POINCARE NEW PREMIER OF FRANCE

Revelations Regarding Ministerial Intrigues Follow the Fall of Premier Caillaux.

Paris, January 13.—M. Poincaré today announced his acceptance of the invitation to form the new ministry.

Sensational revelations, laying bare many ministerial intrigues have followed the fall of Premier Caillaux. These it is asserted, are based on official documents, and therefore presumably emanate from friends of the ex-foreign minister, Mr. Deselves.

One story is to the effect that the newspaper, the Temps or at least prominent members of its staff, took part in the conduct of the negotiations with Germany and this merely for private financial reasons.

Over the signature of Andre Morizet, Mr. Jaure's Socialist paper, Humanite, prints a particularly direct statement to this effect. It is headed, "The financial interest underlying the negotiations."

Mr. Morizet begins by declaring that the foreign editor of the Temps, the Paris representative of the Congo Kamerun Railway, the Berlin correspondent of the Temps, and Herr Semir chief of the German colonial party, and a deputy in the Reichstag, conducted the negotiations from beginning to end.

"It is M. Tardieu, who in his newspapers has constantly put the screws on successive ministers, and he, not the shadow of M. Pichon, the daily inspiration of the ministry until the day when foreign Pichon himself had to denounce him before the Senate. Hunted by Quai Dorsay, has he not been under the Caillaux administration, the confidant, and the familiar of the whole ministry? Was it not in connivance with him that over the head of minister De Selves, M. Caillaux has carried on all the secret manoeuvres of the last year?"

"Today there is a perfect understanding between the patriotic financiers. They have pulled off their deal."

The directors of the LaForestere which include the majority of the Congolese companies, namely Senator Fung, Senator Mongeot, M. Lantier, editor of the Temps, Albert and Paul Motte, the Roubaix manufacturers and their colleagues have just ceded 70,000 of their company's shares payable after the ratification of the agreement to a group of German financiers. They have just selected to join them on the board two German directors, Dr. Esser and Herr Von Puttkager, former governor of Kamerun. This has been printed by a financial journal.

CONSUMPTION NOT DANGEROUS

If Proper Care is Taken it Can be Cured Without Spreading to Others—Directions For Consumptives.

Dr. Townsend of the Jordan Sanatorium at River Glade, Westmorland Co., spoke in Temperance Hall Monday night on Tuberculosis.

Mayor Pedolin occupied the chair. A wild storm raged outside, and the audience was much smaller than it would otherwise have been.

Dr. Townsend said that while children of consumptives inherited a predisposition to the disease, there was no proof that the disease itself was hereditary.

The fact that so many people out of one family, so often died in the same house was due rather to lack of care in looking after the patient and to lack of ventilation and fumigation.

The disease was infectious by means of the sputum spit or coughed out by the patient. All this should be gathered on paper handkerchiefs or in paper boxes and burned or in metal cups to be disinfected. A careful consumptive is no danger to anybody else, but a careless one will infect a whole family or neighborhood.

The speaker would not recommend change of climate for consumptives. The treatment needed was perfect ventilation and sunlight. People should sleep with windows open or in open air. There should be open air schools for consumptive children. Those who follow the rules could be cured of consumption if not in its last stages. There was no need to be alarmed about it.

Consumption was where care is being taken, not more than half as prevalent now as it was ten years ago. There should be rigid inspection of factories, workshops, churches and schools etc., to see that rules of health, concerning fresh air, sunlight, fumigation etc., are properly carried out.

The speaker answered many questions.

He was tendered a hearty vote of thanks.

Revs. Dr. Cousins, S. J. Macarthur, W. J. Dean and Col. Malby made short addresses.

Col. Malby said that while the law required doctors to report cases of consumption to the Board of Health, he had not yet been notified of any cases.

The meeting decided to organize an anti-tuberculosis society, and Col. Malby, Dr. Pedolin and Rev. Mr. Macarthur were appointed a committee to further the plan.

SEED GRAIN AND POTATOES

Distribution From the Dominion Experimental Farms In 1912.

By instructions of the Hon. Minister of Agriculture a distribution will be made during the coming winter and spring of superior sorts of grain and potatoes to Canadian farmers. The samples for general distribution will consist of spring wheat (5 lbs.), white oats (4 lbs.), barley (5 lbs.), and field peas (3 lbs.). These will be sent out from Ottawa. A distribution of potatoes (in 3 lb. samples) will be carried on from several of the experimental farms, the Central Farm at Ottawa supplying only the provinces of Ontario and Quebec. All samples will be sent free, by mail.

Applicants should give particulars in regard to the soil on their farms; and should also state what varieties they have already tested and in what way these have been found unsatisfactory, so that a promising sort for their conditions may be sent.

Each application must be separate and must be signed by the applicant. Only one sample can be sent to each farm. Applications on any kind of printed or written form cannot be accepted.

As the supply of seed is limited, farmers are advised to apply early to avoid possible disappointment. No applications can be accepted after Feb. 15th.

All applications for grain (and applications from the provinces of Ontario and Quebec for potatoes) should be addressed to the Dominion Cereals, Central Experimental Farm, Ottawa. Such applications require no postage.

Applications for potatoes, from farmers in any other province should be addressed (postage prepaid) to the Superintendent of the nearest Branch Experimental Farm in that province.

TURKISH FLEET DESTROYED

Seven Vessels Sunk and One Captured While Italians Have No Loss.

Rome, Jan. 12.—A brief official note issued this afternoon says: "The Italian fleet in the Red Sea encountered to-day and destroyed seven Turkish gunboats and captured a Turkish armed yacht. The Turkish warships offered a violent resistance, but no loss was sustained by the Italians."

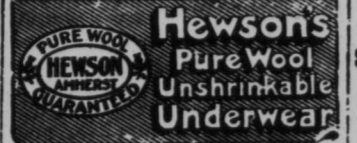

No further details of the fight are given.

Rome, Jan. 12.—The action occurred on January 7, outside the Bay of Kufida, a small walled town with a garrison and two forts about 500 miles north of Aden, on the east coast of the Red Sea.

The Italian warships, which took the principal part in the battle, were the cruiser 'Piemonte' and the destroyers 'Garibaldi' and 'Arigliere'. The commander-in-chief had received orders to destroy or capture the Turkish gunboats as advised had been received that they were transporting from Arabia Turkish troops destined to re-inforce the Turkish army in Cyrenaica.

COLD WAVE STRIKES THE NORTH

Northern I. R. C. Blocked 3 Days, Roofs and Chimneys Blown Down

A cold wave and heavy wind, which in Campbellton and Northward amounted to a blizzard struck the North Shore and Gaspé peninsula on the 9th and continued through the next day. On Wednesday the snow changed to rain on the Miramichi, preventing further drifting. Northward the wind continued heavy that day. The chimney of the Ferry Road School house blew down on Tuesday.

In Campbellton on the night of the 9th, the wind blew with terrific velocity, carrying away the roof of James Alexander's concrete building at the lower end of Water street and hauling it eastward to Ramsay street, a distance of 20 feet, and wrecking telephonic and telegraph wires in its wild flight. Hugh drifts were everywhere in evidence. The storm tested the memory of the oldest inhabitant to furnish a parallel.

The I. R. C. between Campbellton and Ste Flavie was blocked by snow last week from the 8th to the 12th. No mail arrived here from farther north than Campbellton on the 9th, 10th, 11th and 12th.

Thursday the Nova Scotia, Moncton and St. John mails were sent to Montreal via the C. P. R. The blockade was broken Friday, when the Halifax train went through via the I. R. C. to Montreal, Saturday, two of the stalled Maritime expresses passed through Newcastle between 4 and 5 a. m. and another at 11 a. m. Trains have since been running about on time. At Ste. Flavie the snow drifts last week were in some places nearly 30 feet deep.

On Barrington street—William S. Munis, gent's furnishings; H. Schaffer & Son, jewellers; Cragg Bros., hardware; Miss H. Durant, ladies' tailoring; J. M. Margeson, photographer; F. W. Dobson, dentist; R. B. Mulloney, dentist; MacCormack Clothing Co.; L. Clyde Davidson, stationary.

On George street—Harry Wright, residence; Carroll Brothers, barbers; H. Marshall, stationery.

Taylor & Company commission merchants, D. M. Owen, solicitor, Captain S. M. Beardsley, Insurance agent.

The Halifax Herald and Mail newspapers lost everything but their files, correspondence, etc.

The total loss was about $350,000, mostly covered by insurance.

Premier Borden lost his valuable law library.

NO MORE HOBBLE SKIRTS

Dressmakers Decide on the Season's Style

Chicago, Ill., Jan. 11.—What woman will wear during the coming season was disclosed today by the ladies' tailor and dressmakers association of America.

No hobble skirts; dresses must be two and a half yards wide, three fourths of a yard wider than the hobble. They must be short, three inches from the ground. Blue and white are the colors, and the material thin cord. Jackets are to be 26 or 28 inches long, are close fitting. Empire effects must be forgotten. If any waist line is affected, it must be "a, the waist or lower". Revers and sailor collars will be tabooed, but collars will be different color than the coat. No changes are ordered in tailored gowns or suits.

LET EVERYONE USE CHRISTMAS STAMPS

The little Christmas Stamp, issued on behalf of the Muskoka Free Hospital for Consumptives, to help care for needy patients, serves, of course, a very practical purpose in providing a means of securing funds for this institution. But the educational value of millions of these stamps being put in circulation must not be overlooked. For this reason we urge our readers to put a one cent stamp on every letter and package that they will be mailing between now and the new year. Scatter abroad the good news that there is hope for the poor consumptive. With the stamps costing only one cent each, the door is open to everyone to have some part in this great campaign of stamping out consumption. In a decade the mortality in the Province of Ontario from tuberculosis has declined nearly forty per cent. Every buyer of a Christmas Stamp can help to further improve these conditions. A post card to the Secretary of the National Sanitarium Association, 347 King Street West, Toronto, will give all particulars. Write him to-day.

AUSTRALIA WILL BE CONSULTED MORE IN FUTURE

Earl Dudley Speaks of Commonwealth's Future Place in British Empire

London, January 10.—The Earl of Dudley, late Governor-General of Australia, speaking at the Royal Colonial Institute, said that the Federation had enormously facilitated and improved the scheme for Imperial defence, adding that there was little doubt that in future years the Imperial Government would consult Australia more regarding foreign affairs.

He denied that he had ever thought Australian politics corrupt, and said that, on the contrary, he thought it one of Australia's proudest boasts that she had so completely maintained the purity of her service.

For her own safety, Earl Dudley concluded, it was desirable that the Commonwealth have a larger population.

AN OPEN LETTER

From a Well Known Clergyman Showing How Indigestion Can be Cured.

Rev. T. A. Drury, Beausville, Ont., writes as follows:—"For eighteen years I have been increasingly impressed with the wonderful effects for good wrought by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. For some years I had suffered almost constantly with chronic dyspepsia of the most stubborn type, attended by different other troubles which invariably follow, or accompany it as its results, prominent among which were kidney trouble and piles. Against this complication of disease I waged a vigorous warfare for several months, using many different remedies, none of which gave permanent relief. In my discouragement I was about to discontinue treatment altogether when I was advised by a friend to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, the use of which, though under very unfavorable circumstances, soon revived my drooping courage. The medicine struck at the root of my weakness and the different troubles of which dyspepsia was the prime cause released, set go, and disappeared. In one month I increased fifteen pounds in weight, and received a new lease of life. Only six boxes of pills produced this wonderful change in my health, which was miraculously permanent.

Later my sister became so reduced by anaemia (though under the care of our family doctor) that she could scarcely walk. In this dangerous extremity Dr. Williams' Pink Pills were resorted to and in a brief space of time restored her to perfect health.

Being a minister of the gospel many test cases have come under my notice, in all of which Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have fully sustained their world wide reputation. This is why I can conscientiously recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills as being superior to anything known to me in the treatment of the many diseases for which they are recommended.

OPENING OF THE NEW CAMPBELLTON GRAMMAR SCHOOL

One of the Most up-to-date Buildings in the Maritime Provinces.

The Campbellton Grammar school was opened on the 8th, with a record breaking enrollment. This handsome school deserves more than a passing word as it is today one of the finest public schools in the province and a credit to the new Campbellton. The building is of concrete and brick and is one hundred and forty-eight feet long by sixty-eight feet, eight inches wide, two and a half stories high.

The basement which is of concrete has a ceiling ten feet high and is well lighted by many large windows. In this are situated the following rooms, which are entered from above by wide massive stairways.

The boiler and fuel storage room is of fire proof construction near the centre of the building. The walls and floor are of concrete while the ceiling and doors are protected by asbestos. In this room are placed the two forty-five H. P. return tubular boilers which supply steam for the low pressure steam heating and ventilating system. These boilers are connected that in extremely cold weather both may be used while in milder weather only one is necessary, which will mean a great saving in fuel.

Mr. Daniel Currie who has had a long experience in the handling of steam boilers has been appointed Janitor and is giving his work careful attention.

The basement is divided into boys and girls sections. In the boy's side are large play rooms for use in stormy weather, lavatory fitted with automatic flush closets and urinals, and also a number of basins with hot and cold water so that no boy need go into his class room with dirty hands or face.

Here also at a later date will be the Manual Training department, a large airy, well lighted room being set aside for this purpose. In the girls' end are large play rooms, toilet room fitted with automatic flush closets and wash basins with hot and cold water etc. Here also a room has been set aside for a domestic science department which will be fitted up at a later date. The main floor is reached from the street by a handsome and striking entry, with easy steps. At the head of these steps entering into a spacious hall is erected an arch with massive colonial columns. To the right and left along this hall are situated the following rooms:—Three rooms for the primary department, teachers' cloak room, grade III cloak room, office of the school board where all meetings will be held. Class rooms for grades IV, V, VI, VII and VIII.

In the hall which is wide and spacious are on each side of the main entrance automatic sanitary drinking fountains. Wardrobes are also erected here for the use of the different grades. These wardrobes are ranged along the walls and are ventilated by large pipes which assure the clothes being well aired. The wood finish in this hall is of birch, hard pine and cypress, finished in the natural with dark green burlap. Flush panel doors lead to each class room which have in each a small observation wicket through which a full view of the class room is obtained.

The two stairways which lead to the second floor are wide and massive, and are constructed of birch with cypress finish and burlap wainscoting.

On the second floor are class rooms for grade IX and the Principal's room in which grades X and XI are mustered. These rooms are all finished in the same style while two extra rooms have been provided for emergencies.

On the second floor is situated the laboratory which will be fitted up with all necessary appliances for lectures, demonstrations and experiments. Perhaps the most noteworthy feature of the new school is the fine assembly hall 63 feet by 68 feet and 21 feet high. Here will be held the closing exercises of the school, from this platform will be made the school history addresses of the brightest scholars and hard earned prizes and diplomas will be presented here. It is the hope of the Board that many social functions will also be held in this room, which may be the means of brightening the social life of teachers and scholars and absorbing the parents and friends in closer touch with school life and ideas.

This hall is large, well lighted and airy and has an ample stage with two dressing rooms. In the rear of the assembly room, provision is made, should occasion demand it for two additional class rooms. In the south end of the building are the two spare class rooms already noted, while near them is a room set aside for the teacher's private use. Here they may meet in their spare moments, and in this room will be kept the books of reference and the library.

The hall on this second floor have also wash basins with hot and cold water for the convenience of teachers and pupils. Stand pipes with hose connections are placed where they can most easily be reached in cases of emergency or fire and a special company will be organized to take charge of the fire fighting appliances.

Regular fire drills are now compulsory in all public schools.

The building throughout is finished in the plainest and most substantial manner. The floors are of polished birch and the finish of eypress and hard pine. The ceilings are of embossed metal painted in pleasing and harmonizing tints. The class room furniture is of the best, individual seats and desks being provided in all the departments.

Messrs. Lutz and Cripps of Sussex were the contractors and they deserve every credit for the way in which the work has been carried along to completion in spite of the many difficulties which confronted contractors here during the past season. The heating and ventilating system is of the newest and most approved type and was installed by Messrs. Hagan of Amherst.

The plumbing contract was looked after in a creditable manner by Mr. A. H. English who did all the plumbing under his own supervision.

The teachers with the enrollment for this town are as follows:
IX Miss Beatrice Smith
VIII " Mary Mitchell
VII " Margaret Hennessy
VI " Ellis B. Dickson
V " Jennie B. Carter
IV " Gertrude Brown
III " Miss Galivan
II " Layton
I " Duffy

The total enrollment is about 450.

Altogether the citizens can take pride in their new school. It is thoroughly up-to-date and the School Board are to be congratulated upon so successfully grappling with this momentous question, and having the work completed in so short a time. Proper provision has been made for the increasing requirements of the town and the trustees have safeguarded the people in every way.

The building when properly equipped throughout will cost in the vicinity of fifty thousand dollars which is really a low figure considering the fine building which we now possess.

The present School Board is composed as follows:—F. F. Matteson, chairman; Mrs. A. A. Andrew, Mrs. F. X. Russell, Messrs. A. E. G. McKenzie, L. G. Pinault, M. D., Max M. Mowat, D. A. Stewart, D. F. Graham, John Ventour, S. Laughlan, Secy.

SAFETY MACHINES WILL BE GREAT FACTORS IN FUTURE WARS

There is no doubt now that in the next great war there will be fighting in the air as well as on land and sea. The warfare of the air will have something of the individuality of ancient warfare. The modern sea fight is a contest of hope and costly machines rather than of men. Victory depends more upon the skill of the men in the ebbings than upon the power of the guns on the ship.

In the air fight individual prowess and skill will count for almost as much if not quite as much as in the old days of hand to hand conflicts between the crews of small sailing ships. The flying machine can carry only a few men. It is not costly; probably a thousand machines could be built and equipped for war at a considerably less cost than can Dreadnought. Much will depend upon the character of the gun. The next warship on the water can reach its small and cheap rival in the air.

Perhaps the first battle in the air took place the other day, when a well-known French aviator was attacked by an eagle and escorted with some difficulty. However, before this happened Robert Latham had started a French aviator by shooting wild birds from his aeroplane, the Antoinette. Latham had taken his gun with him for the purpose of shooting birds above at a same preserve, but finding a flock of ducks about a mile over the ocean, he turned his flying machine seaward and started in pursuit. The following description of the fight is given by a scientific writer:

"The ducks flew their best, the flock leading the two parts. Latham, however, was able to outfly them to fly around them in fact, and succeeded in bringing down one of the birds. The remarkable part of this fight is that the airship had to be guided without hands for the moment necessary to aim and fire. It is claimed that the Antoinette is the only airship which can be left without control of the aviator's hands for that purpose."

We may yet have to make laws to protect the birds against the airmen.

WISE IN THE FACE OF DEATH

Walter J. Smith was in a town in his district one night when a mob gathered about the jail for the purpose of lynching two colored men. Mr. Smith heard of what was going on, and mounting the jail steps, he made an impassioned plea to the mob to disperse and not bring discredit on the name of their town through lawlessness. His plea was effective and the negroes were spared.

A few weeks after that he revisited the town. At that time there was a movement to build an asylum for the blind. In opening his speech, which was the beginning of his joint debate with a Democratic orator, Mr. Smith said that the purpose of building the asylum was so wise and so humane that the Republicans of the county invited the Democrats to join with them in raising enough money to make the project feasible.

"I distrust Mr. Smith's remarks about the asylum," said the Democratic fulminator in answering Smith's speech. "He makes political capital out of everything. We Democrats might give our money for that building and wake up to find that the Republicans claimed all the credit for it."

"Why, look what Mr. Smith said in making his speech to save the lives of the two colored men from that mob a few weeks ago. His remarks were eloquent. They were great. They carried his point. But here is how he wound up:

"Shoot—shoot, if you will, this bald head of mine. Oh, save those two black devils for the Republican party!"

An Inconceivable Joke.

Mr. Lloyd George was once speaking at a Liberal meeting of the unfulfilled prophecies and promises of a certain statesman, and quite accidentally he stretched his arm right over the head of Sir Jeremiah Colman, one of the local pillars of Liberalism, who was sitting close to him on the platform. "We have had enough of those political Jeremiahs," he cried out. The audience rose to the joke, and laughter and clapping vociferously. And, perhaps for the first time in his life, the valiant Welshman stood completely nonplussed, for it was not until the meeting was over that he found out where the humour had come in."

The Dropped Alleh.

"A man who has once murdered the Queen's English always feels as if he'd got the body under the sofa. It's like homicidal mania; the poor wretch may be cured, but he lives in terror of an attack returning. He knows it doesn't matter what he is or what he does; he may live like a saint or write like an archangel; but one snatch omitted from his conversation will wreck him at the last."

A Black Man's Statue.

"In the beautiful city of Buenos Ayres is perhaps the only statue in the world erected by white men to a negro. This is the statue of Falucho, a negro soldier who refused to haul down the Argentine flag at the bidding of the Spanish soldiery, during the first Argentine revolution, and was 'shot down by the Spanish.'"

Miniature Aeroplanes.

The production of miniature or model aeroplanes has now been carried to the point of furnishing them with actual motors not much larger than the palm of the hand and capable of driving the toy machines at high speed. One of these miniature aeroplanes which has a length of seven feet, a wing span of eight feet, and which weighs but 7 1/2 pounds, including its motor and gasoline, is driven by a gasoline engine whose dimensions are no more than six inches by four inches by two inches.

Thinking of Building a Silo ?

Better Build it of Concrete

THE construction of a Silo affords an excellent example of what the farmer can do with Concrete—and of the superiority of Concrete over all other material for various structural work about the farm.

The usual wooden silo, besides being expensive, is far from satisfactory. In the first place, it does not endure; and, more important still—being far from weather-proof—its contents become water-logged—producing an unsanitary condition.

A Silo built of Concrete, on the other hand, is practically everlasting—it is proof against heat, cold and moisture—and it has the merit of comparative economy.

This economy feature is further explained in our free book—"What the Farmer Can Do With Concrete,"—which tells how to mix and use Concrete for the making of silos and other buildings on the farm.

PROFITS IN APPLE GROWING Before the St. John Board of Trade on the 9th inst. A. G. Turney showed what profits can be made in apple growing in New Brunswick and at the close of his lecture ten members subscribed $1,000 to start an experimental orchard for illustration purposes near the city. The Department of Agriculture decided last spring to take hold of three orchards under average conditions and show what could be done. The orchard in Sunbury county, containing 11.3 acres, showed a net profit of $96.15, or $57.69 per acre. On a valuation of $400 per acre this would be 14 per cent. Next year the profits should be one-third greater. On 1 1/2 acres at Douglas, York Co., there was a profit of $136, or $89 per acre. The largest of their orchards, including eight acres, was located in Albert county. On three acres they showed a profit of $545, or $181 per acre. He regarded this as the maximum for this orchard and the average would be about $125 per acre. On the balance of the orchard, five acres produced a profit of $725, or $145 per acre.

CHANGE IN NUMBERING I. C. R. ENGINES

A most important change has been made in the numbering of all engines owned by the I. C. R., and in future the relative merits of an engine can be told by its number. The changing of the numbers was started last week and this will be kept up until they are all finished. All consolidated freight engines will run from 100 to 400. Engines of the Pacific type will run from 400 to 600. Large ten wheeled passenger engines will run from 600 to 800, while shunting engines of the large type will run from 800 to 1000. Old engines that are used in the different yards along the road for shunting will be numbered from 1000 upwards. Engineers consider this a wise move and by looking at the numbers on the different engines one can readily tell as to her value.

MEANING OF THE CROSS This cross (in red) has been adopted in Canada and all over America as the emblem under which the Crusade against Consumption is carried on. Every reader knows of the ravages of this disease; how, too often, the bread-winner of the family falls a victim, or the young man or young woman, with a promise of a happy and useful life, is stricken down. This modern Crusade, like the one of old, is a winning fight. The death rate from Consumption in this province shows a decrease of over 25% in the past few years. Nearly 6000 of these poor sufferers have been cared for in our Consumptive Homes in Muskoka and near Weston. To-day we have 300 patients under treatment—patients who, if they had the money, could not through fear of contagion gain admittance into other hospitals. In the Muskoka Free Hospital alone we are now caring for 156 patients. 128 of these cannot pay a single cent for the cost of their maintenance, 15 pay 70c. per day, 1 pays 57c. per day, 12 pay 50c. or less per day. Our Trustees, having faith in the generous-hearted people of Canada, have contigued to carry on this work during the past year. Money to pay doctors, food, nursing and caring of these sick ones, is urgently needed. Will your readers help and have the joy of sharing in a work that has the promise of the Master's reward? W. J. GAGE Chairman Executive Committee, National Sanitarium Association 6 SPADINA AVE. TORONTO

FORTHIFYING SAMOAN TUNNEL

Italy and Switzerland fortify Simplon Tunnel.

Both Italy and Switzerland are taking measures to fortify the entrances of the Simplon Tunnel, while in the tunnel itself engineers are engaged in constructing mines and strengthening those already in place, in order to be able to blow it up at a moment's notice in the event of war. Near the middle of the tunnel, a few yards from the Swiss frontier, Italian engineers have put in place a double iron door that can resist the push of an express train travelling at the rate of sixty miles an hour. This iron door is worked by electricity from Iselle, the station at the Italian end of the tunnel, and under ordinary conditions it is hidden in the rocky side of the tunnel. The door is carefully tested once a week. The mines are connected with Brigue and Iselle by electric devices, so that, by the mere pressure of a button, the Simplon Tunnel could be destroyed in a second.

In The Name of Charity.

Nearly all the giddy youth of the neighborhood attended the charity bazaar, and one by one they drifted to a stall where a tiny, shapely, sea-green, grey-faded glove lay on a soft cushion. Attached to the cushion was a notice written in a delicate feminine hand, which ran:

"The owner of this glove will, at 7:30 this evening, be pleased to kiss any person who purchases a two-cent ticket beforehand."

Tickets were purchased by the score, and at 7:30 a long row of sheepish, not to say dogfish, young boys, dressed in their best, and then, punctual to the second, and Tom Porson, the local pork-butcher, who weighs two hundred and twenty pounds, and is almost as beautiful as a side of bacon, stepped to the front of the stall.

"Now, young gent," he said, in his best "buy, buy, buy" tones, "this glove belongs to me. 'Bout six this morning. Now, I'm ready for you. Come on! Don't be wasteful! One at a time!"

But nobody came on.

Pullman Etiquette.

That our system of railroad travel is not perfect is shown by "An Englishman" in a recent article. "When you travel in England you are master of your time and your baggage," writes this author. Hence, the baggage travels several hours behind its owner. But in Pullman cars at night is the most civilized thing on the American continent, and one of the best hotels. It quite fascinated my bushes. I sit enthralled in the dairy porter's stony seat with other people's belongings, holds a pillow to his head and squeezes the pillow into it, and burl sheets and mattress cloth, and pulls at chairs and tablecloths, and levers and curtains. I usually have never mastered either the art of the etiquette of a Pullman car. I never know where to put my shoes, and I shall never learn how to take off my trousers while sitting in a seat.

E. B. Knowles Frow His Concentration
A recent issue of the Union Advocate was reading in the home of Robt. E. Knowles, the well known preacher and author. Mr. Bryan was entertained at Knox Mansie while in Galt. The attendance at the lecture proved disappointingly small, and the discerning lecturer laid his at the door of the rather large admission fee. As is well known, Galt is the Scotch town in Canada.

After regarding the man, a few friends in the present, Mr. Bryan turned to his host and asked him why, in his opinion, the audience was so small.

"The thing that spoiled it," replied Mr. Knowles, "was the same thing that disorganized the Democratic party."

"What was that?" enquired the statesman.

"It was the silver question," replied the novelist.

Newspapers in Salonica.

In Salonica, Turkey, there are fifteen newspapers and five weekly or monthly reviews published, with a total circulation of about 50,000. The newspapers are mostly small two sheet affairs, badly printed on cheap paper. The reading of the newspapers, however, has increased greatly in the last two years and will increase still more when more liberty is given to the press.

Salonica is the meeting-place of the East and West. Nearly all religions in the world have representatives there, and every day of the week is a Sunday to one or other of these religious organizations.

Not So Particular.

At a dance recently a young gentleman somewhat inferior in social position to most of those present represented an alderman's daughter. "I'm sorry but I'm—well, rather particular as to whom I dance with."

"Ah, indeed?" was the quiet retort, "then we differ in that respect, I'm not a bit particular. That was why I asked you!"

Then he left her.

England in 1804.

The British census figures show that at the beginning of this century the population of England and Wales was under nine millions, not very much greater than that of Canada today. In 110 years this population has been quadrupled; a very substantial increase when the smallness of the area is considered, and when account is taken of the large emigration to vaster and more sparsely settled regions.

BASEBALL IN JAPAN.

It Beats Jiu-Jitsu Says a Japanese Sportsman.

According to Sutikichi Matsuda, captain of one of the Japanese baseball nine which is now playing in America, the great game has taken a wonderful hold in the far east. He says that excitement runs so high in Japan that the deciding game of one series was called off for fear that the students would resort to bloodshed. In an interesting statement Captain Matsuda, of the Waseda University nine, says:

"The game of baseball is the gift of West to East. Only a few years ago we knew nothing of this honorable game. Now the little games in the streets of Tokio play it. The excitement which attends a game of baseball with us is so great that for four years there has been no contest between the team of Waseda and the team of Keio, her rival in Tokio."

Baseball is the first group game we ever have played in Japan. We formerly had Jiu-Jitsu, fencing and archery but no outdoor sport in which teams would play against each other. That is the great advantage of baseball—that many can play at it once.

We like the game because it is new, so different from our other sports. It is a most exciting game. We find that the most difficult thing to learn in baseball is the batting. That is hard—to hit the ball, and so that it runs one can run to first base before the ball thrown by the hand of the fielder reaches that place. We have not had so much practice in batting as we have needed. In Japan most of our games are with too young players, who do not make it difficult enough for us to defeat them. We should have more experience.

One Boy's Inspiration

A musician who is attracting wide attention in England, is a blind boy sixteen years of age. His name is John, when he was ten years of age he spent two years in a hospital for the blind, from which he was discharged one morning in the company of a canary bird. It occurred to him how limited was the bird's equipment for life, and yet how cheerfully and beautifully the little creature expressed the joy of its heart.

This was the boy's inspiration. He took up the study of the violin, and, remembering the joy of the bird, he owned to the canary, he tried his best to win the little bird's companionship. He practised on his violin, close to the cage; the bird entered into the spirit of the music, chirping his sweetest notes to the accompaniment of the boy's music.

Finally the bird grew so tame, under kind treatment, that he would fly out of the open door of the cage, perch on the boy's bow, and sing to him, as the boy drew the bow across the strings. The boy has thus found not only a means of entertainment in his own soul and expression of his feelings, but the bird is giving him a means of large profit, and the boy has found his means of livelihood.

A Record Run.

A report in an uptown Toronto hotel was that a man had been shot and killed. The negro porter who heard the shooting was a witness of the trial.

"How many shots did you hear?" asked the lawyer.

"Two shots," he replied.

"How far apart were they?"

"'Bout like dis way," explained the negro, clapping his hands with an interval of about a second between them.

"Where were you when the first shot was fired?"

"Shinin' a gemman's shoe in de basement of de hotel."

"Where were you when the second shot was fired?"

"Ah was a passin' de Union de."

Tit for Tat.

A physician of Fort Dodge, Iowa, had a grave made for a man who was dying; out the man got well, and the doctor was joked about it for many years afterwards.

Once, in consultation with three other physicians, he attended a patient who died. After the death, one of the physicians said:

"Since a quick burial is necessary we might enter the body temporarily, I understand that Dr. X has a vacant grave on hand."

"Yes, I have," said Dr. X, "and I believe I am the only physician present whose graves are not all filled."

Criticism.

When we are severely criticised it is far better to try and profit by the criticism than to attempt to take vengeance on our critic. Criticism is a rule, especially in the case of a reformer, more good than evil. The reformer is likely to stir up his correct our faults; the latter tends to make us satisfied with ourselves and our attainments. Extreme sensitiveness to adverse criticism is an indication that we think of ourselves more highly than we ought to think. He who is blind to his own faults is not likely to amend them.

Boys generally need directing much more than they do correcting. When they do wrong they should be shown the right way, and never be punished for the blunders of ignorance. Their first lessons should teach them the ways of right and wrong. They should be carefully guided, not driven.

Sayings Of To-Day—And Yesterday
Too many of us complain of the injustices of this world, forgetting there may be more justice than we require in the next.

Englishmen and Americans are now so friendly they can make fun of each other. All friendship is in a state of unstable equilibrium until that point has been reached.

If we are going to do good to our struggling and tempted neighbors, we must try to be better than they.

There can be sympathetic silence which is also unselfishness. Don't break a person's heart by chaffing.
