BRYAN ON DEFEAT.

He Was Surprised at the Result of

THE ELECTIONS.

Lost in the Small Towns and the Country -- He Has Not Yet Enough Figures to Analyze the Vote--Will Not Run for the Senate.

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 8.--William J. Bryan tonight gave out the following statement concerning the election: "The result was a surprise to me and the magnitude of the republican victory was a surprise to our opponents as well as to those who voted our ticket. It is impossible to analyze the returns until they are more complete but, speaking generally, we seem to have gained in the large cities and to have lost in the smaller cities and in the country."

"The Republicans were able to secure tickets or passes for all their voters who were away from home and this gave them considerable advantage. We have no way of knowing at this time how much money was spent in the purchase of votes and in colonization, but while these would account for some of the republican gains, they could not account for the widespread increase in the republican vote. The prosperity argument was probably the most potent one used by the Republicans. They compared the present conditions with the panic times of 1883 to 1886 and this argument had weight with those who did not stop to consider the reasons for the change. The appeal 'Stand by the president while the war is on,' had a great deal of influence among those who had not realized that a republican doctrine of self-government in the Philippines must react upon us in this country. We made an honest fight upon an honest platform and, having done our duty as we saw it, we have nothing to regret."

"We are dejected but not discouraged. The fight must go on. I am sure that the republican policies will be repudiated by the people when the tendency of these policies are fully understood. The contest between plutocracy and democracy cannot end until one or the other is completely triumphant."

Concerning himself Mr. Bryan said: "I have come out of the campaign with perfect health and a clear conscience. I did my best to bring success to the principles for which I stood. Mr. Stevenson did all that he could; Senator Jones and the members of the Democratic, Populist, Silver Republicans and anti-imperialist committees did all they could. Mr. Hearst and his associates in the club organizations put forth their best efforts. Our newspapers, our campaign speeches and our local organizations did their part. I have no fault to find and no reproaches. I shall continue to take an active interest in politics as long as I live. I believe it to be the duty of citizens to do so and in addition to my interest as a citizen, I feel that it will require a lifetime of work to repay the political friends who have done so much for me. I shall not be a senatorial candidate before the legislature which has been elected. Senator Allen deserves the senatorship, which goes to the Populist Mr. Hitchcock and Mr. W. H. Thompson are avowed candidates for the senatorship. They both deserve well of the party and I am too grateful to them for past support to stand in their way even if I desired a seat in the senate."

Mr. Bryan said he has no other plans at present than to remain at home until he had recovered from the fatigue of campaigning. He denied the report that he would remove from Nebraska and make Texas his home.

MOORISH MONEY WANTED.

The United States Pressing a Damage Claim.

Washington, Nov. 8.--The instructions of the state department to the United States Consul at London, at London, and which he acted yesterday, were to collect an indemnity from the Moorish government for the murder of Marcus Sacco, a native American citizen who was killed about a year ago by a mob. Sacco became involved in an altercation with a Moor against whom he had accidentally run, when a crowd of the Moor's comrades fell upon him and beat him to death. The Moorish government disclaimed responsibility for mob violence of this kind, but the United States government contended that the Moorish government had failed in its obligations in dealing to take any steps to punish the perpetrators of the crime. Now Mr. Gunner is directed again to present the case, with an urgent request for a settlement.

It so happens that the big battleship Kentucky is making her way through the Mediterranean to Manila, and if she touches at a Moorish port, as she would be very likely to do, her presence may have a beneficial effect in stimulating action upon the consul's demands.

THE GERMAN BUDGET.

Provide for Military and Naval Extensions.

Berlin, Nov. 8.--It has leaked out that the forthcoming imperial budget will provide for two new pioneer battalions of three companies for each army corps. It will also provide $2,000,000 marks for building a war harbor at Danzig. At Kiel, a large anchorage and harbor for torpedo boats, capable of holding 60 of the largest. At Wilhelmshaven two immense dry docks will be built.

MORE CANADIANS

Have Sailed For and From England.

ST. JOHN BOYS

Are on the Carthaginian, Which Is Due at Halifax Tomorrow--General DeWet Is Reported to Have Been Wounded--A Protest Against Administering Harsh Punishment.

London, Nov. 9.--The Times this morning gives prominence to a column letter from Mr. Leonard Courtney, who represented the Bodmin division of Cornwall in the late parliament, protesting against the burning of the buildings on the farms of the burghers and other harsh measures adopted against the Boers.

Referring editorially to Mr. Courtney's argument the Times justifies the measures taken by Lord Roberts as necessary and as "no worse than the means employed by other European nations in similar circumstances."

The Howland Has Sailed. Caps Town, Nov. 7.--The British transport Howland Castle, having on board the royal Canadian regiment, sailed from here today.

De Wet Wounded. Pretoria (mandated) by rail to Charlton (this station, Natal) Wednesday, Nov. 7.--General DeWet was again wounded in the leg in a fight with the troops of General Knox at Rensburg drift. According to native reports the Boer commander narrowly escaped capture.

O. S. of Steyn's Tricks. Pretoria, Nov. 7.--Surrounded by a force of 100 men, Steyn, after a council of war with Gen. Botha and Gen. DeLarey, and ordered by the latter with great caution, to continue the war. He told them he was going south and hoped to return with 500 men, assuring them that he knew that Germany had delivered an ultimatum to Great Britain, demanding the retrocession of the Orange River.

PENNSYLVANIA ELECTION RIOT.

The Blacks and Whites Arrayed in Hostile Lines.

Washington, Nov. 8.--After a night of excitement over a threatened conflict between negroes and whites, quiet prevailed this morning and through the prompt action of the town authorities aided by the members of company H, 10th Pennsylvania volunteers, a race riot was averted. The trouble started on Tuesday night over the election and the fighting was kept up for a large part of the night and all of yesterday. There were numerous encounters between the negroes and whites and several persons were seriously injured. A large number of squads of the tenth regiment, patrolled the streets until daylight. A dozen arrests were made and warrants are out for many more. This morning the excitement had died down.

TWO MORE BODIES

Fallen from the Ruins of the Tarrant Fire.

New York, Nov. 8.--Two bodies were taken from the ruins of the Tarrant building today. The first was that of Hamilton Matthews, a driver for Tarrant & Co., who remains severely mutilated. The second proved to be that of Benjamin Moorehouse, the missing shipping and stock clerk of the company. Moorehouse was 51 years old and had been missing since the day of the explosion. With him, in all probability, died also all possibility of explaining the fire horror, as he had charge of the storage books of the drug firm, in which was a list of all the explosives stored in the building.

Death Prevents a Trial.

Portland, Me., Nov. 8.--Charles Davis, who shot and killed his wife several days ago and then put a bullet into his own head, died at the hospital tonight. This finally disposes of the case, although Coroner Perry will probably hold an inquest on Davis to close up the matter officially.

ADDITIONAL NEWS OF THE DOMINION ELECTION.

According to the latest returns the standing of the parties last night is as given below. Five elections are still to be held. In several constituencies in the West returns are still very incomplete. A fairly accurate estimate can be made of them, however, using the returns of this election, which are already in, and the vote in previous elections as guides:--

THE PISTOL NOT LOADED. Hon. John Costigan on Hon. Mr. Blair's Victory. Ottawa, Nov. 8.--(Special)--Hon. John Costigan, in an interview, stated that the result in New Brunswick was exactly in keeping with his forecast since last season. The government were doing right by the people there and they felt that there was no justification for a change. As to his own election, it was exceedingly gratifying to him that he represented a majority of the Protestants and Catholic electorate. In spite of past efforts on the part of some to raise the credit of the constituency, he was pleased to know that the people had come together in this discussion on the political issues of the day, and lines were particularly pleased with the magnificent victory of Hon. Mr. Blair. When the night had to fight against were realized, too much credit could not be given him. He had stuck to the helm in the interests of the people and in turn had rightly shown their appreciation of his honest and independent course as minister of railways and canals. He (Costigan) was a very friendly to the Canadian Pacific railway, but he did not approve of the party being pointed to a cabinet minister by any company.

ONE EXPLANATION. The Attack on the French Proved a Boomerang. Ottawa, Nov. 8.--(Special)--The Evening Journal (Independent Conservative) says tonight: "The only fair conclusion is that what has happened is not because Lord Salisbury, Mr. McKinty and Sir Wilfrid Laurier have dropped a new way of governing without mistakes but because in all three countries there has been a striking national rise to new and great issues and because the opposition parties have been found out of touch with national feeling."

THE BRITISH PRESS. Great Britain Is Well Pleased With Sir Wilfrid Laurier. London, Nov. 8.--The editorials in the papers here today express warm approval of the re-election of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, the premier of the Dominion of Canada, and return of the Liberal government to power. The Daily Mail says: "The general tone of the comment is saying: 'Sir Wilfrid Laurier is the living embodiment of the spirit which Canada has shown tonight. The only fair conclusion is that what has happened is not because Lord Salisbury, Mr. McKinty and Sir Wilfrid Laurier have dropped a new way of governing without mistakes but because in all three countries there has been a striking national rise to new and great issues and because the opposition parties have been found out of touch with national feeling.'"

MAJORITY OF NINE. Roche Elected in Halifax. Halifax, Nov. 8.--(Special)--Quite a demonstration was arranged by Dartmouth Liberal for Dr. Russell, the successful candidate in the election here. His evening, but a severe southeast storm and heavy rain put a stop to the proceedings. The affair will take place tomorrow evening. The latest returns from Halifax county show Roche to be elected by a majority of nine over Kenny.

WIRELESS TELEGRAPHY. Has Been Officially Adopted by Great Britain. London, Nov. 9.--The Daily Mail this morning makes the following announcement: "The postal department commission which has been inquiring into the subject will shortly report, after some months of deliberation, in favor of the earliest possible adoption of Marconi's system of wireless telegraphy by the postal authorities. The commission is also arranging as to terms for the acquisition of the Marconi patents and negotiating with France and Germany regarding their attitude towards Marconi's inventions. This evidently means a complete revolution in the telegraphic system."

HONORS FOR TARS. An Admiral and Two Captains Decorated. London, Nov. 8.--Vice-Admiral Sir Edward Hobart Seymour K. C. B., in command of the China station since 1897, (who is to be succeeded by Vice-Admiral Sir Harry Holdsworth Rawson), has been appointed a G. C. B. (Grand Cross of the Bath), and Naval Captains Bayly, T. Burke, Colclough and Jellicoe have been appointed C. B.'s (Companions of the Bath), for services in China.

FATALITY IN WESTMORLAND.

Three-year-old Child Wandered Away from Home

FOUND DEAD.

It Had Become Bewildered and Laid Down in a Field--Killed by Cold During the Night--No Evidence of Violence.

Moncton, Nov. 8.--(Special)--The little three-year-old child of J. H. Hamington of Caledonia Road, which strayed away from the house Tuesday afternoon, was found dead in a field three-quarters of a mile from its home this morning. When the child was missed from home search was immediately made but no trace was found until today. It was first thought that the child had been stolen or carried off by a bear, but the mystery was cleared up today when the dead body was found in its father's stump field. From appearances the little one had wandered off and got lost and becoming fatigued had laid down and falling asleep died from exposure during the night. There was no evidence that death had been caused by violence.

AGAIN IN HIS CELL.

Max Shimburn Back in the New Hampshire Penitentiary.

Concord, N. H., Nov. 8.--At 8 o'clock tonight a man whom the cops of New York have decided to be Maximilian Schoenben, better known as Max Shimburn, who escaped 35 years ago from the New Hampshire state prison, where he had been committed for ten years, as penalty for the robbery of the funds of a bank at Walpole, re-entered the New Hampshire state prison to serve the remainder of his term. Shimburn arrived in this city this evening from Portsmouth, N. H., in the custody of Sheriff W. S. Tuttle of Acers, Coos county, N. H., and J. W. Rogers, detective in the employ of the American Bankers' Association. More than 1,000 people had assembled in a driving rain storm to greet Shimburn and his captors. Shimburn was heavily ironed and shackled to Sheriff Tuttle and smiled broadly at the excitement caused by his arrival. He did not appear in the least nervous or depressed. Upon arrival at the state prison he was turned over to Warden Cox and the usual formalities attendant upon the commitment of criminals were completed. The prison from which he made his escape 35 years ago was a stone structure on North State street in the heart of the city and when he made his sensational escape by breaking through the gate leading from the prison yard to the street run past the prison he had served less than one year of his ten years' sentence. Tonight he entered the new prison which is located two miles from the centre of the city and is a far different structure from that of 35 years ago. Here he will serve out the balance of his sentence.

ONARIO WANTS THEM.

Will Make Places for Sir Charles and Mr Foster.

Toronto, Nov. 8.--(Special)--The Toronto Evening News (Conservative) says it is probable seats will be made for Sir Charles Tupper and Hon. G. E. Foster in Ontario. Ridd of Carleton, is said to be willing to make way for Sir Charles, and Wilson of Lennox, would probably be willing to retire in favor of Mr. Foster. The Conservatives intend to devote their energies now to defeating Premier Ross in Ontario, and the presence of Sir Charles and Mr. Foster in Ontario they think would greatly strengthen the party in the provincial politics.

THE ONTARIO GERRYMANDER.

Gave the Conservatives Assistance Wednesday.

Ottawa, Nov. 8.--(Special)--Sir Richard Cartwright's face today was beaming with satisfaction when seen by a member of press correspondent in his office in the trade and commerce department. "You can say that yesterday's vote means the complete break-up of the Conservative party. The government has every reason to be thoroughly satisfied with the general result. Ontario, as we see, is still fettered and bound by the bad gerrymander of 1892, which affected 54 seats."

ELCTION IN NEWFOUNDLAND.

No Returns, but Both Sides Claim Victory--A Joke About Sir Charles.

St. John's, Nfld., Nov. 8.--The polls have closed in all the districts throughout the island for the colonial general election today. No disorders have been reported, but intense excitement prevails. The old voters are in the heart of the present ferment has been known since the election of 1899, when the question before the country was confederation with Canada, which was rejected by an immense majority. Both sides claim a victory, but the betting odds are in favor of the Bond government. Those who favor confederation with Canada are sorely disappointed at the defeat of Sir Charles Tupper in Cape Breton, which is regarded as a setback for the confederation project.

DEATH IN WASP'S STING.

To Illustrate that the Stings of Wasps are Not Dangerous, a Wasp in the British Medical Journal on the Subject of their Stings Cites the Following Cases Which Have Come Under his Notice:

A strong, healthy girl of 27 was stung on the neck by a wasp and fainted. On regaining consciousness she complained of general feeling of numbness and partial blindness, and vomited. She suffered severe abdominal pain. She recovered in the course of a few hours. Two months later she was stung again, this time on the hand. Her face became flushed, she again complained of numbness and blindness, and became very pale, faint, and died 15 minutes after she was stung.

Another case was that of a girl of 25, who was stung by a wasp behind the angle of the jaw. The sting was at once extracted and ammonia applied. In a few minutes she complained of faintness and had fallen if she had not been supported. Her face assumed an expression of great anxiety and a few minutes later she was tossing on the bed, complaining of a scorching feeling of choking and of agonizing pain in the chest and abdomen. Brandy vomited. There was nausea, but no diarrhoea. She died 15 minutes after receiving the sting. The most probable explanation of such cases seems to lie in what is known as idiosyncrasy--that is, abnormal sensitiveness in particular individuals to certain foods.

LOOSE METHODS.

How Alvord Was Able to Steal From the Bank

FIRST NATIONAL BANK

The Officers of the Bank Had Examined the Institution's Assets in Two Years--A Clearing House Sheet Doctored.

New York, Nov. 8.--Cornelius L. Alvord, Jr., the former note holder of the First National Bank who is accused of embezzling $80,000 of the bank's funds, was arraigned before U. S. Commissioner Charles H. Smith in criminal court of the United States today. He was represented by Jacob F. A. Baker. The witness was W. E. Snow, assistant cashier of the First National Bank. Mr. Snow said that he had known Alvord 20 years, the past 19 of which he had been note holder in the First National Bank, explained in detail the duties of the note holder.

"You know that Alvord's accounts were made up from statements handed him by other persons in the bank," asked Mr. Smith. "The Mr. Alvord was supposed to take the statements of other employees as correct," Mr. Miller then led Mr. Snow to admit that since the latter first became an officer of the bank two years ago, he had never examined the bank to examine its assets of the institution.

SETTLEMENT DESPAIRED OF.

Li Hung Chang Cannot Arrange Satisfactory Terms.

London, Nov. 9.--Li Hung Chang telegrams, says the Shanghai correspondent of the Daily Express, suggest the possibility of a settlement of the Sino-American dispute. The Chinese court to consent to the execution of Yu Hsien or Tung Fu Hsien. He declines the offer of a settlement, but attempts to induce the powers to moderate their demands and that therefore, the court is prepared for a further fight to the province of Szechuan, with an imperial army of 14,000.

An agent of the Canadian Pacific railway was organized with a capital of $50,000. The chief capital stock of the company is said by those interested, has been subscribed.

Burke the Australian agent of the Dominion of Canada, the Canadian representative of the government of New South Wales to the dominion government to send a representative to the inauguration of the new government in the commonwealth next spring and also a contingent of troops. Mr. Burke says that as the question of the inauguration of the new government is a matter of great importance, it would be well to have a Canadian representative there to look after Canadian interests.

Republicans Won in the United States.

New York, Nov. 6.—(Midnight)—It being as a very early hour this morning that the election McKinley Roosevelt was assured. At half past 12 o'clock returns from nearly two-thirds of the election districts of Greater New York had been received, indicating that Bryan and Steiwer could not expect more than 25,000 or 30,000 plurality in this Democratic stronghold, and unless there was a landslide in the outside counties beyond all reasonable expectation the pivotal state New York had declared in unmistakable terms, although by a greatly reduced majority, for the Republican candidate. As the night progressed it only confirmed this judgment. The returns from Illinois betrayed a like complexion. The Republican plurality of 1800, greatly reduced, but it was still far larger to be overcome. On the other hand the returns from Indiana, Michigan, two Dakotas, Utah and Wyoming, as well as Nebraska, seemed to indicate Republican gains over 1800. Delaware and West Virginia had not yet declared Republican pluries. The count in several of the far western states was naturally so delayed as to give little indication of the outcome there. They had ceased to have a determining effect and before ten o'clock the Democratic leaders had given up the contest and it was announced that Mr. Bryan had gone to bed and was sound asleep.

The whole story was easily and briefly told. The Republican ticket would have a larger electoral vote than four years ago in the larger states of the east and middle west, the plurities had been greatly reduced. Massachusetts had fallen from 174,000 to 150,000, New York from 238,000 to 150,000 and Illinois from 20,000 to 100,000. The roll call of states at this hour is apparently as follows: McKinley—Connecticut 6, Delaware 3, Illinois 21, Indiana 15, Iowa 18, Maine 6, Maryland 8, Massachusetts 15, Michigan 14, Minnesota 9, New Hampshire 4, New Jersey 10, New York 38, North Dakota 6, Oregon 23, Pennsylvania 32, Rhode Island 4, Vermont 4, West Virginia 6, Wisconsin 12, Washington 4, California 9, Wyoming 3. Bryan—Alabama 11, Arkansas 8, Colorado 4, Florida 4, Georgia 13, Louisiana 11, Mississippi 9, Missouri 17, Montana 3, North Carolina 11, North Dakota 6, Ohio 23, Oregon 23, Tennessee 12, Texas 15, Utah 8, Virginia 12, Total 142. States unreported—Idaho 3, Kansas 10, Kentucky 15, Nebraska 8, South Dakota 4, Total 32. If all the unreported states should turn out as Democrats, a highly improbable contingency, it would not change the result. The latest returns from Nebraska indicate a Republican plurality.

An Estimate by States.

- New York, Nov. 7, 2 a. m.—The following are the plurities reported at this hour. They are largely estimated: Alabama—Bryan, 75,000. Arkansas—Bryan, 75,000. California—McKinley, 12,000. Colorado—Bryan, 35,000. Connecticut—McKinley, 20,000. Delaware—McKinley, 3,000. Florida—Bryan, 20,000. Georgia—Bryan, 40,000. Idaho—Not reported. Illinois—McKinley, 90,000. Indiana—McKinley, 30,000. Iowa—McKinley, 100,000. Kansas—In doubt. Kentucky—In doubt. Louisiana—Bryan, 30,000. Maine—McKinley, 25,000. Maryland—McKinley, 30,000. Massachusetts—McKinley, 80,000. Michigan—McKinley, 90,000. Minnesota—McKinley, 85,000. Mississippi—Bryan, 45,000. Missouri—Bryan, 25,000. Montana—Bryan, 15,000. Nebraska—McKinley, 3,000. Nevada—Bryan, 15,000. New Hampshire—McKinley, 20,000. New Jersey—McKinley, 50,000. New York—McKinley, 135,000. North Carolina—Bryan, 20,000. North Dakota—McKinley, 8,000. Ohio—McKinley, 75,000. Oregon—McKinley, 12,000. Pennsylvania—McKinley, 200,000. Rhode Island—McKinley, 20,000. South Carolina—Bryan, 40,000. South Dakota—In doubt. Tennessee—Bryan, 15,000. Texas—Bryan, 175,000. Utah—McKinley, 5,000. Vermont—McKinley, 30,000. Virginia—Bryan, 20,000. Washington—Not reported. West Virginia—McKinley, 10,000. Wisconsin—McKinley, 10,000. Wyoming—McKinley, 3,000.

The News of His Defeat Was Taken Unconcernedly.

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 6.—Mr. Bryan received election returns at his residence in this city. His house was fairly overrun with newspaper men and telegraph operators. Mr. Bryan took his dinner at a little after 6 o'clock and afterwards spent a few minutes in conversation with the news paper men, referring to the bulletins received and asking some questions about different things, but without venturing any opinion of the fight. The first bulletin was the one announcing that Poughkeepsie, N. Y., had given McKinley a majority of 1,387, and this was quickly followed by another bulletin in favor of Bryan to the extent of 1,722 majority. When shown this message he simply remarked that it was encouraging.

Bryan did not comment, it was evident that he was disappointed in the returns from New York city and Brooklyn. On the other hand there was considerable encouragement from the interior of New York state, and especially satisfactory news from National Comptroller Mack saying that Buffalo had given McKinley a majority of only 3,000 against a majority of 12,000 four years ago. Coming closely upon the heels of the Buffalo despatch was one from a friend in Boston announcing that city to have gone for Bryan by a majority of 7,000 as against 17,000 for McKinley four years ago.

The early despatches indicated the loss of Maryland and this also was a disappointment for it had been believed that that state was fairly safe for the Democratic ticket. After receiving the earlier returns in his library in the midst of his friends, Mr. Bryan retired to his private apartments which were connected with the outside by a special wire. Both he and his personal attendants were in the room when the news of the election was received. As eight o'clock, when the newspaper men sought to secure a statement from him, they were told that he just went to sleep and could not be disturbed. When he retired to his own room he glanced over the returns with apparent interest and then expressing a desire to make up some of the rest he had lost in the past few weeks, lay down and was asleep in less than five minutes.

He Received Victory With Smiles Surrounded by Friends.

Canon, O., Nov. 6.—President McKinley received election returns tonight at his home surrounded by a large number of his old friends and neighbors. Direct wires connected the house with the Republican headquarters at New York and at Chicago with Senator Hanna at the Union club in Cleveland and with the home of Governor Roosevelt at Oyster Bay. The president made his headquarters in his library where most of the gentlemen guests congregated, while Mrs. McKinley entertained the ladies in the parlor. The president was in his usual good humor, showing no signs of anxiety over the result. Secretary Cortelyou read most of the despatches, some of the more cheering ones being read by a group of friends seated by the guests. Most of the early returns were fragmentary and inconclusive, but the strong indications that New York and probably Illinois had gone for McKinley were received with great satisfaction. At 9 o'clock the president received a despatch from an enthusiastic individual stating that New York and Illinois carried the day for McKinley and that he was re-elected. The responsible leaders made no early claims, however, although their despatches told of gains at many points and breathed the spirit of victory near at hand.

Says the American People Will Continue to Have Good Times.

Oyster Bay, L. I., Nov. 6.—Governor

Roosevelt surrounded by his family tonight received the returns of his home on Sagami Hills. When he appeared at the door to meet a newspaper correspondent he was clad in full evening dress. After reading the messages he said: "I congratulate you and far more the American people. It shows that they want the good times to continue and are in favor of honest money and are for the flag."

THE MAJORITY OF FOUR YEARS AGO REPRODUCED.

Boston, Nov. 7, 1 a. m.—President McKinley carried Massachusetts by about 89,000 plurality, a reduction of nearly 100,000 from that of four years ago. The Republicans have elected 10 and possibly 11 of the congressmen.

His Success a Surprise to Republicans.

Boston, Nov. 6.—The plurality in this city of 8,400 for Bryan, with one precinct to be heard from, came as the surprise of the election in eastern Massachusetts. Bryan polled throughout the city 44,813 votes, 11,669 more votes than he received four years ago. McKinley's support numbered 29,377, a loss of approximately 24 per cent. over 1896 when he received 47,922 votes. A curious feature of the election was that Bryan ran very strongly in several Democratic wards.

With the result in seven precincts unreported the city gave Crane for governor.

With the result in seven precincts unreported the city gave Crane for governor. Republican wards and seemed to lose in several Democratic wards.

Pennsylvania Republican.

Philadelphia, Nov. 6.—Estimates from one half of the counties in Pennsylvania indicate a plurality for McKinley of over 200,000. Pennsylvania delegation in the next congress will be not less than 24 Republicans to six Democrats as against 20 Republicans and 10 Democrats in the present congress.

The Militia Department Has Received Word of Men Killed and Wounded.

Ottawa, Nov. 6.—(Special)—The militia department received a cable today stating that Corp. A. E. McDonald, First Hussars, was missing. Lieut. T. W. Chalmers was killed and Major Saunders, superintendent X. W. M. P., Pie R. L. Northway, Calgary, and Pie G. Pratt, Regina, slightly wounded. Lord Roberts speaks most highly of Lieut. Chalmers' great gallantry, who was killed trying to save Saunders.

HOWARD GENTLE AS A WOMAN.

Kentuckian Sentenced to Death for the Murder of Gobel is Modest and Diffident. "Jim" Howard, the Kentucky mountaineer who has been sentenced to death because of the murder of Gov. Gobel, is the best of his kind that can be seen here. He is a kindly fellow when not aroused. He has been well educated and men who have met him in peace have liked him. The last time Howard was in New York he was selling mining claims in Bell county. He and a family owned a large part of the county.

PREVENTION OF SMOKE.

The Control of a Nuisance is Within Every City's Power. As a result of misdirected energy in trying to introduce smoke-preventing apparatus, many devices have been installed, to be operated under conditions of service for which they are totally unfit. Some notorious ones have been imperfectly erected or adjusted, or were ignorantly handled. Others have proved costly to fluctuating conditions. It is not surprising, therefore, that a large percentage of these so-called smoke preventers have proved to be failures, and that nearly all of them have been thrown out at great loss to both purchaser and promoter. So disconcerting was the outlook a few years ago that progressive engineers, despairing of a solution, believing that they remained patiently refractory conditions which no one of the devices on the market could fully meet.

Private Fred W. Kirkpatrick, of "H" Company of the first Canadian contingent, came home Monday afternoon on the C. P. R. from South Africa. Private Kirkpatrick came from South Africa in the 14tho but, because he was attached to "H" Company, he could not reach St. John on the same day as the "G" Company boys. He got a great reception today. There was a big crowd of citizens at the depot. Mayor Daniel was on hand to personally welcome him. The employees of a cigar manufactory, where he used to work, were there in a body, wearing sashes of red, white and blue. They brought with them a four by six team big handkerchief that they had in the marine in South Africa. As soon as Private Kirkpatrick left the train a tremendous cheer was raised. He was asked by several men and raised aloft on their shoulders to the feet, hundreds crowding around him. In the crush was the soldier's father, who just managed to shake his boy's hand before he was carried away with a rush.

An Independent Conservative's Slip at Hugh John.

Mr. Leighton McCarthy, M. P., and an Independent Conservative, says: He had been taunted by Conservatives with trying to fill the shoes of Dalton McCarthy. He cast that back and repudiated it. He knew the shoes and the dachsh of Dalton McCarthy were too large for him, and it would have been a good thing for Hugh John Macdonald if he had recognized that the dachsh and shoes of his father were too big for him. (Applause). He had not a word to say against Hugh John; he liked him, but Hugh John had shown himself wanting in the best feelings of a man when he was willing to stand up beside a lust of his father, whom he would accuse he would have held in reverence, and on that issue being survived have a genuine shout. "He looks more like his father every day."

ACCIDENTS AT SEA. Strange Happenings to Ships And Crews. MANY STORIES. Corsets Throw a Vessel Off Her Course—Sailors Stricken Blind—Unique Occurrence Revealed by a Suit Beought for Salvage.

An argument against women wearing corsets was afforded recently by the experience of the steamer Catala. At first it would not seem possible that a woman's corset could jeopardize the safety of a fine large passenger steamer, but such was the fact.

The second matter reported to the master, Capt. Allen, that the compass had swung aimlessly about, three or four points to the left, then as much to the right. It was impossible to steer a course, and the ship was disabled.

Running to the westward, Capt. Allen found the compass playing games of its own accord, and the quartermaster at his wife's end. Two women were standing there, by permission, to see how the ship was steered, and after a moment's thought the captain asked them if they were wearing steel corsets.

THE AMERICAN ELECTIONS. Press Comments from Russia and Germany. St. Petersburg, Nov. 8.—The Journal de St. Petersburg, the organ of the foreign office, discusses the United States election in a more friendly tone than any other Russian newspaper.

THE ROSIA SAYS: "The result is not without interest to Russia, which has always maintained good relations with America, regardless of parties. A change in this respect seen in the Spanish war, which apparently means 'What's mine is mine, and what's yours is mine, too.'"

THE GERMAN SAYS: "The concessions to the Democrats before the elections were not of great value. It is the victory of a great industrialist, the reactionary Sykes anticipates closer relations between the United States and Great Britain, which will give the latter a preponderance in the European market."

LETTERS OF INTRODUCTION SHOULD NOT BE LAVISHLY DISTRIBUTED. "I disappear of letters of introduction," said an elderly New Orleans business man, "and I won't give one under any circumstances. They are bad form, and they are close on downright impudence."

Two Brothers Stabbed at Oromocto. Fredericton, Nov. 8.—(Special)—A serious affray took place at Oromocto yesterday when Martin Cogswell, of that place, stabbed and wounded two brothers, William and Patrick Poor. The trouble arose, it is understood, over an election argument. Cogswell stabbed William Poor in the back with a knife, the knife cut through the vest, two shirts and a leather belt, but fortunately it just tore the skin and did not penetrate any internal organs.

HUNTING BIRDS WITH THE CAMERA. Of the many delightful birds I have had the good fortune to know, the worm-eating warbler family has afforded me the greatest pleasure; for they become absolutely fearless of the camera, and they place a note, as "Audubon fortynine" (Forney favors the name), the name, originally De Brugh or De Burgo, signifies "the town," and they derive it from their ancestor, John De Brugh, son of Baldwin, grandson of Charles V., son of Charlemagne.

By Mack and O' you'll surely know True Irishmen, they say: But if they lack both "O" and "Mac," No Irishmen are they. Cahir Mor was the 100th monarch in Ireland. He was king of Leinster in the beginning of the second century. He divided his great possessions among 30 sons. His posterity formed the principal families in Leinster; among them were the O'Briens, the O'Murphys, O'Kinsellas and O'Connors.

The Powers lived in Decies, the present county Waterford. Their ancestor was Norman de la Poer. Their crest was a bear's head surmounted by a cross. They were lords of the manor, and were called the Poers.

Triumph of British Administration.

The country was started a few days ago by the announcement that Lord Cromer was about to return to England, and that he had been summoned home so that he might join Lord Salisbury's cabinet...

What, then, is this? Viscount Cromer, the distinguished Englishman, both civil and military, who has worked in co-operation with him, have accomplished for Egypt. When, in 1882, Great Britain undertook the administrative control of the country, Egypt was practically unpopulated, and its government was in complete disorder...

And it should be remembered that all this has been accomplished in the face of difficulties which seemed well nigh insuperable. From the very first Egypt has been shackled by international restrictions, which prevented her from making any use of the money she earned...

No amount of England's work in Egypt would be complete if it did not give upon the enormous advantages which have been conferred upon the country by the great improvements made in irrigation under the direction of British engineers...

The least thing which a whip can look for is a peerage. If he is not out advanced in years he may count on advancement through ministerial office...

While under the most favorable circumstances, the whip gets very few halfpence a day, he is not a sinecure, and he is absolutely devoid of political influence...

It would require a whole volume to recount with any degree of fulness all that England has done for Egypt. We have, however, suggested a few of the services, and they have been given under the direction of Lord Cromer...
