Further notice will be given in the evening paper. James Gaylor, of 97 Charlotte street, has been reported by Policeman McClellan for cruelly mistreating two dogs. One of the animals is badly diseased and the other has a broken leg. Gaylor refused to destroy the dogs when suggested by S. Merritt Watmore, the secretary of the S. P. C. A. The trout fishing in the many brooks, streams and lakes within a short distance from the city is reported good and many of the speckled beauties are being captured. A large number of fishermen left the city Saturday to get an early start at the fish before the army of anglers who will leave next Saturday to enjoy the holiday fishing. General Drury of Halifax arrived in the city Saturday and spent Sunday with Colonel Ogilvie. This morning General Drury proceeds to Fredericton, where he will inspect the permanent force stationed at that point. When seen by The Sun last night, General Drury stated that his visit to the city was without official significance and that his trip to Fredericton was of a routine nature. After inspecting the force at the capital, General Drury will return to Halifax. ANOTHER POSITION. Archibald Walsh, of North End, has been selected by the Employment Bureau of the Currie Business University, to fill the position of stenographer for E. Sayre and Co. "You must learn to trust your fellow-men," said the professional optimist. "There's no use in talking that way to me," answered the worried-looking citizen. "I'm in the grocery business."

FIRST LEAGUE GAME

TAKES PLACE TONIGHT

Plans for the opening of the baseball season of the Inter-Society League were completed at a meeting held yesterday morning in St. Peter's Y. M. A. rooms. Representatives from the different societies in the league were in attendance. It was decided to play the opening game of the league this evening at 7 o'clock on the Shamrock grounds. Arthur Mahoney will probably be on the delivery end for the St. Peter's and James Rogers behind the bat. Callaghan will twirl for the St. Joseph's and will be removed by Donovan. Mayor Bullock will pitch the first ball. Last evening it was rumored that the Ancient Order of Hibernians might replace the North End aggregation in this evening's contest. As baseball is doubtless the banner attraction in the sporting line at present, a large crowd in all probability will be in attendance.

FIRST SPOON MATCH

The St. John City Rifle Club held their first spoon match on Saturday afternoon on the local Rifle Range. There was not a large attendance present, but all on hand enjoyed the afternoon's shoot and had their work out for them in trying to fight a trick wind and change in light conditions which make big scoring impossible. LIGHTNING FIGHT SATURDAY BETWEEN PAPKE AND KELLY

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., May 15.—Billy Papke won a lightning victory from Hugo Kelly in the first round this afternoon. Papke followed Kelly round the ring till they came to close quarters, both sparring carefully. Kelly swung short-arm left and rights, trying for Papke's head, one left landing hard on the jaw. Papke landed both hands on Kelly's head and the fight was all over. They were two terrific wallopers and Kelly lay still for the count. Time was called at 2:45 p. m. Papke forced Kelly against the ropes and the latter, after missing a right swing, hooked his right to the stomach. They worked to close range, both fighting carefully. At close quarters Kelly sent short-arm left and rights to the head. Papke forced Kelly to the ropes, swung his right and left arms to the jaw and with a hard right to the jaw put Kelly to the floor for the count of nine. A deep gash was cut over Kelly's right eye from the effects of Papke's pun-

DEATH REMOVES ONE OF CITY'S FOREMOST CITIZENS

THE LATE CHARLES A. EVERETT

In the death of C. A. Everett, which occurred at an early hour yesterday morning, there passed from the business and social life of the city a figure that has long been prominently identified with its growth.

Mr. Everett came from a distinguished Loyalist family which settled in this province shortly after the conclusion of the revolutionary war. For many years he has conducted a successful business and his death at the ripe old age of eighty-one will be mourned by a large circle of relatives and by a host of acquaintances and friends.

Mr. Everett was for some time a member of the Common Council. He represented the city in the federal house for a term of years, and played throughout his life a prominent part in all that went to make for the progress of the city. For some months Mr. Everett has found it impossible to engage in his business and his death at 6:30 o'clock yesterday morning was not unexpected.

Charles Arthur Everett was born 24th March, 1828, a son of Charles Duncan Everett, and a grandson of Lieutenant George Everett of the De Lancy Regiment, which disbanded in this city at the close of the American war. His mother, before her marriage was Frances E. Peters, a daughter of Hon. Wm. Peters, M.L.A., and an aunt of Sir Leonard Tilley and of Judge Hastings.

Mr. Everett received his early education from the schools of the city and later was a student of the Baptist Seminary at Fredericton. In 1848 he entered the business of his father under the firm name of C. D. Everett & Son, and on the retirement of his father he admitted his brother into partnership, the new house styling itself C. & E. Everett.

As a young man he represented Kings ward in the Common Council. It will be remembered that for some years the city suspended payment and his affairs were in the hands of a receiver. Mr. Everett was a member of the council at the time the city resumed payment and it was largely through his management of the finance that this result was brought about. He was also instrumental in having the first complete assessment of the city properties made and resigned his seat at the council board to become chief assessor.

Similarly successful. As an incumbent of this office he was similarly successful, instituting as he did a work that has been of lasting benefit to the city. He was appointed liquidator of the old Street Railway Company and conducted its affairs until disposed of at the instance of the government. He was also an administrator of the estate of the late Judge Chipman with William Miller and Alex. McE. Stebbins, M. L. A.

At the time of the union of St. John and Portland, Mr. Everett represented the city on the commission appointed to arrange the terms of the scheme, the other commissioners being Judge Wilson of Fredericton and John A. Chesley, now of South Africa.

ON FIRST SCHOOL BOARD. He was also a member of the first

A Wife and a Favorite; A Story of a Tragedy, of a Rich Man's Riches, Enduring and Unending

NEW YORK, May 17.—This is a story of a tragedy, a living, soul-searing tragedy of life—a tragedy that will live until death mercifully seals it. It concerns two women—a wife and a favorite. The man—he is dead. Mrs. Chas. T. Yerkes, nearly 50 now, widow of the famous Chicago-London traction multi-millionaire, also ex-wife of one Wilson Mizner, eccentric young society swell—is one of these women. Emilie Grigsby, 40-beautiful Emilie Grigsby, whom Yerkes introduced to the world as his ward—is the other. This story of theirs is easily told. It is the best told by testing a page from each of their life books. Let it be in both cases, from one day's page in last week's book. A physician comes up in his automobile and enters Mrs. Yerkes' beautiful Fifth-av. mansion. The butler sends him straight up to his mistress's apartments. The medical man is admitted by a maid and finds, as he has been finding for weeks, that his patient has passed a restless night. Her temperature is high, her pulse fast. This woman, whose face is lightened by the dark rings under her eyes. They speak of her as a woman of hair, now fast growing hair. His patient is a sick woman, and sickness is fast robbing her of the beauty with which she so long defied age. The doctor prescribes for Mrs. Yerkes, speaks a few words of encouragement and bows his way out. As he leaves, the butler sends up another man, a daily caller. He has been making a

VAST ICE-FIELDS IN THE PATH OF OCEAN LINERS

ST. JOHNS, Nfld., May 16.—Great fields of ice extend out from the shore of nearly every section of Newfoundland, constituting an active menace to the ocean navigation. Within ten days nearly a dozen ocean liners have put in here or at nearby ports badly damaged and reporting narrow escapes. Coastwise shipping is subjected to a shifting embargo, and the returns from the recent elections at St. Berbe are held up by the ice-bondage of the steamer Eagle, which is transporting the ballot boxes. Not for nearly a score of years have the ice fields held so long as this season, and only a shift of the prevailing westerly winds, which have driven the ice ashore, will disperse the ice floes in the direction of the Gulf Stream. First in Collision. Although many of the transatlantic liners arriving in maritime and United States ports have reported sighting

GORDON'S CHOOERING PROVES COSTLY, BUT WHAT OF THAT? HE MADE RECORD

SANTA BARBARA, Cal., May 17.—At a cost of nearly $2 a mile in fines and more than $1 a minute, Huntley I. Gordon, in a 40-horsepower automobile, lowered "Wild Bill" Russ' record from Los Angeles to this city, making the distance in 3 hours and 18 minutes. The time would have been better had he not been twice arrested en route. He beat Russ' record 30 minutes. Gordon passed through Ventura at a terrific pace, paying no attention to demands to stop. He beat a telephone message to this city and fell into the hands of Chief Ross. He was hurried before Police Judge Razor and fined $100 with an alternative of 10 days in jail. In religion Mr. Everett was a Baptist and he has been a lifelong member of the German street church. The funeral will be held at three o'clock Tuesday afternoon from his late residence, 11 Orange street, Rev. W. W. McMaster officiating.

PAWKY SAYINGS OF CARNEGIE

(Jotted Down by W. T. Stead.) Mr. Andrew Carnegie as a conversationalist is racy, pawky, and good-natured. He speaks in a purring, low voice, which is seldom raised in anger and is often interrupted by a laugh. He is fond of a jest at the expense of his companions, as the following history shows. I was with him at the Langham Hotel in London one morning when our talk was interrupted by a deputation which attended to thank him for one of his innumerable benefactions. Mr. Carnegie listened for a time to the flow of complimentary remarks, but getting bored at last he suddenly interrupted the astonished speaker by saying, "Stead's telegraphic address is 'Vatican London.' Now, sir, can you tell me the difference between 'Vatican London' and 'Vatican Rome'?" The civic orator, nonplussed, gave it up. "I will tell you," said Carnegie, with a merry twinkle in his eye. "Vatican Rome" knows that sometimes it may be mistaken, but "Vatican London" never does!" The deputation went away somewhat puzzled at the Carnegie method of terminating an interview with a joke. IN REMINISCENT VEIN. Mr. Carnegie is often in the reminiscent vein, and when he gets started, even Mr. Roosevelt finds it difficult to get a word in edgewise. As for me, I never try. I remember once being kept at the Langham listening to Mr. Carnegie for nearly an hour past the time he had declared the talk must stop. When he looked at his watch he exclaimed, "Dear me, I shall hardly have time to dress. It's all your fault, Stead. Your conversation is so fascinating. The time slips away so fast, I never noticed the clock." I do not shrink from quoting this compliment, because I am prepared to make an affidavit that during that hour I had hardly spoken two words. But then I am a good listener, and Mr. Carnegie says I am always worth hearing. Mr. Carnegie is an admirer and a disciple of Benjamin Franklin. From his voluminous writings may be extracted many pregnant sayings and witty apophthegms. The most famous of all these is his dictum: "The man who dies rich dies disgraced."

YOUR BACKACHE WILL YIELD

To Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Rockland, Maine.—"I was troubled for a long time with pains in my back and side, and was miserable in every way. I decided until I was discouraged, and I should never get well. I read a testimonial about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and thought I would try it. After taking three bottles I was cured, and never felt so well in all my life. I recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to all my friends."—Mrs. WILL YOUNG, 6 Columbia Avenue, Rockland, Me. Backache is a symptom of female weakness or derangement. If you have backache, don't neglect it. To get permanent relief you must reach the root of the trouble. Nothing we know of will do this so safely and surely as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Cure the cause of these distressing aches and pains and you will become well and strong. The great volume of unsolicited testimony constantly pouring in proves conclusively that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has restored health to thousands of women. Mrs. Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has gratified thousands to health free of charge.

DR. JOHNSTON WELCOMES ALL RACES TO CANADA

His subject was "The Vision of Canada from Zacheriah's Second Vision." The speaker gave a brief introduction to his theme, telling of the efforts of the Jews to rebuild the once great City of Jerusalem.

Perhaps the greatest problem in the opinion of the speaker was that of permitting the gates of Canada to be opened for the entrance of the races who are at present clamouring for admission especially at the western coast of the country.

The speaker considered that God's transforming power would make wiser people of our visitors. The gospel of Christ had not sufficient power in the west at present.

Let Canada be truly Christian; God's law will be sufficient to bring us to the feet of the future. Our duty is to scatter the gospel and plant the standard of the cross, wherever we can.

The Rev. W. T. Stackhouse stated he also much enjoyed the splendid address. The remarks were treading upon soil somewhat familiar to him.

Mr. Stackhouse declared it was hardy a Christian act to open the doors of Canada, before the clergy were prepared for the influx. He felt that in the end the nation would continue Canadian.

EMPEROR OF JAPAN RECEIVES U. S. NAVAL COMMANDERS

TOKIO, May 17.—Rear Admiral Harber, commanding the U. S. Asiatic squadron of the Pacific fleet, and the captains of the ships composing the squadron, were granted an audience with the Emperor and Empress today.

In an interview Admiral Harber says: "I came to Japan entirely on my own initiative and had no thought of any special reception to the squadron, but on my arrival found that preparations had already been made to give us a hearty and enthusiastic welcome."

THEY WERE HURT AFTER HOOD-UP

SPOKANE, Wash., May 16.—After the holdup of a Great Northern passenger train by six bandits between Colburn and Mead last night, two persons were injured when the locomotive and the mail car, cut off from the rest of the train, ran back after the bandits had rifled the mail of an unknown amount, and collided with the rest of the train which had been left standing where the bandits got possession.

Having taken the detached mail car down the track a considerable distance, the robbers looted the registered mail and reversing the engine, sent the locomotive and the car crashing back into the passenger coaches.

The conductor saw the wild cars backing down the track, and in an hour and he and another trainman placed a tie on the track to stop their flight, but the cars, which had been stopped by these means, plunged into the coaches, throwing passengers from their seats and causing considerable damage from broken windows. A trainman nerved to the task sprang aboard the locomotive and the mail car, and shut off the steam, stopping the havoc.

When the train reached Colburn late last night some switching had to be done. While the engine was busy at this work two men sprang into the cab and thrusting revolvers at the brakeman, the engineer and the fireman John Hall ordered them to do as commanded. The engineer and fireman complied with the orders, but the brakeman took the mail car track a few miles. Next the engineer and his fireman were forced to leave the cab. Two of the robbers went to the door of the mail car and ordered it opened. Their command was obeyed by Benjamin F. Stump, mail clerk, who was hurried away from the car with the engine by a dozen revolver shots.

When they started the locomotive back toward the rest of the train and escaped. Conductor C. L. Robertson had a broken arm in the elevator. While he was busy telegraphing, about half an hour after the locomotive and the mail car had disappeared, he saw the powerful locomotive careening towards the coaches in which many persons were asleep. For the robbers had acted quietly in sealing the mail car. Many of the passengers knew nothing of the hold-up until awakened by the collision, which was only assayed by the quick work of the trainman. As soon as Robertson realized that collision was imminent he called on the brakeman across the track, a brakeman stood ready to take the mail car as the shock of the collision checked the impetus of the wild engine. The mail car was partly derailed by the tie and the wheels plowed into the ballast, while the steam impelled the locomotive to whirl on the tracks. The brakeman was instantly in the cab, where he seized the throttle and shut off the steam and applied the brakes. Passengers, tumbled from seats and jostled from berths, rushed out to ascertain the cause of the shock. None was fatally hurt.

HAIN'S DEFENCE STILL

FIGHTING VIGOROUSLY. Jurors Asked to Sign Petition for Clemency.

Will Appeal on Grounds That Jury Was Not Properly Guarded—Seek Prisoners Release on Bail.

FLUSHING, N. Y., May 17.—Captain Peter C. Hains, Jr., who was convicted of manslaughter in the first degree for shooting W. E. Annis at the Bay View Yacht Club last August, comes up for sentence today before Justice Garretton in the Supreme Court.

Under the law was 20 years. It was also within the discretion of the court to suspend sentence. When the jury rendered their verdict last Tuesday they made no recommendation for mercy for Hains, the relatives of the convicted army officer and his lawyers have asked the jurors to sign a petition for clemency which was expected to be presented to the court today.

John F. McIntyre, chief counsel for the defendant, had prepared the usual motions to set aside the verdict on the grounds that it was against the weight of evidence and contrary to law. If these motions were denied he was expected to ask for a postponement of sentence until an appeal could be taken on the ground that the jury was not properly guarded.

Counsel was also expected to ask that Captain Hains be released on bail pending the appeal. Mr. McIntyre said today that General Hains, the defendant's father, was ready to furnish bail in any amount. Since his sentence Captain Hains has evidenced no interest in his fate, according to his keepers in the Queen's County jail.
