SATURDAY EVENING, OCT. 18, 1873

Town and County News.

Ferly Harriston people gave Mr. T. W.
Bowje a surprise party the other evening.

Harriston grain buyers and others are complaining of the want of cars on the W. G. & B.

A LITTLE BOY who was on a visit to Elora, says it is a splendid ride, as you can always get a pig to ride round upon.

MAGAZINES.—Boy Bells, Young Ladies' Journal, Family Herald, and the other Old Country magazines to-night at Anderson's.

COAL OIL is selling for 39 cents per gallon in Guelph. We can't promise that the price will be any lower, so bring in your cans and get them filled at once.

ORANGETVILLE is well taxed. The following sums are required: County Rate, $200; Schools, $2,752.23; Village, $800; Railway, $900; Tramway, $70—Total, $5,122; for which a rate of 26 1/2 mills in the dollar has been levied. This is about the same as was levied last year.

TWELVE THOUSAND.—We learn that the number of registered letters passing through the Guelph Post Office from Jan. 1st last to the present date is no less than 12,000. During the same period 11,990 registered letters have passed through the office in the course of transmission. This may be taken as an indication of brisk business.

THE DEATH OF MR. HASSAN.—The Berlin Telegraph gives a statement made by Mr. John Anderson, who has just received the unfortunate John Hassan was killed, to the effect that there was a very high wind blowing at the time of the accident, and he thought it probable that the deceased might have been blown off the top of the train.

Two Elora omnibuses had a collision on Monday while returning from the station, going down the hill towards the river. Bain's turned from the middle of the road and was wheeling round for the front door of the hotel, when Allan's bus ran into it, smashing the rear front wheel and breaking the axle at the opposite side.

AN EPISODE OF FIDELITY.—Bret Harte has issued a new book bearing this title, and we have received a copy from Mr. John Anderson, who has just received a supply. The well-known name of Bret Harte will be sufficient to ensure popularity for this new book. We shall give a longer notice as soon as we have had time to read it.

NEW TEMPERANCE LODGE IN HARRISTON.
—A new Temple, in connection with the Independent Order of Good Templars, has been instituted in the Village of Harriston. The name of the new lodge is "Temperance Star." The number of charter-members initiated was twenty-six, while quite a number promised to unite before long.

CARICATURE.—Mr. W. J. Little, baker, Wynham-street, has just completed a very fine twenty-five dollar bride-cake, and the icing is tasteful and elaborate, and is prettily ornamented with gilt leaves and a handsome wreath of orange-blossoms and other flowers surmounts the cake, which is evidently the work of an artistic eye and hand. Mr. Little is extending his business in the direction of fancy baking and confectionery, as will be seen by his advertisement.

ACCIDENT.—One day last week James McCounchie, junior, Con. C., township of Minto, was assisting his father in clearing up a fallow. While cutting a brand in two the axe came in contact with a log, and striking on the foot by the instep made a severe gash, which ran the length of the foot. The cut is very slowly mending, and it will be some time before he is able to go about again.

FALL WREATH.—The Tribune says that an unusual quantity of fall wheat has been sown in the neighborhood of Harriston this fall, and never looked more promising. The farmers appear to have learned the secret that early sowing of this crop is necessary. The result is that it is now up, and covering the ground nicely. By winter, it will have sufficient top to cover the roots, and preserve it from the frost. In fact, should the present fine weather continue, some of our farmers will have to pasture their sheep and calves on it to keep it down.

THE ILLUSTRATED NEWS for October 18 has a well-executed portrait of Mr. Joseph Arch. The face is a manly and pleasant one to look on, with signs of a determined will in the firm lips and steady eyes.
The illustrations in this number are a great improvement on the earlier efforts of this periodical, and some of them would do no discredit to the old-country namesake of the Illustrated News. Among these are "Don Carlos and his Staff," "Under den Linden" and "Scenery in the Niagara Region."

WINGS.—Few housekeepers appreciate the value of chicken and turkey wings—they use them to dust furniture and brush up the hearth; but for washing windows they are of untold worth. There is nothing that equals them: they clean the corners out easily, and leave no film upon the glass. Then for spreading paste on walls and paper, there is no invention that will do the work half as well. Try them once, and there will be no necessity of telling people to be sure and save all the wings.

PLoughing MATCH.—The North Wellington ploughing match in connection with the Agricultural Society will be held on the farm of Mr. David Nicholson, Lot number 2 on the 3rd Con. Minto, about two miles from Tevendale, on Friday, October 24th, when the following prizes will be awarded: Men's class, over 18 years of age, 1st prize $7, 2nd $6, 3rd $5, 4th $5, 5th $3. Boys' Class, 18 years and under, 1st prize $7, 2nd $6, 3rd $5, 4th $5, 5th $3. The Directors have made their best endeavours to get a good field, and as central to the greatest number as possible.

PARKER CHURCH.—A tea meeting was held in the Parker W. M. Church last Monday evening, in every respect a success. Through the liberality of Mr.

Robt. McKim, of T. P. for Norwich, Winnington, a magnificent collation was spread. The neat little church was crowded. Rev. Mr. Cookman, Mr. Anderson, Registrar of the North Riding, and Rev. Mr. Warren, of Elora, were the speakers. The latter delivered a characteristic temperance talk, which was cheered to the echo by Rev. B. J. Forman, the Superintendent of the Circuit, occupied the chair, and enlivened the meeting with characteristic remarks from time to time.

SUDDEN DEATH.—The Elora News says:
"It is our painful duty this week to chronicle the sudden death of Mr. James Allan, of the Dalby House. On Saturday he complained of being somewhat indisposed, when medical assistance was at once procured. Sunday, and up to the time of his death on Tuesday evening at about 5 o'clock, he was in an unconscious state; and from the first, little hopes were entertained of his recovery. During the time he has been here, he has ever displayed a kind, genial and obliging disposition; and his sudden demise has caused quite a gloom over the community.
He leaves a widow and six children to mourn his loss. The funeral was attended by a large concourse of sympathising friends and relatives. Mr. Allan, belonging to the fraternity, was buried with Masonic honors."

STILL THEY GO.—The farms of Plitkington are frequently changing hands, not from lack of quality in the land or the general prosperity of the inhabitants, but rather from a love of change. Mr.
John Smith was an old and prosperous settler, but he went to Manitoba; Mr. D.
Lillies is following him to the same Province; sometime since Mr. J. L. Kelly sold his farm and went to Iowa, and his then neighbor, Mr. Adam Simpson, after looking round him for twelve months and travelling far east and west, has decided to follow his old friend to that State, having purchased a farm in the same neighborhood. We also understand that Mr. W.
Batters has sold his farm to Mr. T.
Pritchard, whilst his brother sold twelve months ago his to Mr. James Crook-shanks.—Elora Observer.

WILL HE GET THROUGH?—We are this week introduced by Grip's cartoon into a circus, in which statesmen are shown as acting their parts in the guise of clowns and acrobats. The incident depicted is that frequent one in a circus—an erect bare-back rider taking leaps through hoop hoops covered with tissue paper.
The rider is of course Sir John A., and his steed the old hack "Pacific Scandal." John A. is capably drawn, and the expression of his face is a study. Behind him stands Lord Dufferin, holding a hoop labelled "August 13" through which the rider has already leaped. Behind him stands Mackenzie, in the dress of a clown, with finger to nose, holding up a very small hoop, labelled "October 23"; and John A. is just gathering himself together for the desperate leap.
In front, as ringmaster, is George Brown, with high stiff collar; and behind are various prominent politicians as specta-tators. Hutcheon, of the Mail, is asking Blake "What's the horse worth?" and E. B. Wood is sitting in a characteristic attitude on a bench, with elbow on knee and pipe in hand. Owing to a clumsiness in the design, rather unusual for Grip's art, the cartoon requires a little explanation before its meaning becomes manifest; and the horse is a sorry beast; but the faces are excellent. We are indebted to Mr. John Anderson for a copy in advance of our own.

SNEP WORKING.—A correspondent writes to the Fergus News Letter, stating his belief that the recent deprivations amongst sheep in West Guelph are being mainly caused by wolves, not dogs.
He says:—The killing first began near the townline between Luther and Garrafrax, where wolves are now heard howling nearly every night, and their tracks visible everywhere through swamps in that locality, and came farther down into the older settlements just as the sheep were housed and kept out of their way.
On the upper ends of the 5th, 6th and 7th Concessions a great many sheep were killed before any were collected for the Fergus and Dundas road. The swamp fires the past dry seasons have driven the deer away, from which the wolves drew their former supplies. Within a radius of two or two and a half miles I will enumerate some of those who have lost in this way, within two years: John Strang, George Sprues, Robert Sewart, John Allison, J. J. Dobbin, Geo.
Robertson, Cyrus Sergeant, Hall Loree, Wm. Douglas, R. J. Black, David Black, John Moffatt, Wm. Kyle, Henry Hamill, John Felker, David Kyle, John Sergeant, Wm. Felker, David Ferrier, Joseph Eve-leigh and James Eveleigh. Every one of eight of these names will represent a loss of $100, and an equal area between where they live and Luther will give as great if not greater loss. Although we have far too many dogs, yet I could furnish incontestable evidence that the greater part, if not all, of these deprivations have been committed by wolves.

SOCIAL AT WINTERBOURNE.—On Friday evening last a neoteric social was held in the old Free Church building at Winter-bourne, which was well attended and passed off in a pleasant and enjoyable manner. It was got up by the young ladies connected with the Wesleyan Methodist Church at that place, who were desirous of raising funds wherewith to make some internal improvements in their church, and as their efforts were heartily supported by members of sister congregations, the result was highly gratifying. Upwards of $20 was realized.
Addresses, dialogues, music and refreshments took place in rapid succession until 10 o'clock, when the company dispersed well pleased with the evening's proceedings.

The creditors of Mr. H. B. Fairfield, proprietor of an extensive saloon and restaurant on King street, Toronto, being somewhat apprehensive as to the safety of their claims, owing to the prolonged absence of the landlord from home, placed the Sheriff in possession of the premises on Monday last. With the exception of a few perishable edibles, and the small amount of liquor necessary to the daily demands of a first-class saloon, the creditors found little or nothing. The exact amount of liabilities is not known, but is variously stated at from $30,000 to over $40,000. If this failure has the effect of closing the premises on Colborne street, in the rear, which never ought to have been licensed, the public will have small cause for regret at anything that has happened.—Monday Times.

BY TELEGRAPH.

Incendiaries Arrested.

Manchester, N.H., Oct. 18.—Henry Tyarral, proprietor of Union Avenue House, at Goffstown, Aaron Hackett and Joseph Cheney, two French Canadians, were arrested yesterday, charged with setting fire to Taggart's buildings which occasioned a loss of seventeen valuable horses. The prisoners were bound over in $5,000 each for a further hearing.

Sailor Drowned.

(Special despatch to the Evening Mercury.) Port Colborne, Oct. 18.—A sailor named Richard Smith, an Englishman on the Schooner "James Norris," while coming into this harbour this morning was knocked overboard and drowned. The schooner "F. D. Barker" was got off last night and is now in the harbor—lightened of over eleven thousand bushels of dry wheat; the balance of cargo, nine thousand bushels, is damaged.

TO THE SKY-LARK.
Bright minstrel bird, through countless Poets have sung thy praise And love-it eyes suffused with tears While listening to thy lays.
Up, cheering heaven-ward thou dost, Mid ether pure to roam;
Of all the swift-winged tribe the highest Above thy lowly home.
Thy silvery notes of joy we hail From spheres we may not scan; What rock at them of care-wrought veil This shrouds the heart of man!
Enough that thou dost be lent Sweet song and daily food, By hand unseen, omnipotent, Yet infinitely good.
Were motion modelled by the will,
Swiftly we'd follow thee, Vain with! we gaze and listen till Thyself we cannot see.
Then, turning to thy grassy berth, This thought to us is given—Who dwells the lowliest on earth Shall highest sing in heaven.

Local and Other Items

Deer are said to be more than usually plentiful this season in the townships around Ottawa.

Mr. W. G. McMullen is amongst those who have applied for rooms at the Russell House, Ottawa.

Ma. A. Hinde, of Oshawa, has bought the Queen's Hotel from Mr. Bookless, and has "taken hold."

The Acadia Powder Mills, situated at Waverly, exploded on Thursday morning. One workman was seriously injured.

John Bowden, who robbed the American Express Company of $10,260 at St.
Catherines on March 5th, has been tried and sentenced to 7 years in the penitentiary.

The corner stone of the Ottawa West Wesleyan Church was laid on the 17th in the presence of a large and fashionable assembly. The church will be a handsome brick structure, to hold 1,000 people.

A child of Mr. J. L. Lawrence, Thames-ville, aged four years, was killed recently by falling with a staircase to which Mr.
Lawrence had hitched his team. From some cause the horses became frightened, and in their attempt to get away pulled down the structure.

"The first Grand Trunk 'run off' since the change of gauge, occurred near Belleville last week. One of the new Manchester engines ran off, dragging some cars after it. The cars were badly damaged, but the locomotive fortunately escaped without much injury.

ACCIDENT.—A few nights ago while Mr.
McKenzie, contractor on the E. G. & B.
Railway, was returning home to Minto, it being very dark, the buggy came in contact with a stump, throwing Mr. Mc-Kenzie out, and considerably bruising his face; otherwise he was not much injured.

LIBERAL.—At the last meeting of the Maryboro' Council, it was moved by Mr.
Long, seconded by Mr. Turner, "That Mr. Findlay Booth, of the Province of Manitoba, and late of the Township of Wallace, who has lost both his arms and legs by being frozen on the prairies of said Province, be granted the sum of $20 to aid him in getting artificial hands."—

The South Huron Disappointment.

Our Tory friends are now consoling themselves in their present ludicrous plight with dilating on the "great moral victory" they have won because the over-confident Reformers were busy with their fall ploughing, and thought that enough of their neighbors would vote to ensure Mr. Bishop his seat. And this was the case, but the reduction in Reform majority shows that it is a dangerous game to play. We hope the electors of South Huron, at any rate, won't try it again, after the warning they have had.

By way of contrast to the typographical booming of artillery and pealing of bells which we reproduced from Thursday's Mail, we print the commencement of its latest article on the South Huron election. It says: "The Grit print is rather more jubilant than the facts will warrant. It is quite true that Mr. Bismarck has succeeded through a miserable majority, but that does not afford any very great cause for rejoicing. One member taken off Mr. Mowat's tail in the Legislature of Ontario is not a matter over which we are prepared to worry ourselves very much."

Now we did think the Mail had more "gumption" than to illustrate the fable of the fox and the grapes so plainly. It is evident that both editor and printers did "worry themselves" considerably when they thought that a member had been "taken off Mr. Mowat's tail," for they worried up a fine assortment of black-faced type and "double leaded" editorial on the strength of it. But the case being altered, &c. &c. Hinc ille lachryma, as the classical editor of the Mail has observed a few thousand times lately—which being interpreted, meaneth, Hence these tears.

Those Howling Dervishes.

The Ottawa Times, a rampant Tory journal, gets frantic with joy over the result of the South Huron election. This is what it says:—

"From the opening of the battle in South Huron to its close, it raged on the ground of the political questions of the Dominion. Ontario and her local affairs were completely set aside on both sides, to fight the conflict out on Sir John Macdonald under all the charges of the McMullens and the Emingtons, the letter-violators and the telegram-thieves! But the reaction always sure to follow the overstrainings of faction in presence of a constituency of independence, intelligence and honesty, reached South Huron in time for the triumph of the right. It bore the flashing faces to the front in a glorious victory!

God bless the honest men of Huron! They have uttered a verdict of truth and righteousness. Brought to the jury-box at a moment of importance to the best interest of the country, they have won a praise ever dear to true Britons—that of having done their duty! Let the howling dervishes hang their heads in shame; and accepting this stern rebuke from the yeomanry of the country, deport themselves in Parliament with, as far as may be, the moderation impossible to the factionist, the decency beyond the reach of the unscrupulous.

Except it seems a little indecent to "drag the Almighty's name into such an article, we ought not to object to such thorough-going Reform sentiments. But it does seem a little unkind of the Ottawa Times to call its Tory friends "howling dervishes. Even the Mercury has never been so rude as that.

The Governor-General and Lady Dufferin arrived in Ottawa from the east by the afternoon train on Friday.

It is said at Ottawa that Bellerose was raised to the Senate because he had affirmed that he would vote against the Government, on the Constitutional question; but the offer of a Senatorship, for which he was probably seeking, has secured at least one vote from going over to the Opposition.

The Government organ, La Minerre, acknowledges it to be a fact that the pledge of an amnesty was given by the Government to Riel. And the homicide himself appears to have a pretty good confidence in the pledge, when he is on the way to Ottawa to take his seat. Perhaps he thinks John A. has forgotten his promise, and means to remind him of it.

The news of the coming of Riel to take his seat in the House of Commons was the chief topic of discussion at Ottawa on Friday. A variety of opinion is expressed as to his personal safety, as to the likelihood of his expulsion from Parliament by resolution of the Commons, and as to what side he will take in case he be permitted to hold his seat without molestation. The Citizen, speaking, of course, as usual by Ministerial inspiration, predicts that in consequence there will be a lively time next week.

Speaking out at Last.

The organ of Sir John A. Macdonald now recommends that a full pardon should be given to Riel.

The following is a copy of the editorial on the subject of the pardon of Riel, as published in the Ottawa Times, a Tory journal, on the 17th inst. It is a very good specimen of the kind of "gumption" which is to be expected from the organs of the Tory party in this country.

Now we did think the Mail had more "gumption" than to illustrate the fable of the fox and the grapes so plainly. It is evident that both editor and printers did "worry themselves" considerably when they thought that a member had been "taken off Mr. Mowat's tail," for they worried up a fine assortment of black-faced type and "double leaded" editorial on the strength of it. CHAPTER III.

THE M'KENZIES RAFFLED—AN UNFORTUNATE GIRL—LOCH MAREE—DANGER AGAIN

TERRIBLES THE LOVERS.

She now rushed to the door, and was confronted on the threshold by Hector, into whose arms she fell, exclaiming wildly—

"Donald Cameron pursues us on horse-back, and is within a mile of Kinloch-Ewe."

"What do you say?" cried McLeod, huskily, while an expression of vexation and annoyance crossed his face.

"Come this way, quick!" cried Flora, re-entering the room, and pointing through the window. "Do you not recognize him?"

"Yes, I recognize him," replied the youth calmly, a look of stern determination succeeded the expression which had previously taken possession of his features.

"And we must wait his coming," he continued. "I find that we cannot have horses."

"Oh, the meeting will be terrible," murmured Flora, wringing her hands in deep distress, and gazing with fearful eyes into her lover's face.

"Ay, much more terrible than you yet anticipate, my darling," was the reply. "Perhaps you have not recognized that Ian M'Kenzie with several companions follows behind."

"As he spoke his lips quivered and his face paled just a very little, while his right hand mechanically sought the hilt of his claymore."

"What!" exclaimed Flora, with great agitation, again gazing at the advancing men.

"Oh, it is indeed he," she wildly cried, bursting into tears. "Oh, Hector, they will murder you! My uncle's fate will be such that he will attack you at once, and these others will assist him. Oh, what is to be done? You cannot be allowed to do this. Can I assist you?"

"Be calm, my love, be calm," said Hector, soothingly, in reply. "It may not be so bad as you fear. Your uncle I fear not, and Ian M'Kenzie and his companions will learn that the Hector M'Leod of yesterday and strong, is something very different from the Hector M'Leod of to-day, exhausted and weak. Here, my darling, here is something for you, and as he spoke he handed her a tiny pistol, neatly mounted. "You know how to use it. If I should fall (and I may, you know), and Ian M'Kenzie dare lay a hand on you, shoot him with it as you would a dog. But do not mix in the fray, for a chance stroke might prove your death wound."

"I will do as you desire, dearest, everything as you wish," and her heroine spoke in a tone of calm determination.

"And now, my darling," exclaimed Hector, imprinting a kiss on her brow, "it may be our parting kiss. There is no further time for words, for here your uncle comes. Seat yourself at this corner; I will remain here."

As he spoke the loud sound of a galloping horse fell distinctly upon his ear, and in a minute more a horseman reined up at the door of the inn—the horse quivering and covered with foam, while the rider appeared to be in a state of violent rage.

"Hay, within there," he shouted in Gaelic, springing from his steed. "Have you got any lodgers or visitors?"

In an instant the landlord had rushed precipitately to the door.

"What's your pleasure, Droghdaireach?" he inquired, with a leer of deep cunning upon his face.

"Tell me, is there a young man and woman beneath your roof? Answer quickly."

For a moment the landlord paused as if undecided.

"Damnation! answer me at once, or I shall throttle you," shouted the other with such terrible vehemence as he sprang from his steed that Gregor almost leaped with terror, and he turned with quaking limbs and terrified looks and pointed to the door of the room in which Flora and Hector were listeners to the colloquy.

"Ha!" exclaimed the other, a look of fierce triumph lighting up his face; "now will I give an impudent boy such a lesson as he merits."

The next instant the parlour door opened, and the new comer appeared on the threshold, glaring with eyes full of hatred upon Hector M'Leod, who stood calmly confronting him.

Arthur Correspondence.

The harvest around here this year is one of the best that has been for many years, and it is having its effects on all kinds of business. Farmers are more contented; they do not think now of emigrating to Muskoka, Manitoba, or the Western States, but are directing their energies towards cleaning their land, putting in a larger area of fall wheat, and getting all the ploughing done this fall that is possible, so as to be prepared in the spring for another bountiful crop, which is to be hoped they will realize. A stimulus has been given to builders, so that many buildings, stone, frame, and brick, are under headway. One of them is a large brick store 80x100, 2 stories high, by R. & W. Murphy, on one of the best building sites in Arthur. The R. C. congregation intend building a large stone church, and are already advertising for 150 cords of stone to commence work. Farm and village lots have risen nearly a third in value within this last two months, partly from the effects of a good harvest and partly from the prospect of a county town. Mr. E. J. O'Callaghan is repainting and fitting up his hotel, at present occupied by Mr. Matthew Carroll. Mr. O'Callaghan is also building four shops adjoining the hotel, which are nearly completed. Our churches, too, are undergoing a change. The C. P. Church has been repainted inside and out, and a new picket fence built in front of it, along with other im-

Lay of a Night Watchman.
Tis midnight; on the lampit street All sounds have died away;
And as I walk my lonely beat, My thoughts on pinions free and fleet Go back to childhood's day.
But, first, before these thoughts take flight Like birds from sunless climes To summer lands of peace and light, Let me review in silent night
The city's ills and crimes.
See down the dimly lighted lane
The skulking thief appear, While through your broken window pane The wicked gambler's talk profane Falls hideous on the ear.
And there reels home the drunken sot, His earnings all consumed,
To a dark den where hope is not,
Where comfort is, thing forgot,
And joy a thing untold.
All these and other sounds of crime,
And other weird sights Disgrace this holy hour sublime, While the big clock tolls out the time, Beneath God's glittering lights.

It is bad for health, and dangerous, to wet coal before putting it in your cellars. No says a paragraph which is going the round of the papers just now.

The wife of a Louisville lawyer made a bustle of some important legal documents, and court had to adjourn until she could go home and return with them in proper shape.

An Indian lady of an original turn of mind bases her application for a divorce on the circumstance that her husband's legs are too long for her to walk step with him when they take a walk together.

A citizen of Connecticut, recently introduced to a newly-married man, congratulated him warmly and said: "Ah these Litchfield country girls make clever wives; I've had three of 'em."

An Indian man claims to have succeeded in playing a thorough confidence game upon the potato-bug. He planted a grain of corn in each potato, hill, and as the corn came up first, the bugs thought it was a corn field, and started for other scenes.

"A horse! A horse! My kingdom for a horse!" cried a celebrated tragedian.
"Wouldn't a jackass do as well?" inquired an affected young man, rising in his seat. "Yes," triumphantly exclaimed the actor; "just step up this way, sir."
The young man sat down.

The other night at a concert, a gentleman having put his hat upon a chair to keep a place, returned to claim it after a short absence. The hat was found some where it had been left, only there was a stout lady on it. "Madame," said he,
"you are sitting on my hat." The lady blushed a little, turned round and said, in the blindest manner, "Oh, I beg pardon! I am sure I thought it was my husband's."

HAVING SUFFERED FOR SEVERAL years from Dyspepsia, resulting in great Nervous Prostration and General Debility, I was recommended to take Dr.
Wheeler's Compound Elixir of Phosphates and Calumina. Having persisted in its use for several weeks I recovered perfect health.
My wife, and children also, have taken it, for general Tonic purposes to invigorate and strengthen the system and promote the formation of pure blood, with permanent benefit. It energizes and sustains the vital forces in a remarkable manner.

PERUVIAN SYRUP, a Protective

Solution of the Protozoic of Iron, is so combined as to have the character of an aliment, as easily digested and assimilated with the blood as the simplest food. It increases the quantity of Nature's Own Vitalizing Agent, Iron in the blood, and cures "a thousand ills," simply by Toning up, Invigorating and Vitalizing the System. The enriched and vitalized blood permeates every part of the body, repairing damage, and acting searchingly on the morbid secretions, and leaving nothing for disease to feed upon.
This is the secret of the wonderful success of this remedy in curing Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Chronic Diarrhea, Boils, Nervous Affections, Chills and Fevers, Humors, Loss of Constitutional Vigor, Diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, Female Complaints, and all diseases originating in a bad state of the blood, or accompanied by debility or a low state of the system. Being free from Alcohol, in any form, its energizing effects are not followed by corresponding reaction, but are permanent, infusuring strength, vigor, and new life into all parts of the system, and building up an Iron Constitution.
Thousands have been changed by the use of this remedy, from weak, sickly, suffering creatures, to strong, healthy, and vigorous men and women. Enfeebled cannot reasonably hesitate to give it a trial.

See that each bottle has PERU-VIAN SYRUP blown in the glass.
