JAPANESE IN CALIFORNIA. (Toronto Gazette). The negotiations between E. S. Morris, U. S. Ambassador to Tokyo, and Baron Shidehara, Japanese Ambassador to Washington, for a settlement of the controversy over Japanese immigration into California have reached a successful conclusion, it is reported.

The California issue was explained clearly by Mr. Morris in an address to the University Club of New York a few days ago. He said, in the first place, the United States government is not bound by any treaty obligations, and people are not clamoring for the removal of any of the present restrictions on Japanese immigration. But personal and property rights they have shared equally with other aliens. In 1918, however, California devised the plan of classifying aliens on the basis of their eligibility to citizenship, and then proceeded to deny aliens who were ineligible to citizenship the right to own property.

EMPLOYERS FIGHT Y. W. C. A. DRIVE

Pittsburg Association Opposes Industrial Aims—Suggestion to Business Men Not to Contribute Blocks Work of Women.

Pittsburg, Feb. 5.—An attack made in the name of the Employers' Association of Pittsburg on the Y. W. C. A. on account of the association's "industrial programme" is understood to have spoiled practically the campaign of local branches of the Y. W. C. A. for funds for its 1921 work in Pittsburg.

The attack, which was made without warning to the Y. W. C. A., took the form of a letter sent to some three hundred employers and manufacturers, intimating that it was the intention of the association to contribute to the Y. W. C. A. on the basis of the 1920 national convention of the association delegates in Cleveland adopted as their "social platform" the social and industrial ideals embodied in the "Social Ideals of the Churches," a statement originally worked out, adopted and advanced by the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America.

Text of Employers' Letter. The text of the letter sent out to Pittsburg employers from the Employers' Association and signed by William F. Long as vice-president and general manager is as follows:

"In view of the campaign for funds which will be begun today by the Y. W. C. A. it is felt that your attention should be drawn to the fact that without adequate investigation the above 'industrial programme' which is in line with some of the recent radical and ill-considered efforts of religious and quasi-religious bodies to regulate industry, something they attempt to do in about the same manner that a bull regulates a china shop.

"Some of the things the Y. W. C. A. believes in and indorses are as follows: 'Industrial democracy. 'Collective bargaining. 'A share in shop control and management by the workers. 'Labor's desire for an equitable share in the profits and management of industry.

"Protection of workers from enforced unemployment. 'A minimum wage. 'Government labor exchanges (employment offices). 'Experiments in cooperative ownership.

"The Y. W. C. A. has done and is doing a good work along some lines and it is greatly to be regretted that they have taken this excursion into a field about which they know practically nothing, and thus lend encouragement to what every man conversant with industrial problems knows to be destructive of the very basis of America's progress and civilization.

"After the misuse of funds by the ill-fated Interchurch World Movement we have felt it to be our duty to advise you of some of the purposes to which your money will be put, and contribute to the Y. W. C. A. if you are an industrial adherer to its present 'industrial programme'—in the formation of which we venture to persuade responsible men with knowledge of industrial matters were consulted."

It is known that some members of the Employers' Association object to the sort of action represented in the circulation of this letter, and have protested vigorously to the officers.

Principles Opposed by Employers. The industrial principles in the "Social Ideals of the Churches" as adopted by the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America in 1919, and indorsed by the 1919 national convention of the Y. W. C. A. in Detroit and the 1920 national convention of the Y. W. C. A. in Cleveland, are as follows:

"Protection of the worker from dangerous machinery, occupational diseases, and mortality. 'The right of all men to the opportunity for self-maintenance, for safeguarding this right against encroachments of every kind, for the protection of workers from the hardships of enforced unemployment. Suitable provision for the old age of the workers and for those incapacitated by injury.

"The right of employees and employers alike to organize and for adequate means of conciliation and arbitration in industrial disputes. Release from employment one day in seven.

Gradual and reasonable reduction of hours of labor to the lowest practicable point and for that degree of leisure for all which is a condition of the highest human life.

A living wage as a minimum in every industry and for the highest wage that each industry can afford.

A few emphases upon the application of Christian principles to the acquisition and use of property and for the most equitable division of the product of industry that can ultimately be devised.

Facing the social issues involved in reconstruction, resolved that we affirm as Christian churches: (1) That the teachings of Jesus are those of essential democracy and express themselves through brotherhood and the cooperation of all groups. We deplore class struggles and declare against all class domination, whether of capital or labor. Sympathizing with labor's desire for a better day and an equitable share in the profits and management of industry, we stand for orderly and progressive social reconstruction instead of revolution by violence.

(2) That an ordered and constructive democracy in industry is as necessary as political democracy, and that collective bargaining and the sharing of shop control and management are inevitable steps in its attainment.

(3) That the first charge upon industry should be that of a wage sufficient to support an American standard of living. To that end we advocate the guarantee of a minimum wage, the control of unemployment through Government labor exchanges, public works, land settlement, social insurance, and experimentation in profit sharing, and cooperative ownership.

(4) We recognize that women played no small part in the winning of the war. We believe that they should have full political and economic equality with equal wage for equal work and a maximum eight hours day. We declare for the abolition of night work for women and the abolition of child labor and for the provision of adequate safeguards to insure the morals as well as the physical, health of the mothers and children of the race.

SMART HATS FOR EARLY SPRING WEAR

Fabric hats are again popular to bridge in between the times when the winter hat has become more or less shabby and the season is not far enough advanced for a real springlike affair.

Silk models in various new shapes and colors are especially noticeable; trimmed with flowers, beads, ribbons, fancy pins and novel feather decorations. You will notice a cleverness and originality in decoration that is most important to smart millinery.

Some of the very smartest models are showing touches of celphane on satin, silk and other fabrics.

Pole shapes, turbans, toques, sailors and hats with rolling brims are in a very pleasing choice of new colors. You can see these things for yourself by calling at the M. R. A. Ltd., Millinery Salon any day you care to come.

So spoke Lord Shaughnessy while the private car Killarney was being switched to a special train which left directly for

A woman begins marriage by wondering if it will last. A man by wondering how he can get out of it.

"Don't Ever Marry"

Montréal. Coming from such a keen observer of world affairs, and so shrewd a prognosticator of world conditions, this statement has particular significance. Asked to express an opinion on the problem of marriage, Lord Shaughnessy said: "I am in favor of Germany paying, providing we do not ask too much."

THE FIRST ROUND WON.

If yesterday's discussion in the Board of Trade developed all that can be said against the continuance of the vocational evening classes, one wonders why the opposition should be taken seriously by anybody. So far as can be gathered from the wandering discourse which covered an amazingly wide field, the reasons given for opposition were about as follows:—

1.—No vocational training should be given except in school to day school children. This condemns the mechanical drawing classes and evening classes in English subjects which have been conducted for several years by the school board without any protest by anybody until yesterday.

2.—No vocational classes should be conducted until the city has spent $200,000 or more on a vocational high school building. This would ignore the rights of all working boys and girls and older persons seeking vocational training to make them more efficient workers and better citizens; and would postpone all action indefinitely.

3.—The vocational training system should be conducted by the public school board. This ignores the fact that the public school board now controls the vocational board, as it has a majority in the membership of the latter.

4.—No persons should be permitted to attend classes if they can afford to pay for tuition. This narrow view was promptly rejected by the representative of labor, who took the broad view that whenever anybody is better trained the community benefits.

The curious fact about the discussion was that every speaker declared himself or herself emphatically in favor of vocational training, and yet a number of them, without any evidence except hearsay against it, wanted to destroy the only vocational training system we have at present. Officers and members and director of the vocational training board were there, prepared to answer questions and explain what they are doing, but all the remarks they got an opportunity to make were contradictions of incorrect statements made by speakers who apparently were not anxious to wait for all the facts before making up their minds. If the first resolution had passed, as it should have passed with very brief discussion, declaring the principle of vocational evening classes, then the question of how those classes are or should be conducted could have been discussed intelligently after hearing from the vocational board a statement of their case, which would be much more to the point than street gossip concerning it and them.

It may be that there are human workers who from their inner consciousness may at any given moment evolve greater wisdom than has ever been derived from study and experience. It may be that there are persons in St. John who know more than the original provincial vocational committee, the experts they consulted, and the legislature whose members unanimously adopted the legislation framed by them. If there are, it is most unfortunate that their native modesty prevented them from long ago hearing the call to public service and giving to the city and province a complete, smooth-running, close-fitting and absolutely fool-proof system of vocational training. Since they did not do so, other citizens of ordinary gifts and a desire to serve the interests of the community did the best they could, and fashioned the imperfect instrument which now excites the apprehension and horror of those greater minds. And yet, an imperfect instrument may be improved, or exchanged at the proper time.

With regard to the matter of taxation, reduction of which one speaker appeared to regard as the supreme good, it may be noted that the friends of vocational training did not ask that $25,000 be cut out of the very heavy estimate for streets. They were willing to be taxed to make the streets more smooth for the delivery teams and motor cars of the very men who manifest so little interest in what is more vital to the welfare of this city than its streets.

Nor should the mayor and other members of the city council be under any delusion regarding public sentiment in this matter. They may be assured that if anybody suspected they had any intention of cutting out the whole grant for vocational training there would have been a procession to City Hall quite long enough to be convincing. How many members of the city council—how many of yesterday's critics of the vocational board—have taken the trouble to visit the evening classes and learn what they are actually doing? However, yesterday's meeting declared for a continuance of the classes. The next step is to get another conference of representatives of the various organizations at which the members of the vocational board who got no chance yesterday will have the opportunity to clear the air by showing exactly what they are doing and propose to do. After they have been heard, and not before, the time for helpful—not destructive—suggestions will have come. The evening classes must be saved, even if it should become necessary to put on a drive to get the funds. The opposition is now fairly well sorted and labelled. Now let the friends of vocational training take the floor. The Board of Trade, which is appealing for general support and co-operation; the Commercial Club, which seeks to make St. John a better city to live in; the Rotary Club, whose motto is to serve, might well join the Trades and Labor Council and Women's Council in this campaign.

After they have been heard, and not before, the time for helpful—not destructive—suggestions will have come. The evening classes must be saved, even if it should become necessary to put on a drive to get the funds. The opposition is now fairly well sorted and labelled. Now let the friends of vocational training take the floor. The Board of Trade, which is appealing for general support and co-operation; the Commercial Club, which seeks to make St. John a better city to live in; the Rotary Club, whose motto is to serve, might well join the Trades and Labor Council and Women's Council in this campaign.

However, yesterday's meeting declared for a continuance of the classes. The next step is to get another conference of representatives of the various organizations at which the members of the vocational board who got no chance yesterday will have the opportunity to clear the air by showing exactly what they are doing and propose to do. EUGENE DEBS.

In a prison cell he sits, for his carnival of crime, haled for throwing sundry fits at a nervous, crucial time. Now the crucial time is past, 'twould make the angels weep that at we hold him, caged and fast, sighing high and strong, but his head has wheels of wood and they're always turning wrong, and when war was sweeping by, sponsored by some tin-hod kings, he reared up, nine cubits high, and reeled off some foolish things. Then the hearts of men were hot, as we watched war's crimson tide, and we all were talking rot—but we took the proper side. Then the wheels in Eugene's head backward turned, as is their wont, and he pawed around and said silly things, in language blunt. And he's been in jail for years, and it seems he'll there remain, while the beasty profiteers flourish on their crooked gain; and the gangsters run at large, and the slayers shoot and stab, and they are not placed in charge of the prison grim and dreary, and the windfalls and the thieves raise their divers kinds of hell, while poor Eugene sits and grieves at the window of his cell. In the bustle and the rush many errors must prevail, but our Uncle Sam should blush that this man remains in jail.

IN THE HEBRIDES.

I live in a wide house, with stars in its roof-tiles. When night sinks over me mista are my curtains. Lone waters, lapping encircle my home. Morn comes there lingeringly—leans o'er the mountains. Meshing with silver the unsleeping waves. Sometimes a ship sails by proud in the daybreak. Gathering tangle, or bait for the fishing Old men and women creep, stooping and rising. Like birds come afar floats the laughter of children. From the quiet creek where through night she lies rocking I push my white boat, and pull away seaward. Waiting and listening, watching and dreaming.

Then in the gloaming row home through the wonder West of star-withered, while past my car-blaids. Flash the sea-people all jewel-beangled. Lament and languishing, low o'er the crooning. And sight of the waters, the broad moon upriser. By glow of my peat-fire I yield to her glamour.

Sagas come seeking me, tugging my heart-strings; Sea-lark, far-faring, call from the ghost-land. Then Sleep overwhelms me, till the birds cry at dawn. —Lanchin MacLean Watt in the Edinburgh Scotsman.

IN LIGHTER VEIN.

Was Fastened Tight. Doctor to Edgar, aged four—Put your tongue out, please. Little Edgar protruded the tip of his tongue. Doctor—No, no, put it right out. Little Edgar—No, no, put it right out. Little Edgar—I can't, doctor, it's fastened to me.

Proof. A quack doctor was advertising some medicine on a street corner. Doctor—I have sold these pills for twenty-five years and never heard a complaint. Does that prove? Voice from the crowd—That dead men tell no tales.

Practical Science. "Robert," said the hypnotist's wife. "Yes, my dear." "I wish you would come here and tell baby he's asleep."

Inferential. She—I say, dear, where do all those burst tires go to in the end. He—Well, they go to the tire store, where most people consign them there must be a terrible smell of burning rubber somewhere.

DIDN'T RECOGNIZE DERNIER CRI IN STYLE. Ottawa South Passenger Thought Them "Omers" Unbuckled "Galoshes." (Ottawa Journal.)

The "latest thing" in women's footwear has made its appearance in Ottawa. It happened last evening when a young lady boarded a Bank street car in Ottawa South. Every detail of her attire was an exhibition of the "latest thing" in style from the jaunty sport hat, pony coat and short skirt down to the silk stockings. On her feet were a pair of overshoes with the first buckle fastened and the others flapping loose. As she made her way to the front of the car, followed by a self-conscious young man, the other women in the car glanced at each other and, when they saw the girl, they all suggested that she "ought to be told."

"The poor thing, she must have been in a terrible hurry and forgot to buckle them," the sympathetic one said.

Presently another lady took matters in hand and leaning across the aisle said, in an audible whisper, "Pardon me, but your overshoes are undone."

Her effort was rewarded with a lengthy stare and a mumbled "thanks"; but the young lady made no move to adjust the buckles. The young man's complexion increased to a florid red.

The tension was broken when the car was well on its way uptown. Another young lady boarded the car and took the seat in front of the one with the floppy footwear. The latter apparently recognized a friend and a conversation started.

"You know they are the rage in Paris and London, and are now just 'in' in New York," she confided. "I don't suppose they will be generally worn in Ottawa for a year or two, anyway. I couldn't buy them in Ottawa and had to look all over Montreal for them."

The other passengers also learned that they were known as "galoshes."

The Animals of our Forests. The Canada Lynx—There are two types in North America, the bay lynx known as the bobcat or wildcat, of eastern North America, which is represented in Nova Scotia, Florida and the west by allied varieties, ranging southward into Mexico, and the Canada lynx, a somewhat handsomer animal, which is, as its name indicates, a typical lynx of this country, although specimens are also found in the western mountains as far south as Colorado and the Sierra Nevada.

The Canada lynx is pepper-and-salt gray in color with long tufts of jet-black hair on the ears, and possesses a cat-like head of exceptional beauty. Its fur is thick and warm, as it needs must be to protect it from the winter's cold, and when food purchases is scarce and it must search night after night for its prey. Lynx live on the smaller animals and birds, sometimes also killing mountain sheep and small deer, but contrary to popular belief, do not attack people. Lynx-eyed in an expression signifying exceptional keenness of sight. The ancients believe these creatures could see through all substances.

The Trees of our Forests. The Beech—Only one species of beech is found in Canada and it grows from Nova Scotia to Lake Superior. The beech is readily recognized by its three-angled nuts, in a spray covering its smooth, gray bark, and long, pointed, lance-shaped buds. The leaves are simple, pinnate and coarsely toothed. The wood is used for flooring, furniture and a variety of smaller articles.

The Chestnut—The chestnut grows in the southern part of Ontario, and is now very scarce. A disease which came over from Europe, the chestnut three blight, is fast destroying what is left. The leaves are simple, six to eight inches long, and its margin is coarsely toothed with curved teeth, like those of a circular saw. The nuts are enclosed in large burrs. The wood is mainly used for veneer, cores and planes and doors. The horse chestnut is a different species and is not native to Canada.—From "Boy Scouts" Handbook.

It has been decided by the camp committee appointed by the New Brunswick Provincial Council of the Boy Scouts Association, that the Provincial Camp this year will be held on Grand Lake. The camp will be for two weeks, but will not be held unless as certain number are guaranteed. It is expected to have Prof. Tohill, George H. Estabrooks and H. O. Pannan at the camp this summer. Further announcements as to time and price will be announced later.

SOME HIGH SALARIES FOR COAL MINERS. Cardiff, Wales, Jan. 30.—Some coal miners of South Wales are being paid as high as £1,000 a year, while wages amounting to £700 to $800 are fairly common. Despite this, the government is having difficulty in collecting income taxes from the miners. Last year nearly 15,000 of them were summoned for non-payment; but only 19 of this number were committed to prison.

TRAFFIC THROUGH THE BIG DITCH AT PANAMA.

Panama City, Jan. 22.—Vessels flying the American flag led all others in setting a new record for canal traffic in 1920. This is shown by figures just given out by the canal authorities. Of the 2814 commercial ships using the big ditch last year, 1,281 were American. Great Britain came next with 867 and Japan third with 122.

She was a member of Knox church for many years. The funeral will take place on Monday afternoon at 2.30 from her late residence, the service being held at 2.30.

INCREASE IN NEWSPRINT OUTPUT IN U.S.

New York, Feb. 5.—(By Canadian Press)—Figures compiled by the Federal Trade Commission show that the production of newsprint in the United States is on the increase. The output of the U. S. mills for the twelve months ending Dec. 31, 1920 amounted to 1,511,968 tons against 1,374,817 tons in 1919, and 1,260,285 tons in 1918. While the U. S. publishers are still largely dependent upon Canada for their supplies, there are indications that the recent increase in price effected by some of the Canadian mills has turned U. S. consumers to other markets, and the prediction is made here that if the prices of the Canadian product are maintained at their present high level Canada's export newsprint business may be seriously affected.

The Trade Commission's statistics show that the Dominion manufacturers are meeting with ever increasing competition from Europe. In November, 1919 Canada had a monopoly of the U. S. market, not a roll of newsprint being received in this country from Europe while Canadian mills sent 59,296 tons of non-durable printing paper which includes practically all newspaper to this market. In November 1920, however, Canada's share of the trade was cut down to 32,387 tons, while imports from Europe were: From Germany, 4,069 tons; from Sweden, 2,920 tons; from Norway, 1,472 tons.

FIRST ANNUAL MEETING OF MEMORIAL HOME DIRECTORS.

The first annual meeting of the board of directors of the Provincial Memorial Home was held last evening in the Market Building, with the president, Dr. James Manning, in the chair. H. Usher Miller said that the mayor had granted permission to hold a tag day in aid of the home. Mrs. Francis Kerr reported for the house committee. Francis Kerr, the secretary, in his report told of the efforts put forth to establish the home and mentioned the large amount of voluntary work which had been done by men of all trades. The women, he said, were a large factor in the establishment of the home. Of the 181 applications 121 children were admitted and cared for and sixty were refused because of lack of accommodation. Sixty-nine applications were for the admission of children who had lost one or both parents. The auditor, George W. Mullin, also submitted a satisfactory report.

The election of officers resulted as follows:

Other reports were given and Mrs. C. A. Clark presided and Mrs. W. J. Bingham led the devotional exercises. Sympathy with the movement for mothers' pensions and minimum wage was expressed.

A successful carnival was held in the South End rink last evening. The prize winners were Miss Louise Tapley, Miss Mooney, Hazen Titus and Jack Robinson. E. L. Potts, Mrs. A. C. D. Wilby, Mrs. George Porter and Mrs. A. M. Belding were judges. An electric light has been placed at the foot of Britain street by Commissioner Thornton and has proved a great help to the illumination of the rink. Music was furnished by the Phonograph Salon, owned by the Phonograph Salon, King Square and operated by A. T. Weatherhead.

The Prussian minister of the interior has put a ban on Germany's carnival season of a month's merry making.

On account of a motorist's determination to secure the right of way, five street cars were held last evening at the corner of Union and Sydney streets. The automobile came down Sydney and was about to turn up Union when a West St. John car arrived and started to turn up Sydney. The motorist refused, and a call being sent for the police, the driver decided discretion was the better part of valor and moved along.

"Will I make an extra profit, or will I stick to quality???"
—Whenever the grocer buys tea this is the question that comes to his mind.

The Old Country Club is doing its utmost to give New Brunswick its place on the map, by trying to induce the farming class and skilled artisans, to come to settle in the province. The committee who meet the immigrants, distributes the booklets and literature of the province, to all the British immigrants, and the club is sending to various towns in Great Britain literature supplied by the Department of Colonization, and is desirous to work in co-operation with the provincial office in the city.

If he is after the biggest profit he will never buy Red Rose Tea for it gives him less profit than other teas which he sells at the same price. But he buys Red Rose.—It has the quality.

HOUSE-HUNTING MONARCH OF MID-WINTER SPORTS

Again this year a certain proportion of the population of the city has started to indulge in the king of late winter sports—house-hunting—and to judge by the experience of those in possession of the hunted, the game has lost nothing of its attractions, but has become more keenly enjoyed by the growing scarcity of the quarry.
 There seems to be an insatiable charm in wandering through the private domains of others and at this time of the year it breaks out like an epidemic. True it is that many are through with the necessity, compelled to hunt, tireless day and night, for a spot they can call home for another year, but one could hardly believe that all who flock through the houses on which a "To Let" sign has been hung have very serious intentions of changing their place of residence in May 1. Quite unintentionally, however, they assist materially in effecting the "Welcome" from the front door mat.
 The procession started on the first day of the month and is still going strong. One householder whose lot advertisement appeared in The Evening Times on Wednesday, piloted no fewer than thirty-one questioning and highly observant people through her flat in the few hours on the following day when the premises were open for inspection. Others report groups of visitors ranging from five to twenty-five. It is safe to say that there are many distracted homeowners in the city today whose heads reel with the echoes of "hardwood-floors, hot-water-heating, no-place-here-I-could-put-my-Chesterfield, my-rugs-would-never-fit-these-floors" and a veritable bombardment of other questions and observations that would make the war-time intelligence service of the British armies in the field seem like a delegation of infants at a mothers' meeting.

WILL HELP RAISE MONEY NEEDED
 If City Council Cannot Provide for Vocational Training Classes.

"It $5,000 will enable the vocational board to continue its evening classes, and there is no hope of getting money from the city council. I will be one of fifty men to give $100 each and raise the amount."
 This announcement was made to the Times last evening by Frank L. Potts, who added that any movement which kept hundreds of people engaged in the evenings in study should be heartily supported, and the more so when that study tended to increase their wage-earning capacity.
 Dr. Emery, chairman of the vocational board, visited one of the classes of young people last evening. There were twenty-four in this class. They were much concerned over the fact that the classes would be discontinued, and asked the chairman if there was anything they could do, even by contributing something themselves, to enable them to complete their course.
 The absurdity of having on the vocational board a member of the public school board who is opposed to the vocational boards and so declared himself at about the same time as those of M. E. yesterday's meeting, was remarked by an interested citizen this morning. The Times was also asked if there is any truth in the report that most of the opposition to the vocational board and its work has come from members of the public school board.
 "Now is the time," said this citizen, "to thresh out the whole question."

Evening Vocational Classes Received Majority Support At Conference Yesterday

A resolution favoring the continuation of the evening vocational classes in St. John was passed at a conference called by the Rotary Club and held yesterday afternoon in the board of trade rooms with Dr. H. L. Spangler presiding and representatives of the Rotary Club, Board of Trade, Commercial Club, Trades and Labor Council, Women's Council, Women's Canadian Club, the Free Kindergarten Association, the Vocational School Committee, the Retail Merchants' Association, and the city council attending.

A Clergyman's Wife Wants Women to Know Advantages of Internal Bathing

LUMBAGO

If you feel a touch of lumbago, you can ward off the evils of recurrent attacks, by taking GIN PILLS without delay. Learn the lesson from the experience of Mr. H. A. Jukes. After suffering with lumbago for years, and being confined to the house at times, Mr. Jukes began to take Gin Pills. His lumbago disappeared, and much to his surprise, he at once felt a change for the better.

TO BE DYSPEPTIC IS TO BE MISERABLE

The poor dyspeptic suffers untold agony after every meal, and any one who has dyspepsia knows what joy it would give to eat three square meals a day and not be punished for it after nearly everything that enters the weak stomach acts as an irritant, and even the little that is eaten can cause distress and is digested so imperfectly that it does little good.

STARVATION HITS
BUDAPEST ZOO

Monkeys Only Animals Not
Yes Affected—Signs of Neglect in the City.

Budapest, Jan. 19.—(Associated Press Correspondence)—Eighty per cent. of all the animals in the once famous zoological garden of this city have died from starvation, for the food necessary to keep them alive is needed for humans. All of the seals have perished. They depended on salt water fish and when the supply ran out a few weeks ago the seals became ill and died one after another. Lack of fuel and proper care of course has been a contributing cause of the troubles of the Budapest zoo which in pre-war days boasted some of the finest specimens in southern Europe. Every cage has been thinned of its inmates except the monkey cage but comparatively few of them have died. This tribe is still lively and its members manage to act natural on what is thrown to them by the few people who have time from food and fuel worries to visit the place. Hundreds of splendid buildings in Budapest's dying zoo is only a reminder of what is happening all round it. The beautiful central park in which it stands is neglected. The sidewalks are full of holes and the trees and shrubs are untrimmed. Budapest's finest monument at the park entrance from which the communists, during their occupation of the city removed statues of seven Hapsburg kings, shows evidence of decay. The statue of George Washington, nearby, erected by Hungarian patriots, is intact.

FINE IMPRESSION

Woodstock Opposition Paper Has Good Words for Hon. D. W. Mersereau.

(Woodstock Press.)
Hon. D. W. Mersereau, minister of agriculture, was here on Thursday and Friday. This was his first visit here in his official capacity and the first time he has seen our exhibition plant. The minister of agriculture made a great impression on the business men and farmers. He is a fluent speaker and modest within. He said that it was not necessary to send delegates to Fredericton to see him. He was a servant of the people and when the business men wish to consult him all they have to do is write to him and he would come to Woodstock any time. He is interested of the exhibition or on any matter in connection with his department. The Press asked some of the members of the Agricultural Society, after the meeting, what they thought of the new minister and the answer invariably was that he had a thorough grasp of the agricultural situation and doubtless would make one of the best ministers of agriculture the province ever had.

Success and Health
in a box of Milburn's

"FAINT heart never won fair lady," an old proverb, but certainly a true one, and it is equally certain that faint hearts accomplish very little in any other path of life.

Business Controllers, Statesmen and Professional Leaders are men of stout hearts. They are careful to repair the waste caused by continual strain upon their mental and physical system.

There are still thousands among our own population who ignore the heart, the most important of all organs. All toilet tables find room for some restorative—many find room for a box or two of Milburn's Heart & Nerve Pills. Their users are the wise ones who know the necessity of keeping the heart young—with a well heart there are no nervous complaints or ailments of any kind.

Grateful people all over Canada convey the facts of regained health through the use of Milburn's Heart & Nerve Pills. Read this one, chosen at random from thousands:

MILBURN'S HEART & NERVE PILLS

Mr. H. Maxwell, Woodhouse, Alta., writes: "I was in the army when I got heart trouble. The two doctors told me there was little hope for me to get better. I have doctored with other doctors, but with no relief. A year ago a friend told me to try Milburn's Heart & Nerve Pills. I laughed at him at the time, and told him they were only a fake, but as I got worse I thought I would try a box. I have taken six boxes, and can say that they are the first thing that helped me and I feel as if I were a new man. I sure can thank them, and feel that with a few more boxes I will be well."

To your nearest druggist is but a short distance. He will hand you the key to good health and happiness—a box of Milburn's Heart & Nerve Pills, or send 50c. and they will be mailed direct by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

MEMORIES OF DAYS GONE BY

Liquor Ads Were Prominent in Quebec Paper of 1814.

Calgary, Feb. 5.—Two interesting curiosities have recently come into the possession of George L. Brown, of this city, in the shape of two issues of The Quebec Mercury, one of the earliest publications in Canada. The copies of The Mercury are dated Feb. 1, and April 5, 1814. In the issue of April 5, 1814, is one of the pronounced delivered by Napoleon Bonaparte when he was at the height of his power in Europe and before the disastrous spring campaign of 1814. It was dated December 30, 1815 at Paris. Display advertising as it is known now, was apparently not in favor in those days, although the merchants of Quebec were not above mentioning their wares in a gentlemanly way. Advertisements of wines and liquors are prominent. The want ad was not neglected in 1814, for we find that Mary McGregor has some general appointments ready furnished at her house, and another that "Mr. G. Spat respectfully informs his friends and the public in general that he intends to commence the instruction of a limited number of young gentlemen and ladies during a part of each day."

The oldest active blacksmith in Michigan is still thanking his avail in the town of Homer—thanks to my internal method for treating piles.

Mr. Jacob Lyon, Homer, Mich.
I wish that you could hear him tell of his many experiences with ointments, dilators, etc., before he tried my method. Here is a letter just received from him:

You can use my letter any way you wish and I hope it will lead others to try this wonderful remedy.

Yours truly,
J. L. LYON.

ANOTHER DECLINE IN BRITISH PRICES

Retailers Have Not Yet Responded Liberally to Wholesale Reductions.

London, Feb. 5.—The Times's special index number of wholesale prices shows a further decline of 100 per cent. in January, as compared with a fall of 6 1/2 per cent. in December, and 11 per cent. in November. The index number now stands 9 per cent. below its level at the time of the armistice.

The index number for food prices is still 146 per cent. above the pre-war level, while other materials are only 92 per cent. higher. The great trouble is that retail prices have so far made an insufficient response to the decline among commodities at wholesale.

RELIEVES PAIN

Why Woman's Work and Household
Cares Cause Such Severe Strain on Her Nervous System

MAKE HER WEAK, NERVOUS AND IRRITABLE and cause her to LOOK OLD, and lose her beauty and magnetic charm.

The average man thinks woman's work is easy because he does not realize THE TERRIBLE STRAIN ON THE NERVOUS SYSTEM which is caused by CONSTANT DRUDGERY—doing the same thing over and over.

MAN GOES OUT WHEN HE PLEASES, gets fresh air and exercise, sees different faces, BUT WOMAN STAYS AT HOME, looks after the children and performs the monotonous household duties.

SUCH A LIFE WOULD PROBABLY DRIVE THE AVERAGE MAN NEARLY CRAZY IN A MONTH but woman patient and persevering as she is, goes on and on until at last the indoor work and nervous strain sap the iron from her blood leaving her weak, nervous, pale and aged looking.

It's a common thing to hear "OH! HOW OLD LOOKING MRS. JONES HAS BECOME!"
Wouldn't you like to see how old and haggard looking you would become old and haggard looking.

To make up for the great loss of iron caused by the life woman is compelled to lead, she should eat more iron-containing fruits and vegetables and take organic iron from time to time to put new red blood corpuscles into her pale thin watery blood. Without iron your blood loses its power to change food into living cells and tissue and nothing you eat does you the proper amount of good—you do not get the strength out of it, and therefore become weakened in body and mind.

Thousands of people have surprisingly increased their strength, energy and endurance in two weeks time by this simple experiment. But the main thing that makes this test so sure is that the iron you take is organic iron and not metallic or mineral iron which people usually take.

NUXATED IRON

ENRICHES THE BLOOD—GIVES YOU NEW STRENGTH AND ENERGY.

RIGA WATER

Labor and Capital
Agree on One Thing

While strikes are going on all over the world, it is a relief to find one point on which Labor and Capital agree. This is a matter which may have much to do with the wealth of nations, but it has a material influence on their health—and that is the efficacy of Buckley's Bronchitis Mixture for coughs, colds, bronchitis, hoarseness and other throat and chest affections. Just as there is "no royal road to health," so this wonderful remedy, which has brought relief to thousands, is easily within the reach of the laboring man as well as the millionaire. Rich or poor, old or young, once you have tried it, you realize that nothing else can equal it. Don't go on suffering. Get a bottle to-day. You buy it on the understanding, your money refunded if it does not give you quick relief. Take no substitute. 75c. a bottle. For sale at all Drug Stores or by mail from W. K. BUCKLEY, Limited, 149 MUTUAL ST., TORONTO.

Winnipeg, Feb. 4.—A board of welfare supervision for Manitoba has been appointed by the provincial government. The duties of the board will be to inspect and report on all activities, agencies, organizations or institutions having

GROUND CARROTS AS
SUBSTITUTE FOR COFFEE

Huntington, B. C., Feb. 5.—A coffee substitute made from ground carrots is an interesting experiment being made by Herman Barnhart. The new beverage, which carrots are the chief ingredient, is being turned out in a small factory. Mr. Barnhart has purchased 150 tons of carrots and he states that a prominent business firm has agreed to take his entire output.

THIS WOMAN IS WEIGHED DOWN WITH THE DRUDGERY OF HOUSEHOLD WORK, WORRIES AND CARES.

They have steadily sapped the iron from her blood, until now she is nervous, irritable and "all gone to pieces."

Always insist on having genuine organic iron—Nuxated Iron. If you are not feeling quite up to the mark telephone for a package today; it is mailed for you. Look for the letters N. I. on every tablet. Your money will be refunded by the manufacturer if you do not obtain perfectly satisfactory results. For sale by all druggists.

Organic iron is like the iron in your blood and like the iron in spinach, lentils and apples, while metallic iron is iron just as it comes from the action of strong acids on small pieces of iron. Organic iron may be the same as your druggist under the name of "iron" but it is not the same. It represents organic iron in such a form that it is easily absorbed and one dose is estimated to be approximately equivalent to one quart of green vegetables. It is not taking extract of beef instead of eating pounds of meat.

Doctor Tells How to Strengthen
Eyesight 50 Per Cent in One
Week's Time in Many Instances

A Free Prescription You Can Have Filled and Use at Home.

Philadelphia, Pa.—Do you wear glasses? Are you a victim of eye strain or other eye weaknesses? If so, you will be glad to know that according to Dr. Lewis there is real hope for you. Many whose eyes were failing say they have had their eyes restored through the principle of this wonderful free prescription. One man says, after trying it: "I was almost blind; could not see to read at all. Now I can read everything without any glasses and my eyes do not water any more. At night they would pain dreadfully; now they feel fine all the time. It was like a miracle to me." A lady who used it says: "The atmosphere seemed heavy with or without glasses, but after using this prescription for fifteen days everything seems clear. I can even read fine print without glasses." It is believed that thousands who wear glasses can now discard them in a reasonable time and multitudes more will be able to strengthen their eyes so as to spare the trouble and expense of ever getting glasses. Eye troubles of many descriptions may be wonderfully benefited by following the simple rules. Here is the prescription: Go to any active drug store and get a bottle of Bon-Opto tablets. Drop one Bon-Opto tablet in a fourth of a glass of water and allow to dissolve. With this liquid bathe the eyes two to four times daily. You should rub your eyes clear up to the right from the start and inflammation will quickly disappear. If your eyes are bothering you even a little, take steps to have them now before it is too late. Many hopelessly blind might have been saved if they had cared for their eyes in time.

NOTE: Another prominent physician, to whom the above article was submitted, said: "Bon-Opto is a very remarkable remedy. Its constituent ingredients are well known to eminent eye specialists and widely prescribed to them. The manufacturer guarantees it to strengthen eyesight 50 per cent. in one week's time in many instances or refund the money. It can be obtained from any good druggist and is one of the very few preparations I feel should be kept on hand for regular use in almost every family." It is sold in this city by all good druggists, including Watsons Drug Store.

Children dearly love the delicious, "fruity" taste of genuine "California Syrup of Figs" which has directions for babies and children of all ages printed on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits. Mother, you must say "California." If you don't say "California" you may get an imitation of 77.

IRON STEEL METAL AND MACHINERY. In its summary of the iron, steel, metal and machinery markets for the week ended Feb. 3, Canadian Machinery and Manufacturing News, Toronto, makes the following comment:—Price talk is heard again in the markets this week, but this does not mean that there is going to be any immediate advantage in it for the Canadian buyer. New York reports that two makers have brought out new selling schedules, but there is nothing to show that the action has aided in the closing of any more business. Pittsburgh talks about a new basis for steel prices, but intimates that the time is not ripe yet for the bringing of these into effect. Wages and other costs will have to be dealt with first, and there is a feeling that cuts in wages would tend the buying public to turn on the steel makers and ask them for cheaper steel. Machine tool dealers in Canada are working harder for business than for some time past and the experience of many is that the firms that are working hardest to secure business are meeting with the most gratifying results. The change in the attitude of some American firms in opening a Canadian account and taking payment in Canadian funds has also helped sales. Buying that is being done, though, is on a small scale, although reports indicate that industry in Canada is improving. Some shops are releasing orders they have held up for some months and more are getting under way even if on a small scale. The scrap metal market was further marked down this week, many of the figures now named being only shadows of their former war-time greatness. Even at this schedule there is little trading being done.

THE DROP IN SUGAR. (New York Evening Post.) Judging from the number of reductions in the price of refined sugar announced today, one immediately gets the impression that a sugar price war is being waged between the larger refiners. Early today one large company announced that it had reduced the price of refined to 7.25 cents per pound. This was immediately followed by similar reductions by other refiners. Later a large western refiner announced a price of seven cents per pound. This price was also met by other refiners, only to be followed by still another cut on the part of the western concern to 6.50 cents, a new low record for the current downward movement. No one can make the charge now that the price of sugar is being fixed by a "trust."

MORE THAN HALF MILLION GRAVES IN FLANDERS

66,796 Are of Unidentified Soldiers—Preparation for Permanent Memorials.

London, Jan. 16.—(By Mail, Canadian Associated Press.)—The annual report of the Imperial War Graves Commission for 1919-20 states that the total number of graves registered up to September 30, 1920, was 882,426, and the number of burials registered was 187,708.

The extent of the work of exhumation and concentration of scattered graves in France and Belgium up to March 22, 1920, is indicated by the following figures: Re-interments, 128,577; already known, 55,598; identified for first time, 6,273; unknown, 66,796. The total number of graves in France and Belgium when the work has been completed would be probably over 500,000, and the number of cemeteries requiring architectural treatment in addition to the erection of headstones (which is practically all that will be required for graves in French communal cemeteries) will exceed 1,200.

The Manchester Guardian remarks that France and Belgium account for almost half a million registered and authentic graves. It is here, of course, that the task of re-interment in the appointed cemeteries becomes the greatest—a vast amount of work is needed before these memorials of the British dead can be left to make their finished appeal to posterity. One difficulty that the commission has had to face has been the shortage of skilled labor for work on the headstones. The orders for these have been distributed throughout the United Kingdom and it is significant of the way in which this pathetic undertaking has been approached that an attempt has been made to let every district see for itself examples of the chosen memorial designs. The task of the war graves commission is as great as it is significant, and its difficulties are many as regards both sentiment and administration. The present report is a dignified and encouraging reminder that the work has been entrusted to the right hands. The war office states that, pending the consideration of the erection of permanent headstones by the imperial war graves commission, a temporary wooden cross of the type designed for all war graves, if desired by the next of kin, will be erected at the public expense over the graves of all soldiers who fell in the great war and are buried in Great Britain and Ireland.

The next of kin who desire the cross to be erected should communicate, if they have not already done so, with the Director of Graves Registration and Enquiries, 82 Baker street, London, W. 1, within three months, giving full particulars as to the buried soldier's name, regimental number, regiment, date of death, cemetery, and row and number of grave.

HUBBY WANTED POCKET MONEY.

Buyer Divorces Man Who Asked $3,400 a Year.

Chicago, Feb. 4.—Mrs. Helen Cobb, who is a buyer for a Chicago department store and receives an income of between $10,000 and $15,000 a year, told Judge Sabath that her husband, Norvell Cobb, manager of a brokerage branch, demanded that she pay him $300 a month and $1,000 at the end of each year as a bonus for living with her. Mrs. Cobb, who asked for a divorce, which Judge Sabath indicated he would grant, also told of various acts of cruelty which she said occurred at the Plaza and at the Ritz-Carlton Hotels in New York when she and her husband lived there.

Mr. Cobb conceived his quaint contradiction in matrimonial custom, the wife declared, about a month after their marriage, in May, 1920.

"Mr. Cobb," she explained, "had a good income, but his tastes were too extravagant for it to do him any good. He couldn't hear of our living anywhere except at the Ritz-Carlton and Plaza Hotels. When he found he couldn't pay his bills he wanted to use my earnings."

"What's more," she said, "he made me hand over $200 a month each month we were married. On June 19 he came home and was very angry because I had spent my own money for a house party. He struck me and told me the only way we could get along was for me to pay him $200 a month and $1,000 at the end of each year. On another occasion when I refused to let him drive my automobile, he struck me in the face, stepped on a girl friend who was with us and jumped out of the car."

Judge Sabath, with a smile, asked Mrs. Cobb if she were going to ask alimony.

"Judge," responded Charles Arbstein, her attorney, "Mrs. Cobb waives all alimony, she waives all property rights, and when she gets her decree she is going out in the street and wave a flag."

CAT'S COSTLY FUNERAL.

Oak Coffin With Silver Breastplate Provided.

London, Feb. 5.—Much interest was aroused in Scarborough over the funeral of a white Persian cat, whose mistress had had him placed in a beautifully made oak coffin with brass furnishings and silver breast plate, bearing the inscription, "Eric, died January 11, 1921." The time of the interment in the front garden of the owner's house, where a grave two feet deep had been dug, had become known despite endeavors to keep it secret, and when the undertaker arrived there was a crowd in front of the house, and the windows of the houses opposite were full of spectators. This publicity and signs of hilarity in the crowd distressed the cat's owner, and caused the postponement of the funeral until later in the day. A number of persons had the opportunity of seeing the cat in his coffin. A shroud covered him just as in the case of a baby, and the coffin was the size of a small baby's.

To Cure Russia by "Absent Treatment"

The Washington Herald declares that "until the Allied Powers have at least a semblance of an agreed Russian policy, chaos is certain to continue. President Wilson proposes a policy of hands off, and this may help clear the air." Both Bolshevik and anti-Bolshevik spokesmen in this country, it is interesting to note, find something to praise in the President's proposal, but correspondents report that it is received coldly by the French press, and with a mingling of praise and criticism by the English papers. "Does Mr. Wilson think America can join the League for five or ten minutes whenever it wishes something, and then get out before it is called on to assume responsibilities?" asks the Paris Journal des Debats; and the London Westminster Gazette conceding that the President's proposal "contains much sound sense," goes on to say: "But when he asks the Allies jointly to guarantee the territorial integrity of Russia, we are compelled to remark that America refuses to share not only in that guaranty but in a guaranty of the integrity of other European states which are members of the League."

And fans forget—in the making of a success of himself he is making a far greater success for the Detroit baseball team, the stockholders and President Frank Navin, financially and otherwise. Don't think for one moment they will begrudge him the stated salary he may ask to continue at the helm of the Detroit baseball club. His success will have become so great that not only will the Detroit fans forget what a Ford car looks like but unlike Ford, were Cobb a citizen of Michigan he would have made a successful run for the governorship of the state. Why? Because he would be willing to take a chance.

TY COBB AS A TEAM MANAGER

Joe Page Discusses Noted
 Player's Points

Banks on His Self-Reliance and Assurance of His Ability to Make Success in First Year.

(By Joe Page.)
 The selection of Ty Cobb as manager of the Detroit team, will cause a discussion that will not end until the close of the coming season. No more interesting even has occurred in big league circles in years than will be his experiment to make a winner of a team that rumor has accused him of wrecking.
 Knock two—Opinion is divided whether or not a player of Cobb's temperament can succeed as a big league manager. Fiery-spirited and prone to have his own way, his career as a member of the Tiger team, has been a series of fights, brawls and discussions with fellow team-mates and outsiders.
 Knock three—While Hughie Jennings was manager of the team, Cobb did what he pleased. He disregarded training rules and assumed managerial jurisdiction and an independent attitude that earned him the enmity as well as envy of most of the other members of the team. Whether he can overcome this enmity and force his men to play winning ball under him, remains to be seen.
 Knock four—Take last season, when he was going rather poorly, Cobb remarked to a newspaper man: "They say I'm through, eh? Well, just my next season. I'm going out and get 'em." From an impartial viewpoint it appears certain that his work will suffer. As leader of the team, he will have to sacrifice his personal desires for team play. While he played under Jennings, he played as an individual, which had a lot to do with the high average he achieved.
 Knock five and last—Ever since his entrance into the junior major league, he has been the stormy petrel of that organization. He almost disrupted the league in 1912 when he assaulted a spectator at the Polo grounds, and caused his team-mates to go out on strike when he was suspended. During the exhibition tour between the Giants and Tigers several years ago, Buck Herzog, then on the staff of the Detroit team, tried to spike him as he slid to second in a game at Dallas and he offered to fight him. They met in a room in the hotel that night and it is said that Herzog received the beating of his life.
 These knocks, five of many, can be attributed to certain baseball critics and plenty of fans. As to the ability of Ty Cobb to make good as playing manager of the Detroit Tigers this coming season, the man with the greatest interest at stake, Frank Navin, owner of the Detroit club evidently thinks he has it. Why?

Ever since Jennings resigned as manager of the Tigers last year, Mitchell, Stalling, Fox, Rowland and others were touted as the next manager of the club for 1921. There is no question that some of them were hot after the situation. However at the meeting of the majors at the Belmont hotel, New York last December, it was about settled that Cobb could have the situation if he cared to accept it. Frank Navin offered him the position with a contract for three years and a salary of thirty thousand dollars a year. Ninety thousand in all, Oh boy! How many of the above gentlemen would or any other manager in the business with the possible exception of two, would have refused the offer. This offer, by far the greatest ever made to any player jumping from the ranks to the management of the team in their first year, of itself, should be the answer in full of Cobb's reply to the offer was—"Let me take the position for one year and then if I am successful, we can talk business again."

Oh, ye gods, at least one star ball player that did not want and more than was in sight. Readers, get this right. If you know Cobb as a ball player, you have got his whole character—as a star performer on the field—in the above answer to his employer in accepting the management of the Detroit team. He was always willing to take chance to win a ball game and now he loses aside a sure sixty thousand dollars when he turns down a three-year contract. Why? Because he is willing to take a chance.

Why? Because he would be willing to take a chance.

What Cobb himself thinks of his chances to make good in his new position was put before the owner of the club and the baseball public in such a positive form that the same should be written, photographed and hung up in the baseball hall of fame for all time. Cobb's reply to the offer was—"Let me take the position for one year and then if I am successful, we can talk business again."

If you know Cobb as a ball player, you have got his whole character—as a star performer on the field—in the above answer to his employer in accepting the management of the Detroit team. He was always willing to take chance to win a ball game and now he loses aside a sure sixty thousand dollars when he turns down a three-year contract. Why? Because he is willing to take a chance.

What Cobb himself thinks of his chances to make good in his new position was put before the owner of the club and the baseball public in such a positive form that the same should be written, photographed and hung up in the baseball hall of fame for all time. Cobb's reply to the offer was—"Let me take the position for one year and then if I am successful, we can talk business again."

Oh, ye gods, at least one star ball player that did not want and more than was in sight. Readers, get this right. TO COMMEMORATE
TWO GREAT EVENTS

Plans for Impressive Celebrations at Annapolis Royal

Law Court and the Baronetries—Elaborate Programme Suggested to Mark Bicentenary and Ter-Centenary.

(Halifax Chronicle.)
Preparations are now being made for a trio of celebrations at Annapolis Royal this coming summer, two of which will mark two events of national wide importance. The other is of a more local nature but of unusual interest to the literary world. The events to be celebrated are: First, the tercentenary of the grant by King James The First to Sir William Alexander of a charter creating the Baronetries of Nova Scotia and there establishing the Scotland of the new world. Second, the bi-centenary of the establishment at Annapolis of the first English Court of Civil Law in what is now the Dominion of Canada. Third, the centenary of Thomas Chandler Haliburton's residence at Annapolis Royal. The famous writer and humorist moved to that town in 1821 and while resident there did much of his literary work. Of these three anniversaries that commemorating the establishment of English Civil Law is without doubt of exceptional national importance, of interest to the Empire at large and embracing the whole English speaking world. The Scottish anniversary is one of deep significance to Nova Scotians. Although in itself the granting of the charter was an event circumscribed in history by the delay in its fulfillment, yet it was the very foundation that in after years made Nova Scotia for ever the Scotland of the new world, a replica in many characteristics of the Old Land. A Joint Programme.
It is proposed that the celebration of these two anniversaries should take place on the same day and be a joint programme, the date set being the 5th of August. The plans at present are only in their early and meagre inception. The Nova Scotia Historical Society, under the presidency of Major J. Pinnell Edwards, is taking the lead in the matter. The genesis of the proposal is credited to Mr. Justice Chisholm, speaking before the society in 1918. The interest in the proposed celebration has already gone beyond Nova Scotia, in fact there have been evidences of much more interest and knowledge of it in Toronto, Montreal and Boston, than in Halifax. Dr. Murray Clarke of Toronto is materially assisting. The Canadian Bar Association to meet very soon at Quebec is expected to take up the matter. At the next meeting of the Nova Scotia Historical Society to be held on Friday evening, February 11th, the plans will be further discussed and representatives from Dalhousie University, and the Bar Society of Nova Scotia will be asked to assist the committee. The tentative programme suggests the erection at Annapolis of a bronze tablet with suitable inscription by the provincial government. There is an organization in Annapolis called the Historical Association of Annapolis Royal, of which Chief Justice Harris is president. A committee of this association under the chairmanship of I. M. Fortier, has undertaken the work of advising and directing the Annapolis end of the celebration.

Healthy children do everything strenuously, they play hard, and study hard, and they need nourishment and a lot of it, and not one of the popular beverages meets their requirements so well as good and well made cocoa.

ing and directing the Annapolis end of the celebration. The suggested programme now drawn up provides for unveiling of tablets in the old Fort at Annapolis the presence of the governor general, the lieutenant governor, Premier Murray and the Chief Justice of the Province of Nova Scotia, Sir James Oikins, president of the Canadian Bar Association. The minister of the interior is to be present to take over the tablets for the nation.
