GREETINGS

Again the time has come, when we stop in the stress of things to pass a kindly greeting to those with whom we have been associated in the storm and sunshine of business activity.

We wish to thank our patrons for their forbearance during this period of disturbance and uncertain markets, and we promise to care for your future requirements as promptly as conditions will permit. Our aim for 1917 will be to keep prices on all our Dry Goods at the lowest limit. We extend the Season's Greetings to all and wish you prosperity during the coming year.

Yours truly,
