SIR FELIX SERNON ON CANCER OF LARYNX.

Most Important Paper Read Last Night in New York in Presence of a Distinguished Party of Specialists... The Writer Was an Assistant of Sir Morrel Mackenzie.

New York, Nov. 3.—What many physicians consider a most important paper on cancer of the larynx, says the Herald, was read last night by Sir Felix Sernon, a distinguished London specialist.

The specialist, who was an assistant of Sir Morrel Mackenzie, has for 20 years been an authority on diseases of the throat.

Among the guests of honor he has occupied, in that of special interest, was the King of England. Stress was laid by him on the necessity of

A SHOOTING AFFRAY IN NEW YORK CITY TODAY.

Had Many Features Resembling the Highbinder Outrages in San Francisco... Chinamen with Drawn Revolvers Attempted to Rescue one who had Shot a Prominent Chinese Citizen.

New York, Nov. 3.—A shooting affray with many features resembling the highbinder outrages of the San Francisco Chinese quarter, which occurred in Chinatown early today, may result in the death of Mock Duck, one of the most prominent members of the reform element in the local Chinese colony.

Mock was waylaid as he was passing through Pell street, and one of two bullets fired at him lodged in his abdomen, causing an extremely dangerous wound.

Mock was taken to the patrol box by a policeman, the couple were surrounded by a mob of Chinamen with drawn revolvers demanding the release of the prisoner.

The situation was becoming serious when a dozen police reserves arrived and found the policeman and his prisoner backed up in a doorway, with officer holding back three armed Chinamen.

The would-be rescuers fled when the reinforcements arrived. Near the scene of the shooting, a prominent member of the reform element in the local Chinese colony.

PORT ARTHUR IS DOOMED.

The Japanese Have Secured Positions Commanding the Fortress, Which Cannot Much Longer Resist their Assaults... Emperor of Japan Celebrated His Birthday by a Reception Today at Which Speeches Were Delivered.

Baron d'Anethan, the Belgian minister, dean of the diplomatic corps, responded, congratulating the emperor on the day and expressing regret at the continuance of the war.

The Japanese are now in a position to commence the beginning of the end of the operations. For the capture of East Port Ridge and the siege of Port Arthur, they have completed placing eleven inch Howitzers.

On the night of October 29, all the reserves advanced through a network of trenches in front of East Port Ridge, from South Keokwan to West Keokwan Mountain, called by the Japanese, Schoewan.

The bombardment began at dawn October 30. Infantry attacks were planned at noon against the two Ribbing Mountains, an entrenched hill between East Banjau and East Keokwan Mountain, and the three Keokwan Towers.

Regarding the capture of Reihund and Sungshu Mountains, the report is not considered important, but Japanese say it is not intended to occupy East Keokwan Mountain.

In August the Japanese were successful in entering East Keokwan fort as was related in these despatches at that time, but under the impression that the other forts, they were compelled to retire.

Japanese officers here say that, in impossible to hold East Keokwan, and that therefore an attempt on that position is presumably unlikely.

Beginning of the End. The Foo, Nov. 3.—A consular despatch from the Associated Press correspondent, with the Japanese army does not give any particulars of general engagement going on at Port Arthur, but it is certain that it occurred and that some were captured. Terrible explosions heard here indicating that the Russians have exploded mines and destroyed other property.

Headquarters of Third Japanese Army in front of Port Arthur, Nov. 2.—The Foo, Nov. 3.—2 p. m.—(Continued). The Japanese are now in a position to commence the beginning of the end of the operations.

RESULTS WILL BE KNOWN IN VERY FEW HOURS NOW.

Weather Was Fine all Over Canada and it is Expected the Results will Show the Heaviest Vote Ever Polled... Keen Excitement in St. John... Impersonation Attempted.

In a few hours the campaign of 1904 will be over, the ballots will be counted and the people of Canada will have chosen their government for the next five years.

Indications are that a very heavy ballot was polled. Weather conditions were favorable and from the country districts the news comes that the farmers have displayed more interest in this contest than any previous one.

In the city of St. John election day set in with a rush. The polls opened at nine o'clock and in every case it is reported that a good heavy vote is being registered.

Business was practically suspended for a while the stores were open yet merchants were not out very early and the principal streets were all but deserted except in the vicinity of the polling booths and it is but a slight exaggeration to say that on Prince William street this morning it would have been possible to fire a cannon without causing any fatalities.

In the vicinity of the polling booths, however, there was a different tale to tell. There all was hustle and bustle. Every public conveyance in the city was pressed into service by the respective agents, while many gentlemen who were interested in the success of their private teams at the disposal of their friends.

There were few surprises during the day, as the conservative agents at the different polls up to noon were the effect that the conservative supporters were very largely voting the straight ticket.

In fact the number of split ballots cast on either side was not large as some thought it would be in making their pre-election predictions.

In Dukes and Sydney wards the voters were not out very early and up to ten o'clock there was a very small proportion of the vote cast.

The Japanese have not occupied the main forts and highest points of the East Hills, but they occupy the overwhelming numbers of positions which will enable them to drive the Russians back whenever they desire.

When the Japanese occupied the Russian trenches on the night of October 29, it is said that the Russians turned a current of water into the trench, but that the Japanese held the trench and the Japanese shells exploded two land mines on the night of October 29.

St. John, Nov. 3.—(Special)—A heavy downpour of rain just previous to the opening of the polls this morning threatened to make the voting light but within an hour or so the sky was clear again and up to nine o'clock the indications are that the voting will be heavy all over Montreal.

The conservative campaign there was a strong stimulus by the announcement in the Gazette of the arrest of five men charged with conspiracy to convert the personation with the object of defeating H. B. Ames, the conservative candidate in St. Antoine division.

The arrests were made at the instance of Mr. Ames and produced a deep impression in the city and are likely to turn many independent voters to the conservative candidates in all the city divisions.

Bulletins received from various points of the Dominion show favorable weather conditions and intense interest in the election.

Despite the deep interest however, no real disturbances. As there has been a general absence of sensations springing from the last moment.

An attempt was made by Le Canada to offset the arrest of the voters by a story from the outgoing constituency of Bouville of the arrest of a man who had been giving voters' money to refrain from voting.

The man in question claimed to be representing Hon. L. P. Brodeur but was repudiated by him and the liberals claim he was a conservative agent, alleging in proof, that when arrested, he was in company with another conservative worker.

Montreal, Nov. 3.—(Special)—Warriors have been charged with conspiring to organize telegraphers in Montreal, in the interest of Hon. R. Prefontaine, liberal candidate. Up to the present, two arrests have been made. Taschereau, Beaudoin, and Alfred Baril, being prisoners. Detectives are on watch for the other suspects.

In Colchester. Truro, N. S., Nov. 3.—(Special)—An exceedingly large vote is being polled today all over Colchester. At one o'clock some of the town wards had polled three quarters of the votes in the ward. Everything points towards the government. Grand Trunk scheme being moved under here.

In Ottawa. Ottawa, Nov. 3.—(Special)—A big vote is being polled here today. There was a downpour of rain early this morning, but it has cleared up and is an ideal autumn day.

DIED AS HE VOTED. Truro, N. S., Nov. 3.—(Special)—James Milne polled his vote at Middle River. Halifax county, stepped away from the ballot box, and fell dead in the polling booth.

LIBERAL PERSONATORS ARRESTED IN MONTREAL.

Big Sensation Last Night... One of the Prisoners an Ex-Convict Had $900 in Small Bills in His Pocket When Taken... Five Arrests Made in all.

Montreal, Nov. 3.—A big sensation was caused in political circles, last night, by the arrest of five members of a gang of personators organized to work for the liberal candidates tomorrow.

The arrests were made as the gang gathered to receive their final instructions. They had been shadowed for weeks, and detectives who worked among the gang were in touch with the plans up to the time the arrests were made.

The men under arrest are 'Bob' Beauvais, F. Aubertin, S. Bissonnette, H. Lavoie, Oscar St. Jacques, all characters known to the police. Two of them have served terms in the penitentiary.

In the pockets of Bissonnette, who is an ex-convict, were found $900 in bills, of small denominations. They also possessed names and addresses of voters they intended to personate.

The five arrested included a gang of ten who were organized to operate in St. Antoine division today, and they were taken in charge on the warrant sworn out by Alderman Ames, the conservative candidate, whose detectives have been shadowing the crowd.

It was known that they were gathered in a house on St. Charles street, and the police, who were in possession of the names and addresses of the voters, were in touch with the plans up to the time the arrests were made.

The charge against the five arrested is conspiring and conspiring to convert the personation at the polls. The extreme penalty for this crime is seven years.

The police are after the other members of the gang.

CASTRO WANTS $4,750,000. Mexico City, Nov. 3.—Advice from Venezuela received by steamship at Mazatlan say that President Castro has filed a claim in the courts against General Matos, the revolutionary leader, who attempted to overthrow the Castro government, for $4,750,000.

The claim is based on damages caused the government of Venezuela through the revolution. General Matos is now living in Colombia. The move on the part of President Castro means that the all Matos' property will be confiscated.

THEY SEEK WHITE BABIES

Only Hope British Columbia Indians Have of Escaping Speedy Extinction.

Victoria, B. C., Nov. 3.—The Indian tribes of British Columbia, tortured by insidious diseases, for the most part, are rapidly disappearing, and the usual penalty for the red race when it touches the white, is that of rapid extinction.

It is not race suicide in the general acceptance of the term, that is to be feared, but the usual penalty for the red race when it touches the white, is that of rapid extinction.

Thinking men of the tribes are seeking external remedies, and the adoption of white children by stealth varied with an occasional out-and-out purchase—its becoming common only a few years ago.

One of the chiefs of the Vancouver Island west coast tribes united to pay $4,000 for his five-year-old son, who was received with honor, elected a chief with elaborate ceremony and allotted six wives, in order that extinction might be averted.

The boy was rescued by the Provincial police and the tribe was left disconsolate.

Two white travellers returned from Quatsino last week with the news that in all that one numerous tribe there is now only one child, a boy named after a long and interesting voyage, the Haida of Queen Charlotte Island have sent their little girl to Quatsino to be his playmate and bride.

WILL COME HOME. Capt. Robert McHenry, who was mate of the St. John ship Howard D. Troop, was obliged to leave that vessel at Higo, and return home. On the passage from Japan to Seattle the ship was met by a terrible storm and his hip was fractured, collar bones broken, and he received other serious injuries.

Nevertheless, he stoutly young women of the tribe, and returned to Seattle and reached Boston after 71 days travelling month per steamer Prince George on the steamer met at Seattle on Saturday. His many friends will sympathize with him in his misfortune, and sincerely hope for a speedy recovery.—(Yarmouth Herald, Nov. 3.)

SAN DOMINGO. Berlin, Nov. 3.—12:46 p. m.—The foreign office here authorizes the Associated Press to say that Germany has no agreement with Spain, what ever, suspending joint protection of their interests in Santo Domingo.

Neither has Germany protested against arbitration decision in the case of the claims of the Santo Domingo improvement company of New York, nor does the foreign office know anything regarding the action taken by the Spanish consul at Santo Domingo, in behalf of Germany.

BUCK FEVER SEIZED HIM. Charlotte County Man Lost His Nerve When He Saw a Herd of Deer.

Calais, Nov. 3.—A Charlotte man was the victim of a most distressing attack of buck fever, one day recently, when he was out with a party of hunters on the banks of the St. John river. He was at work in the field near the station on the Washington County railway when eight nice deer marched across the field and proceeded to feed upon windfalls in the orchard about 50 yards from where he was standing.

The man had a shot gun and a dozen cartridges loaded with buck shot, so he felt that his hunting was over for this year, so he set his gun down and selected a fine buck as his first victim. He opened fire, but the deer was still feeding unconcernedly. He fired again and the buck fell and when he fell he generally goes down on his side and rambles leisurely towards the bushes nearby, apparently not the least disturbed by the vigorous if ineffective bombardment to which he had been subjected, leaving a very much disconcerted party of hunters after them. He was believed to think that his cartridges were all blanks until he examined the treacherous buck which he was feeding with leaden pellets.

HUNTING FOR HIS BODY.

Scouring a Swamp With Dogs to Find Remains of Burns.

Athol, Mass., Nov. 3.—Capt. Harry Proctor of the state police, who has been here for the past day or two in connection with the Frank J. Burns suspected murder case, is scouring the swamp in the hope of finding the body of the missing body of Burns.

The swamp which is seven miles long and three wide, is almost impassable on account of treacherous holes and quick sands. There has been a theory that the body of Burns, who is believed to have been murdered for his samples as a jewelry salesman, was concealed in the swamp. Capt. Proctor who has used dogs with some success in previous cases secured authority from Chief Shaw to undertake the work in the swamp and if he succeeded in finding a trail will drag the bog holes with grappling hooks for the body.

The dogs advanced 20 cents per pound in two days. This is due new customs regulation which as the duty and gives the four Canadian officers a protection of 104 per cent.

THE ST. JOHN EVENING TIMES, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 3, 1905.

YOUNG CORBETT OFF TO THE PACIFIC COAST.

Sir Thomas Lipton and the America's Cup--Twin Sullivan and O'Brien--Gans and Britt--The Maritime Football Championship.

Football. The Charlottetown Patriot says-- It is intended to arrange for a Provincial team picked from the Victorias, Abegweit and St. Dunstan's who will play the winners of the Halifax League for the football championship of the Maritime Provinces.

Challenge to N. S. Runners. St. Joseph's A. A., North Sydney, have issued a challenge on behalf of their runner, J. J. McMullen, who claims the distance championship of Cape Breton, to any man in Nova Scotia to run a three mile race at their indoor sports at North Sydney on Nov. 17th, Faulkner of Halifax preferred.

It is understood that in the event of acceptance St. Joseph's will make good all expenses contracted and a suitable trophy will be given to the winner.

Yachting. Sir Thomas Lipton has about a month more in which to complete his plans and arrange for another race for the America's Cup, to be sailed next season. According to the latest reports from the other side, he is still hopeful of being able to make all arrangements, and any mail may now bring some communication from him or the Royal Ulster Yacht Club. Lipton has been considering plans drawn by Alfred Mylne, and these plans have been submitted to some of the best yachtsmen in Great Britain, and on their report will depend largely whether Sir Thomas will challenge for a race next year, or whether another season will go by before there is another international race.

Championship Pool. St. Louis, Nov. 2.--Alfred De Oro, of New York City, tonight won the title of pool champion of the world by defeating Jerome Keogh, of Buffalo, N. Y., by a score of 128 to 120, in the final game of the play-off of the three cornered tie for first place.

Corbett vs. Nelson. Everything has been arranged for the departure of Young Corbett to the Pacific Coast today. Corbett has been matched to meet "Batling" Nelson before the Hayes Valley A. C., San Francisco, next month. Negotiations have been under way for this match for some time and all the details of the combat were settled on Saturday night. Corbett will receive $250 for training expenses from the club. He will do his work just outside of San Francisco and livan accepted, and his total out of the bout was $1100, all of which went to himself. When O'Brien got his money and deducted expenses his share was not as much as Sullivan's.

Joe Nelson of Chelsea, is getting himself in shape for bouts this winter. Just now he is considering an offer to meet Tommy Mowatt at New Orleans.

The Money, by Yours, Britt. I have always contended that Gans can do weight easier South than he can here, and I am still of that belief. I will take Groney for referee or Britt can have somebody else.

Of the fight last night Gans said: "I was too weak to do myself justice. After I went to my corner in the second round I knew it. I would like to fight Britt again, but I would not go it, at 135 pounds Britt would have won had it continued."

Referring to his failure Britt said: "The decision was fair, I could not help it. Gans kept slipping to the floor without being struck. He also kept hanging on me. I tried to fight him off. I went in to win and in my opinion I would have knocked Gans out had the fight continued."

REYNARD'S CUNNING. The wolf hates the fox. According to the Iroquois Indians, this is why. One cold, wintry day a fox who was prowling about looking to see where he might steal his dinner saw a wagon coming. It was loaded with fish and was driven by some fishermen who were taking home their day's catch. "Ah, he!" said the cunning fox. "Here comes my dinner." And he fell down and pretended to be dead. The fisherman, seeing him, picked him up and threw him into the wagon among the fish. Then the fox slyly threw out some fish and when the fishermen were not looking jumped off himself and made off with the fish for his dinner. "Like the fox said, 'would you rather not have fish for dinner?' The wolf replied that on the whole he thought he would prefer fish. Then the cunning fox told him of the trick by which he had just got his own dinner and advised him to try it. "The wolf was pleased with the idea, so he ran through the woods and headed off the team which the fishermen were driving, falling down in the road before it and pretending to be dead. But the fisherman, who had by this time discovered the trick the fox had played upon them, instead of taking him into the wagon, beat him with a club so that he barely crept with his life. And on a hillside near by sat the fox, who laughed and laugh-

CANNIBAL HUNGRY.

Their Grim Dig on a Shore, Hoping for a Shipwreck. (Atlantic Monthly.)

At eleven o'clock at night while the captain and myself were engaged on deck in our usual game the second officer, Mr. McFarland, came up excitedly, and said, "Captain Mather, there are breakers ahead." The islands had been visible for a day or so, and now were not far distant on either hand. We went to the bow and looked and listened. The roar of the breakers was as audible as that of the surf on the south shore of Long Island. The night was clear and the light of the moon and the stars was brilliant. The wind had almost died away, the canvas was full spread, the sails hanging idly, occasionally flapping. We soon found that a very strong current was setting us in rapidly toward the breakers, and that the wind wholly failed to help us counter it. We at once equipped two large boats with treading sails and halysars for two tins, manned the boats with six oarsmen each, and lowered them from the davits. They instantly took hold of the ship, and the twelve oars were vigorously pulled. With the utmost exertion of the oarsmen for hours the ship only swung around, head on to the current, and the men could barely hold the ship steady. With the aid of the glass we saw thousands of natives at points on the shores, evidently waiting for our approach, and expecting disaster. They were reputed to be cannibals, and our chances were discussed with considerable interest. The captain, then in reduced flesh, assured the chief officer, unusually plump and fleshy, that he (the chief officer) would be roasted and carved first, and that he (the captain) would be kept awhile at least till they could fatten him. We generously passed down good Jamaica rum to the oarsmen and encouraged every exertion. After several hours of toil and tension a breeze--a blessed breeze, a favoring breeze--sprang up, filled our sails, and enabled us to claw off, and slowly round the southern islands of the group.

A Serenely Happy Man

is Mr. Thos. McChasman of North Poleham who was cured of muscular rheumatism by Nerviline; the most powerful rheumatic remedy in the world. "I suffered all manner of pain for years, he writes; and Nerviline was the only thing that did me any good. I had been recommended Nerviline for all forms of rheumatism it goes to the very core of the pain and brings lasting relief. Let every sufferer from lame back, aching joints and swollen limbs use Nerviline. It's sure to cure and costs but for a large bottle."

Miss Amy Darnan, of North Yarmouth, Me., a high school graduate has never missed a school day during the past five years. She gathers the apples in the orchard, cooks the family meals, milks the cow morning and night; in reality she does all the household.

Morning News in Brief.

A short time ago, the master bakers, entered into an agreement, to increase the price of bread, to the retailers by one cent a loaf, only a few of the bakers kept the agreement, but a few days ago the increase went into force generally. The price established by this agreement was seven cents wholesale, and eight cents retail. It now appears that some of the grocers, who handle bread, have put up the price another cent, even though they get it from the bakers for seven cents. The people who have been charged nine cents, are raising very strong objections. The dance given by the members of the Neptune Rowing Club last night to those who took part in the Opera, Prince Ramon was a thoroughly enjoyable affair. About 100 guests were present, and as they arrived, they were received by a committee composed of Roland Frith, Mrs. W. White, Mrs. P. E. Hemington and Mrs. E. J. Simonds. Prof. Tapley's orchestra furnished the music. A despatch to the Boston Globe of Saturday last, states that Lawrence V. McGill, one of the youngest lawyers of Rochester, (N. H.), was appointed judge of the police court, in that city on Tuesday, Oct. 25, and would be sworn in on Thursday next. The new judge was born in St. John.

WHEN YOU TAKE COLD.

Some Simple Remedies That May Save a Doctor's Bill.

The chapping weather this, and when the stormy winds do blow, women would better take a little time by applying cold cream to the lips, or else a little camphorated cream, and to the outer edge of the nostrils, if they have colds, thus saving future misery.

Since these are the days when colds appear omnipresent it behooves the business woman to look after herself, and see that the entire system is thoroughly cleansed, which not only carries off the cold, but also clears the skin, which is very apt to be impaired when a cold has lingered for some days.

Change your diet to include fresh fruit, either stewed or raw; eat fresh eggs, of which there are plenty in the market now; drink hot water before meals and an arising, and cold water between meals--as many as nine glasses a day. Steam your face at night to cleanse the pores, also inhale steam in which a teaspoonful of benzoin has been added or the same amount of chlorate of potash if the throat be sore. If a woman is boarding and has the conveniences which one in her own home might have, her chafing dish will answer every purpose. Heat the water in the water pan of the chafing dish and add the benzoin, both for the steaming process and inhalation. The resinous substance from which the benzoin comes is very healing to the throat. In cleaning the face, let the operation take about ten minutes, or until the perspiration has fully started from every pore. After this the inhalation process may be gone through. Use the vaseline the last thing, but while

The Evening Times has arranged to receive full election returns from all parts of Canada tonight, and with the aid of a stereopticon will throw them on a screen on the side of the building next to The Times' building on Canterbury street, so that the crowd on the street may see them. Diets will be interspersed, to entertain the spectators.

The first Japanese newspaper was published in 1863 and contained news translated from British newspapers. Today Japan has over 1500 papers, and several of them are published on a small scale.

RECORD CROP IN AROOSTOOK.

Gross Yield of the Potato Crop, and Yield Per Acre Largest Ever.

Presque Isle, Me., Nov. 2.—Harvest season is over. October was a bad month and September was but little better—wet, wet and cold—but Aroostook's crop is large, in spite of the disagreeable fall months. Then, perhaps, all things considered, the season was of the best, as a yielding season. Because of the enormous crop last season, a larger acreage was contemplated for last spring's planting, but last spring was cold and the spring rains continued later than usual, curtailing the number of days within which the planting could be done. As it was, however, more acres were put under cultivation than last year, and very much more phosphate was purchased during the past winter for the intended larger acreage. The consequence was that a more liberal quantity was supplied to the potato land than otherwise would have been done. In many cases the extra quantity was an afterthought, farmers deeming it better to put the phosphate intended for other acres which they were unable to plant on those already planted, before the first hoing and from doing so, the idea is prevalent that it is the better way to divide the application, putting one-half of the phosphate in the ground when planting, and applying the other half while hoing. As the hoing could be done with the plow, it becomes a simple and easy way to do so.

Then again, because of the greater yield, last season, where the Bordeaux mixture, six pounds of vitriol and 12 pounds of lime to a barrel of water, the usual formula though the quantities are varied by some, was freely used, spraying machines purchased by those who did not own them, consequently but few potatoes without being sprayed. Yet, those not sprayed grew equally as well as those that were, and no rust made its appearance, many argued that the whole cost of spraying was a sacrifice and not needed. However, as tidings of the rot from many states and counties came to hand, the conclusion was reached that the expense of spraying in the fact that none of Aroostook's crop was touched by the rot.

Some frost bitten potatoes that were in the ground at the time of the October freeze, committed the usual loss, which is very small. Spraying now has a double value until times as other conditions prove to the contrary. Large as the crop was last season (and none expected to see as large a crop) the gross yield and that per acre is larger than last year. Cony & Carter, of New York, contracted with the farmers for the crop last spring, calculating to get 20,000 barrels. They are obliged to purchase 40,000 barrels, building new store houses and hiring others so that at the present time they are shipping from 14 potato houses.

The George Robinson Co. is doing a like business. The farmers' colars are being full; many need potato houses of their own which are full; barn floors were piled full during the digging time and it is doubtful if such potatoes can all be disposed of in time to avoid losses by weather.

The cry of the shippers is for more cars. The B. & A. is nearly swamped with freight; it is simply impossible for the road to handle the business offered. The road should be doubled, and the number of freight cars trebled. There are two farmers in this town who raised 1800 barrels of potatoes and the average yield of the town is quite close to 100 barrels to the acre.

Hay and grain have yielded equally as well as potatoes. The presses are busy, the quality fine. The railroad is fairly groaning under its burden of business. Fair Aroostook has no equal in the United States.

Destitute Family Cared For at the Army Home Last Night.

The Keating family who were reported in last night's Times as being in a destitute condition are still at the Salvation Army home, Mrs. Keating has given up her rooms on Sherif street, and no effort has as yet been made to place the children in homes. The mother and two older children are in comparatively good health, but the baby is not strong. Prospects are that they will remain at the Army home for some little time, or at least until employment can be found for the mother.

Another Anniversary.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 3.—12.50 p. m.—There was little attempt to-day to celebrate, except in a perfunctory way, the tenth anniversary of the accession of Emperor Nicholas. The imperial family attended a Te Deum at the Esplanade cathedral and there were services in all of the churches. Later the troops were paraded, the theatres gave free exhibitions to the school children and there was music and other holiday displays in the parks. But, on account of the war and the anxiety regarding the situation at Port Arthur, everything was on a small scale.

IRA D. SANKEY A VISITOR IS BLIND FROM JAPAN

Talks of the War and Other Things in the Land of the Mikado.

Mr. Winslow Lawrence, of New York city, who has represented the Krupp firm of gun-makers, in the United States for several years, was in the city for a few hours yesterday on his way through to Montreal, where the Krupp firm contemplate the establishment of a Canadian agency. Mr. Lawrence has made several trips to Japan in the interests of his firm and he has a number of very interesting stories to relate of his experiences while in the land of the Mikado. He was in Japan in June, and sailed from Hongkong on one of the C. P. R. steamers for Vancouver. While in the flower kingdom he failed to see where the death struggle between Russia and Japan was creating any undue excitement throughout the Empire. In Tokio, where he spent six months, one would hardly know that anything out of the ordinary was going on. If it were not for the troops one could see on the streets, evidence of military operations would be entirely lacking. There is no noise, no confusion, and even when the result of a Japanese victory reached Tokyo, the citizens showed no enthusiasm. They regarded victory as a matter of course, and accordingly showed no surprise when it came. Mr. Lawrence says the war had not interfered with the industrial progress of Japan, the least of his factories were kept running the same as usual, and Japanese commercial travellers were sent to the commercial marts of the world with the same untiring regularity.
