. II. That this bill nominates perfons for the performance-· of public fervices, which is an interference with the Executive · Power, and tends to defiroy the ballance of the constituti-· .on.

· III. That this bill provides for the wages of the members of the House of Astembly in an unconstitutional manner, taking

• out of the Public Treasury those wages which acts of Par-· liament have directed to be levied on their respective constituents; and that mixing the wages with all the other fervices, as ' in this bill, compels the Council either to agree to whatever fums they may vote to themfelves, or to incur all the public inconveniences before stated; an alternative which the Coun-• cil suppose the House would not wish to impose in a matter-' in which the Members of that House are individually so im-mediately concerned.

• IV. That by this bill duties are laid upon British products • and manufactures.

• V. That to empower Courts of Oyer and Terminer to hold. ' plea in civil fuits, as in this bill, is against the constitution of. those Courts.

• VI. That the fum of ten pounds granted in this bill to ; • Thomas Wetmore, Esquire, appears to be for services directed. • by one branch of the Legislature and performed by a perfon, "appointed by that branch, without the knowledge or fanction. • of either of the other branches; and that the faid fervices ap-• pear to have been unneceffary.

That the • only Estimate of expenses for the Public Service of the Pro-• vince of New-Brunswick, viz. for the year one thousand seven • bundred and ninety three, recommends the pay of the Speaker • and the Members of the House as the first articles of provisi-• on—It would therefore be a reflection on His Excellency • the Lieutenant Governor to accede to this objection of the • Council.'

• To the fifth objection the House observe that the clause • which gave jurifdiction to the Courts of Oyer and Terminer was • adopted in the feffion of 1792 by the Crown Lawyers then of • the House, viz. a Judge of HIS MAJESTY'S Supreme Court • and the Solicitor General, which claufe has been retained • verbatim in every revenue act fince that period—That those • learned Gentlemen and the Houfe at that time gave the power • to that Court because all the Terms and Sittings of the Su-• preme Court where held at Fredericton-That the Council have uniformly concurred in paffing fuch claufe—That after • fuch repeated fanctions by the concurrence of all branches of • the Legislature for so many years and no inconvenience hav-• ing ever been found from the provisions for recovering penalties by any or either of the former acts, the Houfe cannot fee the · impropriety of continuing the jurifdiction of the fame Court • while all the Sittings of the Supreme Court are confined to • Fredericion-nor do they conceive it illegal or improper that • the Attorney General, should profecute by information in the • Court of Oyer and Terminer for penalties to be incurred by • this act—But if the Council think they have discovered any e new light in this matter, the House, for maintaining harmony, • will agree to leave out the claufe.

• To the faxth objection we answer that the fervices per-• formed by Thomas Wetmore, Esquire, being immediately con-• nected with the proceedings of the late House of Assembly, • could only be ordered by that House—and although the sum • voted for them is trifling the House cannot recede from that • voted for them is trifling the House cannot recede from that • article of appropriation as it is their sole right to judge and • determine what services are necessary and expedient and what, • are not, and to provide for them accordingly.

• In answer to the last objection we observe that " it is the " fole and inherent right of the House of Assembly both to raise " the public money and to direct and limit the ends, purpoles and " fervices to which it is to be applied'-That the British Legis-· lature are provided with the most valuable and useful publi-· cations on the Laws of Nature, Nations, &c.-That thefe are · provided for by Votes or Refolves of the Houfe of Commons-• That the fame laudable defire of Constitutional Information has • induced fimilar purchases for the use and by the direction of every legislature we have yet heard of-That the purchase • of the Books refered to was by the direction of the Houfe of · Affembly-That a fimilar purchase was made and provided • for in the feffion of 1788—That this House found it necessary • to incur fuch expense for their information although the Coun-• cil from their being more enlightened may not think it neceffa-• ry to confult the authorities this House refer to on constituti-• onal queftions. The untenable grounds on which the Council have rejected former appropriation bills, most of which they now do not fomuch as mention, as well as the hasty and undigested objections which are the subject of the present conference, are sufficient proofs that the Council have been and continue to be the means. of preventing the House of Assembly from expediting the public business and from paying off the public debts of the Province---and that they subject them to the distressing mortification of not being able to pay off the pressing demands even of the Officers and Servants necessarily attending both the former and present Houses of Assembly.

• The Houfe of Affembly further declare, that they, with • heart felt fatisfaction, review the fteady and conflictutional • conduct of the former Houfes of Affembly—that they feel an • exultation in having fteadily followed the fame fteps—and • that they are refolved to continue to affert the Privileges of the • Houfe of Affembly and the Honor of their Conflictu-• ents.

Report of a committee.

The committee appointed to manage the free conference defired by the Council on the fubject of the last conference Reported, That they had been at the faid free conference, which was managed managed on the part of the Council by the fame members who managed the former conference—and that the committee of Council had delivered the following reply to the reafons given by the committee of the Houfe at the last conference viz.—

"We first have to make one general observation, that, in the "answer made on the part of the House of Assembly to the "objections stated in conference to the bill in question, the Council, with much concern, perceive a studied asperity of language, utterly inconsistent with public decorum and with that spirit of harmony and mutual respect which ought to prevail between the several branches of the Legislature. With ferious concern also we perceive that the Assembly entertains a groundless and unreasonable jealousy and distrust of the Council respecting the Privileges of that House. And we conceive that nothing stated or suggested in conference ought to be considered as a breach of any privilege, but merely as reasons or objections offered either for or against whatever points may be the subject of such conference.

Ę

I. The Council do not mean, in their first objection, to " fuggest that " each fervice provided for, and each article taxed, " flould have been fent up in a diffinct and seperate bill for their " approbation or rejection" but that the provisions and appro-· priations should have been to seperated as to prevent the in-' conveniences enumerated, namely the lofs of the revenue, the impeding of the public bufiness, and the delay or eventual · failure of Juffice respecting the ordinary services of the Go-" vernment. Nor do we fay that ' the appropriation of the re-" venue of this year in the act which railes it" is firicily unpar-· liamentary, but it has never before been done in this province, • and we think fuch a practice, if adopted in this country, would · lead to ferious inconveniences, as the lofs of both the revenue and • appropriation would be the confequence whenever there should • be a difagreement in opinion between the two Houfes upon any one article of either. The fame inconveniences are not to be ap-• prehended in England, where the civil lift is granted for the King's life, the public creditors are fecured by established funds, and all annual Estimates are, made to anticipate the syear for which they are granted.

'II. Refpecting the answer to the second objection, we have to observe, that irregular appointments heretofore made, however uniformly practiced hitherto in this province, ought no clonger to be fanctioned; that the Council cannot confides

• the

• the nominating of Commissioners in all bills imposing burthens ' on the people as being folcy in the House of Allembly; that the ' nomination of the Honorable George Leonard, Joshua Gidney " and James Hughson in the actmentioned of 1792 as Commissi-• oners for the performance of the fervices therein allottede to • them was irregular, and the money ought in that and in all fuch. • cafes, as it has been in many inftances in former appropriation ' bills, to have been granted " to fuch perfon as the Lieutenant " Governor or Commander in Chief; for the time being should ap-" point"-for the express purpose intended; that the appoint-• ment of commissioners of public accounts is for a service of a · peculiar nature within the province of the Commons, who, • have a right to be fully informed of all expenditures of public ' money; and laftly that Commissioners of American Claims. • were appointed for a fervice altogether new and unknown be-• fore requiring an Act of Parliament to authorife it, and the no-• mination of those Commissioners we suppose must have been. • made by direction of HIS MAJESTY through his Chancellor "of the Exchequer, or at least with his approbation...

• III. Respecting the observations made in the answer to the third objection, we conceive that the recommendation by H1s EXCELLENCY in 1793, to provide for the pay of the Speaker and the Members of the Assembly, cannot be supposed to have been intended to justify or propose any unconstitutional mode; but rather ought then to have suggested the expediency of the measure which we now think indispensably necessary. For the Statute of the 6. Hen. 8. having been made long before the existence of the colonies, was part of the English Law which every Subject of the Realm must have brought with him on his emigration, and must continue to be a part of the law of this land, until some new law be enacted for the express purpose of authorising the mode of providing for the fervice in question which is prefered by the Assembly and to, which, in such case, we should have no objection.

• IV. As there can be no doubt of the continuance of the • Royal Instruction, alluded to in the fourth objection, we have • only to observe, on that head, that no part of that Instruction • was dispensed with in the act  to provide for the Support of  a Light House."

• V. The Council, in flating their fifth objection, supposed • the naming of Courts of Oyer and Terminer to have been an • oversight, and they acknowledge it had in former instances e-• feaped their notice. The objection however, is certainly well • founded.'

36th G. III. THOMAS CARLETON, Efg. Lieutenant Governor. 510

" VI. To the answer of the Assembly to the fixth objection the " Council reply, that it is not to the amount of the fum in guefion, but to the power affumed by the Affembly of ordering • the fervice, and of appointing and paying the perion employed therein, a power of ferious importance, uniting in that one ' branch the whole legiflative and executive authority, and se giving to the Affembly the uncontroled disposition of the • whole property of the province. And the Council obferve - that if they are compelled to give their affent to all fums directed to be paid by the Affembly, without judging whether • the fervice was neceffary or advantageous to the public, or * whether the fum paid for fuch fervice was greater than ought • to have been paid, they must acknowledge they are at a loss to . know how they can be confidered as a free and independent stanch of the legiflature, or what check they can give to any Grant, however extravagant, or to any fervice, however unre neceffary.

• VII. In reply to the answer to the feventh and last objection, • the Council observe, that it does not appear in the bill in question, that the fervice objected to was directed by the late Houfe of Affembly, and the Council cannot diffemble their furprife to fee a fum of money directed to be paid for Books pur-• chafed for the use of the Legislature, when the first knowledge ' they have had of the transaction is on their being called upon • to give their affent to the payment of the fum expended; and " when they confider the low state of the treasury, and that the • books, in their opinion, will be of no public advantage, they e cannot but think themselves warranted in objecting to so im-* provident a Grant.'

Thereupon ordered, That the fame be refered to the commit- Order thereuptee who managed the faid conference to prepare further reasons on. to be offered at a free conference in answer thereto.

as well as the prefent, negatived the bills providing for the payment of the juft debts of the province and the neceffary Officers of both Houfes, that they were hurt at the Council's afferting thefe ill:
confequences to have arifen on the part of the Houfe, who, in originating those bills, were actuated by motives directly contrary. And the Council having infered that motives of perfonal advantage actuated the House in the discharge of their duty, we conceive is utterly inconfistent with public decorum and the spirit of Harmony which the House have ever been.
anxious, on their part, to maintain; and shews that the Council entertain a groundles and unreasonable jealous of the motives by which the House are actuated in the discharge of their public duty.

• Any reason offered in a conference by a committee of one: • House, which intrenches on the privileges of the other, is, • according to parliamentary usage, commonly confidered, and; • stated as a breach of privilege.

• In answer to the first reason offered by the Committee of • Council we have to observe, that we cannot admit that there • is any mixture of objects and services in the Revenue and ap-• propriation Bill inconfistent with Arict Parliamentary usage and • custom; that the appropriations in that bill do not impose any • painful or disagreeable task on the Council as there are no pro-• visions in it foreign to, or unconnected with the raising and ap-• propriation of money, and the Council can neither diminish. • nor enlarge the sums therein appropriated. In this respect the • Council is precisely in the same situation with the House of Lords; • and their concurrence with regard to the disposition of money • cannot be defired by the House of Assembly in any other form • or manner than a bill without an absolute and unconstitution-• al departure from parliamentary proceedings.

• To the fecond objection made by the Council we answer, • That even in bills which are not for the grant of fupply, but • which however impose burdens on the people, fuch as bills for • turnpike roads, for navigations, for paving, for managing the more, Sc. for which tolls and rates must be collected, the Lords • cannot make any alteration in the quantum of the toll or rate, • in the disposition or duration of it, or in the persons, com-• missioners, or collectors appointed to manage it."—In such bills it • is the invariable practice in Great-Britain to appoint Commissi-• oners and Collectors—we cannot therefore allow that the • Council have hitherto acted irregularly in functioning such ap-• pointments by act of Assembly. Ì

36th G. III. THOMAS CARLETON, Efq. Lieutenant Governor. 518

" To the third reafon we answer, that we conceive the Statute " of 6. H. 8. c. 16. intituled "An Act that no Knights of " Shires nor Burgess depart before the End of the Parliament" "or the provisions therein made " that if any of the faid Knights, " Citizens, Burgesses, or Barons do depart without leave, e-" very of them to departing should lose all those jums of money, " which be ought to have had for his wages' are not applicable "to our colonial fituation, and ought not to be deemed a part of "the laws of this province. Neither that Statute, nor the "Statute 23 H. 6. c. 10. intituled " The Order of Levying " the Wages of the Knights of the Parliament" " nor any ancient Statute regulating the wages of the Knights Citizensand Burgef-"fes, ever were confidered in force in any Briti/h colony, and are " not applicable to the state of a colony, or the forms of our Legis- lature. But if these ancient and obsolete Statutes should be thought " to be in force here;, or to make a part of our general laws, the "General Affembly is fully competent to make laws and regu- lations, in this respect, more suitable to our condition and circumstances. This has been done by the General Assembly " of this Province heretofore in many inflances, and is justified "by the usage of most of H1s MAJESTY's, American colonies. "We conceive that the recommendation of HIS EXCELLENCY "the Lieutenant Governor in 1793, to provide for the pay of "the Speaker and Members, &c. cannot be fairly construed o-"therwife than a recommendation to make provision in the u-"fual manner, which HIS EXCELLENCY had approved of by giving his affent to all the acts paffed by the two Houles for that purpole. If a different mode had been in the contemplation of the Lieutenant Governor he would have given fome in-"timation thereof in his meffage to the Houfe on that occasion; and his giving his affent to the act lince paffed for that purpole • confirms this opinion of the Houle belides the Effimate a-• bove refered to, is intituled • Estimate of Expenses for the * Public Service of the Province of New-Brunswick for the cur-" rent year 1793, to be laid before the Houfe of Affembly by order " of HIS EXCELLENCY the Lieutenant Governor." We therefore infift that the provisions of this bill, in this behalf, are "constitutional and expedient.,

• To the first and feventh objections offered by the com-• mittee of free conference on the part of the Conncil, we an-• fiver in the following Parliamentary language •• that it is the •• fole, undoubted and inherent right of the Commons to give money •• and grant aids; which are to be raifed by fuch methods; and with •• fuch provisions, and the DISPOSITION thereof to be made in fuch •• manner "manner as the Commons ONLY think proper'-upon which right these objections made by the Council plainly intrenchand that "the Commons do ONLY give and grant in all bills of "aid, and have the fole right to direct to what ENDS and PUR-"POSES fuch aid shall be disposed; for that in common reasoning if "the Commons only can GIVE, they also must have the RIGHT "to dispose."

• T HE House of Assembly, deeply impressed with a great-• ful sense of YOUR EXCELLENCY's paternal attention • to every thing which relates to the welfare of this province, • beg leave humbly and most respectfully to represent to YOUR • EXCELLENCY, that they have with every possible industry at-• tended to the passing of such bills as they have thought condu-• ceive to the Public Good, that they might thereby an-• fiver the important purposes for which YOUR EXCELLENCY • has been pleased to call them together.

• In executing this duty they have passed a bill • providing for the • payment of debts incurred and fervices performed previous to and • during the last feffion of the late General Affembly of this Pro-• vince' which hath been negatived by the Council.

• A bill providing for the payment of part of the fame fervi-• ces was paffed at the laft feffion of the late Houfe of Affembly, • and was also negatived by the Council. Both of those bills • were drawn up in the fame form and on the fame principles on • which all former bills of appropriation have been uniformly paf-• fed in this province, and were notwithstanding rejected by the • Council.

"The House than passed another bill intituled "An Act for " raising a Revenue in this Frovince and for appropriating the " Same together with the Monies now in the Treasury." Upon * this bill fome doubts appearing to exift in the minds of the Council, this Houfe, anxious to remove every difficulty and to pro-• mote harmony between the two branches of the legislature, • fo effential to the difpatch of public business and the interest of • the province, have met the Council in repeated conferences on the subjects of difference between the two Houses; and in the • courle of those conferences, which have taken up a week, we ⁴ have been furnished with all the objections to passing the bill, • that the Council could, in that length of time, produce to 4 us: And after weighing and confidering those objections with " the utmost deliberation, we answered them, on our part, " with fuch arguments, supported and drawn from volumes of " Precedents of the most constitutional and legal authority both ' in the Parliament of Great-Britain and Legislatures of Britifb bill and been fatisfactory to the Council. But, notwith/tanding thefe our endeavors, we are extremely forry and furprifed to find that bill hath also been rejected by a majority of the
