WHO ENGAGED NEW TEACHER

A Heart to Heart Talk Among Members of C. I. Board on Irregular Proceeding

Other Business at Yesterday's Session—Special Meeting on Thursday to Engage Another Member of Staff

The recent engaging of a new teacher Mr. Ayers—to succeed Mr. Thompson—who resigned "without the knowledge or sanction of the Board," as one Trustee put it, was the occasion of some plain speaking and a heart-to-heart talk among the Trustees at yesterday's meeting of the C. I. Board. On motion of the Rev. Dr. Battisby the action was finally endorsed, but acquiescence to the irregularity being noted was agreed upon and warning given that the questionable precedent should not be recognized in the future.

Surely no one has the right to engage or dismiss a teacher without consulting the Board at a properly called meeting, was the somewhat emphatic comment of the gentleman in introducing the matter. "As a matter of fact we have today a teacher working at the College who has never been engaged by this Board and whom no record is upon our minutes. I have nothing to say against the teacher in question. The irregularity exists among ourselves."

Mr. Arnold said that the facts were undoubtedly as stated. A special meeting of the Board should have been called to deal with the matter.

Colonel Rankin, the chairman of the Internal Management committee—the committee in charge of all matters affecting the staff—pointed out that he was not out of the city at the time and was never consulted upon the matter. At the same time he felt assured that no irregularity had been premeditated and had confidence in the judgment of the Principal if he were consulted.

The Secretary pointed out that Mr. Thompson's resignation followed the last meeting of the Board. It was necessary to immediately have a successor, so, after consultation with the chairman, he was advertised for. From the applications received the Principal and himself selected a number and forwarded them to Inspector Seath. The Inspector's first recommendation was Mr. McLauren. This gentleman could not be secured, so then Mr. Ayers was engaged.

Dr. Battisby could not concur in the steps taken. It was unquestionably overstepping the limits to engage a teacher without even consulting the Board.

The chairman, Mr. Richards, said that the Principal reported that Mr. Ayers was giving every satisfaction. Dr. Thornton said the engagement was evidently a matter of expediency.

Colonel Rankin was sorry that he was out of town and that the Internal Management committee was not consulted, but he felt that the matter could now be adjusted and that the irregularity would not be repeated.

On motion of Rev. Dr. Battisby the engagement of Mr. Ayers was then endorsed, with the request that the irregularity be noted.

There were present Chairman Richards and Trustees Thornton, Battisby, Rankin, Bell, Harrington, Liddy, Principal Twohey and Secretary Harris.

The routine accounts were passed. On motion of Dr. Thornton and Dr. Battisby the matter of the County's liability for maintenance was referred to the Finance committee to see the solicitor and take such action as was deemed necessary.

Dr. Thornton for the Property committee reported that the work on the new rooms was in progress to be ready for the new teacher.

On motion of Dr. Battisby and Mr. Harrington Messrs. Richards and Arnold were appointed to take up matters of school law amendment with the Minister of Education.

Dr. Thornton said that a dealer had complained that teachers demanded certain exercise books and none other. He thought this was unwarranted.

Principal Twohey said the matter resulted from a suggestion of Mr. Jennings—and it was only a suggestion.

The Board then decided to meet on Thursday, instead of Wednesday, at five p. m. to consider applications for the new teacher.

CHARMING MUSIC

The anniversary services at Christ Church on Sunday, to which reference was made in yesterday's Planet, were materially enhanced by the magnificent music provided, for which a large share of the credit must be extended to Mr. Worman, the efficient and talented organist. Mr. Dolman has few peers in his profession, and the delightful music he contributed to Sunday's services will long be remembered.

Fuller—Well, if you marry that girl, you'll regret it.

Waller—But no more, probably, than if I married some other girl.

MORE BAKU MASSACRES

Situation There Reported to Be Growing Worse.

Tartars and Kurds Plunder in the "Blacktown" District—Soldiers Fire Into Crowd of Russian Workmen and Kill 17—Oil Men Ask the State For Assistance to Re-establish Their Ruined Industry.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 12.—The latest private telegram to be received from Baku reports that the situation there is growing worse.

Other unconfirmed despatches assert that the rioters are stubbornly continuing their attacks and that the Tartars and Kurds are plundering in the "Blacktown" district.

The despatches say that on Sunday the soldiers fired into a crowd of Russian workmen, killing 17. Oil men representing an annual production of 500,000,000 pounds, met yesterday and determined to ask the state for assistance in obtaining a 20-year loan without interest, to cover the losses resulting from the catastrophe at Baku, without which, they declared, the oil business would be unable to continue.

The oil men in Nizhni Novgorod and Astrakhan express the fear that attempts will be made to burn the stocks of oil stored there, and they ask for the taking of protective measures.

Tiflis, Sept. 12.—Private Telegrams, a landed proprietor, was assassinated yesterday at Gori, fifty miles from Tiflis.

A band of Tartars barricaded themselves in the house of a rich Mussulman and fired from the windows on a patrol of police, who summoned them to surrender. The Tartars replied to the summons with another volley, and continued firing while artillery was brought up. The artillery laid the house in ruins, the Tartars perishing to a man.

RUINS OF THE EARTHQUAKE.

Great Fissure of Earth Where Village Once Was.

Monteleone, Calabria, Sept. 12.—King Victor Emmanuel arrived here yesterday to visit the places stricken by the earthquake. He was received by Signor Ferraris, the Minister of Public Works, and the population, who gave him a demonstrative and grateful welcome.

Signor Ferraris had previously visited the village of Zammaro, which presented a terrible spectacle. All the houses have been destroyed and the inhabitants are in a condition of terror.

During the railway trip from Triparto, Signor Ferraris saw from an elevation the ruins of a village completely destroyed. Triparto shows the immensity of the disaster. The western walls of all the buildings have tumbled down and the Minister stood at the edge of a great fissure of earth, where formerly existed a portion of the place, now swallowed up.

At Piscopo, troops are burying bodies, and everywhere officers and soldiers are sharing their rations with the population.

CHOLERA SITUATION IMPROVES.

Decrease in Number of Deaths—Nine Cases Misjudged.

Berlin, Sept. 12.—An official bulletin issued yesterday says that 16 cholera cases and six deaths were reported from noon Saturday to noon Sunday, and 15 cases and six deaths from noon Sunday to noon yesterday, making the totals 170 cases and 58 deaths.

Although there were 31 fresh cases during the two days ending with noon, that is seven fewer than the preceding 48 hours. This furnishes cause for confidence at the ministry of health that the infection is under control.

Later it was announced that nine of the cases previously classified as cholera had been shown through bacteriological investigation not to be cholera, and that, therefore, the total number of cases was 161.

POSTPONED

The City Council will not meet on Wednesday evening as announced. It has been found that that date will be unsuitable for the residents of Harvey street, who are to be in attendance to air their objections against the granting of a franchise to the new railway. Consequently the meeting will be held on the regular date, next Monday night.

Society could do with less jurisprudence if it had more justice.

KENT TEAM

Football Committee Select Young Athletes for International Match With Englishmen

Teams Will Play at Bennett Park Detroit on Monday Next—Will Be Banqueted in the Evening

The committee requested by President Wm. McDonald, of Detroit, to select the Kent County team to meet the touring English Pilgrims in the International match next Monday, met last evening and, after going carefully over the list of players, selected the team to represent our county. There were present, F. D. Laurier, J. A. Fisher, Rich. Asher and H. W. Anderson.

An earnest effort has been made to obtain the very best team available. Kent has a wonderful amount of good football material and the task was a difficult one. Fifteen players are being taken, the touring Englishmen courteously granting permission for substitutes during the match.

The team expect to leave by the morning train next Monday and a special rate is being arranged for, as many enthusiasts are desirous of accompanying them and seeing the Englishmen play. A group photo is to be taken of the teams and the Detroiters purpose entertaining them at a banquet in the evening.

CLIFFORD LANGFORD, of Kent Bridge.

J. A. FISHER, Darrell.

HARRY FLOWERS, Chatham.

LESTER GREGORY, Darrell.

PERCY PARROTT, Chatham.

ALVIN PECK, Mitchell's Bay.

SAMUEL COURTNEY, Chatham.

ED. JENKS, Darrell.

ARTHUR MARTIN, Chatham.

F. RISEBOROUGH, Kent Bridge.

LINDSAY PARROTT, Chatham.

WALKER BENNIE, Valetta.

HARRY ASHER, Chatham.

JOSEPH ROBERT, Chatham.

Baron Von Reiffenstein, who is travelling with the tourists, will referee the game.

NOT COMPLETED

Investigation Into Death of Aged Dupris Not Yet Concluded—No Further Suspicious Revelations

Coroner Dr. J. L. Bray, LL. B., when seen this morning concerning the Dupris matter, stated that he had spent yesterday afternoon in Dover investigating the affair. Rumors are rife in the neighborhood but it is, apparently, very difficult to get at anything definite. Dr. Bray stated that he had still some clues to follow up and when he had completed this task he would state his convictions concerning the matter. If he finds the matter warrants an airing the Crown will immediately proceed with such.

It appears that the man's clothes contained a receipt given by W. J. Martin for $18. This accounts for part of the pension money which so mysteriously disappeared. It has been discovered that a regular burial permit was issued by the township authorities.

MAY BE DOINGS

An Attempt Will be Made to Secure Minister of Agriculture to Open New Market Buildings

The work on the market buildings is progressing quite to the satisfaction of those in charge. The cement floor in the basement has been completed and the interior is now being painted and the metallic ceiling put in place. About the only important matters still to be attended to are the windows and the stalls. Consequently everything looks favorable for an early opening of the market to the public.

Chairman J. A. King, when seen this morning, stated that if the weather is inclement next Saturday the marketers could use the basement of the new building at any rate. He could say nothing definite as to the date when the whole building would be ready for use—perhaps in two weeks—was his estimate.

It may be that the Hon. Nelson Monro, Minister of Agriculture, will be asked to formally open the structure when he is in the city attending the Peninsular Fair for the purpose. The construction of this handsome and costly structure marks a mile post in the city's history, which should be fittingly commemorated.

PILGRIMS' PROGRESS

English Football Artists Easily Defeated Hamilton Cracks—Play Galt for World's Championship Saturday

Hamilton, Ont., September 11.—The English Pilgrims, touring football team, played a picked team from the Hamilton district on the cricket grounds here this afternoon, defeating the Hamiltonians by a score of eight goals to two. The latter were outclassed and outplayed by the Pilgrims from start to finish. Baron Von Reiffenstein, who accompanies the team, is official referee.

The game would indicate that teams on this side of the water will have their hands full when they tackle the Englishmen, as Hamilton district possesses some of Ontario's best stars. The touring team will play the old and famous Berlin Rangers to-morrow afternoon at Bennett Park, Detroit. The first game will be against a team picked from the western teams of the Peninsular League and the second against a team picked from the eastern teams, including Chatham, Darrell and Kent Bridge. This latter team has been picked and the names appear in another part of this paper.

RANDALL—YOUNGE

A very quiet and pretty wedding took place at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Benson Houston, on Sept. 6th, when Mr. George Randall was united in marriage to Mrs. Etta Young, both of Euphemis. The bride was assisted by her niece, Miss L. Elgie, of Dresden; the bridegroom by Mr. F. McAlpine, of Danes.

After the ceremony they sat down to a sumptuous wedding tea, after which the happy couple left for their home in Euphemis, where they will in future reside.

They were received at their home by 50 guests. The wedding gifts were numerous and expensive, showing the high esteem in which the young couple were held.

THE PROVINCIAL AUDITOR.

Says the St. Thomas Times:—Some of the small fry of the Liberal press have been heaping abuse and ridicule upon Mr. James Clancy, the newly appointed provincial auditor, but the Globe and the better elements of the party, who know something about Mr. Clancy as a financier and gentleman, do not hesitate to endorse him and compliment the Government on his appointment. The Globe says "there will be no disposition on the part of Liberals seriously to find fault with the selection of Mr. Clancy. He began his parliamentary career as a member of the Ontario Legislative Assembly, of which he was always a hard-working, unassuming and courteous member. If fault was ever found with him specially it must have been by the officers of the Audit Department, on account of his persistent requests for financial returns, the complication of which remarkably increased the clerical work of the staff. If Nemesis overtakes him hereafter in the form of similar trouble caused by his former, political opponents, the recollection of what he made others undergo will probably enable him to submit to the retribution with a certain grim humor that is an excellent preservative of good temper."

Such an expression as the above from the leading opposition paper is a rebuke to those papers of lesser status and influence who could see nothing in Mr. Clancy but the bitter Tory partisan, and who would stir an angel from heaven if he differed from them on public questions.

Those who know the new Provincial Auditor will consider him eminently qualified for the work to which he has been assigned. Among those intimately acquainted with Mr. Clancy is Mr. P. H. Boyer, M. P., whose paper, the Ridgeway Dominion, speaks as follows:

"Mr. Clancy is too well and favorably known to readers of the Dominion to make it necessary for us to dwell at length upon his ability and fitness for the office. That is acknowledged. What we must express, however, is the delight of the people at the selection made by the Government. No man in the west possesses more personal friends or is more highly esteemed than Mr. Clancy. Able, courteous and affable, Mr. Clancy only made friends in spite of the many strenuous political fights he engaged in. Even those who felt constrained to oppose him liked and admired the man, and none will rejoice at his recognition more than his old-time Liberal opponents. Nothing in the gift of the Whitney Government was too good for James Clancy, and he is eminently qualified for the office to which he has been called."

RANKIN - BROWN

A very pretty wedding was solemnized last Tuesday evening, September 5th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Brown, 13th concession, Chatham Township, when their youngest daughter, Grace Pearl, was united in marriage to James S. Rankin, a prosperous young farmer of Dover Township. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Moorehouse, of Tupperville. The bride was dressed in white with silk and lace trimmings and carried a bouquet of white flowers. She looked very pretty as she entered the parlor leaning on her father's arm, to the strains of the wedding march played by Miss Sadie Armstrong. Miss Mae Rankin, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid, being dressed in white and carrying a bouquet of white flowers. The groom, assisted by the groomsmen, Wm. A. Brown, brother of the bride, and Little Miss Gladys Tobey, of Wallaceburg, niece of the bride, was flower girl. She was dressed in white and carried a bouquet of white flowers. The wedding ceremony was a simple one, numbering about 40, sat down to a sumptuous repast. The presents were numerous, beautiful and useful. The bride's going-away gown was brown Panama cloth with cream silk trimmings and brown silk hat to match. The happy couple, amid showers of rice, left for Chatham, where they took the midnight train for Toronto and other eastern points. Their friends all join in wishing them a happy and prosperous wedded life.

The Isle of Bong Bong—Sept. 18.

Down By The Sea—Sept. 27-28.

(Supplied to The Planet by Press Agents.)

"The Wayward Son," which is to be the offering at the Grand for Friday, Sept. 15th, is a delightfully superior article in the line of comedy dramas that have been foisted upon theatre-goers during recent years. The author of Bong Bong, Mr. Neil Twomey, has cleverly avoided the conventional and related a tale of exceptional human interest. The action does not lack in melodramatic effects and situations, and the story, though intensely strong, is enhanced by a delightful natural comedy vein. Briefly, through the machinations of the chief of police, whose enmity he has incurred, and who is himself at the head of a counterfeiting gang, Tom Hanford, a manly young fellow, has been made a scapegoat for the chief's nefarious schemes. Martha Barard is a secret service operator, who comes from Washington to the scene of the play to run to earth the counterfeiters. She is convinced of the innocence of Hanford, upon whom the chief attempts to cast suspicion and resolves to find the real criminals. Many exciting adventures occur, the greatest of which is a realistic railroad scene in which, during a blinding snow storm, a freight car is detached from a train on a heavy up grade and the hero, safely hidden in a large trunk inside, escapes from the clutches of the chief. Of course a happy denouement is effected, "The Wayward Son" retrieving his honor, and winning a bride as well. Prices 25, 35 and 50 cents, and a few at 75 cents. Seats selling at Briscoes.

"I doctored with several physicians but it was all no use. Shortly after this I began to urinate blood and then I knew I was in the grip of that dread monster, Diabetes. "At this time a friend prevailed on me to try a box of Dodd's Kidney Pills and they did me so much good I continued the treatment till I had used three boxes. They cured me completely."

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED.

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surface.

A FAMOUS OLD BRIDGE.

It is Curiously Decorated With Historic Pictures.

Few places in Switzerland are more interesting than the historic old city of Lucerne, at the junction of the river Reuss and Lake Lucerne, memorable for its historic associations with the heroic legends of William Tell.

Across the river are two wonderful wooden bridges, the Muehlenbrücke, or "Mill bridge," with its quaint pictures of the "Dance of death," and the Kapellbrücke, or "Chapel bridge." This chapel bridge was constructed as long ago as 1333 and for nearly 600 years formed the chief avenue of traffic across the broad but sluggish stream. Anciently the bridge extended its zigzag shape to nearly twice its present length and reached as far as the Hofkirche, or cathedral, whence its name, the Chapel bridge.

In the center of this covered wooden bridge stands the famous octagonal Wasserthurm, or water tower, where in olden times the municipal treasure was stored. For ages it was also used as a prison and among the dungeons as a torture chamber.

But the most unique feature of all consists of the curious pictures in the roof of the bridge. These old pictures—sixty-nine of them—are painted on triangular wooden panels which fit into the pitched roof of the bridge. One after another they tell the most salient facts of Swiss history or portray events in the life of the tutelary saints of the town, St. Leodegar and St. Maurice.

A PIONEER OF ONTARIO

TOOK AN ACTIVE PART IN STIRRING TIMES OF '37.

Arrested As a Rebel and Was Convicted of High Treason and Sentenced to Be Hanged—Sentence Was Changed to Banishment and Loss of All His Property—Passing of a Historic Figure.

The death of Charles Ferdinand Durand in Toronto on Wednesday, August 16, 1905, at the ripe age of 94 years, reminds The Globe that early in the rebellion of 1837, while on his way home from a business trip to Toronto, Mr. Durand was arrested at Streetsville as being an active friend of the rebellion. He was escorted back to Toronto to be confined, under Capt. McGrath. This arrest Mr. Durand declared to be the result of the malignity of personal enemies. Mr. Durand's description of his hardships as a prisoner, told in his book of "Reminiscences," on which this biography is based, is most graphic. He also gives an interesting sketch of scenes in Toronto when Mackenzie's men arrived. From a temporary imprisonment in the northwest wing of the old Parliament buildings, he was removed to the prison, then on Toronto street, opposite the Deputy Receiver-General's office, where, in company with fifty others, he spent his first Christmas after his marriage. Among his fellow-prisoners was the late Dr. James Morrison of the Legislature; Mr. James Leslie, a close friend of Mackenzie; Mr. Cathcart, whose monument is conspicuous in the Necropolis; Mr. John Doel, father of Rev. John Doel and William H. Doel; Dr. Hunter, father of Dr. James Hunter of Stouffville, and Joseph Gould, late member of the House of Commons. In two rooms of small dimensions these political prisoners cooked their meals, received provisions from their wives and friends on the outside, and read news from home cunningly concealed in piddings, pies and poultry. Bishop Strachan and Rev. John Ross, grandfather of Messrs. James R. and William Ross of Toronto, were frequent visitors at the prison. Mr. Durand's wife, at that time only seventeen years old, was terrorized by "these lawless upholders of the law," who surrounded her, notwithstanding the danger, came to visit him. Her brother also visited him and contracted the smallpox.

Mr. Durand was the following year brought before a jury presided over by Sir John Beveridge, Robinson and Mr. Justice C. A. Hagerman, convicted of high treason, and sentenced to be hanged. The Patriot of May 15th, 1838, contains a complete account of this trial. The prisoner was charged with conspiring and conspiring with divers unknown persons for the overthrow of the Government, also for the purpose of procuring arms. Through his extreme Radical views expressed in the journals of the day he was held to be inciting people to join in revolt. One witness deposed that a letter written to William Lyon Mackenzie under the name of John Hampton was the prisoner's handwriting disguised. A stage driver testified that on the 6th December of the preceding year, while driving the mail coach from Toronto to Cooksville, Mackenzie had stopped the coach, in which was Mr. Durand, among others, and ordered them out. He affirmed that the prisoner had jumped out and welcomed Mackenzie with great cordiality, shaking him by the hand, and for many years, until Mackenzie's death, he had given him information concerning the movements of the rebels in Toronto. He had been allowed to go on his way, while the remaining passengers were detained and their baggage inspected. A Dutchman named Shafer contributed what is spoken of as "perjured testimony" in which Mr. Durand was accused of having done certain picket duty for the rebels and of having been of assistance to Mackenzie in various ways.

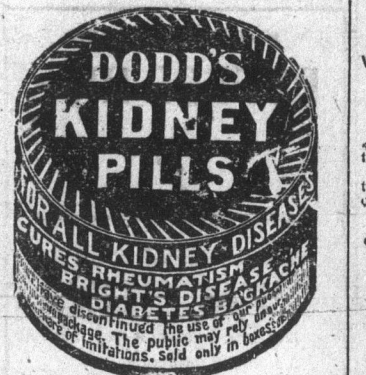

In his defense Mr. Durand affirmed that any letters that he had written to Mackenzie were of a business nature connected with The Constitution newspaper, of which he was an agent. Regarding the stage coach incident in his reminiscences, he says: "We went quietly along Queen street, all wooded then, and through the woods of the airport of the road until we came to the hotel called the Peacock Inn. Then suddenly there came out Mr. Mackenzie and two armed men; one was Capt. Adam Graham and the other a man named Alves. I did not know the stage passengers; one was a woman, one a Dutchman, and the third a gentleman named Whiting, as I afterwards learned. I merely saluted Mackenzie and shook hands with him; I had known him a long time, and was an agent for his newspaper in Hamilton. The guards left us before we came to the inn. We were told to get out, and the mail man to give up his mail, by Mackenzie. We all got out. Any acquaintance I asked me (which I can't recollect) what the Government party were doing in Toronto, but, if so, I would have truly replied I could not tell. I saw, as I have said, no one on Tuesday, in fact, knew no one in the city and could give no information to him."

Mr. Durand further protested that although in many respects in sympathy with the rebels, who, in his estimation, were merely endeavoring to break up the Family Compact, with its attendant wrongs and oppressions, still he had thought their action ill-advised, and had never countenanced it by word or deed.

After his arraignment, in response to a petition to the Lieutenant-Governor, his sentence was changed to banishment and the loss of all his property.

After a six years' residence in Chicago, he received a pardon, and, returning to Canada, opened a law office in Toronto in 1844, next door to where Webb's Restaurant now is. There he secured an extensive law practice, and in his spare moment contributed to The Examiner and The Globe.

In 1851 Mr. Durand founded The Sons of Temperance, a newspaper, and by his great industry, traveling in a bugey through both Upper and Lower Canada, his paper soon enjoyed a substantial circulation in both Provinces. His wife, who, it seems, never quite recovered from the shock of the Mackenzie rebellion, died in 1855, leaving six children, all girls. In 1870 Mr. Durand, by virtue of his articles on the Division Courts in The Law Journal, and his legal experience, was appointed by the Sandfield Macdonald Government to inspect all legal offices below the Queen's Bench throughout Ontario. At this time, writes Mr. Durand, the clerks of the various courts were careless in discharge of their duties, and supervision was required, not only over them, but over several judges. An extensive series of letters in The Leader on the public affairs of the country appeared over his name up to 1875. They dealt for the most part with the Confederation movement and criticisms on George Brown's policy.

Mr. Durand had given up the active practice of law many years before his death, but up to the last evinced a great interest in public affairs, and as late as 1896 discussed the absorbing Manitoba school question in the columns of The Orange Sentinel and The Winnipeg Tribune.

The deceased had often described himself politically as a non-partisan Liberal. In his book of reminiscences, which extend up to 1900, he has discussed with much vigor the various political crises from the war of 1812 up to the present time. He centres his energy upon the incidents of the rebellion of 1837, from which he suffered so much, and denounces Allan MacNab with no small vigor. Marshall S. Bidwell was particularly admired by Mr. Durand, also Robert Baldwin. Of politicians generally, Mr. Durand had his private opinions, which he usually expressed.

Mr. Durand was extremely patriotic, and in his love for Canadian scenery he would not admit there were any natural beauties which his native land did not possess. Of forest lore and bird lore he had a natural knowledge, and in his work reverts constantly to the pioneer surroundings of Upper Canada in the days when the town of Niagara was larger than Toronto, and when they dug for gold in the vicinity of Hamilton. These were the stage coach days, and the days when oxen were more useful than horses. His description of Chicago, where he spent his exile, is like the America Dickens' Martin Chuzzlewit saw.

Fundamental religion played a great part in Mr. Durand's judgments of men and affairs; he cordially detested hypocrisy and affectations, and was indeed, a man of strict moral calibre. He was particularly fond of young people, and for many years, until Mackenzie's death, he had given them a familiar figure in the various Sunday schools of Toronto, where he took delight in awarding prizes for Biblical knowledge.

There is no disputing the fact that man's heart is often man's enemy. The housewife who pleases her husband with well cooked food for the table. Many a man is roughly, ugly, nervous, suffering from distress after eating, heart palpitation, and all through the overworked stomach.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, which helps the digestion of food in the stomach, assists the blood in taking up the proper elements from the food, helps the liver into activity, thereby throwing out the poisons in the blood and vitalizing the whole system. This assimilation helps in the oxidation of the red blood corpuscles, the poisons in the system are eliminated, the heart gets the right kind of blood and the person feels invigorated and stronger in consequence. As a tissue builder it is preferable to cod liver oil or any other food compound or tonic, because it gives the blood and the tissues the food elements they require and maintains a person's nutrition by enabling him to eat, retain, digest and assimilate nutritious food. It overcomes the gastric irritability and symptoms of indigestion. Because of the good effects from using Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery upon nutrition and building up of the tissues, catarrh, constipation, weakness or debility and symptoms of fever, night-sweats, headaches, etc., disappear.

"I believe that it is generally conceded that Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is the best medicine for a man to take suffering from indigestion, kidney trouble, or any of the conditions resulting from overwork or neglecting a cold," writes J. Russell Hill, of 32 Barrie Street, Kingston, Ontario, Recording Secretary, Imperial Knights' Federation League of Kingston. "I have used it several times during the past few years and have always found that it gave me immediate relief. It cures excessive uric acid in the system, due to improper digestion, relieves the kidneys from congestion, drives and tones up the general system. I consider it a fine remedy for young or old men, sure to build up a run-down condition of the system."

HOLD UP

Mr. Doherty 70 Dresden fell among Thieves in Chatham Last Night—Robbers Caught

It always pays to be counted a good fellow, but sometimes it only pays the other fellow. This is the experience of a man named Doherty, a laborer from Dresden.

Doherty has been saving up his money lately to go to the London Fair and yesterday he found that he had the required amount, so he started out on his holiday trip. He got as far as Chatham, and last night he stood on the platform at the C. P. R. depot waiting for his train, when two young men, evidently jolly good fellows, approached him and entered into a friendly conversation. The two young men proved very interesting companions and adjournment was soon made to the C. P. R. Hotel, where friendly "spirits" reigned supreme until far past train time.

Of course the two entertainers were sorry they had caused him to postpone his trip to London, but promised to show him the time of his life during the remainder of the night.

Some one suggested the Grand Trunk restaurant, and they decided to walk out. When Doherty got near the Dowsley Works he halted a defused to go farther. He had gone far enough, however, to suit his two companions, and the fireworks started. Doherty was knocked down and robbed. When he came to his friends of the night had disappeared with his worldly goods, so he did the only thing that was left for him to do—he told his troubles to a policeman.

Officers Durr and Dodson were soon on the case, and one of the men, Harry Young, was arrested last night near the Grand Trunk depot. The other, David Adams, was rounded up by Peter Dezell's near Taylor's mill this morning. They will both come up at the Police Court to-morrow morning.

Doherty's ticket to London and part of his money was returned to him.

When Harry Young was spotted by Officers Durr and Dodson he saw his game was up, and, pulling the stolen ten dollar bill from his pocket, he attempted to swallow it, but he was caught in the act and the policeman made him cough up. He explained to the police that they had found the old man all alone in a big city and undertook to take care of him.

NO QUAIL SHOOTING

Toronto, Ont., Sept. 11.—An order in Council has been passed prohibiting the shooting of quail in any part of the Province this year. The Ontario game commission will hold a public meeting at Windsor on Sept. 17, when evidence regarding game preservation will be heard.

BUSY SESSION

The docket for to-day's session of the Division Court was a very heavy one—over forty cases enumerating the lists, most of these being disputed. All the local forensic lights were on the firing line and, occasionally, the debate became strenuous.

Most of the cases involved quite large amounts and, consequently, the session is not likely to close before evening.

There is no such thing as preparation after the event.

There never was a heart truly great and generous that was not also tender and compassionate.

3 SERIOUSLY INJURED

C. P. R. Imperial Limited Run Down by the "Soo" Train.

Engineer of the C. P. R. Train Had Stopped to Pick Up Some of His Cars That Had Been Detached When the Crash Came at Hammond—None of the Passengers Were Seriously Hurt.

Ottawa, Sept. 12.—About 6 o'clock yesterday morning the "Soo" train on its way to Montreal ran into the Imperial Limited at Hammond Station, 22 miles from Ottawa. Central station. Three railway hands were seriously injured, and several others received cuts and bruises. None of the passengers are seriously hurt. The injured are: John Gaffney, engineer of the Soo train, back injured, fractured ribs, condition serious; D. Cole, colored porter, Detroit, serious internal injuries and left arm fractured; D. H. Cardwell, colored porter, Washington, D. C., fractured skull, condition serious; Mrs. Marjett Keene, Whitman, Mass., face wounds; Mrs. James F. Fagan, San Francisco, slight injuries.

The Imperial Limited, east-bound, is due to pass Ottawa at 4 a. m., and the Soo at 5 a. m., an hour later. The Imperial Limited was running about forty minutes late. When the Limited was within about a mile of Hammond some of the cars got detached. The engineer stopped to pick up the balance of his train, and as he was so doing the Soo train ran into the end of the Limited, smashing the rear sleeper into pieces and ditching the second sleeper. In the rear sleeper was only Cole, the porter. It took over an hour to get him extricated.

The smoking compartment and lavatory of the second sleeper were badly smashed. Cardwell was in the smoking compartment. The passengers who were injured were in the second sleeper. They were all in their berths and they dressed in the car as it lay in the ditch. The engineer of the Soo train was well to the Limited before he saw it. It was down grade at this point. The Imperial Limited's hands sent a brakeman back to protect their train with a flag and torpedo, but the question is whether he was far enough back to stop the Soo, in time to prevent the accident.

HIS DEATH DUE TO DEAFNESS.

Toronto Man's Affliction Leads Him in Way of Fast Train.

Toronto, Sept. 12.—Robert Crawford of Selby street was struck by an east-bound freight near Havelock about 10 o'clock Sunday morning, and died two hours later. He was walking on the track from Havelock, where he had been visiting his brother, Dr. Crawford, intending to take the train for home. Being hard of hearing, he did not notice the approaching train.

Deceased left Toronto for Havelock on Saturday, intending to stay over until Monday. His mother has been dead for two weeks, and he was to have settled some of her affairs. He was about 32 years old, and had been in the Canadian Northern Railway office for about two years. Before that time he was in a railway office at Rossland, British Columbia.

Victim An Ontario Man.
Samia, has been learned that the first mate of the steamer Sevona, which was wrecked on Lake Superior, was not Louis Darwin of Medina, O., but William Cowan of Corunna, Ont.

Crushed to Death.
Winnipeg, Sept. 12.—Andrew Young, who arrived about a week ago from Hamilton, Ont., district, was crushed to death yesterday while moving a separator on the farm of John Clark in North Brandon. He slipped from the machine beneath the wheels, which passed over his body, crushing out his life.

ELEVATED TRAIN FALLS.

Twelve Killed and Many Injured in a New York Wreck.

New York, Sept. 12.—Twelve persons were killed and more than 40 injured when the second car of a Ninth avenue elevated train jumped the track and fell from the structure to the street at the junction of the Sixth and Ninth avenue lines at 53rd street and Ninth avenue, at 7 a. m. yesterday. The car, the sea, slides and platforms of which were thickly packed with humanity, was turned bottom side up, its roof torn off, and it was stood on end in the street. The heavy truck of another car fell upon it, crushing some of the passengers. The car was badly smashed.

Dispute About the Cause.

Until a late hour yesterday there was a dispute as to the cause of the accident. Coroner Scholer and some others maintained that the switchman on duty at the junction of the two lines first set the switch so as to throw the train on to the Sixth avenue track, and then, realizing his error, tried to rectify it by moving the switch while the train was passing over it.

General Manager Hedley of the Interborough Rapid Transit Co. asserted that the switch was not moved after the train reached it, and that the train jumped the track because of the speed with which it took a curve, which was not banked, and which was intended to be taken slowly. He said the switchman asserted that the train showed signals indicating that it wanted the Sixth avenue line, and that the motor-man disregarded the signals indicating that the switch was set for that line, and ran the train as fast as though he were going to run straight ahead down Ninth avenue.

His Head Cut Off.

Solomon Nugast had been sitting at the front end of the car which jumped into the street, when a sharp piece of board or of metal severed his head from his body to clean up as though done with an axe. Both head and body were found on the tracks, but separated by several yards.

Coroner Scholer has caused the arrest of J. W. Johnson, the conductor of the train, and Timothy Higginson, J. McDavitt, W. Berry and B. Clark, the four guards.

THOSE PETITIONS

In conversation with a Planet reporter this morning an interested citizen declared that he was confident the Lacroix street residents who petitioned against the Windsor & Essex road being allowed to run over their street did so under a misapprehension. "They were told," he continued, "that the line was built purely for the purpose of freight carrying, and would have no passenger accommodation at all." "As a matter of fact the reverse is the case." "I am satisfied that if the petitioners knew this they would all withdraw their names with the exception of two. As it is the document is not signed by half the ratepayers on the street."

"Talking of petitions," said a bystander, a Harvey street resident, "I have no doubt that the petition against the line running along Harvey street would be withdrawn under certain conditions. We do not object to the company running objectionable freight over the tracks if they do so after eleven o'clock at night and before six in the morning." "If we were assured they would run this class of freight within those hours and would use steel poles and a properly shaped rail, I feel sure there would be no objections raised."

The Pandora Reservoir

The Pandora is the only range with a reservoir stamped in one single piece of steel and enamelled. It is the only reservoir without seams, rivets or places to catch dirt. It has no sharp angles. All angles are made with rounding curves, and the whole reservoir is beautifully enamelled.

McClary's are the only range makers in Canada with a plant for making enamelled steel reservoirs, and that is why the Pandora is the only range that has a one-piece reservoir.

A HAZING TRAGEDY.

Origin of the Slang Phrase "Who Struck Billy Patterson?"
"It's many years now since the slang expression, 'Who struck Billy Patterson?' was heard all over New York and Brooklyn," said a veteran of the metropolis. "Few people remember the origin of the expression, which was really the killing of a young man by sheer fright. Hazing at colleges was as rough then as now, and a common plan was to capture a new student, try him for some imaginary offense, condemn him to execution, and then hold his head on a block while a blow was struck on the ground with the dull side of a hatchet. A student named William Patterson was caught and tried in this way and was led weeping and shouting to the block. He was then blindfolded and held down, told that his last day had come, and then the bogus blow was struck with the hatchet. His cries ceased instantly, and when the students in alarm tore off his eye bandages and felt his pulse they discovered that he was dead. Several investigations were held to ascertain who struck the fatal blow, and it was because it was finally ascertained that no one ever struck Billy Patterson at all that the aggravating question referred to was shouted at every stranger by street boys, bootblacks and other juvenile nuisances."

OVEREXERTION.

It Leads to Weakness of Heart and Early Death.

A prominent university professor says that an investigation of some years has convinced him that much evil has resulted from college athletics. College athletics, he finds, bring on by overexertion a number of ill, of which the worst and most common is weakness of the heart, that, developing with maturity, unfits the victim for continued efficient effort in business and eventually carries him off before his time.
Sprinting and tennis he believes to be the two sports which work the most havoc with the heart.
Oliver Wendell Holmes said that a condition which often promoted long life was prudently poor health at an early age. He meant by this that a man who in his youth had to husband his strength and by slow and careful process develop the good health that he lacked would be more likely to escape the dangers of overexertion in which the careless giant was tempted to indulge.
Still, given strength and good health in the beginning, moderate exercise of one's powers cannot fail to be a source of renewed strength as well as of healthful enjoyment.
Fortune never disappoints the man who knows he will fail.

Humor and Philosophy

By DUNCAN M. SMITH

PICK OUT THE GOOD.

Good may be found in everything, in chaff as well as wheat; Although the bullfrog cannot sing. His legs are good to eat; The snake that crawls along our path Or use to some one is, And even he a virtue hath— He oil cures rheumatiz.

Some at the thieving crew may fall Because he waxes fat; But, though he won't adorn a tale, His tail adorns a hat. The worthless pup with ragged ear, Of low and yellow grade, May later in the month appear As sausage for the trade.

The humble rat, whose usefulness Would seem to be the least; To give a wild and random guess, Might grace a Chinese feast. So the mosquito, though in him Is hard to see a joke, He gives the man whose wife is prim A good excuse to smoke.

Thus, chasing up and down the line, Some good we may observe In every creature, great or fine, Some angle or some curve. That shows some praises are their due, But it is hard to note The streak of virtue running through The man who rocks the boat.

Reading Chinese.
It must be lots of fun to learn to read Chinese. I often thought when I had nothing else to do I would take a few centuries off and learn to read the language. Not that I care anything particular about it, only I would like to be able to throw back at the Chinaman the superior glance he gives me when I look over my laundry ticket to see if he has spelled all of the words right.

It must cause joy unspeakable, certainly unprintable, to be able to sit down with a Chinese cheap labor cigar and a Chinese newspaper and be able to tell whether wheat or the Russian navy has gone down overnight.
Of course, I may be mistaken, not being able to understand the signs, but it would seem as though the Chinese paper should be popular in America, because to me every separate and distinct character on the page looks like a complete account of a prize fight, or, at least, the details of one round.

The Milkman.

He lives no languid life of ease, Joy hardly fills his cup. In winter time his well may freeze, In summer it dries up.

All Could Climb.

"There are plenty of lower berths on the train, but every upper is occupied." "Isn't that a peculiar state of affairs?" "Well rather, but not under the circumstances. You see, they are delegates to a woman's convention and it was understood that the lowers were to be left to the older members of the party."

Good For Something.

"The girls go to sleep while he is talking to them." "Why doesn't he put himself on the market as a cure for insomnia?"

An Exception.

Her diamond was a shining rock, And though display she scorned, She really couldn't take much stock In beauty unadorned.

Should Tickle Him.

"It was funny enough to make a horse laugh." "Must have been a joke about a disabled automobile."

Some women are so kind when a stupid man tries to be funny!

No man ever loses anything from lack of confidence in a mule's heels.

Secrets in regard to her own shortcomings can't be dragged from a woman by a team of oxen.

A single man may not know as much about women as a married man, but he is surer of what he knows.

Most any one is willing to do a kind act if he thinks he will be able to draw a dividend on it in the near future.

The reason some of us want some things so much is because we think that there are others who don't want us to have 'em.

Some men would pop the question several months sooner if they were mind readers.

It is better to be right than president, but how about United States senator?

The Red Rose Flavor and Strength

NO Ceylon tea nor Indian tea alone can have the "rich fruity flavor" of Red Rose Tea, because neither variety in itself possesses all the qualities of strength, richness, delicacy, and fragrance. Each has its own peculiar qualities, but each has its weaknesses.

By combining the two in the Red Rose proportions, I produce a tea with the "rich fruity flavor" and strength of Red-Rose Tea, a flavor and strength found in no brand of Ceylon alone.

Like Many a Man.

A horse was entered in a trotting race. When he was put on the track to be warmed up he seemed to move with great energy, and a number of inexperienced persons put up their money on him, but when the actual race came off a rawboned, yew necked animal that had no style about him passed the showy horse with great ease and on the home stretch distanced him.
"That horse," said an experienced race track man who had been wise enough to back the rawboned steed, "which lost out is like a good many people. He spends too much time and energy going up in the air instead of getting over the earth."

Self Respect.

It is a mistake to associate pride or foppishness with self respect. The one rises from a judicious consideration of what we are, the other from an extravagant notion of what something extraneous has made us. The one is true, the other is false, and both cannot exist together. A man that respects himself cannot be proud, and a proud man does not respect himself.

Ability.

TAFFY CANDY.

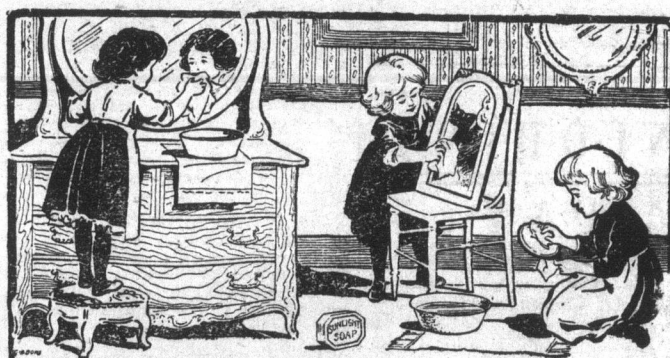

Why It Becomes White Through Pulling and Working.

You have often wondered and have even gone so far perhaps as to ask your scientifically inclined friend why candy or taffy made from brown sugar or even molasses becomes white through pulling and working. The question is not a hard one to find an answer for, provided you look in the right place, but it is ten chances to one that you have never seen a solution of the enigma in print.

First, the exposure to the air and the friction evaporate the sirup, which contains most of the coloring matter, and facilitate the oxidation of the carbon in the sugar, which is always white. Sugar contains eleven atoms of oxygen to twelve of carbon and eleven of hydrogen. The sirup drained from this same sugar in the refining process not only contains more or less of coloring matter, but has a smaller proportion of oxygen to the amount of carbon.

Another reason why taffy is whitened by the pulling process is because it is in effect similar to crushing. Pure, clear rock candy, when crushed, has its powers of absorbing light destroyed or greatly impaired, it pulverized portions reflecting all the elementary colors in each ray, which, of course, results in the eye receiving the impression of white light.
