MAY REPORT TODAY

Expect Commission Will Exonerate Hon. C. J. Doherty and Gen. S. C. Mewburn.

Ottawa, Oct. 30.—It is probable that the report of the royal commission, which inquired into the Guelph Novitiate affairs, will be tabled in parliament tomorrow. The commissioners which inquired into the Guelph Novitiate affairs, will be tabled in parliament tomorrow. The commissioners which inquired entother in the session of the soft coal miners.

With rationing of stocks on hand to essential industries.

So far as the government is able to prevent it, there will be no profiteering while the grim spectre of winter, with coal bins dangerously low or bare, looms big and close at hand. Almost the first step today was the drafting of an order fixing a maximum price for all grades of coal. Re-establishment of the priorities list will put coal where it is most needed, and if it comes to that, the government will curtail consumption.

Breaking down the barriers which had kept members of the cabinet away from his sick room, President Wilson took a hand in the fight today and personally approved every detail in the general plan of dealing with conditions likely to arise with the walkout of the soft coal miners.

Senate Pledges Its Support.

The coal strike took precedence which for four hours debated and ment tomorrow. The commissioners over the peace treaty in the senate, which for fold hours debated and then adopted a resolution piedging its support to the government in maintaining order during the present inof liquor in connection with the voting. Nor will The World be surprised to learn, at any moment, that, irrespective of the wins and losses of the various parties, the headquarters staff in the ad-ministration of the Ontario temperance act send in their resignations.

Then, there is no doubt that friends of certain candidates or workers in connection with the election, are pressing the names of these workers and candidates for cabinet position. But those making the requests are unable quite to show how their favorites can get seats. Among the names so being presented for cabinet positions is that of James Simpson, who was defeated in West York, and who is a prominent labor man. Where can he get a seat if he was made minister of labor What U.F.O. or Labor candidate would make way for him, and would he be elected if he were given a portfolio? And the same is more or less true even of Mr. Doherty, the defeated U.F.O. man in Peel. What U.F.O. man will give him a seat, or what Labor candidate will give him a seat, notwithstanding his services for the cause? And friends of Mr. Roebuck, a elever young lawyer, who worked both in the cause of Labor and in the cause of the Liberals, are presenting his name for a seat. Who would make the vacancy, and, if made, could he be elected?

Then there is talk of members-elect like Mr. Curry in Southeast Toronto, Mr. Parliament in Prince Edward, and Mr. Tolmie in Windsor, all three of whom were elected as Liberals, but who are said to be willing to take portfolios in a new administration selected by Mr. Drury. Would they be re-elected if they went back to their constituents by the Liberals who had elected them the other day? Or would the United Farmers' and the Labor vote in their respective ridings come to their assistance? Even Mr. Drury has to get a seat, and, while that may be easy, and while Sir Adam Beck and his friends are anxious that he should get a seat, it will take some engineering to accomplish these things. Some of the U.F.O. memberselect will have to make way for Mr. women be represented equally with Drury, tho, if the recount succeeds in men in all future international labor Grenville, he might go there, or he might conferences called under the treaty of go to Sudbury, the neither is at all like- Versailles was made today at the Inly. Controls Thirty-Three Companies-Canada Will Get Canadian Express.

Ottawa, Oct. 30 .- A statement on the Grand Trunk lines in the United States was made to the senate today by Sir James Lougheed, in answer to a question.

The statement submitted by the government showed that in the United States the Grand Trunk controls thirty-three railway companies. The par value of the capital stock of the thirty-three is $26,700,000. The total par value of the bonds and other indebtedness is $64,319,024. The total par value held by the Grand Trunk is $51,332,193. The total par value held by the public is $36,686,830.

Sir James stated that the government would acquire the Canadian Express Company with the Grand Trunk.

press Company with the Grand Trunk.

The senate adjourned until Monday, so that consideration of the G.T.P. bill in the upper house cannot be commenced until that date.

Why "Wrong Number"?

THE vast majority of telephone operators are conscientious and painstaking. To them a "wrong number" is as distressing as to the person who gets it.

It is to the operator's interest that the caller should reach his party promptly, should finish his talk without interruption and then be disconnected. A "wrong number" means, besides irritation for two subscribers, double work for the operator.

Aside from failure to consult the latest telephone directory, wrong numbers arise chiefly through failure of the operator to hear clearly the number asked for. This failure in turn arises from two causes:-

1. Indistinct speaking.

2. Speaking away from the telepphone, instead of directly into the mouthpiece.

May we not count on your co-operation in these two important respects? Always speak distinctly, directly into the mouthpiece.

Jekyll and Hyde Mayor MacBride himself in an interview with the press stated that Mr. Simpson was not a member of the Independent Labor Party and never had been. He accused Mr. Simpson playing a game of Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde. "There were a few others like him who were playing the same game," said the Brantford mayor.
"They were attending both conventions. I watched both conventions to see the comedy played out."

"I represent 17,000 people," said the mayor, "and when Mr. Simpson says the other fact in mind. My action was perfectly fair. Opposite Temperance, Near the Arcade---where we've been for years.

Over 200,000 suits and overcoats have been sold in this store alone. Nearly a quarter of a million! Hundreds have been sold by mail. No other store in the Dominion can boast of such a record---.ew in the whole world.

Think of this when you are buying clothes. Think of what that reputation guarantees. Think of the VALUE that built this reputation.

Louise got up at seven and pretended not to mind, bravely trying to overcome her extreme weariness and sleepiness. She had learned to get a quick and appetizing breakfast, and she kept up a smiling front until Harry left. She never missed the little ceremony of standing in the doorway and waving her hand to him as he disappeared around the bend in the road, and he never forgot to look back and wave to her. Sometimes, when she was unusually tired, she would crawl back into bed again and sleep heavily for three or four hours before she even tried to do the routine morning work.

In a home where everything is new and which is only half furnished, the work should not be hard. Nor was it; but the young wife was clumsy. Dishes that should have been whisked out of the way in fifteen minutes took her three times that long. The making of a bed and the putting away of the clothes took her more than half an hour, the straightening and dusting of the rooms almost an hour, And by that time she was tired.

Varsity will take a whole lot of beating in the all-important struggle with McGill upon which the championship virtually depends tomorrow at the stadium. It will be a fast, well-conditioned team that Coach Foulds will trot out upon the field one capable of traveling the full sixty minutes at top clip. Last night in the mud the blue and white had a full line-up with the second team as their opponents and Foulds was more than pleased with the form shown by the team. Several new plays were tried out and if they fool Shag's men as badly as they did the intermediates, the outcome of tomorrow's game will not be hard to forecast. Box and Pearlman showed some splendid tackling, while Breen and Sullivan surprised the rail-birds with their all-round display. Elaborate preparations, in the way of organized rooting, are being made and the bleachers promise to be a blaze of colors. The new parodies should make a big hit. Schatz will not be started, the he will be in uniform. "Bill" Box will take his place at outside wing and the Varsity line-up as announced by Coach Foulds will be as below: Flying wing, Wallace, O'Flaherty or Brown; halves, Sullivan, Breen, Holmes; quarter-back, Dunnan; scrimage, Shocbotham, Birdsall, Montgomery; inside, Beatty; English; middles, Ketly, Redick, State, and Stone, Boyd, Crowther, Reid, Cronk, Young and Silver, for the final practice for the game with the Dons to morrow. Hamilton Spectator: The Tigers are ready for Argos. The Tigers are ready for all emergencies, and any team the Argos bring up will be in for a trimming. The Bengals feel that they have to reverse that score of 30 to 11, made against them in the opening game at Toronto this season, and they are going to do it if tricky football and brawn and muscle count for anything. Ross Craig, Holden, Brown, Shuart and Isbister will do the line-smashing, and the Argos will have to hike to their dugouts when they see that array marching against them. One of the features of the Ottawa rehearsal was the reappearance of Martin Kilt at middle wing and officers of the Ottawa Club announced that he would finish out the season. Martin showed good form and seems determined to put his team back in the running. He predicts a hard game at Montreal Saturday. Doc Davies and Jess Abelson Also returned to the fold.

covery of the advantages of lighthouse construction. In the latter half of the eighteenth century one of the members of a scientific society in Liverpool laid a curious wager. He declared that he would read a newspapeh by the light of a "farthing dip," at a distance of thirty feet. His companion, knowing that the feat was difficult at even a sixth of that distance, challenged his statement.

The scientist merely coated the inside of a shallow wooden box with sloping pieces of looking-glass so as to form a concave lens, put his farthing dip into the box and readily deciphered the small-reprint at the stipulated distance.

The experiment was witnessed by a Liverpool dockmaster. He was a thinking man and saw great possibilities in this learned jest. He straightway adapted the principle to light-house requirements and forthwith the modern reflected light, with its miles of range and greatly multiplied life-saving powers, sprang into being.

Dr. Cody, in reply, said that he had nothing to say on that subject. He thought everybody realized that the province had spoken upon it a week ago. Dr. Cody took for the subject of the leaves the restriction and mission.

People said that when the colonies in the empire were given self-government they would cut the painter. Instead of that, self-government created a great imperialism, and when the test comes—as it came in the late war—the bonds were found to be stronger than steel. KITTY GORDON GIVES GOOD ADVICE TO HER DAUGHTER "It is How You Wear Your Clothes Not Their Cost That Counts."

There's a saying that clothes don't nake the man. Perhaps this same statement holds true with regards to women, but I doubt it. My career on the stage and in pictures has of course been different from that of a great many women and I have always found that good clothes worn stylishly helped me tremendously toward success. So I say to you, Vera, and I can't say it too strongly, wear your clothes stylishly.

Now, I don't mean by this that you must always wear very expensive clothes. Expensive clothes—if you can get them—are a big help to a stylish appearance, of course, but they aren't absolutely necessary. Al-FROM NATURAL CAUSES.

WIDOW LOSES LIFELONG HOME

man loves her home—a home where she she has been a loved wife, where she has reared her children to marriage able age, and where she has nursed her grand children into their healthy teens—was fully demonstrated yesterday at a meeting of the Dominion railway board, when they expropriated the home of Sarah Annie Mahood at Gravenhurst. Mrs. Mahood is a widow and from the first day of her married life has resided and that he had as was natural, the report, and as was natural, the resolutions was 'ust bringing in their report, and as was natural, the various representatives desired to hear it immediately. All would have hear it immediately without pride in himself and their report limits of the impression that he impression that he impression that he impression that he impression man loves her home—a home where Maguire. were born, more trees were planted the floor. the old homestead, the grown trees, the flower-beds and the grass plot remembrance sweet; she also had the black and white recollections—her husband's coffin departing to its last resting place, and, as a relief to the sombre, the happy wedding things of her childen's marriage days.

Those are some of the widow's happy thoughts of the past thoughts and memories which help her to live. Mrs. Mahood's three score years and three are fast approaching, but yet, up to yesterday, she was a happy woman, contented in her home and living on the love of the past. Then after brightness sorrow lurks in the shadow—the shadow in this case being the Grand Trunk Railway, who say they require Mrs. Mahood's life-long ho for railway requirements. Man-made law at one stroke of the pen turned this woman adrift from all her past and compels her to seek pastures new in the setting sun of life. When her case came before the Dominion railway board at the city hall yesterday, Mr. Carvell gave the G.T.R. their order for expropriation despite the pathetic appeals of the widow to leave her her home for the few years she has to live. When Mr. Carvell stated the decision of the board, Mrs. Mahood's fortitude broke down. She rose from her chair, and, in a shrill, hysterical voice, called out: "You are killing me; you are killing me," and fell heavily to the floor in a dead faint. She was carried from the room and rest administered, but so serious was her condition that an ambulance was called and she was conveyed to the home of some friends in the city.

A WORD-PICTURE OF THE AWFUL THING CALLED WAR

You don't know the War until you have read Col. Nasmith's splendid book. You don't know the real valor and grit of the boys who have immortalized the name of CANADA until you follow the author through these

It is no fanciful tale that Col. Nasmith tells, but a wonderful word-picture of the awful thing called WAR as he saw it himself. He tells in detail of every action in which the Canadians figured, from Ypres to Mons, including Festubert, Givenchy, Vimy, Neuve Chapelle, Poperinghe, Ploegsteert, St. Eloi, Hooge, Sanctuary Wood, Lens, Hill 70, Arras, Cambrai, Valenciennes, and other places where the lads from the Dominion made history. To make a connected narrative, the campaigns, battles and important actions on all fronts syncronize with the valorous work of our boys in France and Flanders.

By special arrangement with the publishers, The Toronto World has secured a limited advance edition of this remarkable book, available only to World readers, and at the moderate price of $3.50. The book is not available at any book store and cannot be had through usual sources for some months.

The British government apparently has accepted in principle the responsibility for the destruction of the fleet at Scapa Flow and is willing to guarantee France against any loss from this cause, of warships that might have been awarded to her. While Great Britain and the United States were understood some time ago to have virtually agreed to sink States were understood some time ago to have virtually agreed to sink whatever warships they might receive from Germany, there are indications now that the British view has changed.

The supreme council has assured France that her share of the German warships will not be reduced as the result of the destruction of the Scapa Flow units, for which the German government, and not German officers individually, is to be held responsible.

Right Under Your Job

Your job means your living.

Your wage or salary pays for your food, clothing, housing, amusements and all your daily needs.

So long as Canada is prosperous your job and hundreds of thousands of other fellows' jobs are safe.

You must help keep Canada prosperous.

Your job and Canada's prosperity are inseparable. Since the prosperity of Canada depends on the success of the Victory Loan you must not shirk your duty to the Victory Loan.

All the money subscribed to the Victory Loan is spent in Canada and helps to fill the pay envelope. It circulates and benefits all classes.

The greater, the more overwhelming the success of the loan, the better for Canada and for you.

Buy all the Victory Bonds you can pay for now and during the next ten months.

Last year employers co-operated with their employees by financing their purchases on an easy payment plan, thus enabling them to buy much more than they would otherwise have been able to buy. They will do it again.

police the world. We honestly thought state there were other powers that might take their share."

Lloyd George contended that the speech of the chancellor of the exchequer and the general course of the debate had disposed of the charges against the government of avoidable extravagance. The premier emphasized the lack of agreement that had been developed regarding suggested remedies. It had been further shown, he said, that the sort of "epileptic he said, that the sort of "epilleptic screaming" which had deafened the country's ears could find no echo in a calm assembly like the house

To Strengthen Foch's Hand.
Premier Lloyd George followed

OUT OF LEGAL TANGLE Appeal by Certain Shareholders Will Come Up Next Week.

The Bailey-Cobalt has not yet shaken free of the legal barbed wire entanglements. Yesterday R. S. Robertson, counsel for the liquidators, appeared before Mr. Justice Logie at Osgoode Hall and asked him to affirm the report of Assistant Master-in-Ordinary Roche accepting the offer of A. J. Young for the purchase of the property.

the offer of A. J. Young for the purchase of the property.

H. J. Scott, K.C., counsel for W. H. Davenport, and representing, he said, at least one-half of the shareholders, objected to the motion being heard before the appeal taken by him from the report of the assistant master-in-ordinary. The appeal is due to be heard on Wednesday next. Mr. Scott pointed out that there was from $150,000 to $300,000 involved.

Mr. Robertson declared that the acceptance of the offer was an urgent matter. "I know," said Mr. Justice Logie, "the liquidator's affidavit reads like a chapter from the Book of Job, what has been happening to the mine, the water, and non-payment of wages, and all that; but non-payment of wages, and all that; but I am of the opinion that I should enlarge this to come up with the appeal of Wedge

PRITCHARD TO DIRECT BIG DYKE OPERATIONS

He made an order accordingly.

W. H. Pritchard, a mining contractor with twenty years' experience in the various camps, has been engaged; to resume operations on Big Dyke, where the shaft is to be sunk to the 300-foot level, as recently announced by the directors. Mr. Pritchard has worked in Co-balt, Porcupine, Kirkland Lake and other camps since they were opened, and in earlier ones. He has done work before on Big Dyke, and believes confidently in the future of this Porcupine property. In fact, it has so appealed to his instincts and knowledge as a mining man that he has dropped another contract to start work on Big

New York, Oct. 20.—The curb market closed irregular. The general trend during the day was sluggish with advances here and there thruout the industrial list, but the entire list had a firm undertone after a brief weak period during the midday. There was a small selling wave in the mines and oils.

General Asphalt maintained its gain of the previous day. Indian Technique of the maintained at the second was applied to the second was active, but, after touching 18½, sold off to 17¾, a net loss of ¼. Hunton-Kirkland at 7½ was off half a point. Porcupine Crown advanced 1½ to 27½, and Wasapika remained firm at 12.

General Asphalt maintained its gain of the previous day. Indian Packing and Allied Packers declined slightly. Central Tersa Sugar was the feature, selling up to 12 7-8 at the opening with a reaction to 12 1-8. The stock was brought out a few days ago at $11. U. S. Steamship showed a reactionary tone, selling down to 6-7-8.

Profit-taking developed in Ryan Petroleum and Morton Petroleum, both of which reacted from the high levels reached yesterday afternoon. Home Oil was steady around $17. Livingston closed strong at 2-5-8.

NEW YORK CURB. Hamilton B. Wills, 90 Bay street, rereceived the following closing quotations on the New York Curb stocks yesterday:

N. S. CAR ISSUES SLUMP SHARPLY

Disclosure of Company's Financial Straits Has Pronounced Market Effect.

Decided weakness in National Steel Car issues as an aftermath of the pub-lication of the statemment showing the 7.10 company's financial position to be precarious was an unfavorable influence in the Toronto market yesterday, but stocks in general showed no unsettling effect. Trading was again dull in com-parison with the brisk sessions of a few days ago, and while slightly more than 2900 shares were dealt in, two mining stocks, Nipissing and Trethewey, contributed more than 1400 shares wey, contributed more than 1400 shares of the aggregate.

The opening transaction in N. S. Car common made it evident that over-night consideration of the proposed plan of reorganization had caused it to be viewed with disfavor; or perhaps it would be more correct to say that the financial tangle disclosed was worse than had been surmised. The scheme is offered as an alternative to liquidation and will probably be accepted by shareholders as the lesser evil. However, N. S. Car common, which had sold on Wednesday at 10, opened yesterday at 6 1-2, slumped to 5, equaling the low point in the history of the stock, and rallied to 6, leaving the net loss 1% low point in the history of the stock,
31% and rallied to 6, leaving the net loss
21/4 four points. The preferred stock, which closed on Wednesday at 34 1-4, was not dealt in yesterday, but was offered down to 29 in the afternoon without bids. In recent years the preferred sold as high as 90 and the common as high as 40. The "street" is in doubt as to the manner in which the 19,000 shares in the new company are to be shares in the new company are to be divided between the holders of common and preferred stock, and there is no definite idea as to the amount that will be ultimately realized from the un-profitable contract with the French government, so that the whole outlook is beclouded.

'MUMS" FIGURE LARGELY AT PARIS FLOWER SHOW

Paris, Oct. 30.—The exposition of flowers, an annual serial function, was renewed yesterday with breat distinction, President and Madame Pointing tinction, President and Madame Poincare opening the exposition. Many flowers that bloomed in former days of peace were missing, however, killed, not by war, but lack of coal. Orchids and other delicate flowers requiring tropical heat had been greatly damaged in the chilled hot houses. The robust chrysanthemum, which was alone in weathering with ocmplete success the inclement temperature, was abundant at the exposition. was abundant at the exposition.

Among the new types of these ers which are so conspicuous in the French cemeteries is a magnificent chrysanthemum named "Hill 304," chrysanthemum named "Hill and a blood-red chrysanthem quite an exceptional color. This flower had been named "Verdun," while more common yellow and white blossoms re-call the dead of "the Yser" and

President and Madame Poincare remained at the exposition a long time.

Madame Poincare picked one of the chrysanthemums and pinned it to the breast of a woman in mourning.
