MONTDIDIER TAKEN BY FRENCH

Important Town at the Apex of German Salient Falls

Total of 24000 Prisoners Are Taken by Allies

Maximum Advance of Present Offensive Now Thirteen Miles; French Continue Progress, Taking Several Towns and Other Positions of Importance

By Courier Leased Wire.

LONDON, Aug. 10.—Bulletin.—The important town of Montdidier, which was approximately at the apex of the German salient, south of the Somme, has been captured by the Allies.

The number of prisoners taken from the Germans in the fighting in Picardy has increased to 24,000 the war office announces.

American troops delivered an attack in the angle between the Somme and the Ancre, and achieved a considerable success. British and Americans captured the town of Morlan-court between the Somme and the Ancre.

Canadian and Australian forces captured Bouchoir, Meharicourt and Lihons, and have entered Rainecourt and Proyart.

The French forces captured Le-Tronquoy, Le-Frotoy and Assainville.

PARIS, Aug. 10.—Bulletin.—The French began a movement southeast of Montdidier last night, and virtually have that place surrounded, according to the official statement of the war office today.

The towns of Assainville and Rubescourt were captured, and the French reached Faveroles, less than two miles east of Montdidier. Northwest of Montdidier, the French have advanced east of Arvillers, six miles north east of Roye, and have captured Davenes-court, two miles east of Pierrefont.

The war office statement reads: The French troops operating on the right of the British forces continued their success throughout last evening, and last night. Our troops progressed east of Arvillers, and captured Davenescourt.

They attacked south of Montdidier between Ayencourt and Le-Frotoy, and occupied Rubescourt and Assainville and reached Faveroles.

ADVANCE THIRTEEN MILES

LONDON, Aug. 10.—When the French captured Beaufort, Friday, they had made an advance of thirteen miles eastward from Gaster. This is the maximum infantry advance of the present offensive thus far reported.

CONTINUE PROGRESS

With the French Army in France, Aug. 9.—By the Associated Press.—The French continue their progress northwest of Montdidier today, reaching the line at Courtemanche, Pierront Hangest, and increasing the number of prisoners to four thousand, including three Colonels with their complete staffs.

So quick did the infantry rush on with the supporting tanks that two colonels were caught while putting on their leggings. The soldiers captured manifested joy that the war was over for them. The officers showed ill-humor and grumbled because they had to walk to the rear, and could not ride.

The resistance of the enemy infantry and machine gun detachments appeared stronger today on the French sector. The reaction of the enemy artillery was relatively more feeble than on Thursday. The French took a number of guns, which at once were turned against the enemy. The booty captured by the French was large.

FOE IN FLIGHT

PARIS, Aug. 10.—Bulletin.—The retrograde movement of the Germans is being accelerated by the favorable progress of the new attack south of Montdidier.

BATTLE SPREADING

LONDON, Aug. 10.—Bulletin.—The Picardy battle is spreading to the south of Arras, the Pall Mall Gazette says this afternoon. Heavy fighting occurred this morning in the battle area, with the Allies making satisfactory progress, and taking large numbers of prisoners.

ONE HUNDRED MORE GUNS.

One hundred additional German guns have been taken by the Allies.

CANADIAN CAVALRY.

Canadian cavalry, which is operating close to Chaules, report that the enemy is fighting strong.

CANADIANS BORE VALIANT PART

By Courier Leased Wire.

With the Canadian Forces—By J. F. B. Livesey, Can. Press Correspondent in France)—Although the full fruits of the great victory on the Somme are not yet gathered, enough is known at this time to place it among the imperishable deeds of arms of this war. The Canadian force held an honorable position in the Allied armies which attacked the enemy lines on a twenty mile front. The Canadians went over the top at twenty minutes past four on August 8 and sixteen minutes thereafter the first prisoners began to come. By 8 o'clock a large part of the initial objective had been taken.

The victory has been notable for a number of things. For the first time the Canadian cavalry itself on the same battle field with the infantry. For the first time, too, the Canadian forces employed tanks in large numbers, both of the heavy and "Whippet" varieties. Also it was the first time that Canadians had fought side by side with their brethren from Australia. The victory, however, is notable chiefly for the wonderful staff work that alone made it possible. There was no artillery preparation in the usual sense of the world. The men went in immediately behind the barrage, and fought up with it as it lifted. The Boche was taken completely by surprise and prisoners were astounded to find they were surrendering to the Canadians.

The Canadian soldiers never went into action with more irrepressible eagerness and determination not to be refused, than they did Thursday. Through tired from a march that permitted little rest before the battle, they went over the top with the unbeatable spirit of the men who fought and died at Ypres on the Somme and in a dozen glorious fields. It was a clear starry night with the faint light of dawn touching the eastern sky. Of a sudden, with one deafening pulse, the roar of guns broke out. Far to the right was the flicker of the French seventy-five's and of the American field guns and heavies. Immediately on the Canadian flank the Australians put up a great show in a sector where they had fought for several days past. Beyond them the Imperial troops were in action.

Fortunately, on the first day's fighting, as the dawn increased, the visibility became poor. A dense fog swept down the valleys. While this was protection against machine gunners, it greatly increased the difficulty of the troops finding their way over unknown ground. In the first day's fighting, the Canadian losses were not very heavy. One unit had heavy losses in its first attack, but succeeded in taking its objective after the tanks had come to its reinforcement. Owing to the poor visibility, there was little fighting in the air on Thursday over the Canadian sectors.

A CELEBRATION

The news continues to be so good from the front, said Mayor MacBride this morning, that a demonstration is in order. We have waited four long years for some genuine cheering, and it is about time to have it unbottled. Accordingly I ask automobiles to meet at the Armouries at 8.30 tonight, and thence parade to Alexandra Park, where a band will be in attendance. I hope all citizens of Brantford will join in making the event a hummer.

ANGLO-FRENCH TROOPS CONTINUE IN THE ASCENDANCY ON ENTIRE BATTLE FRONT

By Courier Leased Wire.

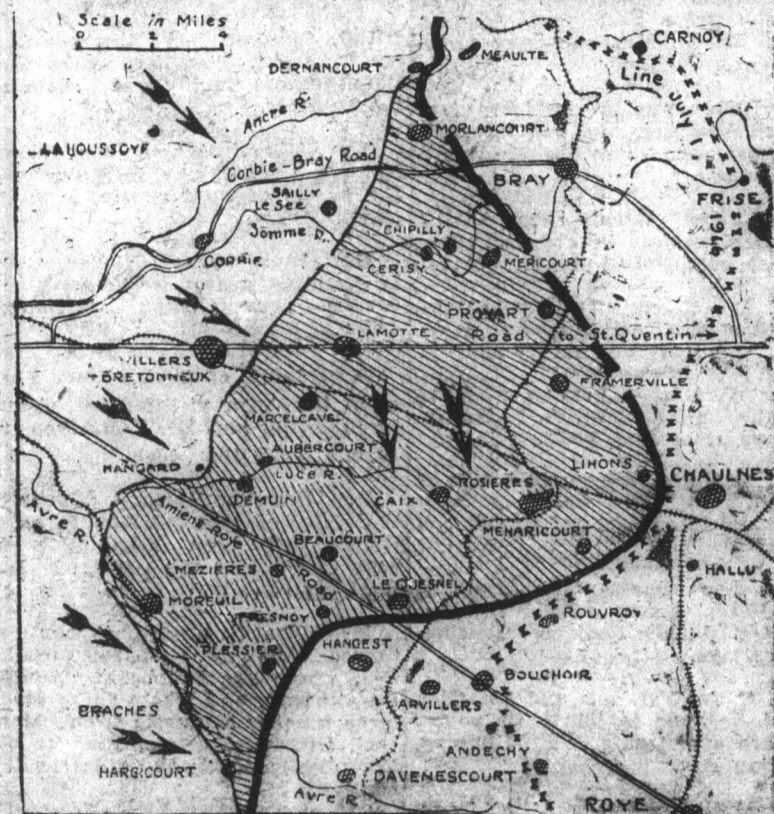

Paris, Aug. 10.—The German army of General Von Hutier is retreating from the Montdidier line.

BATTLE RAGES

Washington, Aug. 10.—The startling rapidity of the British advance in Picardy, coupled with new successes in Flanders and on the Vesle, produced an impression among some officers here that one of the decisive moments of the war, perhaps the beginning of the final battle, was rapidly approaching.

On the basis of such reports as were available, the German High Command seemed to stand face to face with a vital decision. It is believed that the German army reserves must be rushed to meet a possible battle.

THE GREAT ALLIED GAIN SOUTH OF THE SOMME RIVER. This map indicates the great advance in Picardy following the offensive launched Thursday, yielding 24,000 prisoners. Rosieres, Lihons, Memarcourt, Le-Quessel, Fresnoy and Plesier are among the villages taken.

Cavalry Skirmishers Well in Advance of Line Held by Infantry FOE RETREATS

By Courier Leased Wire.

Paris, Aug. 10.—Anglo-French troops continue in the ascendancy, according to the latest reports from the fighting front in Picardy.

The line as marked out in the official statements, is that which is held solidly by infantry, cavalry skirmishers being well in advance of it and preparing the way for further progress.

The Germans are relying on machine guns to stem the Allied tide, not wishing to risk their artillery, which is bound to be captured under even the slightest mischance. The enemy is defending himself with desperate courage where the position affords means, and the officers are shooting down any soldier who shows symptoms of quitting.

At this stage of the battle military observers here say, the problem facing the rival commanders is easily defined. Thus Marshal Foch struck skillfully at the point where the army groups of Crown Prince Rupprecht of Bavaria and the German Crown Prince John, obliging the enemy to hurriedly reorganize the higher command and to place the armies of General Von Der Marwitz and Von Hutier under one chief. This operation has temporarily thrown the Germans off their balance and it is their object now to regain it. The task of the Allies is to throw the Germans still further off their balance.

In a retreat Von Hutier would be obliged to use three high roads and two railroads which converge on Roye like the spokes of a wheel. Beyond the town a retreat would be dependent upon two roads towards Ham and the Somme, one direct and the other by way of Vesle.

From these geographical details it will be seen that Von Hutier in a retreat would be forced to squeeze his heavy artillery and convoys through Roye. It would be like putting them through a rolling mill for the French advance troops, who are six miles north of Roye, while the centre of the German front is eleven miles south of that town.

NEW FRONT.

London, Aug. 10. (Reuters cable to Can. Press)—Reuters correspondent at French headquarters; cables under date of Friday evening as follows:

"The front formed as a result of the French advance of today is a large convex curve from Courtemanche to Housies and about eleven miles from Morlan on the west bank of the Aves opposite Morlan whence the French started yesterday morning. The enemy is naturally holding the flank of our attack in the region of Montdidier more obstinately than the center. The colonels of 3 German regiments and their staffs were captured as a result of yesterday morning's surprise before the officers had time to finish dressing. One killed, but French soldiers ran him down and brought him back.

SUB COMMANDER DEAD.

London, Aug. 10.—Lieut. Commander Schweiger, who commanded the submarine which sunk the Lusitania, is dead. His death occurred in September, 1917, but has only been admitted by the German admiralty now, according to reports received here.

Last September Schweiger was in command of the U-83 which was destroyed by British mines near Heligoland.

FEEL CITY NOT RESPONSIBLE FOR DAMAGES

Special Committee to Adjust Flood Claims Take This Stand

CASE TO BE TRIED

The claims of citizens on Jubilee Avenue for damages by reason of flooding have been under investigation by the special committee appointed by the Council to deal with flood claims who have interviewed the different owners and have heard their statements in reference to the matter, and have also visited the ground and made investigation of the facts so far as they can be ascertained.

The property owners appear to be convinced that the demand was caused by the fact that the valve at the foot of Jubilee Avenue which was installed there for the purpose of preventing water backing up into the sewer from the river, when there is high water in the river was closed when it should have been open.

The most careful investigation has convinced the committee that this is not the fact and that on the contrary the valve was open when it should have been open and closed when it should have been closed. In other words, the valve was operated properly for the purpose for which it was installed.

Under these circumstances the committee do not feel that the city is responsible for the undoubted loss and inconvenience when the property owners suffered by reason of the high water. Under the extreme conditions which existed, it would seem to be impossible to prevent the flooding of property on this street.

In view of the fact that the property owners feel that they have a grievance against the city and are prepared to recommend that a trial be had of the question of liability as early and with as little expense as possible, and will be prepared to accept the result of a test case on the question of liability in the several cases in which the facts are the same. This is of course subject to the test case being one that will be subject to appeal so that either party will have the benefit of the opinion of a Court of superior jurisdiction.

BOLSHEVIK ARREST ALLIED DIPLOMATS

Acting Consul General in Moscow, Together With British and French Emissaries, Are Placed Under Arrest

By Courier Leased Wire.

LONDON, Aug. 10.—Robert H. B. Lockhart, acting consul general in Moscow, and six Britishers attached to his staff, and several French diplomatic agents have been arrested in Moscow by the Bolsheviki, says the Daily Mail. The newspapers attributes to the foreign office a statement that there is no reason to believe it is true that the British at Archangel shot representatives of the Soviet, and adds:

There was some shooting before Archangel, incidental to the landing operations, but this could only have been in reply to shots fired at our forces by the Bolsheviki forces. It is possibly a reprisal for our landing at Archangel, and in the Murmansk region.

LONDON, Aug. 9.—Delayed.—The Evening News says that J. O. Wardrop, the British consul at Moscow, was arrested along with R. H. B. Lockhart. Messrs. Lockhart and Wardrop remained in Moscow, when the diplomatic staff went to Archangel.

SITUATION TO-DAY

By Courier Leased Wire.

London, Aug. 10.—Enemy counter-attacks in the Morlanecourt sector, which followed the Allied success, were beaten off in intensive fighting.

The text of the War Office statement reads: "Yesterday afternoon and evening the advance of the Allied armies continued on the whole front from south of Montdidier to the Ancre."

"French troops, attacking south of Montdidier during the afternoon, captured Le-Tronquoy, Le-Frotoy and Assainville, threatening Montdidier from the southeast. Over 2,000 prisoners were captured by our Allies in this sector."

"Canadian and Australian divisions have taken Bouchoir, Meharicourt and Lihons and have entered Rainecourt and Proyart."

"In the evening English and Americans attacked in the angle between the Somme and the Ancre and met with immediate success. By nightfall all the objectives had been taken, including the village of Morlanecourt and the high ground southeast of it. Counter-attacks launched by the enemy in this sector were beaten off after sharp fighting."

"The prisoners captured by the Allies since the morning of August 8 exceed 24,000."

(By the Associated Press)—Their main positions east of Amiens struck by the Franco-British thrust, the Germans continue to retreat with the Allies in close pursuit. Enemy resistance on the extremities of the attacking front has been broken and latest reports from the battle front say the enemy is retreating eastward in great haste. Aerial observers say the Germans are in full retreat eastward across the Picardy plains towards the old Hindenburg line. German ammunition dumps are being blown up.

The Allied line has now been driven forward in the center more than 11 miles and the maximum advance

FRIENDS THOUGHT HE WOULD DIE

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" Conquered Dyspepsia and Restored His Health.

MR. ROBERT NEWTON.

Little Bras d'Or, C.B. "I was a terrible sufferer from Dyspepsia and Constipation for years. I had pain after eating, belching gas, constant headaches, and did not sleep well at night. I lost so much weight—going from 185 pounds to 146 pounds—that I became alarmed and saw several doctors who, however, did me no good. Finally, a friend told me to try 'Fruit-a-tives'.

In a week, there was improvement. The constipation was corrected; and soon I was free of pain, headaches and that miserable feeling that accompanies Dyspepsia. I continued to take this splendid fruit medicine and now I am well, strong and vigorous!" ROBERT NEWTON.

Reeve and Councillors of Houghton Must Restore Municipal Money

TOOK TRIP TO OTTAWA

Two More Simcoe Men Arrive Home After Service Overseas

OTHER SIMCOE NEWS

(From Our Own Correspondent.)
Simcoe, Aug. 10th.—Houghton's reeve and councillors, who paid the expenses of their delegates' trip to Ottawa last spring, out of the municipal strong box have been challenged and have thrown up the sponge. The funds will be returned to the township's treasury. The move was not decided upon till a case had been entered against them by a number of their fellow ratepayers. There are a few other townships in which a readjustment should be made voluntarily, as those concerned are now fully aware that they have misappropriated public money. We should be pleased to be able to state that Charlotteville and Windham councils have followed without compulsion. The thing can be done quite gracefully and save the costs of the action.

Two More Back in Civilians.
Pte. Cyrus Watts and J. W. Kitchen arrived from Toronto last night honourably discharged from military service. They both enlisted in Norfolk's battalion and both have come through without dismemberment of limb or outward scar. Watts has a weak left arm as a result of gunshot and shrapnel wounds in the trenches and is going to the rear but hopes in time to regain strength.

A Happy Meeting.
Corporal Warner and family have returned to London, after a protracted visit to the former's mother, Mrs. Chas. Brandow. This was the first time that mother and son had met since the latter's return.

Get Ye Ready.
Ready for Dayer bright and early on Monday. The veterans can use more cars. The time set for conveyances to call at the armouries is after early dinner but there will be scores of kiddies ready to grab a lunch and go at 6 a.m. If necessary, if you are busy in the afternoon, a load can easily be found at eleven o'clock.

The veterans will not be in uniform, at least they will not all be so distinguished by the button. But they will be there. And we have just learned that they

Sons of men in service have always been well represented on the Courier's delivery staff in Simcoe, and it is just possible that these may be off to the picnic. In that case, the Courier delivery may be a partial or total failure on Monday, but, yes, that story. We will see that the delivery is completed early next morning at the worst, and we ask our subscribers to be indulgent this once.

Come to the picnic and you will not miss the delivery.

risked, or virtually all he has gained at staggering cost in his greatest offensive of the war must be abandoned and general withdrawal toward his old lines of last March begin without delay.
The French and British have gone ahead with such rapidity in Picardy that the German retreat must have reached the proportions of a rout in places, at least. The extent of enemy losses in prisoners, guns and war materials bear out this view.

HAVE REGAINED 1500 KILOMETERS.

With the American Army on the Vesle, Thursday Aug. 8. (By the Associated Press)—In their offensive since July 18th the Allies have regained 1500 square kilometers. More than 200 villages and towns, including Senlis, Chateau Thierry and Fismes, are again in the hands of the Allies. The front has been shortened by 53 kilometers (about 33 miles).

According to information contained in documents in possession of the French and American forces in the rear guard fighting during the retreat used four more divisions than they had contemplated using to break the French line when the offensive began. The enemy plan called for thirteen divisions to shatter the French and to cross the Marne between Dormans and Chateau-Thierry.

Information gathered by the Allies is to the effect that in falling back the German front line retreated at least 17 divisions before reaching the Vesle. Additional reinforcements have been brought up since the Vesle was crossed. A division which was resting in Flanders is known to have reached the region north of Fismes Tuesday.

to Rheims along which the Allied pressure continue.
That the Germans were surprised by Marshal Foch's new manoeuvre becomes increasingly more evident. Much material and supplies were left behind, and even entire railroad trains, including one loaded with troops, were captured by the onrushing British. The Allied losses have not been heavy.

North of the Somme the British have been meeting with bitter resistance, but they have captured Morlancourt, the axis of the German line between the Somme and Albert. On the northern bank of the Somme, however, they left Chipilly to the Germans while moving forward on the southern bank to Morcourt. The French extended their gains south along the Avre toward Montdidier by taking Pierrepont, Courtenanche, a mile northeast of Montdidier, but on the opposite bank of the Avre, also has been occupied. The British, Raincourt, the farthest point east claimed by Marshal Haig, is five miles east of a line drawn north and south through Montdidier. Only one supply line remains for the Germans in the Montdidier salient, and this is under the cross fire of the allied guns.

Apparently the Germans have made little effort at prolonged defence in the center and Berlin makes no claim that they have. How effective was the first allied smash Thursday is shown by the German report of the fighting that day, which says that the allies reached the artillery lines.

Allied capitals look for further withdrawal on other parts of the line as a result of the thrust in Picardy and a continuation of the retirement in Flanders.

Opinion in Washington is that Marshal Foch has challenged the German command to fight it out or retire. It is believed that the enemy must send in all available reserves or admit defeat and withdraw to the lines he held on March 21 or still farther.

The Allied advance in Picardy has yet had no apparent effect on the German positions between the Vesle and the Aisne. The enemy still clings to the hills north of the Aisne and has made attacks north of Rheims, which were repulsed. Across the Vesle from Pismes the Americans have occupied Fismette and added another bridgehead to the position north of the river, which is being enlarged rapidly. Progress on the remainder of the sector continues.

British and French diplomatic agents are reported to have been arrested in Moscow by the Bolsheviks and Great Britain has demanded the release of R. H. B. Lockhart, the leader of the British contingent. Premier Lenin is reported unofficially to have sent an ultimatum to Japan regarding Siberia.

OPERATIONS IN ITALY.
London Aug 9.—An official statement on British operations on the Italian front, issued to-day said:

"Thursday night our divisions carried out eight simultaneous raids into the Austrian defence system between Asago and Canova. The operation was successful despite vigorous enemy opposition. The enemy suffered heavy casualties and 445 prisoners, six machine guns, three trench mortars, searchlight and five pack mules captured. Our casualties were light.

"Airman brought down 11 hostile machines and one balloon.

THE SAFEST MATCHES IN THE WORLD

Also the Cheapest Are EDDY'S
CHEMICALLY SELF-EXTINGUISHING
Silent 500's
Safest because they are impregnated with a chemical solution which renders the stick "dead" immediately the match is extinguished.
Cheapest, because there are more perfect matches to the sized box than in any other box on the market.
War time economy and your own good sense, will urge the necessity of buying none but EDDY'S MATCHES.

THE SITUATION. The news from the Western front continues to come along in most satisfying shape. In so far from making any movements on his own account the foe is now kept exceedingly busy in the effort to save large forces from destruction and in his continued retreat he is destroying or abandoning vast quantities of stores.

MEAT PACKERS NEXT. The nationalization of various interests goes on apace in the United States. The railways, telegraph and telephone lines have passed under the control of Washington and now it is expected that the principal steel yards, cold storage plants, warehouses, refrigerator and cattle cars will be the next to become adopted.

NEW TEACHERS. Appointed at the School for the Blind. Principal Race of the School for the Blind announces the following appointments: Miss Jeanette Killmaster of Port Rowan, has been appointed musical director, and will reside at the institution. Miss Moffatt of Collingwood, Miss Sumnerby of Massey, Miss McGuire of Owen Sound, have been appointed literary teachers.

Returned Soldier Killed. By Courier Leased Wire. A Calgary Ala. Aug. 9.—Houser T. Smith, a bookkeeper with the United Grain Growers was instantly killed yesterday when his automobile went over an embankment near Ponoka. His wife escaped, with face and head wounds. Smith was a returned soldier.

NOTES AND COMMENTS. The bulletin boards these days make some reading. There hasn't been any record just lately of Father William sending any congratulatory messages to the Crown Prince.

Former O. S. B. Pupil Was Drowned. Toronto, Aug. 9.—Eugene S. Hallett, oldest son of John C. Hallett, ground and man, died while swimming near Brantford. He left school during May to go to work upon a farm owned by George Taylor, Maynor of Oakville. On Tuesday evening he went with a friend to swim at the dam upon the Hydro power property. It was 10 o'clock in the evening when the fatality took place, but the body was not recovered for twelve hours. Hallett was 19 years of age and a former pupil of the Ontario School for the Blind, Brantford. He was a member of the Bathurst St. Methodist church and is survived by his father, son, brother and two sisters. The funeral will take place from the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Hallett, 1,026 Austington avenue.

AS TO MARRIAGE.—Miss B. A. is in a dilemma about marriage; she is past thirty and still single. She desires to know whether it is improper for her to seek a husband. I can conceive of the most perfect woman going through such an experience, and God being as well pleased with her as she is with a woman who is entirely indifferent to marriage. As to what effort you should make in seeking a husband, God only can give you an infallible answer.

Margaret Garrett's Husband By JANE PHELPS. CHAPTER CXXXVIII. A Childish Confidant. But if I talked to no one else of Robert I often talked to Donald. I had taken, or rather had tried, to take Bob's place as story-teller. But often we would discuss with the other stories while I told of Bob. Donald never tired of listening or of asking questions about his daddy. "When will he be back to us, maybe?" he asked frequently. My answer was always the same. "When his business will let him, Donald, he will be back to see his little son as much as you want to see him." "And to see you too, muver, and George?" "Yes and George," I would say. "And muver?" he would often insist until I had satisfied him by repeating: "And muver," when he had not been left out.

MAY RECEIVE LEAVE.

A militia order issued to-day that deserters and absentees and defaulters who surrender under the amnesty proclamation dated the first day of Aug., 1918, will be granted leave of absence and treated in all respects like other soldiers.

SOFTBALL.

The softball game between Watson's and the Niagara Silk girls' teams, postponed on account of rain at the civic picnic two weeks ago, will be played off at Agricultural park on Monday evening. Mayor MacBride will pitch the first ball.

FLYING CORPS.

Recently there have been a couple of applications for enlistment in the Royal Air Force received by the recruiting committee in charge here. The air force's new quota of men is not quite organized as yet. Application forms may be obtained from Magistrate Livingston, Chief Slemm or J. H. Spence.

KITH AND KIN.

The members of the North Ward Kith and Kin met at the home of Mrs. Heap on Thursday evening. The president being away the vice-president took the chair. The usual business was attended to and Red Cross work was done. The meeting was then brought to a close. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Trevett, Albion St.

COOL AT LAST.

When Brantford breathed a sigh of relief this morning, and coats and starched collars commenced to pit in an appearance once more, after an enforced absence during the sweltering heat-period of the last few days. The rain which fell yesterday afternoon was a boon to crops and gardens everywhere, and the cool weather which followed in its wake no less of a blessing to the human race.

RECRUITS IN JULY.

Recruits to the number of 13,941 were secured for the Canadian Expeditionary Force in Canada, the United States and England during the month of July according to the official statement of the military department issued to-day. During the same period, 1917, total was 4226 leaving a net gain for the month of 9,715 men. Enlistments in the Canadian Expeditionary force since the beginning of the war have reached a total of 566,528.

SPUDS? OH, BOY!

Does war gardening pay? Mr. John Hall, of J. M. Young & Co. will say it does. Mr. Hall planted about 400 hills of Irish Candler potatoes, and yesterday he dug up a few to see how his crop was going. The yield it yielded some. From one hill alone he took out seven potatoes each weighing close to a pound, and every hill dug showed the same returns. That's going some, Mr. Hall says.

BAN ON PORK LIFTED.

The Courier is in receipt of a copy of an extra issue of the Canadian Gazette dated August 1 which contains the order of the Food Board lifting the ban on the serving of pork in restaurants and eating houses.

NO CONCERT.

Owing to the weather and other adverse circumstances the usual weekly band concert was not given in Agricultural Park last night. After the heavy rainfall of the afternoon, the majority gave up all expectation of a ball game, and the attendance was smaller than usual.

IS WOUNDED.

Mrs. Mary Donohue, 16 Spring street, this morning received word that her husband, Thomas Donohue, has been admitted to No. 7 Casualty Clearing Station, France, suffering from gunshot wound in the eye. Mr. Donohue went overseas with the 126th Battalion two years ago, and has been in France since April last.

KEEP OFF THE DIAMOND.

When is a baseball diamond not a baseball diamond? Ask us something hard, Algonquin, when it's a football field, of course. The Brantford United Soccer team have been playing their home games on the baseball field, and the city baseball league have registered a kick. Accordingly Supt. of Parks, J. C. Waller, has ordered the footballers back to their own standing ground behind the grandstands.

GRAPE GROWERS DEPUTATION.

A deputation of grape growers from the Niagara district waited on the Prime Minister Sir William Hearst yesterday. The deputation was headed by Dr. Musgrove, member for Niagara Falls; Dr. Jessop, member for St. Catharines; and J. T. H. Regan, member for South Westport. With the grape harvest near at hand, the deputation wanted government assurance that nothing would be done to prevent them selling the product manufactured before December 31. After that date it will be illegal to manufacture native wines in this province, under a Dominion Order-in-Council. Sir William said that this was the first time the matter had been brought to his attention. The Prime Minister promised to consider the matter and give his decision at a later date.

The edict applies to eating shops, offices, business buildings of all kinds, schools, churches, hospitals, town and city halls and other such buildings. Barber shops and dentists are for some reason exempt.

WESTERN ONTARIO BOARD OF TRADE.

A meeting called by the London Board of Trade by request, was held in the Tecumseh House, London, yesterday afternoon with a view to forming an association in the interests of the Western Ontario Peninsula. There were about twenty-five representatives in attendance. The vice-president and secretary of the London Board, Messrs. Bridge and Phillips, were elected chairman and secretary of the meeting. After an expression of views it was decided that an association be organized, and a committee of five were appointed to frame a constitution and by-laws for submission to the individual boards for consideration and later to a convention to be held at an early date.

Warn All To Order Coal Now
Civic Control of All Fuel in City Starts the Week After Next

Mayor MacBride this morning issued a warning to all citizens that the coupon with which to order coal appears in the local papers for the last time to-night. A large number of orders have been received at the fuel depot up to the present, but the great majority of citizens have as yet taken no action. After August 19th all coal coming into the city will be taken over by the civic depot, and distributed as orders are received. Persons having coal on order from dealers should see that they obtain their allowance before this system comes into effect.

The Mayor is co-operating with officials of the Patriotic Fund, to secure a list of all the soldiers' wives in the city, with a view to seeing that their fuel wants are supplied among the first.

WILD RETREAT OF HUN HORDES

Great Streams of Transports and Men Hurry Eastward in Full Flight

ARE CHASED BY TANKS Two Regimental Commanders of Germans Reported Captured

With the British Army in France, Aug. 9.—The scenes on the battle-ground over which the allies already have passed, give evidence of great haste in abandoned guns, stores, and even regimental and artillery maps and papers.

Aerial observers report large streams of transports and men hurrying eastward in full retreat.

Beaumont fell to the allied forces this morning and Le Quesnel also was taken after hot all-night fighting.

The cavalry is working far back toward the Somme, and is still rounding up villages, while tanks and armored cars are running over the country clearing a way for the troops or killing horses drawing enemy supplies. The drivers of motor trucks and lorries are chasing hordes of Germans here and are scattering them or running them to earth.

Scattered Staff.

The details of some of the work of these armored cars show that they have performed valiant services. One of them ran into a German-held town yesterday afternoon while the German Corps stationed there was having lunch. It turned its guns through the Corps' quarter windows, killed some of the staff, and then chased others who escaped from the house. At Rosieres another car set an enemy train on fire.

A group of cars met far inside the enemy lines a German supply column and halted it. Four mounted German officers came up to see what the trouble was and were shot from the cars, which then proceeded to make quick work of the column.

At Framerville, the cars engaged a train loaded with the enemy, and finally set it afire. Tanks entered the town soon afterwards, helped the armored cars clean it up, and then hoisted flags on the roof of the building which had been German Corps headquarters. One car of German officers riding in an automobile along the road, the officer was killed, and his machine captured.

Clean Out Snipers.

All along the line this afternoon snipers and isolated machine-gun billets were extremely busy, but these were being silenced one by one as the advance proceeded.

It is reported that two regimental commanders have been captured in one sector.

Since daybreak the Germans have been making an extraordinary effort to dig up with field gunfire ammunition and other dumps which they had to leave so hastily yesterday.

The Hot Weather Test makes people better acquainted with their resources of strength and endurance. Many find they need Hood's Sarsaparilla which invigorates the blood, promotes refreshing sleep and overcomes that tired feeling.

GERMAN FLANKS GIVING WAY

Enemy Giving Way Along a Twenty-Mile Front

OVER 200 GUNS TAKEN Picardy Salient Penetrated to Depth of Nearly 13 Miles

New York, Aug. 9.—The Associated Press has issued the following summary:

Over a curving front of more than twenty miles the British and French troops are continuing to sweep back the Germans across the Plains of Picardy from the region north of the Somme east of Morlancourt to the eastern bank of the Avre northwest of Montdidier.

As on the first day of the offensive material progress was made Friday over the entire battlefield. Many additional villages were captured; the bag of prisoners was largely increased; numerous guns and great quantities of war stores were taken, and heavy casualties were inflicted on the enemy by tanks, armored motor cars, the cavalrymen and the infantry. The losses sustained by the Anglo-French forces are declared to be relatively small. To the allied forces there have fallen 17,000 German prisoners and between 200 and 300 guns, many of them of heavy calibre, and innumerable machine guns, trench mortars and kindred small weapons.

Gain on Lys.

To the north of the Picardy theatre the Germans also have given ground on two important sectors: on the famous Lys salient, northwest of La Bassée, and in the region southwest of Ypres on the equally famous battleground north of Kemmel.

On the Lys sector territory over a front of more than seven miles was evacuated by the enemy, while to the north of Kemmel the British advanced their line over a front exceeding 1,000 yards.

These manoeuvres on the part of the Germans seemingly indicate that they either considered their ground insecure in the face of the heavy forces Gen. Haig is known to have in both regions to ward off any attempt to reach the Channel ports, or that Crown Prince Rupprecht's army has been materially decreased in strength to rush reinforcements to the battle zones, where the German armies in the south are being sorely harassed.

Penetrate Thirteen Miles.

Already having penetrated the Picardy salient to a depth of nearly thirteen miles in the centre toward the vicinity of Cambrai, and at other points along the Arc pushed forward between five and seven miles, the northern and southern flanks of the battlefield—where the Germans had been resisting desperately—gave way before the pressure respectively of the British and French.

On the north the British captured Morlancourt and pressed on eastward, while on the south, northwest of Montdidier, Pierrepont, Contoire and Ardivillers were taken by the French who drove in their wedges to a distance of more than eight and a half miles.

The tanks, armored cars and cavalry are still working throughout the entire front, while airplanes are soaring far behind the lines, bombing transport and troop movements, and also paying particular attention to the bridges over the Somme, by which the enemy is endeavoring to escape from their advancing forces.

All behind the line the Germans are destroying ammunition dumps.

Peril of Montdidier.

With the new turn of events Montdidier is in an uncomfortable position with the allies hammering away cross-fire. The Germans holding it and with only a railroad leading into the town also under their guns. A forced evacuation of the town seems not improbable. In fact, with further pressure eastward by the allies between the Somme and the Avre and with the possibility of pressure northward against the Germans from the line running northward from Soissons, it is not outside the realm of possibility that the entire Montdidier salient will have to be abandoned.

There has been little fighting of great moment on the Vesle river, except in the nature of reciprocal artillery duels. The Americans however, have made another crossing of the Vesle and captured the village of Fismette, northwest of Plames.

HAS ARRIVED.

Mr. A. M. Overholt, the new Principal of the Collegiate, arrived in the city to-day and has rented the house owned by Mr. T. E. Ryerson at 58 Brant Ave. His wife and children will come to the city in September.

Tommy Smith, seven years old, of Hamilton, who fell from a pole six weeks ago, suffering concussion of the brain, has been unconscious all that time and captured failing to bring consciousness.

Don't Suffer any Longer from Dyspepsia, Indigestion or Catarrh of the Stomach

DR. BANTA'S

Dyspepsia

50c Tablets per Box

WILL CURE YOU

Dyspepsia is an advanced stage of indigestion, arising from the stomach refusing to perform its normal functions. Digestion consists in the changing of foods from an insoluble form, so that they may pass through the walls of the alimentary canal and become part of the blood. The stomach keeps the food in almost constant motion for a considerable time to accomplish this purpose, and should this organ not be kept in good condition, indigestion results, to be followed in due course, if not relieved, by dyspepsia. You can keep the stomach performing its functions, and even relieve and cure dyspepsia if you get a Box at 50c from

MAKE MOHAWK PARK PAY
Time For Action to Place Brantford's Best Natural Park on Its Proper Basis is at Hand

What's the matter with Mohawk Park? That's the question that is on everyone's lips nowadays. Perhaps you think you can answer it; a good many do, and a good many different reasons are given.
"Not enough amusements," says
one person.
" inadequate car service," says another.
"The grounds aren't in proper condition."
"Not sufficient accommodation
for meals."
"No place for bathing."
All these are explanations which have been advanced for the falling-off in attendance at Brantford's finest natural park. That there has been a falling off, within the last few years, there is no doubt. Old time residents of the city will tell of the early days of the park, when Brantford was a city of half its present size and population, yet when Mohawk Park was crowded by hundreds almost daily. And it is within the memory of nearly all
when the park was patronized far more liberally than it is to-day.
The war was inevitably attended by a falling-off in picnicking and other forms of outdoor merry-making, but the war is not responsible for the lethargy under which Mohawk Park broods to-day.
Picnickers are daily leaving the city for other pleasure resorts, whereas in bygone years Brantford was the Mecca of excursionists from a wide radius, and Mohawk Park the scene of their gatherings almost daily during the hot summer months. The citizens of Brantford have been asking themselves for a long time,
the questions propounded above.
" What's the matter with Mohawk Park?" And most of them have succeeded in answering the question to their utmost satisfaction.
For a long time their inability to answer that question was surficient, but to-day a new spirit is taking hold, and moving in the direction of a bigger, better, brighter Mohawk Park.

In Mohawk Park Brantford has one of the most complete natural parks in Ontario; a splendid area of ground, ideally located, with an abundance of shade trees and water at its back door. With proper attention, the park could be transformed into an up-to-date pleasure resort which would prove one of the city's biggest drawing cards in attracting out-of-town visitors. Financially, as well as socially, the city would benefit by such an attraction for street railway earnings to announce from the park would swell by leaps and bounds with such an increase of popularity, while a few thousand of the grounds, leveled from outside picnic parties, would constitute an appreciable source of revenue.
There has been no dearth of criticism of Mohawk Park under its present conditions, but the majority of such criticism has been of the destructive nature, which tends to harm, rather than constructive, which tends to benefit. What is required is careful, intelligent comment on the subject, with a minimum of complaint and a maximum of suggestion for improvement.
Perhaps first in order of importance is the need for more adequate street car service, hand in hand with which goes the improving of the entrance to the grounds. The present car service, except on special occasions, and they are few, is hourly
whereas the trip is only a ten minute run from the centre of the city.
A twenty minute service would speed
an immediate influx from all parts of the city to the park and would more than cover the increased cost in a short time. Co-operation between the street Railway Commission and the Parks Board could produce an improvement in the entrance to the grounds which would be of great benefit to the city. The clearing of the bottom of the lake, and the establishment of a bathing pool there, has been under consideration by the parks board before now, and if carried out would prove one of the biggest drawing cards, as well as leaving the present civic pool near Agricultural Park for the exclusive use of the kiddies, who have been almost crowded out of it of late.

HOW BLIND SOLDIERS
FIND WAY ABOUT

Since the war began great strides
have been made in enabling blinded men to rely on themselves rather than on others. One of the pioneers of "getting about alone" is Mr.
Percy Way, who is largely responsible for the training of blinded soldier masseurs in the National Institute for the Blind. He himself has been without sight for some twenty-four years.

In the interesting article he writes for the current number of St. Dunstan's Review he says:
"The proper place for a blind man to walk under ordinary circumstances is in the middle of the footpath—not at the side. When we consider the countless obstacles
with which a blind man is confronted, the irregularities in the contour of walls and pailings, the crust of this remark will be readily grasped. Moreover, in the centre of the path, the blind man has the advantage of being able to swing easily to right or left in order to avoid the straggling pedestrian.

A straight course is steered by developing a sixth sense which is latent in all of us—the extraordinary sensitiveness of the nerves of the face.
"These nerves become," says Mr.
Way, "with a little practice, far more reliable than hearing or the use of the stick, and a skillful combination of all three factors will make an excellent substitute for sight—though not, of course, a perfect one; the matter of seeing about alone.

The natural sensitiveness of these nerves can easily be demonstrated by holding an object a few inches in front of the face of a totally blind person without previously warning him. He instantly becomes aware of its presence
though it may be absolutely unsound. By the exercise and cultivation of this sense a man can walk
parallel to a wall or fence at a distance of several feet, becoming at once aware of the fact if he for a moment lessens or increases the distance between himself and it."

FALLING DERRICK KILLS TWO.

ney and Willie Peschberger, two married laborers with families, were killed instantly yesterday on an aqueduct which is being constructed over the Seine river in connection with the great Winnipeg waterworks scheme. The beam of the big derrick collapsed through some unknown cause, killing the men as it fell. An inquiry will be conducted into the case.

MAJOR STOOD IN SUPPORT OF COURIER PLAN

Has Always Advocated Progressive Action to Make Mohawk Park Pay
PRESENT IS THE TIME
His Worship Recalls His Activities on Same Matter
in the Past

A Courier reporter asked Mayor MacBride for his views on the development of Mohawk Park. As usual, the reply came prompt and emphatic. "We certainly should develop this magnificent property, and most people know my views on the question."
Approach Parks Board.
"This is a matter I had strong hopes of accomplishing during my term of office, and accordingly
shortly after election I took occasion to attend a meeting of the Parks Board, the chief matter of procuring some old stamps from the park for fuel relief had been disposed of, I sounded out the then members of the board on the question of making a definite move re-improvements at the park. My suggestion was received with silence,
but on pressing the point, I found that there is a very definite scheme which apparently has been approved by a former board. My understanding of the matter is that Mr.
Frank Cockshutt, who has been the leading member of the board for a number of years, had engaged an eminent landscape artist (at his own personal expense) to prepare a most complete and commendable plan for the future beautification of not only our parks, but the boulevards and avenues of the entire city. The general opinion of the former board was that Mr. Cockshutt's plans should be adhered to, and worked out gradually as finances would permit.

Wants Prompter Action.
While I had a high appreciation of the plans, I could not agree to such a delay. Accordingly, when the opportunity came (at the inaugural meeting of Council), I asked the members to permit the appointment on the Parks Board of Mr. John Kerr and Mr. Fred Ryerson, two gentlemen who have supported me in efforts to open up Mohawk Park. The other members of the present board have not definitely opposed us, but the attitude
was merely a passive one, as Mr.
Cockshutt at the last meeting of the Council, Parks Board and Railway Commissioners, when he said:
"Leave us alone, we are doing nicely,
and should not be criticized."

Please do not interpret me as being disrespectful or unappreciative of the work of the gentleman.
To him must go largely the present condition of our parks and as to his father we owe a debt of appreciation for the gift of Agricultural Park.
At the point I wish to place before the people (now that you have asked me) is simply this: I believe that the people of Brantford want the use of that park just as soon as possible. It was a big paying proposition, and will make out for the population was only 15,000, and electric railways or automobiles to provide transportation. It should not require any great mental effort to conceive a plan for our own present population of 30,000 and excellent railway connections from many other cities and towns, Mohawk Park should be a great revenue producer for the city.

Street Railway Delinquent?
However, the chief difficulty does not lie with the Parks Board. If public opinion says "Open the park,"
I believe the Parks Board will respond unanimously. The main reason for the delay must be placed at the door of the Street Railway Commission. Repeated efforts have been made to get some action from them,
but at the joint meeting, their chairman took the ground that their policy was "stand pat," and the Mayor has been unable to get any interference or suggest. The council, however, will have to make up the deficit out of the general tax rate.

As is well known, the Railway Commissioners are a body elected by the people, and the Mayor is not a member of the commission.
"I have tried to give a full and honest statement of the case, because many people do not quite understand.
What's to Be Done?
The point, however, is: "What are we going to do about it?" The answer is obvious. I have asked City Solicitor Henderson to prepare a bill by law for submission to the people for the creation of a Public Utilities Commission to conduct the street railway and water works. (That water works is another story, and due time the people will be given some facts.) In my opinion, it is high time a definite policy was adopted on both propositions.

The Parks Board will be asked to respond to the wish of the people. I do not anticipate any difficulty once a public street railway service is provided. The people want to use the park, and it will not require any very great expenditure to make it
one of the most attractive summer resorts in Ontario, but to speak
frankly, we will never get anywhere
with the present street railway outlet. Their policy of stand pat has already taken $15,000 out of the general funds, and there will be 10,000 more required this Fall to make up their deficit. Add to this an annual loss of interest and to keep on Mohawk Park of say $2,000,
and you will have an idea where over 3 mills of our taxes is spent. By all means, let us "get busy," and

HUNS BLOWING UP
MUNITION DUMPS

Fresh Indications That Retreat of Extensive Nature is Planned
With the British Army in France,
Aug. 9.—Reuters.—Bulletin.—The Germans are blowing up their munition dumps in the battle area. This is considered an indication that they are preparing to retreat.

The British casualties since the beginning of the present drive are but three-fifths of the number of prisoners counted up to three o'clock.
Allied armies have blown up many of the bridges over the Somme river,
and the enemy's retreat is seriously embarrassed. The British cavalry has rounded up many prisoners; but the larger part of the 14,000 so far taken were captured by Australians
and Canadians.

An enormous quantity of stores and ammunition has been abandoned by the Germans in their hasty retreat.
Don't Know Who Did Most Amsterdam, Aug. 9.—Reviews by German critics on the military situation in the west, disclose divergencies
of opinion as to who bore the brunt of the attack on the allied side. The Cologne Gazette writer declares the White Frenchmen did all the fighting, while the Frankfort Gazette states
that, on the contrary, the White Frenchmen were "spared for political reasons," and that on the Americans fell the full weight of the fighting.
The Berlin Lokai Anzeiger, asserts that the Italians were the ones who "bled" while others declare that the Moroccans took the main part in the fighting.

With the British Army in France,
Aug. 9.—By the Associated Press.—
British cavalry and some infantry were signalled in the neighborhood of Chaumes this morning. When last heard from directly, they together with armored cars, were operating back of Framerville, and have now progressed many kilometers beyond,

continuing the cleaning up of the country and capturing villages.

Hum General Taken
With the British Army in France,
Aug. 9.—It is reported that a German Divisional General has been captured in the drive.

Early this morning the combined
Franco-British forces began following up the victory of yesterday from the positions last night. The French at the south began their push forward at the same time as did the British this morning, and it is reported, but not officially confirmed, that they have captured Le Quentin "Le Quenel." The enemy in the Montdidier pocket is now certainly in an even more precarious position than yesterday.

With the British Army in France,
Aug. 9.—The wide flung operation of the British cavalry menaces all the there.
The Allied air forces continued their vigorous operations they initiated yesterday, and besides blowing up many of the Somme bridges, hampering the German effort to remove material,
the airmen attacked troop billets and transports.

The prisoners taken by the British forces in yesterday's fighting totalled 350 officers and 11,721 of other ranks.

Sporting Comment

Figuring that John K. Tener would resign the presidency of the National League, some of the club owners picked one Robert Brown to succeed the former governor of Pennsylvania. Brown has been a periodical candidate for the National League's highest office for many years, and has often been called the William Jennings Bryan of America's finest pastime. Who is Robert Brown? Well, to begin with, he is a resident of Louisville, a newspaper editor, and some time ago he was exalted ruler of the Elks. He is a friend of Barney Dreyfuss and August Herrmann who tried to elect him to the presidency of the league in 1910.

At the death of H. C. Pullman in 1909 the office was filled acceptably by John A. Heydler for the rest of that year. Heydler and John M. Ward became rival candidates in December, 1909, with a deadlock resulting. Then Brown was suggested as a compromise candidate, but was sidetracked by Thomas J. Lynch, who was chosen by a unanimous vote.

When Lynch withdrew from National League affairs in disgust, Herrmann and Dreyfuss again busied themselves in Brown's behalf, but Governor Tener's willingness to accept the presidency again retired the Louisville man to obscurity. For several months the management, who have been opposed to Tener because he is engaged in a private business venture, have been quietly campaigning for Brown. Three weeks ago Brown went to New York at the invitation of one of the club owners. It is said, and was introduced to three others at the Waldorf. Since that secret conference Brown is reported to have gained the support of at least four of the clubs with another inclined to vote for him. In spite of the fact that the Louisville editor has had no practical baseball experience and his ability as a league leader is unknown, it is stated that he has the inside track.

Boston critics are scoring the Cincinnati Reds, led by Matty, for a deliberate attempt to burlesque baseball at Braves' field recently. The Louisville scribbler says that Matty lost entire control of his players who disgusted the fans with their indifferent tactics. This lack of sportsmanship, it is said, was due to the players' chagrin when they learned that the season would close on Labor day. The president of the Cincinnati club is August Herrmann, who also is chairman of the national commission. It cannot be learned whether Herrmann has disciplined his players for their misconduct or not. They deserve a severe penalty.

Before the baseball season opened President Johnson of the American League made a wise suggestion that did no appeal to the magnates. Johnson, looking into the future, wanted to cut the playing schedule to 130 games and also suggested one of 112 games. He advised the major leagues to end the campaign during the first week in September, feeling that a shortened playing season would meet the public's demands. Johnson evidently anticipated the clash with the war department over the eligibility of certain players, but the magnates turned him down. They figured that nothing could injure baseball, and that the popularity of the sport guaranteed protection. The advice offered by Big Ben should have been heeded, as things have turned out.

SUSPEND ENLISTMENTS.
By Courier Leased Wire
Washington, Aug. 9.—Voluntary enlistment in the United States army or navy were suspended completely yesterday to prevent disruption of industry pending disposition of the proposal to extend the draft age. Orders were issued by the secretaries Baker and Daniels, directing that no voluntary enlistments be accepted until further orders.

TO CONFER WITH SOCIALISTS.
By Courier Leased Wire
London, Aug. 9.—Arthur Henderson, Charles W. Bowdman, secretary of Trade Union Congress and other members of the House, have applied for passports to Switzerland for a conference there with the Dutch Socialist leader, regarding letters received from Socialists in enemy countries. The war cabinet after discussing the request decided it was inadvisable to grant passports enabling persons in this country to meet persons abroad who have passed through enemy countries.

The parliamentary committee of the Trade Union Congress and the executives of the labor party debated this refusal yesterday and passed a strong resolution of protest.

SIR JULIAN BYNG LANDS ANOTHER PUNCH
The British Fourth Army, commanded by Sir Julian Byng and the French First Army, both under the direction of Sir Douglas Haig, attacked the Germans on the Picardy Front. Byng has already proven himself a master of tank tactics, and it is certain that his assault chariots are taking a prominent part in the new offensive.

WEATHER SPOILED BALL GAME

London W. O. R. Beat Semi-Pro's 7-2 Here Last Night

UMPIRING WAS POOR

A soggy diamond, dark and over-hanging skies, and wretched umpiring, united to make a burlesque of last night's ball game, in which the semi-pro's went down to defeat 7-2 at the hands of the W.O.R. military team of London, a snappy aggregation who appear to have the happy faculty of dividing their time between playing good ball and kidding themselves, their opponents, the umpire and the fans. Last night's game was a good one in some respects, and in others it was the reverse.

NOTES ON THE GAME

Lee made the first pitch out of the game in a sitting posture. He slipped in the mud, and took Mitchell's throw of Hagel's grounder without regaining his feet. Pretty soft, Sammy.

King hitled high one in the second inning with Burke got under and then dropped. There were men on first and second, and the wicket called an infield fly. The wicket was doubtful, but much as the ball was well out in the outfield when it dropped.

Fraser's umpiring gave general dissatisfaction to both teams and to the fans alike.

To the W.O.R. goes the credit of lowering the semi-pro's colors on their home ground for the first time.

London has a snappy aggregation of ball players, who work well together.

Perhaps it was the brand new battery which put the Mickey Finn in Brantford's luck.

destroy all property possible, particularly houses of good appearance, during the retreat from the Marne. It is in possession of the French and Americans. It came from several sources, a detailed account being furnished by a deserter from the Fourth Prussian Guard division, who said that sappers had been ordered by General Finck Von Finckenstein to destroy everything within their power. Similar orders were issued by Lieut. Stobers also. Prisoners say that the order for man soldiers had been ordered to the retreat from the Marne was joyously by most of the enemy troops, especially the Saxons, who expressed the hope that this last German failure to reach Paris would hasten the coming of peace. Prisoners taken from different divisions on various parts of the front, agree that it is the German plan to retire to the Aisne.

"THE KAISER'S SHADOW"

When an American inventor of a "ray rifle" which his government has accepted, discovers that his plans have been stolen by German spies when he is on his honeymoon, something is bound to happen, as is abundantly proved by Dorothy Dalton, the popular Thomas H. Ince star, in her latest Paramount picture, "The Kaiser's Shadow," which will be displayed for the first time in this city at the Brant Theatre next Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday.

The story of this thrilling photoplay deals with the operations of German spies in a large American city and with United States Secret Service agents who are committed to the arduous task of stamping out the menace of German propaganda in this country. The picture is based upon the story by Octavus Roy Cohen and J. U. Giesy which was published as a serial in All Story Weekly some time ago. The picture was directed by R. William Neil, under the supervision of Thomas H. Ince.

The photoplay is a deeply mysterious in its development and the puzzle is not unravelled until the final scene. It is because of this that only a fragment of the plot should in justice be divulged, as a full knowledge of the denouement of the story might tend to lessen

"HIS OWN HOME TOWN"

When an ambitious young man, who is determined to succeed in life, and whose opportunities for advancement are restricted in his own home town, seeks his fortune elsewhere, then results may be looked for. This was the case with Jimmy Duncan, the character essayed by Charles Ray in his new Paramount photoplay, "His Own Home Town," which has just been released.

After numerous adventures in the bigger cities, Jimmy Duncan returns home by the brake-beam route, known to the weary willy travelers of the road, and enters upon a new career, his one great ambition being to rid his home town of the political thugs, who had dominated it for years. He becomes possessed of a newspaper and by a series of brilliant articles undermines the political boss and his henchmen, and depriving them of office, drives them away from the city, thereby winning the love of a charming girl, who has pinned her faith to him, and whom he had one day promised to "make good" in his own home town.

Mr. Ray is supported in this excellent production, which is to be presented at the Rex theatre next Thursday, Friday and Saturday, by Katherine MacDonald, cinema actress of charm and prominence. Others in his support are Charles French, Milton Ross and Carl Formis. The production was made under the supervision of Thomas H. Ince from the scenario by Larry Evans, a distinguished writer for the screen. Charlie Chaplin also will be seen in "Easy Street."

TO BRIGHTEN HOME AND DAILY LIFE: PRIMARY OBJECT OF MUSIC.

Even Untalented People Hungry for Music.

If pupils' parents have any musical preference, cater to it. Many people who do not know a note are actually hungry for some kind of music, and it is a pity to deny them and children dearly love parental approval. If Irish Mary's mother comes in and sits down by the piano every time the little girl plays "The Weavins of the Green" both Mary and her mother are setting just the pleasure and encouragement they should have. Music should have primarily for its object the brightening of the home and daily life, and if a pupil has great talent there is not the slightest danger of smothering or perverting it by giving pleasure to others, even the humblest. Talent is like murder: it will out if it is there, and nothing that you can do or leave undone can prevent it. So, above all, aim to make quick, accurate sight readers of your pupils, and rest assured that by doing so you are giving the talented as well as the mediocre the very best help they can get.

MUSIC EXERCISER POTENT IN LAURENCE AMONG CHILDREN IN WARTIME.

"Most people fail to realize that modern methods have revolutionized not only the teaching methods of music, but also the value of music as a mind study in the general scheme of education. The new psychology does its teaching through the mind. Modern kindergartens teach concentration by means of music. The strong rhythms of music seem to free the mind from obstacles that are blocking its progress. If the teacher has awakened the interest of the child, the child will strive very hard without any external pushing to obtain certain

RESULTS.

As this earnest seeking continues the mental endurance of the child increases. He will realize the things he wants to do and he will see to self-control enough to do them and put aside other temptations. By filling up the child's mind with the best of music other undesirable thoughts can be crowded out.

Music has the same power to relieve the mind that the movies have and, more than that, you can take and carry the music in your mind and hold it for a longer time than you can the memory of the movie pictures. Educators abroad say that it is very difficult to keep the children off the streets in war times, when their fathers are in the army and their mothers carry so many extra burdens. A little real music played anywhere at once attracts the children, and its power is strong enough to keep them near a piano for hours at a time. The poorest people in the congested parts of great cities know this and this year all the music conservatories and colleges have more applicants than ever.

There is one real danger, however, and that is the lady who can play a few pieces and who thinks she can save a little extra money by giving cheap lessons in war time. The lessons of such an unprepared person are the worst things that could be given. Good lessons of none at all should be the motto. All teachers know this, but the parents at large do not and it is up to every teacher to spread the new idea by speech and also through their local papers.

SUPREME GALLANTRY OF MUSICIANS.

Bandmen Played in Rain of Shells—French Flyers Inspired the Men.

The man with the bugle can be as great a hero as the man with the bayonet. This is proved by the thrilling account in Paris newspaper that tells of the heroism of the Forty-sixth French Infantry Band that used to play summer concerts before the war.

This band of fifteen gallant musicians was playing the "Marschhaus" when the signal for the charge was given. Before the men had gone very far, a bullet felled one of the bandmen. Now the drummer, then the flute player, was a victim of a German bullet. By the time they reached the trench ten had been wounded. Through the terrible bombardment those who were left continued to pick up the strains of the anthem. Undaunted, the brave players stuck to their tasks until the charge was over. Then came the sorry reckoning. Only five men were left of the brave little band of fifteen. Every instrument bore the scars of shrapnel or bullet. Truly music had won the day, music the supreme inspirer.

BUSHMAN WEDS BAYNE.

Baltimore, Aug. 10.—Francis C. Bushman, who was divorced last week by Mrs. Josephine H. Bushman, was married Monday to Beverly Bayne, who played Juliet to his Romeo in the moving picture production of the play.

They are now spending their honeymoon at Bush Manor, Ridgewood, Md., which was vacated by the first Mrs. Bushman three weeks ago.

The first wife is living in Mount Washington, Md., where she is likely to meet the famous Romeo and Juliet of the moving picture world at any time.

The first Mrs. Bushman was called. "Yes, I have heard they are married and are at Bush Manor," she said.

"Is there any comment you care to make?" she was asked.

"The incident is too small for comment, but I do think they should have waited until the pen was dry," she answered.

"Is that all you care to say?"

"That is plenty," she answered.

FIGHTING FOR HAPPINESS

When you get into a frame of mind that makes life seem one tiresome duty after another, with no pleasure in it, when all-health seems to take all the joy out of life and you worry over things that are really not worth worrying about, then your nervous system is becoming exhausted, and you are on the way to a general breakdown in health. In this condition your health and happiness is worth fighting for and good, rich, red blood is what your system needs. It is a hopeless task to try to restore your health while your blood is deficient in quantity and quality. And remember that no medicine can be of any use to you that does not build up your weak, watery blood.

To build up the blood and strengthen the nerves there is one remedy that has been a household word for more than a generation—Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. It is the actual mission of these pills to make new, rich, red blood, which strengthens the nerves and tones the entire system. They give you a new appetite, make sleep refreshing, put color in the lips and cheeks, and drive away that unnatural tired feeling that oppresses so many people. If you want to experience new health and happiness give Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a fair trial.

You can get these pills through any medicine dealer or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

THE NEW SUBWAY.
And Automobile Entrance at Queens Park Western Fair Dates Sept. 6th to 14th.

For some years past the number of people who have attended the Western Fair coming in their automobiles from the surrounding country has increased until last year the question of them to take care of the cars was a problem which was almost too great for the management to handle as it was nearly impossible to get either in or out of the King Street garage.

This year the Directors have solved the problem and at a very heavy expenditure of money have built a subway under the track, and will have a special entrance for automobiles only at the northeast corner of Dundas and Beaton Sts. The drivers after unloading their passengers (who will also have a special entrance) will go through the subway and park their cars inside the rink where they may be left as long as desired. If the auto party wish to go to their car for lunch they will be allowed to do so, returning to the grounds by way of the subway. The price of admission will be $1.00 for car and driver, including parking. The management feel assured this by the general public and that more people than ever will attend this year's Exhibition. Prospects are very bright for the best Exhibition ever held in London. Prize lists, entry forms and all information will be given on application to the Secretary, A. M. Hunt, 1.04.04.

COUNCIL RESIGNS.

Vancouver, B.C., Aug. 9.—Delegates to the Trades and Labor Council last night adopted the recommendation of the executive of the Council to resign and a new executive of delegates has been set for August 29. This action is the outcome of the extreme dissatisfaction caused by the calling of the recent twenty-four hour strike by the unions as a result of the shooting of the draft evader, Albert Goodwin.

IN THE WORLD OF LABOR

(Thomas Mufson, in The Call Magazine.)

The old world is crumbling in the universal conflagration and the foundations of the new world are being laid.

It is proposed that the platform for one of the most powerful parties in Great Britain—a party which will contest almost every constituency in the coming general election and which, unless it is opposed by a coalition, may elect a majority to the House of Commons.

What is this program of the British labor party? Clearly and uncompromisingly it speaks the speech of the industrial revolution. "The view of the labor party," says the program, "is that what has to be constructed after the war is not this or that government department, or this or that piece of social machinery; but so far as Britain is concerned, society itself."

The individualist system of capitalist production, based on private ownership and competitive administration of land and capital, with its reckless profiteering and wage slavery, with its glorification of the unhampered struggle for the means of life and its hypocritical pretence of the survival of the fittest, with the monstrous inequality of circumstances which it produces and the degradation and brutalization, both moral and spiritual, resulting therefrom, may, we hope, indeed have received its death blow.

The House of Labor which the British labor party is to build has four pillars. These pillars are: 1. The Universal Enforcement of a National Minimum. The National Minimum aims to bring about "the securing to every member of the community, from birth to death, of all the requisites of healthy life and worthy citizenship."

By the democratic control of industry the British labor party means the social industrial commonwealth. The program says:

"But, unlike the Conservative and Liberal parties, the Labor party insists on democracy. It demands as well as in government. It demands the progressive elimination from the control of industry of the private capitalist."

3. A Revolution in National Finance. The stupidly unjust and autocratic method of regulating national finances to-day is characterized by the British labor party as follows:

"Too long has our national finance been regulated, contrary to the teaching of political economy, according to the wishes of the possessors of classes and the profits of the financiers."

The labor program calls for a system of taxation that will yield all the necessary revenue to the government without encroaching on the prescribed national minimum standard of life of any family. It calls for:

(a) Repudiation of all protective tariffs.

(b) Opposition to any taxation which would increase the price of food or any other necessary of life.

(c) Indirect taxation on commodities to be restricted to luxuries.

(d) Direct taxation of incomes above the necessary cost of family maintenance.

(e) Direct taxation of private fortunes, both during life and at death (the nation to be the heir of all private riches in excess of quite moderate amount by way of family provision).

(f) Direct taxation of land.

(g) Retention of the excess profits tax after the war.

(h) A special capital levy to be imposed on all property (with exemption of the smallest savings), to pay off the load of interest-bearing debt for loans and the greater part of the entire national debt.

4. The Surplus for the Common Good. The program condemns in strong terms the method of disposing of the surplus wealth of nations prevalent today. It says:

"We have allowed the riches of our mines the rental value of the land superior to the margin of cultivation, the extra profits of the fortunate capitalists, even the material outcome of scientific discoveries to be absorbed by individual proprietors and then devoted very largely to the senseless luxury of an idle rich class."

The Labor Party demands that this national surplus be expended for the common good. It demands that the surplus be expended for:

(a) Constant national improvement.

(b) Provision for the sick, infirm aged and incapacitated.

(c) The education of the young and of adults.

(d) A great development of the means of recreation.

(e) Scientific investigation and original research in every branch of knowledge.

(f) Promotion of literature, music and fine arts.

The program closes with a plea for world unity. It repudiates all world imperialism, economic wars, secret diplomacy and selfish international capitalist alliances. It calls for a union of nations not of races, but of peoples, not of masters.

The nations are reeling about the deathbed of an expiring world. With the boom of cannon and the screech of shells with a shattering tumult and a fearful chaos, the universal destruction goes on apace.

Not in the storm and earthquake, but in the still, small voice, did the prophet sense the presence of the great constructive force which rules all things.

"What whippers are these, O lands, running ahead of you, passing under the seas? Are all nations communing? Is there going to be but one heart to the globe?"

Is humanity forming en masse, For lo! tyrants tremble, crowns grow dim; The earth, resolve, confronts a new era.

ADVICE TO MOTORISTS

SPARK PLUG TROUBLES.

Spark plugs are a source of much obscure ignition trouble, that the car owners have great difficulty in locating. In many cases the insulating material in the construction of the plug is porous, permitting electric leakage through the porcelain and also allowing absorption of the carbon formed with each explosion, until finally the insulation charges a properties entirely. In such cases the car owner having cleaned his plugs and finding the trouble still existent, assigns its source to some other part of the system.

KEEP ENGINE NUTS TIGHT. It is a good plan to draw up the studs of nuts holding down the cylinders of the motor from time to time, and also to adjust similarly those which hold the engine to the frame.

Even so slight an amount of play as may be permitted by a half turn of slackness may be enough to put a strain on the parts, especially when the slackness is local and exists only in one or two points of the system. Lost motion between stationary parts may be quite as injurious as that between those which move. It is not so much the possible play as the concentration of a load on the remaining fastenings which is to be guarded against.

SPEED INCREASES WEAR.

One of the most expert tire men in the country recently called the attention of motor car owners to the manner in which tire wear increases with speed. The faster a tire travels, the more heat it generates internally. Normal speed does not increase the internal heat to a dangerous degree, but excess speed will not only raise the heat above the danger point, but may actually cause further vulcanization to take place. This heat not only dries out the friction gum between the pile of fabric but the very fabric itself, lowering the elasticity of the tire, decreasing its resiliency and weakening the tire so that it will blow out early.

CLEANING THE MUFFLER.

There are many methods of cleaning the muffler, from beating on it with a hammer to blowing out the carbon with air. Here is a very effective way of cleaning a muffler badly choked with soot and carbon. Remove the muffler and plug up one end with a wooden plug. Pour in the other end a solution made up of half a pint of concentrated lye to half a gallon of boiling water. Shake the muffler vigorously, pour out the solution and rinse with boiling water. This lye solution burns the soot or carbon when it touches them, so be careful of it.

WHEN THE CLUTCH SLIPS.

When a clutch starts slipping badly it is useless to race the engine in the hope that the car will move faster. Rather operate the engine slowly with slight change in speed in order to give the flywheel a chance to carry the clutch around with it. Racing the engine when you have a slipping clutch only makes a bad matter worse for the clutch cannot hold at the high speed and there is a change of burning it up altogether.

ARCH ENEMIES OF TIRES.

Enemies of tires: Gasoline, grease, kerosene, heat and light. The first three are solvent of rubber, and will rot the tires if allowed to remain on them. Gasoline may be used to clean off any grease or oil, as it evaporates immediately, but tires should not stand in contact with any of the above.

Motor Notes. Plans are being made in England to build after the war a single-cylinder, 20-horsepower motor.

There will be no more motor shows in Canada till after the war. Los Angeles County in California has built a 20-mile road from Los Angeles to the harbor for the sole use of motor trucks.

The total automobile and truck registration in the United States as of January 1, 1918, according to official figures furnished from all of the 48 States, is 4,941,276. There is now one motor vehicle for every 20 persons in the country. A year ago there was one vehicle for every 29 persons, and two years ago there was one vehicle for every 42 persons.

It has been announced in New York that the Interstate Garage Company, composed of leading New York hotel men, will open the largest and most complete garage in the world. This will be located at Second avenue, 47th and 48th streets, and will be 200 by 350 feet in size.

Garages in other cities will be built, and hotel men will be interested. In each of these the car will have its own private garage, a commodious steel cage 20 by 12 feet, and even larger. The space will be thief-proof and equipped with every conceivable improvement, including owners' and chauffeurs' steel thief-proof lockers, stand pipes for washing, facilities for polishing within the private cage, work bench, flushing devices, smothering devices for fires, and telescopic doors to each cage. The cars will proceed on double ramps for entrance and exist on their own power. It will be possible to serve 36 cars with gasoline at one time.

The building will be five stories high and will accommodate nearly 900 cars, with each taking 240 square feet of space. There will be reception rooms for owners, club-rooms for chauffeurs and a dog kennel.

Last year a man travelling through the country alone and on a lengthy trip was approached by a young man who asked permission to travel in the second seat of the runabout. He was given that permission only on condition that he would speak when spoken to, stop only when the driver cared to stop, eat only when the driver cared to eat, and make no demands to stop for any other but necessary purposes. He was told that he must be ready to go at a second's notice when any stop was made, and was informed that he would be left behind otherwise. That young man made the journey, and the experience was rather pleasant than otherwise for the driver of the car, who had the real enjoyment of a companion who did not bicker nor complain, who spoke only when he was spoken to, and who was "Johnny-on-the-spot" at every stop and at all times ready to start. A guest on motor car trips is a guest only when agreeable, and in a real post and joy-killer when otherwise.

Make It a Habit. One thing every automobile owner should learn is how to stop a skid. When he feels the back of his car skidding, if he will turn the steering wheel immediately in the direction of the skid, he will find that it will cause the car to rotate in the opposite direction. With a little practice this swing of the steering wheel will become almost automatic when the car begins to skid.

money a number of young people gathered and gave them an old fashioned charivari. The groom responded with cigars and ice cream. We wish them a long and happy life.
On Tuesday morning, August 1st, the death of Mrs. Margaret Petheram took place at the home of her son, Charles Petheram, at Boston after a long life of seventy-nine years. She was the daughter of the late Wm. Robinson and was twice married, her first husband being Wm. Cooper, later she married Richard Petheram, who died several years ago. The surviving family are two daughters, Mrs. Lamb, of Brantford; Mrs. Joseph Swift, of Brantford; four sons, George, Henry and Lew Cooper, and Charles Petheram; two brothers, Martin and Marshal Robinson, and one sister, Mrs. C. Young. To these the sympathy of the community is extended. The funeral services were conducted on Sunday afternoon in the Boston Baptist Church, of which the deceased was one of the oldest members and where she was always a regular attendant at the hours of worship. It seemed fitting that the words of the pastor should center around St. Timothy, 4, 7, "I have fought a good fight; I have finished the course; I have kept the faith, henceforth there is laid up for me a crown." These words were felt by all to be expressive of the life that had passed on into the wider sphere of the heavenly home. The body was laid to rest in the Boston Cemetery, being carried to its resting place by old friends, Messrs. Alex. Melles, L. C. Barber, S. S. Wilderson, John Anderson, Mr. Alex. Birdsell and John Glines. The flowers were very beautiful, including pillow, suns and daughters; wreath, grandchildren and nieces; cross, Mission Circle; sprays, Mr. Dean's Bible Class, Mrs. Rogers, Miss Marjorie Russell, Miss May Anthony, Mr. Walter Petheram, Mrs. C. Longstreet.
On Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. James Purkey entertained their berry pickers. They had their pictures taken and then were entertained by Mr. Purkey. Story telling and games were indulged in. Ice cream was served by Mr. and Mrs. Purkey. Mr. Purkey thanked the pickers for staying with him until the finish. It was then moved and seconded that a vote of thanks be tendered the host and hostess for their hospitality. All having enjoyed themselves, they left, singing "For he's a jolly good fellow."

Misses Dorothy and Jean Contello returned to their home here on Wednesday, after having spent some time at Dover.
Mr. Roy Venloos spent Sunday with his parents here.

ONONDAGA COUNCIL
Onondaga, Aug. 5.—A full council met in the town hall at 2.30 p.m. A by-law was passed to borrow money from the Bank of British North America for current expenses, also one fixing rates to be levied for the different funds, the county asking for over $1400 more than last year will make the county rate considerably higher than last year, but to offset that the township is asking for less, so that the general tax, outside the school regulations, will only be a 1-2 mill higher than last year. The school rate, with the exception of U. S. No. 7, will be less, so on the whole the taxes will only be a trifle higher than last year excepting S. S. No. 7.
On account of the dog tax being double that of last year, it is quite possible that next year there will be less dogs in the township.
The Reeve issued his order on the treasurer for the following accounts, for over $1400 more than last year will make the county rate considerably higher than last year, but to offset that the township is asking for less, so that the general tax, outside the school regulations, will only be a 1-2 mill higher than last year. The school rate, with the exception of U. S. No. 7, will be less, so on the whole the taxes will only be a trifle higher than last year excepting S. S. No. 7.
At the close of session, the council motored up to inspect Malen's bridge, which was reported ready for traffic.
The council will meet at call of Reeve. The next regular meeting will be in Middleport on Oct. 7th.

Civic Fuel Distribution

Commencing on or about August 19th a system of distribution will be put in operation whereby all coal reaching Brantford will be handled through the Fuel Commissioner's office. In order to overcome the inconvenience of having people come to the central office, a coupon system has been adopted. The plan is for all citizens to fill in the coupon and mail it to Fuel Commissioner. When all coupons have been received, same will be properly sorted. Orders issued and mailed back to customer. The system will continue throughout the winter months, or until such time as all homes are adequately supplied. We ask for a hearty co-operation of all citizens, as it is hoped to accomplish results without inconvenience to the public or the dealers.

Cut Out The Coupon

AND MAIL TO FUEL COMMISSIONER, CITY HALL, BRANTFORD.

Write all particulars plainly, and do not make mis-statements. The government Fuel Regulations are very strict and a severe penalty will be imposed for attempted hoarding. The desire is that every home in Brantford should be provided with fuel. There is not an abundance, but if all co-operate, the situation can be handled.
