AN UNNEUVABLE RECORD.

In view of the fact that the Opposition press is incessantly holding the Grits up to public gaze as a party having a great record, it seems opportune to enquire, to some extent, into the past history of this party, and see how far this contention is borne out by actual facts.

A few years ago the electorate of Canada entrusted the government of the Dominion to this party, which put itself forward as the exponent of all that is good and just in politics and statesmanship. It took but a short time, however, to prove that the public had been grossly imposed upon, and that a set of men had rashly undertaken duties, for the proper discharge of which they had no qualification. The consequence was that the people of the Dominion availed themselves of the very earliest opportunity of hurling from power those who proved themselves to be utterly incapable for the responsibilities which the assumption of government involved.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

This is a somnolent day for Chamberlain, N. S. Up to date it is not known whether the Grits intend to sacrifice one of their number in the useless task of opposing Sir Charles.

WINSTON advises say that although wheat is leaving that point for the east at the rate of one hundred carloads per day, yet there is more grain than the railway can carry.

At the election in Colchester, N. S., on Thursday last, the 27th ult., Postmaster General McLellan was elected by a majority of about 700 votes. Evidently the "bleeding" process of his opponents did not help their cause.

THE Grits Chamber Conference, which had been in session in Quebec, closed on the 27th ult. What the results of the meeting, if any, have been, will not be known until the report of the proceedings will be in the hands of the Federal Government.

SINCE the announcement of the triple alliance between Germany, Austria and Italy, the feeling of antagonism between Russia and Germany seems to have been very much intensified. Both countries are, at present, busily employed in strengthening their armies and fleets.

THE mutual jealousies and distrusts so common among the nations of Continental Europe, do not seem to be diminishing.

CANADA has a law requiring a tax of $50 per head on all Chinamen entering the Dominion. Lately a celebrated Mongolian named Hing Chin Foo, a naturalized citizen of the United States, crossed into the Dominion, and on arrival at the border had to pay his fifty dollars.

MR. BRADSTOCK lectured in Quebec on the 26th ult., his subject being his pet theory, Commercial Union. From reports which have come to hand, it would appear that Mr. Wiman was very incoherent in his arguments, and that he had evidently mixed up the subjects of very different lectures. He seems to have great commiseration for Canada, because it has not, yet, become a part of the Republic to the south of us.

A CHINA-AMERICAN bank is to be started. The articles of agreement provide that the bank shall be known as the China-American bank, and that the capital will be supervised and managed by the respective Governments of China and the United States, and that it shall consist of ten millions of dollars.

THE flag on the United States Consulate, in this city, is flying at half-mast, as the National ensign is draped in stripes, as a tribute of respect to the memory of Hon. Ellen B. Washburn, who died at her home in Chicago, on the 26th inst., aged 71 years.

THE Hon. Mr. Washburn rendered good service to the United States in many capacities. He was for some time Secretary of State; he also served as Minister to France, Italy, and the Netherlands.

THE Hon. Mr. Washburn was a member of the National Assembly of the United States, and was elected President of the National Assembly in 1854. He was also elected President of the National Assembly in 1857.

FALSE TESTIMONY.

LAST week we referred to the tactics pursued by the Grit press in reference to Mr. Chamberlain's speech in Belfast, relative to Commercial Union. The Opposition papers, without waiting to see whether or not a full report of Chamberlain's speech would show that he had actually said what the telegraphic summary of the same attributed to him, availed themselves of this opportunity of slandering, not only Mr. Chamberlain, but also Sir Charles Tupper and the Dominion Government. This, perhaps, is not to be wondered at, as they seem never to be so much in their element as when engaged in something that is likely to injure Canada.

THE telegraphic summary of the speech of Chamberlain's speech, which has come to hand, shows that his remarks were most complimentary to this country, as for instance the following: "But we are going to blind ourselves to the facts of the case, and to our own self-governing condition—some can be broken at pleasure by any one of these colonies—and that we should have nothing to say to it. Already the great colonies of the world are arraying themselves against us, and are now getting a separate navy. The arrangement between the colonies and ourselves is essentially a temporary one. It cannot remain as is. I hope it will in future be strengthened by the Federation—(cheers)—or be loosened altogether. Already you have in Canada, the greatest of all the colonies, an aspiration for what is called Commercial Union with the United States. Commercial Union with the United States means political separation from America and the Dominion and a protective tariff against the Mother Country. If Canada desires that, Canada can have it, but Canada knows perfectly well that Great Britain should retain all the responsibilities and obligations of the colonial connection when all the advantages are taken away."

Certainly the views here expressed embody the only logical conclusion that can be arrived at on the Commercial Union question. Commercial Union, once adopted, must inevitably result in political union or annexation to the United States; and this is the view taken by the Toronto Globe a few years ago, although it quite fit, at present, to regard it quite differently.

THE Canadian American, published in Chicago, says: "It is with a good deal of satisfaction that Canadians contemplate their nomination for a place on the Joint Commission to investigate the Commercial Union of the Provinces most directly interested in the trade. It is a man of great ability; he is thoroughly conversant with the subject, and can talk with any American in public life to-day. Many Canadians expect to see him in the Dominion, but the old statesman probably thought it would be better to have him here (at Halifax), and wisely selected the aggressive and thoroughly informed Toronto Scotian for the position. Two more Maritime Province men will be seen at Washington. The Hon. George Foster, the Hon. Benjamin Smith, Minister of Marine and Fisheries, will act as counsel for the Dominion. We are assured that the American Commissioners will find few, if any, weak points in the Dominion's case. They will be met by a strong and able team, with a complete knowledge of the subject, and a complete command of the English language. The Canadian representative in the fishery commission is receiving advice from every portion of the Dominion. From the Maritime Provinces, a chorus of high praises demanding a complete vindication of the Dominion's fisheries policy, is being sent from Canada to assist him in his work at Washington."

THE New York Tribune says editorially: "The Canadian representative in the fishery commission is receiving advice from every portion of the Dominion. From the Maritime Provinces, a chorus of high praises demanding a complete vindication of the Dominion's fisheries policy, is being sent from Canada to assist him in his work at Washington."

Deming next week our city subscribers will be waited on by a representative of this office. We trust all will extend to him a cordial welcome, and be prepared to settle up their little bills without delay.

The steamer Worcester arrived last night from Boston with the usual cargo and the following passengers: Mr. D. Ferguson, Mr. J. McLean, Mrs. F. G. Hayden, Miss A. McDonald.

Our Canadian Gazette states that during the first three months of the present fiscal year, ending Sept. 30, the exports of Canada have been over $2,500,000 more than during the same period last year.

We have received the first number of the British American Citizen, a paper started in Boston in the interests of British subjects resident in the United States. It is disposed to be republican in politics, and strongly advocates the naturalization of all British subjects who intend to make their home in the Republic.

Some of our country Post Offices seem to be negligently conducted, so far, at least, as the delivery of newspapers is concerned. We sometimes find out, by accident, that a person to whom our paper is sent has changed his Post Office address, and yet we are not advised of this fact by the Postmaster.

Yesterday being the Feast of All Saints, solemn High Mass was sung in St. Dunstan's Cathedral at 10 o'clock. The celebrant was Rev. J. C. McDonald, Rector of St. Dunstan's College, and Rev. F. X. Gallant and J. C. McLean as Deacon and sub-Deacon respectively.

An appropriate sermon was preached by Father McLean. In the evening Vespers for the Dead was sung. This morning (All-Souls Day), at 8 o'clock a High Mass of Requiem was sung by Rev. F. X. Gallant.

Deming last week a subscriber returned the HERALD through the mail, with the inscription, "Not wanted any longer." We would remind our friends that those writing the above be neglected to mention a very important fact, that is, that he owes the HERALD Printing Company nearly four dollars for subscriptions. It is most extraordinary that he never discovered he did not want the paper "any longer" until he was "billed" for what he owed. We would say for what we intend to collect what is due us, and our friend should govern himself accordingly.

The Supreme Court met at Charlottetown yesterday forenoon, the three judges on the bench. After regular routine business the first case was called. Alexander McLeod, appellant, vs. Peter Gillis, respondent; appeal from the County Court of the County of St. John's. Judgment was reserved. Mr. Peters gave judgment, allowing the appeal with costs. Henry Longworth, appellant, vs. Andrew McG. Smith, respondent; appeal from the County Court, was next called. Mr. Morson for appellant, Mr. Martin for respondent.

The Gloucester Advertiser records the death of Miss Steele, aged 24 years, a native of Newport, P. E. Island, and a kinsman of the Bishop of Charlottetown. His death was the result of exposure from a singular chain of circumstances. While acting as manager of a benefit ball in aid of a man injured on the roller coast, some one, possibly knowing he was away from home, attempted to break into his home. His young wife, being frightened, took her babe and sought shelter in the attic, where they remained until the husband's return. The next day she was attacked with fever, and after six weeks close attention at her bedside, Mr. Steele was taken sick, and in his weakened state failed to rally. -Halifax Herald.

EARLY in January last, a man named Charles H. Yoo, son of James Yoo, Union Road, mysteriously disappeared from this city, and from that time until the present no trace of his whereabouts has been discovered. It is supposed that he must have been the victim of foul play; and as he is said to have had on his person considerable money at the time of his disappearance, it is not unlikely that such has been the case. Mr. Yoo was about thirty-five years of age, and for the past seven or eight years had been in Winnipeg, employed as a baker. As he was a sober, industrious man he accumulated considerable money. In September of last year he returned to the island to spend a few weeks with his friends. Having spent some time among his relatives at Union Road and Brudenell, he is said to have been seen in Charlottetown on the 1st of January, after which date nothing has ever been heard of him. His acquaintances in Winnipeg have all been communicated with, but he has not been seen there since. His father has offered a reward of $500 to any person who will give such information as will lead to the discovery of the body, and the apprehension and conviction of the murderer.
