UNCLAIMED FREIGHT SOLD; YOU BUY BY LOOK OF PACKAGE

An auction sale of the unclaimed freight of the Canadian Express Company was begun this morning and long before the hour appointed for the commencement of the sale the rooms of F. L. Potts were crowded.

In former years this sale has been an event of interest. Articles of expense and rarely have fallen under the hammer and have brought joy and happiness to the lucky bidder. This year the interest suffered no diminution.

It was a laughter sale and packages were worth considerably more than the amount offered. The list of articles ran the gamut of amount of anything from a pin to an anchor.

A shadow of gloom passed over the crowd as the small satchel much the subject of the sale, was opened and the contents revealed. Some were surprised to find more than their money's worth while others smiled good-naturedly at the fruits of their investments, and found disappointment.

(Canadian Press) Montreal, July 28.—The first shot in what promises to be a big legal battle over the harbor improvements being effected by the government at St. John, N. B., resounded through the local courts on Saturday, when the principal contractor deposited $10,000 and secured the issue of an interim injunction against one of the sub-contractors. The absence of the ferry from the river yesterday caused a great deal of inconvenience to Sunday driving parties, who were forced to go up river to Perry's Point in order to cross.

WAGE DISPUTE ON I. C. R. MAY LEAD TO STRIKE

Two organizations representing 6,500 men, practically all the employees of the I. C. R. except the locomotive engineers and the telegraphers, have reached a deadlock in negotiations with the management for better terms and are awaiting word from the grand officers as to the advisability of a strike. Several days ago the committee from the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen members employed on the road decided to await the arrival here of W. G. Lee, president of the brotherhood, before formulating a plan of action following the refusal of the management to meet their request for changed working conditions. There are said to be about 1,500 members of the brotherhood on the I. C. R. A ten days' conference between the representatives of the Canadian Brotherhood of Railway Employees and the management concluded on Saturday and it is reported from Moncton that adjournment was made with General Manager Guitelin and the delegates at loggerheads. The general manager announced that he was going on a two week trip of inspection and that the men need expect to hear nothing more from him during that time. The request was first made eighteen months ago when a revision of the schedules and an increase of twelve per cent. in the wages of a large body of the members was requested. Negotiations have continued over the period and the men point out that although the cost of living had increased since the demands were first formulated, that they will be satisfied at present with the raise asked at the first of 1912. It is understood that Mr. Guitelin advanced an offer of increases to different classes ranging from two per cent. to nine per cent. The two per cent. increase would mean about three cents a day additional, and it was said in Moncton after the close of the conference that the delegates would not accept the small increases proposed or did not agree with Mr. Guitelin as to the amendments he offered to existing rules and schedules. The proceedings ended in a deadlock and future action rests with the Brotherhood executive. A practical joke was played the other day in Washington. A man who has something of a reputation as a wag was passing a fashionable store. There, drawn up, were three or four motor cars, among them a limousine with the chauffeur fast asleep. Evidently the mistress was inside the store. Without a word the wag stole quickly up and, opening the motor car door carefully, slammed it shut. In a moment the chauffeur straightened up. Then he stole a look over his shoulder and saw the wag standing, hat in hand, apparently talking to some one inside the car. "Thank you, yes, good day," said the wag, and bowed himself gracefully away from the door, turning as he did so to look at the chauffeur and say, "Home!" "Yes, sir!" Honk, honk! and off went the car, "home." Where that "home" was, who the mistress of the carriage was or what she did when she came out of the store or what the chauffeur did when he stopped at the door of "home" and found the limousine empty, all that only the chauffeur and the lady know. He—"A nice evening, a nice band and a nice girl—what more can one want?" She—"A nice boy to talk to!"

LITERARY FOLK

"Tolstoy of England" Is Sent To Prison TWICE A BIGAMIST Sentenced on These and Other Counts—Pension to Aged Daughter of Leigh Hunt—Anthony Hope Weaning Vandylke (Times' Special Correspondence) London, July 18—It is rather an odd and none too happy a coincidence that just as we have been hearing from Russia that several of Tolstoy's favorite proteges have gone more or less to the wall as a result of his "English Tolstoy" should have been shown up in court as an out-and-out bigamist for fifteen months' hard labor. The writer in question was known in the literary world here as Charles Granville, though his real name proves to be Hasken—and under that name he wrote and published several clever novels. He was a member of the Authors' Club, and also tried his luck in the publishing business. It was his generous and publisher-folish generosity, many declared—that earned him the title of the English Tolstoy, an alleged he was looked upon as a man of blameless character. Yet Granville, or Hasken, was found guilty of having twice committed bigamy, and of having defrauded two persons of a sum amounting to nearly $20,000. The author-publisher, who is forty-six, was married to Miss Taylor in 1892 and six years later managed to get $10,000 spread, under the name of James Hasken, his first bigamous marriage, his victim a woman of high character, yet Hasken, in court, had the effrontery to declare that he went through the ceremony of marriage while under a drug administered by her, a charge which was disproved up to the hilt. Three years later, he "married" another widow, named Fawcett, in Portobello, Scotland. Mrs. Fawcett had means and Hasken appears to have lived with and on her until last October when he betook himself to Tangier in the company of a young woman. Meanwhile, "the English Tolstoy" had applied to his own wife a check for $7,500 handed to him by a man named Walker in payment for shares in a publishing company which Hasken had launched, and utilizing these funds he seems to have had a fine time on the continent. Tangier he was arrested by a Scotland Yard detective. Hasken was found guilty on all the charges brought. Among the witnesses for the defence was A. R. Orage, editor of the "New Age," who described Hasken as a man of commanding abilities and said that he—Orage—had been the first to christen him the "English Tolstoy."

HAPPY END OF "HAPPY DAYS" FOR R. K. Y. C.

"Happy Days" are over for this year and the 1918 cruise of the R. K. Y. C. will go down in history as one of the most successful and most enjoyable ever held. With the exception of the starting day the weather man was most kind to the yachtsmen and fine weather and good-fellowship joined hand in hand in making the sail such a great success. Everything went smoothly during the week's sail and nothing of a serious nature occurred to mar the merry-making. An interlarding time was spent Saturday evening and Sunday at Sand Point. The first set sail from Hampstead Saturday morning and arrived off Sand Point early in the evening. After everything was made secure the party went ashore, where preparations had been made to receive them. It had been intended to hold a huge bonfire and sing on the beach, but these were called off when it was learned that a picnic was to be conducted nearby and all the valiant and happy yachtsmen hied forth to make a strong bid for the dainties and all that went with them. The annual divine service yesterday afternoon made a fitting close to the cruise. It was conducted by Rev. G. M. Campbell, D. D., and was most impressive. Besides the members of the cruise, many members of the St. John Power Boat Club, who had gone from the city in their boats on Saturday and Sunday as well as many people from the city and the surrounding country, gathered to take part in the service. After a number of hymns had been sung, including I Need Thee Every Hour by a male quartette, Rev. Dr. Campbell delivered a most masterly sermon, which was listened to with rapt attention by all the throng gathered on the grounds. He took for his text Matthew, chapter 12, verse 30: "He that is not with me is against me," and Luke, chapter 9, verse 50: "He that is not against you is for you." The sermon was followed by a short address from Commodore Gregory who, after commenting on the success of the cruise, said: "We had a good, clean week, and I am sure that everyone is well pleased with the outing and might almost be tempted to feel sorry that he is again nearing home. "We have indeed to thank the people who have assisted us in making the cruise most enjoyable, and particularly the Motor Club of Fredericton and the residents of Upper Gagetown and Oroonoko, for their hospitality and the members of the St. John Power Boat Club who came to join us in our service, and I would extend a common invitation for all she members to call and see us at any time." Suffragette Invasion. London, July 26—Many thousands of non-militant suffragettes were on the streets of London this morning in preparation to attend a great service in St. Paul's Cathedral and a subsequent demonstration in Hyde Park. They had turned out to greet at the cathedral the marching columns which arrived from all parts of the kingdom yesterday, whence they had converged on the capital along the five great roads leading to London, which ends at the Mansion House, the centre of the British world. Character is property. It is the noblest of possessions. It is an estate in the general good-will and respect of men.

"SQUEEZING" THE SHORTS IN BLACK FOX BUSINESS

ever cost. Hence, the second and more important class of "shorts." "It is easy to understand, therefore, that the fortunate few who have cubs to sell are "squeezing" the "shorts." So far they are content to close at the modest figure of $17,000, but it would not be at all surprising if a few cubs ones succeeded in extorting as much as $20,000, before matters are adjusted for the season." Picnics on Saturday A thousand people attended the picnic held on Saturday on Partridge Island under the auspices of the Brotherhood of the Tabernacle Baptist church, and the outing was greatly enjoyed. The committees in charge were: Sports—G. Alcorn, F. Mullet, R. McEachern. Transportation—W. Hatfield, H. McEachern, F. Crawford, F. Thomas. Refreshment—J. E. Whitehouse, A. Cook, L. DeWolfe, C. Parent. Ladies committee—Mrs. DeWolfe, Mrs. Taber, Mrs. L. Jewett, Mrs. F. Gray, Mrs. F. Crawford, Mrs. Stockford, and the Misses D. and O. Boyce. The garden party held under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society of St. John's Presbyterian church on the grounds of R. J. Wilkins, Gilbert's Lane, on Saturday, was largely attended and proved highly successful. Games and sports were enjoyed and refreshments were served by the ladies. The annual picnic of St. David's Presbyterian church was held at Roshay on Saturday and proved one of the most enjoyable held in recent years. Under the direction of Sydney O. Watts, of the Y. M. C. A., a long list of sports and games was conducted. Baseball games between teams from St. David's and St. John's churches were played in the morning and afternoon with a win for each team. A novel competition for collections of flowers was won by Miss Somerville and Miss Esther Williams.

OUR "NAVAL" MINISTER

The Standard this morning prints messages which were sent by Hon. J. D. Hazen to King George, to the Rt. Hon. Winston Churchill, to the prime minister of New Zealand and to President Borden. These messages related to the arrival of the Dreadnought New Zealand in Canadian waters. Mr. Hazen went to the King a message of unwavering loyalty, and to the others messages expressing great satisfaction that the New Zealand had been permitted to come to Canadian waters.

It is to be regretted that Mr. Hazen was not in a position to convey to King George, Mr. Churchill and the prime minister of New Zealand the assurance that Canada had a naval policy, which has no naval policy at the present time, the policy of tribute proposed by Mr. Borden and his Nationalist allies having been held up. Not only so, but Mr. Hazen handed back to Cammell, Laird & Company their deposit of $100,000, and thus prevented the establishment of a naval shipbuilding plant at St. John. The cables which Mr. Hazen sent last week were not therefore likely to create a very profound impression in the other country or in the other dominions, even though Mr. Hazen proudly signed himself, "Minister of the Naval Service of Canada."

MUNICIPAL MILK

A writer in Conservation for July discusses the question of a municipal milk department, and arrives at the conclusion that it would be of great advantage to consumers, not only in regard to the public health, but in the matter of cost. It is pointed out that an urban municipality could establish a milk department, with one or more depots equipped with all the apparatus for refrigeration, pasteurization, bottling and sterilization. In addition it could provide containers and vehicles for collection, transportation and distribution, and it would of course purchase only pure milk from dairies approved by its officers as up to the proper standard. The writer in Conservation says: "A municipal milk department as outlined would mean that excessive middlemen's profits would be eliminated, and the public would be assured that all the people, both rich and poor, were getting milk that was clean, pure and fresh, at the minimum cost."

The article from which this quotation is taken is illustrated by one view of a barn and another of a barnyard and well which certainly have a tendency to win converts to the cause of a municipal milk department.

FARMING AND FORESTRY

The vigorous efforts that are being made in the United States and in the Canadian provinces to arouse a deeper interest in the development of agriculture should encourage more of the boys who grow up on the farms, and at least some of the boys who grow up in the cities, to adopt agriculture as a profession. Mr. H. W. Hockaday, industrial commissioner of an American railway, recently advised the young men of Missouri to stay on the farm. He said the railroads were searching the country for agricultural experts to take charge of scientific farm work, and could not get them, although $1000 to $1800 a year salary was offered. He pointed out that the railroads could get all the engineers, just out of college, that they wanted, for a very much lower salary. Hence he said: "Don't desert the farms to go to the city to learn a profession. If you do you will leave a profession to which either you or your children will be very anxious to return in a few years."

Principal Cumming of the agricultural college at Truro tells the same story. He says the demand for trained agriculturists is enormous and that there are in fact more positions than men to fill them.

There is another profession to which more attention should be given by young men, and that is the profession of forestry. There is a steadily growing demand for men with a scientific knowledge of forestry, and this demand will continue to grow for many years. In Canada we have not yet begun to realize the value of our forests, and the policy of waste is still almost universal. Not only do the provinces fail to realize the importance of conserving so great an asset, but the individual farmer does not realize the value of his wood-lot, nor how it may be made to add materially to his revenue, while yet increasing in value as an asset.

RELIGION AND JAPAN

Some very interesting statements concern the future relations of Canada and Japan were made in Montreal last week by Rev. H. H. Coates of Tokio. We hear and read a good deal about Japan becoming Christianized, and it may be that many believe the Japanese are rapidly being converted to Christianity. Rev. Mr. Coates tells a different story. He says there has been during the last decade some conversion ### against Christianity in Japan, as a result of a greater knowledge of the sordid materialism of the western world. The fact is, of course, that there is too little real Christianity in the western world and that some of the religion which masquerades under that name is not likely to impress a people so keenly intellectual as the Japanese. It is not, therefore, Christianity against which there has been a reaction, but a religion which appears to be greatly superior to those oriental religions with which they are already familiar. Rev. Mr. Coates points out that Anglo-Saxons are wrong in being disposed to look patronizingly upon the Japanese, for the forces and ideals which have been fostered for centuries in Japan have been such as to develop a people capable of submitting whatever is presented to them to a searching analysis, revealing its weaknesses as well as its points of strength. In the coming years Canada and Japan must have a very considerable influence upon each other, and it is quite safe to predict that each will influence to some extent the religion of the other. Then there is China, with its hundreds of millions of people, who during the next century will take on a great deal of western culture, and come into closer contact with the western world, wielding an influence which is now but a matter of conjecture, but which unquestionably will be formidable in the time to come. The people of the white race have been accustomed to regard themselves as the elect of God, and the other races as of no great account in the Divine plan. There is likely to be a rude awakening at some time in the future when the east stirs itself, and its people proclaim that they too are the sons of God, and the inheritors of whatever in the Divine plan may belong to this children. They may even insist upon taking their share of worldly things after the manner of such Christian nations as those in the Balkans, and other peoples to whom reference might be made. If all the so-called Christian nations would unite to spread the real principles of Christianity in their own countries, they would then be in a much better position to tender their missionary services to China and Japan, but unfortunately they do not yet agree among themselves concerning that which constitutes the Christian religion. Congratulations to Private Hawkins of Canada, who has won the King's Prize at Bisley. The farmers of New Brunswick will harvest a very good hay crop, and grain and root crops promise a good yield. It will only be necessary for the Mexicans to shoot two or three Americans to bring down upon their country more serious trouble than it has yet encountered. It is stated that over half a billion dollars of American money has been invested in Canada. Between three and four million dollars of Toronto securities were marketed in the United States last year. There has been an unusual number of drowning accidents in this province during the present summer. In the majority of cases the persons who were drowned were said to have been unable to swim. There is, however, too much carelessness even among swimmers. So many warnings one would expect that great care would be taken by those who go in bathing, or go out in boats that are easily upset, but each week provides a new warning along with a tragedy that brings unutterable grief to some hearts.

MORNING NEWS OVER THE WIRE

Rev. Edwin Smith and family left Saturday afternoon for their new home in MacLeod, Alberta. Before their leaving Mr. Smith's congregation arranged a surprise party at the manse. A pleasant evening was spent during which Mr. Smith was made the recipient of a purse of $100 in token of the general esteem in which he and his family were held.

A. A. Tuttle, of Moncton, prominent funeral director, was stricken with a paralytic stroke yesterday while on his way to bring the body of a drowned man to his home. His horse took fright and Mr. Tuttle, in his attempt to control him, was taken with a stroke and today is in a critical state.

On information laid by a negro, Arthur Walker, and certain soldiers, Charles B. Dixon, U. S. immigration inspector, was arrested last Friday by the federal troops in Juarez, Mexico, and, while attempting to make his escape, was shot and fatally wounded. He is now in the military hospital under the guard of federal troops.

At a special session of the county court held at Hampton Saturday the case of John McDonald, aged nineteen, charged with breaking and entering the premises of Mills, Eveleigh, Limited at Sussex on July 15 and stealing therefrom, came up before Judge J. J. Jones and to Speedy Trials Act. He was sentenced to serve two years with hard labor in the penitentiary.

Bar Harbor, Me., July 26.—The town of Mount Desert at a special meeting yesterday decided by a vote of 222 to 18 to bar automobiles from the corporate limits.

PINEAPPLE TAPIOCA

Stir 4 tablespoons of quick-cooking tapioca into 2 cups of boiling water, add 1 cup of sugar, 1 teaspoon of butter and 1-2 teaspoon known their wants, until the tapioca is clear and soft. Stir in 2 cups of shredded pineapple, chill on ice and serve with whipped cream.

A man traveling westward on a through express, one day last week, through his seat in the crowded dining car just after he had ordered his lunch. He went to get something he had forgotten in the Pullman.

When he returned, in spite of the fact that he had left a magazine on the chair in the dining car, a handsomely dressed woman in his place. He protested with all the politeness he could muster, but the woman turned on him with flashing eyes.

"Sir," she remarked haughtily, "do you know that I am one of the directors' wives?"

"My dear madam," he responded, "if you were the wife of my wife I should still ask for my chair."

A story is being told of two tourists in Spain who could not speak the language, and, consequently, had some difficulty in making known their wants. One day they came to a wayside inn and tried to obtain some meat—roast beef for choice. But nobody could understand them.

"What are we to do?" asked one of them despairingly.

"I know," said the other, a ray of hope appearing. "I'll draw a picture of a cow. Then they'll understand."

He made a rough sketch of a cow, put a "2" beneath it, and handed it to the waiter, who instantly smiled to show that he understood, and went off to execute their order.

A few minutes later he returned with two tickets for a bullfight.

"Ten thousand dollars for a dog?" he exclaimed, "he looked up from his newspaper. Do you believe any one ever paid such a price, Maria?"

"Yes, my dear," she replied, "I'm sure I did. I bought an article on valuable dogs, and it speaks of one that was sold for $10,000. I don't believe it."

"It may be true, Maria," she said, "but some of these blooded animals bring fancy prices, and there's no particular reason why the paper should lie about it."

"I know that, Maria. But just think of it—just try to grasp the magnitude of that sum in your weak, feminine mind. You don't seem to realize it. Ten thousand dollars for a dog! Why, Maria, that's more than I'm worth!"

"I know it, Maria, but some are worth more than others."

He said that the delay would only continue for a few days and that the full amount of the dredging called for by their contract would be completed by the end of the year.

Following the departure of the dredge McMartin, an attachment was made by creditors of the dredging company on the towboat Betty D. Deputy Chief Jenkins remained on the dredge McDougal on Saturday night.

E. J. Dineen, manager of the dredging company, said that the McMartin had not been taken away to avoid an attachment and that the value of the property of the company still here far exceeded any claims which might be made against the company. He announced that they would throw up the contract if they could not reach an agreement with Norton Griffiths & Company, the chief contractors.

I. C. R. FREIGHT RATES

Moncton Transcript.—The I. C. R. freight rates continue to be the all-absorbing topic in the maritime provinces. The naval issue has taken a back seat. A good story is being told about the old and the new rates. A farmer from a nearby station shipped to another farmer a calf, and when the person to whom he shipped it, received it, he found that he was dissatisfied, and the shipper said: "Well send it back." He shipped the calf back, but the change of rates had gone into effect in the meantime, and on the return trip, the

THINGS WORTH KNOWING TO THOSE INTERESTED IN THE DRINK CURE

One year ago we opened a Neal Institute treating the drink habit at 46 Crown street, St. John (N. B.), to demonstrate to the public that we had a treatment that would cure all desire and craving for alcohol in three days time. Some few call it a "fake" while others tried it with the remarkable result we cured several scores of men and women. St. John was only one of our sixty branches that we have established throughout Canada, U. S. A., and foreign countries. After running it at a loss for one year we closed our eastern branch as well as several other places where there was a danger of it becoming known that certain prominent people had taken the drink treatment. For the self-same reason we established a central hospital at the Capital City Ottawa some two years ago, where we have every convenience, thoroughly trained male nurses and graduate female nurses for women. Our twenty-two private rooms with electric fans and every modern convenience guarantees to the outside patient comfort and security while taking treatment. While the ride may seem rather long when starting, it is well for the public to know that it is not necessary for a patient to arrive here perfectly sober. Inasmuch as we never cut a patient straight off from liquor. Another feature that adds to taking treatment away from home is the fact that a good long ride after completing the Neal treatment acts as a tonic, the fresh air, change of scenery and the knowledge that when one returns nobody will be a bit the wiser. Remember our fee or charge is $125 out of which we allow you transportation both ways with the understanding that we guarantee to return all money paid if the patient is not perfectly satisfied that all craving and desire for liquor has been destroyed when leaving the institute. If you have a loved one at home who is near and who you speak kindly to him and try and persuade him to take the Neal treatment.

There is no charge should the patient wish to stay with us a few days longer after completing treatment to make sure it is perfectly cured.

THE S. S. YARMOUTH

(Yarmouth Times) The C. P. R. steamer S.S. Yarmouth which has been here at the New Burrell-Johnson Iron Company's wharf for the last six weeks, is now ready for sea and sails in a day or two either for Boston or Halifax to go into dry dock. During the time she has been here she has been fitted with a new funnel and overhauled from keel to truck. Now clean and bright, she is a credit to the C. P. R. and the traveling public will no doubt be delighted with the provisions made for their comfort.

New linoleum and carpets have been laid throughout the ship and paint has been applied to the hull. The hull of the woodwork which was formerly of the mahogany shade and the change is very pleasing. Of course a large portion of the work was still remains white, but there is enough of the grain work to relieve the monotony of an all-white paint. The main entrance, at the head of the grand stairway, has been rebuilt in mahogany and it is really a beautiful apartment. The smoking room is finished in burr oak, presenting an attractive shade of green, on which will appear the company's emblem when finished.

These improvements have not merely been made in the portions of the ship reserved for the public, but they extend throughout. The "dungeon," so-called, the "dory-holes," kitchen, pantry, etc. have all received their share of attention and are models of neatness and cleanliness.

FOXES WORTH SOME $100,000

Sixty-Six Brought Here From The West Today—Not One Lost in Trans-Continent Trip

That the stringency in the money market is not affecting the interest in foxes was shown by a consignment which came into St. John on the Atlantic express this morning. Piled high on the Dominion Express Company's trucks the wire covered boxes attracted a great deal of attention. The little animals with their large startled eyes could be seen blinking off in a corner, apparently confused by the crowds of people after being used to the silences of the Northland.

The shipment is the largest and most valuable which ever came to St. John. It is consigned to the Fundy Fox Company which have their headquarters in the city at Riverside. There were sixty-six foxes in all, each one of them valuable but of the lot the twelve black foxes, which appeared to be the most vigorous of all, were by far the most costly. The whole shipment would be worth not less than one hundred thousand dollars.

The one to whom the credit is due for bringing the consignment so successfully to St. John is Gordon Colwell, a young man of this city, who was sent out by the Fundy Fox Company about March 1 last to secure them stock and has since been all over the west and northwest. Mr. Colwell said that he had gathered the shipment together gradually; some of the animals he had been able to get in the British Columbia but the majority had come from the Yukon and Alaska. A large number had been obtained from the Indians who brought them from the far north in sacks as many as 700 miles. The journey east had taken the last fourteen days and nights without a break but one fox had been lost. This loss was more noteworthy as the weather was very hot through the middle west and a great quantity of ice had to be used to keep the valuable charges cool. Between Winnipeg and Fort William alone a ton of ice was consumed.

The whole shipment of sixty-six foxes will be sent out to the company's farm at Riverside where there are already one hundred animals in quarters.

The Church of the Assumption, West End, was the scene of a very pretty wedding this morning when, at six o'clock Rev. J. J. O'Donovan united in marriage Miss Annie Bona and Frank Keefe of the West End.

GREEKS SIGN A NEW PITCHER

Will Report in Bangor—Riley To Third Base — Joe Tarbell is Robbed of $9

The Marathons have had to undergo a re-arrangement of positions because of the unfortunate mishap to Charles O'Brien, the third baseman, in Saturday's game, when a ball thrown by Dave Morey to catch O'Brien's first base, struck him in the side, breaking two, if not more ribs.

When the team left this morning it was intended to put Riley at third and Woodbury in left field, and another pitcher, again a Harrington, has been secured and is to report in Bangor on Wednesday. This is not "Joe" Harrington, who had been engaged by the Greeks, but did not report. As a result of his course, he was reported to Secretary Farrell and word comes that he has been put under suspension.

Joe Tarbell, the Marathons' sturdy Indian pitcher, is minus his pocketbook containing $9 and some little things. It was taken from his trousers' pocket in Saturday afternoon's game was in progress. He had prepared to put his clothes in his locker.

When O'Brien was struck on Saturday it was said once that he was badly hurt. He was carried unconscious off the field. No doctor could be had and aid was given by two nurses, one of whom, with Catcher Bien, accompanied the injured player in a coach to the Lansdowne Hotel. His condition seemed serious for a time, but he regained consciousness about a quarter to eleven on Saturday night. Dr. A. P. Emery is attending him. He will be out of the game for some weeks, if not all season. The popular player's misfortune is regretted by all and this is shown by the many inquiries made for him.

The Greeks will play the speedy St. Croix team on the Marathon grounds here at 3:15 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

DICKSON WAS HIS OWN LAWYER IN POLICE COURT

Case of Attack on City Comptroller Taken up This Morning

The first hearing in the prosecution of Robert Dickson on charge of assaulting the city comptroller, Adam MacIntyre, was held this morning in police court. Dickson, who said he did not want my lawyer but could handle his own defence. Again and again Dickson had to be told to sit down while Mr. MacIntyre was giving his evidence and on one occasion he took Magistrate Ritchie to task for some alleged trouble he had had with him before.

Testimony was given by Mr. MacIntyre and Edward Chase both of whom described how the attack took place. Mr. MacIntyre also told of the transaction over which it was said Dickson had been brooding for years and in connection with which he fancied he had been unjustly treated by Mr. MacIntyre.

Dickson undertook to cross examine Mr. MacIntyre and seemed very much disappointed at the answers. He made numerous objections and denials and wished to testify at every point himself but was told each time that he would get a chance at the next hearing. The case was adjourned until other witnesses could be present.

THE POLICE COURT

"And what were you drinking?" asked Magistrate Ritchie of a pale-faced youth named Carl Peterson, who was arrested last night on charges of being drunk and carrying a loaded revolver.

"Holland gin, Your Honor."

"Well, you'd better change your medicine and try Scotch portidge for a while. It will help to fill out your face and won't bring you to the police court," was the magistrate's advice. Peterson was fined $8 or two months.

A Union Alley quarrel was aired in court this morning, when a West Indian negro, Darnell Beckelis was before the magistrate charged with using abusive and insulting language to James Graves, who keeps a boarding house there. From the evidence it appeared that Graves did not want Beckelis at his house and told him to leave in short order. Beckelis resented this and voiced his opinions so forcibly that Graves had him run in. He was fined $8 or two months in jail.

Harry Lockhart, who was arrested on a warrant sworn out by Andrew Garnett on June 30, was fined $20 or two months in jail, but as Garnett did not wish to press the suit, the fine was allowed to stand.

One prisoner was fined $8 or two months, and two were remanded, on drunkenness charges.
