OFFICE:.....MACDONNELL STREET
THURSDAY EV'NG, OCT. 29, 1868.

The exportation of American silver from Montreal, is still going on, though but slowly.

It has been universally admitted that Dr. Briggs has been wonderfully successful in all his operations, and not one who has applied to him for relief has gone away disappointed. The whole country can be safely challenged for a similar example of successful surgical practice. Now, the only question, ladies and gentlemen, for you to consider is this: Will you trust yourselves in the hands of one who has always made his subject a specialty, or employ one who, in three chances of one, know little or nothing about the matter. Corn is a disease as much as a decayed tooth is, but skillful dentists are universally employed and respected, and surgeon chiropodists are now earning a similar claim for the respect and confidence of the community. It is needless to say that the success of Dr. Briggs has achieved in his profession as a surgeon chiropodist has been unparalleled in this city; many of our most estimable and worthy citizens, ladies as well as gentlemen, have been relieved from corns, bunions, club and inverted nails, without the slightest pain or uneasiness, and doubtless many more would, had they an adequate appreciation and knowledge of his ability. Few individuals are aware, in three chances of one, that it is not fatal to one's life, are certainly as annoying as can be, and the remedy is simple and sure; the corn, bunion, or inverted nail must be skillfully and carefully treated, and the pain entirely ceases. The only way to obtain this relief is to apply to Dr. Briggs in person and in a few minutes the trouble is over.—HAMILTON SPECTATOR.

Dr. Briggs will remain at Coulson's Hotel until 4 p.m., on Saturday next. Persons who suffer day and night with bad feet will do well to call at once and be relieved without pain.

Charles Mackay, the song writer and former New York correspondent of the London Times is now editing the London Scotsman.

BRIGGS' ALLEVATOR.—The great catarrh, headache, neuralgia and universal pain remedy. If your head, nose and throat are filled with a burdensome mass of mucus, either dry or moist, thin or thick, white or yellow, and your eyes swollen and heavy, your head feeling unusually large, with a constant, dull, heavy pain all through it, resulting from catarrh use "Briggs' Allevator." The mucus will immediately be discharged from the head, nose and throat, the eyes brighten, and sparkle with delight; the head feels natural again, all pain has fled, and life is once more desirable. If your nerves seem to snap and crack, jerk and jump, and play all sorts of pranks, from the top of your head to the tips of your toes, now shooting forth like lightning along one unfortunate nerve, and now trying to tie another into a thousand knots, then attempting to make a bow-string of another, sometimes in the region of the heart, and in the face, head, neck, &c. In short if you have Neuralgia in its worst form with all the agony distilled to its most excruciating degree, use "Briggs' Allevator," and in a trice, your Neuralgia, with all its demons has departed, and once again, you will know how the great Catarrh, Neuralgia, and universal Pain Remedy is sold by E. H. Harvey & Co., Guelph, and by druggists and country merchants generally.

A subscription paper was lately circulated in a rural parish with the following object in view: "We subscribe the amount opposite our names for the purpose of paying the organist, and a boy to blow the same."

LET ALL REJOICE.—Yes, rejoice, for Dr. Briggs, the great Chiropodist, has arrived in this town. The greatest surgical operator on foot ever known is here to relieve suffering humanity. We say suffering, for no one knows the pain to be endured from Corns, Bunions, Bad Nails, etc., but those who are subject to it. He will remain at the Coulson Hotel until Saturday at 4 p.m. Those requiring treatment should call at once and be rid of those pests of humanity, Corns, Bunions, Bad Nails, Chilblains, &c.

The following from Dr. Mack: one of the most successful and widely celebrated surgeons in Canada, should convince the timid and most skeptical that Dr. Briggs is not a quack in his specialty, but reliable beyond a doubt.

It gives me much pleasure to certify to the skill and dexterity of Mr. Briggs as a Chiropodist. I consider him deserving in every way of the confidence of the public.
Yates-St., St. Catharines, Oct. 19, 68.
THEOP. MACK.
Dr. Briggs will remain at Coulson's Hotel until Saturday, 4 p.m., where he will treat Corns, Bunions, Bad Nails, Chilblains, and all ailments of the feet with skill and success.

The tug which was conveying Reno and Anderson across the river on Saturday night last, was run into by a propeller and sunk. All hands were saved, and the prisoners were taken over by another mode of conveyance.

The following from the Rev. Mr. Carroll, is another evidence that Dr. Briggs is skillful in his profession. How many of us, whether you would be relieved or suffer for years with needless pain:
St. Catharines, Oct. 13, 1868.
I have great pleasure in saying that Dr. Briggs has performed a most successful operation of a few minutes, relieved and corrected a tendency of my great toe-nails to grow downwards, from which tendency I have often suffered a great deal.

JOHN CARROLL,
Wesleyan Minister.
Dr. Briggs can be consulted from 9 to 10 a.m., and from 1 to 10 p.m., until Saturday next only. Those who suffer from Corns, Bunions, Bad Nails, Chilblains, and other foot diseases may shortly find relief without pain.

On Monday evening last, D. McKay, Esq., Town Treasurer of Brantford, lost $750, he supposes by having had his pocket picked. Just before leaving the office he put the money in a large envelope and placed it in his pocket. On his way home he called at one place only, a seed store, and shortly after reaching home he missed the money.

The following certificate is from the Rev. Mr. Hogg, of St. Andrew's Church, Guelph, as another evidence that Dr. Briggs performs his operations without pain:
Guelph, Oct. 25th, 1868.
I have great pleasure in stating that Dr. Briggs has completely lost the use of my right eye-sight. Dr. Roseburgh, who is in attendance on the hon. gentleman, has only faint hopes that a cure may be effected. It is caused by severe inflammation of the retina and the optic nerve.

Local News.
RIFLE MATCH.—Another match is progressing this afternoon between the Rifle Association and the Rifle Company.
At the County Match last week the 2nd prize in the second class, Alfred Day, was a Younger (Ostic) instead of a Stephenson plough.
The present station of the Rev. Mr. Parker, brother of the late Dr. Parker, is Stanstead, P.Q., not Fenelon Falls, as recently stated.

Hospeler is to have a cemetery comprising three acres of land, on the eastern outskirts of the village. It will be divided into 300 lots, each 10x18 feet.

SPORTING.—Messrs. Joseph O'Connor and Alfred Strowger have spent four days shooting recently on Walpole Island, on the Canada side of Lake St. Clair, and were successful to the extent of 120 ducks, 30 snipe, 30 woodcock and 80 quail. Not bad for four days.

The young man Lamb, who was stabbed in the township of Beverley, by his father, when maddened with drink a few days ago, has died of his wounds. A coroner's jury returned a verdict of manslaughter against the elder Lamb, and he is now in Hamilton jail awaiting his trial at the present Assizes.

MORSES' PATENT FOUNTAIN PEN.—We have to thank Mr. R. Cuthbert for a box of these serviceable pens. They are a great improvement on those at present in use. Being pointed with gold they will not corrode in any ink, and a person can write a common business letter with only one dipping of ink. They are for sale at Mr. Cuthbert's.

ACQUITTED.—Alex. McLean, a young man who with his family migrated some time since from Puslinch to Red River Settlement was put upon trial about the end of September for having shot and killed one Francis Demarrais, an Indian, who while intoxicated fired a gun at the elder McLean. The trial resulted in the acquittal of the prisoner.

TURNIP MATCH.—The Judges finished their examination of the fields entered for competition, and have awarded the first prize to Hugh McMillan, 2nd Henry Tolton, Eramosa; 3rd Thos. Waters, Eramosa. The first is $20 given by Messrs. Sharpe, the 2nd $10 given by the Society, and the 3rd $5 by the Society. We will give fuller particulars next week.

NOVEMBER MONTHLY FAIR.—This great semi-annual fair will be held here next Wednesday. A large number of people from the country—the bone and sinew of our county—will be in town buying their fall and winter goods. Parties wanting market bills, or any other kind of printing, should call at THE MERCURY office early. Our rates are lower than that of any other office in the county, while the work is very superior. Now is your time for getting cheap printing.

HORSE RACE.—We hear that a match has been made for $300 a side between Mr. Coulson's "Commodore Nutt," and Mr. Hirsch's "White Stockings," and that half the sum has already been put up. The race is to come off in about three weeks, and as the little grey has, to his owner's profit, proved himself fast on more than one occasion, and "White Stockings" was a winner at the late races at Waterloo, considerable interest will be taken in it by the lovers of the turf.

RETURNED.—We are glad to notice that our old friend, Mr. Robt. Green, of Puslinch, has returned home safe from a pleasant trip to the "land of the mountain and the flood." He appears to have renewed his youth like the eagles, and to have borrowed some of the natural rouse from the cheeks of his countrymen. Notwithstanding that he has long been a resident of Canada, and has become almost indigenous, he thinks that life may be spent very pleasantly in Scotland.

THEATRICAL MANAGEMENT FOR THIRTY YEARS.—This is the title of a new work just issued from the press of Harper Bros. New York, and a copy of which we have received from the wholesale house of Tunis & Co., Clifton. The work is an autobiography of Sol Smith, the actor, and is written in an interesting style. It contains a portrait of the author, besides numerous illustrations, and altogether very handsomely got up. Copies may be had a Day's bookstore.

DR. BRIGGS, THE CHIROPODIST.—We have been troubled for many years with corns, so much so at times that it was with difficulty we could walk. Dr. Briggs being in town we called upon him yesterday, and in an incredible short space were effectually relieved without the slightest pain. Any troubled with corns, bunions or bad nails, should call upon him at once, and our word for it they will soon be relieved, and that too at a moderate figure. The Doctor is no quack, but what he professes to be—a friend to suffering humanity, and worthy of all confidence.

Concert in aid of the Poor.
The concert in aid of the orphans and aged poor in St. Joseph's Hospital came off last (Wednesday) night in the Drill Shed. The large building was well filled, probably not fewer than eight hundred being present. The committee had, however, made full provision for comfortably seating this large number, so that no inconvenience was experienced by any one. It was brilliantly lighted and tastefully decorated with flags, emblematic emblems and fancy colored flannels, which helped greatly to relieve its otherwise bare appearance. A canopy made of boards was put over the platform, which was of material assistance to the singers, and gave more effect to the music. A very efficient orchestra was made up of two first violins, Mr. Vale being leader, a second violin and viola, a flute, cornet and saxophone. They opened with the favorite overture to "Zampa," the difficult and ever varying music of which they rendered in brilliant style.—Three pieces were also given by the choir, composed of twelve ladies and gentlemen from Hamilton, in conjunction with the orchestra. These were Mozart's Twelfth Mass, Haydn's Second Mass, and the great chorus—"The Heavens are Telling"—from Haydn's Oratorio, "The Creation." The rendering of these three masterpieces was very fine. The choir was remarkably well balanced, and the leading singers—who were Miss Benton, soprano; Miss Lennan, alto; Mr. Young, tenor; Mr. Mueller, baritone—took their parts admirably. The instrumental parts were equally well rendered. It is seldom we hear music of such a high order so admirably sung and played in Guelph. Mr. F. Cherrier, of Hamilton, did his part well as director, Miss Lennan sang "I'm a Merry Zingara," and Miss Benton gave with good taste "Love's Request." Miss Fraser gave with sweetness and expression "Be Watchful and Beware," and on a hearty encore she sang with feeling "Good-bye, but come again." An excellent duo, "See the pale moon," was well sung by Messrs Mueller and Young. Mr. Vale gave one of his exquisite solos on the violin with fine effect, which was loudly cheered and encored. Mr. Robertson also gave a beautiful solo on the flute, which elicited hearty applause.—The music, both vocal and instrumental, was throughout of a superior character, and every performer was well up in his or her parts. Mr. Clowsey, of Hamilton, sang some comic songs in character, which evoked the mirth of the company. Mrs. Budd played the accompaniments with taste and judgment.

After the concert, the hall was cleared and the company, most of whom remained after the concert, engaged in the dance to the inspiring strains of Vale's Quadrille Band. Refreshments were provided at one end of the hall during the night. Dancing was kept up with great spirit till an early hour the following morning. The excellent arrangements of the committee were well carried out, and everything conspired to make the concert what it was—a decided success.

The Mount Forest Homicide.
From our own Correspondent.
No doubt the melancholy death of one Cosgrove, of the Township of Arthur, has been anticipated by telegraph, and, in consequence, we will only glance at a few of the lamentable facts elicited by the inquest. At an early hour on Tuesday morning, Thomas J. Graffo, Esq., selected the jury, and proceeded to take evidence according to the usual form. The sad occurrence having taken place on fair day, and a large number of people being present at the time, entailed the onerous duty upon the court of a long and protracted investigation, the hearing of a large number of witnesses and their cross-examination, many of them being brought in from the country from time to time. About nine o'clock on Saturday night, the jury, after a few hours deliberation, brought in a verdict to the effect that "Deceased, Cosgrove, came by his death by Arth. McKeanie, who punched the deceased in the head near the base of the brain, with an umbrella, whilst quarrelling in Mrs. Ross's hotel." Large crowds of people attended the inquest on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, and notwithstanding the excitement, the people were very quiet and thoughtful at the end of one of their neighbours. It appears from the evidence of the surgeon who performed the post mortem examination that the singular weapon of death penetrated about two and a half inches into the brain, causing death in a few hours. The unhappy man who is now awaiting trial before a jury and take his trial for the crime has the reputation of being a very quiet person, one who is but seldom in public, and only a few years from the "land of the mountain and the flood," and has a large family depending on him for support. Poor Cosgrove was in the prime and vigor of manhood, and but recently married. The cause of this lamentable calamity is what may fairly be called the curse of society. Bad whiskey taken in an immoderate manner has probably been the cause of hurrying one human being into eternity, and of virtually ruining another.

WESLEYAN MISSIONARY SERVICES.—Anniversary sermons, on behalf of Wesleyan Church, Guelph, on Sabbath next by the Rev. W. M. Punshan at 10.30 a. m., and by the Rev. Wm. Stephenson, of Toronto, at 6.30 p. m. The church doors will be open to the public at half-past ten in the morning. On Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock the Annual Missionary Meeting will be held, when addresses will be delivered by the Revs. Messrs. Punshan and Stephenson, and Rev. Dr. Taylor and others. The Wesleyan Missionary and Conference Special Committee, composed of upwards of eighty ministers and laymen will meet here on Tuesday, and hold sessions on that and the two succeeding days. Collections in aid of the Missionary Fund will be taken up at each of the services mentioned above.

The townships of Arthur and Luther abound with deer. In a few weeks the beech nuts will improve their condition.

BOYS WANTED.

Wanted, several smart, active boys to sell the EVENING MERCURY. Several boys are now making from one to two dollars a week. Apply at once at this Office.

THE GORE BANK.

The Hamilton Times says that the Committee appointed to investigate the affairs of the Gore Bank have completed their labours, and believes that among other changes the following will be recommended:—

"That after the capital of the Bank shall have been reduced by the Legislature as proposed, from $800,000 to $500,000, and after all the bad debts have been written off, there will be an available balance of over $500,000 to the credit side of the institution. In other words, the available assets will exceed the liabilities by more than $500,000. The real property held by the Bank was, not heavy, and a very large proportion of it has already been realized. It is proposed also to change the name of the Bank to that of the "Bank of Hamilton," which we cannot but think a very prudent movement, for the "Gore" has long since ceased to be at all applicable; and as it is the intention of the Directors to make the institution more locally useful than it was formerly, the new name will be peculiarly appropriate. The number of officers connected with the Bank will be reduced, and this movement with others in the direction of a severe economy will greatly diminish expenses, while they will necessarily be a corresponding increase in the profits. We are satisfied that when a detailed statement of the assets and liabilities of the Bank, and of its real condition, together with the changes proposed to be made, are laid before the community, public confidence in the management of the Gore Bank will be completely revived, and the former prosperity of the institution be thoroughly re-established."

ATTEMPT TO BREAK JAIL.—On Tuesday evening last BROWN, imprisoned for theft of a carpet bag and money, and Mulligan awaiting trial for cattle stealing, made an attempt to gain their liberty.—Having been kept in the same ward they employed their spare time in cutting through two bars of one of the windows with a file and small saw, which had been by some means conveyed them. The blocks of wood between the cell doors were also cut, and about eight o'clock BROWN gained the ward, having made a light of soap skimmings, using a piece of rag for a week and a sardine can for a lamp. But by some means the grease took fire, and casting a sheet of light on the wall it attracted the attention of the turnkey's son, who at once gave warning to his father. BROWN had extinguished the lamp immediately after the blaze, but he relit the rag at the end, and then proceeded to help Mulligan out of his cell. But their proceedings were now watched by both the gaoler and turnkey, who interrupted their congratulations on the prospect of a speedy liberation. They made no resistance, though they yielded with bad grace to the untoward fate which snatched freedom from them, when it was almost within their grasp. They had a bundle of clothes made up for their journey. They were removed down stairs, and McKechnie occupy the same ward, in what is considered the strongest part of the gaol.

IMPROVEMENTS AT THE GOLDEN LION.—Several important improvements have lately been made in the internal arrangements of Mr. John Hogg's dry goods store, which gives much more room, and adds greatly to the convenience of carrying on the business. The whole of the basement has been turned into one large wholesale warehouse 107 feet long, with an entrance from the centre of the store. In this place is stored immense piles of blankets made specially for the proprietor, as also all descriptions of woollen and other staple goods. The main store has been enlarged to the same dimensions by taking down the partition at the back, thus giving the whole area of the building for the purposes of retail. At the back part of the store are constructed two new, costly and elegant spiral stairs, one of which leads to the ladies' department on the second storey, and the other to the ready-made clothing department, which is in another apartment on the same floor. One of the stairs leads on to the third storey, where are the cutting and clothing and mantle manufacturing departments; also a large carpet warehouse. The spiral stairs are the only ones of the kind in this place, and though light to the appearance are yet sufficiently strong for all the purposes required. They were designed and made by Mr. S. Boul, and reflect the highest credit on his skill as an architect. Every part is firmly glued and bound together, and the whole structure though apparently very fragile is yet strong, and at the same time compact and elegant. The plastering about the stair cases and at the end of the store has been tastefully done by Mr. Wm. Day, and the fine effect is greatly enhanced by a splendid mammoth mirror, in which one can get a bird's eye view of the whole store. The improvements add very much to the accommodation and appearance of the store, and afford Mr. Hogg greatly increased facilities for carrying on his large business, now one of the largest and most complete dry goods establishments in Canada.

WELLINGTON FALL ASSIZES.

THURSDAY, Oct. 29. The Assizes for the County of Wellington opened in the Court House, Guelph at noon to-day, his Lordship Hon. Justice Morrison presiding.

The Bar was represented by our town lawyers; Messrs. Harrison, Anderson, Boulton, Robinson and Kerr, of Toronto; McMillan, Mount Forest; Drew, Elora; Cross, Fergus; and Durand, of Galt.

The following gentlemen were sworn in as Grand Jurors:— Alex. Thomson, Guelph, Foreman; C. Allan, Thomas Booth, James Cross, Martin Cassin, Francis W. Galbraith, John Grose, Samuel Hambly, Wm. Hunter, C. Keith, Thomas Marks, Archibald McMillan, Warden Shaw.

His Lordship then addressed the Grand Jurors on the duties which lay before them. He regretted that the calendar contained the names of ten persons who had been indicted for criminal offences. Of these some were not in custody. He was sorry to say that there were three cases of homicide, all committed within a short period. It was a large number for a county like this, but circumstances attending the commission of them were peculiar. Two of them were set down as manslaughter, the other as murder. [We may here say that Mawhinney's name appeared on the calendar, though of course as he is not caught he cannot be tried.] There were also two or three cases of larceny, one of cattle stealing, and one of killing cattle, [a pig.] With regard to the duties of the Grand Jury in the cases of homicide, as the law understood malice in the case of one person killing another with a weapon, unless it were proved to them that there was not, it would be their duty to find a bill for the higher crime. The weapon his lordship referred to was one that was likely to kill, or to be used for the purpose of taking life. But much depends on circumstances, and the use of such weapons in self defence cannot be construed as murder. In the two cases of manslaughter which would come before them their finding would also depend on the nature of the evidence produced to them. If a person converts into a weapon, a stick that he may be in the habit of using, and in a moment of passion, with malice, but in order to demonstrate his disapprobation of something that may have been spoken, strike a blow and death follow the crime is no more than manslaughter. In the other instance death had been produced by the pushing of the point of an umbrella against a mortal part. Here again the weapon would have to be considered before deciding the degree of the crime, and it was also necessary in this case that the person who used it should be identified. An umbrella is certainly not such a weapon as is used for the purpose of killing, and it was probably the object of the person who used it merely to create some diversion in favour of one of the parties engaged in the fight, without entertaining malice, or the stroke may have been intended for another. In all instances, however, where death follows from a blow, even though it be light, if there are signs of malice it is better as a matter of public policy and in the interests of justice to find for the higher crime. It was melancholy to find so very many cases of homicide, but these events will happen. In the case of forgery they must be satisfied that the person indicted had either forged the name of some one to a note or deed, or that he had uttered such a paper knowing it to be forged. In the larceny cases before they found a true bill they must satisfy themselves that the goods were stolen, and that the persons charged were the individuals who took them. Cattle stealing is a very serious offence, once a capital felony, but now punishable with imprisonment in the Penitentiary. With regard to the killing of cattle, there were two phases of the crime. They might be slaughtered with the intention of selling the carcass, or killed out of malice, and these offences were quite different. His Lordship then instructed the Grand Jury that it would be their duty to visit the gaol and make their report. He regretted that they had so much to do, the calendar being the largest of several counties where he had presided, but as soon as they got through their business he would have much pleasure in dismissing them to their homes.

The following cases were then disposed of:— DICKIE vs MITCHELL.—Undeclared action to recover the balance on two promissory notes. Verdict for plaintiff $451.49. Mr. Kerr, of Toronto, for plaintiff. THOMPSON vs PARK.—Undeclared action on a promissory note. Verdict for plaintiff, $697.63. Mr. Bruce, of Hamilton, for plaintiff. LEASON vs MCGUIRE.—Action of ejectment, undefended. Verdict for plaintiff. FERGUSON vs ABBOTT.—An action similar to the above with a like result. Mr. Guthrie for plaintiff in both cases. TAYLOR vs AUSTIN.—Also an undefended action of ejectment. Verdict for plaintiff. Lemon for plaintiff.

Business before the Court of Assize. CRIMINAL.—The following criminal cases are on the calendar: H. Mulligan, cattle stealing; Richard Smith, larceny; A. McKechnie, manslaughter; Thos. McQuillan, larceny; Wm. McQuillan, larceny; Samuel Dunbar, manslaughter; Geo. McGregor, forgery; John Mawhinney, murder; John McCormick, killing cattle; Jas. McCormick, killing cattle. CIVIL.—The following is the list of defended civil cases: Newman vs Archibald, Taylor vs Austin, Bond vs Wilkinson, Patterson vs Buckland, Noecker vs Overend, Thompson vs Chisholm, Brill vs Rutherford, Stewart vs Moffatt, Lowe vs Morice, Pennington vs Brownlee, Stewart vs Adams, Tindale vs Balmer, Thompson vs Park, McGregor vs Harris, McIntosh vs Anderson, Glyn vs Brown, Dorrough vs Clark, Kelly vs Kelly, Bell vs Grange, Stevenson vs Bruce.

THE WAVERLEY NOVELS.—We have to acknowledge the receipt of "Quentin Durward" from the publishing house of Appleton & Co., New York. This is the last issued number of the edition of the Waverley Novels which they are issuing so cheap as to bring them within reach of persons of the most moderate means. No person with any taste for good classical English employed to narrate interesting incident will hesitate about purchasing. The whole series for $6, to be had by addressing D. Appleton & Co., New York.

A new pumping engine, for the Water Department, Montreal, promises to be completed in time to avert another water famine this winter.

Despatches to the Evening Mercury DUCHESS OF SUTHERLAND DEAD.

London, 28.—The Dowager Duchess of Sutherland is dead. The reports that Great Britain, France and Italy have renewed diplomatic relations with Spain, under the new revolutionary Government are confirmed. It is authoritatively announced that Prussia and Portugal have also recognized the new government, and that the papal Nuncio at Madrid, had put himself in communication with the Spanish Minister of Foreign Affairs.

ARCHBISHOP OF CANTERBURY IS DEAD.

The Right Rev. Charles T. Longley, D. D. Archbishop of Canterbury, died to-day aged 74.

THE FRENCH NATIONAL GUARD. Paris, Oct. 28.—The Constitutionnel says the re-organization of the National Guard is rapidly progressing in the departments, where the measure is received with great favour by the people.

SPANISH MATTERS. Madrid, Oct. 28.—The Progressista Clubs of this city have formed a union for political purposes. At a recent meeting of the United Clubs, Senor Oloaga informed them that Queen Isabella would abdicate in favor of Don Carlos. The election of members of the Constituent Cortes will take place on the 29th of November. Senor Ayala, Colonial Minister, has issued a circular, announcing that the Colonies will be placed on the same electoral basis as the rest of Spain.

BRITISH INDIA. London, Oct. 28.—Despatches from Bombay report that additional successes have been gained by the British troops in the North-Western Provinces.

American Despatches A DUEL IN PROSPECT. Memphis, Tenn., Oct. 28.—A letter is published from Gen. Fremont, in which he denounces Gen. Judson Kilpatrick in unmeasured terms and refers him to Gen. Cass and Duke of Louisville, who will receive any communication which Gen. Kilpatrick may deem proper to send. The letter refers to remarks made by Gen. Kilpatrick.

DEATH OF ANDREW TRACEY. Morthelie, Va., Oct. 29.—Hon. Andrew Tracey, of Woodstock, a prominent member of the Bar, died yesterday.

THE ALABAMA CLAIMS. Washington, Oct. 29.—The cable despatch purporting to give the basis of the proposed settlement of the Alabama claims with England is regarded in official circles here as mere speculation. The President has received no intimation of any such arrangement agreed to by Reverdy Johnson, and while he does not positively state that the cable despatch may not be true in regard to a mixed commission to adjust the claims, he doubts its truth, for the reason that had anything of the kind occurred he would have been advised of it before it could have reached the ears of the news gatherers of England. He believes that Minister Johnson would have promptly informed Secretary Seward of any important progress in the negotiations, and that therefore it is not at all likely that he has agreed to the terms alluded to. Whether the President favors the idea of a mixed commission or not is a point on which His Excellency maintains a rigid reserve. Besides these reasons given for discrediting the cable despatch, are strengthened by private letters received here from Johnson, in which not a word is found about any such proposal.—The views expressed privately by Mr. Johnson before his departure from this country, would likewise seem to be inconsistent with the idea of his agreeing to a commission of any kind, for the settlement of our claims.

In a recent letter he shows some disappointment at the tardy manner in which the negotiations were being conducted, but nevertheless speaks hopefully of a successful issue.

A CONVICT'S TALE.—At the Middlesex session on Wednesday, George Bennet, 20, waiter, was convicted of stealing a horse and cart, a set of harness, and a quantity of linen, value $261. He had been twice previously convicted of theft. The prisoner at some length pleaded for the merciful consideration of the court, on the ground that had endeavored since his discharge from prison to earn an honest livelihood. He had been at two hotels where had given entire satisfaction, and at a third place some one gave information to his employer that he was a convict, and he was once discharged. "He was thus foiled in his attempts to a living by honest means, and without a character what was he to do? He tried to get work, but all in vain, and he had no alternative but to go back to dishonour, although much against his inclination, and he struggled against it. He had been to the Pyrometers' Aid Society, and begged of them to use their influence to send him out the country, and he was told that if he could pay $3 10s, they would do so. Having no money at all, he went to a magistrate, told him the position in which he was placed, and entreated him for that amount from the poor-box to enable him to get out of the country, but the magistrate declined and said he could do nothing for him. Thus he was deprived of his last hope of pursuing an honest course in life, he was foiled at every step, and hence was placed in the position to which, unfortunately, he had been brought. Taking into consideration the many attempts he had made to regain his character, he hoped his lordship would show mercy in the sentence he was about to pass upon him. Mr. Sergeant Cox, having conferred with the magistrates on the bench, said this was a very serious offence, and one that could not be passed over without a heavy sentence. Giving full effect to the appeal that the prisoner had made to them, he must be imprisoned and kept to hard labour for 18 months. Thus it is when a character for honesty is once lost, it is next to impossible to regain it, in modern society, and self-expatriation is perhaps the only means left for the repentant criminal, whereby to carry out his resolutions of amendment.

MR. HOWE ON THE SITUATION.—Mr. Howe has written a letter in reply to one published in the Eastern Chronicle, reflecting on his course. Mr. Howe deals with the annexation tendencies of some of his followers in a very summary fashion. He tells his readers that three courses are open: 1st, make another appeal to the new parliament of Britain; 2nd, press for a union of the Maritime provinces, or 3rd, endeavor to make a new bargain with the Canadians. Mr. Howe does not say that he prefers the last; he is careful to express no preference; but it is evident from the tone of his letter that he has formed the conviction that it is better to accept confederation and make the best of it.

There is a report from Montreal that Mr. Brydges is to be entertained at a public dinner in that city, on his return from England.

Mrs. Chas. Freeman, of Hamilton, died on Wednesday last of lock-jaw, originating from a wound she received in her hand from a piece of rusty iron against which she fell some days ago.

It is stated that the Grand Trunk employes have been officially warned from dealing in grain or merchandise on pain of immediate dismissal.

The Braes of Yarrow

An Historical Tale of the Sixteenth Century.

CHAPTER XLVIII.—THE VEILED LADY. JESSICA.—Who are you? Tell me for more certainty.

Heard but punctilious Lindsay, Gilbert had carefully studied any expression of the sentiment which was most powerful in determining him to tarry in Scotland until he had encountered Barra, and by overcoming him in arms had proven himself an honest man, in accordance with the creed which then, and till a much later period prevailed, that victory was only vouchsafed to him whose cause was just.

His own disgrace he felt keenly for it effectually barred the way to all further progress in his native land. But he felt still more keenly the consciousness that he had been the unhappy cause of bringing into question the good name of a fair lady, to whom, as he himself expressed it, he was already indebted too much in simple gratitude for the kindness she had shown him.

When he had no friend to help him, she, unsolicited, had opened the way for him to fortune. Thrice she had snatched him from the jaws of death—once at the boldest risk of her own reputation; and now that reputation was sullied by the discovery of her favour.

"The world shall know," he said to himself with teeth clenched and brow knit, "that I am guilty only of possessing a too gentle heart, which has elected the small service I rendered her into boon beyond recompense. Ay, sweet mistress, they shall know that you are good and pure and true, else I shall not live to know that for my sake you have been shamed."

Even had not his sense of gratitude urged him to her defence, another and still more powerful sentiment would have made him her champion. There was no use mincing the matter any longer, the feeling he had suspected, doubted, and almost feared, had obtained admission to his heart. He loved her with his whole heart and soul. He thought, with a sheepish blush, of the passion with which he had regarded Mistress Spina, and believed to love.

It was the overwhelming passion for Mistress Mary which he no longer attempted to disguise to himself that had given the impulse for the purchase of the answer he had made to the warning note, and the passion seemed rather to gain strength the more he endeavored to subdue it by assuring himself that it was hopeless and must be put aside. "The more he resolved that once he had placed her in safety and settled with Barra, he would quit Scotland and return to more until he had conquered his misplaced love, the weaker he felt himself to carry out the resolution.

At the St. Andrew's Rest he readily obtained the use of a couple of hacks, and a small piece of silver placed one of the grooms entirely at his service for that night. He then partook of a slight refreshment and prepared himself to while away the time till vesper in the best manner possible. He was obliged to sit in the common room, which, as the afternoon advanced, became pretty well occupied by civilians and soldiers.

The afternoon was dull and foggy, and the lowering sky seemed to promise a storm before many hours had passed. This, though unpleasant, was certainly propitious for the project which Gilbert had in view, for under the screen of the fog he might easily escape from the city with his fair prize and defy pursuit.

He stopped at one of the booths which covered the side of ancient St. Giles's, and was known as the Kames. The one in which he stopped was in the occupation of a tailor, and a stout dame who stood at the door advertised the passengers with a shrill, shrill voice and a coaxing tone, that whatever was needful for the attire of a brave gentleman or a bonnie lady might be had within at a moderate cost. Dame Skirweel was a notable woman amongst her neighbors, for, albeit her husband, Sandie, led the most henpecked of lives, by her courtesy to customers she added to his trade, and was ultimately the main instrument in making him deacon of his craft.

A YOUNG RAKE.—A young fellow by the name of Maurice F., a native of Pesth, has broken twenty tender female hearts in Vienna. The young rake promised to marry all of these women, some of whom were not seventeen, while others were over forty years old. He seduced four-fifths of them, borrowed all the money they had, and then left the city. But the police pursued and caught him, and he is now in jail in Vienna. He is only nineteen years old.

The violent deaths in New York city average one thousand per annum, and coroners' fees amount to $26,000 yearly.

Anglo-American Hotel

FOR SALE. THIS HOTEL is the only first-class building that lies on the line of the Grand Trunk Railway between Toronto and London. It is 130 feet long by 45 feet in width, 3 stories high and of cut stone; 12 and 11 feet between ceilings; cellar full size of building, 10 feet deep.

Also stone kitchen 40 x 24, with a cistern that holds over 1000 barrels of water. It is situated in the best business part of the Town, and is directly opposite the proposed site of the new Union Passenger Station of the Great Western and Grand Trunk Railways. It is the only first-class building in town that is capable of doing a first-class business. The halls run through the centre of the main building; the rooms are well ventilated and none in the house (ark—The furniture is nearly new, having been purchased only four years ago, and will be sold at a valuation. There is a stone stable capable of affording accommodation for 100 horses; well arranged and runs through to the back street.

A Capital Farm. Likewise there is a farm of 90 acres of the best land in the county, and the best cultivated, and will produce more per acre this season than any farm of its size in this county. Three barns and feeding stable and log house are on the farm. Also a running spring creek, and other springs that never fail. The fences are of board and new. The farm is laid out in ten acre fields. All the farm implements are new, and will be sold if desired at valuation.

First-Class BIVERY STABLE. Also, there is in connection with the hotel a Livery Stable, one of the best in Ontario, of fifteen horses, doing the only first-class business in town and indubitably surpassing all others.

As the proprietor is retiring from business he offers to the public a property, the advantages of which are seldom enjoyed by one man's business. The whole will be sold without reserve within three months, either the business separately, or the whole property as may be agreed upon to suit the purchaser.

Terms—For the hotel property, half each down will be required, the remainder to be paid in six yearly instalments, or ten per cent. allowed off the second half, if paid at time of sale.

DEATH OF THE ARCHBISHOP OF CAN-TERBURY.—By cable dispatch we learn that this venerable prelate died on Wednesday at the advanced age of 74.
He was son of the Recorder of Rochester and was educated at Oxford, where he distinguished himself as a first class in classics. He was afterwards head master of Harrow School, in which post he remained till 1886, when he was appointed the first Bishop of Ripon. He was translated to Durham in 1886, and on the death of Archbishop Musgrave, in 1890, to York.
In 1893, on the death of Archbishop Sumner, Dr. Langley was appointed to the See of Canterbury. He was Primate of all England, and among the other honours he possessed was that of patron of King's Colleg., Nova Scotia.

ITS EFFECT IS MIRACULOUS

ALL'S VEGETABLE SICILIAN HAIR RESTORER.
It is a perfect and wonderful article. Cure baldness. Makes hair grow. A better dressing than any Oil or Pomatum. Softens brush, dry and wiry hair into beautiful and Silky Tresses. But above all, the great wonder is the rapidity with which it restores GRAY HAIR to its ORIGINAL COLOR. The whitest and worst looking hair resumes its youthful beauty by its use. It does not dry the hair, but strikes at the root and fills it with new life and coloring matter. The first application will do good; you will see the NA-TURAL COLOR returning every day, and before you know it, the old, gray, discolored appearance of the hair will be gone, giving lustrous, shining and beautiful locks.
Ask for Hall's Sicilian Hair Restorer; no other article is all like it in effect. See that each bottle has our private Government Stamp over the top of the bottle. All others are imitations.
Price $1.00. For sale by all druggists.
