Four Hundred Thousand Austrians Attack Servians; Repulsed In Two Places But Cross The River Save

SAYS THAT JAPAN MAY DECLARE WAR AGAINST GERMANY BY TODAY

Paris Paper Says Announcement is on Best Authority--Did Turkey Fall Into German Trap? -- Many Lost When Steamer Strikes Mine

Paris, Aug. 15--(3.20 a. m.)--The 'Petit Journal' the editor of which is Stephen Pichon formerly minister of foreign affairs, says that it learns on unimpeachable authority that Japan is resolved to declare war on Germany and that official action will probably be taken today, following the return of the emperor.

DID TURKEY FALL INTO TRAP?

London, Aug. 15--(The Daily Mail states that the cruisers Goeben and Breslau reported purchased from Germany by Turkey, have received Turkish names and will be placed under the command of Rear Admiral Arthur P. Limpus of the British navy, who was lent to the Turkish government in 1912. The Mail says that Turkey does not intend to employ the warships against Russia, and adds:

"There appears to be no doubt that the purchase is a direct contravention of international law, but the opinion is gaining great height in diplomatic circles, that Turkey is the victim of a German trap to embroil her with the triple entente."

STEAMER DESTROYED BY MINE

London, Aug. 15--(3.30 a. m.)--The Austrian Lloyd Steamship Company has despatched the steamer Wurmbrand to Pola to bring to Trieste the survivors of the steamer Baron Gautsch. The Baron Gautsch was destroyed by a mine off the island of Lussin and 150 passengers and crew were lost. An equal number survived and most of them are without means.

The Turks and the Cruisers.

Dragoons, 100 strong will entrain for Valcarlos.

GERMAN AND AUSTRIAN SPIES IN MONTREAL

Montreal, Aug. 15--Chief Campeau of the Montreal police force, said yesterday that everything would be done to see that natives of Germany and Austria were not molested so long as they remained quiet, but if they showed any evidence of creating trouble they would be arrested and kept in detention until the war was over or they were released by the military authorities. It is believed there are spies from the enemies' countries in this city at present.

The School Children

Montreal, Aug. 15--Patriotism is being inculcated amongst the children of this city with a zest that could come only from a great war. Union Jacks and Canadian flags are to be placed immediately at all the playgrounds around Montreal. The children have already been taught flag drill and a display is given every morning.

WAR NOTES

The general military situation in Belgium is described by the Belgians as excellent. Richard Harding Davis, in London, writes of the splendid organization of the war office and the secrecy of the movements of the army and navy.

German forces are near Trelmont and Landau, in Belgium. A company of Belgian infantry ambushed two companies of German cyclists and killed fifty. The rest fled.

The Italian government is taking action to prevent exorbitant prices for coal and other supplies for the people.

There is a protest in Winnipeg against advance in the price of oats and there is talk of asking the government to take over the food supply.

Vice-President Rider of the Canadian Consolidated Rubber Company, Ltd., says the price of manufactured rubber goods is not to go up for the present.

The expenditure on the first Canadian contingent is estimated at $22,000,000. The pay of the troops alone will mean $10,460,000 a year.

A fund of $100,000 for those dependent on the soldiers of Montreal who will leave for the front will be raised in that city.

The Belgian major in command of the forts surrounding Liege contradicts the rumors that they had surrendered. The battle is declared to be still going on.

COALED HERE. For the first time since the Royal Mail Steam Packet Line started operations between this port and the West Indies, one of their steamers was coaled at St. John this morning. It is usual to coal at Halifax, but on account of the coaling of H. M. S. Suffolk there this week, the coal supply at Halifax is reported low at the moment. The Chignecto will leave for Halifax this evening or tomorrow morning.

Allan liner Virginian is due at Quebec this afternoon.

Ontario at Toronto. Toronto, Aug. 15--The concentration camp for the Toronto contribution to the Canadian contingent for Europe will open on Monday at the Long Branch ranges. The Grenadiers and Highlanders will occupy the camp and possibly the Queen's Own Rifles. Col. J. A. Currie, M. P. of the Highlanders will be in command. There was a parade of the city regiments last night including recruits. The roll of the Queen's Own Rifles was 1200 and that of the Highlanders 802.

It is said the women of Toronto have collected $20,000 for the hospital ship. On Sunday night the Royal Canadian

This picture, taken at Camp Levis, shows a Canadian gun and its crew. The artillery is today a very efficient branch of the militia.

Servians Gallantly Fight Austrians, 400,000 Strong

London, Aug. 15--A despatch to the Reuter Telegram Company from Nish, dated August 13, and sent by way of Athens, gives the Servian official account of recent fighting on the frontier. Four hundred thousand Austrians, says the War Office, attacked the Servians last night. A fierce battle extended all along the line. Finally the Austrians were repulsed with heavy casualties, towards Tekia on the Roumanian frontier, and also repulsed from Belgrade where they had attempted to cross the Danube, but through numerical superiority the enemy succeeded in crossing the Sava.

POLES SUPPORT THE RUSSIANS

III Treatment Has Embittered Them Against Germany

SOME TYPICAL CASES

Women Turned Out of German Hospitals to Die--Worst Incidents Are Reported From Prussia--Differed in Austria

(By Harold Williams). St. Petersburg, Aug. 15--A German cruiser has fired twenty shells at the island of Gula, in the Baltic Sea, near the entrance to the Gulf of Finland.

General Sazonov, commanding in Warsaw, has issued a proclamation, thanking reservists for their readiness and orderliness in coming to the colors, and assuring the Polish people that their persons and property will be protected by the Russian troops.

The Russian Poles have definitely taken up a position entirely supporting Russia. Their bitterness against Germany has been increased by the harsh treatment which Polish workmen and tourists, including many political socialist leaders, have been subjected to in Germany since the outbreak of the war.

A. Typical Case. Mostek Resnoff, who with his wife, arrived here yesterday after a journey of twelve days from Berlin, had a typical experience. They left Berlin on the day on which Germany declared war against Russia. Within seventy-five miles of the frontier 1,000 Russians in the train by which they left were traveling were turned out of the carriages and compelled to spend eighteen hours without food in an open field, surrounded by soldiers with fixed bayonets.

Resnoff and his wife made their way without money or luggage to Denmark, Sweden. Swedes provided money and passage to the Russian frontier. Five of Resnoff's fellow passengers went mad.

Resnoff's experience, however, was comparatively easy as compared with the sufferings of others. Suffering women were turned out of German hospitals and many died. Several Russians were shot and many were beaten, some of their women having been maltreated.

It is noteworthy that in Germany there has been no personal attacks or demonstrations against German subjects. In Austria they have suffered nothing beyond inconvenience. In Russia there has been no personal attacks or demonstrations against German subjects. The stories of returned travelers awaken intense indignation here but they are not likely to lead to anything. Indeed, while German and Austrian men liable for service are being arrested and segregated, the provincial government and the mayor of St. Petersburg are talking steps to see that German and Austrian women do not suffer from want.

Autonomy for Poles. St. Petersburg--Via London--Aug. 15 (8 a. m.)--The Russian government promises Poland freedom in the matter of religion and language and autonomy if the Poles are loyal in the present struggle.

CANADIAN UNITY. The following sentences from the Federation Gleaser is quoted with evident approval by the St. John Standard, which on its own account also makes a vicious attack upon the Liberal party in Canada. The Gleaser says: "The Grit traitors are perhaps awakening to a sense of their own deplorable and degrading condition."

It is naturally asked if the course pursued by the Standard and Gleaser is approved by Hon. J. D. Hazen, Senator Thorne, Senator Daniel, J. B. M. Baxton, L. P. D. Tilley, Hon. John E. Wilton, Philip Grantham, C. B. Lochart, Geo. B. Jones, Geo. W. Fowler and other leaders of the Conservative party.

GERMANS LOST HEAVILY IN FIGHT WITH FRENCH AT DIEST ON THURSDAY

Evidence of Precipitate Flight -- The Troops of France Now Command the Valley of the Bruche -- Brother of Prince Buelow Killed

Paris, Aug. 14--(11.50 p.m.)--An official statement issued tonight says: "The German troops, who were beaten yesterday at Diest and retreated to Hasselt, lost heavily. They failed to resume the attack on the Belgian southern flank, and a German cavalry division changed. This operation was repulsed. In the evening a column of German infantry moved in the direction of Vise and Tongres, but no new engagement occurred."

"The towns near Saale Pass are now entirely occupied by French troops, which yesterday took the neighboring plateau. The French artillery attacked the German rear, and its fire greatly helped our infantry, which had a few wounded but none killed. We found heaps of abandoned equipment, showing that the flight of the Germans was precipitate."

London, Aug. 15--(3.50 a.m.)--A Reuter despatch from Paris, dated midnight, says that an official communication announces that French troops occupy Saale Pass, which commands the valley of the Bruche.

BROTHER OF PRINCE BUELOW KILLED

London, Aug. 15--(2.20 p.m.)--The 'Daily Telegraph's' Rotterdam correspondent says a Berlin newspaper has confirmed the report that Major-General Von Buelow, a brother of Prince Von Buelow, former German imperial chancellor, was killed in a battle early this week.

GRIM SCENES OF WAR IN BELGIUM

Mournful Procession of Red Cross Ambulances

GERMAN DEFEAT DESCRIBED

General Baix Tells Correspondent About it--A Fine Achievement--He is Anxious For British Troops to Come Up

(By Martin Donohue). Brussels, Aug. 15--The roads leading to Brussels on Thursday night were crowded with a mournful procession of Red Cross bringing in wounded Belgians and German soldiers. Walking by the sides of the carts and comforting the sufferers were numerous priests and monks bearing Red Cross badges. The scene was pitiful and moved all beholders to tears.

Soldiers returning to the front along the road are met by women and children who hand them bottles of wine and bread and meat and do not forget to be repaid with a kiss.

German Heavy Loss. On Thursday afternoon I went to Hesdage, a stone's throw from Tirlemont and the other villages which were the scene of fighting on Wednesday. At Hesdage I was granted an interview with General Baix, commanding the outpost division of the Belgian army which put the German cavalry to flight.

General Baix informed me that the Germans attacked with a force consisting of probably 10,000 with cavalry, field artillery and machine gun sections. The Belgians drove them off by the aid of their magnificent rifle artillery fire and repeated cavalry sorties. The Germans then disappeared, but reappeared early next morning and resumed their attack. They were again driven off, the Belgian artillery inflicting fearful loss on the German cavalry. Four squadrons, totalling probably 1,000 men being destroyed. The Germans again retreated, taking their dead with them.

Ask for British. General Baix admitted that the German work was excellent and that the enemy displayed great courage. General Baix welcomed me at the armory and asked me: "Where are the English troops? We are all waiting anxiously for them."

At Rosebeck we saw the first sign of real war-incoming carts, bearing wounded Uhlans who were lying outstretched with their tunics undon, stotically watching their captors. They were swathed in bandages and the utmost care seemed to have been taken of them, but in some cases the blood was still flowing under the grey uniforms. Belgian troops, returning from the fight, were carrying the Uhlans' helmets and leading the Uhlans' horses splendidly saddled. On the road we met troops who fought the Germans on Tuesday. They were in a state of enthusiasm and cheered the British flag to the echo, demanding to know at what time the English were coming.

All the way from Brussels to the outpost villages, the object of the attack of flying squadrons of German cavalry we found everything and everybody in perfect condition, both to resist and to reply. The story of the number of Germans killed varies a great deal, the lowest being 1,000 and the highest 4,000. At Louvain we found the king in consultation with the general staff. His Majesty was dressed in a general's field uniform and was smiling and confident.

SOMEbody STARTS ANOTHER "SCARE"

Quebec, Aug. 15--A despatch received here tonight from Maine says that Governor Hayes of that state today received the following wire from Secretary Bryan, Washington, D. C., Aug. 14, to Hon. William T. Haynes, Governor of Maine: "The British Embassy advises this department of rumors that a man named Seligman is instigating certain German subjects to join in raids through the Maine and Vermont woods upon Canada. The department would be glad if you would make inquiries as to the truth of this rumor, in order that proper steps may be taken to prevent the use of United States territory for the purposes."

WILLIAM J. BRYAN, Secretary of State. Bangor, Maine, Aug. 14--To Secretary of State Bryan's request Governor Haynes replied that he had taken no action, but promised to make inquiries.

REV. MR. MCKEIGAN WENT TO SWITZERLAND TO DISCUSS WORLD'S PEACE. In a letter received yesterday from Mrs. McKeigan, wife of Rev. J. A. McKeigan, dated London, August 2, she says that Mr. McKeigan has gone to Constantine, Switzerland, with a committee of delegates from many countries, and Mr. McKeigan was invited to go to represent Canada. In spite of the war they left London on July 31, and were probably there all last week, expecting to be back in London by August 10 or 12.

Mr. and Mrs. McKeigan have reservations to sail for home on the Allan Line steamer "Scandinavian," August 22.

CATHOLIC FEDERATION. For some time amongst members of Catholic societies in St. John and throughout the province there has been talk of the formation of a federated body, but no definite action has been taken until this week at Fredericton, when the members of the A. O. H. meeting in provincial convention decided to take the initiative in the matter. A resolution was passed approving of a scheme for federation, and a meeting will be called in the near future to which representatives of all Catholic societies will be invited for the purpose of giving further consideration to the plan, with federation as the ultimate object.

SHOOT TO KILL

Orders to London, Ont. Soldiers Because of Attempt to Burn Ordnance Corps Building

London, Ont., Aug. 15--As a result of an attempt on Thursday night to fire the store building of the Canadian Ordnance Corps in this city, Assistant Adjutant General MacDonnell has issued instructions to have all militia men guarding public works and buildings throughout the division to shoot to kill. London's waterworks system and other utilities as well as the public buildings of the city are now being carefully guarded.

TEN STEAMERS FROM NEW YORK FOR EUROPE; BRITAIN CLEARS WAY

New York, Aug. 15--Nine steamships sail from New York today for ports in England, France, Holland and Italy, carrying passengers of all classes and mails, as a result of the official notice from the British admiralty that the Atlantic ocean steamship lines are clear of German cruisers.

The Celtic sailed for Liverpool at one a.m. today, and steamers that were to follow are the Koonland, with mails for Great Britain and Central Europe; Minnetonka, for London; America, for Naples; Paris, for Marseilles; Danube, for Southampton; Saxonia, for Liverpool, and Potsdam for Rotterdam.

The French line steamship Rochambeau, which has been delayed here several days on account of the war, will sail for Havre today. She will have 200 cabin and about 1,200 third-class passengers, many of them reservists paying their own way back to France to fight for their native land.

The steamer Celtic, from Liverpool, arrived in port early today.

ANOTHER CASE OF MARK CAREY TAKEN UP

Mark Carey, who yesterday received a three months' sentence in jail at the hands of Magistrate Allingham of Fairville, was brought into the local police court this morning and a charge of selling liquor without a license in Douglas avenue on August 2 was preferred against him. "Another remedy" remarked the magistrate, glancing towards the newspaper reporters' table.

It is expected that the armors of the Canadian Ordnance Corps will be included in the Canadian overseas contingent. Whether the other members of the unit will be called upon to embark is not definitely known yet, but since the Ross rifle armors from this country will undoubtedly be required to go, the armors on the other side are said to be not familiar with the work of this rifle.

First Great Battle Can Not Long Be Deferred

London, Aug. 15--Of the movement of the armies of the Germans and the allies it is stated that it has progressed to a point where it seems apparent that the first great battle of the war can not long be deferred. A despatch from Brussels says the concentration of French troops in Belgium is complete and that all the troops that had been expected are in battle order.

WAR DECLARED

A discussion was held some time ago at 185 Union street, in which it was decided to declare war on high priced clothing. The plan of action arrived at was to give the public advice to buy in general meats, nor in vegetables. The latter are especially plentiful just now, and prices are easier.

NOT AFFECTED

Country market prices have not as yet felt the effect of the general upward trend caused by the war. Western beef is a little firmer, but there is no advance in general meats, nor in vegetables. The latter are especially plentiful just now, and prices are easier.

'RITCHE ON REMANDS'

Magistrate Ritchie, in the police court this morning made a few remarks in regard to some criticism that has been current recently on his system of remands and he said that somebody yesterday suggested that he write a book entitled, "Ritche on Remands." The magistrate said that if he should do this there would be included in its pages the names of many professional men of the city as those who have asked for remands for prisoners. "Yes, and even editors and newspaper men would have their names in it," he concluded.

THE WAR NEWS

Still another day has passed without the German armies having gained any ground in Belgium. On the contrary the British war office says they have met with reverses both in Belgium and in Alsace. They are still hammering at Liège, and endeavoring to pass beyond it on the one side toward Brussels and on the other, toward the French border.

EFFECTS OF THE WAR

While many Canadian industries will be injuriously affected by the war, others will be stimulated. Various lines of manufactured products which have been imported in large quantities from Europe must now for a time at least be manufactured in Canada and the United States.

THE CONTENTING ARMIES

A London correspondent estimates that, for the great offensive stroke against France, Germany now has in the field an aggregate strength of a million men. France and her allies are able to confront these great armies with still larger forces, if they are brought to the front in time.

THE FOOD SUPPLY

The people of the British Empire were never so much interested as they are this year in the crops of the United States. If the Atlantic sea route is kept safe for commerce, enormous quantities of food stuffs from the United States will go to the mother country and France.

LIGHT SUMMER WRAP

avoided, however, by the use of a wider fabric. In this instance cut out 1/2 inch from back edge of back of pattern and place on material with back edge on a lengthwise fold.

As the first step in the construction, sew the sleeves to front and sleeves, as notched and close the under-arm and sleeve seams. The large "O" perforations mark the center of the front. Close center-back seam (in case narrow material has been used), also back seam of cuffs. Now sew ruffs to lower edge of front and back as notched. Sew plain collar to neck and front edge, notches and center-backs even, or if desired with ripple collar, close back seam (indicated by single large "O" perforations), gather on double "O" perforations; sew to neck and front edge, notches and center-backs even. Bring single small "O" perforations to corresponding perforations in front and back. Join collar stay sections (ripple or, adjust to position underneath ripple

Nothing is more fashionable than this wrap of self-figured silk or satin. It has two piece sleeves in one with the body to form a front yoke and turn back cuffs.

Self-figured satin or silk would be admirable for this light summer wrap. In black, dark blue or any of the fashionable shades it is charming. For summer resort wear brilliant colors are preferred. To make it required 4 yards of 36-inch, 3 1/2 yards of 44-inch or 3 3/4 yards of 54-inch material. One and a quarter yards of contrasting material will be needed for the ripple collar and flare cuffs.

If narrow material is used, the pattern must be placed on an open fold; add to the center back may be separate collar and cuffs of linen.

Fill in this blank and mail it with price of pattern, 15c.

KITCHEN WRINKLES

(London TIT-Bits)

Should paraffin oil be split when filling lamps, a little salt sprinkled over it will prevent the unpleasant smell.

To remove smoke marks from tinware rub the tin with a solution of common baking soda and boiling water.

An easy way to clean glass bottles is to cut sections in small pieces, drop into the bottle, half-fill the bottle with water and shake well.

When using stale bread for puddings, always soak it in cold liquid, not hot. The former will make it light and crumbly—the latter heavy.

Starched material, even though it keeps clean longest, should be avoided during warm weather. The starch prevents a free current of air passing through.

To remove hot-water marks on polished tables and trays, make a thin paste of salad-oil and salt, leave it on the marks for an hour, then polish with a dry cloth.

When the summer plague of flies is upon the laider, directly they appear the cook should sponge the panes of glass with a very weak solution of carbolic acid and water.

A simple way of preserving eggs is to immerse them in lime-water soon after they have been laid and then to put the vessel containing the lime-water in a collar or cool outside.

Paraffin oil greatly assists in the cleaning of linen and calico garments. It should be added in the proportion of two tablespoonfuls of paraffin to ten gallons of boiling water.

When brown hats and shoes become dark looking, wash them well in warm water and soft soap, using a hard nail-brush. This will remove all the old and dirty polish. When dry and polished they should look like new.

Dents in furniture can be got rid of quite easily. Damp the dent with warm water, then make a pad of brown paper; damp that, thoroughly lay it on the dent, and hold over all a hot iron. The warmth makes the wood swell up and fill the dent. In some woods the process is slow, but it is sure.

The colors of a blouse may be "set" by soaking it in a quart of water in which a teaspoonful of alum is dissolved before rinsing it. Colors can be revived by rinsing in a quart of water containing a teaspoonful of vinegar. It is very important to dry colored blouses or dresses in the shade.

To prevent a bruise from becoming discolored, apply to it a cloth which has been wrung out of water as hot as can be borne comfortably, and change it as it becomes cold. Suggesting hot water cannot be procured, the next best thing is to moisten some dry starch with cold water and to cover the bruised part with it.

To improve the flavor of currants and sultanas which are to be used for cakes, place them in a bowl, pour boiling water over them, and leave to soak all night. The fruit swells to twice its former size, but should be drained from the water and dried in the oven before being added to the other ingredients.

After using a bowl of starch do not throw away what remains of the mixture. Place it on one side, and when the starch has settled, pour off the clear water. Place the basin in an oven for

The M. R. A. Sewing Machine

The Best Value Ever Offered in Canada at $28.50

You would not intentionally pay from $15 to $25 more for an article if you knew you could get as good value without this extra cost.

This is just what will happen if you purchase a Sewing Machine before investigating the merits of the M. R. A. We guarantee this machine for ten years against breakage of any part through faulty construction, and we may say in this connection that, although we have sold hundreds of these machines, we have yet to receive a complaint from any user.

The M. R. A. Sewing Machine is sold at $28.50, and is the greatest value ever offered in Canada at this low figure. It comprises the finest cabinet work in quartered oak, and has five drawers and drop head.

The latest improvements are used in this machine, such as the automatic head lift, ball-bearing stand, a belt that is always adjusted, double lift presser foot, positive stitch gauge, capped needle bar and presser bar, and many others. Come and compare the M. R. A. Sewing Machines at $28.50 with other makes at from $15.00 to $20.00 higher in price. We carry all parts for the M. R. A. Machine, also needles for all makes at 15c. a dozen, assorted.

NEXT WEEK'S PLANS FOR "REVUE" AT OPERA HOUSE

Mack's Musical Revue will be at the Opera House for Monday and Tuesday only of the coming week, playing out of town for the remainder of the week. The management has prepared a special programme for Monday and Tuesday and by request of many patrons who were unable to see the splendid features of the company's opening week here, several of the novelties of that programme will be repeated, including "Days of Boys and Girls," the big electrical and scenic novelty; "I wish I was back home again," "The Angels," sung by Elgie Wallace, assisted by the vested choir; "Wishes of the Day," the big Tango number and other good features. The usual two hour continuous performance will be given twice daily on Monday and LOCAL WAR NOTES Two further subscriptions toward the fund for the hospital ship were received by Mrs. Simon Jones, the treasurer, yesterday. One was a small amount, twenty-five cents, sent in from Westfield. The other amount totalled the sum of $50, and came from Rexton (N. B.), where it had been collected by Miss Burns and Miss Jardine, of that place.

This brings the amount collected under the auspices of the St. John ladies up to $128.73. Additional plans for the service of women during the coming war are being considered by the ladies in charge of the various organizations. At an informal meeting of several of the organization head who were in consultation with Lady Tilley last evening it was decided to summon together and call into existence the Soldiers' Wives League and the Red Cross Society, two organizations which did very valuable work during the South African war and notices have been issued to this effect. The former organization is called together on Monday evening and the latter Tuesday afternoon. Both are to meet with Lady Tilley at the Prince William Apartments.

Offer of Service. Major Roland Blair Cochrane, a veteran of the Egyptian campaigns and the South African war, who has recently become a resident in the city, yesterday tendered his services to the authorities at Ottawa.

Frederation Volunteers. The names of H. M. Blair and A. B. Kitcher, who volunteered for active service, are among those of the five men struck off the strength of 71st regiment's overseas contingent.

Skin Without Wrinkles Now Easy to Have There's no excuse for any woman having wrinkles now. It has been found that the wrinkles on the face and neck are caused by the action of the sun's rays, which are absorbed by the skin, and cause the skin to become dry and cracked, and the wrinkles to form. It is truly a blessing to have a skin that is so smooth and clear. The proportions are the same as those of the skin, and it is equally effective in removing the wrinkles and the skin, as well as in keeping the skin soft and supple.

ONTARIO WOMAN'S FORTUNE

Freud From That Weak, Languid, Always Tired Feeling, by Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound.

Thessalon, Ont.—"I cannot speak too highly of your medicine. When my appetite is poor and I have that weak, languid, always tired feeling, I get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it builds me up, gives me strength, and restores me to perfect health again. It is truly a blessing to women, and I cannot speak highly enough of it. I take pleasure in recommending it to others."—Mrs. ANNIE CAMERON, Thessalon, Ont.

Women who are suffering from those distressing ills peculiar to their sex should not lose sight of these facts or doubt the ability of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to restore their health.

There are probably hundreds of thousands, perhaps millions of women in the United States who have been benefited by this famous old remedy, which was produced from roots and herbs over 50 years ago by a woman to relieve woman's suffering. If you are sick and need such a medicine, why don't you try it? If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

The Great Future of Canada Only About Eight Per Cent of Farm Lands Under Cultivation---The Question of Market

(London Standard.) The vast unutilized areas of land in Canada and the practically unlimited markets in countries which cannot produce enough food for their own people are two facts which guarantee the future greatness of the dominion. Every year the United Kingdom imports wheat, flour, maize, barley, and oats to the value of something like 278,000,000, and so Canada has become the granary of the empire.

ada, which is essentially an agricultural country, bordering the republic for some 4,000 miles. When it is remembered that among the principal articles of food which the United States is already importing are beef, cattle, and wheat, the advantage possessed by Canada is even more apparent. It is in this advantage which has led many thousands of shrewd United States farmers in the last few years to sell their holdings in the United States and migrate to Canada, where farm lands are not held at prohibitive prices, and where the fertility of the soil has not been exhausted by improper methods of agriculture.

BABY HAD DYSENTERY

Had Two Doctors, But No Result WAS CURED BY THE USE OF DR. FOWLER'S EXTRACT OF WILD STRAWBERRY

Mrs. Martin Farrar, Dogherly Corner, N.B., writes: "I can very strongly recommend Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry for Dysentery and Summer Complaints. My little girl, at the age of two years, had the dysentery very bad. We had two doctors, but with no result. My mother brought me a bottle of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, and when half the bottle was used the little girl was running around playing with her dolls with great delight and joy to the family, for we did not think she would ever get better."

A MESSAGE TO THIN, WEAK, SCRAWNY FOLKS

Thin, nervous, undeveloped men and women everywhere are heard to say, "I can't understand why I do not get fat. I eat plenty of good, nourishing food." The reason is just this. You cannot get fat, no matter how much you eat, unless your digestive organs assimilate the fat-making elements of your food instead of passing them out through the body as waste.

FIRST FICTION KNOWN

(London Tit-Bits) Are you aware that the "Tale of Two Brothers," written 3200 years ago by the Theban scribe Ebanas, librettist of the palace to King Merenptah, the supposed Pharaoh of the Exodus, is the oldest work of fiction extant? The tale was written apparently for the entertainment of the crown prince, who subsequently reigned as Seti II. His name appears in two places on the manuscript--probably the only surviving autograph signatures of an Egyptian king.

LA MARQUISE DE FONTENOY The Hope Family --- Son of Noted Banker Comes of Age

(Copyright, 1914, by the Brentwood Company) Lord Francis Hope, only brother and heir of the childless Duke of Newcastle, is so well known in the United States, largely in connection with his marriage to an American music hall artist, May Yoke, and also as the former owner of the celebrated Hope diamond, now in the possession of Mrs. Edward J. McLean of Washington, that it may be just as well to explain that he is only very remotely related to Lord Charles Hope who is now on his way across the Atlantic, on board the Franconia.

A tall, good-looking young fellow Lord Charles is the only brother and third heir of Lord Lintithgow, the two lives between him and the marquis being the latter's twin two-year-old boys. The entailed estates of the marquis extend over 50,000 acres. The great Scotch house of Hope is of French origin, and was founded in France by John de Hope, who went from France in 1337 to Edinburgh in the train of Madeline de Valois, Queen of James V. His son, Edward de Hope, was one of the prominent citizens of Edinburgh during the reign of Mary Queen of Scots, and a commissioner for the metropolis to parliament in 1580. His son in turn, was Thomas, Lord Advocate of Scotland, and was appointed by Charles I. to be his commissioner to the general assembly in 1648, a position never accepted before or since by a commissioner. It is from him that Sir Alexander Hope, of Craighill, County Fifeshire, fifth baronet of his line and the Marquis of Lintithgow are descended.

of the suite of the Royal Duke of York, who was one of the few to escape, and whose rescue was little short of miraculous. The duke, who succeeded to the throne three years afterwards as King James II, was at the time Lord High Admiral of Great Britain. The only two other occasions since then of the shipwreck of any member of the English royal family, were, most recently that of the liner Delhi, on the coast of Morocco, a little more than three years ago. Among the passengers were King George's eldest sister, the Princess Royal, her two daughters, and the Duke of Fife. They were rescued from the waves with the utmost difficulty, the princess losing all her jewelry, while the duke some weeks later succumbed to the exposure and exhaustion which he had suffered in the shipwreck. This wreck was attended by a considerable loss of life.

there were high festivities to celebrate the event. On the Sunday following, the entire party went in a body to church to attend divine service, and to hear a sermon especially appropriate to the occasion. Their feelings can better be imagined than described when a malarious Presbyterian minister commenced his discourse with the words, "My brethren, the world is full of blasted hopes."

Hope, the ancestral home of the Marquis of Lintithgow, and where Lord Charles Hope was born, has a window for every day in the year. It stands on a magnificent terrace, overlooking the estuary of the Forth, and is full of magnificent masterpieces of Venetian, Italian, and French art.

The family motto of the Hopes is "At spes non fracta" (But hope is not broken), which has been irreverently translated by a friend of Lord Charles as "So Hope is not cracked."

The Earl of Harrowby, who has just been celebrating at Sandon Hall, his country seat in Staffordshire, the attainment of the majority by his only son, Lord Sandon, is one of the principal partners of the great London banking firm of Coutts & Co., where King George and every one of his predecessors on the throne, since Queen Anne, have kept their banking accounts, and is also president of the National Institute of Bankers. Lady Harrowby is a sister of the late Lord Lintithgow, the peeress of W. H. Smith who had the English railroad monopoly of the sale of books and papers, besides being the head of one of the greatest publishing houses in the United Kingdom, dying as First Lord of the Treasury, and as first leader of the House of Commons.

Lord and Lady Harrowby maintain a good old-fashioned state both in town and in the country. The liveries of the men-servants are of white cloth, with red waistcoats and red breeches, also powdered hair; and it is a rule of the house that the liveries should be changed four times a day, the most elaborate being for the evening, no matter whether the family are alone, or entertaining guests. The motto of the Lords of Harrowby is peculiar. It is "Serrata Rides cinera" (Faith kept with his ashes). It seems that the first Lord Harrowby was the son of Sir Dudley Ryder, chief justice of the realm. A patent raising Sir Dudley to the peerage was signed on the very day that he died, and therefore it remained unexecuted. It was not until twenty years later that his eldest son was created Lord Harrowby, the peerage being considered by the grantee as the fulfillment of the promise made by the crown to his father. That day he adopted the motto "Faith kept with his ashes, the ashes being those of his parent."

SAFETY FIRST

Goodrich freedom from blowouts, rim-cuts and breaking above the bead, means safety built in--in addition to the anti-skid safety of the famous Goodrich Safety Tread. The long mileage, the wonderful wear resistance is the result of the Goodrich unit-molding process--which molds the tire into an inseparable unit under tremendous pressure and steam vulcanization--at a single operation. The perfectly balanced construction means uniform wear throughout--no part can give way prematurely. Ask any motorist why there are 70% more Goodrich users so far this year than for the same period last year. And ask why 60% of the tremendous Goodrich output is Safety Tread. He'll tell you "Safety First"--long mileage and lowest mileage cost. This is Goodrich year!

The Wicked Hadn't Come.

The Countess of Cardigan, whose book of recollections caused such a stir a year or two ago, is said to be thinking of writing another volume.

Lady Cardigan is very well known as a teller of good stories. One of them relates to an incident that happened a good many years ago when she was staying with Lord and Lady Wilton, at Melton Nowbury. That Lord Wilton, for various reasons had gained the title among his tenants of "The Wicked Earl"—in fact, few of the country people ever called him anything else.

One Sunday Lady Cardigan and Lady Wilton went to church, unaccompanied by His Lordship, who usually was a very regular attendant. Lady Cardigan saw the verges look at them curiously as they entered the church, and he evidently noticed that Lord Wilton was not with them, but she was scarcely prepared for what followed.

It was the custom in the church to begin the service only after Lord Wilton and his party had arrived, but a new clergyman who was conducting the service that day was not aware of this, and he duly commenced:

"When the wicked man—"
"He's not come yet!" the verges promptly interrupted in an agitated whisper.—Pearson's Weekly.

PROTECTING OUR FEATHERED FRIENDS
Increase of Destruction by Insects Due to Decrease of Insectivorous Birds in Canada

(Conservation)

In any discussion of the protection of bird life in Canada, considerable opposition has always been manifested by the agricultural interests. It is claimed that birds are responsible for great damage to maturing fruits, berries, tomatoes, etc., and, earlier in the season to the seed planted in the ground. This is true to a certain extent. But, as is the study of any subject, there are two sides to the bird protection question. The damage to the fruit is visible to the eye of the owner, and he consequently wastes wrath.

The other side of the subject is one with which the agriculturist is less familiar. Could the birds place their daily food before those hostile to them, it would readily be seen to what extent they serve the interests of those who are dependent upon the products of the soil.

An analysis of the contents of the stomachs of thousands of birds has shown that 90 per cent of the food consisted of insects and 10 per cent of vegetable matter. Upwards of 6,000 insects have been found in the stomach of one bird. It has been estimated that the destruction by insects in Canada amounts to approximately fifty million dollars annually. Last year the tent caterpillar was very prevalent; this year the army worm has made its appearance and is causing great loss to the farmers in certain sections. It is known that, with the decrease in the number of birds which annually reach Canada in the spring, there has been a constant increase in the destruction by insects. It has been also stated that, if all birds were destroyed, seven years would see the end of vegetation in Canada. This has been the reason for an active campaign for the protection of birds. The United States Congress has passed an act for the protection of migratory birds, and interested parties are bringing the matter before the attention of the Canadian government.

Apart altogether from the practical view of bird life, there is the sentimental side. What would Canada be like without our feathered friends? If we could no longer look forward to the arrival of the first spring robin, or of the wren of the wild canary, something would be missing from our lives which we could not replace.

This is a subject which should engage the attention of school boards and teachers. The pupils should be taught to protect our feathered friends and their nests. The Boy Scout movement has taken up the protection of bird life and in their hands good work is being done.

GERMANY'S NAVAL BASE AT KIAU-CHAU, CHINA

Tsingtau, the Kaiser's Chinese outpost, is of almost as much importance to Germany as Hong-Kong is to England. It is a coaling station, naval base and point of support for the growing commercial and political interests of the Germans in the far east.

It is the seaport of the German territory of Kiau-Chau, lying on the Chinese coast in the province of Shantung, midway between the English colony of Hong Kong on the south and the Russian holdings on the north.

Not only does the possession of Tsingtau give refuge and a supply point to German war vessels in eastern waters, but it also means important commercial advantages. The Shantung peninsula is rich in coal, iron, tin, petroleum and other mineral products. It has an excellent harbor and river and canal communication to the interior and offers the best outlet for railroads running from the interior to the coast.

Germany obtained this important strategic point by force. For years she had wanted a coaling station and commercial port on the China coast to rival the English Hong Kong. In November, 1897, the murder of two German missionaries by Chinese bandits offered the pretext. Immediately three German warships were dispatched to Tsingtau and 600 marines were landed. The Chinese yielded, and negotiations were opened, which ended in March 1898, with a 99-year lease given by China whereby 200 square miles, lying on both sides of the bay, came under German control.

Later, by a secret agreement, China granted to Germany commercial and industrial concessions and monopolies for the whole peninsula. This opened up valuable mineral and industrial resources to German enterprise, which has fully seized its advantage. The harbor has to tap the coal fields and fortifications constructed. In the city of Tsingtau fine streets have been constructed, electric lighting, telephone systems and water supply installed, commodious houses and hotels and workshops erected. The port has been equipped to serve as a permanent naval station.

The administration is in the hands of a naval officer with the title of governor. In times of peace the city, which is walled, like many Chinese communities, has been garrisoned by about 8,000 men.

In the 200 square miles which make up the German territory of Kiau-Chau there are 60,000 people. It is surrounded by a neutral zone of 2,600 square miles, which has 1,200,000 population.

DON'T GROW BALD

It's Quite Needless — Nourish the Hair Roots—Remove Dandruff—Use Parisian Sage—

If your hair is getting thin, losing color, or has that matted, lifeless and scraggy appearance, the reason is evident—dandruff and failure to keep the hair roots properly nourished.

Parisian Sage applied frequently for a week and then occasionally is all that is needed. It removes dandruff with one application; almost immediately stops falling hair and itching heads; cleanses and makes dull, stringy hair soft, abundant and radiant with life. Equally good for men, women or children—everyone needs it.

This refreshing hair tonic can be had at any drug or toilet counter in 60 cent bottles only. Always sold with agreement to refund the money if you are not satisfied.

Dr. McLaughlin's Electric Belt

has made thousands of homes happy. It is as good for women as for men. Man and wife can use the same Belt. The regulator makes it strong or mild to suit the wearer. It is the only Electric Belt in the world that can be regulated while on the body. You feel the power, but it does not burn and blister, as do the old style bare metal electrode belts. If you are weak or in pain it will cure you. Will you try it?

Dear Sir—Excuse me for not writing to you before, as I have been away from home. Your Belt has done me more good than all the drugs I have taken. I would not have lived much longer if I had not got it when I did. I just received it in the nick of time. It did me good from the start to the present and has, I believe, cured me of my ailments. It was a God-send to me.

MISS BRANDT GOES TO CALGARY

Mr. Meharry Coming Back For Next Stock Season

THEATRE AND THE WAR

Plans of Many American Managers Upset and Players Stranded—Virginia Hamed Abroad—Edmund Breece to Star in Today

Her friends here will be interested to know that Frances Brandt, last season's leading woman, will head a stock company in Calgary, Alta., this season.

The war may influence to a certain extent the stock season at the local Opera House. It will not cancel the forthcoming productions, but there is a possibility of the opening dates being deferred for a fortnight or more because of the general interest aroused.

No announcement has yet been made as to who will comprise the company this season, but it is definitely settled that last year's popular leading man, Sam Meharry, will be back again, and very likely "Billy" Hodge, another prime favorite.

Manager J. F. O'Connell, of the Academy of Music, Halifax, will resume the stock policy at his house on Sept. 27. Sidney Toer and Morgan will again head the company. This will be the third season of stock at the Academy of Music.

The war in Europe is not only upsetting the producing plans of many American managers but has stranded many of the professional players in foreign ports through inability to obtain immediate transportation to the States and subsequent failure to procure gold to insure prompt movement in any quarter.

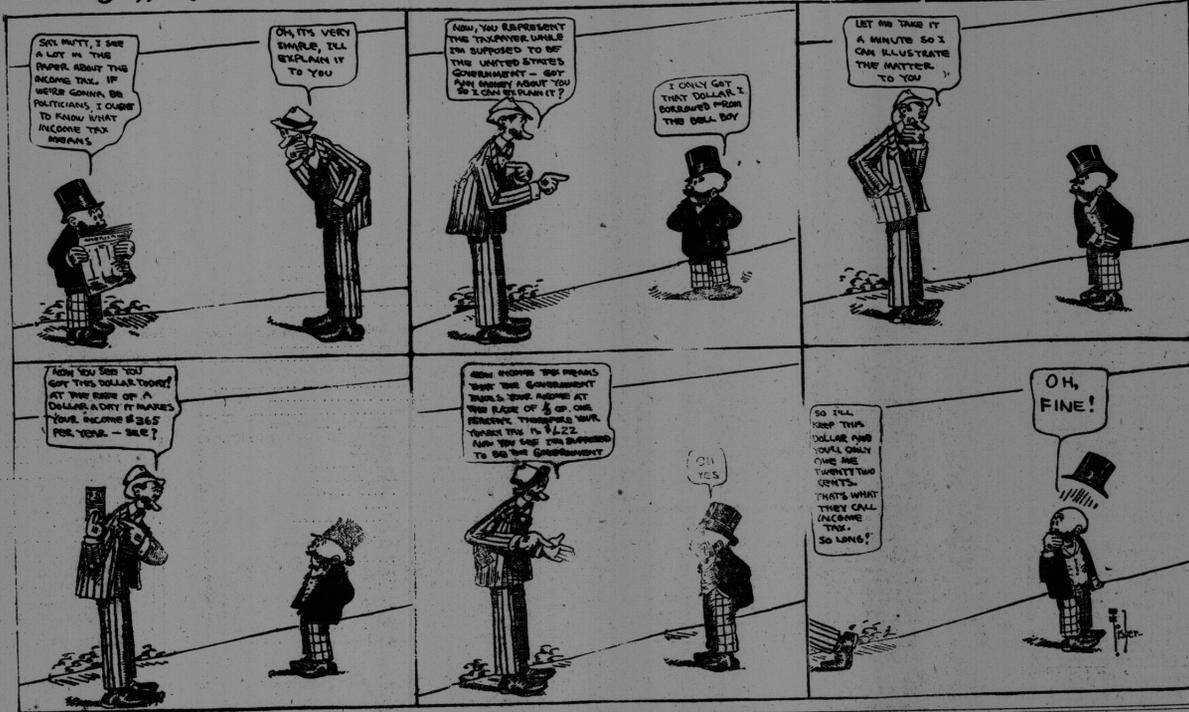

Already the managers have full productions with people either American or otherwise, now on the other side of the Atlantic, have postponed the opening dates of new productions or old pieces until they have received final assurance when their players will reach New York.

Vaudeville acts booked by American agents for European engagements that expected to sail this month and next are practically stalled with many cancelling reservations. While several plan to sail anyway, in face of the war activities in England, Russia, France, Belgium, Austria, Serbia and possibly Italy and Japan before the trouble grows many days older, the New York booking agents have no assurance they will be able to fulfill their foreign contracts, even though they reach the other side.

Seven years ago Edmund Breece, well known in St. John, was scoring a signal personal success as John Burkett Ryder in the Eastern Company of "The Lion and the Mouse."

Now Jeff Knows All About the Income Tax

By "Bud" Fisher

Jeff: "SEN. HUNT, I SEE A LOT IN THE PAPER ABOUT THE INCOME TAX. IF WE'RE GOING TO BE POLITICAL, I OUGHT TO KNOW WHAT INCOME TAX MEANS."

Man in top hat: "OH, IT'S VERY SIMPLE, I'LL EXPLAIN IT TO YOU."

Jeff: "NOW, YOU REPRESENT THE TAXPAYERS. I'M SUPPOSED TO BE THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT. CAN YOU EXPLAIN TO ME HOW YOU CAN EXPLAIN IT?"

Man in top hat: "I ONLY GOT THAT DOLLAR I BORROWED FROM THE GOV. BOY."

Jeff: "LET ME TAKE IT A MINUTE SO I CAN ILLUSTRATE THE MATTER TO YOU."

Man in top hat: "OH, FINE!"

War Situation As Disclosed By The Cables Last Night

Check of Germans by Belgians and French Gives Russians Chance to Close in--Position of Japan, Italy and Greece

London, Aug. 14, 11 p. m.—Pushing forward by weight of numbers, the German advance across Belgium is slowly, but steadily, proceeding and soon must come in contact with the allied armies which, according to an official communication from Brussels tonight, are in battle order at some point unnamed.

The Belgians in the outpost skirmishing are said to have inflicted severe checks on the German forces; but on the whole the German wing has kept on its way and has reached a line from north of Namur to Heslaign, which suggests that the first big battle will be fought somewhere between Louvain and Diest, where the allies probably will try to block the roads to Brussels and Antwerp and prevent the German attempt to render northern Belgium untenable.

Further south French troops have entered Belgium, through Charleroi, going to the relief of their neighbors and to aid in any attack directed toward Namur, while in the east the French are reported to have secured possession of ridges in the Vosges Mountains and to hold the passes of Le Bonhomme and Saint Marie Au Mines, through which important pass and which it is declared gives them great strategic advantage.

The Germans again are hammering away at the Liege forts and, according to their accounts, one of the forts, Pontisse, has fallen. This, however, is denied by the Belgians, who tell of another slaughter of the invaders who, they say, attempted to rush the fortress.

Military strategists are of the opinion that the Germans are meeting with delay which they did not count upon and that, every day the Belgians keep their fighting means an increase of Russian forces on their eastern frontier.

They express the belief that unless Germany soon disposes of Belgium and France she will have to choose between withdrawing a great part of her army from the west or leaving the road to Berlin open to the forces of the Emperor of Russia.

Already hordes of Russians are reported to be marching toward Prussia on the one side and to Austrian Galicia on the other. In the latter country they are said to be in the vicinity of the Sty river, which is on the route to Lemberg.

The official news bureau of the army and admiralty has issued a warning to the public against placing the slightest reliance in the many rumors current daily regarding alleged victories or defeats, or concerning the arrival of wounded or disabled ships of Great Britain.

"These are, without exception, baseless," the warning says. "The probable attitude of Japan and Italy is still the subject of much speculation. Conversations are going on continually between Japan and Great Britain concerning Japan's duty under her alliance with Great Britain and the part she will be permitted to take in the peace conference following the war."

There are persistent rumors that Italy will join the Triple Entente. The Italian ambassador is a frequent caller at the foreign office.

London, Aug. 15, 11.5 a. m.—The Daily Telegraph learns from a diplomatic correspondent that the Japanese government intends to carry out to the full its obligations under the Anglo-Japanese treaty.

The correspondent says that the Japanese navy has put to sea and will co-operate with the British fleet in taking effective action against the enemy's ships in the Pacific.

If it should prove correct that Turkey has purchased the German cruises Goeben and Breslau, war between Greece and Turkey is said to be likely for Greece sees in the move an attempt on the part of Turkey to recover some of her islands taken in the last war. Russia to meet such a contingency, would send troops to the Rumanian frontier.

The British government has called for bids for an issue of $75,000,000 treasury bills. With the arrival in English ports of many ships there has been a sharp decline in the prices of provisions.

London, Aug. 14, 4 p. m.—The official press bureau of the British war office and admiralty today issued news of a French success in the Vosges Mountains, Alsace, in the following words: "After a successful resistance lasting five days at the passes of Ste. Marie-Au-Mines and Le Bonhomme, the French troops have occupied the region of the Saale Pass which commands the valley of the Ruche, an affluent of the Rhine."

"At Saale numerous desertions of German troops are noticed. The French have taken many prisoners and captured some machine guns."

CONFIRM NEWS OF BELGIAN SUCCESS.

"It is now confirmed that the Belgian troops were successful in their engagement on August 12 with six regiments of German cavalry supported by 2,600 infantry with machine guns and artillery."

"The Germans were completely disorganized. The six cavalry regiments suffered great loss and the Belgian troops pursued the infantry which gave way."

"This (Friday) morning towards Eghezee, ten miles north of Namur, a mixed detachment from the garrison surprised some cavalry regiments encamped, threw them into confusion and fought them towards the east after taking numerous prisoners and capturing cannon and machine guns."

"To the southward of the Meuse the German cavalry avoids contact with the French."

"News of the fight in the vicinity of Haelen yesterday confirms that the Germans were driven to the eastward and that there is now no German cavalry between Hasselt and Ramilles in the province of Brabant."

"The Liege forts still hold out and have plenty of supplies. German cavalry patrols are now reported to be north of Montmedy, which lies on the Franco-Belgian border, in the department of the Meuse."

THE FRENCH PAPERS ON THE WAR

The Entente Cordiale. (From L'Action Sociale.) All cause of division disappears today in the face of the common enemy, for the good of the country, for the love also of those who today offer their blood, the one for the other, without distinction of race or language, on the field of battle.

Germany's Peril. (From La Presse.) Germany does not produce enough food stuffs to feed herself. If the overseas traffic is completely interdicted, it will be necessary for her to use for peace soon in order to avoid starvation, or to risk her all on a naval battle with England.

Precious Help. (From La Patrie.) The aid of the colonies is indispensable at the present hour. And it is necessary that Canada, the most important colony of the empire, should be the first to direct food supplies to the mother country. Thus in addition to offer a million sacks of flour to the imperial government the Canadian government has adopted the most efficacious way of contributing to the defence of the empire. It is necessary that the Province of Quebec should imitate the example of the federal authorities and of the Province of Alberta which has given half a million bushels of wheat. We have no wheat to offer, but we have willing arms, and we hope the government of Quebec will soon take prompt action officially.

Willenstad, Curacao, Aug. 12.—(Delayed in transmission)—The German cruiser Karlsruhe entered port here today, and later was followed by a German merchantman which had lain at anchor outside, and at first was believed to be a transport. The German warship Jacob von Pommern and Kortenaar are in the harbor.

TORONTO'S CITY AND SUBURBAN PLANNING. Width of Streets and Depth of Lots Decide Height of Buildings. One of the most important powers a city can have, if it is to prevent the development of slum areas in the future, is the power to control the laying out of streets beyond its borders. The size of blocks and the width and arrangement of their boundary streets often exercise a determining influence on the character of the housing. If the block is too wide the lots will be too deep, and the coming of rear dwellings can safely be prophesied unless the city has reserved a right of way for a new street through the middle of the block, which may be opened when the district loses its suburban character. If the street is too wide and expensive, land overcrowding and the erection of tall dwellings to carry the burden are almost inevitable. On the other hand, if the streets are too narrow, or if no main arteries are provided, or if the lots are too small, the speculators may make quick sales to small buyers, but the city will have a long future full of trouble when it also absorbs the new misfit development.

Toronto has provided against all these difficulties by securing a city and suburban planning act which gives it the power to control all subdivisions within five miles of the city limits, with respect to the width and number of streets and the direction in which they run, and the width and depth of lots. Pennsylvania has a similar law for cities of the third class, giving them jurisdiction for three miles beyond their borders.

Vitagraph Boy Makes Hit in South Africa

MOVIES IN THE DESERT

Another Harold McGrath Novel For Picture Screen—What Has M. B. Leavitt in Mind in Nova Scotia?

Kenneth Casey, the Vitagraph Boy, a favorite locally in the "movies" is being featured at the head of a vaudeville bill touring the British possessions and now in South Africa. The young star continues to score the same success and is deemed by a writer in the Cape Times "the peer of any child artist that has to the present appeared in South African vaudeville."

Here's the latest from the Vitagraph Western studio at Santa Monica, Cal.: "Mr. Sturgeon's troupe just returned from the Desert and all say that it was a most exciting trip. They got lost on the desert going up. The water ran out and one machine had to forge ahead for more. The sun was so hot that the water boiled dry every half hour in the radiators of the machines. Just as they left Mojave on the news came of a big strike. One man had a sackful of nuggets he had gathered in a few weeks, $450 worth. He was working with a steam shovel. As soon as the news reached Mojave, which is on the edge of the desert, about one-half the mile population made a rush to the location of the new find, and by now there may be a new town started. Out here they go prospecting in autos and with all the latest modern appliances, instead of the burro as in the old days. The people of Randburg, where the company established itself, were very enthusiastic in their reception of the 'movies,' as they termed the players and workers. The Randburg Miner, a two-page local newspaper, teamed with Social Events in honor of the Vitagraphers, and the showing of an old Western Vitagraph film at the town Picture Palace raised the excitement to a high pitch as the inhabitants recognized their new-found friends. When the troupe left they were assured that on their next trip they would get regular 'long-lost-brother' welcomes."

Another Harold McGrath novel has found its way to the picture screen. All the resources of the Selig Los Angeles studio are now turned to the production of "The Carpet of Bagdad," one of the most popular of the romancer's works. The production entails considerable difficulty, since a reproduction must be given on the desert, and a spectacular here seen is also contained in the novel.

The following taken from a New York theatrical paper should be of interest. It possibly refers to territory about Halifax: "M. B. Leavitt has turned up in the wilds of Nova Scotia in the interests of a movie scheme that has been fostering for some time. Miriam Nesbit, of the Edison Company has done her share to uphold the

POLLY OF THE CIRCUS CAUGHT HALIFAX

Elsie St. Leon as Polly in "Polly of the Circus," at the Opera House Four Nights Commencing Wednesday, Aug. 19th, Matinee Thursday and Saturday.

The Acadia Recorder, Halifax, on Wednesday said "A Delighted audience at the Academy of Music last night."

"Polly of the Circus," with Elsie St. Leon as the star character, is a delightful production, full of humor and exciting interest, especially in the last act, introducing a scene in the circus realistically presented on the stage, with all the paraphernalia incidental to the show the climax being reached in the magnificent exhibition of bare back riding by Miss Elsie St. Leon.

"The plot of the play is a charming one, unfolding the love of two young people, whose lives, looked at from the narrow standpoint of a small gossiping village seem as far apart as the poles. It is the love of the young minister, Rev. John Douglas for "Polly" the little circus rider. As Margaret Mayo clearly portrays in her delineation of the star character "Polly" is of unimpeachable reputation, with a nature absolutely pure and without guile. In her conception of the role, Miss St. Leon left nothing to be desired, and was charming in every phase of her acting. She possesses a very clear and sweet voice, a most attractive stage presence, while her bare back riding was of the finest.

"Polly of the Circus" will be at the Opera House for four nights and two matinees starting Wednesday next. Seats on sale Monday morning.

TOO FAT FOR HIS WORK; PENSION IS REFUSED. London, Aug. 15.—A committee of five lords has just decided adversely to the application for a pension for obesity made under the workmen's compensation act.

The case was that of a Scotch coal miner, who had to lay off from his work for some months because of an accident. When cured, he had grown so fat that he could not work effectively and had to give up his job. He therefore appealed to the House of Lords for a pension.

GOLF. U. S. Open Championship. New York Aug. 15.—Next week professional and amateur golfers will have an interesting competition on the links of the Middlebury Country Club, Blue Island, Ill., in the four days' open championship tournament of the United States Golf Association.

London, Aug. 15.—Boxing throughout Europe is at a standstill owing to the war and the knights of the glove have exchanged their padded weapons for those of a far more dangerous character. In France alone several scores of the pro-trip to Europe, Oulmet brought the French amateur honor home with him and since his return he has been taking excellent care of himself. He did not enter the Metropolitan open tournament as he was anxious to reserve all his playing energy to make a supreme effort in the coming tourney to successfully defend his well won national laurels.

With the open contest decided, the amateur championship, American golfing blue ribbon will attract the attention of every player of note in the country. This year the United States Golf Association has selected the links of the Eganok County Club, Manchester, Vt., for the twentieth annual competition for the amateur honor, which Jerome D. Travis, of the Upper Montclair, N. J., the present holder, has won three times.

Although the champion has not taken part in any public match or tournament since his return from Britain, he has been keeping in close touch with the games. The entries for the event will not close until a week from next Monday. Last year two foreign entrants were among those entered for the national contest at Garden City, but this year for obvious reasons the field will be entirely American in its make up.

TENNIS. The Davis Cup. New York, Aug. 15.—The Davis cup, emblematic of the world's team tennis championship, the final matches for which are being played at Forest Hills, Long Island, today, was placed in competition fifteen years ago, the donor being Dwight F. Davis, of St. Louis, Mo. This was in 1900, but the idea of originating an international competition in this sport was conceived three years previously, by Dr. James Dwight, then president of the United States Lawn Tennis Association, and among the chief exponents of tennis in the early days of the game in this country.

In 1907 Doctor Dwight in a letter to a friend, Herbert Chipp in England, suggested a match between American and English players, and this proved to be the basis of a correspondence followed by negotiations between British and American lawn tennis associations which, although disrupted for a long time owing to the outbreak of the Spanish-American war, culminated in a match between the British Isles and American teams at the Longwood Cricket Club's grounds, Boston, in 1909, which was won by the Americans, M. D. Whitman, Dwight F. Davis, and Holcombe Ward. The British team was unable to send a team here the following year, but they did so in 1912 and again in 1913. In 1908, however, the Doherty brothers and Harold S. Mahony, Australian team who took it to England with them and it remained there until 1907, when it was won by the Australian team who retained it until 1912 when the British won it again only to relinquish the bowl to the custody of the Americans a year ago.

AQUATIC. Blind Boys Have "Four." Worcester, Eng., Aug. 15.—Four blind school boys, pulling with a clean steady stroke, recently won a race here on the Severn against a crew of four blind men. The victors belonged to the Worcester College for the Blind and their rivals were former pupils. Out of this has resulted a rowing boom at the school, and three "fours" are now in training out of the thirty boys. They hope to enter next season for the public school cup at the Molesey Regatta.

The boys were trained by their headmaster, G. C. Brown, who, having eyes, acted as coxswain. "The beginning was the hardest part," says Mr. Brown. "First, they had to feel all over the boat and the oars, while I explained things to them. We trained in a 'tub' with outriggers and fixed seats. But once they learned the feeling of the water, they picked up the stroke easily. Their keen sense of hearing and the movement of the boat enables them to keep perfect time."

No form of athletics introduced at the school has been taken up as eagerly by the boys as rowing.

RING. Georges Carpentier. London, Aug. 15.—Boxing throughout Europe is at a standstill owing to the war and the knights of the glove have exchanged their padded weapons for those of a far more dangerous character. In France alone several scores of the pro-

Professional boxers are serving with the army, the most illustrious example being Georges Carpentier. The following is an English paper extract from a review of his bout with Smith: "Though the result of the boxing contest between Carpentier and Gunboat Smith was very unsatisfactory from one point of view, there is very little doubt that if the contest had continued Carpentier would either have won easily on points or would have finished his man before the tenth round. The Frenchman was very courageous and precise, and all of them had been improved since he last appeared. With qualities such as these he was easily able to deal with a man whose chief assets were strength and endurance. The rapier will nearly always win against the broadsword. We shall always look forward to seeing Carpentier present a combination of some of the finest qualities which boxing has ever evolved in its best exponents."

WAR HAS PUT SPORT EVENTS IN THE SHADE. Serious Effect on the International Competitions Which Had Been Arranged. New York, Aug. 15.—A striking illustration of the international character of amateur sport is afforded by the situation that has developed as a result of the war in Europe. Early in the season there were every reason to believe that 1914 would be the greatest year in the history of competition. With the unexpected conflict between the European nations, all kinds have been cancelled and may not be resumed for months or even years. On the other side of the Atlantic the American Cup race is the most important event to be cancelled, but other competitions were assured. Foreign entries that were expected. The amateur and open golf championships and the national tennis tournament will be without foreign entrants since even the Davis cup teams now in this country plan to leave for home as soon as the challenge round is completed. Abroad the Harnsworth motorboat contest and the international aviation races at Rheims are off as well as all the various national championships of the European countries.

The result of the war from an athletic and sporting standpoint may be greater for it is likely to upset events scheduled for several years to come. The Sonder boat races at Kiel in 1915 and the Olympic games at Berlin in 1916, are no longer assured features. Athletic authorities both in America and abroad realize that if the present war continues for any extended period Germany will not be in a position to act as host to the Olympic teams. Entries from all the European countries will be greatly curtailed if not abandoned entirely and it may be necessary to postpone the games if it is found that some nations not involved in the clash of arms.

A CHAT WITH MAURICE COSTELLO. (Pearson's Weekly). From printer's devil to cinema actor is a long cry, but when I was a kid of eleven years, blessed with a brief experience of American public school life, I was earning a living by carrying baskets of copy from editor to printer. My father had intended me for the Davis Stock Company, where I learned that the first qualification for an actor is a hearty and hearty laugh. Certainly I learned, for I got used to playing my part from a beggar boy to detective at a moment's notice.

Talking of queer parts reminds me of a little experience I had whilst playing in the Gisher Waller Repertoire Company. We carried our own orchestra, and when the trombone player got a bad throat, to my consternation I was selected to fill his place. I was far from an expert musician, and to maintain the post I just had to practice the new stuff in my hotel room.

The judge, a very wily old bird, shook his head vehemently. "Can't convict till I have heard the prisoner play," he said, and so my trombone was sent for, and I started to play "Climb up the Golden Stair." In half a minute the judge stopped me, saying: "It's pretty bad music, I'll fine you a dollar to keep the peace whilst you remain in the town."

After that I confined my practising to the woods. Six years ago, after a pretty varied stage career, I was engaged to play a small part for the Vitagraph Company, which resulted in my being taken on their stock company.

I attribute my success in a great measure to a slow and deliberate style of acting which I have always tried to cultivate. I am a very busy man, for, in addition to being the leading Vitagraph artist, I assist in the producing of all the films in which I appear. I have acted in no fewer than one thousand photographs all told—three hundred of these being dramas.

Like most cinema actors, I am besieged by the attentions of the fair sex, and on one occasion I had to teach them a little lesson. Shortly after the release of an important film, in which I took the leading part, I arrived at my office one morning to find the whole place littered with presents, flowers, chocolates, cigarettes, and, lastly, effusive billet-doux, from ladies who did me the honor to imagine themselves in love with me.

It was gratifying, but rather inconvenient, especially considering that I am a married man with two children. Then we put our heads together and plotted a plot as a distasteful one. We made a film in which a "flapper" falls madly in love with a popular cinema actor, whom she has seen only on the screen. The latter determined to dissuade the girl, invites her to dinner at his rooms, where he makes a parade of some six dirty, unkempt children and a slatternly woman,

Advances in Prices in Saint John Already Because of The War Are Very Marked

Very few staples of common use have escaped the general advance in prices caused by the trouble in Europe. Those which have not yet felt the advance will likely be increased before long, for there is every reason to believe that supplies from European centres, or from Asiatic districts which pass through London in transit, will be curtailed, particularly those which ordinarily pass through British ports, because of the order against the export of foodstuffs.

LOCAL VETERAN OF CRIMEA NEARS 102ND BIRTHDAY

Louis Smith of Magazine Street Born in 1812 WAS FRENCH SOLDIER

They Were Side by Side With Red Coats Then as Now, Only Against Russians—Vividly Recalls Days of Battle

Only a few days separate, Louis Smith, a veteran gardener of Magazine street, from his 102nd birthday, Thursday next, will witness his observance of the second annual notch past the century mark, but he is as hale and active today as many a man fully thirty years and more his junior.

A veteran of the Crimean campaign, Louis Smith knows more than one or two things worth while of olden times on the march and on the field, and the particularly pleasing part of it is that his memory is joyfully fresh despite his weight of a hundred years. In the city world about 6 a.m. on August 20, 1854, his younger days were more or less uneventful, but when he came of years he was compelled to undergo his military service, the term then being seven years.
