TUESDAY, JUNE 25, 1901.

ALL IN GOOD TIME.

As published elsewhere in this paper the amounts available for public improvement in this territory for the coming year are most liberal as compared with the amounts available in previous years. In the two years previous to the present a total of a little over $94,000 has been expended on roads and bridges, but during the coming year alone the sum of $110,000 will be available for the same purpose. The amount available for public buildings is also extremely liberal.

The affairs of the Yukon have at length been guided by steady hands from the wilderness of despair, and henceforth the ship of state will have smooth sailing. The present state of public prosperity was not brought about in a month nor in a year, but is the result of constant work, worry and persistency on the part of local officials during the past three years.

With the start already made in the matter of roads in the territory the expenditure of $110,000 within the next twelve months will be a mighty factor in mitigating the rigors of travel to the various mining fields. The cost of freight transportation will be reduced and the direct result will be more money in the pocket of the claim owner at the end of the working season. And more money for the claim owner and miner means increased business for each and every industry in the Yukon.

LET THE EAGLE SCREAM.

The committee leaving in charge the work of preparing for suitably celebrating the Fourth of July, which committee is composed of active, aggressive men regardless of nationality, is making most flattering progress towards perfecting arrangements which will cause all previous efforts to be excelled. A hearty and liberal response is being made to calls from the committee which is raising funds to further the sports program, and numerous entries will be made in all its departments.

In the choice of the heads of the various committees great care was exercised and their good work will be apparent when the eventful day arrives. It is confidently expected that thousands of people from the various creeks will visit Dawson on that day for, like Victoria day, it will be an occasion when dull care will be thrown aside and the spirit of merriment and good feeling will stalk rampant.

WHAT ARE WE COMING TO?

"An American horse, owned by an American and ridden by an American jockey won the English Derby." So a great many of our contemporaries from the United States say. They have become somewhat intoxicated with the exuberance of that great victory over the Don and Aguinaldo and the magnanimity they displayed when they stayed the march of the armies which would have crushed poor old China. Now they think all they have to do is to desire that a thing shall be so, and it is so. We shall be told next that the constitution is about to follow the flag which flew so triumphantly on Derby day; that J. Pierpont Morgan has annexed the Atlantic ocean and Great Britain and has applied the American shipping laws to them; and that the much-longed-for mercantile marine has been created in a single day. In the meantime the Derby was won by an English horse, owned by an American millionaire and ridden by an American jockey. Great Britain is still a monarchy, and its aristocracy is a great attraction for all Yankees who have made their pile and are eager for the advantages and the distinctions of "good society." The army of pilgrims is becoming larger every year. It carries with it more than enough gold to equalize that alleged unfavorable balance of trade which John Bull is compelled to acknowledge from year to year. By and by the United States will become the workshop and the islands of Vancouver and Great Britain the dwelling places of the race, a king with American blood in his veins will sit upon the throne, and we shall all be happy ever after.—Victoria Times.

In the matter of honorable treatment there has been reciprocity between the government and the various witnesses from distant points who came to Dawson to give evidence in the George O'Brien case. The crown relied upon the personal promises given in a number of cases and not in a single instance was that trust betrayed. It was reciprocated, however, by the crown in the courteous treatment extended to and mantle of protection thrown around the witness after their arrival and during their stay and attendance upon the trial.

AMOUNTS AVAILABLE

For the Yukon Territory During Next Fiscal Year.

The estimates of the amounts available for the Yukon territory for the year 1901-02, have just been received and are given in their various classes as follows:

Main estimates, 1901-02—
Public buildings, $ 75,000.00
Supplementary estimates, 1901-02—
Dawson public buildings, 100,000.00
Whitehorse public buildings, 15,000.00

Total $220,000.00

The sum of $204,597.15 for roads and trails is made out as follows:

Trails, roads and bridges, $ 40,000.00
Supplementary estimates, 1901-02—
Roads, trails and bridges, 164,597.15

Total $204,597.15

The above includes amounts required to recoup the local government for expenditure already made, viz:

Balance, 1899-1900 $26,996.32
Roads, 1900-1901 53,841.77
Bridge, 1900-1901 13,759.06

Total $94,597.15

Deducting the sum of $94,597.15 from the $204,597.15 you have $110,000, which is the amount available for new roads in the territory.

The sum of $76,000 for rent and maintenance is as follows:

Main estimate, 1901-02—
Public buildings, rent fuel, light, etc., $46,500.00
Supplementary estimates, 1901-02—
Rents, repairs, lighting, water service, janitors, watchmen, charwomen, etc. 30,000.00

Total $76,000.00

GANDOLFO AND DAWSON CITY

Baseball Teams Met on Diamond for Practice Game Saturday.

A good practice game of baseball was played Saturday afternoon on the barracks grounds between the Gandolfo team and Dawson City team under captainship of Nat Darling.

The game throughout was good and was witnessed by quite a large crowd. The Gandolfos won by one point, the score being 10 to 9.

The line up of the teams was:

Gandolfo—McVate, c.; Gregory, p.; Traub, 1st b.; Doyle, s.; Chadwick, 2d b.; Smith, 3d base, Beebe, I. F. Stevens, c. f.; O'Brien, r. f.

Dawson City—Quitting, c.; Nelson, p.; Turner, 1st b.; Frew, 2d b.; Morrison, 3d b.; Briggs, s.; Darling, I. F. F., c. f.; George, r. f.

The game was umpired by M. W. Levy an old professional ball player from California who gave decisions in such a manner as to convince the players that he understood the game thoroughly and there was no complaint as to his judgment. Mr. Levy will probably have a standing engagement as umpire of the ball games hereafter.

STROLLER'S COLUMN.

People who live to grow gray hairs and propagate sciatica in Dawson without making a trip to the mountain top east of the city about June 21st and there gaze in rapture and see the sun merge from practically the same hole into which it sinks miss much of the desert of life.

The Stroller went to the top of the mountain Saturday night and got enough pleasure out of the trip to last him along that line the remainder of his life. The trip up the steep incline is one continuous ovation from the time you start, especially if you are loaded down like a packmule with enough grub to feed Stratton's horse. In addition to two buckets and a pasteboard box, to thoroughly enjoy the trip a person should have a large bottle of Crosse & Blackwell's pickles in one hip pocket, a bale of paper napkins in the other and a can of water suspended by a string from his neck. The can should leak just enough to keep the packer irrigated. He should also have a dozen boiled eggs in the pockets of his coat tails in order to preclude the possibility of sitting down to rest.

If properly taken it is a great trip. Arriving there a 40-mile-an-hour breeze toys with your perspiration soaked locks and 10 minutes later you feel as though you were on a glacier. You then scurriage around over an area of a few hundred acres and gather some wood with which to make a fire. Then you are expected to sit down and eat, and although you are still palpitating from over-exertion and at the same time having chills chase each other up and down your spinal column like lambs gamboling on the green, and ever and anon exclaim: "Isn't this lovely!"

By and by midnight comes and you look for the sun but unless you stand on your toes and crane your neck you are not apt to see it for fully an hour and a half after it goes down and then it rises a full quarter of a mile east of where it set.

Having seen the sun rise you are at liberty to gather up a number of soiled dishes and start on the journey down the hill. In order that the trip may be one long to be remembered, it is advisable to wear pointed shoes on a square-toed foot. Hamlin's Wizard Oil is good for the effected parts, but in order to reach them all it is necessary to fill a bath tub and take a few headers into it. Four days later if you can walk down to the postoffice steps without emitting a long drawn groan, you are on the high road to recovery.

The Stroller some months ago advised trepanning but is sorry to say that the advice has not been generally followed. Of course, there is more or less discomfort connected with the operation but just think of its benefits in after life. For instance, the scion

"The World Does Move"—Galileo

Commissioner Ross in a recent interview said:—"A fact which impressed me was the improved methods which are being used in developing the mines of the country." He had just returned from a visit to the creeks. He added:—"On So. 6 above, Bonanza, the entire surface of the claim is being uncovered by the use of plows and scrapers propelled by electricity." No wonder the distinguished gentleman was surprised and interested. There is an evidence of progressiveness never duplicated in the history of the world.

Look back a few years—imagine the conditions of '98. Why, the man who would prophesy such a change in so short a time as is illustrated in words of the commissioner would be looked upon as a mouthing lunatic. This, mind you, only shows progress in a limited sphere of action—all other branches of business have kept the pace. In our line we tried to not only keep abreast of the times but it has been our aim to be pioneers in progressiveness. We have at our store, and many of our patrons are wearing today, clothing which cannot be excelled in style and finish in any city of the world. Our instructions to our outside agents are, "Buy the Best, we will pay the cost"—and we get the best. You will notice as an evidence of our efforts that the Dawson man is as well dressed and smart appearing as any in Christendom.

TWO GOOD SHOWS THIS WEEK

Both Standard and Orpheum Present Fine Entertainment.

"A Young Wife" Holds the Boards at the Former—New Talent and Lots of It at Latter.

The new talent which has been engaged by both of the theaters adds greatly to the performances this week. At the Standard is being produced by special permission Chas. Frohman's four-act drama entitled "A Young Wife." C. W. Bohman and Vivian appear in the leading roles as Clarence Douglas and his young wife Ethel Douglas. Both of these characters are strong and the players are well adapted to the part. Wm. Mullen does some very clever comedy work as Horace Green Gage Dobbins of Vermont, making his first visit to New York who proves himself to be not as green as he looks.

Alf T. Layne as Judson Douglas the New York capitalist and afterwards St. Jean the detective takes both parts in his usual proper style.

R. J. Thorne as Mr. Marks leader of the band of burglars displays a good idea of what a proper ruffian should be.

Julia Walcott as Mrs. Marks, wife of the ruffian and one with him in his low occupation makes another hit in an entirely new character.

Robert Lawrence takes the part of Herbert Douglas the disinherited son of Judson Douglas, who joins the band of thieves and afterwards murders his father.

Lucy Lovell also displays her versatility as Grace Douglas daughter of Judson.

The balance of the cast is composed of Louis, son of Mr. Marks, Gus C. Seville; Jason, a rouser, Fred C. Lewis; James, an Irish valet, Geo. Troxwell; Rouster, an inmate of the den, Pat Dundon; Stella a maid in the Douglas mansion, Daisy D'Avara.

The play throughout is a good one and the characters are all well taken. The scene in the second act, of the den, in the slums of New York where is shown the work of the gang in fleecing a victim, is particularly good.

The synopsis of the play is as follows:

Act 1.—Library in the Douglas country residence; the disinherited son, the murder; "all on my account."

Act 2.—A den in the slums of New York.

Act 3.—Sitting room in the Douglas mansion, New York City.

Act 4.—Private room of young Mrs. Douglas' home in New York.

Nat C. Goodwin's play "An American Citizen," is one of the best comedies ever produced and has always had a big run. The Standard company is preparing the play for production in its entirety for next week. As a special feature A. P. Friemuth, the musical director is preparing a program of American national airs, it being the week of the Fourth of July.

At the Orpheum last night the old sour dough favorites Mulligan and Linton made their reappearance after a year's absence and were given a very hearty welcome. The Orpheum this week is putting on another strong show, opening with a burlesque by Eddie O'Brien entitled "The New Lord."

Throughout this piece specialties are introduced by the various members of the cast which is composed of the following players:

Mike Murphy, a bowery boy, Eddie O'Brien; Moses Tanglefoot, pawn broker; Dick Maurettus; Count de la Peasupe Binks, a lawyer who never makes a mistake, John Mulligan; Harry Smith, an anarchist, Chas. Moxan; Charley Sunflower, one of the girls, Jim Duncan; Alonzo Washington, an American, May Stanley; Mrs. Tanglefoot, Carrie Linton; Little Tanglefoot, Alice Jennings; Lord Helpin, from old England, Kate Rockwell; Baron Limburger, from Germany, May Miner; Prince Bonypart from France, Lillie Edgerton; Madame Sans Gene, Clotilde Rogers; Lucretia Borgia, May LaRose; Countess de Bon Bon, Edith Montrose.

The olio is headed by Madge Melville in songs. James Duncan does some very clever and difficult feats on the flying trapeze. Carrie Linton in illustrated songs entitled "For Old Times Sake" and "Something That Money Can't Buy," proved herself to be as popular as of old. Dolly Mitchell shows her agility as a buck and wing dancer. John MulHagan is a clever turn as a ventriloquist with a wooden launty and keeps the audience in a roar. The show concludes with O'Brien, Jennings and O'Brien in their original clever sketch entitled "Our Uncle" and introducing songs and dancing. Annie O'Brien receiving several encores.

The whole entertainment is good and will undoubtedly have a big run this week.

SHARKEY WILL SCRAP

But He Cannot Come to Dawson This Summer.

Frank Slavin arrived in town last night looking rugged and strong. He will now get to work in earnest for his coming go with Bates. This is the first time since Slavin has been in the country that he has trained regularly as the tip has been given out that his opponent for next Saturday night is going to give him the hardest battle he has ever run up against in the Klondike. Tommie McDonnell of the Exchange has been placing considerable money on the outcome as Bates has made a big impression on the sports from his work with Vincent White, who it is said is easy game for the young giant.

The fistic carnival which was to be held this summer in which Slavin was to meet Sharkey has been indefinitely postponed as the latter finds it impossible to come into Dawson at present. James W. Morrison of Seattle, the well known sporting man who has been negotiating with Sharkey's managers forwards the following letter from Tom Sharkey which explains the situation:

New York, May 29, 1901.

Dear Sir—I telegraphed to you just now, that I mailed you particulars in reply to your proposition about fighting Slavin. It will be impossible for me to accept your offer to meet Slavin on July 4th, as I have signed to meet Tom Jenkins June 11th in a wrestling match at Cleveland, Ohio, and Agerton at Rochester, June 15th and another one in Chicago some time later on. My father and mother and sisters are here with me. They came over from the other side. They are to remain two months at my cottage. I want to be here with them this summer. At some later date I will fight under your management anything on earth. Yours truly,

TOM SHARKEY.

Preparations for Extensive Summer Operations—A Swell Invitation Dance at Grand Forks.

Mr. John Panning, W. P. Sechrist, J. P. Summers, J. J. Sechrist and Jas. Madden, all of Adams Hill, are in Dawson looking up their old friends today.

Mr. Makin has eleven men at work on the government road from 30 below Bonanza down while Mr. R. A. Gunn has 20 men at work in the vicinity of 20 and up.

Gaines Bros. on American Hill, show with great pride a robin's nest built just above their cabin door. The same thing occurred last year. All day long the birds can be seen about the place. The robins evidently know the boys, and are assured of their friendship.

Messrs. Harms, Rheckell and Redmond Bros. have purchased the Hunter and Arnold claims on Adams Hill and will do a big lot of work this summer.

Mrs. M. Deyoe, formerly of the Palace roadhouse on Dominion, has purchased the big hotel on Chechako Hill from Mr. Acheson and will manage the place herself this season. Mrs. Deyoe is well known throughout the district and will be glad to meet her old friends at her new home.

Mr. Chas. Anderson who lately returned from San Francisco, is up Eldorado looking after his mining interests. Charley says he will remain, until he has all his business matters satisfactorily arranged, when he will again return to Prisco to look after his property there.

Mr. Wood has set up a saw mill on 37 Eldorado where all kinds of lumber for mining and building purposes will be sawed this summer.

A new tent roadhouse is now in full operation at 30 above Bonanza which ought to be a successful venture for the summer season.

Messrs. Bert and Will Schuler, formerly of Grand Forks will go to Nome in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond of Grand Forks, were in Dawson for several days this week. A social dance was given by Mr. and Mrs. Garvie of Grand Forks last Thursday evening, and it was an invitation affair, those who had the pleasure of being invited taking advantage of the same, and had a glorious time. Mr. Boggs was floor manager, and Messrs. Reynolds and White presided at the piano and violin. A fine luncheon was served at midnight, and many were heard to say, "This is the finest time we have had at the Forks for some time." The Dawson and Grand Forks baseball teams attended in a body and were loud in the praises of their reception. Those present were Messlames Vance, Raymond, Rothweiler, Garvie, Griffith, Boggs, Morrison, Kline, Froule and Gier; the Misses Hall, Misses Daring, Langsett, Rithstrom and Bastrom; Messrs. Clarence Kinsey, Clark Kinsey, Hydredge, McFee, Lowe, Raymond, McDougall, McLeod, Fulton, Flannigan, Van Winkle, Morrison, Cline, Phillips, Link Freuney, Clark, Warren, Lamb, Stretch, Wright, Fretcher, Thurston and Jensen.

A NEW DISCOVERY

Made on the Right Limit of the Yukon Three Miles up

A new strike was recorded yesterday at the gold commissioner's office by Jacob Nelson. The strike was made three miles up the Yukon on the right limit and the pay dirt thus far discovered will yield five cents to the pan.

Three claims at the scene of the new strike have thus far been recorded but it is expected that others will follow. The claims are situated on the bank of the river and are recorded as river claims.
