TWELFTH YEAR.

BRIEF, BUT VERY POINTED.

THE NEW CABINET ANNOUNCES ITS POLICY TO THE HOUSE.

It will be on the Lines Which Have Hitherto Guided the Liberal-Conservative Party. Mr. Laurier Composes the Government to the Place Faved With Good Intentions.

Ottawa, June 18.—The Government proposes to carry out the policy which has guided the Liberal-Conservative Party. The outlines of measures which will come before the House are indicated in the speech from the Throne. The trade and financial policy will be declared in the budget speech.

This was the declaration of Sir Hector Langevin to the House today as to the policy of the new Administration. The matter was discussed in the caucus this morning and Sir Hector intimated, it was decided to continue on the old lines.

Mr. Laurier said the Government resembled a place which was to be paved with good intentions. He had no doubt that they intended to follow closely the policy of the late Sir John Macdonald, but already widely departed from it, as he would show to-morrow. Mr. Laurier said nothing further, but it is understood that to-morrow he will make a general onslaught upon the new Administration.

Compulsory Voting.
Mr. Amyot moved the second reading of his bill to make voting at an election compulsory. In support of it he said it would reduce the cost of an election and would tend to put down corruption.

Sir John Thompson objected that the bill would be a severe restriction, not only on the liberty but also on the right of choice of an elector. Neither a bill nor a resolution should be passed in this manner, he said. He moved the adjournment of the debate in the hope that the bill, which he carried, would make a fundamental change in the principle of voting.

Mr. Mills said the counterbalance to the advantages of it. He never could see how compulsory attendance at the polls could be reconciled with the free working of our representative institutions.

Mr. Cockburn objected that the bill was in favor of the rich man and against the poor. He proposed a fine of $50 and a term of imprisonment if he did not vote. He said that the bill was unworthy of the intelligence of the House.

After some further discussion the debate was adjourned. Mr. Tupper has given notice of an act respecting the shipping of iron ore and to provide that the Government Council may appoint inspectors to visit the mines and to report on the quality of the ore.

A return was presented to the House to-day containing the statistics and other documents relating to the abolition of separate schools and the education of the children of the late Sir John Macdonald.

HOJ. JOHN ROBSON'S VISIT.
Several matters to bring before the Province Affecting the Pacific Province.

Ottawa, June 18.—Hon. John Robson, Premier of British Columbia, arrived here today. His visit is to discuss with the Federal Government several matters affecting the Pacific Province. The last letter ever the late Sir John Macdonald wrote to Ottawa to discuss with the Government the various questions which are now before the House in connection with the British Columbia sealine law. To interfere with the sealine law is to interfere with the rights of the fishermen owned in Victoria are already in being. Seal, others are on their way and all have been ordered at great expense, which will be lost out at great expense, which will be lost out at great expense.

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY Declines to Embrace Single Tax, Knights of Labor or Eight Hours.

KINGSTON, June 18.—A meeting of the General Assembly to-day a request for sympathy in behalf of the Knights of Labor, single tax, women's enfranchisement and eight hour association was presented. Dr. Laing did not think the church should be used as a tool to carry out the principles of anti-political organizations.

Dr. Laing did not think the church should be used as a tool to carry out the principles of anti-political organizations. Rev. Mr. McEwen considered that such societies tended towards anarchism and disunion.

No action was taken. At the evening session a resolution was moved by John Cameron, London, seconded by Principal Grant, expressing sympathy with every war attempt to remedy the touching condition of mankind, but expressed the conviction that these can only be permanently settled by adherence to the fundamental principles of the Gospel of Christ.

VANCE TURNS UP AGAIN.

An Avenging Husband on His Trail—An Old Crime Recalled—A Tin-Horn Gambler in the Wild West—History of a Gentleman Who Never Can Keep Still.

An old acquaintance of the Toronto police has turned up in Helena, Mont. His name is Alexander L. Vance, and the story of his doings in Canada are worth repeating. Three years ago Vance, who was then carrying on a prosperous general furnishing business in Cross Bay, and a friend named Knight, a London, Ont. dentist, were arrested by Detectives John Cuddy and Burroughs in the Walker House on a telegram from Kingston, where they were wanted for circulating counterfeit Dominion notes. Domestic contentions had come up for them and took them back to Kingston, where they were committed for trial.

They remained in jail there for one year, during which time they were kept by the authorities the makers of the boys bills. Chief Sherwood on the strength of their information proceeded to arrest the pair. They were arrested by the night watchman, Charles Johnson and a constable named Benjamin Wilson. Evidence against them was presented to the grand jury, which returned a bill against them for circulating counterfeit Dominion notes. The two men were committed to the Kingston Penitentiary.
