THEIR HOPES ARE SHIP-WRECKED

Russian Northwestern Government Leaving Estonia
May Have Important Effect—Reported Attempt to Kill General Barotoff—Reds Claim Victory.

Dorpat, Dec. 11—Officials of the northwestern Russian government, according to C. G. Lianozov, premier, will withdraw from Estonia immediately. Lianozov made the statement in reply to a communication from the Estonian premier to the effect that the presence of the northwestern government had created difficulties in Estonia, which was compelled thereby to conduct an active war against the Bolsheviks, while desiring to take only defensive action.

The announcement says the cabinet finds it necessary to say that publication at this time of the reasons leading to the shipwreck of all the hopes of the northwestern Russian government and the army on the northwestern front would be improper and not in the interest of the common Russian cause.

After paying tribute to the bravery of the officers and men of the northwestern army the statement says that the decision of the northwestern government to withdraw from Estonia may have an important effect upon the conference being held here by representatives of Soviet Russia and the Baltic states.

It is said the Allies will do everything in order that America may participate in future conferences. Important problems, the newspaper says, shall henceforth be settled by a council of the premiers of Great Britain, France and Italy. This council will meet some time in Paris, and some times in London, and will examine principally Russian and Turkish problems.

Allies May Accept Some of Reservations of Washington Senate

Desire to Have U. S. at the Future Conferences

Paris, Dec. 13 (Havas)—The Matin says that as a result of the conferences being held in London by Premiers Lloyd George and Clemenceau, the United States government will be notified that, in order to facilitate a compromise between adverse parties in the American senate, the Allies are willing to accept, to as great an extent as possible, some of the reservations to the Versailles treaty made by the foreign relations committee.

It is said the Allies will do everything in order that America may participate in future conferences. Important problems, the newspaper says, shall henceforth be settled by a council of the premiers of Great Britain, France and Italy. This council will meet some time in Paris, and some times in London, and will examine principally Russian and Turkish problems.

In the presence of United States Ambassador Davis, it is said, Premier Lloyd George and Clemenceau assured Vittorio Scialoja, Italian foreign minister, that there was a necessity for an early settlement of the Finne problem and indicated Great Britain would intercede with the United States for Italy. Signor Scialoja will leave for Rome today to lay the matter before his government.

The reserves here built up at the London conference, the Matin says, is good and the necessity for close co-operation by the Allies is recognized.

London, Dec. 13—Late yesterday it was learned that as Premier Clemenceau and Queen Mary, in the evening he dined with Earl Curzon of Kedleston and Lady Curzon and later visited a theatre.

It has been learned from a French source that the disposition of the British representatives in the conference is considered "excellent" and that both sides are pleased with the progress of negotiations on various matters discussed yesterday. These included the Adriatic situation, the Russian situation and the swift pursuit of the "hurryingly retreating" Kolchak troops in Siberia.

Itskuk, Wednesday, Dec. 10—(Russian Telegraphic Agency)—An engineer named T. Cherniak, who has just arrived from Omak after having spent a week there, says the Bolsheviks shot two officers of the Siberian who refused to join the Red army, and citizens who protested against night raids and other Bolshevik excesses. The price and cost of modifiers, the engineer adds, increased from 100 to 200 per cent immediately after Bolshevik occupation of Omak.

As Hiram Sees It

"Hiram," said the Times reporter to Mr. Hiram Hornbeam, "this is Saturday, and I think you wanted to buy some Yankee money or hev a skate."

"I am a little bit proud of it," said the reporter. "It has been a most encouraging week."

There is no talk of the cabinet ministers speak with approval of plans for a widespread "buy in Canada" campaign.

Ottawa, Dec. 13—Although the shipment of gold to the United States by the dominion government to take care of Canadian maturities in New York is expected to have further restrictive beneficial effect on exchange, the situation is regarded as so serious that the cabinet ministers speak with approval of plans for a widespread "buy in Canada" campaign.

Was Close Call to Say People on Carmania

Cunarder is Docked At Halifax

Halifax, Dec. 13—That a marine catastrophe was narrowly averted when the Carmania of the Cunard Line and the American freighter Maryland collided off Cape Race on Wednesday evening is evident from stories told by passengers of the liner on her arrival here this morning. The Carmania was proceeding at half speed through a relatively calm sea and sounding her whistle regularly at eight o'clock on Wednesday evening when the Maryland loomed up in the fog and darkness, on a course that would have struck the Carmania head on, at a distance of about 200 yards.

Referring to the success of the U. F. O. in Ontario, he said he hoped the farmers would make good. He also expressed a hope that the farmers would turn out the present federal government.

LABOR TROUBLE IN WEST INDIES WAS SERIOUS

Men Landed From British Warship—Rising of Negroes in Trinidad.

London, Dec. 13—Labor disturbances in the British islands of Trinidad and Tobago, in the West Indies, leading to the landing of men from the British warship Calcutta, and resulting in several casualties, are reported in official dispatches to the colonial office. Special dispatches picture the trouble in Trinidad as a rising of the negroes in which the government building at Port of Spain was stormed and held for three days. The official advices do not mention such an occurrence.

From today's official messages it appears that the trouble originated in Tobago, twenty-two miles northeast of Trinidad. Seamen from the Calcutta were landed there. The police fired upon the rioters, killing the ringleader. At the same time a strike of stevedores in Trinidad occurred and rioting ensued in which one man was killed.

It is said returned soldiers were implicated in the disturbances. The troubles were mainly due to labor unrest which subsided after increased wages had been granted the workers.

Today's advices announce that Port of Spain is quiet, but that the country districts are still disturbed.

GIVE STORES NOW EIGHT HOUR DAY

Boston Merchants Have Better Business Chance

Boston, Dec. 13—Orders permitting New England retail stores to remain open eight hours a day instead of six were received last night following a conference in Washington between a delegation of the retail trade board of the Boston Chamber of Commerce and members of the central coal committee. Stores are to be open nine hours Saturday. The restrictions still apply to offices, and all other forms of conservation are still in force, in fact the modification of the store regulations provides that they are actually to reduce the light and power consumed one quarter.

Charles Sumner Bird, twice progressive candidate for governor, issued a statement yesterday in which he charged the present administration in Washington not only with bungling the coal situation, but every problem it has dealt with. It is estimated that the New England fuel administrator is taking no chances on a let up in the coal stringency, but continues to appoint assistants in large cities of the state.

Two indictments growing out of the sugar shortage were presented by the grand jury yesterday, one reading a charge of selling 1,500 pounds and another 1,100 pounds at twenty cents. There is great doubt among Boston dealers whether the bill passed by the U. S. senate yesterday to continue in force the government control by limiting the price will be of benefit.

One argument by a senator was that unless there is federal control, sugar will advance to practically prohibitive prices, but the public wants sugar, and the board is doing it out in as small quantities as they can, without creating a riot. If the ban was lifted and twenty cents that would not be considered excessive in view of the worry and realization that it is really amusing when it becomes known that storekeepers who are reputed to be lawless are so disoriented that the owners cannot be prosecuted unless they try to get more than the government rate.

EXPERT HERE ON MATTER OF THE HOSPITAL

Decided Last Night to Apply to Americana College of Surgeons to Send Man.

The first step towards the improvement of conditions at the general hospital in connection with which local physicians had petitioned some time ago for an investigation by a royal commission, was taken last evening at a meeting of the hospital commissioners at which the members of the municipal council and Doctors White and Rowley, representing the physicians, attended.

On the suggestion of Doctor White it was decided to apply to the Americana College of Surgeons for the services of an expert on the matter of hospital administration to go into the conditions of the local institution and submit his recommendations to the hospital commission.

SOMEWHAT BETTER YESTERDAY ON L.B.D.N. STOCK EXCHANGE

London, Dec. 13—Conferees in Downing street on international financial problems and the definite statement that the payment to America of interest on loans to the Allies had been postponed three years created a better feeling on the stock exchange today, where quotations on most of the securities improved. French exchange also eased slightly, but American exchange did not respond. The market was less wild and the feeling in exchange circles were more confident.

Perhaps Today Will Announce About Tariff Commission

Ottawa, Dec. 13—It is reported that a statement will be made today as to the decision arrived at with regard to the tariff commission. The matter was discussed yesterday by the government and it is believed that the majority favored a commission, because Sir Thomas White's budget speech this year laid everyone to expect it. There was a feeling, however, that such a commission could not possibly make a thorough report before the next session of parliament and it was even urged that, in view of the British action regarding a navy, it would be well not to commit the government to a naval policy for the next session. It was also urged that it would be wise to keep all controversial topics for the next session and that no franchise acts should be introduced because no election would be held.

THE COAL RESTRICTIONS

Washington, Dec. 13—Regional directors of railroads were given authority last night by Director-General Hines to remove restrictions on the use of light heat and power derived from coal as soon as the fuel situation warrants. They also were authorized to restore train service removed, or curtailed to meet the coal shortage due to the miners' strike as soon as possible in the various regions.

British Buying Coal Mines of Norway

Christiania, Norway, Dec. 12—The Norwegian coal miners in Spitzbergen have been sold to a British company for $200,000. The sale was subject to the approval of the share holders.

HOPES FARMERS WILL TURN OUT THE GOVERNMENT

Principal of Queen's University Scores Borden Administration in Canadian Club Speech

Hamilton, Ont., Dec. 13—Rev. Dr. Bruce Taylor, principal of Queen's University, Kingston, in an address before the Canadian Club here last night, scored the dominion government for its treatment of the soldiers in connection with civil re-establishment. One thing he decried was that the government had neglected to give the returned soldier a year's training.

Referring to the success of the U. F. O. in Ontario, he said he hoped the farmers would make good. He also expressed a hope that the farmers would turn out the present federal government.

MONTREAL GAZETTE NAMES BAXTER FOR CABINET PLACE

Sees Him After Climbing Over File of 'Patriotic' Ottawas

Montreal, Dec. 13—As Ottawa dispatch to the Gazette says: "The rebuilding of the cabinet remains the chief problem before the government. New Brunswick is becoming impatient under a government in which it has no representation. Unfortunately the 'patriotic' party deal in that province cut a blight on the Conservative party as disastrous as the potato blight was in the Irish potato field."

Mr. Baxter has many qualifications that fit him for federal politics and would make a creditable representative for New Brunswick in the dominion cabinet. If he comes he will contest St. John city, one of the sitting members retiring to make way for him. It is scarcely possible that there will be many additions to the cabinet before the new year.

MINISTER OF MILITIA

Sherbrooke, Que., Dec. 13—That the train collision which occurred near Millville on Thursday morning, causing the death of Martin H. Booth and J. B. Buchanan, was entirely accidental and due to the fact that the engine of the switch engine was not occupied at the time of the impact.

Temporary repairs to the hull of the steamer were immediately effected, but they were insufficient to keep out the water coming through the damaged port lights and rivet holes.

Decided Last Night to Apply to Americana College of Surgeons to Send Man

The first step towards the improvement of conditions at the general hospital in connection with which local physicians had petitioned some time ago for an investigation by a royal commission, was taken last evening at a meeting of the hospital commissioners at which the members of the municipal council and Doctors White and Rowley, representing the physicians, attended.

On the suggestion of Doctor White it was decided to apply to the Americana College of Surgeons for the services of an expert on the matter of hospital administration to go into the conditions of the local institution and submit his recommendations to the hospital commission.

It was explained by Doctor White that the college had available several of these small cost, whose business it was to go into the matters pertaining to hospital management and who were authorities on the standardization of these institutions. He spoke of several cases where their work had borne fruit, quoting particularly the case of the new hospital at Vancouver.

GREAT SCARCITY OF SCREENINGS

Winnipeg, Dec. 13—There will be no more screenings available for either eastern or western Canada until the end of January at least, and in any case, the additional amounts available out of the remainder of the 1919 crop will not be large. This was the evidence arrived at at a conference held this afternoon in the board of trade room. The meeting had been called by the live-stock branch at Ottawa and Mr. Bannister, on behalf of the branch, presided. Representatives were present from terminals, elevator companies, and farmers' organizations, both east and west. It has developed that the demand both east and west is much greater than anticipated.

WRIT AGAINST PRINGLE

Ottawa, Dec. 13—Senator Ross of the Fort Francis Pulp and Paper Company, has taken out a writ against the paper controller, R. A. Pringle, K. C., the minister of Justice, and the Manitoba Free Press, which from its nature is of a most important nature, not alone to the Fort Francis Company, but to the Dominion at large.

The writ, which has been issued by Messrs. Pringle and Guthrie, will raise the question as to whether or not the Dominion war measures act is now in force. There have been different views expressed upon this question, and as to who is right now is a matter of judicial determination.

ASK RECOGNITION BY CONGRESS OF IRISH REPUBLIC

Washington, Dec. 12.—Advocates of freedom for Ireland, headed by Justice Cohan, of the New York Supreme Court, appeared before the House foreign affairs committee today to urge passage of a bill by Representative Mason, Republican, Illinois, to authorize appointment of diplomatic and consular representatives to "the republic of Ireland."

In the delegation were Frank P. Walsh, of Kansas City, Bourke Cochran, of New York, and others, who have been active in seeking diplomatic recognition for the provisional government headed by Eamon De Valera, who arrived here yesterday to confer with Irish leaders from all over the country.

Representative Mason said it would not constitute a complete recognition, but simply show the willingness of congress to do its part to that end.

Justice Cohan told the committee that his delegation spoke for the majority of 20,000,000 Americans of Irish descent and was well organized and firmly supported by its constituents.

The first speaker to oppose the bill was James S. McGraw, a Pittsburg member of the Reformed Presbyterian church. He declared that while a "certain faction" in Ireland was trying to establish a republic, there was great division of opinion there. The Irish republic, he said, could not be considered a de facto government under international law.

George Waldron, of Baltimore, head of the Free Press Defense League, said that "there doesn't exist in the eyes of the world" advocates of Irish freedom in this country, he said, had "imported an assumed president of Ireland to stir up a dissension against Great Britain and foster a feeling of sympathy for Ireland that it is a very dangerous proposition."

Referring to Chairman Porter's warning that religious questions would not be considered, Waldron said it was well known that there was only one religion represented by those who urged passage of the bill.

Edward M. McFadden, president of the Ulster Society, of Pittsburg, a native of Ireland, said the line had come to put aside hyphenism and get back to pure Americanism.

Referring to the Casement revolutionary movement in Ireland during the war, Mr. Lenon declared his conviction that if the Sinn Fein element had been able to establish an independent nation prior to or early in the war it would have gone on the side of Germany. "And everything that comes out of the war," he continued, "indicates that there was an understanding between German-Americans and Irish-Americans in the United States. Not a majority, but many."

Declaring the whole spirit of today's hearings was anti-British, Mr. Lenon said he had before the committee, and proached the problem from the wrong angle. "If the time has come to strike this way," he declared, "the first thing to do is not to send a minister to Ireland, but to withdraw your ambassador from the court of St. James."

A statement by Robert Watson, a Scotch Presbyterian minister of New York, opposing the bill, was put into the record by Mr. McGraw.

George L. Fox of New Haven, Conn., another witness opposing the bill, began his statement by quoting from Senator Lodge, chairman of the foreign relations committee, who he said told him in private conversation last December that the United States "had no business" interfering in the Irish question.

Eulogizing Great Britain as the friend of the United States, the speaker got into trouble with the committee, when turning to Mr. Walsh, he said the British government was doing all it could to win the war, "while his man was thinking to help Germany."

In the commotion which followed the statement, Representative Mason made himself heard above the hoots of the crowd and interposed a sharp objection to reflections on any witness before the committee. Representative Kennedy, Republican, Rhode Island, temporarily in the chair, reprimanded Mr. Fox and pounded for order at the same time, but the crowd got out of control again when a spectator shouted: "And he shouldn't lie about a citizen of the United States."

With frequent interruptions and shouts of disapproval, Mr. Fox then proceeded to compare the situation in Ireland with that of the southern confederacy during the Civil War. Great Britain and the other powers, he said, withheld recognition from the confederacy even after it had held the union armies at bay for four years, while recognition was asked for Ireland, "although it never had an effective army."

Denying Mr. Walsh's statement that the British school system in Ireland had been abandoned, the speaker said the Irish were receiving the same school funds as are England and Scotland, but fail to make use of them by appropriating locally as the other parts of the empire do. He charged that while only one voter in 850 in England and Scotland is illiterate, the ratio in Ireland is one to eight.

Mr. Fox also ridiculed statements that "governing classes" oppress Ireland, and dwelt at length on what he termed the "governing classes" of Ireland, and dwelt at length on what he termed the "governing classes" of Ireland, and dwelt at length on what he termed the "governing classes" of Ireland.

URGENT ERECTION OF MODEL TENEMENTS BY CITY COUNCIL

Suggestion Made at Meeting of the Local Council of Women

The executive of the St. John local council of women at its meeting last night heard gratifying reports of Rosebud day for the Children's Aid home and decided to hold a meeting next month at which matters of public health and housing and city welfare might be discussed.

It was heard of the penalties which it is possible to inflict on parents who neglect their children, but was told, also, that the neglect might be the result of previous causes which had altogether disheartened the mothers, and the suggestion was made that the city should be asked to erect desirable tenements for housing the poor.

Mrs. E. Atherton Smith, the president, was in the chair and Mrs. Aldridge of the Serbian relief fund, was a welcome visitor.

The date on which the National Council annual meeting should be held in St. John was decided upon as June 22 and following days. It is about twelve years since the National Council met in St. John.

It was agreed that the drinking fountain should be insured for the time it is in storage. Mrs. F. B. Patterson to have charge of the matter.

Mrs. W. Edmond Raymond gave an excellent report, as financial committee.

RECEIVED $2,577. At a meeting of the St. John Children's Aid Society, last night the president, A. M. Boring, announced that he had received a check from the St. John Local Council of Women for the sum of $2,577.27, being the proceeds from "Rosebud Day."

A resolution was passed thanking the ladies for their efforts on behalf of the children. A resolution was also passed in favor of the establishment of a juvenile court in this city and asking the city to provide $8,000 for its maintenance.

Mrs. T. N. Vincent in an address advocated that the common council consider the matter of erecting model tenements to relieve housing conditions. She reported that J. K. Kelley, solicitor for the S. P. C. A., had informed her that a fine of $100 or two years' imprisonment could be given to mothers who neglected their children.

Mrs. J. W. V. Lawlor reported on the National Council meeting in Hamilton, Mrs. Aldridge, who left today for England, gave an address on her visit to Canada. Mrs. E. A. Smith spoke on the need of a juvenile court. The work of Mrs. W. Edmond Raymond on the vocational committee was highly commended. MORNING NEWS OVER THE WIRE. When Miss Myrtle Corey, of Corey, Queens county, N. B., was found in her room in her boarding house in York street, Fredericton, yesterday, in what appeared to be a trance, it was thought to be a case of the "sleeping sickness." It was very difficult to awaken her. Physicians held an examination but said there was nothing alarming in her condition.

WESTERN MONTE CARLO. Chance-Loving Americans Are Flocking to Cuba.

New York, Dec. 13.—Cuba to become the Monte Carlo of the western world? Are prohibition and the anti-gambling laws to create a tremendous southward exodus of thirsty and chance-loving Americans?

In an effort to answer these questions the Rev. Dr. Guy S. Inman, though wishing to say "no" to both, cites the state department as authority for the statement that already 50,000 Americans have asked for passports to spend the winter season on the island.

Dr. Inman today appealed to the Inter-Church World Movement to enlist church organizations in a campaign to prevent those who want to drink and gamble finding a southern way out.

Leopold Doza, Cuban Consul-General here, denied that the island was becoming a Monte Carlo.

"Racing is attracting many Americans to Havana this season, as usual," he said. "There is betting on the horses, as there is in New York, with the difference that in Cuba the government protects the betters. It is legal in Cuba to buy a cocktail. In New York, according to the papers, you sometimes can buy a drink, but it is not legal."

THE WEBER CASE. After the prosecution was finished in the case against William Webber, charged with having the ingredients and apparatus in his possession for the manufacture of liquor, a charge laid against him for keeping liquor in his possession for the purpose of selling it. Both cases were postponed until Wednesday afternoon.

Inspector Merrifield told of getting the search warrant for the residence of the defendant and also of taking some of the liquor to M. V. Paddock to be analyzed. Inspector Kerr told of taking the liquor from the defendant's residence, November 18. Inspector McAluish gave evidence to the effect that the capsules on the bottles bore a raised impression of a bunch of grapes.

The case against George Danford, charged with having liquor in his possession for illegal purposes, was postponed until Wednesday afternoon.

A DYING GOVERNMENT.
The Ottawa correspondent of the St. John Standard sees the approaching end of the Borden government. HALIFAX TO HAVE A WOMEN'S CLUB

Fairrell House Purchased For Purpose and is Now Being Prepared

(Halifax Echo.)

At last Halifax, teeming with modern business women, students, teachers, men bank clerks, secretaries, Halifax in its host of progressive women, is now a Women's Club, run on a business basis, and along the lines of the men's clubs of today.

For the last few years with its on-rushing events, the need of some such organization has been greatly felt. Business women with homes in the city were most fortunate, those who found it necessary to join the great army of boarding or lodging house seekers, were at a great disadvantage. A business woman must have social recreation; a regular diet of moving picture shows, cafeteria to provide meals; third, to rent rooms in the club and later on to absorb other houses in the vicinity for renting purposes.

Membership is, of course, necessarily limited, and the conditions of membership are good standing in the community as to reputation and character. The club will start with a membership of about 100 and a rush of applications is expected as soon as the building is in operation. The regular membership fee will be $10 per year or $50 for life membership and for women outside the city who come in to shop and wish to enjoy the privileges of the club an annual fee of $5.

A Rest Room.

One of the features of the club rooms will be the rest room which will be fitted up with comfortable chairs and lounges and will be in every way restful and beautiful. In connection there will be a library and reading and writing room where silence will be the rule. Ample telephone accommodation will be provided and, best of all, the little female frills which bother the boarding house keeper because of the owners' desire to launder at home, may be laundered at the club house by paying five cents an hour for use of the electric iron.

Another feature which will appeal to women is the establishment of two large recreation rooms where members may entertain their guests, men or women. In the summer weather the beautiful grounds and lovely trees at the rear of the club house will be a source of unalloyed pleasure with its blooming flowers and "well groomed" grass.

Breakfast, lunch, dinner and afternoon tea will be served in the cafeteria and the aim is not to have an endless variety of menu, but good, well cooked, well served meals.

Not only the women but the men of the city are interested in the club and are planning to help out in the canvass for stock selling to take place later on. The club shows every promise of being a tremendous success and Halifax has the distinction of being the first city in the dominion to form a women's club along the same lines as the men's clubs of large cities. In fact, it is a distinct triumph for the women of Halifax and for Halifax itself.

This club is absolutely non-political and non-sectarian and discussions upon such subjects by members of the club are "taboo." It is aimed to make the

Famous Old Recipe for Cough Syrup

Easily and cheaply made at home, but it beats them all for quick results.

Thousands of housewives have found that they can save two-thirds of the money usually spent for cough preparations, by using the well-known old recipe for making cough syrup at home. It is simple and cheap but it has no equal for making results. It takes right hold of a cough and gives immediate relief, usually stopping an ordinary cough in 24 hours or less.

Get 2½ ounces of Pinex (50 cents worth) from any druggist, pour it into a 16-oz bottle and add plain granulated sugar syrup to make 16 ounces. If you prefer, use clarified molasses, honey or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup.

Either way, it tastes good, keeps perfectly, and lasts a family a long time. It's truly astonishing how quickly it acts, penetrating through every air passage of the throat and lungs—loosens and raises the phlegm, soothes and heals the membranes, and gradually but surely the annoying, spasmodic cough, hoarseness and bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, known the world over for its healing effect on the membranes.

Avoid disappointment by asking your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with full directions and don't accept anything else. Guarantee to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Toronto, Ont.

club a bond of union between its members and within its precincts all are to meet on the common ground of fellowship, sinking all differences of religion, politics, pedigree or position.

BLUE GEESSE ELECT OFFICERS.

Robinson, retiring most loyal gander, held the chair, and the officers chosen were—Most loyal gander, W. H. White; supervisor of flock, G. H. Tapley; custodian of the goslings, L. W. Nickerson; guardian of the nest, F. E. Flewelling; keeper of the golden goose egg, Fred W. Fowler; welder of the goose quill, R. D. Fudge.

DEVONSHIRE'S GREETINGS TO BOY SCOUTS OF CANADA

Inspiring Message as The Great Season Draws Near; The Local Boys

THE BOY SCOUT.

The following is a special message from His Excellency the Duke of Devonshire, Chief Scout for Canada, to the Boy Scouts of the Dominion, which has been especially written for, and will appear in Canadian Boy for December, the official organ of the Boy Scouts Association of Canada.

The Duke of Devonshire's Christmas Message to the Boy Scouts of Canada. The question is often asked what will be the future of Canada, and the immediate reply is to point out the wonderful national assets of the country, and the endless opportunities which it provides, but by far the greatest of all assets is the character of her citizens.

The history of Canada in peace and war is a record of continuous success, and it is for us in our generation, that record is worthy maintenance.

One of our great hopes lies in the Canadian boy of today. He inherits a great tradition, he has the instincts and qualities which have made British and Canadian citizens what it is, and as a Boy Scout he has the opportunity of training himself to make the best use of them.

The year now drawing to a close has been eventful, but we can look forward with ever increasing confidence to the chief scout I am glad to have the privilege of wishing every scout a Happy Christmas and a most prosperous New Year.

(Signed) DEVONSHIRE, Chief Scout. Government House, Ottawa, December, 1919.

St. Luke's Troop. The weekly meeting was held on Monday evening. A large number of scouts were present. The programme for the evening included games, drill and a debate on "Resolved that the country boy has more opportunities to get advance in the world than the city boy."

A lively discussion took place and the spectators decided unanimously for the affirmative. Games preceded the lively debate. The scouts decided to form a basketball team and elected P. S. Fred Brennan captain. P. S. Fred Brennan was elected vice captain. They are looking forward to having a few games with the other troops of the city. After this business had been disposed of some other matters were brought up, after which the scouts dispersed. It was learned with great pleasure that Scout Robert Turner was progressing favorably.

Mission Troop. At the regular meeting of the Mission Troop on Thursday evening the boys were instructed in signalling and ambulance work. During the evening ambulance badges were presented to Albert Priest and Donald McLean. Kenneth and George Mowry received the leather-workers' badges. Patrol Leader Thomas Mowry received his ambulance and leather workers' badges.

Twenty-nine scouts are enrolled; seven have passed tenders and Kenneth Shubert is ready for his second class, while others are working hard for theirs. Mr. Lowith has been most kind in helping the troop. He has been with us himself or sent a substitute every night of meeting. On Monday night the troop visited Trinity Troop. A very pleasant evening was spent, also a lot of good ideas in scouting were got by the boys and they came home feeling that scouting was not a mere pastime, but a great brotherhood.

Centenary Methodist Troop. The troop met Friday evening, and after the usual games physical exercise and scout drill was gone through, after which signalling and first aid was practiced. During the evening we had a visit from H. O. Eaman, maritime secretary, who was in the city with J. A. Stiles, the assistant Dominion commissioner of the boy scouts and they are here in the interest of the scout movement, and it is always a pleasure to the boys to have Mr. Eaman visit them when possible. He always has something to tell the boys about scouting, and is always working hard to further their interest. He gave some information about the camp for next summer and he is looking for great things for the scouts in the near future. He also put them through some scout drill and other work which was enjoyed very much.

The troop also had a visit from their chaplain, Rev. H. A. Goodwin, who has always taken quite an interest in the scouts, and the troop. Altogether a very pleasant and busy evening was spent. St. Paul's Troop.

St. Paul's Troop gave an exhibition game of basketball on Tuesday evening. The teams were captained by King's Scout Fred Strong and Rayburn Jack. The first half of the game was refereed by Scout Master Norman Betts, the second half by Ernie Hamond. Rayburn Jack's team won.

A rather startling feature of the game was an accident in which a player broke his leg. Several of the audience left their seats to offer assistance, but the Scouts quickly got splints and bandaged the wounded limb, an impressive feat which was made and the sufferer carried around the room. The audience quickly realized by his smiling countenance that it was only "make-believe" just to demonstrate what the boys could do, if necessary. Another feature of the evening's entertainment was a tug-of-war between the Whites and the Blues, the Whites were victorious.

TWO INQUESTS WERE HELD LAST NIGHT

Verdict of Accidental Death in Steamer Case—Stanley Wilkins Hearing Not Finished

At the inquest held aboard the steamer Lorne last night the inquest into the death of Stanley Wilkins, one of the crew, began at 10 o'clock. It was found that he had met death by fracturing his skull by a fall into the hold. The jury exonerated the captain and officers of any negligence. Coroner H. A. Foster presided and the jury consisted of Messrs. Leonard Adams, Jasper Cameron, Harry Lingey, Jas. H. Bell, the fourth officer, A. Coleman, the third officer, W. Stankiewicz, and others of the crew. The body is now in Brennan's undertaking rooms, Prince street, West, awaiting burial.

Stanley Wilkins Case. Evidence was taken by Coroner Kenney last evening in the inquest into the death of Stanley Wilkins who died at the hospital last Saturday as a result of being struck by a motor car while crossing the street. The jury consisted of Messrs. Frank Watson, Walter Gilbert, Frank Wetmore, John Arnou, George Macaulay and Frank Olive.

Dr. C. M. Kelly said the boy's death was due to laceration of the brain substance and loss of blood. Detective Bidcombe told of seeing the blood stains on the pavement where the lad was struck. There were marks in the road which indicated that the wheels of the car had skidded onto the sidewalk. Q. M. Sergeant Wallace S. Bowens said he heard the car coming while crossing the street and hearing crash turned and saw the boy lying in the street and saw the car skid. A boy named Samuel Wilson said he was on the street with the Wilkins boy but did not see him get off nor did he see him being hit.

Amy Williams, aged thirteen, said she saw the deceased standing in the road and the car approaching him but she became frightened and turned away. When she looked again two men were picking the lad up. She said the car slowed up as it approached the boy. Further evidence will be taken on Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

PASTOR, UNABLE TO LIVE ON $1,000-A-YEAR SALARY, TAKES EAGLEBY JOB

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., Dec. 13.—There is a merry row in the First Baptist church in Deacon because the pastor, Rev. Howard J. Kingdon, whose salary as pastor is $1,000 a year, has taken a job in a local hat factory.

OPERA HOUSE PROGRAMME IS OF MUCH MERIT

New Bill Pleases Large Audiences and Affords Good Entertainment

The new vaudeville bill in the Opera House last evening proved to be a delightful blending of comedy, acrobatic feats of unusual merit, tuneful and well rendered musical selections, patter and intelligent and difficult feats by dumb animals. People whose demands are not too excessive could not help but think favorably of it. The entire programme is well staged and affords good wholesome entertainment.

The second episode of "The Midnight Man," which is featuring James J. Corbett, former heavyweight champion of the world, proved interesting. The skill which he demonstrates on several occasions gives the patrons an idea of his former pugilistic powers and the key to his acquisition of the world's title. The plot of the serial is beginning to be woven and will undoubtedly hold interest.

Following the motion picture Mertens and Arena appear in a skilful and amusing acrobatic act. They are well trained and clever acrobats and perform some new feats, which made a big hit with all. They have a trained dog which participates in the performance and adds considerably to its attractiveness.

Hurst and De Vars followed with a unique skill entitled "The Millinery Shop." The act is an original one and out of the ordinary seen on a vaudeville stage. It was well acted and proved one of the hits of the evening.

The Musical Farshleys are well named. They entertained the audience with many difficult and catchy airs on the xylophone. Their selections were well received and they were accorded liberal and prolonged applause.

Joe Reeves made quite a hit with his comic songs and "Timmy," a story in song" topics. He is a real good entertainer and in addition is exceptionally clever at burlesque. He was forced to respond to several encores.

The dancing act of Stepp's Comedy Dog and Monkey Circus. This act is one of merit and will be greatly enjoyed by all who see it. The dogs and monkeys are well trained and perform some very clever feats. It is quite unusual to see dogs take repeated back flips to say nothing of some of the other things they did. This programme is one well worth seeing. It will be repeated today and Monday.

Vegetable Artillery In Grocery Store

Newton, Dec. 13.—Popping beans, exploding corns and a small fire in the grocery store of the E. E. Gray Company, caused such excitement in the square in Newtonville that a large number of people gathered to see what the Reds had begun sessions of the "stove league."

Business for the day wasn't well under way. The clerks were in the store. The kindling beam was first seen by a woman customer. She signified her discovery by screaming. Before the clerks could connect with the fire alarm the beans began to pop and spill.

SAYS REPORT ABOUT SCRAPPING MUCH OF SYDNEY PLANT ABSURD

Montreal, Dec. 13.—Referring to recent despatches which to the Canadian Press from London containing statements attributed to Colonel Grant Morton of the "fact that a large part of the Sydney plant of the Dominion Steel Corporation at Sydney was to be scrapped and some $10,000,000 spent in extensions and renewals, George Coverhill, member of the executive committee of the steel boards yesterday characterized the reports as "perfectly ridiculous," adding that much of the plant had been renewed in the last three or four years at great expense.

As to the future policy of the corporation, Mr. Coverhill said that it would be controlled entirely in Canada.

Hopeless Tangle Over Trial of Former German Emperor

Efforts to Bring the Kaiser to London So Far Unsuccessful

Financial Matters in Empire Capital—General Seely and the Gallery — The Dardanelles Report— House of Commons Loses Some of Its Appeal to Spectators — Chatty Bits About London

(From Our Own Correspondent.)
 London, Nov. 20.—The visit of the law officers of the crown to Paris has not so far succeeded in advancing arrangements for the trial of the ex-Kaiser. Official legal opinion here is as a whole still hostile to the attempt to make the ex-Kaiser amenable to an international court, and the demand for his trial is said to be pressed mainly by those politicians who made the question a chief plank in their platform at the general election. So far as the other Allied and associated governments are concerned, their respective views, I am told, remain what they were when the question was last considered by the supreme council of the peace conference. The United States government is still of opinion that it is inadvisable to try the ex-Kaiser in London or anywhere else, while those continental jurists with whom the law officers have again been conferring say that after the most exhaustive researches they are still unable to discover any legal means of getting him to the bar of justice. In a general way there is no doubt here, or on the continent, or in America, about the ex-Kaiser's blood guiltiness, or as to his meriting any punishment that might be inflicted on him, but the difficulty is that the legal pundits find themselves confronted with obstacles which they are unable to overcome, and which leave the question of the proposed trial involved in a hopeless tangle. In short, the law officers, I am told, have advised the government that those who formulated the charge against the ex-Kaiser have made it difficult, if not impossible, to found upon it a demand for his extradition, such as all events, as Holland would be likely to comply with.

The Bank Rate.
 Feeling in the city is very strong about the bank rate. And it is made worse by the persistent rumor that any advance may be expected. It is understood that the reason that dictated the action by the Bank of England in advancing the rate was the desirability of assisting the currency exchanges and checking the disposition to gamble on the stock exchange. Nowhere is it more clearly realized than in the city that an improvement in our rates of exchange is urgently desirable, and that anything likely to result here in the sort of debacle recently witnessed in Wall Street should be checked. But the commercial view is that the bank's action does neither of these things, but in fact precisely the reverse. While heavily increasing the national burden through increasing the government's interest on loans, it encourages people to sell out of gilt-edged securities in order to try a flutter in speculative investment. It is asserted that the bank's action was not taken on any government initiative, but the cynics are remarking that it nevertheless plays powerfully into the premium bonds camp.

The Dardanelles Bungle.
 The final report of the Dardanelles Commission has been issued at last. It is a fascinating document, still though it deals with almost ancient history. Few will be able to read without emotion the splendid despatch in which Sir Ian Hamilton describes the magnificent fiasco of Suva Bay. He declares that in spite of urgent affairs elsewhere he found it difficult to take his glasses off the advance of the English Yeomanry, the manner of which was enough to thrill any man with British blood in his veins. Whatever anyone may have to say about Sir Ian Hamilton as a soldier, he found it most know him best in the field esteem him most—he will stand out as the finest stylist the British army ever produced. As to the findings of the distinguished commission over which the new Master of the Rolls presided; it is what might be expected. It may all be summarized in a word or two—a rash and ill-considered venture hastily undertaken without adequate preparation or sufficient strength, and starved afterwards. The Secretary for War is blamed by the commission, who also criticize various staff officers, while Sir Ian Hamilton is not altogether commended in all particulars. The fact that even the man in the street knows now, however, is that we might have won right through and shortened the war by many months had the coup been delivered with adequate strength by land and sea simultaneously and without first "putting the wind up" the Turks. It was a gallant enterprise in conception and execution foolishly bungled.

The Channel Tunnel.
 The deputation in favor of proceeding immediately with the project of a Channel tunnel to France was quite well pleased by the prime minister's reception. Mr. Lloyd George was able to recall that, at the time when our repugnant military big-wigs turned the proposal down last, he had been enthusiastically in favor of it. And, of course, he is more than ever in favor of it now. Possibly the war office may take the same view—now that the grand emergency is passed in which the tunnel is likely to be of the slightest use from a purely military point of view. That would be quite typical of the war office. The cost is estimated at about thirty-four millions, about twice what it would have cost in time to be used in the great war. And seeing that the Admiralty, thanks to Lord Fisher, realized the importance of concentrating in the North Sea, one cannot forgive the war office for failing to appreciate that the Channel tunnel was, from the same obvious point of view, just as important.

Not Interested.
 There is a very remarkable falling off in the public interest manifested in parliament so far as admission to the public galleries is concerned. Once upon a time the crush to obtain admission to the House of Commons, even on what

EGYPT

FASCINATING FAR-AWAY EGYPT

WITH ITS CARAVANS AND CAMELS AND ITS PICTURESQUE ARAB TRADERS INSISTS ON BEING REGULARLY SUPPLIED WITH the press gallery considered an off night, was remarkable. Members were plagued with applications. But it is not so now I understand. And this is the more notable since the public galleries are now thrown open to both sexes. Until a little while ago the attendance in the public galleries at Westminster was swelled mightily bringing out the "house full" by whole battalions of overseas soldiers, who were desperately keen on seeing the famous British House of Commons in action. But these gallant warriors have now almost all departed home. And the result is that the House of Commons can no longer compare with the Empire, for instance, where the Russian ballet is nightly bringing out the "house full" by whole battalions of overseas soldiers. FEWER THINGS LEFT IN CARS OFFICIALS SAY

Whether Because of Increased Living Cost, Prohibition, or Memory Courses, Articles Forgotten on Trains Fewer

Although the "lost and found" columns of the newspapers still seem to be doing a fairly thriving business, railway officials say that not nearly so many articles are now being left in the cars as used to be the case. They attribute this to the fact that, because of the high price of things in general, people are taking better care of their possessions and some are inclined to think that the regulations applying to the drinking of liquor on trains have some little influence as well.

It used to be that the rooms where articles found on the trains were left until claimed by their owners were filled with a fairly wide variety of things—umbrellas, walking sticks, hand-bags, gloves, books, parcels and other articles. Now a small corner of the room will hold all that is left in a month. Occasionally, of course, something of value is left behind but it is soon called for and claimed.

When the tinkle of glasses containing something more than ginger ale used to be a feature of travel in the smoking compartments and dining cars, some of the passengers were liable to forget almost anything, but this is now but a dim memory of the past—or at least supposed to be, and there seems to have come a development of the faculty of remembering. Some of those who used to use the corkcrew for the purpose of which it was created, while traveling, used to be somewhat hazy as to whether they had left the article they sought upon the train or not. They would remember having had an umbrella or a walking stick when they got on, but could not say whether it was with them when they got off.

When a case of an article lost is reported it is always traced by the department in charge of this end of the railway's work. Very often it is turned in to this department before the owner calls for it so that it is there when he arrives, and they depart happy in repossession. But according to local officials the number of inquiries after lost articles is lessening, and it may be ascribed to the fact that the scarcity of liquor or some of the memory courses now in vogue.

UTILIZATION OF FISH WASTE

The creation of an extensive new industry in Canada and an increase of more than twenty-five per cent in the value of the annual yield of Canadian fisheries may result from special inquiries conducted by the Council for Scientific and Industrial Research into the utilization of fish waste. The annual amount of this waste for both the Atlantic and Pacific coasts is approximately 200,000 tons, and the research council estimates that the quantity of solids annually thrown away, comprising chiefly fats and proteins, amounts to at least 75,000 tons which, if subjected to appropriate treatment, should be worth $10,000,000 at prevailing prices, or about one-quarter of the total annual yield of the fisheries of Canada. Further, the oil contained in the waste, if separated and purified, should be worth on the market as much as $2,000,000. "The utilization of this waste," the council says, "will be of imperative urgency in the very near future. Even now there is a very serious deficiency in the world's supply of food, including specially fats. It will take twenty years at least to restore the annual supply to what it was before 1914, and, therefore, any source of protein and fat at present untapped should, if it is at all industrially feasible, be made to contribute its quota of these indispensable nutrient compounds. The proteins so obtained would, mixed with other foods of nourishing, give a product which, as stock food, would enhance the supply of meat of various kinds, beef and pork, while the fat could be employed to the extent of its supply in the production of the cheaper and commoner kinds of soap for which so much of more valuable fat is used today."

appropriated to carry out necessary demonstrations. A private company in Canada, however, has been so impressed with the findings of the research council that it has raised the necessary capital and will now conduct its own experiments at Canso.

boards. Is it symptomatic? Or have the increased railway fares anything to say in the matter.

Rats in Piccadilly.
As one result of the suburban rat hunt the West End is now subjected to a veritable plague of rats. They have migrated from the suburbs to the West End, and in the neighborhood of Piccadilly the extent of the invasion assumes very serious proportions. The hotels and restaurants are suffering much from the plague, and so are many of the shops and private houses. Even new flats are not immune from the pest. The police state that after the night life of the circus dies away the rats are all over the place in the early hours. This rather suggests that next time there is a big rat crusade the neighboring areas will have in self-defence to join in. But there are real difficulties in the way of a rat hunt in Piccadilly, unless the Dick Whittington tradition can be revived. A general investment in cats might have some effect, though the usual pampered West End cat would be no match for some of the monster rats now on the prowl. The curious thing is that specimens of the old black rat, the original rat inhabitant of this country, which was supposed to have been almost killed off by the hordes of invading brown rats from Eastern Europe, are now quite common. It suggests a black rat renaissance.

Connie Ediss Back Again.
Miss Connie Ediss is back in London after three years' absence, due to being caught on tour the other side of the world by the war. She was rapturously welcomed home again at the Criterion, where she appeared in a new farce with the irrepressible Mr. Cyril Maude. "Lord Richard in the Pantry" is the title of this diverting piece, in which Miss Ediss as a Cockney cook falls in love with Mr. Maude as Lord Richard disguised as the butler. Naturally, the fun is fast and furious, and most agreeably healthy and clean, through innumerable comic situations. The farce is adapted from Martin Bwayne's novel. Miss Ediss talks Cockney with all the old charm, and acts delightfully; while Mr. Maude as the titled butler is simply perfect. A very agreeable play to watch after a pleasant dinner party. The curtain falls at the end on a very unexpected denouement. Contrary to the expectations of the pit, the fears of the stalls, and the hopes of the gallery, Mr. Maude does not marry Miss Ediss. He declares his passion for the wealthy widow, mistress of the household where they are both employed, and as the curtain falls the cook sees the butler kissing their mistress, and Miss Ediss ejaculates, "Lor love a duck!"

London Thrills.
A friend tells me that he has discovered how to get better thrills than the cinema can furnish without the stuffy atmosphere or the necessity of paying for admission. For some time he has been living almost next door to a big central London fire station. In the evening after dinner he fills his pipe and mounts guard at the window. At intervals during the night the bells tinkle in the brigade office, the red lights over the swing doors light up, he hears sudden thuds, as the burly firemen slide down the pole from their rooms, a mad scamp of feet, and, in about two minutes or a minute and a half, open fly the doors. Then with a shout that the cinema can not at present get at all, and a realistic roar that is equally impossible in a film, the motor fire engine rushes forth swaying and rocking, the red lights sparkling on the firemen's brass helmets of pure Greek design, the men clinging to the machine as it swerves round the corner while they struggle into their tunics, and away she goes into the unknown hazard! It certainly has its points. Sometimes curiosity moves him to sally forth and inquire of the station attendant. Then he gets the real professional touch. "Aye! A pretty good blaze yon! You could toast a nice bit of bread there! Oh! about four miles off! No! Police wouldn't let you near! No thanks! Never smoke 'em! Good-night!"

Dash It!
These memory systems are certainly very wonderful devices. There can be no doubt about the excellent effect of their training on the average mentality. I traveled homeward the other night on the district railway with a gentleman who is a very enthusiastic disciple of one well-known system. He is a parliamentarian and no doubt wanted to cure that absent-mindedness which is proverbially the fault of politicians.

Fair America.
The ability to behave reasonably in public vehicles is some test of real citizenship. Somehow the amenities of the train, the tram, or the 'bus bring out the true character. Your social hog is never more hoggy than when he or she finds himself or herself up against the communal interest. The profiteer is deservedly detested as guilty of the grossest and vilest crime—hoax of greed at the general expense; and the traveler, whether in a continental train or a suburban tram, who endeavors to be more comfortable than others at the expense of the comfort of others, is guilty of the same anti-social vice. Applying this criticism to the amenities of the London traffic just now, after careful observation over a long period, one is driven to a strong indictment of the middle-class people. Time and again I have seen East End charwomen behave with charming consideration, particularly to old folks and wounded men. A crippled service friend tells me that he rates getting on a 'bus in the Mayfair neighborhood, simply because Mayfair will insist on standing to make him be seated. But heaven help the old or the infirm who come up against the crowds of richly clad and usually over-fed suburban dames who are "out shopping."

And apparently these women, whose instincts are almost carnivorous selfishness, are ubiquitous. This week I was on top of a 'bus coming down the Strand. At the Savoy a fashionably-dressed fat American woman of about thirty-five, who ought to have been in her automobile, shouted out, "Make him stop for me, say, make him stop right here!" Someone asked the conductor to stop the 'bus. Not until the 'bus was absolutely still did that lady attempt to move from her seat right in front of the top of the 'bus. Naturally the 'bus started again before she got further than the top of the stairs. And then she slung the conductor in choice American.

Russian Refugees in London.
It is estimated that there are now nearly as many Russian refugees in London as there were at one time in Belgium. They are in various quarters of the city, but are mostly of a good class, some belonging to noble houses. All are practically penniless, and pathetically beg you to give them something to do. They tell the most harrowing tales of their adventures and hairbreadth escapes. Rarely do you come to one who has any belongings or who is wearing clothes that fit him. The men seem peculiarly sad and broken, but the women take things more philosophically, and give the impression of being grateful for their lives. Although some of them have been here only a few weeks they make a good attempt to speak English. They seem to have no plans. Their homes have been burned, their property confiscated, and the majority of their relatives shot. Various enterprises are being arranged to give them a little temporary help. But their plight is all the more desperate because of their class.

Furs and Feathers.
It used to be understood as a canon of feminine good taste that no really well-dressed or discerning lady would wear at one and the same time furs and feathers. And there was certainly much to be said for the rule because the combination of fur and feather is, I believe, an anomaly unknown to nature. But one cannot avoid noticing nowadays that many ladies who are apparently "in the swim" of fashion, and whose manners would presuppose a certain standard of taste, are wearing both ornaments. As first one was disposed to label these women by the convenient term "trousters," that designation is made to cover a multitude of vulgarities and social solecisms nowadays. But in some of the most correct and smart fashion periodicals illustrated plates are to be seen which seem to hold a candle to this particular Mephistopheles. So perhaps it is "quite all right."

Women just love This dainty watch

With all the accuracy for which the name "Waltham" is world-famous, the Waltham Convertible Bracelet Watch has, in addition, an exclusive feature which recommends it to all women.

It can be worn with the bracelet, ribbon, strap, brooch or chain—whichever way Dame Fashion may dictate. And whichever way it is worn, its marvellous accuracy remains the same, because it is especially adjusted for changing positions. Despite its small size and delicacy, it is strong and sturdy. It will give many long years of good service as a watch, while being easily adaptable to all changes of fashion.

skilled apiarist, and replenished his melliferous flocks by wild swarms enticed from the forests. The honey he strained and bottled, and it was sought of him by messengers from all the islands.

"Orchard and garden beyond the house gave Valencia and Mandarin oranges, lemons, figs, Guinea cherries, pineapples, Barbados cherries, sugar-cane, sweet potatoes, watermelons, cantaloupes, Chile peppers, and pumpkins. Watercress came fresh from the river."

"Cows and goats browsed about the garden. No king could fare more royally than this Swiss, who during twenty years had never left the forgotten little island of Fatu-hiva."

"His house, set in this bowery of greenery, of flowers and perfumes, was airy and neat, whitewashed both inside and out, with a broad veranda painted black. Two bedrooms, a storeroom in which he sold his merchandise, and a workroom, sufficed for all his needs. The veranda was living-room and dining-room; raised ten feet from the earth on broadfruit-tree pillars, placed on stone, it provided a roof for his forge, for his saddle-and-bridle room, and for the small kitchen."

"Grellet had innumerable books in French and German, all the great authors old and modern; he took the important reviews of Germany and France, and several newspapers. He knew much more than of history past and present, of the happenings in the great world, art and music and invention, finances and politics. He could name the cabinets of Europe, the characters and records of their members, or discuss the quality of Reszke's, though he had heard neither. Twenty-two years ago he had left everything called civilization; he had never been out of the Marquesas since that time; he lived in a lonely valley in which there was no other man of his tastes and education, and he was content."

"Learn to say 'No!'" exclaimed the moralist.

"Yes," protested the kind-hearted grocer. "But I'm tired of saying it every time anybody asks if I can sell them a pound of sugar."—Washington Star.

A DWELLER IN THE SOUTH SEAS

was introduced to Monsieur Fran-Grellet, a Swiss, writes Frederick in "White Shadows in the South Seas," who had lived here for nearly twenty years, and who during that time had never been farther than a few miles. Not even Tahiti was a few miles from him. Since he arrived at the age of twenty-four years, he had contentedly in Omooa.

After we had chatted for a few months he invited me to be his guest, so came a resident of Omooa until such as chance should give me passage to my own island. "Twenty years before my host had planted the trees that enveloped his home. With the Swiss farmer's love of order, he had neglected nothing to make neat, as nature had made beautiful, his surroundings."

"I learned agriculture and dairying on my father's farm in Switzerland," said Grellet. "At school I learned more of their theory, and when I had seen the gay cities of Europe I went to the New World to live. I was first at Pecos City, New Mexico, where I had several hundred acres of government land. I bought grape-vines from Fresno, in California, but the water was insufficient for the sterile soil, and I was forced to give up my land. From San Francisco I sailed on the brig Galilee for Tahiti. I have never finished the journey, for when the brig arrived at Tahiti I left her and installed myself on the Eunice, a small trading schooner, and for a year I remained aboard her, visiting all the islands of the Marquesas and becoming so attached to them that I bought land and settled down here."

"Grellet looked about him and smiled. "It isn't bad, hein?" "It was good. From the little cove where his bathhouse stood a road swept windingly to his house through a garden of luxuriant verdure. Mango and limes, breadfruit and coconut, pomme de Cytiligo-pears, cardinet and chestnut, there, orange and papaya, banana and mulberry and sandalwood, ton, the hard ebony, and rosewood, the rose-apple with purple tassled flowers and de-

Increase Your Life Insurance?

A policy on your life may do much that you intend to do—if you live. It may pay off the mortgage, supply food and clothing for your family, keep the children at school and prevent a forced sale of your other property.

It may be all that is left of your life work—to keep you in comfort in your old age.

But—your Policy must be large enough.

The Twenty Payment Life

Our new up-to-date policy provides—

1. That premiums will cease in 20 years.
2. That dividends will be paid during the 20 years, and afterwards.
3. That if you should be totally and permanently disabled before age 60, all premiums will be cancelled, and a monthly income paid to you.
4. That such monthly payments will not be deducted from the policy at your death.
5. That after 3 years or more you may take a paid for policy not requiring further premiums.
6. That the policy cannot lapse while a cash value exists; that the policy is indisputable after one year; that you may reside or travel in any part of the world or engage in any occupation without affecting your insurance.

(There are many other valuable privileges.)

An Immediate Estate

The great advantage over any other form of investment is that a small percentage paid yearly creates immediately an estate of $5,000, $10,000 or more.

These active, progressive years of life in which you are earning the most money are the years in which premiums can be more easily met.

Twenty years is a convenient period and premiums spread over that length of time are moderate and easy to handle.

THINK FARMERS ARE HOLDING BACK

Have Christmas Prices in Mind — They Wanted 90 Cents For Eggs Today.

The opinion was expressed in the country market this morning that farmers were holding back supplies for the Christmas trade and that this was the reason why flocks were not so plentiful as usual today. Prices ranged high on poultry and the expectations are that they will continue so unless there is very soft weather with a glut in supplies for the holiday market. It is believed there is no scarcity of turkeys through the country, but that the desire on the part of the farmers will be to get as strong prices as possible for them. As has been the case for the last few weeks, eggs took a jump this morning with the arrival of people from the country districts who demanded ninety cents a dozen. They had been over through the week. Butter sold at sixty-five cents a pound, while prices on meats and poultry ranged as follows: Turkeys, several cents; geese, sixty cents; chickens, forty-five to fifty-five cents; ducks, sixty cents; fowls, thirty-five cents; beef, twenty to twenty-five cents; lamb, twenty-five to thirty-five cents; veal, thirty to thirty-five cents a pound. Venison and moose meat are now off the market.

Robert S. Sime is Re-Elected President of Travelers' Ass'n

Keenly Contested Election — The New Brunswick Vice-President and Directors — Commercial Men's Excellent War Record.

Word was received in the city this morning from Halifax telling of the victory of Robert S. Sime of this city in the contest for the presidency of the Maritime Commercial Travelers' Association. The vote is said to have been the largest ever polled in the history of the association and this and the fact that Mr. Sime was chosen head of the commercial men by a very narrow margin is indicative of the interest that was shown in the election. The other nominee was Geo. D. Ellis, also of St. John.

The balloting was carried out by mail, the members sending their votes to Halifax. The poll closed yesterday afternoon. Joseph H. Pritchard was elected vice-president by acclamation, as were also the directors for New Brunswick, W. R. Stewart, Ralph Fowler and W. J. Wetmore, all local men.

Both Mr. Sime and Mr. Ellis have shown an active interest in the work of the Travelers' Association and are both popular amongst their fellow members. The work that has been carried out during the war by the association in general and by Messrs. Sime and Ellis has raised the organization higher than ever in the estimation of the general public. Their latest and perhaps their most outstanding success in this line was the assistance which they rendered the committee in charge of the Soldiers' Joy Day celebration in August. On that day the knights of the grip gave the returned men an evening's entertainment which was crammed from start to finish with the hospitality and good cheer which is recognized as one of the characteristics of the traveling men.

Mr. Sime, who was president for the last term, is the representative in this district for the Guelph Carpet Company and Mr. Ellis handles the products of the Ogdish Flour Mills.

NEW STEAMER ARRIVES

The Granville III., a new steamer owned by the Y. Steamship Company, arrived in port yesterday afternoon. She is to replace the Granville II., which was sold some time ago to a United States company to carry men and equipment to Labrador. The new vessel was built by the Howe Construction Company of Meteghan River and was launched on Oct. 3. She is 100 feet long, 22 1/2 beam and 9 feet depth. She came across the bay yesterday in four hours under low pressure. In her trial trip she made twelve knots an hour for four months elapsed from the time the contract was let until she made her maiden voyage. She is 184 tons gross and 68 tons net register. The new steamer has good freight and passenger accommodations. She is a neat looking craft and was greatly admired by many shipping men this morning. Captain B. S. Collins is in command of the new steamer and on her first trip to this port was accompanied by his brother, Captain C. W. Collins, who is manager of the Valley Steamship Company.

The co-operation of advertising patrons is requested in the direction of getting "copy" into the business office on or before 4.30 p. m. on the day previous to publication. Very often the receipt of a large advertisement or even regular changes after that hour serves to dislocate the regular work of getting the paper made up in time to catch the mails—and not infrequently such ads. are at the last moment left out. This situation is not of service to either advertiser or our readers and we, therefore, request that copy be received in the business office Not later than 4.30 p.m.

CORSICAN TO HAVE MANY PASSENGERS

Government Conductresses Going Over to Bring Out Maids For House Service

The steamer Corsican has a full passenger list for her sailing, which was to have taken place today but which is expected will not be until tomorrow. It is hoped that she will be able to reach England by Christmas. During the last day or two a large number of people have arrived in the city from United States and western points to take passage on the steamer.

Among those sailing on her this trip will be Messrs. Eleanor Taylor and Frances Biden, conductresses for the government in its scheme of bringing maids for house service in Canada. They expect to have a party of between sixty and ninety on their return, to be distributed at various points in the dominion from which quite a brisk demand for this class of help has been entertained at the Y. W. C. A. here the last few days, while others who have been there and who will sail on the Corsican are Mrs. Bessey, of Los Angeles, Cal.; Miss McGowan, of Seattle; Miss Gann, of Toronto; Miss Gibson, of Hull, and Mrs. Cathey, of Vancouver.

It was said later that the Corsican would sail this afternoon.

CROSSED RHINE JUST YEAR AGO

Anniversary of Important Event — Canadians Marched Past Currie and His Staff in Downpour of Rain — German Policy Toward Them

A year ago today was an event of interest in the history of the Canadian corps overseas, a happening which had been eagerly anticipated by all ranks for some time—the crossing of the Rhine. They marched across the bridge from Bonn, one of the famous university centres of Germany, to Beule, on the other side of the river, in a downpour of rain. The programme called for dress to be without greatcoats, so that after various hills on the way, the men were well soaked through by the time they reached the saluting base which had been erected on the bridge for General Sir Arthur Currie and his staff.

It was a grand and imposing sight from the Allied viewpoint but the splendour was greatly lessened by the disagreeable weather. For days the two divisions of the Canadian brigade, arrayed in occupation, the first and second, had been marching through Germany with the banks of the Rhine as their objective. According to the terms of the armistice an outpost line was to be established a few miles beyond this river and it was supposed to be reached upon a certain date. At the close of each day's march, maps were eagerly scanned to figure how much farther there was to go before the Rhine was reached, until finally the day came for the triumphal crossing and this was an event long to be remembered by those who participated in it.

The Germans took it coolly enough, some of them most indifferently, to outward appearances at any rate—they did not stand and cheer, of course, as the troops swung through the streets of Bonn, but regarded their coming with smiles. At heart, however, they felt keenly and there were times when their feelings got the better of them. They were unable to display very much hostility because our troops were in control, so many of them went to the other extreme and treated those billeted upon them with especial kindness, not because they felt so kindly towards them but because they deemed it better policy.

He was formerly a member of the 20th Battalion and since his return home has been on the staff of the C. A. P. C. Mr. and Mrs. McNeven will be passengers on the steamship Pretorian sailing for their former home in Glasgow, Scotland, to spend Christmas.

It has been decided that the best way to prove the value of pure bred rams is to help every sheep raiser, who has not previously used a pure bred ram, to use his own flock for demonstrating the value of this practice. Therefore the dominion department of agriculture will grant to bona fide applicants who comply with the above mentioned regulations a sum of $5 annually, for two years, for each pure bred registered ram. No individual sheep raiser shall be permitted to receive premiums for more than four rams. Colon LaFortune, the last survivor of a Quebec family of centenarians, and doubtless the oldest lumberman on the continent died at Port Dover, Ontario, last week in his 102nd year. Mr. LaFortune came to Norfolk in 1836 with four brothers and a sister. Another brother remained at the home down in Quebec. His sister died at ninety-eight, a brother, Fred, at 108, and the other three all went into the middle nineties, except one, of whom Colon was wont to observe: "He died young, had only ninety-two years." During his first winter at Port Hope, LaFortune, then eighteen years of age, felled 400 giant pines four feet or over to fill a government order for masts. He assisted in getting them to Big Creek by oxen, where they were floated down to the bay, and during the following summer taken to Montreal in a raft. It took months to make the trip. The stalwart lumberman and river driver shot the Lachine Rapids six times on that trip. It is said that once was enough for the most daring of modern years.

THE PROBLEM OF BUILDING COST

An Honest Day's Work for an Honest Day's Pay The Solution

(American Architect.)
More firmly convinced than ever that only through the stabilization of the cost of labor and by the adoption of certain economies that will make for increased production can the cost of building be materially reduced, architects and builders interviewed by the American Architect this week, generally agreed that there soon must come a further breaking away from many existing stereotyped methods of operation. The decided opinion was that if the workman is persuaded to assume a more interested attitude in his work and endeavor to fully co-operate with his employer for the good of the organization, that real today. But the question is how is it going to be financed?

HOUSEHOLD NECESSITY

"An honest day's work for an honest day's pay will do more to relieve the housing situation than all the political propaganda arising out of the cry of rent profiteering, about which we have heard so much in the past six months. I fear rents will be increased next spring and that they will rise with the corresponding cost of maintaining property. I cannot understand why the workman doesn't understand that as a rent payer, in the final analysis he pays the freight." If construction is to be tied up by strikes how is the housing problem to be solved? Labor's present programme makes it extremely difficult for capital to enter the building field. Education may help the laborer to see his mistake, but that is a slow process. If he doesn't sooner adopt a different attitude toward his work no one can estimate the damage that will result to industrial progress.

economies can be made in many directions.

Unless this condition is reached, unless workmen employed in the construction of houses endeavor to provide better efficiency, combined with increased output, and fully realize their responsibility not only to the community but to themselves, there can be no hope of an improved housing situation within the coming months. In the New York district it had been hoped that with the final signature affixed to the contract between the Building Trades Council and the Building Trades Employers' Association, agreeing upon a wage scale for 1920 that there would come an era of peace and unprecedented building activity. No sooner than this was accomplished, however, than all plans were knocked into a cocked hat by the announcement of the Iron League Erectors' Association that it did not intend to abandon the open shop. This association, alone of all the trades in the building industry, has persistently fought attempts to adopt the policy of the closed shop.

There remains to be seen just what effect this independent action will have on building operations projected in New York which, it is estimated, will be over $10,000,000. It is a decidedly disturbing development, however, for under the 1920 building contract just signed union men employed on building operations were non-union men are working are permitted to strike.

Architects have been appealed to with the hope that a solution can be found. The erectors' association has written to members of the architectural profession asking aid in restating their attitude toward the open shop by the insertion in all contracts for the erection of structural steel work of a labor clause. Not only does the new agreement provide for 1920, but a clause has been signed providing for a 1921 wage schedule under the following terms:

"Should the cost of living materially change, upon five months' notice from the Building Trades Council or the Building Trades Employers' Association, given prior to Jan. 1, 1921, the wage scale for the calendar year 1921 shall be re-opened and readjusted."

Speaking on the subject of increased pay and lessened working hours one prominent New York architect stated that the workman on the job does not seem to realize that the man who buys the house pays for the increased cost of production. "Home building under such menacing difficulties," he said, "threatens to come to a standstill. There was never more work in our office than are extended to the readers of thousands of whom are Policyholders in The Manufacturers Life Insurance Company.

The year just closing has been one of unprecedented success. Not only has the new business been greatly in excess of that of any previous year, but the payments to Policyholders by way of dividends and maturities have broken all previous records.

Thirty-two festive seasons have come and gone since The Manufacturers Life was first incorporated. The Manufacturers Life is now more than a Life Insurance Company. It is a national institution, built on service to its Policyholders.

Although the season is one of gladness, we are not unmindful of the fact that many homes would today be bereft of any comforts had it not been for the wisdom of the head of the family in carrying adequate insurance in The Manufacturers Life.

At some future date, there is going to be a vacant chair at your family table. The wants of the season will be the same then as now. Are you going to ensure these comforts to those dependent on you, or leave the matter to chance? You can provide for your loved ones in a better way than by a Monthly Income Policy with The Manufacturers Life.

LARGEST HOTEL IN CANADA PLANNED

Information has been received at Grand Trunk headquarters, Montreal, that Canada will have the largest hotel in the Dominion. This hotel will be in the Lake of the Bays district of the High-Lands in the rehabilitation work of the 'Bigwin Inn'. The site selected is a beautiful island, two and one-half miles long, half a mile wide, and having a series of sandy beaches jutting out into the waters of the Lake of the Bays. Construction has been completed and the hotel will be opened during the coming summer. It will have accommodation for 600 guests. A novel architectural plan has been adopted, there being a series of buildings instead of one large central block. The main dining hall is built in Venetian style, its wide veranda overlooking the waters of the lake. This building is situated in a sharp curve of the lake. The hotel will seat 600 people. Also on the lake will be a music and dancing pavilion and the boat house, similar in design and construction to the main dining hall, will be a great social hall which will be given up to indoor amusements of all kinds. Railroad authorities state that the opening of the Bigwin Inn will mark a notable forward step in the development of Canadian summer resorts.

SAYS CARICATURE OF JEWS SHOULD CEASE

Never as in Fiction or on Stage, Rabbi Levi Says.
(Boston Globe).
'There is no longer any excuse for the absurd monstrosities which books and the stage offer as representative of the Jewish people,' said Rabbi Harry Levi while speaking on 'The Jew of Fiction vs. the Jew of Fact' at the Sunday morning services at Temple Israel, Commonwealth Avenue. Rabbi Levi continued: 'The Jew of fiction was never the Jew of fact. Always he was a caricature, born ignorant, the child of prejudice. When Shakespeare drew Shylock there wasn't a Jew in England, nor was there a Jew in Malta when Marlowe wrote his 'Jew of Malta'. Besides the Jew of the stage had to satisfy the intolerant, bigoted standards of the audience. 'But the ghetto is no longer a reality. The Jew is in the world. People see him, meet him, and if they will, they know him. 'Jews are not angels, neither are they devils. They are just as other people, with the virtues and the vices of their neighbors, sometimes with the vices their neighbors have taught them. There are bad Jews, but bad Jews are no more typically Jewish than are bad Christians Christian. There are no Jewish jails and the proportion of Jews behind the bars is no greater than the proportion of those of other faiths. We want the truth about the Jew.'

SIXTEEN CHILDREN

Fredericton Mall—The high cost of living does not appear to have any terrors for Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Donnelly of Maple Grove in the Parish of Stanley, and as for race suicide it is evident that they do not even know the meaning of the term. To this worthy couple belongs the honor and distinction of having produced the largest family in the County of York. They are the parents of sixteen children, thirteen of whom are living. The family originally consisted of ten boys and six girls and included but one arrival of twins. Three of the children (including one of the twins) died in infancy and the family now consists of eight boys and five girls. The oldest is thirty-four years of age and the youngest is seven. Five of the sons are located in the province of Saskatchewan where they have taken out homesteads and are making good. One son, a war veteran by the way, and one daughter are residents of Houlton, Maine, and the other six are living at home.
A Coming Event.
A coming event which will interest a large circle of friends is the approaching wedding of Miss Alice Michaud, daughter of Joseph Michaud, of Edmundston, with George Michaud, of St. Alexander, Quebec. The wedding will take place on Jan. 8, at the home of the bride at Edmundston.
Engagement Announced.
Mr. and Mrs. Walter R. Saxe, of Marysville, announce the engagement of their daughter, Dorothy Lillian, to Roy Collins, of Marysville. The marriage will take place at the Methodist church, Marysville, on Thursday evening, Dec. 18, at 7 o'clock.

DAYLIGHT SAVING

(Hastings Chronicle.)

It is encouraging to note that the campaign for the adoption of Daylight Saving is to be continued in the United States. The action of congress in repealing the measure passed two years ago has shown the necessity of popular education on the benefits of summer time. Already surveys by Chambers of Commerce and industrial organizations are in progress in sixteen states to ascertain public sentiment regarding a continuation of daylight saving, and the campaign will be extended throughout the country before next April, according to Marcus M. Marks, president of the National Daylight Saving Association. The movement is under way for permanently exchanging "an hour of night for an hour of light" in Massachusetts, New Jersey, Delaware, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Virginia, Tennessee, Illinois, Ohio, Michigan, Wisconsin, Colorado, Utah, Connecticut, Minnesota and Kentucky.

Proponents of the idea in Massachusetts, 2,800 manufacturers belonging to the associated industries of that state, have reported that a bill will be introduced in the next legislature which will meet in January, and that "it would be supported by a majority in both the senate and the house." New York state for two years has had a Daylight Saving law and, Mr. Marks said, any effort to repeal it would be hopeless, without the help of legislators from New York and Buffalo, most of whom have been found in favor of the law. The months for daylight saving in New York conform to the old Federal statute, from March to October. To have the law uniform, Mr. Marks said, an amendment will be introduced changing the time from the last Sunday in April to the last Sunday in September. The New York legislature's recent action in passing a daylight saving ordinance, it was said, impelled other cities to take similar steps.

"Fifteen of the eighteen mayors of Connecticut," continued Mr. Marks, "recently voted unanimously at a conference in New Haven to initiate campaigns in their cities at once for daylight saving. Hartford previously adopted an ordinance which will be in effect the last Sunday of April next year. Plainfield, N. J., has taken similar action. In Baltimore, Md., a referendum vote showed that five out of six were in favor of it. Cincinnati has adopted it, so has St. Joseph, Mich., and we are getting encouraging reports from Hoboken, Jersey City, Paterson, Trenton, and Camden, N. J.; Wilmington, Del.; Philadelphia, Scranton, and Pittsburgh, Pa.; Richmond, Va.; Chattanooga, 9 J. Memphis, Tenn.; Chicago, Minneapolis, St. Paul, Denver, Salt Lake City, Milwaukee, Louisville and Lexington, Ky."

"It was the intention of the National Daylight Saving Association, following the repeal of the federal law," said Mr. Marks, "to confine its efforts this year to the eastern time zone, but so many cities and towns elsewhere have registered such an emphatic protest against the repeal that we are including the entire country in our movement."

It is quite likely, therefore, that Daylight Saving will be widely adopted by local and state authorities during the coming season apart from federal action. Similar action will probably be taken in Canada and, if the summer time period did not exceed four months, as is now proposed in the United States, much of the hostility to it would be dissipated and the advantages of Daylight Saving would make a wider popular appeal.

Aviators' Indignation Aroused by Preachers' Drinking Allegations

Maynard, the "Flying Parson" when he returns to New York after his flying tour in the south. This time, instead of being acclaimed as a hero, he will be met by a host of questions concerning statements attributed to him by William H. HUN SHIP AT HALIFAX

The German bark Paul lying at Halifax, dismantled, after being battered by Atlantic storms for weeks. The Paul, the first German vessel to enter a Canadian port since the war started, lost the topmasts and twenty-one sails on the voyage. GERMAN PEOPLE NOT CONQUERED

Rev. Mr. Mulligan Says They are Straining Every Nerve to Recoup Their Losses

(Halifax Chronicle)
That the German people do not feel beaten and are straining every nerve to recoup their losses was the startling message of the Rev. Orr Mulligan, who painted a vivid picture of post-war conditions in Germany before the members of the Rotary Club yesterday at noon. Professor H. L. Stewart occupied the chair.
He first said that the people who scoffed at Germany's ability to gain commercial and industrial rehabilitation and to compete with the Allies assumed the wrong attitude, and placed too much confidence in the tales of the starvation of the German people. Even though Germany, through her war and national debts, would be obliged to pay some thirty thousand million dollars, yet the spirit of the people had not been beaten or conquered. This was a tremendous fact, especially as Canadians were apt to be depressed with much more favorable conditions. The Germans felt that they had not been beaten in the field, at that the revolution at home had been responsible for the Allied success. This sentiment was unifying the people.

kindling patriotism; there was a desire to win back what had been lost, a hope of breaches among the Allied Nations. The rejection of the Peace Treaty by the United States had proved a trump card for the enemy. The Germans still were singing "Deutschland über Alles."
Mr. Mulligan told of the way in which Germany was profiting through the lessons of war in practicing thrift and doing without everything that was not absolutely essential. She was depending upon increased energy, increased economy, and the increased knowledge of her people to save the day for her. One important thing was the attempt to cut down the overhead charges of governments. The Germans, said Mr. Mulligan, adhered to the Imperial idea of government, manifestly preferring it to democracy.
He laid particular stress upon German faith in education, their development of it and the excellence of their system. They had safeguarded their scientists and used the best men for the teaching of others. Languages were stressed, particularly Russian, Polish, and Turkish, showing that Germany had her eye on the East. Many soldiers had been brought from the front to the universities.
With regard to raw materials, Mr. Mulligan claimed that Germany would obtain all she needed indirectly from her friends among the neutrals.
In conclusion, he rapped Halifax, the wealthiest city per capita in Canada, for her lack of civic pride and advocated a commercial course at Dalhousie.
"You charge too much admission to this piece."
"But the music, the ocean—"
"The music part is all well enough, but I'm paying my hotel man for the use of the ocean."—Judge.

Pastor Poker-player Accepts Camp Call

Answers Advertisement For Preacher—Thinks He Can Qualify as "No Nabby-pabby Dude" Who Can Play a Good Game

(New York Evening Post.) Many unusual advertisements have found their place in the papers from time to time, but perhaps none of them can claim precedence over a recent one which reads: "Wanted, a minister of the gospel for Athapuskow camp. No nabby-pabby dude preachers need apply." The best part of it is that the profession has not been seen to hold up its hands in horror at the implication, but on the contrary a young Presbyterian minister has come forward who believes that he can fill the bill. He is undaunted by further details sent out by the copper miners of northern Manitoba to the effect that they want a "he-man, who wears a machine jacket and stuffs his pants in his boots, can paddle a canoe, play a good game of poker, and give a good account of himself in a knock-down and drag-out row." Rev. R. Arthur Basham of Columbus, O., possessed of most of these rare accomplishments and ready to perfect himself wherever he is not yet adept, said that he would rather be a Santa Claus to the bunch of miners in that Canadian copper camp than a minister to all the elders in Christendom, and that he did not think the church would fail to supply the kind of preacher wanted. As a circuit rider in northern Manitoba before he went to France as a Y. M. C. A. worker, he had opportunity to know the country well. He can tell stories of times when he had to leave his sled and run on the snow behind the dogs to keep from freezing to death, and he says that one of the happiest recollections of his life is of meeting in the North Country with a Cornell graduate turned cleric. "Many a night I have played chess with him all night, trying to help him forget liquor, and one night it was necessary to knock a man down in a saloon because he tempted my friend with a bottle of whiskey. After that they let him alone."

At the age of eleven years this minister was himself a coal miner in Wales, and he has six brothers working in the mines of Wales at present. Another brother was killed in the world war, in which all of them took part and all were wounded. He believes that something is materially wrong with the spirit of the church today and with the ministers. "The Masons and other fraternal orders are swamped with requests for admittance by returned soldiers, because of the spirit of brotherhood, but the churches are throwing open their doors, and coaxing them to come there, and they won't go. If there was the same spirit in the churches their problem would be solved," he says. "The chief reason I am interested in this mining camp job is because of the opportunities for building up. The common run of preachers are merely holding down their jobs. If 50 per cent of us as ministers were to go on strike at once American Protestantism would not offer in the least degree, but most of us are not willing to admit it." His attitude was apparent in his work in Buffalo, where before going to France he built a theatre every Sunday instead of preaching in his church, and filled the theatre to capacity for every service.

Mr. Basham will be accompanied in his new undertakings by his wife, to whom he was married in France in May.

WHY NOT INDUSTRIAL COURTS IN DOMINION?

(Canadian Finance.) An industrial court and courts of inquiry to examine into special labor disputes are provided for in an act recently placed before the British parliament by the ministry of labor. This industrial court idea is one that has been placed before the British parliament by the ministry of labor. This industrial court idea is one that has been placed before the British parliament by the ministry of labor.

Looking the matter squarely in the face, is there any real reason why men should not submit their industrial differences to an industrial court in the same manner that they appeal to a court of law when a legal decision is required? If a man—whether he be an employer or an employee—wishes to live in this country, he must obey the laws of the land or suffer the consequences. Is it such a big step forward to insist that every man who wishes to participate in our industries—employer or employee—shall submit his industrial differences to an industrial court for decision?

There are a number of changes in the industrial world which have come to stay. It is recognized on all sides that the industry which cannot produce enough to provide a living wage for all employees engaged in it, is an industry which we would be better without. Such an industry has no place in Canadian national life. The right of employees and employers to organize is admitted by broad-minded men. Proper remuneration and proper working conditions are no longer contentious matters in industrial principles are agreed upon by employers and employees—that the industrial court has a foundation upon which to build.

What of the benefits to be derived from such a court? When employer and employee disagree; when the employer institutes a lockout; when the employees go on strike; when whole communities are tied up by sympathetic strikes—who profits? There is a better way to settle industrial disputes—why resort to brute strength? We are all brothers together, our interests are interlocked and we know that co-operation is profitable to all. If our disputes could be decided by an impartial industrial court we would be a step further on the road of progress. The industrial strike is oftentimes a boomerang method of attempting to

CHURCH OFFERS REWARD

Negro Flock Will Pay $250 to Learn Who Hit Pastor With Cobblestone

(New York Times.) Back of the advertisement that appeared in yesterday's newspapers, offering $250 reward for the arrest of the person who assaulted the Rev. W. Spence Carpenter three years in the pulpit of the Bridge street African M. E. church, there lurked a cobblestone and certainty that it will take more than that to halt Mr. Carpenter's war on vice. Several Sundays ago, the pastor stood in his pulpit and preached a red-hot sermon, denouncing those who rented rooms for what the pastor said right out in church were improper purposes. And the next morning there came a letter to the Carpenter home at 182 Dufield street, threatening to "put the pastor in France if he didn't stop that sort of sermoning. The pastor read the letter and went to work on another sermon. The next Sunday the Rev. Mr. Carpenter thundered from his pulpit again. He hurled wrath upon the heads of objectionable landlords; he gave them, as it were, the place where he said they were bound for. On Nov. 28, which was two days later, the door bell of the pastor's house rang. Mr. Carpenter, presuming that it was one of his flock come to call upon him, went to the door himself. A tall man was standing on the steps, and he carried a bundle. Without a word he raised the bundle, which contained a cobblestone, and struck the minister on the head with it. Mrs. Carpenter, a moment later, found her husband unconscious on the floor, with a deep cut over his right eye.

The police of the Adams street station were notified, but no arrests were made. So on Saturday night the board of trustees, stirred by the intense feeling of the congregation, voted to offer the reward.

HON. A. L. SIFTON MAY CHANGE HIS POSITION

OTTAWA, Dec. 13.—All of the staff of the public works department, from the deputy head down, are moving from the western block to the new Hunter building. The one exception is the minister, Hon. A. L. Sifton, who will remain in his present quarters, a position of splendid isolation.

The circumstance is so unusual that it is taken to indicate that Mr. Sifton before long will go to some other department of the government, or elsewhere.

Pity Poor Haroun al Raschid

WHEN Haroun al Raschid of Arabian nights fame wanted to get closer to the people he slipped on an old linen duster and, accompanied by Jacafar, his companion, rambled at night through the streets of old Bagdad listening to many strange and beautiful tales.

Haroun was a lover of the arts—music, painting, poetry and literature. But most of all he loved a good story. He would travel any distance to hear one.

You can afford to pity the old caliph. There was no Cosmopolitan Magazine in his day.

He couldn't stop at the newsstand on the corner and take his adventures home with him. He was obliged to go out and seek them in all kinds of weather.

It is your twentieth century privilege to pay a quarter (you can do that today) and take away with you the best work of the greatest writers and the greatest artists in all the world in the best magazine that it is possible to produce. For that's what you do when you buy November Cosmopolitan, which is now on sale.

WE doubt whether Haroun, in all his wanderings, ever encountered a finer story of friendship between father and son than Peter B. Kyne tells in “Kindred of the Dust,” his newest novel, now appearing in Cosmopolitan.

Fannie Hurst, who writes uncommon stories about common people, never told a better story than “Back Pay” in November Cosmopolitan. It isn't a pleasant story—and it isn't a sermon. When you read it you'll know why Miss Hurst wrote it and why no one else could have written it. There is something of Henry Fielding's frankness about it.

And how Haroun would have loved to have heard Harvey

O'Higgins tell about “The Secret Springs”—the source of every human motive and action—the force that simply makes us do the things at which we and our neighbors marvel.

Kansas, far removed from Bagdad, sent us Dana Gatlin. We can imagine old Haroun sitting wide-eyed and wondering before Miss Gatlin while she tells him the story of the sweet young woman who married a man who simply couldn't be true to her no matter how hard he tried. Yes, the caliph would have enjoyed “Why Do They Marry?”

DO you know what a flange is? Well, it's the raised edge of a car-wheel and it keeps the wheel on the track. Rupert Hughes, in “The Broken Flange,” tells about a girl who wanted to be a flange, but who, at the critical moment—but read the story in November Cosmopolitan!

Compare Haroun al Raschid with Rex Beach. Both would go a long distance for a story, and in November Cosmopolitan Rex went to Mexico. Just imagine fishing in the Gulf of Mexico with Rex, where as he says in “Messing Around in Mexico,” the fish are so hungry that you have to stand behind a tree to bait your hook.

Yes, you can afford to pity poor old Haroun.

For you can, tonight, sit in your easy-chair, under your library lamp, and enjoy novels, stories and adventures that Haroun never even dreamed about.

Meredith Nicholson, John A. Moroso, Jack Boyle, Gouverneur Morris, Arthur Somers Roche, Robert W. Chambers, and James Oliver Curwood are a few other world-famous writers whose tales of moving adventure will vibrate in you the chords of laughter and of human sympathy.

Cosmopolitan for a year makes an excellent Christmas Gift. A handsome card, with decorations by W. T. Benda, announcing its coming will be mailed by the publishers to reach the recipient on Christmas morning. Your newsdealer will be glad to receive your Christmas Gift subscriptions and to forward them to the publishers.

WORK FOR BOYS IN NEW BRUNSWICK IS FLOURISHING

Provincial Advisory Committee Finds Conditions Most Encouraging

The annual meeting of the New Brunswick provincial advisory committee of the Y. M. C. A. on boys' work met yesterday afternoon in the Y. M. C. A. building with the retiring president, Rev. R. Taylor McKim, in the chair, and the largest gathering of members ever known in the history of the committee present.

The report of the executive committee showed the work throughout the province to be in a most flourishing condition. The work is being carried on from eighteen centres and all showed real progress. The financial statement presented showed all bills paid and a small balance carried over.

The officers elected for the coming year were as follows: president, Rev. A. S. Bishop; vice-president, A. R. Crookshank; treasurer, A. M. Gregg; members of the executive, Rev. R. T. McKim, J. E. ### Y. M. C. I. BOYS ENTERTAINMENT

The boys of the Y. M. C. I. gave a very pleasing and successful entertainment last evening at their hall, Cliff street. They started with a floor drill and relay race and, after they had all had showers, the real entertainment started, consisting of an overture by the orchestra, solo by Joseph Moore, recitation by Edmund Wall, piccolo solo by Thomas Began, solo by Arthur Burns, recitation by John Stevens, piano solo by Phillip Dacey and a solo by Cyril Moore. Judge Ritchie addressed the audience and complimented the boys on their excellent performance. All those taking part in the entertainment, with the exception of the police magistrate, were thirteen years old or under. Mrs. Alexander McMillan was the accompanist and the committee in charge was Gerrit O'Neill, John Mooney, P. Killen, E. A. Wall, W. J. Magee and L. O'Neill. Joseph McNaughton presided. The boys are trying to get Prof. Taylor, the virtuoso, to perform at their meeting next Friday.

Had to Go to Bed Headaches So Bad Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills Made Her Well

When your liver gets sluggish and inactive, your whole health suffers. Your bowels become constipated, your head aches, your tongue is coated, breath bad, specks float before the eyes, you are bilious, have heartburn, water-brash, pain under right shoulder, muddy and brown spotted complexion, etc.

Help the liver to resume its proper function by removing the bile that is circulating in the blood and poisoning the system.

Mrs. E. Bainbridge, 20 Maple Ave., Amherst, N. S., writes:—I take pleasure in writing you of the good I received by using Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills for headaches. I was so led I had to go to bed, and could not sit up. A friend told me about your wonderful medicine, and two vials have made me as well as I can be.

Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills are small and easy to take, do not grip, weaken or sicken and do not leave any bad after-effects. Price 25c, a trial at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

The Freight Handlers' Union met last evening but nothing of any importance took place, as the men feel they can take no action of any sort until the conciliation board has met and made known its findings. Routine business was transacted by Edmund Wall, piccolo solo by

ST. MONICA'S HONORS TWO OF OFFICERS

St. Monica's Society met last evening at the residence of Mrs. H. C. Groat and highly honored two of its officers in appreciation of their excellent and untiring services. Miss Amelia Haley, the retiring secretary, received a beautiful bouquet of white chrysanthemums tied with pretty ribbons and a handsome gift. Mrs. D. C. Dearden, in a charmingly worded address, spoke of the sorrow of the society that Miss Haley was retiring from office and highly commended her work during her seven years of secretaryship. Mrs. D. P. Chisholm, the president, was also made the recipient of a special gift and also a bouquet of carnations tied with ribbon. Mrs. A. C. D. Wilson read the address which spoke of the society's appreciation of the splendid work of its president. Though arrangements were completed for the distribution of the Christmas baskets the greater part of the evening was devoted to social enjoyment. The guests numbered about 150 and all were delighted with the programme of music which made the evening pass very quickly. Refreshments were served, Mrs. A. J. Mulcahy and Mrs. Joseph Hildebrand poured the tea and coffee and many of the young ladies assisting with the serving. A hearty vote of thanks was extended to Mrs. Groat for her hospitality, on the motion of Mrs. Richard O'Brien, seconded by Mrs. Bohan.

A very interesting talk was given last night in the Y. M. C. A. to the Trail Rangers Club, by Duncan McIntosh, chief steward of the C. P. O. S. Pre-

Fair dealings, good citizenship, progressive policies are the basic principles of modern telephone management, and in these things the New Brunswick Telephone Company keeps well ahead of the times.

The Great Problems Of Reconstruction

With the return of Canada to Peace the telephone systems of the Dominion are faced with an enormous programme of new construction and delayed maintenance, and in these important matters the New Brunswick Telephone Company has to assume its full share of responsibility.

Reserve equipment normally maintained and necessary to give prompt connection to new subscribers was entirely used up through war conditions, and the accumulated growth of population, together with the after-the-war expansion of business so noticeable on every side, have made telephone demands almost overwhelming.

Only by hitherto unheard of extensions can the existing excess burden of traffic be met and the requirement of the future be provided for. It has taken a large expenditure to enable the Telephone Company to live up to its obligations in the matter of extensions at war prices, and it will take still greater expenditures to meet the growing demand for long distance service which our geographical position and increasing business relations with the rest of the continent necessitate.

Extensions which cared merely for immediate demands would be not only uneconomical but would also call for constant work that would frequently be detrimental to the service. Thus the Telephone Company must plan its work far ahead and its policy must necessarily be founded upon accurately prepared estimates of what the future has in store for each community affected. During the war scarcity of men and materials and the great increase of cost in doing the work necessitated the passing over of a great proportion of the Company's maintenance work. After-war conditions have not reduced costs, so this work can now no longer be delayed because of excessive cost, but must be carried out in the face of this condition. Upon the important task of the preparation of this Company's development policy and the expenditure of large sums of money on delayed maintenance eminent engineering specialists and the Company's executive officers have for some time been engrossed.

Meanwhile construction is being pushed to the limit of men and materials; much has been accomplished this year and every effort is being made to get back to normal pre-war excellence of operation—a task which the whole-hearted co-operation and support of the people of this Province will make easier.

The New Brunswick Telephone Company, Limited

EXECUTIVE OFFICES - - ST. JOHN, N. B.

With its network of lines reaching into every section of the Province the New Brunswick Telephone Company is of necessity a large property holder, with a big stake in the future welfare of the Province. Whatever policy it adopts for the common good must in a greater or lesser degree be reflected in the benefits it derives from its intimate business relations and associations with every community.

Supintendent's Report. The report of the superintendent was as follows: The table of attendance herewith submitted shows that 153 blind persons have been under instruction during the past year, of whom eighty-seven were males and sixty-six females. Of these thirty graduated or remained at home, making the total number registered December 1, 1918, 123, of whom sixty-six are males and fifty-seven females. Of these seventy-six are from the province of Nova Scotia, twenty-five from New Brunswick, four from Prince Edward Island, and eighteen from Newfoundland.

Attendance. The attendance of pupils at the school shows an increase over that of the previous year but it is still far below the average attendance of pupils for many years prior to the explosion as will be seen by the following table:

Table with 2 columns: Date, Attendance. Includes 1913 December 1st, 1914 December 1st, 1915 December 1st, 1916 December 1st, 1917 December 1st, 1918 December 1st.

The falling off in attendance was due in the first instance to the explosion on December 6th, 1917, and since that time owing to the scarcity of labor many of the older pupils have been kept at home to do farm or household work. A reference to our register of pupils shows that there is no decrease in the number of pupils and if all young blind children were attending for school our buildings would not be sufficiently large and you will not be disappointed.
