SOUTH RIDING OF WELLINGTON.

To the Electors of the South Riding of Wellington.

GENTLEMEN:—

In compliance with the unanimous request of the delegates of a Reform Convention of the South Riding of Wellington, I am a candidate for the representation of this Riding in the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario.

My residence amongst you extends to nearly a quarter of a century; and having for the greater portion of that time taken an active part both in municipal and political matters, my antecedents are consequently well known to most of you. I need, therefore, only briefly state that, in the future as in the past, I will give a hearty support to the Liberal party—to whose long, consistent and faithful advocacy of their principles we are chiefly indebted for the great constitutional changes we are now about to enjoy—believing that their principles and policy are the best adapted to promote the general interests and prosperity of the country.

I have been an earnest and zealous advocate for the Confederation of Ontario with the United Kingdom and the British Parliament, for so cheerfully concurring to us the new Constitution for the Government of the Dominion of Canada.

I rejoice in our new Constitution, because it gives us entire control of our local affairs, recognizes the just principle of Representation by Population, and consolidates those hitherto isolated Provinces into a nation—strengthens the ties between us and the mother country, and increases our power of defence against invasion.

Holding these views, I shall ever be ready to cooperate with all true lovers of our country in advancing such measures as are calculated to perpetuate and extend our Union with the British North America, from the Atlantic to the Pacific, shall have been joined in one grand confederation.

Regarding the working of our new Constitution, I am decidedly in favor of a pure party government as being, in my estimation, best adapted for the proper carrying out of the British system of Responsible Government.

I am opposed to Coalition Governments for ordinary administrative purposes, as being more reckless and extravagant, and more prone to venal and corrupt practices, as their history both in Great Britain and Canada abundantly testifies. But while sincerely holding these views, I wish it distinctly to be understood that I shall resolutely oppose everything having a tendency to produce a ramshackle, venal state of party feeling in the politics of our new Dominion.

The new Constitution provides that the Legislature of the Province of Ontario shall consist of the Lieutenant Governor and one House, styled the Legislative Assembly of Ontario, composed of eighty-two members, five of whom shall form the Executive Council. These eighty-two members shall have exclusive powers to legislate on the following subjects, namely: The raising of revenue by direct taxation, the establishment and tenure of Provincial Offices, the management and sale of the Public Lands, the establishment and maintenance of Prisons, Asylums, Hospitals, &c., the Municipal Institutions, the regulation, the management of all local Public Works, Incorporation of Companies with Provincial objects, all matters relating to property and civil rights, the administration of justice both of Law and Equity, jurisdiction, and all other matters of a purely Local or Provincial character. These subjects have a wide range, including as they do the whole of our internal government; and just in proportion as they are well or ill administered, so shall we have a quiet and prosperous or a turbulent and impoverished state.

I regard the immediate settlement of our Wild Lands as a subject of paramount importance, and one that has been too long neglected. I shall give a hearty support to any liberal, well digested measure that has this object in view; and the encouragement of immigration to the Province.

Our new Municipal and Assessment Acts, although in many respects improvements on previous legislation, are still defective in several points. I shall give these matters my careful consideration, so that I may be prepared to aid in their improvement.

To the many other subjects that will engage the attention of the first House of Assembly of Ontario, and the various questions that necessarily arise from time to time, I shall be prepared to give a careful and dispassionate consideration, and to vote in all cases to the best of my judgment, ever keeping in view the general interests and prosperity of the Province at large.

I will advocate the most rigid economy in all the departments of the Government, consistent with the efficient administration of the public service, and shall oppose all unnecessary expenditure of the public funds.

The question of Defence belongs exclusively to the General Government, but I will loyally cooperate with you representative in the Commons to promote every prudent measure for the proper defence of the Dominion.

Gentlemen, should you honor me with your confidence, I shall endeavor to discharge the responsibilities devolving upon me as your representative faithfully and honorably to the utmost of my ability.

I have the honor to be, Gentlemen, Your most obedient servant,

PETER GOW

General News.

ACCIDENT.—A boy in London township named Roester, was amusing himself with a pet colt in the field, close by a span of horses that were attached to a waggon drawing in grain. As soon as the horses started, the colt sprang forward, giving the boy a fall which dislocated his neck, and caused instantaneous death.

The second one of what threatens to be a series of "Little Stories for Little Folks," has made its appearance in the Hamilton Spectator. These are intended for political burlesques, and are beyond question the most nonsensical and most rapid things that have yet made their appearance in that most prosy and rapid of all Canadian Journals.

WENTWORTH.—The canvass in both North and South Wentworth progresses favourably for the interests of the Reform candidates; and we are pleased to learn that all parts of the Ridings promise to give a good account of themselves at the approaching elections. Work must be done and that quickly and effectively, however, if Reformers desire to see their principles triumph.

ASSASSINATION OF LOPEZ.—Vengeance is swift in Mexico, if the following story be true; and we may say that it is regarded by many as quite authentic:—Lopez was stopping at a hotel in Puebla, where his wife spurned him from her presence. Early one morning a Mexican arrived, and familiarized himself with an hostler in a livery stable, adjoining the hotel.—Gen. Miguel Lopez was enquired for, but not being in, the stranger was told that the General would be in at dinner. Before the dinner hour, Lopez returned and was pointed out to the stranger, who made special note of his man. When dinner was called, Lopez and his assassin occupied opposite seats at the table. After some minutes, during which time the stranger called for and drank a glass of wine, he deliberately rose, drew a concealed knife, and sprang upon Lopez and stabbed him nine times. The stranger then took his hat, and, as he started to leave, said: "This is the way all traitors should be paid." No one interfered, or prevented the assassin from leaving.—Thus was the blood of Maximilian, Miramonte, Mejia, yes, thousands of others, avenged.

The Uniontown [Ohio] Standard gives the following important information for wool growers: "If sheep are kept in the same lot with cows or fat cattle, no dogs will disturb them. As soon as the dogs approach them they run to the cattle, who drive off the dogs. A farmer of 30 years in Shelby adopted this plan, and he never lost a sheep by dogs, although in the neighborhood the dogs had killed sheep to the north and south of him."

SOUTH RIDING NOMINATION.

The nomination for this Riding has been fixed to come off on Friday, the 30th inst., and the polling days on the 6th and 7th of September. We will give the polling places as soon as the Proclamation is issued. The day for the nomination in the North Riding has not yet been fixed.

Got into a Mess.

The Advertiser finds it has got itself into a tight place by calling some of the parties from Guelph who attended the Morrison meeting a "gang of tipsy hirelings, choreboys, and professional roughs," and tries to get out of the difficulty by fastening the charge on us. For sheer downright impudence this beats any of the Advertiser's former efforts. The case was simply this:—It applied the above insulting names to a number of those who went from Guelph to attend the meeting. As there were some doubts as to which side it applied these epithets, we gave a list of all the parties on both sides who attended the meeting, and then asked which list it referred to. If, as it re-asserts there were "tipsy hirelings, choreboys and professional roughs" from Guelph, they must be included in either one of the other. Recollect we did not employ those names. The Advertiser fastened them on certain of our townspeople, and now when brought to book for using such opprobrious names to a number of our citizens, it endeavors to wriggle out of the difficulty by saying that we employed them. But it won't do. The pretext is too flimsy, the charge too well founded for it to evade the responsibility.

Suicide in Town.

We regret to have to undertake the task of recording the death, by suicide last night, of a respectable young man named George Lizars. He has been living in town for some time past with his sister, Mrs. John Galt. This lady, on account of the low state of her health, had been absent for a few weeks, and returned but lately. While she was gone he was continually expressing his intention of taking his departure for some distant country as soon as she should return. Yesterday, and even up till a late hour last evening he appeared to be in the same state of bodily and mental health as usual. He had been out during the evening and when he returned he found his sister and family in bed. This was about half past twelve o'clock this [Tuesday] morning. Going into Mrs. Galt's room he bade her good-bye, when she remarked "You are not going away so soon." He said he was, and took up one of the children, an especial favorite, and kissed her most affectionately. Again his sister told him that he had better not think of going until the morning, but go to his room and go to bed. He complied with her injunction so far as to go to his room, and in a few minutes afterwards she was startled by the report of a pistol, and rushing to his apartment she found him lying across the bed, and heard merely a gurgling sound. Dr. Herod was immediately sent for, but medical aid was in vain—death must have been instantaneous. The ball from the pistol had entered the left side between the third and fourth ribs.

Dr. Herod, Coroner, summoned a jury, composed of the following gentlemen to investigate the case:—Chas. E. Roman, foreman; Wm. Lowy, Jas. Cormack, R. Ainley, E. Newton, F. Prest, A. Thomson, Jas. Gow, W. McGill, N. Croft, Wm. McLaren, Wm. Henderson.

The evidence of several witnesses was taken, but no cause could be assigned for the rash act.

The jury returned a verdict to the effect, that the deceased met his death by his own hand while laboring under a fit of temporary insanity.

That Precious (?) Letter.

To Mr. Wm. Leslie, the would-be Representative for South Wellington.

DEAR SIR,—In reading your letter to the whiskey-sellers, some questions arose in my mind which, perhaps, one who has been a public man many years, can answer:—

1st. Are there some Hotel-keepers who are not of sober habits? If so, how many such do you know belonging to Guelph?

2nd. Will you define what drunkenness is, how much a hotel-keeper may drink and yet be of "sober habits," and also how often he may get drunk and not be a drunkard?

3rd. Whom would you appoint as proper parties to decide respecting the sober habits or otherwise of hotel-keepers? A jury composed of hotel-keepers or one composed of Teetotallers?

4th. Don't you think it would be a benefit to the entire people to let your friends, the hotel-keepers, have open houses, night and day—Sundays as well as Mondays? Is it not "most unjust and arbitrary" to shut them up from doing good, especially "considering the amount of license they are compelled to pay?"

Immediate answers to the above queries will oblige,

AN ENQUIRER.
Guelph, Aug. 20, 1867.

TORNADO AT FERGUS.—A terrific tornado, taking an easterly course, swept over a tract of country about three-fourths of a mile wide and five miles to the north of Fergus on Sunday afternoon, unroofing barns, blowing down chimneys and hay stacks, leveling fences, grain, and an immense number of trees, also the telegraph wires, and the walls of a brick church in course of erection on the Owen Sound road. The damage is very great.

The Kingston nominations took place yesterday. Sir John A. Macdonald and Dr. John Stuart were nominated for the House of Commons, and Drs. Maxwell, W. Strange and J. Stuart for the Local Legislature.

TOWN COUNCIL.

The Council met on Monday night.—Present, the Mayor in the chair, Dr. Herod, Messrs. Holliday, Thomson, Melvin, Sayers, McCurry, Mays, Mitchell, Chadwick, Heffernan, Peterson, Massie and Harvey.

The Clerk after reading the minutes, which were confirmed, intimated that he had received a communication (which he handed to Mr. Holliday to read) from Mr. A. Wells, respecting the condition of the bridges on the Edinburgh Road which span the River Speed. They are in a dangerous condition for heavy-loaded teams, and Mr. Wells was of opinion that if they could not be immediately repaired, passage over them should be closed to all but foot passengers. Referred to R. & B. Committee.

Mr. Mitchell read a petition from Geo. Muir and others, praying for the erection of a footbridge, about four feet wide, across the Speed, at the foot of Norwich Street, as it would be a great convenience to mechanics and others, particularly to those who were engaged at some of the foundries. The petitioners themselves would raise as much by subscription as they could. Referred to R. & B. Committee.

Mr. Melvin read a petition from the cattle dealers, setting forth the disadvantage under which they laboured from having no weigh scales in the cattle yard, and praying for assistance to supply the want, they themselves having already subscribed $50, and are expecting to augment that sum to $70 or $75. Referred to the Market House Committee.

Mr. Mitchell read a petition from J. W. B. Kelly concerning an error in assessment of Lot 694 Norfolk Street, and prayed that the matter might be rectified.—Referred to Finance Committee.

The Council went into Committee of the Whole, Mr. Mays in the chair, on the Assessment By-law. The blanks were filled up as follows:—

For County rate 4 mills in the $.

Public Schools 4 mills in the $.

Redemption of Debentures, Interest on do, &c, 5 1/2 mills in the $.

Total, 1 1/2 in the $.

The committee rose, the Mayor resumed the chair, and the By-law was passed in Council, and numbered 165.

The Mayor read a communication from J. P. Pearce, Esq., Toronto, requesting aid for the erection of a monument in the Queen's Park, Toronto, to the memory of the fallen Volunteers.

Dr. Herod thought that the appeal should have been made to the County and not to the Town.

Mr. Thomson said, that the Town Council should give the matter a little consideration, there are few among us who would object to giving a little towards such a noble object, but they would not be willing to bestow $100, as the communication said was the result of one appeal. No further action was taken on the application.

Mr. Thomson read the report of the Finance Committee. It recommended the refunding of $15 license to E. Grand. With regard to the account of $7.50 from the Advertiser office, said to be due in April last, the committee could not recommend the payment of the same, as they believe it to be an item included in a bill which was paid last October. Nor could they recommend that the petition of Chief Constable Kelly for the refunding of his expenses in the appeal cases of Lindsay and Grand be granted.

Mr. Melvin read the report of the Market House Committee. They had found that the Butcher's Corridor or Hall required to be painted, and the ceiling to be whitewashed, and recommended that the committee be empowered to have the same done.

Mr. Chadwick read the report of the License Committee. They had examined into the matter referred to them at the last meeting. They found that plans and specifications had been drawn out and tenders received for the erection of a stone building in place of that destroyed by fire. Mr. Newton has erected a temporary wooden building on the opposite side of the road from where the house stood that was burnt, and he accommodates parties with stabling in the vicinity. It would be a great inconvenience to teamsters and others going to the station to have no stopping place there. The committee, therefore, recommended, that the privilege of not providing all the required accommodation be allowed Mr. Newton, on the express understanding that if the hotel be not commenced within one month the privilege be recalled.

Mr. Peterson read the report of the By-law Committee. They recommended the payment of $60 to Mr. Geo. Hough, for his aid in revising and consolidating the By-laws of the Town. He had devoted much time and labor in perfecting the By-law referred to, copies of which had been printed and distributed.

Moved by Mr. Thomson, seconded by Dr. Herod, that the report of the Finance Committee be adopted.

Moved in amendment by Mr. Massie, seconded by Mr. Melvin, that the report be referred back to the committee for further consideration of that portion of it which refers to the petition of the Chief Constable.

When a division was made the motion was carried.

All the other reports were adopted, and the Council adjourned.

South Ontario Nomination.

The nomination of candidates for this Riding took place yesterday (Monday). About one thousand people were present. A great many candidates were nominated for both Houses, and the speeches of Messrs. Brown, Gibbs and others occupied the time till six o'clock. A poll was demanded for the Hon. Mr. Brown and Mr. Gibbs for the House of Commons, and for Dr. McGill and Dr. Tucker for the Legislature of Ontario. Everything passed off in a most orderly manner, and without the slightest disturbance. The polling commences on Monday the 26th. Accounts from all parts of the Riding are very cheering for Mr. Brown.

THE HOLIDAY AND EXCURSION.—In accordance with a requisition presented, the Mayor has issued his proclamation appointing Monday first as a holiday in town. We believe it will be generally observed by the people in town. The Great Western Railway Company have liberally arranged to run a special train from Guelph to the Falls on that day, and put the fare for the round trip at a low figure. People in town and country should not fail to embrace this opportunity of taking a trip to the Falls, as they may not have such a chance again during this season. The time of departure of the train, fare, &c., will be found in the advertisement in another column.

are one or two points in connection with the present contest in which every sensible and

These are that the Conservative incomprehensible and decided views of their party, now seek their friends to repudiate the election. We believe if Mr.

more successful than his proxies. They,

off in crystallized apothegms, Mr. Geo Palmer may resort to his hair-splitting, but they are not speaking for Mr Stone, and were that gentleman aware of all he is made responsible for, we feel perfectly sure he could not help expressing his disgust. The whole thing is simply absurd. It is a mockery on the elective franchise, for we are asked to return a gentleman to Parliament, solely on the representation of his proxies. If one of these proxies could take his seat in Parliament and carry out the promises made, there might be some reason in it; but as that cannot be, the impudence of Mr. Stone's friends is amazing. The attempt to foist him on the electors in this way is insulting to every man of independent judgment. He is nothing but clay in the hands of his manipulators, who mould him to suit their own tastes.
We cannot recollect of another such case in our history, where a man was put forth as a candidate, and an effort made to get him elected without even as much as a word from himself in regard to his political views, what party he will support, or what measures he will favour. Surely the intelligent electors of South Wellington will think twice before they vote for such a man.

Another feature we notice in this contest, is the way in which the same committee act towards Mr. Leslie, or rather for him. They are well aware that he is confessedly a very weak man, and therefore they have taken up the cudgels in his behalf also. He poor man, after uttering a few incoherent and ill-assorted phrases—evidently learned—and that indifferently—by rote—meekly takes his seat, and then up starts one after another of his "touters," who tells all about his good deeds, how very "independent" he will be, and what a very efficient member he will make. From our heart we pity him, for he has placed himself in a very humiliating position in being indebted to others to speak for him. We do not regard inability to make a speech as a crime.
But we do regard it as a most necessary qualification in a person aspiring to the position of a representative of the people, to be able intelligently and fully to explain to the electors his views on the questions of the day, to indicate in clear language—however plain it may be—what course he will pursue, and to show that he is conversant with our past political history.— Mr. Leslie can do neither. In the sphere he now occupies the want of such qualifications is a loss only to himself. But thrust him on the electors of South Wellington, and his loss becomes theirs. They would in no sense be properly represented, and the inability of their representative would reflect back on the intelligence of his constituents. Mr. Leslie may think this is harsh language, but it is true nevertheless. The present is no time for mincing matters. Our interests have to be looked after, our rights guarded, the new machinery of government put in working order. To do this fully and efficiently we must have a man who can take his part in a debate, whose knowledge of the past can be brought to bear on the present, whose political creed is not made to order, but who thinks and acts for himself, and who will study to carry out the views of his constituents.
Such a man Mr. Leslie is not, and his own friends don't even claim these qualities for him. We ask again is this the man to represent the intelligent electors of South Wellington.

One more feature of this contest we will allude to. Although the Advertiser worked hard to get Messrs. Stone and Leslie out, it has never beyond a few faint words of praise about their personal character, said a syllable in their favour. Day after day it has come out with some abusive paragraph about the Reformers; day after day it has parrot-like taken up the cry of the Leader about disunion and such like clap-trap, but not a solitary line has appeared in support of its candidates.
Is not this most strong and convincing proof of their inability and weakness?
Surely it could have found some slight ground on which to base a paragraph in their favour. They must be poor candidates indeed for whom one cannot plead some merit. But if there is such in Messrs. Stone and Leslie's case, the ingenuity of the Advertiser has not yet detected it. Their very weakness it might have urged as a plea for gently handling them. But it does not even accord them that favour.— Having hoisted them out of the rank and file of the Conservatives, where they were content to manage their own business in such a way as to win the respect of their neighbours, having elevated them to a place they a few weeks ago never dreamt of occupying, it now like an ingrate leaves them to fight their own battles without so much as a word of encouragement, or even a certificate of character.

The Nova Scotia elections are expected to take place about the end of September.

OFF THE TRACK AGAIN.

There is a certain extent to which forbearance may be carried and bear with it the name of a virtue, but after that boundary has been reached the quality must assume the aspect of either culpability or cowardice.
Yesterday, for the second time the Advertiser wandered so far from its proper sphere—and indeed it is questionable if it has ever known its true position under its present proprietor—as to make an attack on the "Local" of the Mercury, for, as it says, going about in the character of a spy. So infuriated has the Editor of that sink of deceit and falsehood lately become at the ill success of his tactics, so maddened at the contempt to which his base and unmanly shifting and dodging, for the unadulterated love of lucre, has subjected him, that he would seem, like the Irishman in the fair, resolved to hit a head when he sees it. Fortunately for the human race in general, and for the people of Guelph in particular, he is not a heavy man, either physically or intellectually and therefore one of the least likely men in the world to injure any person either in body or in mind. The "Local" of the Mercury is not aware of having given occasion for the attack senseless as it is, of the semi-lunatic who steers the Advertiser. It is true he was present at one Tory meeting.
This meeting was understood to be public, but because he chanced to be present it was made strictly private, he was taken aside, and requested to leave, and lo! the next day we had in the Advertiser a full report of the private meeting. At the same time that he was asked politely to retire, he would venture to assert that his presence was as acceptable to the majority of the gentlemen there present as was that of the man who is now seeking the favours and the crumbs that may fall from a conservative table. But it was the meeting on Saturday night last that gave immediate occasion for the weak, though envenomed shaft that was aimed.
The person whose character is thus impugned by the Advertiser went on business strictly private to the Hotel where the meeting was being held.
He did not so much as look into the room to admire the handsome, and pleasant countenance of the Editor, (who was no doubt master of ceremonies) asked no questions about what was going on, but transacted his own business in a remote apartment, and left the house in ten minutes after he had entered it. As to the threatened violence, he really does dread that, for the Advertiser man is notorious for his valour, and his pistols, and as he would do the pummell-ing, or shooting the unfortunate might be badly wounded. Now, the "Local"
of the Mercury has just a few words to say to the Editor of the Advertiser and he then hopes to have done with him forever. His childish malignity is unbecoming any person who has attained to mature years. But it is the nature of that thing, that struts and wears a coat, aspires to the designation of man, and delights in calling itself the Editor of the Advertiser to seek far and near for a pretence to attack any person against whom it has conceived a petty malignity. The "Local" of the Mercury is well aware that it is impossible to fight with soot, and therefore hopes that he will not again be forced into a quarrel from which he can expect to derive neither advantage nor glory.

The letter of our correspondent descriptive of the Leslie Stone fizzle at the Plains on Friday night is unavoidably crowded out, but will appear to-morrow.
Surely our Tory friends must have little faith in the honest farmers, when obliged to import half their meetings from town, and supply from the same place the mover and seconder of their resolutions. Go it gentlemen, you will need it all. The ship is leaky and needs plenty of pilots.

THE RUSSELL WATCH!

A FEW REASONS THAT MAKE IT SUPERIOR TO ALL COMERS.

1st—It proves itself a reliable time-keeper beyond all question.
2nd—The RUSSELL WATCH being made on correct and scientific principles, it must follow as a natural consequence that it will keep true.
3rd—Each part of which the RUSSELL WATCH is composed is a reflex of the perfect machine by which, under skilful direction, it is produced.
4th—Truth is the essential of each part.
5th—Uniformity and conformity must therefore characterize the several parts in fulfilling the purpose for which they are made and brought together.
6th—Reproduction, as regards watch work, is simply an application of the principle that "things which are equal to the same things are equal to one another," and if there is any merit, the RUSSELL WATCH possesses that merit to a demonstration.
7th—The greatest variety of price, quality and size, that confidence and perfection will admit, afforded by the RUSSELL WATCH.
8th—The RUSSELL WATCH stands pre-eminently above all competitors for public favor and patronage.
9th—Proofs of the foregoing—the universal testimony of all Watchmakers who have sold, and the positive statements of the thousands in Europe, the United States and Canada, who have worn the RUSSELL WATCH.

TESTIMONIAL.

Guelph Evening Mercury
TUESDAY EVENING, AUGUST 20.

NORAH CUSHALEEN

OR THE
HAUNTED CASTLE.

With a loud, defiant bark, the dog ran straight at him, then as the latter bent his head and made a rush at him, he swerved aside and bit the enraged animal in the flank.

The bull turned half round, but with great wisdom Dash sprang nimbly out of his reach. This diverted him only for a moment, for he again bent his head and rushed forward after Mary, whose scarlet scarf fluttering behind her, was no doubt, the primary object of the brute's ire.

He had again come dangerously near the flying girl, and would inevitably have reached her had not Dash again distracted his attention by a bold attack in his rear, which compelled him to wheel about and make another fruitless rush at his wily antagonist.

By this time the youth, who was no less than Hargreave, had reached Mary, and was supporting her fainting steps towards the stable, now quite near at hand. Another minute and they would gain it, but the bull had again renewed his original purpose, and was not many yards off. The chivalrous spirit of the youth prompted him to throw himself between the girl and danger, and passing behind, he urged her to run on and clamber over the stile.

A moment more and Hargreave himself would have been gored by the horns of the beast, when Dash once again flew at him and fastened his powerful teeth in the fleshy part of his leg. The agony was more than the beast could endure, and with an awful bellow he turned, but Dash this time kept his hold, and yet remained out of reach of his horns. This effectually diverted the bull's attention, and enabled Mary and her protector to reach the stile. But her strength was unequal to the exertion of climbing over, and panting and utterly exhausted she would have sunk upon the ground, had not the youth taken her in his strong arms and lifted her over into the region of safety.

Dash no sooner saw them on the other side than he quitted his hold, and dodging the bull's horns, sprung over after them, leaving the baffled animal to bellow and lash himself with his tail, till seeing that his intended victim was beyond his reach, he tore up the sod and rushed frantically across the park.

Mary Kendal, full of thankfulness for her escape, was still supported in the arms of the stranger. She could not stand alone. Her strength had been far more than expended, and though she was conscious of the impropriety of reclining on the arm of a young man whom she had never seen before, she had no power to raise herself up, but lay with closed eyes and whirling brain, her head reclining on his shoulder, and her beating heart laid against his own. Hargreave held her there with many tenderness, glad in soul that she had been saved from so imminent a peril. And as he looked upon her flushed face he thought he had never seen a countenance so striking and expressive. Its sweetness, purity, and intelligence charmed him. Virtue and modesty shone out on his expression. A beauty more valuable than that of a merely physical character irradiated it. He wondered who she might be.

She remained thus for some minutes—she leaning with unreserved helplessness upon his bosom, and he gazing down upon her face with deep and tender interest. At length she opened her eyes, and looked into his face, and faintly smiled. "Pray pardon me, sir," she murmured, in a low musical voice. "Utter weakness and exhaustion is my only excuse for leaning thus upon you. I am quite aware it is improper, but my strength is clean gone."

"I assure you, madam," he responded, "no apology is needed. Your fright and exertion must have been terrible.—The present circumstances are those which conventional rules cannot touch. I am happy to render you any aid in my power."

"You are very kind," she said with a graceful smile, and again closed her eyes till the faintness and giddiness should somewhat abate. She did not swoon, though her danger had been so terrible, and her deliverance unexpected, for Mary Kendal possessed a strength of mind beyond that of most women. Now it stood her in great stead, and though both her physical and nervous system were dreadfully shaken, her mental powers remained unclouded. She grew calm by degrees, and the moment she could do so with safety she raised herself up and tottering to a bank, sat down upon it. Hargreave followed her, and threw himself by her side, while Dash lay down at their feet.

"How shall I express my thanks to you sir?" said Mary in a tremulous tone. "You have saved my life—a thing, perhaps, not very valuable to others, but everything to me."

"We shall pass over the matter of thanks," he answered, "or, if you will render them, let Dash be the recipient, for my exertions would have been vain but for his aid. Here, Dash, come and lick the lady's hand!"

Proudly the dog raised himself up and came and stood close to Mary, looking at her with such a wise joyous glance as if he perfectly comprehended the service he had rendered her, and was delighted at his success. Mary drew his head towards her with both her hands, and patted him with eager fondness.

"What a noble, a glorious animal," she exclaimed. "He is far wiser and braver than many human beings. And as a friend how true, how faithful, how affectionate. Never, never can I forget his service to me this evening."

THUNDER STORM AT OWEN SOUND.—On Saturday night last this town and neighborhood was visited with a severe thunder storm, accompanied by hail stones of a large size. Great damage was done to the standing crops. Two houses had upwards of one hundred and thirty panes of glass broken. The telegraph line north and south of here was much injured by falling trees.

The Company have made arrangements whereby they have secured the entire produce of some of the best plantations in Assam and on the slopes of the Himalayas, and by a judicious selection of these magnificent Teas with the best varieties of China produce, they are enabled to offer to the public Tea of quality and flavor hitherto unknown to the general consumer. These Teas are in high favour in England and France, and a single trial will prove their superiority.

The Company supply two qualities only, either Black, Green or Mixed. Their Black Teas will be found to possess great briskness and flavour, combined with colour and strength, and to be entirely different to the flat and rapid article usually sold as Black Tea; while their Green Teas are altogether free from the deleterious mineral powder so commonly used for coloring the leaf.

PRICES: Rich, full-flavoured Tea for family use a real genuine and fine article, 75 cents per lb. Finest quality procurable, one dollar per lb.

To be had in packets of half Quarter Pound Half Pound, One Pound, and upwards, or in tin canisters of one, two, three, four, five, six, seven, eight, ten, twelve, and twenty pounds.

The Company's Agents in all the chief towns of Canada—N. B. All the packages are lined with paper, and will retain their full quality and strength, and retain their full quality and strength, and retain their full quality and strength.
