

SUMMERSIDE MAGISTRATE UNDER FIRE

Temperance Alliance Alleges His Action a Public Scandal.

JUSTIFY EMPLOYING THIEL DETECTIVES.

Drop Cases Because they Could Not Expect Justice, Says Alliance—Annual Meeting to be Held Today.

Charlotte, N. S., Feb. 4.—Great interest is taken in the annual meeting tomorrow of the Provincial Temperance Alliance in view of recent excitement over operations of the Thiel detectives in this province. Executives of alliance in their report justify the engagement of the detectives on the ground that some extraordinary action was necessary owing to intimidation, bribery and perjury of witnesses, as well as indifference of some of the officers of the law. The detectives cost $20 a day for two months.

The only places where they were sent to were places where constant violation of the law was being carried on.

The Alliance also alleges that the course taken in Summerside by the Magistrate and others opposed to impartial enforcement of law was little less than a public scandal. Reference is made to information looking out and certain violators warned.

The Alliance states that the reason why sixteen cases were dropped in Summerside was because they could not expect to receive justice from the present officials.

The Charlottetown prosecutor also comes in for censure for discriminating cases, ordered to be assessed by the Alliance. The report declares that drug stores are little better than bars and should be legislated against as such. The clause affecting doctors needs to be made more stringent, it being found that they issue up to four hundred certificates a month, and liquor. During the recent campaign seventy-one cases were entered and twenty-one convictions obtained.

The Alliance will ask for further amendments to parole laws based on recent experiences. The recent campaign has revealed the fact that conditions were far worse as to prohibition enforcement than was generally believed.

DEFENDS THE DEPORTATION OF STRIKERS

General Smuts States Men Had Diabolical Plans to Ruin the Country—Boer Secret Agent.

Cape Town, South Africa, Feb. 4.—General Jan Christian Smuts, minister of defense, was cheered by all sections except the Laborites, when he arose in the Assembly today to move the second reading of the bill to indemnify the government for its acts under law. After he had spoken for nearly four hours in justification of the government's action in declaring martial law and deporting the strike leaders, the house adjourned. General Smuts will resume his speech tomorrow.

The minister of defense argued the government had to deal with no ordinary strike but a syndicalist conspiracy to paralyze the community in order to compel surrender to its demands.

To defeat this conspiracy and prevent the country from succumbing to anarchy it became necessary to mobilize a larger military force than was employed in the Boer republics at the outbreak of the war. He declared that Secretary Bain of the Trades Federation, one of the men deported, was the most prominent in inciting violence. He had known him when he was employed in the secret service of the Boer government, and declared him to be one of the most desperate characters he had ever encountered. Nothing more diabolical, asserted General Smuts, could have been committed by an invading force than what the deported leaders had attempted.

VANCOUVER URGES INVAL CONTRIBUTION

Pass Strong Resolution at Big Meeting Addressed by Sir Richard McBride and Several Others.

Vancouver, B. C., Feb. 4.—Sir Richard McBride, Captain Clive Phillips, and others, spoke on the navy question at Victoria last night. The following resolution was passed:

"This meeting urges upon the Premier of Canada to continue to use every effort to remove immediately Canada's reproaches, in that she has so far done nothing to aid that navy which is the basis of our Empire's greatness and prosperity, and also the insurance of the peace of the whole world."

GENERAL VILLA MISUNDERSTOOD

Constitutionalist Leader. Did Not Say He Would Execute the Spaniards. Residing at Torreon.

Washington, Feb. 4.—Robert V. Pequeira, confidential agent of the Constitutionalist here, in a statement today declared that a published report attributing to General Villa the statement that he would summarily execute certain Spaniards who he took Torreon, was misunderstood.

"When General Villa last took Torreon he captured a large number of Spanish subjects who had been fighting in the ranks of the enemy, but subsequently released them on parole," he said. "Recently, however, he learned from trustworthy sources that these same Spaniards had violated their parole and had again taken up arms. If captured again General Villa merely expressed the opinion that he would be justified in applying the penalty fixed by military laws for the offense, namely, death. General Scott in 1847 executed a large number of Mexican officers who violated their paroles, so, surely, General Villa has an illustrious precedent for his guidance."

NO TRUTH IN RUMOR

Statement That Life of the King of Spain Had Been Attempted—Proves Without Foundation.

Madrid, Feb. 4.—No credence is given here to rumors circulated abroad that an attempt had been made today on the life of King Alfonso. The King has recently been staying at Seville and dispatches from that city filed at four o'clock this afternoon that the King was in excellent health and had gone to his fox hunting estate nearby.

The premier, Eduardo Dato, late tonight declared that the rumor of an attempt against the King were absolutely without foundation. He had just received a message from the King assuring the Premier that he was in the best of health and had had a pleasant day's hunting.

RATE WAR WILL CAUSE JUMP IN IMMIGRATION.

Montreal, Feb. 4.—The shipping rate war, in the opinion of local agents, is likely to lead to a large increase in the immigration of Europeans of the laboring class, providing ample material for railway and other construction work.

This may result in lower wages being paid to laborers in Canada. Further reductions in third class steamship passages are anticipated.

HON. MR. WHITE IS VERY ILL.

Special to The Standard. Ottawa, Feb. 4.—Hon. W. T. White, Minister of Finance, will not be able to be in the House for some weeks yet, according to statements made today. The result of the operation upon his ear, which was rendered necessary after a severe cold, have not been so satisfactory as was expected.

GRASS IS PRESENTED FACCS OF CASE, AS USUAL

Hon. Mr. Hazen and Hon. Mr. Reid Exploded Misstatement.

DIDN'T COMPLY WITH THE REGULATIONS.

Alleged Wrong Done Returning Traveller Fully Explained—Hon. Sam Hughes Silences Opponent with Facts.

Special to The Standard. Ottawa, Feb. 4.—Much has appeared in the Liberal press concerning the alleged wrong done to a student of Mount Allison University named Colpitts, who was refused landing at Rimouski and taken on to Quebec against his will on board an incoming steamer.

The theory that he had been badly treated was exploded in the house today by Hon. J. D. Hazen and Hon. J. D. Reid.

Hon. Mr. Hazen had some correspondence with Mr. Colpitts and this showed that the latter had neglected to have his name included in the partial clearance papers. Had he done so there would have been no trouble and he could have landed at Rimouski. Officials have to carry out their orders and in this case the quarantine officer had no alternative.

Ottawa, Feb. 4.—At the opening of today's sitting of the Commons, A. K. Maclean of Halifax, asked about the government contracts with the Royal Mail Steamship Company of Canada. He was told that the sum per annum paid to the company was $340,000; that the contract ran for five years, from November, 1913, and that the ships were four in number, the Chignecto, Chalour, Cobouid and Carisque, running from Halifax every two weeks. Mr. Maclean was also told that Watson Griffin had been appointed special travelling trades commissioner in the West Indies at a salary of $4,000 a year. Mr. Griffin was formerly industrial commissioner at Brandon, Man.

PROMINENT MEN GATHER TO AID THE PEACE COMMITTEE

British Members Make Urgent Appeal for Funds—Move to Correct Mistakes in History—Earl of Kintore at Philadelphia Makes Strong Speech.

London, Feb. 4.—The British committee arranging for the celebration of the centenary of peace between the United States and the British Empire, made a second appeal for funds at a meeting held today at the Mansion House, under the patronage of the Lord Mayor of London, and with the Duke of Teck in the chair. Speeches were made by the Archbishop of Canterbury, Premier Asquith, Viscount Bryce, formerly British ambassador, Washington, and J. A. Stewart, secretary of the American committee.

A cablegram from Secretary of State Bryan expressing the sympathy of himself, President Wilson and of the cabinet in the object of the celebration, was read.

Premier Asquith said that as far as he knew, neither the British nor the American government was officially participating in the programme of the celebration, because both of them felt that the movement should be a spontaneous act of the peoples of the two countries.

The Archbishop of Canterbury expressed the hope that some part of the fund would be devoted to educational endowments, by which what he deemed the disproportionate share given to the separation of the United States from Great Britain, might be reduced in American school history books.

John A. Stewart reciprocated this sentiment with the amendment that the false conceptions of Americans taught in England also be corrected.

Sir Edward Grey, British foreign secretary, and Andrew Bonar Law, and Arthur J. Balfour, leaders of the opposition in the House of Commons, sent messages supporting the movement.

Growing Harmony. Philadelphia, Feb. 4.—The Earl of Kintore, chairman of the committee in charge of the exposition to be held in London in commemoration of one hundred years of peace, between the English-speaking peoples, returned to Philadelphia today after a tour of the country. He was guest at a luncheon given by business and professional men of the city. He read a letter from the Duke of Connaught, governor-general of Canada, conveying greetings to the American committee on peace centenary and expressing the hope that the occasion might mark "the forging of yet another link in the chain of Anglo-American friendship."

Lord Kintore spoke of the "growing harmony, growing trade, growing prosperity and growing good will" between the English-speaking nations.

"You and we have been the first to lead the way toward disarmament," he said. "Your northern border stretches for nearly 4,000 miles from Halifax to Vancouver, without a gun without a fort, without a soldier. Such a frontier is elsewhere unequalled in the world."

THE MONTREAL FIRE UNDERWRITERS MAY INCREASE THE RATES

Council of Board of Trade Endorses Representations and Urges Prompt Action in the Matter.

Montreal, Feb. 4.—The council of the Board of Trade today agreed to endorse the representations to the city council of the Canadian Fire Underwriters' Association, with regard to the repeated shortages and stoppages of the water supply particularly during the last eighteen months, that, unless the investigation asked for by the Board of Trade and other organizations is held without delay and prompt action taken on the resulting report the underwriters would be compelled to make a heavy increase in the rates in the city.

SIR JAMES WHITNEY STEADILY IMPROVING

Toronto, Feb. 4.—"Sir James Whitney's condition is very good indeed," declared Alex McPherson tonight. "His progress gives cause for satisfaction."

While Sir James' condition is such as to give cause for anxiety, he was said to be a little brighter late tonight and was considered, on the whole, to be somewhat better than he has been during the past few days.

TO FORM CABINET

Lisbon, Feb. 4.—Bernardino Machado, the Portuguese ambassador to Brazil, arrived here today, and at the request of the President he has undertaken the formation of a new cabinet. The ministry headed by Dr. Afonso Costa resigned on January 27, in consequence of the parliamentary deadlock.

ANTI-TRUST LEGISLATION WAS BARRED

Democrats of Senate Interstate Commerce Commission So Decide—Find Place in Other Bills.

Washington, Feb. 4.—Democrats of the Senate Interstate Commerce Commission, in conference today determined that any attempt to attach supplemental anti-trust legislation to the pending Interstate Trade Commission bill could not be permitted. It was agreed that such additions would only serve to encumber the proposed measure and would conflict with the ideas of the President and administration leaders as to the legislative program under process of perfection.

The decision was reached after consideration of amendments proposed by Senator Cummins and other Republicans who have participated in the general meetings on the tentative trust bill. Senator Cummins particularly urged that the trade commission be authorized to limit the size of corporations, and to regulate capitalization and price cutting. Senator Newlands, chairman of the committee, announced tonight that the majority members were opposed to including any such proposals into the measure, and that such should be treated in connection with other bills proposed to supplement the Sherman law.

Pleading that Congress "in getting after big business must not kill little business," F. R. Segenthal, representing Wisconsin retail implement dealers during the day addressed the House judiciary committee, which continued hearings on the trust programme. J. B. Moorehead of Lexington, Mo., president of the National Federation of Retail Merchants, and John W. Barry of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, joined in this plea, picturing to the committee the small retailers against the campaign of mail order dealers and wholesalers who "invaded" their state.

Sen. Lov, president of the National Civic Federation, continued his remarks before the committee today, arguing that labor unions and farmers organizations should not be made amenable to trust laws.

DEMOCRATS OF SENATE INTERSTATE COMMERCE COMMISSION SO DECIDE—FIND PLACE IN OTHER BILLS.

Washington, Feb. 4.—A National Forestry Congress, similar to the one called by Sir Wilfrid Laurier in 1906 will be held in Ottawa next January. This was decided on the suggestion of Premier Borden, by the delegates to the 15th annual meeting of the Canadian Forestry Association, which concluded its sessions this afternoon.

The lieutenant governors of all the provinces, members of parliament and of the senate, prominent lumbermen, and in fact everybody who is prominently identified and in sympathy with forestry will be invited by the Premier to attend the congress, at which matters pertaining to the preservation of the forests will be discussed.

Prior to deciding on holding the convention the delegates waited on Right Hon. Mr. Borden and Hon. Dr. Roche, Minister of the Interior, and submitted resolutions covering such matters as the extension of forest areas, more care in deciding what lands shall be opened for settlement, free distribution of young trees, and that appointments in forestry should be based on capability, and experience.

To all these the Premier and Dr. Roche promised to give immediate consideration and Mr. Borden suggested holding a national forestry congress. Later the delegates informed him they would be pleased if such a congress could be held and the Premier promised it would be.

The delegates were headed by Hon. W. A. Charlton, M. P., retiring president of the association, and Hon. Clifford Sifton, chairman of the Conservation Committee.

Officers of the association for the ensuing year are: President, William Power, M. P., of Quebec; vice-president, F. C. Whitman, Annapolis Royal, N. S.; secretary, James Lawlor, Ottawa.

STILL WAR IN MEXICO

First Skirmish Before Torreon Results in Withdrawal of Rebel Forces—Check at Mapimi.

Chihuahua, Feb. 4.—The first skirmish between the federal troops protecting Torreon and the rebel army advancing on that city resulted in the withdrawal of the rebel forces. The skirmish, details of which reached here today, occurred in the mountain pass of Puerta de Leacadena, about thirty miles from Mapimi, and northwest of Torreon.

Rebel troops under command of General Urbina were guarding the pass when they were attacked by a federal force which advanced from Mapimi. A brief fight resulted in the abandonment of the pass by the rebels and their retirement to the main rebel advance guard north of Mapimi.

General Urbina was attempting to hold the pass as an approach for rebels from the west. The rebels now believe they will have to fight for Mapimi before they march on Torreon.

IN HOT DEBATE IN U. S. HOUSE

Proposed Bill to Establish Censorship Over the Stock Exchange News—Russianize America Says Opponent.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 4.—"This bill attempts to Russianize America; it would establish a censorship over the press by the postmaster general. American newspapers will not tolerate it."

This was the comment of Senator Hitchcock to fellow members of the Senate Banking and Currency Committee today at the opening of the hearing on the Stock Exchange Regulation Bill offered by Chairman Owen.

The bill provides for denial of the mails to stock exchanges which violate restrictions imposed by the measure, and would require the incorporation of stock exchanges under state laws.

Senator Hitchcock asserted that the wording of the bill would give the postmaster general absolute censorship of whatever news concerning stock exchange papers outside of the cities where the exchanges were located would be printed.

Mr. Undermyer insisted the power given the postmaster general was insufficient; that only transactions of a fraudulent character would be barred from the mails.

NATIONAL FORESTRY CONVENTION

Delegates Seek Protection of the Forests of the Dominion.

PASS RESOLUTIONS AT ANNUAL SESSION.

Premier Borden Promises Convention Will be Held at Ottawa Next January—Doing Good Work.

Ottawa, Feb. 4.—A National Forestry Congress, similar to the one called by Sir Wilfrid Laurier in 1906 will be held in Ottawa next January. This was decided on the suggestion of Premier Borden, by the delegates to the 15th annual meeting of the Canadian Forestry Association, which concluded its sessions this afternoon.

U. S. MAY NOT INTERFERE

If Victor in Haitian War Continues Constitutional Government all Will be Well—Fugitive President.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 4.—It became known late today that if the struggle of the rebel factions now going on in Haiti results in the domination of a labor leader committed to the perpetuation of constitutional government in the republic, the United States probably will not feel called upon to interfere with the re-organization of the government.

Officials here noted with satisfaction that the Senator brothers, who, according to the reports from the American legation at Port Au Prince have succeeded in gaining the ascendancy, are pledging to call the National Assembly in session as soon as they are in possession of the machinery of the government, and it is assumed that the purpose is to afford that body an opportunity to select a new president to succeed Oreste. For the present, however, in the view of the State Department, the fugitive Oreste is still titular president of Haiti.

NQW PLANS FLIGHT ACROSS ATLANTIC

New York, Feb. 4.—To cross the Atlantic in from 12 to 15 hours without alighting is the task set a "flying boat" for which Rodman Wanamaker has let the contract, according to A. R. Hawley, president of the Aero Club of America. In a letter to Mr. Hawley, Mr. Wanamaker says that the purpose of the undertaking is to make "a purely scientific test" of aeroplanes and to provide an argument for world peace insofar as the success of the feat would show that dreamthoughts might be futile in the future.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 4.—The bill provides for denial of the mails to stock exchanges which violate restrictions imposed by the measure, and would require the incorporation of stock exchanges under state laws.

Senator Hitchcock asserted that the wording of the bill would give the postmaster general absolute censorship of whatever news concerning stock exchange papers outside of the cities where the exchanges were located would be printed.

CANADA WILL NOT TAKE PART IN THE SCHEME

Lord Chelmsford's Mission Likely to be a Failure re London Imperial Building for Colonies.

Special to The Standard. Ottawa, Feb. 4.—Lord Chelmsford, who was recently governor of New South Wales, and formerly governor of Queensland, has been in Ottawa for about a week. His mission is to advise participation by Canada in Earl Grey's scheme to concentrate the offices of the over-seas governments of the British Empire in the centre of London on a site known as the "Alwyth site." Lord Chelmsford's mission will not be successful.

Earl Grey, who promoted the scheme, secured the option on the site, formed a company entitled the "Dominion Site Limited," and got a design for a building to accommodate this London office of Canada, South Africa, Australia and New Zealand. Canada was to have the centre of the block.

It is understood that the late Lord Strathcona was asked to report upon the scheme, and that he reported unfavorably.

Recently Earl Grey was ordered by his medical advisers to take a sea voyage, and he has accordingly left England for Australia and New Zealand. The Duke of Norfolk has taken his place on the board, and at Earl Grey's request Lord Chelmsford has come to Canada to lay the plans and details of the scheme before Mr. Borden and his government. Lord Chelmsford has seen Mr. Borden, Mr. Perley, Mr. Rogers, Mr. Hazen and other members of the government, and while they refused today to make public their views until the question comes before the cabinet, The Standard learns from an absolutely authoritative source that Canada will not participate in this scheme. The feeling is general amongst the rank and file of the members at Ottawa that Canada and the other over-seas dominions, when they are prepared to enter into such a scheme, will do so by other means than the securing of options by private parties.

It is understood that the government will go ahead with its own plans for new offices in London, but it is not likely that anything will be done next year, in view of the desire to retrench, as far as possible, this year.

DIVORCE FOR THE JEWS IS EXPENSIVE

Costs $500 Says Rabbi When Questioned by New York Justice During a Peculiar Trial.

New York, Feb. 4.—What looked like an attempt to attack a witness occurred in Supreme Court yesterday and resulted in Louis Cohen, a Brooklyn merchant, being called to the bar where Justice Blanchard declared that if it was not for Mr. Cohen's ignorance he would send him to the Tombs Prison.

Mr. Cohen is suing for divorce and the court room was crowded with witnesses. Mrs. Cohen is alleged to have entertained Peter Pizzitello in her apartment last September.

Irene Monsehn had just left the witness stand and seated herself at the lawyers' table. Her testimony called forth a side remark from Mrs. Sadie Rothman, who was sitting near the witness chair. Mr. Cohen and several others hurried to where the woman was sitting and for a few minutes there was a clamor. Mr. Cohen said he meant no harm to the witness.

"If I did not think you had done this through ignorance," said the

ARISTOCRATS OF DOG WORLD ENTER CONTEST FOR CROWN OF POMERANIA

With the fourth annual specialty show open, lovers of those animated powder puffs known as Pomeranians are literally on their toes with excitement. "Poms" of every degree, color and shape, all of them aristocrats of the dog world, were brought to New York from all parts of the United States and Europe to compete for the honors of their breed at the show opened recently under the auspices of the American Pomeranian Club in the Waldorf-Astoria.

Of the exhibitors, Mrs. Frank Smyth, president of the club, is one of the largest. Mrs. Smyth will show fifteen dogs, among them being a wonderful orange "Pom," said to be the finest of its kind ever seen.

Mrs. De Ruyter Hollins will exhibit her well known brown "Poms," Eastern Dickins and Eastney Elf, and, it is rumored, a remarkably good pair of debutantes in her favorite brown.

Mrs. William C. Wiederseim will be represented by her champion "Pom," Ofrey, Kew Marco.

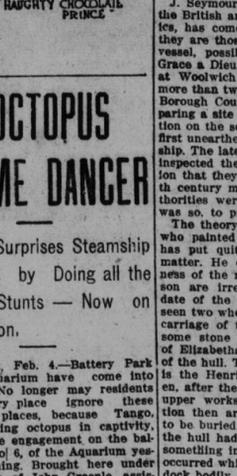

Miss Lena Schilling is showing an exceedingly fine specimen in the blacks, which is a recent importation from Manchester. Beside the new arrival Miss Schilling will also show her chocolate winner, Haughty Chocolate Boy, which is as fine a chocolate "Pom" as there is in this country to-day.

GOLD-HEADED CANE FOR HON. D. V. LANDRY

Fredrickton, Feb. 4.—Hon. Dr. D. V. Landry, provincial secretary and former minister of agriculture, was this morning presented with a gold-headed cane by the members of the staff of the Agricultural Department. Speeches were made by Premier Flemming and Hon. John Morrissey.

Justice, "I would send you to the Tombs Prison. This is not a circus performance where the antics of animals are witnessed. This is a court of law where the proceedings are orderly and fair."

Rabbi Rosen took off his hat only when he faced Justice Blanchard. John Palmieri, formerly a Judge, explained that the rabbi would not swear on a Bible because it contained the New Testament, and also that the rabbi did not believe he was under oath unless he put on his hat. At the direction of the Justice the rabbi placed his hat on his head, and the Old Testament part of the Bible was placed in his hand while he took the oath.

The rabbi, through an interpreter, said that no one of the name of Cohen would be permitted to live with his wife if that Cohen knew she was a woman of bad habits. Mr. Greenberg, counsel for Mr. Cohen, wanted to know whether a divorce would be permitted by the rabbi whether the wife was a good woman or not, provided they both consented and both asked for a divorce. The clerkman replied that under the conditions specified a divorce would be permitted if $500 was paid. He said the $500 would go to the head rabbi.

NO CHANGE IN SITUATION

Washington, D. C., Feb. 4.—There were few external signs today of the effect of the presidential proclamation of yesterday revoking the order against the shipments of arms and munitions of war into Mexico. In answer to a suggestion that the work of the American border patrol would be greatly reduced in consequence of the revocation of the order, Secretary Garrison said that he would be guided entirely by the recommendations of General Bliss at El Paso in making any change in the dispositions of the troops. So far, he said, he had not considered the feasibility of making any reductions.

The status of the refugee Mexican soldiers, federal and constitutionalists alike, now held by the United States, were not affected by the proclamation, and it was stated that when order was restored in the southern republic the Mexican government would be confronted with a bill for the maintenance of the refugees.

USED HER SKIN TO SPLICE BACKBONE

Plattsburg, N.Y., Feb. 4.—One of the rarest and most difficult operations in surgery has just proved successful at the Physicians' Hospital here. The operation was performed on Miss Rose Jenner of Elizabethtown by Dr. C. D. Silver of Plattsburg.

Miss Jenner came to Plattsburg six weeks ago. She had tuberculosis disease of the spine, affecting several of the vertebrae of the spinal column. She is nineteen years old, and for five years had been bedridden, deprived of the use of her lower limbs.

The operation was performed by opening six inches or more in the back, exposing the spinal column and allowing the complete removal of the diseased portions of the vertebrae. When this was done the gap was filled by a section of bone taken from the front of the tibia, or shinbone, of the patient, so shaped as to inclose the spinal cord. This was then grafted into place and the wound completely closed.

The patient was put in a plaster cast and kept almost motionless for six weeks. An examination this afternoon showed that the wound had healed without suppuration and that there was no apparent reason why the patient should not recover the full use of her legs. The bone graft had "taken," the piece adhering, and all had grown together, giving the patient a backbone with several of the vertebrae rigidly joined.

CONTROVERSY OVER DATE OF SAILING SHIP

Timbers Subject of Much Discussion and Curiosity—Consider the Opinion of Noted Artist.

New York, Feb. 4.—At the present time there is a controversy in England over some old ship timbers. One party, says the Victoria Colonist, contends that the remains are those of a ship of the time of Henry VIII., the Henry Grace a Dieu, while the other believes them to be portions of Sir Francis Drake's famous flagship the Golden Hind.

J. Seymour Lucas, Royal Academy, the British artist, after seeing the relics, has come to the conclusion that they are those of a sixteenth century vessel, possibly the famous Henry Grace a Dieu. This craft was burned at Woolwich in 1553. It was little more than twelve months ago that the Borough Council of Woolwich in preparing a site for a new electricity station on the south bank of the Thames first unearthed the timbers of this old ship. The late Sir William White then inspected them and was of the opinion that they came from an eighteenth century merchant vessel. The authorities were not very keen, if this was so, to preserve the remains.

The theory of Mr. Lucas, the artist who painted "The Amada in Sight," has put quite a new aspect on the matter. He considers that the closeness of the ribs and size of the keelson are irrefutable evidence of the date of the hull. In addition, he has seen two wheels, evidently from a gun carriage of the time of Henry VIII., some stone cannon balls and pieces of Elizabethan pottery, all taken out of the hull. The theory that the vessel is the Henry Grace a Dieu was taken out after the fire which destroyed her above Battery place. Ignore these sightseeing pieces, because Tango, the only living octopus in captivity, started a life engagement on the balcony tank No. 6, of the Aquarium yesterday morning. Brought here under the direction of John Greenle, assistant chief of the engine room of the Comal, of the Mallory line, Tango will perform the latest Key West glides and dips under the Aquarium management until his indefinite contract with nature ends.

N.Y. OCTOPUS SOME DANGER

"Tango" Surprises Steamship Officials by Doing all the Latest Stunts—Now on Exhibition.

New York, Feb. 4.—Battery Park and the Aquarium have come into their own. No longer may residents of the harbor place ignore these sightseeing pieces, because Tango, the only living octopus in captivity, started a life engagement on the balcony tank No. 6, of the Aquarium yesterday morning. Brought here under the direction of John Greenle, assistant chief of the engine room of the Comal, of the Mallory line, Tango will perform the latest Key West glides and dips under the Aquarium management until his indefinite contract with nature ends.

Born and raised in the deep waters of the harbor of Key West, Tango, ladies and gentlemen, was taken from his home by an enterprising fisherman, Mr. Greenle, always on the lookout for attractions for the Aquarium, discovered this wonderful creature, which is a member of that patrician genus of the cephalopods of the order of octopods.

Tango, you must know, was obtained with great labor and at enormous expense. When he was being carried in a large tank from his native habitat to his stateroom on board the Comal he heard the strains of the maxixe emanating from a cafe. Straightway Tango leaped from his tank and, with marvellous grace and rapidly, lame ducked, one stepped, dragged, pivoted and dipped up a near-by alley.

Refrained that his contract called for no performances until he reached America, Tango, who is as temperamental as any grand opera star, became sulky, but consented to be taken on board the steamship.

A day out from Key West, hearing the dargay cook playing the "Blue Danube" on a battered Jew's harp, he again escaped, finding his way into the hold, where he did the hesitation waltz for eighteen hours, a record, no other member of his family ever being able to perform out of his native element for more than five hours.

Taken from the Comal yesterday morning, this wonderful attraction was taken the Aquarium and placed in his especially constructed studio, where he may be viewed by one and all.

Tango, ladies and gentlemen, measures twenty-six inches from tentacle to tentacle and has a marvellous repertoire. Step up, one and all, no admission charged, and his contract may be short. See Tango, now on exhibition at the Aquarium!

WOMEN OF SOCIETY IN WASHINGTON ON THEIR TANDEM MOUNTS

Washington society is still talking about the splendid appearance made by the young women who took part in the riding contests at the first entertainment this season given by the Riding and Hunt Club. The still with the riders displayed, especially in the intricate tandem drill, called forth much favorable comment. Their riding was the chief feature of the contest.

CHECKS FOR LIFE SAVERS.

Checks for ten dollars each have been made out for the members of the crews of the steamers John L. Cann and Westport, instrumental in saving the passengers and crew of the wrecked steamer Cobeguid, and will be turned over to the men when the vessels reach this port. The engraved gold watches for the captains are not yet ready.

GRAMPIAN SAILS.

The Allan Line steamer Gramplan, Capt. Hall, sailed shortly after 10 o'clock yesterday afternoon for Liverpool with 10 saloons, 302 second, and 292 third-class passengers. She also took away two carloads of mail and a large general cargo. After discharging at Liverpool, she will proceed to Glasgow to be overhauled, and on March 21st she will go on the Glasgow and Boston route.

RIGGING AND SAILS DAMAGED.

The captain of the tern schooner Percy C. at Liverpool wharf, Portland, Me., is in search of the miscreant who on Saturday night deliberately cut and slashed a portion of his sails and a large part of his rope rigging, causing considerable damage. It is understood that the captain has his suspicions and will probably have the man arrested if he can locate him. The Percy C. is to be towed to Lunenburg, there to be loaded with lumber for New York delivery.

CAMPANIA TO BE SOLD.

New York, Feb. 4.—After twenty-one years' service on the Atlantic, the famous record-breaking steamer Campania is to be sold to ship broker Harry next July, according to an announcement published here today. During her long career the Campania has made 240 round voyages to this port and has carried more than 100,000 first-class passengers.

CAPTAIN AND WIFE HONORED.

London, Feb. 4.—Capt. Francis Inch, commander of the steamship Volturo, which was burned in mid-Atlantic on Oct. 11, 1913, with a loss of 135 lives, was presented today with the freedom of the city of London in a silver casket, and also with a gold medal, a gold watch and a chain, a purse of gold, and Lloyd's silver medal.
The presentation was made by the Lord Mayor at the Mansion House. He told Capt. Inch that the tokens

The Skin Troubles of Childhood

School Records Show Much Time Lost From Eczeema

Chafing and skin irritation, whether from changing temperature, rough winds, strong sun or the action of the clothing, naturally develop into eczeema, spread over the body and defy ordinary treatments.
Most doctors do not give much attention to skin diseases, and consequently, it is necessary for parents to select some treatment which has proven a cure for such ailments. If the condition is curable at all, then you can turn to Dr. Chase's Ointment with fullest assurance that in this you will have the means of eradicating itching skin diseases.
By affording prompt relief from the terrible itching, Dr. Chase's Ointment puts an end to suffering and removes the cause of scratching. As the fires of eczeema die away the ointment sets up the process of healing, and brings about thorough and lasting cures. As a treatment for the skin troubles of children nothing has ever proven so satisfactory as Dr. Chase's Ointment.

WERE IN RECOGNITION OF HIS "HEROISM AND STOUT ALLEGIANCE TO DUTY."

At the same time, a diamond and sapphire pendant and a silver tea service were presented to Mrs. Inch. The Lord Mayor and William Macdonell, the wireless inventor, delivered speeches, in reply to which Capt. Inch modestly disclaimed having done anything but his duty.

INJURED IN BOAT DRILL.

At Portland, Me., a few days ago Quartermaster Johnson, of the Allan line steamer Pretorian, lying at the No. 6 Grand Trunk wharf, met with an accident Thursday which is likely to keep him under cover for quite a period. With a crew of men he was engaged in a boat drill, and as the boat was being lowered the rope at one end slipped and all hands went into the dock. Mr. Johnson, it is supposed, was struck by the boat in its descent and was badly injured. He was taken in the police ambulance to the Maine General Hospital, where it was found one leg had sustained a compound fracture. It is feared he will be laid up all of three months.

Cash Down.

In a certain county court the other day a badgering counsel found a tatar in the person of a customer in a case where a clothier sued a customer for a suit of clothes.
The counsel's point was that his client was entitled to at least three months in which to pay the bill, and it was barely that time since the clothes were got.
"Now, sir," said the counsel to the tatar, "had I got the clothes instead of my client, would you have summoned me to court at this stage?"
"No, sir."
"And why not, pray?"
"Simply because, in your case, it would have been a cash transaction only."
No more questions were asked.

'Fruit-a-Lives' is the only remedy I ever used that did me any good, and I am grateful to 'Fruit-a-Lives' for making me as well as I am today, and everyone agrees that I look in first-class health.
My husband likes 'Fruit-a-Lives' very much and takes them whenever he has occasion to use a remedy for Constipation."

SUNKEN HULL OF ILL-FATED FREIGHTER

Fishermen Discover Sunk- en Hull of James S. Car- ruthers, which went down in Lake Huron.

Bayfield, Ont., Feb. 4.—What may be the sunken hull of the James S. Carruthers, ill-fated freighter, which went down with all hands on Lake Huron in the terrific storm that swept the lakes early in November, carrying death and destruction in its wake, has been located north of northeast of Alpena, Mich., by several fishermen of that town.
As the result of the discovery interest along the lake is at fever heat and speculation as to whether investigation will disclose the whereabouts of the lost vessel and solve the mystery that has baffled navigation experts since the boat's disappearance.
Captain W. Ferguson, of Bayfield, who has navigated one of the Pittsburgh Steel Company's vessels for many years, is in receipt of a letter from the head office of the company, asking him to proceed at once, and conduct a searching investigation into the rumor.

IMPERIAL'S FEATURE

MUCH ENJOYED

John Barrymore Scored Distinct Hit in "An American Citizen"

A distinct change in photoplays was offered at the Imperial yesterday, when John Barrymore, whose name is familiar to metropolitan theatregoers, delighted in assuming the role of Beresford Cruger in Madeline Lucretia Ryley's piquant comedy, "An American Citizen." From the time the piece opened until the last of it flickered of the curtain the large crowds were kept in a condition of giggles and surprises.
The comedy has four reels length and with a delicious vein of humor portrays the adventure of the American real estate bachelor who has been beset by a fortune, provided he takes up his residence in England and marries an English woman. It is a most amusing struggle through love for his native United States and the desire to become thoroughly Anglicized in the true British sense. The scenes are laid in New York, London and in Nice, France. It is a scenic triumph, with a fine cast of players and the Famous Players' Co. of which Daniel Frohman is the president have added another distinct list to their vast and growing list of Broadway reproductions.
"An American Citizen" will be shown at the Imperial this afternoon and this evening, at the hours of 7.30, 7 and 8.30 for the last time. Pathe's weekly, The Three Harmony Girls and Miss Gertrude Aske are additional attractions. At last evening's performance the number of theatre parties occupying the boxes was noteworthy showing the growing popularity of the fine film productions among regular theatregoers.

THE QUEBEC CASE

Grit newspapers, and particularly the esteemed Telegraph, are attempting without much success to make light of the charges preferred against members of the Quebec legislature by the Montreal Daily Mail on the ground that as no charge has been made against Premier Gouin himself the effect upon the government he leads will be light. It is true there has been no charge leveled at the head of Quebec's prime minister. His character has not been assailed. It is equally true that some of his closest friends are, however, in a doubtful position. For instance, his law partner, Hon. L. P. Berard, and his political right bower, Mr. Mousseau, have been charged and resigned, when the investigation was getting rather warm.

It may also be regarded as somewhat unfortunate for the whole Liberal party, both Federal and in the Province of Quebec, that Rodolphe Lemieux, head and front of Laurier Liberalism in Quebec, should have been the man to introduce one of his Gaspe heaters to Mr. Mousseau with the remark, "Mousseau wants anything done Carpenter is the man to do it." There is an additional fact that Mr. Lemieux, Sir Lomer Gouin and Mr. Berard are all members of one law firm, and it may be that the public mind in Quebec is somewhat disturbed because of this. If, as the old adage has it, a man is known by the company he keeps, then Messrs. Lemieux and Gouin were rather discreet in their association with either Mr. Berard or Mr. Mousseau.

Again, it may be remembered that Mr. Mousseau conducted Sir Wilfrid Laurier's election campaign in the County of Soulanges and now that his personal honesty has been questioned, some doubt also be thrown on the legitimacy of his electoral methods. There may be ground for the question, whether Sir Wilfrid's "Liberal gain" in Soulanges was achieved in a manner that will bear the fullest light of investigation.

Possibly Sir Lomer Gouin and Mr. Lemieux will emerge from the probe with the purity of their political vestments unspotted, and then again they may not. As matters stand now it is not easy to tell who may have come within range of the detectives which have played such an important part in the case. At any rate the Gouin government, or the party of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, cannot be said to have gained in favor as the result of the investigation to date, no matter what the Telegraph may say. Of course, we realize that the Standard is under a distinct disadvantage in discussing questions of graft and deals with the Telegraph. Our older contemporary has such a wealth of experience to draw upon.

CANADA AND NEW YORK.

A New York despatch to the Montreal Star of Tuesday contains the information that in America's greatest city there are 331,000 men out of work. The figures are quoted from statistics gathered by the Employment Bureau of the Society for Improving the Condition of the Poor, and are probably as authentic as such figures can be. The despatch says in part: "As a result of a canvass of manufacturers, contractors and merchants, the Bureau reported that conditions were abnormal and the worst since the winter of 1907-1908. 'Most of the employers felt, however, says the report, that business relief was in sight, and that a very few months would see the return of normal business conditions.' 'Of the total unemployed, 140,000 were unskilled laborers. The building trades came next, with 70,000. Then followed: Longshoremen, 18,000; cloak and suit makers, 18,000; waiters, 6,500; tailors and pressers, 6,000; clerks, bookkeepers and accountants, 5,000; mechanics, 4,500; boatmen, barge-men and sailors, 4,200; barbers, 3,800; drivers, 3,000; engineers and firemen, 3,000; and other trades in smaller proportion.

"The Bureau acknowledged that these figures are only approximate, but said that in every case the most conservative information was followed." When Sir Wilfrid Laurier rose in the House the other day and dealt with the number of unemployed in Canada, he placed the figure at 100,000 and it was speedily shown that he had multiplied it about four times in order to make a strong case. The population of New York, according to the census of 1910, is 4,764,883, while the population of the Dominion of Canada is about eight millions. Here we find one city in the United States, with a population not five-twentieths as great as that of Canada, and with more than twelve times our total of idle men.

Sir Wilfrid's estimate of the alleged hard times in Canada was intended to discredit the Government as being responsible for conditions leading to idleness. The Grit newspapers loudly proclaim that the Government is to blame for any commercial depression and lack of work, yet the very men who write such trash, to say nothing of the men who read and believe it, would be the first to scout the idea that the government at Washington was responsible for the number of unemployed in New York city. Yet one assumption is as logical as the other. Again, taking the arguments of Sir Wilfrid and other Grit spellbinders, it is not easy to see why there should be idleness in New York city, or why the cost of living should press there. They are getting the benefits of free food, that is food free of all duties, and as this is the Laurier panacea for hard times, why does it not work in the largest city in America as well as in Canada, where the need for it is just one-twelfth as great? The comparison also brings up the thought that if the Grit opportunist leader had to campaign among the 331,000 unemployed in New York he would have a splendid opportunity to play the tune of relief from the grasping agricultural monopoly, the same tune by the way that he does not dare to play for the farmers in Canada. And it was the presence of these same farmers, in his audiences, that caused the sudden relegation of the Free Food Sonata to the lowest shelf in the Grit music rack.

Mr. Pugsley's illness. Remarks the "truthful" Times: "When Hon. William Pugsley was well he was only worthy of abuse from the Tory press. Now that he is ill and unable to be in Parliament the Ottawa correspondent of the Standard writes: 'The loss to the Liberals is serious. In fact his absence largely accounts for the apathy which has been shown by the opposition this session. His was the genius that framed most of the attack during the last two sessions.' While the Standard does not agree with Mr. Pugsley's peculiar conception of political ethics, surely we can be genuinely sorry that he is ill, and consequently may not be able to take his place in Parliament this session. The sessional programme contains many things the discussion of which Mr. Pugsley should hear. For instance, there is the promised report on the National Transcontinental Railway scandal, in which we know he would be interested, as is every other public man. Can it be that the small bore Times does not understand that it is possible to differ from a public man as to his political beliefs or conduct and still revere him as he has been stricken with illness? The Standard is sincerely sorry that Mr. Pugsley is not in robust health, but that does not change our opinion that his political record has not been the best or most consistent.

So it is with our attitude toward our peevish neighbor. We have had occasion to accuse the Times of deliberately lying and that newspaper has not had the manliness to resent the charge, or the decency to admit it, when proven. In spite of this fact, however, the Standard harbors no personal grudges, and if sickness were to invade the Times office, we would be glad to extend sympathy just as quickly as if that newspaper were renowned for its honesty, instead of being notorious for qualities exactly opposite. Judging from the Times' complaint, that newspaper cannot recognize the spirit of broad sympathy when it sees it, but in this office, we possess it in superabundance, and consequently add our hope to that of his many friends that Mr. Pugsley will speedily be restored to his usual good health.

The name of Sir Wilfrid Laurier has been suggested as a successor to the position of Canadian High Commissioner in Great Britain, filled so well by the late Lord Strathcona. While Sir Wilfrid would make an admirable man we venture to hope he will not be chosen. It would be an awful strain upon the editors of the Telegraph and Times to think up new ways of telling the people that his appointment was but another dastardly trick of the Tories to get rid of him and thus strike a blow at St. John.

CURRENT COMMENT

A German View.

(The Hamburg Nachrichten of June 5, 1913.)

"Whatever may be decided upon later, the decision of the Canadian Senate means at any rate a heavy moral and material loss for the defense of the empire, for Mr. Borden's promise has been foolishly counted on. His offer made an enormous impression in the whole world. This impression is now not only being destroyed, but people will everywhere obtain the conviction that England cannot depend upon such help from her colonies."

Diary of Events

HISTORIC DAYS IN CANADA

It was on this date that the great earthquake of 1663 occurred, the worst seismic disturbance in Canada, an history, judging from the descriptions of contemporary writers. Leleumont, a Jesuit records: "It began with a great roaring sound heard through the whole extent of Canada, Bells sounded of themselves; beams and joists cracked; the loss of the pallades at Quebec danced about, and many habitations were nauseated by the rocking of the earth. Trees struck one against another, and leaped on each other with such noise and confusion that the Indians said the whole forest was drunk. A number of men in a boat near Tadoussac stared aghast at a large noise and confusion behind him were their eyes. And Mother Marie de l'Incarnation tells of a man who ran all night to escape a crack in the earth which opened rampant in the forest." Indeed, there is even more tangible geological evidence that a severe convulsion took place when the Puritans of New England and the burghers of New Netherlands. The shocks continued but with less severity, for several months. Small streams were dried up; some mountains appeared to be much broken and moved, and midway between Quebec and Tadoussac a point of land that extended some distance into the St. Lawrence.

February 5 is the anniversary of the royal order of 1799 by which the name of Isle St. Jean, as it had been known since its discovery by Cartier in 1534, was changed to Prince Edward Island, out of compliment to the Duke of Kent, then commander of the forces in British North America.

THE PASSING DAY

JAP CHRISTIANS CELEBRATE.

This is the holiest day of the year for the 75,000 Roman Catholic adherents in Japan, for it is the festival of the martyrs of Nippon, and commemorates the bravery and zeal of the first Christian converts in that country. Although the religion of Jesus was introduced into Japan by St. Francis Xavier in the sixteenth century, it has made little progress, and today, out of a population of 70 millions, there are only about 115,000 Christians, of whom 75,000 are Catholics and 40,000 Protestants. Vast sums have been and still are expended on missionary work in the empire of the Mikado, but the missionaries have made little progress. The vast majority of the people cling to the ancient Shinto faith and the more modern Buddhism. The great soprano, in his temperance of western culture, agnosticism and disbelief in all religions have become prevalent among the intellectual and educated classes. The works of all the great anti-religious philosophers of the Occident, from Voltaire and Paine to Spencer, Huxley, Haeckel and Ingelow, are read and exercised a vastly greater influence than the Christian Bible. St. Francis Xavier, a Spanish gentleman who was a convert of St. Ignatius Loyola, founder of the Society of Jesus, was the first to preach Christianity in Japan. A number of Jesuit missionaries followed in his footsteps. For a time they were permitted to spread the propaganda of their faith in peace, and made many converts, but in 1590, some forty years after the death of St. Francis Xavier, a fierce persecution of the Christians broke out. Japanese historians declare that this was due to the progress and zeal of the missionaries, who treated the ancient religion of Japan with supreme contempt. He this as it may, thousands of converts were slain or expelled from the country. All Christian rites were forbidden. When the anti-Christian edict was promulgated, many of the Japanese converts formed a confraternity of martyrs, the object of which was to die for Christ. Many little children joined it, and all were ruthlessly slain, and their bodies buried alive, and left to die of starvation. The heads of others were sawn off with blunt instruments. Others were awfully into a sulphurous chasm. Noble men as well as the poor and humble shared in the horrible fate meted out to those who refused to recede. The names of these martyrs, has set aside the date of February as their festival, and this date is annually observed by the Christians of Nippon. Shinto, the ancient religion of Japan, had for its principal creed the worship of the Mikado as the direct descendant and actual representative of the sun goddess. It also incultured ancestor and hero worship. In 552 Buddhism was introduced, and slowly but surely gained ascendancy over the people. Among the educated classes it was supplanted by the philosophy of Choo Ho, and that, in the last half century, has been vanquished by agnosticism.

SAN MARINO'S INDEPENDENCE.

In the little European republic of San Marino today is the solemn restoration of the republic on Feb. 5, 1740. San Marino, perched on lofty mountains overlooking the Adriatic, is only thirty-two square miles in extent, but it is the oldest of the world's existing republics. Its career as an independent country began in the ninth century, but in the sixteenth century the republic was overthrown by Cesare Borgia. It was re-established after the death of Borgia, but it was not until 1740 that its freedom was finally secured. Ever since that time San Marino has been undisturbed, and while all Europe was at war the little mountain country was left to peace and quiet.

"Do you know," he whispered, ardently, "to me life does not seem long enough for our happiness. Just think, even if we are fortunate our married life can hardly last longer than fifty years."

"Is that all?" she queried, wonderingly, edging nearer.

"Yes, that's so," a touch of sadness in his voice. "Only fifty years in which to love each other."

"Then kiss me quick, Reginald," she exclaimed. "We're wasting time."

ALL BRIDGES COMPLETED THIS SPRING

Premier Flemming Makes Important Statement in Connection with the Valley Railway Construction

Special to The Standard. Fredericton, Feb. 4.—That all bridges on the St. John Valley Railway between Centreville and Gagetown, with the exception of that at Pokok, which is in a small zone where steel is not laid, will be completed before spring, was the statement made by Premier Flemming today.

Last evening A. R. Gould and Ross Thompson, of the St. John and Quebec Railway Company, appeared before the government and reported on the satisfactory progress which was made with bridge construction during the winter. Bridges at Centreville and Rhogomac are now complete and the erecting crew is at Eel River. Material for all the bridges is in process of manufacture and will soon be available.

Bridges still to be erected this winter are those at Hartt Lake, Swan Creek and Oropocto below Fredericton and Kelley's Creek, Long's Creek, Garden Creek, Medunkeag, and the C. P. R. crossing at Woodstock above Fredericton.

Special to The Standard. Fredericton, Feb. 4.—A request from the New Brunswick Medical Association has been received asking that the government assist in defraying the expenses of the cost of a booklet setting forth the interesting facts about New Brunswick, which the Association propose to issue for distribution among the 400 delegates, who will attend the convention of the Dominion Medical Association to be held in St. John in July.

It will be the first time the Dominion Association has met in this province in more than twenty years. Delegates from all over Canada as well as from the Old Country and the United States will attend. The government is disposed to listen upon the request favorably and may make a grant.

NEW C.P.R. HOTEL AT CALGARY CHRESTENED

Named after Capt. Paluser, Head of Expedition which Explored Country Big Building.

Montreal, Feb. 4.—The new C. P. R. hotel at Calgary was today officially christened The Paluser by Sir Thomas Shaughnessy. It is named after the late Captain Paluser, who, in 1857, led a government expedition to explore the country between Lake Superior and the Rocky Mountains. Captain Paluser, with a staff of scientific men, continued his investigations until 1859, and reports of considerable value were published as the result.

THICK, GLOSSY HAIR, FREE FROM DANDRUFF

Try it! Your hair gets soft, fluffy and luxuriant at once.

If you care for heavy hair, that glistens with beauty and is radiant with life, has an incomparable softness and is fluffy and lustrous, try Danderina.

Just one application doubles the beauty of your hair, besides it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff; you cannot have nice, heavy, healthy hair if you have dandruff. This destructive scurf robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life, and if not overcome it produces a feverishness and itching of the scalp; the hair roots flanch, loosen and die; then the hair falls out fast.

If your hair has been neglected and is thin, faded, dry, scraggy or too oily, get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderina at any drug store or toilet counter; apply a little as factoring hair—ten minutes after you will say this was the best investment you ever made.

We sincerely believe, regardless of everything else advertised, that if you desire soft, lustrous, beautiful hair, and lots of it—no dandruff—no itching scalp and no more falling hair—you must use Knowlton's Danderina. If you don't—why not now?

STEP SON STRATHCONA TO BENEFIT

James H. Smith, of Brookline, Mass., to Receive Big Sum—Real Estate at Pictou.

New York, Feb. 4.—James H. Smith of Brookline, Mass., who announced a few days ago that he intended to put in no claim for any part of the estate of his step-father, the late Lord Strathcona, benefits by the will. The income of $125,000 is placed in trust for him, and he receives outright real estate in Pictou, N. S.

The will directed that the text of the will was made public in this city. Smith was the son of Lady Strathcona by a former husband.

In regard to the bequest of $50,000 to Yale University, Lord Strathcona states that it is an expression of his appreciation of the benefits he gained from investments in the United States, particularly from the St. Paul, Minneapolis, and Manitoba and Great Northern railways.

The will directs that the money be used for "the promotion of the modern sciences and for instruction in the practical questions arising from the application of scientific to the industrial, social and economical problems of the time, it being my special duty to have the said sum expended so far as in the opinion of my trustees may be deemed advisable for instruction in civil and mechanical engineering, with special references to the construction, equipment, and operation of transportation of passengers and freight, whether by land or water, the financial and legislative questions involved."

The university is empowered to equip buildings or to endow chairs for the promotion of these ends, and instructions are given that scholarships in the scientific or graduate departments be provided for sons of officials or employees of the two railway companies.

RUTHENIANS ON TRIAL FOR REBELLION

Vienna, Feb. 4.—The arrival of the leader of the Pan-Slav movement in Russia, Count Bobrinsky, at Marmaros Sziget, Hungary, has revived interest in the trial of a large number of Ruthenians on the charge of inciting rebellion against the Austro-Hungarian government, which has been in progress for the past month. It was alleged that the seditious movement was largely promoted and financed from Russia. Count Bobrinsky being involved in the allegations.

In an interview published in the Hungarian newspapers, Count Bobrinsky declares that the trial involves no political questions, but merely their feelings. The main accusation thus far against the prisoners of having in their possession Russian prayer books containing prayers for the Russian Emperor.

Count Bobrinsky says he will testify that his party in Russia has no affiliation, political or social, with the Ruthenian political propaganda.

MORTGAGE ON CHURCH AT BELLEFLE STATION BURNED ON SUNDAY

Cancellation of Debt Made Possible in Great Measure by Zeal and Work of Pastor.

Bellefleur Station, Feb. 4.—On Sunday evening last, February 1st, the Rev. H. S. Young delivered a very able discourse to a large congregation, after which a very interesting feature was the burning of the mortgage which efforts has succeeded in cancelling.

His hosts of friends in this place, as well as in surrounding counties regret that four years' term will expire on June next and that he will be called to a new field of labor. Both he and Mrs. Young have endeavored themselves to the hearts of the people, and have done much toward advancement of church work in this place, and have spared no effort in administering to the sick and those in need, and wherever his new field of labor calls the people will find in him a man of noble character, a friend of all denominations, and one who is ever ready to help in all cases of good.

U. S. GOVERNMENT OPPOSES TO SUFFRAGETTE LEGISLATION

Representative Underwood, of Alabama, Puts Democratic Party on Record—Must be Dealt with by the Individual States Alone—in Heated Debate.

Washington, Feb. 4.—Hopes of woman suffragists that the present Democratic administration would see federal legislation enfranchising the women of the country, were checked today when Representative Underwood of Alabama put the Democratic party squarely on record as opposed to federal action. Representative Underwood declared that the Democratic party took the position that the question of suffrage was one which should be left to the individual states to settle.

The question cropped up in the discussion of the immigration bill in the house, and there was considerable debate as to just what the action of the Democratic party should be on the Baker woman suffrage resolution.

Representative Lenroot of Wisconsin declared that he defended the proposition to create a new woman suffrage committee the Democrats had taken the position that women should not have an opportunity to be heard on the suffrage question.

"The gentleman knows," replied Representative Underwood, "the judiciary committee has been vested for many years with jurisdiction over this very question, and it has repeatedly granted hearings to women as to whether federal legislation should be submitted to the states a constitutional amendment for woman suffrage."

It was at one time a member of the judiciary committee, and I recall a hearing given to Susan B. Anthony. I notice that during the entire time the gentleman's party was in charge of this house it refused to report a suffrage resolution. The proposition that came before the Democratic caucus was merely to provide for a new committee giving jurisdiction to the new committee, which jurisdiction is already possessed by one of the ablest members of the house. The committee has had such jurisdiction almost since the beginning of the government. There is no objection on the part of these ladies as to what committee they shall go before. They wanted their legislation reported, and thought they could not get it reported from the committee in charge, so they wanted to create a new committee. That is all there is to it. It is not a question of taking from the right to be heard."

GRITS MISREPRESENTED FACTS OF CASE, AS USUAL

(Continued from page 1.) A number of questions in regard to the amounts paid by the government in connection with the marriage case argued before the Supreme Court of Canada and the English Privy Council were asked by Mr. Froulx of Prescott. He was told that the total amount paid to counsel had been $21,824.

Colonel Sam Hughes told Mr. E. M. MacDonald that the government would introduce legislation extending the time for the payment of Fenian raid bounties, and that the bounty will be paid to widows of Fenian raid veterans. To date 16,470 bounties have been made.

Col. Hughes' Trip. Col. Hughes' trip to Europe last summer was the subject of question by Mr. Froulx, who wanted to know how many officers, stenographers, servants, and officers' wives and daughters accompanied the minister to Europe, what were the expenses of the trip, and what the officers and employees were paid. Col. Hughes said there were twenty-one officers, a private secretary and an assistant, two orderlies, no wives and daughters in the party officially. The expenses of the ladies were borne by the husbands and fathers of them and the expenses of the party paid by the government amounted to $24,262. The officers, while on the trip, received pay according to rank, amounting to $3,884 and the payment of other allowances received $10 a day. Members of the party other than officers received actual expenses and their permanent pay. The officers visited the French, Swiss and British manœuvres, while the Minister of Militia visited the German divisional manœuvres and the Dutch and Belgian military centres. Colonel Hughes added that a full report of the trip was being prepared by Colonel Crickbank, when completed would be placed in the hands of the members.

Fenian Raid. HAPPY PAIR WEDDED AT ST. STEPHEN

Special to The Standard. St. Stephen, N. B., Feb. 4.—The Church of the Holy Roseary was the scene of an interesting ceremony this morning at six o'clock in which the principals were Frederick Dorey of Woodstock, employed in the maintenance of way department of the Canadian Pacific, and Miss Helena McDonald, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank McDonald, one of our most popular young ladies.

The bride was very winsome in a brown travelling costume with a set of tan mutton order before it was attended by Miss Jennie Dorey, sister of the groom, whose costume was blue. Guy McDonald, brother of the bride, attended the groom. The bride was enjoyed at the home of the bride the dining room being prettily adorned with white decorations.

The gifts were very numerous and beautiful, giving testimony to the esteem in which the young people are so justly held.

DESPERADOES TERRORIZE A WHOLE TOWN

Shoot Chief of Police, of Waynesboro, Pennsylvania, but are Rounded up by Posse.

Waynesboro, Pa., Feb. 4.—Abram Barnes and his younger brother William, "badmen," came to town last night from their home in the mountains near the Maryland line, filled themselves with liquor and proceeded to terrorize this place. Alfred Daywalt, a policeman, ordered them to leave and in a subsequent altercation with Daywalt the chief of police, the brothers opened fire. One bullet killed Daywalt and another wounded a woman bystander.

Approaching the Barnes' home the posse retreated to Waynesboro and started out again at daylight. The outlaws meanwhile had gone into hiding.

WOMEN CAUGHT IN CLEVER GAME

Posed as Gypsies and Extract Greenbacks from Rubes by Slight-of-Hand Work.

Montreal, Feb. 4.—Two women posing as gypsies and charged with conducting a clever film-game were run down by detectives today on the complaint of M. L. Lajoie, who claims that they relieved him of $25.

A number of complaints have been made to the police of women temporarily renting small stores, telling fortunes and by slight of hand work extracting bills from rolls of money handed to them to have a "good luck charm" put upon it.

The women arrested gave the names of Katherine Helena, aged 55, and Alexandra Frederica, aged 22.

Mr. Lajoie states that after mulling some incantation one of the women handed back his roll apparently the same condition she received it, but he later missed from it two bills, a twenty and a five. The operation was carried on before his eyes, and he could not see how the money was extracted.

THE CLOSING LETTER ON MONTREAL 'CHANGE

Montreal, Feb. 4.—The local market opened strong and active, but in the afternoon displayed a slightly easier tone. Brazilian Traction opened slightly firmer at 31 3/4, but sold down to 30 in the afternoon. London house which has been right along closely identified with Brazilian Traction has been, it is stated, sending a number of orders to its Montreal correspondent during the past couple of days, with the result that one or two houses have been doing the great majority of the buying. On the other hand, London has also been selling a good deal of stock here, but on balance has evidently bought more than it sold.

CLOSING STOCK LETTER FROM E. & C. RANDOLPH

New York, Feb. 4.—There was moderate activity in the opening and the tone was slightly heavy. The exception to this heaviness was in the stocks, which are affected by the overnight Mexico developments. Those developments were looked upon favorably by the trading element, and all these stocks, such as Southern Pacific, the Petroleum issues and Smelters rose sharply from the start. A good deal of irregularly prevailed during the greater part of the day with a burst of strength shortly after noon, which carried stocks up in many instances close to the highest price touched this year, but this strength was short lived, and in the afternoon a generally reactionary tone prevailed, in which not were all the earlier gains lost, but the active list as a whole recorded losses as a result of the day's dealings. The reaction was not the result of any news, but seemed to come merely from a somewhat over-ought technical condition of the market. At no time was the list weak, and what reaction there was, was simply a natural decline due to the heavy profit taking sales, which have gone on for the past week or so. The rise has been as rapid as it has been here. Sales 511,000; bonds $1,409,500. E. & C. RANDOLPH.

SETBACK NEEDED TO GIVE MARKET SUSTAINED STRENGTH

New York, Feb. 4.—Investment buying of stocks and bonds continued in fair volume today with an increasing demand for shares with well established records as dividend payers. The effect of this buying was neutralized by the tendency of professional operators to play for a reaction, and as a result the day's movement was confused. The successive upward and downward swings recently have balanced each other so evenly that the price average varies only slightly from that of a fortnight ago, and it was the feeling of board room traders that a substantial setback was to be looked for before the market would develop sustained strength. There was some selling of stocks on this theory, but the bears were able to make little headway.

BODY OF UNKNOWN MAN FOUND BESIDE THE RAILWAY TRACK

Yesterday morning the body of a young man, clean shaven and dressed in a dark blue overcoat and black overalls, was found lying on the C. P. R. tracks, about two hundred yards east of Hillside station. The man's identity was unknown. The body was found shortly after seven o'clock by some section men, who were on their way to work. Who the dead man is, or how he met his death are mysteries. It is supposed that he was either stealing a ride on the outgoing Boston train, this morning, or else was walking the track when the accident befell him.

BUILDING PERMITS.

The building permits issued by the Inspector, James Carleton, during January totaled $10,000, including three new dwellings at $3,000 for one and $2,000 each for the others and a new warehouse valued at $3,000. During January 1913 the value of the permits issued was $69,100, but as this included the $500,000 permit for the C. P. R. elevator and several smaller amounts for temporary buildings, the general business this month is slightly in advance of last January.

THIS DATE IN RING ANNALS

Thursday, Feb. 5, 1914. 1867—Like O'Neill, their former feathery champion of the world, born near Belfast, Ireland, he was educated for the priesthood, but abandoned the religious vocation to become a jockey. After a brief experience on the turf he entered an amateur boxing tournament in England, and his success determined him to take up pugilism as a profession. He whipped the best men of his weight in Great Britain and Ireland, and then came to America. His first victim on this side was Willie Snee of Boston. In 1887 he fought eighty rounds to a draw with Jack Havlin, and then went to Minneapolis, where he annexed the featherweight title by outclassing Tommy Warren. Weir lost his title in 1890 at San Francisco, where he was defeated by Australian Billy Murphy. He died at Somerville, Mass., about five years ago. 1887—Jack Dempsey defeated Danny Killian in 4 rounds at Philadelphia. 1903—Jack Johnson defeated Denver Ed Martin in 30 rounds at Los Angeles. 1913—Battling Nelson defeated Jack Sorenson in 10 rounds at Racine.

ENGLISH ASSOCIATION FOOTBALL

Montreal, Feb. 4.—It is most likely the English Association football cup finalists will make a tour of Canada during the summer of next year, according to advices received here. Preliminary arrangements are being made by Con Jones, the Vancouver lacrosse magnate, and F. J. Wall, secretary of the football association of England. A side attraction talked of is an exhibition game at San Francisco. POOL TOURNAMENT Much interest is being manifested in the pool tournament which is being conducted by members of the I. L. and B. Society, and as several of those competing for the prize are pretty evenly matched in the game the "play-offs" each evening are keenly contested. There were twenty-seven who entered in the tournament, and each man plays twenty-six games. At present Daniel Morrison is in the lead with J. R. McCloskey following closely in second place. The closing games promise to be very interesting.

SURPRISE TO HALIFAX CRESCENTS

Halifax, N. S., Feb. 4.—One of the biggest surprises of the hockey season came tonight when New Glasgow defeated the Crescents by a score of 5 to 2. The ice was wet and heavy, and to this fact is attributed the first defeat of the Crescents on home ice. New Glasgow opened the scoring, and at the end of the first period it was 2 to 1 in favor of the visitors. In the second period it was New Glasgow, 4; Crescents, 2. After the game Captain McNamara of the Crescents said: "The slow ice was responsible for our defeat. Our forwards could not get down to their game of Tuesday night. But we must hand it to the Black Foxes. They were stronger and played a winning game throughout." Sydney and the Crescents are now tied for first place.

SOCIALS LOST GAME AT SYDNEY

Sydney, N. S., Feb. 4.—The Millionaires took another from the Socials here tonight, the final score reading 4 to 2. There was nothing to it from the start, the "Monted warriors" having everything their own way. Lowther and Myra showed great form for the visitors, but Atkinson was poor. The first period ended two all and the second 5 to 2. Richardson played a great game for the locals, while Savari did a come-back start. The Millionaires all played well, the defence being particularly effective. Only a small crowd witnessed the game, the weather being very poor, making ice conditions bad. Holt and Ross handled the game and gave out a number of penalties, all for minor offences. Ross showed very poor judgment at times, but was thoroughly impartial.

WORLD'S AMATEUR RECORD

Lake Placid, N. Y., Feb. 4.—A new world's amateur record, ice-skating, in the fifty-yard dash, was made here today by Bob McLean of Chicago, who covered the distance in five seconds flat, which is one-fifth of a second better than the record established by Horst Wood at Pittsburg in 1907.

CURLERS DISAPPOINTED

A team representing the St. Stephen Curling Club arrived in the city yesterday and had intended to play the Thistle Club. Unfortunately the weather was unfavorable and the match had to be postponed. The St. Stephen players are remaining over until Thursday in hopes of colder weather.

ST. JOHN WANTS ARENA; COST OF LAND VERY HIGH

About thirty persons with hockey at heart met last evening in the Board of Trade rooms to discuss the advisability of building an arena in the city, where it could not only be used for hockey, and other ice sports during the winter, but during the summer months could be used for many other functions. E. J. Mooney, the president of the Hockey Association, presided and the talk among those present was more on the line of what should be done in the city in the manner of providing a building, where large crowds could be comfortably accommodated, hockey could be played with success, etc. There was quite a debate as to whether a building could be built of wood or brick and the debate finally came to an end when it was shown that a site could hardly be procured in the heart of the city without a very large outlay of money. It was shown that to have an arena built for the purposes wanted it should be 250 by 150 feet. It was finally decided by those present that an architect be consulted on the probable cost of the erection of such a building, and to make plans of such a building, and to see that the cost of the land in the heart of the city was so high that it would be almost impossible to pay the fee to procure such a site to erect an arena on. The meeting adjourned to the call of the chairman and at the next meeting something more definite may be decided on.

SPORTOGRAPHY BY "GRAVY" Veterans of the Walking Game Seek to Revive the Pastime.

It was twenty-eight years ago today that E. P. Weston arrived in Chicago, the winner in a great twelve-hour-per-day walk in which his opponent was Dan O'Leary, long his rival in the pedestrian game. The contest started at Newark, N. J., on Dec. 7, 1885, and when Weston reached Chicago, a distance of 2,500 miles over the route selected, O'Leary had covered 2,292 1/2 miles. In those days, when long distance and six-day walks were highly popular, Weston and O'Leary were the principal rivals for honors, which they shared about equally in the various events in which they participated. Both O'Leary and Weston are still living and are well past three-score-and-ten, which goes to prove the efficacy of pedestrianism as an aid to longevity. The walking game was in vogue from the early sixties to the late eighties, and a surprisingly large number of the men who were walking stars during that period are still alive and able to reel off the miles at a lively gait. O'Leary, like Weston, is able to show his heels to most of the young fellows, although past seventy, and he recently suggested a walking contest for next April in which he would compete with Weston and a number of other old-timers who made good records. The proposed match is to be a thousand miles straightaway, and O'Leary thinks he can cover that distance in less than thirteen days. In an interview a month or two ago the veteran "ped" declared that he had started walking at the age of nine months and had been at it ever since, and that he intended to walk to his grave and save funeral expenses. In his day O'Leary was the greatest and most graceful of the heel and toe walkers, and he was the victor in his first match with Weston and others. His first match with Weston was pulled off in England in 1877. It was for $5,000 and O'Leary was the victor, covering 520 miles and finishing with Weston ten miles in the rear. He won another great match the next year, beating seventeen of the best walkers of Great Britain and America at Agricultural Hall, London. For this victory he was given the championship belt donated by Sir John Astley. The following year Weston won the Astley belt in a contest at London. In 1879 the O'Leary belt six-day walking contests were instituted, and the first international tournament for this trophy was held in Chicago. Contests for several years thereafter. O'Leary established a record for the hundred-mile walk at Chicago in 1878 that remained unbroken for nearly forty years, covering the distance in 18.53.40.

PACKEY IS AFTER MIKE GIBBONS

Chicago, Feb. 4.—Packey McFarland the Chicago pugilist, departed today for New York where he will make an effort to rearrange a bout with Mike Gibbons the St. Paul boxer, who having reached him that a hitch over his guarantee caused a cancellation of the match first arranged for Feb. 12. According to McFarland, the New York club, before which the bout was to have been placed, offered $10,000 for his end, but the directors of the club refused to sanction this guarantee. McFarlane is quoted as saying he would accept a liberal percentage instead of the guarantee rather than miss the chance to meet Gibbons in the ring.

SPORT BREEZES

Fred Lake has been granted permission by President Tim Murnane to transfer the franchise of the New Bedford club of the New England league, to Pittsburgh. The latter city has promised to assist the magnates in street car facilities and grounds. Theodore Brazowski, a Louisville boy, has been granted a trial with the champion Athletes next spring. Brazowski entered the Louisville park while a member of a high school team in Louisville and has played throughout the state of Kentucky in semi-pro circles. Texas floods have played havoc with Emerson Park, where the Giants will train in Marlin, Texas, next spring. The heavy rain in the park will be wiped away if the high water does not subside. Hank Fabian, groundskeeper of the Polo Grounds in New York, has been granted a leave to put the field in shape around the holidays. Grover Hartley, recently released by the New York Giants to the Cincinnati Reds, lately wedded Miss Marie Wrede of New York at Osgood, Ind. Mr. and Mrs. Hartley have arranged a tour of the east before brushing the uniform for the opening of the 1914 season. J. B. Gardner, a young hurler of Saginaw, Mich., has been engaged by Manager Isbell, of the Des Moines club for the 1914 pitching staff. Gardner has not been affiliated with a league team, but he's made a wonderful impression while flinging for semi-pro clubs. Fort Wayne is considering a trade of Pitcher Tommy Atkins to the Vancouver Northwestern league club for Charles Alberts, formerly with the Fort Wayne club. Alberts is reputed as being one of the most reliable left-handers in the league, and is a fair utility player. Harl Harl A sense of fun had Mr. Bone. His mirth he couldn't shake, Ope, when he laid a conversation. He had to go and chuck.

M'INTYRE CAUGHT TRAPPING

The Sydney Record of Tuesday prints the following despatch from Glace Bay, how Mickey McIntyre was caught napping: The twelve round bout at Waterford last evening between Joe McElroy and Jas. Reegan was a slashing affair from the start to finish and at the end of the bout referee John C. McKenzie declared the bout a draw, although many were of the opinion that Reegan should have got the decision as he was the aggressor all through showed much more cleverness, and although outweighed by his opponent by about thirty pounds succeeded in putting McElroy down in the fifth round for the only knockdown of the fight. However, McIntyre's wallops on the whole had more steam behind them and consequently were more effective and on these grounds Reegan showed up wonderfully well against his much heavier opponent, he is a fighter from the word "go," and made many friends by his cleverness.

A preliminary three round bout was fought between Mickey McIntyre and Martin of New York, who gained a decision over "Young" Palfy at Waterford about two weeks ago. McIntyre was in no condition, but being under the impression that it was to be a friendly exhibition, went out and fought in ordinary street clothes. No sooner had the bout begun when Martin showed he wanted to do Mickey up and came at him like a woodchopper. This came as a surprise to Mickey, who was in perfect condition for such tactics, especially from a man who has the advantage in height and reach, outweighing him by about twenty-five pounds, and was in perfect condition. McIntyre went down in the second round, but it was entirely due to his foot slipping, as he only wore ordinary street shoes. Little is known of this Martin, who it is said, hailed from New York, and it is the general opinion of many of the fight fans that he is a dark horse brought down for the sole purpose of beating Mickey. Mickey feels bad over the affair and stated to the Record scribe this morning that he is declining an offer received from Mike "Swine" Sullivan yesterday for a fifteen round bout here for the sole purpose of getting back at Martin, and said Mickey, "If I don't beat that man Martin when we meet again, I'll never put on another glove." It is likely that a bout between these two will take place soon.

AMERICANS TO NORWAY SKATE RACES

New York, Feb. 4.—A party of Americans, entrants for the international skating races at Trondheim, Norway, scheduled to leave here on February 10. They expect to reach Christiania in time to participate in the international skating competition at Holmenkopen on February 19, 22 and 23, and remain for the tri-national contest on March 1 between Finland, Sweden and Norway. They will return from Bergen on March 7.

PREPARATIONS FOR ROWING SEASON

From now until late in June the struggle for seats in the racing shell and the daily training grind will continue without intermission. Coarhes are overhauling rowing machines, zigzagging and generally preparing for the racing season, which, it is predicted, will be the greatest college rowing year in the history of the sport. Eight universities or colleges in the east, one in the middle west and three on the Pacific coast have already planned their rowing campaigns, which include a larger number of dual, triangular and intercollegiate regattas than ever before recorded in this country. Abroad, Oxford and Cambridge are near the halfway mark in their training preparation, and their progress is being closely watched by two of the eastern universities in view of a possible international interarsity regatta before midsummer. The eastern college rowing situation, considered as a whole, is one of the most promising in recent seasons. Aside from Columbia and Syracuse, there are large and veteran squads available at every institution which advocates rowing. In almost every case more than 60 per cent of the rowmen who won their varsity letters in 1913 regattas are, trying for places in the regatta again and are supplemented by excellent material from last year's freshmen combinations. The recent ruling of the intercollegiate stewards providing for a race for second eights in place of the fours on the Hudson will also provide extra places for the aspiring oarsmen. Under this ruling it will be necessary for those colleges which desire to compete in all three events on the Hudson to develop and seat twenty-four oarsmen in the shells for the varsity, second and freshmen races. The open winter has proved a help in the fall practice, and several of the coaches report that their charges were able to establish new records for late autumn rowing during 1913. Coach Courney had six eights in the water on Dec. 6 and has planned to send his crews out at every favorable opportunity during the entire winter. At Syracuse, Coach Tom Byck, who has just signed a five-year contract, is also planning for an early season start. If the board of stewards of the I. R. A. will permit the students of the University department to row for the Orange, Ten Eyck's worries will be eliminated. An offer proposition faces Jim Rice as Captain for the New York university squad appears to grow smaller each year, and Rice finds it difficult to secure even a number of students who are physically fitted for the hard four-mile race on the Hudson.

RITCHIE GOES TO AUSTRALIA

San Francisco, Feb. 4.—Willie Ritchie, lightweight champion of the world will go to Australia probably for a series of three fights under a guarantee of $50,000, after his fight here with Harlem Tommy Murphy, the exact date which has not yet been determined. The announcement was made by an Australian promoter, after a long talk with Ritchie and his manager today. No articles have been signed but it is stated that Ritchie's promise has been given and the details are to be settled later. Two of the bouts probably will be with Hughie Mehegan, who was light weight champion of the Antipodes until Young Sailor Indianapolis knocked him out last week and with Herb McCoy, an Australian light weight, who won from Matt Wells of England, two weeks ago in seventeen rounds. All the bouts will be for twenty rounds.

Clifton, Feb. 2.—Agriculture Society No. 23 will hold farmers' social in the hall at Long Reach, on Friday, February 6th.

On the following Friday, February 13th, another social will be held at this place in the hall.

Canon Smithers held the services throughout the parish on Sunday last. At St. James' church, in the morning at eleven; in Trinity, at three o'clock, and in St. Paul's at seven-thirty.

Mr. Chapman has several teams of horses hauling out the lumber from the woods at Moss Glen.

On Friday while Mr. Edwin Peters and son, Charles, of Elmhurst, were removing some hay from Hog Island, Mr. Edwin Peters was struck by the binding pole and thrown off onto the ice, breaking his leg in three places.

He was removed to his home, where he is doing as well as can be expected.

The ice this year is very poor. On Wednesday Mr. A. R. Wetmore, secretary of the Agriculture Society, had several teams hauling the fertilizer from Rothessy, Mr. N. N. Puddington, got in with a load of fertilizer, barely escaping drowning.

The local branch of New Brunswick Women's Institute held its regular monthly meeting in Clifton Hall, on the evening of Tuesday, February 3rd.

Routine business ended with the presentation of songs, recitations, dialogues, etc., was provided to the pleasure of a large audience who contributed generously to the silver collection levied for the new organ.

Light refreshments were also served, the receipts of the evening totalling fourteen dollars. This branch Institute has now a membership of twenty-two, and has recently received the yearly grant of five dollars from the Department of Agriculture, Fredericton.

Just One Application And the Hairs Vanish (Helps To Beauty)

Here is a very simple and effective way to banish objectionable hairs or fuzz: Mix into a stiff paste enough powdered dettol and water to cover the undesirable hairs, apply and after about two or three minutes remove the paste, wash the skin and every trace of hair will have vanished.

This method is quite harmless and leaves the skin soft and spotless. Be sure, however, to get the dettol in an original package, otherwise it may not be of the desired strength and purity.

ESTEEMED RESIDENT OF GAGETOWN DEAD

Gagetown, Feb. 2.—The funeral of the late John McKinley, a respected farmer of this place, who died quite suddenly on Saturday morning, took place this afternoon from his late residence at St. John's church, and was attended by a large concourse of friends and neighbors.

The funeral was held at 2 o'clock, and was conducted by the Rev. Mr. Smith, who spoke very feelingly of the loss all had sustained by the demise of one so much respected by all in the community.

Mr. McKinley was 78 years old. About 50 years ago he came up from the old home in Peterville and bought the well known Parson's farm, or Mount Farm, as it is called. There he made his home and has lived ever since. His wife, Isabel McKinley, died two years ago, and now he is laid to rest by her side in the churchyard. He leaves two daughters, Mrs. Mary Nelson of Philadelphia, Mrs. Fred Cooper of this place and an adopted son, Herbert McKinley, on the home farm; also one brother, Francis A. McKinley of Peterville, and two sisters, Mrs. Margaret Howe of Boston and Mrs. W. B. Caswell of Vancouver, B. C., and 11 grandchildren and a large circle of nephews and nieces. Six nephews from Peterville carried the coffin to the grave.

The Secret of Good Digestion

In perfect health, with regular and healthful action of the liver and kidneys, you need not know there is such a thing as digestion or indigestion. Unfortunately, however, modern life is artificial, and not many people avoid suffering more or less from troubles of this nature.

The great secret lies in keeping the liver and kidneys in health and vigor, for then the food is passed quickly along the alimentary canal, the nutritious portions being assimilated in the blood stream and the poisoned waste materials are passed out of the body.

When the liver and kidneys get wrong you will obtain relief most promptly and effectively by using Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. If chronic indigestion is the cause it must be by enfeebling the action of the liver and excretory organs. To persons who have thought only of the stomach as being the offending organ this may seem strange, but any competent physician will tell you this is correct.

HORTICULTURAL ASSOCIATION REPORTS A PROSPEROUS YEAR

Hon. J. D. Hazen Re-elected President at Annual Meeting Yesterday—Many Additions to Zoo, both by Gift and Purchase—Several Changes in By-laws.

Hon. J. D. Hazen, Minister of Marine and Fisheries, was re-elected president of the St. John Horticultural Association, Joseph Allison and R. B. Emerson vice-presidents, J. R. Armstrong, treasurer, and H. N. Statson, secretary, at the annual meeting yesterday afternoon in the Board of Trade rooms.

In the absence of Hon. J. D. Hazen and J. D. Allison, the chair was occupied by R. B. Emerson.

Resolutions respecting the death of Hon. J. V. Ellis and Dr. G. Hay, were passed.

The following by-laws respecting the control and use of the premises of the association were adopted:

No person shall enter into or be within the premises of the association accompanied by his dog, and no person shall willingly permit a dog to enter in or remain with him on such premises.

No person shall feed to a bear in the association's premises except on a toboggan.

No person shall start a toboggan on the toboggan slide before the preceding one has come to a stop.

No person shall stand within a distance of ten feet from that portion of the toboggan slide which lies between the foot of the hill and the bridge.

No person shall walk with snowshoes in any portion of the gardens of the association other than on the paths.

The names of the employees of the park and gardens will be submitted to the chief of police and the magistrat and a request made that these men be appointed to act as policemen while at work in the park.

In consequence of the inconvenience of having all reports covering the fiscal year, which closes on January 31, ready for the first Wednesday in February, it was decided to have all future annual meetings on the second Wednesday in February.

A. Gordon Leavitt, Frank B. Ellis and A. B. Dean were added to the directorate to fill vacancies.

Report of Management. The annual report of the management follows:

Your committee deplores, in common with the members of the association and the community generally, the death during the past year of two prominent members of the association, the Hon. John V. Ellis, a long a vice-president of this association and always ready to give to it his powerful assistance, and of Dr. George U. Hay, one who at all times took a deep interest in the affairs of the association and especially in its arboretum branch.

By his last will he bequeathed the handsome sum of $1,000, subject to his wife's life interest—then to the association, the interest to go towards the perpetual upkeep of the arboretum, a feature of the park which was in fact started and carried on by his own efforts.

Gardens. The committee have to report with regret the death of Andrew J. Stephens, who for some ten years was the faithful head gardener to the association. During this long period he did much to bring the gardens to their present creditable state.

His falling work necessitated his finally giving up his work last autumn. John Johnston, who furnished good recommendations, has been appointed in his place and so far has given every satisfaction.

Tilley Avenue. Elm trees from Mr. Good's nursery at Sussex have been planted on both sides, and the avenue has received a coating of fine stone. When the work of the city of draining the Allison Playgrounds is completed it is hoped that the stream from Lily Lake may be straightened, so that the avenue of trees may be completed, it being impossible at present to fill up the few gaps which exist on the eastern side of the avenue consequent upon the deep gullies made by the stream.

Buildings. Two necessary structures have been erected in the gardens of slightly appearance, the excellent designs of which were gratuitously prepared for Garnet W. Wilson, architect.

A small tool shed which had proved of great convenience has been constructed between the barn and men's shelter house.

The shed for vehicles back of the barn was found to be too small; the roof sloping one way only gave it a homely look. An addition has been built entirely by the park hands—counterpart of the original set against it on the north side doubling the capacity and generally improving the appearance—the addition being 19x36, the whole area is now 35x56 feet.

Plenic Tables. Acting on the suggestion of Mrs. G. A. Kuhring, two tables with suitable seats were constructed for use by picnic parties and were frequently used and much appreciated during the summer.

Roads. The hill on the north of the south side of Lily Lake has been in part cut away, giving a view of the Lake from the drive-way, the material being used for filling up the lower spots on the road. Much additional work has been done on the drive-ways.

Toboggan Slide. Acting under the authority given at the last annual meeting of the association, a double toboggan slide has been constructed. Trees were cut down; stumps, humps and boulders removed and the ground levelled off by a plentiful supply of peat. A bridge was constructed across the Allison playground towards the end of the slide—also a second one, as well as a separate path for returning tobogganers—all of which is the work of the park hands.

The slides are pronounced to be excellently adapted for the purpose.

Animals. Early in the past summer Frank E. Williams kindly donated to the Park two pairs of red foxes and a wild cat. J. Whitfield Keirstead followed with a raccoon. Rev. Mr. Sampson gave a large tortoise; John T. Benson, of Franklin Park, Boston, four gray squirrels; Mr. W. Benton Evans, of Minto, a young deer; Moses Callahan, an owl. Later Harry H. Tibbits, of Andover, contributed a pair of European, commonly called Hungarian partridges, and several young people brought in some other birds, and the last gift was from Daniel J. O'Neill—two pairs of native hares. These additions to the wild animals of the Park as acquired from time to time created so much interest that the committee decided to make such further additions as their means would permit and as opportunity offered.

Mrs. E. S. Fiske was the speaker yesterday afternoon in the rooms of the St. John Art Club, when she addressed a large gathering on the subject of her lecture, Florence. The lecture was beautifully illustrated with views of the galleries at Florence, the home of art and some of the best productions of the noted painters.

SHOULD GIVE MUCH TO WORK OF CHURCHES

D. M. Rose, in Strong Address, Urges Better Support to Missionaries—Other Meetings.

"If giving is an act of service, and it is so recognized in the church service, then it should be no bother to give systematically, and more than this people should give in accordance with the scriptural practice, that is they should give a definite portion of their income to the service of God," said D. M. Rose, secretary of the Anglican Laymen's Missionary Society of Canada, addressing a meeting in the Trinity church lecture hall last evening.

Mr. Rose dealt with the value of the duplex envelope system and canvassing work by church committees in raising money for church or missionary purposes, and showed by means of diagrams the results which had been obtained in other cities.

He told of conditions in the missionary fields in foreign countries, and pointed out how great was the need of money and effort to bring the heathen within the circle of Christian nations. In Canada, he said, there was one Anglican minister to every 650 people counted as within the fold of that church, or one minister for about every 130 communicants. On the other hand Canada only sent out to the foreign mission fields of Asia one missionary for about 400,000 people.

Another meeting in connection with the missionary movement was held in St. Paul's church last evening, Rev. E. B. Hooper being in the chair. Dr. Archibald gave an interesting lecture on the movement in Kangra, the Canadian missionary field in India. His lecture was illustrated by a series of striking views, the lantern being manipulated by E. L. Jack. There was a good attendance at the meeting and the lecture was much appreciated.

LOOKING FOR A NEW SITE

Salvation Army Officers May Ask City for Grant of Land—Commissioner Rees.

Mr. Rees, an officer of the Salvation Army, from Toronto, will be in the city today to look into the matter of providing an institution to take the place of the Metropolitan. Adj. Cummings and other officers of the local division had a conference with the Mayor yesterday in reference to the situation, but beyond suggesting that the city should provide a site for a new building, they had no proposition to make. They said, however, that the officer from Canadian headquarters would be in the city today, and that he would want to interview His Worship and put some proposition before him, with reference to the city doing something to assist in the provision of a new shelter. His Worship said he was not in a position to speak for the city council, but though the disposition would be to give some assistance.

The net balance of receipts over expenditures was $1,361,711.

ST. ANDREWS CHURCH HAD A BIG YEAR

Pass Resolutions of Regret at Deaths of Prominent Members—Financial Report Highly Satisfactory.

The annual meeting of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church was held last evening, when reports for the year were received, showing that the church work in its various branches had been carried on most satisfactorily during the past term. It was shown that the various church committees had faithfully carried on the work entrusted to them and consequently the church was in a flourishing condition, both financially and otherwise.

W. M. Angus presided at the meeting and all the reports that were read showed a year of expansion in every line. The election of trustees resulted as follows:—W. M. Angus, F. Mcn. Steeves, W. A. Connor, C. Mcn. Steeves, Dr. P. A. Innes, Dr. J. R. McIntosh, C. B. Allan, Dr. A. D. Smith.

The total receipts for the year were $3,461.54, a big increase over previous years. A resolution was passed at the meeting making reference to the late D. R. Jack, who willed to the church a substantial sum of money.

Reference was made to the death of the late Dr. Walker and the following resolution was passed: Whereas, it has pleased Almighty God to call to his eternal rest our beloved friend, Dr. James Walker, who for over sixty years was connected with this church and congregation; Resolved, that the congregation of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church, now assembled at its annual meeting, desire to place on record its appreciation of the great services rendered to it by our departed brother.

During the period of his connection with the church, Dr. Walker for several years acted as a trustee. At the time of the calamitous fire in 1877, when our church building was destroyed, and some eighty of our families left homeless, he generously came forward with a subscription of $5,000, which he afterwards supplemented with $7,000 more, showing his deep interest in the welfare of his mother-church.

The congregation desires to record with profound gratitude his splendid bequest of the mortgage to his will held on the church property, as well as the principal secured thereby, to wit, $30,000, and which he ratified and confirmed by a codicil to his will, late as the 17th day of September last, in this way relieving the church of all anxiety as to the future and showing abiding love for his mother-church, old St. Andrew's.

The congregation, fully realizing the great loss it has sustained, expresses its profound sympathy with his wife and family in their sorrow and commends them to the care of Great Shepherd, who is gathering in His Own.

EXPERT HERE; WILL DIRECT EXCAVATION

John F. Stevens, Formerly Panama Canal Head, to Supervise the Courtenay Bay Dredging.

John F. Stevens, who was chief engineer on the Panama Canal up to the time the supervision of that work was taken over by the military engineers of the United States, and who was connected with many of the greater engineering undertakings of America during the last thirty years, was at the Royal yesterday. It was from him that many of the larger dredges and steam shovels used for the excavation of the big ditch were made and he was in charge of practically all the excavating done in the early stages of the work.

Mr. Stevens has had an extensive experience as an engineer. He was connected with the original work of construction of the Canadian Pacific Railway and since that time has been with many prominent railways and has supervised all classes of harbor, dock and railway work.

The visit of Mr. Stevens here is connected with the harbor improvements at Courtenay Bay, and it is understood that he will be in charge of the dredging operations here in the future. He has already made a careful examination of the conditions at Courtenay Bay.

Mr. Stevens is very unassuming, and would say very little of his engineering experience. It was understood, however, that he will remain here and supervising the assembling of the additional plant and direct the dredging work.

MAY CONSTRUCT BIG DREDGE AT COURTENAY BAY

J. Norton Griffiths, in City, Tells of Plans to Rush the Contract to Completion.

"The working plant at Courtenay Bay will be greatly increased just as soon as we can secure more dredges," said J. Norton Griffiths, head of the Norton Griffiths Co., Ltd., who with Mrs. Griffiths arrived in the city yesterday. "Four more dredges will be brought here at once, and if may be that we will build one in St. John. If we build, the machinery will be secured in Canada and the construction of the dredge will be commenced at once at Courtenay Bay. This suction dredge will have a twenty inch suction apparatus and will have cutters arranged so as to reach to a depth of more than fifty-five feet below the bottom of the dredge."

"Another big digger of the Fielding type will be brought across the Atlantic for work on the harder bottom near the mouth of the bay. This big dredge will be larger than the Fielding, and will have two systems of buckets, which will be small and each provided with three teeth so that instead of dumping huge boulders, that might damage the big machine, into the hopper, these buckets will render them to pieces and make them in better shape for handling."

"I expect that all these dredges will be here early in April, and with the addition of more self-propelled tenders the dredging work at Courtenay Bay will be pushed to a greater extent than ever before."

When asked if he intended retiring from British politics, Mr. Griffiths said he would not contest his constituency this year for he expected to be away from England during the greater part of the coming year, and he would not have time to give proper attention to his parliamentary duties. He had no intention, however, of retiring permanently from British politics.

He expected that arrangements for his company taking the contract for constructing the Chicago subway would be completed soon. The contract would amount to about $500,000, and the money for the work was already assured.

Mr. Griffiths will be in the city for several days in connection with the Courtenay Bay contract.

DONE HEADS RING ALARMS

Tired Firemen Given Two False Runs Last Evening—Would Like Interview with Man.

Notwithstanding that the fire department had two very hard fires to contend with Monday night and Tuesday morning, the "boneheaded" person with more than vapor in the space where brains should be, was about last evening, for false alarms called the tired firemen out. It was about 6:30 when a box on Pender street came in and when the department responded they found that it was a false alarm and no person who was near the box could tell who pulled the alarm. A lady who resides near the box stated that she saw a man with a black cap and coat on pull the box, and after he went in the alarm he hastened away. Mr. Stevens, who is in charge of the department, would not like to have an interview with the man who wears the caped coat.

FAMOUS QUEBEC MARRIAGE CASE

Montreal, Feb. 4.—The famous Hebert-Cloutre marriage case will re-open as the result of a decision rendered by Justice Greenhalgh today giving permission to Mrs. Hebert to enter suit against Eugene Hebert for a declaration that their marriage was valid, and also to sue for a declaration that the decrees of Archbishop Bruchesi, pronouncing the marriage void, is of no effect and illegal.

The case hangs upon the question, whether or not the marriage law in Quebec province follows the ecclesiastical law or in other words, whether the No Temere decree of the Roman Catholic church directed against the marriage of Catholics by a Protestant minister and against marriage between Protestants and Catholics is effective in law.

It is nearly three years since the case first came before the courts. The marriage was declared null by Judge Laurendeau in 1911. Judge Charbonneau reversed this decision and sent the case for review upon the ruling of the latter judge, bringing on the application which was decided today.
