MIDDLETON NOVA SCOTIA

We would offer the suggestion that cars be parked on only one side of Main Street, between Bridge and Queen Streets, especially on Saturday nights. When cars are parked on both sides, there is only a narrow passage way between, which is usually of insufficient width to permit two cars to pass. It might be noted too, that some drivers park their cars too close to an intersection, and make it difficult for others to make the corners safely. —Safety First.

Luck means the hardships and privations which you have not hesitated to endure; the faithful hours you have devoted to work; the appointments you have never failed to keep and the trains you have never failed to catch.

McDONALD SCHOOL NOTES

The following is the pass list of Grades I—VIII of MacDonald School, as determined by the recent grading examinations. The marks of the various pupils as well as the names of the prize winners are not being published at this time, as it was thought it would detract interest from our commencement exercises at the beginning of next term, when this information as well as the prizes themselves will be given out.

BROOKLYN

Miss Isobel Patterson of Margaretville, spent the week end with her friend, Miss Beatrice Bruce. Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Penney spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. H. Armstrong of North Kingston. Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Thompson motored to Digby on Saturday to visit with friends there. Those writing the exams at Middleton are: The Misses Helen Stevenson, Beatrice Bruce, Addie and Winifred Whitman, Marjorie Banks, and Balsey Thompson, Parker Turner and Murray Burgess. Rev. Mr. Rackham will give a musical concert in the Hall on Friday evening, June 26th. Silver collection. Ice Cream will be served. Proceeds for Church purposes. Miss Hazel Bartheaux was the guest of Miss Helen Stevenson on Sunday.

ADVERTISERS

July 1st falls off Wednesday of next week. This is the day before publication in order that our staff may enjoy this holiday it will be necessary for all copies for change of ads to be in our office by Monday noon and new advertisements not later than Tuesday noon. We do not ask this favor very often and we trust our advertisers will assist us this time. Every body likes a holiday July 1st—even to printers.
Not later than Monday noon—sooner if convenient. Thanks.

NICTAUX FALLS

June 22nd—An excellent song service was given on Sunday evening, in the Methodist Church, consisting of solos, duets, quartets and music by a choir of 20 male voices. A number from Torbrook assisted the home talent. Mrs. Shirley Bartheaux was the efficient organist, and Miss Robinson gave a very appropriate reading. All parts were well rendered, and a silver collection was taken. A number of the pupils from this school who have been under the teaching of Mr. C. F. Purdy, are writing in Middleton this week. A. J. Banks has been the guest of his brother, B. S. Banks during the past week. Mr. Rupert Bent of Connecticut, formerly a Nictaux boy, has been a recent guest of his aunt, Mrs. Edwin Bartheaux. After an absence of 27 years from his native home many changes were noted. He was accompanied by two friends from the States, who spent some time while here fishing for salmon. They all returned to their homes last Saturday. Leslie Acker went to the States on Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Arch. Feindel and family of Bridgewater motored to Nictaux on Saturday and spent the week end with Mrs. Feindel's parents. Mrs. J. B. Foster returned home from Middleton last week. Mrs. Dorman came home from Torbrook on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Parker Munro attended the Association meeting at Digby.

Every property holder and tenant should take the greatest of pride in cleaning up and keeping their holdings and home in an admitted sanitary condition. Health is happiness. We have the reputation of having the healthiest climate and best water in the Dominion. Let us keep that reputation by all means.
Necessity is half a reason.

WEDDING

Pales—Quinn

At half past one, Thursday afternoon, June 24th, at Kentville, there took place a very pretty wedding in which a wide circle of friends and relatives were interested.

It was the marriage of Mabel Eleanor, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pales, and Daniel Joseph Quinn of Kentville. Rev. W. D. Ross performed the ceremony.

The bride looked charming, gowned in sand colored crepe de chine, with hat to match, carrying a shower bouquet of tulips, carnations sweet peas, entwined with maiden hair fern. The bride entered the room on the arm of her father, and took her place under an arch of lilacs, apple blossoms and ferns, where the groom was awaiting her. They were attended by Duncan Quinn, brother of the groom, and Mrs. Annie McAllister, sister of the groom. After congratulations, a dainty lunch was served.

The bride's traveling costume was a dress of navy blue Duchesse satin with a coat of Indian tan tulle trimmed with beaver.

Amidst showers of confetti, the happy couple left for a short honeymoon trip to Halifax.

The bride was the recipient of many beautiful gifts including silver, cut glass, pyrex, linen, furniture and money.

—O—

WHY DIRIGIBLES ARE SHAPED LIKE FISH

The atmosphere is a fluid ocean of gases on the bottom of which men crawl about much like the lobsters and crabs on the bottom of the ocean. What is called flying is really swimming in the gaseous ocean that surrounds the earth. Only very recently has man learned how to do this.

Long ago the art of using a sort of artificial swim-bladder was acquired. This was filled with a gas lighter than air, so as to float upward, thereby reaching considerable elevations.

The up-to-date balloons, such as "blimps" and the huge dirigibles, are modeled, appropriately enough, after fishes, in order to swim in the gaseous sea.

CARD OF THANKS

CARD OF THANKS—We wish to express to all the dear friends who came to our assistance so generously in our sad and sudden shock, in the loss of our dear wife, mother and sister. Words cannot express our great gratitude to all who were so good to us, the choir that rendered such feeling and appropriate music, the beautiful floral tributes, also Rev. Hockin, who spoke such comforting words to us. Our one wish is that all may receive their reward by Him who has seen fit to visit this great upon us.

HURLEY - KEESAW NUPRIALS

Wednesday, June 24th, was the wedding day of Miss Dorothy Hurley of North Kingston, and the weather man was unkind enough to prevent the ceremony being performed on the lawn under the blossoming apple trees as had been intended. However, he was sympathetic enough to allow the sun to shine on the bride, though the faithful words were said in a hall decked alcove in the sitting room.

To the strains of the Wedding March played by Miss Eleanor Nelson, the bride entered on her father's arm and took her place beside the groom, Mr. Herbert Keesaw of Newmarket, Ont. White broadcloth, Canton crepe, was the wedding dress, with skirt ornamented of waxen orange blossoms and trailers of buds and foliage, fashioned by the clever fingers of flower makers of France. A bandeau of the same held in place the veil, and the bouquet of pink and white sweet peas and lily of the valley, completed a charming toilette.

At the close of the ceremony Mr. J. Hurley, brother of the bride, sang "O Promise Me" in his usual good form, and the strains of the wedding march again sounding, the bride, now on the groom's arm, and preceded by the officiating clergyman, Rev. A. McLeod of Kingston, adjourned to the music room, where the Register was signed.

A light luncheon was served to the guests, and, after an interval, the bride appeared in her going away gown, an ensemble of grey flannel and blue crepe-de-chine, topped by a quaint little grey poke.

The happy couple departed by motor for an unknown destination. The guests included: Mr. Archibald McDougall of Newmarket and his wife, who wore cocoa brown canton crepe; Mr. and Mrs. Nelson of Meadowdale, the latter in black satin with touches of blue; Mr. Thomas Hill; Messrs. Willard and Harold Nelson and Miss Nelson, who wore chiffon velvet, with crimson ornament and Miss Dorothy Nelson in yellow muslin.

There were some charming and valuable gifts, including a complete set of flat community silverware from the groom's family in Newmarket; silver cream and sugar set from Mr. and Mrs. McDougall; a luncheon set and a beautiful pearl necklace from Miss Nora Hind of the Manitoba Free Press and linen, china, cut glass and silverware from various friends. One of the most interesting gifts was a case of desert knives and forks with ivory handles and silver furis, that had been a silver wedding gift to the bride's grandmother and a dozen exquisitely fine table napkins hemmed by her grandmother, who died 20 years ago.

The groom's gift to the bride was a beautiful string of pearls; to Mr. John Hurley, gold cuff links and to Miss Nelson, a bar pin.

ANNUAL CHURCH MEETING AT KINGSTON

On Thursday afternoon and evening of last week, there took place in the Kingston Church the Annual Meeting of the new Kingston Circuit.

In the afternoon the Official Board met and closed their work for the past year.

Following this meeting the representatives from all parts of the Circuit, which numbered over one hundred, sat down to a very sumptuous supper.

The evening session took the form of an open meeting in the main church. Here the Pastor, Mr. L. D. Dant, gave a detailed report of the activities for the past year which showed the circuit to closing its year in a very healthy condition.

The Rev. J. G. Hockin of Middleton who is the Superintendent of the Circuit was present and gave the main address of the evening, basing his remarks mainly on the subject of the coming Church Union.

Mr. Arthur Hilton, the leader of the Kingston Orchestra and one of the most interested workers gave a very interesting paper on the work of the year. Miss Belle Wiswall of Wilmet, another of our staunch workers, was heard from with much acceptance.

The balance of the evening program was in the hands of the Choir and with the Orchestra, many fine selections were rendered.

This is the first meeting of its kind to be held, but from the interest displayed at that it is likely that it will not be the last.

OBITUARY

JAMES M. FOSTER

There passed to rest after a very short illness on the 3rd of June, at his home, 114 Buckman St., Everett, Mass., James M. Foster, aged 74 years.

His death came with startling suddenness as he had always enjoyed comparatively good health, unknown however he contracted septic poisoning and although all that medical aid could do was called upon, he passed very suddenly.

Mr. Foster has resided for many years in the States, where he has been very successful in business up to the time of his death. Previous to this he resided in Nova Scotia and many friends will remember him as one of the North Kingston boys.

He leaves to mourn his loss a wife and one son; four brothers also survive him, two resident in the States and Norman and William both at North Kingston. Mrs. Allan Forbes of Kingston is also a sister of the late Mr. Foster. His mother is also living. Mrs. Wesley Foster, at the rather unique age of 83.

Our sincere sympathy goes out to the family in this bereavement.

BARSS' CORNER

June 16—Dr. DeWolfe of Acadia and Rev. D. D. of Springfield attended the Ball Call at the Baptist Church held here recently.

A. G. Morton of Springfield was a recent visitor at the home of Mrs. Ada Webster.

A Cu-ndar Bazaar was held at Bridgewater two days of last week. This Bazaar was put on by the W. L. of Bridgewater, assisted by other institutions of the County. A number of our citizens motored down to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. James Kaulback and daughter, also Emory Kaulback were recent guests of Mrs. L. L. Langille.

Rev. and Mrs. deWolfe, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. deWolfe and L. F. Morton attended the Baptist Association of Digby.

Children's Day was observed at the Baptist Church.

For the Glory of Nova Scotia

The one high-class apple which is capable of beating the McIntosh Red for the Gold Medal at the Imperial Fruit Show in England, this fall, is our magnificent Cox Orange. Nova Scotia grows this apple to perfection which allows us to compete against McIntosh as grown in Quebec and British Columbia.

My friend, Mr. Elliott Smith, of Wexville, who represents Gerald DeCosta, the celebrated English Fruit firm, will advise us as to this exhibit and his firm will sell all our Cox Orange going to various markets.

Gerald DeCosta last year ran a large exhibit at the Imperial Fruit Show and they also kept the Nova Scotian exhibitors posted on various vital matters. I am confident our large (prospective) shipments of Cox to them will be sold for good prices—those arriving in time, at Wembley.

It is needless to say that it is expensive to box and pack apples to be fit to exhibit but the net returns, after we deduct our expenses, are what count. We will add all money prices to the best class of boxed Cox, and I think your cheques will please. Last year we received $50.00 a piece, for four boxes each, of Cox Orange selected from those grown by F. M. Chute and Mr. Henry Watts of Waterville. (This is approximately $40.00 a barrel clear of all expenses). We do not hope to hit such extreme prices again.

If you are interested in poultry raising and profitable poultry sales, keep open Saturday, night June 23rd, in order to attend the poultry meeting in the Town Hall at 8 p.m. It is suggested that all come sharp on time to allow members to complete their business in town before it is too late. A large attendance is expected to judge by the general interest.

A short course in Optometry is shortly to be put on at the Technical College, Halifax. This course is open to all practitioners of the Province who wish to improve their technique and who aspire to pass the official examination which will take place immediately after the completion of the course. Dr. Harris, Margareville, has been engaged as inspector of the course.

SOME EXAMINATION "HOWLERS" For the purpose of showing parents and others interested in our school, in a small measure, what Teachers have to contend with in helping to educate the children of the town, a small list of absurd answers, selected at random from the recent grading examinations is appended here.

These answers show that these pupils either (a) do not try to reason, (b) are unable to reason, or (c) are out of school so much that they cannot keep in touch with their work.

If parents realize fully enough that a child's education for life comes from three sources, viz. (a) Home Training, (b) School and Church Instruction, (c) Outside influences, they must co-operate with—not oppose—the teacher in order to check many of the evils resulting from outside influences.

The Dutch and Scotch fought at Flodden.

The Kings were Philip and Charles. The British an English fought at Flodden.

The battle was fought by Roderick Dhu and Fitz James.

The nations fought in the battle of Flodden were the Americans and British. The Kings were Dinaburg and Flodden, Edinburgh British and Flodden American.

Northern Streamers are air planes. Nelson made steam engines for England.

His famous signal was the sound of the band he was killed in battle. Quebec on his ship he was standing on the boat when a bullet struck him.

Nelson was a great leader he gained a battle for England called the battle of Louisburg in which he was killed. His signal was a whistle which he had from childhood.

Laura Secord was a great Indian fighter and fought in many battles. Her capture is the most important industry because there is more ground to grow on.

We should not use our own drinking cup because there will be germs on them from the mouth.

The robin has a red breast and has two little spots on its tail that is because if the father bird wanted to know what kind of a bird it was he could tell.

One robin was now to live 7 years for five years it had the same band but the next two years it had a different one.

Vaccination (vaccination) is for pleasure and to rest your brain.

SOME FREAK FOUNDATIONS

One Thomas Nash left 50 pounds sterling a year to the vicar of the Abbey Church in his native city, Bath, England, on condition that each year on the anniversary of his wedding, they ring the whole peal of bells with clappers muffled, and that they sing a service of his death, and ring them with clappers unmuffled (Whether his wife was alive to appreciate the kindly means of this bequest, we do not know).

About 1850, a foundation was created in England to perpetuate the sacred writings of one Joanna Southcote, who founded a religious sect based on the belief that she was to give birth to the Messiah. She attracted a considerable following, which, however, faded away when she died childless.

One Bryan Mullamby, of St. Louis, who presumably had undergone the land trip to California, left a substantial part of his fortune, in 1851, to aid his compatriots in journeying across "Great American Desert."

Stephen Girard's magnificence bequest in Philadelphia provided that no minister of any religion sect whatever should ever be admitted to the premises of the college which he had founded.

There was, many years ago, a "perpetual" endowment for the ransom of prisoners of North African pirates. Endowments have been made in the past, for teaching children to knit, card and spin, and for supplying spinning wheels to needy persons. Needless to say, there are few calls for such assistance to-day.

WHAT IS IT?

What is it that gives me my food and clothing and shelter and whatever comforts I need?

What is it that I sometimes neglect and make nasty remarks about?

What is it that I do not value until I lose it?

What is it that gives me a chance to climb higher in the world and make a better person of myself?

What is it?

MY JOB!
