HOW BLAIR REWARDED J. B. DAGGETT FOR ACT OF SIMPLE KINDNESS

An Absolute Reply from Secretary for Agriculture to Latest Telegraph Falsehood in Regard to $500 Payment.

Whining Appeal of man Whose Word Commissioner Teed Would Not Take Evoked Sympathetic Response and Much Needed Help—Vilification Mr. Daggett's Reward.

The statement by Rev. J. B. Daggett, secretary for agriculture, referred to by Hon. Mr. Murray, and which was prepared when John Morrissy made his first allegation in regard to the $500 payment, some weeks before H. M. Blair commenced his literary work for the Telegraph is as follows:

I have read the statement of Mr. John Morrissy, ex-Minister of Public Works, regarding the payment of $500 by myself, with the knowledge and consent of the Minister of Agriculture, the Honorable Mr. Murray, upon a certain election note.

I have made many blunders in my life, but the greatest blunder, the worst mistake, I ever made was when I listened to the pleadings of Harry M. Blair and assisted him in what he professed to be a tight corner.

I ordinarily do not pay the least attention to unfair criticism and, especially to falsehoods. I have learned there is nothing so harmless, nothing that dies so quickly, as a lie. Leave it alone and it dies because of its own nature and does no harm. But the statement made in connection with the payment of this $500 is so leprous I feel I should help it along the road to death and burial.

The facts are: Mr. Blair met me several times after the by-election in York and spoke to me about an obligation he and some of his friends had assumed in connection with the Guthrie-Scott election. I had taken no part in this contest and did not feel myself under any obligation to assist. Mr. Blair explained it had been a stiff fight, that the party as a party had not put up a dollar, that the entire financial burden was borne by himself and a few friends, and again and again he appealed to me to contribute. To all of his appeals I turned a deaf ear. Months passed, and when about a year had gone by, Mr. Blair came to my office in a terrible state of mind. He said he was being pushed by the bank and was $500 short for the next day and unless he could raise the required amount the bank would promptly issue a writ. He did not mind for himself. He was thinking only of Major Guthrie, who was at the front. He dwelt upon the sacrifice Guthrie was making and completely won my sympathy. He argued that I was closer to certain members of the party than himself and if I would take the matter up the necessary amount might be raised. I finally yielded to my sympathies and, against my better judgment, consented to see what I could do for him. I saw Mr. Murray. He at first refused point blank to have anything to do with it, but I argued with him that, admitting a mistake had been made, Guthrie was away fighting our battles and it was really his matter, and if $500 would ease the situation we ought to try and raise it. My advice was bad, very bad. Mr. Murray finally stated that he had a great admiration for Guthrie and the stand he had taken in connection with the war and consented to see some of his friends and ascertain if the amount could be raised. The money had to be paid over the next day and I offered to advance the amount, provided I was reasonably assured that the money would be returned to me on a certain day when I had obligations falling due. The following morning I received that assurance and Blair was informed that I would assist him. From my personal account at the Canadian Bank of Commerce I drew the amount and pulled my friend Blair out of the mud, and in less than a week the money was paid back to me.

Needless to say, my friend Blair was most profuse in his thanks. On several occasions he expressed his great appreciation. I recall very distinctly meeting him on Queen street a day or two after, when he said to me: "Daggett, I appreciate more than I can say what you have done for me. I assure you I will not forget your kindness." He has been as good as his word; he has not forgotten my kindness. But little did I think that he would take my act of generosity and sympathy and use it to scandalize me the length and breadth of the country. I have only a feeling of pity and sorrow for a man of whose soul all honor, self-respect and, worst of all, gratitude, have died. I expect that Blair will deny every word, every syllable, of my statement. I expect nothing better of him. Nevertheless, the foregoing is true, in every particular and is just as it occurred. I shall not notice anything further that he or Mr. Morrissy may say. I leave the public to judge between us and will abide by their decision. I admit freely that I blundered in having anything to do with Blair. I fully realize that there are some who will believe his misrepresentations, but those who know the man best, believe him least.

I had thought the breed of Judas Iscariot had been extinct for nearly two thousand years, but evidently some of his blood still flows in the children of men; but let us be thankful that it is very thin and is only met with occasionally. Judas of old had the better of the modern Judas; he went and hanged himself; the modern Judas parades himself with amazing impudence, shameless and even proud of his iniquity.

J. B. DAGGETT.

The Standard is assured that Mr. Daggett is prepared to swear to the truth of the foregoing in any court in the land.

EMPIRE DAY IDEA HAD ORIGIN IN CANADA

London, May 26.—(Montreal Gazette cable)—The Daily Chronicle in a note upon Empire Day, asserts that the Earl of Meath was not the originator of the day, but that it came into being in Hamilton, Ont., on June 6th, 1906, when Mrs. Clementina Pessenden first proposed patriotic sentiments among the school children.

HON. JAS. A. MURRAY WILL ENTER ACTION AGAINST TELEGRAPH

M. G. Teed, K.C., Served Notice on A. P. Barnhill Yesterday Afternoon—Moncton Transcript Will Also be Proceeded Against—Carter's Press Supporters Must Swallow Falsehood or Stand Trial—A Blair "Bombshell" Which Exploded in the Enemy's Own Trench—Mr. Murray Determined That Miserable Misrepresentations Shall Not Go Unpunished.

Some climaxes have been reached in the last day or two of the campaign of slander and misrepresentation being waged against Hon. P. G. Mahoney in Westmorland by the Carter-Veniot party.

One of the developments yesterday, brought about by the publication of the Blair affidavit in reference to alleged campaign funds and the statement that the document was shown to Hon. George J. Clarke and Hon. James A. Murray in turn has led to actions for libel being commenced by Hon. Mr. Murray against the St. John Telegraph and Moncton Transcript.

After reading the statement in the Telegraph Hon. Mr. Murray immediately instructed his solicitor, Mr. M. G. Teed, K. C., of St. John, to take action for libel against that paper.

As the Moncton Transcript repeated the untruthful statements, Mr. Murray last evening gave instructions to his solicitor to also take similar action against the Moncton opposition organ.

Pursuant to Hon. Mr. Murray's instructions, Mr. Teed yesterday prepared the following notice which was served during the afternoon upon A. P. Barnhill, secretary of the Telegraph Publishing Company, after enquiry at the Telegraph office elicited the information that E. W. McCready, president of the Telegraph Company and editor of that newspaper was not in the city.

The Official Notice of Libel.

To The Telegraph Publishing Co.
St. John, N. B.

Take notice that the article published in the issue of the Daily Telegraph of Friday the twenty-sixth day of May, A. D. 1916, headed "Bombshell in Westmorland as New Light on New Brunswick's Greatest Scandal" is Produced.

"Inside History of $137,000 Campaign Fund as Detailed by Hon. H. F. McLeod, Provincial Secretary, before Dugal Charges were Heard of—A Self-corroborating Document that Pulls Down the Local Government House—Hon. Messrs. Clarke and Murray saw McLeod's Statement, which was to be Used on 'Flemming—It is Now Read at Westmorland Meetings'."

is false and defamatory and libelous as against me, and I the undermentioned James A. Murray, of Sussex, in the County of Kings and Province of New Brunswick representing the County of Kings in the House of Assembly of said Province, and at present Minister of Agriculture for said Province, do regard the case as libelous, and especially and particularly do regard as false, defamatory and libelous the paragraph thereof above mentioned where it states "Hon. Messrs. Clark and Murray saw McLeod's statement which was to be used on Fleming", and the later paragraph reading as follows:—

"Mr. Blair goes further in his statement, the truth of which is vouched for absolutely by the particularity with which it is given. He not only tells of the making of the note and reason why it was made, and why such a letter was addressed to The St. John Telegraph, apparently to frighten Fleming and his associates into providing the money for paying the note but also goes further and implicates the present Minister of Agriculture and his deputy in a $500 payment that was made later provided out of funds which the public can only imagine were not procured from any private source as they were handled by a government official and given to retire a note for which no particular value was received."

and I require you the publisher of the said newspaper and articles above set forth, to publish in an issue of your paper The Daily Telegraph, within five days after service of this Notice upon you a full apology for the statements in the said article referring to me and above complained of.

Dated the twenty-sixth day of May, A. D. 1916.

JAMES A. MURRAY,
By M. G. Teed, Solicitor and Agent.
M. G. TEED,
Solicitor for James A. Murray.

Hon. Mr. Murray's Plain Statement.

Hon. Mr. Murray, who was in Moncton yesterday afternoon, made the following statement to The Standard in regard to the matter.

Mr. Murray said: "I was never shown or had any knowledge of any such statement as appears in the Telegraph this morning, alleged to have been dictated to H. M. Blair by Hon. H. F. McLeod. The first time I ever saw it was in this morning's issue of the Telegraph and I had no knowledge of any of the alleged payments referred to in that statement.

The Telegraph also says: "Mr. Blair goes further in his statement, the truth of which is vouched for absolutely by the particularity with which it is given. He not only tells of the making of the note and reason why it was made, and why such a letter was addressed to the St. John Telegraph, apparently to frighten Fleming and his associates into providing the money for paying the note, but also goes further and implicates the present Minister of Agriculture and his deputy in a $500 payment that was made later, provided out of funds which the public can only imagine were not procured from any private source as they were handled by a government official and given to retire a note for which no particular value was received."

Shameful Libel on Rev. J. B. Daggett.

With regard to the above statement, Hon. Mr. Murray said that when he published his reply to the letter from Premier Clarke, dismissing him from office, he made reference to the $500 payment by Mr. Daggett and myself. When that letter of Mr. Morrissy's was

PREMIER REGARDED THE BLAIR DOCUMENT AS A SPECIES OF BLACKMAIL

Hon. George Clarke Advised Blair to Publish any Statement He Might Have and Suggested Telegraph as Agency.

The Latest Opposition Scandal Completely Exposed—Provincial Government in no Way Affected and Fears no Document Blair or His Associates Can Produce.

The statement from Harvey M. Blair, the dismissed and discredited secretary of the Department of Public Works, which was featured in the Daily Telegraph of this morning is ancient literature. It had been used long before it was published by the St. John graft organ under the scare headings of which the Telegraph's attacks on the Government chiefly consist.

It is an old story that Mr. Blair carried the document referred to to Premier Clarke soon after he assumed office. Blair then suggested that it was a somewhat comprehensive document and intimated that the Liberals would be willing to pay a lot of money for it.

The Premier said he thought that might be so, although he was unable to express an opinion as to what the Liberals were paying for that class of literature.

Mr. Blair then requested advice as to what to do with it.

THE PREMIER, LOOKING ON THE PROPOSITION AS A SPECIES OF BLACKMAIL, PROMPTLY TOLD HIM THAT HE THOUGHT IT WOULD BE A GOOD IDEA FOR THE DOCUMENT TO BE MADE PUBLIC AT ONCE, ADDING THAT THERE WAS NOTHING IN IT, OR ANY OTHER DOCUMENT, WHICH THE GOVERNMENT HAD ANY REASON TO CONCEAL, AND SUGGESTING THE COLUMNS OF THE ST. JOHN TELEGRAPH AS A SUITABLE PLACE FOR THE PUBLICATION OF THAT SORT OF LITERATURE.

This ended the incident, and shortly afterwards Mr. Blair folded the document, put it into his pocket and went away.

WHAT DID THE OPPOSITION PAY BLAIR?
Now that the Telegraph comes out with a statement of the contents of the document it might be well for that journal to take the public into its confidence and state the amount paid by its party for the information which Mr. Blair, apparently, so willingly gives up, or, Mr. Blair might tell.

The public will have noted THE DOCUMENT IS DATED FEBRUARY 12TH, 1914, LONG BEFORE THE PRESENT GOVERNMENT WAS SWORN INTO OFFICE, and the wonder is that this reliable Mr. Blair, this martyr to the truth and honest dealing, should not long before this have made his knowledge public instead of concealing it until now. The fact remains, however, that THERE IS NOT ONE WORD IN THE WHOLE STATEMENT CONNECTED WITH THE GOVERNMENT OF THE DAY, AND THE WHOLE TRANSACTION OCCURRED BEFORE THE PRESENT GOVERNMENT ASSUMED POWER UNDER PREMIER CLARKE.

Another "Solemn Declaration" made by Mr. Blair, and which is published by the Telegraph, with all the fixings, and which, it states, has been read at opposition meetings in the county of Westmorland during the present contest, relates to an election note which Mr. Blair claims was issued during the campaign in which Lieutenant-Colonel Percy A. Guthrie was selected as one of the representatives of York County in the legislature.

This is a matter concerning which the government had no knowledge, and seems to be between Mr. Blair and other gentlemen on the note who are particularly interested in the politics of York County. In this case, while there is no charge against the government, there is a charge against Mr. Fleming to the effect that he refused to contribute toward the note and, therefore, evidently in Mr. Blair's opinion, was worthy of deepest censure. There are some who have gone so far as to say that very little, if any, of the money realized from the note ever went into any election fund. IT MIGHT BE WELL FOR THE TELEGRAPH OR MR. BLAIR, OR SOME OF THOSE ASSOCIATED WITH HIM, IF THEY KNOW, TO PUBLISH JUST HOW THE AMOUNT REALIZED WAS DISTRIBUTED.

NOT ONE WORD AFFECTS THE GOVERNMENT.
Let it be repeated that not one word as yet published by the Telegraph and Mr. Blair, even if it were true, has involved the government in any degree, and that the transactions detailed relate principally to incidents in which Mr. Blair himself seems to have acted a principal part or was possessed of an intimate knowledge.

When Mr. Blair was confronted with dismissal, because of wrongdoing, he immediately undertook to threaten charges against members of the legislature, but HE WAS PROMPTLY AND DISTINCTLY TOLD THAT IF HE OR ANY OTHER HAD ANY CHARGES TO MAKE AGAINST ANY MEMBER OF THE GOVERNMENT, OR ANY MEMBER OF THE LEGISLATURE, THAT HIS PUBLIC STATEMENT OF IT WOULD BE WELCOME.

What he may conjure out of his ingenious and not very accurate brain, it is impossible to tell, but up to the present time he has done nothing but attempt to bring into discredit some of his personal friends who undoubtedly have shown him many favors and whom he is now rewarding after his own characteristic style.

In the meantime, WHILE THE TELEGRAPH FINDS COLUMNS FOR MR. BLAIR'S "SOLEMN DECLARATIONS," IT CANNOT FIND SPACE TO TELL THE PUBLIC THE TRUTH CONCERNING ITS PRINCIPAL OWNER'S CONNECTION WITH W. H. BERRY IN HIS COLLECTIONS OF MONIES FROM THE LUMBERMEN.

German Attack Breaks down Before French Fire.

Paris, May 26 (10.40 p. m.)—The war office communication, issued this evening, says: "On the left bank of the Meuse the artillery has been particularly active in the region of Avoncourt and Hill 204. An intermittent bombardment of our second lines has taken place. On the right bank of the Meuse, during the afternoon, the enemy carried out a strong attack against our trenches of the approach to Fort Douaumont. This attack was completely repulsed with heavy losses by our infantry and mitrailleuse fire. "Our artillery caught under its fire and scattered German troops on the move in the Chaufour wood. "There is nothing of importance to report from the remainder of the front."

Quiet on Russian Front.

Petrograd, May 26, via London (8.22 p. m.)—The war office today issued the following statement on military operations: "In the region of Lake Wicnevo and north of Tcherny (north of Lake Madson) our fire broke up enemy attempts to approach our trenches. "On the remainder of the front, and in the Caucasus, the situation is unchanged."

ANOTHER BRITISH SHIP TORPEDOED

London, May 26 (5.30 p. m.)—Lloyd's report that the British steamer El Argentinio, the Italian steamer Corigliano and the Italian ship Australia have been sunk.

El Argentinio was a vessel of 4,800 tons, and was last reported as arriving at Marseilles, April 24, from La Plata.

The Corigliano sailed from the Clyde, April 24, for Genoa, and was last reported as passing Gibraltar May 1. She was a vessel of 2,653 tons.

The Australia, a vessel of 1,586 tons, sailed from Norfolk, April 10 for Savona, Italy.

A SUFFERER FROM KIDNEY TROUBLE FOR TWO YEARS.

When the kidneys get ill the back gives out. But the back is not to blame. The ache comes from the kidneys, which lie under the small of the back.

Therefore, dull pain in the back, or sharp, quick twinges, are warnings of sick kidneys—warnings of kidney trouble. Plasters and liniments will not cure the bad back for they cannot reach the kidneys which cause it.

Doan's Kidney Pills reach the kidneys themselves. They are a special kidney and bladder medicine. They heal the diseased surface of the kidneys and bladder, and help them to act freely and naturally.

Miss Mary A. Northrop, Cole's Island, N.B., writes: "I have been a sufferer from kidney trouble for two years. I tried quite a number of remedies, but they did me no good. My mother got me a box of Doan's Kidney Pills, and they did me so much good that I got the second one, and when I had taken that I was completely cured."

Doan's Kidney Pills are the original kidney pills. See that our trade mark, "The Maple Leaf," is on every box. Price, 50c per box, 3 boxes for $1.25; at all dealers, or mailed direct receipt of price by The T. Millburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

A MAJORITY OF 1,000 FOR P. G. MAHONEY THE CLARKE GOVERNMENT HAS A RECORD OF ACHIEVEMENT OF WHICH IT CAN BE PROUD

Every Department of the Administration Tells the Same Tale of Wise Expenditure and Honest Methods—Roads and Bridges Greatly Improved, Educational Facilities Developed, Provincial Revenues Fairly Collected and Disbursed—Province Has Prospered Under Good Government.

This is Prediction of Le Moniteur Acadien of Shediac.
Veniot's Campaign of Slander Failed in Kent County and it will Fail Again in Westmorland.

Special to The Standard.
Shediac, May 26.—A majority of one thousand votes in Westmorland county for Hon. Mr. Mahoney is predicted in the current issue of Le Moniteur Acadien of this town. The paper has received reports from all parts of the county and they show that the voters of all classes appreciate the honor which has been conferred upon Westmorland by the selection of Hon. Mr. Mahoney as the head of one of the most important departments in the government. The minister's personal popularity and his sterling integrity which has characterized the conduct of his extensive business interests, the Acadien states, will bring the strong support in all sections, even from without his own party.

The Moniteur Acadien, which has large influence among the French speaking people of Shediac, Bostford and Dorchester parishes, strongly urges the French voters to support the minister of public works. The paper points to the colossal failures which Peter J. Veniot made when he made a campaign of slander in Kent county in 1908 and 1912. In 1908 the people of Kent answered Veniot by electing Hon. Dr. Landry and his colleagues by majorities of 700 votes, and in 1912 the government majority in Kent was 1160. Le Moniteur Acadien also refers to Veniot's "influence" in his own county of Gloucester, where his candidates were hurled by a majority of 800 votes. And yet Veniot believes he can influence the French speaking voters of New Brunswick and will again have the foolhardiness to meet Hon. Dr. Landry in debate at Memramcook on Sunday. Mr. Veniot is too well known by his compatriots in Westmorland to have any political effect whatsoever, unless it be to make votes for Hon. Mr. Mahoney.

DENIES IRISH PRISONERS ARE ILL TREATED

London, May 26.—John O'Connor, a prominent Nationalist member of parliament, in which he has represented North Kildare for many years, said in a statement issued today, following a visit he had paid to a prison where a large number of Irish citizens, accused of participation in the recent rebellion, have been detained since their arrival in England, that there was not a shadow of foundation for the allegations of their ill-treatment by the military.

"I went to the prison on Monday last," said Mr. O'Connor, "and interviewed a number of prisoners from that portion of Ireland comprising my constituency, and took statements from them regarding participation in the rebellion, with a view to making representations to military headquarters respecting their release. Having concluded that part of my errand I asked if they had any complaints to make concerning their treatment in prison. All replied 'No.' "One man, speaking for his companions, said he wished to say that all had been treated well, and with every consideration by the military and jail staffs. I asked him if he wished me to publish that, and he replied that he desired to have it printed for the benefit of both his friends and the public generally."

FUNERALS.
The funeral of Mr. Robert G. Robinson took place at 2.30 o'clock yesterday afternoon from his late residence, 57 Union street. Services were conducted by Rev. D. J. McPherson. Interment was in Fernhill cemetery. The funeral of Master John McHoy took place yesterday morning from his parents' home, Lakewood, to St. Joachim's church. Requiem high mass was celebrated by Rev. A. J. O'Neill. Interment was made in the new Catholic cemetery.

DIED YESTERDAY.
New Haven, Conn., May 26.—Rev. Dr. Timothy W. Dwight, former president of Yale University, died at his home here today, aged 88 years.

ent government is following out, and in which the great cut in the cost of school books and the scheme for granting pensions to aged teachers are other instances. If the boys and girls of New Brunswick are to hold their own with the young people of other parts of the Dominion they must have the best educational facilities possible to give them; and it is the firm determination of the present government that nothing shall be left undone on their part to give all such facilities as lie in their power.

The opportunities which this province affords to prospective settlers from other lands has led the present government to pursue a much more progressive policy in this respect than their predecessors did; and whereas the late government thought $3,500 was enough to spend on bringing the attractions of the province to the notice of people overseas, the present government is spending no less than $10,000 this year for that purpose. In addition the government has under consideration the establishment of a number of colonies in various parts of the province to which people from overseas will be invited to come and make their future homes, as soon as every thing is in readiness for their reception. In this way the development of the province will be assisted and its wealth both in human and material resources greatly increased.

The subject of roads and bridges is one that is very near the people, as on them much of the comfort and convenience of daily life depended. Without good means of communication business is heavily handicapped and a proper degree of progress and prosperity cannot be maintained. For the upkeep of these public conveniences the late government on 1907 allowed rather more than $240,000. This year the present government is spending no less than $347,000 on the roads and ordinary bridges of the province, and this does not include the cost of several new permanent bridges which are paid for out of capital.

It may be urged by the opposition that the present government has more money to spend than their predecessors had. This is true, but that they have a larger amount to spend is due almost entirely to the fact that they take care to see that the revenue of the province is properly collected, and honestly spent when it is collected. This is shown by the fact that although the cut of lumber is practically the same today as it was seven years ago, the territorial revenue is some $237,000 a year more than it was then. The various lumber operators' cuts are honestly and properly scaled these days, and not left for the operators themselves to make just what returns they think fit. The very first year the present government came into power, the then Surveyor General questioned the accuracy of the returns of one North Shore concern, who said their cut was 3,500,000 feet only. On further investigation they were compelled to own up to the fact that they had understated the figures, and that the real cut was 5,558,000 feet. The late government would have accepted the first return without a word, although they would have known very well that the province was being deprived of a considerable amount of revenue justly due to it, and that not by one operator only, but by all alike, every one of whom understood their cuts. They made up the deficiency by contributions to election funds and such like.

If the present government had followed out the same slipshod and careless methods of collecting the revenue that their predecessors did, they would naturally have less money to spend than they actually do have, and the people would have been the losers. An honest collection of the revenue, and an equally honest manner of spending it, however, resulted in the present government being able to do so much more in the public interests than their predecessors did; and in view of these changed conditions for the better it is not to be wondered at that the people are in no mood to return to the old state of affairs, when it was a case of the members of the government first, their friends and supporters in the Legislature next and the people nowhere.

MAHONEY WILL BEAT "DOC" SMITH IN THE LATTER'S OWN PARISH OF SHEDIAC

How Candidate of Slanderbund Crew Stands at Home—How Grits Protected Oyster Beds—How Smith Loves the Workingmen—How Well the Minister of Public Works is Being Supported Shown by More Than 1,000 Names on Nomination Papers.

Shediac, May 26.—The Parish of Shediac will give a majority next Tuesday for Hon. P. G. Mahoney, minister of public works, notwithstanding that Dr. E. A. Smith, his opponent, lives here and has extensive business interests in the district. It would not be surprising if the town itself should go against Dr. Smith. The Parish of Shediac has been for years a Conservative stronghold, and but few Conservatives will give Dr. Smith a complimentary vote. In fact, a number of former Liberals will support Mr. Mahoney, as can be seen by a list of those who signed his nomination papers.

Not Strong Candidate.
In some of the newspapers much has been made of the fact that Dr. Smith is a nephew of Sir Albert Smith, for years a member of parliament for Westmorland and a member of the cabinet of Hon. Alexander McKenzie. Sir Albert was one of the most brilliant men of his time, but that does not mean that his mantle has in any way fallen upon the shoulders of his nephew. It may be mentioned that Sir Albert's son, who lives in this parish during the summer months, is not now an enthusiast in supporting candidates of the Liberal party remnants. He was formerly one of the Liberal members of the county at Fredericton. His experience with the Liberal politicians and their methods did not impress him favorably, however, as Dr. Smith fully realizes.

Many Support Mahoney.
Excepting the Smith firm, the leading business interests of Shediac are supporting Hon. Mr. Mahoney. His nomination papers were signed by more than one thousand voters, including 450 in his own parish of Bedford, 200 in Sackville, and 175 in Dr. Smith's own parish.

The people of Shediac were greatly amused when they read Dr. Smith's pathetic manifesto, written for him and recently addressed to the voters, appealing for support. That part of it accusing the government of taking the oyster beds away from the people was particularly touching, especially as it is well known here that the Grit government always threatened the oyster beds to its friends whenever an election was approaching. The result was that many valuable beds were almost ruined by this reckless policy which permitted promiscuous and destructive fishing.

How Smith Paid His Men.
Dr. Smith's newly discovered anxiety for the farmers and workingmen was also amusing. For years the employees of the Smith lumber mills were paid partly in goods out of the Smith general store in this town, instead of receiving all cash for their hard work and long hours. The same policy applied to Smith employees in the woods and wherever the Smith interests of Shediac had workingmen.

Celebrated Divorce Case.
Mrs. Jessie F. Hammond, wife of Charles E. Hammond, a nephew of John Hays Hammond, prominent in South Africa before the Boer war, has been granted a divorce from her husband by Judge Connolly of the Superior court at Portland. Ten thousand dollars alimony was granted by the court.

CHANDLER SIX $1845

THIS IS WHY WE HAVE TO BUILD 20,000 CHANDLERS THIS YEAR

BECAUSE, in the midst of new motors, new theories, experimental engineering efforts and a host of untried and uncertain ideas, the Chandler Six stands out in the limelight as The Proven Mechanism

There are thousands of discriminating motor car buyers who do not want to experiment. Thousands who want a known motor, powerful, speedy and of assured dependability. Thousands who want such a motor in a big, beautiful high-class car. Thousands who want, with such a motor, Bosch Magneto ignition, Gray & Davis separate unit starting and lighting equipment, solid cast aluminum motor base extending from frame to frame, annular ball bearings, silent spiral bevel gear rear axle. Thousands who insist on a handsomely finished and leather-upholstered tonneau cowl body mounted upon such a chassis.

So these thousands are buying the Chandler Six, the pioneer light weight six and still the leader in the entire field of cars selling for less than $3000

BASEBALL BY-PLAYS

The recent peculiar incident in a game in Chicago between the Cardinals and Cubs, when Jack Smith of the Cardinals stole third while Helio Zimmerman left the base unprotected to carry Jack Miller's bat to him at the plate, has recalled a good many incidents of "bone" in the Great Zim's career, but one must not suppose that all the queer things he figures in are due to mental lapses.

The game was a wild, woolly affair in which everything seemed to happen and finally Zimmerman came to bat. He had been spiked badly, and had been out of the game for days. He drove a ball far to center and limped to second, then hobbled to third. There were two out and two strikes on the batter. Manager Brennan delayed the game. He rushed to third base and ordered Zimmerman to get out and let him run.

TIGER LILY CENTERPIECE

THE pretty lily design here offered gives great opportunity to work in yellow, pink or the popular all-white treatment. The design is unusual and the work has been so arranged that a great effect is obtainable at a small expenditure of time, energy and money.

You will notice that three-eighths of the design is shown. In tracing it, be sure to arrange the pattern so that the lily that shows only half of its petals alternates with the whole lily. By matching the edge of the circle perfectly, you will have no difficulty in completing the design.

Transfer according to directions on another part of the page, using either tan or white linen of a medium weight. If you decide to change the lattice-work effect at the edge for punched work, the mesh of the linen will have to be coarser and looser.

In the drawing the artist has suggested for you the working of the design.

Use coarse silk or mercerized thread and work in long-and-short stitch, so as to give a dash-and-dotted effect on the leaf at the base of the design. Outline the curved-up leaf and work the underside of the curled-up end.

The stem stitch for the stem of the flower and outline the pretty petals. Work the lily-convex ends in solid stitch and use this same method in giving character to the stemness on the ends of the slender stems.

Fill in the dots with French knots. If you use yellow or pink for your flowers, brown thread should be used for the spots.

The long leaves between the two flowers are to be worked in long-and-short stitch, as

SOME TIMELY NEEDLEWORK NOTES

How to Transfer

HANDS are suggestions for transferring the pattern before you to any material before working. Perhaps the easiest way is the "window-pane" method. This is successful when the material is thin, like linen, batiste, etc. Pin the sheet of paper and the material together and hold them up against the glass of a window. With a sharp pencil draw on the material the design, which can be easily seen through the goods. If one-half of the design only be given, unpin the paper and turn the other side to the fabric. The strong light behind will make it plain.

If you have carbon paper, you should place the sheet between your fabric and the newspaper. This latter is on top of the design. The impression will be left in the lines and will last until washed. This method is successful on heavy material.

DAINTY strings for baby's cap are made of sheer lawn medallies with embroidered ends that are cut in half and sewed to each side of the little cap. Perhaps a better way is to pin them in place with small gold safety pins; then they can be taken off and laundered without trouble.

Ties with plain hemstitched ends can have a pretty spray of small flowers embroidered on the ends by mother's nimble fingers, if she wishes to give a personal touch to her little one's belongings.

Pillow-case tubing makes practical petticoats for small children. The material is simply gathered into a band or low-necked sleeveless waist and trimmed around the bottom with a frill of lace or embroidery. This makes an easy garment to trim, having no seams.

Instead of sewing frills of lace into the neck and sleeves of your gowns, attach the lace to strips of narrow tape and baste that into the dresses. Then it can easily be taken out and laundered without the trouble of ripping out the stitches of the lace sewing into the dress itself.

When darning a rent in dark woolen material, the best way to do is to unravel out some of the threads of the wool and use that instead of regular darning or sewing cotton. Thus you match the material exactly, and when the garment is pressed on the wrong side after it has been dampened a little, the darn will not show.

To thread a needle with woolen thread or seamy, thread it first with a strand of fine cotton doubled, then catch the woolen thread through the loop in the doubled end of the cotton and pull it through the eye of the needle in this way.

Shown, with a fine outlining on the midvein.

When you work the flower that shows the entire circle of petals there will be need of a little solid work in the center after using the outlining for the short stems of the stamens. Otherwise, the working is similar to that on the flower opposite.

The lattice work can be done with gooding thread or very coarse silk thread. It is held in the left hand and should follow the lines suggested. Make all the parallel lines first. Then cross them as shown, and hold together by catching down the threads at the lines of crossing by using short stitches. This gives a beautiful effect, and is so easily and quickly done that you should not hesitate to give variety to your needlework.

SATURDAY'S POEM

Lots of time for lots of things
Though it said that time is
There is always time to find
Way of being sweet and kind
There is always time to share
Smiles and goodness, every
Time to send the frowns away
Time a gentle word to say
Time for helpfulness, and
To assist the weak to climb
Time to give a little flower
Time for friendship any day
But there is no time to spare
For unkindness anywhere.
