BISHOP POTTER SERIOUSLY ILL. REV. DR. COURTNEY TAKES CHARGE

Ex-Bishop of Nova Scotia is Temporary Head of Episcopal Diocese of New York—Bishop Potter's Illness Alarming.

New York, May 1.—Announcement was made last night that the Right Rev. Henry Codrington Potter, Bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Nova Scotia, is so seriously ill that he has been forced to abandon his participation in the affairs of the church.

For a week Bishop Potter has been confined to a room in his residence at No. 347 West Eighty-ninth street, suffering from the effects of a severe cold, which by his physician and by those who have seen him is admitted to be grave, has been made worse by attacks of stomach and liver trouble.

Bishop Potter is seventy-four years old and until the day his health gave way he insisted on doing as much work as was done by men much younger and stronger. There was a slight improvement in his condition yesterday, but it is believed possible for him to sit on a couch in his room for a short time. He is still very weak, however.

When arrangements for the funeral of the Rev. Morgan Dix, D. D., rector of Trinity Church, were made yesterday, it was reported to the members of the family of Dr. Dix that it would be impossible for Bishop Potter to take part in the services to be held in Trinity Church tomorrow. Bishop Greer, Coadjutor Bishop of this diocese, is to take the place of Bishop Potter at those services.

Equally last night showed that although clergymen close to Bishop Potter and conversant with his condition, his relatives however, his speedy recovery.

Dr. J. E. Janvyn, of No. 191 Madison avenue, Bishop Potter's attending physician, could not conceal his fears. "I hope," said Dr. Janvyn, "that Bishop Potter's condition is not dangerous. I hope the stage of his illness is not critical, and I am glad to be able to say he is better now—a little better than he was three or four days ago."

"I cannot deny, however, that he is very ill. Dr. Potter worked too hard. He seemed to be tireless, but he found a week ago that the same thing which had been working had proved to be too much for his strength. "His breakdown is purely physical. Mentally he is the same capable man he always has been. His physical weakness was brought about by the tremendous amount of work of some trips seeking revenge for being ejected from a train."

"I hope with all my heart that he will recover, but it is useless to deny that he is very ill."

Bishop Potter is so ill that Dr. Frederick Courtney, rector of Trinity Church, and Bishop Cortlandt Whitehead, of Pittsburg, have been called in to assume much of the work which in ordinary circumstances would be attended to by Bishop Potter. Dr. Courtney, who was Bishop of Nova Scotia before he became rector of St. James, has taken over the confirmation classes which Bishop Potter would have taken had he been well. Bishop Whitehead has come from Pittsburg to assist in church work in this diocese.

NEWS FROM FREDERICTON

To Develop Antimony Mines at Lake George, York Co.

Fredericton, N. B., May 2.—(Special.)—The Canadian Antimony Co., which lately purchased the valuable antimony mines at Lake George, York county, has already made preparations for active development of property. Modern mining machinery will be installed and in the course of a few weeks a force of about a hundred men will be employed. Smelters will not be installed at present but will be located at the station room of a line of ten miles where it will be loaded in cars and forwarded to St. John for shipment to England, where a good market is secured. The antimony deposits at Lake George have been pronounced by geologists as being the richest in the world and their development will mean much to that section of the county.

W. J. Jardine, formerly agent of the Bank of Nova Scotia at Liverpool, is secretary-treasurer of the company. He is at present in the city and speaks most hopefully of the company's prospects. He says the company expects to have an output of twenty-five tons of ore per day, the market value of which is about $150 per ton.

The water in the river rose a foot last night and is now up to the ordinary spring freshet mark. A temporary bridge has been constructed on the highway where there are no schooners to discharge coal.

It is reported that several liquor dealers here intend retiring from business as a result of Thursday's vote in the Scott Act election. The city has been in a dry state Thursday and dealers have returned part of their stock to St. John. Several well known suppliers expected of having voted for the Scott Act have found it very difficult to procure liquor since election day. The temperance people are planning an aggressive campaign for Scott Act enforcement.

New York, May 2.—Sixty thousand Roman Catholic laymen marching in a procession this afternoon brought to a climax and formally ended the week long celebration of the centenary of the founding of the Roman Catholic diocese of New York. The parade had been looked forward to as the greatest public event of the week and in every way anticipated was surpassed. No more perfect day could have favored the event. The sky was almost cloudless, the air clear and bracing. Along Fifth avenue and through 57th street, where the line of march led to the splendidly lighted hundreds of thousands

Chief Detective Crivier, of the C. P. R., arrived in the city yesterday, bringing from Montreal a value containing jewelry that had been lost or stolen from a party who was in Montreal for a few days in the course of a tour round the world. Efforts to locate the missing bag had failed when the party left Montreal for this city and followed by the steamers Empress of Ireland. Detective Crivier was put on the case, and he discovered the bag among some trunks in the station room of C. P. R. station at Montreal. He has taken it to the owners just before the steamer left. Needless to say, they were very pleased to receive it again, as it contained valuables worth about $5,000.

THE CHEESAPEAKE'S FLAG. (New York Times.) Acting with the pretty tact for which he is internationally famous, Wm. Waldorf Astor, in the matter of the Chesapeake's flag, has succeeded in finding a way out of the nearly hopeless predicament which would bring upon him the greatest amount of criticism in his abandoned country, and the smallest amount of gratitude in the country of his adoption.

It is our opinion, already stated and explained, that the place for the flag of the Chesapeake is in England. A ship of her name captured it in fair fight in a light, by the way, out of which the Americans, though beaten, won one of their proudest memories and most often told legends—and it should remain until time destroys it or men lose their interest in the symbols and reminders of past achievements in arms, which will not be tomorrow or next day. There preserved, British could look at it with pride and Americans without humiliation, since they, too, have won a few victories at sea.

Bought and brought over here the flag would be an absurdity and an embarrassment for us all, for everybody, especially foreign visitors, would ask how we came by it, and when we replied, "By purchase," the subsequent silence would be voluble indeed.

ANGRY TRAMPS BLOW UP TRAIN

Express on Northern Pacific Blown From the Rails By Vengeful Hoboes.

Butte, Mont., May 2.—Eastbound Burlington train No. 6, was dynamited near the Northern Pacific Station here at 11:37 o'clock last night. The explosion caused the first, or helper engine, to leave the rails but it plowed along for a few hundred feet without turning over. The second engine crashed into the banks a few car lengths from where the explosion occurred and turned over. Every person in the train has been accounted for except Engineer Bury of the second engine, who is supposed to be buried under the locomotive. Carl Mingo, who was riding on the blind baggage, was taken from the mass of timbers under which he was buried. His arms and legs were broken. Express Messenger J. G. Valentine was seriously cut by a flying piece of wood. Sheriff Charles Henderson and the police have begun an investigation of the affair. The dynamiting is believed to be the work of some tramps seeking revenge for being ejected from a train.

MURDERED BY ROBBERS A Wealthy Pawnbroker of Portland, Oregon, Was Shot and Beaten to Death

Wolf was evidently first shot in the neck and then beaten to death. His face and head were hacked to pieces. There is little doubt that robbery was the sole motive for the crime. Wolf carried a large stock of diamonds and believed that the robbers took jewelry and money to the amount of $1700.

JOHN S. POLLOCK MISSING FOR A WEEK

Considerable Mystery Attached to the Disappearance of This Man—The Story Told By His Wife.

Where is John S. Pollock? This is the problem over which Pollock's wife has been breaking her heart and racking her brain for the past seven days and in the solution of which The Evening Times has been asked to assist by the publication of the missing man's picture and such details of his disappearance as may assist in locating him. When last seen by his wife, Pollock was drunk,—she says for the first time in three years. This was about nine o'clock on the evening of Saturday last and since he staggered out of his house at 127 Sydney street, he has not been seen since.

STARVING AND ILL HE SOUGHT ARREST A New York Man Breaks Into Jail Rather Than Die of Hunger.

New York, May 1.—Starving and ill, William Paris, twenty-one years old, of No. 13 Roosevelt street, walked two hours last night hunting for a policeman so that he might commit theft and be arrested, and when at last he succeeded in forcing himself into custody, he fell unconscious from exhaustion. He told police a pathetic story. "I had not worked for three weeks," he said, "because I could not find anything to do. Four days ago the last cent I could raise by pawning clothes went for food. Last evening I started out to get myself locked up for I knew if I was arrested I would get something to eat. I walked all the way from Fourteenth street to 109th street, before I found a policeman. I wanted to steal when a policeman was so near there would be no doubt about my getting arrested."

HAD NARROW ESCAPE A fireman of the C. P. R. steamer Montfort had a narrow escape from drowning at 9 o'clock this morning.

He was sliding bags of ashes from the steamer to the wharf when he fell between the steamer and the wharf, a distance of 60 or 70 feet. He had gone down twice, when one of the ship's carpenters heard his cries, and it was with great difficulty he was gotten out.

The case of Arthur London, charged with assaulting William Hood, came up for hearing in the police court this morning and was postponed till Monday on account of the absence of two witnesses. The affair is the aftermath of a dog fight.

For Pollock's arrest on a charge of assaulting his wife and the police officers said that the couple had not always been in harmony.

Whether the police story or the story of the woman herself is the correct one, the facts remain that Pollock has been missing for a week and his wife is very anxious about him. Mrs. Pollock who is in delicate health is being cared for by friends at No. 5 St. David's street.

THE LONELY GUARD,

NORMAN INNES.

"Let us go," said she, striking her foot against the stone—then she stepped suddenly with my nerves. "Just as I climb the stair ones more?" "Deep in the heart of the rock it seemed that I was but the further from liberty, from the outer world where the smile of dawn would soon be breaking.

"Sway, you steps lead but to the Red Hall. "We would show these another stair." To a rugged wall rising sheer twenty feet upon the opposite side of the cavern, till sight failed in theinky vault, they led me.

"See here," said she, holding the lantern aloft. I gazed blankly at the rock face half-expecting to see a magic portal open of itself in the limestone, and as I looked became aware of certain niches, deep-chiselled on the uneven surface, some three feet apart and rising vertically.

"In one of these," she said, "I will not fall thee, if thou dost follow my warning. Ever keep to the lower track when the path divides. Do this and thou canst not err, for a truth the difficulty of the way lies in its ascent."

"I peddled with teeth a-chatter. "It will bring thee to within a few feet of the river's bed. Hence make grey when you reach it. Follow the path and one will meet thee with a sword and set thee on a track running northward of our cousin's estates, which will bring thee upon the highway to Vienna. Pistols and a sword, this guide will give thee. Here for thou must need it, is a purse."

"This latter I refused—I had still some pieces about me, sufficient for the journey, but in the matter of the weapons, I could but acknowledge the Countess' forthright.

Honour lit the way to freedom, yet false honour would have swayed my heart and held me prisoner. "But what of yet?" I asked. "How will it fare with you when I am gone?" "Why," rejoined the elder Countess, "we shall buoy ourselves with hope, with our trust in those who have left Roha that they might aid us the better, in Leon de Portugas and thee."

She spoke almost gaily and stepping back some paces toward the centre of the chamber, held the lantern on high, adding— "And then we set forth in air, at once. Thou wilt be discovered if sunrise should find thee upon the castle rock."

"I turned to her sister. Now she hung her head and her fingers were fretting nervously at the lace about her wrists. With a stealthy upward glance, her eyes met mine, nor did she wait for the question that had risen to my lips.

"And I, Alan Lesly," she faltered, "will hope also, ay, and will trust, but oh my heart will be sick till thou comest again."

As the echo caught up the sorrow on her voice, I knew whither my eye lay. "Canst thou see the steps?" the elder sister cried, withdrawing yet further from us to throw the light upon the ladder.

I heeded her not, with my hand upon the rocky wall I lingered, whispering to Elan, who stood close by my shoulder, and by Echo that hovered above, an answer for me alone. Up those deepest stairs I clambered, proud by that answer that within my mind I had controlled in the moment of my weakness would have swallowed me till the letters' glare grew faint beneath. Before me was the fissure and into it I scrambled, cutting hands and knees on the jagged stones. For a moment I looked backwards, downward at the woman, the one with fair face upturned to the other weeping yet, and the voice of her that gazed upward came ringing through the gloom.

A scramble, a short drop, and I was knee-deep in the Rhonau with the castle towering above me and a light mist shrouding the mountains on the further bank. Wading through the stream I noticed the water from my boots and stepped out briskly in the direction of the path that led to Kels. Above the eastern mountains the night was lifting as I reached the Thaler of the woods and hung myself upon the ground to wait for dawn.

TO PREVENT A NERVOUS BREAKDOWN

Take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills When the First Symptoms Are Noticed and Save Yourself Much Suffering.

Are you troubled with pallor, loss of spirits, waves of heat passing over the body, shortness of breath after slight exertion, a peculiar skipping of the heart beat, poor digestion, cold hands or feet, or a feeling of weight and fullness? Do not make the mistake of thinking that these are diseases in themselves and are satisfied with relief for the time being. This is the way that the nerves give warning that they are breaking down. It means that the blood has become impure and thin and cannot carry enough nourishment to the nerves to keep them healthy and able to do their work.

ROOSEVELT TALKS TO THE WORKING WOMEN

Washington, D. C., May 1.—President Roosevelt expressed his views regarding working women's clubs today in addressing six hundred New England women who make their own living and who are in Washington sight-seeing.

"It is a very real pleasure to greet you today. I often meet delegations here in the East Room of the White House; all of them I am very glad to see, and I can say with entire truth that there is no one that comes here which I could be more pleased to see than this. I would not be it to hold the position that I do hold, I would not be a good American if I did not take a peculiar interest in exactly the kind of club which is represented here today."

"I think it is highly typical of our people that we should be able to get together in organizations for social and intellectual betterment; and interested though I am in such organizations of men, I am even more interested when they are managed by women and particularly working women, working girls. If I were asked to point out what, in my judgment was the fundamental difference in our favor was the different attitude taken here toward women; the greater chance that woman has for combining with a life of duty the chance of self-improvement."

LID IS ON TIGHT IN FREDERICTON

Even Some of the Beer Shops Have Been Closed Down—Speculation as to What Will be Done.

(Fredericton Gleaner.) There is considerable speculation about the city today as to what will be done in the way of enforcing the Scott Act in accordance with the pre-election promises of the Scott Act committee. One of those connected with the Scott Act committee this morning stated that before any very serious steps were taken he felt that the dealers should be notified so that they might have a chance to close up if they wished to do so. Last night things were pretty dry about town. Those who were able to get a drink were the chosen few only. Even some of the beer shops closed down during the evening on the sale of lager beer. Heretofore lager beer manufactured in St. John has been sold freely in most of the beer shops of the city but it is now said that those prosecuting the Scott Act will turn their attention to the beer shops and make them stop selling the lager beer at least and possibly samples of the hop beer may be sent to the analyst at St. John to find out what percentage of alcohol, if any, it contains. It was stated this morning by one of the authority that an application would likely be made at an early date for the creation of the position of chief of the police of the city and that if successful in getting that done the Scott Act people would ask for the appointment of a man as chief of police who would see that the Scott Act is thoroughly enforced. Whether the Scott Act people will ask the City Council to employ an inspector is not known. It is said that an offer was made today by a member of the Scott Act committee to have pending cases called off if the defendants would close up. The lid is on pretty tight today and here is little open selling being done. It is also said that some of those engaged in the trade will close their establishments for a time at least.

RETIREES FROM ACTIVE SERVICE.

New York, May 1.—Gideon W. Young, who for forty-six years has compiled ship news for the Merchants' Exchange and News Rooms and its successor, the Maritime Association of the Port of New York, has retired from active service. Mr. Young entered the employ of the Merchants' Exchange and News Rooms in Boston, Mass., when twenty-four years old, where he remained for three years. He came to New York in May, 1862, at the solicitation of the late John C. Smith, who was establishing a News Room at Nos. 59 and 52 Pine street, which was opened in the following July. Mr. Young was connected with an exceedingly retentive memory in respect of the names of masters, vessels and voyages, on which he was an authority. In 1869 the New York "Maritime Register" was issued under the firm name of Smith, Young and Co. Mr. Young severed his connection with the journal in 1878. He was well and favorably known to both the old and younger members of the Maritime Association in his long service. Mr. Young will take up his residence at the family homestead at Scituate.

BIG SHOE FIRM ASSIGNS.

Boston, Mass., May 1.—The Knott & Pope Company, boot and shoe manufacturers, 104 Lincoln street, this city, and Hudson, has assigned to Benjamin H. Johnson, a Boston attorney, according to Mr. Johnson owes $200,000. The assets are estimated at between $100,000 and $150,000. Mr. Johnson said that the assignment was made to him as the representative of creditors holding claims to the amount of more than half the liabilities. The product of the firm was heavy shoes.

Halifax, May 1.—The steamer Empress of Britain, from Quebec for Liverpool on May 15th will call at North Sydney for mail and passengers, and the Empress of Ireland from Liverpool, the same date for Quebec, will also call at North Sydney.

PLAYS AND PLAYERS

BEAUTIFUL STAGE EFFECTS

One of the items of interest, and one which helped greatly to give Kirk Brown the reputation he has amongst local theatre goers was the great care and attention he gave to the staging of his plays during his first engagement in St. John three seasons ago. From the opening to the closing play the stage settings were a feature that surprised many. Mr. Brown has added some new features in the way of property effects that promise to make his two week engagement one long to be remembered. The opening performance of "Raffles, the Amateur Crackman," Monday, has a first act setting that is a creation of art in stage craft. This play will be repeated Tuesday evening with "The Eternal City," Wednesday and Thursday evenings. Sarah Bernhardt's version of "Camille," Wednesday matinee, "By Right of Sword" Friday and Saturday evenings, and "The Christian" Saturday matinee.

THE HARDER-HALL CO. terminates its engagement here tonight. One which has been pleasant alike to the members of the company and the audience. It is seldom an entirely new company has been as successful in "making good" with St. John theatregoers, loyal as they are to old favorites and discriminating in selecting new ones. The excellence of the performances given by the Harder-Hall Stock Co. however, explains this. The Bruce Buster, repeated in response to a general desire at the matinee, and Kidnapped by Moonshiners at night, are the last plays. The latter is an excellent play and, in the hands of this company, furnishes an excellent evening's entertainment. The usual excellent specialties will be given in profusion, including those by the Misses Carlsson, Billy Allen and Louis Bright. Also in a new act during Kidnapped by Moonshiners.

THE HARDER-HALL CO. GREAT PICTURE SHOW

It is doubtful if many St. John children will ever in their lives visit the far-northern land of Sweden, but today at the Nickel's big bargain matinee they will be transported to the loveliest spots in this country—the waterfalls, the torrents, the cutting villas and fishing resorts. It is a liberal education, this photographic travelling at the Nickel. Furthermore, there will be a historical reminiscence of the American civil war—the Escape from Libby prison, and several other fine views. Two merry songs. Matron and aile men to care for the little ones. Last evening the big comfortable theatre was crowded to capacity all the time. Tonight the Swedish pictures will be shipped to Halifax.

UNION OF MARITIME PROVINCES

BY "Bluenose"—No. 1.

No. 1. Preliminary Remarks. The question of maritime union is being discussed in some decisive manner by the electorate. The time is opportune for the campaign. Union is worth discussing and the more so, as it may be years before the consummation of any form of union, but that events are leading in that direction there is not the shadow of a doubt. Many political thinkers in this part of the Dominion are beginning to realize that the three provinces of Nova Scotia, New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island would be today a far greater force in federal politics and in the development of Canadian nationality, were they united and fighting shoulder to shoulder for what they are justly entitled to as partners in the confederation. Western Canada's growth is stupendous compared with that of Eastern Canada. If things go on as they are going now, think what position the maritime provinces will occupy in ten, fifteen or twenty years' time. Where will our influence be in the councils of the nation? Our isolation now would ensure a larger influence, increased power and might to the maritime provinces. Looking from the standpoint of the man from these provinces, this would counterbalance to some extent the preponderating and increasing influence of the western provinces. Then there is the practical result of such a change; the strengthening of bonds of national interest. There would be a fuller national life, a widening of national thought, a reciprocity of rights and obligations, a feeling of increased national solidarity. Then again, the great economy of administration effected by a union; by the abolishing of three existing governments and the substitution of one in their places. Another benefit of inestimable value would be the resulting uniformity of administrative system and laws; one system of education; one judicial system; uniform legislation respecting railways, mines, timber, taxation, crown lands, immigration, agriculture and so on. There would be an increased strength. The strength of the one new province would be greater than the sum total of all three standing each by itself. Consider how far our provincial revenues and Dominion subsidies would go. With union would come the obliteration of sectional jealousies, the elimination of petty discords, and the harmony of all communities. With the feeling of greater strength and the necessity for co-operation would come increased prosperity, and the promotion of the best interests of the people of those provinces. Union would tend to foster such a feeling of self-reliance as would effectually outweigh any disadvantages.

BIG GOLD STRIKE REPORTED.

Spokane, Wash., May 1.—Miners working on prospects in the four mile district near Orogrande, Ida., south-east of Spokane, uncovered a ledge of rich gold ore at a depth of 50 feet. The find has caused prospectors and miners from the various districts on the Clearwater river to rush into the new camp. The discovery was made by John Howard and Jack Leckey, who have been working on the ground for several months. The ledge is 14 feet wide, and C. P. Leach, a mining engineer and expert associated with Frederick W. Burridge of Spokane, in locating claims, says the ore above gold to the naked eye and that the discovery is the most important yet made in the Bitter Root mountain range. Mr. Leach and his associate partner have located a number of claims adjoining the property where the find was made, and the camp, believed by many to be the new El Dorado, will be active with gold hunters.

FATHER AND SON WED SAME DAY.

Williamsport, Pa., May 1.—A father and son were bridegrooms today. L. E. Eisenworth, of this city, was married at Danville to Mrs. Mary Rorer, while his son, George Eisenworth, was married to Miss Emma Bertin, at St. Boniface's church, in this city. To make the circumstances more unusual, it is the third time the senior Eisenworth was married and the second time for the son.

The city coroner had in a few days call for tenders for the erection of the new band stand over the fountain in King square. Some changes have been made by F. Neil Brodie, the architect, in the original plans. The columns will be inside the band. At the request of the city directors the structure will be fourteen instead of twelve feet above the ground. Some minor changes will also be necessary in the shape of the dome.

MARITIME UNION The Times today prints the first of a series of articles from the pen of a well-known citizen of the maritime provinces on the subject of maritime union. This is a question that has been considered from time to time in a desultory fashion, and has been the subject of occasional resolutions by the maritime board of trade and other organizations.

AN IMPORTANT MATTER The annual report of the board of trade, referring to the proposed scheme of harbor improvements, says: "The harbor committee has gone about as far as it can for the present in preparing a scheme to lay before the Dominion government. It found it necessary to engage the services of an expert to ascertain from the city's books the value of the land and wharf properties held by the city and private interests which it would be necessary to have before any proposition could be placed before the government."

AN ONTARIO INSTANCE Toronto News tells of a progressive adopted by the government of Ontario, which is called New Ontario, which policy is to encourage that great region.

THE BAR AN ISSUE The abolition of the bar-room is to be made an issue in the Ontario provincial elections. A manifesto has been issued by the Ontario branch of the Dominion Alliance, of which Mr. Joseph Wilson, who so effectively championed the Scott Act in Fredericton last week is president.

and Northern Ontario Railway into the wilderness has opened up extensive areas of country which are reputed to be well adapted to agriculture. These fertile tracts have been surveyed off into ranges of townships, stretching along either side of the Provincial railway. The next question is: How are agriculturists to be attracted into it? It is not enough that the railway is making a handsome profit as a carrier of ore and timber. An even greater traffic may be developed by peopling the country with farmers capable of developing its agricultural resources.

"That the farm is 400 miles north of Toronto is indicative of the large extent of this Province and of the hitherto unappreciated possibilities of the far north. If farming can be successfully carried on in that latitude, the clay belt of 16,000,000 acres some distance to the west will become the home of a populous and wealthy agricultural community. One hundred acres of the Demonstration Farm have been cleared of timber this winter, and it is proposed at once to erect such simple buildings as the pioneer settler requires in that region. A practical farmer is then to be put on the place to prove the capabilities of the country.

Mr. Robinson acquitted himself well yesterday, as leader of the opposition in the legislature. A vigorous but reasonable opposition will be of benefit to the province. No doubt pressure will be brought with increasing persistence upon the government to serve the ends of one or another individual or group of persons at some cost to the province, and it will be well to have an alert and capable opposition as a check upon demands of doubtful value to the public.

The lockout in the British shipyards is a very serious matter. It involves a quarter of a million men. In Canada there are labor troubles also, the most serious at present being the builders' strike in Montreal. The threatened trouble on the C. P. R. would if materialized be still more formidable. This is not a good year for strikes.

DEATH WAS DUE TO A CRIMINAL OPERATION

The inquest into the death of Abbie Weatherly, who died in the General Public Hospital, April 1, was concluded last night by Coroner Berryman. The jury were only out a few minutes and returned with a verdict that the cause of death was septicemia, brought on by a criminal operation. Four witnesses were examined and William Rudd was recalled. At one stage of the proceedings his honor said there appeared to be on the part of all the witnesses a feeling of hesitancy as if they were afraid of injuring someone. Alfred Lake, Mrs. Stephen Lake, Percy Weatherly and Edmund Lake were examined.

SIR THOMAS CRITICIZED

Montreal, May 1. (Special).—London cable says Mr. Ambrose, M. P., criticizes Sir Thomas Shaughnessy's references to the Blackfoot Bay scheme. He says Sir Thomas has been told repeatedly that it is intended to take passengers direct from London to Blackfoot without transhipment. The Financial News interviewed Sir Thomas Shaughnessy who was cheerfully optimistic to the interviewer. He states that he came away with an entire lack of intellectual sympathy with any person who raises a single doubt regarding the raising of the position Canada is destined to occupy amongst the nations of the world.

WILL GO AFTER DAMAGES

Riparian owners at Loch Lomond are making application to the legislature for the passing of an act to provide that the city shall pay for any damages caused by the raising of the water in the lake in connection with the water extension. There are a number of farms on the banks of the lake having intervals attached which intervals, it is claimed, are the most valuable properties of that section and these the owners claim have been seriously injured by the raising of the water. Among the property owners interested are John Sherwood, Mrs. Elizabeth Johnson, Alexander Johnson, R. G. Murray, Malcolm and David White, who were tenants of the Murray property for a time, and others.

THE ICE MOVEMENT

Halifax, N. S., May 3. (Special).—A wireless message from Cape Ray to Sydney says that big fields of ice are moving along the south coast of Newfoundland, and if the present westerly wind prevails the shores of Cape Breton will not be visited by the fogs this season. The St. Lawrence is clear of ice all the way to Quebec, and several big steamers have passed up the river for river ports. No outgoing vessels have so far been sighted. Nothing further has been heard of the wreck of the steamer Norwood, the ship that went down off Grand Banks Monday afternoon, and it is not known whether the crew has been landed at any port on the island.

A MAN OF PEACE NO SWORD FOR HIM

John D. Rockefeller Refuses to Buy Ancient Relic of Cromwell's "Ironside" Troopers.

New York, May 1.—John D. Rockefeller refused to buy for $500 a sword sent him by a young woman in England with the information that the weapon was carried by a soldier in Cromwell's famous "Ironside" troopers and had been buried one hundred and fifty years near a church. The writer said the sword was dug up one hundred and fifty years ago. The ancient relic didn't appeal to Mr. Rockefeller, who declined it yesterday with the remark: "I am a man of peace and have no use for a sword."

FINANCIER GETS A CHALLENGE TO DUEL

New Orleans, La., May 1.—As a result of a statement he made concerning the testimony of a witness before the Port Investigating Commission, Matthew J. Sanders, a prominent banker and business man of this city, today received a challenge to fight a duel. The witness was J. B. Honor, a contracting stevedore, who is also well known in business circles. Mr. Honor told the commission that as manager here of the Leyland Steamship line, Mr. Sanders had stirred up all kinds of trouble between white and negro laborers on the river front. Then Mr. Sanders gave out his testimony, declaring Mr. Honor's testimony to be "ignorant rubbish." A challenge from Mr. Honor followed.

HONDURAS AND GUATEMALA

Honduras and Guatemala. Panama, May 1.—It is reported that Honduras is concentrating her forces on the Guatemala frontier. Passengers who have arrived here recently from Guatemala say that a revolution was being planned against the Honduran government by General Domingo Vasquez, ex-president of Honduras, who is supposed to have the support of Guatemala. This, they say, was the reason why Senor Bustillo, finance minister of Honduras, was sent on a special confidential mission to President Cabrera of Guatemala. This, they say, was the reason why Senor Bustillo, practically imprisoned him in Guatemala City. The situation in Guatemala is reported to be exceedingly critical. McGRAW AND McGANN MIX IT

The Giant Manager and Former 1st Baseman Exchange Blows.

Boston, Mass., May 1.—The ill feeling between two former members of the New York Giants and Manager McGraw came to a head in an encounter between McGraw and Dan McGann, the former captain of the team, at the Copley Square Hotel, where the Giants are stopping. Only a few blows were struck, and the men were separated immediately by New York players before much harm was done. After breakfast this morning, McGann was asked to leave the Copley Square, where he had been stopping for a week. The bad blood between McGann and McGraw dates from the time that the former was traded to the Boston club. Yesterday afternoon McGann batted in the ninth inning for the Boston pitcher and hit into a double play that ended the game. McGraw gloated over the fact that McGann was too slow to avoid the double play, and this enraged the Knickerbocker. When McGraw returned from the theatre about midnight McGann was pacing the hotel corridor vowing vengeance on his former manager. McGraw paid little attention to these threats and went down stairs for a game of billiards with Matthews. McGann followed them. He was held back by Matthews, who told McGann to fight him this morning. McGann must have some exercise. McGann refused to quarrel with Matty, but a little later he rubbed at McGraw and they engaged in a fight. McGann and McGraw and several players were seated in the lobby a few minutes ago when McGann rushed up behind the manager. McGraw saw a blow coming and dodged, getting a hand on McGann's arm. The scuffle that followed McGraw's hat was broken, but the players quickly pinned the belligerents apart, and finally induced McGann to go to his room. McGraw and McGann met this morning again, but paid no attention to each other. It is generally believed that there will be any further trouble.

GANS AND NELSON NEXT Arrangements For a 45 Round Bout Made.

San Francisco, May 1.—Another meeting between Joe Gans and Battling Nelson was assured Tuesday when Willis Britt, manager of the Dane, agreed to the terms laid down by the champion for a 45 round go. He only stipulated that the $5,000 Nelson is required to post should be covered by Gans at approximately the odds prevailing in the betting a few days before the bout. Gans agreed to this, under certain restrictions. Nelson's $5,000 is in the hands of Tom Corbett and Gans has named odds which he will not exceed. Nelson does not intend to consider any offer of twenty rounds with Gans. Stanley Ketchel and Jack (Twin) Sullivan clash May 9, at 35 rounds in Jimmy Coffroth's arena. Joe Grim, the "human punching bag," is to meet Al Kaufman in six rounds May 12. The Joe Gans-Rudolph Umholz affair will be pulled off May 14 at 20 rounds. Umholz today stated that he thought Joe Gans had gone back, and many bettors here are taking the Umholz end of the theory that Gans' advancing years have cost him his punch. Gans is 30 years old, although he claims fewer winters. Some little betting has been reported, with Ketchel's strong favorite over Sullivan. Gans has received some play as a top-heavy favorite over Umholz. No wagers of any moment are known, however, although there is a fair play of bets ranging from $10 to $100. TELS OP. 450,000 RACE.

AMATEUR STATUS CLEARLY DEFINED

Frank White, secretary of the Amateur Athletic Federation of Canada, has received a communication from C. A. Springs, secretary-treasurer of that body, setting forth the full meaning of the amateur as defined by the federation. In view of the approaching trials for the Olympic games in London the letter, which is addressed to all athletes in Canada, is very timely. Following is a copy of the letter: To All Athletes Throughout the Dominion of Canada. Owing to the fact that so many athletes have an improper idea of the full meaning of the amateur definition, as contained in the by-laws of the Amateur Athletic Federation of Canada, it is thought that a full explanation of what constitutes an infringement of same by the athlete would not be amiss at the present time.

At a meeting of the Athletic Federation at Montreal, recently, the directors said in their report: "We have to record three new world and one Canadian record established in various athletic meets held under the sanction of the Federation."

TO PLAY BALL IN HAMILTON.

The Finnanore brothers, George and Arthur, left Fredericton Thursday evening to join the International Baseball League team in that city. Fred Paige, who managed the Bangor, Me., team last year, is in charge at Hamilton and he well knows the ability of the Finnanore as George played in the Bangor team and Arthur played with teams in the Maine and Anrook League last season. George Finnanore will likely play second base or short stop while Arthur will probably play in the outfield and be the substitute catcher.

CLEVELAND, O., April 30.—The trotting champion Lou Dillon, 1344, foaled a filly, by John A. McKerron, 2046, today. The youngster is without a spot or mark, and said to be in perfect condition. C. K. G. Billings, the owner of the trotter, said Lou Dillon would not be trotted this season and probably never again. The McKerron is owned by H. K. Devereaux.

EVERY DAY CLUB AND BASE-BALL PLAYERS

The Evening Times Globe the Every Day Club is changed with holding up the Amateur Base Ball League. Will you permit me to state the facts? The Marathon base ball team made the Every Day Club a proposition which the club was prepared to accept if satisfactory arrangements as to percentages, length of season, etc., could be made, and, if the contract were entered into by the whole league. The league declined to do so, and made a new proposition, offering $200 cash and ten per cent. on Saturdays and twenty per cent. on holidays, in return for absolute control of the grounds four nights per week, and the use of them Sunday afternoons and holidays. The club was asked to repair and maintain the fences and grounds, repair the pavilion and provide five lockers, provide more grandstand and cover the same and have a man always in charge. To pay the rent and do what the league asked would cost the club, in money and labor, not less than $700 to $800. In return it would get $200, a problematical percentage, and the use of the grounds two nights per week (if it did not rain). The season was to last from May 1st to October 1st.

This proposition the club promptly turned down. Its members are working men, ready and willing to advance the interests of amateur sport by subscribing funds and working on the grounds. They would be glad to have the sympathy and would certainly not reject the aid of the base ball players.

MANAGER STALLINGS OF TIGERS REINSTATED.

Newark, May 1.—President Pat Powers, of the Eastern League, lifted the suspension from Manager George T. Stallings, of the Tigers, on Wednesday. Stallings, who has been excluded from the bench for the past five days for his trouble with Empire Sullivan, was back on the field yesterday, and coached the Tigers from the bench. The suspension of Stallings did not carry any fine with it. In the notification of the Tiger manager

A ROAST FOR JEROME

New York Settlement Worker Ridicules the Thaw and Nan Patterson Trials.

Cincinnati, May 1.—Miss Graham Crozier, who has spent ten years at settlement work in New York City, addressed about two hundred women and one man of the Twentieth Century Club here. District Attorney William Travers Jerome was criticised severely by Mae Crozier in her lecture on "Nan Patterson and the Thaw Trials." "Permeone," she said, "is the wrong man in the wrong place. To use a vulgar expression, he talks through his hat. He is hopelessly in love with the pronoun 'I.' He is troubled with giddy emotion. Jerome spends all of his time trying to get his name in the papers." She blamed Jerome for the sensational nature of the trial, and for the "short shrift" while the "silk stockings" always get the best of it. She noted the Patterson and the Thaw trials as farcical vanderlides, which she said the New York people enjoyed largely, but it cost them many thousands of dollars. "During the Patterson and Thaw trials," said Miss Crozier, "the people of New York were seized with emotional hysteria. Nan Patterson, though she was better known in the Tenderloin and at the races, was the only 'man' in the whole trial. It was disgusting to a well balanced observer to sit in the courtroom and watch grandstand plays and prolong the trial for the purpose of getting money out of a poor, heartbroken old mother. The case was passed giving the state authority to fix the compensation of attorneys in such cases as these." Miss Crozier recommended that the District Attorney be given to some reputable corporation lawyer who would administer justice to all classes. Miss Crozier promised she would tell the women some more things about Jerome at the next meeting of the club.

IRON TRADE DEPRESSED IN THE UNITED STATES

Under Selling Keeps on and the Situation is Not Satisfactory.

New York, April 30.—The success of the Pennsylvania Railroad financing, even when allowed for exaggerated subscription statistics, has given much encouragement to the iron trade. It is regarded with other similar recent transactions as the first tangible proof of returning confidence, and as such indicates that more extended buying of materials and supplies by the railways will be soon followed. Leaders in the industry, however, utter the warning that it may take a month or two before the effect is felt in the steel trade. The iron industry is facing problems of its own. The continued pressure to sell pig iron, notably in the Central West, which is the principal battleground of the western and southern producers, is creating a serious situation. The proposal made and withdrawn two weeks ago to put Southern Foundry iron squarely down to $10 at Birmingham No. 2 indicates the attitude of some important interests, and has had its effect upon weakening the market further. As a meeting at that time it was understood that, if developments called for it, there would be a further meeting on the part of the iron and steel associations and other committees has been called for May 7, and in the interval the majority of the furnace co-operatives are holding to the prices agreed, and are selling very little. What iron is being marketed is at lower prices, and the conviction is growing that prices will drift to the point fixed as likely to check the decline, and prepare a sturdy buying movement. As a matter of fact reports are current even now that $10.25 at Birmingham has been done for a 10,000 ton lot of pipe iron. Bessemer pig has sold in moderate quantities at $10.75 delivered, at Pittsburgh, and low figures have been made on basic pig. The significance of these developments in the pig market is that they may react upon prices of finished iron and steel, since, with cheap scrap metal, they offer inducements to smaller steel plants and rolling mills. Aside from one lot of 14,000 tons which is expected will be placed at an early date, there is nothing doing in the rail trade and the plate trade is particularly quiet.

TORONTO ALSO CUTS LICENSES

Toronto, May 1.—The Toronto License Commissioners have issued 140 hotel licenses out of a possible 150, and 49 shop licenses, out of a possible 50. Four hotels are out altogether, the principal one cut off being that of Ernest McConkey, the well-known King street restaurateur. Alexander Nelson, of the Rossin House, is given three months to sell out. A new license is granted to Fred Moscop for a hotel on Yonge street.

Dr. F. H. Dickie Removes to 88 King Street.

Owing to the phenomenal success attained by Dr. Dickie, proprietor of the Guarantee Dental Rooms in his efforts to give patients the expert dentistry at prices within the reach of all, for which his office is noted all over Canada, he has been obliged on account of increasing patronage, to remove from 16 Charlotte street to more spacious apartments, situated at 88 King street, over McCann's book store. Dr. Dickie was the first to reduce the price of dentistry in St. John, and the regular set of teeth that other dentists are charging $15 for he is making for $5, and guaranteeing them for ten years. This opportunity should not be missed by those contemplating artificial teeth. Expert crown and bridge work is one of his specialties, and for the painless extraction of teeth, with no bad after effects, this office is without a competitor. Call or write and get one of his booklets, explaining work and prices. Consultation and examination in this office is free.—Adv.

WHERE LONGBOAT FAILED.

Toronto, April 30.—Another attempt will be made by four runners on May 11th to make the 47-mile run from Hamilton to Toronto in an effort to break the record of 7 hours and 20 minutes set by Claude Pearce on January 23rd last. The entries are Sandy Bigley, of the R. C. B. C.; Nelson Boylen, West End; M. C. A.; W. J. Melody, of Hamilton; Frank Murphy, I. C. A. A. The four will start together and will be accompanied by the trustees of the Mulgreen trophy.

Chief Justice Becker and Judge Hamilton and Landry came down from Fredericton yesterday.

Suffered 20 Years

"Fruit-a-lives" Cured in 2 Months.

St. Raphael's, Ont. For over twenty years I suffered from Chronic Constipation of the bowels, and I could get no medicine to cure me. I tried doctors and every known purgative, or laxative, medicine known but I was no better. Sometimes, if I did not take medicine, I would go four or five days, without any action of the bowels. During all this time I was weak and suffered from indigestion constantly. About a year ago a friend advised me to try "Fruit-a-lives" as they had helped her. I began taking "Fruit-a-lives" and from the outset I began to feel better, and inside of a month the pains were almost gone and the Constipation relieved. In two months I was perfectly well again, no pains, no constipation, and my complexion had lost all that sallow appearance.

(Sgd) MARY A. McDONELL. "Fruit-a-lives" or Fruit Liver Tablets are the only remedy known to science that actually cures Constipation. They do this by making the liver healthy and active—thus causing more bile to flow into the bowels. "Fruit-a-lives"—or "Fruit Liver Tablets" are sold by dealers at 50c a box—6 for $2.50—or will be sent on receipt of price. Fruit-a-lives Limited, Ottawa.

BIG BOSTON FAILURE

Wm. A. Stetson, Leather Dealer, Fails for $3,000,000

Boston, May 1.—Wm. A. Stetson, one of the best known leather dealers in the United States, was petitioned into bankruptcy by his creditors in the United States district court here today. Included with Mr. Stetson in the proceedings were three companies in which he had the controlling interest, namely The Fort Morocco Company, of Wilmington, Del., of which he was president; The Boston Chrome Leather Company, of which he was secretary; and the Wm. A. Stetson Company, of Boston, of which he was president. According to Jos. W. Lund, attorney for the creditors, the liabilities of Mr. Stetson and his three companies are approximately $3,000,000, of which $1,000,000 is secured. The assets are estimated at $1,200,000. It was stated in court that Mr. Stetson and the various officers of his companies had admitted in writing inability to meet their obligations and had expressed willingness to be adjudged bankrupt. The Boston Chrome Leather Company went out of business about six months ago, since which time the affairs of the concern have been managed by the Wm. A. Stetson Company. Practically all of the petitioning creditors are leather dealers of this city. A number of the employees of the Stetsons Saw Co. were at the depot last evening when the train for Montreal, to bid farewell to Louis LaChaine, former president of the shingle saw department, who has been transferred to a similar position at the factory in Montreal. His many friends regret his leaving the city. His place will be filled by J. W. Bennet, a St. John boy, who has been transferred here from Montreal. It is announced that John P. Patterson, manager of the Sun, is about to leave the city. Mr. Patterson, who is a Toronto man, has suffered much from rheumatism of late and finds a change of climate necessary. He has made many friends during his short stay in St. John and his going will be regretted. Mr. Patterson is an experienced newspaper man and his associates will miss his services.

JUDGE RITCHIE SHOWS SAMPLES

Old Time Drunks in Police Court Held Up as a Warning to Younger Inebriates.

The presence in the police court this morning of two old timers, John Magee and Timothy Burke, and two comparatively new comers was taken advantage of by Judge Ritchie as an illustration of the beginning and the end or before and after the drink habit. Magee had been arrested between 2 and 3 o'clock this morning by Patrolman Charles H. Marshall for being drunk on St. Patrick street and Burke by Patrolmen Bowers and Ward for 4th street west.

Wm. Barker and George Patterson were gathered in by Patrolmen McNamee and Ross on Sydney street between 10 and 11 o'clock last night. Burke pleaded not guilty and upbraided Patrolman Ward for arresting him.

"If the officer had not testified against you at all I would know that you had been drunk," said His Honor "just to look at you is enough."

"Well I have been in jail," protested Burke. "Yes but look at that nose and your eyes, why I have seen you on the street, when you were a disgrace to the community now just look at him," continued Judge Ritchie addressing Barker and Patterson as Burke sat down on the bench beside them, "and see what you are coming to."

His Honor told Burke that he would remand him and it was likely that he would send him to jail for six months. As Barker came forward he was reminded that his age was given as 19, this he, however, denied. He denied that he was drunk when arrested "well you walked all over my feet" observed Patrolman Ross and now couldn't walk straight. Ross told of seeing Barker in company with "bums" on Brussels street on various occasions.

"Now you see what you come to for drinking rum," said Judge Ritchie. "You hear what the policeman has said about you. You disgrace your family and get your name in the paper, as in the police court."

Magee pleaded guilty and His Honor asked Patrolman Marshall if the man had any visible means of support and the policeman said he thought not. "Well I will remand him now and likely send him in for six months. Take him down stairs and Burke along with him. Two full fledge rummies now you see who you are coming to Barker, and Patterson," said the judge as the veterans were taken below.

EXPORTS WILL RUN VERY CLOSE TO $23,000,000

Big Increase Shown in Winter Port Trade for the Season Just Closing--Grain Shipments for 104 Steamers are 6,250,000 Bushels.

The winter port business is about closed. All but two steamships have made their returns at the customs house. The arrivals this season amount to 104 steamships with a tonnage of 490,706 against 117 steamers last season with 461,934 tons. The total amount of the exports this season will be about the same in valuation as in year 1905-6, which was the banner year. The quantity of grain gone forward is about 6,250,000 bushels in the 104 steamships which have filed export papers at the customs, which shows a large increase over last season, when the total was 3,529,270 bushels. The exports will be heavy in spruce deal. At the present about 40 millions

NEW YORKERS AFTER MT. TEMPLE

Halifax Dry Dock May Not Be Able to Hold the Steamer For Repairs.

(Halifax Chronicle.) Although it was Halifax pluck and ingenuity that took the C. P. R. liner Mount Temple off the rocks at Ironbound, there is a strong probability that the steamer will not be permanently repaired here, for representatives of New York shipyards are due here in a day or so to compete with the Halifax Graving Dock Company for the repair of the steamer, which has been plying in the Canadian trade and the owners of which have made millions of dollars out of this country. Despite the keen competition from the big New York concerns, but one steamer for which the Halifax Graving Dock Company has competed has gone to the United States in recent years, but so many of the jobs, in order to secure the work for Halifax, the local Company tendered so low that there was very little if any profit in them.

It is reported that unless they can secure the Mount Temple at a price that will give them a reasonable profit, they will let the job go to New York. Much work will have to be done on the ship before she can be taken to New York, and as the New York tenders would call for her being delivered there, on the face they would appear lower than those of the Halifax Company.
