Caught With Much Liquor, They Claim To Be But the Employees of Others.

The existence of a huge liquor ring in London was indicated in police court this morning, when John Bowman and William Coles, both of Brantford, stated that they had been hired to run liquor from the Telephone City to London.

The men, who were arrested by provincial and county officers last provincial and county officers last right, near the 8th concession, were found to be ir possession of 300 bottles of alleged Gordon gin, and were arraigned in police court this morning on a charge of illegally transporting liquor over the public high-when the case was called, the men asked for an adjournment until tomorrow, in order that they might secure counsel. Bowman, who made the request, stated that they were merely the goat for higher-ups who did not care to come forward at this

The allegation was made that the liquor was destined for London men, by whom it was to be disposed. Bail was asked, and Acting Crown Attorney Gillanders stated that he would require at least $2,000 cash bail in each case. This was not forth-

ing, and the two men will stay their evidence will also supply some interesting information.

Although the liquor seized was bottled and sealed as is Gordon's London dry gin, several discrepancies in the labels and method of sealing give proof that the liquor is not genuine, but synthetic. The color of the contents of the bottles also, instead of being clear, as is the genuine article, is of a milky color. According to one person who was present when a bottle was broken, the odor is much the same.

The 300 bottles were all wrapped in copies of a Brantford paper, and are at present reposing in the police station.

ALD. WILSON ANGRY OVER "BOLSHEVISM"

Scores His Colleagues Who Opposed Sir Adam Beck as Emissary to Railway.

The Jack on the city hall is now flying at half mast owing to the energetic insistence of Alderman Wilson who visited the city hall this morning in wrathful ire to think that the death of Sir William Meredit had passed almost forgotten by the officials of the City of London. While speaking of the flag the vet-eran's thoughts reverted to the events of the last meeting of the city council when some of the councillors had opposed the idea of Sir Adam Beck representing the city in its negotia-tions with the London Street Railway Company.

"Fancy Alderman Watt calling Sir Adam an outsider, the wrathful alderman declared, "Why Watt comes from Aberdeen and is more an outsider than Beck could ever be. FIND TONE FRIENDLY

London, Aug. 22 .- In the absence of Prime Minister Baldwin, Lord Curzon and other cabinet members, no expression of official opinion regarding Premier Poincare's latest addition to the reparation issue was forthcoming today. In official quarters in London, the first impression of the note, based upon the French official summary, was one of disappointment. Many of those versed in the intricate indemnities problem felt that the note constituted no substantial advance on the French premier's previous communications, although they were impressed by its friendly, conciliatory spirit.

Other observers, while regretting the argumentative, unyielding tone of the document, felt there were some elements of satisfaction in it, and that it at least kept the field clear for further discussion.

Regret was expressed over France's refusal to have an international commission assess Germany's capacity to pay and at the French insistence that the present reparation commis-sion shall continue periodically to determine the German financial abil-Disappointment also is manifested fregarding M. Barker in the investigation into the Barker in the investigation into the standing of the Home Bank of Canada, which suspended payment last Friday. Their appointment was announced on the eve of a session of the Dominion Cabinet, which gave consideration to the demand of T. L. Church, M.P. for North Toronto, for an investigation independent of the curator into the affairs of the Home Bank. Mr. Church was notified tonight that the Dominion cabinet would deal with his petition. Hon. W. S. Fielding, minister of finance, has returned from his vacation to attend the cabinet meeting. In giving consideration to the application for a special investigation, the cabinet will have before it the monthly bank statements filed with the finance department, the annual report dealt with by shareholders only two months ago, and the special and "serious" report made to the directors last Friday afternoon which brought the announcement of the suspension

Tells Summer Resorters That Methods of Dress Set Bad Example.

Special to The Advertiser.

Marquette, Mich., Aug. 21.-Mrs. Henry Ford publicly rebuked a number of women and girls wearing overalls and short stockings-the costume of the city resorter in the Upper Peninsula-when they besieged her at Michigamme, a resort town near here, yesterday with requests for her autograph.

The Ford-Edison-Firestone auto mobile camping party had just arrived from Iron Mountain to pitch tents here for a day. In the crowd that greeted the party were scores of "bungalow girls" from Chicago, wearing brown overalls and short stock the public gaze. Everyone in the crowd demanded an autograph.

A SPORT IN ENGLAND Not a Commercial Enterprise As in Many Parts of America.

Canadian Press Despatch Ottawa, Aug. 21.—Here to study the new racing laws prohibiting the publication of racing odds and re-sults, Bert E. Collyer of Chicago, owner of the Referee and other simi lar sport papers, stated today that he always aimed to conform with the laws of the country, although he predicted that unpopular laws such as these would not remain long in existence. Referring to the racing situation, he said that he believed racing as it is conducted in England to be under the proper system. The Englishmen go in for racing as a sport, not as a commercial enterprise as it has become in many parts of the United States and Canada, he said, and that it is only a matter of a few years when this excellent sport will be conducted along proper lines on this side of the Atlantic, the same

The Ideal Bakery, 233 Grand Ave owned and operated by E. F. Leavens suffered $1,000 loss by fire last night which started in the roof beams be side the oven flues and which deroof and destroyed some five hundred loaves of bread. Edward Leavens who owns the bakery, giving his version of the origin of the fire said: "We were getting the first batch of loaves ready for the ovens, and the oven fires were going, when suddenly a small boy living near, ran in crying that the garage which stands at the back of the bakery, was burning. "I had my Mitchell touring sevenpassenger car in the garage, and while the boy called the fire station and one of my neighbors ran ou he car, which we were fortunate to

Mr. Leavens was loud in his praise of the promptitude of the fire chief and his men in turning out. "They were here within a few minutes of sending in the call," he said, "and have saved me a considerable loss, for the fire went fast, and before they got here the flames were coming brough the roof.'

In going through the water-soaked rooms, he pointed out the batch of oaves which but for last night's fire would now be on the breakfast tables of his patrons. These, together with the hole in the roof and the garage which is a frame building, constituted the only losses incurred by the fire, apart from the inability to use the bakery this evening. Mr. Leavens hopes to be able to supply his usual ustomers on Friday morning

RESCUE OF BAILEY

AN EPIC OF COURAGE

Special to The Advertiser by a Staff Reporter.

Grand Bend, Aug. 21.-The details of the rescue of Howard Bailey from the treacherous undertow of Lake Huron, by Dr. John Schram, of London, on Monday, constitute an epic of courage, endurance, and resourcefulness unsurpassed by the most thrilling fiction. Dr. Schram, whose summer home aces on the lake near the canal, was diving off the end of the pier, company with Howard Bailey, a young man of 19, who came here on a visit on Monday. The lake was rough at the time and waves occasionally proke over the pier. Dr. Schram, who is probably the strongest swim-mer at the Bend, was going to swim from the end of the pier to a point on the shore where his wife and children were preparing to bathe. Bailey as him he could make the disance, and was the first to dive off the pier and start for the shore. The doctor plunged in after, there being about 20 feet of water at this point. He soon overtook Bailey and passed. Stanley, To Be Regraded.

"I never thought at the time that he was in trouble," stated Dr. Schram. "He seemed to be getting along fairly well, although the underow from the waves hitting the pier and running out again was very bad at the time, and it battered Mr. Bailey from the very start."

Bailey Disappears.

Shortly after his first call, Bailey disappeared from view, going down in an effort to find bottom. When he came to the surface he called again to the doctor: "I can't make it!" Dr. Schram turned back and went to him through the waves. Getting to his man he told him to roll over on his back, which Bailey did at once, his rescuer getting him by the back of the neck, and swimming along with him. A huge wave broke the grip, and when the next grab was made for Bailey he took Dr. Schram by the leg. A short struggle broke this grip and the doctor again started for the shore when another wave came and filled the visitor with water. In an effort to regain him the doctor received a serious kick in the pit of the stomach, which almost put him out for good. All the time they were working toward the pier. The doctor knew there was no chance of saving Bailey without help, and made for the pier where the life-saving apparatus had been brought. Miss Hortense Simmons of Lansing, Mich., volunteered to swim out with the lifebuoy, which she did, but was unable to get the drowning man to grab it. It was with difficulty that the plucky girl was helped back to the pier.

720 BOTTLES IN ALL

Liquor that would satisfy the taste of any epicure was ordered confiscated by Deputy Magistrate Gladman in police court this morning when persons to whom the liquor was being shipped Saled to appear and show cause why it should not be confiscated.

The liquor in question, contained in six huge packing cases, was seized at signed to the Stoney Point Telephone Company.

Hugh McDougall of the railway company stated that he knew no reason why it should not be seized, and Chief Birrell stated that a warrant had been sent to the consignee, but that it had been returned, there being no Stoney Point Telephone Company.

The magistrate then ordered the liquor confiscated and turned over to the crown in the person of License Inspector Bolton, who will forward it to the government dispensaries, Toronto.

The shipment consisted of 120 bottles Sandy MacDonald, 120 bottles White Horse, 120 bottles Black and White, 120 bottles Gordon gin, 120 bottles Old Chianti and 120 bottles assorted French wines, including champagne, Benedictine, vermouth, etc.

Mr. Ambrose lived in Halifax for Mr. Ambrose lived in Halifax for the past sixteen months. Before taking over the bank there he was engaged in various capacities throughout the Maritime Provinces. Consequently he has a thorough knowledge of eastern conditions, and is familiar with the many trade and industrial problems which the Atlantic provinces have to face.

dustrial problems which the Atlantic provinces have to face.

Indications that a revival of commerce is on the way are everywhere, Mr. Ambrose said. But the rapidity with which a return to normal is enjoyed depends largely on Europe's ability to reconstruct. The fish trade was largely with European countries and their inability to import fish at the present time is a severe blow to maritime commerce.

In other lines, however, the eastern provinces are gradually improving. The apple crop in the Annapolis Valley will be 3,000,000 barrels this year, the largest in history. The lumber industry is recovering from afterwar lethargy and a feeling of optimism prevails.

The Home Bank, Mr. Amb ose said, have no offices in the Maritime Provinces. Consequently no loss was suffered and little uneasiness felt as a result of the defivet institution.

On Being Respectable.

It is to be feared that the word "respectable" is one of those terms which is frequently applied in the vaguest manner and often means nothing at all. It is sometimes asserted, for example, when a young man gets into trouble that "it is a great pity, for he is a very respectable young Tellow and comes of a highly respectable family," and with this as a basis every effort is made to hush up his misdemeanor or to apply the whitewash brush in such a liberal manner that even his closest friends cannot recognize him as a wrongyoung fellow should ever have been suspected.

But, after all, what does the word respectable mean? In the ordinary definition of the term it means something or somebody worthy of respect, but all too frequently it is applied to something or someone whose outward appearance appears to be all right but about whom very little is known. "All is not gold that glitters" is a trite saying that used to be written in our copybooks, but it is to be feared that nowadays the Every business interest in Canada can have only glitter has a good deal to do with the assumption that so-and-so is respectable. It is necessary to look beneath the surface of things in order to ascertain their true nature, because outward appearances are as a rule

THE TEACHER OF HAPPINESS.

By Henry van Dyke

Blessed are-(nine times) .- St. Matthew v., 3-11. The Sermon on the Mount is a sermon on happiness-not outward, but inward. Unrest and "that tired feeling"; discontent and disappointment; the fever of passion and the chill of despair are the very things he comes to

So he begins his great discourse with a series of beatitudes. "Blessed" is the word. "Happy" is the meaning.

Nine times he rings the changes on that word. It is like a silver bell sounding from his open-air temple on the hillside, calling all who long for happiness to come to him and find rest for their souls.

No persecution, nor reproach, nor outward harm of any kind can frighten that happiness away. It is a bird from heaven making its nest and abiding place in the Likes Co-Operation.

William Ferguson, of the 9th concession of Caradoc: "As to the wheat pool, I am not qualified to speak, but on the principle of co-operation, I am convinced. It is the only solution of most of the farmers' troubles. What we want here is a potato pool. We have a very large potato production, over-production, in fact, and we of storage and marketing if we had reaction of some of the leading far-mers in the London district and the co-operative society here.

The greatest trouble and drawback to the successful working of a co-operative society in Ontario as I see it is the tremendous difficulty of holding the members to a definite ontract. Many farmers, for instance, have an immediate need for money when their crops are grown. They are not in a position to hold off for a better market and a stronger deand, and the consequence is that to part with their crop for a part cash payment, which is paid up in full when the middleman has sold it.

full when the middleman has sold it. This is the real cog in the wheel of co-operation in this province, and I wish I could see some feasible way out of the present situation in which the market is glutted.

L. V. Hogarth, Iviholm, Exeter—I know very little of the wheat pool in the west, but I am heartily in favor of the co-operative principle among farmers anywhere. The success of the scheme would seem to me to rest on the possibility of the managers to hold the members to their contract. old the members to their contract wheat pool will go ahead and be a real success. I wish the western farmer every success and all good luck in his venture. As to the op-portunity of co-operation in Ontario I see no reason why it should not be a success; that is, provided the managers are able to enforce their contracts with the members. This is the whole thing in any co-operative Pool is Fine idea.

George Bogue of Lambeth: "The wheat pool in the west is a fine idea. It's just the thing they need, and though we are not large wheat growers in this part of the province I can see the necessity for a pool out there of the only crop that they grow on a large scale. Here we are pretty much scheme would have to deal with some phase of dairying. This west-ern move, if a success, will surely prove a leader for the men in Ontario, and I shall watch its progress with the greatest interest."

Fans need not read between the lines of the following from the comment column of the Toronto Star to come to the conclusion that there may be something to the "Red" Wingo deal after all:

"Now Detroit comes along and denies any knowledge of the Wingo Zeat Hams in Pitchers' Battle deal. Well 'Red' is getting a lot of free advertising out of it while the Toronto club is taking a hard 'ride' from the fans for dispensing of the star player. The final outcome, it is said, will be very pleasing to the fans, when they learn what players the Leafs are to secure in the deal."

> And still the merry battle between the majors and the minors over the draft goes on. The big circus magnates will not admit defeat, nor will the minors-and to all appearances the minors are winning a slbw battleslow, but deadly sure.

Clubs in both big leagues today are in need of new blood to take over jobs that are becoming too heavy for veteran shoulders to bear, and necessiwith Vermilyea on base and his tating speed that aged feet will not cover. The minors have the stareyouthful phenoms, at whom scouts look longingly-but the price named invariably brings a "Tut! tut! too much," or "Is that for a dozen?" from the boss.

> The majors some years ago, in the days of the draft, discarded players as "has beens" who, could they step into uniform today in the same condition as that in which they were when they were relegated to the scrap heap, would stand high among their fellows under both big tents, which means nothing other than that the major league standard of "class" is on the wane, rather than improving. Youngsters from the minors is the answer, and the majors know it.

Maw York, Aug. 21 .- Fans are intersted in an announcement that Floyd Johnson and Gene Manny ... e likely to Johnson and General Control of the likely to be accounted for a September 28 bout at Madison Square Garden. Frank Flournoy, Rickard's matchmaker, Billy Gibson, who manages Tunney, and Charley Cook, director of affairs for Johnson, have had their heads together for several days now, and the result is the announcement above.

This ought to be an interesting battle. Neither man is a heavy hitter, and while Tunney is the more scientific, Johnson looks to be the stronger. Certainly he will outweigh the light heavyweight champion. Johnson, by the within the limit when he lought lend-ler, and, by the same token, there are skeptical persons who would like to see him on scales in which they have faith before they will accept any statements that are made concerning Leonard's weight.

Frankie Genare will be an interested spectator at the Velodrome ringside when Pancho Villa faces Charley Rosenberg in a 15-round battle. Genaro, who held the flyweight title through a referee's decision over Pancho, and got side-tracked when Villa plastered Jimmy Wilde, the world's champion flyweight, has been anxious for a long time to get a crack at the world's title which Villa now holds, and the chances are a battle between the two will mark the opening of the indoor boxing season at the Garden.

Everything On Wheels Is Moving Toward Preston Ball Grounds.

Special to The Advertiser. Guelph, Aug. 21.—The little town of Preston will bulge out on all sides tomorrow afternoon in an effort to accommodate the flock of ball fans that will invade the burg from Galt, Guelph and district points to see the Senior Inter-County League championship decided between the Guelph Maple Leafs and Galt Terriers. It is fully expected and Galt Terriers. It is fully expected that 7,000 or 8,000 will see the game, and, with both teams at their best, the battle should be worth going a long way to witness.

It will be the third time the two teams have met within the week, the Terriers taking the first game here iast Wednesday and the Leafs jumping right into Galt on Saturday and landing the tieing same.

right into Galt on Saturday and landing the tieing game.
Everything on wheels will leave Guelph for the scene of hostilities, including a special C. N. R. train, while Galt will also send its thousands.

The Leafs will likely start Goyer in the box, with Henry primed up and ready should the left-hander weaken. It is expected here that McCarthy will get the Terrier assignment, after his nice work on Saturday when he relieved Graham, who was pounded out of the box in the first frame.

Sheppard and Burridge of Toronto will handle the game. FALKIRK HOLDS RANGERS.

Canadian Press Despatch.
Glasgow, Aug. 21.—Glasgow Rangers, who triumphed in such decisive fashion over Motherweil on Saturday, were unable this afternoon to repeat their victory when they were confronted at Ibrox Park by Falkirk. The West Lothian team had succumbed in their opening game to the Celtic, and were not regarded as strong enough to overcome the Rangers today, but the fact that they held their own came as something of a surprise. The result was:
Falkirk 2, Rangers 2.

CARRY THIRTEEN-GOAL LEAD. Special to The Advertiser.

Ingersoil, Aug. 21.—Much interest is being manifested here in the midget O. A. L. A. game to be played tomorrow at Petrolia. The local youngsters will carry a thirteen-goal lead with them to Petrolia, and, should they win the round, they are slated to meet St. Catharines, last year's midget champions, here Saturday afternoon.

he is jogging along at a 365 clip and is fighting for third place among the league.

Attention may be called to one thing. Speaker made his best records when there was no excuse of lively bails. Away back in 1912 he hit for .382, and they were playing with the same ball then they are now, but they were playing with the same ball then they are now, but they were playing with the same ball then they are now, but they were playing with the same ball then they are now, but they were playing with the same ball then they are now, but they didn't run around in circles and alibi for Speaker's .382 on the ground that the ball was lively ball they didn't run around in the possible of the second of the ground that the ball was lively batted the ball for .386. committee of the U. S. Lawn Tennis Association.

The committee's choice of Richards, No. 3 ranking star, occasioned some surprise because of the fact that the youngster had abandoned his national doubles title partnership with Tilden. In the 1922 Davis Cup challenge round the United States sustained its only defeat when Richards and Tilden were beaten in the doubles by Gerald Patterson and Pat O'Hara Wood.

Johnston and Tilden, who probably will bear the brunt of the singles play, will represent this country for the fourth successive year. They have never been beaten in the singles.

The United States team of R. M. Williams II, and Watson Washburn and Clarence J. Griffin and William M. Johnston came through handily.

The most thrilling match of the day was the defeat of Vincent Richards and Dean Mathey at the hands of Manuel Alonzo and Wallace F. Johnson in four sets, 9—7, 2—6, 6—3, 7—5.

In the nature of upsets were the victories of the Australian colt team of John D. McInnis and E. W. MILLIONAIRE PATRON COMES TO BOSS FIRPO

Horatio Lavelle, Argentine Lightweight, Explodes Drug Clerk Story.

Associated Press Despatch. New York, Aug. 21.—Horatio Lavalle, nillionaire Argentine sportsman and atron of Luis Angel Firpo, arrived today aboard the American Legion from Buenos Aires to take charge of the South American pugilist's campaign of raining for his title match with Jack training for his title match with Jack Dempsey Sept. 14 at the Polo Grounds. Senor Lavelle, accompanied by several other ring enthusiasts from the Argentine, was met by Firpo. After a short conference with Tex Rickard, promoter of the championship match, at Madison Square Garden. Lavelle and Firpo departed for Atlantic City, where the challenger has established quarters. Active workouts will be started tomorrow, it was said.

The story that Firpo served an apprenticeship as a drug clerk in Buenos Aires before beginning his ring career was exploded by other arrivals from the Argentine, Before Firpo took up boxing, they said, he was simply a manual laborer. He has been a stevedore, bootblack, and at one time washed bottles in a drug store, whence originated the drug clerk legend.

Lavelle, 28 years old, is millionaire owner of a wheat and grazing plantation near Buenos Aires. Lavelle won the amateur lightweight championship of Latin America at the Brazilian centennial exposition last year.

ALL DOMINION BOWLING GAMES HALTED BY RAIN

Canadian Press Despatch.

Toronto, Aug. 21.—It is not often that the Weatherman frowns on the Dominion bowling tournament, but today the bowlers were certainly in his bad graces, as not one game was completed in any of the three competitions on account of the rain. A start was made at each of the nine clubs about three o'clock, but the players were forced to abandon their efforts before the games were completed. As a result, the comretitions are just 24 hours behind, and it will take some pretty smooth work by Secretary Clayton Smith and his assistants to get the ring competitions, as well as the singles and doubles, off lefore Saturday night.

It was announced late yesterday afternoon at tournament headquarters at the Victoria Club that the rinks would have a busy day tomorrow, weather permitting

MONOPOLY ON TROPHIES PLAYGROUNDS GAMES

Even Downpour of Rain Fails To Stop Girls' Dodge-

Eight teams comprising 100 girls from the various playgrounds withstood the rain long enough yesterday to determine finalists for the great festival of play which takes place at Thames Park on Saturday next. Dodge ball was the game played, and to put it mildly the pace was fast.

Right from the start, which was made in Victoria Park, each player was there, chuck, full of "pep" and enthusiasm, ready to "do" or "die" for their playgrounds; it would have done any old timer good to witness the "freedom from care" and spirit of loyalty which manifested itself as these teams battled in the rain; it is true that three of the matches were carried to the X. U. A. Buchner.

Urban A. Buchner was presented to the bar by Sir William. The quality which endeared him to Mr. Buchner was his consideration of young law-yers while on the bench. He was a product of the old school of courtesy and gentlemanliness, always ready and willing to help more youthful members of the profession in their trials and difficulties.

"Sir William fathered some of the best laws we have," Mr. Buchner said. "He promoted the workmen's framing of the bill he visited Europe one of its most outstanding citizens." and the United States to study conditions applying to the act there. He was also responsible for the mechans' liens act. I was employed in the office of the late Judge Duncan Mc-Millan and E. R. "When Mr. Meredith was elected to the legislature, the Mowat gov-ernment was then extremely strong He was practically the only hig man in the Conservative party in Ontario and was made leader of the opposition. Although opposed politically to the Liberals, he assisted them readily in framing legislation. In fact, his services were indefatigable, and Premier Mowat offered, for the first time in history, a salary to Mr. Meredith as leader of the opposition. This he refused, believing the offer to be irregular.

Had Famous Cases.

The late Sir William Meredith was associated with many famous law cases in the course of his brilliant career. He and Hugh Mac-Mahon, Q.C., were counsels in the most famous murder case, perhaps, in the history of the provincial bar. This was the Biddulph murder trial. At the first trial Mr. Meredith addressed the jury, and they disagreed. Another trial was ordered, and Mr. MacMahon addressed the jury, securing the prisoner's acquittal."

Other Tributes. When informed of the death of Chief Justice Meredith last night Hon, C. S. Hyman was deeply moved "I have known Sir William Mere-dith all my life," he said. "He was my private solicitor and also solicitor for my firm. I had the very highest respect for him in every way. He was

J. Frank White, M. P. for London J. Frank White, M. P. for London, spoke in similar terms of the late chief justice. "Everyone feels that the country has lost a great man," he said. "We all think of the days when he went from London to the legislature and as the leader of the party. Issued Checks Were Accepted by Home Bank, Then Returned as Worthless.

HAD ENOUGH FUNDS

Special to The Advertiser Toronto, August 22.-A Toronto roker is somewhat puzzled by the intricacies of the banking system as llustrated by the suspension of payment by the Home Bank. He is not quite so worried now as he was, because an answer to his questions has been obtained. Last Friday morning he went into the Home Bank on King street and deposited money bringing his account up to nearly $5,000, he issued checks against it for over $4,000 and they were accepted by the bank and marked accepted on Friday morning early. He deposited the checks at the customs house in payment of goods belonging to his cus-tomers. The clearing house on Sat-urday morning refused the checks as the Home Bank suspended payment on Friday night.

The broker got them back on Mon-day morning and had to hurry around to find money to release the goods, and he is still trying to raise some of and sent back to the customs house and returned to him. He is walking around with $4,000 in marked checks its doors, which are no good to him or his customers, and apparently marked off against his account.

An official of the bank explained today that he would stand in the position of a depositor credited with the full amount of his account, losing out of consideration the amount of the marked checks. With this explana-tion he is much relieved, as he feared he was caught both ways depositing and withdrawing. He is in the pos tion of a depositor having nearly $5,000 on deposit in the Home Bank,

W. J. Wintemberg to Explore For Remains of Attiwandrian Tribe.

DISTURBED SITE

Excavations were commenced this morning on the farms of Ray Lawson and George McComb, four miles northwest of London, on the supposed site of the ancient tribe of Attiwandrian Indians.

W. J. Wintemberg, Canadian archaeologist and officer of the staff of the Victoria Memorial Museum, Ot-tawa, was on the farms this morning and will personally conduct the ex-plorations. Mr. Wintemberg has been sent to this city by the Dominion government to seek historical infor-mation regarding the prehistoric tribe of neutral or Attiwandrian Indians. who were supposed to have inhabited this region 500 years ago.

Makes Maps and Charts.

Owing to previous explorations, which have been carried on by amateurs, the soil on the Indian site has been disturbed and rendered useless for a systematic investigation. The ordinary course of procedure during an excavation of this description cannot be carried out. It is custom-ary to have charts and maps made and ne is still trying to raise some of it. The broker wanted to know what position he was in. The checks were good against his account in the bank, he understands, as withdrawals, but were refused by the clearing house and sent back to the customs house Surface soil is to be dug up first, and providing no relic or skeleton is found it will be necessary to dig deeper. "At any rate," said Mr. Wintemberg, "it will not be necessary to dig deeper than four or five feet, because rarely have ludion deleter. because rarely have Indian skeletons, pottery and relics been buried very deeply in the ground. In some cases Indians buried their dead only a few feet below the surface." This fact bears out the theory that the skele-ton found several months ago by two boys on Chelsea Green was that of an Indian. The boys discovered some bones projecting above the ground and the remaining parts of the skeleton were found only a few inches When undisturbed soil or soil not containing cultural matter, is reached, the workmen will discontinue digging in that region. Cultural desits, which is black soil containing is gone over minutely by Mr. Wintemberg himself. Photographs are taken of the exact position the find was made, and day on. drawing showing the size and the best the railroad out of fares was attitude in which the skeleton was lying is prepared. The drawings are duplicated on a map, and must coincide with the photographs taken.

Buried Doubled Up.
From excavations which have been recently made in Ontario it was found that all skeletons unearthe were in a doubled up position. According to Mr. Wintemberg this seems to be the posture in which the Indians buried their dead.

"I am unable to proceed as fast as I might if the soil I was exploiting was virgin," said Mr. Wintemberg, was virgin, said Mr. Wintemberg,
"but in the course of a week I hope to make some excavations which will

MINERS PREPARE TO DESERT MINES AS HOPE DEPARTS

Workers See No Possibility of Averting Strike Early in September.

WASHINGTON IS CALM

Special to The Advertiser.

Atlantic City, N. J., Aug. 22.—
Miners' leader today made final arrangements for suspension of work in the anthracite fields Sept. 1.

Following the collapse of the negotiations between miners and operators, which came when they were unable to agree to a 20 per cent wage increase, the union chiefs rushed to completion all details incident to the walk out of 155,000 men.

No further orders are necessary. The suspension goes into effect automatically Sept. 1. unless it is sepcifically called off.

John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers announced his men would go out in a body and bring the industry to a complete standstill as a protest against the position of the operators in refusing to grant a recognition of the union, a 20 per cent wage increase and the check off system.

Deadlock Complete

The deadlock in the negotiations is complete and the two factions for the first time in their present dealings are at sword points.

Lewis has informed Samuel D.

Warriner, chairman of the policy commission of the anthracite operators, that it is useless to attempt any further negotiations as long as the operators adhere to their present position. Warriner told Lewis that the oper-ators were adamant and he foresaw no hope of according to the miners

The two sides, now completely split over every point under discussion, are waiting word from Washington. Warriner frankly says that he expects a move from President Coolidge or the United States Coal Commission. He still is optimistic that something will is closed as far as the miners are

Washington, Aug. 22.—Presider coolidge today faced his first na:

onal crisis, an impending strike i he hard coal fields In the tense, anxious atmospher about the White House, Coolidge calm and self possessed. He ac like a man who knows what he about and determined to see

But beyond his announcement tha the public would not suffer for lack of coal in event of a strike and his advisors' declaration that Mr. Cool-idge is depending solely on public opinion as a weapon, he has given no hint of his course of action.

While the miners are opposed to arbitration on matters of principle, such as the check off, the question of wages, it was pointed out that with the question of wages settled some officials believe an agreement to, temporarily at least, keep the mines running will be reached. All talk of a special session of congress was regarded as idle in view of the president's opposition to that course and an injunction, the legality of which was seriously questioned, was likewise believed to be remote.

Canadian Press Despatch.
Ottawa, Aug. 22.—Development in the critical situation which has developed in the anthracite mining field of the United States are being closely followed by federal fuel auth-orities, but there is a hesitancy to make any public statement at the present time. The general feeling, however, is that there is little likelihood of a repetition of the abnormal fuel scarcity of last year.

Returns from the bureau of statistics show that anthractie has this year been moving into Canada at a greater rate than last. There has also been an increase in importations of coal from the United Kingdom.

DRAMA LEAGUE READY FOR BIGGEST SEASON

Will Start Year With Membership Drive and Three-Act Play in October.

At a recent meeting of the produc-tion committee of the London Drama League held at the home of the convener, Mrs. Arthur Brickenden, plans were made for an exceptionally fine program for the coming winter. The year will open with a big drive for members in October. By this time, it is expected, that the complete pro-gram of plays for the year will be drawn up, so that the members will know exactly what is before them. The first play, which will be produced by Sidney C. Sims at the October meeting, will probably be a three-act play, following out the policy of the production committee this year to give longer productions at each meeting of the club. In many instances two one-act plays are scheduled for a single meeting. This will give an opportunity for a greater number to take part in the productions and so bring into the club more talent. The big public play is scheduled for April and has already been chosen. Great mystery surrounds the name of the production, but it is whispered that it is one of the newest comedies and will create quite a sensation when presented on the London stage.

The Drama League took, its rightful place as a public institution during Old Boys' Week, just past, and entered a float in the Friday night parade, carrying off a prize. The float was decorated by Mrs. Arthur Brickenden, Mrs. Kenneth Greene and Mrs. Harry Young, who worked en-ergetically to make it one of the

Sir William R. Meredith Ontario's Chief Justice Dies After Brief Illness

Death Occurs Following Operation in Royal Victoria Hospital, Montreal.

BORN IN MIDDLESEX

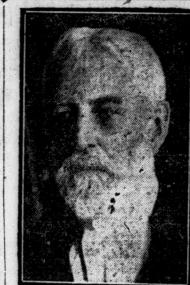

Was On Vacation At Maine Summer Resort When Taken III.

Canadian Press Despatch Montreal, Aug. 21.-At the age of 88 years and after only a week's illness, the Hon, Sir William Ralph Meredith, chief fustice of the supreme court of Ontario, died at the Royal Victoria Hospital here tonight. One week earlier he had been brought

BULLDOG

DIES IN MONTREAL. Sir William Meredith, chief justice of the supreme court of Ontario, whose death occurred last evening in Royal Victoria Hospital, Montreal. Chief Justice Meredith was born in this city and practiced his profession here for years before being elevated to the herch purriedly to Montreal from Scarboro Beach. Maine, where he had gone as usual to pass a month with his familv. At that time Sir William was apparently in the best of health, looking well and taking an active part in all the attractions of the seashore, including bathing. Owing, however, to intestinal trouble, it was deemed advisable to seek medical aid and surgical treatment and he was brought to the Royal Victoria Hospital. It soon became evident that the condition of the patient was one for some apprehen-sion, and a slight operation was found necessary, Although weaken-ing daily, Sir William remained concious, clear of intellect and mainnd cheerfulness. When the end came onight there were with him: Lady Meredith; his daughter, Mrs. W. W. Ramsay of Toronto; Chief Justice R. M. Meredith of London, Ont., and Sir Vincent and Lady Meredith of Mon-

It was stated here tonight that the funeral would be from the family residence, 41 Binscarth road, Toronto, and the remains will be sent there morrow morning.

Hon. Sir William Ralph Meredith, one of the best known of several brothers, including another justice of Ontario, Hon. R. M. Meredith, of London, and the president of the Bank of Montreal, Sir Vincent Meredith, was a public spirited, patriotic citizen of unusual vigor of body and mind. Even when he had reached the period of life which usually comes under the head of "old age" he connued his judicial duties with appar righ return, and the steadiness of the arnings development. At 35, Columbia Gas still yields close to 7½ per cent. There was more activity also in Philadelphia company in Consolidated Gas and Brooklyn Edison, all at rising was purices. Public Service of New Jersey went along with the rest, despite the strike.

Mighle States Gill

Public utility stocks came into some prominence again. Large blocks of columbia Gas were taken at 35, and the stock was carried through that figure. The buying is founded solely on the ligh return, and the steadiness of the carnings development. At 35, Columbia Gas still yields close to 7½ per cent. There was more activity also in Philadelphia company in Consolidated Gas and Brooklyn Edison, all at rising prices. Public Service of New Jersey went along with the rgst, despite the strike.

TODAY'S OPENING PRICES. Chicago, Aug. 22.—Higher quotations at Liverpool gave strength to the Chicago wheat market during the early dealings. Offerings increased, however, after the start and the early advance was checked. Predicted frost for parts of Canada failed to materialize and fair and warmer weather is expected in the domestic wheat regions. There was some scattered commissioon house business on both sides of the market, but trade was light and prices soon became steady. Opening prices, which ranged from unchanged to % higher were followed by a little further rise, and then a dea little further rise, and then a de-ish.

Realizing sales gave the September corn delivery a weak start, opening ½ to ½ lower, December and May were unchanged to ¾ up.

BRITISH TENNIS PLAYERS TRIM AMERICAN WOMEN

Associated Press Despatch.

Newport, Aug. 21. — Mrs. Geraldine Reamish and Mrs. R. C. Clayton. British women's tennis team. defeated Miss Lillian Scharman and Miss Ceres Baker, representing the United States, 6—1. 2—6. 6—3. in the last of six interrational matches played at the Casino courts yesterday and today. The victory gave Great Britain four victories in the matches against two for the United States, and also averged the defeat suffered by the British in the international tournament.

Earlier in the day the draw brought Mrs. Molla B. Maliory and Miss Eleanor Goss together, Mrs. Mallory winning by 11—9, 6—3.

SEEK PRINCE OF WALES AS PATRON OF REGATTA

Canadian Press Despatch.

Canadian Press Despatch.

St. Catharines, Aug. 21.—"That the development of the Royal Canadian Henley regatta depends upon its nationalization and linking up with the Royal House and the representatives of the crown in Canada" is the opinion expressed after several talks with representatives of the Leander crew and the C. A. A. O. here.

The securing of the Prince of Wales as a patron, and Lord Byng as president, with the lieutenant-governor of each province as vice-presidents is proposed, and it is felt as a result that constant interest, financial and otherwise, would be stimulated, and rowing crews in the various provinces feel encouragement. In addition, it is altogether likely that considerable financial support would also be forthcoming for the local improvement now made necessary.

KEN WILL USE "ILLEGAL" BAT AS LONG AS HE CAN

St. Louis, Aug. 21.—Kenneth Williams, St. Louis home run slugger, used his alleged illegal bat in yesterday's game with Washington. Manager Austin said Williams would continue using the bat, which contains a wooden plug at the heavy end, until Ban Jehnson, president of the American League, ruled on its legality.

DALLAS TRAPSHOOTER WINS. Associated Press Despatch.
Chicago, Aug. 21.—Phil R. Miller of Dallas, Texas, today won the amateur doubles championship of North America, the feature event of the Grand American handicap trapshooting tournament at the South Shore Country Club. He broke 181 out of a possible 200 targets.

ORDER SPRING BULBS NOW. About the farthest thing from one's thoughts on a hot August afternoon are the cool, fresh blooms of the spring—the daffodils, crocuses, snowdrops, tulips and hyacinths. Yet now is the time to order your bulbs if you wish to be sure of your masses of spring loveliness next April. If you wait until the time for planting these bulbs-September, October, or even November-you will find that the stocks of nurserymen are ex-hausted. Last year I wanted to have among my crocuses a mass of blue grape hyacinth and scilla, but my order was returned to me unfilled with the notation "supply ex-

Many inexperienced gardeners plant their bulbs very much too late. It is of course possible to put them any time before heavy frost, and they sometimes do well enough; but it is much safer to put them in earlier and give the roots a chance to establish their connection with the il in readiness to begin early in the

The garden book which is my in-fallible guide advises me that bulbs should be planted in general by September 15. The bulbs of candidum lilies (the earliest blooming lily) should be in the ground by September 10. (Other lilies may be planted as late as October 25, or even early in the spring.) September 15 is the you will plant your bulbs is in spring proper date for putting in snowdrops, itself—the time they bloom. Reaffirms the Stand Taken by France—Denies Attempt To Crush Germany.

BRITAIN MUST WAIT

Special Cable to The Advertiser. Paris, Aug. 22 .- To ask France to ake a different attitude toward Germany would be tantamount to saying that nation is right. Premier Poincare declared in his reply to the British reparations note, which was made public here today.

Poincare said France does not desire to remain in the Ruhr longer than necessary, and has no political or annexationist aids.

It is not a fact, the premier said, that the French claims are of a nature to crush Germany or exceed her ability to pay. France's propositions of amendments provided her principles are not infringed upon France does not suppose that Eng-land intends to claim the sums owed to her by the other allies before reparations actually are settled, the re-ply continued. England must cer-tainly realize that France, in order to pay her debts, must previously have recovered her contributive pow-er, repaired her losses, and recovered her position to meet German com-netition with equal weapons.

The reply was generally consider-ed maintaining inflaxibly the previous French attitude. It does not change its demand for the cessation of pas-sive resistance in the Ruhr; it refaces an international commission, asks 26,000,000,000 marks for France and suggests a friendly discussion. buggy in which were riding Arthur saying. "We cannot pay until after Commissioner Claims Improvements Must Be Made in Cheese and Butter.

NEW ZEALAND LEADS REPORTS COOL WEATHER

Ottawa, Aug. 22.—A strong warning to Canadian dairymen of the need of better methods to meet the competition of New Zealand and Aus-

"During the years in which Can-ada was the principal source of sup-ply in the world's market for cheese of the Cheddar type," says Mr. Rud-dick "the producers of that article took very little interest in what the competitors were doing. The lack of serious competition engendered a false sense of security.

Supplant Canadians. The announcement last year that New Zealand had pushed Canadians out of first place as the largest ex-porters of cheese was rather a shock to Canadian producers, all the more Quite as important, however, as the increase in the volume of New Zea-land cheese available for export, is the marked improvement reported in its

"In the case of butter also, the conditions prevailing in Canada durconditions prevailing in Canada during the past ten or twelve years have not provided the needful spur to secure the best results. With practically the whole of their butter being marketed at home, the Canadian butter makers lost that touch with the developments in taste and other than the capacitaments that comes to those sequirements that comes to those requirements that comes to those whose products compete with supplies from other countries."

Has Better Flavor.

Comparing Canadian with New Zealand dairy products, Mr. Ruddick expresses the view that "the best Canadian is better flavored cheese than any New Zealand, however, he adds "there are less really poor New Zealand cheese than there are Cana-

"Our impression," he says again "is that (New Zealand) producers have more self reliance and initiative than the same class in Canada and are not so much inclined to lean on the government."
The dairy commissioner closes his bulletin with suggestions for the im-provement of dairy methods in Can-He points out that the Canadian dairymen have many advantages over their antipodean competitors but says it would be folly to ignore that competition. He does ont sug-gest a blind following of New Zea-land or Australian methods but advises that Canadian producers work out their own salvaation in their own way.

make his Want Ad appeal to women.

While, in the case of a house or an automobile, a woman may not do the actual buying, in a great number of cases she will at least influence the choice. The good advertiser will think of this influence when he writes his Want Ad. He will put in it facts which will appeal to women. Closets; convenient kitchen; artistic decorations-those things instantly arrest feminine interest. And facts of equally strong appeal to women can be put into Want Ads selling many other things.

The Buying Importance of Women

"Notice the facts I've underlined in that Want Ad?" asked the real estate advertiser. "Those facts are put there for a purpose. Three guesses to tell me what that purpose is!" One fact underlined—the description was of a home offered for sale-was, "6 roomy closets." Another was, "Most convenient kitchen in the city." Still another was, "Furnish-

The answer is important to Want advertisers selling many things--yet many have not taken thought to heed it. There are many Want Ads on homes for sale which contain no such touches. They should contain them, for they multiply inquiries from one great section of the buying public. Those readers we

Women do an overwhelming perceptage of the retail buying of the nation. Even a hardware store recently reported that at least sixty per cent of store customers were women, The percentage is far higher in the department store. This condition exists-and it applies strongly to Want Ad Buying. too-partly because women are by nature buyers, and partly because they have much more time to buy than their husbands.

and coat she returned in, and was hatless. She is suffering slightly from shock, and her hair was singed a little from the blazes which chased her through the hotel to safety.

Miss Patterson had retired early in the evening and was aroused by the horrible screams, but in her dazed condition went back to her bed and asleep again. A great bang on her door awakened her the second time, and when she opened the door she was almost overcome by the smoke and flames. Miss Patterson attempted to find her trunk key to obtain a large amount of money she had taken with her, but was rushed out of the building just in time to save her life. Many of the people went insane, stated Miss Patterson, and said that the sight of the ruins was unbearable.
