Notes.

Happy New Year to all

The old year. With this issue of THE CALENDAR we close 1899; with the next, we begin 1900. Looking back over the past year, ask yourselves, "What have I done for Jesus? How many precious souls have I won to Him?" May we be inspired to double our zeal in His cause for His sake; thus may our new resolves be to His glory.

Remember "Our Century Roll Call," to be held in the Vestry, Wednesday evening, Jan. 3. "Let all the people praise thee." Bring an offering unto the Lord, and give your testimony. Has He blessed thee; then speak of it. This will be the FIRST GREAT MEETING in 1900 that you will likely attend. Come, expecting a rich blessing.

The church and congregation are invited to attend the yearly business meeting, which will be held Jan. 10th. Report will be given by the various Committees, Pastoral Letter, Deacons, Trustees, Mortgage Finances, Organ, Ushers, W. A. Society, Bloomfield Com., Visiting, Social, Convention Fund, Sunday School, B. Y. P. U., Pew, &c. All are very important, and the church should be present to hear what progress is being made.

Death.—Our Sister, Mrs. Albert Clements, passed to her reward Tuesday morning, Dec. 19. She united with the Church in 1832; was a quiet, yet zealous worker, a regular attendant until stricken down by sickness. Her father, the late Dea. Wm. Brown, and mother, with other members of the family, laboured lovingly in the interests of the Church. "Safe in the arms of Jesus."

Week of Prayer begins next Sunday. The Morning Meeting at 9.30 in Argyle Hall, on Monday Evening, Jan. 8, at 7.45, in this Church.

The Thanks of the church and congregation are due to Miss Beatrice Cross for the tastefully arranged Xmas decorations around the pulpit and church.

Our Revenue.—This Church is supported by the free will offerings of the people. Every member, young and old, is expected to contribute regularly. If each one gives as "God has prospered," no one will be burdened, and there will be ample means for support of every department. Subscriptions may be made at any time to the Treasurer, Deacon W. T. Harris, and A. E. Soulis, Chairman of the Finance Committee, who will supply envelopes for "CURRENT EXPENSES," "MORTGAGE FUND," and "ORGAN FUND." "Convention Fund" offering the Second Sunday of each month.

The Pastor will be glad to speak with you at the close of each service. Kindly inform him immediately concerning the sick, strangers, any without regular church home, and where a visit will be helpful. All are urged to use the information cards in pews.
