FOR LOCAL OPTION

The campaign for Local Option in Athens and Township of Rear Yonge and Escott was initiated in a way to make glad the hearts of those who have championed the cause of Temperance or Prohibition for years and respected little reward for their labors. Such a demonstration of Temperance sentiment was never before witnessed in Athens, and there was what the politicians call "the swing of victory in the air."

Nearly five hundred people from village and township were present. Rev W N Scott (Baptist) presided and with him on the platform were the other pastors of the village, Rev D. Anderson (Holiness Movement), Rev R. B. Patterson, (Anglican), Rev I. N. Beckstedt, (Presbyterian), Rev F. A. Read, (Methodist), and the speaker of the evening, Rev T. E. Burke, B. A., of Kingston.

The meeting opened with devotional exercises, and then Mr Scott in a brief, eloquent address outlined the object of the meeting and the character of the campaign that was to follow. It was an excellent opening address and tended to inspire with confidence and enthusiasm the large audience.

A chorus by a company of little boys proved very popular.

Rev T. E. Burke was then introduced and fully met the expectations of all in his masterly presentation of the need of prohibition and the efficiency of Local Option. The chairman had stated at the opening of the meeting that there would be no extravagant statements, no personal antagonisms, during this campaign. With this Mr Burke heartily agreed, saying that the Temperance people were fighting the liquor traffic, not the men engaged in the business. In opening his address the speaker quoted figures showing to what extent the Local Option was had swept over the United States, where now 40 per cent of the country was "dry." Ontario, too, was rapidly extending its "dry" area, over 50 per cent of the townships being under Local Option and many of the incorporated villages, towns and cities having adopted this form of prohibition. He then took for his text the story of "the ox that goeth," as recorded in Exodus XXI, and likening the liquor traffic unto this vicious beast he called in evidence from all walks of life that showed most clearly that the existence of the traffic was hurtful to the social, commercial and religious life of the people. The ownership of this "ox" was also clearly established and the great responsibility of the owners made plain. Mr Burke then turned his attention to Local Option as it has been tried and proved in Ontario, and declared the results to be overwhelmingly in favor of this form of prohibition. He instanced many important centres in western Ontario where Local Option was working successfully, and then coming nearer home he spoke of Mountain where he had assisted in planting prohibition so firmly that it would never be moved; then of Cardinal where Local option was carried by a majority of 7 and three years later was re-affirmed by a majority of 77. But, he said, many people declare it to be the "old Scott Act over again." This he said was not true. The Scott Act was a Dominion measure and contained no adequate provisions for its enforcement; Local Option was a part of the Ontario License Act and had all the powers and financial resources of the government behind it. The Scott Act penalties were very light and evasion was possible; Local Option penalties were so severe and certain that they acted as a powerful deterrent on would-be law breakers. Other distinctions, all favorable to Local Option, were pointed out, and Mr Burke closed his address with an earnest appeal to the people to bring this law into effect in these municipalities.

Rev R. B. Patterson then moved, seconded by Rev I. N. Beckstedt, that the necessary steps be taken to secure a vote of the people on this question next January. Both the reverend gentlemen delivered brief, earnest addresses in support of their motion and it was strongly supported in a speech by Rev F. A. Read. The chairman then put the motion to the meeting and called for a standing vote. There was an immediate response, the whole audience, apparently, rising in approval.

Then the work of organization was proceeded with and for Athens the following were appointed to manage the campaign:—
Chairman—Rev W N Scott.
Secretary—Rev D. Anderson.
Treasurer—Rev F A Read.
Committee—Rev R. B. Patterson,

Mr. R. Milroy, Rev I. N. Beckstedt, H. R. Knowlton, W. H. Jacob, T. S. Kendrick, W. Lee, Jas. F. Gordon, R. G. Latimer, W. C. Smith, Jas. Patterson.

For Rear Yonge and Escott, the following officers were appointed to complete the township organization:—
Chairman—Andrew Henderson.
Secretary—Ford Wiltse.
Treasurer—W. J. Taber.

Petition forms were opened for signature and a large number from both municipalities attached their names. The speeches of the evening were all moderate in tone, of such a character that none could be offended, and while it is evident that the Local Option people will work earnestly and enthusiastically, it seems likely that a quiet, clean campaign will be fought out in these municipalities.

The council of Rear Yonge and Escott met on the 17th inst at 1 o'clock. Members all present. Minutes of last meeting were read and adopted.

The collector's bond was accepted. Orders were given on the treasurer as follows:—

Presbyterian Anniversary
Large congregations very much enjoyed the anniversary services held in St. Paul's Presbyterian church on Sunday last. Excellent sermons were preached by Rev E. R. Mackay, B. A., of Smith's Falls and a fine musical service was rendered by the choir.

On Monday evening over two hundred partook of the bountiful Boston tea served by the ladies in the basement, after which an entertaining programme was presented in the church. The lecture delivered by Rev D. Strachan of Brockville was thoroughly enjoyed, his wit and versatility giving pleasure to all.

Returned to Boston
Uncle Thomas Pounder of Boston, Mass. who has been renewing old acquaintances and forming new ones in Athens for the past week, the guest of Mr and Mrs Jas. F. Gordon, has now left for Brockville, then to Montreal, where he intends remaining over for a short period of time.

Since his coming from Boston on the 22nd of July last, he has been a welcome visitor among numerous relatives and pleasant homes. His friends are legion, and every trip he makes to the country they are steadily increasing, delighted at his coming and down cast at his leaving.

He desires through the medium of the Reporter to thank his friends for the sincere, warm and affectionate reception which was given him, over so many miles of territory and in so many homes. Also to quite a number who extended invitations to him to come and share in hospitalities of their home. Time did not permit to reach all, but absent or present, they can rest assured their invitations are appreciated and shall be treasured up while life lasts.

The editor of the Reporter wishes to say that he is more than pleased at the health and vigor of Uncle Tom, (so called), and hopes that his strength may continue so that he will be able to make another visit the coming summer and be the guest of those who have been anxiously waiting his presence.

LESSON IV.—OCT. 25, 1903.

The Joy of Forgiveness.—Psa. 32: 1-11.

Commentary.—I. Confession and forgiveness (vs. 1-5). 1, 2, Blessed.—In the Hebrew this word is plural and an exclamation, thus, "Oh, the blessednesses!" Only a forgiven man can know the delights of pardon. Transgression, etc.—Sin is described, as in Exod. 34, 7, in three different aspects, as transgression, sin, iniquity; the Hebrew words thus rendered mean respectively, (1) deflection from God or rebellion against Him; (2) error, wandering from the right way, missing the mark in life; (3) the perversion of right, depravity of conduct.—Cam. Bib. Forgiveness.—Lifted off so that the pardoned sinner is as free as the bird and enjoys pardon. Sin makes us loathsome, filthy, and abominable in the sight of God, and utterly unfit for communion with Him. When it is pardoned it is covered from justice by divine mercy.—Benson. Impunity.—Chargé not to his account; "does not reckon for sins the debt of punishment," but pardons them. No guilt.—No deceit, no false estimate of himself, nor insincerity before God.—J. & F. B. The motives and aims of the human nature, the subtle roots of sin, the desires, as well as the desperate wickedness of the heart that make it hide in its own depravity and leave it to irretrievable loss.—Simpson. Sin is the only cause of misery, and forgiveness is the beginning of a sinner's happiness.

2. When I kept silence.—Before I humbled myself and confessed my sin. It seems that David, before Nathan came to him, had often been exceedingly tortured in his conscience on account of the crimes he had committed (II. Sam. 11, 27; 12, 1, 9), yet reluctance to humble himself before God, or to be considered a criminal by men, led him to keep silence.—Scott. My bones waxed old.—"My spirits failed and the strength of my body decayed." Roaring.—Moaning or groaning because of the continual horrors of conscience and the sense of God's wrath. This shows the depth of his repentance.

3. Thy hand—God's correcting hand, whereby He scourgeth His children, bringing a remembrance of guilt. My moisture is turned.—There is a spiritual drought when the soul is languish in stead of refreshing seasons from the presence of the Lord. David lived in a country where parching heats and saturating moisture alternate, and the valleys, sometimes green and fruitful and fragrant with flowers, at times become parched. It is quite possible that sin in David's case, as in so many others, brought physical illness as a result. So lah—This is used in Hebrew poetry and music to indicate a pause; to emphasize the truth and express a devout response of the heart unto God. It is a promise that at that point the writer had been inspired and taught some new lesson. It sometimes indicates a change in the subject.

4. I acknowledged.—thou forgavest.—It was after much anguish and struggling that David was brought to confession, but his reward was abundant, for mercy was extended. He had covered his sin unsuccessfully, yet when he uncovered it God covered it effectually. Where before he had felt hardness of heart and distress of soul he now felt forgiveness of his sins and the remission of his iniquities. Although God forgave, many of the consequences of his sin still followed him. "Repentance could not ward off the bitter trouble to come from his polygamous household in the death by the sword of his two grown-up sons; it could not preserve Barshai's child alive; nor bring back Uriah from the dead; could not keep some from blaspheming God down to the latest ages (2 Sam. 12, 14)."

5. Confidence in God (vs. 6-11). 6. For this—Because the Lord had so graciously answered his prayer, every one that was godly should be encouraged to pray. In a time—Compare Isa. 55, 6; Deut. 4, 29. "Because Jehovah has proved Himself so ready to hear even the sinner, the pious are urged to cry to Him before sudden flood of temptation has made them lose His presence; so shall the great waters in which the psalmist sank be prevented from ever reaching them."—Moulton. Mayest he found.—Literally, "the time of finding;" It may just as readily refer to the finding of forgiveness as to the finding of Jehovah.—Hurlbut. Great waters.—Violent trials, afflictions and temptations shall not overcome the soul who prays acceptably and trusts implicitly; but the sinner who persists in iniquity shall certainly be swept away by the floods of divine judgment, and so forever perish.

7. Hiding place.—City of refuge, protection from being overcome. Compare Isa.—Surround me as with a wall; enclose me within. Songs of deliverance.—The free spirit poured forth songs of praise and thanksgiving on all occasions, thus admitting no place for evil words or thoughts. A constant remembrance of pardon is a constant remembrance against further sin. S. Instruct thee.—A gracious promise given to a humble, pardoned soul, securing his development in the ways of righteousness. God Himself being teacher, I will guide.—Exercise the most careful, accurate and personal care. Seeing every need, being so familiar with every disposition, that nothing shall escape due attention. The R. V. changes the word "guide" to "counsel."—"The idea is that of one who is telling another what way he is to take in order that he may reach a certain place; and he says he will watch him or keep an eye upon him; he will not let him go wrong."—Barnes. This verse and the next are generally understood as being spoken to the psalmist by Jehovah.

8. As the horse, etc.—Do not be stubborn or headstrong like the horse or mule. A different class is here addressed, that cannot be trusted upon the ground of reason or moral obligation, but must be governed by force. Bit and bridle.—That is, by harsh and forcible means. Our reason and wisdom ought to do for us what the bit does for the mule. Else they will not come near (R. V.—Without bit and bridle the animals referred to will not stay within rack. "If men will not draw near to God and obey him of his own free will, he lowers himself to the level of a brute (Isa. 1, 3), and must expect to be treated accordingly and disciplined by the judgments of God" (Isa. 26; 9-11.—Cam. Bib. Let us act like reasonable men and not like dumb animals.

9. Many sorrows, etc.—Sin and misery go together. Those who are immoderate God will curb and chasten by affliction, both to humble them and to show them his power. Mercy shall compass.—He shall be surrounded with mercy, as one is surrounded by the air or by the sunlight. He shall find mercy and favor everywhere—at home, abroad; by day, by night; in society, in solitude; in sickness, in health; in life, in death; in time, in eternity. He shall walk amid mercies; he shall die amid mercies; he shall live in a better world in the midst of eternal mercies.—Barnes. 11. Be glad, rejoice.—shout—How wonderful that such exultation may follow such iniquity and remorse!

I. Confession. "I acknowledge my sin" (vs. 5). David's confession was as public as his transgression. This psalm was written for use in the congregations of Israel. David sinned before the nation, and his confession was given to the nation and to the world. If your sin is known only to God confess it to him. If you have wronged others let them know your penitence and obtain their pardon. "A little way out of Dayton, Ohio, a young man met an old gentleman one day and asked, 'How far is it to Dayton?' 'Twenty-five thousand miles,' was the answer, 'if you keep on as you are going now, and a quarter of a mile if you turn square around.'"

II. Divine protection. "Thou art my hiding place" (v. 7). When we will not hide in sin we may hide in God. As the pursued man-slayer found safety in the city of refuge, and the forgiven child flies to the father's arms, so the forgiven sinner is held close to the Father's heart and can say, "Surely" (v. 6), "Thou forgavest my sin—Thou art my hiding place. . . Thou shalt preserve me. . . Thou shalt compass me" (vs. 5-7); from trouble" (v. 7). The "godly" man (v. 6) is never in trouble as other men are. For him there is either deliverance from trouble (Luke 4:30), or deliverance in trouble (Acts 16:26; Dan. 6:22). He is either saved from trouble (Acts 12:9), or victorious in trouble (Josh. 10:12-14).

III. Divine guidance. "I will guide thee with mine eye" (v. 8). Israel in the wilderness was always under the guidance of the cloud. "At the commandment of the Lord they rested in the tents, and at the commandment of the Lord they journeyed" (Num. 9:18-23). When the tabernacle was building, the minute directions were given even about "hooks" and "pins" (Exod. 27:10-19). When Jericho was to be taken God told them how (Josh. 6:2-5). David was victorious when he "enquired of the Lord" (2 Sam. 21; 5:17). When Jesus sent out his disciples he gave them minute directions (Matt. 10:1-38). He promised when he went away, "The Spirit . . . will guide you into all truth" (John 16:13). "We have a record of the fulfillment of the promise to the disciples at Pentecost (Acts 2:4); to Philip (Acts 8:29); to Peter (Acts 10:19); to Agabus (Acts 11:28; 21:11); Paul and Silas (Acts 16:7, last five words); and the disciples of Tyre (Acts 21:4). With God's word in our hands and God's Spirit in our hearts and the light of the knowledge of his glory shining upon us in the face of Jesus Christ (2 Cor. 4:6), we ought not to need to be "held in with bit and bridle" (v. 9), the restraining or chastening hand of Providence.

A young lady, whenever she rose to give a testimony, felt pressed to sing God's word in our hands and God's Spirit in our hearts and the light of the knowledge of his glory shining upon us in the face of Jesus Christ (2 Cor. 4:6), we ought not to need to be "held in with bit and bridle" (v. 9), the restraining or chastening hand of Providence.

She decided, "I will not sing." For years she wandered in darkness. Her spirit of song was gone. One Sunday evening, after the service, a stranger arose and sang: "I have a never-failing bank," etc. The young girl trembled. They were the words given to her years ago when she said: "I will not sing!" No one else sang! On her way home the stranger overtook her and began telling his experience. How he was a colporter in New York City, and passing one day a home where there was a funeral was hidden by the Spirit to enter. He sat in and sat down on the stairs. After the sermon the minister turned to him and said, "Have you not a word for these sorrowing friends?" He arose bewildered, but the Spirit said, "Sing." He sang, "This So Sweet to Have a Home in Heaven." When the last verse was sung he went on his way. Seven years afterward, at a camp meeting love feast, he heard a young man give the following testimony: "Seven years ago I was called to part with a bosom friend. He was taken suddenly with diphtheria. I had a telegram to go to New York to attend his funeral. In that hour of mourning there came a stranger. No one knew who he was or why he was there. The preacher said to him: 'Have you a word for these mourning friends?' He arose and sang, 'This So Sweet to Have a Home in Heaven.' I've hunted everywhere to find the song. The singer I shall never see. But I did want the song, and I wanted to tell him that little song saved me, and to-day I stand on the walls of Zion preaching full salvation." Here he broke down and sobbed aloud. Then the colporter arose directly behind him and sang, "This So Sweet to Have a Home in Heaven." He had not sung one verse when this young man had his arms around his neck, shouting: "Oh, hallelujah! Praise the Lord! I've found him!" Waving his hand to the ministers, he said: "Help me to praise the Lord!" And then a mighty shout went up all over the congregation, and not a dry eye could be seen. At the colporter stopped telling this young girl his experience, he added, "See that no man take thy crown. Sing when God says so." When God guides us it is, 1. "The right way" (Psa. 107: 7). His Spirit and His word agree (Isa. 8: 20). 2. The safe way (Prov. 18: 10). Guided by Him we shall not stumble (Deut. 32: 10, 12). A. C. M.

Sketching Our Lives. Life is really lengthening. The average age increases with each generation and there are century clubs whose members believe they will round out the hundred years. But life isn't altogether or even mostly its span of time. "How old is I?" said the picaninny philosopher. "Dey says I see leben, but ef dey counts it by de fun I see had, why, golly, Boss, I mus' be nigh er thousand."

BEAT FARMER.

Tramps Beat and Rob Him and Terrify Woman.

An Albion despatch: A brutal assault and robbery by tramps occurred at the farm house of Edward Unger, three miles southeast of Fancher station. Mrs. Unger and a small child were alone at the house. Just after dark she heard someone tampering with the sitting-room blinds, and became frightened and extinguished the lamp. A short time afterward the hired man returned home from Holley and went to the barn. He heard a rustling in the hay in the mangers back of him and two men jumped out and grabbed him from behind, pulled him over backward and after striking him several times over the head with a club, they rifled his pockets, then threw him into the manger. Mrs. Unger went to the barn for some milk and discovered the man covered with blood and unconscious. Neighbors and a doctor were hastily summoned and about the time the doctor arrived the man regained consciousness and informed them of how the assault had occurred, but would give no description of his assailants, owing to the darkness and sudden attack. Deputy Sheriff Kane of Holley, was notified and together with other officers is working on the case.

CORONATION OATH.

Mr. Asquith Says There Will Be No Change in the Oath.

London, Oct. 19.—In consequence of the action of Premier Asquith in preventing the carrying of the Host in the procession that brought the late Eucharistic Congress to a conclusion, Lord Talbot, son of the Duke of Norfolk, Conservative member for Sussex, asked Mr. Asquith in the House of Commons this afternoon whether the Government would introduce legislation repealing such statutory enactments affecting Catholics as placed them in an inferior and disadvantageous position as compared with the members of other religious bodies. The Prime Minister replied that the Government had no present intention of introducing such legislation. It would, however, fully consider any proposals for relieving Roman Catholics from legal disabilities which gave rise to practical grievances.

QUEEN'S COLLEGE.

Trustees Favor Separation From the Presbyterian Church.

Kingston, Ont., despatch: Queen's trustees held a midnight session last night, having under consideration the much discussed question of Queen's separation from the Presbyterian Church. The trustees had under consideration the memorial from the Senate advocating that application be renewed to the General Assembly to make the changes desired in the constitution. After a prolonged and fervent discussion, by a vote of 16 to 3, this resolution prevailed: "The trustees express their opinion that the altered conditions with which the university has had to deal in these later times call for the removal of the denominational disabilities in the charter." Principal Gordon and D. B. McLeod, Cornell, moved the resolution, the three voting contra being Dr. Campbell, Montreal; Dr. MacKie, and G. M. MacDonnell, Kingston. Moderator Campbell made an impassioned address opposing the resolution.

IN NORTH SEA.

Balloon Dropped There and Two Occupants Rescued.

Berlin, Oct. 19.—The German balloon Basley came down yesterday morning at five o'clock in the North Sea. The two men on board were rescued by a passing steamer. This news was received in a telegram from Edinburgh and caused the greatest relief for there was great anxiety regarding the fate of this airship. The Basley is one of the 23 balloons that started in the race for the International trophy last Sunday from a suburb of Berlin, and now every one of the contestants have been accounted for. The two men rescued from the Basley were Dr. Niemeier and Hans Hiedemann. They landed at Edinburgh this morning and immediately started for home by way of London. The point where they were picked up is ten miles from Heligoland.

PITCHED BATTLE.

Seven Men Arrested After Exchange of Several Shots.

Erie, Pa., Oct. 19.—Seven prisoners, one of whom is alleged to have attempted to murder Abraham Deitsch, an aged junk dealer, were arrested by a posse under command of Deputy Sheriff Mooney this afternoon after a desperate battle five miles east of this city. About 1.30 this afternoon three members of a gang of more than a dozen Dutch Deitsch and struck him in the back of the head with a stone fracturing his skull. Robbery was the motive, but the young outlaws were frightened away before they accomplished their purpose. The sheriff's office was immediately notified and Deputy Mooney organized a posse that gave the desperadoes battle at the Lake Shore tracks and the Nagle Road. The deputy opened the melees by firing into the gang with

TORONTO STUDENTS.

Firemen to Throw Cold Water on Their Noisy Parades.

A Toronto despatch: In consequence of the disturbances created down town by the students yesterday in their parade before the annual Varsity games, the Board of Control this morning gave stringent instructions to the police which it is hoped will have the effect of preventing such rowdiness in the future. The Chief was asked to interview the university authorities with a view to seeing if such parades could not be stopped altogether. Failing that, he is to demand a notice of such parades so that a strong force of police may be held to accompany the parades and arrest on the spot all who misbehave themselves. It was also decided that on Halloween night the fire brigade shall assist the police in any disturbances the students see fit to create. The firemen will be stationed at convenient points with lines of hose.

MAY BE BISHOP.

Dean Farthing Mentioned For Bishopric of Montreal.

Montreal, Oct. 19.—That Very Rev. Dean Farthing, of Kingston, will be the next bishop of the diocese of Montreal, in succession to the late Bishop Carmichael, is the opinion not only held, but even freely expressed in Anglican circles. Though such a choice would mean going outside the diocese for a chief pastor, there are many precedents for such a proceeding, even in the history of the Anglican Church in Canada. Half a dozen names have been most prominently mentioned for the position, but inability to fix the bid of support for any one candidate has resulted in a shifting of support, sufficient, it is claimed, to ensure the election of Dean Farthing to the office.

TRAMPS MISSING.

Firemen Burned and Seven Horses Cremated.

Niagara Falls despatch: Fire to-night destroyed the hotel of A. F. Wapdt, at Sanborn, and the big barn adjoining, burning seven horses to death, and entailing a loss estimated at $25,000. The fire originated in the hay mow, and is believed to have been caused by tramps. So rapidly did the flames spread that the entire town was threatened, and a call for aid was sent to Niagara Falls. Several chemical extinguishers and nine firemen were hurried to the scene on a flat car. John Dewald, a hostler in the barn adjoining the hotel, said he locked the building at 7 o'clock. He saw two tramps loitering around, but is not sure that they entered. Other men claim to have seen the hoboes going in. Mr. Wendt, proprietor of the hotel, was not on the premises when the fire broke out. Being notified, he hastened to the scene, and helped remove some of the hotel furniture. Other houses nearby were quickly emptied of valuable furnishings, which were piled in the fields.

ESSAY ON NAVY.

Shall Canada Have a Navy of Her Own? the Subject.

Toronto, Ont., Oct. 19.—The Toronto branch of the Navy League has decided to offer a prize of $400 and invite competition for the best essay on the subject "Shall Canada have a navy of her own?" The problem to be solved is how Canada may best participate in the naval defence of the empire without any loss of her present autonomy. It is proposed to print and distribute the prize essay in large quantities throughout the Dominion, in order to educate public opinion on this important question. The rules governing the competition will be forwarded on application to H. J. Wickham, Honorary Secretary prize essay competition, offices of the Navy League in Canada, Mail and Empire Building, Toronto, Ont.

MANY BUNKERS AHEAD.

Difficulties in the Way of South African Federation.

Durban, Natal, Oct. 19.—At a dinner to the delegates to the Union Convention to-night Lord Selborne said, using a golf simile, that they must expect to encounter numerous difficult bunkers, but he had no doubt the ball would be skilfully extricated. General Botha, speaking in Dutch, created amusement and enthusiasm by his reference to Sir Percy Scott, who was present. He said Sir Percy had sent naval guns to the front "when we were trying to get Ladysmith, and they were too much for us. Sir Percy dispatched our young boys, who were looking forward to sea bathing and banana eating on the coast." It is expected the conference will last three months, the people of Natal wishing to give it every chance. Probably the chief point will be whether representation in the proposed union shall be on a basis of votes or population. The latter would discriminate against the pioneering population of Rhodesia and the Transvaal.

MARKET REPORTS.

TORONTO MARKETS.

Live Stock.

Receipts of live stock at the city market for Wednesday and Thursday, as reported by the railways, were the largest of the season, if not in the history of the market, being 199 car loads, composed of 3,346 cattle, 3,626 hogs, 3,975 sheep and lambs and 108 calves. The quality of fat cattle was no better, but worse. There were 2,346 cattle on sale, still dealers could not get enough good to choose to supply their customers. Prices for the few good cattle were firmer by 10 to 15c per cwt., but common to medium cwt. sold at 10 to 15c per cwt. lower.

Exporters—A few odd lots of heavy butchers' cattle were bought for export at prices ranging from $4.50 to $5, and, in one instance, $5.25 per cwt. was paid for five or six choice cattle. Bulls were sold from $3.50 to $4 per cwt. Butchers—Prices for picked cattle are firm at $4.75 to $5, and one lot of five or six choice heifers was reported sold at $4.20 to $4.60; medium, $3.50 to $3.90; common, $3 to $3.30; cows, $2.50 to $4; calves, $1 to $2 per cwt.

Feeders and Stockers—Good quality steers, 950 to 1,050 lbs., $3.25 to $3.60; feeders, 800 to 900 lbs., $3 to $3.25; good stockers, $2.50 to $2.80; common stockers, $2. Feeder and Springers—Prices ranged from $28 to $65 each, and the average price for good to choice cows would be about $50 each. Veal Calves—Good veal calves are scarce. Prices were firm at $7 to $7 per cwt., but there were few at the latter figure.

Sheep and Lambs—So great was the run of sheep and lambs that every pen was filled and many cattle yards as well. Export ewes sold at $3.25 to $3.50; ram, $2.25 to $2.50; hams, $1 to $1.50 per cwt. Hogs—Drovers report $6.15 and as high as $6.20 being paid in the country at several points, but $6.15 seemed to be the general price f.o.b. cars at country points.

Farmers' Market.

The receipts of grain to-day were small. Barley is unchanged, with sales of 400 bushels at $7 to $8; and oats firm, 200 bushels selling at 45c a bushel. Hay in moderate supply, there being sales of 30 loads at $13 to $15 a ton. Straw wanted at $14 a ton. Dressed hogs are unchanged at $8.50 to $8.75 for heavy, and at 9 for light. Seeds.

The market is still quiet, with prices generally easy. Dealers pay the following prices at country points: Alskai, extra fancy, $7.25 to $7.40 per bushel; No. 1, $6.75 to $7; No. 2, $6.25 to $6.50; No. 3, $5.75 to $6.50. Clover, red, is lower at $4.50 to $5 per bushel. Timothy, $1.25 to $1.65 per bushel.

OTHER MARKETS.

Winnipeg Wheat Market.

Following are the closing quotations on Winnipeg grain futures: Wheat—October 97.5-9c bid, December 97.8c bid, May 96.3-4c bid. Oats—October 37.3-4c bid, December 36c asked.

New York Sugar Market.

Sugar—Raw, steady; fair refining 3.48c; centrifugal, 96 test, 3.98c; molasses sugar, 3.23c; refined, quiet.

British Cattle Markets.

London—London cables for cattle are steady, at 11.1-2c to 12.3-4c per pound, dressed weight; refrigerator beef is quoted at 9.1-2c to 12c per pound.

The Cheese Markets.

Belleville, Ont.—To-day there were offered 2,040 white and 130 colored; all white sold at 11.3-4c; colored at 11.7-8c. Brockville, Ont.—To-day 1,890 boxes were registered, 840 white, balance colored; 11.3-4c for white and 12c for colored offered; 350 colored sold on board at 12c.

Kingston, Ont.—Cheese prices to-day were 11.1-4c to 11.7-8c, and 454 boxes of white and 271 boxes of colored were sold.

Vankleek Hill, Ont.—There were 1,678 boxes cheese sold here to-day; price for white, 11.3-4c; colored, 11.7-8c; at above figures all sold on board. Winchester, Ont.—To-day 132 colored and 342 white were registered; 11.7-8c for colored and 11.3-4c for white offered on board; none sold.

Montreal Live Stock.

Montreal—About 1,340 butchers' cattle, 20 milk cows and springers, 300 calves, 950 sheep and lambs, and 1,200 fat hogs were offered for sale at the city market to-day. There were few prime beefs on the market; some of the best sold up to 5c per pound; pretty good animals sold at 3.1-4 to 4.1-4c; the common stock at 2 to 3c per pound; a lot of 23 thin old cows, averaging 646 pounds each, were sold at a price of over 11.4c per pound. Milk cows sold at $30 to $55 each. The calves were nearly all grassers, and sold at 2.1-4 to 3.1-4c per pound; good veals sell at 4 to 5c per pound; sheep sold at about 3.1-2c per pound; lambs at 4.1-2c to a little Bradstreet's Trade Review.

Montreal—The trade situation here has seen little change during the past week. Wholesale trade in all lines is steady with here and there some improvement in volume. Orders for dry goods lines continue fairly good. The trade in ready-to-wear clothing is also showing improvement, and there should next season be a good business in these lines. This branch of trade has been much affected by the trade depression and there has been a steady clearing out of stocks all along the line. There is a good reasonable demand for all lines of groceries. Sugars are active and steady. Tea is quiet. The hardware trade is without special feature.

Toronto—All lines of trade continue to show steadily if slowly increasing activity here. Orders from all directions are good compared with those that have been coming forward for many months, but there is still some distance to go before the great activity of pre-depression days is equalled. Easy money and record crops are having their natural effects, but so much lost ground has to be caught up that it will take well to the end of the year to do it.

Winnipeg—The general business sentiment here is decidedly cheerful.

Vancouver and Victoria—The demand for wholesale lines here continues to improve, although the total volume of business is not yet heavy.

Quebec—Wholesale trade is much about the same as the preceding week; Hamilton—Retail business here is moderate, and the movement of wholesale lines is fair. Orders to manufacturers are showing improvement, and the outlook continues to favor a good fall trade. Country produce is coming forward well, and prices are steady to firm. Collections are only fairly satisfactory.

London—The volume of wholesale trade continues to show improvement, and collections are coming forward rather more easily.

Ottawa—There is now a fairly good tone to all lines of wholesale trade here.

JAPS' WELCOME.

To U. S. Fleet Promises to be the Biggest Ever.

Tokio, Oct. 19.—All Japan is astir in anticipation of the arrival of the American Atlantic fleet. Yokohama and Tokio in particular are given over to enthusiastic preparation. The decorations in these cities are so extensive and general as to be remarkable not only in Japan, but in any country in the world. A naval call by the fleet of another power.

All the Japanese newspapers of prominence are printing editorials assuring the American officers and sailors a hearty welcome by the nation.

Every available vessel in the harbor of Yokohama has been chartered to convey excursionists to meet the warships on their approach. A considerable fleet will venture far out at sea in order to extend the first welcome.

SOCIALIST JAILED.

Advised Unemployed to Rush Bakeries Rather Than Starve.

London, Oct. 15.—The recent demonstrations by the unemployed in Great Britain brought about one result to-day rather out of the ordinary; this was the issuing of a writ against William James Thorne, Social Democratic member of Parliament from the southern division of West Ham, for inciting to a breach of the peace by making a speech in which he advised the unemployed to "rush" the baker shops rather than starve.

A body of the unemployed is marching to-day from Nottingham to London. Serious riots were avoided in Sheffield yesterday only when the Mayor announced that the sum of $500,000 would be devoted to relief work.

DR. DANIEL C. GILMAN DEAD.

President of Johns Hopkins University for Quarter of Century.

A Norwich, Conn., despatch: Professor Daniel Coit Gilman, of Baltimore, formerly President of Johns Hopkins University, and one of the best known educators in the country, died suddenly of heart disease yesterday afternoon at the home of his brother, William C. Gilman, in this city. Only a few minutes before his death Dr. Gilman had appeared to be in his usual health. He had, however, been a sufferer from heart disease for more than a year.

Dr. Gilman was President of Johns Hopkins from 1875 to 1901, and during this period so developed and organized his university that he changed the whole course of higher education in the United States. In 1896 he served on the Venezuelan Commission, which settled the boundary between British Guiana and Venezuela.

Magazine Writer Murdered. Winnipeg, Oct. 14.—A report has been received here from the upper end of Lake Winnipeg to the effect that J. O. Curwood, of Detroit, a magazine writer and representative of the Merrill Publishing Company, has been murdered by Indians in the Lac la Rouge country. Curwood's headquarters were formerly at Port Arthur.

TO RELEASE REVOLUTIONARY.

Russian Authorities Consent to Accept $25,000.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 19.—The Procurator-General has promised the daughter of Tschakovsky, the revolutionary leader, who was arrested from the United States, to release her father on Friday if bail to the amount of 50,000 roubles ($25,000) be deposited to-morrow. The daughter, Mrs. Bressy, has been working devotedly for her father's release since her mother's health was broken by anxiety on behalf of her husband.

KOENIG & CO'S CLOTHING STOCK

(BETTER KNOWN AS THE SEMI-READY SHOP)

DOOMED

Now in the Hands of the National Salvage Company to be Sacrificed.

The Public Benefits

On October 28th, Wednesday at 9 A. M., at Brockville, Ontario, Koenig & Company's entire clothing stock, consisting of $20,000 worth of the very best clothing for men, boys' and children, hats, underwear, furnishing goods, etc. The entire stock, which is now in the hands of the National Salvage Company of Toronto, for immediate disposal, will be thrown on the market at forced sale to the public and sold for what it will bring. The National Salvage Company of Toronto, who bought the entire stock and fixtures of Koenig & Company, say that they propose to sell this entire stock of men's clothing, furnishings, etc., out immediately, and within a few days' time, at low prices never heard of before. The National Salvage Company say that they positively will not move, pack, ship or haul away one dollar's worth of Koenig & Company's clothing stock, that it must and will all be sold in Brockville, Ontario, and that at the prices this entire stock of men's overcoats, suits, pants, etc., which is now being invoiced—and will be sold to the public at about 40c on the dollar,—that they expect everything to be sold out quickly, inside of ten days' time. This is a sacrifice clothing sale, such as the public have an opportunity to attend about once in a life time, and all the people of Brockville, Leeds County and surrounding country will, without question, take advantage of this grand opportunity to secure for themselves men's suits, men's overcoats, children's clothing, men's furnishings, etc., at about forty cents on the dollar. The manager of the National Salvage Company informs us that they have engaged many extra salespeople in order to serve the vast crowds who will attend this forced, closing out, quit business sale of Koenig & Company's stock at Brockville, Ontario. It will certainly be a great feast of men's clothing bargains, suits, overcoats, etc., and the sale will no doubt attract thousands of people to Brockville, Ontario. Koenig & Company have only been in business three years, and as the stock is practically new, it will likely be sold the first four days of the sale, as the public are always ready to save themselves one-half on their clothing purchases, whenever that opportunity presents itself, and this certainly is your chance to supply yourself with clothing wants at about one-half actual value of the goods. Merchants from Brockville or vicinity, wishing to buy portions of this stock or any part of the fixtures, safes, counters, etc., will please call between the hours of eight and nine a.m., as all other time will be devoted to the immense crowds of people who will wish to buy this stock out at retail by the single articles, such as suits overcoats, hats, shirts, underwear, etc. The store, which is now closed will remain closed in order to get the entire stock invoiced and all goods marked down in plain figures to the very lowest possible limit, in order to sell the suits and overcoats out rapidly, as the entire stock must and positively will be sold out entirely within a few days after the sale starts, so be on hand on the opening day if you possibly can, and you will secure the greatest clothing bargains of your entire lifetime. This sale is a God-send to the people, coming as it does at the time of the year, and right in the height of the fall season, giving you an opportunity to save yourself ten to fifteen dollars on the purchase of a suit and overcoat. Understand and remember the store will not be open for business until the opening day of this great sacrifice, closing out, quit business, forced sale which starts Wednesday morning at nine a.m., October 28th. At the prices we understand this stock of clothing, suits, overcoats, etc., will be sold at, the public may well be prepared to take quick action, and we predict that the entire stock will melt away rapidly, like a snowfall before a July sun. A word to the wise and intelligent should be sufficient, and we advise you as man to man to be on hand early, attend this sale and benefit accordingly. Drop everything. Make your arrangements to be there on opening day, Wednesday, October 28th, or on one of the ten special days, in justice to yourself and pocketbook. If you need men's clothing now or for the next three years, you cannot afford to miss this sale of Koenig & Company's clothing stock, which is now in the hands of the National Salvage Company for immediate disposal on the above dates. Sale takes place at Brockville, Ontario. Look for the big green and white sign. Be careful, be sure you find the right store. Mr Findlay Cameron arrived home with his bride from Smith's Falls last Tuesday.
Rev Mr Williams preached in the Methodist church here last Sunday.
Mrs A. Hailday is quite low with typhoid fever.
Mr Herbert Wood arrived here from Rome last night, where he has been visiting friends the last two weeks.
Mrs Blackburn of Beachbridge is visiting her niece, Mrs C. C. Copeland. They are building cement sidewalks in front of the Baptist parsonage.
Mr and Mrs Alex Stevens have returned from their trip to New York.
Mrs Geo. Morris is visiting her Mother at Plevna.
Mr Elmer Irwin is improving nicely from his recent illness.

Some odd but true Fair stories are told. Years ago, a woman found the cork had let the vinegar all out of the bottle by the way, and told a kind acquaintance who filled it for her. Then filled a bottle of the same for her own exhibit. The second prize was awarded her, and to the woman she obliged the first prize. On the evening before the Fair, a house wife borrowed a loaf from her neighbor to supply numerous visitors expected—changed her mind, entered it and took first prize on it. The lady she got it from showed her loaf and received second prize.

"Hecla" Furnace

The Firepot of a furnace being in direct contact with the fire, contains its most effective heating surface. Any increase in this surface therefore, greatly increases the efficiency of the furnace. That is why STEEL RIBBED FIREPOTS, which have three times as much radiating surface as any other style of firepot, enable the "HECLA" Furnace to save from 10% to 15% of your fuel bill.

This is only one of the many exclusive features of the "Hecla" Furnace. We want to explain them all to you—and prove, by actual tests, that the "Hecla" is the best and most economical furnace you can buy. Stop in any time for a "Hecla" talk and demonstration.

Read the following testimonial from a man you all know:

Bedford, Ont., Aug. 26th, 1908
Mr. W. A. Singleton, Crosby, Ont.
Dear Sir— I think it my duty to tell of the great good St. Regis Lumbago Cure has done me. I was troubled with Lumbago for about six years, sometimes could scarcely raise up from a chair. I tried several doctors and took nearly every kind of patent medicine and would be a little better while the medicine lasted, but when it was done I was not fit to work. About the first of June I was advised to try St. Regis Lumbago Cure, and am happy to say I had not taken half a bottle till the lumbago was all gone and I have not felt any return of the ailment since that time. I take great pleasure in recommending it to others who may be troubled with Lumbago or Kidney troubles, for I have found it to be all it is recommended for, and a trial will be better for anyone than a recommendation. Yours very sincerely,
JAMES MCNEILL,
Clerk of Bedford Township.

FRUIT CROPS.

Weather conditions have been fairly favorable for plums, peaches and grapes, but not for pears and winter apples. Apples—Early and fall fruit nearly all harvested. Winter fruit ripening prematurely and dropping, reducing the crop already below medium. Pears are ripening rapidly, and are of good quality. Exports to Great Britain larger than usual. Peaches—All harvested but a few late varieties. Prices have been below the average. Plums—Nearly all harvested except in northern districts. Grapes—A full crop of excellent quality. Prices lower than for several years. Tomatoes—Have ripened too rapidly for the canning factories, and are of excellent quality. Cranberries—A good crop. There is a demand for the Canadian berries in the United States. Insects and fungous diseases have developed slightly this month. Pink rot has developed to a serious extent. Winter apples in the United States have depreciated in quantity and quality. Prices for Canadian pears and apples in Great Britain have been good and shipments larger than usual. J. A. Ruddick, Dairy and Cold Storage Commissioner. A. McNeill, Chief Fruit division.

MOTHERS FEEL SAFE.

Mothers who have used Baby's Own Tablets for their little ones say they feel safe with the Tablets in hand, for they are a never failing cure for all the minor ills of babyhood and childhood. Mrs. Urias Crossman, New Hamburg, Ont., says: "I have used Baby's Own Tablets for stomach trouble and this constipation, with marked success. I always feel that my little one is safe when I have a box of the Tablets in the house." Baby's Own Tablets are sold under the guarantee of a Government analyst to contain neither opiates nor other poisonous drugs. They always do good—they can't possibly do harm. For sale at druggists or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brookville, Ont.

YIELDS OF MILK.

In one British Columbia Cow Testing Association last month the average yield of one herd of 10 cows was 1,143 pounds milk, 39.3 pounds fat each. Another herd of eight cows gave an average of only 568 pounds milk, 20.5 pounds fat, or only a fraction over half as much. The highest individual yield from any single cow was 1,590 pounds milk, testing 3.4; the lowest yield in this herd was 200 pounds milk, testing 5.2. One herd of cows had an average production of 1,034 pounds milk each, testing 3.3. The lowest yield in this herd was 465 pounds milk, testing 3.5. In 13 out of 19 herds were several individual cows giving 1,000 to 1,500 pounds of milk each in the month. Several cows gave less than 400 pounds of milk each. The general average production of all the 200 cows recorded in this association was 1,200 pounds of milk, 3.5 test, 23.7 pounds fat. This last statement, it will be observed, completely obscures the individual extremes noted above. Although a good average and one full of encouragement to dairymen, it is not only only valuable in so far as it is typical of general results in 19 herds. The shrewd dairyman goes much further. He inquires into and ascertains the ability and performance of each individual cow in the herd for the whole year; then he uses the information gained, and retains in the stable only such cows as attain an economical and profitable standard of production. Minard's Liniment for sale everywhere. Made Burglar Give Discount. A group of his friends were discussing William Winslow Sherman, the old banker who died not long ago. "He had the coolest nerve of any man I ever knew," said one. "Three or four years ago, when Sherman was an old man and partially crippled by reason of a fall from a horse, he entered his bedroom late at night to find a masked burglar ransacking it. The thief had a big gun trained on Sherman in a minute. The banker just waved it aside with a tired hand. 'Put that away,' he said, irritably. 'Let us discuss this matter like gentlemen.' The burglar was so surprised he laughed. 'Now, you could hurt me if you wanted to, and might get away with some little knickknacks,' said Sherman. 'But you might be caught, and there's a slight probability that you could dispose of my toilet articles profitably. What would you consider a fair cash proposition to go away?' They talked it over in all peace. The burglar thought he ought to have $10, but Sherman, after inquiring into the man's habits, said $8 was enough. 'You see,' he said, 'you're a known thief. If this were your first offence, I'd pay you your price, but now the police have your picture you ought to be glad to accept any fair compromise and run no risk.' The burglar finally agreed to take $8. Sherman pulled out a $10 bill. 'Give me $2 change,' said he. And he got it before he paid."—Kansas City Star.

The Adventures of a Beestreak. Speaking of food, I believe I have not mentioned the beestreak, which we brought with us into the woods. It was Eddie's idea, and he was its self-appointed guardian and protector. That was proper, only I think he protected it too long. It was a nice sirloin when we started, thick and juicy, and of a rich red tone. Eddie said a little more would improve it, and I suppose he was right—he most always is. He said he would appreciate it more, too, a little later, which seemed a sound doctrine. Yet, somehow, that steak was an irritation. It is no easy matter to adjust the proper age of a steak to the precise moment of keen and general appreciation. We discussed the matter a good deal, and each time the steak was produced as a sort of exhibit A, and on each occasion Eddie decided that the time was not ripe, that another day would add to its food value. I may say that I had a special appetite for steak, not yet, but I did not want to see it carried off by wild beasts, or offered at least on a falling market. Besides, the thing was an annoyance as baggage. I don't know where we carried it at first, but I began to come up on it in unexpected places. If I picked up a sizzling looking package, expecting to find a dry undergarment, or some other nice surprise, it turned out to be that steak. If I reached down into one of the pack baskets for a piece of Eddie's chocolate, or some of his tobacco—for anything, in fact—I would usually get hold of a curious feeling substance and bring up that steak. I began to recognize its texture at last and to avoid it. Eventually I banished it from the baskets altogether. Then Eddie decided to hang it on a limb, near the camp, and if a shower came up suddenly he couldn't rest—he must make a wild rush and take in that steak. I refused at last to let him hang it into the tent, or to let him hang it on a near-by limb, but this made trouble, for when he hung it farther away he sometimes forgot it, and twice we had to paddle back a mile or so to get that steak. Also, sometimes, it got wet, which was not good for its flavor, he said; certainly not for its appearance. In fact, Eddie said on that steak. It no longer had the deep, rich glow of youth. It had a weatherbeaten, discouraged look, and I wondered how Eddie could contemplate it in that fond way. It seemed to me that if the time wasn't ripe the steak was, and that something ought to be done about a thing like that. My suggestions did not please Eddie. I do not remember now just when we did at last cook that steak. I prefer to forget it. Neither do I know what Eddie did with his piece of buried mine. From "The Tent Dwellers," by Albert Bigelow Paine in the Outing Magazine for October.

Elephant. The large and awkward elephant is not a beast of prey; at least he never goes to church on Sundays anyway. He never is a household pet, and never sweetly sings; The ladies cannot trim their hats with feathers from his wings. The milkman cannot milk him, and he never lays an egg; To keep him in his place you have to hitch him to a peg. He is of little use to man, His charms are very few; But if he was unknown what would the poor cartoonists do? —Chicago Record-Herald.

Repeat it—"Shiloh's Cure will always cure my coughs and colds." Dublin Street Children. The street children must surely be to our visitors the most surprising of all our institutions. In ready wit and in bright good humor, in an unquenchable spirit of playfulness, with the most diligent and painstaking attention to business, reinforced by the most surprising art of coaxing, these barefooted citizens give us a day-long comedy. Sometimes they seem to embody and symbolize all Ireland, its gay poverty and its good humor in depressing circumstances.—From the Freeman's Journal.

Minard's Liniment Relieves Neuralgia. Plowing. It may be interesting to note some marked differences in plowing methods. On the 30,000 acre wheat farm of the Pacific Coast plowing is done by engine power drawn by from twenty to forty horses, and operated by from four to eight men. Such a plowing machine will turn up the soil, harrow, seed and roll in one simultaneous operation, one swath as it were, at the rate of from fifteen to forty acres a day, according to the power of the machine. While such plows are used in the Far West, down in the Black Belt of the Far East and in the mountains of the Southern States may be found an old-time plowing—a single moldboard drawn by a single lonely ox. In the Middle West and the Northwest, for the most part, will be found from single to six-team plows with corresponding number of plowshares. In many sections where alfalfa is grown to enrich the soil, as in the south, the process of preparation is more profitable than grain growing itself. Once alfalfa makes good in the South, it means three or four cuttings a year of a ton or two tons each; and in those sections of the South hay is worth $20 to the ton. The best half for poor patches of growth, cost of seed and cost of labor; and many an alfalfa grower in the South is clearing $60 an acre while restoring his worn-out soil.—Agnes C. Laut, in the Outing Magazine for October.

Druggist Who Missed His Calling. "I incline an order recently handed to a local chemist," says a correspondent. "After some thought, he supplied the article required, which was 'peccanova wine.' I think this beats anything you have yet published. The order, indeed, is in its entirety as follows: E. P. Q. Y. That chemist is a Sherlock Holmes manqué.—London News. Nearness. OWES CURE TO ZAM-BUK

Prominent Manager's Telling Testimony.

Mr. D. R. Gourlay, advertising manager for the well-known piano firm of Gourlay, Winter & Leeming, Toronto and Winnipeg, is amongst the prominent men and women who testify to Zam-Buk's great curative power. He writes to the company as follows: "Gentlemen,—I have pleasure in stating that upon the recommendation of a relative I purchased a box of your remedy (Zam-Buk), and by a few applications entirely cured a very severe sprain of the back. While not given to indiscriminate use of, or belief in, patent medicines, I can conscientiously recommend Zam-Buk. "Sincerely yours, "(Signed) D. R. Gourlay." That is just where Zam-Buk proves its superiority! It is treated by men and women who have tried it, as altogether different to ordinary preparations. Doctors, hospital nurses, trainers, matrons of convalescent homes—all give Zam-Buk a good word, and better still they use it. Zam-Buk is as good for muscle stiffness, sprains, rheumatism and sciatica as it is for skin troubles. Hockey players and athletes in general find it invaluable. For eruptions, pustules, scalp sores, itch, eczema, ulcers, boils, abscesses, blood poison, cuts, burns, bruises, and abrasions, it is a speedy cure. Takes the soreness out of wounds almost instantly, and kills all disease germs, thus preventing festering and inflammation. All druggists and stores sell it in a box, or post free from the Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, for price, 4 boxes for $2.50. Send 1c. stamp for trial box.

VEEXING. "Pa, they say the rain falls alike on the just and unjust, don't they?" "Yes, yes. Don't ask silly questions. "And it isn't just to steal another man's umbrella, is it?" "Certainly not! If you ask any more "But, pa, the rain doesn't fall on the man that steals the umbrella, and it does on the man who has his stolen. Funny, ain't it, pa?"

Lost Her Chance. Matrimonial troubles were under discussion. The eldest son of a rich manufacturer remarked: "I hold that the best thing for a husband to be to begin as he intends to go on. Say that the question was one of smoking. Almost immediately I would show my intentions by lighting a cigar and settling the question forever." "And I would knock the thing out of your mouth," cried the imperious beauty of the group. "Do you know," rejoined the young man, "I don't think you would be there."—Chicago News.

The Great Trouble. "What we need to beat the corporations," said a reformer, "is strong, brave men who can be depended upon in every emergency." "Yes," answered Senator Sorghum, "but every time such a man is discovered some corporation is sure to want him on its pay roll at a fabulous salary."—Washington Star.

Poor Material for British Army. If there be any doubt that physical deterioration in the submerged classes is more serious than it used to be the report of the Army Medical Department pins one down between that opinion and the conclusion that the army recruited from a lower social stratum. "Average British recruits," the report states, "are not only the youngest but in the poorest physical condition of those in any civilized army. They cannot stand work which did not injure well fed conscripts of twenty years of age; still less can they face exercises which would do harm to robust men." They are in fact from want of food and from the cigarette habit such miserable specimens of humanity that it takes two years to make men of them. The report confirms what we said the other day, to the effect that a British army is painfully produced from the army of the British unemployed; as many as 95 per cent of accepted recruits are hopeless "out of works." There is a good deal amiss with the conditions that make these degenerates and the report gives one to think furiously; but the larger question raised by it is whether any amount of training and selection can produce an efficient army out of such material.—From Pall Mall Gazette.

SOCIETY BELOW STANDS.

Hotels Have to Provide for Several Different Strata.

In the furnishing and fitting of some of the new apartments and apartment hotels several interesting features have been under discussion. In other days, in the old class of such buildings in this city, a dining room for children and servants was considered sufficient for all requirements. To-day in building a hotel there must be a succession of dining rooms. The ladies' maids and valets of the guests will not dine with the help of the house, and the chambermaids, according to the etiquette of high life below stairs, will not sit down with the club women, and in some places will also decline to eat at the same table as the bellboys. The clerks, telephone girls and numerous other members of the staff form another set. At some of the hotels the clerks are served in the cafe, but it has been found that the housekeeper and the different heads of departments have a dining room of their own. The chauffeur still remains an indefinite proposition, says Town and Country. Until lately he has declined to private houses to be classed as a servant, and only last year there was a protest about his wearing livery. It is quite a la mode this season to register at a resort hotel, "Mr. and Mrs. and chauffeur," just as it has been "maid or manservant" on the outgoing ships. Repeat it—"Shiloh's Cure will always cure my coughs and colds." Love's Laws. Be sure you're right, then lose your head. A ring on the hand is worth two at the door. A fool and his money are soon married. A little debutante is a dangerous thing. Proposals make cowards of us all. There's no fool like a bold fool. The longest way round is the sweetest way home. One good kiss deserves another. The love that makes the man come round. Kisses speak louder than words. He loves best whose love lasts. People who live in glass houses shouldn't hold hands. The woman who deliberates is won. Where there's a will there's a way.—Carolyn Wells in Broadway Magazine.

BIRTH RATES IN EUROPE. Highest in the Eastern and the Southern Part of the Continent. Nearly every country in Europe publishes a summary of the information obtained in the census of its population, which is taken every five or ten years. By studying these condensed reports interesting comparisons as to the growth of population may be obtained. For instance, it is found that in proportion to population the birth rate is larger in eastern and western Europe and in the southern than in the northern part of the continent. The birth rate is more than twice as large in Russia as it is in France. In Normandy and the southwestern part of France, where the birth rate is lowest, the births at times fall as low as fifteen to the thousand inhabitants in a year. But in Russia there are many districts, as in Orenburg, where the births are as high as sixty a thousand in a year. Notwithstanding the enormous emigration from Europe in the nineteenth century, its population is now nearly double what it was at the beginning of the century. It is believed that at the beginning of the Christian era there were only a few million people in the whole of Europe. It does not seem likely that the present rate of increase can continue many centuries to come.

China Has Few Trees. Frank N. Meyer, the scientific explorer for the Government, in his recent penetration of China, saw farms that had been under irrigation since before Columbus discovered America. To the credit of the pagan priests, he said, all forms of plant and tree growth were cherished and encouraged around the temples. The priests gave Meyer what information they could. The extent to which forest devastation has gone in China, says The Outing Magazine, can be inferred from the fact that the Chinese have rooted and grubbed out every vestige of tree growth the size of your finger above the graves of their revered ancestors.

Black Remarkable for Watch richness and pleasing flavor. The big black plug chewing tobacco. He Survived. During a snowstorm in the Highlands the express was held up for an hour or two. The guard, a cheery Scot, with a pawky humor, passed along the carriages trying to cheer up the passengers. An old gentleman angrily complained that if the train didn't go on he would "die of the cold." "Take my advice and na'dae that," replied the guard. "Mind you, we charge a shillin' a mile for corpses."—London News.

BIRTH RATES IN EUROPE. Highest in the Eastern and the Southern Part of the Continent. Nearly every country in Europe publishes a summary of the information obtained in the census of its population, which is taken every five or ten years. By studying these condensed reports interesting comparisons as to the growth of population may be obtained. For instance, it is found that in proportion to population the birth rate is larger in eastern and western Europe and in the southern than in the northern part of the continent. The birth rate is more than twice as large in Russia as it is in France. In Normandy and the southwestern part of France, where the birth rate is lowest, the births at times fall as low as fifteen to the thousand inhabitants in a year. But in Russia there are many districts, as in Orenburg, where the births are as high as sixty a thousand in a year. Notwithstanding the enormous emigration from Europe in the nineteenth century, its population is now nearly double what it was at the beginning of the century. It is believed that at the beginning of the Christian era there were only a few million people in the whole of Europe. It does not seem likely that the present rate of increase can continue many centuries to come.

China Has Few Trees. Frank N. Meyer, the scientific explorer for the Government, in his recent penetration of China, saw farms that had been under irrigation since before Columbus discovered America. To the credit of the pagan priests, he said, all forms of plant and tree growth were cherished and encouraged around the temples. The priests gave Meyer what information they could. The extent to which forest devastation has gone in China, says The Outing Magazine, can be inferred from the fact that the Chinese have rooted and grubbed out every vestige of tree growth the size of your finger above the graves of their revered ancestors.

Spike Mackerel on Maine Coast. No little interest was aroused among the fishermen at Portland on Wednesday when the herring catchers brought in goodly quantities of so-called spike mackerel, which are said to be the first caught along the coast for some few years. The spike mackerel are smaller than the tinkers, which are most desirable for packing purposes. The smaller fish is claimed to be the most preferred for table use. The small fish have been found into the small bays and inlets of the lower bay, and this also is considered strange.—Lewiston Journal.

HELPFUL ADVICE

You won't tell your family doctor the whole story about your private illness—you are too modest. You need not be afraid to tell Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., the things you could not explain to the doctor. Your letter will be held in the strictest confidence. From her vast correspondence with sick women during the past thirty years she may have gained the very knowledge that will help your case. Such letters as the following, from grateful women, establish beyond a doubt the power of LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND to conquer all female diseases.

Mrs. Frank Emsley, Lindsay, Ontario, writes to Mrs. Pinkham: "When I wrote to you some time ago, I was a very sick woman suffering from female troubles. I had inflammation of the feminine organs and could not stand or walk any distance. At last I was confined to my bed and the doctor said I would have to go through an operation, but this I refused to do. "A friend advised Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. After using three bottles of it, I feel like a new woman. "I most heartily recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to all women who suffer with female troubles." FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN. For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, etc.—S. EUROPEAN CONFERENCE.

Britain, Russia and France Agree On a Programme.

Bulgaria Refuses Pecuniary Compensation For Independence.

Secret Treaty Between Austria and Bulgaria.

London, Oct. 19.—Great Britain, Russia and France have reached an agreement on a programme to be submitted to the other powers as a basis for discussion by the proposed European conference to settle the Balkan situation.

The first proposal is to the effect that article 1 to 22 of the treaty of Berlin, which relate to Bulgaria and Eastern Roumelia, shall be replaced by stipulations recognizing the independence of Bulgaria as at present constituted, and determining the financial obligations of Bulgaria toward Turkey.

The second and third proposals are that the powers shall take note of the annexation by Austria-Hungary of Bosnia and Herzegovina and the return of the Sanjak of Novi-pazar to Turkey.

The fourth article of the treaty of Berlin by clauses recognizing the annexation of Crete to Greece, and determining the financial obligations of Greece, in respect to Crete toward Turkey.

The fifth proposal is to the effect that arrangements similar to the above shall apply to the Armenian Provinces of Turkey.

The sixth article deals with Montenegro. The Montenegrin rights of sovereignty are limited to article 19 of the treaty of Berlin. It is proposed that articles 26 to 33 inclusive of the Berlin treaty shall be condensed to a single article abrogating all the restrictions imposed by the treaty under the original article 29, which it is proposed to sweep away.

The seventh point in the programme is the statement that it is desirable to give compensation to Serbia and Montenegro by a rectification of the Bosnian and Herzegovina frontiers adjoining Novi-pazar. This is taken to imply that a strip will be taken from the territory annexed by Austria-Hungary.

The eighth proposal concerns the River Danube, and declares it is desirable to revise the regulations governing Danube traffic so as to give larger rights to the States bordering on the river.

The eighth article of the programme are followed by a declaration, as the new Ottoman constitution foresees a reorganization of the judicial system and a remodelling of Turkish legislation in conformity with the principles of other European States, the powers are prepared to consider in concert with Turkey so soon as these reforms are realized, the best means of doing away with capitulations.

The draft of this programme makes no mention of the straits between the Black Sea and the Mediterranean, which, of course, means the Bosphorus as well as the Dardanelles. But these straits have been a subject of protracted discussion between Sir Edward Grey, the British Foreign Secretary, and M. Iswolsky, the Russian Minister of Foreign Affairs. M. Iswolsky does not ask that this question be submitted to the conference; what he desires is that Great Britain and France help Russia to negotiate with Turkey for the opening of these straits to Russia.

No Money Compensation.

Paris, Oct. 19.—A special despatch from Sofia to the Matin quotes the Premier as saying that Bulgaria would refuse to make pecuniary compensation in return for recognition of her independence.

"We have not proclaimed Bulgaria's independence," said the Premier, "in order to ransom her for a sum of money. If we must ransom Bulgaria again we prefer that it be without blood."

Secret Treaty.

Belgrade, Serbia, Oct. 19.—The newspaper Deyni List publishes what purports to be the text of a secret treaty between Bulgaria and Austria. There are three clauses in this treaty. In the first Austria authorizes Prince Ferdinand to declare the independence of Bulgaria and promises to maintain the Coburg dynasty in Bulgaria. The second provides that if complications arise through the announcement of the annexation of Bosnia and Herzegovina Prince Ferdinand will take the part of Austria. The third sets forth that the Austrian and Bulgarian Governments will work in common accord in the affairs of the Balkan peninsula.

C. P. R. ELECTRIC PLANS.

To Cross 700 Miles of Mountains by Water Power.

Winnipeg, Man., Oct. 19.—Sir Thomas Shaughnessy, President of the Canadian Pacific Railway, who is in Winnipeg, said that the company had spent $10,000,000 double-tracking the line between Winnipeg and Thunder Bay in the last year. It would now start on similar work through to the coast, he said.

This, he said, was the cause of voting $50,000,000 of new stock last week. The company, he said, is preparing to operate trains over the mountains by electricity generated by water power for 700 miles, probably the biggest railway undertaking in the history of the continent.

volume of fire that could be seen all over South Chicago. The salt docks, which are owned by the Jay Morton Co., were destroyed four years ago, entailing a loss of more than $1,000,000. The Calumet elevator, which is near by the docks, was stocked with 1,500,000 bushels of corn. It blazed like a great torch, and the strong wind sent burning brands in showers over the dwellings in the neighborhood. It is thought that a spark from a passing locomotive started the fire.

U. S. FLEET IS DELAYED.

Consternation in Tokio and Yokohama Over Programme.

Dinners, Balls, Etc., Postponed—Off Cape Shiomi.

Tokio, Oct. 19.—The announcement of a day's delay in the arrival of the American fleet, made in special editions of all the daily papers has caused something akin to consternation in Tokio and Yokohama, because of the necessity for wide departures from the programme of entertainment which had been arranged up to the last minutes detail. Officers of the Japanese navy who have taken an active part in the preparations, have been in constant consultation with Commander Dougherty, the naval attaché at the American Embassy.

It has been decided to postpone the dinner arranged by Commander-in-Chief Ijima, of the Japanese navy, for Saturday, and the faji ball aboard the Mikasa, which was to have taken place on the same evening, to Friday, Oct. 23. The dinner to be given by Rear-Admiral Sperry will take place on the following day, and the fleet is expected to depart preceding No. wood has been received here from Rear-Admiral Sperry since early this morning. At 3.30 a. m., the 10 battleships were off Cape Shiomi, about 400 miles south of the entrance to the harbor.

INSURANCE IN ONTARIO.

Report of Superintendent of Operations in the Province.

Toronto, Oct. 19.—The annual report of the superintendent of insurance of Ontario shows the total amount of insurance in force on Dec. 31, 1907, as $1,400,340,043. The benefits paid in Ontario in that year amounted to $2,473,009, and the disability benefits amounted to $179,779.

The assets in Ontario at this time are given as $7,443,433, and the liabilities as $530,581. The assets anywhere amount to $25,206,310 and the liabilities to $1,966,298. The total Ontario membership is computed at 279,756.

The sum paid in sick and funeral benefits was $631,747 and the sum for special relief was $12,698.

UNGALLANT MR. GREENWOOD.

Wants Ladies Excluded From Members' Lobby at Westminster.

London, Oct. 19.—Mr. Hamar Greenwood created some amusement in the House of Commons today by asking the Speaker to abolish the privilege enjoyed by M. P.s of bringing ladies into the members' lobby, on the ground that frequently, especially during June and July, it was almost impossible for members to enter or leave the chamber. Mr. Greenwood pointed out that last evening a suffragette abused the privilege in a way he had hoped was restricted to pagan tribes in remote parts of the world. The Speaker eventually ordered that no woman should be allowed to pass the doorkeepers.

An hour afterwards Mr. Greenwood was seen escorting two ladies through the lobby.

CAPITALIST DRIVES HORSE CAR.

Frisco Fire Losses Bring Pat McFadden Down in the World.

New York, Oct. 19.—Because he would not accept part payment from the fire insurance companies on losses in the San Francisco fire, Patrick McFadden, who for eleven years made his home at the Palace Hotel in San Francisco, is now driving a Chambers street horse car; and he said yesterday he would keep on driving till he got his full insurance.

Before the disaster McFadden reckoned his income between $10,000 and $15,000. His revenue from apartment house property alone he estimated at $400 a month. Even now he might settle with the insurance companies for $6,500, but he prefers to work for $2 a day.

Others Made Longer Trips, But Decried in Water.

Berlin, Oct. 19.—The British balloon race, which came down yesterday at Hydding, Schleswig-Holstein, 261 miles from the point where the international balloon race started, was today officially declared winner of the international Aeronautilus ships.

Two German balloons made longer flights than the Banshee, but they were disqualified because they descended in the water.

The Helvetia, a Swiss entrant, made a remarkable flight of 787 miles, landing in shallow water, only a few rods, as said, from the shore on the coast of Norway, near Ersolmen.

A SCHOOLBOY'S JOKE.

CHINESE FIRE ON JAP TROOPS.

Japan Wants to Send Troops into China to Retaliate.

China Objects and There May be Trouble About It.

The Situation Beginning to Look Rather Serious.

Seoul, Corea, Oct. 19.—Serious complications affecting the peace of China and Japan threaten as the result of an engagement between Chinese and Japanese troops in Kantao, Northern Corea, in which several were killed and wounded. The refusal of the Chinese War Office to permit the pursuit of a detachment of soldiers who are said to have been the aggressors may result in the crossing of the frontier by Japanese troops.

Chinese soldiers are reported to have opened hostilities by firing upon a police station occupied by the Japanese troops, who were sent into Kantao as a guard for the Koreans resident there. The fighting that ensued lasted several hours, and while the exact number of casualties is not obtainable, there was a number killed and wounded. The commander of the Japanese garrison immediately called on China for permission to cross the frontier into Chinese territory, and pursue the assailants, who appear to have been worsted in the engagement. The request was refused by the War Office.

The Japanese Foreign Office has made representations to the Government at Pekin, and the situation is beginning to assume a serious aspect. It is intimated that unless China takes prompt action satisfactory to the Japanese Government the latter may take the initiative and cross the frontier in order to afford protection to the Koreans.

A GREAT JOKE.

Pueblo High School Scholars Forbidden Football.

They Dress Like Little Children and Spin Tops, Etc.

Pueblo, Col., Oct. 19.—Central high school resembled a kindergarten yesterday when the pupils, to show their contempt and ridicule for the orders of the school board that the school shall not have a football team, came to school dressed as little children and bringing toys. Large boys in short trousers, shirt waists and big bow ties, carried tops and marbles and the girls, with their hair in pig tails, adorned with big ribbons, nursed dolls and teddy bears, and played with jacks.

Immediately upon the assembling of school the boys commenced spinning tops and rolling marbles on the floor. Efforts to restore order were unavailing, and the senior and junior classes were dismissed. The pupils gathered outside the school in an uproar by loud yells of defiance. Principal H. M. Barrett finally made a talk to the pupils and they agreed to return to the school and behave.

Members of the school board say they will remain firm in their decision against football.

COUNTERFEIT BILLS.

Big Find in Barns Opposite Crozier's Farm.

Milton, Despatch—Inspector Parkinson, of the Dominion Secret Service, Ottawa, arrived here this afternoon from Buffalo. Accompanied by Crown Attorney Dick and Chief Constable Chapman, he drove down to the neighborhood of the farm recently owned by Thomas W. Crozier, who is now in Milton jail, charged with uttering counterfeit bank bills. The party searched in two old barns opposite to Crozier's farm.

After digging for some time the diggers were rewarded by finding two cans labelled "Lipton's" and a small lard pail, all containing bills. Returning to Milton, the bills were counted, and were found to total $7,310. The bills consisted of 270 Quebec Bank tens, 244 Standard Bank tens, 136 Farmers' Bank fives, 50 Farmers Bank tens, 142 United States (Indian Head) fives, and 28 Imperial Bank tens. The Imperial Bank bills were lacking the signature of the president.

While Dr. William T. Bull, the eminent cancer specialist, lay gravely ill at 33 West Thirty-fifth street, New York, last night, word was received that Miss Rebecca J. Evans, who had suffered a nervous breakdown as a result of nursing him during his present illness, was dead in London, Ont.

A sensation was sprung in the High Court at North Bay on Thursday in the case of the King vs. Wm. Martin, jun., when Martin's counsel, Wm. White, of Pembroke, entered a plea of guilty on behalf of his client, and asked Judge Britton to release Martin on suspended sentence. Judge Britton reserved his decision.

James A. Willshire, of Dundalk, Ont., told the Buffalo police he would give a substantial reward for the return of the money which he lost or which was stolen while he was coming to Buffalo from New York yesterday. Willshire declares he had the money in an inside pocket when he left the metropolis, but didn't have it when he reached Buffalo.

The students of the University of St. Petersburg met yesterday to discuss the continuation of the strike they have embarked on because of alleged impositions by the Ministry of Education, but the gathering broke up in a free fight between the opposing factions. Clubs and canes were used freely and many heads were broken.

When Michael Carney was arraigned in the Toronto Police Court yesterday on a charge of drunkenness he charged that the police had retained some of his money. He said that half an hour before his apprehension he had three five dollar bills and a one dollar bill in his pocket. The police returned him only two five dollar bills and the one dollar bill.

CHINESE FIRE ON JAP TROOPS.

Japan Wants to Send Troops into China to Retaliate.

China Objects and There May be Trouble About It.

The Situation Beginning to Look Rather Serious.

Seoul, Corea, Oct. 19.—Serious complications affecting the peace of China and Japan threaten as the result of an engagement between Chinese and Japanese troops in Kantao, Northern Corea, in which several were killed and wounded. The refusal of the Chinese War Office to permit the pursuit of a detachment of soldiers who are said to have been the aggressors may result in the crossing of the frontier by Japanese troops.

Chinese soldiers are reported to have opened hostilities by firing upon a police station occupied by the Japanese troops, who were sent into Kantao as a guard for the Koreans resident there. The fighting that ensued lasted several hours, and while the exact number of casualties is not obtainable, there was a number killed and wounded. The commander of the Japanese garrison immediately called on China for permission to cross the frontier into Chinese territory, and pursue the assailants, who appear to have been worsted in the engagement. The request was refused by the War Office.

The Japanese Foreign Office has made representations to the Government at Pekin, and the situation is beginning to assume a serious aspect. It is intimated that unless China takes prompt action satisfactory to the Japanese Government the latter may take the initiative and cross the frontier in order to afford protection to the Koreans.

Mrs S. A. Taplin left Athens for Toronto last week.

The Rural Deanery of Leeds is in session at Lyndhurst this week.

Mr A. M. Chassels last week visited his son John at Gouverneur, N. Y.

Mr A. E. Donovan, M. P. P., spent the week-end with friends in Athens.

Misses Mason, Birdsell and Ralph, evangelists, went to Toronto this week.

Mr A. A. Fisher of Brockville spent Sunday and Monday at the home of his father in Athens.

The trio from Camp Hades visited the county town on Tuesday and did a little painting.

Mr J. W. Kerr, collector, has commenced the performance of his duties.

Mr and Mrs B. Loverin have been spending a few days with friends in Morristown, N. Y.

Mr James Windsor, who has been under treatment at the General Hospital, returned to the House of Industry last week.

On Brockville Cheese Board last Saturday write cheese sold at 11 1/2 and colored at 12c. There was a small offering.

Mrs W. Jones left on Tuesday for her home in Kalamazoo, Mich., after spending several weeks here very pleasantly, the guest of her niece, Mrs G. E. Judson.

For several days a big fire has been in progress in the swamps north east and west of the village and the dense smoke has made life anything but pleasant.

The Borden Hanna meeting in Brockville on Wednesday evening last was one of the greatest that has been. The opera house was filled and a great overflow meeting was held in Victoria Hall. Many from this section attended the meeting.

A few nights ago dogs visited the farm of Mr Sheffield, on the eastern confines of the village, and wrought sad havoc among his turkeys and geese, killing a large number of them. He had fine flocks and they were all most destroyed.

Over thirty members of the Epworth League accepted the invitation of the Glen Buell League to attend their meeting last night. The Athens League furnished the programme, after which a sumptuous repast was served. All present agreed that a very pleasant evening had been spent.

Many in Athens learned with deep regret of the death of Mrs Elkanah Billings of Brockville, which occurred on Friday last. During the closing weeks of her long illness, her sisters, Mrs Beach and Mrs Slack, were with her. To the sorrowing relatives, the Reporter extends sincere condolences.

Mr S. C. A. Lamb, manager of the town hall, after considerable negotiations, has been able to secure the Marks Bros. Dramatic Co. (13 people), supporting Mary A. Bell Marks, for two nights, Friday and Saturday, October 30 and 31, with matinee Saturday afternoon.

A public meeting in the interests of John Webster, Conservative candidate, takes place at Athens on Wednesday evening. Quite a number from Brockville propose attending. The speakers will be G. Howard Ferguson, M.L.A., A. E. Donovan, M.L.A., H. A. Stewart, John Webster and others.

We don't know who is going to win out in the elections on Monday, but the village authorities should take effective steps to prevent the lighting of any bonfires. With most of the wells and fire-tanks dry, the risk of a bonfire should not be run. Additional coal stables will be required on that night.

On Thursday evening the Liberals of Brockville will hold the greatest political demonstration in the history of the riding. Brockville and Prescott bands will head a torch light procession, escorting Hon. Geo. P. Graham to the rink where a monster meeting will be held. Special excursion rates on all railways that day. Rate from Athens 35c, tickets good on day trains as well as evening special. All Athens dry goods stores will close at 6 o'clock.

Mrs (Dr) Mallory of Delta was last week a guest of Mrs W. B. Percival.

Miss L. Byington spent the week end with friends in Smiths Falls.

Mr Alex Compo returned to Athens this week from Watertown, N.Y.

All Athens dry goods stores will close at 6 p.m. on Thursday on account of the great demonstration in Brockville on that evening.

Next Monday evening will be the final study class in the Epworth League, preparatory to the contest and school on November 2nd.

Pressure of advertising necessitates leaving until next week the publication of a number of communications and list of Frankville Fair prize winners.

Died—at Frankville on Monday last, Mrs J. S. Rudd, aged 74 years. Deceased was very highly esteemed, and the bereaved family have the deep sympathy of all.

Mr G. A. Grant, one of the managers of the Bell Telephone Co., is in this section this week, visiting the rural telephone centres. As a result of his visit, these rural lines may be connected with the Bell exchange here.

—Bulbs for winter blooming, and fall planting, imported direct from the celebrated bulb farms of John Telkamp, Holland, are for sale at J. Thompson's at a price that will enable everybody to have plenty of flowers this winter.

After all, a Local Option vote simply means finding out what the people want and giving it to them. Don't get excited. It takes a three-fifths majority to make a "wet" town "dry" or a "dry" town "wet," and a plurality of that kind should prevent any wry faces being made when the time arrives for the losers to take their medicine.

Miss Maude Patterson of Colorado, niece of Mr and Mrs Munnell Brown, Glen Elbe, is remaining with them for the present. Her father left this locality about 18 years ago and prospered as a sheep rancher. He increased his flock to 5000 sheep and has cleared about $50,000. He has now retired.

On Thursday evening, 29th, Brockville is to hold a monster home-coming demonstration in honor of the Hon. Geo. P. Graham, who has been absent from the riding during the greater part of this campaign. There will be a torchlight procession, brass band music and a grand gathering in the rink. A special train will run over the B. & W. in connection with this event.
