London, Monday, July 20.

THE END NOT YET.

The dispatch from on Ottawa correspondent in another column suggests that nothing short of a clean sweep in the management of public affairs at Ottawa will satisfy the demands of the public. Grave irregularities and wholesale peculations are alleged to have prevailed in connection with other departments of the public service in addition to those now under investigation, and it is likely that at an early day a demand will be made for the thorough investigation of the affairs of the Militia, Postoffice, and Printing Bureau Departments.

The revelations of extravagance, misapplication of public money, official incompetence and negligence are of daily occurrence. The suspicion that these rascalities would force themselves to the front this summer, and compel such public indignation as would swamp the Administration, was one of the prime motives that influenced Sir John Macdonald and his associates to rush on the Dominion elections last March, a year in advance of the legal life of Parliament. The sequel showed that the cunning trick was not a shortsighted moment too soon.

MURPHY'S GREAT SIN.

The London Free Press can hardly find words to express its detestation of Mr.
 Murphy, who has been compelled under oath to tell what he knows about Sir Hector Langevin and the Public Works scandals, or which the Minister and his associates are responsible. Our contemporary calls Murphy a "Tammany Imp." Suppose the man is all that his enemies represent him to be, his record in New York and in Canada was well known to Sir Hector and his friends long before the scandals reached full fruition. But that did not prevent Sir Hector from making a boon companion of him, or from collecting from his firm, as often as it could be bled, funds with which to corrupt the Canadian electorate. If, when called before the investigating committee, Murphy had conveniently rejured himself, and suffered from a lack of memory, he would yet be a white-haired boy, and be welcomed into the circle that, in face of all the evidence to the contrary, still professes to believe that Sir Hector has done nothing wrong, and that his accusers should be punished instead.

THE BINDING TWINE SWINDLE.

To put money in the pocket of a Conservative M. P. and his associates, the tariff on binding twine is maintained in Canada. Of that the recent debate in Parliament left no doubt. The tax brings little revenue to the public purse, but it enables Mr. Stairs, the Halifax M. P., and his fellow-monopolists to combine and close up four of the Canadian mills, leaving only three in active work. It enables these men to charge the Canadian farmers from 3 to 24 cents per pound over and above what its market value would be if the tax were thrown off, as proposed by Mr. Mulock, M. P., and his fellow Liberals, and voted down by a servile majority in the House of Commons.

When a mill owner is paid $20,000 to close up his factory in order that the men who pay the money may monopolize the market and charge the consumer an exorbitant price, it is high time that all honest men intervened to put a stop to the system. Unfortunately, the men who now have a small majority in the House of Commons have sold themselves to the rings, and must legislate for them and not for the common welfare.

SIR HECTOR'S TENACIOUS HOLD.

Sir Hector Langevin still holds on to office, and informs his fellow-Ministers that he knows enough of the wholesale plundering that has characterized their regime to prevent them from casting him aside. The old experience is repeated.
 These men must hang together or hang separately, and the Minister who made Thomas McGreevy his bosom companion, and liberally subsidized him out of the public purse, in exchange for bribery funds, has enough cunning to see that he shall not alone be slaughtered. Because of this state of affairs, there is some hope that honest administrators, one of these days, may take the places of Sir Hector and his associates.

"If I go, you all go," is Sir Hector's ultimatum. "If Sir Hector is whitewashed, you must all go" must be the demand of every honest elector no matter to what party he has hitherto belonged. Indeed, the scandals arising from the mismanagement and booting nurtured under the eye of the men now in power are such as ought to drive them into obscurity as incapable, if not grossly corrupt. In the case of Sir Hector Langevin, on the testimony of his former associate, Mr. Murphy, supplemented by the evidence in most damning, and certainly vindictive, the contention of the Advertiser that it was a menace to the public interests and a distinct wrong to keep Sir Hector Langevin in place and power after the most damaging charges had been laid against him by a responsible member of Parliament, and one of his own party. If Sir Hector had not the decency to retire from office while the indictment was under investigation, he should have been set aside by his leader. As is shown by unassailable testimony, important documents have been tampered with and altered to give a meaning entirely different to what they originally set forth. What guarantee is there that other documents pertinent to the inquiry have not been altered or spirited out of the department?

Junior clerks have been suspended or discharged on mere ex parte evidence, but the accused Minister and his deputies are permitted not only to retain their positions, but to control and prepare the documents affecting them. It is simply disgraceful that there should be so much favoritism.

THE DUTY.

In these days of midsummer heat the Toronto Empire is still wrestling with the question, "Who pays the duty?"

It is long since Sir John Macdonald and Sir David Macpherson settled the question of who pays the duty on grains and Canadian horses exported to the United States.
 They asserted again and again that the Canadian farmer either paid the duty or ceased to find a market for his products.
 It is funny to now find the chief organ of the once great party trying to discredit its oracle.

WHAT THE "ADVERTISER" THINKS ABOUT IT.

The Toronto Monetary Times asserts that Sir Charles Tupper's Imperial Federation scheme is doomed to fail. Its principal aim seems to be to increase the importance of Tupper.

A CONTEMPORARY in the confidence of Sir Hector Langevin says that the situation at Ottawa is extremely delicate. That is scarcely a correct term. Rocky would be a better word for it.

LYNDWOOD PERKINS, assistant secretary of the Department of the Interior, has been suspended. Is he a Grit?—(Hamilton Times).

Not much. He is an imported dude, who failed to make an honest living in mercantile life, and was promptly given a well-paid office by the men now in power at Ottawa.

TO GOOD CROPS and extended trade relations the mass of the people now look for prosperity. There has been a revolution in public opinion in recent years. Only by rascally misrepresentation and concealment of the facts did the monopolists and their friends temporarily retain power at last general election.

AT DANVILLE, Quebec, a company has for years been making school slates, but owing to the contracted market in Canada it has been forced into liquidation. Complete freedom to trade with the United States was what the company needed. Its experience has been that of many other Canadian industries, and its epitaph may well be written: "Killed by the N. P."

YOUNG man, you may be entitled to vote, but you will not get your name on the Dominion list for the next election, unless you take steps to have it put there. It will cost you nothing to go to the Liberal rooms, Oddfellows' block, any week day, afternoon or evening, and make sure of your rights. This simple method is only open to you during the next few days.

MR. MASSON, M. P. for North Grey, and other Ontario Conservatives are denouncing in the House of Commons the alleged trade policy of their party. The other night Mr. Masson labored for hours to prove that free trade in farm products between the States and Canada would be hurtful to Canadian farmers.
 Do he and those who argue like him not know that reciprocity in natural products only is the declared policy of the leaders they support? It is a stupid policy, which they know cannot be attained, but it is their stock-in-trade nevertheless.

The wife of Hon. M. Stuart, a prominent lawyer and vice-president of the Ohio State Bar Association, died at Ravenna the other day from the effects of corrosive sublimate, taken with suicidal intent. She was a prominent society lady.

WILL THEY STAND FROM UNDER?

There are a few among the recent growth of Tory politicians whose hands are comparatively clean. Should they anticipate the coming crash and refuse to fall amid the ruins, they can precipitate the fall any day. The old heads have apparently resolved to sink or swim together, but all recognize that the hour of their dissolution is nigh and that they are powerless to prevent its coming.

FOR FARMERS TO REMEMBER

[Lindsay Post.]
 When our farmers are buying their binding twine this summer they should not forget they could have got it several cents a pound cheaper had not the Government voted down Mr. Mulock's proposition. If the farmers are willing to toil and sweat and swell the fortunes of a cordage monopoly down in Halifax the rest of the people are not sorry; but we believe the farmers are anxious to get relief from their burdens, and what hampers and harasses the farmer is an injury to the whole community.

TO SIR HECTOR.

[Montreal Witness.] Mr. O'Leary is now opined as to as counsel for the Department of Public Works, which means he has been retained to defend Sir Hector Langevin, and not to establish the truth or "bring the guilty parties to light," as was, in the face of all his behavior, unflinchingly asserted by the Government as the only excuse for this unjust use of the public money. All the facts in regard to the guilty parties are being brought to light by Mr. Geoffrion and the counsel for the accusers at private cost.

THE SINGLE TAX.

[Grand Rapids Workman.] Did it ever occur to those who pay taxes on newly graded streets that the tax is laid practically on the single tax plan? When your street is newly graded and paved the tax is spread per foot front, without any regard to improvements. Those lots fronting on the street and corner lots pay the largest proportion of the tax and their rental value is greater. Those beyond the district laid out for the tax are not supposed to acquire rental value from the improvement. Occasionally the Board of Review get a kick from some land speculator that he has to pay the same tax on his naked lot as the man with a handsome home.

and precipitated him to the ground, a distance of fifteen feet. He fell head foremost, ward it was not sufficient to break the heavy fall, and he came down striking his forehead and face on the ground. He was stunned and unconscious for a few moments, and it was feared he had been fatally injured, but after a few minutes he felt well enough to move. Aside from a bruised face

PERFUMES.

Crystallized History—That's what someone says words are. But a good Perfume in the essence of sweet words. Petals by the thousands are used to make a single drop of Olay Perfume, but this will stir up more memories in a second than could be read in the ADVER-TISER in a week. Josephine loved music.
History says so, and we remember it as well as we do that her husband became Emperor of France. One cannot smell the odor without being reminded of it. But all do not limit their choice to one color. We hear of a lady who puts her letter paper between sachets of different essences, and it is the perfume that she employs that speaks for her. When she uses Tuberosa or Chypre she says: "I am true." The holder smells of White Rose it is "Adieu," but if it is the tenacious and persistent musk, it is "Eternal love." If the odor is too strong to understand, so much the worse for him.
The Perfume should be always of the best quality; everything else depends upon your Perfume. Good or bad perfume, good or bad anything else. If you can't see that, there must be something wrong in your eyes—better have them examined for spectacles. We say you can always get the best at Barkwell's, and we think we know.

received showed the high esteem in which the young couple were held by many friends in this city.

—W. J. Reid, wholesale crockery merchant, and Ed. Cleghorn, wholesale grocer, both of London, Ont., were at the Hotel Cadillac yesterday, and had been seeing Detroit and suburbs. Mr. Reid is quite an extensive property owner in this city, and it was a pleasant episode of his visit that he casually met a gentleman of Detroit, drove and loathed with him, had a fine time, and at the very end of it discovered that the gentleman in question is one of his tenants. (Detroit Free Press.)

The man Hodges, who has been awaiting trial on a charge of murder, is dying.
Justice Street made an order for bail and he has been removed from the jail. The doctor's story of him, had a fine time,

Public Amusements.
An important change has taken place in the management of Whitney's Canadian circuit. Mr. Frank Kitchener, who for the past year has been the popular manager of the London Grand Opera House, has been appointed general manager of the Canadian circuit, including London, Hamilton and Toronto, with headquarters at the last named city. He will spend one day a week in this city and one day in Hamilton.
Mr. Kitchener is a hustler, and will keep things moving. He has appointed Mr. A.
E. Root, as treasurer of the London house, Mr. Joseph Paladino treasurer of the Academy of Music, Toronto, and Mr. Tom Richey will continue to hold his own at the Hamilton Grand Opera House.

tives in Ayr.

A Big Crowd at Port Stanley.
Two of the largest Sunday schools in the city —Queen's Avenue and Wellington Street Methodists—picked at the Port Friday. Nineteen cars carried the crowd, while six or eight went thither by the afternoon "swimmer." The weather was delightful and Port Stanley looked its prettiest. Boating, fishing and bathing had each its quota of admirers, the Joe Milton making a delightful trip before the train left for the city. Under the management of the Sunday school authorities games and races on the hill were provided. Rev. G. W. Henderson, one of the best amateur players in this district, and Superintendent Wm. Jeffery captained two opposing baseball teams from the Wellington Street Church. The score stood 1 to 0 until the end of the fifth inning, but the strain was too great and the runs began to pour in until 22 to 13 in favor of the superintendent's nine told the tale at the finish.
The boys and girls of Queen's Avenue indulged in races of all descriptions. The 9:30 p.m. train carried home the throng, tired but happy.

The Good Old Times.
"Then times were good, Merchants cared not a rush For any other trade than ours."
That Johnny cake and mush."

But times have changed, and the plain and simple fare of the forefathers is done away with. Patent flour and high-seasoned food, and strong drinks, have taken its place, and as a result dyspepsia, impure blood, and diseases of the stomach, liver and lungs are numerous. This great change has led one of the most skillful physicians of the age to study out a remedy for these modern diseases, which he has named his "Golden Medical Discovery." Dr. Pierce in this remedy has found a cure for Dyspepsia, Bronchitis, Asthma, Consumption, in its early stages, and "Liver Complaints."
