RAILWAYS STILL IN THEIR INFANCY.
 WE gave our readers, in our last issue, a brief account of the little Welsh railway which has recently been attracting to itself so much of the public attention, and we ventured the advice that the Intercolonial should be constructed of a narrow-gauge, on the ground that both first cost and subsequent annual expenditure would be thereby greatly decreased.
 There may, possibly, be good, or apparently good, reasons why main or trunk lines should be built on the broad-gauge plan, so as to avoid change of cars for through freight, received from, or given to, the broad-gauge roads which are already, in existence, although even, here, we think that in the long run the narrow-gauge would be the best for any new railways, and, still more so, if the old ones should also decide to adopt the narrow-gauge.
 But we are most decidedly of opinion that, for nearly every reason, all branch lines should be constructed on the cheap system. The advantages are of a twofold character. In the first place, a narrow-gauge railway requiring less capital to build it, and a smaller proportion of its receipts to run it than a broad-gauge, there would be some likelihood of the shareholders getting a return for their money, which, now-a-days, it is not supposed those who invest in railway enterprises ever expect to receive, and in the second place, and which is of much greater importance, there would be much less difficulty in obtaining capital and securing the construction of the railway necessary for the rapid and profitable development of the country. Now, while generally speaking it continues to be thought necessary that only the broad-gauge should be used, requiring heavy expenditure in almost every item of construction, the greatest difficulty to be overcome is the raising of the capital required. The sum needed is large, and the probability of dividends being earned is not apparent to every one. The district to be served needs to be pretty well settled-up beforehand, and even then it takes years of talk before anything definite is accomplished and actual work commenced. With the narrow-gauge, the amount needed would not, it is believed, be more than three-fifths of what would be called for by a broad-gauge railway; and at the same time that the capital is thus so greatly reduced, the actual profits earned would be greatly increased; doubling the chances shareholders would have of receiving a decent return on their investment. Under these circumstances, railway shares would cease to be looked upon with the disfavor that attends them now, and capital seeking investment would be turned in that direction. Lines would be built whenever there was any possibility they would prove remunerative; and much of the country, which, under ordinary circumstances, would be opened up for settlement, and occupied only after the lapse of many years, would, by the adoption of the narrow-gauge, be provided, after very brief delay, with railway communication and cheapened means of transport.

IMMIGRATION.

The Imperial Government have decidedly refused to introduce any measure to afford State aid to persons desirous of emigrating to any of the colonies. They will not adopt a policy which they believe would only have the effect of offering a premium for improvidence, and which would, at the same time, be costly to the country. We are not disposed to find fault with the decision of Her Majesty's Ministers, but we think that what would be wrong for England to do, as being an acknowledgment of the right of her paupers to demand aid to emigrate, would be right for Canada to undertake for her own benefit. She would not be laying down a precedent, throwing on her any responsibility hereafter, to give aid to British paupers; and it would be possible for Canada to see, in a great measure, that advances which might need to be made for the support of emigrants during the first years of their coming to the country, were duly repaid when farms began to yield more than a bare subsistence.

Should the present revival in railway building continue for some years unabated, doubtless large numbers of laborers will be attracted hither, and some of them will probably settle down to agricultural pursuits; but the emigrants we want are those who will all, or, at least, the large majority of them, become farmers. For our present population we have an abundance of mechanics and laborers generally, though these are not equally distributed throughout the various provinces of the Dominion. But there is almost unlimited space for tillers of the soil, and they are the real producers of wealth, and to them, in the future as in the past, will the prosperity of the country be mainly due. Far outnumbering all other classes of the community, as they do, they may be increased to almost any extent, and there never can be too many of them. We may have an over-supply of manufacturers, and workmen may be turned away in crowds for want of employment; there may be such an overfiling of trade as to reduce profits to less than a bare living for those engaged in it, and to make failure the rule, and success the exception. But those who raise food have the whole world for customers, themselves included; and, barring exceptional years of universal fruitfulness, there are always markets for farm produce at prices sufficiently remunerative. If farmers, then, are numerous and prosperous, the supplying of them with imported or manufactured goods will furnish employment to all other classes.

The immigration policy, therefore, which should be followed by Canada is one which would secure, not the immigration of skilled mechanics or laborers of any kind other than those willing to do farm work; but of men who (with some assistance in the shape of a money loan, to be afterwards repaid) would settle down on the now vacant lands, and, after a few years, doubtless, of toil and a hard struggle for existence, would become a wealth-earning portion of the population. It would not be an injury to any man's independence of character to accept aid when given merely as a loan; and the poor Englishman, honest, hard-working, but out of employment, would gratefully embrace the opportunity offered to him to create for himself a new home in a land of plenty, where neither he nor his family should ever be without food or clothe or a roof over their heads to protect them from the inclemency of the passing seasons.

THE SILVER NUISANCE.

A wretched and ineffectual attempt has been made in Montreal to obstruct the working of the government plan for getting the American silver shipped out of the country. Nearly all the brokers, a number of manufacturers, and a few others of no great influence, seem to have entered into a combination to try and defeat the aims of government, as stated in the silver proclamation. Funds were furnished to carry on the war—we do not know by whom; an impoverished broker was employed to do the work of the combination, in endeavouring to buy up silver at better rates than those offered by Government; in getting petitions signed—chiefly by brokers and their clerks—against the issue of the so-called "shipplasters," and in endeavouring to create popular prejudice against them by the placing of vindictive posters—down with the shipplasters; silver at par, better. It was readily seen that the only part of the Government scheme that was at all vulnerable was that which provided for the issue of fractional currency, pending the receipt of a sufficient quantity of new Canadian coin to take the place of the to-be-expelled American coin; and it was thought that if this issue of fractional currency could be prevented by calling it names, getting up a feeling against it, and finally dividing the House of Commons, on a motion to forbid it, the whole scheme to drive out the American silver would fall through. In making their arrangements, however, these wily people overlooked one fact, which has for long been patent to everybody, and that is that in Ontario the public feeling on the subject is strong and well-nigh unanimous, and that there the general desire is to get rid—no matter at what cost—of the silver nuisance. When it came to the point, however, the fact became evident, and Sir Alexander Tilloch Galt—who had undertaken to be the standard-bearer of the anti-shipplaster clique—allowed the opportunity to pass, and did not venture to bring forward his motion at all, much less take issue with Government on the question.

The main resorts, Union, of the brokers' combination were total failure, much ridicule of themselves, and, which comes hardest, heavy and fruitless expense. Silver, bought in large amounts at from 4 1/2 to 5 1/2 discount, had to be re-sold at 5; printers' ink had to be paid for, so had circular telegrams, despatched in hot haste all over the country, and in various other ways money was spent. And all this for nothing. The Government scheme is working well. Silver is being sold to the agencies all over the Dominion as rapidly as it can be conveniently handled and disposed of, the amount already received being in the vicinity of $500,000. The fractional notes are not only nearly or quite ready for distribution, but enquiries are being made for them, and, for many purposes, they will prove to be, to many, a real boon. There can hardly be a doubt but that, by the 16th April, when the proclamation comes into force, the people will have made up their minds not to receive American silver at par any longer, but to take it at its current value only; most employers of labor—at all events all those who are above endeavoring to make a petty gain out of their employees—will cease to pay out at its full value a currency really so much depreciated, and those whose profits are found in the disbursement of uncurrent money, or in its purchase and sale, will be in a hopeless minority, quite powerless to prevent or obstruct the carrying out of the scheme which, after much solicitation, and after years of delay, the Government have seen fit to undertake.

REGISTRATION OF BUSINESS FIRMS.

IN business should bear in mind that during the last session of the Ontario Legislature an Act was passed, the object of which is to compel persons engaged in business under co-partnership, as traders, manufacturers, or miners, to register the names of their firm specifying their occupation. This must be done in the registry office of the county or place in which the business is carried on, and a fee of 60 cents is to be charged. The Act was not immediate in its action, but comes into operation on the 24th of June next. And in order that it may become effective, a penalty of $200 can be collected from each partner of any non-registered firm; and as half of this sum is to go to the informer, one may expect that there will be plenty of information laid against those that may not have complied with the conditions set forth in the act. Any change made in the composition of a business firm must also be duly registered, the intention being, that any person having cause of action against any firm or company may know, exactly, on their declaration, who to hold liable. Now, as people's memory often proves defective, the pressure of daily business driving matters that have once been postponed far out of recollection, it would be well if every firm or company, engaged in business should at once make the necessary declaration, and get a matter comfortably disposed of that might otherwise prove one of vexation and loss.—Free Press.

CANADIAN ENTERPRISE.

GOLD AT HAZZARD'S CORNERS.—I have just finished the assay of 100 lbs of rock taken from a vein in this neighbourhood which yielded at the rate of 14 dwts and 3 grs per ton. Also a sample of 10 lbs from another vein which yielded a little over one ounce per ton—the gold is of a very fine quality, decidedly above the coin standard. The matrix in both veins was a glassy quartz, and the gold associated with iron, sulphur and arsenic. It is a difficult ore to work, and requires a thorough calculation to set the gold free. All the veins that I have seen in this neighbourhood have a strong northerly dip, which leads me to think that those sulphurets will disappear in depth, and heavy iron gold will occupy the lower levels.

| An increase in 1869 equal to 5,676,242 bushels. |           |           |

The per cent. each port received is shown in the annexed table:

|              | 1868. | 1869. |

| Ogdensburg   | 17.56 | 13.88 |
| Montreal     | 26.28 | 42.28 |

As will be seen from the above figures, the increase in the receipts of Breadstuffs at Montreal in 1869 over 1868 is equal to 5,676,242 bushels. This increase was caused principally by the large speculative purchases and sale of Canadian account in Milwaukee and other Western ports, which will come here on the opening of navigation.—Gazette.

DOMINION NOTES.

HOW true is it that the multitude of words darken counsel. There was never a better illustration of this than was afforded by the debate in the House of Commons on the Dominion Notes resolutions.

The proposition of Sir Francis Hincks is to issue Dominion Notes against gold and Dominion debentures, in, at times, variable proportions; but the proportion of gold to debentures not to be less than 25 per cent, which gives a minimum proportion of 20 per cent to circulation. There must always be debentures and gold to cover every dollar of circulation. It follows as a logical sequence that the proportion of gold to circulation cannot be less than 20 per cent. It was said, however, that debentures might be sold in some fluctuations of circulation; but if debentures were sold, there must be gold to take their place. There must always be, under the proposed law, debentures and gold to cover the amount of notes issued; and if there is less proportion of debentures, there must be greater proportion of gold. So it is perfectly true the proposition which the proposed law gives is greater than one which would simply give a minimum of 20 per cent on the circulation.

Nothing can be more clear to the mind than the principle we have stated, and a practical illustration is equally distinct. Suppose the circulation to be eight millions, there would have to be two millions of gold and six millions of debentures provided. If the circulation were to decline, say three quarters of a million, the per centage of gold to circulation would increase under the provision to secure the eight millions. But if it were to go still further down, and the Government were to sell debentures, their obligation to keep debentures and gold against all the circulation would remain, the minimum of gold to debentures being never less than 25 per cent, which would give 20 per cent on the circulation.

The resolutions provide for a margin of 10 per cent in cases of emergency, but this has not come up in discussion. The absolute safety point of these Dominion Notes may be stated at four millions. There can be no question as to the perfect credit they will command.—Gazette.

THE TRADE REVIEW AND INTERCOLONIAL JOURNAL OF COMMERCE.

WEST INDIA MARKET REPORTS.

FEBRUARY 8, 1870.

JAMAICA.—The market has not undergone any material alteration since our last report. Arrivals from Halifax still continue, and the demand for Coffee has improved, but buyers show no inclination to purchase in cargo. Flour has arrived more freely, and prices have fallen in some instances.

Since our last issue the weather has been favorable for the young crops of the Eastern and Southside Parishes, and, although too late to be of any material benefit to the Sugar crop, will, nevertheless, considerably improve the yield. This weather is rather against Sugar-making, which progresses slowly.

On the high mountain Coffee Plantation the weather has been favorable for maturing and ripening the berry, but against curing and preparing for market. The trees look promising for next season.

Very little Logwood is being got out. As we have before reported, the forests in the vicinity of the shipping ports are now exhausted, and present prices will not pay the extra expense of transit from the hills in the interior. Unless prices advance, very little will be shipped from the island.

Fustic is scarce and wanted. A number of vessels have arrived during the fortnight to load for Europe, which have supplied our immediate wants for tonnage. Seeking vessels would find employment, but at rather lower rates than have lately been paid.

The health of the island is good.—De Cordova's Mercantile Intelligence.

TRINIDAD.—We have had occasional slight showers during the fortnight, which rather retard the drying of Cocoa the crop of which is now beginning to come in; but is otherwise beneficial to the country.

The Cane, which were reported to be short in December have improved very much lately, but are still very green, and on the few estates that have commenced to grind, the yield is, consequently, unfavorable, but improving.

Breadstuffs are very dull, and the market is heavily stocked with every article of American Provisions and Breadstuffs. Rice is in heavy supply. Coopers' stuffs in supply, and they meet with but little demand. The same remark may apply to French Butter.

The "Reindeer" from New York, with sixty American mules, is the only arrival. Sales of 32 reported at $187 50 for American, and $120 to $175 for French, according to quality and size.

Business continues extremely inactive, and the market overstocked with almost every description of goods.

Produce shipped to date.—Sugar, 24 hhd's; Molasses, 5 puns; Cocoa, 155.2 0 lbs; Coffee, 2,070 lbs.; Appleum, 1,237 tons, Cocanum, 159,000. Tonnage, Jan. 22, 1868, 3,352.—Burnett Bros.' Prices Current.

W. F. Lumber of good quality, and a couple of well-assorted cargoes of P. Pine would sell readily, being wanted. Tonnage is not wanted.—A. Cumming & Co.'s Prices Current.

ANTIGUA.—Butter and Lard are in small supply and wanted.

Sugar-making has commenced on a few estates, but will be general about the end of February. We have had fine rains, which were much wanted.

Produce exported from 1st January to date.—1869, 156 hhd's 4 tcs 44 bbls Sugar, 1 bbl Concrete, 53 puns Molasses, 13 puns Rum, 80 bales Cotton.—McDonald & Co.'s Prices Current.

St. THOMAS.—Freights.—There has not been any change in this branch since our last report. Orders are still scarce, whilst seeking orants on the other hand continue to arrive daily. About twenty disengaged N. European vessels in port waiting the arrival of the mails now due, and it is expected that the greater number of them will have to lie over for another fortnight, about when it is likely that Sugar shipments from Porto Rico may commence, and business in Haiti be so far re-established as to enable shippers to obtain Produce in greater quantities than of late.—Tidwell's Mercantile Reporter.

BARRADOES.—Crop has partially commenced, and some Sugar has been brought to market, but no price has as yet been fixed. Recent showers have proved beneficial to growing canes. Tonnage is not required.—Wynner's Market Report.

Exports 280 M Baling; 109 600 feet Lumber; and 1 1/2 M Hoops.

BREADSTUFFS.—There has been considerable stir in the Flour market since our last report, and sales of 5,000 bbls are reported on speculation, at or about our last weeks' quotations. Advices from Canada still report a firmer feeling, with a prospect of a further advance, and this has caused a rise in prices here, though rates are still below what Flour can be imported, at the present asking prices in Montreal and Toronto. Cornmeal, Oatmeal and Rye Flour quiet and unchanged. Receipts—2255 bbls Flour, and 100 do Oatmeal. Exports—400 bbls Flour and 120 do Corn Meal.

FISH.—Dry Fish of all kinds continues very firm, with scarcely any offering, the stock being mainly in the hands of shippers. Mackerel are also firm, and stock of fat fish being very light, prices probably soon advance. There is an active demand for No. 3 large, and No. 3 which are firm at quotations. Alewives and Salmon unchanged. Considerable quantities of Split Herring have changed hands during the week at prices a shade over last weeks' quotations. Other description continue dull. Exports—518 tcs, 644 bxs and 24 hhd's Codfish; 316 bbls and 6 hhd's Alewives; 1512 bbls and 36 hhd's Mackerel; 232 bbls Herring; 28 tcs and 122 bbls of Salmon; 24 bbls, 2 hf bbls and 10 kits Tongues and Sounds, 21 bbls Halibut, 2 bbls and 3 hf do Trout, and 800 boxes and 150 hf do Smoked Herring. No receipts.

Our latest mail advices from Havana are to the 28th ult. the Havana prices current of that date are—For Halifax there is a good enquiry and scanty disposable supplies, and prices have somewhat advanced, as may be seen by the following sale—ex Acta Adell, from Boston, 150 drums at $3 25 per qt. We confirm the sale of a cargo to arrive alluded to in our last, but are unable to state the exact prices, the transaction having been made on private terms. We quote cod $8 1/2 to $1 and Haddock at $7 1/2 per qt. We have no later advices from other West India Islands.

OILS.—No change to note.

PRODUCE.—Oats in fair request at quotations. Barley dull and nominal. Potatoes quiet and unchanged. Butter and Lard unchanged. Receipts—97 pkgs Butter and 100 do Lard. Exports—25 tcs Oats and 500 pkgs butter.

MONEY MARKET.

There is again an absence of any particular demand for money, and a scarcity of good business paper, rates continuing without change.

Sterling Exchange is a little firmer, but without much activity. We quote 108½ to 108½ for Bank Drafts at 60 days sight, the rate in New York being about the same. Gold in New York has fluctuated between 111½ and 112½ closing at 112. Greenbacks bought at $20 to $21.

Silver is offering freely, brokers buying at 5. There is very little demand, but as Government agents are still receiving at 5 per cent, the rate cannot fall much below that point. Small silver is bought at 6 discount.

The following are the latest quotations of Sterling Exchange, &c.:

| Silver, large                   | 5 to 4½ dis. |

THE GROCERY TRADE.

Business has been very dull during the past week. Transactions in jobbing lots being small in extent and few in number. Some enquiry has existed for Japan Tea, but sales have been mostly in comparatively retail quantities. Greens have been neglected almost entirely. No transactions in raw sugars reported, beyond sales of a few 5 and 10 hhds lots. Refined sugars have been in fair demand, but prices have been marked down to all grades. No movement whatever in molasses. Very little doing in Fruit of any kind. Wines and Liquors generally neglected. High Wine—Gooderham and Worts now being delivered at 66 in bond. No other in market.

THE HARDWARE TRADE.

But few buyers have as yet found their way to this market, but orders are being freely received for shipment at the opening of navigation; and business, so far, is reported as very much larger than at the same time last year.

In prices we have no change to note, holders generally being firm; for all heavy goods, and quotations fully maintained.

Collectors are stated to be good, remittances being made with more than average promptness, and there is every prospect of a very satisfactory condition of trade after navigation is fairly open, and lower freights obtainable.

THE BOOT AND SHOE TRADE.

Demand continues active, with limited supplies for staples and present improved quotations continue firm. From all reports the country dealers are in a healthy condition, and present active operations will be sustained.

THE LEATHER TRADE.

The increased activity noted in last week's report has somewhat subsided, still a fair demand exists for certain descriptions of stock. Receipts have been more liberal, and prices have undergone little or no change.

MONTREAL PRODUCE MARKET.

Business has been very dull in Produce circles throughout the past week, and any changes in quotations are comparatively unimportant.

Flour.—Wheat has met with limited consumptive enquiry, selling at $1.50 to $1.60, at the close, inside rate being readily accepted. Fancy.—Recent sales have been made at $1.40 to $1.42. There has latterly been some enquiry for this grade, for May delivery, at about current rates, on the spot. Super.—Receipts have been increasing slightly during the week, the demand, however, continuing limited. Strong samples have been sold at $4.30 to $4.45, outside rates being for choice brands, for sponging purposes, good to ordinary selling from $4.30 down to $1.20. Several sales of oily brands, in round lots, have been made, for May delivery, at $4.25 to $1.80, millers protecting themselves by the insertion in their contracts of a proviso that the flour is understood to be deliverable in bond should Government previously impose a duty on American wheat. Very little doing in Fine and the lower grades, and rates given must be looked upon as purely nominal. U. C. Bag Flour is nominally worth $1.90 to $2, with very little offering. Oatmeal.—No wholesale transactions reported.

Grain.—Wheat.—Some large sales reported during the early part of the week of Western No. 1 at $1, for future delivery. No reported transactions in U. C. Wheat, holders of any parcels on the spot demanding more than buyers are willing to give. At the close rather a better feeling existed, and prices have advanced somewhat, in sympathy with an improvement in the British market. Doc may be looked upon as the same would be paid for good Red Winter. No reported transactions in Pease, but holders are very firm demanding outside rates. Buyers seem's me' what disposed to meet them, but, so far, no concessions have been made by sellers. Views of buyers about 70, for May delivery, holders demanding 60c Oats.—Very little doing, and quotations nominal in the absence of business. Nothing doing in Barley.

Provisions.—Pork.—Meas has ruled sterner throughout the week, holders now demanding $24.50 to $25. The advance, however, is only justified by the advance in the Western markets, the demand here being quite limited in extent. Prime Mess and Prime entirely nominal. Hogs.—Season virtually closed, and little or nothing doing. Butter dull and drooping. Holders are rather pressing sales, but buyers holding back till the opening of navigation, when a better demand is anticipated for the Lower Port trade.

Bees.—Pots firmer, and in demand at an advance on last week's rates of from 60 to 70. Pearls.—None offering, and rates irregular.

Seeds.—Clover.—Very little offering in this market. Recent sales have been at about 13c. Timothy.—Market closes weaker, with some anxiety on the part of holders to close out. Rates at close, $4 to $4.25 per 45 lbs.

LIVERPOOL MARKETS.

LIVERPOOL, Wednesday, Mar. 26.

The long continued cold easterly wind has at length given way to a warm south westerly with a little rain. This will be very beneficial to the country, and the change in the wind will bring the fleet of ships up which have been lagging about the coast for some time past. The weather in the Baltic is also much milder and we may soon expect shipments from that quarter.

At the London Corn Market on Monday the advance asked checked business and the market closed slow at an advance of 1s per quarter on Wheat, while Flour was only in limited demand at previous rates. Barley, Oats and Peas were without change.

At our Corn Market on Friday last there was a small attendance, and a moderate business was done, although buyers were very unwilling to give the advance, and held off until near the close of the market; wheat was 2d per cent dearer, Flour 6d per sack and Barley and Indian Corn 3d per quarter, while Oats and Oatmeal were only slightly dearer. Barley was more in demand at an advance of 2d per bushel.

At our Corn Market yesterday there was an average attendance from the country, but only a very limited business done, at prices little under the rates of Friday. Flour 1 1/2d per barrel lower and not much doing, nothing doing in Oats and Oatmeal. Barley was in fair demand at full rates, but Indian Corn was not much wanted and sellers seemed inclined to 6d per bushel in price. Peas were here nominally 3s.

Deliveries of British wheat for week ending 12th inst. 66,475 qrs, against 56,208 qrs in 1869 and 48,457 qrs in 1868.

Imports into this port for week ending 14th inst. Wheat, 18,012 qrs; Oats, 832 qrs; Peas, 238 qrs; Indian Corn, 982 qrs; Oatmeal, 1,116 sacks and 558 bris and 5,016 barrels.

Exports in the same time were Wheat, 5,341 qrs; Oats, 7 qrs; Peas, 42 qrs; Indian Corn, 1,378 qrs; Oatmeal, 25 loads; Flour, 1,691 sacks and 558 bris. Provisions.—Butter, fresh parcels scarce, but all other kinds are very slow of sale. Lard is better and more doing in it; Cheese is very dull and sales trifling at 1s 6d for Bacon and Hams are not much sought after, and prices unchanged.

Wool.—Sales about 200 barrels, market closing very firm.

Copper.—There has been a fair business this week in Ore and Regulus, particularly to arrive, at prices higher than can be obtained for material on the spot.

THE Submerged Double-Acting, Non-Freezing FORCE PUMP, the simplest and most powerful in use. It is proved to be the cheapest, most effective, durable and reliable Pump, not only for Family use, but also for Florists, Factories, Breweries, Distilleries, Ships, &c. Beside the above-mentioned advantages over the usual style of Pumps, it is particularly recommended by Insurance Companies, on account of its effectiveness in extinguishing fires. The smallest Pump will throw 50 to 75 feet through a hose.

THE TRADE REVIEW for 1870 will contain, in addition to articles on general commercial and financial topics, contributed by some of the ablest writers in Canada, and the record of events bearing on the trade of the country, reports of the Wholesale Markets of Montreal, Hamilton, Toronto, St. John, Halifax and other leading points in the Dominion, with wholesale price lists of Groceries, Wines, Spirits and Liquors, Hardware, Drugs, Oils, Paints, Soap and Candles, Leather, Boots and Shoes, Produce, Furs; prices of Grain daily; latest quotations of Bank, Railway, Mining, Government, and other Securities, both here and in London; a weekly report of the state of the Money Market, with quotations of Sterling Exchange here and in New York, price of Gold, United States Currency, Silver, &c., &c.; Official Statements of Banks and Railways; list of new Bankrupts each week; business announcements of the leading merchants and manufacturers in the Dominion; all of which information is especially valuable to country merchants doing business with importers and manufacturers.
