

LOOSE SYSTEM FOUND IN WORKS DEPARTMENT

Report of Investigating Committee at City Council Last Night.

Foreman Legacy Will Likely be Asked to Resume Work.

The report of the Board of Works relative to the investigation recently conducted into the Streets and Sewers Department was presented and passed without comment at the City Council session last night. No official was named in the report, although the document contained the reference that the charge that the foreman of the sewer department had received moneys to give men jobs was unfounded. The Courier was informed by an alderman at the close of the proceedings that Foreman Legacy was at present out of the civic employ, but that in all probability he would be asked to resume work. From the gist of the report it will be seen that as a result of the investigation that fault has been found not so much with employees as with the system. A special committee was named to improve matters in this regard.

Your committee has in conjunction with the finance committee, held several meetings, and has thoroughly investigated charges in connection with the administration of the sewers department, and has followed up all information received and made full enquiry into all the circumstances.

Your committee finds that irregularities of a minor nature have existed in connection with the care of supplies for the city's use, and the tools and implements used in this branch of the city's work, but your committee has to report that any loss accruing to the city in this way has been made good.

Your committee has found no evidence of any irregularities in the fact that the foreman of the sewers department has exacted or has received moneys as consideration for the hiring of workmen.

Your committee finds that a very loose system prevails in regard to the custody and care of the supplies of this department, due partly to the absence of proper buildings for storing the same and also in part to the fact that the city employs no one in the capacity of caretaker.

And your committee strongly recommends that steps be taken to organize this and other branches of the civic service and put them upon a more efficient basis.

Your committee believes that moneys spent in the way suggested will be true economy.

Your committee would recommend that this report and recommendations be referred to a special committee composed of board of works, finance members and chairman of standing committees who shall make a report at the earliest possible date upon the whole matter.

Your committee desire to acknowledge the services and assistance given by the chairman and members of the finance committee, who have also approved this report.

Signed, S. Suddaby, Wm. Sutcliffe, S. P. Picher, W. A. Hollinrake, J. H. Minshall, J. H. Spence, Geo. A. Ward, Thos. Quinlan.

A rough sea and a strong northerly wind prevented the Mauretania, from New York, landing passengers and mails at Fishguard on Monday, and the liner proceeded direct to Liverpool.

See the swell outing shirts with separate collars, to-morrow at Ludlow's, priced at $1.00.

COURIER WINS AGAIN

The action against the street railway will go into court within two weeks. The announcement was made by Ald. Hollinrake at the City Council last night in reply to a query of Ald. Minshall. The latter declared that it was time for this city to seriously consider the question of municipal ownership of the railway. He had been reading the Courier, Ald. Spence further explained the situation by stating that the court action would fully protect the city in regard to the acquisition of the railway by the city. In fact, Ald. Spence hoped that before the end of the year a by-law would be submitted whereby the ratepayers would have a chance to vote on the proposition, and that it be run in conjunction with the Hydro-Electric.

LOCAL OPTION GOOD AND BAD

A. L. Baird Deals With Temperance Issue at Meeting Last Night.

At the regular weekly meeting of the Colborne Street Epworth League last evening, Mr. A. L. Baird, K. C., delivered an address upon the proposed local option campaign, in which he made a plea for the support of the young people.

Mr. Baird in his opening remarks said that although many of those present were not as yet voters, they should all know the particulars in order to assist intelligently and also because they were the coming voters, even the ladies. Mr. Baird expressed himself in favor of giving the "lady property owners, anyhow," said Mr. Baird. The three Acts, the Scott Act, the Local Option Act, and the act which provides for the reduction of licenses were dealt with.

The Scott Act
In dealing with the Scott Act, the speaker explained that the Act was a Dominion wide one which permitted the majority of voters eligible to vote at an election for the Dominion House, to carry the measure. "Ladies could not vote under this act," said the speaker. He explained that the Scott Act was not so good as regards enforcement as local option. Under the Scott Act the minimum fine for the first offence was $50 or imprisonment for not more than one month, whereas, under local option, the fine for the first offence was $200, and for the second offence four months in jail. Mr. Baird said that the Scott Act was not a success, owing to the jealousy of the legislatures. "Men," said the speaker "are cantankerous creatures, and politicians are more so. In the county of Halton the politicians simply united and threw out the Scott Act."

Local Option
Mr. Baird explained to the gathering that under the local option act, it was necessary to present a petition to the city council signed by twenty-five per cent of the ratepayers, which is one out of every four. The by-law is given two readings and then it is necessary to poll a vote of three out of five of the electors. The unmarried ladies having property under this act vote. Mr. Baird made it plain to the ladies that it was the ladies who lost local option when it was tried before. "Many of the ladies were out of the city on voting day when local option was last tried."

In speaking of the violation of the local option law, Mr. Baird said: "Men may venture once but not the second time because of jail." The speaker assured the gathering that the same officers who govern the city at the present time will govern the sale under local option, and furthermore, the Whitney government has promised to enforce it.

Reduction of Licenses
The speaker dealt very briefly with the reduction of licenses. He pointed out that although the citizens of towns and cities, including Brantford, could not cut off all the licenses, but were obliged to leave two tavern licenses and two shop licenses, the citizens of villages and townships could cut them all off on a simple majority vote. The speaker emphasized the fact that if the people knew

NEW COMPANY IS NOW LAUNCHED

A number of well-known Brantfordites are making application to the Ontario Legislature for a charter for $50,000 to start a grey iron foundry here. There is stated to be an unlimited demand for castings, chucks and other essentials in the cast iron business. The final selection for the site of the new factory has not yet been decided upon. Mr. Carl Smith, who recently resigned from the position of purchasing agent of the Pratt & Letchworth Company, and Mr. Rowell of the Auto-Cycle Company are especially interesting themselves in the formation of the new company. The stock is being rapidly taken up.

ENQUIRY OPENED THIS MORNING AT THE LEGISLATURE

Hon. W. J. Hanna and Sir James Whitney are Defending Themselves Against Charges Made by Proudfoot--The Proceedings

(Canadian Press Despatch)

TORONTO, April 29.—The opening session of the committee on elections and privileges, called to investigate the charges against Sir James Whitney and Hon. W. J. Hanna, was devoid of sensations. The only touch of color to the proceedings was furnished by Hon. Walter Nesbitt, who endeavored to get John R. Cartwright, the deputy attorney-general, who is responsible for the issuance of writs, to stigmatize the statement that the fiat in question was issued as a result of corrupt influence, as an "infamous lie." Mr. Cartwright however, contended himself with the dignified statement that the charge was untrue, certainly as far as he was concerned.

The proceedings generally were exceedingly tame, and consisted largely in filing exhibits in the shape of departmental correspondence and more or less intelligent exclamation of how certain papers could not be found, papers which may or may not be of much interest.

Sir James Whitney was not present in person, but Hon. W. J. Hanna, Hon. J. J. Eoy, and a number of Cabinet Ministers were interested spectators.

The witnesses examined were A. Armstrong, assistant provincial secretary; John R. Cartwright, deputy attorney-general, and Dr. Gilmore, warden of the Central Prison.

TORONTO, Ont., April 29.—The opening session of the committee on elections and privileges to investigate the charges against Hon. W. J. Hanna and Sir James Whitney was held in the reception room at the Parliament buildings this morning. There was a full attendance of the committee and an extra strong battery of newspapermen and artists representing papers all over the province.

Mr. Proudfoot who refers the charges, was represented by H. H. Dewar, K.C., assisted by W. E. Elliott, while Hon. Wallace Nesbitt, K.C., and W. N. Ferguson, K.C., looked after the interests of Hon. W. J. Hanna and the premier.

The chairman, G. Howard Ferguson of Grenville, announced that as Mr. Hanna and Sir James Whitney had retained counsel, it was not thought necessary to secure counsel on behalf of them.

S. A. Armstrong, assistant provincial secretary, was the first witness called by Mr. Dewar. As assistant provincial secretary he was asked if he had the papers in connection with the original contract with Taylor, Scott and Company and the government. Mr. Armstrong said the paper could not be found and a number of other papers were also missing. They had been handed over to Mr. Stewart, counsel for the government at the time of the dispute with the company.

Mr. Dewar ran over a long list of letters all of which the witness said were missing.

Witnesses have asked Mr. Stewart for the papers, but he thinks he gave them to Mr. Thorne and Mr. Thorne thinks they were returned, but in the previous transfer they have been lost.

Witness produced the file of the Central Prison showing correspondence with the warden in reference to the contract which was put in as an exhibit. All of the department's correspondence, tenders, etc., relating to coal contracts and underfed stokers, but some letters were missing.

J. R. Cartwright, D.A.A., put in the papers in connection with the granting of the petition of right. His report was in favor of a fiat. He thought the complainant was entitled to something, but the amount claimed, some $50,000, was very exaggerated.

Mr. Dewar read the report in a Toronto paper quoting Sir James Whitney as saying that Mr. Cartwright had carefully gone over the figures in the award made by Mr. Thorne. Witness said he could not remember that.

Mr. Nesbitt asked Mr. Cartwright to explain the meaning of a fiat for the benefit of Mr. Dewar (laughter). Witness carefully explained that a fiat was permission from the crown to sue the crown. When a fiat was issued it was an assumption that the complainant had some just claim against the crown.

Mr. Nesbitt challenged the Liberal newspaper's report to Sir James' speech in the House referred to by Mr. Dewar and endeavored to get Mr. Cartwright to affirm that in his experience legal cases were reported by the newspapers 90 times out of 100 in a way that would not be recognized by counsel, but witness would not go that far, though he admitted reports were often inaccurate.

Witness denied categorically that any influence had been brought to bear on him in reference to issuing the fiat.

INVITE HIS MAJESTY, KING GEORGE, TO BRANTFORD 1914

Not particularly following the lead made a few years ago by J. W. Bowby, who when Mayor, decided to invite His Majesty the King to visit Brantford, Ald. Spence last night put one over on his colleagues when he suggested that inasmuch as King George was to come to Canada next year, and the year 1914 was to be made a memorable one for Brantford by an Old Home Week and the unveiling of Bell Memorial the Telephone City would do well in inviting His Majesty to unveil the memorial to one of the greatest inventors of the age. The Council sat back and smiled incredulously, that Ald. Spence, who is known as a bold man, could have imagined such a daring scheme, while others had not thought of it. The Council was so entirely amazed that the usual procedure of "me-to" for that suggestion was strange to say eliminated.

Ald. Ward, who has developed a truly remarkable power of starting things around the board gave Ald. Spence his cue.

Ald. Ward said it was time that Brantford people showed some enterprise. He urged the holding of a made-in-Brantford exhibition. He thought it would be a good trade getter and a good advertisement. Financially it would be a great benefit to business men. Ald. Ward moved that the Board of Trade and the Manufacturers' Committee discuss the proposition.

Ald. Ryerson endorsed what Ald. Ward said but Ald. Ryerson did not believe that the Manufacturers would take it up this year because next year there would be an Old Boys' reunion and the unveiling of the Bell Memorial.

Ald. Ward insisted that his idea was business. Ald. Ryerson's was largely boost and sentiment. He thought the matter should be discussed, and Ald. Ryerson agreed to second the resolution.

Ald. Spence did not think that too soon a start could be made, and he thought an effort should be made if at all possible to secure His Majesty King George to unveil the Bell Memorial Monument.

The sonorous way in which the finance chairman rolled those words out, "His Majesty King George," would have done credit to a Mantell. It was truly impressive.

Ald. Minshall and Suddaby were in accord with the resolution, but the latter doubted the advisability of pulling anything off this year.

The resolution was adopted. It merely calls for a Board of Trade conference.

GRAND TRUNK AGREEMENT REPUDIATED BY COUNCIL

COMPROMISE EXPECTED IN JAPANESE ALIEN BILL.

GOVERNOR HIRAM W. JOHNSON.

COUNT OKUMA.

The announcement that President Woodrow Wilson and Secretary of State Bryan are making efforts to bring about a compromise in the proposed California legislation with respect to the Alien Land Ownership bill and that Governor Hiram Johnson is opposing the bill has softened Japanese ire, and public opinion has now become more optimistic.

Count Okuma, former Minister of Foreign Affairs and leader of the progressive party at home, ironically said recently that Japan owed its first lessons in foreign humanitarian principles to the United States. "Now the duty has devolved upon Japan," he added, "to teach the Californians the same principles."

DUCHESS OF CONNAUGHT AGAIN QUITE SERIOUSLY ILL

Her Royal Highness Was Forced to Undergo Another Serious Operation To-day--Bulletin Issued, "Doing as Well as Can Be Expected."

(Canadian Press Despatch)

LONDON, April 29.—Another operation was performed this morning on the Duchess of Connaught. The surgeons in attendance report that the operation was successful. The last attempt to remove the intestinal trouble from which the Duchess has been suffering for some months was on April 10. The operation was a serious one, but was borne well by the Duchess, who afterwards made rapid progress toward recovery, but on April 26, suffered a relapse owing to the abdominal obstruction returning. It was then decided by the surgeons to have recourse to another operation which was performed this morning.

A bulletin was issued later in the day which said: "The operation performed on the Duchess of Connaught was severe in character. It was carried out to relieve intestinal obstruction due to widespread adhesions of an inflammatory nature. The Duchess is doing as well as can be expected."

STRIKE IN CITY IS POSSIBLE

Carpenters and Bricklayers Said to Have Demands to Make.

Considerable unrest is reported in local labor circles and it is said May 1st may witness a couple of strikes. No decision has been arrived at as yet, but it is understood that both carpenters and bricklayers are formulating demands which will be accompanied with an intention to strike unless favorable consideration is shown. Both unions are reported to be thoroughly organized and if such a strike ensued there might be a serious tie up in the building trade during the coming summer. On the other hand it is hoped that matters will be satisfactorily settled between employers and employees.

SOME CHANGES IN THE CABINET

Le Devoir Says That Three of Mr. Borden's Ministers Will Retire.

(Canadian Press Despatch)

MONTREAL, April 29.—Le Devoir, the newspaper owned and edited by Henri Bourassa, the Nationalist leader, and which is singularly well informed on political affairs, to-day states that Hon. Bruno Nantel, Minister of Inland Revenue, Hon. Frank Cochrane, Minister of Railways, and Hon. Dr. Roche, Minister of the Interior, will resign their portfolios in the Borden Cabinet at the end of the session to assume other "important positions."

Le Devoir says that Mr. Nantel will become judge, L. T. Marchal, Montreal, may succeed Mr. Nantel as Minister of Inland Revenue.

Mr. Cochrane, who though he has administered his department well, is not popular in the House, will be sent to Washington as the agent of the Canadian Government. He is likely to be succeeded by Major Currie, member for Simcoe.

Mr. Roche will resign because of ill-health and will be sent to the Senate. His successor may be Arthur Meighen, member for Portage la Prairie. Albert Sevigny, member for Dorchester, Que., aspires to the office of Solicitor-General, a position also being sought by A. G. Boyce of Algoma.

Mr. Borden has not decided on an appointment to this office yet.

The Prime Minister would also like to secure Hon. W. J. Hanna of the Ontario Government, but is opposed in this by Sir James Whitney.

Le Devoir yesterday stated that when Winston Churchill went to Germany with the King and Queen to attend the marriage of the Kaiser's daughter he would arrive at some scheme to reduce armaments, which would make the Canadian contribution of three dreadnoughts unnecessary and allow of that measure being withdrawn from the House.

Unauthorized Deal of Ex-Mayor Wood Gets a Slap.

Where the G. T. R. Put One Over on City in 1910.

The City of Brantford will repudiate all liability to be bound to the agreement made by W. B. Wood, Mayor of Brantford, 1910, in regard to the Holmedale switch. This decision was arrived at last night at the meeting of the City Council when Ald. Hollinrake, chairman of the Railway committee introduced a resolution to such effect. The report of the committee also recommended that matters in reference to the Lake Erie and Northern be left with the members. The report of the committee stirred up considerable discussion but it was finally carried.

The result of the adoption by the Council of the report was that if the Grand Trunk builds a switch in the Holmedale it will be under the agreement of 1902, which means that the city will not have to pay the Wilkes award, the cost of subways, etc. Certain aldermen gave the city's liability as $30,000 under the agreement of Mayor Wood, and this feature the Council of 1913 didn't like. Holmedale will have the L. E. and N. Railway with C.P.R. connections and the aldermen who favored the repudiation of the Wood agreement did not think any injustice was being done the Holmedale for the above reason. In fact it was thought better to relieve Holmedale of the onus of a twenty foot railway embankment such as the G.T.R. proposes to construct.

The Discussion.
Ald. Hollinrake in explaining the report said there were two reasons for the report. He understood the G. T. R. had already started work at the Alton street end, and the advice of a special solicitor, the Wilkes award was repudiated. Inasmuch as the G. T. R. had started work on the switch, it was felt desirable to repudiate the agreement right away. One railway would go through the Holmedale and that would serve all purposes. If the Grand Trunk went through the district the switch would mean a 25 foot embankment, spoiling a fine residential district.

Ald. Suddaby asked if any provision had been made to keep open Oxford or Colborne street during the progress of the work.

Ald. Hollinrake said that the rights of the city would be guarded. It was an important matter.

Mayor Hartman—"Engineer Kellett has assured me that there would not be one hour during which the bridge or street is blocked. That is in the company's agreement, and it will be a good piece of work."

Ald. Ryerson thought it was giving the committee a lot of liberty. He believed that there would be certain matters which might well be referred to the council.

Ald. Spence as a member of the Railway committee said that the committee did not intend to assume responsibility for any large matter. It was only a matter of detail which should be pushed.

Mayor Hartman assured the council that property rights would be considered at a regular meeting.

Ald. McEwen spoke strongly against the city repudiating the Holmedale contract which was made in good faith by the city. The people of Holmedale wanted G. T. R. connection and had been promised it. It was true the new railway had C.P.R. connection but this connection might not last. The big embankment would only be along the river on land which would probably never be used for residences.

Ald. Hollinrake averred that as far as repudiation was concerned it might be well to go back somewhat. The G. T. R. agreed to pay, in the first agreement, half the cost of a subway. A conference was held in Montreal when it was arranged, Mayor Wood put the matter through on his own initiative, and had gone far beyond what he was authorized.

The City Solicitor refused to approve of the wisdom of his agreement. People in the northern section did not want any G. T. R. line from the O. & B. down over Dufferin Avenue.

Ald. McEwen asked if Ald. Hollinrake would recommend paying Holmedale people back the money they paid for the G. T. R. main line.

Ald. Hollinrake said that it took the G. T. R. ten years to get busy on their switch, and would never have started if an opposition railway were not going through there.

Ald. Suddaby thought Holmedale people deserved sympathy. He would not vote for the report.

Ald. Spence in a clear headed speech said that the original 1902 agreement

HON. ADAM BECK Residents of Ontario generally, of all shades of politics, will be deeply sorry to learn that the death of Hon. Adam Beck is that his physicians have ordered him an indefinite rest.

Only recently he was found dead faint in his office, but on covering consciousness, he was it hammer and tongs again, as his ways does.

Very few men have ever through a bigger scheme for people than he, with regard to Electric light and power, and few have had to buck up against more opposition, much of it leading political friends. Through it all, he has stuck to the project, an entirely non-partisan basis, has literally worked himself to death.

Mr. Beck has the tenacity of a dozen bull dogs, and what he after he always seems to get.

It is not too much to say that was the one man capable of pushing through the Hydro scheme.

It will be the general heartfelt wish, that after a rest, he will make a complete recovery, and once more with vigor take up the duties of the which he so ably fills.

IT IS TO LAUGH. Under the heading "The Bad of Messrs. Brewster and Brook," the Brantford Expositor evening devoted a leading editorial to these two gentlemen.

Of course in the opinion of large-minded cotem. anything Tory does is rotten, and anything that he doesn't do is even worse.

The gravamen of the silly is, that Messrs. Brewster and Brook voted with their own many questions.

Government action, which is in power, is decided upon after a party consultation well the editor of the Expositor knows that for he was a member of the Ontario Legislature for years, and what he accomplishes his constituents and the people would not take a two volume graphy to relate.

As a matter of fact he still all the misdeeds of Rossism and blinked an eyelash.

However that is an old and carefully forgotten story.

To get to the truth, Messrs. Brewster and Westbrook have admitted that is to the fair minded themselves to be hard-work conscientious adherents of the best and most progressive Government Ontario has ever had. They looked after the legitimate of their constituents in a Grits never did because they they had a cinch on the four for all time and eternity. In they have supported proper measures for the entire people's apparent chagrin of our esteemed but private corporate contemporary.

Probably it is the latter has led to the attempted bribing of the organ—bricks which which have a boomerang effect.

WORTHY RECOGNITION The Courier is pleased to see the City Council has recognized services of Judge Hardy as of the Police Commission.

The judge is a Liberal, the worse for that because lots of good ones, notably voted against reciprocity, take this paper. He was way his father, Mr. Russ was a Grit of the old school of which on both sides one thought there was grace, or hope of salvation fellow—and his brother the A. S. Hardy, at one time of Ontario, was also a prominent of that side, which has always opposed for reasons. And Apropos of Hardy two incidents might for many years the late Mr. Man, County Crown Attorney unable through illness to his duties. During all that Hardy absolutely refused other man in his place.

HON. ADAM BECK

Residents of Ontario generally and of all shades of politics, will be sincerely sorry to learn that the state of health of Hon. Adam Beck is such that his physicians have ordered for him an indefinite rest.

Only recently he was found in a deep faint in his office, but on recovering consciousness he went at it hammer and tongs again, as he always does.

Very few men have ever put through a bigger scheme for the people than he, with regard to Hydro Electric light and power, and very few have had to buck up against more opposition, much of it from leading political friends.

Mr. Beck has the tenacity of a dozen bull dogs, and what he goes after he always seems to get.

It is not too much to say that he was the one man capable of putting through the Hydro scheme.

IT IS TO LAUGH. Under the heading "The Bad Record of Messrs. Brewster and Westbrook," the Brantford Expositor, last evening devoted a leading editorial to these two gentlemen.

Of course in the opinion of our large-minded cotem, anything that a Tory does is rotten, and anything that he doesn't do is even worse.

The gravamen of the silly charges is that Messrs. Brewster and Westbrook voted with their own side on many questions.

Government action, which ever side is in power, is decided upon as a rule after a party consultation, and well the editor of the Expositor knows that for he was a member of the Ontario Legislature for some years, and what he accomplished for his constituents, and the province would not take a two volume biography to relate.

As a matter of fact he stood for all the misdeeds of Rossism and never blinked an eyelash.

However that is an old and mercifully forgotten story.

To get to the truth, Messrs. Brewster and Westbrook have admittedly themselves to be hardworking and conscientious adherents of the cleanest and most progressive Government Ontario has ever had.

They have looked after the legitimate interests of their constituents in a way the Grits never did because they thought they had a cinch on the four Brants for all time and eternity.

In addition they have supported progressive measures for the entire people to the apparent chagrin of our exceedingly esteemed but private corporation loving contemporary.

Probably it is the latter fact which has led to the attempted brick throwing of the organ—bricks be it noted which have a boomerang tendency.

WORTHY RECOGNITION.

The Courier is pleased to notice that the City Council has recognized the services of Judge Hardy as chairman of the Police Commission board.

The judge is a Liberal, and none the worse for that because there are lots of good ones, notably those who voted against reciprocity, and who take this paper. He was born that way.

His father, Mr. Russell Hardy was a Grit of the old school—that school of which on both sides each one thought there was no saving grace, or hope of salvation for their fellow—and his brother the late Hon. A. S. Hardy, at one time Premier of Ontario, was also a leading exponent of that side, which this paper has always opposed for conscientious reasons. And Apropos of Hon. Mr. Hardy two incidents might be quoted.

For many years the late Mr. VanNorman, County Crown Attorney, was unable through illness to attend to his duties. During all that period Mr. Hardy absolutely refused to put another man in his place. Again. The late Mr. Rubidge, Clerk of the Surrogate Court, was also disabled for many years and once more Mr. Hardy refused to supplant him. Both these men were Conservatives and made no bones about it. That's why there were so many "Hardy Conservatives" in Brantford to the deep remorse of this great liberal journal.

Although a Liberal and at one time secretary of the local organization of that ilk, Judge Hardy since attaining that high office, has very properly, never in any way shown a partisan spirit. Of course, like any old war horse he champs at the bit when a fray is in progress but even then he never loses his calm and impartial serenity. It is a small recognition from a monetary standpoint, which the City Council has accorded him, but it is big and deservedly big, in the sense that citizens generally realize the worth of the man in his important office, and the scrupulous fairness with which he discharges the duties which come his way.

Shot Down

Five Bullets From the Gangsters To-day in New York.

(Canadian Press Despatch)

NEW YORK, April 29.—Suspected of "squealing" to the district attorney, Jerry Maida, known as "Jerry the Luncheon," met his appointed death on Forty-first street, near Broadway, early to-day. He was shot down by gangsters, who sent five bullets into his body. The shooting occurred only a couple of blocks away from the scene of the murder of Herman Rosenthal last July, but the gunmen had less luck than the Rosenthal murder crew. Five policemen who were in and pounced upon five men who they accused of the killing.

The police allege that the men they caught are members of the Paul Kelly band of gangsters, of which Jerry was an adherent. They say that Jerry had recently fallen under suspicion, how- ever, and that he was thought to be revealing the gang's secrets to District Attorney Whitman. None of the men caught were armed, but witnesses said they had seen them throw revolvers away, and three of the guns were found in a garbage can nearby.

James Jesso, one of the prisoners, was severely beaten by the officer who caught him. The police say that "Guinea Sam," another prisoner, was under arrest two years ago in connection with the murder of another member of the gang under similar circumstances.

Western Recount

Ewing Beat Mackay by 217 Majority—The Standing.

EDMONTON, Alta., April 29.—Counting of ballots yesterday in the seven Alberta constituencies which were in doubt, resulted in the Conservatives getting five of the seats.

Two others, Medicine Hat and Clearwater have not yet been heard from. Results up to last night give the Liberals 36 seats, and Conservatives 16 with two still to hear from and two deferred elections. In ridings which were doubtful till yesterday, Conservatives were in each case leading and the count of protested ballots did not effect any changes in the general result. Edmonton Liberals met with a surprise on finding that some mistakes had been made in counting and Ewing had really 217 majority over Mackay, who protested the ballots, instead of 66, as had been reported. When these protested ballots were counted, the majority was reduced by only 23 votes. Had the correct majority been known before it is unlikely that so much time would have been spent on disputed ballots.

In MacLeod where R. Patterson has a majority of 31 over Hon. Mr. Sitton, it is likely there will be a protest and examination before a judge. Medicine Hat and Clearwater, it is expected, will both result in majorities for Conservatives and if the two deferred elections go Liberal as is generally believed they will be the final standing will be Liberals 38 Conservatives 18.

Forty years in use. 20 years the standard, preserved and recommended by physicians for Women's Ailments Dr. Mantel's Female Pills, at your druggists.

Sitton's Trip.

EDMONTON, April 29.—Hon. Mr. Sitton left last night for a trip to England in connection with the flotation of a $5,000,000 loan authorized at last session of the legislature for addition to telephone services and roads.

BRANT COUNTY HAS NEW SEAL

Interesting Historical Work Has Been Done in Connection With Design.

The drawing of the new Seal which has been prepared by the Brant Historical Society is now ready for presentation to the Warden and Council of the County of Brant. At a recent meeting the design submitted by the Society was approved by the Council and a committee consisting of Warden A. Kendrick and Councillors J. L. Layton and G. Cook, was appointed to meet the Society.

The historical work in connection with the new Seal has been in charge of a committee under the able chairmanship of His Honor Judge Hardy, assisted by Major H. Leonard, C.M.G., Major G. Smith, Indian Supt. Cassmore, present president, and Mrs. Brown, secretary and historian of the Society, the committee receiving the assistance of Mr. A. E. Watts, K.C., county clerk, and the advice and assistance of Mr. E. M. Lindsay, K.C., the well-known student of heraldry, of Toronto.

The large colored drawing which will be presented to the county has been painted by Mr. A. H. Howard, artist and designer, of Toronto. The new Seal, although comprehensive in design, being intended for business, has been kept simple in design. It consists of a shield, crest and motto. In the shield an Indian in full accoutrement, with tomahawk and pipe of peace in hand, stands on a gold background by the side of waves azure. In the vert of the shield is a gold wheel between two golden sheaves of wheat. The crest is a bear standing upon "two pieces of wood bound tightly together." The motto is "Fidelitas et Industria." The shield is encircled by a band bearing the inscription "Corporation of the County of Brant, Ontario, 1853." The whole is intended to represent Brant County historically and industrially.

Historically—At the close of the Revolutionary War, the British Government gave large grants of land to the U.E.L. and their families. Of these the Six Nations Indians received a tract of land six miles wide on each side of the Ouse (Grand) River, where their historic Chippewas chose what is now Brant County for their home. As no profile save that of royalty is permissible upon a shield, the profile of Joseph Brant could not be used except it were in the sense of his being a forest king, the Confederacy sometimes giving this title to noted war leaders, as in the case of Brant's predecessor, King Hendrick. The Indian representation on the shield is similar to the figure which surmounts his monument. The one in leather in the head dress signifies that the wearer is a chief, the tomahawk represents the past, the pipe of peace the present. The six feathers in the calumet of the pipe emblems the Six Nations, and the Indian standing by the waves azure Brant's historic words, "I shall sink or swim with the British," it is also a symbolical of Brant's role in the Confederacy. A bar separates the gold background from the green, and this bar in heraldry signifies a chief. In the vert of the gold wheel between two golden sheaves of wheat emblems "a flourishing industrial centre in the heart of a rich agricultural district."

The county being named after Brant, his "coat of arms" as leader of the Six Nations Indians and his name were chosen for the crest. Brant's national totem was the Wolf. The national emblem of the Confederacy, the torch is the Bear; that is, it is common to each tribe or nation, and has been adopted and is in use upon the Seal of the Six Nations, and, being more comprehensive than the clan totem, was chosen for the crest.

Joseph Brant's Indian name, Thayendanegea, signifies in English "Two pieces of wood bound tightly together." The Bear stands upon the one being the Pine, the old historic emblem of the Six Nations, the other the Oak, emblematic of his allegiance to Great Britain, the two being tightly bound together by the centuries-old "Covenant Chain," which never tatters because of their faith in the "Great Father beyond the waters."

The motto, "Fidelitas et Industria," is used in the sense of loyalty, faithfulness to a principle, a cause, and industry.

In connection with this work it may be of interest to know that the first by-law passed by the first County Council was one which bears the letters of the old Seal, which bears the letters of the County of Brant, which has been in disuse many years. The Council was held in the Town Hall, and the by-law was enacted May 1st, 1852, under the Upper Canada Municipal Corporation Act, by the provisional Municipal Council of the County of Brant, one of the United Counties of Wentworth.

At the same meeting it was resolved "That the Warden do put himself in communication with David Thorburn, Esq., Commissioner of Indian Lands, and ascertain what lands (if any) have been set aside by the Indian Department for county purposes in the Town of Brantford, and if any, that a patent or grant may be issued for the same as soon as possible." Tenders were also asked for a creation of county buildings, and David Christie, Esq. was asked to report on his list of private subscriptions towards county buildings.

At a previous meeting an amendment was brought in to the Seal, in which "Brant's" "coat-of-arms" should be added to the design submitted. The amendment was not accepted, no doubt because Brant was not one of the United Counties of Wentworth, Halton and Brant, and because having no shield (a landscape), it was unsuitable for a crest.

In the research work done by the Society to verify Brant's "coat-of-arms" many beautiful legends, myths and traditions have come to light, and much has been learned regarding the Confederate constitution, the oldest in America, save perhaps that of Mexico and Peru—all of which will be recorded later in "The Life of Brant and History of the Six Nations Indians."

Enquiry Opened This Morning

"You may term it what you like" replied the witness "but it is not true. The fiat was issued entirely on my responsibility. It is absolutely false that the fiat was corruptly issued so far as I am concerned."

Mr. Dewart then asked for all subpoena for Mr. Stewart with all papers in connection with his account against the government.

Mr. Dewart urged that the committee should not hold night sessions owing to the difficulty of instructing counsel. He had devoted all his time to going over the correspondence and in the interests of justice there should be no desire to force counsel at this stage to hold night sessions.

"I think you are anticipating trouble Mr. Dewart but if we don't get along more rapidly than we did this morning there certainly will be night sessions."

Dr. Gilmour warden of the Central Prison questioned by Mr. Dewart with reference to the Taylor-Scott contract stated that any financial dispute would not come to him as a first instance. He conferred with the minister deputy-minister and inspector. He later written to the firm with reference to this contract would only be after conference with these parties.

Dr. Gilmour said he never saw any itemized account in which Taylor-Scott's claim exceeded $70,000. He had received a statement in detail from that firm for some $17,000 and a month later one adding $2,000 to it, but had no knowledge of the larger claim for some $30,000. He admitted there had been frequent disputes with the Taylor-Scott firm in reference to their contract.

The witness was examined at the considerable length with reference to the claims of the firm to supply prison labor, the completion of coal, etc.

Laid at Rest
The Late Mrs. Woodcock.
The funeral of the late Mrs. E. H.
Woodcock took place yesterday afternoon from her late residence 32 Edward street to Mt. Hope cemetery.
Mrs. Woodcock came to Brantford
some six years ago from Birmingham, England, along with her husband and six children, three sons and three daughters, Bertram, Harry, Edgar, Mrs. E. W. Davies, Mrs. J. Fletcher and Mable at home.
Deceased had been a continual sufferer for two years being confined to her bed for the last nine months. She bore her sufferings with great Christian fortitude. Her pastor, Rev. Mr.
North took charge of the services at the house and the grave. The bearers were: E. W. Davies, J. Fletcher, Geo. Skett, Chas. Bennett, L. Liggins and S. Liggins. The floral tributes were numerous, and beautiful and included: Gates a jar, father and family;
anchor, sister Ruth and family; cross, Sister Kate; spray, Brother Edgar;
wreath, Mr. and Mrs. Griffiths;
sprays, Mr. and Mrs. Phillips, Mr.

Grand Trunk Agreement

The unauthorized agreement of 1910 would cost the city $30,000. The L. E. and N.
Railway was to be asked $7,000 for its share of the cost of the water works agreement, whereas it would not take any of the right of way of the G. T. R.

Mr. Boarder wanted to hear both agreements read.
Mr. Hollinrake said that under the first agreement when Brantford voted against the G. T. R. the company promised to build a switch in the city to provide the right of way. Under the second agreement the city was to pay everything and it would cost $30,000. The council had been managed to get the Wood agreement through.

Mr. McEwen objected to Ald. H. R.
Hollinrake's insinuation that there was any manipulation. The first agreement called for a line along St. Paul's avenue and that was impossible.

Ald. Hollinrake said Ald. McEwen was wrong. The same plan was attached to both agreements, namely a route behind the O. J. B.

Ald. Ryerson wanted to know the difference in the cost to the city under the two agreements.

Mr. Boarder said that under the first agreement the city was under obligation to provide the right of way. Under the second the city

C. S. MELLETT MAY RESIGN.

CHARLES S. MELLETT.

The sensational testimony given before Charles H. Prouty, Interstate Commerce Commissioner, at an inquiry into the rates, classification regulations, capitalization and operation of the New York, New Haven and Hartford, Boston and Maine and Maine Central railways, will be followed by the

as president of these roads. It is believed by many of Boston's leading business men and bankers.

had to pay all expenses, including the exorbitant Wilkes' award of Judge Snider, a man who had no idea of values here. The city had to pay $2-700 plus $300 costs for what should have cost $500.

Ald. Ryerson wanted to get the matter right in regard to what the city had to pay.

Ald. Hollinrake further explained that under the first agreement, the city was not bound to provide anything; under the second agreement
the city had to pay everything.

Ald. Broadbent remarked that inasmuch as the second agreement had never been authorized by the ratepayers he thought the City Council had a perfect right to repudiate the agreement.

The report of the committee was adopted on the following vote:
Nays—Suddaby, McEwen.—2.
Yeas—Ward, Ryerson, Woolams, Sutch, Pitcher, Quinlan, Broadbent, Minshall, Gillingwater, Spence.—10.

Paris News

PARIS, April 29.—All members of the Town Council were present at their regular monthly meeting last night, when the following business was transacted:

A communication was received from Mr. John M. Wilson asking permission to erect a metal billboard 27 feet by 10 feet at the back of the Hill Estate on the back road to the Junction. On motion of Messrs. Evans and Wells it was referred to streets and sidewalks committee.

Mr. C. C. Brown wrote asking that the license fee for peddling fish by other than local parties be raised to the same price as any other peddler's license, and that a separate license be required for each wagon. Reeve Davidson moved that the license fee remain at the present price of $25, but that the second party be accorded 25 cents on the rig one license. The matter was referred to the by-laws committee to prepare a by-law and report.

Mr. Herbert Lester wrote drawing the attention of the Council to the state of the race bank adjoining the city. The Mayor, Mr. Walker, where a number of trees were in danger of being washed away. Dr. Fasken moved, seconded by Deputy Reeve Layton, that the communication be referred to the water and light commissioners, and that they be requested to report to Council the amount of damage done, if any.

Mr. C. B. Barker, local manager of the Bell Telephone Co., requested that the town's fire alarm wires and boxes be removed from such poles as are to be discarded owing to the installation of the underground system.
On motion of Messrs. Layton and Fasken the fire and light committee were instructed to take the matter up with Mr. Barker and take whatever action is necessary. In discussing the question it was pointed out that the Bell Co. installed the system and agreed to the town having the use of their poles in return for the local telephone franchise, and under the circumstances it was thought that the Bell Co. should again care for the wires by placing them in their underground conduit.

Mr. Wylie, who has been clerk of the town scales for a number of years wrote stating that he had sold his business and would be leaving the same on May 12th, and requesting the position as clerk. He recommended his business successor, Mr. John Thomas. Mr. Thomas had an application in for the position, which was granted at the usual figure, the clerk to keep the scales in repair and be entitled to all fees.

The secretary-treasurer of Penmans
Limited requested that the reel house be removed from their property at the general office of the company, as they wished to improve same by lawns and flower beds. Messrs. Laskey and Wells moved that the fire and light committee take over the question, with power to act.

The Keston relief committee requested a grant in favor of the cyclone sufferers at Keston and Omaha.
—Filed.

Mayor D. C. Moore of the Salvation Army asked for a grant to their hospital fund. Messrs. Wells and Laskey moved that they be given the sum of $10. Ald. Evans thought that if the Salvation Army were entitled to such a grant, the local churches were. Mayor Patterson said if any church were to apply for aid the same would likely be granted, whereas Ald. Evans remarked that it was like butting one's head into a stone wall as to try to get a decent consideration of a subject.

A number of petitions were sent sidewalks and street watering were received, which were all granted.

The property-owners of Catharine street and vicinity again entered their petition re the drainage system of that locality. It was backed up by the report of Engineer C. C. Campbell, which showed that the present drain on Catharine street from Amelia to Race streets was useless, and that an 8-inch tile drain, three feet lower than the present drain, was necessary. It was having a fall of three inches per 100 feet. The streets and sidewalks committee were instructed to see that the work was done as soon as possible.

Mayor Patterson made a few remarks about the work being done at the Junction in removing the surface parking, etc. He also drew attention to the numerous duties of Inspector Brockbank, and stated that it was utterly impossible for one man to do all the work expected of him. It was better that he should devote all his time to the water system, and that another man should be secured for the position of street and sidewalks inspector. Ald. Evans and Davidson moved that the town clerk advertise for an inspector, the applicant to state experience and salary expected, all applications to be in by May 5th,
when a special meeting of the Council will be called to consider the same.

Mr. E. Edwards rose to address a few remarks to the Council re the inequities of the present assessment in town. He stated that he had sent a letter to the town clerk on this subject, but the same had been returned to him.

The mayor remarked that Mr. Edwards was out of order, and if he had any grievance on his assessment he should refer the same to the court of revision. Mr. Edwards stated that such was not the object of his visit.
He was perfectly willing to pay taxes
according to the present assessment, but he stated that his assessment for 98 per cent. of its actual cost, providing the rest of the places in Paris were assessed according to the same valuation.

The mayor and Ald. Layton both stated that Mr. Edwards was out of order, and he was reluctantly obliged to discontinue his speech.

Ald. Laskey wished the Council to go ahead with the balance of the re-

GREATEST HEADACHE CURE IN THE WORLD

Tortures of Chronic Dyspepsia Cured By "Fruit-a-lives"

SHANLEY, ONT., SEPT. 23 rd, 1910
"Once I had had the greatest Headache Cure in the world. Before
'Fruit-a-lives' came before the public,
I suffered tortures from Headaches caused by Stomach Disorders.

One of your travellers called on me when I had one of my raging Headaches and had my head almost raw from external applications. He insisted on my trying 'Fruit-a-lives'.

I did so with what I would call amazing results. They completely cured me and since then (nearly six years ago) it is only necessary for me to take one occasionally to preserve me in my present good health."

port of the fire committee, which was hour was late, it was decided to take it up at a special meeting to be held at an early date.

Mr. Simons, proprietor of a local option hotel in Harrisburg, was charged in police court yesterday with selling liquor in a local option community. April 12th and April 19th being the dates in question. No evidence of guilt could be found, and the case was dismissed. A witness stated that he was under the influence on one of the dates mentioned, but he had secured his liquor in Brantford.

He was then charged with being drunk in a local option community, and was fined $20 and costs.

Work on the L. E. & N. is proceeding apace around Paris. The contractors have commenced grading north side Colborne street, and a temporary switch over which will be brought steam shovels, etc., when the work will go ahead with greater despatch. The contractor south of the town has an easier stretch and is grading with horses. He has 200 men employed on the work in the immediate vicinity of Paris. The railway also acquired the residences of Mr. Jas. Tincknell and Mr. William Tincknell inside the town limits last week.

MUSIC and DRAMA

Excellent Bill at Apollo.

The Bill at the Apollo for the first half of the week is one of extra merit.
Reid and Shaw present an excellent novelty singing act. Miss Shaw is one of the best singers heard here in some time. They were forced to respond to continuous and well deserved applause. Jones, Carey and Jones, "The Disc Trio," extra added attraction brought down the house with their plantation harmony act. Johnnie Jones, who has been singing at this theatre for some time leads the trio, which starts shortly on an exciting tour. The picture are of the usual high class standard maintained and shown exclusively at this popular play house. "Mother," a two reel western drama abounds with good clever acting and strong emotional scenes. In fact the entire bill is just as everybody was saying, "great."

Bad Fire Out West

Canadian Press Despatch
GRETNA, Pa., April 29.—Fire broke out in C. Piper's office about 6 o'clock last night, and with a high wind blowing soon burned down about 50 per cent. of the business place of the town. The first to burn was the post office. From there the flames swept to a butcher shop owned by H. Heloff, burning the telephone office. H. Ricz's office, Scrimnowski's barbers shop, B. Ewart's printing office, Colborne street, L. E. Eric's store, L. E. Eric's drug store, Bank of Montreal, Charles Warren's implement shop, Ritz's implement shop, Ogilvie's elevator and six dwelling houses, besides several other small buildings. An attempt was made to dynamite one of the buildings in order to save the Bank of Montreal,
but the effort failed.

The King Edward hotel caught fire several times, but with hard work was saved. The Queen's hotel had a narrow escape. Some of the buildings were covered by insurance. The loss will reach $300,000. The fire is still burning, but thought to be under control.

Charged With Graft.
NEW YORK, April 29.—Four former police inspectors, charged in directly with grafting, directly with conspiracy to obstruct justice, prepared to face District Attorney Whitman to-day at the opening of the most important police trial since the Gecker case. The defendants—Dennis Sweeney, James T. Hussey, Jas.
F. Thompson and John J. Murtha—were all indicted recently after the district attorney's office had uncer-veiled a system of grafting against disorderly hotels. In this connection, two former policemen—Hartigan and Robinson—have already been sent to Sing Sing. They were formerly attached to Sweeney's staff. Both men went to prison refusing to "squeal."
The trial is expected to last ten days,
and is charged with conspiring to keep out of the state George A. Sipp, a hotel-keeper, whose confession to paying bribe money to the police forms the basis of the prosecution.

Suicide of Second Brother.

Thomas Ungroed, aged 46, hanged himself at Llanonn, near Hlanely, in same farm building in which his brother committed suicide ten years ago.

Wedding Ring on Hire.

In a case at Pontypool in which John Rees, a colliery haulier, was summoned by his wife, Jane Rees, who asked for an order of separation from him, the woman stated that she was married on Dec. 21 last, and had her wedding ring on hire, but she had since paid for it.

Items of personal and social interest will be gladly received by the writer of this column, by mail or over special Courier telephone 1781. Address communications to Society Editor, the Courier.

Mr. J. H. Biggar left for New York this morning.

Rev. Dr. Linscott is a visitor in the Queen City to-day.

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Grobb left this morning for Toronto.

Miss Susie Dunn spent Sunday with her parents at Princeton.

Mr. R. G. Lamb spent Monday renewing old friends in Woodstock.

Mr. John Brill of Guelph was a recent visitor with Brantford friends.

Mr. Alec. Lochington is spending a few days with Aylmer friends this week.

Miss Edith Lee is visiting in Princeton at present—the guest of Miss Marie Freeman.

Miss Wye, Dufferin Avenue, leaves this evening on a visit to her brother in New York State.

Mrs. Harry Leonard of Brantford and Miss Jane Bigar of Mt. Pleasant are the guests of Toronto friends this week.

Mr. Monday of Brantford spent the week-end with Mr. Richard Dunham at Lynden, and was sojourner at the Methodist Church in that village on Sunday evening.

Mrs. Thos. McEwen and daughter of St. Thomas, arrived in the city Saturday to be present at the Van Loon-McEwen wedding which takes place on Wednesday, April 30th at Mt. Pleasant.

Apropos of the Theatre, I hear several little theatre parties have been arranged for Hamilton and "The Quaker Girl" this week—a pretty little Opera, which does not come to Brantford this season.

The appearance of Mantell in Shakespearean play at the Grand Opera House is drawing a number of outsiders to the city for this evening's attraction—parties coming in from both Brantford and Paris for "The Merchant of Venice" to-night.

A business meeting of the Brant Chapter I. O. D. E. is being called at the Board Room of the Public Library on Wednesday afternoon, April 30th, at 2:30 o'clock, to complete arrangements regarding the sending of their delegate to the Winnipeg Convention early in May, and also to take up other matters pertaining to the Chapter.

At the recital at the Conservatory of Music Hall this evening, which Zigmund Caplan, the celebrated violinist, and Ernest D. Gray, the pianist, are giving, the program includes two of Mr. Gray's own compositions—the reading of E. Pauline Johnson's "Oisioth" and also the beautiful violin and piano selection, "Zigenweisen," which was so enthusiastically received by the audience and Duchess of Connaught when the same artists presented it before them during their regime at Ottawa.

Periodically we have curious typographical errors in our own paper, so that the French composers can hardly be expected not to "set up" the English language. But they seem to have excelled themselves in connection with the recent visit of English competition choirs to Paris. One paper had "God shave the King" and another, instead of printing "Hail Gladstone Light!" gave it as "Hail Gladstone Light!" no doubt out of compliment to the late lamented G. O. M.

A Canadian woman receiving distinction this year is Miss Helen M. Nicoll, daughter of the vice-president of the Canadian Pacific railway. This young woman has this year attained the much coveted distinction of being elected to membership in the Royal Society of British Artists.

Brace Up

By WALT MASON

The man who mopes as though his hopes were ruined all and busted, who goes his way from day to day being sad, disgusted, is left alone to mourn and moan o'er brighter scenes departed, for men don't like to walk the pike with fellows broken-hearted. We like the guy with beaming eye, and him we follow after as forth he stalks to nail the rocks and fill the air with laughter. The man who leads in useful deeds, whom we delight to follow, is not the jay who's prone to say the world is false and hollow. He's not the chump who'll always pump from reddened eyes the briny, whose dismal word and groan are heard from here to Cochinchina. He's not the gink who finds a kink in every scheme invented, he's not the freak who's sad and weak and glum and discontented. That sort of man never helps or braces us, he's always made ambitions fade whenever he has faced us. And so we praise the man whose ways give courage to each mortal, who walks ahead with kingly tread and shows us how to chortle.

"Packy" McFarland Only Undefeated Lightweight

(By George T. Parry) The person afflicted with pugilistic statistics of the intellect threw down the pencil with which he had been industriously figuring almost this year's new before into his kick, jabbed a forefinger gleefully in his friend's ribs and remarked: "Every lightweight but one a loser. How is that, pal?" "Don't know what the gag is, but I'll talk shoot!" "There's more scrapping going on in the lightweight division today than in any other class. The lads of that grade hold the stage centre in every part of the globe where milling is a legalized amusement. You hear the cities announcing that never before was there such a bunch of 120-pound maulers in action, of all kinds, sluggers and scientific types. There's Ritchie, Rivers, Wolgast, Welsh, Cross, Moran, Mandot, Wells, McEgan, Baldwin, Britton, Murphy, P. O'Brien, to say nothing of the ancient warhorse, Bat Nelson, who persists in occupying a place in the picture. Every manjack has been beaten at some time in their respective careers. Packy McFarland being the only chap who has never heard a referee decide against him. "But McFarland isn't a simon-pure lightweight."

"He is according to international standards anyhow, he can make 133 in the afternoon, and I'm figuring this thing to gather them all in. Now, first of all, take our present champion—Willy Ritchie. On November 4, 1911, he lost at 20-round decision to Freddy Welsh of England, before a Los Angeles club. Oh yes, I know it wasn't discredit to him. He jumped in to take Wolgast's place on short notice, and I'm not saying that he couldn't trim the Britisher now. But I merely want to show that his record isn't without a reverse in it. "Swiss Cheese. "Welsh, the fan who beat him, lost a verdict to McFarland, was defeated by Matt Wells for the English title, and won it back from Wells recently. Wells came to this country with a clean record but when he met McFarland in New York the American lad punched so many holes in him that Matt bore a strong resemblance to a Swiss cheese at the termination of their argument. When Wells returned home he was first whipped by Hughie McEgan, the Australian champion, and then got what was coming to him from Welsh, making three defeats on his list. McEgan was the recognized champion of the antipodes but previous to winning the title he took the small end of the purse on several occasions one of his conquerors being Ruddy Unholz, the little Boer boxer now campaigning in this country. In a return match with Wells before the National Club of London he lost the verdict, and was also defeated by Welsh.

Pink Tea at Park

Red Sox Did Very Light Work Yesterday Afternoon.

The Red Sox had sort of a Pink Tea work out at Agricultural Park yesterday afternoon, as the practice was held on the upper grounds as the diamond was too soft to allow practice to be held there. Barring practice was held, though only "lob" balls were thrown to the batters. Brindage of the St. Kitts team was the man upon whom the fans kept their eyes during the practice, and the way the big fellow laced them out caught on with the boys. If he could only rap them out in the game they had does at practice, he would be a valuable asset to the team as a hitter. In the two games with St. Kitts he showed up well, both at bat, on first, and showed speed while going round the bases. No doubt Kane will give him his serious consideration before he announces his 1913 roster. English, the catcher, had the pitching staff in tow, and he made a very favorable impression by his snap throw in returning the ball to the pitcher. There are a lot of fans anxiously awaiting to see him work in a game, and it is altogether likely that their hopes will be realized as Kane will be sure to work him during the exhibition games to be played here on Wednesday and Thursday of this week when the Cuban Stars come here for two games.

Kane had Rankin, the St. Kitts left-hander, working during the practice.

SPORTING COMMENT

By FREE LANCE

"How in blazes," queries a fan, "does Chance hope to make a ball team out of three Rays, a Roy, a Russell, a Harold, a Claude, an Ezra, a Birdie and a Bert?"

It is officially announced that all Brantford players making home runs on home grounds will enter the Rotunda of Renown by receiving one dollar from Pietro Bataglia Cancelli, known in America as Peanuckle.

Tell me not in mournful numbers Cooney's arm has gone to seed, For the batter's dead who slumbers When he notches up his speed.

Gabby Ivers looks a good deal faster on his feet this year. We sincerely trust that correspondents will not flash any wires to us, "Ivers was safe at first on a three-bagger."

The Cuban Stars who will play in the city to-morrow are a first rate baseball attraction and it is doubtful if a better team will be here all summer than that of to-morrow and Thursday. The Cubans are playing to-day at Syracuse and they jump to Brantford to-night. They have shut out Elmira 8-0, New Bedford 5-0, and played an 14 innings tie with Wilkesbore. This is baseball class and interesting combats with the Brantford team should be the result. The Cubans demand grand stand charges and the local club had to tack on the usual rate, although reluctant to do so; for the two games on Wednesday and Thursday.

Ad. J. H. Minshall suggested at the City Council last night a half holiday for Opening Day, May 7, stating that it was up to the merchants to close at 3 o'clock. It will be Ottawa the Capital City, of the Dominion, vs. Brantford, and Mayor Hartman and other members of the Council expressed pleasure in accepting the ball club's invitations to the opening game. The Council will ride in autos from Victoria Park.

Abby Johnson disappointed his barnstormers, but he paid their hotel bill and suddenly departed. Abby drew about $60, share of the receipts for two games here and when hotel bills were paid there wasn't much left.

Football

Old Country Games LONDON, April 29.—Football results, Scottish league—Rath Rovers 1, Falkirk 0. Midweek results—Airdrieonians 4, Rath Rovers 2; Falkirk 2, Hearts 0.

Scots and Betting Coupons At a meeting of the Scottish Football Association council in Glasgow it was announced that in conjunction with the English and Welsh associations, the association had secured a promise that in the next session of parliament a bill should be introduced to prohibit newspapers from publishing football betting coupons. It was also decided that professional players and referees should be debarred from writing to newspapers on football matters.

The apportionment of receipts from the Scottish Cup final has a curious look. Celtic got £30 for the use of their ground while the two finalists take less than £500 each.

but just what his fate will be it is at present mystery. Then there is the short stop problem to solve, and as it does not require three or four to occupy that position, it would not be surprising if the axe fell any moment, for as sure as fate it will fall, and pretty soon at that.

The ballplayers who composed his team needed spending money, and Abby probably figured out that there was very little in it for the manager and decided to quit.

Manager Kane is anxious to get on the diamond in front of the grand stand, because that is the place where games will have to be played and hard work should be put in there before Opening Day. Kane himself isn't doing very much work, but the old boy will come when the sun begins to boil.

President Nelson has decided to give a try out to three of the players left here by Abby Johnson—Rankin, McFadden and Brindish, pitcher shortstop and outfielder. The club has the offer of a very fast man from Lynn under option. If the team is not strong enough at the start of the season it will be rapidly strengthened as the club has fortified itself in case of any emergency.

There are still vacancies for the position of umpire and scorer in the Dovercourt senior league. Apply to R. Richards, 550 Yonge street north.

Infielder Blues has been swapped by Manager Stallings of the Boston Nationals for Outfielder Mann of the Buffalo club. Pitcher Hogue has been sold to the Minneapolis club.

Davis, the young college boy, pitched for Jersey City on Saturday and held Rochester ransom until the ninth when a base on balls, a single and a infield out enabled Ganzel's team to sidestep a shutout.

In spite of recent reports that Honus Wagner is through with the game for good on account of an injury to his legs, the Pittsburgh management asserts that he will be in harness again before the end of this week.

The American league has adopted a scoring rule which is in vogue in the International League last season. Hereafter a hit will be given a batsman when an unsuccessful attempt is made to retire a runner at another base than first, provided that no error is made on the play.

Dufferin Rifles and All Scots. The teams met at Mohawk Park to battle for league points on Saturday and the following players lined up for the Duffs: Goal, Dudden; backs, Cook and Martin; halves, Harris, Rogers, Myring; forwards, Coale, Richardson, Hutchinson, Humphries, Mercer. The Scots started with the situation and that the time the Duffs scored their first goal, through Humphries by line combination on the part of the forwards the Scots goal was again captured by Humphries who was playing a great game. A third goal was soon obtained by Richardson. The Scots although fighting a great up-hill fight put up a stubborn resistance, but could not stop the Soldiers who were out to win and Hutchinson with a great shot again lowered the All Scots colors. A penalty was awarded and Richardson who took the kick rattled the crossbar. Shortly after half time was called the score standing Duffs 4, All Scots 0.

The second half was practically a repetition of the previous half, the Soldiers doing most of the pressing and going in for goals. The Duffs won their first away game, the score standing Duffs 6, All Scots 0. Referee Smith handled the game in masterly style.

Cockshuts United. The Cockshuts United players were resting last Saturday, but will go into strict training this week to get into form to meet their "old rivals" the Y. M. C. A. at Mohawk Park, next Saturday. A meeting of the management will take place next Thursday and the team will be selected to meet the Y. M. C. A.

Y.M.C.A. Team. The Y.M.C.A. football team will practice at the Agricultural Park this evening. All players are requested to be on hand at 6:45 p.m.

SNOWY BAKER TO SCOUR AUSTRALIA FOR HEAVYWEIGHT

(By W. W. Naughton.)

SAN FRANCISCO, April 29.—"Smoky" Baker, the man who has succeeded Hugh D. McIntosh, as Australia's leading fight promoter, is possessed of the ambition to discover an Australian born nusky who can be developed into the greatest world beating heavyweight of all times.

In pursuance of his quest, Baker has departed from the methods usually followed by sporting managers in search of ring talent. He has appointed agents through the land and has advertised over the whole of Australia's three million square miles of territory.

He has set forth that when choice has been finally made for all the would-be champions who have made application and undergone inspection the fellow chosen will live in clover for two years.

He will be clothed, fed and paid good wages and all that will be required of him will be to pay strict attention to the men employed to teach him the science of ringmanship and adhere strictly to the tenets of correct living.

Baker recognizes that the hunt for his idol will call for all the patience and endurance which he expects to see in the backs and disappointments and has made up his mind not to be discouraged or turned aside from his purpose.

He believes that even if he has carried a realt along to a certain point some flaw will develop that will suggest the advisability of calling a halt and sending the novice back to the mines or the shearing sheds or wherever he came from.

In which case "Smoky" will grab another package of raw material and begin all over again. He is determined that the man he is after or know the reason why.

Many Want the Job. According to news brought by a recent mail there was a couple of hundred applicants for the job after one month of publicity. The would-be champions ranged in age from eighteen to twenty-three years, and weighed all the way from 180 to 230 pounds.

It may be that Baker will become alarmed at the dimensions his scheme has assumed but he appears to think that he has a thorough grasp of the situation and that he will be able to sift a whole regiment of stalwarts if necessary, and locate the most promising man in the bunch.

Needless to say, it is a dearth of good heavyweight material in Australia that has impelled Baker to this course. It remains to be seen what will come of the scheme. Some old-time trainers will tell you that champions are born, not made, but whether they are born or made, Baker feels that they must be advertised for.

Apart from what the scouting of the highways and byways of Australia may bring forth, Baker has three ex-amateur heavyweights in process of development just now. These are Gordon Coghlin, former amateur heavyweight champion of Australia, Albert Pooley, and Harold Evers. The last named is a west Australian who was unearched by the American colored pugilist Sam McVea during a tour of the western country. McVea made a pupil of Evers, and coached him along. Evers stands six feet three and is spoken of as a fellow in infinite promise.

Coghlin won his spurs recently by defeating Syd Fitzsimmons of New Zealand, a nephew of the veteran Bob Fitzsimmons. The two heavies met in the first of a series of elimination bouts at the Russettens bay stadium in Sydney and Fitzsimmons was knocked out in the fourth round.

Fitzsimmons was put down twice in the third round and although he battled pluckily, was so palpably marked for defeat in the following round that his seconds threw up the sponge.

Raymond Will Have to Shear His Moustache to Beat Roller

If Raymond Cazeaux, the French wrestler, desires to get a clean-cut victory over Dr. Roller, the Chicago grappler, he will have to carve the growth from his upper lip.

In their battle at Rideau rink, Ottawa, Roller substituted a moustache hold for the dreadfull toe grip, with the result that he put the shoulders of the brownie Bordelais to the mat for two straight falls. The first came with a body hold in 22 minutes and 52 seconds while the Frenchman after getting the better of the Yankee for the bigger part of the second epoch suddenly found himself with his shoulder fastened to the canvas in 15 minutes and 8 seconds.

The bout was one of the best of the series shown this spring. From the first couple of minutes the men went after each other like a pair of bull dogs. Again Roller rattled the big Frenchman so badly that he lost his temper, time after time and rushed madly in an endeavor to carry his opponent off his feet. The doctor was too quick for him, and continually side-stepped the clumsy beef trust. Several times he dropped on his knees and the bull-like Bordelais went shooting over his back. The times the loser received in this manner told upon him.

Roller again showed himself a boxer of some class. He continually slapped Cazeaux on the big fat jaws and dug left hooks into his ribs that would have done credit to any of the present crop of white hopes. However, Cazeaux was always the aggressor in the rough stuff. He did the have the speed to make anything out of it, however. At times the rink resounded with the slaps and cracks handed across by the two huskies.

This seemed to delight the crowd, and at times the excitement was wild. Roller was the favorite as usual and his clever footwork in avoiding the 300 pounds of Frenchman with disastrous results to the latter drew howls of joy from the 1,500 fans.

From start to finish Roller worked his old gag of pulling Raymo's moustache. When he gave it an exceptionally stiff yank, just before securing the first fall Cazeaux made a kick that would have pasted the "good night" sign on the physician had it landed. The result was to make the Yankee angry and what he did to Cazeaux was a shame. Shortly after he got the first fall on a body hold, after the men had struggled around the mat for several minutes.

The last spasm was lively with the big Frenchman the aggressor. He was always met half way, however. Twice he got toe holds that looked good for a fall but the "doc" refused to quit and got out of them. The second was more dangerous for the American. This time he brought his moustache hold into play for the last time. It served him well. Cazeaux released one hand in an endeavor to save his "dandy black moustache" but it was no go. Roller twisted harder and a roar went up from the crowd when the Frenchman let go the other hand with a roar that sounded like:

"Take the fall but spare my moustache!"

A couple of seconds later and the big fellow was forced down with a head hold. The time was 15:06.

TORONTO ON TO BALTIMORE

Leafs are Hopeful of Starting to do Better.

PROVIDENCE, R.I., May 29.—Manager Kelley and his Toronto champions left here last night for Baltimore, where they will finish the first eastern trip. The champions were greatly disappointed at the postponement of yesterday's game, as they fully expected to win it. Things broke badly for the Leafs in every game, the locals having the advantage of all the breaks in the game in all three contests. Kelley intended trying out Goglat, the new pitcher, obtained from the New York Nationals to take Rudolph's place, and was anxious to see him work. Kel believes he has a first-class man in Goglat.

All the players are in good condition with the possible exception of Jordan, who is nursing a badly bruised finger. He expects to get back into the game in a few days, however. A heavy shower in the morning made things look bad for a game in the afternoon, but shortly after lunch the clouds broke, and the sun appeared, only to be followed by another shower at 2 o'clock heavier than the first one that made a game out of the question.

Doubleheader Next Trip. The game will be played as a double-header on the next trip here of the champions. Manager Donovan made a big cut in his squad yesterday, sending Outfielder Duggan to the Hartford club of the Eastern organization, a class B organization; Outfielder Scheer back to Youngstown, Ohio, and Pitcher Jensen to New Haven, where he played last year. Outfielder Powell, for whom Detroit paid $5000 yesterday, is expected to be given a regular berth in the outfield. Two or three other players are due to go before the Leafs leave for the first western trip next week.

Fair for a Youngster. GREENSBORO, N.C., April 29.—Ray, an 18 year old boy, signed by Winston-Salem in the Carol'ne League, yesterday pitched a no-run no-hit game against Durham. The youngster also exhibited perfect control.

Canadian League

Ottawa's Squad Complete. OTTAWA, April 29.—Word was received from Port Wayne last night that the Ottawa baseball team, which has been training there, is practically complete. Frank Shaughnessy says his infield will be very strong, fortified by much harder hitters than were on his pay roll last season. He is still dubious about his pitchers. Outfielders O'Hara, Henderson, Hoffman and Drury have been released. Also pitchers McCarthy, Leavitt, Carpenter and Bernhoff. Infielders Williams and Amfield will be turned loose and catcher Lage may also go.

Mike Callahan has a fight on to cinch his position in the outfield but will likely do so. Shaughnessy's team will start off with only two or three of last year's regulars. It will be Catchers Rowe and Lake. Pitchers Reppert, Mullin, Ostermeyer and Lill; first base, Dolan; second base, Harris; shortstop, Strawbridge; third base, Robertson; centre field, Leggatt; left field, Callahan or Hoffman.

"Sailor" Burke visited the Fort Wayne camp Saturday, but Shaughnessy refused to meet his demands, and he returned to Toledo. Premier Borden has been invited to pitch the first ball in the opening game at Lansdowne Park May 15.

Hamilton Releases Players. HAMILTON, Ont., April 29.—Knotty Lee's trunty battle axe has fallen and five noble heads of alleged ball players lie peacefully in the basket. Knotty came to the conclusion after last Saturday's burlesque, that there were at least five that he could do without and he therefore told Tremble, third baseman, Sutton, pitcher; Brook Indian, catcher; Macpherson, pitcher; and McSherry, outfielder, to be on their way. The above five would not do, although Lee did not give Brooks a chance to show anything. He is no doubt satisfied with Fisher an dBaron as his catchers.

Lee hurried off on Sunday through the Eastern States looking for real hall players, and he expects to bolster the team up. He needs as the present outfit does not look very smart.

Batting Averages of the Aldermanic Board For One Session

The quorum present: Mayor Hartman, Ald. Gilliswater, Minshall, Hollinrake, Fitcher, Suddaby, Ryerson, Woodams, Such, McEwen, J. H. Spence, Jos. Broadbent, Geo. A. Ward, Quinlan.

W. S. Brewster, M.P.P., wrote stating that the books of the Brantford Gas Co. could not be moved until a Brantford civic deputation was heard at Toronto.

City Treasurer Bunnell wrote stating that over $3,000 had been secured for the sale of civic debentures that had been offered when tenders were called for. The debentures had been sold in small lots.

Ensign Trickey offered good music from the Salvation Army band for the park concerts this summer.

The Post Office department wrote stating the Dominion Government would be glad to give for Hydro lights on the public building frontage in the city.

Bowser and Co. wrote stating that there had never been any trouble in dozens of cities with their tank for the storage of gasoline for auto purposes.

The city solicitors' letter stating that no appeal was possible in the Lake Erie and Northern Railway Route as approved. The aldermen took the letter as a matter of course.

An account from the Courier for $75 for the publication of an application to parliament, nine inches long, six insertions was laid over on objection of Ald. McEwen. It was the general opinion that anything at all in the Courier these days was worth the money, but Ald. Spence who had not certified the account agreed to hold it over.

Ald. Minshall had a resolution giving Thomas Potts permission to construct a driveway to his premises on Niagara street above the Grand Trunk retaining wall. The resolution went through when it was changed to read "at his own expense, to the satisfaction of the City Engineer and subject to permission and inspection of railway committee."

Ald. Ryerson wanted to know what was to be done with the holes in the pavement on Brant Avenue; also on Market street. The pavements were becoming dangerous. Ald. Minshall said that notice had already been sent to the paving company to get busy and make repairs. Ald. Ryerson wanted particular attention paid to Market street. Ald. Suddaby said that the worst places would be filled with cement right away.

Ald. Ward had been informed by the City Solicitor that things were in such shape for the construction of the Mary street foot bridge.

Some kind of a technicality arose over the $30,000 Colborne by-law and before the brokers would accept the debentures as really valid, the by-law had to be advertised in The Courier. The council authorized publication.

Ald. Ward wanted to know what shape the civic boundary extension matter was in. City Clerk Leonard reported that the matter was still in progress and data was being secured.

Ald. Hollinrake referred to the report that there was a deficit of $1,000 on the Police Board. Chief Slemin had informed him that it was a custom of the magistrate that part of the fine in some cases be paid to the complainant. This was the case in liquor and assault cases, and that was the way the Chief accounted for the deficit.

Ald. Spence was glad the matter was brought up. If that was the way business was conducted around Queen street, there was a pretty loose system up there. If money were paid in that way they should have a receipt for it and receipts should be balanced. He understood there was a contingent fund kept, sometimes amounting to $500. Arrangements had been made, however, to leave only a certain amount with them. When it got shy, city treasurer reimbursed the police.

Ald. Ward said the finance chairman would confer a fasting benefit on the community and make an immortal name for himself if he took the matter up and put the police on some kind of a businesslike system. Ald. Spence said he was hopeful at a meeting with the police board to inaugurate a system which would be businesslike and leave no false impressions.

Well, Well, Bill Lang and Bosher Bill.

The scarcity of heavyweights in Australia has fired some of the old timers with the ambition to bet back into harness. Bill Lang, who has been out of the game for quite a while is to box Petty Officer Curran of England some time this month in Melbourne. The pair met once before in England and Long lost on a foul in the opening round.

Even Bill Squares, "Bosher Bill" has heard the trumpet call, and is hastening ringward. A great light seems to have dawned on Bill. He says he sees now that what ailed him in the past was conceding too much weight to his opponents. He is after the light heavyweight title of Australia now and will never go out of his class again.

They expected to see the Maple Leafs in action against Abby Johnson's St. Catharines-Niagara League team, but the latter failed to put in an appearance. They are scheduled to play here on Tuesday and Wednesday also.

THE TWO THOUSAND GUINEAS TOMORROW
The race for the Two Thousand Guineas, the first of the English classics, will be run tomorrow at Newmarket. The Two Thousand is a race on which there is little ante-post betting, and it has not been mentioned in the speculation that has taken place on the three-year-old events of the season. Mr. H. P. Whitney, the American owner, has four eligibles, Harmonicon, Cabaret, Miramichi and Meeting House, but may not start any. In that case Jockey Frank O'Neill will ride Louvois for Mr. Raphael, who won the Derby last year with the grey mare Tagalie. O'Neill is not available Johnny Keiff will ride Louvois. The distance of the Two Thousand is a mile, while they go half a mile farther in the Derby on June 4. The starters will be drawn from this list of probabilities: Amner, Claqueur, Harmonicon, Bachelor's Wedding, Pilliwinkle, Shogun, Radiant, Young Pegasus, Day Comet, Jameson, Ramsdale, Rosneath, Fairy King, Mountpelier, Nassau, Kingsborough, Knight's Key.

Hon. Pelletier Dead.
OTTAWA, April 28.—Hon. G. B. Pelletier, father of Hon. L. P. Pelletier and formerly a member of the executive council of Quebec, but for the last few years a retired resident of Trois Pistoles, Quebec, died this morning, aged 90 years.

AUTO SMASH KILLED TWO

Serious Accident in Toronto
—Albert Britnell and Miss Coad Killed.

TORONTO, April 29.—By the roadside on College street near Dufferin, the only apparent signs of an accident is a bent and broken automobile, but in the Parkdale Hospital its four occupants lie unconscious. Two of them are fatally injured, while the others are badly hurt. And all because last night at 8:30 the driver failed to see a rapidly approaching street car, attempted to cross in front of it and failed.

The injured passengers are: Albert E. Britnell, aged 31, of 15 De Tacoma Avenue, who has concussion of the brain and had injuries to his head; Miss Hazel Coad, 20 Hespurne street, with similar injuries. These two are fatally hurt, while the condition of the others, Mrs. Albert E. Britnell and Edward Britnell, aged 23, of 95 Summerville Avenue, is not so serious, although early this morning they were still unconscious. They were suffering from cuts and bruises about the head and shoulders.

For a short time last night Edward Britnell, the driver, was conscious and told those at his bedside that he was driving along College St. and turned to go South along Dufferin street. He did not see his danger, and while fairly on the tracks he was struck by the East-bound street car. He said, "I knew of nothing wrong until we were hit." Witnesses state that the car was steered directly before the swiftly traveling trolley, which struck it with great force squarely between the fore and back wheels. The auto was carried exactly 55 yards before it came to a standstill and the passengers extricated from the wreckage. All four were taken to the office of Dr. J. Russell, 1084 College street, where first aid was given, and then were taken to the Parkdale Hospital in the ambulances of A. W. Miles and H. Ellis, all police ambulances in the vicinity being in use at the time. At the hospital the injured were cared for by Drs. J. W. Russell, G. W. Russell, and Dr. A. E. Morgan. A lady, an occupant of a motor car which followed close behind the one struck, did much toward helping the sufferers until medical men were summoned but repeatedly declined to give her name.

The auto which E. Britnell was driving was a five passenger Ford No. 9811, and had been in his possession but a few weeks. It is almost a total wreck, the front seat being smashed and splintered and the front and one side of the tonneau crumpled in. The hood is scarcely dented, and it would seem that the rear of the car received the brunt of the impact. The College car with which it collided was in charge of Harry Southby, 40 Macaulay street, Motorman No. 1634, and Arthur Hather, 20 Ruskin avenue, conductor No. 2155.

PARADE WAS EXCELLENT ONE
Dufferin Rifles Continue to Improve—Drill Well Executed.

The Dufferin Rifles parade last night though not up to the previous one, was one of the best of this Spring. The officers had hoped for an attendance over the 400 mark but owing to circumstances over which they had no control, the parade fell to 382. The last muster amounted to 401 and it was expected that last night's parade would at least reach the 415 mark but it fell short.

It was from no lack of energy on the part of the officers or sergeants that the desired number did not turn out but with the rank and file alone. The Privates were put through a course of drill by their officers for an hour and after that the usual march out took place. Headed by the Regimental band, the soldiers took their weekly march out and acquitted themselves notably, while the brass and bugle bands deserve credit for the way they played while in the parade.

Company under command of E. H. Newman, were given the coveted position of marching behind the band as they had 42 men on parade, just one more than B. Company, under command of Captain W. F. Newman. There was great rivalry between the two Captains and two companies, and when these attacks would one should walk over the band, but Capt. "Bert" slipped on his own younger brother, Captain "Bill."

A little friendly rivalry between the different companies would have the tendency to bring more men out and the parade would be larger. Captains E. H. and W. F. Newman had the regiment in heart and are always ready to do anything to help build up the regiment. The following was the parade: Staff officers, 94 bands, buglers and pioneers, 63, 70 Co., 60; B. Co., 41; C. Co., 34; D. Co., 29; E. Co., 42; J. P. Co., 30; G. Co., 18; H. Co., 33; Staff Sergeants, 5; Signallers, 27; Stretcher Bearers, 9; Recruits, 2; Total, 382.

Big Crowd Disappointed

They Gathered But Did Not See the Famous Mrs. Pankhurst.

(Canadian Press Despatch)
LONDON, April 29.—The expiration of the limited license under which Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, the militant suffragette leader, was released on April 12 from Holloway Jail, where she was serving three years' imprisonment, caused a great crowd to assemble to-day round the house where she has been staying to recover from the effects of her "hunger strike." The people's expectation of seeing Mrs. Pankhurst, for the first time in Holloway jail was disappointed, as the authorities had in the meantime decided to extend her license, owing to the unsatisfactory state of her health.

At the weekly convale of the militant union this morning it was announced that Mrs. Pankhurst had intention of recognizing the limited license in any way.

Hugh Franklin, a nephew of Postmaster-General Herbert L. Samuel, was released from jail to-day, and the chairman of the meeting exhibited his license torn to bits to the excited suffragettes. Mr. Franklin said he had been forcibly held 114 times.

Hooted and Jeered
NEW YORK, April 28.—A London cable says: A militant suffragette to-day attempted to address a crowd in Hyde Park, while King George was reviewing the brigade of guards. The hoots and jeers of the mob almost broke up the military affair, and when the woman refused to be quiet she was locked up.

A Warning—To feel tired before exertion is a warning sign that the system lacks vitality, and needs the tonic effect of Hood's Sarsaparilla. Sufferers should not delay. Get rid of that tired feeling by beginning to take Hood's Sarsaparilla to-day.

SPLENDID ADDRESS

Board of Trade Last night regarding Matters Heavy at Present.

The regular meeting of the Board of Trade was held in the chamber last night. Present: President C. A. Waterous in the Vice-President Reginald Scarretary George Hatley, G. S. Muir, T. Hendry, K. V. Bunne, Gould, J. P. Hoag, G. P. Whitaker, Chief Lewis, J. W. Whitaker, A. P. vanSomere, McFarland, G. Ireland, S. G. W. Robinson, J. M. Young, Broadbent, G. Ellis, L. Waterous, Heaton and Mr. Walker of who addressed the meeting, etc.

A splendid address was given by Mr. Heaton of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association in the name of the Ontario Fire Prevention Association on the science and the methods of fire prevention and fire prevention. Mr. Heaton gave a very interesting and instructive address dealing with fire prevention. He claimed, one of the most important questions of the day, and the local Legislature will soon be called upon to form an act in this connection. The speaker took up the question of national fire ways and Austria made her attitude clear at Monday's conference some of the powers represented opposed to taking military action until Montenegro had had time to reply to the warning meeting was then adjourned tomorrow, it being understood King Nicholas had not yet turned a favorable answer would issue a very short act and act at once.

The only reply received up present, however, is the laconic

CHANGES IN LICENSE

It is Believed that Amendments Will Go Into Effect in May.

The belief in official circles is that the amendments to the liquor act, under which barrooms will be opened until 8 a.m., will take effect almost immediately. The new year begins on May 1, an ordinary condition of the amendments would come into force on the 1st. From present appearances, however, it will at least be several days before the lieutenant-governor is able to pass on them at a house is again called.

It is probable that another amendment may yet be added to the bill if the authority would be granted bringing the new rules into force time, and following this the amendments for the coming year will be issued on the understanding, present indications point to a restriction of the bottle trade of the shortening of the hours of the mornings and the elevation fees becoming operative at once.

NOTICE

Conservatives Ward Two meeting will be held at the office headquarters (old Mason) on Wednesday evening, at 8 o'clock for the purpose of electing a chairman.
