LITVINOFF'S SUSPICIOUS OF POLISH FAITH

Says Poland Must Be Watched in Case of Armistice

Anxious for Peace — Bolsheviks Advance Through Armenia — Holding Up Shipments of War Materials.

Copenhagen, July 29—(Associated Press)—Maxim Litvinoff, the Bolshevik assistant foreign minister, in an interview today insisted that Poland had in previous negotiations with Russia, shown herself crafty and unfaithful.

"Moreover," Litvinoff added, "in face of the lessons already learned, we cannot rely upon assurances, even of the great powers. We are firmly resolved not to impose harsh terms on Poland and do not intend to abandon the cherished principles of the self-determination of peoples because of the fortune of war favored us."

Litvinoff claimed that Russia had given generous and honorable terms to Estonia, Georgia and Lithuania when she stood victoriously over those states, thereby showing ourselves the true friend of small nations.

Litvinoff continued, "In face of the lessons already learned, we cannot rely upon assurances, even of the great powers. We are firmly resolved not to impose harsh terms on Poland and do not intend to abandon the cherished principles of the self-determination of peoples because of the fortune of war favored us."

DESIGNATED FOR MISSIONARY WORK IN DISTANT HONAN

Impressive Service in St. Andrew's Church Last Evening — Miss Eleanor Galbraith Goes as Missionary Nurse.

Miss Eleanor Galbraith, who is to sail in August for China, where she will take up her new work as medical missionary in North Honan, under the Presbyterian Foreign Mission Board, was solemnly designated as missionary in a brief but deeply impressive service conducted in St. Andrew's church last night. Miss Galbraith was born in Lorneville and for a considerable time made her home in St. John. She trained for a nurse in a United States hospital and after graduating became the head of one of the departments of the hospital. Hearing of the need of missionary nurses in China, she felt the call to give her life to the work there, where the need was greatest, and after negotiations with the Presbyterian Foreign Mission Board she took a three months' course of despatch training in Toronto and was accepted as a missionary and designated for medical work in North Honan.

Rev. P. S. Dowling presided at the service last night, conducting the opening devotions, assisted by Rev. Mr. Beris. During the service appropriate hymns were sung and Finlay Campbell was heard with splendid effect in the solo, "Send Thine O Lord, to Every Place."

Rev. Mr. Dowling, in telling of Miss Galbraith's offering of herself for missionary work, said that the district to which she was going was that in which the former minister of St. Andrew's church, Rev. Dr. MacVicar, was doing such excellent work.

The order of service for the designation of missionaries was read by Rev. Moorhead Legate. When Mr. Legate had repeated the prayer of designation and extended to Miss Galbraith the right hand of fellowship, Mrs. James McTavish, in the absence of Mrs. John Thoms,

ST. JOHN'S GREATEST MERCANTILE EVENT ENDS SATURDAY

Saturday noon marks the closing hour of St. John's Greatest Mercantile Event which is Oak Hall's Annual Mid-Summer sale. Oak Hall will be open on Friday evening until 10 o'clock, and as the store-wide reductions now in force will end Saturday, it is to the best interests of those who have not already taken advantage of this opportunity to do so without further delay.

Oak Hall are strongly emphasizing the fact that the economic opportunities this year are unusually attractive because the prices are marked down from original prices that represent the narrowest margin of profit on which this business ever attempted to operate, so of course this accrues to the benefit of the customers. For information of interest concerning this great event see another page of this paper.

Rev. J. A. MacKegan, representing the Foreign Mission Board then addressed Miss Galbraith extending the greetings of the church and of the board. He told of the opportunity that awaited her in North Honan, one of the two mission fields in China for which the Presbyterian Church in Canada has made itself responsible.

Speaking of those who would be associated with her in Honan, Mr. MacKegan said that all the men from that mission who had been eligible for military service had volunteered and gone overseas in the Great War and one had made the supreme sacrifice. He said that Miss Galbraith would be associated with devoted workers of the type of Doctor Menzies, who recently gave his life in defence of women missionaries.

SUNDAY SCHOOL WORKERS MEET

Sackville, N.B., July 28.—The exercises which are being held here in connection with the summer school of methods for the Sunday school workers in the maritime provinces were continued this morning when devotional exercises were led by Rev. P. M. Milligan of Sydney (N.S.), after which Mr. Milligan conducted a study of New Testament setting forth the values of New Testament studies. This is Mr. Milligan's first appearance at the summer school and made a most excellent impression upon his hearers. This lecture was followed by a most instructive talk on "To Understand Children" by Rev. Dr. King, professor of religious education at Mount Allison University. Afterward another excellent lecture was delivered by Rev. Walter MacInnes of South Devon (N.B.), maritime Baptist secretary, on "The Sunday School, Its Purposes, Constituency and Relationships." All the lectures were exceedingly helpful and much appreciated by students.

The school was then divided into groups for specialized work. Miss Jean Borden of Canard (N.S.) led a class for teachers of primary children. Rev. Dr. King held a conference with the junior workers; Miss Mabel McKay of Halifax (N.S.) had a conference with the angel workers of the C. G. I. T. A. M. Gregg of St. John, Maritime Boys' Work Secretary of the Y. M. C. A. led a conference on the programme of teenage boys, known as "Trail Rangers" or "Tuis Boys." These studies will be continued throughout the school sessions.

This evening a very interesting devotional and twilight talk was given by Rev. W. A. Ross of Moncton. This was followed by an instructive lecture on "The Art of Teaching," by Rev. Dr. King. The special lecture of the evening was delivered by Rev. A. F. Baker of Musquodoboit, who gave a forceful discourse on "The Rural Sunday School."

The summer school students are favored with beautiful weather and their stay here will be "all work and no play." A sports committee has been appointed and a leading feature in this direction will be organized play life designed to teach those in attendance how to play and how they may organize the play life of their own communities when they return. There will be what is known as "stunt night," also a concert by school students.

Among those in attendance from St. John are Misses Alva and Roberta Bissett, Miss Harri A. Clark, Miss Bessie E. Holder, Miss Nellie Hudson, Miss Florence E. Johnson, Miss Mabel Lewis, Miss Nellie G. Rogers, Miss Ruth E. Shaw, LeBaron Stubbs, Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Wasson and A. M. Gregg.

LARGE QUANTITY OF POTATOES

Yesterday was a fairly heavy day for the river boats, and a large quantity of farm products was brought to the city. The Champlain had on board 275 bushels of potatoes, which sold for $3.85 a bushel; the Majestic brought 150 bushels of potatoes, which sold for $3.50 a bushel, while the Champlain brought down 100 bushels which sold for $3.85 a bushel. A boat 250 bushels of beans arrived by the Champlain and sold for $2 a bushel. The Hampton had on board forty bushels of beans, which were sold for the same price. A few blueberries and raspberries were brought in by the three boats and were sold for twenty and thirty cents a box respectively.

CHINESE CAPITAL CITY WITHIN CITY

Peking a Great Metropolis Hardly Known to World

Long Opposed Opening of Locked Doors - Has the Oldest Daily Newspaper.

Washington, D. C., July 28.—Until recently Peking, capital of China, with its 700,000 people was one of the least known of the great cities of the world.

"Peking is a city within a city." The Chinese city, built in 1548, is the commercial centre. The Tatar city dates from 1267, and includes the famous "Forbidden City" of which the Dragon Throne of the Son of Heaven, Emperor of the Middle Kingdom, is the centre.

The Washington monument of Peking is the famous thirteen-storied Buddhist pagoda from the summit of which a fine view of the city may be had.

Oldest Paper in World. "Peking claims the oldest daily newspaper in the world, the Peking Gazette, compared with whose age the London Times, with its hundred years, is in its infancy.

The Chien-men street bisects the Chinese city from the South Gate, where the railway enters to the principal gate in the wall separating the Chinese from the Tatar city.

Through Continuous. The Chien-men street bisects the Chinese city from the South Gate, where the railway enters to the principal gate in the wall separating the Chinese from the Tatar city.

On the east side of this roadway is an inclosure of about one square mile which contains the Altar of Heaven, surrounded by shrines and temples, the most important of which is the circular three-roofed marble Temple of Heaven.

BABY HAD BAD CASE OF ECZEMA

On Arms, Face and Limbs. Itched. Cuticura Heals.

"My baby had a very bad case of eczema. It started in small pimples and spread on her arms and face and limbs, as far as her hips. The skin was sore and red and the breaking out itched so that she wanted to scratch all the time. She was cross and fretful and could not sleep day or night.

"Then I used Cuticura, and when I had used four cakes of Soap and four boxes of Ointment she was healed." (Signed) Mrs. George Hiler, R. F. D. 2, Box 44, Coopers Mills, Minn., May 6, 1919.

western towns may have had its distant origin in the "water associations" or volunteer fire departments, of Peking. In Peking "soup kitchens" rice gruel is served free to the poor.

"In the heart of the Tatar city is another inclosure the "Forbidden City," in which stands the imperial palace, disjunctive in China because it is faced with yellow porcelain. Surrounding the palace are the gardens reception halls, pavilions and offices formerly used by the Emperor in conducting the affairs of the empire.

"Prospect Hill" would be interesting to those who went to the "movies" to keep warm during the recent coal shortage. The hill is a huge mound of coal, which was to provide fuel in time of siege and it is now covered with a grove of beautiful trees.

"The Pekingese are not consumers only. The trade of the city is small although it is open to foreign commerce. The famous Grand Canal, which connected it with the rich provinces of South China, greatly facilitates the transportation of rice and other products."

GERMAN OFFICER LONGS FOR THE "GOOD OLD DAYS" Berlin, July 27.—(A. P. Correspondence)—No one in Germany sighs more fervently for the "good old days" of the Kaiser than the former army officer.

After the first revolution it was a risky thing for an officer to appear on the streets in uniform. They were emboldened by the Kapp coup last March and since then have been showing them selves in increasing numbers, especially student reserve officers, who are easily identified by their pale faces alabaster with fresh sword cuts received in duels.

SCIENCE PROVES THE DANGER OF BLEEDING GUMS

Medical science proves that unhealthy gums cause serious ailments. People suffering from Pyorrhea (a disease of the gums) often suffer from other ills, such as rheumatism, anemia, nervous disorders, or weakened vital organs. These ills have been traced in many cases to the Pyorrhea germs which breed in pockets about the teeth.

Four out of five people over forty have Pyorrhea. It begins with tender and bleeding gums. Then the gums recede, the teeth decay, loosen and fall out, or must be extracted to rid the system of the infecting Pyorrhea germs. Guard your health and your teeth. Keep Pyorrhea away. Visit your dentist often for tooth and gum inspection, and make daily use of Forhan's For the Gums.

Forhan's For the Gums will prevent Pyorrhea—or check its progress—if used in time, and used consistently. Ordinary dentifrices cannot do this. Forhan's will keep the gums firm and healthy, the teeth white and clean.

LINCOLN STATUE UNVEILED IN CANNING SQUARE

Presented to the British People as a Gift From the United States.

(Canadian Press Despatch.)
London, July 28.—Eliza Hoot, former United States Secretary of State, today formally presented to the British people the Lincoln statue of Canning Square, as a gift from the United States, and later the statue was unveiled.

Premier Lloyd George abandoned pressing business to deliver the speech of acceptance.

The presentation was made in the presence of a distinguished audience in the central hall of Westminster with Viscount Bryce, former British Ambassador to the United States, presiding. The event was widely heralded in the British press as further cementing the Anglo-American friendship.

In his address, Mr. Root said: "It is the identical fundamental conception in both countries which make it impossible that in any great world emergency Great Britain and America can be on opposing sides. Those conceptions of justice and liberty are the breath of life for both; while they prevail both nations will endure; if they perish both nations will die. These were Lincoln's inheritance."

In his reply Mr. Lloyd George said that on behalf of the British Empire he accepted with gratitude this statue of a great man. The premier spoke of the pride and affection with which Lincoln was regarded here and added: "May I be permitted to say, that this torso and bleeding head is calling today

RECENT WEDDINGS
Hughes-Straight.
A wedding of interest to many in the province was solemnized at the residence of the officiating clergyman, Rev. J. H. Jenner, 274 Tower street, West St. John, yesterday morning, when Miss Emeline Beatrice Straight, daughter of William Straight and Charles H. Hughes, both of Cambridge, Queens county, were united in marriage. The bridal party had motored to the city from Cambridge. Mrs. J. D. Cole of West St. John, sister of the bride, accompanied her at the ceremony, which was a quiet one. Mr. and Mrs. Hughes left in the afternoon and Mrs. Hughes left on ten days in a tour of the province. On their return they will make their home in Cambridge. Mr. Hughes for several years was a member of the police force in St. John and later went to Campbellton where he was chief of police for some time. He retired three years ago and took up his residence in Cambridge. Many friends wish Mr. and Mrs. Hughes all happiness in their future life.

DEFEATED CUP CHALLENGER IN HUDSON RIVER
(Canadian Press Despatch.)
New York, July 28.—Shamrock IV, the defeated cup challenger left Sandy Hook shortly after noon today for an anchorage in the Hudson River. The crew of Shamrock accompanied the yacht in the house boat Killarney which has been their home during the regatta. The challenger was still flying her little green flag, and passing steamers gave her almost a continuous ovation of whistle salutes as she passed up the harbor.

Sir Thomas Lipton, owner of Shamrock, said today that he had not made up his mind what he would do with the racer and the trial boat, the 28 meter Shamrock. It is understood that he has received offers for both yachts from United States yachtsmen.

The crew of the challenger will be sent home on the first available ship, Sir Thomas said, adding "those boys have wives and little ones whom they are anxious to see."

Church Issues Bonds.
London, July 28.—The vicar and church wardens of St. Benedict, Tottenham, have devised a novel scheme for raising funds to meet temporary financial difficulties. Debentures are being issued at the value of $2.50 and upwards, which draw interest at the rate of five per cent, the principal to be paid on one month's notice.

MEXICO NOW HAS NEW TYPE OF RULER

De la Huerta Notable for His Personal Charm

May Give Reins to Obregon, But Will Make Mark on History of Country.

(By Oliver Madox Heuffer, Special Correspondent of The Evening Post.)

Mexico City, July 28.—The spectacle of the chief executive of a modern state lying in bed, surrounded by a ring of newspaper men and discussing with them the weaknesses of his own Government, has about it even today the charm of novelty. That he should obviously enjoy it, shows definitely enough that Senor Adolfo de la Huerta is keenly alive to the modern aspect of democracy.

That such an interview should take place while he was racked with the agonies of appendicitis, and in the very act of delivering some witty suggestion was forced to break off and, losing every vestige of color, press his hand to his side for a moment, shows that he is not the man to be easily turned from his purpose.

I have known the last three Presidents of Mexico fairly well and I have no hesitation in saying that Senor de la Huerta gives the best—I might almost say the only good—impression of any of them. General Victoriano Huerta was a man of strong character; given a chance, I have very little doubt that he would have established himself and perhaps spared his country its tribulations of the last six years. But he was certainly not an attractive personality.

If determination showed itself in his rugged face, cruelty was by its side; if he was capable, he was also ruthless, and his personal habits were altogether wanting in charm. The prevalent impression left by Carranza was of petulant bad temper and an overwhelming sense of his own importance. De la Huerta differs from both his predecessors in having very definite personal charm and with it, as is not too often the case, the suggestion of sincerity.

Youth in His Favor

One thing which predisposes in his favor is certainly his youth. Not only is he young in years compared to the two former Presidents, but he has also the youthful quality of enjoyment. The Presidential bedroom, which is now his sick chamber, is a very royal apartment indeed. The furniture was made for Porfirio Diaz and comes from France, a very royal setting, all in yellow and gold of the style of Louis XV, the bed a particularly gorgeous affair with a high canopy, which only needs to be topped by a crown to carry you off to Versailles at once.

From the window stretches a noble prospect, covering the whole valley of Mexico, circled by its great ring of fuming volcanoes and with the beautiful city—certainly one of the three most beautiful in the world—stretched out beneath your feet. And no boy of twenty could show himself more keenly delighted with his surroundings than the present ruler of the land.

Curiously enough, the person of whom I was most reminded on first entering the room was of Cagliostro, the actor. De la Huerta is a man of medium size, rather stout, clean shaven, with heavy dark eyes that do not lose their twinkling even in a paroxysm of pain. He has the noble features of the actor, a woman's mouth, almost too well moulded but redeemed by the firmness of the chin, and a boy's smile. He is always smiling, even when he is most serious and his sense of humor might be almost too obvious to the serious-minded, for he illustrates his point with a succession of proverbs of little anecdotes and enjoys them himself to the full.

Lincoln Without Angularity

He recalls what one has heard of Abraham Lincoln, indeed, but a Lincoln with the angularity left out. I am not at all sure, either, that there is not wanting something of the inner ruggedness that triumphed in the end over the unconquerable—but that is for the future to disclose. Finally, De la Huerta is of purely Iberian type, his complexion fairer than most Spaniards—it is true that the pallor from his illness may have had something to do with that when I saw him—and his features having nothing of the Indian flatness that is so characteristically Mexican. Altogether as unexpected a personality for a President of Mexico as you need look for, and sharply in contrast with grim Huerta or sullen Carranza or indeed any ruler of Mexico that I can remember.

Certainly, too, he is unconventional in his methods. As he lies in bed,

WAS LUCKY FOR HIM HE FOUND IT

LeBlanc Says He Owes His Present Good Health to Tanlac.

"My troubles were rapidly getting the best of me when I turned to Tanlac, and the way the medicine put me in good health again was nothing less than remarkable," said William LeBlanc, a well known farmer of Merrimac, N. B., while in Moncton the other day.

About five years ago I began to have quite a lot of trouble with my stomach which kept getting worse until I was in a miserable condition. My appetite was so poor I had to force down everything I ate, and many times I couldn't even stand to swallow a single mouthful. What little I did manage to eat caused me to bloat all up with gas which so shut off my breath that I often thought I was just going to smother. I had terrible pains just below my ribs which at times were so severe they almost doubled me up. At night I would lie awake for hours unable to sleep, and I would get up at morning more exhausted than when I went to bed.

"It's lucky for me that I found Tanlac, for it's the only thing that helped me any, and the short order in which it put an end to my troubles was simply surprising. I have only taken four bottles now, but my appetite is so good I just want to be eating all the time. Everything I eat agrees with me so well my stomach never troubles me a bit, and I've actually gained ten pounds in weight for which I'm very thankful. My breathing is no longer affected, the pains are entirely gone from my side, and at night I sleep like a log. Tanlac is the best medicine I ever heard of, and I owe my present good health to it entirely."

Tanlac is sold in St. John by the Ross Drug Company and F. W. Munro; by G. W. McKay, Beaver Harbor; Willard J. Colwell, Fergus; C. V. Parsons, Highland; John F. Meagher, Debec; O. D. Hanson, Lepreau; E. L. Conley, Leonardville; N. H. Johnson, Clarendon Station, and by the leading druggists in every town.—(Advt.)

surrounded by a watchful ring of foreign journalists, he shows it to the utmost.

There is nothing formal about his methods. He asks for criticism and advice. "We are friends here talking together," he says, pointing to one, with a snap of his dark eyes. "I want you to tell me what you think of me—my Government. I want your advice." Or again: "I don't expect you to believe what I say. You gentlemen, with your experience of the world, know how much to believe of the words put into a President's mouth. Just listen to what I say and then investigate for yourself and see if I am not speaking the truth."

Proverbs Point His Speech.

He points almost every sentence with a proverb. Someone asks him a question about a revolting general. "Sometimes a rate east cheese, not because he wants it, but that he may eat his way out," he illustrates, with a sweeping hand. "When you put to sea in a boat unfamiliar to you, in a wide, wide uncharted sea—do you put in a new pilot or trust the old one?" This in answer to a question why an unpopular upholder of the former regime has been retained in the councils of the new, in a position demanding technical knowledge. "I long after the storm is over the birds continue to twitter!" This touching on the persistence of efforts to revolt by certain generals.

He is, I think, the only ruler with whom I ever talked for so long—this bedside interview lasted well over three hours—who did not indulge in platitudes. "There was nothing about his great responsibilities, or the duties of a ruler or his own good intentions. He was quite surprisingly human. It may be of course because he has not been a ruler very long that he can afford to laugh at himself. He can be generous too. He speaks of a general who has revolted and is reported killed as a brave man, a very brave soldier. It was a pity, a great pity he was so foolish."

I hope I have not given the impression of a weakling, good-natured and no more. If you touch on one of his convictions you find that there is marble (as I say only the future can tell exactly how much) below the velvet. He has appointed a workman as governor of the federal district. Some one suggests that this appointment is unpopular, is being made use of by enemies of the administration to point charges of Bolshevik leanings against him and it. The smiling lips lose all their curves.

Some came with the "Show Me" spirit—they were shown; some came with rapacious appetites for bargains—they bought bounteously; some came out of curiosity to see what marvels a Miracle Man can work—they remained to praise and to profit.

At times the buying overwhelmed us—swept beyond our control, but not beyond our resources—reserve forces of salesmen were rushed into action and everyone was served and satisfied with the greatest apparel money-savers that ever hit town. his origins. What has blue blood to do with it? The governor should represent the people he is to govern, should be able to understand them. The majority of the people in the district belong to the same class as himself. Is it not right that they should be represented?" You feel that this is a point on which it would be useless to argue with him. On others he is more open to conviction with a smile in it. "The lawyers of the one side," he comments, referring to the all controversy which is one of the biggest problems of the government, "tell me that the other have not a leg to stand on. The lawyers of the other insist that the first are altogether unworthy of credence, so untenable is their position. I am going to bring in my own lawyers and listen to what all three have to say. Because between them all He has a nice understanding of his general. He explains that demobilization of the army has already begun. Fifteen thousand men and officers were demobilized last month and have gone quietly to their homes. Already 2,000 more have followed them since July 1. Some one asks what is the present force of the army. Smiles flicker round his face. "If you accept the figures given by some of the generals the Mexican forces must be greater than those of the Allies during the recent war." Evidently he has taken the measure of his general. New Among Mexican Rulers. I think I have said enough to show that the provisional president is something new in rulers of Mexico, a young man of charm and personality. You might respect Victoriano Huerta or Carranza, you might wish them well on public grounds; you could not feel any strong interest in their fate from personal reasons. But I came away from the castle hoping that things might go well with this boy from Sonora, quite irrespective of his merits or deserts. I shall remember his smile for quite a long time to come and without pausing to consider whether it was intended to please or really came from the heart. I do not know whether he is really a strong man, capable of grappling with the very difficult problems before him. I do not even know whether he is sincere, though such is my present belief. At least I am quite certain I like him. General Obregon is a strong man and very popular. I do not expect that anything will go very wrong before next September, though quite a lot can happen in Mexico in six weeks. No doubt Senor de la Huerta will then hand over the reins and seek some other sphere of usefulness—perhaps as governor of Sonora—without any disaster to look back upon in his tenure of the bed that Diaz and Victoriano Huerta have slept in before him. But I am convinced that we shall not have heard the last of the present president then; that some day he will make his mark in the history of his country. And that, I think, is the best proof that he is a man of character. Otherwise I should as soon expect great things of a provisional president with Gen. Obregon in the background as of a vice-president of the United States. NUXATED IRON Used by over 4,000,000 People annually for Health Strength and Energy DO NOT ACCEPT SUBSTITUTES

SAYS U. S. MUST BE LEAGUE MEMBER

Nation Cannot Remain Out, Thinks Speaker

Member of Mission to Russia Tells of Benefits From World Union.

Willimantic, July 28.—Asserting that League of Nations has been the victim of political intrigue, that its provisions for safeguarding the peace of the world and for the betterment of all peoples have been misunderstood, and that the United States cannot keep out of it, Edwin Davies Schoonmaker, speaking at the Citizenship Institute here tonight, set forth eloquently the benefits which the league will confer on mankind. A large audience gathered in the Willimantic Y. M. C. A. building to hear the address, which was part of the three-day programme prepared by the Connecticut Woman Suffrage Association.

Mr. Schoonmaker, who was a member of the United States Mission to Russia, traced the sociological development of civilized nations and showed that the league was the next logical step in that development. "All progress has come about through the formation of leagues," the speaker asserted, showing that as the league of man and woman in the marriage state established the home, so the homes in the next stage of development were grouped together into villages, the villages banding together as States, and the States as a nation. In each step, he said, the same obstructions which are now being urged by opponents of the league, namely that the new relations would limit rights previously enjoyed and force new responsibilities on the parties to the action.

"The limitation of rights and the taking on of new responsibilities are conditions of human progress," Mr. Schoonmaker said. "In every case the formation of a league has meant additional security for its members, and that is what the League of Nations will bring."

Its Functions Are Many.

Entirely too much attention has been given the political significance of the league, it was asserted. The functions which are being performed are not only political, but social and economic, things which will contribute to the general welfare of humanity and which will truly make the League "the organized conscience of the world." For instance, the speaker said, the labor department had already convened two great labor congresses, one at Washington and one at Genoa. At the Washington conference there was an unprecedented occurrence has yet to be written, but in every family and particularly where there are children, the subject of good household remedies for the many minor ailments and injuries of everyday life always commands attention.

PERRY DAVIS "PAINKILLER" is one of the best examples of a reliable household remedy.

In summer a teaspoonful given in a cup of sweetened water or milk affords prompt and effective treatment for acute and painful stomach and bowel attacks (summer complaint), while as a liniment it takes the pain and inflammation out of mosquito and other insect stings and reduces sprains and bruises.

In cold weather when exposure so often brings on the chilly feeling from which develop Colds, Bronchitis, La Grippe or Pneumonia, a good dose of "PAINKILLER" taken in hot water when retiring will usually ward off these dangerous consequences.

A most effective treatment for children who are inclined to bronchial and croupy attacks is to wring out a flannel cloth dipped into a cupful of hot water to which a teaspoonful of "PAINKILLER" has been added and wrap same around the child's neck, covering with another cloth. This applied at night, whenever signs of a croupy attack appears, draws out the inflammation and the soothing warmth insures restful sleep.

PERRY DAVIS "PAINKILLER" has been on the market for over seventy-five years. It is used in nearly every country on the globe by thousands of families of every race for the purposes described above.

Every family and every traveller will do well to have always on hand a bottle of this reliable household medicinal preparation.

when the Japanese delegates criticized the labor policy of the Japanese Government, laying their case against that nation before the "world conscience." Another department of the League, the Hague Peace Court, to which former Secretary of State Elihu Root is the principal American delegate, is seeking to bring about an agreement for arbitrating disputes between nations. An international health department, postal service, department of agriculture and financial department are in process of organization, while the United States, powerful nation that she is and the real creator of the League, still hesitates to take her place, though thirty nations have already become members.

Mr. Schoonmaker continued: "The United States has no more chance of remaining out of the League and having it made over to suit her than had Rhode Island in Colonial times in waiting for the Constitution of the United States to be made over. Reservations which the United States makes will not vitally affect the League constitution. As we stand today the United States is lined up with Germany, Austria, Bulgaria, Turkey and Bolshevik Russia, the very countries which represent principles to which we are opposed. The countries which believe in the things for which we stand are already in the League. We have the same right to provide for our security that the fam-

OIL IN No. 1 WELL LOCATED IN PEACE RIVER TOWN

By the Progress Reports which have been issued from time to time, the public have been able to follow the efficient and business-like development that has been made in the drilling of the Wells at Peace River.

From the day the first Machinery was purchased, no stone was left unturned to crown the Company's efforts with success. We question if any other Oil Company in Canada has made such wonderful progress in six months as Peace River Petroleum, Limited.

Every Shareholder and Friend of the Company has good reason for congratulations when it is known that No. 1 Well has Oil and plenty of it. Our Superintendent is preparing to make a Pump Test within Thirty Days, when the quantity of Oil will be announced.

The proof of Oil in No. 1 Well is a discovery of immense importance to Canada, and Peace River Petroleum, Limited, will, therefore, derive the greatest benefit in supplying Oil for Canadian Industry and Commerce.

Because of the knowledge that we have Oil in our No. 1 Well and the fact that the Victory Company's No. 1 Well is also in the Oil, will add wealth to Peace River Petroleum, Limited, through Royalties that will be paid to our Company, the shares of Peace River Petroleum, Limited, should be advanced to $1.00.

It will be interesting for you to know that operations at No. 2 Well have commenced, and our Superintendent expects to report another discovery of Oil in our No. 2 Well within Ninety Days.

Mr. Thomas A. Cain, Director of the Company, and Mr. W. C. Goffatt, recently visited Peace River to investigate conditions on behalf of the Company, and while there received a request for 20,000 barrels of Crude a month for two operating Companies on the Peace River Country, who fully believe we will have Oil to sell at an early date and lots of it. The question of "What will be done with the Oil" is, therefore, settled through the huge local demand.

More Wells will be drilled in proven territory, so as to secure Oil to fill available orders and substantially increase the revenue of the Company.

which Count Witte, the Russian statesman, had had with the Kaiser, the first on the occasion of the coronation of the Czar and the second, arranged for at the Kaiser's request, when the Russians were returning from the Portsmouth Conference which ended the Russo-Japanese War. On the first occasion Count Witte had urged upon the Kaiser the steps to be taken to bring about a federation of the European states. The Kaiser thought it over. It was to discuss this subject that the second interview was arranged. On this occasion the Kaiser showed that he had long been thinking of what the Russian statesman had said of the necessity of preventing further wars in Europe by some such union as the States of North America had established. "Yes," said the Kaiser, "unless this is done we shall go the way of Egypt and Assyria. Europe will be devastated." And he added prophetically, "my people do not wish to die this inglorious death."

INTERESTING WILL CASE IN CHAMBERS

Clauses in Will of Nelson Allan Cliff Is Point of Contention — Plaintiff Is Boston Doctor—Estate of $46,000.

A very interesting case was heard in chambers this morning before Sir Douglas Hazen, chief justice, in connection with the will of the late Nelson Allan Cliff, when a decision was sought upon the interpretation of certain clauses which were not clear. The testator left an estate valued at about $46,000. His will was drawn by Thomas H. Colter of Fredericton, registrar of wills and deeds there, and contained a clause as follows: "All the rest residue of my estate both real and personal are to be divided share and share alike amongst my brothers and sisters living and my deceased brothers and sisters children which are living. It is my will that George Price is to share one-half equally with my brothers and sisters." This "one-half" was interlined. Another contentious point was the matter of coupons upon bonds. Three legacies of $5,000 each to Mrs. Griselda Jane Price, Beatrice Price and Margaret Price, all of St. John, were argued upon in connection with this point.

The plaintiff in the case is Dr. Leander A. Cliff of Boston, who was represented today by W. H. Harrison, while the defendants are James S. Cliff, Beatrice Price, Charles Wilfred Risteen, Geo. Cliff, Annie Simms, George Price and Harriet S. Risteen, an infant under the age of twenty-one years. C. F. Inches and Stephen Palmer represented different defendants this morning. The testator has three brothers and sisters living and three dead, and there are some twelve nieces and nephews and one grand-niece. Before his death he used to reside part of the time in this city but spent the greater portion of the time in California. His honor will give a decision in the case later.

AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENT IN PRINCE WM. ST.

Andrew Blair Knocked Down by Maine Car and Cut in Head — A Miraculous Escape.

What might have been a very serious accident if not a fatality occurred this morning in Prince William street when an automobile bearing a Maine license tag number 21-878, struck and knocked down Andrew Blair. Mr. Blair was attempting to cross the street and walked from behind an automobile at the curb in front of Hawker's drug store. He was unable to see the oncoming car, which struck him, knocking him down and dragging him along a few feet on his face. Fortunately the car was going at a very moderate rate of speed, and the driver applied his brakes at once and brought the car to a stop. Commissioner Thornton and George Blake picked Mr. Blair up and carried him into Hawker's drug store, where it was found that he had suffered a rather bad gash in the side of his head. The wound was washed and dressed. Mr. Blair is to be congratulated on his escape from death. Had the car been going at a much faster rate of speed the outcome might have been very serious.

FATHER BENNETT ARRIVES HOME

Attended Anglican Congress Held in London Recently — Says It Was a Success.

Arriving at Sydney on the C. P. O. S. boat Victorian on Tuesday, Father H. E. Bennett, assistant Father Young of the Mission Church, reached the city yesterday after attending the Anglican Congress in London recently. Father Bennett tells of the wonders of the Marconi wireless telephones, which was installed in the Victorian. This marvelous instrument has a radius of 12,000 miles, and a newspaper is published twice daily on the steamer with all the news of the day received by the wireless apparatus. The congress, he said, was a great success. It opened with a procession to St. Paul's where high mass was celebrated. The meetings were held in Albert Hall, the largest in London with a seating capacity of 12,000. Father Young leaves on his holidays today and Father Bennett will be in charge of the services in Mission Church during his absence.

The wedding march was played by Charles Rourke of St. John. After the ceremony a dainty luncheon was served. The bride and groom left on Thursday morning for Prince Edward Island where they will spend their honeymoon and return will take up their residence at Dorchester where the groom is employed as telegraph operator with the C. The two vehicles came back under their own power.

EDITOR SENTENCED WRECKING STEAMER FOR 'DRY' CRITICISM AT WORK IN THE BAY

Judge Holds That Articles in New Haven Newspaper Reflected on the Court.

New Haven, Conn., July 29—Characterizing articles appearing in The New Haven Journal-Courier as "unpleasant, contemptible and unjustified," Judge Charles J. Martin found Arthur J. Sloane, managing editor of the paper, guilty of contempt of court and sentenced him to ten days in jail.

The charges of contempt of court grew out of articles published in The Journal-Courier July 14, 15, 16 and 17, concerning liquor raids in West Haven some ten days ago and their subsequent disposition.

The question of jurisdiction of the town court of Orange to try this case because of the fact that the newspaper was printed and published in New Haven, which is out of the criminal jurisdiction of the town of Orange, was a leading one throughout the trial.

In his memorandum Judge Martin, in referring to one of the articles, said: "This article had for its purpose the creating of an impression that those connected with the administration of justice in the town court of Orange were protecting law violators who might have a political influence in the community and unless the action of town court in the cases referred to in the article was closely watched by the public that one not far removed from the judge of said court (although not named) might attempt to besmirch the proper and legal prosecution of one or all of these cases."

"All of insinuations and accusations contained in this article intentionally reflected upon the honor and dignity of the town court of Orange as an organ of justice. These reflections were also untrue and admitted to be so by the respondent, as he stated on the witness stand when he had offered himself as a witness in an effort to purge himself of alleged contempts, that he had no evidence in his possession or on fact which would justify him in saying that any official of the town court of Orange was aiding or assisting the shielding of any violator of the law."

The South African mails here will close at 6.30 p.m. tomorrow for the steamship New Mexico, via Montreal.

Good progress is being made in dismantling several old wrecks in the southern part of the Bay of Fundy. The wrecking steamer Coastguard, Captain L. Brannen, which has been operating for several weeks on the wreck on the West Indian mail steamship Cobequidi, ashore on Trinity ledge, has about completed work on the wreck by salvaging an anchor and twenty tons of chain.

Increases Your Weight, Restores Lost Strength, Prevents Illness

Every day come new converts to that great army of men and women who rejoice in new-found health that came to them through the use of that wonderful blood-cleansing preparation called "FERROZONE."

Persons are a marvel. It contains just what this blood lacks—lots of iron, but mark you, the kind of iron your blood is able to absorb. Ferrozone puts life and vim into the blood. Makes it rich, red and nourishing. Naturally the body is better fed and grows stronger far beyond the ordinary.

Of course digestion must be improved, and probably the stomach will require aid as well. Ferrozone serves the purpose admirably. Those who use it, enjoy appetite and digestive powers far beyond the ordinary.

That tired feeling is replaced by the buoyant joyous sensation of health and vigor. Day by day as your strength increases, you feel new energy surging through your veins, and know that a great tonic of great merit is at work.

OFFERS CHILD FOR SALE BUT RETRACTS

New York, July 29—For Sale—Young child will part with lovely 4 1/2-year old girl. Irish parents; $250 absolute. If necessary as mother is in poor health. Box 101, 2119 Third Avenue.

That is the whole story, Katherine McNulty, pretty dark-haired 29-year old mother said today when questioned about the advertisement, inserted in papers here.

Many kids had been received for the curly fair-haired Margaret who played around the tiny, clean room at 233 Second Avenue. Brave at first, the little mother was loathe to give up her child when time for parting came, and so far has refused all offers.

The mother's story was one of a losing struggle against poverty and illness. Her husband died three years ago. She struggled bravely to care for her two children, Martin and Margaret, and seem succeeding until last spring when she became ill.

A home could be found for Martin, the mother believed. She needed someone to care for the girl and also needed $250 to start her fight for health.

At a meeting of the executive of the Society of the Natural History Society yesterday afternoon with Mrs. John McAvity in the chair, Mrs. George S. Matthews, convenor of the lecture course, outlined an interesting programme for the winter.

All blasting work in Kennedy street has been stopped following an order issued by Commissioner J. H. Frink yesterday morning, who said that the department of public works was waiting to have the fixed signal before moving the equipment to the new site in Adelaide road.

At the regular meeting of Local No. 218, of the Carpenters and Joiners' Union of America, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Oscar Taylor, president; A. C. Davidson, corresponding secretary; Thomas Habel, financial secretary; Charles Taylor, treasurer, and William LeBlanc, warden.

While the crew of the tug Nerid was shifting the smoke stack so that the boilers might be inspected, the stack swung about and pinned the head of the engineer, Judson Chetley, between it and a life buoy. Chetley was knocked unconscious by the blow.

J. S. Ritchie had an unpleasant experience when his fast trotter bolted in Robesay avenue and threw him out of the carriage. He was badly shaken up, but received no other injuries and was able to start in search of the horse.

Lustrous Hair—Soft—Fluffy and Abundant—Easily Attained by Wonderful Beautifier that Thousands Praise

Women Delighted—All Surprised by Quick Action of Parisian Sage.

Really beautiful hair possessing a witchery all its own is the wish of every woman. No uncreased-for hair can be beautiful. Unkempt, tousled locks, powdered with dandruff, are a repulsive sight.

If your hair is dandruff, faded, dry, streaked and scraggly—falls out badly and new hair does not grow, the roots must be vitalized and properly nourished. To do this quickly, safely, and at a little expense, get from your druggist some Parisian Sage (liquid form) for home use.

This is guaranteed to quickly banish all dandruff, check falling hair, stop itching of the scalp, and promote a new growth and beautify it, or soony rounded. It's in great demand by women who always "look their best" because it makes the hair so soft, lustrous, easy to arrange attractively, and appear much heavier than it really is.

If you want a fresh, clean, healthy scalp, and plenty of thick, lustrous looking hair, don't delay—start using Parisian Sage now—today. A large bottle is inexpensive and costs you nothing if not satisfactory.

INVESTIGATION BEING HELD

DRURY GOVERNMENT UNDER HEAVY FIRE

Its Hydro-Electric Policy Arouses Storm of Criticism in Ontario

Denies That It Opposes Public Ownership, But in This Case Insists Upon Being Shown.

(Canadian Press.) Toronto, July 28.—(By mail)—Ontario's farmer-labor government is under heavy fire, and its narrow majority in the Ontario legislature seriously threatened by the "economically safety first" policy adopted by the premier, Hon. E. C. Drury, and his colleagues, in regard to the acquisition and extension of a government owned system of three hundred miles of privately owned, or to-be-constructed electric radial lines throughout the province—principally in the south-western part of the province.

have already been taken over by the Hydro-Electric Commission, in trust for the government. The municipalities affected have voted in favor of the acquisition of further roads by the commission acting for the municipalities at a total cost of $7,088,000. Of this sum the provincial government must provide about ten per cent and endorse the commission's bonds for the balance payable in fifty years.

HOMES BROKEN INTO.
Mount Pleasant was the scene of ac-tivity of bold marauders on Tuesday night and up to the present the police has been unable to trace them. The houses of R. H. Bruce, Mrs. Mary Sul-ton and H. B. Bruce have been entered. In the first two money and jewelry were taken. In the third food seemed to be the only thing taken.

German Blacklist.
Christiana, July 29.—A blacklist of German firms who are alleged to have broken contracts with Norwegian mer-chants is being prepared by the Chris-tiana chamber of commerce and will be published as a warning to Norwegians to "be careful of closing deals in Ger-many." The Christiania chamber of com-merce now has under consideration names of seventy German firms against whom complaints have been made that they broke contracts, principally because of an unfavorable rate of exchange. It is understood German chambers of commerce are co-operating with the Norwegians to force the German firms to fulfil their contracts.

WELCOME RELIEF FROM ECZEMA
Complete Treatment That Gives Gratifying Results

"I had an attack of Weeping Eczema on my face and neck which was so bad that my clothes would be wet through at times.
For four months, I suffered terribly. I could get no relief until I tried 'Fruit-drye' and 'Sootho-Salva'.
Although I have used three boxes of 'Sootho-Salva' and two of 'Fruit-drye' and am entirely well."
Both these favorite remedies are sold by dealers at 50c a box, 6 for $2.50, or sent on receipt of price by 'Fruit-drye' Limited, Ottawa.
'Fruit-drye' is also put up in a trial size which sells for 25c.

GRAIN PRICES DROPPING.

(Bangor Commercial).
From the central west come reports of sharp breaks in the grain and provision markets. Chicago, Kansas City and St. Louis reporting reductions of 8 to 11 1/2 cents in wheat, 9 to 10 1/2 cents in corn, as well as a lesser drop in oats and $2 a barrel in pork.
These reductions are primarily the result of the steadily improving condition of the big crops which are certain to be much larger than was for a long time anticipated. The earlier fear of a decided food shortage has passed and the lessened acreage has been offset by the fine growing conditions that have prevailed. In Kansas there will be a wheat crop of some 140,000,000 bushels and other big grain states are almost equally fortunate. There are still the difficulties of transportation that must be overcome before the whole country shares in the advantage of the big winter crops but these will probably ultimately yield to action and effort. However, the fact that there is a big supply of food in the country will have a reassuring effect that is certain to make itself felt on the market.
The corn crop promises to be enormous and this will surely bring about a reduction in meat prices, in spite of the fact that the supply of beef cattle has been decreasing. With feeds at lessened prices and farmers will raise more stock and a general improvement will come. Meat prices will continue to be high doubtless for some time to come, but lower than those that have been maintained for a long time. Milk and butter will remain high but should gradually drop and the same is true of poultry products.
Farmers very generally have been killing young stock and felling to raise poultry to their former extent, for they could not see returns in spite of the high prices obtainable, due to the excessive cost of feeds. But with plenty of corn, wheat and oats there must eventually come a change, although it is certain to be a period beyond its full effects are felt.
The scarcity of labor is still a difficulty for the farmers but is not proving so great a menace as was feared a few months ago. In the great grain states herculean efforts are being made to care for the crops everything else being subservient.

THE EVENING TIMES AND STAR, ST. JOHN, N. B., THURSDAY, JULY 29, 1920

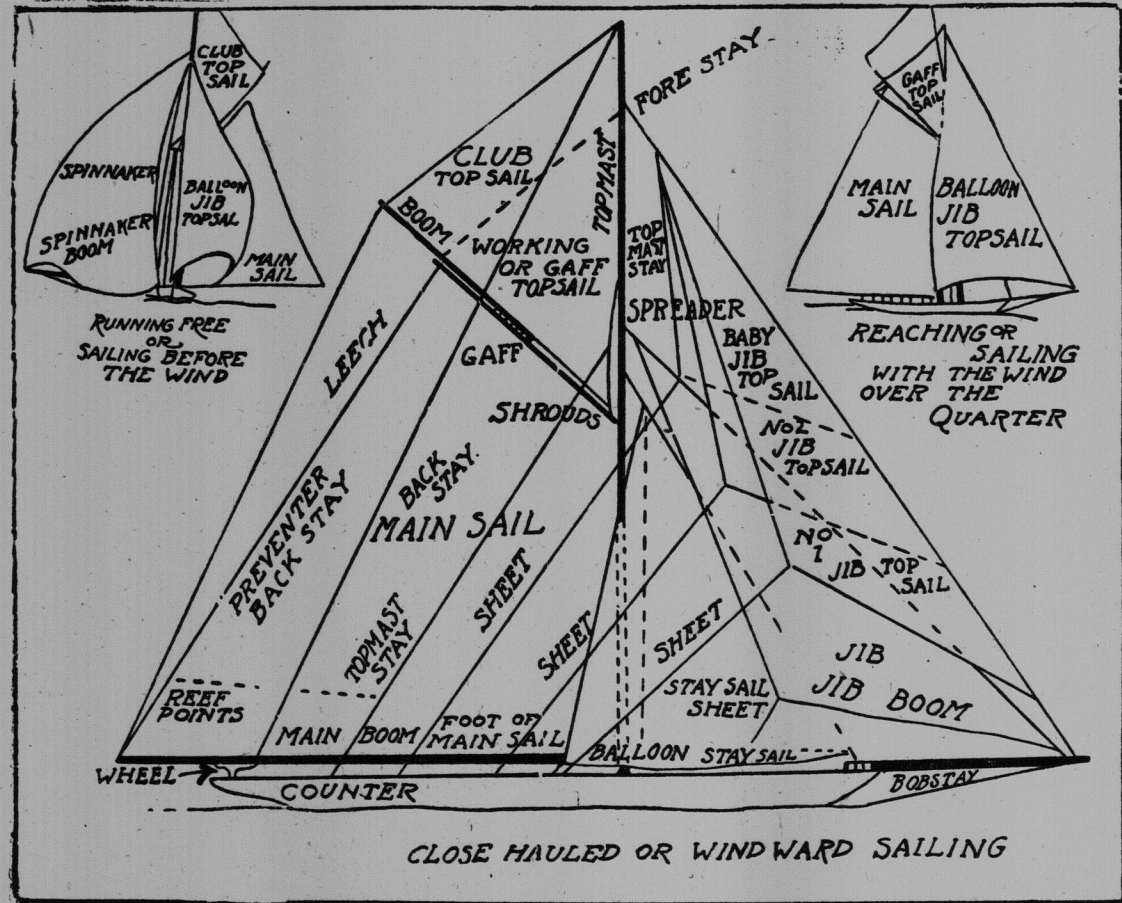

Diagram showing the numerous sails, halyards, stays and lines used on the challenger and defender of America's Cup in the international yacht races. Credit: Central News Photo Service, N. Y.

These diagrams show the profiles of Shamrock II and Resolute and their contrasting dimensions, or a close approximation to them. To the lay mind they are very much alike. To the yachtsman they are different indeed. The midship section is the shape you would get if you saw the yacht in the centre crosswise. Resolute's is more nearly a V shape than Shamrock's. The latter suggests a champagne glass, with a rounded rim. This rounding is called "humble-bone." It and the hollowing at what corresponds to the stem of the champagne glass are notable features of Shamrock. So, too, are her long keel, straight deckline and huge amount of lead ballast. The water lines and underbody lines are also strongly contrasted. There is not one hollow line in Resolute, and she is very sharp Shamrock's lines are very round in some places and hollow in others.

PETER FARRAN LOWERS RECORD

Wins Free-for-All at Fredericton and Paces Second Heat in 2:08 3/4. Also Ties Maritime Record—Favorites Make Poor Showing.

Fredericton, N. B., July 28.—Fredericton had another great day's harness racing today with the talent upset badly in the free for all pace which was won by Peter Farren with the heavy money on The Problem and Oro Fino. Neither of the favorites made much of a showing. The Problem got third money, Fern Hal taking the third heat and so qualifying for second money. The Woodstock entry, Oro Fino, was third twice and then fourth and not standing for the fourth heat. It was a bitter pill for the Woodstock delegation which was strong and which had bet the proverbial shirt on its horse.

Lady Gretton won the 2:16 trot in straight heats coming up to expectations. Jennie Frisco won the 2:18 mixed class. The favorite Royal McKinney got second money the talent again receiving a jolt.

Features of the afternoon's racing was the lowering of the track record twice and the largest attendance ever seen at a Fredericton harness meeting. Official figures are not available but the people on the grounds numbered near 3,000.

Bianche II, which knocked a quarter second off Adico Guy's 1919 track record of 2:11 1/2, did not long enjoy her distinction for Peter Farren in the first heat of the free for all pace today put up a new track record of 2:09 3/4 and in the second heat bettered it half a second placing it at 2:08 3/4.

That figure now is equal to the marfield when the betting closed. Peter Farren drew first position for the first heat and he finished in that position in the fastest heat ever rated in this city. The second heat was the same. The supporters of both Oro Fino and The Problem were expecting their horses to show something later in the race.

In the third heat it looked as if one of them might win as both went out after it. Both broke on the back stretch of the second lap and Fern Hal, owned by Dr. McAlister of Sussex, won the heat with John A. Hal, second. Fern Hal's win was very popular with the crowd. Oro Fino which had two third places and The Problem which had two seconds both dropped back a notch. Peter Farren which broke badly at the start never recovered behind all others. This heat ended Oro Fino's chances as he was ruled out. The last heat was Jimmy Dellow (in black costume) forcing to the front in the Hamilton road race and Olympic Marathon trial which he won. He is followed by Art Scholes, a diplomat, and General, the Brantford Indian, who finished second and third respectively. Dellow's trainer is seen coaching him. These runners will go to Antwerp.

Start of the Hamilton Herald's road race and Olympic Marathon trial won by Jimmy Dellow, Gladstone Athletic Club, Toronto. Dellow, who will be Canada's favorite for the Marathon at Antwerp, is No. 22 in the picture.

A new high price for Canadian Shorthorn (female) was set at the Dryden-Miller Sale, July 21, at Brooklyn, O. when Sir Frank Bailey, Calville, Ont., purchased the two-year-old Countess Selma the Fourth with call for $52,000. The sale was the biggest ever held on the continent and was attended by cattle experts from all parts of the United States and Canada. The auction realized $130,000 and 106 cows were sold at an average price of $1,109. British and Colonial Press photo.

The 2:07 pace was won by Ethel Chimes after she dropped the first heat to Drift Patch. This gave Murphy two victories for the day.

The final race, the 2:12 pace, had Prosser as the auction favorite. He was in a spill in the first heat with Joe McKay and both horses were placed on account of the unavoidable accident. Geers behind Prosser went down when Joe McKay tramped into his sulky wheel but he was not injured. Prosser did not do well and failed to go on and win for his backers. Senator Wilkes won the race after losing the first heat to Baron Russell.

Babe Ruth, the phenomenal baseball slugger, who has clouted out his thirty-fifth home run, smashing his own record of 29 home runs for a season. Babe's work has justified the high price paid for him.

MAY HAVE TO CUT OFF WATER

With a view to conserving the water supply and to eliminate so far as possible the great wastage of water in private homes, the department of water and sewerage for several days has been making an inspection of the plumbing fixtures installed in the various homes and advising the householders regarding defective conditions. Another inspection will be made today, Commissioner Jones said yesterday, and, in cases where the regulations of the department regarding defective equipment have not been followed out the department may find it necessary to cut off the water supply to that house until the necessary repairs are made. Most of the defects in piping and faucets arise from the fact that the plumbing has been exposed during the winter and in many cases the faucets work so poorly that there is a continual run, and consequent waste, of water.

HUNG WITH HORSESHOES.

Agnes De Amore, at the ripe age of 2 years, wandered across the path of a freight train in Butler, Pa., and emerged, after ten cars had passed on, with a dirty face and a few scratches. But all two-year-olds are not hung with horse-shoes as Agnes was, and it is still a safe policy to hold that not one child in 10,000 will go through such an experience intact under a single four-wheeled trolley. —Rochester Post Express.

PRIME MINISTER PAYS HIS CIVIC TAXES IN OTTAWA

(Canadian Press Despatch.)
Ottawa, July 28.—Hon. Arthur Meighen, prime minister of Canada, has removed his name from the might-be-sued list at City Hall by the simple expedient of paying his civic income tax amounting to $145.75.

Recently when the corporation declared war on the civil servants who held they were not legally liable for the 1920 civic income tax, Hon. Mr. Meighen's name was included on the list of those who had failed to pay. This list includes several ministers, deputy ministers, supreme court justices, and other prominent civil servants.

GOOD CROP OUTLOOK

(Fredericton Gleazer)
Hon. J. F. Tweedie, who returned from his home in Victoria county last evening, stated this morning that potato crop conditions at the present time in Victoria and Carleton counties were very promising. The recent shrinkage in the potato crop in Victoria county had caused a large loss in sections, but this, he stated, was being made up for by the fields which had been skipped. These were bearing about double, he said, and would in some sections make up for the loss by shrinkage.

The grain crops of the two counties were never better, the minister stated, and there was a strong growth of straw, which promised a large yield. The hay crop had improved wonderfully in the past two weeks, due to the plentiful rains, and in the lowlands of the two counties a plentiful supply of hay was

OPERATORS' CONVENTION.

A convention of the chief operators of the New Brunswick Telephone Company, Limited, was held in St. John on Tuesday and Wednesday. Thirty-four girls in all attended the sessions, which were held for the purpose of giving instruction in the operation of long distance calls under the new rate schedule which goes into effect August 1. The chief operators were the guests of the company on Tuesday evening, when they were entertained to dinner at Johnston's, Loch Lomond. Last evening a dance was given in their honor in the recreation hall of the company, Chipman Hill. An enjoyable programme of dances was carried out, music being furnished by a five piece orchestra.

C. G. M. M. Sailings to Havana Cancelled

Owing to the congestion of freights at the port of Havana, the sailings of the vessels in the service of the Canadian Government Merchant Marine, between that port and St. John, have been cancelled until the possibility of speedy sailings is assured. Most of the delay at the port has been caused through the strike of the employees in molasses factories. In her last trip out the C. G. M. M. liner Canadian Warrior was delayed at the Cuban port for twenty-six days.

An inventory of the estate of the late Frederick W. Hill of Bangor shows that he left $2,511,943, including $17,820 worth of shares of the Tracadie Lumber Co. Mr. Hill was formerly half owner in a St. John lumber mill.

TO ATTEND FUNERAL.

His Lordship, Bishop LeBlanc, accompanied by Very Rev. Mgr. J. J. Walsh and Rev. William Duke, left for Shediac yesterday to attend the funeral of Rev. Albert Poirier, which will take place from St. Joseph's church, Shediac, this morning. Bishop LeBlanc will officiate at pontifical requiem high mass and many of the clergy from other parts of the diocese will be present for the funeral services.

RECEIVES WARM WELCOME.

Donald McEachern, the old time ball player, who was formerly of St. John and well known to local fans and who is now living in Presque Isle (Me.), arrived in the city yesterday accompanied by his wife and daughter. He will spend the next fortnight visiting in St. John and Hampton. His many friends are extending to him a very hearty welcome.
