MARITIME W. C. T. U. IN ANNUAL SESSION.

Tenth Convention Since Its Organization.

Executive This Morning Elected Committees and Talked of Sending Missionary to Lumber Camps—Reports.

The tenth annual convention of the Women's Christian Temperance Union of New Brunswick opened this morning in the Union Hall, North End, and was well attended, although it is expected that the sessions to follow will be much more largely attended, as quite a number of delegates for one reason or another could not get here in time for this morning's session.

The delegates present were: Mrs. C. A. Lindow and Miss Lindow, St. Stephen, N. B.; Mrs. Henry Wise, Newcastle; Mrs. D. McLeod, Newcastle; Mrs. Cahill, Millstream; Mrs. Troy, Newcastle; Mrs. and Miss Wynan, Lower Millstream; Miss Green, Perth; Miss Ferguson, Campbellton; Mrs. M. F. Hieble, Mrs. Leitch, St. John; Mrs. McLean, Newcastle; Mrs. Howard, Sprague and Miss Dearborn, St. John; and Mrs. Scott, of St. John North.

A meeting of the executive was held at 10 a. m., which was largely attended. The president, Mrs. C. A. Lindow, was in the chair. The singing of a temperance hymn, reading of the scriptures and prayer by Miss McLeod, vice-president, opened the meeting. The business transacted was that left over from the last meeting, routine work, discussion on the appointment of a missionary to the lumber camps and the appointment of an official field organizer. Several committees were also appointed.

The regular session opened at 10 o'clock, with the president, Mrs. C. A. Lindow, in the chair. A hymn was sung, scriptures, 146 Psalm, read by Mrs. D. McLeod, Mrs. Katherine Lent Stevenson, from Boston, was introduced and made a member of the convention. Mrs. Lindow, in a few words, expressed her pleasure in being present at this, the 10th annual convention of the Provincial W. C. T. U.

In answer to the reports of superintendents of departments Mrs. Askor read a report of meetings held at St. John, and a report of Sunday school work sent by Mrs. Bullock. A report of work among sailors elicited some discussion, as it seemed a good deal had been done in this direction, of which adequate report had not been given.

St. John union had been active in the work of the Seamen's Mission, and had contributed $10.00 to the fund. North End had also assisted, and with other unions a committee was appointed to prepare a fuller report for the year book.

Mrs. Troy read an excellent report of the anti-cigarette movement. The petition to the legislature had not met with the desired success, but the work had been carried in in almost every society in the province, principally in the way of distributing circulars, discussing the subject with the dealers and with the boys. St. John Union had given $5.00 to the fund, Newcastle had given $4.00 and altogether quite a fund had been collected.

Members of parliament along with members of the common council had been interviewed. Three fines had been made, and three boys had been under nominal arrest. Another effort will be made next year.

Mrs. Sprague, of St. John, and Mrs. Cahill, of Sackville, N. B., gave supplementary reports. Mrs. Sampson, on giving her reports as superintendent of Fairville work said she had received word from only two societies and that the work seemed to have been neglected.

Mrs. D. McLeod read a report on Scientific Temperance, showing that through the introduction of the Health reader temperance is taught in almost every school throughout the province.

This afternoon—2 p. m., Conference on Press Work and Literature, led by Mrs. Cahill, Sackville.

2:30 p. m.—Prayer. Minutes. Introduction of visitors. President's address. Musical reports of correspondents. Secretary. Report of treasurer. Reports from county presidents.

5 p. m.—Adjournment.

This evening—8 p. m., Reception to delegates and visitors by the St. John Union. Music. Address by Katherine Lent Stevenson, Boston.

All ministers and their wives and those who are entertaining delegates are cordially invited to the reception. Each member is requested to bring a friend.

(Special to the Star.)

MONTREAL, Sept. 5.—The Salvation Army recently opened a branch in Montreal Annex in the North end of the city. Last night while they were holding their service the building was attacked by a mob of windows broken, and both men and women members of the Army badly hurt. Two police present were unable to render assistance.

Deceased leaves a husband, who is a brother of Charles and Humphrey Pickard, and three brothers, Wm. The deceased was about 38 years of age.

THE PEACE TREATY REVEALED TODAY.

Important Changes Since First Announcement—Nations Form Commercial Alliance.

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Sept. 5.—The peace treaty opens with a preamble that His Majesty the Emperor, the autocrat of all Russia, and His Majesty the Emperor of Japan, desiring to close the war now subsisting between them, and having appointed their respective plenipotentiaries and furnished them with full powers which were found to be in form, have come to an agreement on a treaty of peace and arranged as follows:—

Article 1—It stipulates for the establishment of peace and friendship between the sovereigns of the two empires and the subjects and enterprises of other countries.

Article 2—His Majesty the Emperor of Russia recognizes the preponderance of Japan in the empire of Korea, and stipulates that Russia will not oppose any measures for its government, protection or control that Japan will deem necessary to take in Korea in conjunction with the Korean government, but Russian subjects and Russian enterprises are to enjoy the same status as the subjects and enterprises of other countries.

Article 3—It is mutually agreed that the territory of Manchuria be simultaneously evacuated by both Russian and Japanese troops. Both governments are to maintain their troops in the evacuation of their territories being absolutely identical. All rights acquired by private persons in the evacuation of their territories shall remain intact.

Article 4—The rights possessed by Russia in conformity with the evacuation of Port Arthur and Dalian together with the lands and waters adjacent, shall pass over in their entirety to Japan. The properties and rights of Russian subjects are to be safeguarded and respected.

Article 5—The governments of Russia and Japan engaged themselves reciprocally not to put any obstacles in the way of measures which shall be alike for all nations; that China may take for the development of the commerce and industry of Manchuria shall be operated jointly between Russia and Japan at Kouang-Tscheng-Tse. The two branch lines shall be employed only for commercial and industrial purposes. In view of Russia keeping the branch line with all rights acquired by her convention with China for the construction of the railway, Japan acquires the mines in connection with such branch line which falls to her. However, the rights of private parties or private enterprises are to be respected. Both parties to this treaty remain absolutely free to undertake what they deem on expropriated ground.

Article 6—Russia and Japan engaged themselves to make a conjunction of the two branch lines which they own, at Kouang-Tscheng-Tse.

Article 7—It is agreed that the branch lines of the Manchurian railway shall be worked with a view to assure commercial traffic between them without obstruction.

Article 8—Russia cedes to Japan the southern part of Sakhalin Island, as far north as the fiftieth degree of north latitude together with the islands depending thereon. The right of free navigation is assured in the bays of Laperous and Tartar.

Article 10—The Russian male recites the situation of Russian subjects on the southern part of Sakhalin Island and stipulates that Russian colonies there shall be free and shall have the right to remain without changing their nationality. Per contra, the Japanese government shall have the right to force Russian convicts to leave the territory which is ceded to her.

Article 11—Russia engages herself to make an agreement with Japan giving to Japanese subjects the right to fish in Russian territorial waters of the Sea of Japan, the Sea of Okhotsk and the Behring Sea.

Article 12.—The two high contracting parties engage themselves to renew the commercial treaty existing between the two governments prior to the war in all its vigor, with slight modifications in details and with a most favored nation clause.

Article 13.—Russia and Japan reciprocally engage to statute their prisoners of war on paying the real cost of keeping the same, such claim for cost to be supported by documents.

Article 14.—This peace treaty shall be drawn up in the languages French and English, the French text being evidence for the Russians and the English text for the Japanese. In case of difficulty of interpretation the French document to be final evidence.

Article 15.—The ratification of this treaty shall be countersigned by the sovereigns of the two states within 60 days after its signature. The French and American embassies shall be intermediaries between the Japanese and Russian governments to announce by telegraph ratifications of the treaty. The additional articles are agreed to as follows:—

Article 1.—The evacuation of Manchuria by both armies shall be complete within 18 months, the two parties will only be able to leave as guards for the railway 15 soldiers per kilometre.

Article 2.—The boundary which limits the parts owned respectively by Russia and Japan in Sakhalin Island shall be definitely marked off on the sheet by a special litographic commission.

FUREUR IN JAPAN.

GUNSHU PASS, Manchuria, Monday, Sept. 4.—The situation, especially as affecting the newspaper correspondents admits of saying little. The army organ publishes a statement to the effect that a furor exists in Japan and though the news is vague it is the impression here that there are complications abroad hostile to peace. The army's antagonism to recent events makes the form of criticism of the management of the war and also of "Bureaucratic meddling." The soldiers have exhibited wide appreciation of the importance of the peace negotiations but the prospects under conditions such as made public in the agreement outlines as published here promise small amelioration of their burdens and are regarded with foreboding. For days the passing trains have been besieged for newspapers by soldiers at such stations as Kuanching-shu, Gunshu Pass and Kichintun. Otherwise the newspapers by soldiers at such stations as Kuanching-shu, Gunshu Pass and Kichintun. Otherwise the newspapers by soldiers at such stations as Kuanching-shu, Gunshu Pass and Kichintun.

WAR AGAIN IN TEN YEARS.

NEW YORK, Sept. 5.—The Rev. H. K. Yoon, who went to Portsmouth to observe the peace conference for Korea, referring to the outcome of the conference, is quoted as saying that his people are in sympathy with Japan and believed that in ten years Russia would again make trouble. Japan, he thought, let Russia off too easily.

NORMAL SCHOOL'S RECORD.

The Largest Class in Institution's History Began Work Today—Case in York County Equity Court.

(Special to the Star.)

FREDRICKTON, N. B., Sept. 5.—The regular sitting of the York County Equity Court was held this afternoon at Judge Barker presiding. There was but one case before the court. In the matter of the Colten infants, J. H. Barry, K. C., moved for an order to appoint a guardian and for leave to set certain real estate. His honor ordered the appointment of Emma Colten, the mother as guardian and the sale of the property on the entering into a recognizance of $400 sureties, the widow to join in the deed. The guardian is to be allowed the amount asked for maintenance of $120 per year for each infant.

The Provincial Normal School opened this morning. The attendance is the largest in the history of the institution, being 236, of which 37 are males and 199 females. This will probably be considerably increased. The total number was 200. In the French department are 23, five males and eighteen females.

There has been no rise of water in this vicinity.

The non-com officers and men of the Army Service Corps are requested to attend a meeting to be held at their armory this evening. Important business to be discussed.

JAPAN'S SILENCE WORRIES THE WORLD

No News From There For Four Days.

Cable Communication Cut Off—Some Fear Rebellion Has Taken Place—Strict Censorship Say Others.

NEW YORK, Sept. 4.—The mysterious silence of the Japanese government concerning the peace treaty has taken on an almost ominous aspect since it was announced by two cable companies that cable communication with Japan had been interrupted and that the Mikado's empire has been cut off from the rest of the world for nearly four days.

Several wild suggestions were made today in explanation of the strange break in the cables just at the time when the world was waiting to hear what the Mikado would say of the work his envoys had done at Portsmouth.

One theory advanced was that there had been an outbreak in Japan and that the insurgents had cut the wires, or the government had seized them. This suggestion was not received favorably by the cable companies. They thought the cables had been broken by typhoons. Typhoons are getting lively just now, but they are going unusually deep if they are breaking cables at the bottom of the ocean.

The situation has been made even more mysterious by the word from the Commercial Cable Company that Japan could be reached by way of Formosa over the government cable. This line is known as the Low-Choo Islands route. It is owned by the government of Japan.

All privately owned cables running into Japan are cut or broken. It is absolutely impossible to reach Japan over the regular route via Shanghai. The last news from Tokyo was of a very disquieting nature. It told of the anger of the people because of Japan's concessions to Russia. In some of the newspaper utterances cable from Tokyo there was a veiled threat of trouble.

COUNTY COURT.

In the matter of the estate of Oscar Hanson, insolvent, on return of the summons this morning in the county before Judge Forbes, the New Brunswick Telephone Co., creditor, asked for an order to extend the time for the filing of claims by the assignee, W. E. Ewing, be extended. Order granted extending the time to Sept. 10, Stockton & Price for the plaintiff and C. F. Sanford for the assignee.

CIRCUIT COURT THIS AFTERNOON.

Only One Criminal Case on the Docket.

Civil Docket is Made Interesting by Another Trial of Michael Connolly Against the City.

The regular September session of the circuit court opened at 2 o'clock this afternoon with his Honor Judge Landry presiding. The court was to have started at eleven this morning and the court was thronged at that hour but on account of the non-arrival of Judge Landry the opening had to be postponed.

One criminal case will come up at this session. This is the case of the King vs. Moore, sent up from the police court. Frederick Isaacs, an Assyrian pedlar, claims to have been robbed of $38 and assaulted by Edward and Percy Moore on the Loch Lomond Road. Solicitor-General Jones will conduct the case for the crown and Daniel Mullin, K. C., for the defendants.

An interesting civil case which is to come up is that of Michael Connolly vs. City of St. John. Geo. W. McInerney, K. C., and L. A. Curry, K. C., will represent the plaintiff and the record, the city.

This practically a second trial of the original suit brought by Mr. Connolly two years ago against the city and then decided in the plaintiff's favor. This was, however, reversed by decisions of the supreme court of New Brunswick and of Canada.

Mr. Connolly entered into a contract with the city for 320 hours dredging on the site of the McLeod warehouse and for as much more as the work might require. It appeared that no provision was made for the interference to the work at high tide when the water would be too deep for the dredges to work. Mr. Connolly claimed that there was an implied covenant that the city should pay for the time so lost and brought suit to recover $2,000, the balance of the contract and $200 interest. The defence made by the city was that the loss of time must fall on the contractor as no responsibility could lie on account of the action of the tides.

ST. JOHN STAR.
ST. JOHN, N. B., SEPT. 5, 1905.

HALIFAX and THE G. T. P.

Senator Power, of the Nova Scotia representatives in the upper chamber who have been advocating the abandonment of the Quebec-Moncton
section of the Grand Trunk Pacific, advising instead the use of the I. C. R., publishes in the Acadia Recorder an open letter to the mayor of Halifax
defending himself and his colleagues
from the censure passed by the aldermen of that city. In the course of the letter, while at first contending that his position is based on broad Canadian grounds, the senator ingeniously lets it be known what was the real reason for his advocacy. That is because "any cross country road must go near to St. John than does the intercolonial, and must thus increase the handicap which St. John now has over—let us say—Halifax."

Rather a humiliating come-down
from a lofty patriotic position, that.
The value of the shortest road as a transcontinental carrier, the absolute necessity for the lopping off of every superfluous mile of distance and percentage of grade in order to compete successfully with lines running to American ports, the demand of the western producer for the shortest and cheapest route to tidewater all forgotten; all forgotten, save the fact that the new road will bring St. John nearer to the source of the traffic than it is now. More than that, the honorable but very short-sighted gentleman declares he cannot comprehend the attitude of those who take the broader view. "One can understand," he says,
"why a St. John senator or city councillor should advocate the construction of a road which would do so much for his port; but I, for one, cannot comprehend by what intellectual process a Halifax senator or alderman can bring himself to approve of such an undertaking."

The Recorder, discussing the letter, takes a stand exactly opposite to the senator and argues strongly in favor of the new road. But, like the senator, it argues from a Halifax point of view, holding that the Grand Trunk Pacific would be compelled, under the contrast, to use the new line, but would easily evade using the I. C. R. if granted running rights over it and would carry its traffic to other than maritime provinces ports. It does not refute the senator's statements that the new line will lessen the distance between St.
John and the west to a greater extent than the distance between Halifax and the same, but easily eliminates this part from the competition by the assertion that "St. John will have all the traffic it can handle from the C. P. R., and Halifax is bound to be the port of the G. T. Pacific."

St. John papers and people, as a rule, cannot claim to be always and wholly free from sectionalism but in this connection, at least, the interests of this city and of the country at large are identical. What the exporters and importers in western and interior Canada want is the most convenient and cheapest and shortest Canadian route to tidewater. This will always be through St. John in the winter, and until this port's capacity is taxed to its limit, there will be no reason, other than purely sectional, for hauling the traffic a couple of hundred miles farther. And the Recorder, to contrary, the C. P. R. and the Grand Trunk Pacific together cannot, at least for many years, bring more traffic than this port, properly developed, can successfully handle.

THE BRITISH LABOR PARTY.

If an article in the August number of the Independent Review is well founded the British Labor party will exert a strong influence during the impending general election and in the new parliament. The author begins with the statement that "among the Liberal candidates who have won these great victories on the wave of reaction there is hardly one whose return is a gain to the cause of progress." He then goes on to recount the "phenomenal success" of the Labor Representation Committee, with which are affiliated one million trade-unionists. "In everything that gives real strength to a political party, the Labor party is," he says, "the strongest and largest political organization in Great Britain today." There are fifty-two trade-union and Socialist candidates endorsed by
it. He thinks "the future as the progressive party in British politics is certainly assured." He urges the educational value of its programme amid the clamor of traditional and largely futile variances. It will not expect a Liberal government to concede any great measure of reform. But, he says, "the attitude of the labor party to the government would be one of independent, friendly co-operation."

The railway commissioners have discovered that the section of the G. T. P. contract regarding the location of the line at a certain distance from existing lines, is not binding upon the company.
The only hope that St. John will get any of the new transcontinental traffic rests on another section of that same contract providing for the carriage of unrouted traffic to Canadian ports.
The Star has contended that the company will be able to evade this and the decision referred to supports that contention. The contract was made to suit the company and will bind it to do nothing it does not want to do.

But for Mr. Haultain the provinces of Alberta and Saskatchewan would not be in existence. As premier of the Territories, he inaugurated and prosecuted the campaign for autonomy until the government was forced to grant it.
But at the inauguration ceremonies of the new provinces Mr. Haultain was completely ignored. There was no place for him on the programme. Also he is to be passed over when the new governors select their advisers, although he is by all odds the most prominent and capable man in the Northwest.
But he is suspected of being Tory, and those who are launching the new provinces are Liberal statesmen.

INCOMPLETENESS.

Nothing resting on its own completeness.
Can have worth or beauty; but alone
Because it leads and leads to further
Fuller, higher, deeper than its own.
Spring's real glory dwells not in the meaning.
Gracious though it be, of her blue
hours;
But is hidden in her tender leaning Toward the summer's richer wealth of flowers.

Dawn is fair, because her mist fades
slowly
Into gray which floods the world with light.
Twilight's mystery is so sweet and holly
Just because it ends in starry night.

Life is only bright when it proceeds
Toward a goal, deeper life above.
Human love is sweetest when it leads
To a more divine and perfect love.

SPLENDID VITAGRAPH PICTURES.

The Opera House people joined with the farmer yesterday in glad welcome to the rain, which spelled all outside attractions of the holiday left the Vitograph concerns without competition.
The Opera House was packed to the doors both afternoon and evening and the great crowds were splendidly entertained. The Vitagraph people have a lot of new pictures since their last appearance here, many of them of local interest, and are more worthy of patrons than ever before. For an evening of pleasure and information their entertainment is hard to beat.

A picture that attracted a large amount of interest at the large performances was one of the Star newsboys getting a starting out with their daily supply of St. John's favorite paper. The Vitagraph will hold the boards again tonight with a complete change of programme.

MILLIONS OF LOSS SET FREE.

FREDERICTON, N. B., Sept. 4.—The long drought which has been the cause of so much suffering in the provinces is broken at last. A rainfall, the heaviest since last spring, fell at 10 o'clock last night and continued until this evening with scarcely a break.
Lumbermen are confident that the rain will fall to stamp out the forest fire and put an end to the work of destruction which has been going on for weeks. The fire in this section have crops about all gathered except potatoes and roots and therefore the storm came too late to greatly help them. As the storm seems to have been general along the river there will likely be a sufficient rise of water to float
the several million feet of logs scattered along the shores within boom limits.

HAMPTON VS. ST. ROSES.

On Saturday afternoon, at Hampton,
one of the most interesting ball games of the season was played, between the Hampton A. C. and the St. Roses of Fairville. Although the game went against the home team the contest was so close that it was anybody's game till the end of the last inning, the score being 7 to 6 in favor of the St. Roses.
The Hampton's battery seemed as good as a puzzle as ever, and had the support been a little sharper the result might have been different. The double upper system did not give as good satisfaction as it might have, but aside from that everything was entirely satisfactory. The two games booked for Labor Day with the Martellos were postponed
on account of the weather.

NEW SWIMMING CHAMPION.

NEW YORK, Sept. 5.—C. M. Daniels

American record for the distance, his time being 24:44.4. This makes the third swimming championship Daniels has won in the last ten days.

SENATOR DEPEW WILL BE A WITNESS.

NEW YORK, Sept. 4.—Some of the plans of the Legislative Insurance Investigating Committee were learned yesterday and there is a surprise in store for some of the insurance officials who will come under the searchlight of the investigators on September 4. Not only will conditions be inquired into, but men as well.

The settlement of the claim of the Equitable against the Depeew Improvement Company will not prevent Senator Depeew from being called to the witness chair to explain under oath the transactions resulting in the loan of $250,000 to the improvement company on security which it has been admitted was insufficient. If there was culpability attached to any of the society's officers the committee intends to make it known.

According to a member of the committee one of the matters which will be brought up is the report that the Equitable and other insurance companies have been called on frequently to contribute largely to the republican campaign fund. It was asserted yesterday that if the evidence showed this to be a fact both Cornelius N. Bliss and B. B. Odell, Jr., will be summoned to the witness chair.

Subpoena servers worked hard yesterday and succeeded in serving the principal officers of the Equitable, Mutual, New York Life, Metropolitan and Mutual Reserve companies. The committee believe these companies will give counsel for the committee enough to work on for several weeks. Other companies will be investigated later.

ST. JOHN BOY HONORED
IN AMHERST, N. S.

Amherst Daily News.)
A number of the representative citizens of the town yesterday afternoon waited upon Wiley McC. Manning, Bartlett, and presented him with a largely signed petition, asking him to become a candidate for municipal honors to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of J. H. Moffat. C. R. Smith in a brief speech presented Mr. Manning with the petition. He pointed out to him that the signatures represented citizens of all classes; professional men, manufacturers, mechanics and merchants; that Amherst was one of the growing towns of the maritime provinces and that any man elected to the honor of sitting at the council board. He strongly suggested the holding of a public meeting to discuss the matter and to invite the candidates to be named. He also mentioned the fact that the committee would be pleased to have any political bias.

Mr. Manning in a telling speech accepted the honor tendered him. In the contest and at the council board he would know no political party nor have any political bias.

He would be ready to meet his opponents on the public platform at any time. He expressed regret that the Labor party had announced that another campaign would be placed in the field as his sympathies were entirely with that party.

He was prepared to go into the contest and fight a hard clean battle and hoped he would not bring any dishonor upon the men who had nominated him.

Mr. Manning's nomination papers were signed by N. Curry, J. M. Curry, C. A. Lushby, C. R. Smith, D. B. Bent, C. W. Hewson, C. W. Holmes, C. E. Casey, C. M. Treuman, Robert Fugley, H. W. Rogers, C. L. McLeod, Claude de L. Black, C. A. Munroe, Wm. Read, J. H. Hewson and many other representative citizens.

AIMS ROCK AT MAN, KILLS LITTLE GIRL.

NEW YORK, Sept. 3.—Holding her doll in her arms, Rosie Griffo, fourteen years old, of No. 537 West Fifty-ninth street, was instantly killed yesterday by being hit on the head with a rock thrown, it is alleged, by Charles Giletto, eighteen years of age, of No. 535 West Fifty-ninth street. Still clasping the doll, the body of the little girl was taken to her home and detectives were searching for Giletto all night.

Giletto is the leader of a band of young Italians who have given the police and the residents of that locality much annoyance. For a long time they have harassed John Muscarello, who keeps a small store at No. 545 West Fifty-ninth street. Yesterday the band were hanging about the place where Muscarello had become so offensive that Muscarello sent for the police and had them driven away.

Giletto returned soon afterward and crept up near the store. Rosie Griffo, who was a favorite among old and young in the neighborhood, sat on the steps of the store clinging to her doll. Muscarello sat near her. Armed with a large rock Giletto, it is told by witnesses, crept stealthily along on the opposite side of the street and when Muscarello's head was turned threw it with all his force.

The man's aim was bad, and instead of reaching the intended victim the rock struck the little girl squarely in the temple, and she rolled down the steps to the pavement, lying there motionless. Startled by the suddenness of the attack, Muscarello was for the moment dazed, and then realizing what had happened shouted loudly for help.

Quickly a crowd gathered and two hundred men and boys were soon in pursuit of the assailant, who ran down Fifty-ninth street and turned up Eleventh avenue. He outran his pursuers and the last seen of him was as he dashed into a fish store in Eleventh avenue, where all trace of him was lost. The proprietor of the place said he ran through his store without stopping.

An ambulance was summoned from Roosevelt Hospital, but it was said by the physicians that the child had been killed instantly. Her skull was fractured. When the little body reached home the girl's mother fell unconscious, and last night it was feared that her reason would leave her.

POOR DOCUMENT

MC 2034

ST. JOHN STAR, TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 5, 1905.

Good tea must be grown under proper conditions

LOW, damp or swampy lands in a warm, humid climate produce tea of rank, rapid growth, coarse in texture, woody fibred, rudely flavored—makes a cup heavy, murky in color, rough-tasting—it is poor tea.

But the Indian and Ceylon teas used to make the Red Rose brand are grown on the high lands of India and the mountain sides of Ceylon.

These teas are grown in clear dry sunshine, they mature slowly, the leaves of the Ceylon teas are tender, delicate, finely flavored, but not strong.

The Indian teas thus grown are full bodied, richly flavored, smooth in texture, strong.

Such Indian and Ceylon teas combined in Red Rose Tea produce a cup of a rich rosy brown, strong and smooth—all the richness and strength of Indian, all the delicacy and fragrance of Ceylon teas—that "rich, fruity flavor" which belongs alone to Red Tea—more qualities of tea excellence than any Indian or brand of Ceylon alone can possess.

Officers elected were: President, Geo. S. MacKenzie; vice president, W. Ballie; secretary, J. T. Bond; treasurer, W. J. Murray; committee, W. Ballie, W. Q. Barnaby and W. J. Murray.

MONCTON LABOR MEN PARADED IN THE RAIN.

MONCTON, Sept. 4.—Organized labor in Moncton was most unfortunate as to weather conditions in its first public display of strength. After two months of almost continuous drought rain commenced to fall early in the morning and continued throughout the day. The parade fixed for the morning was postponed till the afternoon, when it was pulled off, notwithstanding the steady downpour, which detracted much from the appearance of the display. Four bands furnished the music, and Minister of Railways Emerson, Deputy Minister Butler, General Manager Pottenger and I. C. R. Traffic Manager Tunn, occupied one of the carriages at the head of the procession. Different I. C. R. brotherhoods and unions were represented in force, including locomotive engineers, machinists, carmen, boiler makers and blacksmiths. Features of the procession were a miniature I. C. R. passenger car, locomotive and boiler and blacksmith shop in operation. Moncton and Shediac fire departments turned out in force and many local industries and business houses had floats in the parade, one of the best being that of the Record Foundry and Machine Company, having a stove fitting plant in operation. At the end of the procession the minister of railways delivered a brief address, complimenting the workmen on the excellence of their display. Owing to the rain the horse races were postponed till tomorrow and Wednesday.

HONORARY DEGREES AT ANTIGONISH.

Among those to receive the honorary degree of doctor of laws at celebration of the golden jubilee of St. Francis Xavier College, Antigonish, N. S., on Wednesday next, are Sir Wilfrid Laurier, R. L. Borden, M. P. for Carleton, Ont.; the presidents of Laval and McGill Universities, Montreal; Ottawa University, Ottawa; Trinity and St. Michael's Colleges and Victoria University, Toronto; the chancellor of the University of Manitoba, Winnipeg; Sir Frederick Borden, minister of militia; and J. H. Waters, Ottawa; the rector, superior of the Grand Seminary, Quebec, and the rev. superior of the Grand Seminary, Montreal. These are the vicinity of one hundred honorary degrees conferred.

PACKING FLOWERS FOR THE POST.

Now that the gardens are in full bloom, gifts of flowers are often sent to friends, and the following hints from the "Gardener" upon this subject are worth remembering. The best way to send flowers is to wet some mosses and wrap it out in the hand, and either tie it on or lay it loosely but firmly among the stalks and to envelope the whole in some layers of fresh leaf, like cabbage, rhubarb, spinach, lettuce, dock, or even ivy. If the box is larger than the space, some mosses actually occupy it, it is well to fold the green leaf over the flowers and to fill the space with mosses. Mosses are of many kinds, wood or paper shavings or any such material, in order to keep the flowers quite firm, and not allow any movement whatever. It is much better to pack very light, only short of crushing them, than any space which would allow them to move.

WONDERS OF THE COCKROACH.

The cockroach, although its eyes are almost useless organs, being bent under its head as its mouth is, for convenience in eating from the ground, has compound noses, in number nearly equal to the compound eyes of the fly. Its eyes, because of their position, are practically useless. It may not see the approach of human foes, but the long hundred-pointed diameters of its antennae are extremely sensitive to sounds. These filaments are dotted all over with depressions, which entomologists declare are not feelers, but compound noses, and that the first warning they receive of human intruders comes through the sense of smell. Because they have a sense of smell so marvelously keen, they have been called the bloodhounds of the insect world. The cockroach has no lungs, but breathes through ten tubes on each side of its body, the tubes being tiny spirals like those of a door spring. It pants for breath with its small brown abdomen. The heart is a long, soft, banana-like tube situated under the shell on the top of the body. Cockroaches have the singular human habit of expectorating, and this they do as freely as a confirmed tobacco-chewer, in safe, runways, entomologists believe, to identify the place, as Indians passing through a forest back trees so that they may find their way back.

HALLET HOTEL AT HYANNIS BURNED.

HYANNIS, Mass., Sept. 4.—While the guests at the Hallett House, at Hyannisport, were at supper this evening, there was an explosion of gasoline in a room near the kitchen, which resulted in the hotel taking fire, and within an hour it was burned to the ground. The sixty guests, with the assistance of the cottagers and a number of yachtsmen, were able to save nearly all of their personal effects, while, with the exception of John Scannell of Boston, the clerk, no one was injured. Mr. Scannell at the outbreak of the fire worked energetically in helping the guests to save their property and when forced to leave the building, became exhausted and was carried into a nearby club house in an unconscious condition. He rallied in an hour or two after receiving medical treatment.

All the servants, nearly twenty in number, lost everything they had in their rooms, as the fire started directly under the annex.

Mrs. J. A. Kennedy and daughter of Pittsburg, Pa., reported after the fire that they were unable to save their jewelry, but refused to state the value of the loss.

It was about 7 o'clock tonight when one of the boys employed in the kitchen went into a room in which gasoline was stored and lighted a match. An explosion instantly followed, and although the boy was not injured, he rushed from the room without attempting to put out the fire. There were about 50 people in the dining room at the time, and the cry of fire started everyone from their seats. The help in the kitchen were driven out within a few minutes, but those in the dining room had an opportunity of going to their rooms and hastily gathering together their clothing and other effects.

Before the fire got fully under way, 75 or 80 trunks had been taken out of the buildings.

Mr. Scannell was the last person to leave the building, and before doing so he went around to make himself sure that there was no one remaining in the rooms, and in doing this he inhaled considerable smoke.

After the fire Mrs. Emily Whelan, the owner and proprietress of the hotel, stated that so far as she knew everyone had been accounted for.

At the time of the fire there were about sixty guests occupying rooms in the hotel.

The Hallett House was built in 1872 at a cost of $30,000. At the time of the fire it was insured for $10,000. The loss on the building and its contents is estimated at between $10,000 and $15,000.

IMPURE MILK

Is the kind most frequently gotten from grocery stores—milk that is old, tainted and poor. We now have an up-to-date system of treating and delivering milk. We have fresh morning's milk from Jersey cows delivered to us early every morning, and it is at once put into sterilized bottles and into our new food milk cans, where it quickly cools. We can thus deliver ice cold milk which is only a few hours old—and you can always be sure it is sweet, pure and wholesome. A small item, perhaps, but an important one to our customers.

LOCAL NEWS.

Zion church garden party, postponed from yesterday, will be held on Wednesday, Sept. 6th.

The forty hours devotion in St. Peter's church, North End, ended Sunday evening with special services.

Since Saturday considerable American anthracite coal has arrived here. One concern alone has three large schooners arriving.

Police Officer Henry was called into the house of James McCarthy, on Frederick street yesterday, to quell a disturbance he was making.

W. C. Bowden announces that he has resumed teaching and is prepared to receive his pupils in violin, mandolin, etc. Studio 74 Sydney street.

The police report that the block pavement on Main street, near Sheriff's office, was raised out of place by the action of the water, and that it should be repaired.

A meeting will be held this evening at 7:30 of the C. A. A. at the Headquarters of the Carleton Curling Ring. All members of the association are expected to be present.

Ladies who are having new dresses made will do well to read the announcement of a bargain lot of Gimpure Lace Collars at M. R. A.'s tomorrow. They are a finishing touch to a pretty waist, a coat or for the evening.

The police report a dangerous hole in the sidewalk at the corner of Smythe and Pond streets, which needs attention. They also report that the main hole is off the sewer which leads into Market slip, which they consider dangerous.

There is plenty of smoked herring on the market, in fact the market is a little bit overburdened, and as a result there is a slight depression in prices. Several large cargoes have reached here since Saturday from Grand Manan, one schooner having over 8,000 boxes.

The Atlantic express was thirty minutes late in arriving here today and the Boston express was one hour and thirty minutes late. The delays were attributed to yesterday's heavy storms that interfered with branch connections.

John S. Malcolm, accompanied by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Malcolm, left this morning for Munich, York county, where he will be married tomorrow to Miss Jean Bremner, daughter of Mrs. J. B. Adam, of that place. The bridal party will take the train for St. John after the ceremony.

Elitha Root, the distinguished member of President Roosevelt's cabinet, spent a half hour in the city yesterday. With Mr. Root were his two sons, Elitha Jr., and Edward W., and his former assistant secretary of war, W. C. Sangerfield. Mr. Root regretted that his engagements would not permit him to remain a day in St. John, which he heard was a very beautiful city.

The sittings of the St. John assessment commission will be resumed in a week or two. The commissioners have decided that nothing further can be done without certain definite information relating to St. John and until this, further meetings were useless. For the past four or five weeks a number of agents have been employed in calling on all landlords and tenants in the city, securing data as to the actual value of real property and the rentals.

ANOTHER FAX COMING.

Those who have laughed themselves sore at the absurd comicities of Rueben Fax, who in his inimitable portrayal of the Posty character in Bonnie Rieker Bush has touched the heights of greatness, will be interested to learn that there is still a greater than Rueben in the Fax family. This is Jan. Fax who has during his fifteen years before the public well earned the distinction of being at least peer to any character entertainer in America. His work is similar to that of Grossmith of England. Mr. Fax's name is a household word in Upper Canada where his name is sufficient to draw a large audience whether announced in the smallest hamlet, or in Toronto. This popular artist has the distinction of appearing no less than 200 times in Massey Hall during his career which is an evidence of his popularity in that large centre. F. G. Spencer has engaged Mr. Fax for an extended tour this fall opening in Maine and including the three provinces and Newfoundland, and the committees in each place included in the itinerary who are fortunate in securing his services will have no regrets. Mr. Fax will be supported by a small company.

A STRANGE DOG.

A curiosity in the line of dogs is owned by a North End man. It is a Maltese, resembling the poodle species. The strange little creature came from the Canary Islands aboard the schooner Annie B. Parker, and has attracted a lot of attention. Its hair is pure white and very sleek, its tail is tightly curled, like a pig's, and the face and nose are pinkish. Owing to the climatic change the Maltese dog is given a portion of tincture of iron once a week.

POLICE COURT.

Three Small Boys Arrested for Theft—

A Large Number of Saturday Night

Drunks Before the Magistrate

Room was at a premium this morning on the prisoner's bench at the police court. Some fifteen men seemed to have celebrated the holiday notwithstanding the rain.

The principal case which occupied the attention of the magistrate this morning was that of three youngsters, Geo. O'Neill, James Allen and Chas. Allen, arrested by Detective Killen charged with stealing from the old I. C. R. roundhouse the following articles, three brass brushes, one brass whistle, two brass pipes and brass couplings. The detective this morning had three young boys in the court as witnesses. Daniel Mullin, K. C., acted for the defendants.

James Maybee was the first witness called. He gave his age as thirteen and said he attended grade four in Winter street school. He said he was sitting near the yard sheds about 7:30 on Sunday night when he saw a number of boys. Ernest Northrup, Jack Coffey, Charles Richardson and the three prisoners. Three of the boys G. O'Neill, Charles Allen and Charles Richardson were carrying parcels. They were coming from the roundhouse and went up to the back of the rink. Questioned by the detective he said he saw them ten minutes later by the rink and on the spot where they next morning he and two other boys found the whistles.

Charles Chase, who will be twelve years of age tomorrow, gave similar evidence. Maybee, Frank Cassidy and he found the brass the next morning by the rink. Charles Richardson was the third witness. On Sunday morning at ten o'clock he met Coffey and the others down on the track and one of them told him that they were going to get some brass which they had found at nine o'clock that morning and they would sell it. O'Neill and James Allen were the first to speak and they told him not to tell. O'Neill in the evening asked him to go up and help him carry his share, which he did, all hiding their shares in the sawdust pile by the round house. The case will be continued on Friday at ten o'clock.

James Lenihan was arrested for wandering about Union street and not being able to give a satisfactory account of himself. Running into the electric light station he called at the top of his voice for those present to save him, as a lot of people were chasing him to drown him. Questioned this morning he said that it was an attack of horrors. He was fined $5.

Timothy Done, charged with being a common vagrant, was given his choice of the Alms House, from which he would run away, or six months in jail. He preferred the former.

Michael Landers, charged with being drunk on Sunday evening and interfering with ladies passing by, was told that he was liable to six months, but was allowed off with the usual $5. The magistrate said that he would like very much to know where these men bought their liquor. He thought a detective should be put on such cases. He had spoken about this before, but his words seem to meet the same fate as water on a duck's back. He would like to give an extra stripe to the officer who could find out where the liquor in such cases is sold.

Seven other ordinary drunks were deposited by not appearing. James Devine, a mill employee, residing in Main street, was placed in North End police station last night for a grossly indecent offense. His case did not come up today.

Defects in Children's Eyes

Should be suspected when there is an aversion to study. The normal child delights in school work, but when handicapped by poor vision soon loses interest in work which he does not fully understand.

A little attention now may save your child the reputation of being dull and backward, and may make his school-work a pleasure.
