European Intelligence.

FOUR DAYS LATER FROM ENGLAND.
The steamship Atlantic arrived at New York on Saturday the 5th inst with 200 passengers, and Liverpool dates to the 24th August.

The steamship Asia arrived at Liverpool on Sunday morning the 21st.
Parliament was prorogued on the 20th by commission. The following is the Royal Speech—

"My Lords and Gentlemen,
We are commanded by her Majesty to release you from your attendance in Parliament, and at the same time to express her Majesty's cordial approbation of the zeal and assiduity with which, during a protracted and laborious session, you have applied yourselves to the consideration of many subjects of great importance to the public welfare."

"Her Majesty has seen with much satisfaction that, by the remission and reduction of taxes which tended to cramp the operations of trade and industry, you have given fresh extension to a system of beneficent legislation, and have largely increased the means of obtaining the means of obtaining the necessities of life."

"The provision which you have made for meeting the demands of the public service, not only in the present but also in future years, is of a nature to give permanent stability to our finances, and thereby to aid in consolidating the strength and resources of the empire."

"The buoyant state of the revenue, and the steady progress of our foreign trade, are proofs of the wisdom of the commercial policy now firmly established; while the prosperity which pervades the great trading and producing classes, happily, without even a partial exception, affords continued and increasing evidence of the enlarged comforts of the people."

"The measure which you have passed for the future government of India, has been readily sanctioned by her Majesty, in the persuasion that it will prove to have been wisely framed, and that it is well calculated to promote the improvement and welfare of her Majesty's Eastern dominions."

"Her Majesty regards with peculiar satisfaction the provision you have made for the better administration of charitable trusts. The obstacles which existed to the just and beneficial use of property set apart for the purposes of charity and of education, have been a serious public evil, to which her Majesty is persuaded that, in your wisdom, you have now applied an efficient remedy."

"Gentlemen of the House of Commons:
We are commanded by her Majesty to thank you for the supplies which you have granted for the service of the present year, and for the provision which you have made for defence of the country, both by sea and land. Her Majesty will apply them with a due regard to economy, and consistently with that spirit which has at all times made our national security the chief object of her care."

"My Lords and Gentlemen,
Her Majesty commands us to inform you that she continues to receive from her allies the assurance of their unabated desire to cultivate the most friendly relations with this country."

"It is with deep interest and concern that her Majesty has viewed the serious misunderstanding which has recently arisen between Russia and the Ottoman Porte."

"The Emperor of the French has united with her Majesty in earnest endeavours to reconcile differences, the continuance of which might involve Europe in war."

"Acting in concert with her allies, and relying on the exertions of the Conference now assembled at Vienna, her Majesty has good reason to hope that an honourable arrangement will speedily be accomplished."

"Her Majesty rejoices in being able to announce to you the termination of the war on the frontiers of the settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, and she trusts that the establishment of representative government in that colony may lead to the development of its resources, and enable it to make efficient provision for its future defence."

"We are also commanded to congratulate you, that by the united exertions of the naval and military forces of her Majesty and of the East India Company, the war in Burmah has been brought to an honourable and successful issue. The objects of the war having been fully attained, and due submission made by the Burmese government, peace has been proclaimed."

"Her Majesty contemplates with grateful satisfaction and thankfulness to Almighty God, the tranquillity which prevails throughout her dominions; together with that peaceful industry and obedience to the laws, which ensure the welfare of all classes of her subjects. It is the first desire of her Majesty to promote the advance of every social improvement, and, with the aid of your wisdom, still further to extend the prosperity and happiness of her people."

An honorable arrangement of the Eastern Question will speedily be accomplished. Lord Palmerston stated in the House of Commons that he is confident the Czar will evacuate the Principalities without any unnecessary delay. The Eastern question otherwise offers nothing new, and appears no further or nearer to adjustment than before. A telegraphic despatch from Vienna states that the Divan had unanimously recommended the acceptance of the last Austrian project to the Sultan, and the Paris Constitutional adds that it has actually been accepted. It is, however, further stated that the Porte will not send an Ambassador to Russia till the Danubian Provinces have been entirely evacuated.

Major-General Lord Saltoun is dead, aged 69 years. He was one of the Duke of Wellington's most intimate friends, and a brother in arms, and served with General Sir John Moore in the campaign of the Peninsula.

The Camp at Chobham has broken up. Admiral Sir George Cockburn died, recently, aged 82 years, and Sir Charles Napier is reported to be at the point of death.

INDIA.—The overland India mail has been telegraphed, bringing dates from Calcutta to the 16th July, and Hong Kong to July 7th. The King of Ava has submitted to the demands of the British authorities, and peace has been proclaimed in Burmah. Trade in India is dull.

In China, the Imperialists, who were assisted by foreigners, were repulsed by the insurgent forces in an attempt to recapture Chung King Do. The Chinese markets were generally dull.

CONTINENTAL.—The Hospodar of Moldavia has been succeeded by the Sultan for Russian leanings; he refuses to give up, and so the English and French Consuls have withdrawn. Capitalists are wanted to construct a Ship Canal, from the Head of the Danube to the Black Sea, thus avoiding the mouth of the former.

The Emperor and Empress of France have gone to Dieppe; all the ships of war in the channel have been ordered to assemble at that port. The text of the Austrian protest against the Smyrna affair is published and sent to all foreign ministers. It takes the ground that Capt. Ingraham has broken the international law as explained by Vattel and other jurists.

The Emperor of Austria is affianced to the Princess Elizabeth, of Bavaria. The import duty on bread stuffs into the two Sicilies has been repealed.

Some popular demonstrations against the authorities have been made at Leghorno. The export of bread stuffs from Greece has been prohibited. General Monthon, who shared the Emperor Napoleon's captivity at St Helena, died in Paris recently.

A despatch from Russia, dated Taganrog, 31 August, says that the result of the harvest is most favourable, and large purchases of bread stuffs are making for exportation. A conspiracy of Musselmans to kill Christians had just been discovered at Aleppo.

KINDNESS RETURNED.—A writer in the Providence Journal says, that a bachelor died last week in that city, who, nearly fifty years ago was left an orphan, with no kindred blood on which to lean for succour and support. A woman, with true kindness, the most unselfish generosity, took him to her home, and nurtured and sustained him until of an age to go forth into the world and call for himself. The boy came to Providence. He prospered in business, and accumulated a handsome estate. The past week he died. In his last will and testament he handsomely provided for her who was the stay of his infancy and the guide of his childhood.—The good old woman is now far declined in the journey of life, a widow, and poor.

FROST AND ICE IN AUGUST.—The Detroit Daily Advertiser of Monday states, that there was a severe frost the night previous in that city and vicinity. Potatoes, buckwheat and corn were badly nipped, while pumpkins, squashes, cucumbers, melons, sweet potatoes and other tender plants, were completely cut off. In one instance ice was formed in a pool of water placed outside of a house after day-light in the morning.

THE DAUPHIN AGAIN.—Rev. John Hanson, who discovered the dead Dauphin among the Iroquois Indians, writes to the New York Times that the evidence in his possession of the identity of Mr. Williams and Louis XVII. of France, leads to an opinion, irresistible, clear, and logical, and he can say now, with perfect firmness, that every shadow of doubt has passed off my mind; that my judgment is no longer in suspense; that I repose in Mr. Williams confidence the most entire and the most absolute; and that I thank God for having made me an instrument in rescuing from undeserved reproach one of the best, and certainly most ill understood of men." He also says he stakes his reputation, as a man of common sense and discernment, on the issue, and he asks the public to suspend judgment until his work is issued.

STRANGE SIGHT.—Twenty Swarms of Bees at War.—Ezra Dibble, a well known citizen of this town, and for many years engaged extensively in the management of bees, communicates to us the following interesting particulars of a battle among his bees:—

He has seventy swarms of bees, about equally divided on the east and west sides of his house. On Sunday, Aug. 14, about 3 o'clock, the weather being warm, and the windows open, his house was suddenly filled with bees, which forced the family to flee at once to the neighbors. Mr. D., after getting well protected against his assailants, proceeded to take a survey, and, if possible, learn the cause which had disturbed them. The 70 swarms appeared to be out, and those on one side of the house were arrayed in battle against those on the other side, and such a battle was perhaps never before witnessed.

They filled the air, covering a space of more than one acre of ground, and fought desperately for some three hours—not for "spoils," but for conquest; and while at war no living thing could exist in the vicinity. They stung a large flock of Shanghai chickens, nearly all of which died, and persons passing along the roadside were obliged to make haste to avoid their stings. A little after six o'clock quiet was restored, and the living bees returned to their hives, leaving the slain almost literally covering the ground, since which few have appeared around the hives, and those apparently stationed as sentinels to watch the enemy. But two young swarms were entirely destroyed, and aside from the terrible slaughter of bees, little injury was done. Neither party was victorious, and they only ceased on the approach of night, and from utter prostration. The occasion of this strange war among the bees is not easily accounted for; and those most conversant with their management never before witnessed or heard of such a spectacle as here narrated.—[Connecticut (Ohio) Reporter.]

THE PERT YOUNG MAN.

There is a period in the life of a young man which may appropriately be called the age of puerility. It is at that period when he is a little more than a boy, and a good deal less than a man; when the hand, stroked across the chin, detects a sort of downy inequality, and visions of barbers and razors rise up constantly before him—"when the tailor suddenly becomes a person of vast importance, and he begins to talk of the "men of our college, and the ladies of our acquaintance." Very tight pantaloons, displaying immense moral and physical courage in venturing into the world with such slender supports as they contain; a cravat of great proportions; a knowing half-jockey, half-gentleman; gold chain and a quizzing glass, make up the external qualifications of the pert young man. He sets his legs apart in addressing men old enough to be his grandfather, twirls his cigar, and calls him "my dear fellow," or "my boy." His paternal parent he always calls "the governor," and never thinks of him or refers to him, except when he wants the "governor to come down handsomely," who, he maintains, has no right to "expect a man" to be unable to pay his billiard expenses. He walks the streets as though he owned them; salutes the ladies with a fascinating smile, takes of his hat to them when he has passed them, as though he did not wish the courtesy to be observed; but, then, he had observed older men to do this, and he thinks it "dem'd gentlemanly" to do so likewise. His conversational powers are very limited, never having fathomed any deeper than the bottom of brandy smash, or extended his inquiry beyond the bill of fare of his favorite restaurant. In his manner to ladies he is rather patronizing, and at the same time very humane; for in the first instance, he acts upon the conviction of the inferiority of the sex; and in the next, with consideration with regard to the killing effects of his own beauty and many accomplishments. He cannot possibly marry them all, and to show partiality would be unfair.—His head is the only place where Nature acknowledges a perfect vacuum.

TRUTH PREFERRED TO LIFE.—When the immortal Sydney was told that he might save his life by telling a falsehood, denying his hand writing, he said, "When God hath brought me into a dilemma in which I must assert a lie or lose my life, he gives me a clear indication of my duty, which is to prefer death to falsehood."

FARMING.

If one half the zeal, energy, and expense that blows so many gazettes with low and coarse abuse, setting the whole community by the ears for the vain and paltry purpose of a few demagogues and office seekers, were bestowed on the advancement of agriculture. If the people were half so ambitious to improve and beautify their fields as they are to settle the affairs of the nation; and half so angry with thistles, thorns and poor fences, as they are with their political opponents, who probably wish as well to the country as they, we should have more productive fields, less compasses of poverty more ability to be charitable and magnificent, and abundantly more good feelings. From Pittsburgh to New Orleans the son plows as his father did before him, and the great masses of farmers are as stationary in theory as they are in practice. Nine in ten believe at this moment, that book farming is the mere, useless, visionary dreaming of men that knowing a bit of practical agriculture.

We would tell that England is the garden of Europe simply because almost every acre of the ground is cultivated scientifically, and on principles which have been brought to the test of the most rigid and exact experiment. We would tell them that New England, of whose soil and climate they are accustomed to think, as consigned by Providence, to sterility and inclemency, is the garden of the United States, only because the industrious and calculating people do not throw away their efforts in the exerting of mere brute strength—but bring mind, system, experience to bear upon their naturally hard and thankless soil.

On every side the passing traveller sees verdure, grass and orchards in the small and frequent enclosures of imperishable rock, and remarks fertility won from the opposition of the elements and nature. After an absence of ten years on our return to our country, we were struck with this proud and noble triumph conspicuous over the whole region.

The real beneficiaries of mankind as St. Pierre so beautifully said, are those who cause two blades of wheat to mature where one did before. The fields ought to be the morning and evening thrones of Americans that love their country. To fertilize and improve his farm, ought to be the prime temporal object of the owner of the substantial soil. All an usual aggrandizement, power and wealth may be traced to agriculture, as its ultimate source. Commerce and manufactures are only subordinate results of this enterprise.

We consider agriculture as very subsidiary not only to abundance, industry, comfort and health, but to good morals and ultimately even to religion. We should always say and sing, "Speed the plow." We shall always regard the American farmer, a rippled to his employment as the first order of nobility among us. We wish them beautiful harvests, good beer and moderate use of cider; and if he will rear it himself, of the grape, but none of the pernicious gladdness of whiskey; and we shall only invoke upon his labors the blessings of God, and say of him peace be within his walls.—[Reverend T. Finis.]

A THRILLING SCENE.

The following narrative—a true one—describes a scene that actually took place not many years since, in a country town in the state of Maine.

One evening in month of December, eighteen hundred and thirty four, a number of townsmen had assembled at the store of a Mr. Thomas Putnam, to talk over matters and things—smoke, drink and in short do anything to "kill time."

Three hours had thus passed away. They had laughed, and talked, and drank, and chatted, and had a good time generally; so that about the usual hour of shutting up shop, each of the party felt particularly first rate.

"Come," said Charles Hatch—one of the company—"let's all liquor, and then have a game of high law Jack!"

"So I say," exclaimed another who's got the cards? "Fetch on your heels!" drawled out another, his eyes half closed, through the effects of the liquor he had drank.

After drinking all round, an old pine table was drawn up before the fireplace, where, burned brightly a large fire of henlock logs, which would snap and crackle—throwing large live coals out upon the hearth.

All drew up around the table, seating themselves on whatever came handiest. Four of them had rolled up to the table some kegs, which from their weight were supposed to contain nails.

"Now," said Hatch, "how shall we play—every one for himself?"

"No—have parties," growled one man. "I say, every one for himself," exclaimed another.

"No, hang it if I'll play so, should the former—bringing his fist down upon the table

LAW RESPECTING NEWSPAPER.

Subscribers who do not give express notice to the contrary, are considered as wishing to continue their subscriptions.

If Subscribers order the discontinuance of their papers, the publisher may continue to send them till the arrears are paid. If Subscribers neglect or refuse to take their papers from the office to which they are directed, they are held responsible till they have settled their Bill, and ordered their papers to be discontinued.

If Subscribers remove to other place without informing the publisher, and the paper is sent to the former direction, they are held responsible.

knocking one candle out of the stick, and so, no her upon the floor.
"Come, come," said Hatch, "No quarrelling—all who say for having partners, stand up."

Three arose.
"Now all who say, each one for himself—stand up."

The remaining four immediately got up. "You see, Barclay," said Hatch, "the majority are against us. Come, will you play?" "Well as I don't want to be on the opposite side, I'll play," answered Barclay, somewhat coolly down.

Mr. Putnam was now in the store that evening, and the clerk who was busy behind the counter had taken very little notice of the proceedings. About half past ten, Mr. Putnam thought he would stop over in his store, and see that everything was safe. As he went in he walked up towards the fire.

When within a few steps of where the men were sitting he started back in horror. Before him sat seven men; half crazy with drink and the excitement of playing cards. There they were within a few feet of the fire just described—and four of them, seated on kegs of powder.

Barclay who was a very heavy man—had pressed in the head of the keg on which he sat, bursting the top-chop, and pressing the powder out through the chinks. By the continued motion of their feet, the powder had become spread about the floor, and now covered a space of two feet all round them.

Mr. Putnam's first movement was towards the door, but recovering himself, he walked off to the fire. Should either of them attempt to rise—he thought—and scatter a few grains a little further into the fireplace, where lay a large quantity of live coals?

At that moment Hatch looked up, and seeing Mr. Putnam with his face deadly pale, gazing into the fire, exclaimed, "Good God, Putnam, what are you?" and at the same time made a motion to rise.

"For heaven's sake, gentlemen, do not rise," said Mr. Putnam. "Don't you sit on kegs of powder—it is scattered all around you—one movement might send you into eternity. There are two buckets of water behind the bar. But keep your seats for one minute, and you are saved—more, and you are dead men!"

In an instant every man was perfectly paralyzed—not a limb moved—each seemed paralyzed.

Less time than we have taken to describe this thrilling scene, Mr. Putnam had poured on the water and completely saturated the floor and extinguished the fire so that an explosion was impossible. Then, and not till then, was there a word spoken.

Before those seven men left the store, the very night, they pledged themselves never to taste another drop of liquor or play another game of cards.—[American Union.]

The humbug about our New England fishermen arming themselves for hostilities off the Canadian Coasts, is about exploded. We have heard of but one man who took a deadly weapon with him—which weapon was in the shape of a jug, loaded with Rum. He will be liable to get a "shot" himself.—[Argus.]

GRAND STATUE.—A gigantic equestrian statue in honor of Charles XVI. of Sweden (Bernadotte) has just been cast in one piece with the exception of the head and right arm of the king and of the head and tail of the horse, in the Royal Foundry at Munich. It is seventeen feet high, and between twenty and thirty tons in weight, and yet the horse is made to stand on its hind legs. The statue has been designed by M. Eggelberg, a Swedish sculptor of note, and is destined for Stockholm.

A GOOSE NOT ALWAYS A GOOSE.—The following story we take from the Dundee Warder.—"Sagacity of a Gander." A gentleman on whose veracity we can rely, related to us the other day a most singular circumstance, illustrative of extraordinary sagacity in one of the feathered tribe.

One day last week a gander "on duty" near the Canal Basin, was keeping guard over a flock of geese, which he did with all the pride imaginable. But presently a pugnacious cock attacked the geese, which led to a rencontre between his foster-son and the gander. The contest, however, was of short duration, for the gander seized the cock by the neck, and straightway flew in to the canal, where he thrust his antagonist under the water, and there held him till he was dead! We have read of wonderful instinctive acts of dogs and horses, but we question if any more summary proceeding was ever adopted by man or beast to vanquish a foe than this.

Circulating by order of the Emperor, is blocked up, to prevent imputation of articles from Sutyran. It is stated that the Circassians had taken by storm several Russian forts.

FEDERAL UNION OF THE COLONIES.

We are reminded by the remarks of one of our correspondents, that we stand pledged to the advocacy of a Federal Union of the British North American Provinces. Our readers must not imagine that, because we have long been silent upon this measure, we have entirely lost sight of it. No, but on the contrary, we have long been watching with a steady eye, the movements and counter-movements of our leading Colonial Statesmen, especially those of Nova Scotia, in the earnest hope that some of them, at least, would fearlessly enter this ample and inviting field. Alas! we have waited in vain, and our patience being nearly exhausted, we will volunteer a few remarks on the good cause.

What a most ridiculous aspect do these Provinces present to the world! Here are five of them; three entirely unseparated by water, and the other two lying so near that a regular communication is easily maintained—the inhabitants of all being similar in manners and pursuits—all speaking the same language, with slight exceptions, and all subject to the government of Great Britain, and yet, with so many causes for union, they have scarcely more unity of action than if their inhabitants were barbarians to each other. But whenever Colonial Union is propounded by one of its few advocates, up starts some non-progressive spirit and asks how such a union is to be effected. Such an enquiry we were about to say, should be treated with ineffable scorn. What! are none of our Colonial Statesmen, of whose talents we hear so much, adequate to the simple task of framing a common constitution for the benefit of all the Colonies, leaving each the management of its own affairs? We must believe that many of them are fully competent; but their accused party squabbles and contentions for the people's money, leave them no time to attend to this important subject.

How the measure is to be effected is not the province of the public Journalist to show—it belongs rather to the Statesman or Legislator. It is enough for us to know that it is necessary to the full and perfect development of all our Colonial resources and for the protection of our interests, that such a scheme is necessary.

For a period of five or six years our neighbours over the border have been among themselves and at the same time gratifying their cupidity by robbing the Colonies of their market, under the pretence of establishing a system of reciprocal Free Trade. With Canada, New Brunswick and Nova Scotia, they have successfully tried the trick, and after having got free ingress into all the ports of these Provinces, the wily Jonathan laughs at his own cleverness and the stupidity of the Colonists, and shrewdly concludes it is best for him to protect his own trade.

Now, if the Colonies had been united and acted in concert, it would have been hard for the United States to have played off such a scurvy trick upon us. Under such a Union, all intercolonial duties would necessarily be abolished, all difference in currency would also disappear, and acting with energy, gathered by united strength, we could hold our neighbours off at the proper distance, and say to them—protect your trade against us, and we will protect your trade, fisheries, and navigation against you, and fear no loss by the arrangement.

Then, again, how much more rational, and how much more easily it would have been, for a confederation to have negotiated the intercolonial railway, instead of each province dashing away at it, independent of the others. Had it been dealt with by the Colonies united, there is no room to doubt that it would now be far in advance of where it is—especially in Nova Scotia—and that too, upon far more advantageous terms. But enough for the present. We will recur to the subject.—[Halifax British North American.]

DEATH FROM SUFFOCATION.—Yesterday a French Canadian from Howe Island, named Nerrie Reviere, while at dinner, became suffocated by a bit of meat lodging in his throat. Medical assistance was obtained, the impacted mass removed from his throat, and the usual means for resuscitation were resorted to, but without effect; life being quite extinct. Houghton's Galvanic Machine was used and although it did not restore life, its effects upon the body were as intense as those produced by Sir Humphrey Davy's famous battery of five hundred pairs of plates. Heaving of the chest, tossing of the arms, throwing of the head, and distortions of the various muscles of the face and neck, growning, frowning, laughing, winking, the appearance of crying, whistling, &c. Almost all the human passions were thus successively portrayed upon the dead corpse, to the extreme horror of the bystanders. An inquest was held by Mr. Coroner Benson, and a verdict rendered in accordance with the facts.—[Kingston News.]

SINGULAR CAUSE OF DEATH.—On Saturday last, a young man, son of Mr. Bond, of the firm of Bond & Todd, carriers, Woburn, died. The circumstances attending his death were remarkable. On Thursday last, while in his usual good health, he was called to remove some hides from a wagon; he had a slight scratch upon his face, so slight as to be scarcely noticeable, and during his work, he incautiously touched the spot with his hands; immediately a redness was observed, swelling quickly succeeded and extended over his face. Although he had the best medical aid, the poison which he had received by the inoculation was too active and too powerful to yield to remedial treatment. The poison was received from the hides. This is the third death which has occurred in North Woburn within a year from a similar cause.—[Chronicle.]

The American Yacht Sailed Defeated.—The London Advertiser contains a long account of the great yacht race at Cowes, on the 20th ult. Seven vessels started, and it was the general impression that the American would prove the victor, but after a beautifully contested race the English yacht Julia came in ahead, leading the Silvio, which was second, 6 minutes and 38 seconds.

THE FEVER AT THE SOUTH.—The deaths at New Orleans during the week ending on the night of the 3d were 995—a decrease of over 600 from the previous week. Of them, 814 were from yellow fever. From Natchez the telegraph of the 3d reports from 13 to 15 deaths from fever daily, in a population not exceeding 400—almost all the inhabitants having fled. At Mobile, on Friday, the interments were 37, a large increase over the average.

European Intelligence.

ARRIVAL OF THE ASIA.—The steamship Asia arrived at New York at 10 o'clock on 8th inst., with Liverpool dates to the 27th August, three days later. The political news is unimportant and unchanged.

The market for Breadstuffs continued excited. Wheat was 6d. higher; Flour 1s. 6d. to 2s. advance, and Indian Corn 6d. to 1s. Ashea in moderate demand. Tea active at full prices.

The harvest was progressing rapidly in England. The weather was unsettled, but the crops generally were uninjured.

The troubles in Servia, before reported, did not attain the dignity of a revolution, but were mere party squabbles.

Mr. Ingersoll, on the 24th, announced his recall, and Mr. Buchanan was presented to the Queen.

Belgium's recent matrimonial alliance with Austria was not well received at Paris.

The Eastern question is totally unchanged, nothing new having transpired, but everything regards it as settled. It was reported that the Russians had commenced to recross the Pruth, but it was untrue.

It is believed that the Vienna Conference were occupied in smoothing points of mere punctilio.

There has been some fighting in Morocco. The Emperor was victorious.

The Tunis government warns foreign merchants not to negotiate Tunis Bank bills, or export permits for oil, until further orders, here having been frauds committed on the government.

The screw steamer Taurus sailed on Wednesday for New York, via Boston.

AN IMPORTANT ARCHEOLOGICAL DISCOVERY has recently been made in Bulgaria. Two Greek inscriptions are said to have been found, one of which, in a place now called Anadokios, reveals the site of the ancient Tomes, celebrated as the place of exile of the poet Ovid. The other (which is believed) establishes the identity of Varoa, when it was found with the ancient Polesus. The site of Tomes has hitherto been placed by some at Temesvar, by others at the mouth of the Danube.

DEATH OF A VETERAN IN THE BRITISH ARMY.—Colonel Joseph Creighton, a native of Nova Scotia, in the 71st year of his age, departed this life on Friday last, the 2nd of September. Col. Creighton was retired on half pay, from the 59th Regiment in which corps he occupied a distinguished post at the taking of the Cape of Good Hope, at Java, and in the Mauritius. He served for a long period in the West Indies, during part of the time in command of his regiment.

The remains of Camp Hill Cemetery—Decayed was a native of Lunenburg, N. S. Col. C. went out to the East an Esq., and returned to England a Field Officer of the 59th.—[British North American.]

The first public meeting ever held in the Turkish Empire, in connection with the Bible Society, took place in Constantinople, on Monday the 13th of June last. It was presided over by the British Ambassador, Lord Stratford de Redcliffe. This an epoch in the history of the Bible, and indicates that in the city Capital of the "Frophet," Islamic pride and intolerance are on the wane, and that the word of God is rising in influence and power.

DISTINGUISHED CHRISTIANS AT SARATOGA.—The recent visitors at Saratoga there were the Pope's Nuncio to Brazil, Father Bedini, Archbishop Hughes, Father Gavazzi, the Rev. Mr. Hilliard an ex-member of Congress and a distinguished Methodist Preacher of Alabama, imbibing simultaneously the waters of Congress Spring; and Judge Edmonds the late expounder of Spiritual manifestations, was expected to arrive in the evening. What a splendid company for a small dinner party!

NEW YORK CRYSTAL PALACE BY GAS LIGHT.—Some of the New York papers give very glowing descriptions of the Crystal Palace by Gas Light, as it appeared for the first time on Friday evening. The lights were so disposed and so numerous, as to display the beautiful building in all its proportions, to its very dome, and all the variegated and beautiful contents of the palace to the greatest advantage. These—many of them at least—were said to appear even more attractive by gas light than by sun light. The splendid picture gallery was thrown open on Friday evening for the first time. The Saloon extends from 40th to 42d street, and is hung with two or three deep with pictures, and the whole exhibition is now said to be so complete and beautiful as to demand universal attention and admiration.

THE STANDARD.

WEDNESDAY, SEP. 14, 1853.

Since our last publication, we have received the Royal Gazette, which contains a proclamation by the Lieut. Governor proroguing the Assembly from the 2d Sept. to the 11th October next. It is very generally supposed that at the meeting of the Executive Council, which will take place the latter part of the present week, that the question will be settled. One thing we feel sure of, and that is, there is no good to be gained by a Dissolution of the House this fall; and that the present Executive need not fear "an appeal to the people." In the mean time, some folks are busy canvassing—very busy.—We confine ourselves to our own County.

A STEAM TUG.—We learn that the enterprising people of St. George, intend building a steamer for the purpose of towing vessels, rafts, &c. This is a move in the right direction, as such a boat is much required. It is generally admitted that a steamer of this description would pay. We trust our townsmen will not allow themselves to be outdone in the matter, but that they will either build or purchase a steamer for this purpose immediately, which might be profitably engaged, when not towing, in carrying passengers and freight to the out-ports, and also to Robbinston. Travellers to and from the United States might then drive their carriages on board the steamer, and land either at Robbinston, or St. Andrews. Besides, many persons would be induced to visit Charlotte County during the summer, when they know there are travelling facilities to convey them to the beautiful Islands in the Bay, St. George, Digdegwash, &c., and in addition, to enjoy a pleasant ride on the railway several miles through thriving settlements and forest scenery, and inhale the pure and healthy air for which this County is celebrated.

A large number of the inhabitants of St. Andrews and vicinity, left the town yesterday morning by steamers for St. John, to witness the ceremony of "Digging the First Sod" of the European & North American Railway this day. Some parties went up in waggons for the same purpose. His Excellency issued a proclamation declaring the day a Public Holiday.

The first Sod is to be turned by Sir Edmund Head. Robert Stevenson, the great Engineer of his time, will take part in the ceremony, together with Mr. Jackson, Mr. Betts, and the Officers of the Grand Trunk Railway of Canada. It is said Canada, Nova Scotia, P. E. Island and Newfoundland, will be represented on the occasion by many of their public men. Upwards of 600 persons came on in the "Eastern City" yesterday with two bands from Boston.

The day is as fine as one as could be desired for the Demonstration.

FLOUR AND BREAD.—Within the last three days there has been a most extraordinary rise in the necessary articles of flour and bread; why, we cannot conceive. The grain crops in Canada, United States and Europe, are abundant. As there can be no plea or excuse for this rise, so we trust, as the St. John "Observer" remarks, "public opinion will be brought to bear effectively against its continuance."

The "Head Quarters" has been purchased by Messrs. Grigor and Graham, who intend enlarging and otherwise improving the paper. It will be edited by Mr. Grigor, who was formerly its editor, while published by the late Mr. Phillips. Mr. Grigor is favorably known as a writer, and reporter. We wish the new firm abundant success.

By our advertising columns it will be noticed, that Messrs. Thompson & Co., have completed the erection of their Brewery, and will be ready to supply Beer of a superior quality, after the 1st proximo.

JOBBER.—We copy the following, from the Reporter of the 9th inst., and cannot help thinking it bears a strong resemblance to a system of "jobbing," which in the early stages of Railway construction, was so bitterly complained of—but which has long since been put a stop to in England. We will require a HEREPATH in the Provinces, to watch the movements of the parties alluded to, and perhaps expose some such case as that which we copied a few months ago, of "Messrs. Take-All & Co.," who not only bought off other contractors, but managed to get an enormous contract price for their work and to have Engineers employed by the Directors, who were sub rosa in the interest of, and under salary from Take-All & Co.—The Reporter says:

Mr. Morton, the American Engineer employed on the part of this Province to superintend and control the Railway surveys of Mr. Jackson, has received the sum of £550 for two or three brief visits which he has recently paid us. It is also rumoured that he has suspended the operations of Mr. Wilkinson, who was surveying the line on the Douglas Valley Route, and that a party under his own immediate control, and entirely in his interest, is now proceeding with that survey. We have heard of certain gentleman contractors, figuring in the double capacity of a company to pay for the work, and another to perform it; but if Mr. Morton who was hired to superintend Mr. Jackson's proceedings, is now accomplishing the survey himself, we would beg most respectfully to enquire, who is employed to watch him in his turn? We think the Company ought to employ Mr. Wilkinson for this purpose; and we are sure a more competent Engineer, or one more devoted to the interests of New Brunswick, cannot be found in the whole service.—[Fredericton Reporter.]

ST. ANDREWS AND QUEBEC RAILROAD.

We had the pleasure of taking a ride the other day in the first Railroad Car which has been brought to this Province. The road from St. Andrews towards Woodstock is now fully made some 11 miles, the distance to which the car goes. It is also graded a much greater distance and the work is now going on rapidly. New Brunswick has been a long time anxiously waiting for a Railroad and some considerable time must yet elapse, before the people of Woodstock can see the train rushing past them, or be startled by the loud whistle which announces its approach. But it is gratifying to know that there is every reason to believe that our first iron road will be a good one. At all events that portion of it which is already constructed will bear comparison with the best Railroads in the United States. Much difficulty was at one time anticipated with regard to the erection of some bridges on the line and a breakwater in the vicinity of St. Andrews. But these obstacles have been most happily and effectually removed by the ingenuity and ability of Mr. Light the much respected chief engineer.

There are now about four hundred men at work on the road, and a large company of recruits is daily expected to arrive. If we are not misinformed, the company will shortly commence operations at the intended terminus, at or near Woodstock. This is much to be desired—it would infuse new life among us—make that useful article money more plentiful, and give our farmers a good market within sight of their own homes.—[Woodstock Reformer.]

THE CASE OF BISHOP DOANE.—New York Sept. 1. The House of Bishops of the Episcopal Church assembled this morning at the Odd Fellows Hall, Camden, to investigate the charges against Bishop Doane, of the Diocese of New Jersey. Bishop Brownell presided, who stated that in accordance with the rules of the House, the proceedings would be private. Bishop Doane's counsel are G. M. Wharton and W. M. Meredith, of Philadelphia, and Judge Chambers, of Maryland. One of the new charges against the Bishop is said to be concerning a claim for gas fixtures. A motion to adjourn the session to Burlington, is now under discussion.

Second Despatch.—Bishop Doane's trial is still progressing. Among the charges made by Bishops M'Ilvaine, Mead and Burgess, is one of paying unlawful usury for money. After the presentment had been read, Bishop Utingham offered a resolution, to the effect that as the charges had been disposed of by a previous Court, the committee of the Diocese of New Jersey be now heard, objected to, on the ground that the motion was equivalent to quashing the indictment, which could only come from the respondent. Bishop Doane asked for time to consider whether he would make that motion.

GOLD IN MAINE.—A friend has shown us a specimen of veritable gold dust, taken by himself from the newly discovered mine upon the Sandy River, in Maine. He does not, however, speak very encouragingly of the extent and richness of the diggings.—The locality, which is some twenty miles from Farmington, bears strong resemblances to gold regions in California; and it was through these resemblances that a returned miner from California made the discovery.—The discoverer is making arrangements to prosecute the digging with improved means, and already half a dozen miners are employed in washing out the precious deposits, which are found upon the banks and in the bed of the river. From 50 to 75 cents a day is said that any miner has thus far realized.—[Traveller.]

A Pic-Nic under the auspices of the Roman Catholics of Fredericton took place at the Hermitage on Tuesday last, which was well attended and went off in a very creditable manner. The Head Quarters says that "with the immense concourse of every variety of condition, persuasion, taste, pursuit, and habit, we never saw more decorum and propriety—not only so, the greatest courtesy and kindness marked the intercourse of everybody. The sports were prosecuted with equal spirit and kind feeling; in a word every thing went pleasantly, and the "Organ of St. Dunstan's Cathedral has been purchased by a day of christian fellowship spent in rational enjoyment.—[New Brunswick.]

Some 900 half dollar tea tickets were sold in Fredericton, and it is reported 400 in St. John; in addition to this, all the admission moneys to the grounds are to be calculated. At least 1500 persons must have been upon the grounds at one time, and the net receipts in this City must equal £200, so that the managers of the affair who deserve a great deal of credit, got what is better—a great deal of cash.

MARRIAGES.—At the Howard Settlement, Dumfries, on the 6th inst., by Rev. Thomas Harin, Missionary, Mr. William Dickinson, of Howard Settlement, to Mrs. Samuel Dickinson, of the Parish of Wakefield, County of Carleton.

THE LIFE AND TIMES OF THE LATE
Duke of Wellington;
By Lieut. Col. Williams (a Companion in Arms, of His Grace.)

Comprising the Campaigns and Battle-Fields of Wellington and his Comrades, the Political Life of the Duke and his Contemporaries, and a detailed account of England's Battles by Sea and Land, from the commencement of the Great French Revolution to the present time, interspersed with Anecdotes, Personal Incidents, and Adventures, etc.

ADDRESS.
The earthly career of Arthur Duke Wellington has closed; one of the greatest men of the nineteenth century, the foremost military commander of his age, has paid the debt of nature. The time has now arrived for giving to the Events of his Life and Time—a life marked by patriotism, probity and honour, and events the greatest which have ever agitated the civilized world, and whose influence will be felt upon society till the end of time. Such a work must appeal to the best and proudest feelings in the heart of every Briton—the glory of his country, the honour of its name and position among the nations—may his own existence as a freeman, be recorded and engraven in the annals of the "well fought fields," and the deadly imminent perils, the immortal battles and the glorious sieges in which Wellington and his Companions in arms gathered unfading laurels, placed their country's honour and renown on the highest pinnacle of fame and glory, and tore the victor's wreath from the brows of heroes decorated with the trophies of Italy, Egypt, and Germany.
To supply such a desideratum in English literature, the publishers of The Life and Times of the Duke of Wellington have determined to produce a book which shall present to the reader, not only the dry details which a mere biographical sketch would afford, but a comprehensive work, embracing the contemporaneous history of the period; exhibiting the circumstances which brought about the great events in which the Duke and his contemporaries were engaged, and giving to the reader a connected narrative of the lives and actions of the Warriors and Statesmen of the nineteenth century; and this from the pen of one who was a companion in arms of the great hero, and participated with him in many a well fought field.
In order to carry out their views, the Publishers have determined that the work shall be profusely illustrated by Portraits of the Warriors and Statesmen of the last half century who have shed a lustre upon the history of their country; also representations of the most important engagements by sea and land from the period of 1780 till 1852; so that the work, when finished, shall form an Illustrated Gallery of the Naval and Military Exploits of England.
It has been well said, "Character is the true strength of nations; true glory their best inheritance. When the time shall come that the British heart no longer thrills at the names of Cressy, Poitiers, Agincourt, Blenheim, Ramilies, Oudenarde, Malplaque; of Talavera, Salamanca, "The four," Waterloo—the last hour of the British Empire will be struck." The promotion and elevation of national spirit and feeling is therefore the duty and interest of every true and loyal son of England. May Heaven inspire the hearts of every one of us with that spirit and feeling.
Conditions of Publication.—The work will be issued on the 1st and 15th of every month, in Parts at 1s. 3d. and Divisions handsomely bound at 9s. 4d. printed on Imperial 8vo double columns, each part will be embellished by two highly finished steel Engravings, and will contain 32 pages of letter press. A beautiful steel Engraving, 13 by 19 inches, the storming of Seringapatam, the first victory in which the late Duke of Wellington was engaged in India, to every subscriber to the work.

JUDSON'S CHEMICAL EXTRACT OF

CHERRY AND LUNGWORT, FOR THE CURE OF Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Spitting of Blood, Night Sweats, Asthma, Liver Complaints, and CONSUMPTION.

CONSUMPTION. Can be and has been cured in thousands of cases by this only certain remedy. JUDSON'S CHEMICAL EXTRACT OF CHERRY AND LUNGWORT, and no remedy has ever before been discovered that will certainly

CURE CONSUMPTION. The most strongly marked and developed cases of Pulmonary Consumption, where the lungs have become diseased and ulcerated and the case so utterly hopeless, as to have been pronounced by Physicians and friends, to be past all possibility of recovery, and at times thought to be dying, has been cured by this wonderful remedy, and are now as well and hearty as ever. It is a compound of medications which are peculiarly adapted to, and essentially necessary for the cure of

COUGHS AND CONSUMPTION. Its operation is mild, yet efficacious; it loosens the phlegm which creates so much difficulty, relieves the cough, and assists nature to expel from the system all diseased matter by excretion, producing a most delightful change in the breathing and chest, and this, after the prescriptions of the very best medical men and the inventions of kind sorrowing friends and Nurses, have failed to give the smallest relief to the Consumptive sufferer.

THOUSANDS OF CONSUMPTIVE persons have been deceived in buying medicines which were said to be infallible cures, but which have proved only palliatives, but this medicine is not only a palliative but a cure for ulcerated lungs. It contains no deleterious drugs and one trial will prove its astonishing efficacy better than any assertions or certificates in curing consumption and all diseases of the Lungs, such as Spitting of Blood, Coughs, pains in the side and chest, night sweats, &c. &c. About 1000 certificates of almost miraculous cures, performed by this medicine, from some of the first Doctors, Clergymen and Merchants, have been sent us for this medicine, but the publication of them looks too much like Quackery, and will show them to any person calling at our office. This medicine will speak for itself and enough in its own favour wherever it is tried.

Caution.—This medicine is put up in a large bottle and you must find the name of Comstock & Brother, Proprietors, New York, on the splendid Wrapper around the bottle. All orders must be addressed to Comstock & Brother, No. 9, John St. New York.

TO OWNERS OF AND DEALERS IN HORSES.

CARLTON'S FOUNDER OINTMENT. For the cure of Founder, Split Hoof, Hoof bound Horses, and contracted and Feverish Feet, Wounds, Bruises in the flesh Galled Backs, Cracked Heels, Scratches Cuts, Kicks, &c., on horses.

CARLTON'S RING-BONE CURE. For the cure of Ring Bone, Blood Spavin Bone Spavin, Windgalls, and Splint—a certain remedy.

CARLTON'S CONDITION POWDER. FOR HORSES AND CATTLE.

The changes of weather and season, with the change of use and feed, have a very great effect upon the blood and sinuous fluids of horses. It is at those changes they require an assistant to nature to throw off any disorder of the fluids of the body that may have been imbibed, and which, if not attended to, will result in the Yellow Water, Heaves, Worms, Boils, &c. All of which will be prevented by giving one of these powders, and will at any time cure it when any symptoms of disease appears if used in time. They purify the blood, remove all inflammation and fever, loosen the skin, cleanse the water, and invigorate the whole body, enabling them to do more work with the same feed. The action of these powders is direct upon all the secretive glands, and therefore have the same effect upon the Horse, the Ox, the Ass, and all Herbivorous animals—all diseases arising from or producing a bad state of the blood are speedily cured by them.
