Minto Fall Show.

The annual Fall Show of the Minto Agricultural Society was held at Harrison on Friday the 20th. The weather was very favorable, the turn out of people, both old and young, was large, and everything tended to make this annual exhibition of the products of the Township a great success.

The stock, &c., was exhibited on the grounds of the Society, and the grain, dairy produce, ladies' work, &c., in the Hall attached to Collison's (late Allan's) Hotel. We hope before another year to see an Agricultural Hall in Harrison.

There was a very good display of grain, there being 7 entries of fall wheat, 8 of spring, and 10 of barley. The roots were excellent, and the vegetables far exceeded our expectations, both in quantity, variety and quality.

There was a nice though not large selection of domestic manufactures and ladies' work. We cannot begin to particularize, but many of the articles exhibited displayed great taste, skill and patience on the part of the ladies who made them.

Through the excellent arrangements, and the prompt way in which they were carried out by the Secretary, Mr. Lambert, and the Directors, the work was got through in good time. In the evening the annual dinner took place in Markle's fine new hotel, and was well attended.

A splendid repast was served, which did great credit to Mr. Markle. The President of the Society, Mr. John Darroch, occupied the chair. Mr. Robt. Scott, Vice-President, acting as vice-chairman. The usual loyal toasts were responded to with great fervour.

The following are the Judges: - Horses and cattle, Geo. Reddon, Thos. Wilson, Wm. Cheesie; sheep and pigs, Geo. Patterson, Elisha Turner, Henry Fells; grain, roots, fruit and dairy produce, Jas. Coleman, John Searf and John Lang; mechanics' department, S. Marshall, Robt. Hay and Wm. Hays; ladies work, Mrs. Hay, Mrs. Turner and Mr. Squires.

The Manitoba Elections.

As will be seen by the telegraph dispatch in another column, there have been serious disturbances at one of the polling places in that Province. The notorious Riel was the cause of the trouble. He was not satisfied with resigning in favor of Cartier, but in order to show his devotion to the Government at Ottawa, he came out strong for Mr. Cunningham, who was running for Marquette, and why, by the way, was formerly connected with the Globe and Telegraph. Cunningham was running as a Government supporter, and Riel was giving him all the assistance he could. According to the telegraph, some Canadians, indignant at the course this murderer was taking, and at the impunity with which he is allowed by the authorities there to meddle with public affairs, got together in a body to prevent him from voting. The Canadians banded themselves together on one side, and the half-breeds on the other, and a row occurred. Shots were exchanged and a number of men were badly beaten. Special constables were enrolled, and great excitement prevailed. Two or three of the newspaper offices were gutted by the mob. The above are all the details yet received. Full particulars will be anxiously and impatiently looked for. It is quite evident, however, from the above, that the troubles in Manitoba are not yet at an end, and so long as Riel is allowed to go at large, and is petted by the Government or their tools, there will be no lasting peace or contentment in the Province.

The Provincial Exhibition.
The Provincial Exhibition opens to day with every prospect of success. The aggregate number of entries this year are some 1,200 more than they were last year. In not a few classes, particularly those of agricultural implements and machines, and in grains and seeds, there has been a considerable falling off. There is an immense increase in the entries of horticultural productions, which might reasonably be expected, when we consider that Hamilton and the section surrounding have long been noted for the quantity and superiority of their horticultural productions. In the classes, too, of arts and manufactures there is quite a large increase in the entries. From all accounts, we have little doubt the forthcoming Exhibition will be a most interesting one. Immense crowds of people from all parts of the Province will visit it. We hope that the weather will be all that the sight-seers could wish.

Political Items.
Mr. Richard, the member elect for Megantic, in the Province of Quebec, in a letter to his constituents, comes out point-blank against the Ministry. Long before the House meets the majority of the members will be prepared to assume the same position. The Mail says:—"Hon. Wm. McDougall has declined the nomination for South Grenville in the Local House." We are sorry William has declined. It would have yielded us such intense delight to have seen him handsomely beaten by Mr. Fraser. Rumor asserts that Mr. David Glass, M. P. for East Middlesex, has obtained a promise to be permitted to move the address in reply to the speech at the opening of Parliament, and that he is already attitudinizing in anticipation of the event. It is said that the grimaces he makes in front of the looking-glass are positively appalling.

The latest rumours in Quebec are that Blanchet, member for Levis, is thoroughly ruined by the heavy contest which he had to sustain, and has threatened to go into the Opposition unless he receives the Clerkship of the Commons, and that he has been promised it; that Cauchon will take the place of Cartier, who is not expected to live, and will run for Levis, being unwilling to try the chances of another election in Quebec Centre; and that Langevin will retire from the Ottawa Ministry to become Premier of Quebec, Chauveau being provided for in some other way. Whether these rumours are true or not, there are a great many interviews held daily between the parties. The London Advertiser says:—"Mr. Beay, M. P., seems to be at present writing the Leader editorials himself. His vocabulary includes some philological applications never before imagined. For instance, he speaks of the "tare and tret" of public life as telling on Sir Geo. E. Cartier; the expression being probably intended as a sort of ingenious synonym for "wear and tear." In another article Sir John A. Macdonald is credited with "some half a century of a majority;" Mr. Beay intending possibly to convey the impression of a majority of fifty votes. Mr. Gladstone is said to employ his leisure time on Greek poems and translations. The statesman of East Toronto might perhaps find time to prepare a new Canadian dictionary.

There is to be a public demonstration and dinner in Jacques Cartier County to celebrate the return of Mr. Lafamme, and another in Napierville, in honour of A. A. Dorion. Messrs. Holton, Huntingdon, John Young and others, are expected to address both meetings.

Among the votes for Mr. David Mills M. P. at the last election, was that of a centenarian, Mr. Walter Galbraith, of the township of Howard, who has reached the unusual age of 103. Mr. Galbraith is no doubt the oldest voter in Canada.

It is stated that one-fifth of Kansas is owned by railway corporations.

CAUTION.
The Cornwall Manufacturing Company have pleasure in intimating the complete restoration of their works at Cornwall which are now in full operation, producing large quantities of White and Grey Blankets, and Heavy Medium Class Tweeds.

They regret, however, having again to call attention of the public to the continuance of the disreputable practice of importing English Blankets and selling them as Canadian. These Blankets are made largely of Shoddy and Cotton Waste, with a small percentage of pure Wool, and though slightly in appearance, closely imitating the Cornwall Blankets, and ticketed "Canadian Manufacture," have neither warm nor wear, but can be sold at a lower price than the Cornwall Blankets (which are made of Pure Wool) can be produced for.

The public are cautioned against this attempted deception, and respectfully informed that the name of the CORNWALL MANUFACTURING COMPANY is printed on the ticket of every Blanket made by them. Cornwall, Sept. 10th, 1872. 4Wim

Local and Other Items.

GUELPH FALL RACES.—The entries for these races will close to-morrow evening (Tuesday) at the Royal Hotel.

THE ANNUAL Exhibition of the Township of Amaranth Agricultural Society will be held at Whitlington, on Tuesday, 8th October.

SIGNALS are to be set up in different prominent points of the city, in connection with the Central Observatory at Toronto.

JOHN FRASER, farmer in the Township of Goderich, threshed 50 bushels of Soale's wheat obtained from two bushels of that variety sown.

A WOLF which had destroyed a large number of sheep in the vicinity of Bowling Green, Amaranth, was trapped the other night by Mr R. Wansborough. It was one of the largest kind, and weighed over 70 lbs.

MR MILLER, of Whitby, the well-known breeder of thoroughbreds, has just imported 75 Cotswolds and a two-year old draft filly. The flock includes 28 rams of various ages, and were picked out at a high figure from the flocks of Mr Lane, of Broadlands, Gloucester, Mr Walker, of North Leach, Mr Fletcher, of Shipton, and Mr Gillett, of Kilkenny.

As Mr Joseph Guy was letting down a bucketful of stones on Saturday, into a well which Mr Hiscocks was stoning, on Lot 26, Centre Road, Chinguacousy, the handle of the windlass split from his grasp, and the bucket fell to the bottom, a distance of 52 feet. Mr Guy was badly cut on the head, had three of his ribs broken, and was otherwise seriously, but it is hoped, not fatally injured. Mr Hiscocks had his shoulder grazed by the descending bucket, but miraculously escaped further injury.

SUDDEN DEATH OF AN IMPORTED HORSE.—Mr. David Boag started on Saturday morning from his home in East Gwillimbury with his last year's imported horse, aged five years, named Young Wonder, for the Provincial Show at Hamilton. The animal was quite lively at Queen'sville, and at Sharon, four miles out, showed symptoms of sickness. On arrival at Newmarket he only lived half an hour. Dr. Lloyd, veterinary surgeon, was immediately called and pronounced the case hopeless. The disease was wind colic. He was valued at $3,000. Last year he gained the 240 prize at Newcastle on Tyne.

CASSELL'S PUBLICATIONS.—We direct attention to the list of publications from the well-known house of Cassell, Petter & Galpin, London and New York. These text and school books have been carefully prepared or compiled by persons well qualified for the work. They embrace many leading subjects in the educational programme, and will be found of great value, whether in schools or for private instruction at home. They are authorized by the Ontario Council of Public Instruction, and are well worthy the attention of educators, parents, &c. Copies of any of the above works can be had at the bookstores, or ordered by the booksellers.

WARNING.—These Exhibition times private house-keepers and servant maids should be on their guards against being imposed upon by travelling jewellers, &c., as they are sure to get bit in the end. There is one of these illustrious visitors in town to-day, we are informed, and has imposed upon several parties. His dupes have not only suffered by purchasing his jewellery, but he has a bad habit of giving bogus coin in change. Our advice is, if you want jewellery of any kind, go to those stores who make it a business to deal in such articles. Persons with any judgment whatever must know that good jewellery cannot be bought for any such money as these travelling peddlers ask for it.

DASTARDLY OUTRAGE.—Our readers will scarcely believe that in this enlightened age, and in the County of Peel, any one in it could be found so devilish, drunk or sober, as to disturb the tombs of the dead, yet such is the case, and on a Sunday too. It appears, from what we can learn, that Geo. Robinson, John McCauley, Nathaniel Davies, and Wm. Frazer, were in company together on Sunday afternoon last at King's burying-ground, near Mount Charles, and being the worse of liquor, the two former proposed going into the burying-ground, and when there destroyed the tombstone of the late Mr. J. McBride, and raised up the head stones of his sons Peter and James, also destroyed the monument of the late Charles King, Esq. McCauley has been committed for trial. Robinson has left the neighborhood, and is still at large.—Drampton Times.

The Orangeville Sun says that Constable Hand arrested two young men, named Lawrence Bonlicher and Patrick Foley at the Orangeville railway station, on Tuesday evening, on a charge of having stolen a yoke of Oxen, from Mr McKale of Melancthon, on the night of the 11th of September. It appears that the oxen were traced by Mr McKale to Orangeville, where he learned that they had been sold by the prisoners, who also reside in Melancthon, to a drover named Thomas Noble. The drover, suspecting that the animals had been stolen, refused to pay the prisoners for them, but deposited the price he agreed to pay for them—$70—in the hands of Mr Gilchrist to be by him paid to the prisoners, on their furnishing proof that they had been the owners of the oxen. The oxen though sold for $70 were worth $150.

THIS MORNING'S DESPATCHES

Duel in Charleston.
Row in Mobile.
The Nathan Murder.
Forrester Identified.

London Sept 21.—Leading bankers here assert that the cause of the advancing tendency of the Bank of England rate of discount is in the low rate of sterling exchange at New York.

Stockholm, Sept. 22.—Prince Oscar, brother of the deceased King Charles, has succeeded to the throne of Sweden and Norway. All dignitaries of State yesterday took the oath of allegiance to the new monarch.

Charleston, Sept. 23.—A personal altercation occurred in the Restaurant, in Columbus, last evening between Montgomery, President of State, and Senator Samuel Melton, regular Republican candidate, for the office of Attorney-General. In the melee John D. Caldwell and Major J. M. Morgan, two friends who interfered to separate the combatants, were shot. Caldwell was instantly killed, and Morgan but slightly wounded. The tragedy grew out of criminations and recriminations of a political nature.

Mobile, Sept. 22.—Last night during a meeting of Republicans in this city, a disturbance occurred, which began by the discharge of a pistol into the ground by some unknown person, which caused a general stampede. Some persons say the first shot was fired by a white man, others by a negro. A few other shots followed, but no one was hurt in the neighborhood of the speaking, but three persons were seriously injured at some distance from the scene of action.

New York, Sept. 22.—Joseph Burnett was stabbed and killed to-night by his brother-in-law, Timothy Sanders, during a money quarrel. Sanders has been arrested.

Cincinnati, Sept. 22.—Garrett Davis, U. S. Senator, died at his residence in Paris, Ky., at 6:30 this evening.

New York, Sept. 23.—George Kelsey, a chemist, is reported to have recognized Forrester as the man who ran from Nathan's house on the morning of the murder, and will be of use as a witness against him. Forrester says his real name is Alexander McClymont, that he was born near Glasgow, Scotland, and that all the newspaper statements made concerning him are so far sensational and untrue. Last night the French Republicans celebrated the eighteenth anniversary of the proclamation of republicanism in France.

Fatal Accident by a Runaway.
We have to record an accident of a very painful character on the Elora Road on Saturday, which resulted in the death of Mrs. Edward McNeil, of Rochester, N. Y. This lady who was married to an uncle of Mr. John McNeil's, of Guelph, came over with her daughter, who has been ill for some time, to consult Dr. Bowly of Berlin as to the nature of her complaint. The family formerly lived in Pilkington, and Mrs. McNeil was anxious to call upon some of her old friends in that Township before she returned to Rochester. For this purpose she proposed to Mr. John McNeil to drive her out on Saturday. They accordingly started about 11 o'clock. When proceeding along the Elora Road about a couple of hundred yards this side of Blyth's Hotel, the horse by some means jerked the reins (which were short) out of Mr. McNeil's hands, which fell beyond his reach. He jumped out to regain possession of them, but the horse made a bound forward, and threw him away from the buggy. The horse feeling himself free started off at full speed, and ran straight for the front of Blyth's stable, against which he ran with full force, striking his head on the wall. The terrible concussion threw the unfortunate woman out of the buggy, it is supposed against the wall, and her head struck against, causing concussion of the brain. She was taken up in an insensible state and carried into Blyth's Hotel, where every attention and kindness were shown her. Dr. Herod was driving up the road on a visit to a patient, and did all that it was possible for a medical man to do under the circumstances, but her injuries were of such a nature as to be beyond the reach of human skill. She had received other minor injuries, such as dislocation of the wrist, but these were of trivial character compared to that which she received in the brain. She remained quite unconscious, and died about 12 o'clock on Saturday night, surviving the accident about six hours. Mr. McNeil received some injuries about the leg and wrist, but they are not of a serious character. Mrs. McNeil's husband was at once telegraphed for, and hurried on by one conveyance or another till he reached Guelph on Sunday night. The remains of Mrs. McNeil will be taken to Rochester to-day for interment.

The Manitoba Elections.

Disturbances at some of the Polling Places.
The Canadians try to Prevent Riots from Voting.

THE TROOPS CALLED OUT.
FORT GARRY, Sept. 19.

Serious disturbances are going on in Winnipeg. The Manitoban, Metis and Gazette offices have been gutted. The troops are called out.

There is no news yet from Marquette. The engineers of the Canadian Pacific Railway's return, which was celebrated by fire works.

Capt. Cameron and lady arrived here to-day. Sept. 20th.—The elections to-day were attended by disturbances at St. Boniface and Winnipeg. At the former place it was reported that Riels was to vote. At three o'clock a party of Canadians went over from here to prevent him. A row occurred, which ended in the Canadian clearing out the half-breeds. Some shots were exchanged. The Chief of Police with some of his men were badly beaten. According to the returns as far as heard from, Schulz has been elected by one hundred and forty five majority. D. A. Smith is elected for Selkirk.

Riel delivered a long speech yesterday at White Horse Plains, county of Marquette, in favor of Cunningham, the Government candidate.

The engineers of the Canadian party of boundary surveyors arrived at Pembina yesterday.

LATER.
FORT GARRY, Sept. 21.

Mr. Cunningham has been elected for Marquette. All is quiet in the town. The attack on Mr. McFlickin is said to have been on account of his wishing to cut a scow rope while the party were coming across the river.

It is reported the Governor and Council have decided to arrest Cornish and Mulvey. If it is attempted, undoubtedly there will be blood.

Attorney-General Clark swore in thirty Hudson Bay men as special constables last night. They were armed with revolvers and pick-handles, and paraded the streets. Had the military not been out, there would have been bloodshed.

THE PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION.
MR. GREELEY AT CINCINNATI.

Cincinnati, Sept. 21.—Mr. Greeley made a second speech last night from the balcony of the Burnett House to a large crowd, in which he took occasion to reply to some hostile criticisms of his remarks in this class. A very good South Down was exhibited and recommended for an extra prize, but we failed to learn by whom it was shown. Pigs though not numerous were good.

There was a very good display of grain, there being 7 entries of fall wheat, 3 of spring, and 10 of barley. The roots were excellent, and the vegetables far exceeded our expectations, both in quantity, variety and quality. Some tomatoes shown by Mr R G Lambert were as large and fine as we have seen anywhere this year. There was quite a display of dairy produce, being 13 entries of fresh butter, 16 of salt, and 4 of keg butter.

In the mechanical department there was a much better show than is usually found at a Township Exhibition. Many of the implements and machines were of the best models, and all were nicely finished. The leading exhibitors from Harrison, were the Dominion works, and Mr R G Lambert, and they need not be ashamed to show their work anywhere. Mr Wette as usual showed some beautiful cabinet work.

There was a nice though not large selection of domestic manufactures and ladies' work. We cannot begin to particularize, but may state that many of the articles exhibited displayed great taste, skill and patience on the part of the ladies who made them.

Through the excellent arrangements, and the prompt way in which they were carried out by the Secretary, Mr Lambert, and the Directors, the work was got through in good time. In the evening the annual dinner took place in Markle's fine new hotel, and was well attended. A splendid repast was served, which did great credit to Mr. Markle. The President of the Society, Mr. John Darroch, occupied the chair. Mr. Robt. Scott, Vice-President, acting as vice-chairman. The usual loyal toasts were responded to with great fervour. Messrs. Highbotham and McKim responded in excellent speeches to the toast of the House of Commons and Legislative Assembly. The toast of the Judges was responded to in appropriate speeches by Messrs. Dunbar, Hays, Hay, Wilson, Marshall, Turner, Coleman and Cowan; the successful competitors by Messrs. Patterson, Dunbar and others; the Press by Messrs. Young and Innes; the medical profession by Dr. Cowan; the legal profession by Mr. Johnston, representing the firm of Dunbar & Merritt. Other toasts followed such as the health of the chairman and vice-chairman, the ladies, &c., and the speeches were varied by some excellent songs by Messrs. Brown, Howard, Wilson, Patterson, Dunbar, &c. The company spent the evening in a most pleasant manner, and everything was done by Mr. Markle and his assistants to add to the pleasure of the company.

The following are the Judges—Horses and cattle, Geo. Reddon, Thos. Wilson, Wm. Cheeris; sheep and pigs, Geo. Patterson, Elisha Turner, Henry Polli; grain, roots, fruit and dairy produce, Jas. Coleman, John Seaff and John Lang; mechanics' department, S. Marshall, Robt Hay and Wm. Hays; ladies work, Mrs. Hay, Mrs. Turner and Mrs. Squires.

THE DEMAND FOR CANADIAN MINISTERS.—The Montreal Witness says:—Another of our Canada Presbyterian ministers has just received a most flattering call to a large church in Brooklyn, N. Y. Dr. Cranston is considered one of the celebrities of New York. Prof. Inglis, recently appointed to the charge of Knox's College, Toronto, is leaving for the pastoral charge of a Presbyterian Church in Brooklyn. And now it appears that another Brooklyn church wishes to rob us also of Prof MacVicar, the Principal of the C. P. Theological College here—a man of far-reaching influence as an educator, and whose labors in connection with the Public School Board and with the French-Canadian Missionary Society have been of great value to the country. We do not know whether or not he will accept this call. If he should, our best wishes will go with him to his new sphere, where he will be the companion of such men as McCosh, Hall, Beecher, Cuyler, and Taylor; but if he can be induced to remain we shall be glad, as he is a man we can ill afford to spare.

ANOTHER RIDGEWAY VICTIM.—In our obituary notices this week the death is announced at Richmond, Mo., of Mr. J. G. Powell, formerly a resident of Woodstock. At the time of the Fenian raid he belonged to the 13th Batt. Hamilton, and at that unfortunate Ridgeway skirmish received a ball in the hip, from the effects of which he never wholly recovered. Thus another has been added to the list of deaths caused by the marauding organization warned into life by the United States, encouraged by a neighbouring nation to ravage the shores of Canada and murder her people, and protected in illegal proceedings and sympathies with and screened in evil deeds to the utmost extent possible by a professedly friendly government. At the scene of the Mountain Meadow massacre in Utah, a plain monument has been erected with the simple but startling inscription, "Vengeance is mine, saith the Lord." Another such at Ridgeway would not be out of place.—Woodstock Review.

The Reformers of East Elgin decided upon having a demonstration and picnic at Aylmer, on Tuesday, 8th of October, when a goodly number of M. P.'s are expected to be present.

Dr. Wm. Chambers, author of the memoir of Dr. Robert Chambers, has a Scottish story in the press entitled "Allie Gilroy," which will appear in October.

Minto Fall Show.

The annual Fall Show of the Minto Agricultural Society was held at Harrison on Friday the 20th. The weather was very favorable, the turn out of people, both old and young, was large, and everything tended to make this annual exhibition of the products of the Township a great success. The streets of Harrison were crowded during the day, and a good stroke of business was done in all the stores.

The stock, &c., was exhibited on the grounds of the Society, and the grain, dairy produce, ladies' work, &c., in the Hall attached to Collison's (late Allan's) Hotel. We hope before another year to see an Agricultural Hall in Harrison. We feel sure there is sufficient enterprise and liberality in the village and township to accomplish this if it is only seriously set about. Such a hall is greatly needed, and it could be so constructed as to answer the purpose of a Town Hall, and for accommodation at the Agricultural Society at their annual exhibitions.

In some respects the show was a decided improvement on former ones, in others truth compels us to say that no such improvement was noticeable. There was but an indifferent show of horses, and the judges more than once remarked that but very few exhibited were perfectly sound. In cattle the display was much better, and we are glad to note that the number of thorough-breds are yearly increasing. Mr T B Patterson's herd are a credit to him, and the Durhams shown by Messrs. Connell, Darroch, Moore, Scott, Atcheson and others were fine specimens of the breed. The grades were also very good, and as might be expected more numerous. There were some excellent sheep on the ground, but there is still much room for improvement in this class. A very good South Down was exhibited and recommended for an extra prize, but we failed to learn by whom it was shown. Pigs though not numerous were good.

The Manitoba Elections.

As will be seen by the telegraph dispatch in another column, there have been serious disturbances at one of the polling places in that Province. The notorious Riel was the cause of the trouble. He was not satisfied with resigning in favor of Cartier, but in order to show his devotion to the Government at Ottawa, he came out strong for Mr. Cunningham, who was running for Marquette, and why, by the way, was formerly connected with the Globe and Telegraph. Cunningham was running as a Government supporter, and Riel was giving him all the assistance he could. According to the telegraph, some Canadians, indignant at the course this murderer was taking, and at the impunity with which he is allowed by the authorities there to meddle with public affairs, got together in a body to prevent him from voting. The Canadians banded themselves together on one side, and the half-breeds on the other, and a row occurred. Shots were exchanged and a number of men were badly beaten. Special constables were enrolled, and great excitement prevailed. Two or three of the newspaper offices were gutted by the mob. The above are all the details yet received. Full particulars will be anxiously and impatiently looked for. It is quite evident, however, from the above, that the troubles in Manitoba are not yet at an end, and so long as Riel is allowed to go at large, and is petted by the Government or their tools, there will be no lasting peace or contentment in the Province.

The Provincial Exhibition.

The Provincial Exhibition opens to day with every prospect of success. The aggregate number of entries this year are some 1,200 more than they were last year. In not a few classes particularly those of agricultural implements and machines, and in grains and seeds, there has been a considerable falling off. There is an immense increase in the entries of horticultural productions, which might reasonably be expected, when we consider that Hamilton and the section surrounding have long been noted for the quantity and superiority of their horticultural productions. In the classes, too, of arts and manufactures there is quite a large increase in the entries. From all accounts, we have little doubt the forthcoming Exhibition will be a most interesting one. Immense crowds of people from all parts of the Province will visit it. We hope that the weather will be all that the sight-seers could wish.

Political Items.

Mr. Richard, the member elect for Megantic, in the Province of Quebec, in a letter to his constituents, comes out point-blank against the Ministry. Long before the House meets the majority of the members will be prepared to assume the same position. The Mail says:—"Hon. Wm. McDougall has declined the nomination for South Grenville in the Local House." We are sorry William has declined. It would have yielded us such intense delight to have seen him handsomely beaten by Mr. Fraser. Rumor asserts that Mr. David Glass, M. P. for East Middlesex, has obtained a promise to be permitted to move the address in reply to the speech at the opening of Parliament, and that he is already attitudinizing in anticipation of the event. It is said that the grimaces he makes in front of the looking-glass are positively appalling.

The latest rumours in Quebec are that Blanchet, member for Levis, is thoroughly ruined by the heavy contest which he had to sustain, and has threatened to go into the Opposition unless he receives the Clerkship of the Commons, and that he has been promised it; that Cauchon will take the place of Cartier, who is not expected to live, and will run for Levis, being unwilling to try the chances of another election in Quebec Centre; and that Langevin will retire from the Ottawa Ministry to become Premier of Quebec, Chauveau being provided for in some other way.

Whether these rumours are true or not, there are a great many interviews held daily between the parties. The London Advertiser says:—"Mr. Beatty, M. P., seems to be at present writing the Leader editorials himself. His vocabulary includes some philological applications never before imagined. For instance, he speaks of the "tare and tret" of public life as telling on Sir Geo. E. Cartier; the expression being probably intended as a sort of ingenious synonym for "wear and tear." In another article Sir John A. Macdonald is credited with "some half a century of a majority." Mr. Beatty intending possibly to convey the impression of a majority of fifty votes. Mr. Gladstone is said to employ his leisure time on Greek poems and translations. The statesman of East Toronto might perhaps find time to prepare a new Canadian dictionary.

There is to be a public demonstration and dinner in Jacques Cartier County to celebrate the return of Mr. Lafamme, and another in Napierville, in honour of A. A. Dorion. Messrs. Holton, Huntingdon, John Young and others, are expected to address both meetings.

Among the votes for Mr. David Mills M. P., at the last election, was that of a centenarian, Mr. Walter Galbraith, of the township of Howard, who has reached the unusual age of 103. Mr. Galbraith is no doubt the oldest voter in Canada.

It is stated that one-fifth of Kansas is owned by railway corporations.

Announcement Extraordinary! Unrivalled Success! Unequalled Display! Competition Defeated!

ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY THOUSAND DOLLARS WORTH OF DRY GOODS TO SELECT FROM!

Heffernan Brothers have great pleasure in announcing to their patrons that, in view of the great advance which they knew must inevitably take place in the price of woollen goods they were careful to place their orders with the leading European and Canadian manufacturers fully three months in advance of any house west of Toronto, and by means of a large cash capital have been able to make special and most advantageous terms, and are now prepared to show a large and magnificent assortment of NEW DRY GOODS AT OLD PRICES.

CATALOGUE:

We here give a short catalogue of prices in a few of the leading departments, but for a full and correct idea of the immensity of the stock and the unparalleled low prices of goods we invite every one to call and inspect the stock. One visit to our Mammoth Establishment will convince even the most incredulous that Heffernan Brothers advertise facts only, and that the Britannia House is beyond doubt the cheapest store in Western Canada.

CHAPTER XVIII.

WHICH EXPLAINS THE CAUSE OF LILLIAS GIBSON'S GRIEF. He rose and walked slowly from the room, leaving Lillias sitting like one who had been turned to stone. For a time she was without the power alike of motion and of feeling—conscious only of having received a great stunning blow, by which her whole being was prostrated, but the very strength of which kept back the suffering and the anguish.

Her state of numbness for that first half-hour was a merciful, an enviable condition, compared with the agony which was slowly but surely coming. Gradually she awoke to it. First, there came a sense of loss—a sense of separation from the hope and joy which had been growing in her heart, and filling her being with the sweet delicious rapture in which she had been indulging when her maiden meditations were disturbed by the entrance of her father. The possession of this happiness was receding from her. The fulness of delight which she had begun to taste with such thrilling raptures, was departing from her like a thing not to be retained. That heaven of bliss, which her love for George had begun to create in her soul, was closing its portals against her; its light and glory, its peace and radiance were vanishing, and she felt herself thrust back, and shut out in the dreary night-darkness, where no joy and no comfort could come.

This loss was in itself terrible and overwhelming, but that was not all: there was not only the vision of departing hope, but the prospect of coming misery, if this marriage with Duncan Ralston was to be forced upon her. She would then become the wife of a man whom she must ever abhor, when every feeling of love and sympathy would be crushed out of her nature, when her life would be without one pleasure, and her surroundings wholly repulsive.

Thus it was a double weight of woe that came upon her, and, as her thoughts came more clearly to realise it, her horror and despair increased till she could sit there no longer, but wildly sprang from her seat and rushed in desperation through the room.

The chamber was now in semi-darkness, for while she had sat, the fire, so bright at first, had burned low; its flame had died out, and nothing but dull, glowing embers remained in the grate, sending thence a light too faint to dissipate the gloom.

But, outside, the moon was shining brightly in the clear frosty sky, and she caught sight of the silvery landscape, and as she gazed, the desire came upon her to wander forth, and in the solitude of the park find some vent to the struggling of her bursting heart. In motion she thought she would find some relief—the sharp night air, blowing on her burning brow might cool the fever of her brain.

Hastily snatching up a shawl, she quitted the room, and descending by a private stair, made her exit by a side door, and gained the park, across which she took her way, regardless of the direction in which she went, and so wildly possessed by her grief that unconsciously she lifted her despairing face towards the soft beaming light, and occasionally flung her arms upward as she moved along.

By instinct, rather than of set purpose, she walked toward a clump of trees on the other side of which stood an arbour, and the sight of it, solitary and deserted sent her toward it of shelter and rest. She entered, threw herself upon the rustic seat, and then the tide of her agony, rising with a resistless wave which burst upon her soul, she threw her arms upon the table, laid her head down upon them, and gave way to loud convulsive sobbing, which was wholly beyond her power to restrain.

In the midst of this outburst of wildest grief, a shadow suddenly darkened the arbour, and a voice reached her ear. In terror she started up, and gazed wildly at the form which stood in the doorway, believing that her father had seen and followed her.

It was not her father. It was George Eglington, and as he moved forward, and in tones of tender anxiety called her by her name and asked the cause of her distress, an impulse, which she was powerless to control, caused her to fling her arms round his neck, bury her face in his bosom, and renew her weeping there, with a vehemence which his soothing words could not for a time subside.
