

IDENTITY OF PROGRESSIVE PARTY WILL BE MAINTAINED, DECLARES HON. T. A. CRERAR

Progressive Members of Parliament Will Support Gov't in Putting into Effect Reforms Advocated by National Party—Ready to Promote and Develop Spirit of Canadian National Unity—Convinced National Railway System is Sound One, and Says He Is Suspicious of Montreal.

Winnipeg, Man., Jan. 11.—Farmers progressive members of parliament will support the government in putting into effect reforms which have been advocated by the National Progressive party, but the identity of the Progressive party will be maintained. This was made plain this afternoon by Hon. T. A. Crerar, who made his first public speech since the election, when he read to the convention of the United Farmers of Manitoba a resolution, adopted at the secret conference of Progressive members-elect from the three western provinces at Saskatoon on December 20.

The Resolution
This resolution was read as follows: "That this meeting of the Western supporters of the National Progressive Party, having taken under consideration the existing political situation in Canada and the course the Progressive party should follow, is of the opinion that the gravity and importance of our many national problems call for a strong Government;

"That the first consideration of the Progressive party will be to support the legislation of the country, both in the economic and administrative sense, and, in the larger sense, of promoting and developing the spirit of Canadian national unity; and we will extend to the Hon. Mr. King's Government all reasonable co-operation and support in any efforts it may make to enact into legislation those economic and administrative reforms which have been advocated by the National Progressive party, which, at the same time, maintaining the complete identity and organization of the Progressive party."

"That resolution," commented Mr. Crerar, "is the sentiment expressed in it, will be the sentiment which will guide the Progressive members in the House of Commons."

National Railway System

Without further discussion of the Progressive meeting, or of the resolutions with the Liberal members which followed, Mr. Crerar went on to other questions. He declared for the immediate consolidation of the Grand Trunk Railway with the National System; advocated economy in administration rather than search for new sources of revenue, and urged substantial reduction in freight rates. "I am willing," he said, "to work with any one who will seek to establish in the public administration the measures which the country requires."

The Progressive leader, who was given a fine reception, said the business of governing Canada presented grave difficulties which were almost insurmountable. Some sections were almost losing contact one with the other, when it was essential that these far-flung parts remain in contact. Differences of race and religion must be kept down. "We must have," he said, "to think in broad terms of our common Canadianism. Along this line I hope to see the influence which we shall exert in the Commons being carried throughout the Dominion."

Keep Organization Intact

The country is facing the questions of economic and administrative reforms more serious than have been met in the past. The Progressives must keep their organizations intact. He urged that the strength of the United Farmers be kept up. Its membership increased, the enthusiasm of the local units strengthened.

"I do not want," said Mr. Crerar, "to see any narrow parties spring up, to invade the Progressive party, to have a higher mission—to educate, to develop, to stimulate to higher ideals, to publish public men who fall below its standards, and to reward those who maintain its high standards. We must think in terms of public good. We want to see equity and justice prevail. We want to see the standard set that common welfare is the ideal."

Referring, briefly, to the railway problem, Mr. Crerar said he was convinced the National System was a sound asset fundamentally. Canada has railways for a population of ten to fifteen million people—that was the weakness of the situation. "There are certain interests and newspapers and public men," he continued, "who are opposed to the whole principle of national railways, and particularly to the incorporation of the old Grand Trunk system into the National system. It is vital to the success of the National system that the Grand Trunk consolidation be completed, and that at the earliest possible date. Continuation of the Grand Trunk, under separate management, would be fatal to the national system."

Suspicious of Montreal
"I tell you frankly that I am just a little bit suspicious of certain interests operating in Montreal, in the matter of the Canadian National Railways. I think these Montreal interests will see things before long that they don't represent the attitude of the Canadian people. I am quite sure they don't represent the people of Quebec."

DEEP WATERWAY RECOMMENDED BY COMMISSION

International Joint Commission Favors Great Lakes-St. Lawrence Waterway Project.

BILL INTRODUCED IN U. S. CONGRESS

Calls for Bond Issues Guaranteed on 50-50 Basis by U. S. and Canadian Gov'ts.

Washington, Jan. 11.—Improvement of the new Welland Canal, between Lake Erie and Lake Ontario, as well as the St. Lawrence River, to provide a thirty-foot channel for Lake Erie to the sea has been recommended by the International Joint Commission in its report on the proposed Great Lakes-St. Lawrence waterway, according to Representative Chalmers, Republican, Ohio.

Mr. Chalmers, today, introduced a bill in the house authorizing the improvement on the part of the United States, but stipulating that the expense be borne equally by the United States and Canada through a bond issue guaranteed by both Governments. The report of the Commission, which has been submitted to the State Department but has not yet been made public, Mr. Chalmers said, is a statement recommending that the project, including the widening and deepening of the new Welland Canal, be undertaken and that the costs be met through taxation by the United States and Canada in proportion to the benefits derived.

Division of Costs

The Commission report, Mr. Chalmers said, recommends that the division of costs be figured on the basis of known traffic for the past five years to be definitely ascertained by an international survey.

"I believe such a procedure is too indefinite and intangible to be used as a basis for determining the allocation of the costs of the enterprise, which will run into the hundreds of millions of dollars," Mr. Chalmers declared. "I think the 50-50 proposition is the safest and fairest for both countries."

The Chalmers bill provides that bonds issued by the Government should be retired with proceeds derived from the sale of hydro-electric power made available for commercial use also provides that the benefits derived, in the way of hydro-electric energy, shall be evenly divided between the two countries.

Justification over construction and operation of the entire waterway, Mr. Chalmers bill, would be in the hands of an International Board of U. S. members, three representing the United States and three Great Britain. The board would have authority to sell hydro-electric power and to issue bonds for the improvements.

Piano Saved But Two Little Children Burned To Death

When Fire Destroyed House in Canso, N. S., Last Night.

Canso, N. S., Jan. 11.—Two little girls, one aged three and the other one and a half years, were burned to death, but a piano was saved. The fire destroyed the residence of Fred Johnson on Hazel Hill road near here tonight. Grandfather Johnson, a century old, was badly burned but managed to escape with her nightgown on fire, and tumble into a snow bank.

The fire had evidently originated from a Quebec heater, and spread with extraordinary rapidity. Members of the family, making their escape from the top story, sustained severe burns. In the excitement, Johnson, the father of the two little girls, thought they had been taken from the house by other members of the family, and bawled himself saving the piano. Everything else, including, it is said, a considerable sum of money, was burnt.

Request Workers To Keep Within Law

United Mine Workers No. 26 to Remain Quiet During Arbitration Hearings.

Sydney, N. S., Jan. 11.—"We shall request our men to keep within the law and remain at work pending the outcome of the arbitration board," declared W. P. Delaney, vice-president of United Mine Workers District No. 26, when asked tonight what will be the probable effect of the action of the Supreme Court of Nova Scotia in suspending the injunction restraining the Nova Scotia coal operators from pulling up to immediate effect a proposed 25 per cent. wage cut.

He added: "We anticipate that they will do so."

GRIFFITH STARTS MACHINERY FOR PUTTING THE ANGLO-IRISH TREATY INTO EFFECT

Summons Southern Parliament to Meet Saturday—De Valera and His Followers in Dail to Ignore the Saturday Meeting—The Evacuation of Dublin Castle Now Going On—Irish Labor Party to Participate in Election to be Held During Year.

London, Jan. 11.—The summoning of the Southern Parliament to meet Saturday by Arthur Griffith, president of the Dail Eireann, and his cabinet, has started the machinery for putting the treaty into operation. Half a dozen huge vans backed in front of the chief secretary's office in Dublin Castle this afternoon and removed stacks of official documents and effects of the secretariat and police departments, thus beginning the evacuation of the castle, the symbol to Irishmen for centuries of British control.

Samuel De Valera informed the correspondents that he believed his party would ignore the Saturday meeting of parliament. In response to an inquiry regarding his plans, he said he intended to continue the fight for independence; he supposed elections would be held within six or nine months. Such elections, added Mr. De Valera, like the signing of the treaty in London, would be held under the British threat of renewal of warfare, and therefore, he would not accept the verdict as the uncoerced will of the people.

PROGRESS MADE ON REVISION OF NAVAL TREATY

Differences of Opinion Arose Over Rules for Scrapping of Battleships.

Washington, Jan. 11.—The "Big Five" made further progress today in their final revision of the naval treaty but encountered a difference of opinion when they came to lay down rules for the scrapping of battleships.

For the United States delegation, it was proposed that the surplus vessels be rendered entirely useless. France readily supported that view, with Italy indicating a similar attitude. Great Britain and Japan withheld assent, however, the suggestion being made that the dismantled ships might be used as harbor guards or training vessels.

Question Unsettled
When the five delegation heads adjourned, after several hours of debate, the question remained unsettled and will be taken up again tomorrow. During their two sessions today, however, they had completed approval of the first of the treaty annexes, embodying a replacement chart, and they expressed hope tonight that all of the five annexes might be disposed of tomorrow or Friday.

Except for the article dealing with Pacific fortifications, all of the text of the treaty proper already had been virtually approved, and should Tokyo's refusal to ratify the decision be reversed in time, a plenary session for public discussion of the completed treaty may be held Saturday or Monday.

Ontario Liberals To Choose New Leader At February Convention

Until New Chieftain is Selected F. W. Hay Will Continue as Chief Whip and Leader.

Toronto, Jan. 11.—Ontario Liberals will choose their new leader at a convention to be held in Toronto during the last week of February. The fixing of the exact date is to be left to the discretion of the executive. Between five and six hundred delegates will be empowered to attend this gathering. Each of the 111 provincial ridings will be entitled to send four representatives.

Until the new chieftain is chosen, F. Wellington Hay, M. P. P., North Perth, will continue to occupy his dual position of Liberal whip and temporary house leader.

Such were the decisions arrived at today by a joint conference held in the King Edward between the provincial executive of the Liberal party and the sitting members of the legislature. About sixty were present in all.

Heavy Rain Storm Hits Halifax

Halifax, N. S., Jan. 11.—A heavy rain storm arrived here at eight o'clock this evening with the wind blowing from the southeast to northeast.

BRIAND, BEARING TEXT OF BRITISH ALLIANCE, FACES HOSTILE CHAMBER

Paris, Jan. 11.—Premier Briand bearing the text of the long-sought British Alliance, will face the French Parliament tomorrow, which, although hostile tonight, may, nevertheless, in the opinion of many observers, give him a vote of confidence because it dare not refuse a concrete pact owing to differences of opinion concerning some of the clauses and concessions.

Both Senate and Chamber party caucuses have sent messages of protest to M. Briand, and there is much talk of overthrowing the Government, as has frequently been the case in the past year, Briand's supporters, however, expect him to win.

"Hell's" Kitchen Scene of Fierce Gun Battle

Customs Inspector Shot by Negro in Bootleggers' Battle—Detective Called In.

New York, Jan. 11.—After a desperate gun and hand-to-hand fight which aroused the notorious "Hell's Kitchen" section, four police detectives tonight arrested Edward McDonald, a negro, 23 years old, on the charge of having shot and seriously wounded Michael U. Kennedy, a customs inspector, in a bootleggers' battle in Weehawken, N. J., last night.

According to the police, McDonald signed a confession.

The four detectives came upon McDonald in a doorway of his home in West Thirtieth street. When answered their command to surrender with a shot, which the officers answered with a fusillade. They pursued him into the hallway, and McDonald, who is known as "the big bear" because of his prodigious strength, fought them off until brought down with blacking.

New England Experiences Heaviest Gale of The Winter

Heavy Snow Fall in Some Sections, Rain and Sleet in Others.

Boston, Jan. 11.—The storm, which raged up the Atlantic Coast today brought the heaviest gale of the winter to New England, accompanied by rain, sleet and snow. In its course it smashed into the Provincetown fishing fleet and piled up two fishing schooners on the shores of Cape Cod, besides sinking two power dories. One man was drowned.

North and west of Boston, a heavy snow fall was reported, and in Maine and New Hampshire trolley service was interrupted at several points and the storm started with snow, which changed to sleet and then to heavy rain, making streets and sidewalks a mass of slush and water for several hours. Shipping had been warned well in advance and kept close to port.

Dominion Coal Co. Assisting Miners Who Are Distressed

Is Sending $20,000 Into Sydney to Relieve Distress Among Its Employees.

Sydney, N. S., Jan. 11.—That the Dominion Coal Company is sending $20,000 weekly to relieve distress among its employees, and that no deserving case will be allowed to go unassisted, was the statement made today by H. J. McCann, Assistant General Manager, addressing a delegation of the County Council. Mr. McCann said that unemployment was less acute in Cape Breton than in any other coal field on the Continent.

The United Mine Workers, he stated, were also asking a weekly levy on the employed miners of the district for the assistance of those who have been thrown out of work.

Creditors Accept 40 Cents On Dollar From L. A. Gareau

Doing Business Throughout Canada as English and Scotch Woollea Company.

Montreal, Jan. 11.—Creditors, representing seventy-five per cent. in value of the total proved claims amounting to $1,121,731.41 against L. A. Gareau, doing business throughout Canada as the English and Scotch Woollea Company, voted last night in favor of accepting the forty cents on the dollar offered by the debtor firm, which is now in bankruptcy, according to the report of the scrutineers issued this evening.

When this statement was known, it was declared, on behalf of Morris Joseph, one of the creditors, that instructions would be given to his solicitors to ask the courts to reopen the proceedings in bankruptcy.

SICILIAN TOWN NEARLY WIPED OUT BY SERIES OF HEAVY LANDSLIDES

Messina, Sicily, Jan. 11.—The landslides at San Praxido have brought about complete disaster to the little town. The total casualties are not known, but scores of bodies are believed to have been buried in the debris. Two bodies have been found. All the people have been driven out of the town by the slides, either walking or using ox carts and wagons. They have invaded the adjacent villages in search of shelter and food. The people carried with them such of their belongings as they could.

The landslides resulted from the incessant rain storms of the past week. The earth moved in great waves as it came down the hillsides. Seven churches are a mass of debris. The town is completely devastated. Not a home in it is habitable.

CITY NOISES DRIVING PEOPLE INSANE, MRS. OAKLEY ASSERTS

Philadelphia, Jan. 11.—All in city noises will be in insanity unless something is done to stop city noises, if we are to take seriously the opinion of Mrs. Imogen B. Oakley, chairman of the Smoke Nuisance and Unnecessary Noise Committee of the Civic Club here. City noises are shattering our nerves, undermining our health, shortening our lives and driving us to insanity, according to Mrs. Oakley. Personal investigation has shown this to be true, she said. Here are some of Mrs. Oakley's suggestions for lessening our chances of leading in the "booby hatch": Prohibit the ringing of church bells.

U. S. Army Officers Witnesses Before Senate Committee

Called to Give Evidence Relative to Charges Soldiers Were Shot Without Trial.

Washington, Jan. 11.—United States army officers were called as witnesses today by the Senate committee investigating charges that United States soldiers had been hanged in France. H. E. Ross, a battalion surgeon with the 4th Infantry, declared he heard of no hangings at Gondrecourt, or of any hangings in that locality. Robert Harrison had testified that he saw a Mexican lynched near Gondrecourt, and that the body was taken to a hospital, with rope marks around the neck. Senator Watson presented to the committee an affidavit by J. M. McDonald, of Youngstown, Ohio, setting forth that he was at the Basson prison in France, when Private Pitaguard was shot and killed "by a Sergeant Cooper or Knippa, of Newcastle, Pa." McDonald said he was ready to testify in support of recent testimony to that effect by Edward Duner, of San Francisco. Details of the execution of a soldier at Giverny, on June 20, 1915, were given by Colonel Charles J. Symonds of Camp Sherman, Ohio, who was in command there at the time. This was the only hanging at Giverny during the time he was there—from February, 1915, to July, 1915—he declared. Some witnesses heretofore had testified that guards had told them of the hanging of upwards of a dozen soldiers at Giverny.

Identity of Progressive Party Will Be Maintained Declares Hon. T. A. Cramer

(Continued from Page 1.) Mr. Cramer said the whole influence of the Progressive Party would be thrown into the effort to secure a reduction in freight rates which had to come down if the country were to progress. There was need for an effort to co-ordinate the financial policy of the country and prevent overlapping between provinces and the Federal Government. A policy of economy in public administration had to be developed. The first essential was not to find new sources of taxation but to cut down expenditures to make accounts balance. The country needed wider markets and reduction of tariff on necessities of life, and the essential for carrying on development of the nation's resources. Immigration should be encouraged wisely. He hoped to see the system of proportional representation voting adopted, for the citizen at least, in Federal elections, and the principle of the transferable vote to permit the voter to change his single-member constituency. Following Mr. Cramer's address the eleven other Progressive members of parliament elected in Manitoba were

The Associated Charities Met

Secretary Reported Great Many Needy Cases Cared for—321 Applications for Assistance.

A largely attended meeting of the Associated Charities was held yesterday afternoon at 117 Germania street, with J. E. White presiding. Several needy cases were discussed, one case in particular being brought to the attention of the society, where one family had been cared for by neighbors for a period of six weeks. A great many needy cases have been taken care of and the charities are looking forward to many more before the winter is over. The secretary, Mrs. Grace Robertson, read her report, which showed that 321 applications for assistance had been received, an especially large number being received at Christmas. There have been 64 requests for employment, of which 31 have been taken care of. Twenty-four of these requests were for maids, but very few people offered for these positions. Twenty-one requests were given; 37 persons sought relief; 24 being taken care of; and 146 visits have been made. The report showed that clothing had been given to 10 people; transportation was sought by five, and 14 cases were investigated. A large number of names were given to the churches and other organizations at Christmas and the response to their appeals was very generous. Many generous gifts were greatly appreciated by the society, among which were $70 sent by the I. O. O. F.; Christmas baskets for 24 families donated by the N. B. Telephone Co., and two cheques for $50 each, received since Christmas.

Fishing Fleet Caught Unprepared For Terrific Gale

Provincetown, Mass., Jan. 11.—A terrific gale with rain, which swept Cape Cod this afternoon, caught the fishing fleet unprepared and John Gomes was drowned when a power dory, owned by John Costa, sank off Richland Light. Costa was rescued by other members of the fleet. The schooner, Ignatius Enos and the Arthur and Matthew were blown ashore and one power dory sank in Provincetown harbor. Three boats of the fishing fleet had not been heard from tonight.

London Newspapers Better Informed On Canadian Affairs

Lord Burnham Speaks of Mutual Benefits Resultant from Imperial Press Conference.

London, Jan. 11.—Lord Burnham, proprietor of the Daily Telegraph, speaking today at the conclusion of a dinner illustrating the meetings of Imperial Press Conference, of which he was chairman, held in Canada some time ago, said that on such a dinner, directly connected with the conference, and the intimate contact it brought between journalists here and Canadian conditions, from Halifax to Victoria, the great daily newspapers of London and the Province had largely increased their intelligence department regarding Canada, and were carrying more Canadian news than ever before. Lord Burnham went on to refer to the corresponding value that was being obtained by Canadian daily newspapers through the arrangement entered into between London and the Canadian Press Association, where a valuable supplementary cable service of British news was going direct from London into their offices. Not the least important part of this new departure was the access that the Canadian Press thus got to the news of the British Press Association, the co-operation of the Canadian Press covering news of the British Isles in much the same way as the Canadian Press covers news of the Dominion.

FAREWELL BANQUET

Major McLeod's Farewell Dinner

The farewell dinner tendered General, the Hon. A. H. Macdonnell, C.M.G., D.S.O., G.O.C., by the St. John Garrison O.C., at the most representative gathering of the active and retired militia of New Brunswick, since the time of the armistice. There were nearly a hundred officers present, not from St. John, but from Fredericton, Moncton, Woodstock and other parts throughout the province as well as the most representative of the officers of New Brunswick, precision and affection for their commander, who has retired from the command since his appointment to the Senate. The scene presented in the dining hall brought back a vision of the time days, the long tables of damask glittering with silver and lery, were prettily decorated with streamers of red, white, and blue about them were grouped officers in khaki uniforms, or in evening dress, whose somber hues were tinted with decorations. The guest of the evening was placed into dinner by Piper Lieut. I. MacLaran. After the beautiful dinner had been disposed of, the toast to King was proposed by Major McLeod, president of the meeting, responded to by the singing of National Anthem. Major McLeod then called upon Col. W. H. Harrison to propose a toast to the guest of the evening, doing so he took occasion to refer to the regret of all present because of the general's departure from the province. He spoke of his own admiration and respect for the General, who dated back to the time when he knew him as an officer attached to the Royal Canadian Rifles stationed in Fredericton in 1892. Lt. Col. Harrison

It Col. Harrison on arising that he found it both a pleasant and at the same time responsible duty to propose the toast to the worthy guest. He felt sure that the feeling of troops was one of regret at the departure of the general from their midst and proposing his health he would then to drink to him first as a friend, then as a comrade, and finally as a soldier. He had known the general for more than twenty years ago, had gone to South Africa in command of the New Brunswick company in the South African War, commanded the 1st Brigade of the 2nd division in France to which was attached the 26th Battalion, of New Brunswick, Military District 7, and was retiring from the army in New Brunswick. He would ask them to drink health secondly as a soldier as well as one who had served with distinction in South Africa, who was later transferred to the British Army and served in Liberia. Who, returning to Canada, was appointed G. S. O. of the 1st military district, who had commanded the 5th Brigade in France, and was now retiring from the command of M. D. 7. As a militia officer he expressed the hope that his retirement would not make the doing away with the district possessed of a record, second to none, and for which was largely due the splendid efforts of General Macdonnell. He thought it was greatly to the government's credit that they had recognized the worth of a worthy soldier as they had done in appointing a guest of the evening to the Senate. In conclusion he asked the company to drink to General Macdonnell health as a gentleman who had always treated all ranks with courtesy and sympathy. He was glad to have the honor of knowing him, and sorry to see him go, and on behalf of the present wished him all success and prosperity in his future career. It was with great pleasure that he had learned that in retiring from the army he did so with the rank of Major General. At the conclusion of Lt. Col. FAREWELL BANQUET TENDERED
MAJOR GENERAL MACDONELL

Most Representative Gathering of Active and Retired Militia Officers Show Appreciation and Affection for Their Commander, Who Retires from Army for Senate.

The farewell dinner tendered Major General, the Hon. A. H. Macdonnell, C. M. G., D. S. O., G. O. C., M. D., by the St. John Garrison Officers Mess, at Bonds last evening, marked the most representative gathering of the active and retired militia officers of the province since the signing of the Armistice. There were nearly a hundred officers present, not only from St. John, but from Fredericton, Moncton, Woodstock and other points throughout the province as well.

The dinner was tendered in appreciation and affection for their commander, who has retired from the command since his appointment to the Senate.

The scene presented in the banquet hall brought back a vision of war-time days, the long tables of white damask glittering with silver and cutlery, were prettily decorated with streamers of red, white, and blue, while about them were grouped officers in khaki uniforms, or in evening dress, whose summer hats were brightened with decorations.

The guest of the evening was played into dinner by Piper Lieut. Larry MacLaren. After the banquet dinner had been disposed of, the toast to the King was proposed by Major N. P. MacLeod, president of the mess, and responded to by the singing of the National Anthem.

Major MacLeod then called upon Lt. Col. W. H. Harrison to propose the toast to the guest of the evening, in doing so he took occasion to refer to the regret of all present because of the general's departure from the province. He spoke of his own admiration and respect for the general, which dated back to the time when he had known him as an officer attached to the Royal Canadian Rifles stationed in Fredericton in 1892.

Lt. Col. Harrison on arising said that he found it a pleasant, and at the same time a responsible duty, to propose the toast to the worthy guest. He felt sure that the feeling of the troops was one of regret at the departure of the general from their midst and proposing his health he would ask them to drink to him first as a New Brunswicker, because he had first joined the permanent force as an officer in New Brunswick, and two years ago, had gone to South Africa in command of the New Brunswick company in the South African War, commencing in France to which was attached the 30th Battalion, and had come back to Canada as G. O. C. of New Brunswick Military District 7, and was retiring from the army in New Brunswick.

He would ask them to drink his health as a soldier as well, and to one who had served with distinction in South Africa, who was later transferred to the British Army and served in Liberia. Who, returning to Canada was appointed G. O. C. of the London military district, who had commanded the 5th Brigade in France, and who was now retiring from the command of M. D. 7.

As a militia officer he expressed the hope that his retirement would not make the doing away with the district possessed of a record, second to none, and for which was largely due the splendid efforts of General Macdonnell.

He thought it was greatly to the late government's credit that they had recognized the worth of a worthy soldier as they had done in appointing the guest of the evening to the Senate.

In conclusion he asked the company to drink to General Macdonnell's health as a gentleman who had always treated all ranks with courtesy and sympathy. His wish was to have had the honor of knowing him, and to be able to see him, and on behalf of those present wished him all success and prosperity in his future career. It was with great pleasure he had learnt that in retiring from the army, he did so with the rank of Major General.

At the conclusion of Lt. Col. Harrison's remarks, the entire company rose to their feet and sang hearty cheers for the General, which they followed up with a rousing chorus of "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow."

LIMITATION OF TRADE UNIONS IS NECESSARY

Many Unionists Seek to Manage Industry for Which They Are Incompetent.

LONDON, Jan. 11.—The Fabians, in the second of their annual lectures, raised the thorny question of the possible limits to trade unionism. When Sidney Webb, who, with his wife is an authority upon the history of the union movement, undertook at a few hours' notice—owing to the unavoidable absence of G. D. Cole, the exponent of Guild Socialism—to lecture on the subject, he made it clear that he could not pretend to follow the line of argument which Cole in his printed syllabus had outlined for himself.

Referring to his book "Toward Social Democracy" he said that the thesis of which he was the author is that with the passage of time there has been a gradual transfer of power from producers to consumers, and that the key to the English economic system is the employment of the trade union movement now that it has been taken hold of by the Syndicalists, looks like a reversal of the historic movement.

In 1904 there were only 1,600,000 members of trade unions; now there are at least 5,000,000. At that time trade unions were only very gradually admitted by employers to have any function at all, now they have become an important and definite factor in the state.

There is no reason why trade unionism should not extend its every work, and there can be no doubt as to its permanence for all vocational organizations and its continued existence as a power in the community.

Check Upon Autocracy. There is no possibility of a reversal to autocracy in Western Europe, whether of the kind which the co-operative society manager, or the state official, the limitations of trade unionism are not in sight when the professional organizations of trained workers—lawyers, teachers, architects, and so on—are considered; and the functions of vocational organizations will be more and more united upon autocracy. But when it is claimed that the management of industry will devolve upon the vocational organizations, the technicians and trade unionists, workers—lawyers, teachers, architects, and so on—are considered; and the functions of vocational organizations will be more and more united upon autocracy.

Mr. Webb said that the management of industry will devolve upon the vocational organizations, the technicians and trade unionists, workers—lawyers, teachers, architects, and so on—are considered; and the functions of vocational organizations will be more and more united upon autocracy.

George P. Graham, minister of militia when he seeks re-election on February 7. There are 171 delegates present from all parts of the riding and the vote stood 142 to 29.

he is, by his circumstances, cut off from any real knowledge of the character and needs of the man earning the money, and living under the constant subjection of the workshop. Therefore, in the democratic state of the future, it is essential that the actual needs and desires of those in the trade unions and the professional organizations to rise to this conception of their function, where the management, however, will be handed neither to the one nor the other. It is argued that an industry cannot be carried on in this way, while that may be true now, the alternative may be possible in the future when the administration of industry is swayed by consideration of the interests of the community.

Consumers' Needs Come First. It is evident that with what shall be produced the workers concerned have nothing to do. The needs of the consumers are the first consideration, and the workers involved have no more to do with the decision as to what shall be produced, and when and where, than any other consumers. There, as to the nature of production, here, the trade unions have a special duty to perform, which is to be the best alternative, to decide the directors of the industry, on the other hand, are deliberately picked and trained for the express purpose of knowing what the consumers want, and how to satisfy their desires; moreover, their bias corresponds with that of the consumers, who want things to be as cheap as possible, while they wish to be as successful as possible.

On the other hand, it does not matter to the consumers how the reduction of cost is effected, whether by choice of material, lowering of wages, or other cause; consequently the decision of such matters cannot be wholly and altogether left either to the directors of industry or to the consumers who behold them as to Higher Grade of Work Looked For. As to the conditions under which human beings are to be employed, the lecturer maintained, is a matter in which the workers have a paramount interest, and it is here that the function of the vocational association, whether trade union or professional, organization, occurs, for even though the workers are not the best interests of his work people.

PUBLIC'S VIEW ON FINANCES NOW THE NEED

Economic World Congress Favored by Security League President in United States.

New York, Jan. 11.—To obtain the fullest aid of the United States in a world economic settlement, England and France must promptly realize the wisdom of any present agreement with each other, and with Germany prior to an international conference, said S. Stanwood Menken, president of the National Security League, in discussing this question yesterday.

Mr. Menken proposed a congressional act authorizing the President to appoint a nonpartisan economic commission to hold hearings throughout the country for the purpose of determining the consensus of opinion on world economic matters, thus enabling American delegates to enter a world economic conference with the power of the public viewpoint back of them.

Supposing that an economic congress in held, Mr. Menken said that the people were ignorant of the necessity of any such congress, "or their concept of its possibilities was unrealized. They must be awakened to the facts and forced to realize that the most important business for America was to deal with these matters immediately. They must look behind the scenes of world finance, and with knowledge, lay the foundation for normal commercial intercourse.

Educational Campaign.

"To present this complicated matter in its true relation to our welfare and to develop a sense of adequate responsibility to Europe, is difficult but thoroughly feasible," continued Mr. Menken. "It is essential that the broadest campaign be instituted to create popular understanding of economic questions and that means be taken to determine their proper solution from a strictly American viewpoint.

"Let us once find this American opinion and give the strength of popular support, and then only will we be prepared to participate in an international economic congress. We cannot credit delegates to any such gathering unless they are able to speak definitely as to our demands and our conceptions. For anyone to enter such a party without the general support of a majority of our own people will be to invite distrust. Were our delegates unprepared, they would be forced into a position where, because of uncertainty of congressional approval, delay and chaos would result, when the cry is for financial salvation.

"My plan would be to form an economic commission, say of 55 members, generally representative of the various sections of the country and made up as follows: 20 trained economists and financiers; 10 senators and congressmen, perhaps five from each of the committee of each body; 6 representative business men; 12 representatives of agriculture and labor; 2 representatives of the army and navy; the secretary of State, and the Secretary of the Treasury, and the Secretary of Commerce.

National Committee.

"The functions of this body would be to consider and define America's position on world economic problems; to advise on the proper course as to Europe's debt to the United States; to report on our own tariff and tax problems, including matters particularly affecting labor and agriculture. This latter course might meet some of the demands of the agricultural farmer should receive special attention.

"The results of such a conference would be, if successful, popular education as to the economic situation of the world, and would be a wise precedent. This commission, holding open sessions in various sections of the country, would have the same function as like bodies exercise in Europe. Give Congress the support of a well-thought-out report of non-political experts and it will vote for it, confident of the support of the home folk, who will quickly determine in the common-sense view when it is publicly discussed. This entire proposal is based upon confidence in the judgment of the American public when they are armed with facts."

People's Judgment Sound.

"The adoption of this plan would emphasize the truth that party politics have no proper place in the solution of business matters and would be a wise precedent. This commission, holding open sessions in various sections of the country, would have the same function as like bodies exercise in Europe. Give Congress the support of a well-thought-out report of non-political experts and it will vote for it, confident of the support of the home folk, who will quickly determine in the common-sense view when it is publicly discussed. This entire proposal is based upon confidence in the judgment of the American public when they are armed with facts."

Cancellation of European debts by the United States, said Mr. Menken, or even the scaling down of interest, was not now acceptable to the American people and would only be approved by them when they understood their economic obligations to Europe and the resultant business benefits to the United States which would follow temporary sacrifice. They would for-

Bank of Toronto Reports Successful Year's Business

Profits for 1921 Only Slightly Less Than in 1920, the Banner Year.

Toronto, Jan. 11.—President W. G. Gooderham, in reviewing the business conditions of the past year at the annual meeting of the Bank of Toronto, held here today, drew attention to the serious financial position of the European countries, apart from Great Britain, their continued inflation and the absolute rearrangement of international exchanges, all of which seriously affected our foreign trade, while the deflation in business and the low prices for farm products have combined to give rise to many difficult problems to handle in the home market. He, however, continued:

"We venture to express the opinion that, and for all this, the business of the country is on a sound basis. The volume has not been so great, profits have been reduced, but the country, as a whole, is coming through this period of liquidation and deflation in a way that reflects credit upon the good judgment of our business men generally."

Thomas F. How, the general manager, in his remarks, pointed out that the bank's profits for the year, $326,100, or an average of 1.92 per cent on the capital and reserves, were only slightly less than in 1920, the best year of the bank's history, and that the surplus in profit and profit accounts was now $7,000,000 or $2,000,000 in excess of the paid up capital. The actual cash held together with the balances owing by other banks readily convertible into cash and call loans amounted to $41,290,784, equal to 48 per cent of our entire liabilities to the public, figures which speak for themselves.

Wheat Scored Some Material Advances On Chicago Market

Helped by Report That Large Export Business in Flour Was Underway.

Chicago, Jan. 11.—Wheat scored a material advance in price today, helped by gossip that foreigners were purchasing future deliveries and that a large export business in flour was underway.

Wheat closed strong at 1 1/2 to 1 3/4 cent higher. Corn gained half to 3/4 cent, oats off 1/2 cent and provisions 10 to 15 cents for financial salvation.

"My plan would be to form an economic commission, say of 55 members, generally representative of the various sections of the country and made up as follows: 20 trained economists and financiers; 10 senators and congressmen, perhaps five from each of the committee of each body; 6 representative business men; 12 representatives of agriculture and labor; 2 representatives of the army and navy; the secretary of State, and the Secretary of the Treasury, and the Secretary of Commerce.

Marked Revival In Volume of Trade On Montreal Market

Trading Developed Tendency to Lower Levels, With Exception of Utilities.

Montreal, Jan. 11.—A marked revival in volume and breadth of trading was shown on the local stock exchange today, although the market again showed a tendency to lower levels, with the exception of Public Utility and some other stocks.

Continued heavy trading in Smellie's was again a feature, and reported selling was well absorbed, the stock closing half higher at 20 1/2. The best gain of the day was in Ottawa Power, which advanced three points to 76, and led all the public utilities nearly all of which showed gains. Illinois Traction closed with a gain of 2 1/2 points at 29, largely as a result of yesterday's announcement of its improved position. Montreal Trams advanced a point to 147, while Power was steady at 88 and Brazilian advanced 1 1/2 to 25 3/4. Detroit, however, sold off a point to 71 on uncertainty as to outcome of directors' meeting today on the matter of coming to an agreement with the civic authorities.

Winnipeg Railway also sold off half to 25. Steels Easy. The steels and allied issues were again inclined to ease, presumably in sympathy with continued apprehension regarding Bridge dividends, announcement as to which had not been made before the close of the market. Steel of Canada sold off 1 1/4 to 55 1/8. Ontario Steel was a point lower at 36. Other issues appeared only in broken lots.

Papers Neglected.

Papers were neglected but Waymac was strong, selling two points up at 38 1/2 and Laurentide on small trading moved up half to 74 1/2. Canada Cottons sold off a point to 80, and Gascoigne same loss to 56. Among the gains, Canada Car moved up 1 1/2 to 20. Twenty-five shares of Ames-Holden preferred sold down two points to 25.

The only feature in the bank stocks was the sale of Montreal a half point higher at 217 1/2. Business in bonds was on the light. Railroads showed a somewhat firmer tendency than was the case yesterday.

Total sales, listed 4,936; bonds, $225,500.

Canada's Net Debt Decreased $1,925,893

Ottawa, Jan. 11.—Canada's net debt shows a decrease of $1,925,893, according to a monthly statement today by the finance department. On the last day of December, 1932, the net debt of Canada was $2,206,216,643 while on December 31, 1931, it stood at $2,398,863,323.

Funded Issues Ruled Operations On New York Stock Exchange

Bond Dealings Conducted Mainly on Higher Levels—Liberty and Victory Bonds in Lead.

New York, Jan. 11.—Funded issues dominated today's operations on the stock exchange, transactions in bonds, mainly at higher levels, being relatively much in excess of dealings in the share list. Liberty and Victory bonds were the outstanding features. Their extensive accumulation aggregated about 65 per cent of the total turnover, which approximated $37,500,000 par value.

All the domestic war issues, except the Liberty third 4 1/4's, registered higher prices for a year or more at extreme advances of 15 cents.

Gradually Strengthened.

The stock market strengthened gradually after its irregular opening, but dealings were materially reduced by the storm, which interrupted the business of commission houses having wire connections with Western points.

Foreign exchange was on a limited scale and at rates slightly lower for British French and most other European bills. Scandinavian quotations also easing.

Substantial Cut In Dom. Bridge Dividend Generally Expected

Montreal, Jan. 11.—At the annual meeting of the Dominion Bridge Company this afternoon, President Duggan announced that, in his opinion, in view of reduced earnings, the dividend might be cut from eight to four per cent, without impairing the company's position. Other speakers suggested a dividend of five per cent, which he said was the consensus of opinion of shareholders that some substantial cut will be decided on at the next meeting of the directors who were re-elected today.

Preliminary In Martin-Ogilvie Case Being Heard

Montreal, Jan. 10.—Justice Bruneau, today, heard J. Chambers preliminary proceedings in the suit taken by Mrs. S. E. Martin to recover $100,000 damages for alleged defamation of character from Shirley Ogilvie, well known financier of Montreal. An inscription in-law, against Mrs. Martin's declaration, was also presented. Prior to the hearing, J. J. Mahar, attorney for Ogilvie, presented a verbal motion asking that the case be conducted in private, but this request was opposed by Solicitor Lavery, for Mrs. Martin, on the grounds that the matter was one of public interest. The motion was granted, however, and the contention was heard in private. Ogilvie is endeavoring to secure the amount of $40,000 from Mrs. Martin, which he alleges, constitutes what he has given her.

Winnipeg Wheat Market Closed Day With Good Gain

Trade Volume Was Exceedingly Light, Pit Offerings Being Small and Buying Power Limited.

Winnipeg, Jan. 11.—The local wheat market after a firm opening advanced today and closed with a gain of 1 1/2 to 1 3/4. Trade volume however, was again exceedingly light, pit offerings small and buying power limited.

The cash wheat market remained inactive and offerings practically all, only a moderate demand existed. All premiums were reported unchanged. In the coarse grain markets brokers reported a little better demand for oats and it was understood that small lots changed hands at premiums unchanged to fractionally higher. The future coarse grains were showing a little strength in sympathy with wheat, but trade generally was dull and featureless.

New Zealand Has National Scheme For Marketing of Meat

It involves the Control of Exports, Sales and Shipments of Meats.

London, Jan. 10.—(Canadian Press Cable)—A Renter despatch from Wellington, N.Z., says the meat pool conference, recognizing the necessity of a national scheme for the marketing of New Zealand meat, and supporting the principle of a compulsory pool, has resolved by a large majority, to appoint a committee to bring the scheme either wholly or partly into operation during the present season. The scheme involves the control of exports, sales and shipment of New Zealand meat. The committee of control will consist of members of the Government, producers and freighting and mercantile interests. It is proposed to utilize the existing channels in the United Kingdom, as far as possible, and to establish an associated board committee in London.

National Hockey League Matches

Ottawa Senators Walloped St. Patricks Seven to Two—Canadians Defeat Hamilton Three to Two.

Ottawa, Jan. 11.—Ottawa's world champions, jumped into first place tonight in the race for honors in the National Hockey League series by virtue of a seven to two victory over the St. Patricks of Toronto at the local arena tonight. The win was clean and on the play there was no doubt that Ottawa was a vastly superior team. More than seven thousand persons were on hand to cheer their favorites, but the locals led all the way and there were few occasions to rouse the enthusiasm of the audience. It was the first meeting of the great rivals and the first victory obtained by the champions over their doubtful opponents.

The triumph was not up to expectations. With the exception of a sensational rally in the second period for a like cause in the final period the visitors presented a listlessness that was not in keeping with their favorable record and the first victory obtained by the champions over their doubtful opponents.

The match was exceptionally close and not a player being ruled off. Reardon was the only man to take the count being struck by the puck in the face. A lady enthusiast was struck in the face by a high shot and had to be taken from the rink.

Canadians 3; Hamilton 2

Hamilton, Jan. 11.—Hamilton went into the cellar position in the N. H. L. series tonight by losing to Canadianians 3 to 2 in a game that was featured by good hockey for most of the journey. Canadians did not appear to be suffering a great deal through the loss of Leland, as the forward line they started out, checked into "form" and standstill and their offensive work was a treat to watch, only the goal-keepers of Lockhart in the last two periods saved the Hamiltons from a worse defeat. Eddie Boncher, who was featured here last winter to play with the Tigers and was refused an amateur contract by the Amateur Union, played for the Canadians in the forward line tonight and his good work was largely responsible for the Canadian's victory.

MUNICIPAL COUNCIL FINANCE COMMITTEE HOLD THREE SESSIONS

Considered Estimates for Year 1922 and Failed to Pass Single Item—Board of Health Assessment Turned Down—County Secretary Pointed Out That Those Who Voted Against Are Liable to Imprisonment.

The finance committee of the municipal council spent the entire day yesterday in the consideration of estimates for the year 1922 and failed to pass a single item. The request from the Board of Health for an assessment was turned down by a vote of four to five, in this connection the county secretary pointed out that the law calling for the passing of this item and those who voted against it were guilty of a criminal offense and liable to imprisonment for one year or a fine of $1,000 and the county secretary who refused to obey the orders of any judge who might order the assessment made after the council had turned it down was guilty of contempt of court. All other items were referred back to the commissioners of the various institutions for further information. The accounts of the General Public Hospital came in for a good deal of criticism, particularly the salary list and the coal bill. The tax payers of the county can thank the provincial government for an increase of about $20,000 in their taxes this year, legislation which was passed at the last session of the house having doubled the county school fund. This tax previous to 1920 was 40 cents per capita but the government just doubled the amount, making it 80 cents per capita. Councillor Schofield presided and there were present, Councillors Twilock, Peck, Jones, Thornton, Donovan, O'Brien-Golding, Anderson and Campbell.

Morning Session. At the morning session the estimates for the Municipal Home, Board of Health and County Hospital were under consideration. The Board of Health request for an assessment of $30,000.00 was sent back for an itemized account of the expenditures of 1921 and the County Hospital figures were taken up and were under discussion at the time for adjourning for lunch.

Afternoon Session. At the afternoon session the estimates of the County Hospital, who are asking for an assessment of $60,113.84 as compared with $62,585.21 for last year, were sent back for further information. The commissioners of that institution also presented a request for a sum of $2,000 for the purpose of establishing a new ward for children and the board were instructed to go ahead with this work provided the amount could be taken out of the 1922 assessment. If this could not be done they were to report back to the council with a definite statement of the amount required for the work. The matter of a refund to Samuel Mulankey of Musquash in connection with criminal prosecution was referred to the county secretary and Councillor Thornton. The information asked for from the Board of Health was presented by T.

At six o'clock last evening it appeared to be a little colder than it had been in the early afternoon, the wind was blowing from the northeast, the snow was falling quite heavy making traffic rather heavy. At nine o'clock last night the wind had increased and was blowing thirty miles an hour and tomorrow, with a heavy snow it proved a kind of a small blizzard. At ten o'clock the wind had increased and the snow had turned to sleet, the street railway traffic owing to the bad condition of the rails. An hour later the sleet was accompanied by rain and the wind was still blowing harder and in gusts that was easily forty miles an hour.
