F. P. Vaughan Conducting Electrical Experiments Which May Prove of Value in Wireless Telegraphy, X-Ray Work and Other Branches.

"What in heaven is the matter?" was the question one of the operators at the Partridge Island station kept asking himself every evening a month or two ago. There was a disturbance in the atmosphere, and his query was that at all profane. For some unknown reason the messages from Cape Cod and other stations found difficulty in arriving according to schedule, and though the service was not interrupted, still the interference was such as to arouse curiosity. An explanation came after some weeks, when the operator, through illness, went to the hospital. While there he was called on by Frank P. Vaughan, and when these two got together they talked shop. It developed that the difficulty at the wireless station was always experienced during the early evening, and by an odd coincidence it happened that about the same time of the day Mr. Vaughan was occupied in manipulating an experimental plant at his house. He had no idea that the combination of apparatus he had set up developed such power, and his discovery has perhaps led his experiments in new directions. Mr. Vaughan has been amusing himself for some time in the development of high potential high frequency currents and has met with remarkable success. A short time ago he sent to Dr. Clark of New York, one of the most expert electricians in the United States, a drawing of his apparatus and an account of the experiments. Dr. Clark replied that Mr. Vaughan had reached in one attempt all those results which he had been able to obtain after thirty years of work. This being the case the same-day bright for future experiments, and it is by no means improbable that new ideas in wireless telegraphy, in X-ray work and in vacuum tube lighting will be the outcome of the tests now being carried on. In the basement of his home on Charlotte street Mr. Vaughan has installed his plant. The modulator consists of the following technical description of it. The current is taken from the lighting mains at 104 volts and stepped up to 10,000 volts by means of a special high voltage transformer. This transformer is connected to a special high frequency transformer, from the secondary of which the high potential high frequency discharges are obtained, giving a spark from sixteen to eighteen inches in length. To an inexperienced visitor there is a lot left out of this description. When the current is turned on there comes an almost deafening roar, a jagged stream of fire flies between two brass or copper knobs, almost blinding in its brightness. The room soon fills with a thin smoke, and there is, to a stranger a feeling of general disturbance. Mr. Vaughan produces a spark which, he says, is sixteen to eighteen inches long, but he sometimes moves the poles from the transformer until the stream of light is fully two feet in length. NOTHING COWARDLY ABOUT PREMIER STOLYPIN

The Struggle in Russia is Now Between Crime and Law and Chances are in Favor of Crime. LONDON, Aug. 27.—An interesting episode is told of M. Stolypin, the Russian Premier, an attempt to kill whom Saturday resulted in the wounding of many others. When he was Governor of Saratov the Supt. of Police was being attacked by a mob for carrying out orders that aroused their resentment. Stolypin, seeing what was happening, rushed up between the Supt. and the angry crowd, exclaiming: "If you want to kill the responsible official it is I. The Supt. is but doing his duty, executing my orders. He has no choice but to carry them out. It is I alone who issued them, and here I am." The crowd surprised at Stolypin's courage silently stunk away. The Daily Telegraph's St. Petersburg correspondent, commenting on the outrage, says "no political reforms can heal the present moral gangrene which is eating away the soul of the nation. Political motives play hardly any part in the epidemic of loathsome crimes. The ideas of right and wrong are wholly perverted. Bestiality and humanity are now struggling for the upper hand and the chances are on the side of bestiality. If the constitutional democrats were in power tomorrow the epidemic of crime would continue to rage. The struggle is not between this party or that but between rascaldom and men of law and order."

Chief of Police McLeod was called up and assisted Mr. Noble in locking the men up. They were brought before the police magistrate this morning. They pleaded guilty and were fined $50 or 30 days in jail on the first charge.

Bernard Shaw Announces that He Supports the President in His Approval of the New Spelling. LONDON, Aug. 27.—Among the numerous opinions canvassed by the newspapers of President Roosevelt's order with regard to a reform in spelling, Geo. Bernard Shaw says: "There has been nothing like it since Macmillan reformed the calendar by making the year consist of twelve lunar months. It serves us right. The thing had to be taken in hand somehow and if we refused to attend to our own experts we must make the best of the two energetic amateurs who have forced our hands."

Relief and Insurance Report for the Month—Rev. G. E. Whitehouse Resigns His Pastorate

MONCTON, N. B., Aug. 27.—Secretary Payer of the I. C. R. Employees Relief Insurance Association has issued his usual monthly statement for the month ending August 25th. There were eight deaths, with insurance as follows: J. Malcolm, Moncton, $500; J. H. Hunter, Moncton, $1,000; L. McDonald, Moncton, $500; E. H. Gilroy and M. P. Richardson, Truro, $250 each; John Stewart, Halifax, $250; A. Guillet and L. M. Cote, River du Loup, $250 and $500 respectively. Fees and levies for the month ending August 25th will be as follows: Class A, $2; Class B, $1.50, and Class C, $1. In addition to the deaths above reported W. J. Bonart, a member of the Temporary Employees Accident Fund died at New Glasgow on August 24th, from injuries received on the third day of the same month. The congregation of the First Baptist church received a surprise last night in the resignation of Rev. George E. Whitehouse. At the close of the regular service a meeting of the members of the church was called and the resignation, which is to take effect on the first of October, if convenient to the pastor, was read. A committee was appointed to wait on the pastor to enquire further into the matter which will be considered at the next business meeting of the church. Rev. Mr. Whitehouse has occupied the pastorate of this church for about a year and during that time there has been very material increase in the church membership. He also founded the Christian Brotherhood, which was so successful in the case of several other city churches have organized similar bodies.

WHO WANTS TO EAT JAM AFTER READING THIS REPORT?

Government Analyst Gives the Result of an Investigation of a Number of Varieties Sold in St. John and Elsewhere.

Some months ago government analyst reported samples of jam sold by different firms in New Brunswick. These were for the purpose of analysis, but in those cases where adulteration was admitted on the labels, the inspection was not made. The results of the examination have recently been issued in the form of a report. Of the samples taken in St. John, only one variety was found to be pure. Others, classed as unadulterated, contain preservatives; still others which are admittedly compounds signify this fact on the label, but generally in letters so small or indistinct as to be scarcely noticeable. The reports on the samples taken in St. John are as follows:— No. 24112—Strawberry jam, Baid & Peters, St. John, manufacturers, The Simoes Canning Co., Simoes, Ont. Not analyzed. Word "compound" marked in very small letters and indistinct. No. 24114—Raspberry jam, Bowman & Coie, St. John; manufacturers Pure Gold Manufacturing Co., Toronto. McMichael, St. John; manufacturers The Canada Preserving Co., Ltd., Hamilton, Ont. TRYING TO SETTLE IT WITHOUT BLOODSHED Both Armies in Cuba are Holding Back. Revolutionists Do Not Want War if Without It They Can Secure the Desired Reforms.

HAVANA, Aug. 27.—News from the somewhat uncertain shifting "front" in meagre early today due in a measure to the government's determination that false reports from insurgent sources shall not be generally circulated. The expected battle in the vicinity of Pinar Del Rio is yet to be fought. Failure of the government forces to take the offensive against the insurgent leader Guerra and the latter's hesitancy in striking the promised blow encourage the hope that peace may be secured without great bloodshed. It is hinted in some quarters that the insurgents do not seriously contemplate the overthrow of the government and would be quite satisfied if by making a show of force they could frighten or persuade President Palma to restore certain deposed liberals to office and make concessions as to the conduct of future elections. Claims and counter claims are frequent but there is comparatively little actual fighting. At the palace little is given out. The enrollment of volunteers continues, horses are being requisitioned and army nurses are being sent to the front. Skirmishes between small bands continue. From the field Col. Asbert has sent the following message to the palace: "We have taken up arms against the government because we have reached the conclusion that law and justice are not to be established in this country by the will of the government and because the administration, protected by an unscrupulous judiciary, daily commits outrages upon the constitution and despoils our people of their legitimate rights. It is our sole desire to establish the supreme rule of law and restore affairs where they were before the last election. We do not intend to wage a bloody war because we look upon the government forces as the enemy of our country. Only when we are attacked by government forces will we attempt to defend ourselves, but we avoid bloodshed as far as possible."

MAN AND WOMAN WERE SHOT ON THE STREET.

And the Husband of One of the Victims is Charged With the Crime. PORTSMOUTH, Ohio, Aug. 27.—John Harr and Mrs. Flora Hughes were shot to death last night and the woman's husband, James O. Hughes, is in jail charged with the crime. He denied knowing anything about the shooting. The streets were filled with people on their way to church, Harr and Mrs. Hughes were walking together down Third street, just as they got under a street lamp at Jefferson street a man rushed out from a doorway, yanked Harr and Mrs. Hughes and fired five revolver shots. Harr dropped dead and Mrs. Hughes died at the English hospital. CHOPPED THE HIND LEGS OFF THE DOCTOR'S HORSE Inhuman Act of Miscreants in Manitoba—The Criminals are Not Known. GLADSTONE, Man., Aug. 27.—Early yesterday morning some party or parties entered the barn of E. Bowman, veterinary surgeon of this place, and chopped the hind legs off his horse which stood in the stall. Dr. Bowman had been called to Plumons and returned by train arriving about 8 o'clock. The animal was slaughtered, and hung only by the tendons midway between the hoofs and hocks. Mrs. Bowman heard noises early in the morning but there was a storm raging and she was timid about going to investigate the cause. The animal was slaughtered, so far there is no clue leading to the discovery of the perpetrators.

JAPAN THE MOVER IN FORMING A MATCH TRUST

An International Combine Proposed Which is Intended to Capture all the Western Trade. CHICAGO, Ill., Aug. 27.—A special to the Tribune from San Francisco says: "Japan has entered into a compact with the Diamond Match Company to form an international trust on matches between two continents. An English match concern dominated by Bryant and May will be taken into the combination. Negotiations for the formation of the trust have been in progress since the Russo-Japanese war. They were started by Ernest Hawkins of New York, who was sent to Japan a year ago. Japan for several years has carefully nursed its match-making industry. The Empire Mills at first were increased in capacity so as to meet the entire consumption of Japan. Later they were enlarged to compete with foreign manufacturers in China, Australia, part of East India, and the Philippines. Eventually the concern gained control of the match trade in those countries, finally adding Manchuria and holding them all as its particular territory."

FREDERICTON DIED OF CONSUMPTION.

The death occurred at an early hour this morning at his residence, on Beign street, of John O'Leary, in the 46th year of his age. Deceased was a victim of consumption. For years he had been foreman of the Herald job printing department and was recognized as one of the best in his line. He leaves a widow and three children, also two brothers, Michael, of this city, and Timothy, of Nova Scotia.

CONSERVATIVE LEADER IS FEELING HOPEFUL

Concerning the Coming Dy-Election—Thinks There Will be Little Change in the Tariff. TORONTO, Aug. 27.—R. L. Borden, K. C. M. P., was seen by a reporter at the King Edward Hotel last night. Mr. Borden is looking unusually well and seemed in excellent spirits. He is to speak at Sydney Mines, N. S., on Labor Day, and has two or three other engagements next week in the Maritime Provinces. He feels quite sanguine about all the Ontario by-elections, although he anticipates that the liberals will make quite an effort to carry East Elgin. "We are in the dark as to these elections," he said, "but I should think they would be held between now and the first of October. There will be meetings of course, but I cannot say now just when or where I will speak." Respecting the tariff revision Mr. Borden remarked that "judging from the tone of the liberal papers the Government intended to revise the tariff by letting it stay as it is. However, we should know more about their intentions after Sir Wilfrid and Hon. Mr. Aylesworth address the C. M. A. meeting at Winnipeg."

POOR DOCUMENT

W.C. 2034

ST. JOHN STAR, MONDAY, AUGUST 27, 1906

DR. JOSEPH McLEOD CHOSEN PRESIDENT OF THE CONVENTION

United Baptists in Session at Liverpool Talk of Establishing a Theological School at Acadia—Home Mission Report is Gratifying.

LIVERPOOL, N. S., Aug. 25.—The first annual convention of the United Baptist Churches of the Maritime Provinces opened at Liverpool, Saturday at 10 o'clock. The president, Rev. Geo. R. White, of Charlottetown, P. E. I., was in the chair. Rev. D. Hutchinson of the Main Street Baptist Church, St. John, conducted the devotional exercises. A nominating committee, of which Dr. B. H. Eaton of Halifax is chairman, was appointed.

At the afternoon session Rev. I. W. Porter, corresponding secretary of the Home Mission Board of Nova Scotia, submitted his annual report, which showed that the home mission churches this year gave over $300 more than last year to the convention fund. Twenty-four churches have had continuous care under the direction of the board, and 242 persons have been baptized among these during the year. In the entire home mission field there are 94 churches, with 2,772 families, reported having raised $10,423.16. The board supplemented this amount by grants amounting to $4,877.25.

Rev. S. R. Cummings of Amherst moved the adoption of the report. Rev. F. W. Parker of Windsor seconded the report and urged action in the direction of establishing a theological school in connection with Acadia University. He thought the help afforded such a project by the Payant fund, coupled by donations from individual members, would make it possible to bring such a plan to a successful issue.

At this point of the meeting the convention suspended business and proceeded to raise the amount of $300 for special home mission work.

The nominating committee presented a further report, including the following nominations: For foreign mission board to retire in 1907—Rev. W. W. McMaster, Rev. David Long, Rev. J. W. Manning, Rev. J. H. McDonald, E. M. Sippell. To retire in 1908—Rev. D. Hutchinson, Rev. W. Camp, Rev. W. C. Goscher, W. H. White, A. A. Wilson. To retire in 1909—T. S. Simms, T. L. Hay, Rev. W. E. McIntyre, J. J. Wallace and C. E. Vall.

Short and interesting remarks were made by Rev. W. B. Wallace of Upland, N. Y., Rev. H. G. Mellock of Regina, Rev. E. Bowditch of Grand Igna, Missions, Rev. A. T. Kempton of Massachusetts, Rev. W. W. McMaster of St. John, J. A. McHenry of Rhode Island, Geo. W. Penman of Brockton, Mass., H. G. Kennedy of Sussex, Rev. C. L. White of Lettbridge, Alberta, and Rev. J. Harding of Massachusetts.

The report of the nominating committee was adopted as presented, and the officers assumed their respective positions forthwith.

After the transaction of a little incidental work, Dr. McLeod made brief references to his new relationship as a member of the convention, and expressed his deep feeling of appreciation for the work of the denomination and greater things than it had ever yet done.

Rev. Mr. White, the retiring president, gave a very stirring address on the subject of Enlargement.

On Sunday, the annual convention sermon was preached in the Liverpool United Baptist Church by Rev. D. L. Morse of Wolfville. Rev. C. W. Townsend of St. Martins, was appointed to preach the convention sermon, the theme of the sermon was, "The Eternal Purpose of God."

Jerome Will, a Buffalo Enquirer, writes: "A good citizen, breathless and excited, ran up to a large, calm policeman one day and cried: 'Officer, there's a terrible fire going on around the corner to the right.' 'Thank you, sir, I'll do as much for you some day, sir,' said the policeman, gratefully, as he took the turning to the left and quickly disappeared."

CHICAGO, Aug. 26.—Johann Kindler, eighteen-years-old, today became violent and alarmed passengers in an Ashland Avenue car while brooding over the loss of $30, which he had deposited in the failed Milwaukee Avenue State Bank. Kindler is held pending an investigation of his sanity.

Kindler is the second person to become mentally deranged as a result of the failure of this bank. In addition, three persons, including a teller of the defunct bank, have committed suicide and one man fell dead following the flight of President Paul O. Stensland and the closing of the Milwaukee Avenue State Bank.

The police tonight are still in the dark as to the whereabouts of Stensland.

Dominique V. Breaux, a St. Joseph's College student, was drowned in a creek near the college on Saturday afternoon. He, in company with another lad, Alfred LeBlanc, went for a swim. The tide was high and there was about ten feet of water in the creek. Young Breaux seemed to slip on the muddy bank and went into the middle of the stream, sinking immediately. LeBlanc, his companion, secured a pole and endeavored to reach the drowning boy, but in vain. Breaux was a fairly good swimmer and it is thought that he must have taken a cramp as soon as he struck the water. He was seventeen years old and a bright and promising student. Two sisters and one brother, Kenneth Breaux, of Chatham, survived.

CAPITAL PUNISHMENT IN FRANCE.

(Irish Independent.) As a preliminary step towards the abolition of capital punishment in France, the government propose to abolish the salary of the public executioner. So revolting to the French mind is the idea of capital punishment, that there was always a difficulty in finding applicants for the position of public executioner, which in consequence became hereditary in certain families. The elder of the Sansons occupied at the first guillotine erected in Paris at the time of the Revolution, and he was succeeded in office by his son. Then the appointment passed to the Rouen executioner, Deibler, whose son and grandson successively held office. It is the last of these, Anatole Deibler, commonly called Monsieur de Paris, whose salary is about to be cut off as ruthlessly as he has decapitated the victims of the law. Although the work was light, M. de Paris having but four executions to his credit during his tenure of office, the salary is large for a French public functionary, and Deibler is not at all perturbed at the proposed abolition of his almost sinister post. "I am not to be pitied," he says; "there are some more unfortunate than I am." He has saved a nice little sum out of his salary and perquisites, and will probably live long in peaceful retirement after "the widow," as the guillotine is facetiously called, has herself been brought under the axe and the death denials is abolished in France.

Experience counts anything with you?
Then what do you think of 60 years' experience with Ayer's Sarsaparilla?
Sixty years of curing thin blood, weak Ask him to tell you honestly what he thinks it will do for your case.

ST. JOHN, N. B., AUG. 27, 1906.

SATURDAY'S SLAUGHTER.

Although the mass of people in Russia who are against the government are divided into as many sections as the bodies of some of their victims, they all appear to favor assassination as a means of bringing about the desired end. Such a course is of very little benefit. On Saturday an attempt was made on the life of the Premier. It was not successful, in so far as the murder of the intended victim was concerned, although more than thirty other persons were blown to fragments. But supposing Stolypin had been killed, how much nearer would the people be to popular government?
Another prime minister would have been selected, and the whole performance would have to be repeated.

The individual assassination of all who support the present autocratic rule is a slow way of working a change, and although the revolutionists fail to see it, they are only preventing the realization of their hopes.
Setting aside the millions of Russians who are too ignorant or too disinterested to hold any strong opinions the government party is still more numerous than the revolutionary. It contains able men and can more easily recruit its ranks. It suffers little by the murder of one or two leaders, while it is in a position to take cruel revenge on the assassins. Thus whatever slight gain is made by the revolutionists in the killing of a governor, chief of police, or a premier, is more than counterbalanced by the loss to the party in the execution of a man who were concerned in the plot. For every government supporter murdered, half a dozen revolutionists are published, and these latter can not well be spared by the party to which they belong. The affair of Saturday was a particularly horrifying nature, and whatever sympathy may be felt for those who suffer under the rule of Emperor Nicholas, yet there will be general abhorrence of men who could perpetrate such a crime.

DR. McLEOD'S POSITION.
The action of the United Baptist convention in choosing Rev. Dr. Mc-Leod as its president is a fitting recognition of his whole-souled and continued efforts towards bringing about the union. Dr. McLeod possesses all those qualifications necessary for the position he now occupies. He is well versed in church history, has a firm grasp of the government of the body over which he presides, is a clear thinker, and best of all commands not only the respect but the hearty good will of those with whom he associates.
He hopes for greater results in the past. If every member of the demonstration does his or her duty as conscientiously as Dr. McLeod this hope will be satisfied.

BRYAN AND ROOSEVELT.
As the result of an energetic advertising campaign, William J. Bryan this week received on his return to the United States a demonstrative welcome. A good deal of the enthusiasm is voluntary, some of it is forced, but there can be no doubt that the former silver candidate is now stronger politically than at any time during his career. In the next presidential campaign he will prove an opponent important enough to make the contest one of great excitement. A rather peculiar change is noticeable in the attitude of President Roosevelt towards the suggestions made by leaders of his party. A year or two ago his declaration that he would never again become a candidate was most emphatic, and his intimate friends insisted that nothing could persuade him to enter the contest. Gradually, however, there has been a weakening. Roosevelt has not found it necessary to make any statement very recently, but his supporters remark every little while that the President does not personally desire the nomination. There is just a chance that he may be chosen in the field again, and is so the contest will be worth watching.

Although the police deserve credit for their efforts towards the capture of the suspect Collins, yet the triumphal parade, through the principal streets of the city on Sunday was scarcely a performance on which they can be congratulated. It was more in the line of "showing off" and saved of sensationalism. Hundreds, perhaps thousands, of people were attracted by the sight, which was by no means a desirable disturbance of the wonted peace of the Sabbath day.

The Associated Press is seldom guilty of a joke. It made an exception last night in the account of the attempted assassination of Premier Stolypin. M. Moukhanoff granted an interview, and in his description of what happened when the bomb was exploded, he is credited with the somewhat remarkable assertion, "The chair which I had formerly occupied was killed on the spot."

Attorney General Puseley will personally conduct the prosecution in the McAulay murder trial.

The boiler of a freight locomotive of the New York Central R. R. exploded just west of here today, causing the death of Engineer Chris Wagner and Albany and fireman Edward Hall of Oneida. The locomotive was drawing a heavy eastbound freight and had just passed tower 22A, when the explosion occurred. The boiler was blown down from the tracks high into the air, and landed 100 feet away, blocking all four tracks of the road. By the explosion neither the driving wheels nor the tender of the engine was thrown from the tracks but ran on with the train for a quarter of a mile. The engine had just taken water at Herkimer and the cause of the explosion has not been ascertained.

SEVERAL WERE WARNED TO BE ON THEIR GUARD

A number of Russians Were notified of the Intended Assassination of Stolypin.

LONDON, Aug. 27.—Despatches from St. Petersburg to the newspapers this evening supply some further details concerning the attempt of the Russian Premier M. Stolypin. It is stated that the man who threw or dropped the bomb was named Korozoff, and that he was a native of Ryazan province.
Several persons were warned beforehand that an attempt would be made on the premier would be made. Mme.
Davidoff, wife of the Court Chamberlain, who was killed, says that her husband received a post card Friday saying:

"Do not go where you are intending to go. Another official named Plemsky received a similar warning. He feigned illness and thus escaped."

MONSTER NUGGET FROM COLBAT FIELD.

Weighted 800 Pounds and Almost Pure Silver—Vein Five Feet Wide Found.

TORONTO, Aug. 26.—Great stories come to hand of silver finds in the Colbat district. One of the most authentic is of a huge nugget 800 pounds in weight that was taken out of Nipissing mine. Professor Parke says it will easily run 70 per cent. silver. The new vein was located about two weeks ago on this wonderful property. It was about thirteen inches wide where first discovered. It has been uncovered and followed for fifty feet, and has gradually widened until, on Friday, by careful and accurate measurement, it was found to be five feet wide, with surface outcropping of practically native silver. A vein of solid silver, sixty inches in width, paralyzes ordinary minds. Prof. W. A. Parke of Toronto University returned from the north Saturday morning. He is one of the men who held the tape when the measurement of the vein's width was taken.
Dr. Kenny of Sturgeon Falls held the other end of the tape. Both agree in the statement.

The Edmonton Journal in a recent issue says: Real estate in Saskatoon is booming these days and people are investing large sums in the town. A block in the vicinity of Twenty-third street to First avenue, was sold for $30,000. One real estate firm recently disposed of over $10,000 worth of property in a week and letters are being received from all over the United States and Canada, desiring for information. Residents of St. John, N. B., have purchased about seventy-five lots.
One investor went to that city to invest about $1,000, but before leaving he purchased $20,000 worth of property.
Edmonton men are buying heavily in Saskatoon.

It can be readily seen from the above that St. John people are recognizing in Saskatoon real estate an opportunity of investing money to splendid advantage. The time to buy building lots is now, not two years from now, when all the snags and desirable lots have been picked up. The Northwest-

REPAIRING THE CANADA EASTERN

Heavy Rails Being Laid on this Branch of the I.C.R.

Old Man Sent up on Charge of Rape—A Thief Captured at Canterbury—Burglary—Bank Changes

FREDERICTON, Aug. 26.—The I. C. R. officials are having repairs made to the roadbed of the Canada Eastern branch. The work is being carried on under the superintendence of Roadmaster A. W. Grass. A ballast train has been running every day for some weeks past, and when the work is completed about twenty miles of line will have been ballasted. On forty miles of the road new rails are being laid, the seventy-pound rails replacing the lighter fifty-six pound rails. Already about 40,000 new railway ties have been placed and about 20,000 more will be used during the remainder of the season. Two miles of siding have also been laid. All the old switches are being replaced by the Burgess automatic switch stand. Several new steel spans have been erected and reinforced arches will be erected over Burnt Land Brook at Boatstown with a new steel bridge at Doaktown. Mr. Grass is accomplishing a lot of good work this summer, work which has been much needed for some time. Tenders are being asked for erecting 5,234 rods of steel wire fencing on the Canada Eastern branch of the I. C. R. In the police court Saturday William Rowe was sent up for trial at the January term of the supreme court on the charge of rape, brought on the

COMMERCIAL. GREAT PREPARATIONS FOR THE CHRISTENING OF EMPEROR WILLIAM'S GRANDCHILD

BIGGEST "POOL" ON RECORD.
The advances in U. S. Steel common is being engineered by the huge pool ever formed in a stock in Wall Street, with the single exception of Keene's Southern Pacific. The Canadian Pacific means that The Seven are members. The formation of this huge pool was undoubtedly due to the fact that J. P. Morgan began to sell his stock around 40. He felt that it was high enough at that level for a 2 per cent. issue, but it is understood now that other financiers have persuaded Mr. Morgan that steel common should be put on a 4 per cent. dividend basis, and it is practically agreed now that at the end of the present year an additional dividend will be paid on the common stock, making a full 4 per cent. for the year. At least this is the theory on which the pool is working. Steel common as a 4 per cent. stock, to maintain too low, would be a knowledge of the coming dividend, backed with $100,000,000, which is said to be the capital of the pool, there is little doubt about the ability of the managers to advance the price.

SIR WILLIAM ON HILL PLANS.
Sir William Van Horn, in an interview given in New York, is quoted as follows:
"I don't know what Mr. Hill's plans are. I know he is a very able man, and when he talks about doing what is clearly a foolish thing, it is safe to assume that it is to cover something which is not foolish."
"Hill may be seriously planning the building of some lines into Canadian Pacific territory, and while I am little more than an individual director in that company now, I do not hesitate to say that two miles of line in the interest of Canadian Pacific will be built in his territory to every mile he builds in that of Canadian Pacific."
Sir William expressed belief that the real motive for Hill's project to build a Canadian line was the active competition of the Canadian Pacific in through business from Chicago to Spokane.

THINKS HARVARD MEN HAVE A GOOD CHANCE.
LONDON, Aug. 27.—In an article in the Morning Post, Guy Nickalls, the oarsman says that after a careful study of the men of the Harvard crew he has reached the opinion that contrary to the general impression they will go the 4-2 miles at a very fair pace indeed, though he does not fancy their pace for a single mile. Taking all things into consideration Mr. Nickalls believes that the odds of 10 to 4 on the Cambridge crew are in no way justified.

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Aug. 26.—The schooner Neptune, Captain Wm. Johnson, bound from Machias for Hingham, Mass., was helped into harbor by members of the life saving crew, leaving 4,000 strokes an hour, and with three feet of water in her hold. She was beached at Sillery Point for repairs. The Neptune's hull was strained in heavy seas off Cape Elizabeth, and she began to take in water rapidly. When she arrived off here, her crew had been pumping steadily for forty-eight hours, and were nearly exhausted. Her cargo, which consists of lumber, may be sold here.

Considerable alarm was caused on Saturday night by the disappearance of the two young children of Frank H. Tingley. The boy and girl left their home on Charlotte street about eight o'clock to go to the rink, and when they did not return at a reasonable hour a search was instituted for them. No trace could be found that night and their mother was almost distracted with anxiety about them. On Sunday the neighbors joined in the search and hunted the city for the lost children. The efforts of the searchers were unavailing, however, and the whereabouts of the children remained a mystery until late in the afternoon, when they arrived at their home of their own accord. They explained that they had gone to a relative's house the night before and had been there ever since.

When the Associated Press correspondent this evening succeeded in securing permission to pass the cavalry guarding the approaches to the house, the dead and wounded already had been removed to a neighboring hospital, but by the light of flaring torches the police were still picking out from the wreckage bits of flesh and placing them in towels for transportation by ambulance to morgues. At the hospital the correspondent saw frantic attendants trying to arrange the shattered bodies into some semblance of human form for identification by weeping and wailing relatives outside. The terrorist who carried the explosive into the house was literally converted into pulp by the force of the explosion. Inside the gendarme officer's coat which he had on was found the death sentence of Premier Stolypin, which he had tried to execute. The police refuse to make public the contents of this document. The tragically created a tremendous sensation here, and extra editions of the newspapers were sold in the streets until midnight. In the clubs saw officials and officers gather, the most intense indignation prevailed and the prediction was freely made that the revolutionists would pay dearly for such senseless crimes, and no doubt would be to drive the government to more severe methods of repression.

CORSET COVER AND CLOSED DRAWERS.

6369, 6373—The varieties and styles of lingerie are many but the requisites of all are daintiness and practicality. Most women take pleasure in fashioning this part of the wardrobe with a result that much originality is evident and beautiful. Here is sketched a pretty corset cover, cut in low, round neck and losing at one side of the front. The peplum in the bottom insures its keeping place and does not add to the waist size because of its perfect fit. The drawers are closed ones, fastening at the side. They are of generous width about the bottom, shaping up on the side to give place for the garter when the garments are worn under the corset. For trimming, a ruffle of embroidery or the tucked material will prove an effective finish, while the heading and ribbon finished in bows are always attractive. Nainsook, lawn and longcloth are the best materials for these garments. In medium size, 11-2 yards are needed for the corset cover, and 2-1/2 yards for the drawers. Two patterns, 6369, sizes—32 to 44 inches bust measure, 6373, sizes—20 to 38 inches waist. Both 25c, but either sent upon receipt of 10c.

NEGRO MISSIONARIES CAUSED RECENT KAFFIR UPRISING

Interesting Talk With Dr. J. Perrott Prince, a Native of Hampton, and Formerly Partner of Dr. Jameson, Now Premier of Cape Colony—Another Uprising Would be Disastrous to British—Business Conditions Unsettled.

Dr. J. Perrott Prince, Mrs. Prince and daughter are staying at the Dufferin. Dr. Prince, who is a native of Hampton, and who was formerly well known in this city, has been practicing in South Africa for the past thirty-four years. Dr. Prince obtained his medical education at New York, where he received his M. D., at London where he received the degree of M. R. C. S., and at Paris where he received the degree of Bach. Lett. et. Bach. Sciences from the University of Paris. Upon the completion of his studies in 1872 he left for Kimberley, where he practiced for a number of years. In 1878 he was joined by Dr. Jameson, now prime minister of Cape Colony, who had obtained his degree from the London University, and who was connected with him in Kimberley for three years. In referring to the famous leader of the Jameson raid, Dr. Prince said he was a very clever physician and also very intellectual. He soon made his mark in Kimberley and was on the highway of success in the practice of his profession. He became interested in politics and eventually led the uprising against Kruger which has since become famous.

In referring to the Jameson raid Dr. Prince thought it was justifiable, as the tyrannical rule of Kruger was unbearable. His object was to terminate the Boer misrule, and had it been successful Dr. Prince thinks the government would have been spared the expense of the costly war which terminated in Kruger's downfall. At the time of his arrival in Kimberley Dr. Jameson was twenty-five years old, and is now one of the leading statesmen in South Africa. Although he was much censured at the time for his revolt, after events have proven that he was justified in his actions, and his raid is now spoken of as a successful failure, as it brought home to the government the political conditions under which the English in South Africa were obliged to live. Referring to the late Kaffir uprising Dr. Prince said it was finished for the present, but the natives must still be carefully watched. A similar revolt under able leadership would result disastrously to the English, as they are greatly outnumbered, there being one million natives to 100,000 whites. Dr. Prince said they were indebted to contributions from the United States for the late uprising. The so-called Ethiopian movement which promotes the doctrine of "South Africa for the natives," was disseminated throughout the country by negro missionaries primarily sent out by the Methodist church. Besides their missionary work these men incited the Kaffirs to revolt against the British. As soon as the leaders of the Methodist church learned of the actions of their men, they disowned them and did their best to annul the teachings of the missionaries, but the seed had been sown, and the movement had got beyond recall. At the time of the Griqua uprising

In 1878 Dr. Prince raised a battalion of horse and served throughout the campaign. In reference to responsible government in Natal and the Transvaal, Dr. Prince said that in Natal it works satisfactorily as there are few Dutch living there. In the Natal legislature there are only two Boer representatives so that the English have no difficulty in retaining the balance of power. In the Transvaal, however, affairs are different. The English who live here are more or less transitory, the majority of them working in the mines. They eventually return to the old country and as the Boer element is stationary there is grave danger of the balance of power being turned against the British. The present English government, says Dr. Prince, are redeeming their promises to the Boers as far as they dare, and responsible government for the Transvaal is recognized by those undertaking the conditions as likely to assume a serious phase, unless union with Natal is effected. If this is effected the British would be able to control the balance of power and offset any legislation which might be promoted dangerous to British interests. In reference to business conditions, Dr. Prince said that at the present time business is very dull. It has been greatly jeopardized by the interference of the Chinese labor question. A great many of the natives have refused to work in the mines. The reason for this is that during the war wages were so high that the Kaffirs were able to save comfortable sums of money, and at present so low as a Kaffir can get enough to eat, he absolutely refuses to work. They can earn enough in three months to keep them for twelve, and except in rare instances they work the three months only, loading the remaining nine.

This phase of the matter makes the working of the mines an uncertain proposition, and anything which militates against the satisfactory working of the mines reacts upon the progress of the whole country. The tide of immigration to Natal has slackened largely in the past year, as there are few chances for emigrants. During the war a great many settlers came from Australia, but since then the number of newcomers has been small. Dr. Prince said there were few St. John people in Natal, in fact the only one whom he knew of was Mrs. Lake, who is a daughter of Chief Justice Tuck. It is ten years ago since Dr. Prince's last visit to this country. Mrs. Geo. Whiting and Mrs. Hastings of this city are sisters of Dr. Prince. C. M. Bewick is a cousin, and outside of these Dr. Prince has few relatives here. Dr. Prince and his family leave for Boston today. They will spend some time travelling in the States, returning to England on the 18th of September, after which they will leave again for Natal, where Dr. Prince still practices his profession.

MONCTON CITIZEN BRUTALLY ASSAULTED

W. P. Jonah, Who Has Been Active in Suppressing Houses of Ill-Repute, Was Victim of an Attack.

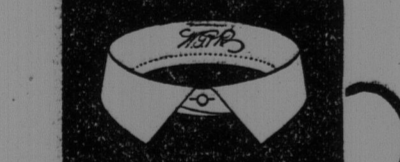

MONCTON, N. B., Aug. 26.—A young man named Percy Myers, belonging to Sussex, is in jail here charged with assault on W. P. Jonah, a well known merchant of this city. The assault appears to be the outcome of a pre-arranged affair, and as a result the injured man is in a pretty bad shape, having received very severe injuries to his face and being kicked about the body. Mr. Jonah has taken some part in having ill-famed houses stamped out, and it is believed the assault on him is a result of this, and was arranged by friends of the proprietors of these houses. Mr. Jonah was standing in Riverside hotel when Myers, who is about six feet in height, walked in and without any preliminary remarks attacked him. Mr. Jonah was struck on the floor with a treacherous and unexpected blow. After knocking his victim down Myers jumped on him, kicking him brutally about the face and body, inflicting a number of cuts and bruises. Mr. Jonah in an unconscious condition was carried to his home, while Myers left hastily, but was afterwards captured at a barn at the horse track. The affair has created great indignation here.

TRAIN AUDITORS MAY SUE MONCTON TIMES

MONCTON, N. B., Aug. 26.—It is likely that legal action will be taken against the Moncton Times for a scurrilous article which appeared in that journal on Saturday morning attacking one of the I. C. R. train auditors. The article in question alleged that on the night of August 21st two of the train auditors boarded the Maritime express at Matapedia and travelled to a station a little farther west, and that the auditors poked his head into a berth occupied by an American lady and demanded her ticket, and that she threatened to bring an action for damages against the railway. The auditors on the train in question were Messrs. Stewart and J. W. Wallace. Mr. Stewart boarded the train and secured from the Pullman car conductor his car record, diagram and tickets, although it is stated by the Times that the conductor on the car was not awakened. As far as looking into any berth or stateroom is concerned, Mr. Wallace, who is well and favorably known all over the I. C. R., says he did not do so, neither did he ask Stewart to do anything of the kind. The auditors heard no complaints whatever from anyone on the car. Mr. Wallace intimates today that further proceedings would be taken in this matter, and that he did not intend letting it drop until it had been settled to the very bottom.

REV. C. W. FORSTER SAYS FAREWELL

Fredericton Clergyman Going to Worcester—St. John Autolists at the Capital

FREDERICTON, N. B., Aug. 26.—At the parish church this morning the Rev. C. W. Forster, who for the past two years has filled the position of curate, preached a farewell sermon to a congregation that taxed the capacity of the church. The Sons of England, of whom Mr. Forster has been the chaplain since Canon Roberts' death, occupied seats reserved in the front part of the church. The sermon was a most eloquent one and a feeling discourse. The preacher referred to his work in the parish with kindly and grateful words, and expressed his regret for the congregation and by the people of all denominations. He expressed his great regret in severing his connection with the parish and hoped and prayed for its continued success. Rev. Mr. Forster will leave on Thursday next for Worcester, Mass., where he has accepted the curacy of the leading Episcopal church in that city.

PAID LAST RESPECTS TO LATE MR. SWEENEY

The funeral of the late M. D. Sweeney, which was held yesterday afternoon, was attended by a very large number of citizens, in the vicinity of 1,500 paying the last tribute to the deceased, who was held in universal esteem.

The members of St. Joseph's Society and the members of the C. M. B., of which order Mr. Sweeney was vice president, marched in a body ahead of the hearse. The procession started from the home of deceased's mother, Elliott road and proceeded to the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception, where Father Mehan performed the funeral service. The C. M. B. A. ritual was read at the grave by Hon. R. J. Ritchie, and was a very impressive ceremony. The pallbearers were: Dr. H. P. Travers, Dr. D. J. Mullin, Dr. T. H. Lunney, Edward Fitzgerald, Parnell McConarty and Chas. O'Neill.

A very pretty wedding took place on Saturday afternoon, when John A. Lipsett, the well known Brussels street grocer, was united in marriage to Henrietta, daughter of James Stevenson. The marriage took place at the home of the bride's father, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. W. O. Raymond. The happy couple left on the evening train for a trip to Niagara Falls, and they will come back via New York. On their return they will reside at 109 Elmwood street. Both parties are very popular, and the esteem in which they are held was evinced by the number of handsome gifts they received.

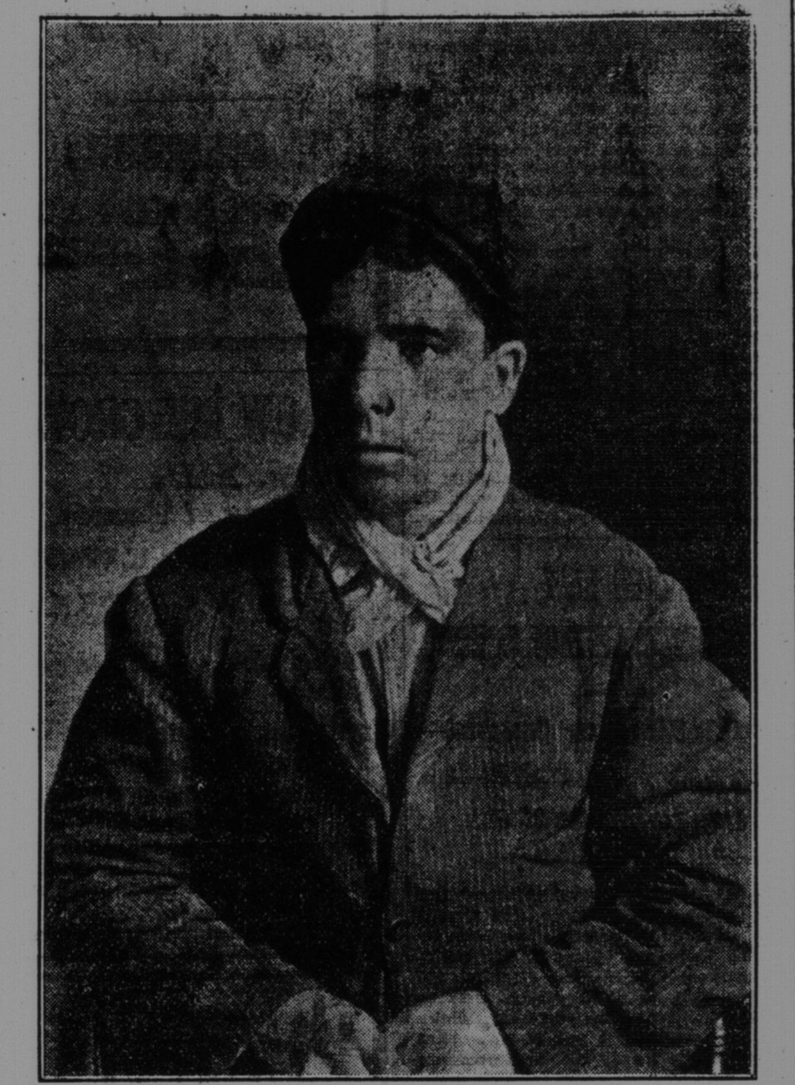

The regular monthly meeting of the safety board will be held this evening, and the other board meetings will be held during the coming week. The sub-committee on a patrol wagon will probably submit a partial report, as a meeting was held on Friday but no decision was reached. Aid. Vanward, the chairman, is himself opposed to the innovation in the present state of the city's finances. Another matter which is coming up to the question of attempting to arrange that Sergt. Hisswell of the police force, now on station duty, who has served so many years on the force should not now have a pension to his wife so regularly as he has for so many years.

Lena Raymond, the north end girl who met with the accident last week by drinking ammonia, is progressing very favorably and has almost recovered from the effects of the draught.

COLLINS CALMLY TELLS HIS STORY AND STICKS TO IT.

Says Miss McAulay Nagged Him Till He Left on Monday Morning—Is Quite Unconcerned—Stains Found on His Underclothing—He Collapsed When Told of the Murder—Probable Witness Found.

Thomas Francis Collins, accused of the murder of Miss Mary Ann McAulay at New Ireland a week ago, is now safely lodged in the central police station. The prisoner was driven to the city the fifty miles from St. George, arriving in St. John at half-past three yesterday afternoon. An immense crowd was collected on King street east when the party arrived, and as Collins was taken out of the carriage and handed over to Deputy Jenkins the people surged forward to see the man accused of the horrible crime of last Sunday.

The disposal of Collins was left to the attorney general, and Dr. Pugsley, when informed last night at the Hotel Belle View of the capture, RESIDENCE OF REV. FR. MAULAY, New Ireland, Albert Co. Where Murder Took Place.

The prisoner did not show much concern in his unenviable position, but looked around in the most unconcerned manner, not at all in an attempted bravado, but he viewed the mob as if said that this morning he would telegraph to Father McAulay and to the sheriff of Albert Co. this morning to come to the city. Father McAulay will identify the prisoner, while the sheriff will probably take him to Albert Co.

REAR OF FR. MAULAY'S RESIDENCE. Just Within the Door Shown, the Victim was Stricken Down.

where he will be tried. Attorney General Pugsley said last night that he would himself conduct the prosecution.

It was half-past three when the police with their prisoner driving up Main, Dock and King streets, arrived at the station. The prisoner sat on the front seat with the chief, while the detective was behind Collins, who seemed mere boy beside his burly captors. He has recovered in health from his trying pursuit and looked in the pink of health. His appearance is not at all vicious, and one could hardly imagine him the author of such a foul deed as that with which he is charged. He is very much as he has been previously described. He wore the handkerchief around his neck, the little cap and mud stained boots all according to the description. He was clean-shaven with the exception of the growth of two or three days.

Collins was taken from the carriage, he was led in the office of the deputy chief with whom he remained caged the greater part of the afternoon. He was, however, taken out that photographs might be made. To the photographers, he proved a willing and obliging subject. The brown, square valise which the prisoner left at Musquash was also brought up by the chief last night. It proved to contain a lot of handkerchiefs, a dozen in all, some gentlemen's underclothing, a razor, never used, some matches and a pair of underdrawers considerably worn, thoroughly wet. The gentlemen's clothing were such as the prisoner would have no use for, being too large for him and of Scotch lamb's wool, apparently such as Father McAulay would himself use. The principal interest, according to Chief Clark seems to centre in the finding of this piece of wet underclothing. In answer to the chief the prisoner said that he got it wet in the rain. On this piece of clothing are some dark brown stains, suspiciously like blood. The St. George people had put Collins in their team, but at once passed him over. The detective, stepping up to him, said, "Do you know who I am?" He answered that he did not. "Well," said the detective, "I am Detective Killen of the St. John police force, and I arrest you on a telegram for the murder of Mary Ann McAulay." Collins dropped off if shot, into the arms of the detective, grasping his throat with his hands and collapsing generally. He was in a state of starvation and at a nearby farm house, where he was taken, eagerly ate some cake and drank two glasses of milk. At first it was thought he was going to die, and a doctor was summoned. He was told to take off his boots and his feet were bathed. He soon fell into a deep sleep and woke up greatly refreshed.

DESCRIPTION OF COLLINS.

The description of Collins as taken by the police yesterday is as follows: Age—21 years. Height—5 feet 3-4 inches. Weight—136 lbs. Complexion—dark, red face. Hair—black. Eyes—grey. Face—smooth. Mouth—full. Nose—straight, broad at the bridge. Chin—short. Face—broad and narrow. Teeth—front teeth good. Arm extension—5 ft. 3 inches. Coat and vest—blue with grey stripes. Trousers—grey with black stripes. Cloth cap—size six. Chest—short. Tattoo mark—An attempt to make the letter T on arm, partially, however, removed. Collar—Size 14 1/2. A number of scars were also found on different parts of his body. The tattoo mark, the prisoner says, was made when he was a boy by his father, who afterwards tried to remove it. The prisoner is full chested. His ears are small. His forehead high. When smiling his mouth bulges to the right side. He has a few whiskers running across his forehead. He usually wears his cap on the back of his head.

DID NOT GET ALONG WITH MISS MAULAY.

Against his late employer, Father McAulay, the prisoner would say nothing, but Miss McAulay, he said, was continually nagging at him, and he admitted that he had quarrelled with her. The prisoner gave more minutely the story of the last few days before the murder. On Thursday (August 16th) he was out fishing on the lake known as the Father McAulay lake, on which A. J. Gross of this city and other gentlemen have a camp. He was with Mr. Gross and his family the greater part of the day. The fish were not biting well, and they returned with only four fish. Miss McAulay told him he had been fishing, wasting his time, instead of fishing. "You had no right to stay away all day and bring home only four fish." She said no word to him while the priest was there, but while he was absent she was continually charging him with this and that. At the request of Father McAulay he took a horse that night to Mr. Duffy, a near neighbor, and upon his return Miss McAulay again accused him of laziness, and said that he should not get any tea.

On Friday morning Father McAulay went away with the mail, and conditions became even more unbearable. He however, did the work about the house, attending to the stables, etc. In the afternoon he went around to the house of Mr. Williamson, a neighbor. On Saturday morning he went again to the house of Mr. Duffy to get the horse for Mr. Gross. He returned without the horse as that family had not arisen, which he told Miss McAulay on his arrival. She said again that I was taking my time. And when I told her that Mr. Duffy was not up she said I was a liar, as Mr. Duffy always got up early, I went in and had breakfast, and when she scolded me again I told her I would tell Father McAulay when he came home. When he finished his breakfast he again looked after the horses, chopping the wood and did the other work about the house.

At 1:30 the Gross party came and he and the horses, chopping the wood and did the other work about the house. He also held the team while they went up to the house. When Mr. Gross came out he gave prisoner a dollar bill, telling him to give fifty cents to Mr. Duffy, which was still owing him. "When they drove away," continued the prisoner, "she wished to know how much Mr. Gross had given me. I told her a dollar, fifty cents of which was to go to Mr. Duffy. 'Are you going to pay him?' she asked me, and I told her I was."

On Saturday evening the team finally came with Mrs. Williamson, and daughter to get fishing at the lake. Prisoner and Miss McAulay accompanied them and the lake was reached at half-past seven in the evening. Miss McAulay told prisoner to make the fire to get prepared for the tea, which he did. Everett Tean and he went on the lake. At eight o'clock the party went to bed, but he talked till 10:30. Miss McAulay and Mrs. Williamson talked the greater part of the night. Just before falling asleep, he looked at his watch and it was ten minutes after ten. They had been talking steadily up to that time. At 11:30 the next morning (Sunday) Mr. Tean, Everett and he went fishing on the lake and in a short while caught two dozen. They returned to breakfast unprepared, and Everett and he returned to the lake. They came back and had breakfast. At half-past nine Mr. Tean, Everett and he again went fishing, remaining until eleven o'clock, when the ladies went fishing for a time. By half-past two they were back to the priest's house. Mrs. Williamson remained there an hour. At four o'clock prisoner says he and Mr. Duffy with the money, and did not remain there five minutes, being back at 5:15. Miss McAulay told him before he went that if he was not back immediately he would get no tea, as she would let the fire go out. That evening he was over at Williamson's for an hour.

On Monday he was up at six o'clock, fed, cleaned and attended to the horses as usual. Miss McAulay told him to harness the horse, as she intended to go to town. "When the horse was all prepared she told me to unharness it again. She said that the stable was not properly cleaned. "I told her," said the prisoner, "that she was making a fool of me, telling me to harness up the carriage and then not use it. Then she told me that she was not making as big a fool of me as I was of her when I went to the lake on Thursday and was only able to catch four fish. "I went in for a drink then, and she followed me to say that I could only catch four fish which they had caught so many on Sunday. "I told her I was going away, and at eight o'clock packed up my valise and went to Elgin, walking all the way. At five o'clock I left Elgin, walking at night to Petticoat, where I bought a ticket to St. John, leaving at nine in the morning."

Collins thinks the horse which he had harnessed in the barn must have got out. He acknowledged meeting Father McAulay at Elgin and the conversation which he had with him there. He arrived in St. John at two o'clock and went over to Carleton, having in his possession at that time, seventy-five cents. He looked for work, but in vain. He spent that night four miles below John Martins (John the Greek). On Wednesday morning he went to the mills looking for work, but not finding any started back again in the direction of St. John. About half-past five however he met young Dean, son of the proprietor of the hotel at Musquash, who asked him if he was looking for work, and told him he could have it at his father's place. That night he spent at Musquash.

John Fox, a prisoner in the county jail, was taken ill on Sunday morning. He expressed the conviction that he was suffering from heart disease and that his end was rapidly approaching. Dr. James Christie, who was summoned to attend him, decided that he was merely suffering from some slight stomach trouble.

A girl named Jennie Foster was struck and knocked down by one of J. S. Gibbon & Co.'s delivery carts on Saturday afternoon. She was somewhat bruised and very badly frightened. She was removed to her home and Dr. Corbett summoned. After an examination he pronounced none of her injuries to be serious.

died shortly after. A lady who was nearby said that she had seen the dog eating on a vacant lot on Crown street, a few minutes before.

WILL BE NO ADVANCE IN HARD COAL PRICES.

A Boston Dealer Thinks the American Anthracite Will Not Cost Any More Than Last Year.

J. R. Condon, coal merchant of Boston, Mass., was at Victoria yesterday.
He is in Canada on a pleasure trip and expresses himself as much pleased with the coal situation here.
Mr. Condon paid a visit to the Springhill mines while in Nova Scotia a week ago, and he says that although he has been in the coal business for fifty years he has never before seen a coal mine. He was shown through the different parts and says that he learned much while there.

Mr. Condon was accompanied about the price of coal this year, and says that he thinks hard coal will sell at the same price during the coming winter as it did last year. The only thing which would make hard coal advance higher than $6.55 would be a strike, and there is no danger of that.

Mr. Condon, who is accompanied by his wife, left for Digby this morning, where they will visit for a short time before returning to Boston.

and a year ago was forced to give up work altogether. He was for 29 years in the employ of A. C. Smith & Co.
Mr. Gardiner, who was 65 years of age, was a native of Hampstead. He is survived by his wife, four sons, Herbert, engineer for the C. P. R., Ernest, Jeweller, in Boston, Freeman, employed with A. C. Smith & Co., and Harold, at home; also two sisters, Mrs. Isaac Vanwart, of Woodstock, and Mrs.
James Lester, of Bath. Mr. Gardiner was an Orangeman, and a member of the Charlotte street United Baptist church. The funeral service will be held dence, and the body will be taken to

COLLINS IS AN AFRICAN VETERAN

Prisoner is Quite Contented in His Cell at Central.

Strongly Maintains His Innocence—He Enjoyed a Cigarette This Morning

LOCAL NEWS.

Thomas Francis Collins, the young Irishman accused of murder, this morning said that he spent a most comfortable night in the cell provided for him. He appears happy under the circumstances and when the death of Miss McAulay is mentioned to him he stoutly denies that he had anything to do with it.

After a good sleep he ate a hearty breakfast and this morning said that he would like to have a cigarette as he was craving for a smoke. He was supplied with a few and seemed pleased to get them. He is furnished with reading matter and with his smoker he appears quite contented.

Attorney General Pugsley said he had wired the Albert County authorities and requested the sheriff to have the information laid and to proceed to St. John for the prisoner, who was that Rev. Fr. McAulay come to St. John to identify the prisoner. Up till one o'clock word had not been received from the Albert County sheriff but Mr. Pugsley expects that he and Father McAulay will be here this evening or tomorrow morning.

The prisoner has been used so well since his arrest that he would prefer to remain in St. John rather than go to Albert County. He is getting nearly everything he wants at headquarters, excepting liberty, and he claims it is the first time that he has been behind the bars. He stoutly maintains his innocence.

Since Collins has been on the run from New Ireland he met a man with whom he talked about campaigning in South Africa during the Boer war. He converses freely of the different battles.

NINE HUNDRED NEW PUPILS ATTEND SCHOOL.

None of the Buildings are Overcrowded—Play-grounds Receive Credit for the Large Number of New Scholars

The city schools opened this morning after the summer holidays, and a very larger number of permits have been issued to beginners. None of the buildings will be overcrowded, although 900 new scholars wended their way to school today. The majority of permits were for Centennial School and that building will have to accommodate about 600 children.

This morning those who passed the High School entrance examinations, assembled at the High School, except the scholars from St. Joseph's College, who went to St. Vincent's Convent, Cliff street.

Repairs have been made during the summer on Centennial, Aberdeen, Victoria and Winter street schools.

It is not yet known which firm will supply the schools with coals this winter. A meeting of the board will be held soon, after which tenders will be received for the coal.

Fire drill will probably be practiced in the schools for the next few days for the benefit of beginners, who have not yet gone through it.

It is thought that the supervised playgrounds are responsible for the unusually large number of permits issued this year. Children who had not begun school became acquainted with the other children and wanted to start their studies at once.

BOHAN-LEE.

A quiet though pretty wedding took place at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception this forenoon when Miss Teresa Lee, daughter of James Lee, became the bride of Michael Bohan, son of Thomas Bohan of Bath, Carleton county, and traveller for the S. Hayward Company. The ceremony was performed at a quarter past ten o'clock by Rev. A. W. Meahan in the presence of a number of friends of the bride and groom. Miss Lee, who was attended by her sister, Miss Annie Lee, wore grey silk with heliotrope hat. The bridesmaid's costume was of white silk with white picture hat. Arthur Godsoh supported the groom. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Bohan left on a visit to Upper Canada. The bride was the recipient of many pretty and valuable gifts.

A. S. B. Reid, of Halifax, was at the Victoria yesterday. He left for Fred-erickton this morning where he has secured a lucrative position.
