> Obstructionists Pass Insignificant Amounts Of Supply In Effort To Appease Public Outcry.

Ottawa, June 6.-The Opposi tion, apparently alarmed at the outburst of public disapproval awakened by the complete blocade of the money supply for public service, have now adopted a policy of letting small amounts through daily as a blind to the public, while refusing enough to carry on the business of the country. In the House on Tuesday the blockade lasted from 11 a.m. to 11 p.m. with no motion before the House and $190 was passed in the next hour. On Wednesday the House was prevented from getting to the estimates until five minute of closing, when $930,000 was passed. On Thursday the discussion of supply was prevented till 11.30 p.m., when $202,000 was passed in block. On Friday supply was prevented until 9 p.m. by the Opposition, deelaring that they were not obstructing business. Then $1,500. 000 was put through. To blockade all day, then pass enough to stop public outcry seems to be the motte.
