Q. Why these three Hail Marys?

A. To honour the relation of the Holy Virgin with the three persons of the Blessed Trinity.

Q. Is there any virtue in the number of Our Fathers, Hail Marys, or Gloria Patris which constitute the Beads?

A. No; the Beads derives all its virtue from the excellent prayers which it contains, and from the spirit of fervour with which it is recited.

Q. Is it not useless so often to recite the same prayers?

A. No; provided the heart join with the lips.

Q. What particular advantage is found in the Beads?

A. It is of great service to those who cannot read.

Q. How is the Beads concluded?

A. By the prayer Sub tuum poæsidium, or We fly to thy patronage, &c.—page 13.

CHAPTER THE FIFTH.

ARTICLE 1.

Q. What should a christian do every day of his life?

A. If he wishes to lead a holy life, he must every day:

1° On awaking in the morning, make upon himself the sign of the cross and say, O my God, I offer thee my heart.

2º Having cloathed himself modestly, he should kneel down and say his morning prayers.

3º. Hear mass, if he can conveniently.

4º. Apply himself to the affairs of his calling.

5°. Take his meals with sobriety and temperance, saying Grace, page 14, before and after meat.

6° Help the poor according to his means.

7° Examine his conscience and say evening prayers at a proper hour, and, as much as possible, with the whole family.

Q. How ought he to sanctify his actions?

A. By offering them up to God.

Q. What is he to do in the troubles and contradictions of life?

A. He should suffer them with patience in atonement for his sins, and unite them with the sufferings of Christ.

Q. What should he do in the time of temptation?

A. Recommend himself to God, and avoid such discourses and objects as may entice him to evil.

A. Humble himself immediately, beg pardon of God, and go to confession, as soon as possible.

Q. What conduct should he pursue with respect to amusements?

A. Not to indulge more in them than they are necessary and innocent.

ARTICLE 2.

Q. What ought a christian to do on sundays and holy-days?

A. He ought to abstain from all servile works, from amusements, from journeys on account of his temporal affairs; and to assist at the parish mass, at vespers, and at the christian instructions given on those days.

Q. What is it expedient for him to do every month?

A. To confess his sins, and receive the holy communion according to the advice of his confessor.

Q. What should he do on every year?

A. To review his conscience, in order to prepare for the paschal or easter communion.

Q. How should we conduct ourselves during the time of sickness?

A. We should receive our sickness with resignation to the will of God; and if it be dangerous, prepare ourselves religiously for death.

Q. What should we do when one of our friends or relations is dangerously ill?

A. We should exhort him to settle his temporal affairs, sent for a priest, and receive the last sacraments.

CHAPTER THE SIXTH.

Of the sacraments.

*Q. What is a sacrament?

A. A sacrament is a sensible or outward sign instituted by Our Lord Jesus-Christ, in order to sanctify us.

Q. Why do you say that a sacrament is a sensible sign?

A. It is a sign, because it signifies the grace it produces in us; and it is sensible or outward, because it is perceptible to our senses.

*Q. How many sacraments has Jesus-Christ instituted?

A. Seven: Baptism, Confirmation, Eucharist, Penance, Extreme-Unction, Holy Orders and Matrimony.

Q. Can we receive the same sacraments more than once?

*Q. Which are the sacraments that must be received in the state of grace?

A. All, except Baptism and Penance.

*Q. What would be the consequence if we received the other sacraments in the state of mortal sin?

A. We could commit as many sacrileges.

Q. What is a sacrilege?

A. The profanation of a holy thing; and the more holy the thing is, the greater is the sacrilege.

ARTICLE 1.

Of Baptism.

*Q. WHAT is Baptism ?

A. Baptism is a sacrament which takes away original sin and makes us christians and children of God and of his church.

Q. Can all persons baptize?

A. Yes; in the case of absolute necessity.

*Q. How is Baptism given?

A. By pouring water on the head of the person to be baptised, saying at the same time, I baptize thee in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost.

ARTICLE 11.

Of Confirmation.

*Q. WHAT is Confirmation?

A. Confirmation is a sacrament which imparts the Holy Ghost, with the abundance of his graces.

*Q. Who is the Holy Ghost?

A. The third person of the Holy Trinity. (a)

*Q. Why is the Holy Ghost imparted to us in the sacrament of Confirmation?

A. To make us perfect christians.

*Q. How does Confirmation make us perfect christians?

A. By giving us strenght to confess Christ.

*Q. In what does the confessing of Christ consist?

A. In openly declaring for him, and for the maxims of his holy law.

*Q. Does Christ require of us to declare for him in this manner?

A. Yes; for he says in the Gospel, that at the day of Judgment, he will acknowledge before his heavenly Father all those who shall have acknowledged him before men; but that he wil

Q. By whom is the sacrament of Confirmation administered?

A. By the Bishop.

Q. What ceremories are used in the administration of this parament?

A. The Bishop prays for those he confirms, lays his hands on them, anoints their foreheads with holy chrism, in the form of a cross.

Q. What does the laying on of the Bishop's hands signify?

A. It signifies that the Holy Ghost comes to reside in the souls of those who receive this sacrament with suitable dispositions.

Q. What is holy chrism?

A. Holy chrism is a composition of oil and balm, consecrated by the Bishop on Maunday or Holy Thursday.

Q. Are there no other ceremonies used in the administration of this sacrament?

A. Yes; the Bishop gives the person he confirms a slight stroke on the cheek, saying; Peuce be with thee.

Q. Why does he do so?

A. To put us in mind that, after the example of Christ, we should patiently endure all sorts of injuries.

Q. Would it be a sin not to receive the sacrament of Confirmation?

A. Yes; if it were through neglect, contempt, or any attachment to sin.

*Q. Is there any particular motive that should induce us to receive the sacrament of Confirmation worthily?

A. Yes; and this motive is, because we can receive it but once.

ARTICLE 3.

Of the Eucharist. (a)

(a) The Eucharist is placed here, to observe the order of the sacraments; but full liberty is left to those Catechists who would rather have it placed after the sacrament of Penance.

§ 1.

Of the Eucharist in general.

*Q. WHAT is the Eucharist?

A. The Eucharist is a sacrament that contains really and truly the Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, under the forms of bread and wine.

*Q. How does the sacrament of the Eucharist become the body and blood of Christ?

*Q. What is the effect of those words?

A. By the words of consecration, the bread is changed into the true body, and the wine into the true blood of Christ.

A. How is the change called?

A. It is called Transsubstantiation, that is, the change of one substance into another.

*Q. Does anything of the bread and wine remain after the consecration?

A. No; there remains nothing but the forms and appearances.

Q. What do you mean by forms or appearances?

A. I mean thereby what falls under our senses, as the figure, colour, taste, &c.

*Q. Is there anything but the body of Jesus Christ under the form of bread?

A. There is also his blood, together with his soul and divinity; in a word, the whole person of Jesus Christ.

*Q. And under the form of wine?

A. The whole person of Jesus Christ is there likewise.

*Q. When the Host is divided, under what part is Christ?

A. He is whole and entire under each part.

Q. When a part only of the Host, or one form is received, is Christ received wholly?

A. Yes; because Christ is whole under each form, and under each part of the forms.

*Q. Should we adore the body and blood of Christ in the Eucharist?

A. Yes; by all means, because the body and blood of Jesus Christ are inseparably united to his divinity.

§ 3.

Of the Mass.

*Q. WHERE is the sacrament of the Eucharist operated?

A. At the holy mass.

*Q. What is the mass?

A. The mass is the oblation of the body and blood of Christ, made to God by the Priest.

Q. What should principally occupy us during the mass.

A. We should offer Christ to the Holy Trinity with the same intentions as he offers himself.

Q. Which are those intentions?

A. They are: 1st. To adore God; 2nd. To appease his wrath; 3rd. To implore his graces; 4th. To thank him for all his benefits and blessings.

Q. How may we assist profitably at mass, by the help of these four points?

A. 1st. From the beginning of the mass to the gospel, by adoring God, and acknowledg-

This method of hearing mass is particularly recommended to such as cannot read.

§ 3.

Of Communion.

*Q. What is meant by Communion?

A. The receiving of the sacrament of the Eucharist.

Q. When are we obliged to receive the Communion?

A. On three principal occasions: 1°. When we have attained the age of discretion, and are sufficiently prepared, in the opinion of our pastors; 2°. Every year at Easter, according to the fourth commandment of the church; 3°. When we are in danger of death.

*Q. What dispositions of the soul should accompany us to the holy communion?

A. The first disposition is to be in the state of grace; the second is to have a great desire of receiving Our Lord Jesus Christ.

*Q. What is understood by being in the state of grace?

A. Not to have our conscience burthened with any mortal sin.

*Q. It we received the blessed Eucharist in the state of mortal sin, would we really receive Jesus-Christ?

A. Yes; but we would profane his body and blood.

Q. What dispositions of the body should we bring to the holy communion?

A. 1° We should be decently and modestly dressed; 2° We should neither have eaten or drunk from midnight, unless we are to receive the blessed sacrament by way of Viaticum.

Q. May we receive the blessed Eucharist at any other time than at mass?

A. We should not without some reason.

Q. How should we occupy ourselves during the mass, at which we are to receive?

A. We should occupy ourselves with the pious sentiments expressed in the following prayer, which may be repeated several times by those who cannot read.

* Prayer before Communion.

"DIVINE JESUS! although thou art not visible to the eyes of my body, I believe that it is thyself, thou art about to Come then, Saviour of the world, purify me from all its stains, and establish thy throne therein for ever."

Q. What is to be done after communion?

A. A quarter of an hour, at least, should be spent in returning thanks to God, for having given himself to us.

Q. How should we conclude this thanksgiving?

A. By an entire oblation of ourselves to our Lord. They who cannot read, may make use of the following prayer.

* Prayer after Communion.

"It is true, O Redeemer of mankind, that thou dwellest within me, and that I am in possession of thy body and blood, soul and divinity. Accept, O Lord, my most profound adoration, which I unite with those that the Angels and aints render thee in Heaven. O! what love, what gratitude can ever equal the favour which thou hast bestowed on me! Accept, divine Jesus, the " offering of all I have, and of all I am: dis-

"pose thereof according to thy good pleasure, and grant me grace never to offend thee more."

Q. What are we to think of those who go out of the church immediately after having received the holy communion, without having performed this duty?

A. We are to suppose that they are sick or called away by some urgent duty of religion or charity; otherwise they would be guilty of a great irreverence.

Q. How should we pass the day on which we have had the happiness of receiving?

A. We should pass it in retirement; frequently raise up our hearts to God; pay, if possible, a visit to the Blessed Sacrament, in the afternoon, and remember with gratitude and love, the favour received on that day.

ARTICLE 5.

Of Penance.

*Q. WHAT is Penance?

A. Penance is a sacrament which remits the sins committed after Baptism.

*Q. Where is the sacrament of Penance received?

Q. What are we to do, in order worthily to receive the sacrament of Penance?

A. We should confess all our sins with sorrow, to an approved priest; and beg pardon of God, with the resolution of satisfying.

§ 1.

Of Absolution.

*Q. Do we receive the sacrament of Penance as often as we go to confession?

A. No; we only receive it when the priest gives us absolution.

*Q. What is absolution?

A. The pardon of sins, granted by the priest in the name of Christ.

Q. Does not the priest grant us pardon of our sins, every time we go to confession.

A. No; sometimes he thinks it necessary to defer absolution, in order to be the better assured of the dispositions of the penitent.

Q. What should a penitent do, when the confessor witholds absolution?

A. He should submit to that delay with humility, remove the cause thereof, and prepare himself better for another time.

Of Confession.

*Q. What is confession?

A. Contession is the declaration of our sins made to the priest, in order to receive absolution.

Q. What qualities should this declaration have?

A. It should be humble, sincere and entire.

Q. In what does the humility of confession consist?

Q. In declaring our sins with great confusion, for having offended God.

Q. In what does the sincerity of confession consist?

A. In declaring our sins candidly as they are known to us, without exaggeration or excuse.

Q. In what does the integrity of confession consist?

A. In declaring all the mortal sins we may have committed, as far as we can remember them after a serious examination.

Q. Should we also declare the number of times we may have committed each sin?

A. Yes.

Q. Would it not be enough to say, I have committed this sin often, sometimes, many times, &c.?

Q. Must we also declare the circumstances of our sins?

A. Yes; when they change the nature of the sin, or notably aggravate the malice thereof.

Q. Give an example of a circumstance that changes the species of sin.

A. The stealing of a holy vessel is not only a theft, but likewise a sacrilege.

Q. Give an example of a circumstance which notably aggravates the malice of sin.

A. To speak ill of my neighbour from a motive of revenge, the sin is greater than to speak ill of him merely for the sake of talking.

*Q. Would it be a great evil to conceal in confession, a mortal sin or some mortal circumstance of a sin?

A. Yes; it would render the confession null and sacrilegious.

*Q. What is he obliged to do who has made such a confession?

A. To recommence it, and to accuse himself particularly of the crime committed by concealing such a sin, or such a circumstance.

Of examination of conscience.

Q. How should we prepare to examine our conscience?

A. By the sentiments expressed in the following prayer, composed for those persons who cannot read.

Prayer before the examination of conscience.

"Behold me, O Lord, at thy feet, in order to declare unto thee, in the person of thy minister, all the sins of which I am guilty. Grant me grace to know them, and to confess them all with sincerity, and to detest them with all my heart. Amen."

*Q. How are we to examine our conscience?

A. By bringing to mind our thoughts, words, actions and omissions.

*Q. How may we know whether we have offended God, by our thoughts, words, actions or omissions?

A. By comparing them with the commandments of God and of the church.

Q. Give me an instance of this.

Q. Should we examine our concience on any other points?

A. Yes; it is proper to examine our conscience on the capital sins, on our habits and passions, on the duty of our calling, and on the places and persons we have frequented.

Q. What length of time should we employ in the examination of our conscience, before confession?

A. As much as we would reasonably employ in preparing for an important affair.

Q. How should we finish the examination of conscience?

A. By an act of contrition.

Q. Make an act of contrition.

A. O my God! I am heartily sorry, &c.—see page 10.

§ 1.

Of contrition.

*Q. In order to obtain pardon in the sacrament of Penance is it sufficient to declare our sins to the priest?

A. No; we must moreover indispensably have contrition.

*Q. What is contrition?

A. A sorrow and regret for having offended God, with a firm resolution never more to offend him.

Q. Is it enough to repeat one or more acts of Contrition, in order to believe that we have this sorrow?

A. No; Contrition must proceed from the heart; for it must be interior.

Q. Can we of ourselves produce that sorrow in our heart?

A. No; it is a gift of God, which we must humbly beg of him, and which can come from no other source.

Q. Would that Contrition be sufficient which proceeds from a sorrow for having offended God, on account of the dishonour, or temporal loss which ensues?

A. No; it would be merely a wordly sorrow; whereas the Contrition which procures the pardon of sin ought to be supernatural.

Q. On what motives ought our contrition to be grounded?

A. On the following: 1º The infinite goodness of God whom we have offended; 2º. The benefits of God, and our own ingra-

Q. Should our sorrow for having offended God be very great?

A. Sin being the greatest of all evils, our sorrow for having committed it, should be the greatest of all sorrows, and this is the reason why contrision ought to be sovereign.

*Q. Is it enough to detest only a part of our mortal sins?

A. No; because Contrition ought to be universal.

*Q. May we limit the resolution of not offending God, to some days or months?

A. No; we must be resolved never more to offend him.

§ 5.

Exercise of Confession.

*Q. When the time of Confession is come what are we to do?

A. To kneel down by our confessor so as not to look at him in the face, make the sign of the Cross, and say:

In english. Bless me, Father, for I have sinned.

I confess to Almighty God, &c.

As far as Through my fault,—page 8.

In latin. Benedic mihi, Pater, quia peccavi.

Confiteor Deo omnipotenti, &c.

As far as, Med cul $p\hat{a}$,—page 8.

*Q. What are we afterwards to do?

A. We must declare how long it is since we were at confession last; whether we received absolution; and whether we have performed the penance imposed on us. Then we commence our confession, saying at each article, I accuse myself of, &c.

*Q. The accusation of sins being ended, what are we to say?

A. We would say : "I accuse myself " moreover of many other sins which I do not, " at this present time, remember, and of "those of my whole life; for which I beg " pardon of God, and of you, my ghostly fa-"ther, penance and absolution."

Q. How should we receive the admonitions of our confessor?

A. We should receive them with much respect, and with a desire to reduce them to practise: with submission to the penance he imposes; and then finish the Confiteor.

Q. If the confessor thinks proper to grant us absolution, what are we to do?

A. While he is giving it, we should renew our act of contrition, then retire; thank God for the grace just received, and perform, as soon as possible, the penance enjoined.

Q. In what terms should we express to God our thankfulness for having received absolution?

A. They who cannot read, may say the following prayer, as often as they chose.

Prayer after Confession.

"I am no longer thy enemy, O my God!
"By the virtue of the sacrament which I "have just received, thou hast healed the

"wounds of my soul; thou hast received me

$ 6.

Of Satisfaction.

*Q. What is Satisfaction?

A. It is a reparation we owe to God and our neighbour for the injury or wrong done them by sin?

Q. How can we satisfy God?

A. We satisfy God, io by the pains and afflictions of this life, when we accept them with patience and resignaton; 2° By the performance of satisfactory works, as prayers, fasting and alms; 3° and principally, by the faithful accomplishment of the penance enjoined by the confessor.

Q. Can we of ourselves satisfy the divine justice?

A. No; Christ only, our sovereign mediator, can render our satisfactions meritorious by offering them to God his Father.

Q. How can we satisfy our neighbour?

A. By repairing the wrong done him in his person, his goods or his honor.

Q. What do you mean by Indulgences?

A. By Indulgences we mean the remission, granted by the church, of the temporal punishment, due to sin, after the guilt is remitted.
