Terrible Railway Accident. BOSTON, March 14.—A terrible railway accident took place to-day on the Dedham branch of the Providence R.R. Five rear cars of a crowded passenger train fell through a bridge, a distance of 30 or 40 feet, and were reduced to promiscuous wreck.

The Osar's Narrow Escape. LONDON, March 16.—The Russian embassy in London has received despatches confirming the reports of the discovery of a plot to assassinate the Czar, and the arrest of the ringleaders.

It was found that they lived together in a lodging house in the suburb of the city. The police visited this house and discovered a quantity of explosives and a number of revolutionary pamphlets.

North West Elections.

TORONTO, March 16.—The Globe says: "The elections in the Northwest Territories occurred yesterday. The Government candidates have carried Eastern and Western Assiniboia. In Alberta Mr. Hardisty, a thorough Independent who was opposed by the Government, has been elected. In Saskatchewan the Tory polling places have been heard from, giving Mr. McDowall a good lead, but it is probable ex-Gov. Laird will overtake him in the returns yet to come in.

The Maritime Bank Failure. ST. JOHN, March 14.—The secret of the affairs of the broken Maritime Bank has been well kept, but the truth is coming out by degrees, and public exasperation increases.

What the Prince Said. One correspondent, who claims to have been on the ground when H. R. H. the Prince of Wales made his alleged indifferent reply to those who called to him to get up the night of the earthquake, insists that his royal Highness did not say: "Since the stands are over and the house still stands, I will remain where I am—in bed."

Adventures of two Girls. ST. PAUL, Minn., March 16.—Two children wandered into Windom (Minn.) Sunday evening and gave their names as Charlie and Bertie Myers, of Rochester, N.Y.

A Peculiar Elopement. ST. THOMAS, March 14.—Thomas Hopkins and Mrs. Peers, inmates of Elgin County Poorhouse, eloped on Saturday night. The couple took with them Mrs. Peers' two children, four and seven years of age respectively, and a quantity of clothing belonging to the poorhouse.

Lord Lorne on the Fisheries. In the Fortnightly for March Lord Lorne has an article on the fishery dispute between Canada and the United States. He points out how Canada has always shown the greatest disposition to be friendly with her neighbor, and rather to yield points than to insist on their exact fulfillment.

A goodly number of our leading citizens went to the Conservative banquet at Portland on Thursday night, and report an enjoyable time.

A trotting match is talked of between M. Rape's "Barney R" and T. C. Singleton's high stepper, of Westport and Newboro respectively.

Mr. Robt. Barker, blacksmith, formerly of this town, removed last summer to Chantry, where he opened business. We are glad to hear he has built up a good trade, and bought a lot on which he will build a residence and shop.

Plum Hollow.

This fertile valley is about four miles in length, its general course being from south-west to north-east. The valley proper includes about twelve hundred acres, scarce a rod of which is not of the most fertile kind.

The Scott Act in Sister Provinces. In regard to the observance of the Scott Act in Nova Scotia, one of the best known and most intelligent Temperance workers in that Province informs us that the Provincial Government does practically nothing to assist in its enforcement either in the way of providing funds or appointing officers for that purpose.

We think the name Hollow is suggestive of all that is gloomy. Nearly all the Hollows of Ontario which we remember the names of were the reputed resort of ghouls, ghosts, satyrs, spirits, fairies and furies, which might be seen holding high carnival at midnight.

Probably the first house in the vale was that built well nigh one hundred years ago by Mr. Sheldon, grandfather of the Rev. S. Sheldon. It was situated at the rear of the Ballis property.

Mr. Jos. Knapp's handsome cheese factory is a standing evidence of the adaptability of the valley to successful dairying. Its prospect for the coming season are very bright.

The efforts of the Rev. Mr. Sheldon in rebuilding the Baptist church here, and in endeavoring to arouse that denomination to greater activity and usefulness, have met with divine as well as human approbation, and have been crowned with marked success.

A number of the friends of Mr. Bullis drove down from Brighton for the purpose of having a grand sleigh ride and a good time generally. They employed themselves in looking up old acquaintances, taking in a number of oyster suppers, and engaging in anything which would afford amusement for mutual enjoyment.

The generous home of Mr. Sheldon Bullis is gradually becoming a great rendezvous for lovers of horses, who come from miles around for the purpose of matching their horses or trading, as the case may be.

Mr. Bullis cannot accommodate those who come for this purpose, he can generally direct them to where their wishes can be gratified. So general is the good feeling and satisfaction, that the business seems to be fast growing in favor with the people.

The reason for this is the high value set upon his stock. Several of his colts have sold for high prices. A foal of his, a year old and past, now standing in the same stable, is 15 1/2 hands high, and gives great promise of high speed.

The people of this valley are generous, frank and friendly, and in their intercourse with one another retain much of the warm-hearted, old-time ways. They have not yet been run into the cast steel mould of an extremely selfish civilization, and are not yet quite ready to say:

"Old times, laws, customs, manners go! A stranger's on the Stuart's throne." The friends of Mr. Sheldon Bullis will regret that he has been confined in his house for ten or twelve days, a great portion of the time suffering severely.

ENTERTAINMENT.—The High School Literary Society's entertainment on Friday evening promises to be a treat. We have seen the programme, and have been permitted to catch a glimpse of its merits, as exhibited in rehearsal. We can assure the public the comic drama, "That Bessie! Pat," will be given with great spirit, and in its ninth and final act, which will be irresistible, while the musical and literary portion of the entertainment will be everything which could be wished for.

PERSONAL.—Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Frodenburgh, Westport, spent Sunday night in town, the guests of Mrs. Chamberlain. They attended the Presbyterian Church. Mr. Daniel Mott, a former resident of this village, is visiting his old friends and acquaintances in this section. He gained celebrity in this neighborhood some thirty years ago, by introducing the "Gold Dust" strain of horses. Miss Sarah Griffin, of Brockville, is the guest of Mrs. R. B. Algire this week. Mr. Ford Mansell, accompanied by his mother, was in town on Sunday and Monday. We regret to learn of the serious illness of Mrs. Aza Parish. As we go to press this Wednesday morning we are informed that she is still in a dangerous condition. Mrs. Chamberlain accompanied her nephew, J. C. Judd, on a visit to her sister at Morton, on Saturday, and returned on Monday. Miss Dowley and Miss Moorhouse, of Brockville, spent Sunday with Mrs. M. Bellamy. Mr. and Mrs. Fisher visited Perth on Saturday. The smiling countenance of J. H. Hawkins was seen in our sanctum yesterday.

A SAD CASE.—Hugh Johnston, a native of Belfast Ireland, died yesterday morning at the Gamble House, at the age of about 85 years. The unfortunate deceased was apprenticed while in his native land to the dry goods business, in which he was proficient, and had also a good education. He came to Canada some years ago, and held positions with merchants in Toronto, Ottawa and Brockville. He taught school for some time at Le-Peche, a little place on the Gatineau, and was married during his residence there. His wife and family are dead and with the exception of an uncle in Ireland it is believed he has not a near relative in the world. He taught school at Melrose Mills for a time, and last fall was employed on the B. W. R. R. About three months ago he was attacked with rheumatism, and was bedridden three or four weeks. Becoming better, he came to this village to take a position in Mr. Van-urn's store, when the disease reasserted itself, and he was obliged to take to a bed of suffering. For nearly eight weeks he has been lying at the Gamble House, in a destitute condition, and has been cared for by his brother Oranegen, and by several others who although strangers to the sick man proved themselves friends in the time of need. The funeral takes place to-day, at the English Church.

Two girl students have been flogged to insensibility for taking part in the Nihilist plot.

France is disturbed over the conclusion of the alliance between Austria, Germany and Italy.

Always keep West's Cough Syrup in the house for sudden attacks of cold, asthma and all throat and lung diseases. Best in use. All druggists.

ANOTHER OF LIFE'S LANDMARKS PASSED AWAY.

With feelings of profound sorrow, and sincere sympathy for the bereaved friends, we are called upon this week to record the death of another of the old pioneers of this district. For nearly three quarters of a century the subject of this brief sketch has passed to and fro in our midst and those who know him best have nothing but words of commendation to utter in regard to his personal worth and rigid earnestness of purpose.

Artemus Bissell was born on the farm on which he died, in the year 1823. His father was one of the old U. E. Loyalists, who came to this country from the United States and settled on the farm which in course of time descended to his family. Mrs. Bissell, who died some four years ago, was a daughter of the late Michael Wright, of Algonquin, and was also of U. E. stock. Some four weeks ago the writer met Mr. Bissell in Brockville, when he seemed in his usual health. On Friday, the 11th inst., he arose in the morning and attended as usual to a portion of the chores around the barn, and in the afternoon took a walk to a wood on his brother's farm, where a number of men were employed in chopping wood. He remained there for a short time, seemingly in the best of spirits, and then returned home. On entering the house he stood by the stove for a few minutes, when he was seen to reel, as if about to fall. He was caught in the arms of a member of the family who on examination found that he was dead. Not even a struggle was noticed as the spirit of the good old man passed away to that "Lourne from whence no traveller returns."

The family of the deceased consists of four sons, Braden, Charles, Arthur and Newton. The first three reside at home, and Newton holds the position of bookkeeper for the Electric Light Co., of Brockville, P. Q. Mr. Bissell had the respect of all who came in contact with him and his range of friends and acquaintances was large. In politics he was a firm and consistent Reformer, and while holding firmly to his own opinions, was ever ready to accord to others the same rights he claimed for himself. In religion he was a member and strong supporter of the Methodist church, but other denominations have good reason to rise up and call him blessed for his many kind words and acts of personal kindness. Charitable and liberal to a fault, his acts of beneficence will follow him and rise as a monument in the hearts of those who have been the recipients of his bounty.

His farm was a model of neatness and thrift and being ever in the foreground in agricultural pursuits, he was looked up to as one able to give advice worthy the attention of our best farmers. Probably few men have done more to further the dairying interests in this district than Mr. Bissell, and the cheese from his factory was always quoted at the highest figures.

The funeral, which took place on Tuesday, the 15th inst., was largely attended. The remains were interred in the family burying ground on the farm of his brother, Jas. Bissell, near by and within sight of the house where the deceased spent the many years of his useful and consistent life.

Three young men were fined $42 by the police magistrate of Port Hope for interrupting a Salvation Army open air meeting.

The best spring medicine is one of West's Liver Pills taken every night on going to bed. Just what you need. Sugar coated. 30 pills 25c. All druggists.

Harry Rice, a Burford hotelkeeper, has recently paid $150 in fines for violating the Scott Act, to say nothing of costs.

West's Cough Syrup, the household remedy for coughs, colds, sore throat, bronchitis, asthma, influenza, whooping-cough, consumption, and all throat and lung diseases, 25c., 50c. and $1.00 per bottle. All druggists.

Mr. Fleming, (Lib.), had a majority of 43 in Peel in 1882, and Mr. McCulla, (Con.), has a majority of 43 in 1887.

A great blessing. West's Liver Pills will always be found a great blessing to those afflicted with liver complaint, dyspepsia, indigestion and sick headache. Thirty pills 25c. All druggists.

We have seen the programme, and have been permitted to catch a glimpse of its merits, as exhibited in rehearsal. PERSONAL. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Frodenburgh, Westport, spent Sunday night in town, the guests of Mrs. Chamberlain. They attended the Presbyterian Church. Mr. Daniel Mott, a former resident of this village, is visiting his old friends and acquaintances in this section. He gained celebrity in this neighborhood some thirty years ago, by introducing the "Gold Dust" strain of horses. Miss Sarah Griffin, of Brockville, is the guest of Mrs. R. B. Algire this week. Ford Mansell, accompanied by his mother, was in town on Sunday and Monday. We regret to learn of the serious illness of Mrs. Azza Parish. As we go to press this (Wednesday) morning we are informed that she is still in a dangerous condition. Mrs. Chamberlain accompanied her nephew, J. O. Judd, on a visit to her sister at Westport, on Saturday, and returned on Monday. Miss Dowley and Miss Moorhouse, of Brockville, spent Sunday with Miss M. Bellamy. Mr. and Mrs. Fisher visited Perth on Saturday. The smiling countenance of J. H. Hawkins was seen in our sanctum yesterday.

A SAD CASE. Hugh Johnston, a native of Belfast Ireland, died yesterday morning at the Gamble House, at the age of about 85 years. The unfortunate deceased was appointed while in his native land to the dry goods business, in which he was proficient, and had also a good education. He came to Canada some years ago, and held positions with merchants in Toronto, Ottawa and Brockville. He taught school for some time at Le Peche, a little place on the Gatineau, and was married during his residence there. His wife and family are dead and with the exception of an uncle in Ireland it is believed he has not a near relative in the world. He taught school at Melrose Mills for a time, and had fallen was employed on the W. R. R. About three months ago he was attacked with rheumatism, and was bedridden three or four weeks. Becoming better, he came to this village to take a position in Mr. Van Arman's store, when the disease reasserted itself, and he was obliged to take to a bed of suffering. For nearly eight weeks he has been lying at the Gamble House, in a destitute condition, and has been cared for by his brother Orangeton, and by several others who although strangers to the sick man proved themselves friends in the time of need. The funeral takes place to-day, at the English Church.

ANOTHER OF LIFE'S LANDMARKS PASSED AWAY.

With feelings of profound sorrow, and sincere sympathy for the bereaved friends, we are called upon this week to record the death of another of the old pioneers of this district. For nearly three quarters of a century the subject of this brief sketch has passed to and fro in our midst and those who know him best have nothing but words of commendation to utter in regard to his personal worth and rigid earnestness of purpose.

Artimos Bissell was born on the farm on which he died, in the year 1823. His father was one of the old U. E. Loyalists, who came to this country from the United States and settled on the farm which in course of time descended to his family. Mrs. Bissell, who died some four years ago, was a daughter of the late Michael Wright, of Algonquin, and was also of U. E. stock. Some four weeks ago the writer met Mr. Bissell in Brockville, when he seemed in his usual health. On Friday, the 11th inst., he arose to a portion of the chores around the barn, and in the afternoon took a walk to a wood lot on his brother's farm, where a number of men were employed in chopping wood. He remained there for a short time, seemingly in the best of spirits, and then returned home. On entering the house he stood by the stove for a few minutes, when he was seen to reel, as if about to fall. He was caught in the arms of a member of the family who on examination found that he was dead. Not even a struggle was noticed as the spirit of the good old man passed away to that "Lourne from whence no traveller returns."

The family of the deceased consists of four sons, Braden, Charles, Arthur and Newton. The first three reside at home, and Newton holds the position of book keeper for the Electric Light Co., of Brockville, N. Y. Mr. Bissell had the respect of all who came in contact with him and his range of friends and acquaintances was large. In politics he was a firm and consistent reformer, and while holding firmly to his own opinions, was ever ready to accord to others the same rights he claimed for himself. In religion he was a member and strong supporter of the Methodist church, but other denominations have good reason to rise up and call him blessed for his many kind words and acts of personal kindness. Charitable and liberal to a fault, his acts of beneficence will follow him and rise as a monument to the spirit of those who have been the recipients of his bounty.

His farm was a model of neatness and thrift and being ever in the foreground in agricultural pursuits, he was looked up to as one able to give advice worthy the attention of our best farmers. Probably few men have done more to further the dairy interests in this district than Mr. Bissell, and the cheese from his factory was always quoted at the highest figures. The funeral, which took place on Tuesday, the 15th inst., was largely attended. The remains were interred in the family burying ground on the farm of his brother, Jas. Bissell, near by and within sight of the house where the deceased spent the many years of his useful and consistent life.

A great blessing. West's Liver Pills will always be found a great blessing to those afflicted with liver complaint, dyspepsia, indigestion and sick headache. Thirty pills 25c. All druggists.

Sir John Macdonald's majority in Carleton is 1,082, and it is somewhat of a coincidence that the official figures gave Mr. Blake a lead of exactly 1,082 also.

It is with pleasure that we recommend our readers to try West's Cough Syrup. You will find it especially useful at this season of the year to cure sudden colds, check coughs and lung and throat troubles. All druggists.

The Government will engage another fisheries cruiser for this season.
