TESTED RECIPES.
Potato Cakes (an Irish recipe). Mash two good-sized boiled potatoes, add one teaspoonful of salt and one large breakfast cup of flour, mix well and roll out an inch in thickness, cut in rounds with a biscuit cutter. Bake slowly in a metal frying pan, in which has been melted one tablespoonful of butter. The cakes should be a light color and require constant attention while baking.

RAIN-PROOF HAT.
A neat rainproof hat that will look as well after a wetting as before, is a comfort. Cut a strip of cardboard or crinoline as wide as you wish your crown high, and long enough to fit head, and lap at ends. Sew this to form sides of crown. Place this circle on crinoline or cardboard, having circle elongated to fit head, and mark around it. Measure your wish hat rim, cut out, also cutting out center in piece for top of crown and you are ready to cover with material. If possible, all medicines or silk will do for covering, but it must be soaked for 24 hours in following solution: Dissolve one pound of powdered alum dissolved in 1 gal. of rain water, first wash hat with settled, pour off clear liquid. If a ribbon bow on hat is desired, ribbon also must be soaked in the same solution. Sew a wire at each edge of brim to hold it in place. Then cover smoothly with goods, letting it reach over goods, cut two pieces shape of brim, letting inner edge extend 1/2 inch over, and sew in place and bind outer edge round crown and fasten at one side with a row of rosettes. Line neatly with some thin material and hat is done.

LIGHT BREAKFAST CAKES.
Sally Linn—One pint flour, 2 teaspoons baking powder and 1/2 teaspoon salt. Beat 2 eggs, whites and yolks separate. Add to yolks 1/2 cup sugar, stir slowly into flour and add 1/2 cup melted butter. Stir in four cup milk, 1/2 cup cream, salt and 2 teaspoons baking powder thoroughly. Beat 2 eggs, add 1/2 cup milk and stir quickly into the dry mixture. Bake in hot gem or muffin pans 25 minutes.

Waffles—One quart sweet milk, yolks 6 eggs, 1 cup melted butter, 2 teaspoons baking powder, a pinch of salt. Into this mix flour and the whites of 6 eggs beaten stiff, enough to make a stiff batter, then beat in one egg, and bake at once.

CONFEE ROLLS—Work into 1 qt bread dough, 1/2 cup sugar, add some dried currants (well washed and dried in the sun), and mix thoroughly. Roll out, work into the dough thoroughly, make into small, long rolls, dip them into melted butter, place in the pan, let rise a short time and bake.

Breakfast Cakes—One and one-half cups Indian meal, 1 1/2 cups flour, 1 cup sugar, butter, 1 teaspoon soda, milk and 1 egg. Stir cream tartar in the flour and dissolve the soda in a little cold water; mix all this quite soft with milk; bake in shallow pans. These are to be eaten hot with butter and are very nice.

Raised Muffins—One pint warm milk, 1/2 cup cake prepared yeast, or 1 cup liquid yeast, 1 qt flour, 1 tablespoon butter. Beat 2 eggs well, add them and the salt, butter and yeast to the milk, and mix thoroughly. Let rise in a warm place for one hour, then add the flour and mix thoroughly. Bake in hot gem or muffin pans 25 minutes.

A STORY OF TWO FLAGS.

How a Man's Life Was Saved at the Very Last Moment.
The following stirring incident of the two flags happened at Valparaiso, Chile, and was related to Montreal, N.S., by the Rev. Dr. J. O. Peck. Dr. Peck said:

"The man who gave me the facts I am about to relate was Mr. Haskins, an American sailor who had sailed to a port in Chile. On going ashore, he said, to enjoy his day of liberty he drank a little and became hilarious. One of the police officers, instead of warning him not to make a noise in the street, drew his sword and striking him a blow, knocked him down. On that the American sailor got up and knocked the policeman down in return. He was on that arrested and tried and condemned to be shot in the morning of the following day.

"Mr. Loring, the American consul, expostulated with the authorities that it would be monstrous to shoot the man for such an offense, but they paid no attention to him, so he thereupon made a formal protest in the name of the United States government against the barbarous act. Mr. Haskins, the sailor, was in the morning brought out planned to be shot.

"As the English consul was preparing to hold the union jack he saw the crowd in the field opposite, where the execution of the American sailor, who had been heard, was to take place, rushing over the American consul, said, 'Loring, you're not going to let them shoot that man!'

"What can I do? he said. I have protested against it. I can do no more. 'Quick as thought the English consul shouted, 'Give me your flag!' And in a trice the stars and stripes were handed to the English representative. At once, taking his own union jack in his hand, he hastened across the field, followed by the crowd and the soldiers, and, running up to the doomed man, he folded the American flag around him and then laid the union jack over it. Standing a few paces back, he faced the officers and soldiers and shouted defiantly, 'Now, shoot. If you dare, through the back of the English and American!'

"And they dared not do it, for they feared the consequences, so the man was at once released. In telling me, said Dr. Peck, 'Mr. Haskins said to me, with tears streaming down his cheeks, 'I have never seen a man so brave, and, oh, how I longed to embrace those two flags!'

POULTRY POINTERS.
A safe rule in feeding is to give enough to satisfy and no more. Droppings should not be allowed to accumulate in the poultry house longer than a week. Bone dust supplies an abundance of phosphorus and contracts any tendency to diarrhea. When possible, give the poultry house a southern exposure and furnish that side with an abundance of light. While wheat is one of the best grains to feed to fowls, it should not be fed to excess or it may cause diarrhea. Feed it with other grains. Loss of feathers is generally caused by want of green food or want of a dust bath. Supply both, and, as a local application, use mercuric iodine. Breed the best fowls for market; then feed them up to as great a weight as possible. Well fattened, well dressed poultry bring the best prices.

AT A SAVINGS BANK.
Why a Man Who Was in a Hurry Did Not Make a Deposit.
The business man who was in a hurry was standing in line at the savings bank waiting his turn to deposit. There was only one person ahead of him, and he was consulting himself upon this point. During a heated discussion, which involved the honor of the state and nation, a member rose and, pointing to the portrait, began in oratorical style, 'By those eyes that never quailed before a foe, I see the man who has just been named after an illustrious ancestor. Then he was interrupted by a member in the rear, who rose to a point of order.

COMFORTS AND LUXURIES.
A contributor writes sensibly on the need of giving more attention to indoor comforts. She says: 'White luxuries are undoubtedly comforts, all comforts are not luxuries; and the simple farmhouse, with the wealth of nature about it, is after all the sweetest, most satisfactory place to build the roof-tree. So make the farmhouse beautiful with- out and within. Too much bareness and evidence of poverty make any hardworked farmer's wife lose part of the best of her nature; for love of beauty is ingrained in every true woman's heart, and the money and the thought expended in developing the artistic side of the home will never be repaid in any other way. Do not spend the time used in beautifying the home grudgingly. The domestic duties will not be shirked, indeed, with the influence of pretty things about, there will come a braver heart, and a more willing hand will accomplish the tasks that were just neglected, and, sometimes seem drudgery, but are

Colds that will never be cured.
A startling sentence, but you know it to be true. Scarcely a day passes but some death from consumption, pneumonia or similar ailment emphasizes the truth of this statement. It is well to remember that a newly-contracted cold can, in almost every case, be cured. It is the neglected cold that leads to death—the cold that runs on and on—the cold that is added to by fresh colds from time to time.

Colds that will never be cured.

Colds that will never be cured.
Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine is verified especially because of its far-reaching effects, even in the most serious cases of bronchitis, whooping cough, croup and asthma. It is not a mere relief for coughs, but acts on the whole system thoroughly, curing the cold and removing chest pains, soreness of the lungs and bronchial tubes and all inflammation of the respiratory organs.

Dry Goods Stock Sale. The stock-in-trade of Mr. Alex. Barr, dry goods merchant, Chatham, which was taken possession of a few weeks ago by Messrs. Greenfield, of Montreal, and a bill of sale, was sold at public auction on Tuesday afternoon on the premises, by Mr. Wynn.

The amount presented was not a very large one, (as the sale was on a lot) although the presence of Messrs. J. D. Craghan, E. Flanagan, Jas. Nicol, R. A. Murdoch, and other possible local buyers, together with that of a few representatives of outside wholesale concerns, was sufficient to suggest that there might be some interesting competition.

Auctioneer Wynn stated, at the outset, that all the stock would be sold; that the last stock-taking, it was listed at $13,074, which, to make it even, would be called $13,000; that the terms were cash, 10% down, or payable in soon as the purchaser could get to the bank and the balance to be paid after delivery.

Mr. Gresham, of the Peter McSwenny Company, Moncton, was the first bid at 25c on the dollar. Mr. W. C. Winslow raised it to 50%. The next bid was made by Mr. Gresham and a bid of $27, by Mr. Gresham was raised to $6 by Mr. Winslow, and Mr. Gresham went a half better, the two alterations hardening the advance until Mr. Gresham raised his bid to $25 to $24 1/2 at which it was knocked down to the Peter McSwenny Company. The goods are now being packed up for removal to Moncton.

The Wm. W. Tar, Honey and Wild Cherry is free from all ingredients that cause unpleasant effects, common to many Cough Remedies, and is a perfectly safe preparation for children and adults, for all Coughs, Irritated Condition of the Throat, Asthmatic and Bronchial Coughs, Throat and Lung Trouble, Loss of Voice. A friendly game was played on Tuesday between the Chatham and Campbellton clubs—four risks each. One man report having been well received and handsomely treated by their brethren of the northern border railway town. The ice was "tricky," especially on one rink, having been used for skating on the night before, but that acted as much against one party as the other. No regular record of the men engaged was brought home by the Chatham party, but the telegraph wires were brought into requisition by the ADVANCE, with the following result:—

The visiting officers were entertained by the Campbellton Hotel after the evening game was over. During the game-making several of the Campbellton men referred in terms of commendation to the appointment of Senator Snowball, of Chatham, to the position of A. S. Ulrich, of the province, John McAllister, M. P., being amongst those who spoke most warmly on the subject.

He said, amongst other things, that although he did not know the man personally, he had knowledge of him justified the declaration that no more fitting choice could be made and he felt sure that Mr. Snowball would do honor to himself, to Chatham and to the Province in the excellent position to which he had attained. Our men left by the Maritime express on Monday morning at a very early hour, bringing with them the most pleasant recollections of their trip.

Owing to the poor condition of the ice, and the absence of members at Campbellton and elsewhere, but one pair of risks had been played on last report in the Snowball match. They were those of Rev. J. M. MacLean and Geo. Watt. In the absence of the pair, Messrs. Mackenzie and Geo. Watt. The ice is again in fine condition.

A SCIENTIFIC YOGURT IMPROVER—Because of its strengthening influence upon the road sheels. Ostobacterium cannot be too highly recommended as a wonderful voice improver. It almost instantly removes huskiness or hoarseness, thus insuring clearness and brilliancy of tone. Ostobacterium keeps the mucous surfaces in perfect condition and its regular use absolutely prevents colds and throat irritation, thereby removing the singer's greatest source of anxiety, undue exertion. The most eminent speakers and Prima Donas would not be without Ostobacterium and credit is no small degree that uniform strength and brilliancy of tone to its influence. The hard rubber inhaler is conveniently into a purse or vest pocket, and may be used in the church, theatre, any place or time. Complete outfit $1.50. Sold by Messrs. Druggists or Folio & Co., Kingston, Ont. Sold by C. F. Hickey.

Denary Meeting at Newcastle. A meeting of the Denary of Chatham was held at Newcastle, January 21st and 22nd. There were present: Rev. Canon Forsyth, Rural Dean, W. J. Wilkinson, M. A., D., James Spence, C. O'Dell, Bayly, H. A. Meek, G. L. Frezberg, R. D. and T. H. Cuthbert.

The meeting opened with a corporate celebration of the Holy Communion on Tuesday morning by the Rural Dean assisted by Rev. T. H. Cuthbert. At the meeting of the Chapter held afterwards in the Rectory, the last Chapter of Revelation was read in Greek and a paper was read by Rev. H. A. Meek on "Useful and Pious," for which he received a vote of thanks.

The following resolution was passed unanimously:—Resolved, that the clergy of the Rural Denary of Chatham in Chapter assembled desire to place on record their deep regret at the recent removal of the Rev. Thos. W.

Street, M. A., from the R-ery of St. George's Church, Bathurst, and from the Rural Denary to another field of labor. This removal, deplorable as from association with one, who, as a faithful and able worker, a gentleman and a true friend, he held in high esteem. We, therefore, desire to give expression to our sense of the great loss the church in his late parish has sustained in Mr. Street's removal, and the deprivation we, as a Chapter, have suffered by the severance of association with one whom we have regarded as learned and able in council and happy and profitable in personal intercourse. It is our wish and prayer that Mr. Street may be abundantly blessed in his new field of labor in the Lord's Vineyard, and we have much pleasure in congratulating him an honorary member of the Chapter of the Rural Denary of Chatham.

A meeting of the N. S. T. A. was held in the S. Schoolroom Tuesday afternoon. Several teachers were present. Admirable papers were read by Miss Thompson, Miss Rev. Canon Forsyth and the discussions were animated and interesting. The Holy Communion was celebrated on Wednesday morning and services were held on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings at 7 o'clock. On Tuesday evening, addresses were given by Rev. W. J. Wilkinson and James Spence, and on Wednesday evening the Denary sermon was preached by Rev. G. L. Frezberg. Services were also held at St. Mark's, on Tuesday evening, the preacher being Rev. G. L. Frezberg.

was necessarily large. The resolution and report were passed, and the Council went into committee of the whole, with Cwn Murray in the chair, to consider the consideration of the by-laws. Progress reported on by the Council.

Coun Murray was now satisfied that the valuator was under the impression that they were to get $4 a day and expenses. If the Council were satisfied that only reasonable expenses should be charged they should pass the bill.

Coun Morrison said Doyle's motion to appoint valuator did pass, as was shown by the official report. Light and office were expressly named in Council as expenses that would not be paid.

Coun Johnston—if you had walked instead of being horse what would it have cost? Coun Morrison—$1000. The motion to pay the account in full passed.

Coun Morrison moved that $75 be paid to the Sec-Treasurer for typewriting and consolidating the by-laws. Carried.

Coun Morrison, seconded by Cwn Swm moved that the Sec-Treasurer shall, before forwarding the standard weights and measures to the Natural History Society, take a bond for the safeguarding and return of these securities.

Coun Murray and Watt—You can keep them. The society doesn't want them. Coun Platt said the articles would be carried off the junk, they were of no use, and it would be best to give them to the society. He was sorry to see such a spirit of petty jealousy and spite.

Coun Watt said the Council could not get the articles looked after so well and so cheaply as by handing them over to the society.

Coun Morrison said there was no feeling on the part of Newcastle, and he hurried back the statement in the teeth of Coun Platt as usual.

The motion was lost, 11 to 14. Coun Murray moved to reconsider the motion of the part of Newcastle, and he hurried back the statement in the teeth of Coun Platt as usual.

Coun Morrison objected to it as out of order. Coun Murray having voted in the minority, and asked for the ruling of the chair.

The warden consulting the Sec-Treasurer, who said it was out of order, though the rules did not require the mover of a reconsideration to have voted in the majority, on general parliamentary principles.

Coun Murray said if the Council was to be governed by general principles, they should repeat their rules of order.

The Warden—I accept the motion. The reconsideration was carried—18 to 13. Coun Lewis moved that the resolution relating to weights and measures be rescinded, and that these articles be donated to the society.

Coun Davidson paid an eloquent tribute to the society and its work as an educational institution, but said the Council were only trustees of the people's property and it behooved them to guard what had been entrusted to them. The society might melt away. What then? Would they undertake to return this property when the society ceased to exist? The resolution of Friday was all that reasonable men would ask for. He called on every County Councillor to be true to his duty and protect this property.

Coun Murray thought the society would be alive long after he and the Council were dead. Newcastle had ceased to be, and these valuable articles would be treasured in its vaults. Yes, they were treasured. But for whom? For the people. They were the representatives of the people, sent there to act and speak for the people, and to deal with public property on behalf of the people. They had made donations to soldiers, they had given money to buy colors for the army and navy, and yet they had no power to say what should be done with these annual rates? They were the public with the right and duty to deal with all public matters. The proposal to rescind the resolution to the society must emanate from Chatham. As soon as the matter had been brought these relics of antiquity, neglected, unsorted, for, clothed with dirt and veridgia, became suddenly of priceless value in the eyes of Newcastle councillors, and these gentlemen are now concerned for the safety of this portion of the people's property. If the society had then they would keep them in such a condition that they could be pointed to with pride by every councillor who visited Chatham.

Coun Morrison—We have no right to give public property to any one as a present. I ask that the vote be recorded.

The resolution carried by the following vote—Yess—Murdoch, Chibson, Barriall, Robertson, Lewis, Williston, Cameron, Anderson, Dolan, Platt, Watt, Murray, Counors—12 nays—Ryan, Morrison, Davidson, Swin, Hurley, Bophy, Hayer, Parker, Crozier, Hubbard, McColm—11.

Coun Murray, on behalf of the society, tendered thanks to the Council, and hoped every member would make a point of visiting the museum.

Coun Watt said he knew the time and money that members of the society had given to establish a museum of which the country might be proud they would willingly do more than this to assist it.
