Prussia frontier at Lyk and penetrated ten miles into Germany. The Russians captured and burned the German railway stations at Borjemin and Biala, and cut communications from Lyk to Johanesberg, the enemy falling back all along the front, burning villages.

Striking tributes were shown by Manchester people on Tuesday to the two firemen who were fatally injured while on duty at a fire at Blackley. Full ceremonial honour was done in each case. The funeral procession of Samuel Carradus (whose body was conveyed to his native place near Kendal) was followed by the chief officials, and similarly at the funeral of the other hero, Chas. BELGIAN VICTORY GREAT ONE Remarkable Valor Shown by Soldiers.

Germans Ask Armistice to Bury Dead.

[By Special Wire to the Courier]
BRUSSELS, Aug. 8.—Via London, 6 a.m.—The war office has issued an official statement saying that 125,000 Germans participated in the assault on the forts at Liege, but that they completely failed to make any impression on the fortifications. Three army corps engaged in the attack were cut up and rendered useless it is declared. "For many days," read the statement, "our little army by tenacity and courage rendered very valuable service to the French army which for some days under forced marches has been hurrying to our assistance and now occupies a considerable portion of our territory. Hundreds of German prisoners have been captured. These are chiefly soldiers. The spirit of the German soldier lacks enthusiasm. They appear to be fighting lethargically, while their officers endeavor to pass themselves off as Frenchmen."

WIPED THEM OUT
LONDON, Aug. 8.—5 a.m.—A despatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company from Brussels says that a division of German cavalry which had succeeded in fording the Meuse to the north of Liege, was surprised and practically annihilated by Belgian cavalry and infantry, supported by a battery of light artillery. The German rout was complete. Seven German regiments surrendered.

FRENCH ARE AT IT
LONDON, Aug. 8.—7 a.m.—According to late despatches this morning quite an important engagement between French and Germans occurred in Belgium Luxembourg. The Etiole Belge of Brussels learns from an official source that no decision has been reached on the question of an armistice at Liege.

RETARDING THE GERMANS
LONDON, Aug. 8.—5 a.m.—A news despatch from Brussels states that heavy rains are swelling the Meuse and its tributaries and so retarding the German advance.

President Poincaré of France, has telegraphed King Albert, complimenting him on the brave Belgian army. He also in recognition of its gallant defense conferred the Cross of the Legion of Honor on the city of Liege.

ARMISTICE REFUSED
LONDON, Aug. 8.—5 a.m.—The latest despatches from Brussels indicate that the armistice of 24 hours asked by the Germans, has been refused by the Belgians.

THANKED POINCARÉ
BRUSSELS, Aug. 8.—(via Paris)—King Albert appealed to France for aid in repulsing the Germans, according to the Exchange Telegraph Company. The King in a message to President Poincaré, thanked him for his promptness in responding to the Belgian appeal.

STILL HOLD OUT
PARIS, Aug. 8.—It is officially announced that the forts at Liege continue holding out. The Germans who entered the city evacuated Friday before the arrival of the Belgian division, which had come to its rescue. The evacuation was without military significance as the forts command the routes and railroads. The withdrawal of the Germans, however, was an unquestionable moral defeat.

ENGLISH REACH FRANCE
PARIS, Aug. 8.—It is officially announced today that English troops under the direction of French officers are disembarking on French soil. The point of disembarkation is not revealed. The disembarkation was made under the direction of French officers who spoke English fluently and was witnessed by a crowd that cheered the Englishmen.

STRATEGIC POINT SEIZED BY GERMANY IN FIRST MOVE OF HER ATTACK ON FRANCE

LUXEMBURG, WHENCE THE GERMANS ARE INVADING FRANCE.
Germany's first move toward the invasion of France was the seizure of the Luxembourg railway lines by German troops. The stations and bridges were taken by soldiers. These steps were taken by the Germans to assure the rapid transportation of troops across the territory of the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg. The invasion of Luxembourg was a direct result of the Treaty of London, signed in 1867. Possession of Luxembourg gives Germany opportunity to strike at France on her own border, or to move quickly toward Brussels. In seizing the Grand Duchy, therefore, Emperor William has improved his strategic position in that there is no bar to his movement toward France directly on the west or on England and France together, through Belgium on the northwest.

Proclamation

Mayor Spence this morning issued the following proclamation: On Thursday next the citizens of Brantford will be given the opportunity of showing their patriotism and helping to establish a great humanitarian movement. The different Women's organizations have joined with those of the Dominion in collecting $300,000 to equip a hospital ship to be sent to the front to care for the sick and wounded and carry them to the home hospitals for treatment. Hundreds of lives will be saved and untold sufferings alleviated by affording facilities for the care and treatment of desperately wounded soldiers, who otherwise would perish from exposure and want of proper nursing. The horrors of the battlefield are nothing as compared to those of the wounded and dying, who with proper facilities, might be restored to health and strength. A collection will be taken up by representatives of these organizations, and it is hoped that the citizens of Brantford of all classes will come forward and do their share in supporting this great enterprise.

RECRUIT SUNDAY MUCH STERN WORK

Local Soldiers Will Have to Take Their Medical Examination on Sunday.
Must be Done Before President Wilson's Offer is Accepted.

Recruiting will be continued tonight and to-morrow afternoon at the Dufferin Rifles Armories. To-morrow afternoon all recruits will have to take their medical examination as the commanding officer must forward the rolls immediately to Ottawa. It is thought that a big percentage of those who have enlisted will be rejected. Examined To-night
Those who have volunteered for the artillery division of the Canadian contingent that will leave for the old country, will be medically examined at the armories to-night at 8 o'clock.

APPRECIATED

Action of the Daughters of the Empire Here is Commended in Toronto.

A telegram was received this morning by Miss Eleanor Van Norman, secretary of the Brantford Chapter of the Daughters of the Empire from Mrs. Gooderham of the Toronto Daughters of the Empire, who have started out to equip a hospital ship for the war. The Brantford Chapter has offered $100 and thanks and appreciation were expressed for the timely assistance and aid.

STEAMER HIT MINE
FLUSHING, Holland, via London, Aug. 8.—120 p.m.—The Norwegian Steamer Tysla of 2,905 tons struck a mine outside the Dutch Island of Wieringen to-day. The explosion shattered her stern, but the captain managed to run her on the beach.

Money Order Office Closed

The following order was received from Ottawa this morning at the Brantford Post Office: "Discontinue money order business with United Kingdom, and through countries, as well as all other countries in Europe, until otherwise directed."

AN OFFENSE AGAINST ALL THE NEUTRALS

Noted American Refers to Mining in the High Seas.

[By Special Wire to the Courier]
NEW YORK, Aug. 8.—The rules of the Hague conference do not forbid the planting of mines on the high seas but the practice is regarded by many authorities on international law as an offence against neutral nations that might amount to a just cause for war according to Prof. George W. Kirby vice-president of the American Society of International Law. The question was discussed at the second Hague conference in 1907. Great Britain advocated that the placing of mines in high seas where they menace neutral vessels be prohibited. The proposal was opposed by Germany, Austria and the United States and other powers so that the proposal was not agreed to.

Writers on International said that any neutral nation would regard it as a great offence" the vice-president said "and would be justified in resenting it by force of arms if a ship flying its flag was destroyed by such a mine. It would have the right to make its protest even though no rule has been adopted by the Hague conference.

"If an American ship should be blown up by such a floating mine its owners would have the right to protest but the of the protest would be taken off by the position this country took at the second Hague conference."

THE WAR SITUATION IN BRIEF AS TOLD IN TODAY'S WIRES

[By Special Wire to the Courier]
Indications that both British and French troops are hurrying to the assistance of the Belgians are given in French official despatches to-day. The extent of the support is kept secret as well as the route taken by the reinforcements.

French cavalry is said to have arrived on the scene at Liege, where masses of German troops are reported moving forward to support the strong advance guard which was checked by the Belgians and is reported from Belgian sources to have lost 25,000 men in killed, wounded and prisoners. The German war office declares the German check not a defeat, but the result of a heroic attempt of a small German force to advance in face of difficulties.

French and German troops are said to have come into contact in Luxembourg, where several German army corps are supposed to have concentrated.

Portugal decided to act as an ally of Great Britain under the terms of the old treaty, by which it must supply 10,000 men.

A French newspaper despatch reports the sinking of a German cruiser, Augsburg, in the Baltic by a Russian torpedo boat.

A big Norwegian steamer struck a mine on the Dutch coast and was beached.

Trans-Atlantic lines running from Glasgow, suspended their sailings to-day, causing the stranding of many Canadians and Americans.

The Bank of England reduced its discount rate to five per cent owing to the improvement in the monetary situation.

All Offers Accepted.
The offers received from New Brunswick, Manitoba, Calgary, and from Mr. Hamilton Gault, the Montreal millionaire, to raise and equip supplementary regiments at their own expense, as well as all other proffers of assistance from public or private sources, have all been accepted.

Experience in Mobilization
It is expected that the transporting of the troops to Quebec will be carried through without a hitch, and within two or three days after the enrollment lists are approved next week by headquarters here. At Petawawa this summer the mobilization plan was tested, and 13,000 troops from a radius of 500 miles were assembled in 48 hours. Special attention has been paid to this branch of the militia service during the past year. The railway companies already have their passenger agents planning for the mobilization, and the experience gained at Petawawa is now invaluable.

STRUGGLE MUST BE LONG ONE

Canada is Making Preparations to Assist Empire
Militia Department Working Night and Day

OTTAWA, Aug. 7.—Reports received by the Militia Department yesterday indicate that enlistment all over Canada is now proceeding smoothly, and the numbers who are applying bear out the forecast made some days ago that far more than the total number actually required will volunteer. Altogether there will be twenty-five thousand men mobilized at Quebec, and of these twenty-one thousand will be sent across the Atlantic as soon as word comes from the Imperial Government. There will be ample work for the remaining four thousand in Canada, for garrison and patrol duty.

No Great War Quickly Ended.
There will also be available sufficient for a second army contingent from the Dominion. According to the opinion of military authorities here there is a strong probability that a second army contingent will be required from here. Military experts here believe that there will be a prolonged European land campaign before the issues of the war are finally decided. It is pointed out that there has not been a big war in history that has been quickly settled, and with Nations like Germany and Austria it is a case of hanging on to the last until armies, funds, and supplies are completely exhausted. The preparations for war now being made here are more or less preliminary to a long-drawn-out struggle.

Problem of Pay and Pension.
One of the problems which must meet the recruiting officers, and which has been referred to Ottawa for consideration is that of pay, pension, insurance and the care of the families dependent upon those who go to the war. Active service pay will apply as soon as the troops are under arms. For privates it is one dollar per day. There is now a pension act upon the books and there is no question but that pensions will be granted to the families of those who are killed, and to those who are incapacitated. And that there will be some form of remuneration to compensate for wounds received. There will probably be special legislation in this respect when parliament meets.

Probably Insurance Provision.
It is understood that there will also be some action taken in regard to insurance. At the time of the South African war, Lord Strathcona became personally responsible for the insuring of one of the contingents. The stipulation in regard to death in war, which appears in the ordinary policies, was waived by many of the insurance companies.

The offers received from New Brunswick, Manitoba, Calgary, and from Mr. Hamilton Gault, the Montreal millionaire, to raise and equip supplementary regiments at their own expense, as well as all other proffers of assistance from public or private sources, have all been accepted. Any additional regiments that are raised by such means will be supplementary to the main force of 21,000 men to be raised by the Federal authorities.

"Extravagant living at this time" the appeal asserts "will inflate prices and cause great suffering among the poor." The appeal is urged by the officers of the executive committee of the league.

BREEZY BUDGET FROM BUSY PARIS

PARIS, Aug. 8.—On Wednesday afternoon a very pretty wedding took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Payne, Wellington street, when their daughter, May, was united in marriage to Mr. James Flett of Hamilton, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Flett of Thorold. At 3 o'clock the bride's sister, Kathleen, played the Mendelssohn wedding march and then the bride entered the parlor on the arm of her father who gave her away. The bride looked charming in a gown of ivory duchess satin, with pearls and shadow lace trimming, and wearing a veil in Juliet cap effect with orange blossoms, and also carrying bridal roses and valley lilies. Miss Isabella Payne, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, and looked very sweet in pink charmeuse dress with lace trimmings and carried shell pink asters. Mr. David Flett, of Thorold ably assisted his brother, Rev. Mr. Brandon of the Methodist church officiated. The groom's presents to the bride was a handsome sunburst of pearls, to the bridesmaid a cameo ring, pianist, gold bar pin, and to the best man solid gold cuff links. A dainty buffet lunch was served, and the happy young couple left later on the 5.45 train for points west. The bride travelled in blue silk moire with a Panama hat. On their return, Mr. and Mrs. Flett will reside in Hamilton, where she will be at home to her many friends. Many beautiful presents were received, showing the popularity of the bride. Many friends in town will regret to hear that Master Kingsley Purton, who left with his parents last week for Detroit, has been threatened with appendicitis. Mr. George Midgley of Brantford township met with a painful accident the other morning, by scalding his arm badly. At the time of writing he is doing nicely. On Thursday afternoon the Ladies Aid of the Methodist Church held a very successful talent tea and home-made cooking on the grounds of the Methodist parsonage. Last night Scout Master Alfred Scott left for the war and was given a royal send off by the Parisians. J. H. Fisher, M.P., brought him over from the Grand Valley station in his car. The band headed the procession and C. W. C. B. Robinson as commander-in-chief. Members from various fraternal societies also attended. At the station Mr. Fisher M. gave a stirring address to the very large and enthusiastic crowd assembled, and called on Mr. Scott for a speech, who replied with a few brief remarks, stating his duty was to his King and he would do the best he could, thanking the people for the way they had honored him. Little Miss Robinson presented him with a beautiful bouquet, and the Scouts with a pocket testament. The band played patriotic airs. Later Mr. Bert McCammon drove him over to Brantford, accompanied by three of the members of St. James Men's Society who escorted him to the Hamilton Radial station. Mr. Scott was met by his sister in Brantford and later by his wife in Hamilton, who left on an earlier train and will remain with Mr. Scott's relatives there for a few days. Shortly after 12 o'clock yesterday noon, smoke was noticed, issuing from the warehouse of Mr. Edward Pitts, Paris Junction (flour and feed merchant) and the fire alarm was quickly turned in. The hose reel soon arrived and water was applied before any real damage had been done. Had the fire not been noticed in time, a serious loss, might have occurred.

OLYMPIC HELD UP NEW YORK, Aug. 8.—The White Star Liner Olympic, to have cleared from this port to-day, with British naval reserves, was held up indefinitely under receipt of orders from the British admiralty. The sailing of the Red Star Liner Vaderland, on which 1000 Belgian reservists were booked for a British port, was also delayed.

INSPECTION MADE

Street Railway Commissioners had a Busy Day of it Yesterday

The City Railway Commissioners Ex-Mayor Hartman, W. R. Turnbull, and A. K. Bunnell, went to Galt, and put in a strenuous day yesterday at Preston and Waterloo. They were accompanied by Manager Park Verner, Flett of Thorold. At 3 o'clock the commissioners were entertained to lunch by Martin Todd, Manager of the Galt, Hespeler and Berlin Road. Later in the day the party went to Berlin and examined the working of that railway, as well as that of the Berlin Municipal Railway to Waterloo. Going on to Preston, the commissioners visited the Preston Car and Coach Company, where they were shown the designs of the newest type of cars. The commissioners are securing specifications of a car that will be suitable to Brantford and the winter track cleaning outfit is all being got into shape for work.

GERMANY'S PERIL IS REVOLUTION

Her Industries Are Stopped, Her Fields Neglected and Her Credit Threatened.

PARIS, Aug. 7.—Les Debats in a remarkable article declared that Germany's real peril is not war but an internal revolution. The falsity of the Triple Alliance is revealed in the fact that Austria until yesterday was officially at war only with Serbia. Italy has never had her heart in it because of grievances against Austria. Within three days of the outbreak of the war there were no active warships in the Mediterranean Sea except British and French. Austria may hope that Italy will still remain estranged from France or that she may be unable to scale the height of infatuation upon which the Kaiser and his General Staff are living. The German Government, or perhaps we should rather have said the Prussian government, is isolated morally, economically and in a military sense to a degree that would have seemed fantastically impossible a fortnight ago. The South German States can foresee no such compensation as obtained in 1870, and can only be lukewarm as partners. The article points out that the unity of all parties in France and Belgium is conspicuous, which is a factor of no small importance, if only because of the quietude of the great cities.

Germany will be Pinched First. Germany, whose industries are stopped, fields neglected and credit imminently threatened, will feel the pinch long before the allies begin to feel it. Every day the internal pressure will increase the political education so strangely arrested for the last half century, and the country will be forced into a life of repressed hostility. North and south will burst the bonds and social democracy will take on an altogether new aspect. There has not been a flicker of revolution in Germany since 1848. The great fact on the eastern frontier two months hence may well be not war, but revolution.

Runs the Gauntlet with Scratch Crew. Captain Kendall Again Proves Himself an Heroic Officer.

LONDON Aug. 8.—Captain Kendall commander of the Empress of Ireland at the time of the disaster has again proved himself to be equal to an emergency. The Canadian Pacific steamship, Montrose was laid up at Antwerp when an urgent message came to the London office that she be manned and used to bring away over four hundred refugees. Kendall picked out four engineers who had shore leave took them to Antwerp by the last regular boat, obtained a scratch crew and stokers, then sailed. He piloted the boat made famous as the scene of Crippen's arrest, through mines in the Chanfleel until a British torpedo boat destroyer picked her up. The latter then escorted the Montrose to the mouth of the Thames, and the passengers landed at Gravesend yesterday afternoon. Captain Kendall refused to talk of his experiences.

NO ARMISTICE YET BRUSSELS, Aug. 8 (via Paris)—The newspapers are assured from official sources that no decision has been reached with regard to the request of the Germans for an armistice and moreover that the battle at Liege is continuing.

LONDON, Aug. 8.—The Standard, Daily Mail and other papers to-day appeal to Italy to abandon her neutrality and come to the assistance of England and France against "the common enemy of Europe."

Quiet On Curb Today

NEW YORK, Aug. 8.—Wall street was half deserted to-day for the first time since the outbreak of the European war, many of the leaders of finance took a day of rest. The floor of the Stock Exchange, where hitherto idle brokers have gathered daily to gossip and await war news, had almost no one on it to-day. The announcement yesterday that the exchange would not reopen for some time, put to an end reports of an early resumption of trading, and many brokers left the city for an indefinite vacation. At the sub-treasury distribution of emergency currency went on slowly. Banks continued to settle obligations among themselves with clearing house certificates but it was expected that with the turn of the week the monetary situation would ease perceptibly, particularly with regard to the loans and commercial paper.

FRENCH HAVE ARRIVED BRUSSELS, Belgium, via London, Aug. 8.—11.30 a.m.—A force of French cavalry arrived to the east of Liege to-day, according to an official announcement here. The French troops were said to be rapidly advancing.

FILLED WITH BODIES BRUSSELS, Aug. 8.—8.30 a.m.—Soldiers returning here report that the trenches around Liege are literally filled with the bodies of Germans. In some places the bodies are piled four and five deep.

When Herbert Thorpe, a Cumberland manufacturer, was fined £5 and costs at Huddersfield, on Monday, for dangerous motoring the police said that but for their intervention he would have been attacked by a crowd. He knocked down a teamster, Joe Stoney, and when he left his car the crowd threatened him. His licence was suspended for six months.

STRUGGLE MUST BE LONG ONE

Guarding Important Points

One of the important duties of the department at present is arranging for guarding all public works and all the channels of communication against attempts by Germans or Austrians now in Canada to blow up bridges, public buildings, canal locks, etc. It is realized that there is a very serious need of this, and hundreds of plainclothesmen sworn in on instructions from the department here are now stationed all over the Dominion. Every big railway bridge is guarded, and extra precautions are being taken in outlying districts, such as those along the National Transcontinental Railway and in the northwest. All German and Austrian Consuls who are not Canadian citizens have been given forty-eight hours in which to leave the country.

Units Ordered Out

Special precautions are being taken to strengthen the forces at Halifax, Sydney and Esquimaux and additional troops are being sent there. For service of this kind the department is not waiting to raise troops by the volunteer system, but is ordering out whole militia units under the provisions of the militia act. In the case of St. John, which is exposed to attack from any cruiser of the enemy, it is pointed out that since St. John is not fortified and is an open port under the international agreement governing war conditions, there could be no bombardment to destroy property unless resistance were offered. If an enemy's cruiser appeared at St. John, at Vancouver, or at any other unfortified port of the Dominion, the troops stationed there would retire and not invite the penalty of having the port shelled.

Kaiser Reserves Must Stay Here

Germans Will Not be Allowed to Return to Their Colors.

OTTAWA, Aug. 8.—German reservists remain in Canada. As previously intimated they will not be allowed to return to their colors. CANADIAN BANK BILLS GOOD AS GOLD.

To prevent any uneasiness or unnecessary trouble on the part of those not familiar with financial matters, and with the strength of our Canadian banking system, the Minister of Finance has issued a timely and reassuring statement.

He outlines the effective steps which the Government is taking to ensure an abundant supply of currency during the war, and authorizes payments in Bank Notes instead of in Dominion Notes or Gold.

That is to say, the familiar $5, $10 and $20 bills, and those of higher denominations, issued by our Canadian Chartered Banks have now exactly the same value as gold.

Railways, express companies, merchants, everybody in Canada, will continue to receive and make payments in Bank Notes. Our Canadian Banks are in splendid position to meet any demands which may be made upon them, as their reserves are exceptionally strong.

THE SITUATION.

What a remarkable Old Country it is, to be sure. Here at the commencement of a European war there is confidence, without the slightest sign of panic, and money—that most sensitive of all barometers—is plentiful. The Bank of England rate has been reduced to five per cent, and some banks have received more money than was paid out. No other land under like circumstances could make such a showing.

The earlier reports—not any of them of vital importance—have been to the disadvantage of Germany, especially with regard to the spunky defence put up by the Belgians. It may be taken for granted that this will not always prove to be the case, although if the German troops are handled after the fashion of close order, the method adopted before Liege, their military men must have been asleep. They worked that plan successfully in the Franco-German struggle, but the system has long been obsolete. The British learned a valuable lesson in this regard during the Boer war. Since that costly experience her troops have been trained to fight in skirmishing order, with at least 25 paces between each man, and cover to be taken whenever possible.

The outstanding feature of the Courier's special wire service this morning is the fact that Portugal has placed herself unconditionally alongside of her old ally, John Bull, and, further, that the members of Parliament there gave enthusiastic cheers for England and France. Thus the ruler by "Divine Right" Kaiser gets another husky jolt. Portugal from a navy standpoint figures at zero, and her fighting forces are numerically small. The peace establishment of the army is 32,000 and estimated war strength 100,000. They are good fighters, as Napoleon found to his cost. When the Emperor ordered the Portuguese King to seize British merchandise in that country he refused. Napoleon thereupon notified him that he had forfeited his throne. He solicited the protection of England, which was promptly granted. The French occupied Portugal, but were forced to withdraw on their defeat at Vimera by British and Portuguese allies under command of Sir Arthur Wellesley in 1808. Wellington's defence of the triple lines of Torres Vedras against Marshal Massena in 1810 completed the deliverance of Portugal from Napoleon's tyranny. It will thus be seen that there are very special reasons for friendship between the two lands. Portugal's pluck in bearing "Nap" at that period shows the kind of stuff of which her people are made.

In the States all the papers work while continue to applaud John Bull for standing by his allies and zealously guarding the interests of himself and the Overseas Dominions. In effect they practically express the view that Germany got in wrong and will end the same way. Papers of the Hearst type talk differently, of course. He owns a chain of sensational papers, and their regard for the truth couldn't be discerned even under a microscope. For instance, in Harper's Weekly a well-known correspondent tells how he accepted a commission to report the peace negotiations at the Falls, and that he resigned when he found that his despatches were being deliberately altered and sensationalized in New York. That people can support such deceiving perversion of alleged news seems incredible. As to individual feeling across the border, it may not be out of place to quote an extract from a letter received to-day by this paper from the head press representative of Ringling Brothers circus, who was in Brantford with the show some weeks ago. He writes:

"In the present state of affairs, I think we feel drawn closer to our friends across the line. No thinking about it—I know we do. God bless old England; we are all for her."

In Canada the desire to meet a patriotic duty is most pronounced. Mere men are offering for service there at present needed, but necessity might arise for drafting—single men first, married men without families next, and so on. Whatever betide, Johnny Canuck will do his duty without flinching.

Mr. F. E. Smith, who has been appointed British censor of war news, is a well-known barrister and member of Parliament. Anything that he allows through can be regarded as absolutely reliable, and he is not likely for a long time to O.K. very much. Information through other channels should mainly be taken at a discount.

THE GERMAN EMPEROR'S MISTAKE.

The special correspondent of the New York Herald in London, England, thus advises his paper:

"With the war there has come to England a great feeling of relief that the worst is known and decisive steps have been taken."

"In Russia the firm stand taken by England, leading to the declaration of war, has been hailed as an actual opportunity of salvation."

"In Russia gloom has been swept away by the fact that the British empire has found its true place in the alignment of nations."

"In Berlin the fact that Britain has cast her lot with the other members of the Triple Entente undoubtedly had a heartbreaking effect on Emperor William."

"The fact that Germany declared war on England before England declared on Germany does not indicate that war was any more welcome at Berlin, but in the preliminaries to this unparalleled trouble there has been a singular miscalculation of the underlying forces."

"William II, as I have explained to readers of the Herald, could not possibly have dreamed that Austria-Hungary's attempt to chastise Serbia would bring Russia into the field as an open antagonist. He could not have dreamed France would show the stiff backbone that has characterized her every move."

"The Emperor appears to have been dragged along by an irresistible destiny into his present position. Having got started, he could not help himself."

"With Russia on one side of him and France on the other, he appears to be determined that France must be attacked and defeated quickly or he is gone, horse, foot and guns."

"Thus irresistible destiny drove him into Belgium in order that German Emperors Mistake he might get into France in a hurry, and all the while Germany's Ambassador in London, Prince Lichnowsky, with honeyed words seeking to persuade the Liberal government to remain neutral."

"Those who have looked on believe now the German Emperor must be the greatest gambler in the world. He staked his empire, his army, his navy his crown upon the neutrality of Great Britain, and that same irresistible destiny that has dragged his dominating, strong-willed character onward has decreed that the Liberal government should be willing to fight, whereas William divined there was no fight in it at all."

"So at the last moment, to save his face, he made war upon Great Britain, knowing that he had gone so far in Belgium that he could not retreat, and that England surely would declare war upon him."

"Everybody's hand is now against Germany."

"German policy is being execrated wherever the English tongue is spoken."

"The statement is made here that Germany, in order to frighten the English financial interests, actually spent $10,000,000 bearing stocks during the two or three days preceding the closing of the Stock Exchange."

"Scotland Yard detectives, in searching the German quarter, have discovered in possession of German butchers and others large numbers of bombs and rifles, indicating that the prospect of a German uprising right in the city of London has not been entirely a dream on the part of E. Phillips Oppenheim and novelists of that type."

PROVES FRANCH CONTENTION PARIS, Aug. 8.—An official statement issued to-day says that German mobilization posters placed on walls in the towns of Vic and Moyenvic, in Alsace, Lorraine, prove the French contention that the war was premeditated on the part of Germany. The towns were occupied by the French yesterday and according to the statement the posters which they found, afford them valuable information concerning Germany's mobilization, besides revealing that Germany had decided upon a war at the time that the Triple Entente was redoubting its efforts for peace.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

We're all together in this fight.

To touch John Bull is to touch the world.

Wanted, some other country which has not yet sided with Great Britain. Reply in haste to the Kaiser.

The German legions are unexpectedly having a hard time in the effort to add Liege.

It is a fight of freedom against tyranny, and the issue, although costly, cannot remain in doubt.

It should be another St. Helena for Emperor William. A man like that should not be allowed to be around loose.

The present situation with regard to Great Britain recalls the old jingle: "We don't want to fight, 'But, by jingo, if we do, We've got the ships, we've got the men, We've got the money, too."

The Courier's course of hostilities will take the precaution of eliminating unreliable news of a manifestly sensational nature. We can't, of course, guarantee everything, but will do our best in the matter of watchful care.

WILL PAY THEM

Quebec City Employees to Get Salaries if They Go to the Front.

[By Special Wire to the Courier] QUEBEC, Aug. 8.—The city council last night decided to pay the civic employees that will engage in the militia for the present crisis, their full salaries.

This decision was taken amid wild enthusiasm. A soldier who was in the galleries, when the decision was given, arose and started to sing "God Save the King." The crowd rose and sang, the aldermen joining and following the anthem with the French "Marseillaise" and "O Canada." On their exit from the city hall, the mayor and aldermen were cheered lustily by parading crowds.

To The Editor

TERRACE HILL JUSTIFIED.

The Editor of the Daily Courier: Sir,—I noticed in Tuesday's issue of the Courier that Ald. English had a few complaints to make as to the way in which the residents of Terrace Hill had been treated by the Board of Works. I think Ald. English is quite justified in complaining. I know that the Board of Works are trying to do their best in the interests of Brantford, and it is not very nice after that to be criticized, but I would like them to walk up and down Dundas street east three times a day, for a few weeks, as so many working men do, going and coming from work all the year round, and then perhaps they would postpone some of the other work that is not so urgent, and get a sidewalk laid on this street. It would not cost $1,000 as Ald. Ward stated to grade for a sidewalk, as it is almost all filled in now. I should like to see what some of the other Terrace Hill residents think of this street that has been in the city's possession for a number of years. Yours sincerely, Terrace Hill Resident.

WHAT METERS DO

Brantford, Ont., Aug. 7, 1914. To the Editor of the Courier:

Sir,—The Board of Water Commissioners are in receipt of a letter from Mr. Levi Fisher, 9 Peel street this city, regarding the use of water meters on domestic services. Feeling that it would be of interest to water consumers in the city, I would ask you to kindly publish the facts he quotes. (He has always been a strong advocate of the meter system.)

"I quote you one instance of what I see frequently occurs throughout our city. A friend of mine questioned me about the placing of a meter upon his service, and I strongly advised him to do so. He at that time remarked that there was a small leak in the flush tank of his closet, but did not presume it amounted to anything. He had a meter placed, and to his great surprise found that it was wasting 70 cubic feet of water per day, or a little over 400 imperial gallons in that time, enough for ten or twelve families ordinary use. Needless to say, he did not allow this state of affairs to continue. After having the repairs made he found that he was using 6 c.f. a day in place of 70, and he has not gone beyond that average. The consumption at its own premises from June 30, 1913, to June 30, 1914, was an average of 3-8 cubic feet per day for the year."

When you consider that this is an ordinary house service with kitchen and water closet, (the other conveniences being connected with soft water) and compare it with the average consumption per capita of nearly 150 gallons a day for every man, woman and child in the city, they will appreciate what meters will do. Thanking you for space, Respectfully yours, FRED. W. FRANK, Secretary.

GERMANS MOWED DOWN IN HUNDREDS BY THE BELGIANS; GROUND COVERED WITH DEAD

Trains Filled With Wounded and Fugitive Non-Combatants Arrive at Brussels—Soldiers in High Spirits Declared Germans Outnumbered Defenders—Official German Account of the Battle.

BRUSSELS, August 7 (via London)—Trains filled with wounded and fugitive non-combatants arrived here from Liege and neighboring towns. The military trains with prisoners on board were sent from Liege to Antwerp.

The Belgian troops appeared to be in the best of spirits when the trains left Liege. They declared that there had not been ten Germans to one Belgian nor one German would have got through their lines. Though in good spirits the Belgians were particularly exhausted having fought for fifty hours without rest.

Some of the wounded Belgians eyewitnesses of the fighting, say they saw Germans mown down by hundreds in front of the trenches and entanglements by the gun and rifle fire of the Belgians, but that they were replaced by others who crawled forward like weasels. In certain places the fighting one the ground was covered with dead, the burial of which it was said would take at least a week.

British War Time Spirit Bespeaks That Of A Great Nation

[By Special Wire to the Courier] LONDON, Aug. 8.—The spirit in which the British people are taking the war has found expression in their acceptance of their first misfortune, the loss of the Cruiser Amphion with 136 men. In a lesser conflict it would have been mourned as a disaster. To-day it is regarded as a regrettable but not unexpected incident. The papers accord the matter neither the largest headlines or extended expressions of regret.

The public accept the loss calmly with confidence that the navy will do the work expected of it.

The reports of a victory in the North Sea, which were circulated Tuesday night, raised false hopes, and into the admiralty dissipated. Last night there was another of the great gatherings before Buckingham Palace, which have become to be night expressions of the loyalty and enthusiasm of the people. The ovation between the embassy organized by members of west end clubs was followed by demonstrations throughout the west end by the younger section of the community. These took the form of rejoicing over the reported Belgian successes and continuing into the hours to-day. The greater participating in many instances, were Belgians and Frenchmen who carried the flags of their countries and cheered mightily. The business section of the town displays very few flags and even soldiers march through the streets without attracting special notice. An onlooker said the temperature which we are certain is going to inspire the nation cannot be expressed better than in the words of Abraham Lincoln, "with malice toward none, and with equality for all." The authorities hold that there is certainly no malice being shown toward the 30,000 Germans who remain in England. The war office believes that the Germans have maintained for several years the largest and best organized system of espionage that one nation never supported against another. Consequently the police have arrested large numbers of Germans. About fifty were rounded up yesterday. The police took possession of the residence at Maresfield of Prince Muenster of Derenburg, who left for Germany upon the declaration of war. They also raided the German monotype works at Salford and seized a number of rifles and some ammunition. Thirty-two Germans at the plant were arrested.

Row street police station is housing a small army of weapons which have been taken by the police from the homes of Germans. Several large German stores and restaurants display signs announcing that "the proprietor is a naturalized British subject." A few German shops in the suburbs have been closed. No instance of Germans being robbed of assaulted has been reported, and there was only a few cases where they had been insulted.

All cross channel steamer service was suspended to-day.

THE WAR (Canadian Churchman) Give peace in our time O Lord, Because Thou only makest us to dwell in safety.

By the time these lines are being scanned by our readers it is expected on all sides that Britain will have joined the nations against Austria and Germany. The alacrity with which the Austria-Servia incident was seized as an excuse for warlike ultimatum and preparations in some quarters and the subsequent forcing of affairs to an issue displays a temper that will promise peace only on defeat. The struggle assumes larger proportions and involves graver issues every moment. The original cause is long lost sight of. It certainly looks as if Germany considers that this was the moment to strike for a larger place in European and world affairs—a moment which has been exhaustively and secretly prepared for. One wonders where the light of Christian ideals and obligations has gone. There is little chance of that light piercing the clouds of racial prejudice, pride and selfishness. We are proud of the spirit and method of our King and his statesmen in pressing for peace. If England goes to war, it will not be to a war of her seeking or making. From another point of view it looks like a struggle between two different civilizations, one dominated by the feudal spirit, ill-concealed tyranny, and the other (except Russia) permeated by the New Testament spirit of brotherhood and freedom. Surely it is in the cause of righteousness that she will summon her armies and navies.

Uncle Walt The Poet Philosopher TOWN DOGS.

This is the season when town pups which have no private drinking cups, too often must go dry; there are no fountains to produce three fingers of refreshing juice for bow-wows trotting by. Along the blazing thoroughfare they seek in vain, in their despair, for something they can drink; their blood gets heated and their jaws are dripping foam—with ample cause—their eyes turn red or pink. When some one sees a thirsty brute, "Mad Dog" cries, the peels shoot, the mob arrives with bricks; they chase poor Carlo through the town, and when at last they run him down, they knock him out with sticks. Not one in fifty dogs thus slain is mad or bug-house or insane, they're merely in distress; if dogs could always have a drink, there'd be one scare the less. So let us station in the shade large tubs of wholesome lemonade for dogs which are athirst, and they will bless us day by day, in their own friendly, doggy way, till they are wienierwurst. WALT MASON.

PORTUGAL WITH US. LONDON, Aug. 8.—A despatch to the Exchange Telegraph from Lisbon says that a special meeting of parliament to-day, the declaration was made that Portugal would place herself unconditionally on the side of England, according to the terms of her ancient treaty. The declaration was received with enthusiastic cheering for France and England.

British Cruisers Watch For German Raiders

The adventures of the Kronprinzessin Cecilie, which saved its $10,000,000 in gold and its own skin by putting into Bar Harbor on the Maine coast, gives a clue to the whereabouts of the warships of the warring powers which are off the Atlantic Coast.

Captain Pollack of the Cecilie says he just escaped capture by the British cruiser Essex and the French cruiser Friant while dodging his way up the coast in a dense fog.

The details have been given of the three third-class German cruisers Karlsruhe, Strasburg and Dresden, which were known to have left the West Indies and were supposed to be in the North Atlantic. It will be remembered each had a speed of 27 knots and carried 12 four-inch guns.

Since Germany has no coaling station in the North Atlantic, the activity of these cruisers will be limited unless they can secure coal from such sources as the Kronprinz Wilhelm, which left New York Monday on a mysterious mission.

The British Squadron. In North Atlantic waters Great Britain has four first-class armored cruisers and one third-class cruiser. The big warships are part of the cruiser squadron which was stationed in the West Indies a year ago. According to Washington advices, the Lancaster was last heard of from off Tampico, in company with the Essex, while the Berwick, the Suffolk and the Bristol had left for an unknown destination.

Table with columns: Ship Name, Tonnage, C/P'd, Armament, Speed, Comp/m't. Includes Essex, Berwick, Lancaster, Suffolk, Bristol.

France has three warships in the North Atlantic, the armored cruiser Conde and the third-class cruisers Descartes and Friant. The Conde is supposed to be on her way to France; the Friant has been reported off the New England coast, and the whereabouts of the Descartes is unknown. The most important details about them are as follows:

Table with columns: Ship Name, Tonnage, C/P'd, Armament, Speed, Comp/m't. Includes Conde, Descartes, Friant.

There are two German warships known to be on the Pacific coast. Both are third-class cruisers. The Nurnberg is at San Francisco and the Leipzig is approaching the coast after a voyage from China and is badly in need of more fuel. The details concerning them are as follows:

Table with columns: Ship Name, Tonnage, C/P'd, Armament, Speed, Comp/m't. Includes Leipzig, Nurnberg.

What British cruisers have been detached from the Pacific squadron to look after the wandering Germans is not known, but intimations have been received from London that there is no cause for uneasiness. The Japanese battleship Idzumo is at Mazatlan. Details of her construction follow:

Courier's New Serial THE STORY OF WAITSTILL BAXTER

BY KATE DOUGLAS WIGGINS

There is nothing commonplace or tiresome in the characters which the authoress has made to exemplify the old-fashioned personages in the charming recital of "The Story of Waitstill Baxter."

Strength and interest of quiet lives in the New England of three-quarters of a century ago provide the framework—that is, the skeleton—of the story. The flesh and blood of human beings, living and loving in a world of their own that is a miniature picture of the greater world outside, are also there.

The story is a cross-section of life as seen and described by a woman who has been well called "America's greatest living woman novelist."

Amid the hills of New England are many men and women like Waitstill and Patience Baxter, and their father, Ivory Boynton, and his afflicted mother, and funny Cephus Cole, who woos hopefully, but with small chance of success. They find their way into books but seldom, for it takes a master hand to describe faithfully the doings of real people. That is the reason why "Waitstill Baxter" has won highest praise from critics who know a good story when they see one.

"WAITSTILL BAXTER" WILL COMMENCE IN THE COURIER ON THURSDAY NEXT.

Will Meet Early.

The sub-reception committee of the Fraternal Day Committee will meet at 9 o'clock Wednesday morning in the Temple Building.

Dean Andrews Passed.

Dean Andrews, son of Mr. W. N. Andrews was a successful matriculation student at Ridley College, St. Catharines this year. He attended the Brantford Collegiate up until last Christmas.

Lieutenant Thompson Will Go

Lieutenant "Dick" Thompson, Jr., of Paris, 25th Brant Dragoons, has volunteered his services for the cavalry section of the Canadian contingent and will leave next Wednesday. Dick is well known in the city here where he has a host of friends. He is on the engineering staff of P. H. Secord & Sons, and he is now busy recruiting his squadron.

Volunteers First Drill

The first drill for the volunteers for active service will take place in the armories on Monday night at eight o'clock, when all who enrolled are asked to be in attendance. Sergeant Major Oxtoby will take the drill and put the volunteers through the initial stages of elementary military work. It is important that recruits should attend as many drills as possible.

Splendid Volunteers.

Twenty-five fine military men signed up for the 25th Brant Dragoons last night at the George St. headquarters. Every one of these men was a fighter and one had seen twenty years in regular service. All intending volunteers for the Dragoons are asked to note that they cannot enlist at the armories. The headquarters 13 George street is the only recruiting depot. The officers of the battalion are very pleased with the quality of last night's men.

Good Market To-day.

This morning's market was one of the best markets of the year. Visitors arriving in the city for Old Home Week no doubt necessitated, the heavy stocking of the home larder, and housekeepers were out galore this morning, buying up produce of all kinds. New fresh corn was readily sold at twenty cents a dozen. Apples were good at 25 cents per basket, while potatoes went up a nickel to 40 cents per basket. In the dairy department, eggs sold at 25 and 27 cents per dozen, and butter at 30 cents per lb.

Still in Commission

The wireless plants in the city have not been put out of commission by the police as they have no reason to think that the apparatus has any harm with their installation. Several wireless stations in Toronto have been closed down by order of the police, but these had powerful transmission machines and were able to send messages out. None of the local wireless stations are strong enough to send messages any distances and therefore could do no harm by sending out messages of any description.

All is Ready

All streets of the city are assuming a gay appearance with flags and streamers in the breeze, appropriate to old home week. In almost every doorway, in fact wherever one goes, the word "welcome" meets the eye. The spirit of festivity has already reached the city, and with fair weather and no bad news from the war field, the success of the week is assured. The different committees have worked hard, as it was expected that they would, merchants and manufacturers, fraternal and sporting men have all entered into the arrangements with an optimistic spirit that was at first wanting. Fair weather is now all that is needed to make the reunion a genuine success.

MORE RECRUITS ACCEPT CALL OF THE EMPIRE

Brantford Will Send Several Hundred to the Front.

The list of volunteers continues to increase and last night a batch of young men added their names to the roll for active service with the 38th. Dufferin Rifles, should they be called upon to serve at the front. Although the number had fallen off from the first night's enrolment, it was noticeable that the proportion of last night's volunteers were first class men who had seen army service. One in fact, said he was through the Boer War and was just as anxious to have a go at the Tontons as he was at the Boer. They were men who had come to the decision overnight and they were resolved and signed up without hesitation.

There were a few young men under twenty, but they had fallen off considerably from Wednesday's complement. The commanding officer was well satisfied with the recruiting of the night and thinks that as the men make up their minds, and sign up, he will have almost enough for a regiment before the recruiting closes. All who have given in their names, however, are not likely to go, for there is a medical examination which must be passed.

The Artillery were busy recruiting last night, and it was found necessary to turn several promising looking men down because they had not the military training necessary for service. The C. O. received orders from Ottawa yesterday that only experienced men could be taken.

The Dragoons were recruiting at the George street headquarters and a number of strapping men signified their desire for active service. Altogether, the enlistment yesterday was very satisfactory and is a tribute to the desire of Brantfordites to serve their country.

TOWNSHIP HYDRO

Petitions Will Be Gotten Out for Securing of Government Power.

A crowded audience of ratepayers in the Pardale Bell View, Grand View and Echo Place districts listened to an address on the advantages of Hydro-Electric in the Court House last night. The statistics of costs was also given out and it was stated that the assessment necessary for Hydro illumination was $100,000 with a mill rate of 1.3-4 per dollar.

The Rev. Dr. Linscott was elected chairman and Mr. J. A. Smith secretary-treasurer.

It was agreed that the hydro system had many advantages when they were pointed out by experts from Toronto while the cost was quite low and the council was instructed to prepare petitions for obtaining the names of all likely subscribers.

Mr. J. A. Scace an ardent worker for better illumination, spoke at length upon the system giving the costs and advantages and rates. The meeting was a great success for Hydro Electric light.

FOOLISH TO LAY IN PROVISIONS IN LARGE QUANTITIES

Wholesale Grocers Say That Canadian Consumers Have No Need to Fear.

Safety of coastwise shipping, even in war areas, and the fact that channels of trade from Canadian shores are likely to remain open indefinitely, are doing much to allay any feeling that there might be a shortage of food in the Dominion.

For householders to lay in large supplies of provisions is characterized by wholesalers as folly, as it is certain that the provision market will shortly steady down again, perhaps expected as soon as shipping activity is resumed between American shipping ports and Europe.

There is absolutely no need for apprehension on the part of the consumer in Canada. The difficulty is only temporary, as the supply of food is abundant with no prospect of its diminishing. In some cities dealers have taken an effective method of dealing with panic among their customers by limiting individual orders in flour and other commodities. The only things, however, which have been taken off the market by the war are some dried fruits and similar commodities, which it is now impossible to obtain from Southern Europe.

As far as flour goes, there is little prospect of prices going much higher than at present. The present price is somewhat higher than usual, but cannot go much higher, the reason being that wheat is available from many sources besides the Canadian fields. The farmers in Ontario and the other provinces of the Dominion have been holding their grain for higher prices, in spite of the fact that wheat is at present $1.05 per bushel in some localities.

Millers Importing.
Millers are importing wheat from the United States, preferring to pay the duty of 12 cents or more a bushel than to pay the prices quoted on the markets here. When it is seen that supply is available from other sources it is certain that all the Canadian wheat will be available at the same moderately high price. This will mean a cessation of the rise in flour.

Farmers of Ontario, where the wheat crop is abundant, are profiting largely by the high price where they are marketing the new crop. It is extremely rare for wheat to advance while the crop is being put on the market. Many dealers predict that farmers will not hold their crops for a rise very long. In the West, where wheat in some localities is a poor crop, the high price is a Godsend.

The immense waste which would necessarily result from storage of perishable commodities such as flour and vegetables, is condemned by the cooler heads among the provision men, who see normal trade conditions ahead.

With the City Police

Some one, for unknown reasons, painted William Henry's horse a pretty Irish green, while it was left to graze on a pasture in the suburbs of the city. It was suggested that the person had old home week decoration designs, but so far the mystery has not been elucidated. A young lad was suspected, and brought before the Bench, but he gave a straight story and denied the charge, and the magistrate decided that he was not guilty and dismissed the charge. The police are still looking for the elusive painter.

BELGIANS WILL NEVER FORGET THIS ASSAULT

What Their Consul at New York Says About the Germans.

[By Special Wire to the Courier]
NEW YORK, Aug. 8.—Represents that Liege, the greatest commercial city, was in flames in places as the result of German shell fire, created dismay and rage among the hundreds of Belgian volunteers, who have flocked here from all parts of the country on their way to Europe. The Palais d'Justice and St. Paul's Cathedral, reported damaged by shells are among the oldest buildings in Europe.

Speaking of the reported destruction of Pierre Mail, the Belgian consul-general said to-day: "It is monstrous and inhuman the fight being made into the city of Liege. It lies on the right bank of the Hesue River in the centre of the circle of twelve forts, which comprise the fortifications of the district of Liege. It is flatter than New York, and its approaches inside the forts are unguarded. There are 17,000 people in the city proper, and in the poorer quarters the congestion is a serious matter. If a fire ever starts there the city is doomed."

The regular meeting of the City Water Commissioners was held yesterday afternoon at the City Hall. Those present were John Fair, chairman, Mayor Spence, and Secretary F. W. Frank.

There was not a very heavy amount of business on hand and what there was was despatched in quick order.

On motion of Mayor Spence and John Fair tenders were asked for the construction of a new pump well at the pumping station as per plans prepared by Willis Chipman. It was decided to connect the 14 inch, 10 inch and 20 inch water mains at present near the corner of Morrell and West Mill street. With proper valves to control these pipes, so that they may be operated either singly or together.

FOOD SUPPLY LEAVES NOTHING TO WORRY OVER

If British Navy Keeps Coast Clear Everything is All Right.

LONDON, Aug. 8.—J. G. Broadbank, one of the representatives of the Board of Trade in port affairs is optimistic regarding the food supply. In an interview he said: "All British ports and especially London are bound to have an excess of business since most of the continental ports are no longer open. Ships which ordinarily carry cargoes, partly for London and partly for Antwerp and Hamburg, are already discharging their cargoes here. There are eight ships waiting at Gravesend, which were destined originally for continental ports, but now are ordered to discharge here."

There is now at sea a large tonnage of shipping laden with food stuffs consigned to Hamburg and Bremen. These cargoes will be diverted to London or other British ports. All this indicates continuance of sufficient supplies so long as the war lasts and our navy commands the sea.

Just out of her teens, Grand Duchess Marie of Luxembourg faces a crisis in her career as ruler of the second smallest kingdom of the world, for the Germans have ignored the neutrality of Luxembourg and used that route to advance into France. The small grand duchy lies in the direct line between Berlin and Paris. Not connected with the latter city by railroad. The fact that its fortifications were dismantled and there is no chance to offer any defence against an invasion makes it the logical point from which the Kaiser can pour his troops into France, and he has made the most of it.

Rev. Hiram Hull, of Dunn avenue Methodist Church, Toronto, both of whom are with the Cuthbert party. As if by a freak of fate Prof. Braun's party was scheduled to enter Heidelberg on the same day as the Cuthberts and as the last letters from both groups state that they were pushing into Germany, it is highly probable that Prof. Braun has used his influence to care for the Canadians in that country.

Mr. Burnett is an official in the Toronto Gas Works and his wife is a sister to Prof. Braun. He stated that he does not think the Canadians in Germany will be able to reach home until next spring at the earliest. His last letter stated that there were hundreds of Canadians in the various resorts of Germany and Switzerland.

The social calm pervading Toronto was pleasantly disturbed last Wednesday week when Lady Willison and Mrs. W. H. Hearst entertained the Women's Branch of the South Toronto Conservative Club at a charmingly arranged garden party on the lawn of the Hon. W. H. Hearst's residence in Glen road. The raison d'être of the affair was Mrs. Arthur Van Koughnet, to whom the Club wished to make a presentation in recognition of her splendid work for this organization. Mrs. Hearst, wearing a becoming gown of embroidered voile over apricot silk with touches of green, welcomed the guests at the entrance to the delightful old garden, where Lady Willison, in a chic gray suit, and black hat with cream plume, graciously discharged her duties as hostess. The scene of the party was received with Mrs. Hearst, looking extremely well in a gown of black charmeuse draped over heavy cream lace, and wore a corsage bouquet of purple sweet peas set in lily-of-the-valley. After everyone had enjoyed strolling through the shady grounds, and listening to the soft music of the orchestra, Mrs. Hearst read the address to Mrs. Van Koughnet, while Lady Willison made the presentation. The gift, consisting of a handsome solid silver service in quaint design, a large tray of Sheffield plate, and a smart French bag containing a purse, was prettily received by Mrs. Van Koughnet, to whom the whole affair came as a complete surprise. Miss Hearst and Miss Haskin, both wearing white, and Mrs. Walter Willison, in a gray gown, with one of the fashionable loose wraps, assisted the hostesses in dispensing the hospitalities; as did also the Hon. W. H. Hearst, Sir John Willison, Colonel McQueen, Mr. Walter Willison, and the other gentlemen present. It was a pleasant surprise to see so many familiar faces at this delicate fair niente season, among those noticed being Miss Nora Whitney, in a becoming brown costume with hat to match, Colonel and Mrs. McQueen, Mrs. Angus Sinclair, in white; Mr. and Mrs. Melfort, Boulton, Mrs. F. W. MacLean, wearing a modish gown of white silk crepe and white hat; Mr. and Mrs. W. D. McPherson, Mrs. Gyne, Mrs. John I. Davidson, Mrs. H. S. Strathy, Mrs. Forsyth Grant, Mrs. Harry Gamble, Miss Rosamond Bouthce, smartly gowned in black; Miss Helen Merrill, Miss Jeanette Cornell, Mrs. J. C. Hopkins, Mrs. Pyne, Mr. Donovan, Mr. Arthur Van Koughnet, Mr. Johnston and Mr. Willison.

Dr. Falconer, president of the University of Toronto, it at time of writing in Germany, where, according to rumors, Canadians are not any too pleasantly situated, the country now being under military law. Girls of Canadian and British parentage attending schools in Germany have been asked to return home.

Dr and Mrs J. C. McLennan of Toronto have been staying at the Berners Hotel in London, and later go up to Scotland where they will be the guests of Mrs McLennan's father. On their return home, they will take possession of Mr. Ince's house, 88 Prince Arthur Ave, which Dr McLennan purchased prior to leaving Canada.

STALLED TILL SPRING? Party May Find Shelter in Influence of Columbus Professor.

Mr Frederick Burnett is a former Brantfordite whose wife is in the war zone.

Mrs. Burnett and Miss Lucile Verity, daughter of the general superintendent of the Massey Harris Works, left several weeks ago to visit the continent in a small party led by Professor W. A. Brawn of Columbus University. He is a leader in the Germanic Language Department of this institution and amongst his friends he numbers several German statesmen who are in close touch with the German cabinet. Mr. Burnett is inclined to think that he is the one man in Germany who can care for the stranded or imprisoned Canadians in Berlin or Heidelberg.

FIRES IN CITY. BRUSSELS, via London, 4 p.m., Aug. 7.—Le Peuple says the bombardment of Liege had caused six or seven fires in that city up to 7 o'clock last evening. The steadiest fire occurred yesterday afternoon. Germans then came to the city with a white flag and demanded the surrender of the place. They received a negative reply and the bombardment was resumed at 6 o'clock. Martial law has been proclaimed throughout Belgium.

URGES SOCIALISM. LONDON Aug. 9.—The Nation, which is the organ of the Pacificists, says: There is but one substantial hope of avoiding a second return of Europe to barbarism. That lies in setting up in each afflicted country a reign of modified socialism. This partial reorganization may be effected by the action of states and municipalities in regulating employment and food supplies.

Queen Helena Is Sad

If Italy Goes to War Her Husband Must Fight Her Beloved Father.

In all of war-shadowed Europe, among all the haggardly apprehensive wives and mothers of soldiers, probably the most anxious woman is a queen. For it seems certain that Queen Elena of Italy will have a husband whom she passionately loves on one side of the world-rocking conflict, and a father to whom she is only less devoted in the opposite camp.

Queen Elena, wife of Victor Emmanuel of Italy, is the daughter of King Nicholas of Montenegro. And there are Toronto women recently returned from the great International Council Congress in Rome who will bear witness to her charm. Her favorite brother, Prince Danilo, who taught her to shoot and fish and ride and climb mountains in her girlhood days, has just given out this statement:

"Montenegro is going to fight to the end with Serbia against the common enemy."

Now "the common enemy," while primarily Austria, is bound to include the other parties to the Triple Alliance, if European understandings are worth the paper they are written on. These other parties are Germany and Italy. Though it is known that there is a strong popular feeling in the latter country against going to war in support of Austria, nevertheless Italy's military preparations are being pushed with the utmost speed. Queen Elena knows that it is only a matter of days when the father of her babies may declare war on her grandfather.

We are apt to think of the affection between royal relatives as formal and conventional rather than warmly human. But there are notable exceptions to this rule, if rule it is, and the case of Queen Elena and her nearest and dearest forms such an exception.

She has always been daughter, wife and mother before she has been a queen. From her very babyhood the relations between herself and her father were most tender and familiar. She is the fourth child of King Nicholas, and is said to have inherited more of his notable qualities than any of his other children. He is a poet and an artist and so is she. He has great personal bravery and during the Messina earthquake and other national catastrophes Queen Elena showed this same admirable characteristic.

Montenegro is a mere bit of a kingdom, containing scarcely the population of a small American city. So, though King Nicholas has always boasted of his subjects, and though he has proved an astute player in the game of world politics, he has been able to devote much personal attention to his large family.

He was the little Elena's earliest tutor. She had hardly taken her first steps before he set her on his knee and taught her the letters of the Slavic alphabet. When she had mastered them he taught her to read and write. Then he gave her lessons in history and geography, and when she showed him her first rude sketches he himself corrected the little drawings and did all he could to encourage her artistic talent.

Also, in company with him and her favorite brothers, Danilo and Mirko she played the tomboy to her heart's content, becoming one of the best sportswomen in Europe.

Herone of Romance. She yielded up this particularly close and endearing comradeship with her father only to become the heroine of one of the most authentic of Europe's royal romances. It is generally agreed that if ever a love match existed it is that of Elena and Victor Emmanuel. It even stood the test of a six-year honeymoon! The happy bride and bridegroom spent that period almost alone on their private yacht and the secluded island of Monte Cristo, returning to Rome only when forced to do so by the assassination of King Humbert. To secure their privacy even against servants, Princess Elena with her own hands attended to the needs of their simple household.

Since she and her husband were raised to the throne of Italy she has devoted herself almost wholly to their charming children, three princesses and a prince. She has frankly shirked all the court ceremonies she could escape to lunch and dine and drive on tete-a-tete with her husband, to bathe and amuse her children. As for the King, he is one of the few reigning monarchs about whom no one talks unpleasant gossip, and he responds completely to his wife's loyal affection.

Do you see the bitter personal tragedy war will mean to Queen Elena? On one side, the country of her birth, her father and brothers, her beloved girlhood home, her niece and nephews children of the sister that married King Peter of Serbia, another sister, the wife of a Russian grand duke. On the other side her husband, her little ones, all the happy associations of rich full years of married life, the country of her adoption. Is it far from the truth to name her, at this moment of crisis, the most anxious woman in Europe?

VERY APPROPRIATE. Radish: "I hear you are going to join the circus." Onion: "Yes, I'm going to be a strong man."

ROME, Aug. 8.—A statement attributed to King Victor Emmanuel in reply to the assistance of the representatives of Germany and Austria-Hungary who continually augmented their offers in order to obtain the active co-operation in the politics of the two Teutonic empires has aroused much discussion in political circles here. The King of Italy is said to have burst out with the exclamation "Neither friendship for my allies, no efforts made by them, no matter how advantageous, would persuade me to sell my honor and that of my country."

returned home to-day as her desire was not to be far away from the king during the present grave situation. She said: "My place in case of danger is beside my husband."

The queen was accompanied by her sister-in-law Princess Natalie of Montenegro and her three children.

ALL EYES ON BELGIUM

French Have Reinforced Defenders of Buffer State.

LONDON, Aug. 8.—Eyes were turned to-day toward Belgium, where the unexpected stand made by the Belgian army against a German advance guard has earned praise in all quarters. The authorities here have taken the greatest precautions to prevent the leakage of information as to military and naval movements, but indications were seen in the commandeering of large liners and the stoppage of the cross-Channel passenger traffic that the departure of a British expeditionary force would possibly soon take place. The possible destination of this expedition could not be ascertained, and the report from Paris announcing the landing of British troops evoked enthusiasm and carefully hid the place of their debarkation.

President Poincare also gave out the news in his message to King Albert of Belgium that French troops were "shedding their blood with the Belgians on the battlefield to-day."

The fighting around Liege, although regarded in military circles as important, is considered as merely an opening movement in the campaign, the plan of which has been kept admirably hidden by both the German and French commanders-in-chief.

Senators Take Another From Petes, Beavers Win from Yankees.

LONDON, Aug. 8.—If London had not scored more runs than the one Joe Dunn got in the third, when he stole home after being safe on an error and going to third when Hughey uncorked a wild pitch, one could have related the story of London's victory as a lucky one. But London found Hughey for four hits in the 7th and these were coupled with a balloon ascent, the Petes sending four runners across the plate for the inning.

Outfit Twice Over
OTTAWA, Aug. 8.—Ottawa although outfit by more than 2 to 1 doubled the score on the Petes in yesterday's game by taking advantage of their opponents' errors and doing some very timely hitting themselves. Kubat, though hit hard, managed to keep the hits well scattered and helped win his own game by delivering a timely force batter. The score, Ottawa 6, Peterboro 3.

Beavers Beat Yankees
TORONTO, Aug. 8.—Toronto won from Erie yesterday in the second game of the series. An error by Manager Gyalis of the Yankees, at a critical moment yesterday was the cause of their defeat. The Beavers pitcher showed a nice article of ball, but Toronto's hits were the more timely and coupled with the visitor's errors. The score, Toronto 5, Erie 4.

NEW YORK MAKES IT THREE OUT OF FOUR

Pirates Hit Timely
BOSTON, Aug. 8.—Unsteadiness on the part of Cottrell and Grutcher coupled with timely hitting by Pittsburgh to-day cost Boston their first game yesterday in the last ten played by a score of 5 to 1.

COBB FIGURES IN VICTORY TIGERS ROUT GREGG

DETROIT, Aug. 8.—Covelskie was better than Gregg in the pinches and Detroit beat Boston yesterday 3 to 1. Cobb, back in the game for the second time since June 20, made a triple and a sacrifice and drew two bases in four trips to the plate. He drove in one Detroit run and scored another.

Errors Are Costly
ST. LOUIS, Aug. 8.—New York by bunching hits with St. Louis' errors won yesterday 4 to 3.

Mackmen Hit in Runs
CLEVELAND, Aug. 8.—Errors and Mitchell's wildness gave Philadelphia all of its runs and allowed that team to defeat Cleveland, 4 to 0.

RED SOX TAKE SECOND GAME

McGroarty's Errors were Responsible For Red Sox Win.

HAMILTON, Aug. 7.—Good twirling by both Clements and Chase featured yesterday's game at Britannia Park between the Athletics and Brantford and which resulted in a 3 to 2 victory for the visitors. Errors on the part of McGroarty and several rotten decisions by Empire Freeman played an important part in Hamilton's defeat.

Hamilton's pitcher, Deneau, pitched differently had neither of these personages been credited with errors. The umpire had an off day as far as Hamilton was concerned and made three bad decisions which figured in the scoring. A three-bagger by Nasher in the initial period was easily the nicest hit of the day while the double plays made by Haeffner and Pendry in the eighth added to the excitement.

Clements who did mound duty in the home club, started out bad in the first period when he walked the first man and then was hit for a triple by Nasher both of whom scored, the latter on a squeeze play but soon tightened up and pitched sterling ball for the rest of the game and would have won had McGroarty not muffed up three easy grounders.

Lill started out for Brantford but hurt his finger in the second and was replaced by Chase. The score:

HOW CANADIANS WOULD BE PAID

The fact that the militia units in Brantford may be called to the front has aroused a great deal of interest, and the pay that those who do go is a matter that is also of vital interest to those who may be affected.

Below is the list. It will be noticed that there is an extra allowance for "active service."

Rank	Regular Pay	Active Service Allowance	Total
Lieut. Colonel	$5.00	$1.25	$6.25
Major (qualified)	4.00	1.00	5.00

Lieutenant (qualified)	2.00	.60	2.60
Lieutenant (provisional)	1.50	.60	2.10
Rank and file	.75	.10	.85

There are, of course, other special allowances, but the average pay is as above, and covers the cavalry artillery infantry, engineers, signal corps, A. S. C. and the Postal corps.

BULLY METHODS

French Ambassador Had Revolver Put in His Face.

PARIS, Aug. 8, 4:15 a.m.—The experiences of Jules Cambon, the French ambassador to Berlin on his trip from the German capital are related in detail in a report to the Minister of Foreign Affairs. It appears that he was subjected to numerous inconveniences, and even to ill-treatment when passing the canal at Kiel. Soldiers there advanced the train on the pretence of inspecting the baggage and he and other travellers were obliged to remain in their compartments the windows of which were closed and the curtains drawn. Before each door a soldier stood with revolver in hand. This detention lasted for half an hour. The Russian charge d'affaires and women and children, it is said, had to submit to the same treatment.

WERE LYNCHED

Louisiana Mob Hanged Three Murderers Early To-day.

(By Special Wire to the Courier.)
MONROE, La., Aug. 7.—Preston Griffin and Charles Green, negroes, were taken from the local city hall tower to-day and hanged by a mob. Less than 24 hours before Henry Holms was lynched near her in connection with the same crime.

A. J. Madden an aged grocer, was killed by burglars Wednesday night and Holms was captured and lynched by a mob several hours later. He is said to have confessed and implicated the two other negroes in the crime.

HAS BEEN BATTLE

AMSTERDAM, Aug. 8.—The Telegraph reports the receipt of a wireless message announcing that a German cruiser is en route for Viniden, bringing ten men who were wounded in a naval battle.

SERVICE SUSPENDED

PARIS, Aug. 8.—Steamer service from Saint Nazaire to Colon, from Bordeaux to Africa and from Marseilles to various points has been suspended.

BOMBARDING LIBAU

STOCKHOLM, Aug. 8.—(via London 4:10 a.m.)—The captain of a schooner which has arrived here from Libau, having sailed from the Russian port on August 4, reports a heavy bombardment of Libau by the German fleet and that the fortresses were damaged badly.

AFTER MERCHANTMEN

SHANGHAI, Aug. 8.—Russian warships have captured the German merchantman Sabine Rickmers at the mouth of the Amur River. The Deika Rickmers, another German merchantman, after an exciting run from Hong Kong arrived here safely to-day and found shelter behind an island. On the voyage here, she sighted a British cruiser and forthwith run up a British flag.

War May Interfere With Olympic.

Ottawa Journal: The present outlook for Canada at the Olympic games in Berlin next year is very gloomy. In fact, it is doubtful if a team of any kind will be sent to the German metropolis to compete against the world's athletic representatives. Field and track sports have been on the down grade in the Dominion for three or four years. A weak governing body has been one cause, while the continuous change of seasonal games has monopolized the available timber in our big universities, has tended to great deal to discount, enthusiasm in this direction. While Canada has not three officials debating the probability of the Olympic games in Berlin in 1916. The sporting world is suffering as much, if not more, than any other since the Kaiser commenced his funny stuff.

League Will Lose Stars

With the great demand for ball players at present it is anticipated, the Canadian league will be riddled of its star players when the draft season opens this season. Among those of the Ottawa players who are likely to advance are Pitcher Frank Kubat, who is displaying brilliant ability on the mound this season. Kubat was drafted by Toronto two years ago, but his inexperience failed to hold him in his job in the International. This year he has shown great promise. At these intercollegiate gatherings have never approached championship calibre. In the past Canada has practically depended on the athletic clubs of Montreal and Toronto for Olympic material. The maple leaf was prominently to the front when Goulding, Kerr and Tait wore the spikes, but they have no successors.

War Knocks All Sport.

Ottawa Journal: A number of racers from St. Thomas were ordered off the grounds at London on Saturday for rooting for Ottawa. London sure is some ball team, we don't imagine if someone would teach them the way to be sports it would help a heap.—St. Thomas Times.

Hamilton Herald: This darn war is turning everything topsy-turvy. No boat races, no anything. And it has also resulted in Charley Good of the Toronto News, and the A. A. U. of the Ottawa backstop, has been given the once over by several courts this season. Among other Canadian leaguers who may be caught in the draft are Whitcraft, the London shortstop; Snyder, the London catcher; Bierbauer, the London first sacker; Pitcher Dougherty, of Hamilton; Louis Schetter, of Peterboro, who has been up there, but is going well enough to get back again; Kopp of St. Thomas; Brown the Erie pitcher, and some of the Toronto International recruits with the Beavers.

IN NATURE'S WILDERNESS

The attractiveness of spending ones summer holidays in the open is appealing to the large army of summer pleasure seekers more and more every year and instead of looking for the fashionable resorts where one has to dress for dinner and where safety reigns supreme, the young generation is taking to the woods, the lakes and the streams in which they find in a two or three weeks outing, that rest and bodily upbuilding that fortifies them for the arduous duties that a strenuous twentieth century business life demands. Algonquin Park is just the out-of-way sort of place for you—log cabin camps in the heart of the wilderness surrounded with unrivalled scenery and in the midst of the best fishing and with the comforts of city homes await you. Hotels with reasonable rates offer good accommodation. Two thousand feet above the sea level assures you of cool evenings and the purest air. Ask Grand Trunk agents for all information, rates, etc. T. J. Nelson, City Passenger and Ticket Agent Brantford.

HOLLAND IS SUSPECTED OF HELPING ENEMY

Germany's Food Supply Can Only be Got Through Dutch and Italian Ports.

(By Special Wire to the Courier)

LONDON, Aug. 8, 4:45 a.m.—The qualified admission of a temporary setback to German arms at Liege, which comes from Berlin to-day, is a reminder of the strict silence Germany maintained at the German capital since war was declared. The only telegraphic outlet by way of Berlin now left is through Amsterdam, and a strict censorship permits only brief despatches of an official character to leave the country.

The greatest indignation is manifested in the English press at the alleged treatment by the Germans of English correspondents in Berlin who are endeavoring under the greatest difficulties to serve their papers.

The fact that the only news from Berlin now comes through Holland has an interesting phase. Holland has persisting in neutrality is exciting suspicion in Belgium of Dutch sympathy with Germany.

It is contended by the suspicious ones that through the ports of Italy and Holland foodstuffs may still reach Germany, and therefore Italian and Dutch neutrality stands in the way of Great Britain, France and Russia completely cutting Germany off from outside supplies.

According to a story told by Dutchmen who returned from Antwerp, and which was given to a London newspaper, the feeling against the Dutch on this account is so strong in Belgium that their lives are unsafe.

OVER A MILLION FOR PRINCE'S FUND

Rich Englishmen Give Generously to Safeguard the Poor.

LONDON, Aug. 7.—Although it was only opened yesterday morning, $1,125,000 had already been subscribed last night to the Prince of Wales fund for the relief of the poor during the war. The provincial cities are still to be heard from.

One of the first subscriptions was $50,000 from the prince's regiment, the First Life Guards. Among others who contributed to the fund were George Coats, the manufacturer, $25,000; Lord Ashton, $75,000; the Rothschilds, $50,000; King George, Sir Ernest Cassel and Sir William Hartley, each $25,000, and dozens of other persons, $5,000 including Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt.

The Queen Mother Alexandra has also appealed for funds for the Red Cross society, and Ladies Page, Lowther and Churchill and Mrs. Harcourt, American women who married Englishmen, have formed a committee and will arrange a plan whereby American can manifest in some way their sym-

A Living Wage Stays Disease

Regular employment at wages sufficient to meet the cost of hygienic living is the sine qua non of all the requirements. It does not take an expert in disease prevention to tell us that an underfed, poorly clothed, poorly housed group of people are going to prove easy prey to the germs of influenza, pneumonia, tuberculosis, and similar disease. Neither does it take a deep and prolonged study of wages, cost of living and housing conditions of the working people of the United States for us to know that a large percentage of them are living on a scale greatly below a hygienic minimum.

To illustrate, we find that in the annual report for 1913 of the point board of sanitary control in the garment trade in New York City, which represents 5,000 men and women workers, the following statement:

"The most of the harm to the health of the workers is due to long hours, overexertion on piecework, overfatigue at rush seasons, and worry during the absence of work."

Representatives of the Phipps Institute report similar conditions in Philadelphia.

Conditions are no better in St. Louis, where Schwab, after a study made among 7,000 garment workers, found that 25 to 30 per cent suffer from acraesthesia. According to his view the nerve weakness is due largely to overfatigue, speeding up on piecework during the rush season, and the lack of work during the prolonged slack season and the worry incident thereto.

In the same city the Jewish Alliance Exchange found that a very large majority of demands upon the society for relief were due to sickness, and whether the sickness was the cause of lack of employment or not, the two conditions were so intimately related that permanent cure was not thought possible without adjusting the employment at living wage.

When a substantial part of any community is working on a level much below a hygienic minimum there will be an increasing demand upon the charity organization, especially on account of sickness.

In fact, the index of the general effects of industrial conditions upon a community may be obtained by ascertaining the amounts expended for relief work by charitable and other organizations. When the industries fail to meet the cost of hygienic living for their employees, the burden is shifted to the public.

The sanitary conditions of the places of employment have a distinct and direct bearing in the causation of disease through poor general conditions, poor lighting, heating, and ventilation, overcrowding, excessive humidity and special conditions of deleterious gases, fumes, dusts, poisons and the like. These conditions are so obvious in so many industries and causing so much direct injury to the workers that the general public have come to consider these as the full extent of the damages for which industrial conditions are responsible.

The occupational diseases are so directly due to the employment that in many cases they could with little modification of the law be made to come under the workmen compensation acts.

The reports of the lead industries made by Alice Hamilton show such bad sanitary conditions that measures are being enacted to regulate those industries.

Conditions are no better in the chemical and dust trades in New York State, as shown by the report of the factory commission.

It is not necessary to quote from reports showing the harmful effects of long hours, low wages, and poor sanitary conditions; they are matters of such common knowledge as to cause little comment except when some unusually bad condition is found.

Employers must be shown that the healthy man is the most efficient and the cheapest to employ, and that any reasonable expense to maintain him in health is a profitable investment.

Employers must be convinced of the results to be expected from the maintenance of hygienic standards and that much of the responsibility is theirs.

The responsibility has been so thoroughly fixed on the employes by the protocol agreement among the garment workers in New York City that sanitary strikes are authorized.

—S. Warren, surgeon, United States Public Health Service.

through the refusal of employers to raise their daily wages from $4.00 to $4.80 per day.

Chauffeurs of San Francisco have just established their new minimum rate of $3.50 per day and 50 cents per hour for overtime. Nearly all the big establishments have signed up.

The Industrial Brotherhood of Teamsters, Chauffeurs, Stablenen and Helpers has signed up with all the employers in Scranton, Pa., obtaining also a substantial increase in wages.

Unions affiliated with the San Francisco Building Trades Council are donating their services voluntarily and freely in the construction of a home for the blind now being erected in that city.

New York suit case workers, after a strike of four weeks' duration, have won a signal victory.

Canadian canal tonnage up to July 1st, 1914, amounts to 11,997,891 tons, which is a comparative decline of nearly four million tons, the figures for the same period of last year having been 15,783,093 tons.

Some idea of the immense volume of business that passes through the St. Clair River at Sarnia, Ont. may be conceived when it is remembered that it is estimated that forty thousand steamer and sailing crafts pass up and down each year. The commerce from the great Canadian West is increasing fast, and the largest steamers and freighters in commission on the lakes are Canadian built, Canadian owned and Canadian manned.

The types of Calgary are at present negotiating a new wage scale. The oil boom in the vicinity of the city has given considerable business to the printers. This has helped out the members of the craft who have experienced a long period of depression. It has also been the cause of many craftsmen coming into the district and now that things are again slackening up will mean more idle journeymen in evidence within a short period of time.

By a fall of earth in the Granby mine at Phoenix, B.C. on July 25th, three men and an electric ore train were caught in a tunnel of the mine. Two shaft bosses and a motorman were buried beneath one thousand tons of earth and rock and instantly killed. There are accidents and fatalities of almost daily occurrence in the mines of the province that are never heard of through the medium of the public press, many of which are of a preventable nature if ordinary safety devices were provided by the mine owners.

At the thirteenth annual convention of the Journeymen Barbers' International Union, which convenes in Indianapolis, Ind., on October 6th next, there will be a larger attendance of delegates from Canada than at any previous gathering. It is expected that nearly every province in the Dominion will be represented.

Every local union that has been over 12-months in existence will have the expenses of a delegate paid by the International Union. More local organizations of the craft have been instituted in Canada during the first six months of 1914 than during any previous three years.

By its action of abandoning and dismantling its coal mines in Hosmer, B.C., the Canadian Pacific Railway resources department throws over a thousand workers out of employment. No word of warning was given prior to the shutdown so that preparation might be made to meet the impending change. Home builders and storekeepers were paralyzed at the blow. Many of the business men had just procured new supplies upon which they had paid freight to the company much of which will have to be reshipped at considerable expense or prove a total loss. Property worth hundreds of thousands of dollars has now become derelict and useless, and the insurance companies have cancelled all policies on buildings. Many cases of absolute destitution have resulted. Workingmen who have expended the hard earnings of years in securing or building homes now find them useless. The Canadian Pacific claims it is cheaper to secure its coal from the Crow's Nest Pass, and that Hosmer is abandoned for good. One worker named Bigotino had just finished and spent the last of a bank account upon the completion of a new three storey house two days before notice was given. The workers have, of course, no redress, and such things are perfectly legal and proper under the competitive system of production.

Boston elevator operations have secured an average increase in wage rate for the eight-hour day and a raise in wages.

Oswego (N.Y.) laborers have struck for the eight-hour day and a raise in wages.

Union carpenters of Pickensville, Ill., have raised their wage rate from 37 1-3 cents to 45 cents per hour.

Eight hundred and seventy-five new members were initiated into the Order of Railroad Telegraphers during February last.

The Lathers' Union of Erie, Pa., have adopted an increased wage scale and the eight-hour day. All Sunday and holiday work to be charged double time.

Street railway employes of Youngstown (Ohio), and suburban lines, will hereafter receive 32 cents per hour, an increase of 2 cents per hour.

Five hundred employes of the Kansas City Bolt and Nut Company quit on April 1st and refuse to work until 13 discharged men are reinstated.

Machinists employed at the Howard Iron Works, Buffalo, N.Y., have laid down their tools because of discrimination against union men.

Canton, (Ohio) carpenters are out for an increase of ten cents per hour, and construction work is seriously handicapped.

One smart Yankee captain recently was taught the lesson that he could not run things with a high hand in Canadian waters. On July 10th, when the Thorold, Ont. chief of police boarded the American steamer Cadillac while in the Welland Canal, in connection with an action for unpaid wages to seamen, and sought to serve a summons on Captain Sullivan, that official maintained he would stand for no Canadian police officer coming on board an American vessel on any such business, and calling several of his crew to his assistance he had the police officer ignominiously thrown from the boat to the canal bank. The smart captain found out his mistake when High Constable Boyle and Chief Howe of Port Dalhousie boarded him and placed him under arrest, notwithstanding considerable brag and bluster on his part. He was bundled off to St. Catharines, and there charged with an indictable offence and held in $5,000 bail. Probably he will find out that not even a non-union captain can fire around police officials in Canada with impunity.

Prince Edward Island has been the most backward of all the provinces in the Dominion as far as trades unionism is concerned, as up to the present practically no organization have been in evidence. Now, however, several of the International bodies have decided to send their general organizers into the field. The Brotherhood of Painters and Decorators has just succeeded in instituting a live local in Charlottetown, and journeymen in other crafts are taking steps to follow suit. It is almost a certainty that with a little energetic assistance not only can a number of similar bodies be planted, but a strong central labor union be built up in the capital.

Industrial Canada

Trades and Labor Council have joined hands and will co-operate to have a by-law which debars any organization from holding meetings on the streets unless said organization is of a religious character, altered so as to extend the privilege to all other organizations.

It is a significant fact that while the organizers of the International unions are busy putting in new locals all over the Dominion and helping to build up those already existing that the so-called Canadian Federation of Labor finds it impossible to maintain even one man in the field. There is a reason why the national movement is a joke.

Geo. R. Brunet of Montreal, one of the most successful organizers of the American Federation of Labor, is at present busy in Gananoque, Ont., where preliminary steps have been taken to organize several crafts. Our readers will remember the big fight recently waged in that town, when its first labor union, the Leather Workers on Horse Goods, was instituted, and the active spirits were summarily discharged in the effort to stamp out the incipient seeds of unionism. This led to a strike in which public sentiment was behind the leather workers, and they won out. Since then the sentiment in favor of unionism has grown rapidly and requests have been made repeatedly for the services of an international organizer. Brunet is one of the best men available. The attempts to stamp out unionism in Gananoque has had the opposite effect to that anticipated. It demonstrated to the local workers the advantages of organization. At a big mass meeting held recently one thousand workers were present. It looks as though eastern Ontario towns will be permanently marked on the labor map of the province.

The bricklayers and stonemasons unions are inaugurating a campaign to have all foundation work done by union workmen of the two trades. In Toronto any man hereafter except on jobs where non-union masons or bricklayers are being employed will be called off the war by the union and if he refuses to obey will be fined. The union representatives will wherever possible approach proprietors of work and urge that they award the contract to men who are favorable to union labor.

Commissioner Booth of Edmonton warned a delegation of the unemployed in that city recently who were asking that steps be taken to give them an opportunity to do some kind of work or provide them with food, of many were actually starving; that if they resorted to lawlessness they would be supplied with both free board and room for services rendered in the penitentiary. He, however, did not say what a man was to do who was anxious to work and through no fault of his own could not find employment. It is the only remedy open to quietly retire to some out-of-the-way place and die without protest? Such advice tends to make anarchists. Surely society has a better solution to offer than this.

"The freest city on the North American continent," is the title applied to the new charter that has been presented to the City Council of Edmonton, Alta. The charter provides for an elective commission, including the initiative, referendum and recall, the preferential ballot and adult suffrage. It must be submitted for popular approval and afterwards to the provincial legislature; and it is hoped that a board of five commissioners may be elected early in December. When the Public published in Chicago, Ill., speaks thus of the growing capital of Alberta, it is evident that across the border they are keeping track of the march of democracy in Western Canada. Edmonton is certainly up at the front in the science of municipal government.

A by-law to regulate the hours of work and the salaries of electrical workers employed by the city has been introduced into the Medicine Hat municipal council. The proposed by-law would make 9 hours the working day for linemen, while the employes of the power house would work an eight-hour day. Overtime except on Sundays or holidays is to be paid at one-half, while on holidays and after nine o'clock at night the rate shall be double time. Two hours are provided on election days for voting. The Council considered the question for some time, their objections not being specifically to the by-law, but rather to the precedent of making a by-law for one organization. It was at length decided to have the finance committee go into the question of salaries in the electrical department and report to the council.

At a recent meeting of the Norwich, Ont. Council, James H. Ennis was re-engaged at 500 per year to be constable, sanitary inspector, pound-keeper, collector of dog and poll taxes, caretaker of town hall and engine, the town bell six times each day and four times on Sunday, clean all the crossings on Main and Stover streets of mud and snow and keep all the hall basins free from obstruction, be the inspector of milk, meat and bread, enforce the law of preventing the growth of noxious weeds, to inspect the laying of the waterworks mains and sewer pipes, post bills and deliver official notices. Seems too good that Mr. Ennis will not have a few more jobs tacked on to his list in his time. It is unnecessary to state that there are no labor unions in Norwich.

MOTHERS WHO ARE WAGE-EARNERS.

A more helpless figure than that of the middle-aged mother of a family straggling out to look for work would be hard to imagine. Sometimes she buys a newspaper and reads the advertisements. Through the woman's exchanges, neighborhood churches, settlements, day nurseries and charitable agencies, she may find opportunities to go out and work by the day.

But the women who do day work derive at best a varying and uncertain income. They complain that you never know what you'll have on a Saturday night. Those who must have "something regular" look for a factory job or an office cleaner's place. Like their sixteen-year-old daughters, their usual plan is simply to "apply on the premises." They walk about for hours, following up poor chances and worst of all, wearing out their shoes.

Two Women

By Leonie Davis Collister

I saw a woman standing—proud erect
With silken raiment was her body decked;
Upon her hands rare jewels gleamed,
Soft furs
Were wrapt about her—everything
Was hers.

And honor too—the world proclaimed
Her good.
I looked, beside her another woman stood—
A little fallen sister of the street;
Cheap baubles gleamed upon her hands, her feet

Were shabby, and her dress was gay;
She smiled on every man who passed
Her way,
The righteous matron drew aside her gown,
She must not brush against a woman of the town.

I saw the selfsame woman turn a beggar from her door,
And he went down to Hell—'twas just another beggar more.
And the little fallen sister gave a penny to a child;
And I, seeing, paused to wonder on which the angels smiled!

ONONDAGA COUNCIL.

MIDDLEPORT, Aug. 3.—The council met in regular session in Mitchell Hall. The members were all present and the revee in the chair.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. Communications were received from J. M. Cace T. M. Co., The Pedlar People, The Ontario Municipal Association and the Hamilton Steel Construction Co., the latter asking for payment $2,225 account, as they had all the steel on the ground.

Councillor Hose, chairman of the Taws' Bridge committee reported that the bridge being completed the council met there on July 23rd to measure the cement abutments and found the abutments contained 126 square yards and the floor 10-2 square yards. The price per yard for the abutments was $8.70 and the floor $1.00 per square yard. The total cost $1,211.70; for resurfacing Matthews' Bridge, 14, 2-2 square yards at $8.70, Total $126.15; and making temporary bridge over creek, $1.00, making a grand total of $1,338.85. A cheque was given to Mr. Winger on account for $500. The bidding for the filling in the approaches resulted in Mr. Kendrick securing the work for $80.00. Mr. Kendrick commenced the work as soon as cement was set and light rigs were able to cross by Aug. 1st. The committee feel that they have a bridge second to none in the Township. All of which is respectfully submitted.

The report was accepted and the revee authorized to issue his cheque in Mr. Winger's favor for the balance of $837.85, one dollar being deducted on account of assistance in teaming.

On request of the Hamilton Steel Construction Co. the revee was authorized to issue his cheque in their favor for $1,000 on account.

The notes of Messrs. H. Preiss and R. Dougherty authorized to be paid at last council were $1,027.50 and $770.63 respectively. The following accounts were presented and being found correct were ordered paid, namely, to share of salaries, etc., House of Refuge, for second quarter $43.47; Brantford Courier re Voters' List, Notice 5.30; Fred Virgin for supplies and fixing culvert $3.00; for securing bridge plan and teaming, $2.25; A. Ballantyne, balance on reinforcing iron $1.00; M. Hunks, 2-3 value of one sheep killed by dogs, $5.33; Brooks' Oil Co., account, $37.25.

Councillor Vansickle was authorized to award the contract for the railing on the wings of Taws' and Dixon bridges.

The committee appointed to get advice respecting the Snow Fence By-law reported and the report was accepted by the council who ordered the same committee to wait on Messrs. Brown and request them to move their fence from Cowie's line to the G. T. R. to its own line.

A by-law was passed for the levying of rates. The county requiring $2.15 '05, the rate will be a trifle higher than last year. There being two debentures a higher rate is required, but the township is lowered 3-4 of a mill. There is very little change in school rates with the exception of No. 5 and 6, the former requiring 1.85, and the latter .7 mills of a rate.

The council adjourned to meet at the call of the revee.

18,000 Men From Canada For Europe

(By Special Wire to the Courier.)

OTTAWA, Ont., Aug. 7.—An announcement is made by the militia department to-day that the British War Office has notified the Dominion Government that it is the intention to send the Canadian contingent of 18,000 men to the firing line as soon as they arrive in England, which will be in about three or four weeks time.

In addition to recruiting these 18,000, Col Sam Hughes proposes to raise 7,000 volunteers to be used for garrison duty in Canada. According to present plans, the main contingent will be mobilized at Quebec some time next week where they will be well drilled for about two weeks before they sail for London under sealed orders. Enlistment began to-day and promises to be general and enthusiastic. The Government has not yet decided to take any action on the suggestions made by prominent business men that the exportation of food stuffs to the United States be prohibited in order to conserve the food supply for Great Britain. Leading millers informed Premier Borden yesterday that there is no cause for concern about the food supply in Canada.

The inquiry instituted by the Government to prevent the inflation of prices by Canadian dealers, using the war as an excuse, is regarded here as a salutary action. The board of inquiry consists of F. C. T. O'Hara, deputy minister of trade and commerce; Mr. R. H. Coats, statistician of the labor department, and one of the legal officers of the department of justice.

We, the undersigned have known F. J. Cheney for the past 15 years, and believe him perfectly honorable in all business transactions and financially able to carry out any obligations made by his firm.

A SUNDAY SERMON BY PASTOR RUSSELL

GREAT NEED FOR CHRIST'S KINGDOM Bible Says World Needs Strong Monarchy.

THE RULE OF RIGHTEOUSNESS

Earth the One Rebellious Province of the Divine Empire—Not Ready For Its Own Control—Selfishness and Discontent About to Bring a World-wide Crash—Different Gospels Offered to Mankind—The Hope Set Before Us in the Gospel of Christ Not Anarchy—But Socialism—Not the Gospel of Discontent—The Desire of All Peoples Shall Come.

August 2.—The Photo-Drama of Creation—continuing to draw large crowds wherever it is presented. Many have voluntarily expressed their satisfaction with the Photo-Drama of Creation as the Word of God, restored by the Drama's reasonable explanation of Scriptures hitherto misunderstood by them.

To-day Pastor Russell's text was, "And I will shake all nations, and the desire of all peoples shall come."—Haggai 2:7.

The Pastor began with the declaration that the only proper contentment is that which is combined with godliness and which sees from the standpoint of Scripture the Divine Power able to correct all difficulties which assail mankind. This instructed, the godly believer is able to appropriate the Divine promises of providential care, and so can be content with conditions which are not satisfactory.

On the other hand, he declared, those who either do not know of the Power Divine, or have lost their faith in Divine Wisdom, chafe more and more under present conditions. The more discontented they become, the greater is their tendency toward ungodliness, doubt of the Divine Love, Wisdom and Power. Self-dependence is a poor substitute, and as disappointments come, those inclined to contentment are driven toward hatred, envy and strife, surging through their minds. Then they become rabid Socialists, and are in a fair way to become eventually rabid anarchists.

Again, the speaker continued, we have those who term themselves Christian Socialists. These well-meaning souls perceive the situation of their brethren and say, "Yes, the world should be transferred socially. Its riches should not flow as at present, into certain favored channels, but should be scattered everywhere for the general refreshment and comfort of mankind as a whole." This class wishes to transfer the riches of the world, and surely would not do so unless they were to apply these, forgetful that they have not the Divine wisdom necessary to a proper application.

Next was shown that this class can not transfer the riches of justice has been the same for several thousand years past, and that Divine Wisdom has not yet seen fit to establish Divine Justice among men. If they think that this is heaviest on the part of the Almighty, they should be wise enough to rectify, their thought is evidently an erroneous one. If, on the contrary, they believe that the time for the establishment of justice has now come, they should be able to find a Divine remedy to this effect, and point it out to us—some practical authority authorizing them to take their stand for Socialism, and explaining that the due time for the prosperity of justice has now come, and telling how they shall proceed and what will be the outcome.

The Pastor then discussed the world from the Bible standpoint. According to the Word of God, the world is not properly ready for its own control under any form of government. It is a rebellious province in the Divine Empire—one in which sin, selfishness and death constitute the ruling elements. The Bible declares that what the world needs is a monarchy—a strong, centralized government, in which the masses must not be allowed to have a voice at all, because in their fallen condition they do not know what is for their own highest good.

Furthermore, the Bible tells us that present institutions, under the power of selfishness driving the wealthy in one direction and the masses in the opposite direction, are about to bring a universal crash—anarchy. This and atheistic Socialism and Christian Socialism, and in a larger sense general selfishness and discontent, are urging on the two great combatants, both of whom will fall in the struggle, never to rise again. However, according to Scripture, they will be succeeded by the Kingdom of God's dear Son.

That strong government, that Theocracy to which every knee must bow and every tongue confess, to the glory of God, is the Kingdom that the world needs.

world needs. Its rule of righteousness alone will bring to mankind the peace and happiness which all crave, but which none of us are wise enough to know how to bring about—not even our Socialist friends! The part of faith and of wisdom is to look unto the Lord, from whom cometh our help. Nor should we look to Him to approve our methods, but rather to be informed respecting His methods and to co-operate to the extent of our abilities.

The Pastor next considered the views held by many who favor what is known as Christian Socialism. He read an extract from an old number of the "Christian Socialist," in which a "Rev. Dr. Elliot White" is reported to have said as follows: "Let us answer, Hasten the day when Labor, united, shall shake off its chains!—Our part as Christians is to help men out of every bondage. We are not perturbed that Socialism, that which is the only remedy for the material bonds, has not yet realized the weight of bonds spiritual. That redemption will come in good time, and Christianity must be ready to show this wisdom of the world how to be free of all the fetters of the past, which material emancipation will not render more apparent. But for Christianity, as too often now, to profess desire to free men from spiritual fetters, while ignoring the material fetters, is to lay itself open to justifiable charges of hypocrisy. This must yield to braver counsels, though the striving be unto blood. The Socialists are wrong, who still deny modern industrialism."

"With widest meaning, then—inclusive of all that the most ardent and uncompromising Socialist lover of liberty has demanded, and embracing all that the Christian means when he proclaims the story of spiritual freedom, Christianity must now take up the challenge and cry with world-wide voice and a mighty thunder—'Amen even so, remained his audience the Bible tells that Satan, who misled our first parents by misrepresenting God and His Word, has continued to misrepresent the Creator to mankind; and that he is the Father of all who are in the bondage of the flesh' (1 Timothy 4:1) respecting the torture of the dead, who, the Scriptures declare, 'know not anything.'—Ecclesiastes 9:5.

The speaker then pointed out that the Scriptures tell us that God, seeing that many of our race, dying because of Adam's disobedience, would gladly return to fellowship with their Creator and be recovered from sin and death conditions, and that He has provided a way for them. Our Lord Jesus by His death has purchased the lives and liberties of Adam and all his entire race.

It was next shown why the Messianic Kingdom was not set up immediately after our Lord's ascension. Scriptures were cited to demonstrate that before the Kingdom is established amongst men the Kingdom class must first be found—'the little flock, to whom first the Kingdom, as Jesus declared. This class is to be composed of the saintly few who form positive characters for righteousness by faithfully following in the footsteps of our Redeemer. The Kingdom will not be established until this class is completed—very soon, the speaker believes.

In conclusion, the Pastor called attention to the prophecy which declares that the desire of all peoples shall come, and expressed his belief that all the world would desire the coming of the glorious Messianic Kingdom if they only knew about it. All ministers of God should hold up before the people the glorious Gospel of Christ. This will bring joy and peace to all hearts, notwithstanding the incidental trials, difficulties and weaknesses of this present time of distress. Socialism, he believes, stirs up the minds of men to dissatisfaction, and fear, strife and is leading them on to the great time of anarchistic trouble. The Gospel Message, on the contrary, is helpful, comforting, sustaining.

So then, the work of Christian ministers, as Divinely appointed, is to let the world alone to be dealt with in God's due time, and to comfort, sustain and instruct merely those whom they had to have the hearing ear of faith. These are the people who are free from error and superstition, and also bring them to the place of full consecration to God—sanctification. Such are to be informed respecting the Kingdom, and invited to become members, by becoming members of the Body of Christ through faith, consecration and obedience unto death.

The Pastor believes that Socialism will be the Divine arrangement amongst men in the ages following the Messianic Age during which the race will be lifted to perfection by the great King of Glory. Then Socialism will be a grand success; for all unworthy of life will have been cut out of it the Second Death.

An Awful Disaster!

Mr. Harold Hilton, the well known English golfer, tells a story of a Scotch caddy who always wore a "deerstalker" cap with the flap tied tightly down over his ears. One day somebody noticed that the flap was up, and he naturally asked the reason for the change. "I henna had them doon since ma accident," replied the caddy. "Accident?" exclaimed the golfer; "what accident? I haven't heard o' it." "Ah, well," the caddy explained, "ye see, a gentleman offered me a drink o' o' his whusky-flask, an' I didna hear him."

tell us, said the Pastor, that Socialists are crying out that they do not believe in peace and happiness, but that they desire earthly hopes, riches and comfort, and intend to have these; and that what the people desire is what the pulpit must supply. They add the intimation that unless the people get what they wish, the influence of religion will wane and ministers will become back numbers, whom no-one will care to hear, much less to heed. His reply was that this is all very true. But the difficulty, he claimed, is that the Gospel Message is not properly presented to the people. The Message which our Lord and His Apostles taught is a consistent one; whereas the message from the majority of pulpits to-day is inconsistent.

"The people are told, by both Catholics and Protestants, that there is a Heaven for the saintly who, before dying, shall become firmly established in the grace of the Holy Spirit; but that when the saintly die, they go to Heaven. These are told by Catholics that after death centuries of torment await them in Purgatory, and by Protestants that they will have an eternity of torment without hope of release. These are told by Protestants that units in telling the poor world that such an arrangement is the provision of a just and lovely God, for which they should be deeply thankful; and that they should be content with their present life as partial penances for sin."

Then the Pastor turned from the false conceptions of the Dark Ages to the Gospel presented by our Lord and His Apostles. This Gospel is so much more reasonable, so much more just, loving and wise, he declared, that whoever hears it experiences a satisfaction which error can never produce. He declared that the Scriptures clearly teach that death by virtue of race, condemned to death because of Father Adam's disobedience; for as his children we have inherited a share in his death sentence—not in an eternal torment sentence, as he reminded his audience the Bible tells that Satan, who misled our first parents by misrepresenting God and His Word, has continued to misrepresent the Creator to mankind; and that he is the Father of all who are in the bondage of the flesh' (1 Timothy 4:1) respecting the torture of the dead, who, the Scriptures declare, 'know not anything.'—Ecclesiastes 9:5.

SUNDAY SCHOOL

Lesson VI.—Third Quarter, For Aug. 9, 1914.

THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES.

Text of the Lesson, Mark xi, 12-25. Memory Verses, 22, 23—Golden Text, Matt. vii, 20—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

Having spent the night at Bethany, they returned on the morrow to Jerusalem. Probably they returned early in the morning, and He at least seems to have had no morning meal, for He was hungry. See His real humanity in that He hungered, thirsted, was weary, went John iv, 6, 7, xi, 35. See His humility in that He consented to be thus dependent upon others on this earth, which He Himself had made. Though He was rich, for our sakes He became poor that we through His poverty might be forever rich (John i, 10, ii, 11, Cor. viii, 9). He was no doubt literally hungry, but as there was meat of which His disciples knew not (John iv, 32), so there were a hunger and thirst of which they knew not. He hungered for fruit from Israel, who proved to be an empty vine, bringing forth fruit unto himself; a bad vine, bearing only wild grapes (Eos. x). This lesson is recorded in Matthew and Luke, as well as in Mark, or at least part of it. Matthew says that He saw a fig tree in the way, and Mark says that He saw it afar off. Both phrases are suggestive of the facts that, while Israel, really was in that way, she was professing to be. Having leaves was a profession of fruit bearing; His finding nothing but leaves was disappointing barrenness. The parable of the fig tree in Luke xii, 6-8, shows His patience with His fig tree. His saying in Matt. vii, 16, teaches that it requires a real fig tree to bear fruit. The first reference to fig trees in the Bible shows man's vain effort to substitute something instead of the beautiful garments of light which he had lost (Gen. iii, 7), while the reference in Hab. ii, 17, 18, shows that, though all that is of nature should fail, yet we may find real cause of rejoicing in the Lord Himself. Young translates "forever" (verse 14) to "the age," and we know that, while Israel as a nation has borne no fruit, since she rejected Christ, the time is coming when "Israel shall blossom and bud and fill the face of the world with fruit" (Isa. xxvii, 6). He came to Jerusalem and went into the temple and began to cleanse it, as He had done at the beginning of His ministry (John ii, 13-17). Jerusalem was the national center, and the temple was the spiritual center, as the heart is the vital center of our being. The true cleansing must be from the center outward, and not looketh on the outward appearance, but the Lord looketh on the heart. He says, "I, the Lord, search the heart. I try the reins even to give every man according to his ways and according to the fruit of his doings" (1 Sam. xvi, 7; Jer. xvii, 10). See a beautiful and appropriate prayer in Ps. cxxxix, 23, 24. In the cleansing in II John He accused them of making His Father's house a house of merchandise, while here He says that instead of its being a house of prayer they had made it a den of thieves (verse 17). The reference is to Isa. lv, 7, "Mine house shall be called a house of prayer for all people," and to Jer. vii, 11, "Is this house which is called by my name because a den of robbers in your eyes?" The question is asked in Mal. iii, 8, "Will a man rob God?" And it is so answered. Instead of recognizing all things as given us by God to be for Him and use as His stewards many are more apt to say: "Our lips (and all things) are our own. Who is lord over us?" (Ps. xii, 4). The only right attitude is that of David when he said, "All things come of Thee, and of Thine own have we given Thee" (1 Chron. xxix, 14).

WHITE WOMEN AMONG DREADED YELLOW BRIGANDS

Wife of American Missionary in China Writes of Thrilling Adventure.

BANDITS PLUNDERED HOME AND BURNED IT

Party Took Refuge in Large Wood and Was Rescued by a Young Man.

(Special Dispatch.)

LONDON, August 8.

In a letter published in the North China Herald, Mrs. Christie, wife of an American missionary at Minchow, tells of an adventure of mission women with the dreaded White Wolf bandits, who captured the town of Minchow and sacked it.

"We women folk," says Mrs. Christie, "went upstairs and watched from the bedroom windows. Our horses were taken—three in all—and we believed all was over, but the brigands came again demanding watches, stockings, &c. We gave them what they wanted, but they soon came back. A young evangelist rushed upstairs and put us three ladies in a closet and we waited. The young native women ran away. This enraged the brigands and six times Mr. Christie had a gun at his breast, with the trigger ready to snap if he did not produce them.

"Mr. Christie then rushed upstairs and said we had better try to escape. So taking little Hazel out of bed—she had gone to sleep—also taking four pieces of bedding with us, we jumped over a low wall out of the compound (enclosure). We did not wait to take our cash (small coin) or a bit of bread. It was a case of 'live for your lives'.

"We waited a little and prayed and consulted what would be best to do. We found our faithful coolie outside the wall, trembling with fear, having been threatened with death if he did not produce his wife, a pretty girl of seventeen years. Two of our evangelists came along and said we could escape by the north gate, and so we started out. This was the last I saw of our home. As I now write, our house is in ashes and all our household stuff, great and small, plundered and burned.

"We returned to the city last evening, having been chased from one place to another for three days. We walked on to a large wood. At dark they came again, and we heard shots near us. Most of us thought the hour for our death had come and the suspense was terrible.

"A young man crept up to us in the dark and told us he could escort us to a place of safety, so we got together and crawled down the hill. Our party now consisted of the guide, Miss Hanper, and Miss McKinnon, the wife of an evangelist, and two children, the cook and his wife, ourselves and little Hazel. After getting down the hill we got safely to a lonely valley.

"Miss McKinnon became so ill and weak that she had to be carried. We travelled up the valley and rested in a straw hut at night, going up to the mountain all day. When Miss McKinnon got stronger we returned to the city, walking all the way."

Counsels Suicide to End Misery

Extraordinary Medical Letter Is Read in Paris Courts During Trial of Chemists.

(Special Dispatch.)

PARIS, August 8.

A CURIOUS letter from a physician was read in the Paris courts at the hearing of a case in which Mr. Pierre Jukin and Mr. Jean Julliard, chemist, of No. 91, Rue Damrémont and No. 140, Rue Lamarck respectively, were charged with the illegal sale of certain narcotics.

The letter in question, says the Presse, which was signed by Dr. Gaudin, of No. 3, Rue de Vienne, stated that the writer had treated Mme. Delvigne-Dambriecourt, of No. 4, Rue Damrémont, in an effort to cure her of the drug habit. After her use of morphine and cocaine had been completely stopped, Dr. Gaudin made out for her a prescription into the composition of which black drops (vinegar of opium) entered. The letter concluded with the following curious sentence:—

"This prescription should be renewed according to the needs of Mme. Delvigne-Dambriecourt, and I advise her to continue with it, since she finds it suits her, or, if not, to have recourse to absorbent or to suicide, which is, after all, the best way to escape from all the manias and miseries of existence."

It was this letter which Mr. Jukin advanced as his excuse for having supplied Mme. Delvigne-Dambriecourt with black drops. The court, however, ordered both Messrs. Jukin and Julliard to pay a fine of 2000 francs.

SIRENS PROHIBITED.

(Special Dispatch.)

PARIS, August 8.

ONLY motor horns worked by a bulb may be used in Paris. All sirens, buzzers, whistles, &c., are forbidden. The result is that the range of sound is not very wide and none of the noises is very piercing.

Possibly because the main streets are broader and straighter than they are in London there is less crowding in Paris.

Fostering the Irish Melody

(Special Dispatch.)

DUBLIN, August 8.

IRISH folk-melodies have been poorly recorded in the past, at least since the days of Edward Bunting. And what country in Western Europe is so rich in folk-songs? Political conditions have, no doubt, been largely against any deep national interest in anything so intangible as a fiddle tune.

In out of the way places where songs are to be heard the educated musician seldom penetrates; he is more likely to settle in Dublin or Belfast or some other large town to earn a living than to give much time toward "collecting" unpublished melodies.

The chief work of preserving and publishing the traditional tunes of the country lies, at the present day, with the Fols Ceoil Association of Dublin. Since 1897 this association, which holds its annual festival, or Feis, in Dublin, has offered a prize for "the discovery, and vocal or instrumental performance, of Irish melodies hitherto unpublished."

From the country came fiddlers and pipers playing unfamiliar tunes upon their instruments; others sang or whistled airs that had apparently never been noted before; others brought in MSS. of unpublished airs. In 1890 the association offered two further prizes, and in a few years a rich harvest was theirs.

SEEKS OUTLET FOR WOMEN'S ACTIVITIES

(Special Dispatch.)

LONDON, August 8.

In a speech she made recently at a meeting of the women's municipal party, of which the Duchess of Marlborough is chairman, Mrs. St. Clair Stobart said that she believed women should take an interest in civic life for their own sakes and for the good of the State. Since the work of the home has been revolutionized by machinery and factories, while there is still plenty to do for the wife and mother, of the growing daughters, aunts, and cousins have to find occupation in fatuous and foolish social functions, as they have no practical outlet for their activities. Such women can now occupy themselves with civic work.

A long catalogue of public services which women could usefully undertake was given by Mrs. Stobart, including the following:—

- Inspection of bakehouses.
- Inquiries into food adulteration.
- Supervision of baths and washhouses.
- Regulation of canal boats.
- Care of cemeteries and parks.
- Infant milk provision.
- Dairy inspection.
- Looking after workshops, labor bureaus and housing.

Women's influence in these matters of local administration she regarded as indispensable.

The Duchess of Marlborough founded the women's municipal party about a year ago to support and encourage the candidature of women for the London County Council, the London Borough Councils, and for Metropolitan Boards of Guardians.

CONTRACTS DISEASE FROM HUMAN BITE

(Special Dispatch.)

LONDON, August 8.

BRONCHOGENOUS infection is the most frequent form of the infection of tuberculosis. At the Public Health Congress recently held in Edinburgh it was cited that there were a number of other modes of infection—some of them being of a curious nature. For instance, a two-months old girl had been infected by her nurse biting her; and another small child had contracted the disease through her ears being pierced for earrings and the puncture becoming infected.

TRADE OF ULSTER MEN IS DEMORALIZED

(Special Dispatch.)

DUBLIN, August 8.

ULSTER merchants located in other parts of Ireland may find business dull if they refuse to recognize the Home Rule Parliament. Already the merchants and traders of Carrick on Shannon have held a special meeting to decide their future attitude. It was unanimously decided to sever all connection with the Belfast merchants if Ulster persists in her opposition to the Home Rule bill.

A big trade is transacted with Belfast both in banking and commercially. Carrick on Shannon is the capital of Leitrim, in which county every parish has its company of volunteers. This ultimatum to Ulster is being taken up in nearly every town in Leitrim and Roscommon and commercial travellers from the north find it difficult at present to obtain orders.

NEW ZEALAND STEAMER SERVICE IS DISCUSSED

(Special Dispatch.)

BERLIN, August 8.

DIRECT shipping service from Germany to New Zealand was discussed at meetings held recently in London between representatives of the British and German shipping lines.

British companies are not unduly pessimistic respecting the prospects of a settlement of the questions outstanding, although it was felt that nothing could be gained by continuing the discussions at present. Both parties would prefer an early agreement on a friendly basis, for it is realized that ultimately there must be one. But the establishment of a regular monthly service from Europe to New Zealand is not a matter that can be undertaken without full consideration.

OCTOGENARIANS "MAXIXE"

(Special Dispatch.)

PARIS, August 8.

THE town of Montluçon annually gives a banquet to its most ancient inhabitants, none of whom must be less than eighty. The other day the feast givers succeeded in collecting no fewer than twenty-five couples, whose combined ages totalled more than forty centuries.

The place of honor at the dinner was occupied by Mr. Louis Coulon, the oldest metal worker in France, who is aged eighty-nine, and is renowned far and wide for wisdom, wit and a beard just ten feet long, knotted round his waist. The supper was extremely festive and, as if they had again found the legs of twenty, all fifty danced the good old "Bourrée" of Bourbon—a dance somewhat resembling the maxixe—to the sound of bagpipes and lutes.

Such offices will be authorized to issue or pay postal orders up to the value of 500 francs, and receive registered letters and parcels from France and abroad. The managers will be unpaid, but are supposed to receive a benefit by attracting customers.

Ruler's Daughter, Ferro-Concrete Countess Landi, Reveals Romance Suggested for British Lines

Child of Emperor and Empress of Austria, Far from Court, Never Officially Recognized, Railway Officials Thinking of Copying French System to Structural Work.

(Special Dispatch.)

LONDON, August 8.

STILL another Hapsburg romance, and that as fascinating as any other of the mysteries of that tragic family, is about to come to light.

Its heroine, Countess Zanardi Landi, who is at present living at Bayswater, London, has written her life story, which is now in the Casella's press for early publication. She claims to be a daughter, never officially recognized, of the Emperor Elizabeth of Austria and the Emperor Francis Joseph.

The Countess Landi is a graceful woman, with regular features that are by no means unlike those of the murdered Empress. Her fair hair is simply braided into a crown, and she has a dignified simplicity of manner.

"You will first ask," she said to a caller at her Bayswater home, "why I was not brought up at the Austrian court if my story is true. It was because my mother, the Empress, wanted to be a real mother to at least one of her children."

"My mother had a determined longing to mould the character of one of her children. Her others were lost to her, but before I was born she made a compact with the Emperor that I should be ignored by the court and brought up secretly where she could see me often. If I had proved a boy the plans would have been dropped.

"My mother often asked me if I ever wished to be recognized as an Empress's daughter and live at court; and I always said 'No,' because I knew that then I should have no mother. It is funny, but the same feeling comes out in my own little girl. 'I'm glad that you are not called an 'archduchess,' she says, 'because then I should have to be a little princess and never see you at all.'"

"My sole ideals for the future are to write and lecture on social questions, both here and abroad."

King James I. a "Master Liar"

How He Kept His Promise to Queen Elizabeth of "No Sinister Practices."

(Special Dispatch.)

LONDON, August 8.

THE Historical Manuscripts Commission, in its report on the Latin manuscripts preserved in the University of Edinburgh, reveals some charming chapters of British history, gleaned literally from the rubbish heap.

The learned librarian, Dr. David Laing, used to put on grotesque old clothes and rummage about in a waste paper warehouse, picking out and piecing together stray scraps of paper and parchment, the sweepings of lawyers' offices. These scraps, now printed, deal with the gossip of Tudor nobles and the petty cash of princes and the indiscretions of kings. "Two odd scraps, for instance, read together, prove what a master liar James I. and VI., of pious memory, was. In 1579 he wrote to Queen Elizabeth:—

"Right excellent, rich heich and michte Princess, over dearest suster and cousin, in over maist hertlie mauner we recomend us unto you. . . . We understand the continuance of that great eair and effectioun toward us and our estate quilibk always heretofore in our country according to your gude advice and advertisement given us wille thoctful that na sinister practises salbe able to mak rupture of our frendship be our ourre occasion."

"This is how he keeps his promise of 'no sinister practices.' We find these instructions issued about 1592:—

"Instructions from the King of Scots to his ambassadors sent in Denmark:— 'To procure the banishment of all English merchants or eils to burdene with increase of towles to dryve theme from all trade of merchandise into the easte parts. 'To assiste the King of Scots with vij thousand footmenne to be payed for two years or an armie by sea for one year against England. 'The King of Scots doeth not mislike the incursions into Englande although he doe pretende that his wardanes shall doe justice upon the offendour.'"

From such kindly pervarication we may turn to the gossip letter of Lady Jean Drummond, Countess of Wirtowa, to an "honoured cousingne," whom she sends a taste of "our wastland herrings and Glasgowe acquavryte to digest them"—herrings and whiskey, the favorite Scottish presents in 1658, as in 1914. There is a charming little sketch of a model young lady, the Infanta Maria of Spain, whom it was proposed Prince Charles should marry in 1623.

"Shee is faire, in all perfection; her favour is verie good, and farre from havinge anye one ill-feature in it." She daily spendeth 2 or 3 houres in prayer.

"Shee doth usually make some little thinge with her owne hands day by day, which may be for the use of sicke or wounded persons in the hospitals."

"A resolution . . . she hath maineined inviolable from her very infancy never to speake ill of any creature, and not to be angry, but to shewe a playne dislike of them which speak ill of others, sayinge, sometimes perhaps it is not soe, or else a body can believe nothing but what they see, or else it is good to heare both sides, and the like."

ing French System to Structural Work.

(Special Dispatch.)

LONDON, August 8.

SERIOUS thought has been given by British permanent way officials during the last fortnight to the more general use of ferro-concrete upon railways. A trip to Paris and the inspection of the lines converging upon the French capital have suggested that many of the prejudices now lingering in railway men's minds are entirely without foundation.

No one denies that the principal French railways rival and perhaps excel those of Britain in the masses set up by high speeds and heavy freights. The fact that ferro-concrete is "standing up" in all branches of structural work suggests that the old prejudices have been ill founded. British railway engineers will not admit that they are still behindhand in the use of ferro-concrete for heavy work, although they readily grant that France as the birthplace of this new medium was well ahead until five or six years ago. They point to innumerable cases in which the principles of Hennebique have been employed to distinct advantage.

A few engineers retain the idea that ferro-concrete cannot be satisfactorily employed where vibration persists. But such enterprising railways as the Great Western, the North Eastern, the London and South Western and the Great Northern can provide numerous examples of ferro-concrete work carried out under conditions to which exception has been taken by the incredulous. In the first instance, several buildings have been erected in proximity to lines where traffic was incessant throughout the period of construction.

The new Waterloo Station is a splendid example of its application to railway work in London and something like sixty reinforced concrete works have been carried out on the Great Western Railway, and the Paddington extension, where most of the new lines, platforms and stables are being constructed with this medium, is an excellent example.

German Army Surgeon Stops Use of Radium

This Costly Element Is Gradually Giving Place to the Improved X-Ray.

(Special Dispatch.)

BERLIN, August 8.

PROFESSOR BIER, Surgeon General of the German army, has, with many others, declined to use radium for cancer treatment.

The connection between X rays and radium may seem difficult to make, but it is really as simple as possible. If no one had ever burned his fingers with X rays, if no one had died from the effects of them, then it is probable that no one would ever have known what power these rays had on skin and flesh. They were tried on bad flesh, and in several cases stimulated it back into life.

"When they were tried, as everything possible is tried, on cancer. The effects were wonderful. No cure has ever been claimed but the relief from pain, the renewal of hope and the abolition of a lesion, all temporary perhaps, have helped many to an extra year or two of life.

When radium was discovered one of its noted powers was that in its decay it flung off three different sets of rays, now named Alpha, Beta and Gamma. After the first three letters of the Greek alphabet. The third and weakest of these are identical with certain X rays. They come away steadily and at a measurable rate. A dose can be prescribed—if the doctor knows anything at all about it—and quite accurately given.

Radium is very costly. X rays are not so costly. A few years ago the radiant tubes were difficult to control and doses of X rays went wrong. So radium, with its perfect constancy, was far better. Now improvements of construction are making X ray instruments as steady as radium. Doses can be controlled, and as the control of X rays becomes more perfect the use of radium in the medical world will gradually vanish. Its face value will then probably drop to its economic value.

BANK ACCOUNTS SACRED.

(Special Dispatch.)

PARIS, August 8.

A recent decision of the Civil Tribunal a banker is not warranted in disclosing details of a client's bank account.

Miss Dolan, an American dressmaker, lodged a protest against overvaluation by the American customs authorities. Her bankers, Messrs. Munroe, were called upon to give information to the Treasury. They refused, and the director was sentenced to imprisonment by a Boston court. The bank thereupon brought the present action in Paris to prove it could not furnish the required particulars without the client's consent.
