ARTHUR SHERIDAN SENTENCED FOR LIFE

Jury Disagreed Twice, and Then Prisoner Pleaded Guilty to Manslaughter—
Eleven Stood Out for Verdict of Wilful Murder.

BARRIE, Oct. 12.—(Special.)—Arthur Sheridan, who has been on trial for his life here for the stabbing of Ross Ford, near Orillia, last August, was today sentenced to life imprisonment.

The jury after being out three hours and 20 minutes, returned and reported that they had been unable to reach a verdict.

Asked by the court if they were given a little more time to deliberate, did they think they would be able to reach a verdict, James Findlay, the foreman, said that there might be a possibility. His lordship then ordered refreshments served to the men in their rooms, and they were asked to retire again.

One hour later they came in and reported that they had agreed to disre-gardless of the fact that a verdict of wilful murder and 1 for manslaughter.

Changed His Plea.
The court then informed the jury that the counsel for the defence had asked the court to allow the prisoner to withdraw the plea of not guilty to the charge of manslaughter and would plead guilty to manslaughter.

After complimenting the jury on the way they had handled the case, his lordship said he was sure they would be satisfied with the sentence and would impose and that the ends of justice would be just as well met.

He then sentenced Arthur Sheridan to imprisonment for the rest of his natural life.

The prisoner, while hearing the verdict, retained the composure which has characterized him throughout the trial. His brother, who was standing near, seemed to show disappointment at the chance of plea.

Four in Thirteen Months.
This is the fourth person accused of murder who has escaped the gallows in Barrie inside of 15 months.

Evidence given by Dr. Kelly and Carson, who made "post-mortem" examinations of the body of Ford, showed that there were three wounds, one on the lower part of the back, one on the shoulder and the other in the chest.

Dr. Carson said the best blade of the knife could have been caused by the force used in inflicting the wound.

The prisoner took the morning session and he was heard to the constable who arrested him.

Ford Had Steel Knuckles.
Robert Thorburn said that on the night of the dance Ford had a pair of steel knuckles and said he was going to the dance, and he was going to the dance, and he was going to the dance.

Mary Thorburn, with whom Sheridan was keeping company, told of Ford shaking his fist at Sheridan when passing them on the road. Answering the crown prosecutor as to what object her mother had against Ford, she said she was sure her mother heard he wasn't a very good young fellow. She said her father was a fighter.

Appeal of Prisoner Denied.
T. C. Robinson, K.C., counsel for the defence, made an eloquent, thoughtful and spirited appeal to the jury. He dwelt on the comparative nature of the crime and the comparative nature of the punishment.

His lordship in instructing the jury, took a very decided stand favoring the crown's case. He read the prisoner's written statement and compared it with his cross-examination, picking out discrepancies.

A MYSTERIOUS VESSEL.
BRUSSELS, Belgium, Oct. 12.—A steamer named "Zeugma" after taking on a cargo of huge cases, which it is understood contained arms and ammunition, a wireless apparatus and provisions, suddenly left Antwerp to-night. The crew were engaged without being informed of their destination and it is believed that the steamer is the property of the Portuguese royalists. The port authorities are greatly annoyed at the departure of the vessel, the alleged owners, they say, having given false information regarding its cargo and destination.

GOLD PRODUCTION OF YUKON.
VANCOUVER, Oct. 12.—Gold production of the Yukon district this year will be about $4,000,000 or about $200,000 in excess of the output in 1910, according to E. E. Stockton of the auditor-general's department at Ottawa, who has returned from Dawson. Mr. Stockton looks for a slow but steady increase of gold production in the Yukon.

SECOND ITALIAN DIVISION IN TRIPOLI

There Are Now 22,000 Italian
Soldiers Landed — Effective
Occupation of the Interior
Now Possible — General
Canave Issues Proclamation.

TRIPOLI, Oct. 12.—Gen. Canave, commander-in-chief of the Italian expedition, has decided to act quickly, and it is believed that the troops under him will march immediately against the positions occupied by the Turks.

A reconnaissance of the desert to-day disclosed the central body of the Turkish troops with their guns not far from the city.

Ninety more Italian transports, escorted by warships and carrying the second division of troops, arrived this morning. The men were hastily landed. This division is 15,000 strong, and there are now 22,000 Italian soldiers on the coast of Tripoli for its defence. Not only is the Italian position well safeguarded against surprise, but an effective occupation of the interior can begin.

It is reported that the Arabs have accepted the Italian occupation joyfully, but some of the warships remain in the harbor in readiness for emergencies. Troops were landed to-day also at Benghazi, Derna, Tobruk and Bomba.

Cholera breaks out.
Altho the utmost precautions have been taken looking to the perfecting of sanitary arrangements, cholera has broken out, and it is reported that four deaths have occurred.

Gen. Canave has addressed a proclamation to the inhabitants, assuring them that they have not been enslaved by Italy. On the contrary, they have been liberated from the yoke under which they have been laboring for years. They will be ruled by their own chiefs under the patronage of the King of Italy.

A part of the force landed to-day were sent to occupy Benghazi and Derna. Bomba and Tobruk. Smaller garrisons will be established at Marsa, Susa, Tokra, Medina, Lebda, Hissa, Mesurata and a few other points.

No Armistice.
ROME, via frontier, Oct. 12.—That an armistice has been arranged between Italy and Turkey, as reported by Berlin, is strenuously denied by the Italian Government.

A despatch from Tripoli to The Globe of Italy says that the Turkish Government, being unable to communicate directly with Munir Pasha, commander of the former Turkish garrison of Tripoli, has telegraphed to the Turkish consuls at Tunis and Malta to instruct him to resist as long as possible.

KILLED BY A HORSE.
ST. EUGENE, Ont., Oct. 12.—Pearl Houn, the 15-year-old daughter of William Houn, living three miles from here, was accidentally killed this afternoon while leading a horse from a nearby pasture to her home.

The young girl had fastened the rope around the animal's neck with a snap, and apparently the end of the rope, which she held, got tangled round the horse's body when the horse got frightened and ran away, dragging her some distance under its feet until the snap broke.

She was found by her father with the rope still fastened round her body, her clothes torn, and her head split by the horse's shoes.

UNITY OF CANADA WATCHWORD OF C.N.A.

Strong Pleas Made at Concluding Banquet for Adherence to Policy That Will Bind
East and West and Protect Great Home Market, While Helping Agriculturists.

With their cares of state all relinquished, their important discussions all thrashed out and their officers elected for the coming year, the members of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association gathered at a splendid banquet last night in the King Edward and wound up their three days' convention in social good-fellowship. The speeches were in part serious, at least they appeared to be so intended by the orators themselves, but while the applause was generous, there was a good natured but decided antipathy evinced towards the long drawn-out addresses. Politics again figured largely in the speech-making, and references to tariffs, protection, imperial sentiment, progress, solidarity were ringing round the banquet hall in great abundance.

Reciprocity was occasionally mentioned also, and one speaker, waxing bold, brought back political remarks with a one-time familiar expression called "the parting of the ways."

A distinguished gathering of visitors were guests of the association at the head table, and included men prominent in every walk of life.

Captains of Industry.
Nathaniel Curry, newly elected president of the C.M.A., was in the chair. At the president's right was Hon. J. M. Gibson, lieutenant-governor, and the president left was Lieut.-Col. J. M. Atkins of Winnipeg. Others at the head table were: W. H. Rowley, the retiring president; R. G. Goulet, vice-president; Sir Wm. White, Sir Wm. Mackenzie, Dr. James Robertson, Richard Grigg, his majesty's trades commissioner, Hon. G. B. Edwards, vice-president of C.M.A. for Nova Scotia; D. R. Wilkie, D. R. Hanna, Prof. S. E. Leacock, R. M. Coulter, George E. Amyot, Quebec, and General George E. Amyot, Quebec.

A telegram was received during the evening from the anti-Manchu party, conveying the assurance that the association and hoping that their next annual meeting would be in Halifax.

Money.
President Curry made a few brief remarks, which, however, indicated conclusively that he was glad the revolution had been defeated. In speaking of Canada's future and the vast possibilities for her development, Mr. Curry said:

"There is not money enough in Canada to develop the country," and somebody in response remarked, "There is not enough money in the world to pay salaries." (Laughter.)

Just as he concluded his remarks, a telegram arrived from East Canada, thanking the association for their kind message, and expressing his regret at leaving Canada. His excellency's message concluded with an assurance of "Canada and the Empire." Lieut.-Col. J. A. M. Atkins, K.C.M.P., declared that Canada was a great agricultural country and that the government, both provincial and Dominion, should encourage theoretical and practical agricultural education. The government would be able to discover for the farmer and manufacturer markets at home and abroad. He declared that the home market is best.

Protection the Watch Word.
"Free trade may be best," said an old countryman, "but I maintain that the security of every young country lies in protection." (Applause.)

The speaker further explained that if the Canadian people of Canada are to be permanent, there will have to be a home established there, so as to bring a home to the great problems before the country to-day is to keep Eastern and Western Canada together.

In response to the toast of "Business and a healthy national sentiment are necessary. The east and west should be bound together by lines of railway, and the great commercial highway to the west should be the Hudson Bay Railway, he declared, would be a great boon, practically opening up a gateway from Manitoba to Labrador and Newfoundland, and would assist toward bringing Newfoundland into confederation as an additional province. (Applause.)

Lieut.-Col. Atkins said that the children of all newcomers should be taught Canadian history in our schools, and that a military education would be instrumental in developing a national sentiment from coast to coast. He also advocated church union, so that the essentials of Christianity could be effectively taught in the schools.

Ties That Bind.
Lt.-Gov. Gibson responded to the toast to "The King." His words were few, but aptly spoken. "We are loyal, all of us, but our formal relationship may give rise to differences of opinion. It is a profound satisfaction to think that at the present time, and I may say, for a long time to come, there is no disposition to sever the ties that bind Canada to the mother land."

An Ardent Imperialist.
Prof. Stephen Leacock, O. McGill University had a lot to say about protection. He was prepared to preach imperialism to the mother land.

"The only proper trade measure for Canada to adopt is rational protection." As the speaker progressed he became enthusiastic and declared that the day a-ide and see England fight battles alone.

The weakness of Prof. Leacock's address was pointed out by the audience.

REVOLUTIONISTS WOULD MAKE CHINA A REPUBLIC

Rising Is Regarded as Serious by the Authorities at Peking.

HANKOW, Oct. 12.—The revolution which has been hanging over China for months past, and of which the rising in the Province of Sze-Chuen was only a small part, has begun in earnest. It is a concerted movement to take the empire and declare a republic. The revolutionaries have captured Wu-Chang, the native section of Hankow and Han-Yang, all adjoining cities in Hu-Peh Province. Chang-Sha, capital of Hunan, is reported to have risen in revolt, and Nanking, capital of the Province of Kiang-Su, is on the verge of a rising. Several public buildings having been destroyed.

PEKING, Oct. 12.—An imperial edict issued to-day ordered the immediate despatch of two divisions of troops to the disaffected provinces. At the same time orders have been issued for the assembling in the Yangtze-Kiang of a fleet of warships which are to unite with the land forces against the rebels. According to the official report at least ten thousand, and possibly fifteen thousand troops have been mobilized in the Province of Hu-Peh alone. It is said that they captured thirty modern guns at Chang-Sha on Oct. 1.

Extraordinary precautions have been taken in Peking to prevent a rising, and large bodies of troops are guarding the palace.

The great Methodist Church is very much in the lull in Toronto at present. Delegates to the ecumenical conference are in session here, and they represent the great religious organizations from all the English-speaking countries in the world. They are gathered from Australia, New Zealand, the British Isles and the great republic to the south of us, from India, and the best church produces in Canada. The Toronto Sunday World, with its recent pot-meat in group and coteries. Some have posed for the camera; others are caught in argumentative attitudes wholly oblivious of the photographic presence. A multitude of portraits have been taken by the world's clerical, but lynx-eyed representative, and they will be reproduced in the press of the art section. The pictures have been taken at different times and in many places, and as a result a very large representation of this highly important Methodist body will be in evidence in the Sunday World. As over 60,000 Sunday World are sold each week, there will be few Methodist homes in Toronto that will not have it. Hundreds of copies will be sent broadcast throughout the world to Methodist homes in other lands. It would be well for those who desire to have this most complete pictorial view of the conference, to order copies from their newspaper or newsboy at once, in order to ensure secure possession.

The Opening of the Rugby season in Toronto is portrayed in lifelike and strenuous pictures of the game. The recent pot-meat in group and coteries. Toronto has, at considerable expense, and thanks to many public-spirited citizens got together a zoological collection equal to any other city in the world. The Sunday World will this week portray a number of the rare animals in this collection. There are other features included in the five big sections.

BY-ELECTIONS WILL BE POSTPONED A FEW DAYS

Date Not Announced Yet—John
Stanfield Probably Chief
Conservative Whip.

OTTAWA, Oct. 12.—(Special.)—It looks like John Stanfield of Colchester, N. S., to succeed Hon. G. H. Peiray as chief Conservative whip. Mr. Stanfield was assistant whip in the last parliament and made a great success of the job.

Ottawa to-night is a capital without a government. The three branches of parliament are all absent. Extraordinary preparations are being made to extend a fitting popular welcome to the royal governor-general and his consort when they arrive on Saturday.

The city is already ablaze with bunting and steps have been taken to hide the ugliness attendant upon the building of the Chateau Laurier and the new station.

There was no meeting of the cabinet this morning. Mr. Borden was in his office from early hour and the ministers were hard at work in their respective departments. Everything is running smoothly and the only sign that a political revolution has taken place is the new faces which look up behind the desks in the ministers' private offices.

Fraser Borden stated to your correspondent that on account of Nov. 1, the day fixed for polling in the by-elections, being All Saints' Day and therefore a public holiday in the Province of Quebec, nominations and polling would be a little later. No date was fixed upon, but it is not expected to be more than two or three days later than previously arranged. Announcement will be made immediately the cabinet returns from Quebec on Saturday.

In the meantime some progress has been made in locating the seatless ministers. Hon. Robert Rogers is to have Alex. Baggart's seat in Winnipeg. George Gordon is likely to make way for Hon. Frank Cochrane in Nipissing and Hon. W. T. White stands a chance of getting East Middlesex. If a senatorship can be found for Peter Elson.

There is no guarantee that the new ministers will be returned unopposed to parliament. Moreover, a. N. Parent, erstwhile premier of Quebec, mayor of Quebec, president of the Quebec Bridge Co., and lately chairman of the Dominion Railway, is now a member of the cabinet. He is the chief witness, will in all probability have recovered sufficiently to answer a summons.

No time was lost in making a private investigation. This fact the insurance people to believe that an official investigation would be advisable before paying the policy.

The provincial police were subsequently notified and an enquiry was started to take place this morning in the town hall.

At the time of the fire, Mrs. Mary Ann Pilgar, wife of Jacob Pilgar, was not in the best of health and since then her condition has become worse. Constable Alexander McClary swore this morning to having served her with a summons to be present and added that she was in such a condition that it was impossible for her to leave home. Jacob Pilgar was present and the enquiry would have been gone on with had it not been deemed advisable to make a postponement until November 21, when Mrs. Pilgar, who is the chief witness, will in all probability have recovered sufficiently to answer a summons.

The group consisted of Thomas Mulvey, under-secretary of state, Col. Sherwood, Dominion commissioner of police, Capt. Malcolm, Col. C.P.R. MAY RAISE NORTH TRACKS

On Chairman Mabee's Suggestion, Plans Covering Line to Dufferin Street Will Be Prepared — C. P. R. is Bitterly
Opposed to C. N. R.'s North
Yonge Street Plans.

A great fight over the Canadian Northern's proposed crossing over North Yonge-street has developed. Before the Dominion Railway Board yesterday afternoon the C. N. R. claimed that they must have some of the C. P. R.'s property if they were to be able to carry out the plans they had for North Toronto station and yards. The C. P. R. was utterly opposed to giving the rival road any of their property. Both railways presented plans showing what they thought was the best route for the Mackenzie-Mann road. City Solicitor Drayton was also armed with a plan of a route which he thought would be better for both roads and distinctly better for the city. And the residents nearby were also represented in the argument.

Solicitor F. H. Phippen of the C. N. R. Railway made a lengthy appeal to the board. He recited many reasons for their wanting the property, chief being that the lands that they had would be a great deal of money in securing and developing what they had. He declared the board should refuse, as he said, had no land to spare, they needed all they had now, and if any were taken away from them it would prevent their further expansion.

C. P. R. had been there years and had spent a great deal of money in securing and developing what they had. He declared the board should refuse, as he said, had no land to spare, they needed all they had now, and if any were taken away from them it would prevent their further expansion.

Speaking for the owners of the property on the north side of Mackenzie-Mann-avenue, from York to the city, A. S. Powell asked for substantial damages, or else the purchase of their houses by the Canadian Northern, in that the railway's plans would practically ruin the value of them.

The electric lines were also interested in the C. N. R.'s application, as it affected their terminal facilities. The railroads, A. S. Powell suggested joint operation of the steam roads, or that the Canadian Northern go several hundred feet north of their proposed lines, but to this latter suggestion Hamilton Casels promptly objected, saying that the residents of that part of the city wanted the railways kept together. Public Viciously Concerned.

Then, after Chairman Mabee had remarked that the public were very much concerned in the matter, and that it must be a great deal of difference to the people where the railways crossed Yonge-street, there arose considerable discussion of joint operation by the two railroads of a section of tracks as a solution of the difficulty.

Said Mr. Phippen for the Canadian Northern: "We are prepared and all the ways have been made arrangements for a joint section there, but the C. P. R. has stated that they want nothing to do with us in the matter." The C. P. R.'s attitude was again set forth by James Leonard declared there wasn't any use considering joint operation, so Mr. Mabee decided that joint operation had failed.

Will Prepare Plans.
Then the discussion drifted into whether the whole matter of crossings and grades should be reconsidered on a lower scale, as the railways seemed unable to agree on any one of the many points in dispute.

"What about extending this to Dufferin-street," asked Mr. Mabee. Mr. Leonard of the C. P. R. had no objections, and so that railroad will prepare plans showing elevated tracks and subway crossings, as high as four thousand feet, as a further-street on their North Toronto line.

The railway board began its labors at 10 in the morning at the city hall, for a joint section there, but the C. P. R. has stated that they want nothing to do with us in the matter. The C. P. R.'s attitude was again set forth by James Leonard declared there wasn't any use considering joint operation, so Mr. Mabee decided that joint operation had failed.

THE AUTUMN COLORS.
Nature and autumn have so recently tinted our trees this fall, and if the wind does not scatter the leaves the show will be almost unprecedented. These are the days to drive in the country to see the wealth of color and the golden atmosphere that surrounds it.

About Canadian Mink.
Canada has a claim to some things that are of world-wide reputation and larger and greater than anything the great fur output. Canadians do not realize what the supply is. This Canadian mink, for instance. It is especially considered in European markets the exclusive fur on the catalogue. In Paris full length coats made from these skins sell as high as four thousand dollars a piece in great demand. The Dineen Company makes a specialty of mink. To-day there is a view of an unparalleled exhibition of especially selected by the company's own representatives in the Northwest, besides a splendid display of garments made from this fur.

HAMILTON HAPPENINGS

SPECULATING AS TO THE POSSIBLE CANDIDATES

Political Gossip Busy in Hamilton—Hon. J. S. Hendrie May go in to Unopposed.

HAMILTON, Oct. 12.—(Special).—The announcement of the provincial election has started a ready flow of political gossip here, and a great deal of speculation is being indulged in as to the probable candidates in the four constituencies in Westwont County. The first prediction at present is that Hon. J. S. Hendrie will again run in West Hamilton, and it is fairly certain that he will be elected, no matter what the result of the election. He is considered a sure thing, however, that the Liberals will contest this seat. Allan Studholme, the sturdy laborer now sitting for Hamilton, is also a candidate for re-election. It is certain that he will be opposed, but by whom it is hard to say now. Controller Cooper is regarded as the most likely man to be put up by the Conservatives. John Hoodless is also mentioned as a possible candidate in this riding. It is thought by some that Dan Gallagher, reeve of Barton, could take the measure of Dan Reid, M.L.A. in Barton, Westwont, and Warden Lawson is spoken of as the man to win the seat vacated by Gordon Wilson, M.P., in North Westwont. Dr. McQueen will doubtless be the Liberal standard bearer in that constituency. The City of Hamilton will likely apply to the hydro-electric commission within a few days for co-operative contract for electric energy. The question was discussed at the board of control meeting this morning, and it was decided to interview the commission at the earliest practicable date. The mayor and board of control will probably go to Toronto next week to discuss the rate question with the hydro officials. The subject was introduced this morning by Mayor Leach and was discussed by Messrs. Leach, McQueen, and McLaren, in favor of taking immediate steps to secure a lower rate from the commission. Controller McLaren thought the question was brought up at the present time on account of the fact that the board had this was denied by the mayor, who stated that he had had the matter in mind for a long time.

The board of control and the assessment commission, it is said, will appear at the assessment on some property owned by J. J. Scott, in the east end of the city, which was put in at $1000 an acre, but which the owner has refused to sell to the city at $5000 an acre.

The antiquated building laws in force in the city will likely be revised in the near future. At present the filing of a ground plan is all that is necessary to erect a building permit. After the permit is secured, the owner of a structure, almost, may be added to the ground plan. The architects of the city are favoring the movement for a revision of the laws in this respect.

Skeleton in the Closet

A brief glimpse of the family skeleton in the board of education was shown to-night by the action of Trustee John W. Wodell, who slightly opened the door behind which the obscure frame-work of the board has been hidden for several years. He referred to the recent opening of the Collegiate Institute, and to a series of functions enthusiastically staged the "annual conversation," which has for several years been conducted for the benefit of the institute. Mr. Wodell merely mentioned the matter and hoped that the affair, if held this year, would be along somewhat improved lines. He did not think that a public dance, such as the "conversations" had become practically, would be tolerated by the board of education.

Trustee Booker thought that Mr. Wodell's remarks constituted "an imputation and a reflection against the principal of the college." He did not think the institute should be held up to the public as a source of revenue, and asked Mr. Wodell to speak out. Trustee Ward replied that the matter was not a reflection against the principal of the college, and that the institute was a source of revenue to the city.

Mr. Wodell then stated that the institute was a source of revenue to the city, and that the board of education was not a source of revenue to the city.

moved for a committee to investigate the matter, but the board was evidently not disposed to have the skeleton brought right out of the closet, and the door was tactfully closed by referring the matter to the internal management committee.

While the "conversations" referred to by Trustee Wodell to-night might, in the nature of the case, be expected to be the refined sort of affair suggested by the name, it is said by those who have attended them that these functions are not exactly the polite gatherings to which well-bred people are supposed to be partial.

It is said that tickets for the "annual conversations" are annually peddled about and sold promiscuously at $1.50 per, the result being that more or less undesirable characters attend, and by their actions annoy those who patronize the affairs out of a desire to help the cause.

NOSHAKES UP IN CABINET PREMIER IS EMPHATIC

"Fabrications" is Term Applied to Persistent Rumors—Aggressive Policy for Northern Ontario.

A story was published in an evening paper yesterday to the effect that R. H. Gamney, M.L.A., would likely be taken into the Ontario cabinet as minister of a new department, which is to be known as the department of colonization and labor.

When Sir James Whitney saw the article yesterday afternoon, he got into a decidedly serious frame of mind, and made an announcement to the newspaper editors. Here is what the premier said:

"I am very sorry to notice the statements made in the newspapers with reference to changes to be made in the cabinet. There is no foundation for them whatever, and no suggestion has been made to this effect. The same thing has been said about me from time to time for the last few years, and there never has been any foundation for them. I am bold enough to say that I believe they have simply been fabrications."

Before Sir James had made this statement, it was surmised that if Mr. Gamney did give a direct primary system and the referendum and recall including the judiciary. Mr. Wallace was enthusiastic in his praise for Canada, saying the Dominion had the greatest future of any country under the sun.

THE WESTERN CROP Work of Threshing is Proceeding Rapidly—Big Traffic for Railways.

WINNIPEG, Oct. 12.—With the return of fine weather, great headway has been made with the crop. For the first few days little threshing could be done as the grain was too wet, but now all over the west the work is proceeding rapidly, with the result that the railways are moving vast quantities of all kinds of grain.

Other Oct. 10, the Canadian Northern moved 415,000 bushels of grain, and yesterday the amount totalled 408,000 bushels. This is a record for this year as far as the Canadian Northern Railway is concerned.

The movement is getting heavier each day and this total will likely be beaten in the next week, as the farmers are now able to move their wheat from the fields to the elevators, and as the rain held the railways up for some time, the supply of cars through the west is large and is sufficient for the present, at least.

NEW-FANGLED DEAS NOT NEEDED FOR CHILD

Modern Psychological Treatment
Isn't in Favor With Some Ecumenical Delegates.

The evolution of child science was the theme for discussion at the afternoon session of the ecumenical conference yesterday, the special subject being "The Church and the Child." Modern psychology and its opinions received hard knocks freely from the hands of the speakers.

Rev. H. M. Hamill D.D. of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, speaking on the "Psychology of Child Training," declared that the views of David and Paul were more to be believed than the opinions advanced by modern scientists, however brilliant they might be.

"We think too much of what the children may be, and not of what they are. It is clearly shown that many of the faculties of the adult mind are not present in the child mind."

He did not think that the church should let down the bars against the amusements of the young people. In feeling terms he desired the growing interest of Methodist children in demoralizing amusements.

"Educate the children from earliest infancy in the essentials of Christianity and the card table, the dance hall, the theatre and the wine cup will lose their hold on the young. The child inherits evil nature that must be reformed."

The Widening Mission of the Sunday School, was the subject of an historical address by Rev. E. W. Wilbur, D.D., of the Methodist Protestant Church, who marked the growth of the Sunday school from the time of the priest Era, more particularly dealing with its growth from the time of the modern system of Sunday school teaching instituted by Robert Raikes in Gloucester in 1780.

This movement fell upon propitious times. The dark ages had swept away learning. Learning, both secular and sacred, was confined to the clergy, and the penance was the greatest essential to the rapid growth of Sunday schools.

J. H. Freeborough, Wesleyan Reform Union, delivered a striking address on "The Equipment of the Sunday School Teacher."

A Teacher's Essentials. "The equipment of the Sunday school teacher is not first intellectual, but spiritual, a spirituality that places him closely and wonderfully near to the child. The equipment of the teacher is most important, because the life in their charge is in its most plastic and growing age."

"We ought to emphasize the home life in our Methodist Church. It is not what it ought to be, and the development of a better home life is to be one of the great labors of Methodism in the coming decade."

Rev. Mr. Jones objected to certain of Dr. Hamill's remarks on modern psychology.

Rev. Dr. Harris of South Bend, Ind., declared that 5,000,000 fewer men than women go to church in the United States. The men had not been trained well when they were boys. "Too many boys in America today went to moving picture shows on Sunday rather than to the Sunday school."

Mrs. Catherine L. Stevenson declared herself a believer in modern child psychology. She took exception to the statement of a speaker that the home was at fault.

"It is not alone the home that is at fault. Environment is too much neglected for the environment reaches much farther than the four walls of any home. We teach our children in the home to be honest, and then we send them out into an order of civilization where dishonesty is rife. We teach them unselfishness in the home, and send them out where selfishness is the quintessence of the warped order of humanity."

Good at the Core. Rev. Wm. Bradford, English Wesleyan, thought that the child inherits some goodness. "Right in the core of them they may be as Christian as any of their grandmothers' critics," he declared.

"The wrong conception we take of children violates their moral sense and drives them from us," was the statement made by Rev. Edwin M. Randall. He felt that modern children were being brought up outside the home—they had no place in their hearts for their parents.

"I wish to protest against the cowardly abdication of man in relegating all the religious training of a child into the hands of the mother," was the message of Bishop Hoss, Methodist Episcopal.

Rev. F. M. North, New York, pointed out that there was a great field for work for the church in the cheap lodging house. The children could not thrive spiritually or physically under the conditions prevalent.

Knight of St. John. The Knights of St. John Convention Committee, made the Labor and appointed the following finance committee for the purpose of soliciting funds for the convention in June next. The committee is as follows: Chairman, J. J. Hefferings, 280 Broadview avenue; secretary, F. P. Mitchell, 322 Ontario street; J. K. Kite, 66 Arthur street; E. J. Charbon, 19 Philippe street; and F. O'Byrne, 11 Caer-Howell street.

Chauffeur Went Joy-Riding. Ernest Robertson, chauffeur for Lothar Reinhardt, was haled into police court yesterday, charged with theft of his employer's motor car. He had been joy-riding. The owner found him in Queen-st. and asked to be driven up Yonge-st. They stopped at No. 5 police station, where the chauffeur spent the night. He was remanded on bail of $100.

KIDNAPPER GETS LIFE. CHICAGO, Oct. 12.—Giuseppe Nicolai and his brother, Carmelo, were today sentenced to life imprisonment after they had been found guilty by a jury of kidnapping five-year-old Angelo Marino on Aug. 5. Mrs. Coleraga Nicolai, wife of Carmelo, was sentenced to seven years in prison for complicity.

University "Lit." Principal Hutton will preside at the opening meeting of the University Literary Society in Convocation Hall tonight at eight o'clock. The speakers will include President Falconer, G. T. Blackstock, K.C., George Wilkie, former president, and President George A. Gibson. There will be a musical and vocal program. The meeting is open to the public.

HON. S. H. BLAKE GUNNING FOR HIGHER CRITICS

Shouldn't Confuse Minds of Congregations, He Says, at Wycliffe Commencement.

A strong attack on the higher critics was made last night at the 33rd annual commencement of Wycliffe College by Hon. S. H. Blake, who urged the need of the Bible and true Bible teaching.

"Away with the notion that science has given the lie to the Bible," he declared. "The critics find fault because they do not know the Bible. They gather a little knowledge, take it for granted that it is all the facts and facts, and they declare it is all the facts and facts. Let us cling to the Bible. Not nine out of ten in a congregation know anything about higher criticism. It would be something new—something startlingly original. Don't tell them of them. Teach them that which they know."

"Don't let us be conformed to the world. Don't let us put our religion on a shelf. It is written: 'This house shall be a house of prayer.' It is getting to be a house of amusement. 'Wycliffe was a protestation,' and his protest was the foundation of religious liberty. It was the foundation of civil liberty. If we would be worthy of the name 'protestation' we should now in Canada do a little of what Wycliffe did at the time of the reformation. It seems that now there is a great impulse issuing from that body that caused Wycliffe to stand out in protest that threatens encroachment on our religious and civil liberty. I am glad that in the halls of Wycliffe College was held the first meeting against this impulse and rejoice at the thought that we have now proved false to the name of him who first protested, but have stood out for the civil and religious liberty of Canada."

Principal O'Meara made a statement showing the attendance at the college to be 128. He referred to the new wing and new chapel, which has not yet reached completion. The new wing has been provided with accommodation for 88, he declared. Last year there were in attendance 116 of which number 18 graduates.

A degree of B.D. was conferred on Rev. T. H. Cotton, M.A., by Principal O'Meara.

A. J. PEARSON HONORED

Gold-Headed Cane and Condolence—E. Fielding Was Candid.

The Liberals of East Toronto arose in their might, last night, and attended a banquet at the St. Charles, in honor of their late defeated candidate, A. J. Pearson. Mr. Pearson was presented with a gold-headed cane by his friends, and in the stress of his emotion went so far as to say that it was the proudest moment of his life. They had, he said, given him something to lean upon, but he hoped that he would never have to use it for a good many years.

Albert Chamberlain had a few nice things to say about the British born A. G. Mackay, regretted his inability to attend. He read a poem on reciprocity and what might have been.

E. Fielding of the Mackenzie Club advocated a campaign to educate the Liberals. He also suggested that the party should endeavor to decide on some kind of a platform, and that if they didn't do so they would not deserve a better chance in the new house. He said they wanted a leader of high moral principles, who would be a chance for the moral well-being of the people. J. W. Morgan and C. A. Allan also spoke a few words of encouragement.

W. H. Shaw told them he had done down fighting for a good cause. R. C. Gavin presided.

NEW TEACHERS' AGE LIMIT
30 for Women and 35 for Men—Object to Closing Rooms.

After a general discussion, during which several members of the management committee of the board of education made a compromise was effected on the motion of Trustee Hiltz to place the age limit on new teachers at 30 years. It was agreed that the limit of eligibility for women should be 30 years and for men 35 years. Trustee Leves voted against.

A resolution was passed, asking the medical health officer to abandon the practice of closing school rooms containing contagious disease. The action was made advisable in order to prevent children being sent home with disease germs where they would cease to be under the supervision of the school.

A report read showed that of the 453 pupils attending Jarvis-street, 136 south of Carlton and 322 between Carlton and Bloor.

HIT A HYDRANT
Peculiar Motor Car Accident at Montreal.

MONTREAL, Oct. 12.—A collision between a motor car and a hydrant at Point Aux Trembles this morning resulted disastrously to the occupants of the car, gallons of water were poured over the party and one woman received a broken arm. All were badly drenched and received numerous scratches and bruises.

The sound of a crash and the cries of women and children, awoke A. R. Laquerre at his residence at Point Aux Trembles. Glimping from his window he saw that a motor car, carrying six passengers, two women, two men and two little children, had crashed into a hydrant, breaking the top completely off of it, and the full force of the water was washing down upon them. Unfortunately for the tourists, the car did not remain over the stream of water, but just near enough to get the benefit of the volumes of foaming water descending after being shot high into the air.

S. A. CONGRESS IN PRIVATE.
Large crowds gathered yesterday to hear Mrs. Bramwell Booth speak in the army barracks, Albert-street, on the work of the Salvation Army. The meetings were so popular and in the evening admission was gained only by ticket. The convention is held annually in this city as that of other religious organizations, but the manner in which the subjects are dealt with is entirely different.

To-day Mrs. Booth will address the officers at private meetings and conferences will be held.

Hon. William Howard Hearst, K.C., now holds the portfolio of lands, forests and mines in the Ontario Cabinet as successor to Hon. Frank Cochrane, who has gone to the Borden cabinet at Ottawa.

'T'WAS SPEECH DAY AT

PORT HOPE, Oct. 12.—(Special).—A large number of visitors journeyed to Port Hope today to attend the annual speech day exercises of Trinity College School. The prizes were won by the residents of the Christmas and summer examinations, as well as the trophies and prizes of the winners by Principal Gordon of Queen's University.

The exercises began with a sermon in the college chapel at 11 a.m. the preacher being the Rev. H. H. Bedd, of the Methodist Church of Port Hope, who preached a very inspiring sermon. After the service the guests were at liberty until luncheon which was held in the college dining-room, and was presided over by Bishop Sweeney of Toronto.

The feature of the day, as usual, was the presentation of prizes in the school gymnasium, which was gallantly decorated for the occasion with flags and bunting. The chair was occupied by the Bishop of Toronto, while the prizes were given out by Principal Gordon of Queen's University.

The general proficiency prizes at both the Christmas and summer examinations were, with two exceptions, won by the same students. SCARCITY OF LABORERS
Montreal City Surveyor Wanted Gang and Got One Cripple.

MONTREAL, Oct. 12.—A great scarcity of laborers is reported by George Barlow, city surveyor. He said this morning that he could find employment for 300 or 400 more easily. "I wanted fifty and got thirteen to-day. One of my foremen wanted a gang of twenty men, and he practically got a cripple."

Mr. Barlow attributes the shortage of laborers to the great number of young men who have learned trades in the past few years. "We are paying twenty cents an hour, that is $2.00 per day for ten hours work, and I consider it good pay for unskilled men."

A WOMAN'S FAIR IS HER FAIR COMPLEXION.
It is said that beauty is only skin deep, but no man ever loved or married a woman because of her accomplishments, but for her charms. It is true that the subtle charms are what it is her charms that keep men worshipping at her shrine. Beautiful women have swayed nations. Beautiful women are a blessing, and where a woman keeps in mind that she must preserve and cultivate her charms, she is generally a very good-looking lady.

Excitement on King Street.
As early as 7 o'clock yesterday morning the line commenced to form for the advance sale of seats for "The Pink Lady," and it continued without a break all day. The advance sale is the largest since "Ben-Hur."

FRIDAY MORNING, OCT. 13, 1911.

THE LIBERAL PARTY IN THE PROVINCE.

What is the matter with the Liberal party in Ontario? One reason, that it has no newspaper voice other than the corporation organs, The Globe, The Star, The Hamilton Times, The London Advertiser, have all persistently fought the hydro-electric power of the government and the rights of the people.

The Liberals would be better off if they had one little weekly paper that offered a progressive lead than with forty big papers that were out to choke off all new ideas and good policy.

Until Liberals get such a paper they had better read The World. A great many of them do.

The regeneration of the Liberal party may be in three good men (candidates for the legislature if possible) meeting in an upper room and starting fresh. Look what Bourassa did in so short a time in Quebec with a little weekly paper which finally grew into a daily. He now has Sir Wilfrid's scalp at his belt and the scalp of the whole Liberal party in Quebec.

The Liberals to our mind should bring Henri up here and turn him loose on Sir James. We believe the Nationalist leader has something like that in his mind at the present moment. Anyway there'd be some campaign.

HON. MR. MACKEY'S STATEMENT.

Hon. A. G. MacKay has spoken with too great precipitation. Unkind people may think that his statement in The Globe yesterday had been prepared weeks ago and was lying in The Globe's pigeon-hole waiting for Sir James Whitney's announcement. But this is clearly not the case, and we will look for something more to the point, with a little less of mere grouch over the issues of the last session of the legislature.

It is only childlikeness to talk about the date of the election. Of course it is the usual thing to do, but the usual thing has never done any party any good, and one looks for a little originality nowadays. If Sir James had decided to hold the election next June the same degree of objection would have been raised. And the opposition would have been no better prepared than now.

The people are remarkably well satisfied with the price of the school books. They know that they pay 49 cents for them, and so more, and that they used to pay twice as much, and it would be well for Mr. MacKay to go into the question of production before making any rash statements.

He is on firmer ground when he speaks of the scarcity of teachers. He ought to know the reason. The Ontario Government is turning out plenty of teachers, but the Ontario farmers will not pay the salaries necessary to keep them in the province. Double and treble the salaries are paid out west, and naturally the teachers go west. Will Mr. MacKay propose a tax on the rural districts to pay the teachers a higher wage?

Mr. MacKay takes the side of the corporations, as usual, against the hydro-electric power scheme. He endeavors to show that because Bracebridge has to pay a little more for power, the province would be very much better off without any power at all. He may say this misrepresents his position, but that is what it works out at. And the hydro-electric power scheme would continue to be the most popular plank in any government that ruled Ontario for generations to come, in spite of such criticism.

The question of development of Northern Ontario undoubtedly will be dealt with by the premier and Mr. Hearst before the election, and the Whitney government has already given earnest of its intention with regard to a Hudson Bay extension of the T. and N. O. Railway by the survey expedition sent out this season.

It will appeal to the mining prospectors to hear that they are hardly treated, but the rest of the population of the province, who hear only of the fortunes made in mining and mining adventure, will think that the miners are getting a sufficiently fair deal when they are protected in their claims and given every opportunity to sell or develop them. If Mr. MacKay would come out in favor of public ownership of the mines as well as of the forests of the province, he might get a wider sympathy.

But Mr. MacKay will do anything, apparently, rather than propose a progressive and original program. There is nothing in his pronouncement about government ownership of any kind; nor about trunk lines for telephone companies, such as are now being formed all over the province; nor about tax reform; nor about over-capitalization and stock-watering generally; nor about civil service reform; nor, indeed, anything that might cheer the heart of a young Liberal who has given up in disgust trying to warm himself at the embers of The Globe's cold heartstone.

Young Liberals are going outside and slipping their shoulders these days to keep up the heat, and are hoping that Sir James will go on being as liberal as he has been, or a little more so, seeing that no leader appears among the old-time Reformers.

A leader must head an independent procession, and not merely tag along after the other fellows hurrying rocks at him.

Young Liberals are going outside and slipping their shoulders these days to keep up the heat, and are hoping that Sir James will go on being as liberal as he has been, or a little more so, seeing that no leader appears among the old-time Reformers.

BRITISH AND DANISH FARMING.

In an article published in the September number of Pearson's Magazine of London, England, the editor of The Smallholder lays a scathing indictment against the British farmer as a class. Being a prominent agricultural expert, his case is not prepared without knowledge and in fact, a very strong plea for reform of the whole system of British agriculture. He calls the phrase that "English farmers are the best in the world" a mischievous lie. "The truth is," he says, "that some English farmers are to-day the world's pioneers in every branch of successful farming, because they have made farming a real and constructive business as much as the successful manufacturer and merchant, while the rest live on the land because they cannot do anything else."

Certainly the instances he adduces, both of successful and unsuccessful farming in England, are remarkable enough to stimulate public interest in the science of modern husbandry. Nine out of ten farmers, he declares, are firmly convinced that wheat growing does not pay. But on one large farm at Sawbridge, wheat has been grown continuously since 1860, returning a clear average profit of $15 an acre. Another Wiltshire farmer, on a once poor soil, has raised his average wheat yield to over 40 bushels an acre and his oat crop to no less than 80 bushels. Potato cultivation affords another valuable basis of comparison, one farmer in Staffordshire giving it up because he could never average more than five tons to the acre, while a Scottish farmer has obtained as much as 26 tons, and never less than 18 tons per acre.

Another section of the article answers the question why Danish dairy farmers beat their English competitors. The rise of Denmark to its commanding position as a successful producer of milk and its products, is attributed entirely to its scientific methods. The Danes have an account against Britain for butter running up to $20,000,000, and sends every year pork and bacon to the tune of $40,000,000. Belgium, with a denser population, produces from each cultivated acre $100 worth of food. England produces $20 worth. Altogether, the editor of The Smallholder puts up a very strong argument for radical reforms in British agriculture, and for a readjustment of the relations between agriculture and the state. The September number of The Journal of the Board of Agriculture contains an article on the growth of the co-operative movement in Denmark, which country, largely on that account, is now second wealthiest in Europe per head of population. The first step taken in the movement was the formation of a co-operative supply store, which was followed by a co-operative dairy. From that the movement has gradually developed, until to-day there is not a single matter of interest affecting the farmer that is not touched by it. Along with the movement has come the expansion of the small holding system, which has increased the rural population, checked emigration, and made Denmark a prosperous and industrious nation of farmers and workers.

ANOTHER LAND TAX ARGUMENT.

Editor World: Residents of the city, who earn more than four hundred dollars per annum, have to pay taxes. Why should prize fighters, baseball players, horse jockeys, actors and actresses come here and earn anything from a hundred to a thousand dollars per week or even per day in some instances, and get away without contributing to the city's upkeep? They do not benefit the community, that I can see, by any extraordinary extent by coming—why then should they be allowed to carry money off that otherwise might be used to the advantage of trade? According to the papers a gentleman known as "Matt" Wells came to Toronto and put a gentleman, who is characteristically described as a "dub," of course by comparison—to sleep. For this kindly act he received $800, which he instantly carried away. Other people of similar calibre or type are assured are coming. Why should they not contribute to the city taxes and why should not every promoter of these "sports" be compelled to swear to the expenses and the revenue thereof in detail for purposes of taxation? The same as regards baseball players, horse jockeys, and trainers and actors and actresses. Trusting that the view here advanced may have your endorsement.

ECZE 20 YEARS!

4 Doctors Failed. Morriscy's No. 4 Cured in 60 Days.

Mr. A. J. Kierstead, Mexico, Maine, tells in a series of letters how he was relieved. "I have been troubled with eczema for 20 years—it is on my face, neck, arms and hands, and right now it is a solid cure. I can't seem to get any cure."

Second letter: "Thanks for your cure. I have been troubled with eczema for 20 years—it is on my face, neck, arms and hands, and right now it is a solid cure. I can't seem to get any cure."

Third letter: "I am delighted to tell you that I am entirely cured of eczema, and more than thankful for your medicine. It did for me what 4 doctors here could not do. I cannot possibly find fitting words of praise for my relief and cure."

The above prescription is not a "Cure-All" or so-called patent medicine. Dr. Morriscy prescribed it for 44 years, and it cured thousands after doctors failed.

SIMPSON

"Hey! Get Me To Simpson's By 8 o'Clock"

This would be your clarion-call To-morrow morning if this fair city were provided with hansoms and cabbies! But as most trolleys run past one corner or another of the Simpson Store, your chance of getting one of these nine-ninety ulsters is still good.

Yes, ulster time has come! You may have realized that last Saturday if you were watching a football game. No need to let another Saturday catch you in the same plight, now that this announcement has caught your eye.

To save one-third of what you expected to pay thus early in the season is a chance not to be overlooked.

Undoubtedly this is the kind of Ulster you'd choose if you didn't have to consider price at all. New Browns, Greys and Blacks, in the latest weaves. Both single and double-breasted style, with convertible collar.

Hardly a man who had made up his mind to buy an Ulster would hesitate about paying Fifteen Dollars for one of these. Yet our Saturday price is not within Five Dollars of this. We have only one hundred and fifty of them to offer at 8 a.m. to-morrow for 9.90

If you like the belted style with tabs on sleeves, the great big double-breasted effects, the best of English manufacture, we have them (sizes 36 to 44) at 34.00

Or if you prefer a more dressy Winter Coat, we would like you to see a medium weight one in light grey tweed, three-quarter length, single-breasted, Raglan shoulder (sizes 36 to 44), at 24.00

Christy, King, Battersby, Stelson

These are names to conjure with in the matter of MEN'S HATS. But it needs no conjuring to sell the products of these well-known makers at Simpson's Saturday prices. Compare with what you've quoted in special hat shops, and you'll understand why these goods have such a ready and continuous sale in our Men's Store (Richmond street corner.)

Seamless Tapestry Rugs $9.75

This is the last of a special purchase that was much appreciated by buyers versed in rug values; sizes 12 x 12, 9 x 12 and 9 x 10.6—the larger sizes having one seam—will be offered to-morrow, to make a clean sweep of them, at 9.75
