FATAL ACCIDENT AT CHELMSFORD

An 8 year old girl, Annie Doyle, daughter of William Doyle, of Chelmsford, Northumberland County died at the Hotel Dieu Hospital Friday as the result of a wound sustained when her younger brother pointed a gun which he didn't know was loaded at the girl, pulled a trigger and shot his sister through the abdomen.

The shooting occurred on Wednesday at the home of the bereaved family, the younger brother having got hold of a gun which an older member of the family had had out with him on a shooting expedition and which he had neglected to unload before having it put away in the house. The wounded girl was rushed to the hospital but her injuries proved too serious for her recovery to be possible.

Besides the bereaved father, two brothers and two sisters survive. The child's mother died last spring, and four months ago the six year old sister of the deceased died. The sad fatality is regarded as an unfortunate accident by the authorities and as such, no action is being taken.

MAKE HEAVY PAYMENTS ON STUMPAGE

Col. T. G. Loggie, Deputy Minister of Lands and Mines this morning announced that the receipts from territorial revenue at the Department had reached a gratifying total. The forecast of the Minister, Hon. C. W. Robinson made some days ago that the balance of three hundred thousand dollars would be paid before the end of the final year making a total estimated by him had been considerably exceeded.

Recent Payments Heavy

Within the past few weeks there have been heavy payments from lessees of Crown Lands on stumpage and other accounts. These payments have rather exceeded expectations making the financial year which closes today a good one as far as the Department of Lands and Mines is concerned.

Improvement Expected

The payments into the Department of Lands and Mines are taken as indicating that conditions in the lumber market are improving and that the future holds out better prospects.

FUNERAL OF LATE PERCY HARRIMAN

The funeral of the late Percy Harriman was held Sunday afternoon at St. Mary's church, Newcastle, where Rev. Fr. Dixon conducted the service. It was one of the largest, if not the largest on the Miramichi. The order of the funeral cortege was as follows:

Knights of Columbus
Miramichi Council 1219 of which Mr. Harriman was a valued member.
Railway Employees numbering about 300. They came from Moncton and Campbellton to pay their last tribute to their brother member.
Pallbearers, four on each side of the Hearse, James Boyle, Don Creaghan, Clair McCabe, Stewart Demers, Edward Keating, Frank Murphy, Jack Lawlor and Edward Morris.

Mourners and citizens in general, carriages and autos reaching from the house to church.

E. A. McCURDY IS UNANIMOUS CHOICE OF CONSERVATIVES

E. A. McCurdy, of Newcastle, is the candidate of the National Liberal and Conservative Party in Northumberland. He received the unanimous nomination of the party at the Convention held in the Opera House, Thursday afternoon. No finer convention from the standpoint of numbers, and enthusiasm for a policy of good government has ever been held by the party in Northumberland, and it was marked by remarkable unanimity that the party in this county should have a candidate standing solely for the Meighen policy and especially for the tariff and railway planks in Premier Meighen's manifesto.

The convention was thoroughly representative of every part of the County, the gathering numbering one hundred and thirty three delegates. President James Stables occupied the chair and declared the Convention open for the nomination of Candidates. It was moved by Mr. E. J. Parker, of Derby, seconded by Mr. F. D. Swim of Doaktown that Mr. E. A. McCurdy be a candidate. It was moved by Mr. P. J. McIntyre of Chatham, seconded by Mr. Arthur Leggatt of Chatham that Mr. J. Y. Mersereau be a candidate.

The result of the ballot was McCurdy 113, Mersereau 20.

It was moved by Mr. F. D. Swim of Doaktown, seconded by Mr. Gilks of Blissfield that the nomination of Mr. McCurdy be made unanimous and was carried. The Convention was then addressed by Mr. McCurdy who thanked the Convention for the honor conferred upon him, and said that if elected he would work in the interests of the entire county. Mr. McCurdy made a good impression and aroused considerable enthusiasm. The Convention gave three rousing cheers for Mr. McCurdy and three more for Premier Meighen.

It was moved by Mr. John Betts of Millerton, seconded by Mr. George Stables of Newcastle and carried that a vote of thanks for faithful work done in the past and a resolution of sympathy in his illness be tendered the retiring representative Mr. W. S. Loggie.

On motion the meeting adjourned.

The Red Cross Society will hold a Food Sale in the O'Donnell Shoe Store on Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock, November 5th.

LOOK-OUT TOWERS IN N. B. WOODS

The N. B. Department of Lands and Mines is steadily continuing its policy of erection of lookout towers in various places in the province for the protection of the forests against fires. The towers now in contemplation are one in Gloucester County and one in Northumberland County. Both are to be built co-operatively the Geodetic Survey of the Dominion of Canada paying half the cost and using the towers next summer. One tower will be built at Trout Brook, which is about eighteen miles north of Newcastle. This will be eighty feet in height. From it the northern portion of Northumberland County and part of Gloucester will be visible. A ninety-foot tower will also be erected at Red Pine, Gloucester County. This will be located between the line of the C. N. R. and the Bathurst Road. Telephone connection will be provided by building a few miles of line. From this tower the Gaspe Coast of Quebec and the northern slope of Gloucester County will be under observation.

JOHN MORRISSY LIBERAL CANDIDATE IN NORTH'D

The Liberal Convention was held here on Friday, Dr. McGrath, President. All parishes were represented. About one hundred and seventy six delegates were present. The name of Hon. John Morrissey was placed in nomination by James Robinson, Millerton, and Daniel Cripps. Mr. W. B. Snowball, proposed by A. G. Dickison, Napan, and Chas. Williston, Bay du Vin. The ballot stood, Morrissey, 119; Snowball 57. On motion the nomination of Morrissey was made unanimous. Dr. McGrath was made permanent president of Liberal Association of Northumberland County.

The meeting was addressed by Hon. Mr. Morrissey, who thanked the convention for the honor conferred on him and said that he would faithfully serve the interest of the people. Mr. Snowball also addressed the meeting with timely remarks.

OF INTEREST TO LIVE STOCK OWNERS

Mr. Kiah Copp of Trout Brook has been sent free of charge by Mr. Fred G. Crane owner of Flintstone Farm, Dalton Mass. a male shorthorn for the purpose of improving the breed of cattle in this locality. A certificate of Registration has also been sent Mr. Copp with the following pedigree Loretta's Gift—Male, Roan, Calved October 17th, 1920, bred by Flintstone Farm, Dalton, Mass. U. S. A. and a full account of Dams and Sires. The certificate has been recorded in the Dominion Shorthorn Breeders' Association.

Mr. Crane is the gentleman who presented the 132nd. Battalion with drums before their departure from Newcastle for overseas, and his interest in matters of this kind is greatly appreciated by the community.

Plain talk and courage are two of the Prime Minister's chief attributes, whereas opportunism seems to be MacKenzie King's governing idea.

A reasonable and moderate protection tariff and prosperity go hand in hand.

BOY CUT TO PIECES ON THE C. N. R. NEAR BATHURST

The body of a boy thought to be about 17 years of age was found cut to pieces beside the Canadian National Railway tracks near Gloucester Junction a few miles from Bathurst, and a severely injured young man about 21 years of age was found near the same place on Sunday morning by J. F. Allen section foreman and O. Arsenault, his assistant. The injured man was taken to the hospital in Bathurst and it is not expected that he will recover. During odd moments of consciousness, the injured man talked somewhat incoherently. He gave his name as Corey Cormick, of St. John. He said first that his companion's name was Stewart but later said it was Harold White of Newcastle. A post card mailed from Sweden was found in Corey's clothing and this taken together with his general appearance and what meagre information could be learned from him tend to confirm the idea that he is a native of that country.

It appears from what can be learned from Cormick that he met White or Stewart in Newcastle and that the two set out to walk to Bathurst in search of work. They sat down by the track about 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon to eat some bread they had with them. Apparently they must have remained until dark if Cor-

LT. GOV. PUGSLEY DECLINES LIBERAL NOMINATION

Lieutenant Governor Pugsley, in a letter handed to the committee appointed by the convention of the Liberal delegates of St. John-Albert to tender His Honor the nomination to represent the constituency in the forthcoming federal contest, declined the nomination.

The Lieutenant Governor addressed the communication to the chairman and members of the convention, and the letter was dated October 26. He expressed appreciation of the honor which was entirely unanimous, but he said that for reasons which he had stated verbally he would be unable to accept and must therefore decline the nomination.

If the Canadian people were to allow Mr. King to depart from the platform of his party they would be putting a premium on political trickery.

LIBERAL ENDORSATION

A feature of this contest is the large number of Liberals who are coming out for the Meighen Government as candidates or supporters, while others are declaring for the Meighen policy, directly or indirectly. Indeed, many of the Liberal candidates in Quebec stand for a return to the "Laurier tariff," which was higher than the tariff of today, and it is freely stated that after the election, in the event of no party having a majority, they will line up with the friends of protection to home industry, or what seems to be the best interests of the country as a whole.

The Alpine Club of Canada

Living Room Alpine Club, at Banff.

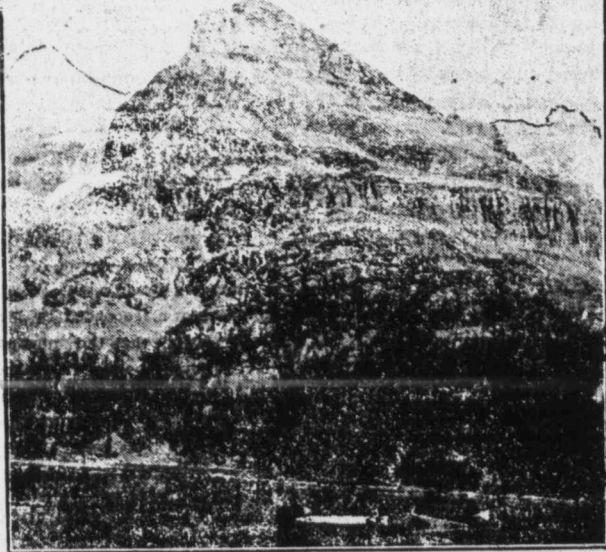

Of all the trails, the mountain ones are most alluring and each year they call to the members of the Alpine Club of Canada who held their annual camp this season at Lake O'Hara. Camp, known as the "O'Hara Meadows Camp" was an open Alpine Meadow at an altitude of 6,600 feet above sea level, gay with mountain blooms.

The Lake, an Alpine gem, in whose bright surface, with witchery of reflection, towering mountains are held captive, with the bright green of the forests that surround the shore.

This Alpine realm in the heart of the Rockies, a realm of crags and canyons, of encircling and overhanging peaks, has a variety of charms that are never exhausted. The mountains, ranging from ten thousand to eleven thousand, five hundred feet above sea level, include the matchless picture of Lefroy glacier, the great white peaks of Victoria, the massive Cathedral Crags, Stephen, Odoray and other giants of the Rockies. Each new view beckoned to fresh delights. Below Odoray is the cabin built by the Swiss guides in which there is always a camper's cache.

In 1909 the Alpine Club of Canada opened its club house headquarters at Banff and held a special annual camp at Lake O'Hara. It was unique in that an invitation to attend this camp, as guests of the Alpine Club of Canada, was sent to the president and members of the Alpine Club, England. A party of 20 accepted the invitation. The guests included mountaineers, well known in many parts of the world. It is interesting to note that in 1920, the Alpine Club of Canada became affiliated with the "Alpine Club" of England, the oldest and most famous of all Alpine clubs.

The annual camp is for the purpose of enabling members of the club to meet together amid the great hills of Canada, and to assist graduating members to qualify for active membership. Those who have made an ascent of at least 2,500 feet, are eligible for active membership. Those distinguished in literature, art or science, relating to mountains, are given certain recognition.

At Lake O'Hara.

The objects of the club are the promotion of scientific study and exploration of Canadian Alpine regions, the cultivation of art in relation to mountain scenery, the education of Canadians to an appreciation of their Canadian heritage, the encouragement of mountain craft and the opening of new regions as national playgrounds. The preservation of the natural beauties of the mountain places and of the fauna and flora in their habitat, is promoted.

The Club House of the Alpine Club of Canada, opened in 1909, is situated on the slope of Sulphur Mountain, 300 feet above the town of Banff. Spread in vast panorama, are the deep river-threaded valleys of the Jow and Spray and the forest clad mountains beyond with their snowy peaks glistening in the sun. From the broad verandas of the Club House, nature seemed one harmonious tone.

The Club House is replete with interest. Bowls and baskets of mountain flowers were in attractive arrangement. The fine pictures of Canadian mountains were worthy of

Success in Retailing

An essential factor in achieving success in a retail business is ADVERTISING—telling the buyers of your community what you have for them.

One doesn't need to be exceptionally clever or a genius to be a success, but one must have an aim, and pursue it resolutely and intelligently.

The businesses that are prospering and expanding are those that purposefully seek out new customers and place before both old and new customers the news of their service, in the form of Newspaper Advertising.

HOW WOMEN AVOID SURGICAL OPERATIONS

Some Are Extremely Necessary, Others May Not Be

Every Woman Should Give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a Trial First

Chicago, Ill.—"I was in bed with a female trouble and inflammation and had four doctors but none of them did me any good. They all said I would have to have an operation. A druggist's wife told me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I took 22 bottles, never missing a dose and at the end of that time I was perfectly well. I have never had occasion to take it again as I have been so well. I have a six room flat and do all my work. My two sisters are taking the Compound upon my recommendation and you may publish my letter. It is the gospel truth and I will write to any one who wants a personal letter."—Mrs. E. H. HAYDOCK, 6224 St. Lawrence Ave., Chicago, Ill.

A Vermont woman adds her testimony to the long line of those fortunate women who have been restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, after it had been decided an operation was necessary:

Burlington, Vt.—"I suffered with female trouble, and had a number of doctors who said that I would never be any better until I had an operation. I was so bad I could hardly walk across the floor and could not do a thing. My sister-in-law induced me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it certainly has helped me wonderfully. I keep house and do my work and have a small child. I have recommended Vegetable Compound to a number of my friends and you may publish my testimonial."—Mrs. H. R. SHARON, Apple Tree Point Farm, Burlington, Vt.

In hospitals are many women who are there for surgical operations, and there is nothing a woman dreads more than the thought of an operation, and the long weary months of recovery and restoration to strength if it is successful. It is very true that female troubles may through neglect reach a stage where an operation is the only resource, but most of the common ailments of women are not the surgical ones; they are not caused by serious displacements of organs or growths, although the symptoms may appear the same. When disturbing ailments first appear take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to relieve the present distress and prevent more serious troubles. In fact, many letters have been received from women who have been restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound after operations have been advised by attending physicians.

SHALL OUR RAILWAYS BE USED TO DEVELOP U. S. PORTS

When introducing in the House of Commons in the bill providing for the construction of the National Transcontinental Railway, the late Sir Wilfrid Laurier, then leader of the government declared:

"A railway to extend from the shores of the Atlantic Ocean to the shore of the Pacific Ocean, and to be, every inch of it on Canadian soil, is a national as well as a commercial necessity.

"We consider that it is a duty of all those who sit within these walls by the will of the people to provide immediate means whereby the products of those new settlers may find an exit to the ocean at the least possible cost, and where-by, like-wise, a market may be found in this new region for those who toil in the forests, in the fields, in the mines, and in the shops of the older provinces. Such is our duty; it is immediate and imperative. It is not for to-morrow, but of this day, of this year and of this minute. Heaven grant that it be not already too late; Heaven grant that whilst we tarry and dispute the trade of Canada is not diverted to other channels, and that the ever vigilant competitor does not take to himself the trade that properly belongs to those who acknowledge Canada as their native or their adopted land."

In 1911, the then Governor of Massachusetts, the Hon. Eugene Foss, was one of President Taft's Chief Lieutenants in the Reciprocity campaign. Governor Foss was particularly anxious that the Canadian people should agree to the Reciprocity proposals, declaring to the American public that it would stop the influx into Canada of American manufacturing plants, and would transfer Canadian railway traffic from east to west, to north and south. He declared at a public meeting in Boston:

"Our present railroads will increase their lines to handle the increased business; and the great trans-continental lines of Canada will come to the port of Boston. New factors in all lines will be established here, for with these conditions our capital will no longer seek Canada for the purpose of building up more factories which it is now forced to build in Canada by unnatural tariff conditions. "All over the United States the ten-

MADAM RICHER

Labelle, P. Q., April 18th, 1921
"It is my duty to tell you and publish to all what your remedy 'Fruit-a-tives' has done for me.

I suffered with Rheumatism for ten months; could hardly move in bed; and was miserable all the time. I tried several physicians and took many remedies, but they left me at the same place, in bed and suffering, the Rheumatism was so bad.

I finally started in taking 'Fruit-a-tives' and continued the treatment regularly as I found myself getting better. After using eight boxes of 'Fruit-a-tives' (which cost only $4.) I am completely well without a trace of Rheumatism."

decy among the principal manufacturing interests is toward the establishment of plants in Canada. This movement of American manufacturers to Canada could be stopped and they could remain intact in this country if it were not for the absurd conditions created by our tariff legislation. We should have with Canada such trade agreements as would enable us to manufacture our goods in the United States giving employment to American working-men and utilizing only American capital."

The late Sir Wilfrid Laurier, in advocating the building of the transcontinental railway, emphasized as the primary necessity for its construction the fact that it would go a long way towards making Canada commercially independent of the United States; that it would develop new agricultural areas, which in turn would create new industrial centres.

On the other hand, ex-Governor Foss of Massachusetts, in advocating Reciprocity did so believing that if Canada reduced her tariff it would take away a measure of commercial independence which she already possesses and would make the United States the chief beneficiary of our transcontinental railway traffic. The selfishness of such an argument is surely sufficiently obvious.

In 1911 the Canadian people did not succumb to the blandishments of Uncle Sam. They declared in no uncertain voice their determination to work out their own commercial independence and to develop their own national character.

Again the issue faces the people of Canada but the danger lies within our own border rather than beyond. The adoption of the Liberal and extreme Farmer-Free Trade policy would bring about the same result as that which Governor Foss anticipated from the approval of Reciprocity.

"I intend to pursue a policy of moderate protection right through and I will do so if returned to power"—Premier Meighan at Newcastle N. B.

ACQUITTED ON INFANTICIDE CHARGE

Moncton, N. B., Oct. 27—Louise Cheek, of Moncton, charged with murdering her infant child, was acquitted by the jury in the Supreme Court at Dorchester this evening, after the jury had been out about two hours.

Mr. Crerar likes to dec aim against the "big interests" which are behind the Government although he is silent as to what these interests are, but he balks when his own big interests seems to be in danger of investigation along with the others. Engaged in the grain business Mr. Crerar may defend himself before the farmers, who, as they did in North Dakota, swallowed all their leader told them, but he cannot defend himself before the whole of the people of Canada.

GOVERNMENT FIXES $4 RATE FOR STUMPAGE

At a special meeting of the provincial government, special stumpage rates of $4 per thousand feet on spruce and $2 per thousand feet on fir cut on crown lands were fixed for operators who cut a certain amount of bud-worm killed and burnt-over timber. Premier Foster presided and all members were present.

A memorandum from Colonel Loggie, deputy minister of lands and mines, in regard to the order-in-council passed at a previous meeting providing for an allowance to be paid to men for cutting budworm killed and burnt-over timber was received and considered. Under this order-in-council the rate on this class of lumber was fixed at one-half the regular rate. Owing to the difficulty of having the lands examined in time for this year's operations it was recommended, as a result of a careful investigation which had been made by the forestry department, that a flat rate be put into force of $4 per thousand for spruce and $2 per thousand for fir, with the proviso that this rate would only apply in cases where an effort was being made to save the dead timber and where the cut of dead fir amounted to forty per cent. of the whole operation in that district.

This action by the government will enable the lumbermen to commence operations at once, and it was hoped that it would tend to the saving of timber, which otherwise, would be lost, and also assist in some degree to relieve the unemployment situation.

THE CONVENTION CHOICE

The Convention of the National Liberal and Conservative party held in Newcastle on Thursday was one of the largest and by all odds the most enthusiastic of political gatherings held in this constituency in many years. Perhaps, also, there never was a convention in this country in which there was a more general expression of opinion, the delegates assembling from all parts of the country. When the decision was announced there was an outburst of applause and cheering, the meaning of which could not be mistaken. In Mr. E. A. McCurdy, the party has a candidate who is acceptable to all classes. A man of much business experience and a hard worker, Mr. McCurdy is equally deserving of the support of working man, the farmer, and those engaged in business. He has always taken a deep interest in public matters and if elected to Ottawa, the county of Northumberland will have a man who will do his utmost in securing for the county that to which it is justly entitled.

TO WORK, ALL

The Prime Minister has set an example that should be followed by every man and every woman who believes in the principles of the National party of Liberals and Conservatives—and a notable feature of this contest is the large number of those who have been strong Liberals in the past who are giving their support to the Meighen Government. The Right Hon. Arthur Meighen has been described by the leader of the Opposition as an "autocrat" and the friend of plutocrats' while in the next breath he whines that Mr. Meighen has been "racing about the country like a greyhound" and is in danger of breaking down under the strain. The fact is that Mr. Meighen is the most democratic premier this country has ever had, with a capacity for work that is an alarming revelation to Mr. King and his panic-stricken followers. Mr. Meighen is visiting, at the first opportunity he has had since being called to the Premiership, every part of this broad Dominion. He is meeting the people face to face, telling the same straightforward story where ever he goes—the same in New Brunswick as in Quebec, the same in Nova Scotia and P. E. Island as in Ontario and the western Provinces. He is the hardest working Premier this country has ever had and the ground is well prepared for those who believe in his policy. All that remains is for the men and the women—to whom his party has given the widest franchise enjoyed by any people in the world, to follow his example.

The National Liberal and Conservative Party for Northumberland has chosen a hard worker in Mr. E. A. McCurdy and in him Premier Meighen has a man who is not afraid to work. However, there is much work to be done and we must all get at it.

A BIG MAN FOR NORTHUMBERLAND

The Conservative convention nominated a good man when it selected Mr. E. A. McCurdy to contest the county in the coming election. Mr. McCurdy is a man of high business standing, well acquainted with financial matters, due to his long experience in banking and perfectly capable of grasping the purport and significance of any government measure that may effect the finances of the country. He is a man who generally gets what he goes after and as a representative of this county will make a good fight for our interests. He has shown much interest in public matters and has given a lot of his time to benevolent objects, being especially active in the successful management of the Miramichi Hospital. The country needs men of Mr. McCurdy's type in parliament now more than ever—World

FARMERS AND MANUFACTURERS

"Let the farmer of Canada grasp the great truth that their prosperity is bound up in the prosperity of our manufacturers, and that the more our towns and cities thrive the more valuable will their farms become, and we shall soon hear the last of those Free Trade zealots who have already, by their threats, depressed business and cost the country tens of millions of dollars. The mere threat of Free Trade has cost us as much as one whole year of war. We would have been on our feet long ago, and well on the road to prosperity, if these wild and unwarranted attacks of King, Crerar et al on the tariff had never been made."

If you have fulness after meals, a bad taste in your mouth in the morning, fur on the tongue, flatulence after meals and no appetite, take Mother Seigel's Syrup. It will clean your tongue, renew your appetite, give you relief for food and the power to digest it thoroughly and easily. Sold in 50c. and $1.00 bottles at drug stores.

MOST DANGEROUS POISON

We doubt whether a more insidious attempt was ever made to stir up internal strife than that of which Mr. MacKenzie King was guilty in connection with the shells he discovered being unloaded at Levis. With a cunning almost malignant and quite evidently malicious, he couched his public inquiry in a manner calculated to arouse suspicion that the Government is contemplating war. Proof of this is found in the speech of one of his candidates, Dr. Fontaine, in Hull on Tuesday, October 25th. The Doctor said, according to the Ottawa Citizen's report:

"In this period of supposed reconstruction the government spends $70,000,000 on a merchant marine, and we find it is being used to transport explosives," said the speaker, "Does the government contemplate another war, with conscription in the spring? Premier Meighen is attempting to foist Imperialism upon us. We have every respect for the British flag, and we love it, but will always remember we are Canadians first and always."

While some people tolerate Mr. King's shirking and slacking during the war, we venture to say there will be mighty few who will condone this scandalous attempt of his to instill most dangerous poison into the minds of the public.

BOY SCOUT MOVEMENTS.

Boy Scout Movement $90 $9 $9078909

During the Great War there were thousands of young men, in Canada who volunteered for service in the Army and Navy who were prompted by a sense of duty and loyalty. Those men, realizing full well the magnitude of the sacrifice they were making, volunteered themselves and perhaps their lives because they thought they owed this service to Canada, and the Empire.

In the Boy Scout Movement there is an opportunity for returned soldiers and others to render their community and the nation a lasting and unmeasurable service.

Just to what greatness Canada will attain as a nation will depend entirely upon the character of her citizens. The boys that are growing up around us today will, in a few years take their places as citizens and will in turn influence those who follow.

The Boy Scout program is the mill in the stream of boyhood. It provides something useful for every boy to do every minute. Knot tying, first aid bandaging, signalling, trailing, swimming, hiking, map making and reading, practical study of flowers, plants, trees, earth and sky, are included in the Scout's program for the year. After these comes instructions that is foundation work of all the principal trades and professions.

There are thousands of boys in New Brunswick who need Scouting and who want it but can not find men who will take it up with them or who will act as their leaders.

The greatest need of the Movement in Canada and especially in New Brunswick is the need of competent Scoutmasters. Men who are willing to give up a certain amount of their time and thought to the supervision of boys. Men who will take them on their hikes and camps, help them with their meetings and their games, who will answer their questions—questions that are not answered at school or at home, who will be their guide and friend or in a word who will be their Scoutmaster.

In travelling how often one hears from the lips of young men and particularly from returned soldiers "This town is dead, there is nothing to do with your spare time." There is no more interesting hobby for any man to take up than Scouting. It will fill your spare time with a profitable occupation and, like all work of its kind the more you give in time, thought and energy just in proportion will you receive personal benefits.

You can help to fill the boys' spare time with clean, wholesome, play-work. You can help to keep them off the corners and you can assist in making them better citizens for Canada.

Head Hunting in the Gatineau

(1) Blue Sea Lake.
(2) Below the Paugan at Low.

To a great number of people, "the Gatineau" is a term quite as vague as was "somewhere in France" during the war. Even Canadians with confirmed explorative tendencies are abysmally ignorant concerning that section of Quebec that stretches from the Ottawa River north to Maniwaki and then on to a cluster of unnamed lakes in which the Gatineau River takes its rise.

There are, it is true, many Ottawans who claim to know the district for they variously contend that Chalmers, Kingsmers, Meach, Lake, Blue Sea, Farm Point or Kirk's Ferry is the real Paradise. But of the vast unsettled, unsurveyed country rolling away from the main road and the railway, they know very little.

The Gatineau has "got me" at last. For years I have fought against it, listening with ill-concealed scepticism to those who years ago succumbed to its magic. I have been driven into corners and forced to hear poems on the Gatineau; I have been trapped into attending exhibitions flaunting pictures of the Gatineau; I have narrowly escaped picnics up the Gatineau, and skiing parties and camping trips. And speaking of skiing . . . oh, you Scandinavians, what a country for winter sport!

Yet, places like people, have greatness thrust upon them! Circumstances took me to Low; circumstances over whom I had no control. They were two stern, uncompromising men.

Driving from the station (which we reached by climbing a stiff grade of two feet to the hundred), to the house that was to receive my battered mortal envelope, I decided that Low was an eminently fitting place in which to be buried. Verily, the mournful task seemed half accomplished by merely stopping there! And within a week it "got me"; got me to the extent that I feel no poet and no artist, however inspired, ever did it justice.

Low nestles in the embrace of close encircling hills. Perhaps it would be more accurate to say that Low is a collection of hills, clothed at this season in heather at early morning, in flame and orange at noon, and in gently fading purple at sunset. Now and again they will be mist wrapped, and their outlines will push slowly from the rising vapour as the bulk of a great ship creeps out of a fog at sea.

Upon these hills adventures lurk—adventures expressed sometimes in the sudden whirr of partridge wings, sometimes in the discovery of a liquid jewel set amid scarlet trees; or again in the finding of a cave where prehistoric man surely must have made his home. You may even find a skeleton.

As health and strength returned to me (the Gatineau can work a miracle of healing) I wandered ever farther into the unblazed bush, and one morning thus adventuring, I stumbled over a large bone bleached white and almost perfect in point of preservation. It showed a sharp ridged jaw, a long frontal bone and horns. Considering the antiquity of the hills which geologists compute at fifty million years, it seemed reasonable to suppose that dinosaurs, pterosaurs and ichthyosaurs must have left occasional remains in remote sections. The skeleton proved to be that of a dinosaur. But to which class did the bone belong?

That's alternately heated and chilled me. I shouldered my traps and set out for home. As the miles diminished, the weight of the thing increased, until I fairly staggered up to the verandah, convinced that Atlas had a feather-weight burden compared with mine. Exhausted but triumphant, I lowered it and myself upon the floor and cried:

"See the gorgeous specimen I have found!"

"What yer goin' to do with it?" asked my host, lukewarmly.

"Present it to the Geological Museum at Ottawa," said I. "They are crazy to have things like that."

The man irrigated a small section of the soil with tabac Canadian before remarking:

"Boats me what them fellas down there want with that ole truck! If I'd knowed what you was goin' after, I could have saved you carryin' it all them miles. I got two of them heads in my barn."

I gasped my disbelief. Two? Why, the district must be a regular dinosaur repository, equal to the Red River country.

"Sure I'm tellin' you," protested my host. "Kep' jus' fer fun, as you might say; horns and teeth perfect. Zoo. Better'n yarn, there!"

"Why—why—what are they?" I faltered.

"Steers' heads," he returned, shifting his quid. "I kill a couple every fall. You can have your pick of 'em for that there Zoo-menagerie at Ottawa, and welcome!"

The Man of the Hour

In this hour of Canada's most acute national crisis, the country's greatest need is leadership—not class leadership, not sectional leadership, but NATIONAL leadership. A pilot must be chosen possessing the necessary courage, foresight, breadth of vision and determination to lead the nation safely out of the existing economic uncertainty.

And one man stands out head and shoulders above all others as pre-eminently fitted for the task.

Born on a farm near St. Mary's, Ontario, Arthur Meighen is a true son of the people, a toiler who has fought his way to eminence by sheer ability and force of intellect. Entered Parliament in 1908; appointed Solicitor-General in 1914; Minister of the Interior in 1917; and Prime Minister in 1920.

At the Imperial Conference he was acclaimed by the Press of Great Britain as a great statesman, as a strong, virile, vigorous personality—alert in mind, keen and far-seeing in judgment, and with a fearless determination to stand for the right.

Professor A. D. Skelton, of Queen's University, and biographer of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, wrote of the present Prime Minister:—"He has already given proof of high administrative capacity. His personal integrity is beyond question."

Of himself, Arthur Meighen said to his constituents the other day:—"You know where I stood on this issue in 1908, in 1911, and as in 1911 I stand to-day."

STERN REMINDERS OF RHEUMATISM

The Trouble Must be Treated
Through the Blood

Every rheumatic sufferer should realize that rheumatism is rooted in the blood and that to get rid of it must be treated through the blood. The old belief that rheumatism was caused by cold, damp weather, is now exploded. Such weather conditions may start the pains, but it is not the cause. Liniments and outward applications may give temporary relief, but that is all they can do because they do not reach its sources in the blood. The sufferer from rheumatism who experiments with outward applications is only wasting time and money in depending upon such treatment; the trouble still remains, and it is all the time becoming more firmly rooted. Treat this disease through the blood and you will soon find relief. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills act directly on impure, weak blood; they purify and strengthen it, and so act on the cause of rheumatism. Mr. P. J. MacPherson, R. R. No. 5, Cardigan, P.E.I., says: "About three years ago I was attacked with rheumatism. I began taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and soon the trouble disappeared and I am in better health than before. I also know of an old lady acquaintance who was badly crippled with rheumatism in her arms and legs, and who suffered very much. She too, took Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and is now able to do her housework. I tell you this in the hope it may be of benefit to some other sufferer."

THE AUTOCRACY OF MACKENZIE KING

Autocracy is a word greatly liked by the leader of the remnant of the Liberal party. He never seems to tire of its use by way of accusation of the Prime Minister and his Government.

Suppose we turn the tables on him? Could there be a greater exhibition of autocracy than that shown in his recent declaration that notwithstanding the platform of his party, he and his chief lieutenants in whom he has confidence (he did not mention any names) would frame the Tariff Policy if they got into office—and that the platform would only be a chart for them. What right or authority has he for taking such a position? Is it not downright, if not brazen, autocracy on his part? What a screaming farce it all is. A Convention is held with chosen delegates a thousand strong, representing Liberalism from the Atlantic to the Pacific, at which the principles and platform of the party are laid down in black and white for all the Canadian people to know, and backed by the solemn declaration that the platform would be implemented by legislation if the Party be elected to power.

Nothing could be more clear, definite or specific. The firm voice of the great Liberal Party had spoken—the gage of battle had been thrown into the ring. And now, along comes the leader of the party with a declaration that he and two or three of his confidants are the party—and that they will do what they think best notwithstanding the solemnly approved party platform. It used to be the pride of Liberalism that the humblest member of the party had a voice in the declaration of its principles. But these days are apparently gone. The free, open Liberal Convention may have its say, but a few men at the top will do as they please. Yet Mr. King unctuously rails against autocracy.

GRAIN GROWERS MAKE 530 PER CENT PROFIT

One of Mr. Crerar's pet platform performances is to rail at manufacturers for making large profits. He selects a few of these manufacturers and holds them up to scorn, without, however referring to the explanation that most of the profits were due to speculation and not to manufacturing. He likewise conveniently forgets the enormous profits earned by his Export Company which in one year showed net earnings of $530,000 on a capital invested of $100,000 a return of 530% in substantiation of this statement we quote from the evidence given before the Parliamentary Cost of Living Committee by Mr. Rice Jones, then General Manager of the United Grain Growers.

Question: This $530,000 was the profit of the Export Company?

Answer: Yes.

Question: You got a profit of $530,000 on a capital investment of $250,000.

Answer: Yes.

Question: Is that $250,000 paid up capital in cash?

Answer: $100,000 was actually subscribed in cash.

Question: It is a very handsome profit?

Seriously, Sir, don't you think a profit in one year of 530 per cent. rather steep?

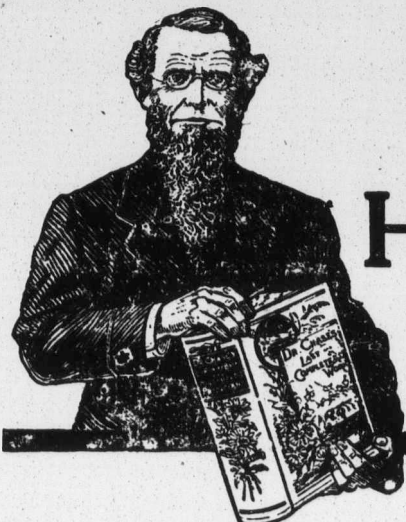

A SERIOUS WORD TO MR KING

Mr. King, speaking at St. John, N. B., on October 16th, said:—

"We promised the men who went Overseas, who fought, who bled, who died, that they could expect of us the healing of war's scars.

"They fought that peace might come again, that it would disappear, and it remains for us to keep that pledge."

Excellent sentiments, Mr. King

DR. CHASE

Has Taught the People How to Keep Well

The Dr. Chase Plan of Health

TIME was when the family physician was the most prominent character in the community.

A man of intelligence and ability, he commanded confidence and respect, and sacrificed his time, strength and pleasure for those who needed his care and skill.

These were the conditions when, after graduating from the University of Michigan, at Ann Arbor, Dr. A. W. Chase settled down to practise his profession in that well-known college town.

To reach patients at a distance, the doctor had his most successful prescriptions put up in handy form for mailing. In time the demand became so great that the doctor decided to give these great medicines to the public, and arranged for their sale through the drug trade throughout Canada and the United States.

In this way Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, Nerve Food, Ointment, Linseed and Turpentine, Catarrh Powder, and other medicines found their way into general use, until now one or more of them is found in almost every home in the land.

Confidence in Dr. Chase

Founded on His Integrity of Character and the Unusual Merits of His Medicines.

If there was ever a physician who commanded the confidence of his patients that physician was DR. CHASE.

No one could meet him and converse with him without realizing that he was a man of skill, who was in love with his profession and only anxious to relieve the suffering and disease of his fellowmen.

You cannot read the famous Dr. Chase's Receipt Book without appreciating the untiring zeal of its author in searching out the best receipts and prescriptions which were known to the medical profession.

When his attention was turned to selecting medicines to be placed on the market for public sale it was with whole-souled effort that he tested out the prescriptions which he considered most suitable for this purpose.

And so it is that the integrity of character which marked the efforts of DR. CHASE are indelibly stamped on every medicine which bears his portrait and signature, and people have learned to have the utmost confidence in them because of the splendid results which they have accomplished.

Free Samples

After long experience with Dr. Chase's Medicines, we have found that people who try them are soon convinced of their exceptional merits.

We have published thousands of letters to give you an idea of the benefits others have obtained by their use, but if you are still skeptical we shall be glad to send you our Free Combination Package.

Every Man His Own Physician

But the doctor soon got the idea that people should know how to look after their own common ills, and set about in a large way to supply them with the necessary information.

By means of his Receipt Book, the circulation of which has since run into millions, and his well-known Almanac and booklets of many kinds, Dr. Chase has spread throughout the civilized world the gospel of "Every Man His Own Physician."

This plan enabled the doctor to devote his attention to more serious cases, and he soon became known far and wide as a specialist in the treatment of diseases of the kidneys, the liver, the heart and other vital organs of the human system.

Home Medicines

With these time-tried medicines at hand, you can feel that you are protected against the common ills of life by the most effective treatments, which Dr. Chase was able to discover during a long life of diligent study and research.

with which we entirely agree. But what about your Quebec lieutenants—Cannon, Bureau, Archambault, Lemieux, Cardin—who are going up and down that Province infaming the people by preaching the doctrine of revenge? Are these gentlemen healing the scars of war or are they opening them up so that they may fester again? It is incumbent upon you, Mr. King to call these lieutenants to task, for the sake of harmony and in the interests of unity. Mr. Crerar talks a great deal about the watering of stocks of industrial companies. We do not defend the practice of watering stocks but we do say that stock watering is not necessarily a result of protection. It has been as prevalent in the last decade in Great Britain as in many countries in the world. It may fairly be described as a world wide development.

ENDORSEMENT OF THE PREM- IER'S POLICY

Honourable T. D. Pattullo, Minister of Lands and Forests in the Provincial Liberal Administration in British Columbia in the course of an interview in Toronto, on his way home from Europe, unconsciously perhaps, endorsed the policy which the Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen, Prime Minister, is now advocating.

In the course of his interview, and discussing the question of immigration, Mr. Pattullo stated:—

"Every man on the land means the need of one more man in the factories of the cities."

In other words, Mr. Pattullo believes that agricultural development and industrial expansion should go hand in hand. In fact he could with exactly the same truth, have stated that every additional man in the factories means the need for one more man on the land.

Obviously the Provincial Minister is a strong believer in the home market as the best agency for the development of home industry. That is the vital basic principle which the Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen is now so strongly endeavouring to place before the Canadian public. It is the very antithesis of the policy which both the Farmers' Party and the Liberal Party are advocating. Both are seeking popular favour by advocating a lower tariff leading to free trade. Such a policy, if adopted, would in a very short time result in national disaster. The home market which is the very basis of our prosperity would be completely destroyed, and without the home market, home industry would not exist; the men on the land, and the men in the factory would, therefore, suffer most.

Fortunately each day there is increasing evidence that the public of Canada will not now, as they were not in 1911, be led away from the one sure road to national prosperity and commercial independence.

ROYAL YEAST CAKES

Canadian Made

As a health builder, Royal Yeast is gaining in popularity every day. It is a food—not a medicine. It supplies the vitamins which the diet may lack. Royal Yeast is highly beneficial in cases where the system seems "run down". Royal Yeast is the richest known source of vitamins, and when taken into the system acts as a corrective agent. Royal Yeast Cakes are recommended for their purity and wholesomeness. It is the purest, the most convenient and economical yeast on the market.

Two to four Royal Yeast Cakes a day will work wonders. A full day's supply can easily be prepared at one time by using one glass luke warm water and teaspoon sugar to each yeast cake. Allow to stand over night in moderately warm room. In the morning stir well and pour off liquid. Place in refrigerator or other cool place and drink at intervals as desired throughout the day.

King Is Shell-Shocked

The Hon. William Lyon Mackenzie King is very nervous in the presence of high explosives. He is not accustomed to them. It was not his privilege to go to the war where they were on the daily bill-of-fare. For the larger part of this period, Mr. King heroically engaged in investigating industrial relations under the auspices of the American Rockefeller Institute. This is, he was so engaged from 1914 to 1917. The war ran a year longer, but Mr. King came back to contest North York in 1917 on a platform which proposed to send no more young Canadians into the neighborhood of high explosives unless they themselves insisted upon going. Even then he ventured it unfeeling to compel men to venture into close contact with high explosives.

Mr. King was born in 1874, and so was forty years old in 1914. Sir David Watson was born in 1871 and so was forty-three years of age when the brutal war broke out, and yet he was right over without being conscripted to where they play ball with high explosives. By a curious coincidence, Sir Richard Turner was also born in 1871. Still he was in the muck over there from start to finish. We merely mention these two Quebecers because it is astonishing that they should live so close to that terribly dangerous wharf over at Levis where they were actually unloading high explosive shells, and yet never knew it. It must be because they had become inured to them during the war.

But, of course, the intrepid leader of the Liberal party had never enjoyed this hardening experience. He simply isn't used to high explosives and to suddenly stumble on them by the car-load in the midst of a morning stroll would naturally send him up in the air. Consequently we desire to enter a protest against judging his subsequent action in the matter too seriously. He was shell-shocked—that is all. Some men had to go away over to France to get shell-shocked. Some men can only achieve shell-shock when the shell explodes. But not so the versatile Mr. King. He can suffer all the jumpiness and mental irresponsibility of shell-shock by simply reading the label on the bottle—as it were—and discovering that these shells would become dangerous about June, 1925.

The explanation has since been given that this is not a new purchase of shells. They are simply a return to Canada by the British War Office of the munitions—or possibly substitutes for them—which the Canadian army in Europe turned over to the British War Office at the time of the Armistice. These shells were bought and paid for to fight the Germans. But then Mr. King may not know much about that. He was enrolled in the army of the Rockefeller Institute up to 1917.

Still it does seem to us that even Mr. King—who aspires to be Prime Minister of Canada—might have shown a more reassuring sense of responsibility when he discovered what he took for a secret shipment of shells into Canada. The very fact that he did not know anything about them should, one would fancy, have sealed his lips until he had made quite sure that he was doing no harm in publishing his discovery broad-cast. Suppose something had happened in the international world in which none but the inner council as yet knew anything! Suppose the Canadian Government had found itself at this crisis dangerously denuded of shells and was making a quick and secret shipment of them into the country so that we should not be caught napping! Suppose it were vitally important that the secret should be kept—that no foreign Government should know of it!

Then what of Mr. King's action in advertising the "secret" in the daily press? Is that the sort of statesman like conduct we expect from a "future Prime Minister"? As Mr. Meighen points out, Mr. King went directly to Ottawa. Why didn't he inquire quietly at the Militia Department? Then if it proved that he had accidentally unearthed a State secret which it would be most perilous for the nation to let get out, he could have been set right and enabled to keep a patriotic silence. But that does not appear to have been what he was looking for. He wrote an open letter to the Premier on the subject and published it in the papers before the Premier saw it.

This was precisely the way to get Canada into a nasty and possibly dangerous international snare if there were really anything here to hide. It was also precisely the way to get political kudos if there were really nothing to hide and if a word from the Militia Department would have spoiled his little sensation. The position is perfectly clear. If there was no secret here, then Mr. King had found a "mare's nest." If there was a secret, then Mr. King was handling something infinitely more dangerous than high explosives when he blurted out to the whole world that THE CANADIAN GOVERNMENT WAS HASTILY IMPORTING HIGH EXPLOSIVE SHELLS BY THE SHIP LOAD SO SECRETLY THAT EVEN THE CANADIAN PARLIAMENT KNEW NOTHING ABOUT IT.

It probably did not require this incident to show that Mr. King is not of the calibre which a nation like Canada requires in her Prime Minister's seat. A public man must have some sense of responsibility.

If Mr. King were Prime Minister now, and there were no election pending, he would probably be our representative at the coming Washington Conference. He would then hold the fate of Canada in his hands at the most critical international Conference—so far as we are concerned—ever convened, dealing with adroit Japanese and astute American diplomats over questions involving the future of the Pacific and the possibility of or war in that arena.

And yet Mr. King, who thus might have our very lives in his keeping, is so little the international statesman and so wholly the shallow, sensation-hunting, cheap-method politician that when he finds a great shipment of war munitions which he believes to be a recent and hurried purchase—if he is not even a cheaper liar—he never thinks to join in keeping it secret for the sake of the nation, he never thinks even to enquire in Ottawa where he wrote his poisonous letter if there were anything about it he should keep secret, he thinks only of the shoddy political advantage to be gained by an "exposure"—

A Fresh-water Seal.

The seal is a typical marine animal, and hence the occurrence of a species of phoca in Lake Baikal, which is of fresh water and has no connection with the sea, is of special interest. Dr. Charles Hose has obtained skins and skulls of two specimens of the Baikal seal, which have been offered to the Museum of Natural History, where the species have not hitherto been represented. It is the only seal which habitually lives in fresh water, though the common seal will often resort to estuaries, and even ascend rivers, as one did some time ago in the Trent, as far up as Hazelton, where it was shot. The Vikare seal, again common in the Arctic regions, and also found in Lakes Ladoga and Onega. It is able, however, to reach these from the Baltic by means of the Rivers Neva and Svir. The Baikal seals, on the other hand, have no communication with the ocean. Their occurrences in Lake Baikal, along with abundant salmon, point to a change in the physical geography of the district. They suggest that in former times an arm of the sea stretched from the Arctic Ocean to the site of the present lake.—Family Herald.

An Elephant's Teeth.

The elephant has what a dentist calls "magazine gun teeth" because of the curious fact that when the big pachyderm wears off a front tooth it is replaced by the one just behind it, the whole row moving up a tooth.
