Amid strains of music played by the orchestra of the Harmonie, twenty ladies and gentlemen landed from the ship, and the vessel was hoisted to the anchor and mounted a gallantly decorated platform which had been erected in front of the boat, and it was here that Mrs. Edmund Bristol of Toronto, who carried a bouquet of American Beauty roses, presented by the directors of the shipping company, performed the christening.

After the supports had been removed, the tugboat, under the supervision of John A. Smith, a member of the staff, proceeded to tow the vessel into the water. They cut the ropes which held the vessel from the drydock, and it floated away on its way. Mrs. Bristol, who carried a bouquet of American Beauty roses, presented by the directors of the shipping company, performed the christening.

WAR IS NECESSARY

Author of "The Great Illusion" Tells Canadian Club to Find Out "What it is All About" Before Starting a Quarrel—Characterizes Canada as an "Indestructible Country."

Norman Angell is a man with a big idea. He is an apostle of peace, a war breaker, an economist. He has studied the causes and effects of war, and the lesson he learned, he teaches to the multitude. He does not give $10,000,000 to a peace fund for the simple reason that he hasn't it to give. But he gives something far more valuable. He gives the doctrine of peace in a common sense way, he tells the people of the utter folly of war, he impresses them with the fact that it is entirely unnecessary, that it does no good, but much harm.

He said, in part: "I am in favor of self defence. If you are certain that another man has a revolver in his pocket, put one in yours. But that is not all. Find out what it is all about. The one thousand year religious war was started because of public opinion. We must get rid of false ideas. For instance, an English newspaper stated that war with Germany was certain. The increase of the German population caused a demand for Canadian wheat. The paper gave that as its principal reason for preaching war. Well, that is not the way to get Canada out of the war. It would not affect the issue one iota either way."

Indestructible Country. "I took 400,000 soldiers three years ago to conquer a handful of South Africa. How many men how much money and how long would it take to conquer 6,000,000 Canadians? Great as Germany is, she hasn't got the money, she hasn't got the men, and she hasn't got the time. God has made Canada a country which is indestructible, a country that cannot be destroyed, except by herself."

Impressions of Congress. Chancellor Burwash of Victoria College, has been the seat of honor which is richly merited. It's a real love feast!

Flourishing Guns. "In order to make plain what I am driving at, I want to give you an idea of the sort of conflict which is confronting us in Europe. The picture is this: There are two men, both very angry, both talking at once, neither listening to the other."

THE GARDEN SERIAL STORY

ALL THE GUESTS WERE VACCINATED

Butler Developed Smallpox and Health Officer Got Busy.

SOCIETY IS LAUGHING Treated the Same as Anyone Else.

Special to The Toronto World. PHILADELPHIA, June 2.—American law in the shape of a health department surgeon, laid "violent" hands on Lady Bullock, wife of the governor-general of Bermuda, and her daughter. Today they are nursing sore spots.

Charlemagne Tower, former United States ambassador to Germany, and wife, were hosts at a large dinner in honor of the distinguished visitors. The Tower butler, William Walker, was suddenly taken ill at his home and the case reported to the board of health as smallpox. Dr. A. A. Cairns called the former diplomat on the telephone to inform him of the rules of the health department, and to tell him that his household would have to submit to the usual measures immediately.

Mr. Tower would not be annoyed. He was giving a dinner; anyhow he would not permit a health department physician to enter his home. Every time the telephone rang it was said that Mr. Tower was not at home, and finally Dr. Cairns said that he must talk with the ex-ambassador.

When no satisfaction could be had the city's chief inspector sent Dr. Stecher, one of his assistants, to the Tower house, and the young physician then vaccinated not only the three members of the Tower family, but the 15 guests and all servants as well. Mr. Tower was much distressed at the treatment accorded to his guests, but they were good-natured about it after it was seen that there was no escape. Finally the evening was spent nursing sore limbs that had been subjected to the needle of the doctor.

Today all the fashionable world, and some others, were laughing gleefully. In addition to Lady and Miss Bullock, the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wheeler, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Childs Drexel and Mr. and Mrs. Harry M. Hart, Samuel Chew, Richard and Mrs. Elliott, Mrs. George C. Thayer and Mrs. Alexander Van Rensselaer. Despite their attempts to hide the facts from the public, the records of the medical inspector, who did the vaccination work, are on file at the city hall, and Dr. A. A. Cairns smiled and said: "The law is no respecter of persons. We vaccinate ambassadors and governors when they are exposed to contagion in Philadelphia."

THE SEASHORE.

The time is now opportune to plan for your summer outing, and to those who have enjoyed the seaside the records of Long Island Sound, in the vicinity of New London, Conn., offer many attractions, and for those who have not experienced the delights of a stay at the beach, we recommend their consideration of this charming territory for their vacation this year. A new booklet dealing with the district mentioned and entitled "The Seashore" has been issued by the Grand Trunk Railway System and copies may be had for the asking. The descriptive matter in the booklet is interesting and profusely illustrated with scenic views from direct photographs. Hotel accommodations are available to suit all pockets, the rates running from $10 per week to $10 per day. The special features are warm sea bathing and deep sea fishing. The district is within a night's ride from Montreal. Reduced fares are offered and first class train equipment will be at your service. Ask the Grand Trunk Agent in your city for a copy of the book.

THIS PLAY TELLS A GREAT TRUTH

"The Butterfly on the Wheel" Well Presented at Alexandra.

Thinking people last evening in witnessing the Percy Haswell performance of "The Butterfly on the Wheel" at the Alexandra Theatre, glimpsed for a few moments a great and important truth which lies beneath the story of the play. Earlier in the day the same truth was reflected in a different way through the lips of a leading preacher to thousands assembled in the great ecclesiastical congress in the city. The presentation in both cases was that of the great revolution of attitude which is overhauling the world, and the shifting of the different conceptions of convention. The spirit of the age is one of flux. Old things are indeed passing away and against the passive, the uncommitted, the rigid public opinion of a one-time generation is rising a new, a more constant and unshakable spirit of revolt.

This thought, which is brought out again and again in the play, lifts its flag from the class of more ordinary dramatic dealing with the same situations. The fact that the young wife of a British peer, guided by the exuberance of life and the indifference of her busy husband, is led by circumstances to an unbecoming liaison with a younger man, is not the main theme of the play. The main theme is the influence of public opinion, and the influence of public opinion, which publicity the young man and woman have, is not the main theme. The main theme is the influence of public opinion, and the influence of public opinion, which publicity the young man and woman have, is not the main theme.

The drama, "A Butterfly on the Wheel," which is excellently presented by Miss Haswell and her associates, tells a story of two lovers, one of whom seeks to win affection by great deeds, the other by a little of the more common means of persuasion. The latter is the more ambitious and conventional type of the play, and the former is the more original and unconventional type. The play is well presented and the acting is of a high quality.

Entertaining and instructive are the features offered by the Lyman H. Howe Company, at the Grand Opera House, this week. They are entirely different from the ordinary motion picture subject, and are given with facts that add greatly to the interest of the subject and scenery presented.

"FORTUNE HUNTER" CLEVER COMEDY

Well Acted Play Puts Shea's Summer Stock on New Level.

A captivating little comedy is "The Fortune Hunter," well known as "Pro-creative of laughter, yet possibly never staged with such atmospheric impression, or acted with so much fidelity as at Shea's this week. The presentation is the ideal of light summer comedy; it moreover, shows surprising perfection in stock work. The characters are splendidly, cleverly taken; each member of the company is admirably adapting to the part. The mountings are effective, due to their absolute correctness. A drug store in full operation, and a prescription department, and real bottles on the shelves, is one of the sets. A company playing it all a movement towards a broader, more realistic stage is gradually growing manifest.

THE GARDEN CONDUCTED BY RACHEL R. TODD M.D. PERGOLAS.

A Pergola is nothing more or less, than a string of arches connected together, so that, when covered with vines and flowering creepers, a cool and grateful shade is given.

Such a structure is suitable for covering a long walk or shading a sunny alley, and with a little careful planning, can be made a delightful retreat for a hot or sultry day. A pergola offers many opportunities for the exercise of individual tastes, and the ambitious gardener may use the different exposures and protections that one presents, for the trying out of many experiments. Vines may be planted both outside and inside, in shady situations and sunny. There is no reason why one cannot have three or four vines blooming at all seasons, by planting suitable species in special corners of the pergola. Always remember that it is not the structure itself that is to be admired, but the covering, so that the great essential is simplicity of design.

If too many poles are used, the pergola resolves itself into a mere dark tunnel through a mass of dense climbers whose beauties are not visible from all angles. This should be guarded against at all times. In building, build for permanency. This means several points to be looked after. The poles may wear out, long before the vines, because the constant dampness rots that portion which is buried in the earth. Therefore, if the arches are expected to last for years, it is necessary to provide some means by which the decayed poles can be removed, and new ones inserted, without disturbing the valuable climbers.

There is one excellent plan, successful with many people. Procure ordinary earthenware drain-pipes, two feet long, four-inch bore, into which, presently, the ends of each pole will be fixed. Dig out a trench sufficient to enable you to place, about five feet below the surface, a solid foundation, of old cobbles, stones, or broken bricks, or stones, or some such material, suitable for forming a permanent base on which to set the drain pipes. The foundation prevents the dampness from passing upwards through the base of the pole.

When, in later years, it becomes necessary to renew the poles you can dig out a trench for a few feet below the surface, and remove the poles from its bed of pebbles, and replace by a new one. I have explained at some length, so that a useful permanent building may be easily attained. Of course, the sets may be built, such as cement, or mortar or brick, but we are thinking, remember, of the useful and inexpensive method. Always use hardwood poles, ash or locust wood. Tomorrow, we will look at a few suitable vines for this garden decoration.

clouds of dust rising as the machines skid at the sharp curves. Another subject of interest is that depicting incidents in the whaling industry, a picturesque as well as perilous calling. The scenes like the audience on board a typical whaling vessel, as they proceed on a cruise in search of the leviathans of the deep. In the picture showing the "hippo" hunt, a party of hunters, with a number of natives, are seen following the trail through the African jungle until they reach the banks of a river. In the distance dark masses are seen looming above the surface of the water. An occasional uplifted head or jet of water spouted into the air shows that the hunters have discovered a "school" of hippopotami. Then the natives are seen plunging into the water and "beating" the animals to the shore. This is the signal for attack, and immediately after the natives bring a great river-horse to shore where the huge body is seen extended at full length. Marine scenes winter sports in Switzerland, a race between a hydro-plane and motor boats at Montre Carlo, a strenuous auto ride and animal studies are a few of the many good subjects presented in an entertaining manner. The program in its entirety is one of the best ever offered in this city, and should attract large audiences all week at the Grand, where a matinee is given every day.

PATTERN SERVICE NEWS FOR WOMEN

NO OTHER WAY

man eagerly scanning the distant house and grounds for the appearance of the man she wished to drag out of the pit he had dugged for himself. She fancied she saw a figure circling from one of the drawing room windows, which were of the French type and opened straight out on a grass lawn. Breathing a prayer for a chance in her task, she ran the few intervening yards to the boothouse, and hid in the alms form that crept out of the side, the building served as a summer house and dressing shed for polo players or baseball teams.

She was so intent on attaining her object, to remain unseen till Waverton was so near that he could not avoid her without literally running away—that she had no knowledge of the alms form that crept out of the side, the building served as a summer house and dressing shed for polo players or baseball teams.

Joe Brett, larder and village escapee, realized that Mrs. Waverton was waiting for someone. If so, it might be to his advantage if he could discover the object of this clandestine meeting; for by such means a poor man might put himself in the way of earning a dollar or two without undue exertion. Fearful of being seen against the luminous background of the lake, he nestled close to the foundation wall, and thus could not become aware, till retreat was impossible, that the other party to the rendezvous was accompanied by a dog, a dog that might be old and lame, but whose nose was as keen as a hound's.

"Please, please, Mrs. Waverton—Doris—do calm yourself!" he broke in, his utterance was husky, as if his fighting against some overpowering emotion. "I would have made any price for you, then give up, if my dear Mrs. Waverton, but try to realize that the depths of a woman's nature, a woman who is still your wife, who must ever remain the mother of your child."

She trembled in every limb, for the cold aloofness of these words, "Mrs. Waverton," argued ill for her achievement, but she forced herself to speak. "Claude," she said again, and her voice was strangely sweet and low.

CLOTH TEST!

Modern Methods of Testing Strength of Fabrics for Men's Clothes

INTERESTING EVENT

An interesting event at Hoberlin's Big Tailor Shop today will be the firm's regular test of cloths. This is done by a very intricately made machine, the same as used by both the British and United States Governments in testing the cloths for army and navy purposes. Hoberlin's used it in testing the fabrics submitted to them from the mills, as well as utilizing it for the benefit of the public by giving accurate information as the real textile strength per square inch of the various fabrics.

Serge Suitings on Trial

Today the firm propose to put their blue and black serges on test, and those who call can see exactly what the wearing qualities of the spring cloths will be. It is a most excellent method, and withal a very fair way of emphasizing that old adage of "test and try before you buy." The tests will be carried on at intervals during the day, and the public are cordially invited to be present. Visitors may have any cloth in the store put to the test if they desire, other than the lines here mentioned, and see exactly what their textile strength is per square inch. Each season these cloth tests create wonderful interest, and no man who regards values and qualities in the garments he buys should fail to be present. Today, at Hoberlin's, 151 Yonge street (inner window).

Yes! Kuntz's Old German Lager is my choice.

There's nothing to match that 'Old German' flavor, you know. And just watch how it sparkles when I pour it out. See the beautiful foam, too. You can't beat it. Kuntz's Old German has the class, alright. And it's put in Peacock Green bottles to prevent it from deteriorating when exposed to light. Better order a bottle yourself, old man.

ACUTE WEAKNESS ON LOCAL BOARD

Stocks Break to New Low Records in Sympathy With Outside Exchanges.

MANY DECLINES HERE

Bearish Gloom Deepens—As Usual Favorites Descend Downward Path.

Sentiment on Canadian exchanges on Monday was distinctly bearish. This feeling was a carry-over from Friday last, influenced by weakness on foreign exchanges in the interim. The opening sale on C.P.R. yesterday was eight points down from the close last Thursday, and a further decline of over five points brought the price to 213 3/4, a new low record for this year. Fortunately for Toronto speculators, little of the stock was held in this market. Montreal felt the squeeze badly, and losses on this issue undoubtedly brought liquidation in other issues. Brazilians were the only really active issues here. London pressure opened these down to 29 1/2, and further domestic realizing lowered the price to 28 before any recovery set in. With short coverings and a little buying from outside traders, quotations rallied to 28 1/2 at the close. Lincelneu and Steel Corporation were under strong pressure all day. The former declined five points, to 10 1/2, and steel sold below 4 1/2 on the Montreal exchange. Toronto rails were somewhat hard hit. This stock touched 12 1/2, a loss of about three points. With this species of semi-demoralization, every issue on the market was more or less adversely affected. Mackay and Twin City sold lower, but as few of these are now out on margin, the influence was not frequent at present.

MONTREAL STOCKS SLUMPED SHARPLY

Under Lead of C. P. R. Many Securities Showed Decided Weakness.

MONTREAL, June 2.—The unchecked decline in C.P.R., gaining fresh momentum under heavy liquidation from European sources, was the chief factor in the break in the Canadian stock market today. The break was the most spectacular of a general decline which followed as it did on a protracted decline which culminated temporarily in a slump of fairly severe proportions last night. It left the market in a decidedly nervous and unsettled condition. The downward movement which started early in the day under continued weakness of C.P.R. abroad, was continued practically without a check in the afternoon. In the last few minutes a number of the stocks which had felt the pressure most severely responded to a slight rally in C.P.R. at New York and scored substantial recoveries from the low of the day. At the close, however, the tone remained heavy and the outlook uncertain.

Dominated by C.P.R. The general market has fallen back so completely under the sway of C.P.R. that the immediate recovery here will depend entirely on the action of that stock on outside markets while the Canadian exchanges are closed tomorrow. The ease with which domestic issues responded to buying promoters by the Government and C.P.R.'s rally late in the day indicated the general attitude clearly enough.

Net losses at the close were 21 1/2 points, a loss of 10 1/2 points today. Richardson at 10 1/2 showed a loss of 5 1/2. Brazilians at 13 1/2 a loss of 4, and Textile at 7 1/2, a loss of 3 1/2, and Iron at 4 1/2, a loss of 2 1/2.

Total business, 14,475 shares; 900 mining shares, and $10,000 bonds.

GENERAL LIST ACTED WELL IN AFTERNOON

Erickson Perkins & Co. (J. G. Beatty) The stock market showed little rallying power after a session of great weakness, in which, under the influence of the Canadian Pacific, from the collapse in the Montreal market, and three points in Union Pacific and three points in others. On the whole, the general list gave a pretty good account of itself in the afternoon, and rallied, the small, were quite market is oversold and a good buying would occur on the receipt of any particularly good news. It is not a time to get too pessimistic. The main and the tide of traders have turned bearish, and a turn for the better, even the temporary, would seem to be near at hand.

Southern Pacific acted particularly well today. During the greater part of the session it held well above the opening price, and it closed much better than Union Pacific.

Reading also showed fair resistance in the late trading, as did steel.

Much of the weekly-margined trading element has probably been eliminated, and the technical position of stocks is better.

NEW YORK STOCKS DECLINE FURTHER

C. P. R. Was to Fore With Spectacular Slump of Thirteen Points.

FOREIGN HOLDERS SELL

Union Pacific Was Under Heavy Pressure Thruout the Session.

NEW YORK, June 2.—Heavy pressure was directed against stocks today and an increased volume of business, prices in many instances broke severely. Canadian Pacific, the exceptionally weak feature fell 13 points, a loss within a week of 23 points. Union Pacific declined 4 1/2. Reading 3. Amalgamated 3/4 and other standard issues 1 to 2 points. Over 30 stocks of Atchison, New York Central, Northern Pacific, Pennsylvania and Union Pacific are the most prominent, broke to the lowest quotations reached this year. The average price of active stocks fell to the lowest figure since 1909. The action of the market was determined largely by the attitude of foreign holders of American securities. The unpleasant impression made abroad, particularly in France, by the St. Louis and San. Francisco led to a jump in American securities in London during the holiday period here, in which time Canadian Pacific broke 9 points. When trading was resumed here 13 points. When trading was resumed here 13 points. When trading was resumed here 13 points.

Sales for London account, amounting to $0,000 or more shares were instrumental in forcing off prices sharply at the outset.

A Bear Raid. The weakness was accentuated by bear selling here and by insistent pressure against Union Pacific due to disappointment over the latest plans for dissolution of the Hamilton system. Reading also was under pressure, but Southern Pacific was relatively firm. There was evidence of liquidation during the early days and the undertone was feverish and unsettled to the end.

Another decline was shown in the 'originally report of European Copper stocks, which are 2500 tons lower than at the middle of May and 12,000 lower than a year ago. Exports of copper for May showed an increase of over 500,000 tons.

POOL AGREEMENTS NOT AGAINST LAW

Opinion of Late Senator Hoar Used in Steel Magnates' Defence.

NEW YORK, June 2.—(Can. Press.) Evidence that the late Senator George F. Hoar of Massachusetts, who framed the Sherman anti-trust law, wrote an opinion one year after its enactment which held pool agreements to be legal, was used today by the defense in the case against the steel magnates. The opinion, which was written in 1890, at the request of the manufacturers, who were accused of forming such a pool, was put in evidence by attorneys for the corporation in connection with testimony of Judge Gilbert H. Chase, chairman of the corporation to the effect that in the early days of the steel industry, it was supposed by steel manufacturers and lawyers that pool agreements to control prices were legal. The opinion was written by Hoar, who was a member of the House of Representatives and a member of the Senate.

DARE CIVIL WAR URGED LAVERGNE

Nationalist Lieutenant Tells of Advice He Gave to Pelletier.

QUEBEC, June 2.—Admitting that he had advised Hon. L. P. Pelletier, postmaster-general, to carry his opposition to the Borden naval aid bill even to the point of civil war, if that should be necessary, Armand Lavergne, the Nationalist lieutenant, yesterday at Montagny delivered an address to the Quebec members on the government side of the house; denouncing policies; denouncing England and her treatment of Canada in the past; denouncing almost everything in sight and out of it, and suggested nothing beyond an appeal to the people, which he thinks will be the panacea for every ill, alleged or otherwise, of which he complains.

NAVY FIGHT IN CHATEAUGUAY.

MONTREAL, June 2.—The death of James P. Brown, member of parliament for Chateauguay, throws open the Quebec constituency in which there is likely to be an interesting contest, as the Conservative party was defeated by a majority of only 40.

The naval aid bill will likely be an important issue in the campaign in Chateauguay.

ISSUES WARNING TO GARBAGE PROWLERS

Commissioner Wilson has commenced to swing the big stick over the heads of those who throw broken glass on the streets or goking the garbage cans for pick ups.

Will Take the Holiday. There will be no business done at the city hall today. Mayor Hocken yesterday announced to the council that a full public holiday would be granted in honor of King George's birthday.

THE STOCK MARKET AT A STANDSTILL

Trading Was Very Light—Montreal Weakness Sent Some Stocks Down

GENERAL LIST STEADY

Absence of Long Date Commitments Has Been Strengthening Factor.

In the face of extreme weakness on other exchanges, the mining market yesterday was exceedingly steady. On the Standard Exchange trading was pretty much at a standstill. There were few buyers, and equally as few sellers, and a preponderance in either direction would have stirred prices accordingly. Such issues as Crown Reserve, Hollinger and LaRocque were influenced by the general stock market weakness at Montreal and sold lower. McKimley-Darragh advanced further and made a new low record for some time.

FLEMING WANTS HIS PROPERTY ANNEXED

Mayor Hocken and Controller McCarthy had a conference with R. J. Fleming in the mayor's office over the annexation of Mr. Fleming's property at Bathurst street and St. Clair avenue. The conference was enlarged to an informal discussion of the annexation of sufficient territory to the north of the old belt line to provide much needed sites for factories.

Receipts of live stock at the City Market were six carloads, comprising 116 cattle, 68 hogs, 5 sheep and 23 calves.

At the Union Yards there were 54 cars—1740 cattle, 15 hogs, 109 sheep, 29 calves and 17 horses.

MONTREAL LIVE STOCK.

At the Montreal Stock Yards, West End Market, receipts of live stock for the week ended May 31, 1913, were 1400 cattle, 40 sheep and lambs, 3800 hogs and 1400 calves.

Receipts of live stock at the City Market were six carloads, comprising 116 cattle, 68 hogs, 5 sheep and 23 calves. There was a fairly active trade while it lasted at last Thursday's prices, quality considered.

The market for sheep was lower with good demand for spring lambs, at from $6 to $12 each, as to also. Choice calves were scarce, but the supply of common was ample.

The tone of the market for hogs remains firm under a good demand from packers and sales of selected lots were made at $10.50 to $10.75; sows, at $9.15 to $9.25, and stags, at $4 to $5 per cwt., weighed off the cars.

RAINFALL CAUSES BREAK IN WHEAT

Moisture, While Not General, is Sufficient to Frighten Bulls.

CHICAGO, May 2.—Wheat declined sharply, chiefly because of rain in Western Kansas and in parts of Oklahoma. The market closed weak at a net loss of 1 1/2c to 1 3/4c.

Altho the rain southwest did not appear to have been general, the effect on the wheat pit was instantaneous and decisive for the day.

Resting orders to buy at a decline rallied the provision market. At first, however, the list was under considerable pressure on account of the heavy run of hogs.

Magnificent Seamless Wilton Rugs Newly Imported

Perfection in weaving is attained in the production of these wonderful Seamless Rugs. They have absolutely no rival, excepting the very high-priced and wonderful conceptions in fine Persian Rugs from which they are copied. These goods are made exclusively for the Robert Simpson Company, and are copied directly from the choicest specimens obtainable from the east, representing amongst other types Kirmanshah, Saruk, Serapi, Feraghan, Shiraz and Ispahan designs. It is quite impossible to adequately describe the wonderful color effects produced in these beautiful rugs. Notable amongst them is an exquisite reproduction of an old sixteenth-century Ispahan Rug, in the most delightful blending of soft gray, blues and dull yellows. This same design and color is made in the finest quality of six-frame Brussels that it is possible to weave, woven entirely without seam. Sizes and prices are as follows:
