand. Inquiries will be made throughout the province in the hope of securing a better rate.

J. Fred Belyea was heard with regard to fishery matters and the council promised consideration on Thursday.

FEDERAL MINISTERS ARE COMING TO CITY

Hon. J. D. Reid, minister of railways, is expected to arrive in St. John within the next week or ten days on a tour of inspection of the maritime provinces. It is understood that he will be accompanied by Hon. F. B. Carvell, minister of public works, and, together, they will make the inspection.

F. L. SMITH, SECRETARY OF Y. M. C. A., RESIGNS The announcement that Frank L. Smith has resigned as general secretary of the Y. M. C. A. in this city, will be received with regret by his many friends. It is understood that he is retiring to his old home at Annapolis where he owns a large farm. He has been a very efficient officer and his departure will give cause for regret, especially in Y. M. C. A. circles.

THOUSANDS SEE AIRMAN DIE

Capt. E. P. Webb Plunges to Death in Indianapolis Ball Park. Indianapolis, Ind., June 5.—Before a crowd of several thousand spectators at the baseball park here, Capt. E. P. Webb, commander of the 821st Aero Squadron, lost his life when the airplane in which he was a passenger dived 500 feet to the ground. Major Guy L. Gearhart, who was piloting the machine, was seriously injured. The baseball players had just finished their practice and Captain Webb was in the act of throwing a baseball to the field when one of the streamers is said to have become tangled in the machinery, causing Major Gearhart to lose control of the airplane. A team composed of soldiers from Captain Webb's command was to have played a local semi-professional team, and the airplane disaster was to have been an added feature of the game. Captain Webb was 46 years old and had served twenty-five years in the army.

STAKING THE GAME ON HELP OF AMERICANS

Clemenceau Centre of Stormy Scene in French Chamber. Confidence in Government Voted Despite Efforts of Socialists—Wards Off Attempts to Bring About Discussion of Military Questions. Paris, June 5.—Premier Clemenceau gained another victory over his opponents in the Chamber of Deputies yesterday. The premier argued that this was not the time to discuss military operations and the deputies upheld him in a somewhat stormy session. Cool and collected he walked back and forth on the wide tribune, while a storm of interruptions from the Socialists surged up from the benches. The premier resembled a weather-beaten captain pacing the bridge of his ship, lashed by a heavy sea. The premier spoke without bitterness and when referring to the rights he had seen at the front recently his voice assumed a tone of intense sadness. Speaker Deschanel seemed powerless to quell the Socialist uproar. The premier folded his arms and surveyed the Socialist benches earnestly and patiently. When the interruptions did not subside he descended from the tribune, apparently deciding not to continue. "Our duty is very simple," the premier said. "Our resolve must be to carry on the fight to the end. Victory depends on the civilians. It is they who must be exhorted not to become disheartened. Our soldiers do not need such exhortations." The premier showed how the Russian defection had liberated divisions of Germans for use elsewhere. "The moment is perilous," he added, "but the courage and heroism of our soldiers is equal to the situation." Premier Clemenceau promised to bring a full light on all military incidents which have been brought to his notice and to give the Chamber all the information it desired. When he declared that the French soldiers had fought one against five the entire Chamber arose and cheered the army. The premier added: "These heroic soldiers have good chiefs." Deputy Raffin-Dugues, Socialist, interrupted with the remark: "Not all!" Cheers arose from all parts of the house when the premier said: "The Americans are arriving. We are staking the game upon the help of the Americans." The premier seemed to have aged under the great burden of the intense life he has been leading the past few weeks, but he was the same adroit parliamentarian and cleverly foiled all attempts by the Socialists to force an immediate discussion of interpellations on military questions. Deputies Violette, Lenoir and Renaudel attempted to create diversion and fix a date for the discussions, but the premier replied simply: "It is a question of confidence. If we have had servants dismiss us. If we have done our duty give us your confidence." The vote was then taken and the government was victorious by 377 to 110.

DUBLIN PROTESTS DEPORTATION OF SINN FEIN LEADERS

Irish Press Comment on Call for Recruits—Operation of Proclamation to be in Civil Hands.

Dublin, June 3—(Monday, by the Associated Press)—A resolution of protest was adopted by the Dublin corporation today against the arrest and deportation of Sinn Fein leaders by the British government.

Nationalists' Chance. Dublin, June 4—(By the Associated Press)—The reception of the voluntary recruiting proclamation of the lord lieutenant of Ireland, Viscount French, has been favorable.

Practical Abandonment of the Policy of Conscripted. Freeman's Journal treats it as "the practical abandonment of the policy of conscription," and says: "It will come as an intense relief to all classes in Ireland and to every responsible man who has some conception of what the consequences of forcible conscription would inevitably have been."

The Irish Times says: "If the Nationalist party and the Roman Catholic church support Viscount French's appeal the men can be found not in five months, but in one. This gives the Nationalist leaders their last opportunity of putting themselves right with the Allies."

In Civilian Hands.

Dublin, Monday, June 3—The proclamation declares that there is no intention to disturb farming or food production or to do anything to interfere with the countries' essential industries.

It says it is not expected that many of the rural population will be available for military purposes and that the government is looking almost entirely to the large number of young men in the country which is far greater than required to carry ordinary retail trade to furnish the necessary contingent as was done in England, Scotland and Wales.

Then announcing that it is proposed first to call the younger men and those who can best be spared to fight for the motherland the proclamation specifies the ages. The first call is to men eighteen to twenty-seven years of age.

It is added, however, that it is not intended to preclude older men, who are specially fitted or desirous to serve the country.

"We recognize," the proclamation continues, "that men volunteering are entitled to share in all their motherland can offer. Steps therefore are being taken to ensure, as far as possible, that land shall be available for men who have fought for their country and the necessary legislative measure is under consideration."

The proclamation concludes by saying that the business of recruiting will be in civilian hands and that steps will be taken to see that fair play shall be meted out to all.

U. S. FEARS FOR PLATINUM SUPPLY

Washington, June 4—Reports that the Columbian congress is holding a special session for the purpose of instituting a government platinum monopoly reached the state department today and caused considerable concern in government departments, that have been scouring the earth in search of platinum for war needs.

Since Russia has been overrun by the Germans the Columbian Republic has been looked to as one of the chief sources of a platinum supply. Hope was expressed today that the proposed monopoly would not affect adversely the purchase of American and allied requirements.

Columbia has been a field for German agents and the state department has been informed that Germany has attempted to get options on the entire Columbian platinum supply.

ALADDIN'S MAGIC HAS NOTHING ON THIS OHIO WIZARD

Discovers drug which loosens sore, touchy corns so they lift out

You reckless men and women who are pestered with corns and who have at least once a week invited an awful death from lockjaw or blood poison are now told to use a drug called freezone, which the moment a few drops are applied to any corn, the soreness is relieved and soon the entire corn, root and all, lifts out with the fingers.

This new ether drug is the recent discovery of a noted Cincinnati chemist. It is a sticky substance which dries the moment it is applied and is said to simply shrivel the corn without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding tissue or skin. It is claimed that a quarter of an ounce of freezone will cost very little at any of the drug stores, but is sufficient to rid one's feet of every hard or soft corn or callus.

You are further warned that cutting at a corn is a suicidal habit.

NEW GOVERNMENT IS FORMED IN BELGIUM

Havre, France, June 4—Baron Charles De Broqueville today resigned the Belgian premiership. He is succeeded by M. Cooreman. The new premier assumes the portfolio of economics, to which has been attached the ministry of national reconstruction.

The resignation of Baron De Broqueville was not due to political dissension, but to differences of opinion in regard to administrative methods.

Wilson Opposed To Prohibition If Unnecessary

Washington, D. C., June 4—President Wilson today declared his opposition to further prohibition legislation until the food administration decides it is necessary to conserve foodstuffs. His position was made known in a letter to Senator Sheppard, of Texas. The house amendment to the agricultural appropriation bill would prevent the expenditure of $6,000,000 unless the president prevents the use of grain in the production of alcoholic liquors.

LOCAL NEWS

TWO BRIDES-TO-BE Mrs. James H. Colman will tonight entertain very pleasantly at her home, 14 Clarendon street, in honor of her sister, Miss Alice Dutton, and her prospective sister-in-law, Miss Mary J. Power, who are to be married on the same day. There were between twenty and twenty-five in the party and a very enjoyable evening was passed.

ACCIDENT Mrs. Walter Harris of Smythe street, while alighting from a street car in the Marsh road last night, was struck by an automobile driven by Cecil Hannah and knocked down. She was conveyed to the city and upon examination it was found that she had fortunately not been seriously injured. The driver of the automobile broke some of his gears in bringing his car to a stop.

CONDITIONS BETTER There have been no new cases of smallpox reported to the board of health for the last week. The quarantine was lifted last evening on a house in Lancaster. There are now fourteen cases in the isolation hospital, and of this number about three are ready for release. Vaccination is still being continued in several wards in the city. There was no meeting of board of health at noon today.

POLICE COURT Pte. George Levine and Florence McLulry were further remanded in the police court this morning on a serious charge. Magistrate Ritchie said that the defendant, Levine, is out on parole from Dorothea Penitentiary and that arrangements were being made to send him back to serve out his sentence.

AT FERNHILL Fifteen young women are now at work at Fernhill doing wedding and trimming and looking after the flowers. They were chosen out of more than fifty applicants. A forewoman is in charge, and part of the rest home has been reserved for them. This help will enable the staff to keep up with the work on lots under care. The two societies by Messrs. T. McAvity & Sons have been placed on the naval and military plot and add much to the decorations of this spot.

The Man In The Street

Who said St. John had no summer weather?

Hot enough for most people these days; and if the Hun subs come around this part of the country no doubt it would be made too hot for them.

So far we have not heard any one around St. John inquiring where they could rent a nice safe cellar.

Neither is there any truth in the report that four-inch guns are to be mounted on the ferry steamers.

The rash of volunteers to the recruiting office continues, but the infantry branch of the service does not seem to appeal to the recruits.

British soldier has been given the D. S. O. for not being away from his battalion since war was declared; might have given him a holiday instead.

Clothes do not make a man, but some chaps look a whole lot more like a man since they started wearing khaki.

June 22 will go down in history as the day on which every woman in Canada was required to tell her real age.

Of course one does not have to register on that date unless one wants to, but a survey of the list of penalties attached makes registration dodging look like an expensive sport.

Canadians returning from United States are deeply impressed with the high regard our friends across the border have for Canada's war achievements; a reputation like that gives us something to live up to.

Tax rate for 1918 is twenty-one cents a hundred lower than last year! Ain't it a grand and glorious feeling? Oh boy!

A lower tax rate and more free hand concerts this year should help to create a happy and harmonious atmosphere, even if the price of tobacco does make another flight.

Power company slipped over a clause giving them nine years to start hydro-electric development. They're not so slow about getting legislation as they plan to be about starting work.

May 24, June 3 and July 1, all holidays. They are coming so fast nowadays that we don't know whether to loaf on the holidays and work the other days or work on the holidays and take the other days off.
