"We shall be far away from every where," so Vivienne wrote, "and it will be perfectly delightful. Roger has it for himself. We shall have started by the time you receive this letter, and I will write again when we arrive. You can't tell how happy I am, but Patience, I hope you will be just as happy, for from what you told me there seems to be no doubt of Jack's love for you."

"You must write me a long letter, and tell me all about it," so the letter went on, "for it will be a long time before we meet again. And, in the meanwhile, you will have to put up with papa's vagaries as best you can. Thank heaven I have escaped from that. On the awful life that we used to lead, Patience! I thank Heaven every day that I have escaped from it for ever."

"It was not until she was nearly ready that she thought herself of Jack's letter. It had been lying unopened upon her dressing table. She seized it up and carried it with her as she sped from the house, making her swift way, heedless of the wind and the driving rain, across the lawn to the little gate which communicated with the park of Radham House."

"What does it mean?" meant Patience. She was looking at a frugal breakfast, which had been brought to her room by Sarah. "The whole body exists by reason of the transference of fluids through its component parts. Up to a certain point the body has power to object to destructive elements, but this power is limited. When it happens that the body is loaded with wastes and poisons which it can't eliminate, fermentation, decay, and germs life run riot through the blood."

"Such a medicine is the greatest possible assurance to every man and woman of health, spirits and contentment. Grand results are achieved, and famous cures made every day by Dr. Hamilton's Pills, as this letter proves. From Newfoundland, Miss Lillian Anthony, of Upper Gullies, Cantican Bay writes: 'In praise of Dr. Hamilton's Pills, I must say that I have used them with grand success for three years. They never fail to cure me of indigestion or constipation. Formerly my face was full of pimples, but now my complexion is clear and rosy. In more ways than I care to mention Dr. Hamilton's Pills helped me, they would be good for every woman to use.'"

HOUSE GOWN OF COLEEN POPLIN. Empire modes which characterize fashions of the day are seen at their best in house gowns and negligees. Here is a very pale blue shade of coleen poplin, a silk and cotton fabric with a soft, rich lustre, is used for the skirt, which is pressed in wide, second-hand pleats. No pleats graduating in width from an inch at the top to two inches at the hem. The skirt is long at the front and sides and trails some half a yard at the back. The waist is made entirely of Valenciennes insertions and fine embroidery bindings, each band of embroidery headed with a row of small flowers. Surplice lines are described in both the back and front, and the neck is finished simply with a standing fall of the lace. Pale blue standing ribbons rosetted in the back describe the empire waist line and finish at the stomach. The long sleeves extend to the wrists and are finished with a long narrow band that extends below the knees.

needed a friend, one who might steer her through the maze of intricacies upon which she had entered. And here was one, the truest friend she could desire, ready to come to her assistance. She would never marry him. She repeated this to herself over and over again. She would not tell him how much it was for his sake that she was sacrificing herself, for if he knew of her sacrifice he would surely take matters into his own hands and precipitate the catastrophe, which his enemy had plotted against her. But Jack might help her in her other trouble, and it would be good, so good to see him again. She knew that her action was illogical, yet it was feminine and very human. So, her mind made up, or rather without giving herself time to change it, she hurried to the village, luckily at no great distance from Radham Lodge and down the road to Jack's house. She met him at once, and saying that she would meet him that afternoon at four o'clock at the appointed place. This would give him plenty of time, she reflected, for the morning was not yet far advanced, and the journey from London was not a long one. She returned to Barrington Lodge with the knowledge that she had taken a step towards relieving the assistance she needed, and, above all, she had seen Jack. (To be continued.)

The case is described as an extremely light one. Doherty had been under observation for some time. All the cases of vaccination in the Scotch house have been satisfactory and no quarantine will soon be removed from there. With the exception of Doherty all have been satisfactory in the Ingham house and it is likely they also will soon be released.

ROTHESAY COLLEGE CLOSING WAS ENTIRELY SUCCESSFUL

Large Number Present; Excellent Programme Carried Out.

Rothsay, June 11.—The sixteenth annual closing of the Rothsay College for Boys this afternoon was notable for the many prominent persons in attendance, the large number of visitors from different sections of the province, the success of the athletic committee, and the excellent programme of the principal, I. E. Moore.

The manufacture of the afternoon was the sports and the manner in which they were conducted, the promptness in calling the events and the good feeling shown in the contests reflected great credit upon the athletic committee—F. Malcolm McAvity, James W. Philips, Stanley E. Calhoun and James P. Adams. Their programme was complete and intelligible.

The senior pole vaulting was a fine contest which was unfortunately marred by an accident to James Philips, one of the most popular boys in the school, who had a bad fall because of a weak vaulting pole breaking. His wrist was broken as a consequence, and he was taken to the hospital. The City Cornet Band was in attendance and provided their usual sweet music.

After the inspection the presentation of prizes was made. Rev. Dr. Raymond was the first speaker and after a few opening remarks called upon Principal Moore to give his annual report. The principal after extending a warm welcome to the visitors referred to the slight decrease in the number of pupils this year, because of the increased fees.

He commented upon the good health of the school and in this connection paid a high compliment to the matron, Mrs. Stevens, who looked after the welfare of the boys so thoroughly.

He concluded by thanking the old boys for their interest in the school and in asking those present to say a good word for the school and its needs, adding that he had today received a check for $60 from Dr. W. W. White for a trophy, the competition for which he had not decided upon, but would announce after consultation with the old boys and the senior class.

At a meeting of the Old Boys' Society in the evening W. G. Fugley was elected president, F. R. Taylor vice-president, H. Mackay secretary-treasurer, J. L. Learmont assistant treasurer and an advisory committee consisting of W. H. Harrison, Dr. S. L. Emerson, C. G. Porter and Malcolm McAvity was appointed. There was a discussion as to the best way to award the prize, made possible by the generosity of Dr. W. W. My friends told me I looked like a living ghost and advised me to try Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. They are the greatest pills I ever used and I can recommend them to all sufferers."

Montreal, June 11.—Two men lost their lives tonight as a result of a drunken row in a row boat on the river opposite Leogant Point. The victims are Alfred Foucault, 18 years old, and Arthur Cole, 18. FINANCIAL and COMMERCIAL

PROFESSIONALISM IS DOMINANT FEATURE

The Pools Getting in Their Work--Rumors From Washington--Rich Men's Liquidation at an End--Will Call Money go up to 100 per Cent Next Fall?

(New York Commercial) Professionalism, is dominant in the security market and promises to remain so for the greater part of the summer. Trading during the latter part of last week--the days of recovery from the slump at the beginning--was not helped greatly by outside buying. On the other hand, the public has not stood aloof so obstinately as formerly, and there has been some good buying of low priced stocks at levels that discount any calamity the most fertile imagination can forecast. Among investors an excellent impression has been made by the improvement in grain crop prospects during the last ten days. These are far from brilliant. The non-official estimate on the Kansas yield of wheat, for instance, are not "bull" arguments in securities. But security investors are hearing in mind the large reserves of wheat from last year's big crop. Cotton calculations have resolved themselves into a matter of weather. It is assumed generally that even with the most friendly conditions, however, the crop will fall short of meeting the world's demands. But the probabilities are that, so far as cotton figures in the traffic of the southern railroads, the latter have little to fear. Indeed under President Finley, of the Southern Railway Co. is mistaken, a reduction in traffic in that part of the country would be a boon in one sense until the roads are better equipped to handle the business. The cotton market believes that there has been some deterioration in condition since May 25, the date of the government estimate of 70.8 per cent, but the latest advances as to the weather throughout the belt are favorable to the plant rather than otherwise. In the great industrial markets the week has witnessed a rapid growth of better sentiment the iron and steel industry and the copper trade showing lively symptoms of recovery. The iron and steel few days substantial buying by Dutch interests has reflected the faith in our industrial future held by one of the most conservative groups of European financiers.

It is intimated in Wall Street that the pools are getting in their work and that something is to be done to lift prices. This particularly is true in industrial. The stocks of some of these are selling on an 8 and 10 per cent basis, and the promoters think this is too cheap. It was said yesterday that some selling orders have been withdrawn with the idea of permitting these stocks to make as good a recovery as possible. The bears say they are glad to see the uptown crowd, it is a better market to sell on.

What is denominated as "the uptown crowd," a semi-professional element, is inclined to be bullish. It asserts that the rally is the result of manipulation, there being no new public interest in the market, and that it is an impossibility for the advance to hold. This element has made quite a lot of money on the bear side, and finds it hard to change its ideal at once.

It is admitted that the bull contingent in the Street, if so may be called, is better organized than for some time past, and then its influence is greater. Crop advances from the northwest are more favorable, and this had a tendency to make those who are favorable to an advance in stocks take heart. The condition of the Kansas crop though, is uncertain as yet.

The fact that bond sales are so slow is worrying Wall Street considerably. The need of a good bond market is felt more than at any time for many years. Millions of dollars' worth are for sale, with no call for them, while the railroads are waiting for a favorable opportunity to put out millions more.

The Street was filled with stories yesterday of new railroad deals, but it must be said that not much attention was paid to them. If the Morgan interests gain control of Chesapeake & Ohio and give the latter control of the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton, and if the New York Central controls the Delaware & Hudson, there is no doubt in the minds of many men in the financial district that the situation will be changed for the better--but these things have not come to pass as yet.

The news sent from Washington, that the president was determined to bring about the prosecution of six coal-carrying roads, did not arouse much enthusiasm in Wall Street. The roads named are the Reading, Lackawanna, Jersey Central, New York, Susquehanna & Western, the Erie and the Lehigh Valley. These roads own or control 75 per cent of the developed and undeveloped anthracite coal fields, and it is said that the bill in equity department of justice has in course of preparation for the dissolution of what is known as the great coal-carrying combination will be filed at Philadelphia next week.

What is known as "the rich men's liquidation" has come to an end in the opinion of some of the most experienced brokers in the market. The question asked however, in this connection, is whether there remains much buying power in the market. Some traders are proceeding on the theory that stocks now being sold at prices established by the voluntary liquidation of the holdings of the wealthy, without regard to earning capacity, yield or value.

What about the money market this fall? Predictions have been made that call rates may reach 100 per cent, and it is asserted that the banks already are making preparations against such a contingency.

certain conditions, to the Nova Scotia Historical Society. Up to this time it has been in the custody of the Dalhousie University and was but seldom consulted. Meanwhile two of the original trustees, Sir Adams Archibald and J. J. Stewart, have died. The academy has been reorganized by the appointment of G. W. T. Irving and Joseph A. Chisholm.

The trustees have decided to transfer the custody of the collection to the historical society, which will house it in the province building under regulations to be made by the trustees. The collection will thus become more easily available to historical investigators.

Workmen employed by the city were sent yesterday to secure some timbers from the old South Rodney wharf to be used in the construction of a driveway over Dunn's wharf, as recently decided by the board of works. G. S. Mayes, however, objected to the timbers being taken, as he has a quantity of apparatus belonging to the dredge Beaver lying on the wharf. Instructions have been issued by Ald. McGoldrick, chairman of the board, to take out the timber whether Mr. Mayes is willing or not.

PREDICTS A 3-DAY ATLANTIC LINER

Monster Ship Costing $17,000,000 Going 40 Miles An Hour Not Many Years Off.

NEW YORK, June 12--R. Oldham, a naval engineer, believes that the limit in the size of ocean-crossing steamers has been by no means reached, and in perhaps less than 25 years the three-day trans-Atlantic liner will be going some.

The rate of speed will be forty miles an hour, and the length of the ship 1,200 feet, only about 400 feet less than the length of the Lusitania and Mauretania. The beam of the coming monster will be 125 feet and her depth 81 feet.

There will be six masts, with 400, 000 feet of heating surface and twelve smokestacks, continues the engineer. "A special feature will be extra large pumps, with power, with boilers and pumps, located well above the water line.

To compensate for this loss in freight space the engineer suggests an extra tax on the traveller of $25, which he would doubtless be glad to pay. The chief peril in navigating this coming mastodon product of man's genius would be for smaller craft, which might happen to get in its way. The big ship while going at top speed would exert an energy equal to forty railroad trains, or practically 3,200, 000 tons.

The measurements of such a vessel would be: Length ... 1,200 feet. Breadth ... 125 feet. Depth ... 81 feet. Draught ... 35 feet. Gross tonnage ... 67,000 tons. Passenger accommodation ... 4,700. Engines ... 117,000 h.p. Speed per hour ... 40.5 nautical miles. Cost ... $17,000,000.

Albany, N. Y., June 11--The senate today passed the New York city recount bill over the vote of Acting Mayor McGowan of New York city. It goes now to the governor for approval.

The Man--Ah, and I suppose you trained him by kindness? The Kid--Yes, kindness and a club.

Don't Mistray Nor Forget. From a critter who's provoked around; Who has breathed the air of the country. And knows where the creeker's found.

Go ramble thee forth--up hill and down--Go wander after the critter for the day; Go rest in the grove or list to the brook, Or sit 'neath the beechen plum tree.

Go milk the red cow, or take up the scythe, Or pitch the new hay with delight; Go hoe the young corn or fuddle the hogs, Or gaze at the moon half the night.

But keep it before you by day and by night, And don't let it slip from your mind; That the glad bundle bee has a stinger for you, And it's never before, but behind.

KAISER'S COURT SECRETS CAUSE A GRAVE SCANDAL

Disclosures of the Orgies of the "Knights of the Round Table" Create an Astonishing Sensation in Berlin--Germany's Scandal Said to be Worse Than Dreyfus Case.

BERLIN, June 12--With the impending fall of "Our Philip," as Emperor William has been wont to style Prince Philip zu Eulenburg, his intimate and familiar and the threatened disclosures involved in his last stand for respect before the world in the prosecution of Maximilian Harden, the Emperor's scandal has been let loose whose malicious fumes have reached the very foot of the throne. It promises to be in the way of sensational disclosures of German court secrets what the Dreyfus affair was to the French army.

The first breath of the trouble came on Nov. 24, 1906, when Maximilian Harden, a noted publicist and friend of Bismarck, published in his paper, the Zukunft, a cryptic dialogue, veiled to the uninitiated, but sufficiently illuminating to the Round Table Knights to strike terror to their hearts. No one had the courage to breach the matter to the Emperor, and finally the Crown Prince brought the matter to his father's attention. The Emperor believed that Harden was actuated by personal malice against Eulenburg until within the past few weeks, when his eyes were opened to the detestable practices of his associates.

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY ENDORSES CHURCH UNION

Yesterday's Sessions Enlivened by Interesting Debates--Appointment of Dr. Gordon Brings Out Spirited Discussion on Orthodoxy.

Montreal, June 11--There was a storm at the Presbyterian General Assembly today over the appointment of Rev. Alexander R. Gordon, M. A., of Monikie, Dundee, Scotland, to the chair of old testament literature at Montreal Presbyterian College. It was the old, old question, "Is he orthodox?" Dr. Sedgewick felt that it was with great pain that he must withhold his vote on this appointment as he had his doubts as to the views held by Dr. Gordon on scripture. He based his doubts on an article which appeared in the Hibbert Journal on religious value of the book of Genesis. One might as well question the religious value of the Holy Gospel. From what he could gather Dr. Gordon regarded the book of Genesis as a mass of myth and legend. He admitted that the article was pervaded with a most excellent spirit, but he wondered whether Dr. Gordon was the right man to teach the young men. He felt it on his conscience that he must make this protest. After brief speeches by Dr. Day, of Simcoe, and Rev. Mr. Campbell, who declared that Dr. Gordon was not a radical, Principal Patrick announced that he held the same views as Dr. Gordon, and taught them as they are taught in all colleges but one. He said he knew professors who taught their students the direct opposite of what they wanted them to believe. Dr. Gordon's appointment would never be regretted.

church I should not be in that church today." The assembly then adjourned to resume the debate tomorrow.

The steps taken by the union committee of the Presbyterian church in conjunction with the committees of the Methodist and Congregational churches was quickly endorsed by the General Assembly at the conclusion of a memorable debate tonight by an overwhelming vote. Principal Patrick used the debate in a powerful speech in which he replied to the objections that had been raised. The amendment proposed by Dr. McKay of Montreal, was withdrawn.

SPORTY CLERK STOLE $35,000

Wine and Women Caused the Downfall of August Dohm, Confidential Clerk to Big New York Firm.

NEW YORK, June 10--Expensive wines and extravagant women, his own wife excluded, caused the downfall of August Dohm, confidential bookkeeper for S. Benmann & Bros., of Sixth avenue who was arrested charged with stealing on a systematic plan about $35,000 from his employers. The discovery of the thefts also resulted in the dismissal of the cashier, Miss Tillie French, of No. 408 West Forty-eighth street, but the police have ascertained that Dohm was lavishing the stolen money upon women of the Tenderloin, and especially upon one who is known as "Miss Williams."

'HELD OUT' CASH IN MAKING DEPOSITS

The specific charge against Dohm is the theft of $30,000 the difference between the sum of $1,088, which he deposited in the bank, and the amount that he should have deposited twenty-six months of that salary of $50, but of late has been squandering ten times that amount. His wife thought that in addition to his salary he received an income from a second-hand furniture business on Third avenue in which, he told her, he was interested. Dohm's employees never suspected him, as he had frequently told them he was not obliged to work, and that he had fallen their some time ago to a large estate in Germany.

CLIPPER SHIP FOR THE SUMMER MONTHS

Steamer Yale Coming to the Boston-St. John Route.

On July 1 the Eastern Steamship Company, it is said, are going to place the palatial new steamer Yale on the Boston and St. John route. This will be good news to the people traveling to the "Hub." The Governor Cobb and Calvin Austin will do the inside service, calling at Portland and Eastport for freight business. The Yale will make three direct trips a week during the months of July and August between Boston and St. John and it is said she will do it in about twelve hours. As a great number of tourists are expected this way during the hot season in the United States, if there is any, the Yale's quick voyage will no doubt be popular for those getting out of the stuffy cities into the cool breezes of New Brunswick's shores.

BANK WAS TOO AMBITIOUS

The Sovereign, of Toronto, Has Met Serious Losses Through Over Ambitious Management.

TORONTO, June 12--The annual meeting of the Sovereign Bank of Canada was held yesterday afternoon when the shareholders met to discuss the annual report. The new management decided to wipe out the bank's reserve fund and also to reduce the total capitalization by about 25 per cent, thus reducing it to $3,000,000. The bank is at present sound with every prospect of a prosperous financial future. The six per cent dividend is to be continued. President Jarvis stated it has been found necessary to write off some $700,000 for debts and for depreciation in securities $150,000 and from bank premises account $48,100. In addition to this $841,100 will be set aside in the contingent fund for accounts which are in liquidation or in which there is a large element of doubt and a further contingent fund of $800,000 will be provided in respect to certain unsatisfactory advances, the outcome of which are at present by no means clear. To do this, it has been found necessary to appropriate the whole of the rest fund, amounting to $1,125,500 and to take $1,000,000 from capital, leaving the bank with a paid up capital of $3,000,000. After this has been done there will remain $25,222.50 to be carried forward to the credit of profit and loss for the year. The nominal profit shown as a result of operations for the year ended April 30 was $285,000. President Jarvis sketches the present state of affairs to the circumstance that the bank has been too ambitious. So far as the future of the bank is concerned the president points out that the bank has a fully paid up capital of $3,000,000, which is absolutely intact, while in the special contingent fund it has a nucleus of a rest account which in a few years is likely to assume respectable proportions. The bank has throughout Ontario and Quebec a large and valuable business. The country branches, as a whole, have been well selected, and the managers undoubtedly have the confidence of the farming and mercantile communities.

CANADIAN FIVE-MILE RECORD LOWERED.

TORONTO, June 10—Tom Shipman of the Gordon Harrier Club, Montreal, finished third in the five mile race at the athletic meet held at Hanlan's Point, Saturday...

The last event on the programme was the three mile match race between Longboat and Nebrich, which Longboat won after a hot contest in the last three hundred yards...

Nebrich took the lead and held it for the first mile, which was done in slow time. During the second mile the runners alternated in the lead.

Nebrich seemed to be on even terms with the Canadian who was declared to be the winner. A dozen yards from the finish Nebrich seemed to be on even terms with the Indian, but in his last stride Longboat lunched forward and won by the narrowest margin.

Twenty-eight men faced the starter in the five mile race. Shipman took the lead and set such a hot pace that some of the runners were hopelessly behind on the first lap.

The first mile was covered under five minutes, and by this time half the field had been lapped or retired; the three miles was covered in fifteen minutes, and at this stage of the race it was seen that only four runners were to figure in the race.

Shipman, who had led all the way; Fred Meadows, Tom Coley, and Jack Tait, all close order. About ten other runners still hung on, to two or three hundred yards behind, among them being W. Kerr and A. Morrison of the Gordons.

During the fourth mile Shipman tried to get away from the men who were so closely following him, but without success. The time for four miles was twenty minutes. The crowd now realized there was a chance of breaking the record and the excitement became intense.

The fifth mile saw Tait fall behind, and the race was between Meadows, Coley and Shipman, who was still setting the pace. These three men were running together so closely that a blanket would have covered them all, and not until the last hundred yards was reached, did their positions alter, as all three men started to sprint for the finish.

Meadows taking the lead, closely followed by Coley, who passed him in the last twenty yards, winning the race with Meadows second and Tom Shipman third, and establishing a new Canadian record of 20 minutes 45 seconds. Shipman himself was within the record.

ENGLISH COLLEGIANS DECLINE. NEW HAVEN, Conn., June 11—It is officially announced at Yale that a letter received a few days ago from Oxford University, stated that the challenge of the American universities, Yale and Harvard, for dual game would not be accepted.

The letter says that the athletes in both English universities are very keen on the idea of international sports and are much disappointed that there is a failure to have a meeting this year.

They hope, however, that next spring, before the Olympic games in London, the men of the two universities may meet, and later also in the London games.

Big Meet in Picton. In Picton, where they raise college presidents, preachers and politicians, there is a wide-awake athletic club which will hold a big field meet of maritime provinces athletes on Dominion Day, July 1, at the grounds of the local athletic club and F. M. C. A. have invited all participants and some runners should be present.

The prizes are silver cups and gold medals and it is hoped to see some of them come to St. John.

Athletes May Be Reinstated. Halifax, June 11—At the last meeting of the M. P. A. A. it was decided to appoint a special committee of three to look into the applications for reinstatement into the amateur ranks of the many who had set aside the rules of the association and were the consequence suspended. This committee met yesterday, when applications were considered. A majority of these were recommended for reinstatement and await the approval of the president, J. C. Lithgow, who returns to the city early next week.

The applications of these, Percy Haining, of Hillsdale, St. John; Hinton, of St. John, and Paul Durrant, Summerside, were recommended for reinstatement; Albert Finamore, on condition that he is not playing professional ball in Maine; F. G. Hamilton, on August 1; Hugh Dainoff on receipt of correct affidavit; Aubrey Colwell on August 1; if correct affidavit is filed; James Foley, on July 1; Wm. McIntyre, Dan Ferdy, Joe McElroy, Murray Andrews, Harry Merson, Edgar E. Thorne, Geo. Paris, Maurice Dyer, G. Tingler, P. J. Gallagher, Wm. Wood, E. Balsar, E. McKie, N. Thomas, Charles Smith, M. C. Williams, some runners, B. L. Steeves, Geo. Balsar, C. Bourard, H. Holmer, E. D. Munson, Daly and Paris. There seems to be no doubt on the part of the committee that a large majority, perhaps will meet the sanction of the president.

COLLECTING LAST BUFFALO HERD

Seventeen cars, containing nearly 200 buffalo of the famous Allard herd, the largest on the continent, passed through Great Falls yesterday, says the Great Falls Tribune of May 31, en route from Ravalli county to Banff, where they will be kept by the Canadian government...

When Mr. Allard died, his partner, Michel Pablo, began to sell the herd, a few at a time, and most of the best specimens of bison in eastern zoological gardens and private preserves in the east come from this herd.

When the prospective opening of the Flat-head reservation foretold the destruction of the two ranges that the animals had enjoyed and made it evidently impossible to preserve the herd intact, Mr. Pablo naturally turned to Mr. Eaton for assistance in disposing of his valuable band.

COLLECTING LAST BUFFALO HERD

Seventeen cars, containing nearly 200 buffalo of the famous Allard herd, the largest on the continent, passed through Great Falls yesterday, says the Great Falls Tribune of May 31, en route from Ravalli county to Banff, where they will be kept by the Canadian government...

When Mr. Allard died, his partner, Michel Pablo, began to sell the herd, a few at a time, and most of the best specimens of bison in eastern zoological gardens and private preserves in the east come from this herd.

When the prospective opening of the Flat-head reservation foretold the destruction of the two ranges that the animals had enjoyed and made it evidently impossible to preserve the herd intact, Mr. Pablo naturally turned to Mr. Eaton for assistance in disposing of his valuable band.

MANY JUNE BRIDES

First Summery June Day Brings Good Crop of Interesting Nuptial Functions.

Today was fixed upon by many happy couples to make their entry into the ranks of matrimony and it was therefore noted with joy that the day is bright, warm and sunny. Both morning and afternoon coaches with fluttering white ribbons were to be seen passing to and fro bearing guests and principals to these happy events. The day could not have been better chosen as it is really about the first that has had the "leaky June" appearance.

Schofield-Inches

A society wedding which has been anticipated with interest, takes place in St. Andrew's Presbyterian church at 4.30 o'clock this afternoon, when Miss Mary Kingsbury Inches, daughter of Dr. P. R. Inches, becomes the wife of Harold Cowan Schofield.

The church has been prettily decorated for the occasion, and the ceremony will be performed by the pastor, Rev. David Lang, assisted by Rev. A. Gordon Dickie. The bride, who will be given away by her father, will be wearing in an artistic creation of white silk with trimmings of lace and long veil caught with orange blossoms, and will carry a bouquet of white roses.

Miss Constance Inches, the bride's sister, will be maid-of-honor, and will wear a dainty gown of blue, with hat of corresponding color.

The bridesmaids will be Miss Louise McMillan and Miss Winifred Barker. Both will be costumed in white, with hats to correspond, and having just a touch of pink. Like the maid-of-honor, they will carry bouquets of pale pink roses.

Paul Longley will act as best man. The ushers will be Henry Stetson, Henry Schofield, Kenneth, Cyrus, and Errol Inches.

At the conclusion of the ceremony a reception will be held at the home of the bride's parents, and after luncheon the newly married couple will leave by the C. P. R. for a wedding trip to New York and other American cities.

The bride's travelling costume is a tailor-made suit of navy blue, with hat of corresponding color, and will carry a shower bouquet of white carnations.

The maid-of-honor will be gowned in white silk trimmed with ribbon and lace and will carry pink roses.

The little flower girl's costume will also be of white silk with trimmings of ribbon and lace and she will carry a basket of sweet peas.

Luncheon will be served at the conclusion of the ceremony and the young couple will leave by the C. P. R. for Montreal, where they will make their home.

Among the numerous wedding gifts may be mentioned a beautiful cut glass fruit bowl from the bride's Sunday school class in Queen Square Methodist church, and a substantial cheque from the groom's mother.

While the bride's many friends will regret her removal from the city, they unite in wishing her every happiness in her new home in the Canadian metropolis.

Our Bargain Sale of Handsomely Tailored Garments offers many inducements to ladies planning summer trips.

JUST A WORD OR TWO, LADIES, by way of reminder about the sale of our ready-made clothing stock, which is proceeding briskly from day to day by reason of first-class goods at prices very considerably below the ordinary. Women with even the commonest traits of thrift and shopping instinct see at a glance that our garments are most unusually good value; the materials are modish and the models coincident with correct patterns as sent out from New York and Paris. We explained some time ago the why and wherefore of this sweeping clearance—bad weather and slow sales—but since the days have improved some, and as summer trips grow nearer, a decided boom has developed. Early selections are therefore advised.

These garments are sold at low prices for no fault; it's purely and simply a matter of bargains because of the backward weather.
