Practically Unanimous in Decision To Introduce Gas Into Households.

PLANS OUTLINED

At the regular meeting of the Pro gressive Ratepayers' Association, held in the Manor Park School last night, J. H. Clarke of the City Gas Company discoursed to a crowded school room the merits to be discovered in the use of gas as a household utility for cooking and lighting.

In view of the fact that the dis trict of Highland and Manor Parks is soon to be served by the rural hydro lines, which entails a service charge on each consumer, the people of the Parks are practically unani-mous in their decision to dispense with hydro entirely, and install gas

The service charge as proposed is but another term for constructional ties at a low rate at the expense of the suburban residents, and it was pointed out as an illustration that a resident with an allustration that a resident with an electric range must gave a resume of the recent Boy pay $36.44 as a service charge, irrespective of the amount of power stated that London now ranks fourth

Cash Bonus of $25,000 to Shareholders to Commemorate Diamond Jubilee

Increase of $1,477,000 in Deposits and Debentures Marks Sixtieth Year of Unbroken Prosperity.

The presentation to Shareholders of the Sixtieth nnual Report of The Huron & Erie Mortgage Corpotation, at the Annual General Meeting held at the Head Office, London, Wednesday, February thirteenth, evoked more than usual interest-this year being the Corporation's Diamond Jubilee.

Mr. T. G. Meredith, K.C., President, in moving its adoption, said:

"The Sixtleth Annual Report of The Huron & Erie Mortgage Corporation, the adoption of which it is my privilege to move, shows a distinct gain in every department of the Company's activities. Not only has our issue of debentures increased by almost one and one-half millions of dollars, but deposits have more than held their own, while our profitsthe most interesting of items to shareholders-are the highest in the Corporation's history.

"General financial conditions throughout Canada during the past twelve months are so well known to you as to need no further comment. That The Huron & Lrie during such a year has been able to continue its long record of progress is a more striking tribute to its stability, and to the esteem in which it is held, than any I can bestow. I am tempted, however, to repeat, what has been frequently mentioned at former meetings, that the success of The Huron & Erie is due to its sound policy carried out by an ample organization and energetic management.

"Our investments fall into three classes: First, and most important, mortgages upon real estate: Second, bonds or obligations of Governments or Canadian Municipalities, or those secured upon real estate such as school district or rural telephone bonds and Third. Stock in The Canada Trust Company, under the same management as is The Huron

"Your mortgage investments are restricted, by the old and firmly established policy of your Directors, to loans upon productive real estate situated in the most favored sections of Canada. Not a dollar is advanced until the property has been inspected and reported upon by one of the Corporation's competent and experienced inspectors. Every application for a mortgage loan is submitted, with the inspector's report and recommendation, to the Board of Directors, who consider each application in detail. No loan is accepted unless it has the unanimous approval of the Board.

"So much for the selection of mortgage loans, but that is only half the story. It is a prime need that the lender should exercise a careful watch over his investments to the end that payments shall be made when due. It was this reason in the main which brought about the establishment of our tranches in Toronto and the West; actual experience convinced us that unless we had our officers on the spot we would be unable to devote the attention to our mortgage investments which we believe is necessary. Our enterprise in this respect has been amply rewarded. Take, for example, our mortgage loans in the City of Toronto; for two years past we have had he interest overdue for more than six months, and for three years we have found it unnecessary to take proceedings by way of foreclosure or sale. Our record in the West, while not quite up to the high standard in Toronto, is yet an excellent one, and this year-as for many years past-we have been able to dispose of all the properties which came into our hands, and thus close the year with no real estate on hand other than office premises. The policy of your Directors is to sell forthwith all the real estate which we are forced to realize upon. Any losses upon the sale of real estate during the year are written off the profits of the year, and we therefore are enabled to present at our Annual Meetings a clear balance sheet. In addition to this we have for the year 1923, as in the past, made ample provision for possible losses which may later occur.

"We are entering, this year, upon what may be called the Diamond Jubilee of The Huron & Erie. Despite the adverse features I have touched upon, I am so satisfied of the soundness of this institution, and so confident of its future, that I venture to suggest to the incoming Board that the event be marked by the declaration of a special bonus of $25,000-or one-half of one per cent-to be paid to the stockholders with their next quarterly dividend We may not be able to continue this bonus in future years but if the progress of the Company should continue as in the past there is at least the possibility of a repetition of this pleasing practice.

"I have much pleasure in moving the adoption of the Report."

Mr. Hume Cronyn, First Vice-President and General Manager, in seconding the motion to adopt the Report, remarked:

'My privilege this afternoon of reviewing the past year's work of The Huron & Erie forms a welcome opportunity to discuss with the Shareholders a report and a financial standing which I forl fairly well assured will meet with your approval.

"As those present know, 1923 has passed into Canadian history as a year of financial crisis. To almost every Canadian the question of the safety of Deposits became of moment during that year, and he stability of all financial institutions formed the ic of conversation in home, factory and office. roughout, I am happy to report, the 'Old Huron Erie' stood firm as a rock, and its impregnable sition as a safe depository for Savings was unubtedly recognized by the public. As evidence of s pleasing condition I call your attention to the lowing increases during 1923:

Savings Deposits $ 54,867 ebentures issued to Canadians...... 860,459 behantures issued to residents of Great Britain 562,850 "In addition to the progress of The Huron & rie, you will be glad to know The Canada Trust Company likewise made remarkable strides. The Guaranteed Certificate Department of that Company enlarged its business during 1923 by nearly one and a half millions, while the Assets of Estates under its administration have grown in size by over half a million dollars.

"As a result of these marks of public confidence, the Assets of The Huron & Erie show an increase of $1,650,000, and those of The Canada Trust Company cf over $2,000,000.

"Perhaps equally striking is the continued growth during 1923, as in the past, in the number of our customers. A net increase of 858 Savings Depos.tors was recorded during the past twelvemonth, thus bringing the total number above 19,000, whereas five years ago these were but little in excess of 11,000. It gives us pleasure to welcome these new depositors to our ever-growing Huron & Erie family. It may also interest this meeting to learn that the Huron & Erie and Canada Trust Company now number among their customers thirty thousand individuals.

"You will notice we have been successful in increasing our Debenture borrowings in Great Britain, and once again we are indebted to our Scottish Agents for their energetic support. So soon as that time arrives when funds may be transferred from the Old Land to Canada with little or no exchange loss, we are convinced that the high esteem in which our Debentures are held in Scotland will insure to us an adequate supply of British capital at reasonable rates of interest.

"Following our usual practice, the liquid position of the Corporation has been maintained at a high point throughout the year. A glance at our Balance Sheet shows that the aggregate of our readily negotiable bonds and our Cash on Hand and in Banks amounts to 89% of the deposits held by us.

"Our holdings of Government, Municipal and other Bonds underwent frequent examination on the part of our Auditors, and, in addition, were regularly inspected by a Committee of your Directors who found them entirely in order.

"Our Auditors, Messrs: F. G. Jewell, F.C.A., and J. F. Kern, whose Certificate is attached to our Financial Statement, are, as you know, appointed by the Shareholders of the Corporation and are answerable alone to them. They act quite independently of the management, and proceed with their duties under rules promulgated by the Registrar of Loan Corporations of the Province of Ontario.

"Nor does the scrutiny of our books, accounts and securities end when our Auditors and Directors have completed their task. During the past three years-alike with other Mortgage and Trust Companies-our Institutions have been subject to exhaustive Governmental inspections, as each year examinations are made by Inspectors from both the Dominion and the Province of Ontario. The inspection of the Dominion Government takes the form of a valuation of the securities held by the Corporation. It is interesting to note that the investments of The Huron & Erie at the close of 1922 are valued in the Dominion Government Blue Book at more than $650,000 in excess of the figures shown in our statement for the same year. The greater part of this difference is explained by the fact-always noted in our reports and frequently mentioned at our annual meetings-that we continue to carry our stock holdings in the Canada Trust Company exactly at their cost to us instead of at their value as determined either by that Company's Reserve or by what might be obtained for them if sold on the open market. After more than 20 years' existence under our control and management, the Canada Trust Company has built up a Reserve Fund of $725,000, and is today paying to The Huron & Erie, by way of dividends. nearly $30,000 a year more than it did 10 years ago.

"In addition to these evidences of past prosperity, The Canada Trust Company, in our opinion, has before it a bright future. The increase of Wills on file appointing it Executor shows a steady annual growth, while the safe and convenient forms of investments offered by its Guaranteed Certificates attract an ever-swelling tide of funds from all parts

"In conclusion, may I add a personal word as to our Financial Statement and the investments outlined therein. The most penetrating light of investigation that could possibly be focussed upon the investments of The Huron & Erie would show these to consist of first mortgages, Government, Municipal and other Securities, all of the highest type obtainable in Canada. Security-first, last and always-has for sixty years been the watchword of your Board of Directors, and the result of their unswerving fidelity to this policy of safety is reflected in the Financial Report now before you. I have, therefore, no hesitation in stating that, not only is the report before you one of the best ever submitted, but that, as well, it is an absolutely true presentation of the financial condition of the Corporation and of its investments.

"I take great pleasure in seconding the motion." Rev. Principal Waller, D.D., moved in a happy fashion a vote of thanks to the Directors and Officers of the Institution, and in doing so took occasion to highly compliment the Staff in their unfailing courtesy and efficiency in their dealings with the

Mr. Geo. H. Belton, on behalf of the Directors, in acknowledging Principal Waller's complimentary remarks, said:

"I have been deeply impressed by the care and supervision exercised both by our Office Staff and the Board of Directors in the past upon mortgage loans and other investments. I venture to say that not one application for a mortgage loan in five survives the rigid tests imposed by our Branch Managers, is still regarded as critical.

Inspectors, Head Office Officials and finally the Board of Directors. The machinery for the consideration of such applications for loans is very comprehensive, and in fact in days such as these you will agree it is the part of wisdom to take every possible precaution.

"Since 1907 the size of The Huron & Erie and The Canada Trust Company has more than trebied -the combined assets in 1907 being twelve million dollars, having grown to over forty-two million dollars at the close of 1923. During this period tre amount of dividends paid to the Shareholders has more than doubled-$171,000 having been paid in 1907 and $350,000 in 1923-and the President mas just told us of the possibility of a further increase of $25,000 by way of a Jubilee Bonus this year."

Mr. H. W. Givins of Regina, Superintendent of Western Branches, whose association with The Huron & Erie extends over a period of more than thirty years, was present, in his remarks referred to conditions generally in Western Canada, and reported particularly upon the Corporation's business in the West.

"The bulk of our Western business is in the Province of Saskatchewan-over two-thirds of our Western farm mortgages being in that Province. Our borrowers there have met their payments of interest satisfactorily, a large number of them have made very substantial reductions in the principal of their loans, and not a few have during the past year paid their mortgage debt in full.

"The payments made on our Saskatchewan mortgages during 1923 amounted to $812,430.09which is equal to over 181/2% of our total mortgage leans in that Province. Although there was no increase in the total of our mortgage investments during the year, the sums paid by our borrowers in 1923 were over $100,000 greater than in 1922

"The evidence produced by our records clearly shows that there has been just as close adherence to that policy in our Western business as in our business ir the older Province of Ontario, where we still have the great volume of our mortgage investments. The policy of the Company in the West has been a very conservative one, and our investments there show an increase during the past two years of less than

"We have followed a policy not only of thorough inspection by our own inspectors and careful selection of individual securities, but we have also made full investigation and just as careful selection of the districts in which we have invested our funds.

"Further than that, after loans have been made we have made it a rule to keep closely in touch through our inspectors with our borrowers, with our individual securities, and with every district in which we have made investments-a policy of continuous inspection-and it has paid well indeed. "It has always been the policy of the Company to extend every consideration to its borrowers under all circumstances. Our experience has clearly shown that our policy of generous consideration has brought about a satisfactory solution of more difficult problems than the adoption of drastic measures. "The number of cases where we have been obliged to realize on our security, therefore, has been comparatively small, and every parcel of property coming into the Corporation's hands has been satisfactorily sold." The retiring Directors were re-elected for the

At 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon, when Dundas street was at its busiest, a spectacular accident occurred which made the onlookers think for minute they were witnessing a slapstick comedy. A Ridout street car, eastbound, hit one of Abdelah Aziz's trucks as it turned eastward out of Market Lane, and the truck in turn hit a new shiny Ford, which was parked peacefully in front of Woolworth's, hurling it into the west entrance of the store. MOTHERS WOULD

The members of the Union Mothers' Club are ready to demand a public censorship of the theatrical performances which are being given in the London theatres. For three months past the executive of the club has been working quietly along this line, and not a performance has been given in the city at which there were not present representatives of the mothers' clubs, quietly acting as censors.

"The result of this quiet censor ship of the theatres is not at all favorable to the type of perform-ance which is being shown," says Mrs. W. A. Tanner, president of the Union Mothers' Club, who will bring the matter before a meeting of the Union Club next Monday night at 7:30 o'clock in the Lord Roberts School "And we are determined to demand a censorship of the shows

Miss Ruth Tanner, artist pupil of Miss Topley Thomas, appeared last night in recital at Players' Craft, Wolfe street, before a large and en-thusiastic audience. Miss Tanner in her study of the art of recitation an the drama, has learned, as few students learn, that naturalness and simplicity of expression is one of the most important factors which go to-ward making the successful reader. Her program last night was well to display her dramatic powers as well as her interpretations in a quieter mood. Opening with 'Sails," by W. Letts, it continued as Orange Marmalade.—From four oranges and two lemons peel off the skins in quarters close to pulp and set aside. Break up pulps and remove seeds; add 1 cup water and simmer in covered saucepan 45 minutes. Meanwhile boil orange and lemon rinds with 8 cups water in covered saucepan 30 minutes. Drain off and discard water. With sharp-edged spoon scrape out and discard all white part of orange and lemon skins right down to yellow rinds. Then with a very sharp knife shred yellow rinds just as thin as possible in shreds about 1 inch long. Mix shredded rinds with cooked pulp. Measure 4 level cups of this mixture into large saucepan, adding, if necessary, enough water to the fourth cup to make it level full. Add 7½ leveled cups (3¼ lbs.) sugar and mix well. Stir mixture hard and constantly and bring to a vigorous boil over the hottest fire. Boil hard 3 minutes with continual stirring. Remove from fire and add ½ bottle (scant ½ cup) Certo, stirring it in well. Then let stand 5 minutes only, by the clock, with occasional stirring to cool slightly and pour quickly.

Grape Jelly—Made in 10 minutes from bottled grape juice. Measure 4 cups juice and 7½ leveled cups sugar into large saucepan, stir and bring to a boil. At once add 1 bottle (scant cup) Certo, stirring constantly. Continue to stir and bring again to a hard boil for one minute. Remove from fire, skim, and pour quickly.

Pineapple Jam—One large can of sliced or grated pineapple (if sliced pineapple, grate or crush it fine), measure out 4 cups (2 lbs.) of the crushed or chopped fruit and juice into a large saucepan, adding a little water if necessary to fill the fourth cup, then add 7½ leveled cups (3½ lbs.) sugar, and while stirring, bring to boil and boil hard one minute. Remove from fire and stir in one bottle (scant cup) of Certo. Skim and pour into glasses. Makes about 15 big six-ounce glasses for 6c or 7c a glass.

Can the Sedate Married Woman Compete With the Flapper by Bobbing Her Hair?-Children Have Rights That Parents Should Respect-Why Men Laugh at Girls in Knickerbockers.

Dear Miss Dix-I am a married woman and I bobbed my hair. My husband is perfectly furious with me about it. I did it to be a little bit of a flapper and to keep him away from them, although he says that he doesn't care about them. I trust him, but I don't trust the women. Don't you think I am right?

Answer: Well, M. P., I am with your husband in abominating bobbed hair on any female over eighteen years old, and I certainly do think that when a wife and mother gets a Gascon cut she makes you think of old sheep masquerading as cut of your hair is not so important as the cut of your ideas, and it seems to me that you have got two of your theories sheared

The first is your notion that you can compete with the flappers by getting yourself up in flapper style. That is an utter impossibility.

but it all won't put her into the flapper class.

Sweet and twenty is sweet and twenty. And thirty and thirty-five and forty are likewise thirty and thirty-five and forty, and there is no turning back the hands of the clock for a woman, no matter how hard she tries to do so. She can cut her skirts off to the knees. She can leave off her corsets. She can daub the whole paint pot on her face. She can shave her hair off. She can scream and giggle and talk nonsense and jazz,

Therefore, it is silly for the married woman to imitate the flapper and thereby call attention to the contrast between herself and a young girl. Her wise play is to feature an entirely different style of dress, and line of charms, thereby accentuating how much more interesting a mature woman is than an undeveloped young

Also, it is well for women to remember that men do not want their wives to be like many of the women with whom they amuse themselves. A man may be diverted by a pretty little flapper who smokes and drinks and swears and is always on the go, but he doesn't want a wife like that. A man may listen with rapt attention to the conversation of a brilliant woman at a dinner table, but he goes home, thanking God he isn't married to her.

All men admire beautiful women, but few men marry them. Wives would save themselves a lot of unnecessary jealousy if they would remember that men have two sets of feminine charms and virtues-one for their wives, and the other for the women to whom they are not married.

As for saying that you trust your husband, but don't trust women, that's the blanket excuse that women throw over the shortcomings of the

They always blame the woman, and represent the man as a helpless innocent who is led astray against his desires. It isn't fair, and it isn't true. The vampiest vamp vamps in vain unless the man DOROTHY DIX.

Dear Miss Dix-I am a boy not yet twenty years old. I had to leave school when I was only fifteen in order to help support the family so I didn't get even a public school education, while my father is a college graduate. There are thousands of girls and boys like me, not yet of age, who have had to go to work in their early teens to take care of drunken and worthless fathers and younger brothers and sisters. Don't you think that children have some rights that their parents should respec ARTHUR

Answer:

I think there is no greater crime than for people to bring children into the world for whom they cannot properly care. And there is no man such a contemptible quitter as one who, for the sake of indulging his own weaknesses, shifts the burden of the support of a family on to shoulders too young and tender to bear such a load.

Yet we see this done continually. It is because it is so common for parents to make slaves of their children and live in idleness on their wages that we had to pass drastic child-labor laws. And every one of us knows dozens of cases in which father developed a weak heart or a bad foot or some other indefinite ailment that prevented him from working, but which doesn't interfere with his pleasure, just as soon as John and Sally were old enough to get jobs.

And all of us could point to mothers and fathers, who are fat and husky and strong, far more able-bodied than their children, who are sitting around in idleness living on the wages of thin, little, overworked stenographers and clerks.

Of course, it is children's duty to support their parents when they are too old and feeble to work, but it is a shameful thing for parents to become parasites on their children until dire necessity compels them to do so. .

Most people give up work too young, anyway. There is another good ten years of useful, creative labor in nearly all men and women if they have only the courage to carry on. Half the time there is no excuse for father's giving up his job and settling down on Tom to support him, and for mother breaking up her home and going to live with Sally, except that it is easier to let somebody else support you than to do it yourself.

Certainly children have rights, Arthur, but sometimes the DOROTHY DIX.

Dear Miss Dix—Why is it that the fellows laugh at girls when they wear knickerbockers? I have just been out in my knickers, and I heard some men laugh at me as I passed by them. MARY E. C.

Men laugh at women in knickerbockers because they look such figures of fun. They are a human joke, and no one with a sense of humor can behold one without feeling like snickering. Just take a look at yoursel, in the glass, my dear, and see how absurd you appear with your big hips and little ankles and feet, and you won't have to ask why the women in knickerbockers add to the gayety of DOROTHY DIX.

Following a lively discussion last evening the Mothers' Unit of St. Joseph's school unanimously adopted a resolution to register a vigorous protest against the enactment of the proposed bylaw to inflict a license on the small grocers of the city. It was passed that a copy of this resolu-tion be forwarded to the mayor and also to the press. During the discussion many cutting references were made to all those who would recreate

The resolution was as follows:

It is quite evident that it is aimed at the little corner grocery and at the poor man who might desire to start a little store. A desire to monopolize the business on the part of the large store is, without a doubt, the father of the cause. There is far-too much of this sort of thing lately, a little clique, a little agita-tion, a little propaganda, and another law is made that restricts trade, in-creases cost to the consumer, restricts our privileges and our con-cenience. Therefore, be it resolved that the Mothers' Unit of St. Joseph's register a vigorous protest the enactment of the prosed bylaw to inflict a license or posed bylaw to innect a needs on the small grocers of the city, and that a copy of the resolution be for-warded to his lordship the mayor and to the press of the city."

The Course That Is Needed.

Mrs. T. W. Dykes, of Crinan, in a letter to this paper offers some rather pungent criticism of the intention of the provincial government to teach more agriculture in the rural schools with the idea of causing the boys to stay on the farms rather than to rush off to the cities as soon as they are old enough. Mrs. Dykes holds that the average boy on the farm, who has to do chores before and after school, and help with the work all through vacation periods as a general thing, has about as much agricultural instruction as he can stand now.

Furthermore, she contends that it is very difficult to teach the economic advantage of farming when the parents of these boys are growing crops that they are forced to sell for less than it costs them to produce the same.

Our Crinan correspondent presents. especially in the latter argument, a suggests that wider markets and better methods of selling to improve the returns from agriculture would be the greatest course of instruction possible to impress the rising generation with the desirability of staying on the farm.

He Got One Answer.

Col. J. A. Currie, M.P.P. for S. E. Toronto, has a notice in the papers of the legislature of a move for another plebiscite on the liquor law of Ontario. This is the same gentleman who ran for the position of mayor of Toronto, and at that time he stated that his election would be taken as a verdict of the people that they wanted the O. T. A. smashed.

Well, Col. Currie got his answer n the way of a mere handful of votes compared to those registered for his two opponents.

In all the municipal elections in Ontario this year it is doubtful if dropped? there was a candidate for any office who got such a trouncing as Col. Currie in Toronto.

It is hard to understand why the decision in the case should be further delayed, as it is of importance to the financiers here to know how to reckon on the income from that section. In 1923 $15,000 was spent on the assumption that it could be collected. If the decision goes against the city another $15,000 will have to be raised to cover that shortage.

GOD'S IMPARTIALITY.

He maketh his sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and sendeth rain on the just and on the unjust .- Matthew v., 45. This is a simple statement of a familiar fact.

A little experience is enough to convince us that what we call the processes of nature are thoroughly impartial. The corn and pumpkins in the stingy farmer's fields ripen just as surely and just as abundantly as those which have been planted and hoed by the most generous of men. All you have to do is to sow the seed and till the soil, and nature will do the rest without asking what manner of man you are. Familiar as this is, when we stop to look at it more closely does it not puzzle and confound us? If we regarded nature as impersonal, and the universe as a material mechanism, we should find no difficulty in it. But the moment we see God behind the face of nature—the moment we believe that this vast and marvellous procession of causes and changes is directed and controlled by a Supreme, Omniscient, Holy Spirit-this apparent indifference becomes incomprehensible and impossible. It cannot be that God is indifferent.

It cannot be that he looks down with the same feelings upon all who move below him, and has an equal approbation for the toil of the honest laborer and the crafty schemes of the thief. You tell me nature is indifferent.

I say, not if God is behind nature. Evermore he loves the good; ermore he hates the evil. Why, then, does he not always discriminate in all his dealings?

I think it is evident that he would teach us to believe in his fatherhood in its widest aspect of benignity. He would manifest his abounding kindness to all the children of men.

Are we not the offspring of God? Yes, every one of us, the lowest as well as the highest. He is the father of us all. (Copyright, 1924, by The Republic Syndicate.)

CHAPTER XXVII.

Since taking over Madison Square Sarden and turning it into a sort of boxing mecca, I have promoted, round numbers, 130 fights. To see those fights, the boxing fans have paid into the box office $9,709,887.19. This, I am told, is far in excess of anything any one man has ever attempted in sport. That, however, was not as much profit to me as you eral and state taxes $1,312,659.22. In addition to the federal tax on amusenents you know the State of New York levies a tax on boxing as it does on theatres and movie shows. It does not tax baseball and football. The tax on boxing was a part of he Walker law when it was adopted but that is not true. The casual spectator does not stop to consider the enormous expenses incurred in operating a place like the Garden. in the first place we have to sacri-fice interest on the money invested before we can start. By merely eaving it in a bank we could get four er cent without risk. To make it as simple as possible let me explain that, in round numbers, it costs $1,500 a day to operate bers, it costs $1,500 a day to operate in the cost of least $10,000 a week out of the atreast $10,000 a week out of the attractions to prevent a loss. And we must keep up a supply of attractions. That is not so easy.

Between times we run in such things as the six-day bicycle race, politically speaking, has given at least five-sixths of the Scots in Chicago. The preceding days had been given to thletic feats, but yesterday with its lacrosse and tug-of-war, was looked upon as being the brawest day of all, And so it proved. An audience of memories of the past treatment here had not been forgotten by the Zorras and here on the green sward with and A. G. Hodge, referee, there was no danger of foul play. At the call

Give them the Sutherland made a proposition, viz., that the pull be 2 out of 3 heats, if decessary—no belts or anchor to be every by either. To this they deurred; but as no other arrangemen ould be effected the Chicagos finally anitulated. The Canadians modest doffed hats, coat and vest, appearng bony and muscular, and as the ports say, "trained rather too fine," or a tug-of-war team. The Hum-oldts, who by the way had been practising for the past fortnight by pulling all the teams around Chicago ppeared in knee breeches, brown shirts and blue caps. They seemed to be confident, athletic and weighty In these conditions the teams stare at each other. At the word "go" th Zorras unassumingly dropped to the earth and immediately planted their good reliable number tens, from 4 to 6 inches, in mother earth. Gradually the Humboldts reclined and then the tug began in earnest. They tug; strain. Presently the blue ribbon other. It moves towards Mackintosl and he pulls in the slack. The Cana-dians cheer their countrymen, and another inch nearer it comes. En-couraged by their congenial surroundings, urged by their captain and determined to avenge their past defeat, they pull like giants. The result came speedily. In six minutes Anchor Mackintosh secured the coveted 2 feet. First blood for Can-pointment to the Canadians. The pull took place in an opposite corner of the field. The Zorras were handi capped by having to pull on a hard surface and in the face of a scorching sun. They could get no hold, and in two minutes the Humboldts had them across the line. Canadian stock fell in the audience. Not so with the war riors. lieve that a fighter cares more about money than he does about his title. I only wish that were true. As a might think. I simply have handled an enormous amount of money.

For those 130 fights I paid in fedtout the following satisfaction. Many titles so that they are quite willing to sit back in smug satisfaction. Many of them would rather lose money than risk the loss of their titles.

As one of the sporting writers expressed it a few weeks ago, they are like the old negro who was met on the streets of Louisville by a white man friend.

the Walker law when it was adopted to legalize boxing. Among other things a boxing commission has to be supported. The commission though, out of these fights I have paid the boxers a little more than $4,600,000. Apparently that would leave a profit of two or three million dollars, but the boxers are the more than $1,000,000. The boxers as rich as some of the semantic bankers. They are quite content to sit back with what they've these boxers as rich as some of the smaller bankers. They are quite con-tent to sit back with what they've got and take it easy. They don't want to risk those titles.

But to get back to the finances of the Garden, for a moment. A fair estimate of what fighters cost is fifty per cent. That is, the fighters will receive about fifty per cent of the gate receipts. Out of the remaining fifty I must pay all the expenses of attendants, rent, advertising and the general machinery.

situation is that money no longer serves as a lure. Occasionally criti-cism and circumstances smoke a champion out and make him defend his title, but even then it is usually necessary for the contender to sacri fice practically all of his claim to share of the gate receipts. Harry Greb, for instance, had to do that to win the middleweight championshifrom Johnny Wilson. Mickey Walke was in a similar fix when he defeated Jack Britton. Looking the field over, it seems that Jack Dempsey is the only one at whose title anybody can have a shot.

It takes a lot of money for that Unless the champions show more lesire to defend their titles the box-ng game is sure to take a bad slump

Everybody wants to see a champtor a sport show themselves the interest is bound to After all its the opportunity of seeing world's championship hands that draws people into the Garden or any other place.

Last December a young man, writing friend of mine, dropped in to see me with the request that I give oped that the same tactics by which him the recipe for making a million dey won before would be successful his time. But Captain E. Sutherland made a million. In a half joking way would not agree to discarding their belt and substituting one kindly to be loaned by those magnanimous Humboldts. CHICAGO GRAIN

Associated Press Despatch.

Chicago, Feb. 14.—Wheat developed an upward tendency today after an irregular opening. Likelihood that the United States import duty on wheat would soon be raised was the principal builtish influence. The fact that cable quotations on wheat were firm, and that buying was active here on price downturns, counted also in strengthening the values. The opening, which ranged from $\frac{1}{2}c$ is decided gain in some cases.

Woodstock, Feb. 13 .- By one goal Woodstock College won the from Mitchell High School in the re-turn game of the Wossa semi-finals here tonight, the final score being 7 to 1. The northerners held a five-goal lead as a result of their victory Saturday over the Baptists at Mitchell.

The college boys, who are the pres ent Wossa hockey champions, look good enough to cop the silverware again this year. Mowatt Janes, the diminutive goalie, turned in a nice game, and the rest of the players starred in their departments. Run-nenburg and Moore were the pick of the visitors.

On the basis, of figures available the total trade balance for year will have been $8,396,533, which has been valorized this year by a 20 per cent rise in exchange to $4,075,940. This is within $36,000,000 of the amount considered necessary to meet yearly bill of Brazil's foreign commitments. If, therefore, Brazil is able to obtain new capital amounting to $36,000,000, and can increase the value of her exports by the same amount this year, her economic condition should be absolutely sound before the end of 1924, and the financial position of the government capable of position of the government capable of

INTERNAL CONDITION.

Commenting on the improved internal condition of Brazil the Commercial Intelligence Journal of the department of trade and commerce in Ottawa writes as follows:

"The revolution which had been raging in Rio Grande do Sul for more than a year came to an end on the 15th of December, 1923, and the state of siege in the state of Rio de Janeiro was lifted on Christmas Eve. Folitical tranquility and the renewal of constitutional gurantees undoubtedly have contributed largely to the improvement in commercial conditions, though the interease in the price of Oldsmobile cars announced yesterday. These increases ranged from $35 to $45.

This is the first change made by the company in about two years.

In an interview the other day Henry Ford said: "I can see nothing but big business for 1924. We are planning for a 15 per cent to 20 per cent increase in output for Fords, Lincolns and tractors including all plants in the States, England and Canada."

Similar statements have recently been reported by the heads of Hupp Motors, Packard, Studebaker, Nash Motors, Durant and Page-Jewitt.

There is every evidence, however, that the government is endeavoring in deadly earnest to put its financial house in order. A British Financial Mission has arrived in Rio de Janeiro at the request of the Brazilian government to investigate the financial and economic conditions of the country. The outlook in Brazil has not looked so bright for many months past, although the recovery of the country must necessarily take a considerable time, and a return to normal conditions may not be accomplished within the term of office of the present government."

THE BOND MARKET.

After the successful flotation of the $50,000,000 loan a couple of weeks ago the bond market has had something of a rest. Prices have remained firm and bidding for new issues has been quite keen, although very few new offerings have appeared. The few municipalities which have issued bonds appear to have received favorable prices and the keen demand by bondholders, combined with close bidding, have been gratifying to those cities and towns whose bonds have been offered.

A. E. Ames' report of bond sales up to February 9 shows a total of $91,912,-062, of which $68,718,500 were sold in Canada and $28,193,562 in the United States. This is the highest total ever reached by the company in a single year.
